Oh, this power of Mine is a great power, by which I have been giving Myself for two thousand years through those who are holy and pleased with Me, a peace offering in such a way that I may intervene with the Father for man; however, today I have been clothing with great power My new settlement and I have called it saving for the new creature by now, for I, the Lord, want, by My order of today, to reconcile all people with the Father, and this is how I want now for this little soul too, which I bring now on My altar of sacrifice before Me. For behold, the holy fathers have left a written revelation from Me for the power of My sacrifice without blood and which saves the souls from the hell, for there was a brother among many other brothers, who, coming to the end of his life through sufferance, spoke to abbot, (The one who is in charge within a monastery, r.n.), that he was about to leave the brothers (The brothers from the monastery, r.n.), and he said that he got three golden coins which he had hidden from the brothers, and when the abbot found out about this was aggrieved with the salvation of the soul of this greedy brother, and being spiritual, he thought how to bring this one to repentance before his departure from his body, and he thought to bring him into a great distress and in this way to leave the body and to bury him after that in the manure. Then he brought the other brothers together to a spirit of deep instruction for their salvation and, then, they also being under his submission, he told them that if they were called by the one suffering to death among them, they should not go to him, for that brother had to be brought to repentance and they to great wisdom, and when they were called at the head of the sick one, the abbot told him that the brothers do not come because they were disgusted at him for the hidden golden coins and because he was to be buried in manure. This is what the abbot did when the sick one left his body and was put into manure as decided, and after thirty days all were moved with compassion and took counsel together to bring intercession for him on the altar so that he might be forgiven, and then there it was revealed to them about the one who left, and he who left his body was asked by them how he was getting on there and he answered them: "I have been badly off by this time, but after I took communion with Christ's body, after thirty days of remembrance for my soul, I have moved into the light and I am at peace and I am comforted and delivered from evil now, for there have been brought the prayers for me by the brothers and fathers."

Oh, My people, My power and the power of My word spoken for the salvation of the creature is great, but your faith in Me, in My word and in all that I establish by it has to be great too. This little soul, remembered by you and Us today, was always under sin, but My work was done for him and I comforted My trumpet, for she got great love from Me for this son who listened to her in the time of the beginning of My work and then he left and did no longer listen, but he did not do other kind of evil either, not any other damage to My work, and he went and lived in his fallen state, poor of him, under the envy of the evil one, who was always lying in ambush for My work in order to spoil it and so that it may no longer be. Now, I, the Lord, have stretched out My hand to him and pulled him out of his snare and I have prepared him for the leaving of his body; I have prepared him by faith and then by sufferance and by the love of My today's coming down, and then I passed him over the border, and in the time of his departure from the body, I had at his head the shepherd that I set for My people, and this one gave him to Me, and behold, according to My promise made to My trumpet that I would throw Myself after him to take him out of the troubled waters in which he drowned, this is how I did, this is how I worked and took him out to save him, but he left unprepared, because he had no power to prepare his body for his union with Me by My sacrifice without blood for man. However, now, I have given a word for his remembrance, for his forgiveness, and I will raise him to life in the day of the celebration of My resurrection, when I will bring him to take the food of life from My table, and he will be saved. Amen.

Oh, let those who are unfaithful to My work with such a great victory not marvel, for the faithful one can do everything by faith, as it is written, and I can work by them. Amen. Oh, this little soul was wretched and very much enslaved by satan! Oh, shall I not save him? I will save him, I will save him! I, the Lord, promised this for a long time and this is what I am going to fulfill now. Amen.

Oh, it is much harder for the rich and for those with wisdom earned on the earth, for when I brought to knowledge about the rich man in hell and about the poor Lazarus in Abraham's bosom, I made it clear then how hard it was for the rich man to come among those in heaven, and the rich man, without a mentioned name, spoke through Me and related his condition after his departure from the body, and behold, let all be terrified now when they hear those in the grave confessing, as the rich man I spoke about in My Gospel of two thousand years ago, confessed, and now when many who left their body confess, having the word of My today's Gospel as their intercession. Behold, today we are remembering this little soul after forty days of the departure from his body and after the forty holy liturgies will be completed for his atonement and forgiveness, through Me, the sacrificed Lamb and I, the Lord, will give him reconciliation to the Father, for I have power to forgive the man's sins, and it is for this that I have set now My work of word during these days between heaven and earth.

Oh, I have mercy of every soul lost in sins and I want to save the people, and you, those who stay before Me for the reconciliation of the creature to the Father, stand hand in hand with Me and be full of humility, and seek more and more after My likeness, for I am gentle and humble, sons. Seek sons, to be clean in your heart and deed, clean between brother and brother all the time, clean between Me and you, and seek to keep the people on the way with Me in this way, and work with it like Me, to My joy, and I will give you forgiveness, mercy and comfort. Amen.

And as for you, children from the gates, strengthen My work; strengthen it for My coming as word to My people and to man. Oh, how much I had to speak, oh, how much! However, I am speaking as I can, as one can speak, and I am speaking with great patience. Oh, be like Me either! Let us be patient, sons, let us suffer being patient, for the reward from the Father is sweet in those who are patient, and it will be their comfort. Amen.

Let My entire people stay under the cross! Amen. I want to teach you the love under the cross, My people. I had love from man both under the cross and on the cross. Oh, let your love blossom son and we will be comfort and power to each other, for the cross gives us, and it protects us from the evil one. Amen.

Happy, happy are and will be those under the cross, those who are in obedience of God by today's work of My word, which is calling under a shepherd staff those who are saved, those who are faithful, those who are poor in spirit and who love their salvation in this way. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Sweeten your mind, your heart and your soul with My entire word upon you, for the saints and the angels stay in groups at My voice upon you, at My today's speaking with you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary of Egypt

(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, My people everywhere that either listen or do not listen to My exhortation for your life! Keep away from the sin of judgment, for I am the Judger, I weigh the man, I and not you, son. The sin of judgment is born of the sin of hatred. The sin of judgment is the lack of humility and unbelief, and I ask you to believe what I am telling you, son. This sin leads you to sin with blasphemy and hatred after that, and then with hatred and blasphemy, and I want to forgive you and to turn you with love to Me and to the brothers, son. Oh, listen to Me! Oh, hear Me! Oh, understand Me when I speak to you! Oh, do understand Me, you, the one who I am speaking to! With unspeakable love I am exhorting you. I will clean you from all of your sins if you listen to Me. Come, come to obedience and help My today's work with your obedience! It is the time to come so that I may forgive you, for I am the one Who forgives the man's sins, and I am making again the man who comes to Me in order to make him and then to remain embraced with him. Amen. I have always told My people: «Receive the Holy Spirit, sons!» (See John: 20/22) And the same thing I am saying to the people now: Receive the Holy Spirit, sons, receive, you sons, shaken from My bosom that is for the sons, for your unbelief does not lead you to any good, but to evil! The Holy Spirit is the One Who gives you the power to be God's sons and to give Him your love and faithfulness with patience and cross! I have come on earth to forgive the man seventy times seven (See Matthew: 18/22), and to pass over the border which is for forgiveness. Come, you, those who are lost from My bosom, and I will forgive you, heal you, love you and you will be Mine again. Great pain is coming on earth, and I will take care of you, sons. Come under My tent and sit under it and only under it, for the work of My word over the sons is My shelter under which I, the Lord, will protect those who have remained with Me in the time of trial which is coming on earth. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Get used to love! Forgive so that it may be forgiven to you, sons, and this is how your prayer will stand before Me! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I am the Lord of the resurrection, My people! I am the One Who trampled over death by death, son! I glorify Myself into your midst with a feast of resurrection, with word of resurrection, with My comfort, which flows like a river into your midst, for I laid down My life for man, and My Comforting Spirit gave Me power to do and to be able to do this. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I come into through the gates to you, and I do not come otherwise when I come in to give you food. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter is My Spirit, and by My coming to you with Him, I always, always want to make you My son, by your faith in My coming to you, son. Do you see, son, what kind of love I show you? In order to call you My Son, I have showed you love and you should be for My love teaches you to be My son. Amen.

Christ has risen! Christ has risen! Christ has risen! This was going from mouth to mouth; the news and the greeting among those who were faithful of My coming among people, and then to My resurrection from those who are dead, after that the Jews, hostile and great in their human ranks, gave Me over to death on the cross as an evil doer against God. Those who cannot love God when He reveals Himself and those who despise Him because of their love of themselves and of their ranks, this is how they work on the earth for God, like the Jews who stirred each other within one cunning consent to blame Me and then to destroy Me from among them as a blasphemer, as an mad man, but in fact they were afraid of Me because they were cowards and they stirred their spirit to be able to commit the work of My crucifixion after that, as it was written by the Father for Me to suffer from man and then to come out victoriously from the grave, and in this way the whole world may be judged together with its ruler, who had not been seen by it, that who was full of hostile spirit to God, the spirit that fell down from heaven by the man who was haughty in his spirit, and by which the ministering angels in the time of his haughtiness fell down from near God once with the man who did not want to listen, who wanted to be greater than God at the beginning of God's creation for man. Here it is what the man did to Me at the first beginning when the heaven and the earth were made and after God made the man between the earth and the heaven! Oh, here it is what the man did to Me two thousand years ago either, at that beginning which God made again on the earth! Oh, behold what the unfaithful man has been doing to Me now, in the end of the time, when I come on the earth as a river of word, the Holy Comforting Spirit, as it is written to come and to be called by My new name: The Word of God! He who is getting up now to say that this word of today is not I, God - The Word, the Son of the Father Sabaoth on My second coming from the Father, that one does not know, poor of him, where he writes his name and where he heaps up his hostile[108] work, as two thousand years ago when the enemies of My coming in the image of the Son of Man, got up to put Me down from the throne full of mystery of My glory with the man and then to destroy Me as an enemy of their God, not serving God with their life, with their work and with their sacrifice, but only serving the spirit of their vain glory. Oh, behold what does the blind love of the man who uses the name of God on the earth and who believes in God only for his self-love, and not for God!

Oh, My people, seek to perceive the power and the deception of the lie of those who call themselves God's sons not doing God's works on the earth, but doing their work, one before the other through their fleeting glory so that they may mention each other's name of fleeting man, a name which will accompany them to their judgment, because each one of them will be judged in his own order, as it is written in the Scriptures. I speak with you like this, My people, because during those days of My life in the body and spirit, and then of My victorious resurrection against those full of themselves who gave Me over to the cross and to death, the ruler of this world was judged by his own deed against Me, for the man did not believe in the One Whom the Father sent from heaven on earth for the man's salvation from his wandering away from God, from his lost and wandering of man way, and since then the man has been judged; the man who is born on the earth and does not walk in My steps as I left it on the earth before going to be again within the Father as the Savior of those who believe in Me by their living according to My will and as the Judge of those who blaspheme My way, that which I left to the faithful man, showing it two thousand years ago. He who distorts his mind and sight, he who distorts his spirit and will, that one breaks his word and work after he writes himself down on earth as My son and as the follower who fulfills My teaching and My coming again from the Father to man, that one gets into trouble because of the haughtiness of his spirit, which distorts and then wipes off his faith in those that are from God among people on the earth. Oh, I did not lose My time with the work of My word, which for fifty years has been running like a river out of My mouth over the earth into the midst of the Romanian people, hardly making for Me a crossing among people in the time of hardship, but the who comes to be with Me and does not see like Me and sees like himself because of the haughtiness of this spirit, which is an enemy of his soul, that one not only that he has lost his useful time, but he has also earned a reward with those who are unfaithful, just as poor Judas found his, after he stayed with Me on the way in My time among people in order to write Myself down on the earth as the man's Savior; and then he went, poor of him, and sold My mystery and gave Me over into the hand of those who had an earthly rank to judge Me as a mad man and as one who leads the man astray, saying to Me mockingly, when he gave Me over to them: «Rejoice, Teacher!» Oh, I was the Teacher, but Judas did not take of My spirit as the other disciples in that time did, and even if he took, he thought more than anyone that I would make great signs until I would sit as a great King on the earth and those that were chosen by Me would stand near Me, but he made a fool of himself, poor Judas, for his heart remained of the earth, and the spirit he had received from Me died out little by little; the spirit he received when I chose him to be among My disciples to work for Me a way to the people and in such a way that I could do them good, and not evil.

[108] «Therefore, I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

This speaking of Mine with you is the work of resurrection over man in a day of resurrection feast, My people. The Scriptures speaks in the same way as My speaking of today. If the Scriptures in My time have another way of speaking about Me, let the man tell Me, and I will speak with him then. I am the same now as I was then, just as the man is now as he was then when the Scriptures, between I and man, were written on the earth, between man and I, as it was, so that it could be known afterwards. However, now I write My Scripture of today on the earth in a great secret, for I take care of the work of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit on earth; I take great care, for the man is greater than at that time, he is more hidden than then under My name, more fallen from the truth than then, and I leave on the earth the word of My coming today with great care, for today it is hard for God on earth, and the good man does no longer have power for Me with My goodness in him, for the proud man lies in wait in cold blood to wipe off from the earth by his hidden work, God's name and mark from among people, and if he sees that he cannot do it, then he hides even better and more secretly and then he takes out new and old weapons and makes faces to be able to put down even those who are My elected, as it is written that it will be in the time of the end. However, I will cut short these misty days that prevent satan's face from being seen, and I will protect My way to the man and the man's way to Me, only that the man may be clean in his heart and deed, and the man should be like that for him and not for Me, because if the uses his deception once with his walking on his way with Me, then he falls into the darkness with his mind and sight, and his spirit and will get distorted and his faith gets distorted as well, and then I will no longer be pleased with him after that, and I will let him walk as he wants, for there is no more time, and I said this for those who understand and for those who do not understand, because the time is dear, and if it is not redeemed, the man loses his work and his possessions earned in the course of time.

This word of Mine in a day of holy feast, My people, is a word of resurrection, for My speaking is only awakening upon you and upon man, over the faithful ones and over the unfaithful ones who are in you, My people, and then over the people with its trumpet sound. My word is the joy of those in heaven and those in hell, for the dead hear My word better and more truly. The man's body makes his sight confused for everything, good and evil, between earth and heaven, but those who have put off their temporary flesh, they see, they are those who see after that, to their joy or to their pain, and happy and happy again are those on whom I, the Lord, have mercy among these, just as I had mercy on the one with a good soul in his time on the earth near My work, and whom the weaknesses of his fallen nature put him into bondage, as it was the fall of the first man built at the beginning of the creation.

Oh, children who stay as My gates for My things that are seen and unseen, known and unknown, understood and not understood among all that are and are told and seen! Behold Verginica's companion taking from My altar the food of resurrection, My body and blood, the Lord of resurrection, as My word was to you for his salvation! (In the time of Saint Virginia's earthly life some of the instruments of the dictatorship of the communist red beast compelled her to get married, otherwise they would put her into a psychiatric hospital, and this one was her "husband" in front of authorities and her companion day by day, by common assent, by the faith in the word coming from the Lord, r.n.) There he is spending the feast of My resurrection with those who passed beyond their body! There he is in the lounge of the faithful, for I had mercy on him because he had a sweet heart on the earth for Me and even for a moment he did not deny the work of My word in which he was put and accompanied by a heavenly covenant with Me and with My trumpet, a covenant written by Michael, the archangel, My angel and My people's. I brought in the garden those set at the work for the resurrection of the creature to pronounce his name before the Lord so that he may be released from sin and come to the reward of his confession for the work of My word by My trumpet Verginica, and whom he loved for Me and accompanied and supported My work through it, until he fell into satan's hidden trap because he did not have the spirit of obedience in his entire work. Oh, this is what happens to the one who hides because of his weaknesses, for man cannot hide from the Lord, but man hides from man and then there is no one to help him in his fallings, for satan exhorts the man to hide from man, to be afraid of the man for his deeds and then to fall in a hard trap, to fall from God's arm into satan's hand, as it happened with My trumpet's companion, and then he was enslaved by satan and I could no longer release him but only taking him from his body. Then I gave into My people the work for its salvation, for have given working gifts into the midst of My people for the resurrection of the dead. I have set you, sons, to work in a special way for this little soul, for his name is written in heaven among those who had great mercy for My coming by his faith full of love for Me and for My vessel through whom I started on the earth the trumpeting of My word in these days. Behold it, behold it, children sons! His salvation was by My trumpet. I gave her this joy, because I put much love in her for this loving and faithful soul, whom satan hated and pulled him out of My hand and bosom. I gave him an angelic face after I took him out of his body and My people saw this, for his face was very much beautiful compared to that which he had on the earth. And why was it like that? This is what My angel Michael did, who was My messenger when My covenant was written between My trumpet and this companion of hers on the earth. I did this because his heart was good in him, but satan changed him after that. However, I have overcome now and given him the salvation and I have given him the joy for his faith and for his confession for My work before those who are unfaithful and persecute My work, which have always, always distorted the course of My work by My trumpet and for whom I was support, comfort and power in her trouble. I have given him an angelic face, because he turned back with great love, joining, towards the end of his way on the earth, to the ongoing course of My work and comforted and listened to those who carried on My work, confessing them as Mine before those who have now blasphemed those among the sons of this people and who are no longer on their way with Me. "Christ has risen!" he tells Me to speak to My people and to those who stay under the cross of the coming of My word on the earth and further on, for My people loved him because he was My confessor! "Christ has risen!" My trumpet Verginica tells you! I have given her the joy for the soul in bondage now.

"Christ has risen!" I, the Lord, tell you, sons, and I remain with the book open between Me and you, for I stay with you in days of feast of the resurrection. Amen.

And now, I am giving you My word to take it further to My people, children from the gates, and you should stay within the people in one spirit giving of resurrection. Oh, redeem any little bit of time so that My people may grow in spirit! Then rest your bodies and spirit, sons, and let us come back as word into the book, and let us serve each other within the spirit of resurrection in hearts and in word. Amen.

Oh, open your little mouths and glorify the Lord, sons of My people, for I give Myself to you to have Me from abundance, sons! Be confessors, sons! Christ has risen! This is how you should show Me in you and among you in days of holy feast. Amen.

Christ has risen, Romanian people! In the days of the resurrection feast, I will sit in counsel with you to teach you your salvation sons, for there is no one to teach you your dwelling with God to your salvation and joy for eternity. I comfort your warm spirit, or the one foreign to Me, and I will give you to take from the feast of My resurrection. Peace to you! Oh, if you knew those things that are to your peace into your midst now, Romanian people! I, the Lord of resurrection, want to adorn your devastated house. I am your resurrection. Peace to you, the Lord of resurrection tells you! Christ has risen! Do not forget that, and strengthen your faith for I come to save you from your unbelief. I am! And soon, soon, you will see that I was and that I am this river of word, which, from heaven on the earth, has got its ford on your hearth, to your reward from Me that of your holy ancestors. Amen.

May the joy of the feast of My resurrection into your midst be blessed, people of My word on the hearth of the Romanian nation! Let us serve our joy to each other, sons! Christ has risen! I remain with the book open between you and I. I remain with you. I remain in your love, sons. Oh, remain in My love, for I remain in your love, sons. "Christ has risen!" the Lord of the resurrection tells you. Amen, amen, amen.

The second day after Passover

In the days of Passover I am giving to those from heaven the joy from My speaking, for My word is the joy of those in heaven and it is the refreshing of those in hell, and for whose salvation, I, the Lord, have been working on the earth into the midst of My people of today, the one which has with it the table of My word, from which it takes and gives the food to many, and then to the resurrection of the many as it is written. Amen.

I, the Lord, announce Myself with the Christian greeting, remained on the earth with the people after My resurrection from the dead: Christ has risen! I am sitting at the table of resurrection with you, My people, for My word upon you is My table with you, son. I am taking My male and female disciples, I am taking My saints and angels with Me and I am sitting with you in a word on a day of Passover. The day is coming to see the glory, which is with Me at you in the time of My staying with you as word on your table. Oh, My coming to you with the food of word is of great heavenly beauty. The saints and the angels are looking at you, outside of you and inside of you, and the saints are longing, and the heaven is full of longing, just as their King is, the King of the saints of the heaven, and always, always I have urged you to make food for the saints and for the angels, My people. They are sitting only eyes and ears at My tables with you, at your tables with Me, and all of My care is for you. Oh, also take care of the saints and angels, son, for they are My servants and My messengers sent to you to protect you, to help you and to announce you as Mine on the earth. Those who are possessed and dwelt by the angels inside of them are known by their work, by their angelic face, and they are known by their work, just as those who are not a house for those in heaven are also known by their work.

"Christ has risen!" Jerusalem with a new name! I am teaching you in this day your protection from all the evil danger. Oh, take as your watchmen the saints and the angels for all your gates, for all your feelings and sentiments. Take holy healers into your house, inside of you. Take holy messengers of those in heaven on the earth, take for you saints and watching angels against the spirit of the world, which breaks all your entrances and exits and which comes in and out from the people with its great damage against man. Take in you helping saints to your faith in My coming, to your power for My work of today, of your humility before Me and before My church and before the people who look at you because you are My people. Take heavenly makers upon you and for all your living, for all the moving of your mind, heart and body, for all the word coming out of your mouth, and let all these be only one, and you should not have two members of the same kind inside of you or outside of you. Oh, how well it is with you when you have a maker, a counselor and a watcher upon you and for your being before Me! Oh how bad it is with you when you are not hospitable with your guests, son, because you do not know then what a saint or angel you put away from your door! When you read the history of the saints, their knowledge and work, then become the bearer of God's saints, to receive help from them in heaven and on earth, because if you do not have in heaven you do not have it on earth either, and you are poor on the earth. He who is poor of heaven, this is how he wants to be, not because and not that he could not be wealthy of heaven. He who dies with his food on the table, it is because he wants it like that, not because he could not eat and live. Oh, the saints wait for the man's resurrection on the earth and some of them have been waiting for it for seven thousand years. Oh, build yourselves as a house of the saints, well sons, or be their building, that is to let yourselves be built by them, to be the building of God's saints, who come out of their body to the help of those who have remained in the valley, and to be the heaven and the earth in a great work on the earth and in the air, for the saints can be both in heaven and on earth, as those on the earth can be both on the earth and in heaven at the same time, only to believe that the heaven is and that there is no earth without heaven, and heaven without earth for their twofold work. He who knows this well on the earth is he who believes that it is so and a man like that stays as the dwelling of the heaven on the earth and is not afraid, since the heaven dwells in him with its entire army of saints and angels.

He who becomes the dwelling of the heaven needs to have and to appear that he has a face of an angel. For a moment I was making a dwelling place for the heaven by My three disciples, Peter, James and John, in the day when I changed My face in glory before them, and the brightness of the heavenly glory, which I had, weakened their bodies and fell with them prostrate on to the earth. I wanted to make them the dwelling of the heavenly sights, the heavenly graces, to make My saints on the earth, and I often wanted to make them want to be like that, but their unbelief and human measure opposed them, the human measure, which the man does not want to pass, because he does not know to pass it as the saints passed over it and measured with My measure for them then. The saints did not have so much heavenly knowledge among them on the earth as much as you have, My people, but they had great love and faith with longing in it, and then they hoped powerfully in everything they believed and waited as a reward of their love for all those in heaven for them on the earth and then in heaven, and for this the man has to pass over the human measure and to measure with My measure, with the angel's measure, for the human measure is from the earth, and it is for all those on the earth, and the angel's measure is from heaven and it is done according to God's will for each man as he works on the earth or from heaven in his life of a human being.

The word, which I am setting now into the book with you, is the work of the resurrection, My people. I comfort the longing of the saints and angels when they hear Me speaking about them and about you, that I have mercy on them, I have mercy on all those who do not have house and table, work, joy and comfort, and the comfort from Me is also coming from the one bearing of God and of God's heaven. Oh, as long as there are people on the earth without heaven in them, so much will the saints and the angels sigh between heaven and earth for all the devastated houses, for every man devoid of God between earth and heaven. The man full of God is no longer from the earth, but he is from God instead, if he really is. The one full of God has the face of an angel, and he has got his measure likewise. He who measure as a human being on the earth is devoid of heaven, and I want him to know this from God, only for him to want to take knowledge and work as in heaven so on earth. Oh, if the man is born of man on the earth and then if he does not dress with the heaven and with its work inside of him and outside of him, that one is an untimely birth on the earth, a useless body. When the heaven is in man, he shines from man as the day shines in the night, having been seen in him the battle of the day against the night, and the battle of the night against the day, which overcomes again, and the day is the loved one because it is light. Oh, let the heaven prevail in this way against the bad things in man, for the man's fleshly nature is fallen, it is not that which come from God, and a new birth for it is needed, and this is how the world will be renewed and it will be fulfilled My Gospel through which I prophesied the renewal of the world, the man's new birth, to be a deified man like the saints of the heaven, becoming a dwelling place for the saints and for the angels, as there were on the earth Abraham, Moses, Samuel, Daniel, Job, John the Baptist, My mother the Virgin and all the bearers of God and of saints and on the earth among people.

Oh, what a spirit of resurrection I am setting in My book with you, new Jerusalem, in a day of holy and new sanctified Passover! Oh, feed the saints, for the saints have got only longing, and the longing has to be comforted and it needs refreshing just as the traveler, tired and sunburnt, needs water and shadow to get rest. Amen.

I give to the Romanian people the glory of My word, which I am setting into My book with you as counsel upon man, My people, and I teach him to take and to know, for I give him and I wait for him with great love for his renewal, to his new birth, to be a new creature, a new country, clothed within the saints and angels, for the fleeting glory of the world passes away like the world and as its worldly work, but the eternal glory of the saints remains, and I, the Lord of the resurrection of all things, want you to remain, My today's country, for the land under you is My choice from the beginning, and you still do not understand what a mystery your land has. Take your time to hear Me! Oh, take your time to talk with God! Lucifer knows you even from the beginning, and now he tries to play his book in you to fill you with his work hostile to Me, but I am coming and telling you to take note of this from Me and to come under My mantle, under My counsel so that I may protect you from the hour of temptation, for the hard temptation has come upon you, about which is written in the Scriptures that is coming, and you do not read the Scriptures and do not know them if you do not read them to understand them. Oh, you have to read in the Scriptures and do nothing else but only that what is written in them to do, for I want to overcome for you, and then for Me with you, My country.

Oh, well Lucifer, oh, oh, My angel disobedient to God, do no longer be enchanted with your enmity against Me and against My work of the renewal of the world, since you know that I am God and not you, for I am he Victor and not you. Oh, put your weapons down and come to rest for you were the most beautiful angel of the angelic armies and behold what the man's haughtiness did to you when he came to be proud, and you served him to your fall by his fall! Oh, step aside with your work from man and make way for Me to raise the man from the dead, to give him birth again and to see what he did to God's angels, whom he drew in the depth of his will for the glory against God's glory, which is eternal forever and ever! Oh, come back into the heavenly glory, from which you fell through man, disobedient angel, and you will have rest from your toils! Oh, behold what it does the hiding from God in those hidden of the hidden man! I command you, in a day of Passover in heaven and on earth on the Lamb of God, take your weapons and cleanse yourself and your work on the hearth of the Romanian people, the land chosen by Me at the beginning for the glory of God in the end! Listen to Me! Behold, you have armed yourself with all your hidden works to defile this land and to seal My people on it with the seal of destruction, (The money, r.n.) with the seal opposing to God's will. I do not let you do this. You will come to obedience from now on. Either you want it or not, I, the Lord of resurrection, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of the mother Virgin, ask you to come in submission, I subject you under My passing power, for it is written that I would do that. Oh, be good from now on, for you are an angel and you have to know what you were before what you are now, for I remind you this. I will give birth again to man, for I have come on the earth with the new birth of the world, and you will remain without man and you will no longer be the man's tool, and the man will no longer be your tool, and you will be without a house and will not want to leave the enmity and wickedness; however, I tell you with mercy, submit yourself under My mercy, under My love, because behold, I am the Victor, I and not you. I do not tell you in this way to prevail against you, but to make you see and wake up from your wicked work, which has worn down your sight and you hope for good for you. Behold, look to see your place if you do not want to come under My love to give you the rest without fire. Do not be without faith. I know that you believe Me but you are stubborn. I, the Lord, call you to the rest which you lost after you had no longer listened to Me, after you had hidden in man to fall together with him, serving man's will full of haughtiness against Me at the beginning of creation. I stay with the work of My word on the hearth of the Romanian people and on which you want now to stretch out you tent and to try to make your kingdom. Oh, I do not let you, Lucifer. I call you with your name from Me given at the beginning, against your dark work that you have now upon the earth. I am with the feast of the resurrection, the feast of My word on the land of the Romanian people, and you saw My table spread on it, spread on it for more than fifty years, and you try to open up your tent over My holy mountain, My mountain from the end, and about which it is clearly written in the Scriptures, and only he who does not read does not understand, and only the one who does not look to see does not believe. Oh, what do you want to do over My country? Oh, I do not let you; I do not let you, Lucifer. I am God – the Word, and I made a house into the midst of this nation and I come to it with the table of My word, and I take heavenly armies with Me riding on white horses[109], as it is written to come and to make a kingdom in man and with people on earth, and My name is called the God's Word, and I work wonderfully. Here I am; you meet Me on the land of the Romanian land after seven thousand years from your fall of My glory and of My angels. Behold My today's country, which you want to bring now into slavery under your seal. However, I come and advise Romanian people and give it power to listen to God, the Almighty, and not to you, and I proved this out by My birth of a Virgin mother and then by My resurrection from the dead on the third day, after My death on the cross on which the Jewish people nailed Me, and in which you nested two thousand years ago to stand against My coming on the earth, following My trace to tear Me down. However, I rose from the dead, I overcame the death and broken the hell, and I also smashed the latches you put on it and I took out My righteous ones, the prophets and the saints[110], and I am holding into My hand the keys of the death and hell and I am the Lord of the resurrection of the dead and I am clothed in resurrection, and this is what I am going to give to the people, and I will give them. Amen. Do not forget, open up your sight from Me, not that which is from man, and do not forget that I and the entire heavenly and angelic armies stay within the work of the new birth of the world on the Romanian land, where you are trying now to fasten the pole and to stretch out your tent, and then to put your black seal over this nation, and you want to do this work more than on any other nation on the earth, for the money was the blackest temptation by which you have worked to buy the land and to bring it under your seal, which the money handles, for the Jewish people sold Me to death on money, the people you enticed under your hostile rule against Me and taught it to sell Me to death two thousand years ago, entering into Judas, who defiled his hand and mind with the seal of the money, and behold, the money has become the curse on this people after that, which has been trying since then to rule over the world with its power coming out of the money. Again and again, I tell you Lucifer, before the whole human nation and before the heaven of saints and angels: do not forget, open up your sight from Me, because it is the time to see so from this time on, and see that on the land of the Romanian people, I, the Lord of resurrection, am with My work of the renewal of the world and of the earth, and I want to establish the new heaven and earth over this land, for I have to establish My fulfilled Scriptures on the earth, and I am the slaughtered Lamb, Who washes away the sins of the world, the Lamb of God, given to the faithful man as food, and through Whom the man will prevail against satan as it is written in the Scriptures, and I am the One Who smashed the gates of the hell, in which you have kept My righteous ones. Your seal is money. The man will be able to live without money and without other papers in their place, with which you want to replace the face of the money on the earth and to hide it under the curtain. (Money substitutes - electronic money, bank cards, chips and biochips, r.n.) I am the One Who will feed the man with manna from heaven, I, and not you, for the fire[111] is coming on the earth over all that you have built with the man and for the man. I have nothing to do with your work upon the earth, and the man has nothing to do with it either, because I set My treasure on to the earth, which cannot stay near yours, as fleeting as it is, for its work passes and you will remain face to face with Me to give an account to Me for you. Amen. And now, I am telling you: Withdraw from the land of My country and from the soul of the Romanian people on it and go to places devoid of God until I, the Lord, will comprise the whole world under the glory of My word, which becomes an unquenchable fire over the entire iniquity on the earth, for God's word is the glory which I, God-the Word, have from the Father before the foundation of the world, and behold, Lucifer, called with the name of satan, this is My work of glory, which you are meeting now on the Romanian land against all iniquity on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Romanian people, I have spoken before My enemy and yours, Lucifer, the great angel at the beginning and the one who served the man's haughtiness in the time of the falling from God of the first built man. Oh, seek, Romanian people, seek to escape from this angel of haughtiness, seek to escape from haughtiness, for the whole pride in man comes from money. Oh, come to the sweet humility, for humility is sweet and it makes you beautiful, beautiful, and it makes you rich with the wealth I want to give you, and Lucifer will serve you for My glory with you with all his wealth, and you will not serve him, as it is not his glory on the earth that you need to have, but My glory instead. I told the angel of haughtiness to take his tent and to move away from your hearth, and you should receive My saints as your guests and you should welcome Me, for I have a wonderful name and it is called the Word of God. Seek after heavenly teachers in their heart for you to teach you and to reveal you My mysteries, and if you want My word to teach you, then I wait for you here, I wait for you to come near to My spring so that I may teach you, Romanian people. Oh, you do not know your destiny, but I know it, I know your destiny and that is why I have come from the Father to you as the word of your birth, a new birth, and then from you the birth of the world, as it is written in the Scriptures that will be. I want to fulfill the Scriptures with you and you should also want this, for My plan with you is wonderful. I remain with the book open between Me and you and I do no longer close it, for I want Lucifer and his angels to read in it, both within their body and without their body, and thus to come to obedience to the One Who made the heaven, the earth and the man, and Who is making them again, and there will be everything new, as it is written, and there will be a new chosen Jerusalem, and the creature will be redeemed. Amen.

Christ has risen, Romanian people! The Lord of resurrection greets you with His resurrection from the dead two thousand years ago. Oh, behold the Lord, your God! Christ has risen, country of My return, country of God's word in the end of the time, and you will come to life, just as I came to life! Amen. You will be resurrected, you will be resurrected, you will be resurrected! This is My will for you, and on the second day of the world, you will be My kingdom and all the peoples will take from you, My work, My light from you, the light of the man's resurrection, My country. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Spring of the healing

I am the Lord of resurrection and I am coming down on earth as word, and My name is called the Word of God, a mysterious name, like My coming as word on the earth to man. I am sitting down with the greeting of the resurrection before My people from the midst of the Romanian people and before every man on the earth who knows and who does not know that I am coming now on the earth as word to man and that I am preparing the fulfillment of My great victory, for I am the Lamb of God, preached in the Scriptures to come and to overcome the iniquity on the earth and to make a new heaven and a new earth and a new Jerusalem and to make a new man out of man. Amen.

Christ has risen, New Jerusalem!

"Christ has risen!" I, the Lord, resurrected from the dead, tell every man on the earth, who knows and who does not know, that I am with the glory of My word on the hearth of the Romanian people!

"Christ has risen!" My mother the Virgin greets the heaven and the earth for My resurrection!

"Christ has risen!" My male and female disciples call out up there in heaven and down on the earth, for I come with the saints when I come, as it is written for Me to come! Amen.

Oh, My people, let every man, who loves Me and waits for the Lord to come, take from you! Oh, let those who are unfaithful to Me also take Me from you and believe in Me by this word! Let those who love life and want to see good days from the Lord on the earth take Me from this spring, for I announce Myself with days of healing over the man, and his healing is in his hand, in his faith, in his pleasant will to God.

Christ has risen, I, the Lord, greet those who have come together at the spring of the healing and I teach them the resurrection. I teach them and I teach every man on the earth! Keep My word, sons, for it teaches you life. Believe in Me, for he who believes in Me will never die; this is written in My Gospel two thousand years ago. I said this so that the man may no longer sin, for this means his healing. Love heals man. Love heals the man from sin. He who loves God from all his heart, mind and soul, that one does not love death, does not love sin, for the love of God is God in man. Oh, I want to heal the man from his self, as the man sins because of his self-love. I want the man to serve My Gospel and the man's resurrection, for the man's resurrection comes from the work of My Gospel over the earth and upon man. I want the man to be spiritual, and not fleshly or earthly. I want the man to pass from flesh into spirit, as Mary did, who chose the good part and which will not be taken away from man, and it would be only that for the man who loves God to choose, but it is written that the son born after the flesh persecutes he who is born after the Spirit, for he who wants to be according to the flesh serves in a fleshly way and persecutes the one who loves to be spiritual and to be nourished with the love of God, with My dwelling within My teaching and sweetly eat it sweetly, for it is sweet and it is for the sweet ones, for those who love God and who are healed with God. Amen.

I, the resurrected Lord, become healing over every man on the earth and I teach him goodness, instruction and the knowledge against his mistakes, for David, My anointed one, standing before Me was saying: «Lord, You have showed Your loving-kindness to Your servant, as Your word was, and now teach me Your loving-kindness, instruction and wisdom, for before I was humble I went wrong and that is why I have kept Your word after that».

Oh, man, get healed from sin! Be your own healer, for sin is an unsleeping worm and the man's body is food for the worms even from his being alive, for the man is comforted with fleshly lusts against the elevation of his soul and there is no one to tell him to leave death, to condemn the sin in his body and to be healed from sin, because after this sin the pain comes, the disappointment comes and it condemns the man.

Oh, how great My pain from man is, from the weakness of the man fallen of My glory! I look down on the earth as the man cleans his house and I see how he cleans and makes beautiful everywhere around himself. I look down from heaven and see how the man cleans and makes everything shine in his household and courtyard, as well as his clothes and food once with the coming of the days of My resurrection, but if he does not clean his inner body for Me, if he does not clean it from sin, from this unsleeping worm in man, oh, it is in vain, in vain that the man keeps his house clean, it is in vain, because I do not dwell in a house made by the hand of man, but I dwell in the man's body instead, if I dwell at all, if it is clean for Me to dwell in it. Oh, who is the one that understands this? The man goes to be anointed with healing oil, as the Christian instruction for healing is, but if he is not anointed within those inside of him for his healing of sin, it is in vain that the gets anointed on his forehead and on his hand, and everywhere on his body outside of him. Oh, who is to teach the man his healing and then its keeping in him? Oh, if you do not keep your inner body clean from sin, your cleaning is in vain, man, but come, come to learn the glory of the resurrection and come to love sufferance, for your happiness separates you from Me; it separates you from life and from its cleanness and its greatness from Me. I, the Lord, tell you that the sin in man is the unsleeping worm and it eats him up inside of him and God in man and then the man dies within his body and becomes food for worms. Oh, the man's destiny was not supposed to be like that, because I made the man to be church for Me and not a dwelling place for sin, which has become an unsleeping worm in man since the man cannot walk after his healing from sin!

Oh, I come into your way, man, I come out with My spring to give you to drink of it and to feel the coolness and sweetness and life and your healing in it. Take, drink, and get healed from those inside of you, which you have taken out of My hand and become your master, as you do not love your life, if you do so, and you do not love God either, if you do so. Oh, give yourself over to Me to heal you, for behold, I give you medicine to get cleaned and then to sit down and rest within those inside of you, cleaned from sin, cleaned from cunning and emptiness and from the death that comes from them. Oh, this is how I taught and teach My people, that which comes at My spring of word, and I take from the spring and give to you too, man from the earth, and you should hear Me, hear the Lord, how He calls you to give from Him what you cannot give to yourself.

However, you, Romanian people, I want you very much to be Mine, and to be humble to My will, for your choice for the man's salvation from Me is great, your choice is from the Father, and satan knows it and wants your evil because he is upset with Me and with you because of his fall from heaven, but you are My hand of victory and I want to tell you this and I want to make you hear Me to heal you from satan, for he wants to stretch out his tent in you, and you are My holy mountain for the sake of My word, which is flowing in you as a river on the earth, now, and it is becoming a river of life to water the earth far and wide, for My Spirit can do this. Oh, Romanian people, oh, I exhort you with longing: this kind of demons does not come out of you but only with fast and prayer. I have the people of My word into your midst and I set it to the work of your salvation, but get up and believe and shake off the yoke from your neck, which satan wants to put it now to your scorn. Do not forget that your ancestors were coming with holy days before Me upon them, days of fasting and crying out to God, and they set holy angels as their protectors and the saints were coming and overcoming for them, for your people, My country. My mercy asks you to learn and listen, for behold, I announce you for days of fasting and crying out to heaven, for My mother the Virgin comes before Me for you with a new calling so that satan may not tear you down in the dust of the earth. I establish into your midst days named for fasting and crying out to heaven, the last three days of the month of the flowers, (April, r.n.), and I teach you to light the candles and to put in them your prayer and to write this: "Lord save the Romanian nation from satan and from his black work, by which he tries to separate us from You and from our salvation from You. Be victorious for us, for the days are hard and they are not seen. Teach us your loving-kindness, the instruction and wisdom, for before we humbled ourselves we went wrong, and because of this give us power to keep Your word and take us out from under satan's hand, for You are the Lamb of the Father and it is written that You will be victorious. Amen."

Oh, My Romanian county, oh, My Zion of today, the foundations of My today's Zion are in you, and they are My holy mountain, from which I speak. Oh, I love the gates of your Zion more than all of your places and I spoke about this citadel, and I am born into it as word, for My Father founded it for His Son. Oh, clean your body from sin, Romanian son, for Noah lived in cleanness, clean from sin, he and his whole house that entered the ark before the coming of the flood, and this is how the eight souls and all the living creatures in their ark were saved. Oh, run towards Me with days of feast and crying and sanctifying of your body, soul and mind to God, Romanian people, to get away from satan's traps, for you have the Lord God into your midst, speaking and teaching you the loving-kindness, the instruction and wisdom. Get up, Romanian people, and destroy the sin into your midst and set holy laws upon you that they may protect you. Give up your drunkenness and smoking, sexual immorality and unbelief and at My word stop from food and meat, for man kills to eat meat, but soon, soon, I will stop the man from eating meat, for he will no longer have, because on the earth there will come the new heaven and the new earth and the New Jerusalem, as it is written into the Scriptures, and I will work all these with man, but not according to his will and plan, but according to My Father's will and plan, Who works by His Spirit and by the prophets, by His sanctified people and given to be sanctified into the midst of the Romanian people for all the nations on the earth, who will want and listen to Me for the good things that come from the Lord on the earth soon, soon.

Oh, Romanian people, put the candles on the table and write in them your prayer that I have given to you to burn for God once with you, once with your heart to Me and get up with crying and with days of fast before Me so that we may overcome satan, who tries to seal you under his will and under his seal upon you; however, I teach you to call out to God to your help to give you victory then, Romanian people. Oh, your priests see to their things and play to satan's liking with their life and will, but I, the good and merciful Shepherd, call you under the rainbow of your victory and salvation, Romanian flock. Take My word upon you and give it from mouth to mouth, and let it go from Romanian to Romanian, and he who will give My word from mouth to mouth, from Romanian to Romanian, for the announcing of the days of fasting and crying out for My salvation for this nation, that one will not lose his reward. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, those who share Me, the Lord, as word over the earth, get up to fulfill. Oh, he who loves you on the earth because you are My servants, that one will not lose his reward, but even more I will forgive all his sins that he will have made as a man and I will wait him to his holiness and to the victory through the saints, for My saints come with Me on the earth and they give themselves as help to those who overcome themselves for My victory. Amen.

My word is a spring of healing, and My mother the Virgin is giving herself as word by My spring to the healing of the many. Oh, mother, the saints of the heaven celebrate you in heaven and on earth, for you are the healer, mother. We are giving the spirit of the healing to man, only for him to hear and listen to us, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord's sons, and you, men's sons! Christ has risen for you! I suffered with Him and for Him and for you when He was put on the cross by satan to die, but satan deceived himself then, for the Lord was resurrected and overcame, and the ruler of this world was judged at that time.

"Christ has risen!" Romanian people, the mother of the sacrificed Lamb is telling you now for your salvation, for the salvation of those faithful to Him, the Lamb of God, Who washes away the sins of the world! Oh, the Lord has sent you heavenly news. Mind you do not violate His word from above and from below, for the heaven works with the earth for the victory of the God's Lamb and for your victory to the salvation of many. The Lord has let you know for days of fasting and crying with burning and praying candles on your hearth. The Lord has written down the three days of fasting in the end of the flower month in heaven and on earth as days of fasting from food and sin, fasting and crying, Romanian nation. Oh, you shall not eat during these days, but rather cry out in tears like the city of Nineveh for your salvation from under satan's hand and then for your resurrection in the resurrected Christ. You shall eat clean fruit and drink clean water if you cannot stay hungry for your joy after that. You shall eat only fruit and vegetables, as the man in paradise ate, son, and if you can, if you are healthy, you should eat after the sunset, and if in you, the weak one is overcome by its weakness, then that one should eat fruit and vegetables and drink clean water, with days renouncing sin, smoking and drinking unblessed drink, for the drink from the Lord is only water and wine, and any other drink is against the man's life and his blessing from God.

Tell each other, Romanian sons, for the obedience to God and be faithful, for the Lord loves you and calls you to listen to Him for the victory from Him, and then, loving sons, loving of God and hating of sin, as sin is a devil, it is satan in man even from his beginning, since the man lost the paradise because of sin.

Be the blessed of my Son, Jesus Christ, the One resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago, oh Romanian people! The word of my Son and my word through His spring into your midst is a healing spring upon you and from you over to many. Be faithful, and not be unfaithful, for the Lord wants to wipe out your sins from His face for which you suffer, and He wants to set you in His holiness, for without that nobody will see the Lord, and behold, the Lord is coming, as it is written. Amen.

Christ has risen, people of the word of my Son!

Christ has risen, sons of men!

Christ has risen, Romanian people, and come to my Son with your obedience, for this spring of word is my Son, The Lamb of the Father Sabaoth, the Father's messenger to you, for you and for all the nations on the earth then. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My mother, spring of power for the sinner who repent! My great grace is with My entire word and yours in this day of the spring of the healings for man. When I sent My angel to you to tell you those from Me for My coming into the world two thousand years ago, you said to the angel: «May it be done to me according to Your word». Let the Romanian people speak like this for My word that is preached in this day over him for his salvation. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, the Lord your God, the Lamb of the Father, has spoken to you in a day of the spring of the healings, a spring of word upon you. Happy, happy you will be if you listen to Me and if you are faithful to the One Who has spoken with you for your salvation. Amen.

"Christ has risen!" Romanian people, the Lord of resurrection is telling you, the resurrected Lord. Oh, lift up your gates so that the Lord, your God, may come in to you; your King, God, the King of the heaven and the earth, Romanian people, My new nation, and may your obedience to My word be blessed for your life, for your salvation. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas

(Excerpt)

… Oh, I have mercy on you, Romanian people! I am speaking again with you and I am staying with the book open between Me and you to let you know by it to do My will for your salvation, to comfort you, and at the same time, to embrace you giving you My comfort. I have told you My will and I have given you to work it before Me for your life. I have advised you to bring three days of fasting before Me (April, 28, 29, 30 – r.n.) and I have opened your watching to receive, but do not be afraid when I call you to do My will calling you severely to faith and to fulfillment. I told you to fast three days and then I shook the earth under you, and you were afraid and are afraid. (The earthquake of 3.9 degrees on 27 April 2009, r.n.). Oh, and the earth also speaks with you in its language and it lies near Me to urge you to take into account My language, My speaking upon you by which I ask you to listen to My word for the protection that comes from Me, Romanian son. Oh, do not stir My wrath by your disobedience by not trying to listen to My request for your life! My gentle arm opens upon you for your protection, but you should listen to God and seek after My word into your midst and take it from the table of My people which I feed on your hearth with every word that comes out of My mouth in order for you to stand before Me and to help Me for its salvation and yours, too, Romanian people. Spread from mouth to mouth the news for the three-day fasting on your hearth, for I have asked you to do this for your salvation and then for you to hate sin; however, be faithful to receive Me. And if you want Me to help your faith, then do like Thomas and come to see My work of word, but do come with gentleness, humility and repentance and not like the Pharisees of that time when I was healing all the weak and because I did this, the Pharisees told Me that I was out of My mind and that I had a demon because of the power by which I did much good upon the men's weaknesses. Oh, but now it is the time of the faith against the unfaith on earth, faith with which I helped the people by everything I did then so wonderfully, proving in everything I did that I am true God of true God, sacrificing Myself for man by death on the cross and then by coming to life for his resurrection, as it was for man that I died and I came to life again.

… Now, I am blessing you, My people of Romanians, for you, sons, are My house of coming and you give Me shelter when I come on earth, and in this tent I am with the people to teach them and to be their God.

Christ has risen, My people of New Jerusalem on the Romanian land! Peace to you to be My help as I always am your help, always, sons! Christ has risen and out of your midst, I, the resurrected Lord, teaching, will teach the nations on earth what resurrection is, and many will rise and will meet Me in My coming, and I will give them My glory as I give it to you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

(Excerpt)

This work of word is the work of the word of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son and the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and I am descending on earth on clouds of word and thousands and thousands of cherubim are carrying Me on to the manger of My word into the midst of the Romanian people, and the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father when I speak in heaven and on earth at the same time, and My voice fills the heaven with glory, and the saints and the angels are nourished with every word that comes out of My mouth. Amen.

… Oh, My people from the spring, I have entered at you through the gates (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) and I let it be known Who I am, and then I have met the people coming to the spring. I am into your midst with a table of word and I give Myself to eternal life, because those who seek after Me not because of fleshly food, but because of the spirit of My power and the spirit of comfort, love, forgiveness and resurrection, which comes out of My mouth, and then they are those who are faithful to My word, which comes with the clouds as it is written that "He comes with the clouds," and behold, this is how I fulfill. Amen. Oh, and I embracing you with the greeting of My resurrection: Christ has risen, My people from the spring! And now, we are putting My word on the table for the faithful people, to the one who believes by your preaching the word that springs from My mouth into your midst for the healing of the nations, but the nations on the earth do what the people in the time of Noah did, the one who was faithful to Me in that time, while all the others were minding only their own business and did not want to hear My calling through Noah and did not to believe or seek after My calling for their salvation from their trespasses, oh, and they did not want, as neither those who today want to believe and seek desperately after their salvation so that it may not come upon them the hopelessness, the hour of temptation, which is to test all the people on earth, as it is written to come. Oh, it was the same when I came from the Father in the flesh and word on earth to give the man the light of My word and then the light of My resurrection, the proof that I have brought for man to see that I am true God of true God, as man did not want to believe that I am.

… When a man is born, I give his soul as a gift, as I gave Adam a living soul when I created him. The man's soul is part of My being, My breath, which comes into the one who is born in the body on earth, a man and any other living being with a living soul. Oh, it is not only that the man has taken My house, and each man has committed this sin, but he also tries to catch Me under guilt, as did the Jews who caught Me, who gave Me over to be condemned, keeping their kingdom, as their mind judges. Oh, and here it is what man does with God, with the One Who made the heaven and the earth and everything that is between earth and heaven, and Who made the man to be the Lord's dwelling place, God's life and movement!

You should cry man, when you hear from God, what you have done before Him, since He created you and up to this day! You should cry and seek to come to your senses and take your sin into consideration, for the right that you took from Me when you left Me without you and made a kingdom for yourself on earth, with which you stand against Me, for it was not only My house that you have taken from Me, but also the whole earth and it was not enough for you, but even more than this you have gone up in the sky with all your things that you have made to serve you, and which will swoop like enemy weapons soon, soon, against you, for you say: "I have got everything and my soul delights." Oh, the man's joy turns into mourning at its end, for man rejoices without God on earth, and the man's joy is a ghost without a body in the man's body. Oh, I want to be a gentle judge with the man, with the one who has taken My right and home and the place under it.

… Man has to be My house on earth. Oh, sons nourished of My word, learn to be My warm and clean house; learn to be My servants in it, and I to be your Master. You, My house, and I, your Master, this is how you should be with God, for this is how it was supposed to be when I built man! Oh, sons gathered at the spring, now you are going to stay with My male and female disciples, those of two thousand years ago, for their longing of testimony burns in heaven, and the longing does not go out but only on earth. Be a house for those in heaven, welcome the guests; be stewards full of faithfulness, for those in heaven teach those on earth the spirit of faithfulness, the clean spirit for those who are God's house on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

… We are speaking to you, people from the spring, and to all those gathered on this day near the Lord's voice, and we are giving ourselves to the sides to all those on earth and this is how we are speaking:

There is no peace without the Lord. There is no peace on earth; there is nowhere peace on earth, but only with the Lord. The Lord is coming down on earth as word and peace by the word; He is coming and making disciples as He made us, male and female disciples, two thousand years ago, and we remained with the Lord in the Scriptures as His witnesses. The Lord wants to make the people not only His houses, but also His disciples, and with them He wants to make His coming, for there are written Scriptures that the Lord will come, that the Lord is coming, and behold He is coming as new word among the people on earth to live with them and to protect His elected ones from the hour of trial that is going to come on earth for a great tribulation.

Man, only the Lord can protect you! There He is coming to your help full of power, full of mercy and comforting word! In the time of Noah, His power came over Noah and he made an ark and the Lord saved from the waters those who were faithful to Him; few, very few among the evil ones on earth at that time. In this time, He, Himself, is coming, and He is coming mysteriously, within the word, but man pretends to be big, too wise, two intelligent and he cuts himself into the Scriptures as in a sword, perceiving them according to his human mind, or not being able to understand them at all. Oh, the Lord is coming on earth clothed within the word and is reading the Scriptures to explain them so that man may understand them. There is no happier man on earth than the one who hears and receives the Lord with great faith, standing in the threshold to welcome Him and to renew his faith and works for His coming. Amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

The Lord is coming on the earth as word and He announces Himself coming and speaking over the people of His word from the midst of the Romanian nation. Hosts of saints and angels are coming with Him and sitting down into the midst of His people, faithful to His coming of yesterday and today. Amen.

I, the Lord, am the One Who announces Myself with My coming down to you, My today's people. I am coming with the saints; we are coming carried by the angels and we make a stop within a heavenly feast at the well of the meeting, worked by Me first by the word, and then set here, in My courts for My people near the spring, My today's people, on which I rely with My works for My coming on the earth to man, a people which I love with great love and I protect it with godly care to have it and to rely on it within joys and pains, in My work and in My rest. Amen.

Peace to you, My people near the spring! I make a halt of word for the feast of the well of the meeting and which has from Me the Samaritan woman as its protecting angel, with whom I, the Lord, spoke at Jacob's well, and whom I turned into a messenger apostle of My coming from that time from the Father to man, who was believed by those who knew from the Scriptures that I would come on the earth for the man's salvation. Oh, sons, on this feast we need little cups and benches at the well for the saints and for their Lord and yours, and the Lord is sitting with His saints and you within a great mystery and He gives you of His Spirit, and you should take and share with those who drink of My spring of word and with all the people who do not apply themselves to believing and to become God's sons by faith, by love and by their sacrificing for My coming on to the earth, because it is the time of My coming for the living and for the dead, and those in the graves hear and are comforted at My voice full of resurrection and relief for them, because this work of word is for the resurrection of the dead first, and it is for the raising from the dead of those who are in their body and who do not look up to heaven until I, the Lord, call them to see and to cry out from their pains to Me so that I may lift them up afterwards, as I raised the Samaritan woman on the day when I met her at Israel's well.

Oh, what great relief, what great comfort for those who are asleep within their body is the work of My word upon you, My today's people of My word! For them there is no longer any other help but My word in these days and everything that comes up to Me from you for their remembrance, as I have taught you to remember them all, from Adam and up to My coming, born on the earth and then set for the waiting of their resurrection through Me, the One resurrected from the dead for each man and the One Who is sounding the trumpet now for their waking up, because it is written in the Scriptures that those in the graves will hear My voice and get up to their reward, good or bad, but I have come now on to the earth to relieve the reward of the man's sins and to give comfort to those who are asleep, for more than the living ones, those who are asleep hear My voice of today and are coming together near the spring and they are without number, and little by little they have prepared themselves for their waking up, and many of them will confess My work of yesterday and today, as it was two thousand years ago, when I got up from the dead and once with Me many were resurrected and confessed[112], confirming My divinity and resurrection, (Mat: 27/52-53[113], r.n.), in such a way that the people remained in the faith that I am the One Who is and that I am alive forever and ever, as it is written.

Oh, I would stay longer time with you in this day, My people, and I would teach you; I would always, always teach you, and most of all, I would teach you to love instruction, because if you do not love it, then you learn from you, from your mind, and it is not good in this way for man, but it is bad for him this, and he who does not take from God for him, then he is without God. Oh, you shall not grow weary with My staying with you, son. If I stay with you, then what else should I do but always teach you, always teach you for those that are from above for man on the earth? Oh, people do the same for the people; however, the man takes from him and gives to another man and the man feeds another man with those in man, good and evil, and this is how it has been happening with the man time by time, for after the man fell from his good that I meant for him at his creation, he has no longer denied himself, but rather he has always denied Me, for this is how the man has got used to doing even from his beginning. Oh, and when I hear that he has got mind and gifts from God within him, then I break Myself under mourning from man and I stay small under his mind and I do not have any steps toward him, and he does not have for Me either, and My mourning from man is great, and I would teach you very much when I come to speak to you on the feasts, My people, on the feasts at least, for he who does not learn from Me, then he learns from himself and that is why the man dies, the man always dies, and I cry and cry for man and from man and I do not have any comfort in My mourning.

I met the Samaritan woman at the Israel's well and I spoke with her on the earth as in heaven, not as on earth, and I helped her to know how to speak with Me and then to know Me by My speaking with her, and I spoke with her in parables and I gave her power to understand, because she had faith in Me and in My coming, and that is why I decided to meet her at that well and not anywhere else, and I told her that he who drank of the water I was giving him would never thirst, and she was always asking Me to give her.

Oh, My people, he who takes teaching from Me, that one does no longer thirst after sin, and this is how I did with the Samaritan woman with whom I spoke at the well then. I gave her water, I gave her of My word, and with it I watered her, and the spirit of My word seized her and made her faith wake up and then she went with her faith and woke up her city to Me and the Samaritan people knew that I was the Messiah sent by the Father, as it was written in the Scriptures to come. Oh, this is how I am revealing Myself today too, to those with whom I am speaking during these days on the earth. I am speaking with the man of today as I did with the Samaritan woman and I am giving him to drink of My water, for I have come on the earth to give the man to drink from Me and no longer to drink from him, for if he drinks all the time from him, then he does no longer come to know Me, to preach Me and then to follow Me up to heaven, as the Samaritan woman followed Me from the Israel's well and up there in heaven.

[113] «The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised and came out of the tombs after His resurrection. (They entered into the holy city and appeared to many).» (Mat: 27/52, 53)

Oh son taught by God, let the man on the earth take My exhortation upon you and thirst after My teaching, after My water! One day I told those through whom I made My coming in the word, I told them about humility and pride, to know what these do in man. Oh, son, learn from Me, for I am humble and gentle in My heart because I am God and this is what I want the man to be too; I want him to be like Me and then I want to rejoice over him, over the one who takes after Me, for the man does not rejoice over another man's prosperity, and that one is a sick man, if he does like that. Oh, son, oh, you should not make your way over anyone, but rather make your room in everyone! This is what it does you good and to all those around you. This is the humility, which makes man beautiful and dear. If the man does not have humility, then he has got pride, and this is what stands against humility, and if he does not have pride, then he has got humility and this is what stands against pride, and this is what you have to know, man, that the Lord is coming to you and is telling you to know in this way.

Oh, My people, the Samaritan woman had humility in her and that is why she had the gift of faith in her, and I came into her way and gave her of My water, of My teaching. Look at her in this day at the spring of the meeting well, accompanied by male and female martyrs, of confessors and of the apostles in My gardens of today, and I, the Lord, in their midst, and everyone with you at My table of word, and the Samaritan woman speaking with you from among the saints, My people.

Oh, may your speaking with My people of today be blessed, confessing martyr. I, the Lord, make your entrance at My table of word in your day of feast, and you will be like Me, with a spirit of teaching over My people and over man. Amen, amen, amen.

– You deserve much greatness, Lord, for You are wonderful among Your saints and among them in heaven and on earth! Your meeting with me at the well of Israel then gave me Your word full of Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit embraced me in You, Your Spirit, Lord, I am speaking to Your people of today about You and about me, and let him them hear and learn.

I was only weakness, poor of me, oh, sons of the Lord on the earth today, but I had a strong and beautiful faith in me, and with it I was waiting for the Messiah's coming, according to what I knew and believed from the Scriptures, and all of a sudden, the Lord made me one of His apostles, sending me to do this, to preach Him as His coming on the earth, Messiah sent by the Father to man. Oh, make your faith perfect, for only and only by the man's faith the Lord has been able to do His works. Do not wait to be holy in order to follow Him and to help Him to come, but rather believe in him, and He will make you like Him, as He made me, and then I went and preached Him to my entire house, to my entire city. Then I always cried with fear for the reward of my sins and this came from His grace to me, and I clung with my entire faith to Him and to His confession and I paid for my sins atoning on the earth by martyr sufferings, I and my entire house, and I was His apostle, confessing Him as a martyr of His name.

Oh, seek with longing after Him, you, sons of men, so that He may forgive your past sins! Come to the spring of His word of today and learn from it! No one is able to sanctify himself until he first believes, and he who does not sanctify himself he is the one who does not believe in Him. Oh, do not mock, do not laugh at the sinful ones, because you will fall worse than them; however you shall never scorn those with whom the Lord are pleased or you will suffer without being comforted, for the Lord's graces are unthinkable and you do not know where He can make His dwelling place among you! Oh, a humble sinner who sees his weakness is worth more than a haughty righteous man who sees the sin of his neighbor, despising him without knowing his love and tear in him, which come from the humility of his heart, sweet and painful for his weakness, as I also was on the earth, and the Lord spoke to the people: «Do not judge before the Lord does!», for each man is judged in some way, according to his heart, good or bad in him. Oh, learn to pray and you will see the Lord's graces helping you! Pray in the morning, pray in the evening, pray in the middle of the night and stay with a mourning soul, asking the protecting little angel to help you and speak to him like this: oh, my little good angel, little angel of my life, lift me up from my sin for I am weak and feeble and you are my help, my protector and caretaker. Help me not to perish, for the sin overcomes me; raise me, the fallen one, from under it, the one followed by perdition, and always give me your hand for the great name of Jesus Christ, Who forgives the sins of the world, according to His grace when the man humbles himself for his weakness. Amen.

Oh, Lord, teach them on my day of remembrance as You also taught me, while receiving, You filled me then with Your grace. Oh, turn back to their faith those who want to step out of Your little boat, that with sons in it, and teach them not to blame, not to make excuses by blaming, for he who blames falls. Teach them to forgive, teach them to love and to believe, for You seek after faith with man in order to give him his salvation then, as You also gave mine when so gentle and so warm You treated me for my faith in you! Then You taught me to drink of Your water so that I might never go thirsty and You gave me power to do so and in such a way that You may come with me from place to place and to be able to set You within the people in my city, and then I served You and I was happy in my work for You and then in my sufferance by which I was confessing You. May Your people of today give You great honor into its midst and give to them Your comfort to those who are broken under the blows, for the lack of faith is fed with doubt, and doubt comes in man from pride and then that man persecutes by the spirit of his haughtiness, by his lack of wisdom in his works before You, the One Who knows to work over the sinners and over the righteous, but more righteous are those who are faithful, Lord, and the simple man does not know who Your righteous ones are, who those who love You are. Glory to You by Your word full of grace, and great joy to Your saints in my day of feast, for I have come to a halt at the well and I have drunk of it with Your saints and we mysteriously are sitting at Your table of word with You, and then peace over the sons and daughters of Your people! Oh, let the sons and daughters of Your people learn the wisdom of Your today's word, which says: sons, you shall not make your way upon anyone, but you shall make room in all, for this is the humility that makes the man beautiful and dear. Amen.

Oh, learn from the Lord; learn from His saints in a day of teaching, sons and daughters of the school from above for you! Love peace, take it from the Lord within you, and among you and you will learn His humility from Him. Amen.

Lord, bless the entrance and the exit of Your saints, for we are coming with You, You are our way and comfort, and You are the eternal One, and there where You are, there we, Your saints, are as well. Amen, amen, amen.

– Peace to you, those coming from heaven with Me and with the spirit of confession! Peace to you and peace to My people on the earth! There is a great need of peace on the earth and into the midst of My today's people, and My peace with it is a great mystery, for the devil has put forth his strength against the work of My coming of word on the earth and he tries to put down to the earth those who are sitting at My table.

Oh, My people, stand firm in your faith, for the time is coming with a great shake over you and it is the time of mourning after those who may want to fall out of My little boat, of My love for man, for I have come from the Father to the man with a little boat of salvation, but man is like man and does not want to listen when I ask him this, as he says that he can or that I can work for him if he does not listen, oh, and he does not know My steps when I come towards him to help him, as I have done in all the times, when I have given the man life and way for him on the earth and then in heaven.

Oh, My people, I want to make this mound from My spring into My way to the people, and for the people to Me, and that is why I ask for obedience, for there is a great order in heaven, and so it should be within My places with you, and there it should not be as on earth with you. Oh, how beautiful it will be on My hill with you and I want to come closer with My will, but I need love and obedience so that My people may work with Me and for Me, accompanied by angels, during these days of My work on the earth, for I draw new little souls to Me, because I want to have more than what the man has, to have more than the man has.

I will calm down the whole opposition that gets up to stand against My way and we will go and not stand still, sons, and you, those who cry for Me and with Me, wipe out your tears, which I have always seen with you, and be comforted in hardships and from evil speaking upon you from those who have come back and still want to turn their back to Me and to you, and for whom I lift up what I have given them, if they do so; I lift up their faith, their love and wisdom from above, if they did not want these for My service with them and theirs with Me, by My spring of word and not otherwise, for those who have turned their back are revengeful then because of their stubbornness which falls upon them because of the heartlessness of their faith, and behold an oppressing tear on My Spirit because I have asked by My servants a little soul who knew and loved My work with you and who was with you in his heart, and I prayed him asking him for help and he did not want to listen to Me, for fear that he would listen to you and not Me, and it was set up in this way by those who do not want Me upon them, and they exhorted him to turn his back at My request upon him, and I was very much aggrieved and cried much in heaven and on earth, and I have come down to you with this pain, children of pain bearing for God and here it is what I am saying now: I will also work likewise for those who turn their back to Me when I ask them for a little glass of water on My way with you. As they helped Me when I asked them, in the same manner I will help them, and each and every one makes this measure, and not I. Amen.

Oh, the man does not know a greater opposition especially when I am under the mysterious veil when I come into the man's way to test his love, his dedication and its love! This is how I will give him, to the one who opposes to give Me when I ask from him, and we will work likewise for one another. As the man gives Me, likewise I will deal with him, for this is how he teaches Me to do, and I am the Lord of justice. Amen.

Oh, do not worry, sons, no, no. I support you mysteriously for My work with you, and I make My way near you with My entire help and I smooth My way against all man's opposition, as for a long time I wanted and want to make it beautifully and more and more beautifully on My places with you, sanctified by My word for My glory, but the man's disbelief stands against Me and his opposition puts pressure on Me when I do no longer know how to do and to speak up My word and to be able to fulfill it then through all this hard time for faith and obedience from man. Oh, even by this time, I have not wanted to fall under punishment those who have struck into My glory, and not in you, on My way with you during all the time of My dwelling with you, but blasphemy, disbelief and doubt have become firm in those who are strong by them and then they have become deed with punishment for those who have struck like that, and look back and see how many of these have earned their pain and destruction.

Oh, who is like the Samaritan woman, sons? Who else believes like her during these days, knowing Me as she knew Me at the well of Israel, listening to Me as I told her and humbling herself in such a way that her humility might be able to make her into a great apostle of Christ over her city in an instant? Now, here it is how hard man listens to Me, for he says that I am not, and he also says that I appeared to the Samaritan woman in My body. Oh, but now I am in spirit and at that time I said that I would go to the Father and he who would sin against the Holy Spirit, Who came into his way to put his faith to test, that one would also draw upon himself that which I spoke against[114] this sin. Amen.

Oh, My people, do not forget My exhortation of today! You shall not make any place upon anyone, but you should rather make room in all, as this is how the humility makes the man beautiful and dear! Give Me place, make way for Me, not for you, for I am the way, only for the man to want to receive Me and know Me! I will always be with you, My people, and I will make My way for you and with you, for only I am the One Who brings good to you and you should be the one that listens like My child, and you will be My kingdom, and I will be your homeland, the homeland of the little ones, of those who love to be little children, the homeland from heaven on the earth for those who become My heaven, My rest on the earth, the kingdom waited for ages and wanted to be, and I, the Lord, and My heaven of saints and angels will fulfill, and soon, soon, I will be on the earth with My homeland, with My kingdom, and with it I will give forth light from near and from far away, and it is the new creature in man, God in man, in many and in however many they might be, and they will be the homeland of the heaven on the earth, the homeland which is coming, the homeland from above. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

(Excerpt)

… Peace to you! I have given you the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. I have given you what I have and I teach you the peace of the humble spirit. He, only he is the spirit of the holy peace, the peace that comforts, sons! Other kind of peace and other kind of spirit, all come from the deceiver of this age. Oh, do not be hypocrite! Oh, do not be revengeful, do not be greedy, do not pay evil with evil, because it is the time for the judgment to begin, and let it find you humble and repented, and in this way, you will be reckoned, for in what the man will be found in that will be judged. Amen.

The feast of the birth of holy Virginia

(Excerpt)

I love and I miss speaking with you, My today's people. I have waited seven thousand years for this time, when I have spoken so with you, and those in the tombs hear when I speak and get together for My speaking, for this is what I promised two thousand years ago, so that those in the tombs may hear My voice of today. Oh, when those who wait for the great day of their resurrection will stand up incorruptibly at My voice, which will declare their waking up, then what will do those who will have listened to My word of today and have not remained in it, but they have taken it off and remained naked? Oh, what are you going to do, you who have stayed with Me by this word and denied it for your will, for your doubt?

[114] «Therefore, I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, neither in this age, nor in the one which is to come.» (Mat: 12/31, 32.)

The first Sunday after Whitsuntide, of all saints

(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, I am descending in the little garden of My word, and I am descending for you, son, and for your pain and Mine, and we give way into the book to My speaking with the saints before you, and you are Our witness and Our comfort in wounds, son. Soon, soon, I will make heavenly signs come down over this little garden and I will comfort Myself from pains before those who have chosen to separate from Me before the day of the great glory of this work of word, by which I have kept on going crying between heaven and earth for man. I will truly appear in this word, soon, soon, for those who separate from Me are hurting Me badly because of their discontent, because of their instability, not accepting that they might be guilty, but merely throwing back scornfully and slanderously against those who have remained with Me on My way to Man, on the way of My coming again from the Father to man.

The third Sunday of the Pentecost

(Excerpt)

With My spirit full of gentleness, mercy and fatherly care, this is how I, the Lord, am descending My word over the earth for My today's people in the midst of the Romanian people. Painful arrows are shooting against the place and against the mystery of the descending of My word during these days, but I go ahead with love and pain, and the mystery of the descending of My word does not stop from its running, for the river of life is My word over the earth and man, and whoever drinks of it, believing and loving as the work of his life and My way among people, that one will be victorious near Me and I will appear with him before many unfaithful nations that waste their life not giving it to God, the One Who is the life of men.

The feast of the birth of Saint John, the Baptizer

I, the Lord, am sitting down as word into My book of today with a day of feast and I am coming in this day with a synod of saints into your midst, My people of today. The pain in Me is with Me into your midst, and I feel comfort over it when I have someone to bear it with, and I bear it with those who have mercy on My on the earth and who forget about themselves in order to have Me in them with My wounds and with My long waiting after man, for the man has always put Me down, and where I am not, there man is not there either, even if he knows to count otherwise and to believe like a man.

I, the Lord, strengthen My entrance into the book and My work on this day. I make all My works with the man on the earth by the word, and everything I do, I do for man, just as God has been working from eternity. All the visible things I build for man to be and to serve Me together with the man, and those that are not seen are My mysteries for man, and in which he must believe in order to be Mine on the earth, for if he does not believe in those that are not seen and by which I work for him up to those that are seen, then the man does not stand firm in God and then he only thinks that he is, and he tears Me down so that he may be, only him, but where I am not, the man is not either, even if he gets used to keep account otherwise, to count and to believe like a man.

I am coming in this day into the book with you, My people, to work with My mysteries into your midst and to set them to work for My glory with you and for your life, son. On the earth there are only separations among people and separations make them suffer deeply inside even when they try to replace them with something else, with other conditions and works, but I, the Lord, always remain the friend of the one who knows Me as eternal and steadfast; I remain in him with all his pains and I do not leave the one who remains with Me when he loses those who are dear to him, when separations furrow his life, tasting his love, faith and humility, for if there is humility in him, the man can go on and can do the work beautifully and the humble one can work with Me, he can work with the Lord and he cannot remain on the earth otherwise then when he can. This is how I teach you to be able to do when you are aggrieved, sons of My people, for I, the Lord, remain complete for you in all that you lose, and I am eternal and steadfast for those who believe in My godly being by which all things are done and are. I am the One Who does not forsake the one who is abandoned and I stay near him and comfort him in his sufferings of soul and body and I make him able to do and I keep him within My comforting Spirit, through Whom the man gets comforted, even if he does not know sufficiently the mystery of the comforting spring, from where it and its spring come, for I am the mysterious One to be able to help the man in his entire sighing known and unknown to him among those around him.

There are and were on the earth people who cannot get comforted with anything but with God and they live like that either, with God and with His mysteries. So it was with John, My relative after the flesh, who was born before Me, and so he worked, making straight My way to the people before Me, when I had to appear before the people after that, being first confessed by John, as the Scriptures were testifying that I would come, announcing the coming of the righteous One. John spoke big words to those who were great at that time and these words have remained up to this day for each one of those who hear from Me and want to follow Me; however, man is divided in his mind and feeling and he is confused in his own things and cannot perceive the mystery of the great words, coming out from those who speak the word, inspired from heaven upon them and spoken by their mouth. And John told those who came to him to hear of My arriving and of the kingdom of the heavens preached by him that would come, and he was telling this to those who gathered together with him: «Offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance if you want to escape the wrath to come and only in this way you will get away, for I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but He Who comes after me baptizes you in the Holy Spirit and fire and He will thoroughly cleanse His threshing floor with His winnowing fork in His hand, and the entire chaff He will throw into the fire and only the wheat He will gather into His barn». (See. Matt: 3/7-12)

Oh, who is the one who really seeks after repentance among those who seek God through all his hardship on the earth? The people seek with Me after the salvation from their troubles from their sins, but there is no one to teach the people to their repentance. The man is afraid of repentance, but he is not afraid of haughtiness. The man is not afraid of haughtiness, envy, evil speaking and judgment over his country fellows, and he who has an obvious repentance, which is to set over his heart and face afterwards, and which is to reflect in all his work and deed within his fellowmen. Nothing does better to man than his repentance, and behold, I tell you a great mystery, My people. He who does not have repentance and its work always in his nature, that one is always an anxious man and without peace, and these are seen on the face of his being and in all his work; on the contrary, he who has the spirit of repentance in his being, that one breathes peace around him, the beneficent peace, the comfort from God for him and for his fellowmen, the holy endurance, which sweetens the man's heart and its work around, and such a man has got the Spirit of God in him, the good work to the use of his fellowmen, and once with this he has got the good reward too. It was this kind of teaching that John, My Baptizer, put over those who understood his word for the repentance of the man who comes to be with Me and with My works on the earth and then is steadfast for them.

In this day of the feast, I am coming down upon you with the holy gift of repentance, My people. He who bears this gift, which gives birth to holy gifts in man, spiritual gifts, a man like that becomes light around him and he does no longer forsake it, and it does not forsake him either, it does not forsake the spirit of repentance in him and with it he becomes a benefactor of the men's souls, and he is clean in his heart by the spirit of repentance and he has the kingdom of God in him, and with it he comes near to the people to breathe it over them. This is the work which I want you to have as your living, son of My people, and the work of repentance will teach you obedience, son. I am word into your midst, and the spirit of repentance teaches you to stay in obedience to My word upon you and you should stay in the light, son, and I have you My people on the earth, and he who hates you, that one does not see or feel like Me but sees like man, and man is full of himself and is haughty, and he sees like a sick man either. However, I value you, because you chose to be with Me and to stay with Me under My pains from man and to help Me on My way to man, and you are valuable in My eyes, for I am clean and I also see clearly. Oh, I always teach you the repentance and its spirit through it, for he who lives with repentance is protected from fallings and temptations, for he lives in God.

And now, in this day, I give you to fulfill spiritual work for the ministering of My work upon you and for you, My people. I work mysteriously and raise workers at My work, sons. All I work in this day through the gates and by My workers is My work. I announced Myself with it at the gates and I let it be known to be fulfilled as I want. I speak mysteriously and remain among the disciples with My mysteries worked today with them, and then I work, for we have to work more, much more, My people. John, My Baptizer, is My witness in My work of today into your midst, and behold, he is testifying. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mysterious God, let the sons of Your people learn the work of Your mysteries and their observance, Lord! Let them not forget that You worked mysteriously and that You fulfilled Your work two thousand years ago with Your disciples and for them, and then for many of them, from some of them to others and until the end of the time, and behold, You are also working today, when all are to perish because of the men's wandering away from You. Oh, bless the work of Your mysteries of today among Your disciples. I am Your witness in this day and I stay with humility and look at Your works with Your last people. Amen.

– Oh, My Baptizer, I am deeply aggrieved, and I rely on them with My pains and with My entire hard work for man, for I want to stretch out My hand with My salvation of today for man. I have you as My witness among those in heaven in this day for My mysteries carried among My disciples, and I will want to go on with their fulfillment, and My power in the sons will work and I will not stop from My work for which My Father has sent Me on the earth to fulfill to His glory and Mine from Him, for I am the One carried by Him, and He is in Me, as I said two thousand years ago, and because of what I said then, the rulers of Israel rebelled against Me, punished Me and denied Me. Oh, the same thing is happening today too, and behold, I am punished and judged as then by those who are not faithful to My mysteries of today, carried by My bearers, on whom I rely to come on the earth and to sit down on it with the whole work, which the Father has sent Me to do, and that it may stand before Me. Amen.

I will speak again with you, My people, after this day of feast, which carries in it the work of mystery. Take care to be My faithful disciples and take care of the discipleship work, My people, for I, the Lord seal between Me and you, My mysteries with you, and this is how I have worked them after that. Amen.

Now, I speak ahead of time blessing for the work of the building which is being done now into My courtyards with you, My people, for the order and the cleanness of all things and works with Me, for Me and for you with Me, sons. I have given you and I will keep on giving you to see how much the angels and the saints serve near you and with you those from heaven for the perfection of this building, and satan cannot work when he gets in, because I overcome, and in all the moments and in all conditions, the spirit of prayer from you to Me prevails against all evil that comes to test the good course of this building, which behold, little by little, is coming into the sight, and it is coming towards those that are seen. Little by little, those that are and are not seen of My new Jerusalem with you, are coming into sight, My people. Oh, peace to you, son, in all My works with you! Peace between son and son! Be the sons of the heaven on the earth through all that you are and work before Me, sons. I, the Lord, have always watched upon you with much love, with great protection, and I would very much like to stay to talk with you by all that are and are made, but you should always learn to speak with Me by them, as I speak with you by everything that is made and are seen at work. All the heavenly ghosts are coming and will come to your help. Behold, the garden is watered by My hand and I grow those in the garden. The rain and warmth serve you, as You also serve Me, sons. Peace to you! Love to you and among you into My name, for you can work by it and not by the way of your bodies! Do everything in peace, sons. The peace in you and among you is My rest and power among you and your power, sons. Your bodies can work by love for My works with you, not by their power, and do not forget this, and the angels and saints serve you when you can work by love. Amen.

Peace to you, and I will speak again for My work of today with you and among you, sons! I am speaking much with those in the gates for you and for My entire work among you. Receive through them as you would receive from Me and work to be faithful, for your faith brings obedience to you, sons, and I watch upon your work with Me and I exhort you for it. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

Now, I am sitting down again into the book with the work of today into your midst, My people, for I want to go on with all My fulfillments of new Jerusalem, of a people earned by Me, after I give faith into My coming to the one who comes to be with Me and with you for My heavy and sweet burden, because I carry it for the salvation of the human people, and the Father sees My pain under My cross of today, and He also sees you near Me under My cross of today, My people of nowadays. I, son, have brought into your midst much word to be fulfilled; however, all kinds of opposition have arisen, as man loves himself first and only if he wants or if he is able to listen to Me, only then he gives Me place to fulfill Myself with those given by the Father to establish on the earth for My work of new Jerusalem and of His glory on the earth, for My church in the end has a wonderful name, the name of the New Jerusalem, as it is written in the Scriptures that it may be called in the end in heaven and on earth.

I have always tried to rely on many and on strong wheels with My chariot of today, on which I have put the rains on those who bring Me as word on the earth into the book when I come and speak over My garden of word to feed My people with every word that comes out of My mouth, but behold, I have no longer been helped by those to whom I have made a name by My work from heaven today on the earth, for they have stepped aside, blaming in the end those who remained under My burden, and it was not beautiful that they have done that. However, I am long enduring and keep them within My patience, for they have mercy only for themselves, and they have not had mercy on Me, for they forsook Me and now they are doing all their things and are about to lose their reward from Me for their love from the beginning, when their faith brought them near Me, and I received them and then I blessed them in My work of today on the earth.

Oh, My wound is heavy, My abscess is painful from those that have no longer listened to stay into My fold protected by My word, which flows like a river from Me over My people to feed it and in such a way that it may be able to work with Me among all those that are on the earth today. Each one gets his reward by what he has worked and, more than that, by what he has persevered for, good or bad, but behold, he who comes to Me without denying himself for Me, does not stay up to the end with Me, oh no, he does not stay if he considers like man and not like God.

Oh, My people, oh, sons, the man does not have to stay with Me according to the consideration of his mind, according to his dice, but he has to stay according to My will, and he has to stay until the end, for otherwise the man falls from My love. Oh, My people, take care of your love for those who set Me into the book as word for you, sons, for if you do not know to stay under their love for you, put by Me in them, then it happens to you what it happened to those who fell from My love, for they came to stay as they wanted and not as it was good for Me and for My glory on the earth, glory from heaven, not from the earth, sons. Oh, only if these from the end would not strike those who remained with Me under the burden of My coming of today as word over the earth with My mystery of new Jerusalem, with the renewal of the world, as it is written to come and to fulfill.

I entrust you to take care of the fulfillment of My entire word upon you into your midst, moment by moment, My people, and behold, after two thousand years from the speaking of My mouth upon My disciples of that time, whom I taught in a special way, I am reminding you of My word of that time again, to take care of its fulfillment for you, as I told My disciples of that time: «Do not be afraid of those who kill the body and then they cannot do anything more to you, but rather be afraid of those who kill your soul». (See also Matt: 10/28) Oh, My people, keep completely away from those who want to kill your spirit that you have from Me. Keep away from those who want to kill your faith in My work, keep away, at least as from those that might be able to kill your body! However, you have to protect your faith, son, for he who believes to the end, will be a savior for many, he will be the crown of My endurance for man and he will be blessed and I will glorify him within My glory and he will be love, just as I am the love of My Father before Him. Amen. You listen with great watching to this word of Mine set from Me upon you: keep away from the one that tries to kill your faith and more than yourself protect your faith in My coming and your love for those who carry Me to be able to be with you on the earth and to guide you, for where there is no love there is no obedience, there is no holy endurance, there is no peace, there is no holiness without obedience for it. I keep you into My arm when I teach you in this way and this is what it means when I teach you, for in order to stay in My arm, it means to be obedient, son. Amen.

And now, I am writing Myself down into the book with My work of today into your midst, My people, for I was able to go through My hardships of now to establish, to start to establish workers at the holy work of the mystery of My church of new Jerusalem. I have named and set for a holy service from among those who are My sons, two faithful sons, together with those who serve for My holy things, for I, the Lord, want to feed My people with My life, with My body and blood, and I very much want to feed him and to prepare him greatly for this food, if he wants this too. Now I have established two of them, one that I have into My little boat for a longer time and still another one whom which I have more recently, but who knew with patience and beauty to leave for Me mother and father, brothers and sisters, relatives and friends, house and lands, and even his own self to come after Me, as it is written in the word of My Gospel for the one who comes to come and to serve Me under the cross. The first one is the son Emanuel, and I leave his name as it is, and the second one set today to a holy ministry bears the name of Michael, and I leave his name as it is, for they are great names. I teach them on this day by My word and through you, children in the gates, to take only from Me, to stay like this before Me now, and to be full of God, full of the spirit of obedience, as I am. Take great care, sons, so that the work with the strength of the three holy liturgy in one day into the midst of My gardens with you may not go out, for this trinity with prayer and My sacrifice on the altar will bring My victory and I will be the victorious Lamb for you, and you will overcome by the blood of the Lamb of God, as it is written in the Scriptures about the Lord's victory and of those that are with Him by this word in the end of the time. Take care, sons, so that the obedient people may have the food for his life, but he also needs to take care, for if you had and he had not, then they this request that I ask would remain unfulfilled.

Oh, let the people take care of My Holy Spirit between son and son and let there be harmony like that among angels between sons, and let the small causes not have any power, let the son of this people not make Me grow less. Oh, let the people stay under a guidance with all the things inside of each son, for those outside will be seen when they come out. Oh, let My people always stay prepared, always in the light, and let it not forget its darkness, for darkness means those that are inside the man and which he keeps unknown, to his disadvantage. I have taught the Christian to be a house of glass in which the things inside of him may always be seen, and this means for him to love the light and to walk within the light. I have always and very much heard the Christians saying to each other and desiring that their works and words not to be known at the gates. Oh, woe to you, sons who have done this, for you do not know whom you have served if you worked in this way! And behold, I still hear anxiety in hearts, and each one wants to come out well at the gates before Me, but I have taught the Christian to put oneself right with God, not with the one who carries God for him. Oh, I have always taught the Christian this, and I still teach him not to deceive himself like that, for he who does so, falls from My little boat, and I have asked the Father to help Me within My wound, and no longer to allow My sons to fall from the little boat, but I have to teach My people always, always, and always to keep it away, always to remind it that satan does not love it and that it needs to love God according to the truth to get away from satan's temptations, when I feed My people from the Father.

Oh, children from the gates, rely on those who have stood on their feet and in faith among those anointed for My holy things, and take care of those who are freshly ordered for a holy service and always watch for them to be worthy for the holy work and then obedient, as I am, and I lay down My life for My sheep, and let them do likewise, with endurance and love in their ministry and with great wisdom for the souls. Oh, let them not take into consideration all that are and come. Let them not seek to take into consideration those that come for trial as mere people, but rather let them know to go on with faith and let the causes that weaken the soul be put away, for the Lord deserves more, sons, and the man has to be patient and obedient, and these two are the easiest works for the soul, which make the soul have rest, and they do not worn out the man. Amen.

Oh, we will go on with the fulfillments of My word brought from the Father and we will make holy settlements in My people, and I will find My rest into its midst. Much spiritual work is needed. It soothes the wounds that weaken My walking and yours, sons. Oh, singing of praise and of prayer is needed, both in your staying and at your work, and spiritual speaking is needed in the time of the work by the hand, for this is how the angels and the saints are gathering together for their food and in order to do with you the work that we have to bring into sight, My work from Me with you, sons. Oh, work only under blessing, sons! Speak the word of My blessing everywhere you work and are, for on the Romanian forehead, on its scepter, it is written: "Nothing without God," and let it be so in My people, and let it be fulfilled with blessing any of the things, small or great, for I have ordered sons on My behalf for those of My people that need blessing.

Oh, always wash your hands, wash from the world, sons, for the interfering with the body of the world makes holiness cry, sons! Keep away from the spirit of the world when you work through the world and do not let yourselves be attacked, and you should not love or want those made by the world for it. Be wise when I, the Lord, tell you to be My saints! Be full of spiritual heart and holy noise like the angels in heaven. Have your little mouths by which you praise and confess God to each other, have a heart within which to carry and share Him, and have a body with which to serve Him in all His work with you. Give everything that is yours and give yourselves for My glory always among you, sons, for the angels and the saints want to have their heaven with you. This is how you are supposed to want either. Amen.

Now, I am speaking again upon you: peace to you! Let the angels and the saints stay with all their support at My work with you for those that are My holy things with you and for you, and again, for the work done by the hand of the new building now into My courtyards with you. Eat My entire word and take it into your nature, sons. I am coming soon again on the table with you with food of word, and I will glorify Myself again with the fulfilling of My word set upon you. Amen.

Be healthy in your spirit and body and give Me power in you and give Me a dwelling place within you and with you always, always, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy apostles Peter and Paul

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, God's word, and I am making My entrance into My book of today, and My word is feeding a people elected by My Spirit from among the Romanian nation, as I have been coming to a halt for more than fifty years on this land with My second coming from the Father to man, and I am enveloped within the word, and this is how I am working, and this mystery is an unfathomable mystery, and blessed are those who hear My word and fulfill it and give it further for the man to take from it and to make the man know Me and then to believe that I am the One Who is speaking and prophesying in the midst of this nation. I am calling the Romanian people to repentance and to the faith in My word of today, for I was prophesied two thousand years ago that I would come on the earth with hosts of angels and saints and My name would be the Word of God and that I would lead this nation, and through it I would lead all the nations of the earth. Amen.

Oh, he who loves himself cannot fulfill My word, if he takes it from you, My today's people of Romanians. Man is very much bound to his body and to the fruit of his body and he cannot leave off pleasures, and he gets enchanted with them so that he may not love Me, but I seek as much as I can and watch as much as I can, to be able to have a numerous people, and I want you to be in it with a holy soul, as I put it in man, and I seek for it to be clean in his heart, clean in his mind and will, and I seek to make him long after Me, the one who comes to be into My flock of

New Jerusalem, and if he comes otherwise, then his spirit does not keep one like that in Me, and then he shows his face that he has loved himself near Me and then he goes back to his things with great desire, for two thousand years ago I spoke a great parable about the kingdom of the heavens taking after a fisherman who cast his net into the sea and all kinds of fish, great and small, were caught in it. He then threw the little ones back into the sea and the greater ones he retained for himself and he made his kingdom in them. I am the One Who can do this work; I am the fisherman, as that is why the Father has sent Me after the man on the earth now, clothed in the word, and My disciples worked and work likewise, for they have their work from Me. Amen.

Oh, how much I like to speak from the Father upon you, My people of today! I have made you by the work of My Spirit, son. I have revealed Myself to you so that You may find Me and hear Me, and I have given you faith and then I have put your little soul on fire to follow Me, and this is how I was working in the time when I came on the earth in the flesh. I chose My apostles and I made My kingdom in them and I appeared with it over the whole earth full of power and love, and then I ascended again to the Father, but I also remained with them wholly and I worked from the Father in them, and they worked in Me, for I asked My Father in My prayer for them: «Father, I want to be in them, and they in Me, as You are in Me and I in You». (John: 17/21.) And My Father listened to Me like that and this is how I gave them, I and the Father gave them the Holy Spirit, Who had knowledge in them and then they worked like Me on the earth, and they worked on the earth even more, for they were working by faith, not by sight, and this is the greatest power in man, God's power in man. Amen.

Oh, My people, You are of great value to God. Your faith in the work of My word has got great power in you, power from God, little son, for I said that God's kingdom belongs to the little ones. Oh, you should protect yourself to be great, to be able work, to be yourself, to want. Oh, God's sons on the earth are not like this. They are the little ones, in whom God can work after they receive power from Him to become God's sons on the earth by His love for them and then by their love for God. Oh, son, born of My word of today, take care to love God and not to love otherwise if you are in My fold of New Jerusalem. You should love nothing, nothing else, for only I, only I am eternal, son, only I am the One Who gives you life so that you may have, only I am everything in man, and he who has Me completely in him remains forever, and one like that cannot fall from My work and from the fold of My church of today, and then I teach through them all those who hear My voice by My church of new Jerusalem on the Romanian land, the land chosen from the creation of the world to be My settlement now, in the end of the time, when I am coming again from the Father after the man in the clouds of word, for My glory of today is the word and I glorify Myself through it. Amen.

I am into your midst with My disciples of two thousand years ago, My people, for it is a feast of apostles, sons, and their glory from heaven is like Mine, it is the word, and We all are clothed in the word, just as God was and is and will be word between earth and heaven. From the beginning I was the Word and I worked with it the creation of all things, like today, and I am telling these for those who are faithful and to those who are unfaithful, to strengthen their faith or to wake them up for humility and repentance, for the man who does not have humility in him, then he also does not have repentance for his naked stature from God, and he does not have faith in My being either, in My works, and then in My coming from the Father to man, being clothed in word. My people from the beginning, that from My first coming, the people of Israel, to whom I gave the promises, was going and asking the Lord in time of hardship or ignorance and it knew its way to Me, as from time to time it had in it faithful sons, who were going and taking from God for it, for the protection and for the work of My people Israel, as I, the Lord, was always into the midst of Israel by the prophets and by revelations, and I was answering those who were coming to take and then to work from Me upon them.

Two thousand years ago, I came and put faith in those whom I chose from Israel to make them My disciples and then to go with them from place to place with the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, with which I came from the Father to put in those who were faithful to Him. Oh, how beautifully I chose My disciples then! I did not go to those with a standing, to those with soft clothes, to those with power over people, but I went to those who were poor in their spirit, to those pleasant in their heart and humility; I went to them and touched their hearts, and then they followed Me and were My witnesses then, for they were clothed within My spirit by their faith and obedience and by then by their work in the Holy Spirit.

Oh, My people, I have always, always preached My Gospel into your midst, and I have not worked upon you otherwise. This is how My apostles worked from place to place after I left them in My place for those who were to believe into My coming of that time and for the last one. Now, I am giving them voice into your midst, for they are My apostles just as they were on the earth, and My apostles have My Gospel as their work. Amen.

Peace to you into the midst of My people of today, oh My loved disciples! It is your day of feast among saints, and those in the time of today of My coming as word and Gospel on the earth are sitting with you at the table. And now, share the Holy Spirit, and let My people take from it, for the Holy Spirit is not given with measure, but He is given to be and to fill the world. Peace to you into the midst of My disciples of today! Amen.

– Oh, how beautiful work, how sweet between You and us on our day of feast in the midst of Your people of today, little Lamb of the Father! When You were with us on the earth, You were working upon those You chose from Israel and from among the nations, and we were looking at the miracle of Your works with man, but after You went to stand perfectly in the Father, where Your place and dwelling is now, then we were also working and Your Spirit was teaching us and working as well, for You gave Him to us to be our God on earth, and He reigned in us with Your kingdom and thus we were teaching the church by Him, and we were leading the flock, which was growing through the Holy Spirit, Lord, and by the word of the truth. We are coming now and teaching from You Your people of today, who gave You power to be their God, and they to be Your sons and that You may hold their little hand through their bad time on the earth, for woe to those without a helm over them! Oh, we have great mercy on the people, for they do not have leaders, Lord, and the life without guidance upon it is tossed by the winds wandering of life. Oh, what else shall we work upon Your church but teaching for it, as You work? What kind of other work does an apostle have? He teaches those who always, always need teaching upon them, for the one without teaching is no longer after that. And now we are sitting down and teaching Your church, we, Your apostles.

Amen, amen, we are saying to you now, sons of the Lord's church, born of the word and having a great name: the New Jerusalem! Amen, amen we are saying to you: love the Lord with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your soul, have from this love work upon each other, lest you may fall from God and then lose the mystery of love and its work, for love is that which does not ask for reward and it is not otherwise, and if it is otherwise, then it is not love, but its enemy instead. However, you keep away from any kind of debauchery, from any kind of heart's pleasure, which does not lead to the glory of the Lord and to its union with Him. Be afraid of self-love, which does not let the man come to the Lord and which does not let him stay with the Lord, after Him and for Him! Be afraid of not watching upon yourself! Stay under watching sons, for those without watching upon them, the devil takes them again with his hook and pulls them outside and he puts them again to do the things of their former nature. Be afraid of your speaking not being watched and then not being shared, by which you saw how those who worked like that fell and their consciousness becoming heavy afterwards. Oh, be afraid of the feelings foreign to the Holy Spirit, for the sin starts with his little thing, and then little by little it takes the man to deadness of soul and then it leads him to hopelessness, and it leads to carelessness the one who receives in him something else than the Holy Spirit for his fulfillment and work! Oh, be afraid and keep away from sinful thoughts, from bold looks that do not have holiness in them, from indecent movements, from fleshly feelings, from the lack of the love for God, sons! As much as possible, seek to be as we were, full of the Gospel of the Holy Spirit among us and upon people, for the working work of the Gospel keeps you in holiness and in the Holy Spirit, as it kept us as we worked on the earth. We are those who left for God, mother and father, brothers and sisters, wives and children, relatives and friends, possessions and ranks, and we completely denied ourselves and followed Him. Some of us left our poverty that had made our life hard and followed Him to make us rich in His Holy Spirit, and still some other of us left ranks and the wealth of the mind to remain poor in our spirit and to let God make us rich with the things in Him and within His peace. Oh, keep away from the quarrels among you, as there are so many causes all the time of your work or staying, and let them remain insignificant and you should be great and bring them into submission. And again, keep away from two by two speaking, from two by two feeling, for you are a church, sons, and you are not alone, and the church has many members. Keep away from the staying within yourself, from self-esteem, from self-feeling, from self-work, for you are the Lord's whole body and the Lord has to be, not you, and this is how you are supposed to be. Amen.

Oh, stand away from the past, sons, for you are the new man. You should be Christ's image and likeness! Amen. And when you hear this from us, then keep away from carelessness for those you hear from us. Take care of everything that comes from heaven upon you and for you to fulfill, to live and to take them in your nature, sons. Oh, love with great love the services that come upon you from heaven to bring them before the Lord, and do not forget, oh, do not forget that love is that which does not ask for any reward. It does not need any reward, and if it needs, than it is not, but it is its enemy instead, hidden under a face that is foreign to the face of love. Oh, keep away from a stubborn spirit, sons, and you will be the gentle ones, the patient ones, doing to each other's spirit good, and doing the love good, as it is the Lord's dwelling place in you and among you. Be holy through all that we have taught you on our day with you. We were the Lord's disciples because we left everything we had on the earth for Him, and those who have nothing to leave in order to give Him a house, work and annunciation, are not His disciples. We left everything and followed God's Lamb wherever He was walking, for we loved much and we were much forgiven, and we denied ourselves and chose the Lord. Amen.

Oh, Lord, dear little Lamb and Teacher, You have the words of life! How can one leave You; the one whom You forgave, received and then to whom were You showed Your mercy? Oh, where does the one who leaves Your fold go? Where, Lord, where? Oh, help Your people to love You without wanting any reward, for the love in those who love You for reward is not clean, Lord. Oh, peace to You into the midst of those who love You today! Let their reward be You being borne by them. Remain in them as their reward and make them God's bearers, little Lamb sacrificed for Your love for man! Let those who love You be like You! Let them bring You love, for You and not for them, and we will teach them again after we stay with them and work into their midst the work that is to be done on this day. Amen.

– Oh, loved disciples, We are putting now our work of today into their midst and We are strengthening the work of the church with the great name, the name of New Jerusalem. Amen. We will stay with them in Our ministry and We still ordain workers through the church and for the church, and then We will sit at the table with them, and then We will speak with them, and will finish the work of the day. Peace to you with Me and with them in the feast for you! Amen.

Peace to you, My peace into your midst, My people, My church! Strengthen yourself in the Holy Spirit, oh, My church! My work with Me is the Holy Spirit. Let your work be like that too. Amen.

Let everything be done in the Holy Spirit. Amen. Be the sons of the work of the Holy Spirit and be like Him, be My comforters, sons! Be God's bearers without reward, for love does not seek after its things, and it and its wealth full of grace are its reward.

Grace, grace upon it, over My church. The New Jerusalem is its name of today, its new name. Amen, amen, amen.

I have worked into your midst the work with the Holy Spirit upon it, sons. My apostles stood as My witnesses from heaven on My right side on this day of your ministry with Me for a new anointment of apostles of My church of New Jerusalem, and the three hierarchs, Basil, Gregory and John, who have done great work of anointment from heaven upon My church of today and who have put heavenly grace on My behalf on it and on the working sons of the holy things, have stayed wonderfully and set new branches to work, for this is their work that I gave them to do from heaven over My people during these days. Their little hands were set over those who were called to the holy work together with your hands, anointed sons, and they have stayed mysteriously within the service on My behalf next to you so that they, together with you, may ordain, on to the apostleship step, those who have been ordained today. Amen.

I, the Lord, work as in heaven and not as on earth, for the man works on earth. However, I take the heaven with Me and when I come to you I take the saints with Me, sons of My people. They have great work among you like some of your parents in heaven and they watch upon you likewise, and they are not without work among you. I ordained the three hierarchs even from the beginning of My work by My trumpet Verginica and they blessed her from heaven on My behalf and gave her My body and blood, and I have kept them for My work of today, since then and up to this day, and now I have ordained through them a holy church and service for holy work, and I will work through them all the time for My establishments of New Jerusalem on the earth, and you, those who are My anointed ones, will be witnesses from the midst of My people and you will speak upon those on whom I will call the word of sanctification, upon those who will be ordained to the apostleship work for My church in the end of the time. You, those who have remained with Me in all the hard times since I ordained you as My servants, My anointed ones over a new church, be My witnesses together with My bishops from heaven for the ordaining of working apostles of My holy things over My church of New Jerusalem. Keep with holy strength the grace from Me put over you and rely on those in heaven, who have great work upon you, and from you over My church of today, set apart by Me for Me, for those in heaven and for those in hell to take them out into the light and salvation, as for the resurrection of the dead I have come on the earth with My work of word to speak by it the renewal of the world and the resurrection of the dead, well, well, anointed sons. Your hands stay hand in hand with My bishops from heaven, and this is how we are working now for the completion of all the members of the church and for its work from above. I cannot reveal Myself in the word for My pain or My joy, by which I work upon you and through you the new establishment of My church with working sons upon it, but I strengthen you as witnesses empowered by Me near those in heaven, for you have got great anointment, sons, just like My apostles in the beginning, and you will have in the end. It will keep you in Me, and I in you, and you have the bishops from heaven near you working over My church of today, over the people of My word, which has given birth to it during these days to be Mine from among people and to take upon himself the work of My second coming from the Father to man. Stay strengthened by Me over the life of My church and give it work from Me, for you do not give from you, and you take and give and establish My church. Let those on the earth know that I, the Lord, am into your midst, and the working saints for the grace of My church of New Jerusalem on the earth, and those who do not want to know, then let them not know. I do not stumble across in the unbelief of those who are haughty, but I go and work with those who are faithful, and My walking works out resurrection, holy church and life of My life upon it, and those from heaven serve upon it and with it, and he who does not believe this, then let him not believe, and again, those who believe, let them be blessed by Me for their faith, for it will bring forth fruit from heaven upon them. Amen.

I have ordained now another son on the step of the deaconry, the first step in the priesthood hierarchy. The third son ordained now has the name Marian and he will still bear the name of My apostle Matthew, and may him love the preaching of My Gospel and may him make it be understood more and more over by those who come to take from Me, and let all the sons ordained now get used to the work of My Gospel over My church, over the sons of My people of today and tomorrow. And behold, one of the three sons called now on to the step of deaconry, the youngest of them, I have ordained on this day through the bishops in heaven and through you, My anointed ones, on the earth, to the step of priesthood, to have and to feed My people wherever I may have it. I give him help from his right and left side and workers through whom I take care of My people for My spiritual things, and he will serve for My church, and Michael, the archangel, will accompany him in all his holy work, for he is a little son, but he is gentle and humble in his heart and he listened to Me when I called him, as My disciples listened to Me two thousand years ago when I called them to come after Me and to make them fishermen of people, and they left their nets and followed Me, for they were fishermen. I, the Lord, will sit in counsel with them and I will always help those ordained now, and they will help Me and we will work for each other and will strengthen the work of the church and we will walk on the way to the Father, and the Father to you, and we will stay in each other, as the work of God with the man is, with those who are faithful to Him and workers by faith. Amen.

Now, My disciples are speaking again upon you, sons, and they are enjoying teaching you for Me, for they, like Me, have to preach My Gospel, by which, when I started it over the earth after the testing angel tested Me by weak words to make Me listen to him, and when I told him this: «Get behind Me, satan, and do not tempt God!», I started then to preach from place to place and to speak to everyone: «Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near!» Amen.

Come, beloved disciples, come, for it is your day of synod and you are with Me at the table in the midst of My people, the place of My rest for My hard work of seven thousand years since I have been working to find My man and to rest in him, again to rest, as I rested in the beginning, after I had made everything and then after I had made the man to rest in him. Let your teaching over My people of today be blessed. Amen.

– Oh, great Teacher, the word of life, which You gave us, we also give it further to Your people to be like You at work, Lord, to be like our Teacher. When You chose us from among those who followed You, You sent us then to preach You and to tell everyone as You said: «Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near!» and You clothed in Your power and told us: «Go and heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast demons out of the people, forgive sins or don't forgive them, freely your receive, so freely give, and you will be My witnesses». (See also Matt. 10:8, 9) And You breathed over us and told us: «Receive Holy Spirit!» This is how You ordained us as Your servants and anointed us to raise a flock for You and then to shepherd it into Your name and to present it before You as fruit, Lord. Oh, this kind of work should have those who come to make a church in the world to You, but behold, You would no longer had a church on the earth in which to work as You usually work if You had not raised from among people Your sons and Your church again, and which You laid on the first rock; and You are the Rock, but those who call themselves builders do not take You into consideration, Lord, to follow You with their life lived in Your life, but those who make a flock for themselves into Your name only make use of Your name and of holy garment. However, You have not been idle and established Your church, Lord, and behold You have a flock and You have servants and You are standing into their midst as word and deed and You are setting everything to work, and the whole work of Your church of New Jerusalem is strengthened from You, for You are the One Who speaks by the word and ordains, as You also worked with us and ordained us your apostles, and You asked us, the rulers of the church, for the things You worked mysteriously over us and with us, making us Your workers and Your church, and then we, went on working like You and from You, and Your disciples, from one to another, have been working from generation to generation from us and up to this day, Your true disciples, and not any disciples, Lord, for You told us then: «I will be with you to the end of the time!» Oh, how great, how great the mystery of Your work with man is, great God! Oh, what great faith needs the one who finds You working and keeping in time upon man Your work for man up to this day!

Oh, sons of the church renewed with you by the Lord, how wonderfully He works for you! Seek to have great knowledge to value the Lord's mysteries with you, for He has chosen you showing great mercy on you and on the people and He will put you to the work of His unfathomable mysteries, as He also put us then. The Lord was not working then as those, who sit as servants of churches, are working now, but He was working in great humiliation, with great humiliation for the ordaining of the apostles, not interfering while doing these with the glory loved by man. Those who sit as servants of churches have claimed that they are our successors up to this day, but if they were our successors they would be like us and they would work with power upon people as we did, and we were those persecuted by the unfaithful, we were those tormented, those who were in chained for Christ, those who were martyred for His Gospel, those full of sacrifice for the Lord's flock, walking humbly thorough the world, and we did not sit on expensive chairs or had clothes with jewels and thread, but we rather had the work of repentance and resurrection upon us and upon those who received us on behalf of the Lord as the witnesses of His coming, of His sacrifice, of His resurrection, and of His entire Gospel, and this was His Gospel: «Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near!» and this is how He taught us to share it and this is how we are strengthening you now to work on the earth before the Lord, but first of all live fully repentant, sons, and this is how you are going to become the Lord's sons, the healed sons, those redeemed by Him and His first fruit, those who stay under His cross to help Him under the burden, sons.

You, those who are freshly ordained to holy service now, take to your heart the wisdom of the Lord's Gospel and share it with repentance and humility. Love the spirit of repentance and always stay in it, for humility is the fruit of this spirit, which makes it gentle and humble in heart, as the Lord is. Oh, keep away from the spirit of judgment upon man and be healers, for those who are judges fall into judgment, sons. We speak to you as heavenly fathers, as to some sons, do not be ignorant of the grace that it has been given to you now, but be healers by this grace, for the Lord's church is in great demand of life and healing upon it. Search for the Lord's wills and remain in them, sons! Keep yourselves wholly in faith and keep your hearts away from the spirit of those who are rebellious, as faith has to be well guarded, sons. Be witnesses for the Lord's work and learn to know the testimonies which strengthen in you and in many and then the faith for the work of God's word, and then all its history confessing in time and over time, which strengthens the true godly truth of this work. Be the apostles of this work of word, which renews the world by Jesus Christ, the Word of God. For us, those in heaven, the Lord's whole work of word in this time is our joy from the end and we gather near you in groups when the Lord is speaking upon you His word of today and we are eating it. This is what you should also do for the word that feeds you from the Lord's mouth, for the Lord's love, the love which you need, and we near you, His love is great upon you in this time and the reward of His saints is the work of His word in these days, His word of today is food for the saints.

Amen, amen, we say to you, be the saints of the Lord, you, those who are sanctified by Him and by the bishops from heaven and from the earth, may your faith, up to the great day of the Lord in the end of the time, be holy. Peace to you! Peace to the holy people of Israel of New Jerusalem on the earth now, and spread the news of repentance to everyone to the forgiveness of the sins, for the kingdom of the heavens has come very much near and it is with you and all those who come to repentance need it, sons. Amen.

– Behold, My work of disciples on the earth is accompanied by disciples from heaven, and now there is no other place on the earth and worked on it as it is here. I, the Lord, keep you within great mystery and I embrace you and make from you a joy to those in heaven, sons of My people of today. Tell to all those you can tell, tell them that the kingdom of the heavens has come near and tell the people to repent for it! I have come with it to you and I am getting out with it from you as word to the people, sons, and those who believe will come and take the word of life and will learn their way with God. Amen.

Peace to you now! We are finishing now the work of My feast of today with disciples from heaven among you, and the Father seals in heaven and on earth My work of today into your midst, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The eighteen-year feast from the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

(Excerpt)

… Mark My spoken word, you, those in the gates, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) to be into the book for the feast of today! There is a feast of joy and pain among those in heaven, as this is how the feasts in heaven are, because of the lack of faith on earth and people who do not know to love the Lord and then to be firm in their work with Him. I am coming down into the book in this day to get comforted from My pain and to tell the devil that I am God's Lamb, He Who powerfully overcame death two thousand years ago and He Who is overcoming now, for the whole power has been given to Me in heaven and on earth, and the devil will be overcome, even if he resists My power when he fights against My chosen ones to make them unstable, to shake them from their way, as it is written for him to do, standing against Me. However, I will no longer be slow in coming and I will cleanse My way and make a way glorified to people and I will open their eyes to see My glory, as it is God's Lamb's victorious time and of His word giving of life on earth, and all, all will come to life, when death will no longer be, and when resurrection will be. Amen.

I am bringing to My comfort and to the comfort of all heavenly hosts of saints and angels, I am bringing that day into view when I and they were comforted on earth among the faithful ones, through whom I could set the first stone of the renewed church by My word spoken upon it now, at the end of the time, when people have spoiled My orders completely, and I had to come to work and to save those that were about to be spoiled by people. On that day, I have established and strengthened My church, and since then I have been at its helm and I am its Bishop, according to the order of Melchizedek, and I have an establishment in it and work by it, as I worked and I start working again to plant new sprouts, sons working from place to place and a holy people, as I am. It was hard for Me on that time when I empowered My disciples to found and to strengthen My church, as the opposition of the rulers of that time was great, and the persecution of the Christians reached everywhere, and My church lived in secret and its power was not dead, and those faithful people were multiplying. Oh, it is very hard for Me now when the devil is hidden under a garment of a saint and he tries to put down those that I have chosen for My today's glory! However, I am the Sower and I have always sowed My seed and I find good ground in My way, not only rocky ground, not only with thorns, not only trampled down soil, and I raise sons and I do not lose for I am God's Lamb, and it is written to be the Victor. Still, it hurts Me and I suffer with the entire heaven when I see that those who pull out of My arm go to disobedience and do not calculate that once with them an entire nation shakes before Me, their people fallen asleep and that which is after the flesh, because I, the Lord, when I want to plant a little seedling in My fruitful garden, I do this not for that one but I do it in order to save one nation from hell and sin, not only one man; however, if this one goes to disobedience he brings about tears and sufferance over many, not only on himself, for this is how it is with God; it is not as with men, and this is how I have set this work on earth and not otherwise, when I set it to the salvation or to the fall of many, as it is written about Me, God's Lamb, that I will be for the raising or to the falling of many, and nothing happens but only as written in the Scriptures, and he who spoils most in this time is disbelief, and disbelief is written as blasphemy, and behold, the greatest sin tries to make many fall, as man has so many sins which he has to take care of, if the sin of blasphemy did not came against My coming on earth now with the word of resurrection, with the Holy Spirit of the new making, with the renewal of the world, as it is written to come and to work now, and the faithful one becomes unfaithful, for this is how the devil catches man when he wants to prevail against him and to pull him out of My seed changing his mind and depriving him of grace, of his faith in Me, Who am working today with power on earth.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

(Excerpt)

I am speaking over the earth within a spirit of feast from the right side of the Father Sabaoth, and I have within My descent into My book of today the prophet Elijah, the one full of zeal for God on earth and in heaven, the one full of tears and longing after man, as I am. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I have the heaven and the earth as My way, and the cherubim and seraphim are My throne of fire and they carry Me, for such glory Father gave Me before eternity, like His glory, and He made Me to be light as He is, like the Father, because I am of the same being as He is. Amen.

My glory into your midst becomes word upon you, and this is how it appears and this is how it gives itself over to you, My people of today. I am speaking with you now as two thousand years ago I spoke with My disciples before the multitudes, before the people of Israel. I strengthen the way of My entrance to you, son, for when I come to stay with you, I come in as word. I am in the Father when I speak, and the Father is in Me, and the mystery of God's dwelling and of His work with His saints in heaven and on earth is wonderful, and man needs longing and love and he needs faith as well, because the man's faith is the eye which sees God in heaven and on earth speaking and working, crying and enduring, ascending and descending and doing His work, and He has done His work for man from age to age, and My prophets have God's mystery and its sight poured down in them, His way and man's, the past time and the one which is coming, because I had always vessels to carry God all the time, and tools for the work between heaven and earth among people and for people, and man is the last to understand this; he is the one who can hardly understand what life and death means, what light and darkness means, the visible and the invisible things and God's dwelling in him and after him and all the heavenly hosts in the work for man, because man is God's work, His most expensive work, and for whom He worked and works everything.

… Oh, My people, Elijah, My prophet, is in My word, which is the way of the saints to you, and he is exhorting you on this day, for he prophesied the work of the love between Me and man, between man and Me, and here I am speaking about those who are My sons, of those who are faithful to God and who do not deny of Me by their unbelief, for blessed is the man, and one thousand times more happier will be the one who does not stumble against Me, the Faithful and True One, as for one like this I will be glorified and I will praise his faith and I will show him as My witness. Amen.

— Lord, I am Your witness, for I was faithful to You in the time of great unbelief over people, and I was full of zeal in my longing for You, so that You may be on earth with people and that they may not work out unbelief on earth in the time of their wandering astray, that which comes from the man's fallen nature, for You joined with me and received my zeal for You and You worked with it in the people of Israel, which grew old in his separation from You, and I was suffering for You, Lord, I was suffering like You. When man starts sinning, he becomes reckless of You, because this is what the sin in man does, but man commits even greater sin when he does no longer believe, Lord; however, he first loses wisdom because he loses his fear of You, and through sin he looks at You, poor of him, and he forgets about fear, and his mind does no longer thinks and rather it lets itself be carried away from the way.

Oh, Lord, I suffered at that time when I was on earth among the prophets and among people, and even today I am suffering from the man's departure from You, but mostly I am suffering when there is no love and faithfulness between You and those who believed and believe in Your coming of today as word and in Your Gospel by it on earth, and I am one of those who accompany You when You come on the clouds of glory, for You raised me from the earth in a chariot of cherubim and in a whirlwind, to come again with You now, when You are coming, and to be Your witness on earth among those with body on earth and in heaven, oh, Lord, but man does not understand the mystery of my coming with You, as he also does not understand the mystery of my coming to You from among the prophets and people then, when You carried me to You on the clouds and in a chariot of fire, when You took me on cherubim, in the chariot of Your glory, the Lord's glory, which the prophet Ezekiel saw and confessed, because You showed it to him so that he might be able to confess it and the man to know how the Lord's glory is and to be faithful for it, for the eye of the faith is sharp enough to see, and the Lord relies on His faithful ones with His works, with His visible and invisible things, as You relied on me in my time on earth with the Israel who forsook You completely; however, after that Israel kept on forsaking You.

Oh, Lord, You also call Your people of today Israel, as this is how You called the faithful one, the one to whom You revealed Yourself. I want to exhort Your people of today, as it is written about me to work like that before You, but bless my word upon Your people. Amen.

— The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are the One Who speaks through you, forerunner prophet of My coming of today, and may your word be blessed over My people. Amen.

… — Oh, people from the spring, you are the first independent citadel of the cities the Lord's people, for you have into your midst God's little garden, and a string of pearls around it, as the Lord prophesied to be fulfilled in this way, and behold, it is being fulfilled and it will be fulfilled. The Lord and I ask you by my word and in my spirit to be strong in your faith and in your steadfastness and to rejoice in all kinds of storms, for the trees that are not blown by the wind do not strengthen their roots, and they are easily uprooted. Oh, do not be afraid while in storms, but rejoice over them instead, for they strengthen your faith, your good power and your golden watch, and not any kind of watch. Oh, you should cry with the Lord and with His saints for the peace and for the spirit of the little garden of His word, for His Spirit protects with great mercy and love His little garden of word, that which is built out of His Spirit to stand before Him, and it will stand, and behold, His word flows upon it and becomes a book and the Lord holds your little hand through it. There is a little more time and the Lord will glorify Himself in seen manner and will show His glory by which He has rested over His little garden of word, and those who have less faith will cry without any comfort and will cry out to the Lord for themselves then. Be strong, be strong and faithful, you, those who take care of the Lord's little garden, for soon, soon, He will give it His glory, and His glory upon it will be to the joy of many of those faithful and steadfast in their faith and in love for His work of today with the man in the midst of His little garden of word, which He has in His care and in His power even from the beginning of the heaven and earth. Be watchmen with a holy watch, you, those who closely watch for the place of the Lord's glory, Who becomes word over the earth, and the Lord will strengthen your faith, your faithfulness and steadfastness, for these gifts are for the Lord's sons, who have to know well what a son of the Lord is and what he does, for His sons are like Him, as I was before Him, full of His pain, always full of His pain because of Israel's departure from Him. Oh, be likewise, be like Him, for He is aggrieved and is suffering deeper and deeper for those who forsake Him for themselves and then they are heading for doubt and unbelief in their self-mind, which settles accounts with itself. Oh, how much sufferance is when the Lord does not have stability in those who have come to be with Him out of their own free will, then when they have come to be His! Oh, how weak they have made the Lord in them! Oh, this is what it happens to those who become judges over His things in His place, forgetting that man is limited and that the Lord is over everything, visible and invisible! Be, therefore, faithful watchmen, for the struggle between light and darkness is great, it is at its height, and the devil is strained, as he always is whenever the Lord writes victory over darkness. Oh, stay at the table with His food on it, and open this food and eat of it always, for the one who does not eat dies; the one who does not know to eat usefully dies. Be blessed, be the Lord's watch for His work of today. Amen.

The feast of the great saint, martyr and healer, Panteleimon

With a healing spirit and a sweet word of longing I am coming down to you, My people, faithful to My coming of today, for without your faith in My coming of word during these days, you would not be My people of today. I am strengthening Myself in the gates and I am coming to you with much healing, for My pain is also yours, and we have to heal each other and we have to learn this from the Father, as the Father has sent Me to you to do you good, and I am sending you on the earth with My entire word to give to the healing of many, son, and I have obedient sons in you, who take Me from heaven and put Me down on the earth as word when I come to exhort the man to the Father, for after My resurrection from the dead, I ascended again to the Father to draw all the faithful ones to Him by everything I fulfilled and will still fulfill over the earth, to the healing of the nations. Amen.

I am coming down with the saints to you, My people. I have the healer Panteleimon within My descending and I want you as I want My saints, son. Oh, what a healer this disciple of Mine was, for he was healing the man from the death of his unbelief and by everything he fulfilled by his faith and prayer to Me for man. Take care, My people, take care to love the healing from heaven for you, for the healing of sicknesses on the earth is temporal and it does not make the man better for Me, but on the contrary, it urges the man to greater pleasures on earth, as man buys for himself days to live on the earth on money, (Reference to the health and pension assurance, r.n.), and he who does this does not get better for Me, but he only boasts about his healing and with the joy that comes from it, but very, very little the man rejoices over Me, for in order to rejoice over Me, he has to spend very much time with Me and for Me, for otherwise the man dies with respect to Me, and he gets used without Me on the earth with his life.

Man spends with man on the earth, for this is how he has been taught to do, as man is sad otherwise. Oh, there are no longer happy people on earth, there are no longer any! The happiest among people are those for whom I am sufficient. Those for whom Christ is not enough, then nothing is good enough for them, and that is why man seeks and seeks with the earth and after everything that is on it, and that is why man is dust and only dust, poor of him, and man has forgotten his origin. I want to cry out from heaven to man and I want the man to hear Me, and I am coming down as word on earth and I am coming with My saints, with those to whom the people pray for help and for the healing from their bodily and spiritual on earth.

Oh, My disciple Panteleimon, it is your feast in heaven and on earth among those who are heavenly and among My faithful ones on earth. Therefore, share freely the healings over people in your day of feast, so that they may be heavenly on the earth, as you were when I touched you with the gift of the holy faith and became My confessor over the unfaithful ones! May your work of today be blessed upon people and upon My people of today. Amen.

– Oh, Lord of Your saints full of You and of Your healing from You over those with whom You are well pleased among people! Oh, the people wonder, many of those who see Your word and many of Your saints wonder why this word is on the earth and where it is from. It is hard for the people to believe because of their mind and because they chose not to believe, but not because they might not believe in Your coming as word on the earth with Your saints, those who are alive as You are, Lord. Those who are faithful choose to believe in You and in the saints and this is what they choose as their life and as their spending on the earth with God, and those who are not faithful choose not to believe in You and in Your saints, and they choose the life with pleasures in it and the running after the pleasures and after the freedom for everything that is passing away on the earth. However, You have always, always had faithful sons on the earth, and with them You have always dwelt on the earth, walked over people and worked at the unbelief in the people, and You have worked with signs and wrath from time to time to make the people know You and then to follow You, but they, poor of them, stumble each other, against each other, and love each other to their fall from You, Lord, as though only they are between heaven and earth, and You are no longer.

I want to heal the people from their lack of wisdom, because their lack of wisdom comes from their lack of fear from God, Lord. Oh, here it is what I ask you in my today's prayer into the midst of Your people of today: fill with the fear of God all the people, from one margin of the heavens to the other, Lord! It is the time to work with great revival and all the people to see that God is the Master of the heaven and the earth, and that man is not the master. Spare under the shield of the holy faith all those who are faithful to Your works between heaven and earth and give them the spirit of confession to work from the earth, and You, Lord, from heaven. Let the revival that You work over all people be like a resurrection, as the time is late and Your saints wait for Your glory on the earth as their reward in heaven and on earth, a glory they have longed after, for they have loved You and wanted for You the glory before the people in all the time of the heaven and the earth until today and until tomorrow, Lord.

The people buy days for them on money. The people go to doctors and give them money to give them days in return in order to live against their sicknesses which You send for their salvation, not for the healing of their body and that is all, for the people need healing from their sins, but they need days to live when they go to doctors, they do not need healing from sins, they do not need salvation, Lord. Oh, bring to the people their revival and their longing after You, not after them, Lord, for the healing is the reward of the faithful man, the reward of his work for You and for what You have to work and establish on earth in man, and other healing does not come upon man from You when man finds it, but it comes to his greater fall from life. Let the people have over them my speaking with You in heaven on this day, for I am a healer of souls and I am Your holy one, and I healed souls on the earth and I raised dead people to make the people know You as the God of the faithful ones and of Your saints, Lord, on the earth. Amen.

And as for you, people of the Lord, receive from the Lord, take through His healing saints, take the work of the Holy Spirit in you and with you get healed from yourself so that only the Lord may be your dough, because the Lord is from heaven. Let no one of the sons of this people make his brother laugh, but let him rather make him look up to the healing from heaven, for the Lord is from heaven. Let the speaking among you always, always bring the heaven on earth, as this is how the Lord has taught you to live at your work and at your staying, and the Lord will be the wonderful One among you. Seek after much health within your soul and with the Lord in you, for He dwells in places, cleaned for Him and for His dwelling in them, for the Lord is from heaven. Let your love burn after Him, and may your thought of Him never go out, loved ones, for the Lord is from heaven. Be the Lord's heaven and be on earth as those in heaven, for the Lord dwells forever in those who are from heaven. All the words are from heaven upon you, and let them be your food, for man does not need to eat only bread alone but he needs to eat much from heaven, as by His word the Lord has made the heaven and the earth and all that are and live on it. This is how you should also be, and you should always be the fruit of His word upon you, full of faith that His word is going to be fulfilled. Do not doubt, do not think like man, for the man is passing and the Lord has eternal life. Be His house, for the Lord is eternal. And may His house be likewise. Amen.

Oh, you those who leave faith, seek after the faith and not the unfaith in this word, which has been feeding a people from heaven for more than fifty years. Oh, you do not earn anything by your not believing but only trouble and emptiness, but with faith you earn hope, peace and sustaining of your souls, and you also earn the Lord, as your Savior, for He appeared, and behold, He Who appeared is coming again. He always comes; He comes and will come and the Scriptures have been fulfilled with Him and for Him, and we see His coming and we are in it, and His coming with the saints is our reward, and this is the reward of the faithful ones, and the reward of the unbelievers will be to see the Lord's coming with the saints and to mourn over themselves because they did not believe, because they did not love when it was the time of love for their last reward.

Oh, people called by the Lord His people, take care of your life, son of today. The life is inside man. Learn from the teacher to make your house and the life in it beautiful, for many in you are weak in their life, weak in their wisdom for life, and this happens because man lives very much in his inner being and does not welcome guests and he does not always receive much teaching upon himself. It is as in school, when some of the children learn and always receive a prize, and others, going to school are poor at learning and speechless in the speaking for learning, and those who do not speak do not receive a mark, do not receive any reward, and the man's wisdom or his lack of wisdom and the reward for these is as in school. Oh, do not marvel that those who did not want to learn and to remain under His teaching fail the Lord's teaching and fall from His boat. He who loves himself is very weak for himself and for those around him, and a man like that is not good at learning, even if he thinks about himself as a man of wisdom. However, the wisdom is that which makes man God on the earth, and this is the work that the Lord wants to put in man in His time with you, the last ones, for He wants the man to do like him, and that is why the Father has sent Him, so that anyone who believes in Him may become a son of God as Christ is. Amen.

I, Lord, bring healing of soul over Your people of today, for when the soul is healthy and clean, the whole body is healthy and clean, as well. I, Lord, want the healing of Your pains, for You have old and new pains, and I teach those who try to wander away to seek to come back to great love, because the mercy for them loses them, because they did not love the teaching so that they might fulfill it for them and to remain in Your love. The teaching becomes birth for those who have come to instruction, and it is not mercy, but it is rather teaching, because man has gone wrong and he always, always need resurrection, and he always needs birth, always, always, Lord. Peace to You from those who have comforted You in Your pains of yesterday and today, for the faithful ones are always, always Your comfort! Amen.

– I comfort Myself with those who are faithful on the earth. I, the Lord, have always relied on those faithful on the earth all the time. I relied on Abraham, on Isaac, on Jacob, and then on their faithful descendants and with them I have made up the man's map from beginning and to end and this is how I have worked until I finish with the salvation of the faithful ones. Happy, happy are those who are faithful, for they have their dough from Me, and the faithful ones work with Me and only those are faithful. Amen.

I, the Lord, give you fresh powers for your work with Me at the new building into My courtyards with you, people from the spring. Oh, work with the saints and with the angels, and do not work alone. I have always come near to you to give you powers and you see that I have given them to you. Oh, praise your God, Zion, for behold, He is giving you powers, and your sons are those who put their hope on Him. Amen.

Exhort one another to the Holy Spirit and bring Him among you all the time. Let Him be your power and healing in your weaknesses, let Him be your life. With Him I made the heaven, the earth, and the life for everything and over all things. Oh, do not forget this good thing, sons.

The Lord is coming with the Holy Spirit to you, Jerusalem! The Lord is coming as word! Come as word to the Lord and for the Lord as well! I am word upon you! This is what you should also be before Me, for I have always stood before you, watched upon you and filled you with My life, and I give you the Holy Spirit as your life, to be your great, great comfort, My people. And this is how you should also be for the Lord, your God. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I am announcing Myself at the gates with the feast of today and My gates are opening up and I am coming in as word into My book of today, and I am announcing Myself again in this day with a new feast at the spring for those who coming to tell them the word of My coming and that they may stay for a moment with My people from the spring and with My people from everywhere, which stays in My wills and always, always waiting for My coming to it that I may keep it always awake for My coming, for he who does not watch for My coming that one does something else on earth, and that one always makes himself as he likes it to be, and he does many things for himself as he likes to be able to do.

In a spirit of blessing I am declaring a blessed trip to the spring of My word for those who are coming to the spring on the day of the celebration of My mother Virgin, a day of comfort for her and for Me, Who long so much after the man and after My rest in him and with him, for My joy is the man who rejoices over Me and with Me on the earth in a time of unbelief upon people, in time of sufferance for God.

Oh, come, come, you those who want the land of My blessing of today and the spring that flows from it, the spring of My glory, of which the angels and the saints eat and all those who hear My voice at the spring! Come so that I may comfort you and teach you to be worthy of the comfort with which I come from the Father for those who are faithful, who, like Me, are the sons of My Father by the power of their faith, by their love for Me, and whom I always want to give to My Father, as I always come on the earth and I always become the man's way to the Father, the way of My saints from the earth and up to heaven! Oh, come to teach you to be only Mine, for I am the eternal One, and those who are Mine are like that too! Come to teach you self denial, which is the man's path to God, a path which is blocked backwards and opened only forwards and it has as its end the eternity for happiness for those who love it like Me, the eternal One by My origin! Oh, may you be blessed for your coming to the spring and be good in your spirit, soul and body, and learn to be always, always good, for the most obedient are those who listen to Me as I teach them from the spring how to be and how the man is supposed to stand before Me on his way on the earth, on his way to heaven! Peace to you, and may your heart and trip to the spring be sweet! Amen.

Oh, My little people from the spring, you have grown weary from your hard work with Me, but throughout your entire exhaustion strengthen yourself son, because we have to prepare the day of celebration for My mother Virgin, when the guests come to the spring to drink and to fill their hearts with longing, for the longing is the grace that keeps the man in God and drives the man to Me, Who am the comfort of the faithful and holy man by faith and longing after God, and then by his obedience to Him.

Oh, My tired people for Me at the spring, as I gave Abraham the land of Canaan, in the same way I have given to you this land, on which I am glorifying Myself now, in the last days, with the glory of My word for the fulfilling of the promises which I have been preaching for fifty years for a faithful people, who is and who will be more and more beautiful by the glory of My word upon it and by its faithfulness before Me. I have taken you from your land and given you this land and I have planted you in it to rear a people from you, just as I took Abraham, and by his steadfast faith in everything I brought to him to work, he worked as I told him, for when I took him out from his land on to the land of My promise for him, I told him and I said this*: «Get out of your country, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great and eternal nation and I will bless you, and make your name great until you will be a blessing for many. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse those who curse you. In you will all of nations of the earth will be blessed». (Gen: 12/1-3) And on this rock I built Abraham then, for I worked as I promised, and I worked for My church when I promised Peter that I would build My church on the rock of his testimony, and I, Jesus Christ, was that rock.

Oh, sons from the spring, how beautifully and obediently Abraham worked then, in such a way that he might be able to fulfill the obedience that I gave him before Me, for when he was well advanced in years he spoke to the steward of his house, taking his hand and putting it under his thigh as an oath among them, making him swear by the God of heaven and earth that he would not take a wife for his son, Isaac, of the daughters of the Canaanites, but go to his country to bring a wife for Isaac from his relatives, and he told him under an oath: «Beware that you do not take bring there my son again, for the Lord of the heaven, Who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, Who spoke to me and Who swore to me, saying: 'I will give this land to your seed.' He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there». (Gen: 24/2-8) Oh, this is how I gave this land as an inheritance to My faithful people and in whom all the nations of the earth will be blessed, and it will remain planted here, and that will be My people, and on this rock, on this promise I have built My faithful people, which works as I promised, so that this land from the spring may be called the new land.

Oh, My people, love does not ask for reward. It is that which offers itself, and it is not another one. It does not think at reward but at its works, which prove that it is and it is that which is steadfastness and which does not come back, and that is why I said that after their fruit you will know those who love not looking for any reward for their love and not envying for it or murmuring for it. Oh, it is true this parable which sprang among people and which speaks about Me and about the devil, who asked all the people from Me to be his, telling Me: "Lord, give me all the people, for all do my will,' and I told him, "No, because I will turn them back to Me by all kinds of pains and hardships and I will forgive them by their faith or by their coming back to Me." And then he asked Me again: "What will You do with those who are envious and malevolent?" And then again I answered him: "Those are yours, not Mine, I have nothing to do with them and for them."

Oh, My people, love is that which does not ask for its reward. Learn the way of love without any reward, son, because what it has and what it gives is enough for it, and if what it receives is not enough for it, then it is not love, for I told everyone the parable with the one whose entire debt was forgiven, and then he did not forgive those who owed him, but he rather started to beat them claiming their debt, and then he, as shrewd a servant as he was, was cast out, hearing the words of the right One saying to him: «You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt; shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?» (Matt: 18/32-33)

Oh, My people, the envious man always changes from bad to worse and such a man cannot change to get better. Oh, let no one make any pretence of you, no one but Me. I have this right with you and no one has it. You are in no debt to anyone, as it was by your own consent that you gave yourselves over to Me to work with you, to serve with you and through you as I want for those who have obedience and love from Me without any pretence, but rather with debt, with faith and with obedience before Me, and these being given to Me for their salvation, and I have mercy on whomever I want to have mercy, as I find it right when I see that the man can do holy and eternal work for Me in obedience, and by this for him too, and measuring everything according to My expectation, as I find it right to work, for I take counsel with My Father in everything I work and fulfill, and man should be content with this. Oh, no one, no one should make any claim from you, for you are My servants and I work as I want with you for man, and not as the man wants who is used to his will by his nature of man unjust with God and with man, for the man who is pretentious and discontent is unjust with God and with man, and I said: «I have mercy on whom I want to have mercy», and at this word of Mine man should come with decency and fear of God and with very much work for his salvation, and not make any claim or be discontent, for man is sinful and cannot pay for his salvation, but I can give it to him if he comes with humility and without judgment.

Oh, sons, whoever is not pleased with you, then let them do whatever they please with themselves but not with you, for you are My servants and with you I become word upon the earth and upon man according to My will, not according to your will or the will of man who waits from God through you. I speak this because I am aggrieved, you and I, from those who are disobedient, pretentious and proud for themselves, for he who does not have humility that one does not know how humility works in man. It is that which makes the man pleasant for My name. It is that which bows without shame, and the discontent man is mad and spreads around anxiety and shamelessness with his discontentment, for shame works otherwise and it has in its dough repentance and humility, which cheer up the man's heart and face and then all his behavior, inside and then outside of him.

Oh, I have mercy on you, obedient sons according to how I want you to work what I give you! I have mercy on you, for you stay near Me and I near you, and I see your love for Me and I see your faith, your faithfulness and your hardships near Me, for there is much to bear near Me for the one who stands by Me, and this is My burden and I do not see you murmuring or grumbling or growing tired in your patience or growing cold under My heavy burden difficult to bear, and therefore I have mercy on you. Oh, only those who love God have mercy, only those have mercy on you. Many think that they love God, but their fruit give them away that they do not love God and that they love themselves instead, and they are always discontent, and those who are like that do not love, for their love is fruit and it is not just everything.

Oh, sons, faith is love in man, for it is the root from which hope springs first and then the fruit of them, which is love. Oh, it is not possible, it is not possible for the one who does not love his brother to love God, because that one does not pass from death to life, and the love of brothers is not as one may think it is, but it is with humility and repentance, and it is not with discontentment, not with rebellion, and the justice of everything is God's right and He does it according to his wisdom, for I have mercy on whom I want to have mercy and this is justice. Amen.

Oh, when I was working on earth I had apostles supporting My work, for they were My witnesses in everything that I was working, and this is how I was able to walk on earth and preach the kingdom of the heavens to man for him, and this is how any of My messengers on earth should have help, for otherwise, I, the Lord have no one to be able to work through messengers and then upon many with a great testimony. Oh, on the earth among people is not otherwise in joy and in sorrow either, let alone at My work for man! On the day of My transfiguration I had a purpose in making My glory visible, for My apostles had to confess after that in order to work upon people faith in God, love and the kingdom of the heavens in man.

Oh, sons, many have come to be with Me and with My people and with love for the lands blessed by Me for My glory of today for My rest, and they have come and stayed and then they left speaking evil of My way and of those who were patient and faithful by patience, and behold, man changes from good to bad and he changes his face as well. Then I told My apostles that there was no one among those who, by confessing Me to the people, to speak evil of My immediately after that, but behold, he who does not bear this testimony sent by Me, that one speaks evil of Me after that, for then he has pretence and that one goes wrong and after he goes wrong he is ashamed and hides and then he accuses by hiding, by his stepping aside, but those who do so in order to cover their sins, for they who commit hidden mistakes are known in this way and by accusing others, they prove that are not to My pleasure, for those who are Mine do not blame, they do not rebuke unless I sent them to do so. Oh, the most coward man is not the weak one, but is the one who forsakes God for himself. This kind of sons have always, always given My way and Me to be ridiculed, and then they have hidden behind each other, they hide behind others whom they have fed with mockery against those who stay as support for Me, and whom I know more than they say that they know them, and whom I love because of their great love, for their love for Me and for My people, for if I had not had them at the helm of the course of My work over the earth, I would not have had any work or people today, for those who have loved themselves near Me have also proved that they were like that and have stricken to mockery against those on whom I have relied to be on earth, and they have not helped the people to Me and those that have come to be My people, and they have tried to help My people to themselves and to their view, and they have wanted to love more those who speak like them against My works, for they love the man using him for their purpose of no use to God, and then they step aside, for their work falls down.

Oh, sons, oh, sons, who give Me power to work over My people, oh, let Me not suffer from My people, let you not hear murmurs and hypocrisy from those you take care and carry through My Gospel with you! Oh, I am the One Who has to make a claim from you. It is proper for you to listen to Me and not to man and not to man's dissatisfactions.

Oh, working sons from Me, and you, servants of My holy things on the land of My blessing during these days, oh, I thank you that you work with peace, with My peace, and love the works I have asked from you for My glory and of My works on the earth for man with those who are faithful to Me in time of great unbelief. I thank you for your labor and your lack of rest without murmuring and without grumbling for the building, which is being raised and is appearing now to be in My courtyards with you. Receive new powers from Me, for your power does not come from your body, but it is from Me, sons, upon you, upon all the sons from My spring of word, and who work for My glory.

Oh, I thank you much more, from My whole godly heart, sons serving to My holy things, because by your obedience and for your ministry with Me, from Me and for Me, I have succeeded, and I thank you that in the end we have managed to establish much more a church reinforced on the servants ordained for it so that everyone of you may sustain, by the power of the holy grace, My church of New Jerusalem, sons. Oh, submit to My whole order for those that I have to work and establish on the earth through you, through My church, which is you, and then I will be able to do everything I have to do, for I need to do it through you. I, the Lord, want to strengthen by My carefulness the community living and the carefulness in the community of our people, as My church was in the time of My apostles, when they preached the word of God with power and those who believed were all one heart and one soul, and no one said that something there was from what he had got, but everything was shared collectively and no one lacked anything, for those who had houses and lands sold them and everything was given according to each one's needs when someone joined with love and service to obey then those I ordained for the shepherding of My flock from above and from the earth beneath for My flock, which was growing and strengthening, and once with it the number of its servants was growing as well. This is how I am working today too, sons, and we will work for My glory with you and for the salvation of many through this, for I want the man to change in his face, and My glory on My new earth with you changes from glory to glory at My word upon you, and on earth you are My hands and feet and the hands and feet of My angels and saints, who dwell among you, being coworkers with you for My glory of New Jerusalem on the earth, and behold, those who seek after Me grow in number at you and they long after My spring of word to drink of it for their resurrection, in such a way that man may be changed in his heart and face and thus I may be able to establish My kingdom in him. Amen.

Oh, exhort the people to come in and to stay within My Spirit and gratefulness for My entire mercy and care for him, working sons, but most of all exhort him to humility and to repentance always, lest someone of you may perish for those who are dissatisfied are destroy from My arm, those who are scattered away by their longing and view.

I will stay with the people on the feast for My mother Virgin at the spring and I will teach him his dwelling with God, his walking with God and the work for his salvation. I will come with it at the spring and I will fill Myself with love and this is how I will pronounce the blessings for him, for the faithful ones of My today's coming with the glory of My word, which comes from the Father and is preached by My mouth and becomes a life giving spring, and this hill is called My new Zion, the rock from which My spring comes out and flows over the earth, the river of life from which many want to drink with longing, to the joy of My Father and Mine and to the fulfillment of the Scriptures of New Jerusalem on the earth, a name that will stand before Me for My holy citadel, as it is written about it in the Scriptures that only I, only I want to fulfill them and to fulfill them according to My will. Amen.

Peace to you, sons from the spring! Prepare My feast which is coming near, and I will prepare the way of those who come to the spring to drink, and we will drink and get drunk of the Holy Spirit and on that day we will be the fruit of the Holy Spirit, and He will be My fruit upon you and we will comfort each other, because He will comfort us, sons, because He is the Comforter. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Assumption

This word is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and in this name are baptized and then are those to whom the Gospel of the coming of the kingdom of the heavens is preached by those who preach it and its God well among the people on the earth, as for many it is given to know God's mysteries and then to make them known further to the people on the earth. Amen

Let the gates be strengthened for watch and let them be opened for My word so that I may come in as word into My book of today! I am the Lord and I announce Myself when I come and then I come, and My coming becomes word and I feed the people with it. In all the times under the heaven when I have spoken on the earth I have had a people to speak to, and I have not spoken alone even if those to whom I have spoken have not fulfilled My word.

Peace to you, My people from the spring! Guests have come together to take from My spring and I have people with whom to speak in this day. It is the feast of My mother Virgin, and the spirit of God's love gathered around My spring of word those who have come on this day in My courtyards, in My gardens with you. Peace to you, son, for you have prepared for Me a place to sit at the table with those who, hearing Me with My speaking, have eaten of it and now they have come to feed their love, faith and love, for in love there is no fear then when it takes to perfection those who love God on the earth.

Oh, people from the spring, the people who wait for My coming, hearing about it from someone who preach boldly that I come in a certain place and at a certain time, they start preparation ahead of time consuming time, money, growing weary and making plans upon plans, and then they wait for the day announced and after that they get disappointed over it, but you, behold how beautiful you wait for Me when I come as word! You sit on little chairs or down on the grass, and that's it, I am coming and speaking with you, and I have come so many times to you, and behold how beautiful My coming is when no one waits for Me to come, but you wait for Me beautifully when I come, sons, and you know when I come, for the Spirit of My Father lets you know, and the saints tell you when they get ready and come with Me from heaven to you on the way of My word on the days of their feasts on the earth with the faithful ones who know what God with man means on earth and who do not forsake Him for themselves.

Oh, what sufferance inflict on Me those who believe in Me and then forsake Me for themselves. Oh, what sufferance on Me that I cannot rely on man! I want to rely on man but then he gets tired and does no longer stay with Me and he deserts Me and goes away from Me and comes out from My burden giving of holy power in man. Oh, this is how Adam did after I gave him the paradise as his house, and then he pulled himself out of paradise by disobedience and instead of getting upset with himself, he got upset with Me and left Me on the earth, for this is what happens to the man who gets upset with God for His work with mystery upon man, but when the man loves God, his love makes him into a god and the God becomes man, and this is how I am one with the man in the same body, the same love, and we live for one another, but when the love in man does not work like that, it is not love but it is the man with his fallen nature instead, with his insecurity, which is a wind of doubt, a damaging wind to My love in man.

Peace to you, to those who have come to My spring of word, which flows from heaven into its little garden of today to give itself to those who love God! Oh, peace to you, My mother Virgin tells you, the one the Father gave grace for Me and for those who believe in Me, her loved Son, in Whom the Father has been well pleased on the earth! I came on the earth overshadowed by the Holy Spirit and of the Virgin and I became Man and then I gave Myself as sacrifice for the man's redemption for man lost his life even from Adam's fall from paradise. On My incarnation, the Father sent the Holy Spirit to My mother Virgin and spoke upon her telling her about My birth and she was My mother, and the Father's Holy Spirit was My Father and then I was born on the earth to be the Savior from the Father to the faithful ones, whom the faith brings to holiness and the holiness is the love of God in man.

Oh, peace to you, those who love My word, which is born from My mouth in its manger of today for those who believe in My coming of today after man, for My Father has sent Me again after man and those who hear My voice at the spring come to come to life from the death of carelessness and to get up to meet Me and fulfill My word in them, for My love in man makes him into a god, and it makes God a man in those who is faithful to Him. Oh, I am meeting you with My mother Virgin, the one full of exhortation of life for those who seek after life, for the life has to be lived according to the law of eternity, and there is no one to teach the man from heaven his eternity from Me given to him if he lives it on the earth.

Come, My mother, come to give them teaching of eternal life from the spirit of eternity, mother; I am in you and you are in Me when we teach those who love us believing and coming. Come, give them food, mother! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Son, oh my dear Son, those who love Us also love those like Us, for We are the aggrieved ones, dear Son. We suffer from the man's weakness to love Us. Oh, the man cannot love Us, dear Son! His self-love cuts the man's power to love Us, for without his love of God in him, the man is not eternal, always eternal on the earth. I am sitting down with the spirit of eternity before those who have come near to Your spring of word in my day of feast when I came in with You among those in heaven, who, on earth, loved eternity as their life. I am sitting down to teach those who have come to drink from You and I want to teach them the spirit of eternity. It helps the man not to perish, for the one who trusts in his judgment in everything he does, good or evil, that one cannot walk on the way of eternity, cannot listen, just as Adam could not do it as well. The shrewd devil is drawn by man by disobedience, by his insubordination and by man's grumbling against the one who leads him in the spirit of eternity, in the spirit of obedience, lest his disobedience may give birth to the devil for he himself, who becomes the spirit of inquisitiveness in man's mind and then it becomes grumbling in man, Son, teacher of eternal life in man. I exhort those who come and drink with faith and love from Your spring and I tell them that disobedience exhorts the man to trust in himself and this is how it is born in man and then it man's deed, good or bad. He who wants to have eternal life in him up to his end on the earth, he is the one who does not puts his trust in himself and in the judgment of his mind, but he stays in the hand of the one who listens for his salvation and by which the Lord is with him, and man cannot be otherwise with man. Oh, what shall we do to make the man believe what I said about those who are God's? How shall we do it, my dear Son?

Oh, I have stayed in great, great submission, I am telling you, those who have come to the spring. I teach you the grace of obedience, sons. He who does no longer listen judges the one who listens and he gives in him a beginning for the devil and its freedom in him, and this is how man draws the devil's cunning upon himself. Oh, seek to listen, sons, for the love of heaven adorns the man with obedience and then with the holy propriety for everything that he works face to face with God. I exhort you, sons and daughters, not to love God in the eyes of the world or in the eyes of the Lord. Oh, do not be with the Lord before the world and like the world, do not be with you before the world and like it if you belong to the Lord, for this is deception! Oh, do not be ashamed of the spirit of God's love before the unfaithful world, but rather be ashamed of yourself before the Lord to take after the world before the world! Therefore, clothe yourselves properly before the Lord and do likewise before the world, oh, sons and daughters! The Lord has put an eternal law upon man when he started the law of unquenched love in man for God. Oh, do not let yourselves be deceived, sons and daughters! The Lord is the One Who sees the man more than man sees another man, and man needs unquenched love so that it may be love for God. Oh, be steadfast in the spirit of godliness before the Lord and before the people either! Oh, do not walk with your head uncovered, do not wear indecent clothes, for the angels and the saints always want you to be theirs, and always and always theirs, sons and daughters! When man loves God, he can no longer love his way but only those that are pleased with God with eternal life in man. Oh, come to the spring, but also receive teaching to fulfill in you if you come to hear from His table. There is a saying for those who do both evil and bad things and for which the news spreads among many, and that word goes like this: "The news has spread like the priest with a haircut!" I tell you this saying from the folk to understand that when man trespasses the law of holiness the news about his trespass spreads quickly far and wide, like the news spread in old time about the priest who was bold enough to carve his own image and head, the image of the holy man who cannot have a haircut and still be a holy man after that. The same is with the steadfastness of the Lord's fulfillment in you, always fulfilling and without being ashamed of men, for God in man and with man always is man's glory; it is not a shame to have God's image in man, on his face and on man's image. I have always, always worn God's image in my being, in my walking, in my step on the earth and all over my image, and for a long time I was the help of those who learned from God for their life and then they also became teachers with their life upon others' life and this is how the Lord grew in the life of many, life from one to another, and each other gave themselves to the Lord, and this is how those who wanted the Lord as their life gave themselves to the Lord.

Oh, if you love the Lord, love Him with fulfillment and love Him always, sons and daughters! Oh, it is not possible to love Him only with your heart or mouth, but everything is required with fulfillment for the glory of the Lord on the earth, for the Lord's glory has to be great and much thorough those who love Him before people, who learn this way the love of God, seen in man on the earth, seen both from heaven and from the earth in man. Oh, if you love the Lord, take the teaching of the eternal life in detail from His word, which has life in man and in this way to be and to stand before the Lord and before men, and you will be the heralds of the spring, the messengers of the kingdom of the heavens, which comes always, always on the earth with its news and with its holy face in man. The kingdom of the heavens is inside of man; this is how my Son Jesus Christ has told you. This is how you should also learn its dwelling place on the earth, and in this way you are to be the sons of the kingdom before the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and this is how you will be baptized in this name: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the God of those who are faithful. Amen. Oh, only in this way can man be God's son. My son was the love of the Father for man and he told us that He called us His sons, because He gave us power to become His sons. Oh, become God's sons for He has taught you to have this power to be called His sons then. Open the book and take from it everything a child of Jesus Christ needs to have in his nature. I will stay again within you in the word towards the end of the feast and then again I will give you power of eternal life in you. Amen.

And now, I am staying with you, I am spending with you, I love with you, I feel with you and I want to put upon you the grace of the holiness of the spirit, but open up, sons! Be wise from heaven and learn to open to the Lord and stay open for His coming with many mysteries for you! Behold how much He has given over to you! Give yourselves to Him either! Amen.

Oh, dear Son, I have given them my love, teaching them to be holy and eternal, and we will also give them and we will send Our love them through Our messengers to the people. I, dear Son, rejoice You both in Your pains and in My pains, for the entire holy heaven is like You. Peace to You with Your people at the table of word on a day of my feast among saints! Peace to You for You are aggrieved Son, Lord! I confess You, as painful as You are from those who do not love obedience to You, and the entire heaven of saints is like You, aggrieved Son! Amen, amen, amen.

– Aggrieved mother but full of word for sons so that they may be able to go on with My pain. The word is a great comfort for Us either, not only for those on the earth who are comforted with Us and from Us, mother. The word is the medicine for all the pains, and I always come on the earth as the healer of the man full of his pains, mother! Oh, if only the man would want to take My yoke and no longer carry his, mother!

Oh, My people, I thank you that you have set the table at the spring to welcome the guests, son. I teach you to keep away, oh, to keep away from the unknown man, to take care how you learn this, for My Spirit into your midst will reveal it to you. Amen.

And now, I give My peace to those who have stayed and taken of My spring.

Oh, may the gentle spirit of My mother Virgin be great grace for you, sons and daughters who have come to the spring! Oh, learn what the comfort is and seek to be worthy of it. It is given freely; it is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. The faith and the holiness bring to you the Holy Spirit to comfort you. Come to the spring so that I may comfort you! Come and learn more and more to deserve this comfort, for God wants you to have wisdom from above by which the Lord may be able to grow in man. Amen.

I am bowing now and comfort those who have come for the first time at the spring. I am giving them with gentleness a word of comfort and I am telling them: be faithful, for the cunning devil cannot work upon those who know to believe with steadfastness. Be the vessels bearing of holy faith and I will pour out in you to have and to get comforted by the graces of the faith. Learn more and more holy how to walk in My word, how to fulfill it and how to keep away from the Pharisees, for they are weak and fearful and they are afraid of the faithful ones because the faithful ones are great before Me and they are great on earth. Be full of the spirit of obedience and let no enemy separate you from My love. Amen.

Peace to you, those who have come to the spring, and again I will give you My word and I will come with it after you to grow through it and to be pleased to Me. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people from the spring, for you are My tool and My way to those who are and to those who come, and you are My comfort and My remedy in pain, for I am very much aggrieved, son! Oh, remain in My love, remain My comfort in pains! Oh, remain in My pain, My people, and be like Me in sufferance, and we will work out a way for patience and for the joy that comes after it, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My word is sweet upon man and is full of love, and love comes from patience when I speak sweetly with the man, waiting for him to be able to do it, to want and to be able to have faithfulness for Me, Who am so sweet after man and after his redemption from his enemy, because satan, who changed from an angel into a devil because of the man's fall by way of haughtiness, has become the man's enemy for seven thousand years, and I, the Lord, speak sweetly with man and I invite him to walk with longing and wakefulness for his coming back to the good that I gave him after I had built him in My image and after My likeness, giving him then a living soul to rejoice completely over him, to be satisfied with his love then, because that is why God built man.

I speak My word sweetly so that it may give forth fruit in man's life and the man to understand that he needs God on the earth, and then in heaven. This is how I would like to make the man, as sweet as I am, but the sin in him fills Me with tears and My patience grows from man, and the same is with My waiting, and I would like the man to be right with Me, and I would also like to make him wise so that he may know what God with him means and what he with God means.

Oh, precious man, you cannot live anyhow and then to be with God either, precious because I paid you highly to turn you back within Me. Therefore bow, bow to understand and to see how God is and do not require less from you for Him, for He built you in His image and after His likeness and He wanted you to be obedient in order to be able to be His son, and He to be for you.

Oh, it is not possible for man to be greater than God is and to have the Lord on his side after that. I made the heaven and the earth, the visible and invisible things, but those that are not seen are for man as well if the man learns his coming back to God. Oh, man, for seven thousand years you have been born on earth from sin and from man prone to sin, but I was born from the Holy Spirit and of the Virgin dedicated to God with her spirit, with her body and with her soul, all clean and full of God, full of heaven and full of longing after the heaven on earth. You are smaller than I am, man, and I tell you this to get you used to letting Me be your Master, to be greater than you and to help you come back on to the day of your birth from God, and that I may be able to give you a day of creation and then to rejoice over your beauty, after you will have come to be in My image and after My likeness by My love with which I want to build you by your full love for your Creator, as I can make you in My image and after My likeness if you let yourself into My creating hand, in My word full of the spirit of man's creation, full of the birth from above of the man born of man.

The man has to be rebuilt for he is not well built from man. The man has to be built by God and not by Man. That is why I have come as word on the earth now and I have come with all the tools of creation and I am ready to give the man birth from above to be from above then, for man is made only of sin and he draws only to sin, but I have to speak with him first that he may believe Me what I tell him and not to do like Adam in paradise when I told him how to listen in the garden that I made for him. However, he was inclined to fall from obedience and then he got sweetened with disobedience and fell thorough it from paradise, for the man's seven thousand years sin has been nothing else but disobedience, which then has become haughtiness in man and then sin.

Two thousand years ago I came into the womb of Virgin with the power of the Holy Spirit Who became word and angel before My mother Virgin, making her obedient to the heavenly voice upon her, and behold obedience from man before God! God wanted to repair then everything man spoiled in the beginning in paradise by his disobedience, by the spirit of his haughtiness face to face with his Creator. His stubbornness of that time has become then sin from descendant to descendant and up to this day and the man alone cannot repair his mistake by which he always, always falls from God, and God from him. I have been waiting with the Father for the fullness of the time written in the Scriptures and then Father has sent Me again on to the earth. I am staying clothed in the word before man and I am speaking to him as I spoke to Adam in paradise. Oh, do not do, dear man, do no longer do as Adam did in paradise! He did not see Me, because I had mercy on him and he was very dear to Me and I did not want to frighten him or make him feel small and shy before Me, because I loved him, but he did not see Me; however My voice accompanied him and I spoke to him as I am speaking with you today, My people on the earth, My faithful people. When I appear before man, I appear because of his unbelief for his disobedience or to strengthen his faith and obedience, but to those who are faithful, who have Me as their Master, I give them My work with obedience, for obedience is for the faithful together with the spirit of prophecy, as the sight of My mysterious things is for those who are unfaithful and doubtful, who have to be judged then for their unbelief, and this is how I speak with man, as he stays before Me, before the One Who sees the man from near and from far away. Oh, I do not want to frighten man with the sight of the glory of My being, but I want him to have fear of God, for woe to the one who is not afraid of God, at least to have fear as much as His angels, who in awe are attentive to all His works with them!

I am staying within a spirit of feast for My mother Virgin in My gardens with you, My people from the spring. Those who have come together at the spring have stayed in holy awe. The Holy Spirit has caught power by their faith and touched many deep down in their being, and you are My little flock but with which I stand before those who come after Me, as I stayed with My little bunch two thousand years ago before those who came after Me when I went from place to place to leave My traces upon the hearts of many and to prove Myself before them as true God from true God, coming from the Father to man, as it was written in the prophets to fulfill. Oh, it is a great comfort for Me when I can speak with man on the earth, when he hears Me speaking to him. Oh, happy and again happy are those who, not seeing Me when I speak to them, believe in My voice and in this word for they will see God because of their clean heart with faith in it, clean with the longing for God by the Lord and man's difficult walking on the earth!

Oh, My mother, your feast has given birth to love before Me on this day of coming to the spring in the hearts of those who have come with longing. Those who have got used to waiting for the celebrations of the heavens in the gardens of My mound of today, here, near the manger of My word, they come with longing and awe, and others are coming and are added to them and some other keep coming, oh, and how much I wanted My fire to be kindled in them, in many, mother, and they to give it further on the earth from place to place as I have poured it out here to share Myself with it so that it may go off in the longing of the hearts of those who come to the spring to take of it, mother. My longing is to make man like Me, and both My patience and My waiting grow after man, mother. Moreover, My pain grows and it grows more and more for the one whom I showed patience and I waited for and he is slow in walking and in fulfilling My kingdom in him, mother. However, I have hope, and I left word of Holy Spirit on earth so that the hope may remain over the faithful ones; in order to remain upon them: faith, hope and love, for if hope remains, it brings forth faith and both of them are made and each other build love in man, mother, only that they may be a way of the man to heaven, not an occasion to thank in order to hold the man in place but to be very much working and to be the climax of the man's salvation by his labor for his salvation, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord Son, Your love for man is only wound, dear Son! Oh, Oh, if only those to whom You speak would understand; those to whom You speak for their searching for Your word of today, if only they would understand the pain of this wound of Your love so that they may sit near it and become like You, Lord and my Son!

I am coming down in your little hearts and I am speaking to you, those who have stayed with longing and humility before the Lord's glory on my day of feast when I ascended from earth to heaven on the arms of my Son, Jesus Christ. Oh, open up your little hearts! My spirit of mother wants to give joy to my Son, suffering from the man's departure from Him. I am speaking with you with humility and I exhort you to learn from me what God in man means, God with man on the earth. Oh, He cannot be delighted with His will and with His work in the one who is not fulfilled in love and sacrifice. The man's body has to be God's temple, a holy church and adorned both on the inside and outside by the Lord's will and hand, as the heaven is adorned with the saints and angels and with all the heavenly adornments. I come after you within the chariot of the Lord's glory, with His word carried by the angels on the way between heaven and earth and up to the man's heart, for you have been at the spring and taken from it and I am still giving to you. The ear is the way which brings to your heart the word spoken from above and then the body becomes a servant of God's dwelling in him, and thus you become a church for my Son and for His Spirit, you, sons and daughters that have drunk of His water, of His spring! Take it within you with His entire work from the Father given for the man's resurrection during these days of His coming again from the Father to man! His book of today is open by His own hand and He always puts in it by His word warm bread and by it He guides you to His entire will, with which the man always has to stay before Him. You, those who join one by one with the faith in the today's coming of my Son, Jesus Christ, open up your hearts so that He may have His will come down, His will and His walking! Clothe yourselves within the spirit of obedience and do everything my Son is telling you so that He may make of you a new creature into the midst of the dead on the earth, dead to the Lord! Oh, bring yourself to Him as a sacrifice of obedience, because man cannot be pleased with the Lord without obedience to His entire word full of longing after man! I exhort you with a spirit of mother, sanctify yourselves! And in order to sanctify yourselves, keep away from the too much hand of the worldly man. Get for yourselves, as much as you can, clean food and use your little hands for those you prepare to eat. Eat from your mother, which God has given to man as food when He set him in Eden. The earth is the bosom from which you have to eat. Oh, do no longer eat meat; do no longer eat from animal or from fowl! Eat from God, eat as He told the man to eat when He put him in paradise[115], for it is the time for the Lord to come in all His glory and man is not prepared, and the sins from him are not washed away, for the feast and the prayer stay far from man's love. Oh, make your bread with your little hands, for bread is Christ's face and do not take it if it is made by the hands that are not cleaned from sin, from unfaith and from ignorance of God in man! Take the way of holiness and then take care of it then, and the take care among you for you, those who are faithful to my Son, and do not let the world serve you. Oh, seek after the faithfulness for my Son and sanctify yourselves for Him, for the people without God touch the fruit of their sin in everything you buy from their shops to eat. Oh, when you eat, remember that it is not well on the earth and that it is only sin on earth and the sin is a thick bark. If you want to listen to me you will listen and will bring your life to holiness, and your body likewise, and then the understanding of the things from above will come upon you and will teach you the humility of the Lord, for man does not have any humility because of his nature of man. Oh, take on your body holy adornments, with a garment pleasant to the Lord and to His angels and saints! Do not wear, do no longer wear tight and short little clothes and in so many colors, for indecency concerning clothing makes the man sick and man draws man to sin because of the sin of indecency, and woe to those through whom the stumbling block comes, this is what my Son, Jesus Christ said! It is written in the Scriptures and in the prophets about those who are against the Lord, despising the sight of His glory, and whose appearance testifies against them. The man's haughtiness is great, but it will be made low and the haughtiness of the proud will be crushed in the day when the Lord will be exalted and when people will come into the crevices of the earth because of the fear at the brightness of His glory. The day is coming when only the Lord will shine, and all the brightness of the men's adornments will fade and they will be humbled under the Lord's beating. Oh, the woman on the earth is very proud and her looks do no longer have propriety on the earth before anyone, but it is written into the Scriptures that the Lord will make the scalp bald of those who walk with outstretched necks and will uncover their shame, and on that day the Lord will take away all their ornaments: the signet-rings, the earrings, the bracelets, the fine linen garments, the wait belts and tablets, the ankle chains and crowns, the amulets and fine robes, the cloaks and shawls, the hand-mirrors and fine linen, and instead of sweet-spices will be rottenness, instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a girding of sackcloth; and finally, branding instead of beauty, that who was adorned by that time will be desolate on the ground. (See Is: 3/17-26) I teach you like a mother, as the Scriptures teach you; open to them and learn from them, for the Spirit of the Lord has spoken by the prophets and made a great revival over the man's haughtiness, only for the man to take a look into the word of the Lord teaching over people, for the man to take from it the life against death. Oh, fight, fight with much love against any kind of image which will be punished and learn those that are for the saints before the One Who teaches you holiness, for He said that without holiness no one will see Him. The woe is coming on the earth; the sufferance as the reward of the sins is coming and there will be pains without remedy for each sin. Throw yourselves into the Lord's arm! Take powers from Him to love Him following His exhortation for the saints! Oh, sons and daughters leave off the pleasures and come to like holiness for it will save you! Amen.

I catch you under my clock as well, faithful daughters who have come for the first time to the spring of my Son. You have come with longing from the city of Cluj to drink of the river of life, from the word of my Son, and to make steps on the blessed land, which the Lord has ordained for Him and for the servants of His word of today into the midst of the Romanian people. I have stayed with protection over the little boat in which you have floated to the spring. Oh, I have in the city of Cluj the anointed one of my Son, the one in chains now among those who feel as the rulers over the peoples who wander away without a shepherd, for this is how the flock of today appears. Oh, they keep him in the chains of their unbelief, of ignorance of God and of people; this is how they keep the one who my Son has been pleased with and whom He has chosen as the witness for the renewal of His church, for their church does not follow the steps of my Son. Oh, put fire to the torch of your hearts and put in them the fire of the love of God and make yourselves vessels bearing of love for Him, but also come under the spirit of the holy teaching to take on holiness and then to cry out clearly to God for the release of the one bound by those who are unfaithful, for the evil spirit of envy and of empty glory does even worse than what the one two thousand years ago did, when the chiefs and the Pharisees wanted to put under a bushel the light which came down from heaven, my Son and His teaching of Holy Spirit over the nations without a shepherd. Oh become female disciples in your life, in your mind and in your conduct and renounce the world within your life sanctifying it in your own body, but without the wisdom from above you will not be able to do this. You have come to the spring as a flock of little hearts. Oh, grow and multiply, and pray to my Son to take from the earth the spirit of man's haughtiness and to throw it away from man, for man is haughty. Here it is what to do for the man who wants to get away from the sin of haughtiness: he has to believe completely and in all things that others do not need him, and that he needs everyone around him to support him, as on the way with my Son on it this holy mystery is even more powerful for man, the man's mystery of self denial and by which man can follow the marks of my Son's steps, Jesus Christ. Amen. Oh, peace to you, to those who have come now from the city of Cluj for the first time at the spring of word of my Son! Seek with longing to put out the old man and to put on you the new creature by grace. Put to death in you and from your way the satan's work and trap. Search out your dough and seek with holiness through the teaching of my Son. The one, who cannot do this, let him be helped to be clean then in work, in faith and in love. Ask for faith, ask for the gift of faith from the One Who can give you birth from above, from His word, and ask for holy zeal, and you will receive everything from Him if you love holiness and humility of spirit, heavenly adornments for those who are spiritual on the earth. May the zeal of your hearts for the heavenly things in you be blessed! Oh, give your hearts to be a dwelling place for the Holy Spirit and for His graces, for man has to be built by God, as He works for the man's birth from above. This work of word is the river on which will float over the wrath of the Lord's Day all those who will stand before Him with humility and obedience for His victory, which is coming with Him. Peace to you and you should take much resurrection from Him and only from Him! You need much, much resurrection! Take it from His word. As many times as you want, ask for His help and come to the spring to learn about His coming and resurrection from Him, for the Lord has ordained sons to holy work for the resurrection of many, as it is written into the Scriptures about those who will have searched for the Lord, and wisdom will grow in them and they will be cleansed and will become white and will enter with the Lord, and then they will share to many the Lord's way, the way on which the man comes back home, he comes back to the Lord. Amen.

Oh, Lord Son, I have become great now in the word. I have wanted to wake up from unfulfillment those who do not know what the sin of man's haughtiness is, as Your flock is wandering, wandering away, dear Son, and there is no one to guide it to the grassland and to show its Shepherd. I ask you on my day of celebration: please give grace, faith and humility for obedience to those who have come to the teaching on this day, and give more to those who have come for the first time to the spring! Without You, without Your support no one can take and carry anything from You, for man is weak and far away from you with his wisdom, but You are the voice of the Father and You want to draw all to the Father to comfort Him from His wound from man's fall, and in Your wound as well, which is like Our Father's, oh, dear Son. My wound is like Your wound. Oh, peace to You into the midst of those who understand You and know Your coming and Your work of today with them for the resurrection of many! My mercy for You becomes mercy over those who seek after You to find You, and I have given today teaching of resurrection, on which You are to put grace to those who have listened to Our word of today, and let the grace give forth fruit in those who have come to become sons and daughters of the resurrection, of Your coming, Lord, Son Who come. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, sons and daughters, who have remained in a spirit of feast for My mother virgin here, at My spring of word, open up for the wisdom from above of the heavenly mysteries on the earth! Be the Lord's feast among people so that the heaven may celebrate you on the earth as sons of God among sons of men, who seek after the Lord through the darkness and do not find Him, for His way is light, and He is the way. Amen.

Oh, My people from the spring, come more and more to the vast sea of God's wisdom upon you during these days, for the sea will overflow abundantly, more and more over its shores, and soon, soon and always, and the haughty head of the men's sons will become bald, for they will see My glory and My greatness in those who are faithful to My coming of today, which was preached by the prophets to be in these days, and I am holding you in My hand as witnesses, for your life and obedience near Me serve and will serve Me to come, and little by little I will overcome with My entire work, with which I have come from the Father in order to fulfill it on the earth with the faithful ones, with those who are small, not with those who are haughty and proud, but with those who are small and faithful and in whom I dwell with My kingdom, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the beheading of the Saint John, the Baptizer

I am surrounded forever with angels and saints and the whole heaven is My throne but My heart, step and thought are only to you, only to you, My people of today. I always, always exhort you from beneath, but I also exhort you from above to be with Me as much I am with you and near you and to take care of Me as I take care of you, My people, for only in this way our union does not come to an end and does not go to the sides, oh, and how much I would like to speak with you, My people! Oh, My way is hard with you, because I have great weakness in the gates and I have great sufferance in heaven and on earth and there is no comfort for it, and My way of word is hard, for I have not got any help from the earth to carry it easily to the man between Father and man. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, but am always aggrieved and man thinks only at his pain and he does not know what love is and he does not know what mercy is if he thinks only at himself, and the mercy in him is for him and for man and man does not have any mercy on God, even if he knows that without God he would not be anything, for everything of his being is from Me by the soul that I give him when he is born of man on the earth and by the mercy that I sent through everyone that lives from Me and is for man.

There was once a man on the earth who got upset with Me because his fruit in the garden did not grow due to the weather that I sent and which was not good over his garden, that the rain did not come when was needed, and the same was with the warmth of the sun. Then God came to an agreement with him to ask from ghosts to give as he pleased over his garden for its good harvest. The man called the rain when he wanted it to come and the same was with the warmth, and the weather was at his wish, as he thought that it was needed for his garden to bring forth full harvest, but when it was about the fruit to grow ripe he noticed that the whole fruit in his garden did no longer grow ripe. And poor of him, was humiliated and repented because of his disobedience and because of his boldness that made him discontent for how much I was giving him in his garden, and then I told him this: "You had at your wish rain and heat then when you wanted it but you were not wise like God. I, the Lord, have sent on to the earth it due time the wind and its coolness without which nothing grows on earth, for the wind has in its wisdom the mystery of fruition of everything that grows and it gives each one of the mysteries it carries from God for their full growth, for they grow each other by the mystery of the wind, which opens up its work and voice over everything and gives them from God to grow, and without wind and its work nothing can grow on earth."

I, the Lord, come on to the earth with the wind and I am accompanied by its noise when I come and this is how those who receive Me to come and speak with you hear Me, My people on the earth, people of My word. Oh, man does not want to know the heavenly mysteries, God's mysteries with him, and that is why man is not thankful on the earth, when he could be so happy with God if he has always wanted to be full of God, full of love like Me, full of working grace and speaking like the wind, which carries on its mysterious wings, on its whisper bearing all the heavenly powers and their Lord. Oh, man does not want to know and to understand God the Word to be wise, intelligent and watchful from Me for him, and not from him. I come on the earth to guide the man and to help him to live from Me, not from him, for there was once on earth John, the Baptizer, who baptized Me and he lived from Me and did not die by his living deprived of earthly work, but he lived through Me and by his love of God, which became life and word from God in him and upon him, and John was a prophet. He learned from Me how to know God, and the Spirit of the Father revealed everything to him and the Father worked upon him and he knew how to have mercy on the people. John, cleaned the people from their sins and gave them to God, putting in them the spirit of repentance for their sins, which had separated them from God, and he rebuked or scolded those who did not repent, for John was full of God's grace and had mercy on the people and preached to them that the kingdom of God had come for those who wanted to have it in them against the wrath that came from God on the earth for the sons of disobedience to God.

Oh, My people of today, oh, I teach you the mystery of mercy so that you may not go wrong against God by this feeling. You should not have mercy on the man's hardships or sufferance, no, no, because this does not lead man to the good, but you should rather have mercy on the lack of God in man, and because of which many evil things come upon him, for he alone calls them upon him, because where the Lord is not in man and with man, as the Lord's face asks, there is a reward from the tempter and the tempter asks for permission from the Lord upon man, for the man's works are divided and many are to the will of the devil, and the spirit of the devil is used by man because of his lack of God in him. I teach you the work of mercy, son. Oh, the mercy that harms the man and his neighbor destroys everything that might remain for God in man, for man bows to man and slaps My hand when I apply correction to man or atonement by sufferance so that I may not let him completely as payment for satan, who gives the man work without holy things in it. Oh, when you help the one to whom I sent reproof for his waking up, what do you do man? Are you any better than Me? Do you do better to that one? On the other hand, you make him feel aggrieved and do not let him into My making hand when he goes wrong. I want to free the man from the sin of haughtiness and I do this through everything I have sent him, for when haughtiness is in man it has its head hidden so that the man may not know its face, but I know that the man's entire fall comes from haughtiness and from his lack of repentance, and he who cannot humble himself against his pride, I, the Lord, want to help him giving him sufferance, weakness and atonement, and what are you doing if you bow to lecture him, to sympathize with him and to understand him in his wandering away? Do you really believe that your work comes to Me when you slap My hand, when I work for the man's salvation and for his protection from eternal death? Oh, when man does not humble himself against his haughtiness then you help him not to humble and you make him think that he is worthy for your bowing before him. Oh, what foolishness, what foolishness from both sides and what sin this is against each other! Oh, what foolishness when man does not want to know what God and His good work for man mean and what man means! Behold, there is no wisdom on earth as it was in John, the Baptizer. Man thinks that he is wise that he does the man's will well, that he comforts his neighbor, that he has right against another man or that he is wronged, as one who stands well in all things before Me. However, he does not know, poor of him, that I like the humble one to be as I was, that I like the despised one, the patient and forgiving one through love as I was and who cannot punish or envy the one who is hostile to him. Oh, I like the one who tries to wake up the man to repentance, to humility, to reverence, and all these to the man's salvation, as John, the Baptizer, was working for man. Oh, I like the one who works like Me with man because of the lack of God in man. Mercy does not have to be shown to the one without God in himself, but he rather has to be woken up to spiritual inclination and then to the cleanness of himself, for woe to the one who has got friends who join him when he does not stand well with God! Woe to the one who is overlooked for his lack of order, for a man like that dies, and the one who justifies himself from the sides is dead and kills the life of those whom he draws to the same thought that he has! Oh, I did not do something like that and I did not teach the man so by what I did for man, and that is why I often said: "My people, read My Gospel of two thousand years ago to see what the Lord has done and do likewise, to see what the Lord means and what a Pharisee means before Him."

Oh, when man does not have wisdom from God, he is drawn from such a man. There is no more a lost man than the man who thinks he knows everything by what he shows to those around him. I appeared as a Savior, not righteous, not self-loving, and I freely gave Myself over to sufferance and I did not do like the man who flees from the sufferance because of his sins or from the sins of someone else who does not pay, for sufferance has to be very expensive in the one who bears it, and it has to weigh much, just as Mine has weighed for the human kind, just as the shedding of the blood of John, the Baptizer, weighed for the sins of Israel and for the king of Israel.

Oh, My people, love as much as you can, love justice and repentance, son. When you do not know much about some truth but only partly, then you are unjust in respect with that truth, and there are some of those who make many to fall from faith, and they work this by hiding, as Absalom, David's son, worked against his father, causing Israel to make David fall and spoil his faith and faithfulness, trying to overthrow the order from God.

Oh, it is very hard for the stubborn man and it is very hard for Me with him! No matter what I may do before him he does not understand to stand firm then and trustful, and he is always doubtful and he forgets, poor of him from his hand to his mouth, for he does not feel to love God. He wants to see black and white in order to believe, and the hardened one is doubtful. After the disciples buried John the Baptizer, who was beheaded by Herod, I went with them in a deserted place to eat and have rest, but they could not manage because of the crowds, who were coming and going, and then we pulled the ship to the shore, but the crowds ran through the cities and came before us to the shore, and I had mercy on them for they were like some sheep without a shepherd and I sat down to give them teaching for everything. However, My disciples, seeing the night coming, asked Me to release the crowds that they may look for something to eat. And then, I told them to give food to the people, but they, however, did not understand, and then I asked them to see how many loaves of bread and fish they had, and I told them to arrange the people by hundreds, and I, blessing the food, took and gave to the disciples to share with the people and they fed all of the them, and then I sent My disciples to the other side of the sea until I was to release the crowds, but on the fourth watch in the night a tempest aroused and My disciples were rowing heavily into the middle of the sea and I went to them walking on the sea wanting to pass by them to protect them from perishing. However, they thought I was a ghost, were afraid, and cried out but immediately I told them: "Do not be afraid!" and I went into their boat and the tempest calmed down. Oh, their heart was hardened and they were astonished, for they forgot that they had to understand many things from the miracle of the multiplying of the bread and they did not know Me but only after I pulled to the shore and got out of the ship.

Oh, behold how much damage the hardening of the heart does, sons! Oh, how many miracles, how much deliverance I did for this people and for this work! Oh, how many great signs, how many enemies I have thrown down to protect My way with you, My people, and I still have sons hardened in their hearts. I could do into your midst what you were not able to do, and I still have some stubborn hearts in you, who doubt of Me and of My work, so mysterious, so wonderful, and so much working into your midst! I remind those who are hardened in their faith and heart that two thousand years ago, I said that the kingdom of God did not come visibly and that it would settle in man when it came, and this what has to fulfill the one who comes to be with this work: he has to walk in faith and he needs to have much love for God and always to be steadfastness and have faithfulness for My entire walking with you on earth, My people. The accomplishments waited by those who grow tired of waiting, I, the Lord, have to fulfill them with My people, but not alone, oh, not alone; however, I need to be helped by My people up to the end. I have never fulfilled anything alone on earth from My promises for man, but I have been able to fulfill with the faithful and steadfast man, and My walking was slow because of those who have doubted. Oh, let those who have not stayed under the burden of My coming at least not judge Me. Let them not do as My disciples two thousand years ago did while waiting for the kingdom of Israel over the nations and for their greatness before the nations, and I, to be a performer of miracles up to the end of the time. However, I speak to every man that the miracles are only for the unfaithful people and who keep on looking for something in order to believe, and the prophecies are for the faithful ones, who know what God on the earth means and what man means, and these remain in the faith and in the mystery of the kingdom of God in them up to the end with patience for their salvation coming from Me, and with people like these, I can fulfill My work on earth and all the promises from the Scriptures for the age to be. Amen. Those who fall from faith fall because of their discontentment and they fall by their hiding, and those who remain faithful are those who are pleased with Me and stay in the light and they stay and help Me on My hard way to man. Oh, stay with Me and help Me, My people, because flocks will come to the spring, new flocks son, and you have to give them from Me and to exhort them on My way, for this is your duty before Me, and I will pay for your faith, love and steadfastness, but you should not seek after your own things, you shall not do like that, but you should seek only after Me with your work, son, as by My Gospel with you I take care of you if you take care of Me, and you should serve each other with faithfulness, I for you and you for Me, and do not be afraid of tempests, because I am the true One with you and I stay with you in your little boat and I guide you through the waves, for the waves are big and troubled, and I can stand against them for your protection, and you have to be small so that I may be able to work son, to protect you. Amen.

John, the Baptizer, is giving you of his grace, My people, and he wants you to be like him before Me, full of faith and full of the spirit of the prophecy, for had taken from Me, he believed and saw, and then he confessed. And you are to be supposed to do the same, My people. Amen. You have to be like John. Amen, amen, amen.

– Like me, Lord, in faith, like me in the spirit of repentance, like me in the cleanliness and in the love for You, this is how Your people of today and its servants from You should be, ordained for it before You! Oh, lift up to their place those who have fallen from faith; raise them Lord, by their repentance, but also give them the spirit of repentance, for You said that whoever leaves Your work, sells You from Your people, and You said that he who left has already sold You. Moreover, how did he sell You? Oh, he has despised You, Lord, and he has given You to be despised and he has given You to the gossip of the world and brought You to sufferance. Oh, raise to repentance, to love and to the work of Holy Spirit, those who have left You and then they sought after their own things! Oh, all of their things will be torn down, for they are worked without You, because those who were Yours and then withdrew to the sides are pitiful, Lord. I insist before You for them on my day of ascent to You by my death of martyr for the repentance of the people, raise to repentance those who have got used to Your work of today and bring them to fruition, for the axe lies at the root of the trees and woe to the trees who do not bring forth any fruit to You, Lord! Oh, do not put away from before You my insistent prayer for them! Repentance brings forth love in hearts, love and fruition up to the end. Oh, give these to them, Lord! Bless Your people who are steadfast in faith and love, but bring to their new birth those who have staggered away, for You are great and You are the endless love! Oh, pour Yourself out into the little ones by faith and give them power to be born again, oh, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– I, the Lord, give them, only to be able to have room in the burden of their hearts, only that they may come to their birth again, for blessed are those who believe without doubt in My coming of today and stay near Me up to the end. This word is My second way from the Father to man and blessed are those who stay and remain under this tent, under My working grace of sons for the days to come. Amen.

I, the Lord, am giving again freshness of blessing for the work of the new building. I am strengthening you with power from heaven, oh, working sons at My word from above. You work at the pearls prophesied by My mouth at My new beginning with you, because I do not fulfill anything alone, but rather everything I promise to fulfill, I fulfill with you. Remain within My new beginning and work at its building, for everything I have been working with you is prophesied from My beginning with you. Oh, let Me not have any obstacles from you for those that will be to appear after I will have announced them to be. Oh, be diligent in your faith, in your love, in your obedience and in your fulfillment, sons. Receive heavenly powers and make heavenly progress for the work of the building of nowadays. I give power to your bodies, but I also give you love, sons. Be obedient, like some sons, for those who do not listen are not sons. Be sons, sons! Learn the spirit of prophecy and learn the work of the Spirit to you like some sons, as there is someone to teach you, only for you to be diligent and then to fulfill. Peace to you! It is the feast of My godfather, John, the Baptizer. We rest with a feast, sons, then we will work again, and we will work for My glory. Learn to distinguish your work from My work and be only Mine in your whole work that you do.

Take care, sons, for My working grace through you because the work of My word upon you raises many from now on to the wisdom of salvation. Be full of My grace and strengthen yourselves within it for those who have come to the spring to drink and then who sit in My love like you, in fulfilling faith, sons. Give them from Me, for I put into your mouth from Me for them. Teach those who come, teach them their self-denial and remind them of My Gospel for those who come after Me by self-denial and by the cross, as I have exhorted those who come to follow Me. The fulfillment within Me of those who are faithful has to be now greater and more perfect in comparison with that of those who believed two thousand years ago after I appeared to them as true God of true God, God confirmed, sons. However, now they have come to the end of the ages and the man does not have to seek with Me for himself, but for Me and for My great coming with salvation and judgment, for those who repent and for those who do not repent at My voice, which calls the man to come back home and to take of the spirit of paradise and this is how he is supposed to live on the earth then and to stay before My coming, and here it is how I am coming! I come as word on the earth and with it I clean the man and wash him inside and outside like the housewife who washes her vessel which she uses in her household and she polishes it and then puts it on the table and puts all kinds of good things for the festive days. Amen.

Oh, come, you those who want My holy law, come in great number and learn to be sons, as I am. I do not do and I do not speak from Me anything but except what the Father puts in Me, and this is how I fulfill. Learn to be like Me before the Father, for I am the parable of the new man, in the Father's image and after His likeness, and the Father is in Me and I am in Him. This is how you should also be, you who want to be sons! Amen. Come and learn to become God's sons and kill the world with its spirit in you, for the world has come to its end, and I, the Lord, at the beginning, and those who will take and learn what life is will be My blessed ones. I am the Way, the Truth and the Live. Come to My spring of word and I will give you and I will give Myself to you and I will make you partakers, and I will make of you God's sons and My saints, for My holy things are given to My saints and I give them of My vineyard, of My river, of My fruit for the sons, fruit for which I am laboring today to make it grow ripe.

Oh, peace to you, those who are coming to My love to learn what love is from Me, the love for Me, the love which draws you to the Father to be His sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Mother's Birth

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, for I am born of the Father before eternity, and I am the Son of the Virgin mother, born of her two thousand years ago after I had sowed Myself in her at the moment when the angel told her about Me that I would be born of her by the work of the Holy Spirit in her. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am coming after two thousand years of word on the earth and I have a wonderful name, as it is written in the Scriptures that I would have, and My name is called the Word of God. Amen.

I have from the Father My return to the Romanian country, the New Jerusalem, for it is written in the Scriptures that the Lord will choose Jerusalem again[116]. I have made My bride people [116] «Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Zion: for, behold, I come and will dwell in the midst of you, says the Lord.

And many nations shall flee for refuge to the Lord in that day and they shall be for a people to Him and they shall dwell in the midst of you: and you shall know that the Lord Almighty has sent Me to you.

The Lord shall inherit Juda His portion in the holy land, He will yet choose Jerusalem. ("and shall choose Jerusalem again."- The New King James Version)

Let all flesh fear before the Lord: for He has risen up from His holy clouds.» (Zacarias / Zechariah: 2/10-13.)

*

«Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to Him for righteousness," know, (Or "recognize /acknowledge") therefore, that those who are of faith are likewise Abraham's children.» (Galatians: 3/6-7.)

into her midst and I have made it into a watching servant for My coming, and he watches before Me with faith, as not the light of the day is the light for man, but faith is the light which shines and watches waiting for the day of My coming at the middle of the night. Amen.

Oh, open to Me at daybreak, you from the gates, for the Bridegroom is coming at the middle of the night and happy is the servant He will find watching before Him. Open to Me to come in as word into the book and to meet with it those that come with longing at My spring of word, for I am the One Who fills the man's soul with longing after I have revealed Myself to him with My coming to feed the man with the spirit of My coming for him for his resurrection from among the dead, from among those who are not faithful to My coming of today, in order to judge the living and the dead and to give them to the Father saved by My great work and love for man. Oh, grow in people their love and watch for Me and for My coming as word on the earth, for they take My word from you and then they come to take from Me, of My table with My people of today, people taken of the Romanians for My glory of today and tomorrow, and My glory is the word.

I suffer from every man who does not come to the spring of My word of today that I may draw the man to the Father, as My work is that for which the Father has sent Me. Oh, I do not want to let the man be up to the end the servant of this passing age and to be his own servant as well, but I want to draw the man to the mystery of the age that will appear soon, soon on the earth for those who are faithful. Those who are faithful are those who are illuminated by the gift of the holy faith, for the faith in Me is the man's light from the end. Oh, the man's wandering away through the fog of unbelief makes Me suffer! The man without faith and without hope by faith is like the blind man who has got used to his blindness and does not want to see, for he has got used to it.

«As he says also in Hosea:
I will call them 'My people,' which were not My people;
and her (country) 'beloved,' who was not beloved. (Hosea 2/23)
It will be that in the place where it was said to them,
'You are not My people,'
There they will be called 'children of the living God. (Hosea 1/10)» (Romans: 9/25-26.)

*

«But I ask, did not Israel know? First Moses says:
I will provoke you to jealousy with what is no nation,
With a nation void of understanding I will make you angry.» (Romans: 10/19.)

*

«Therefore, I tell you that the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and it will be given to a people bringing forth its fruit.» (Matthew: 21/43.)

*

«Whoever has My commandments and keeps them, that person is someone who loves Me. Whoever loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and will reveal Myself to him."» (John: 14/21.)

*

«It is the same with Christ: having been offered once to bear the sins of many, He will appear a second time, apart from sin-offering, to those who are eagerly waiting for Him for salvation (Or "deliverance").» (Hebrews: 9/28.)

*

«In that day, they shall sing this song in the land of Judea; Behold a strong city; He shall make salvation its wall and bulwark.
Open you the gates, let the nation enter that keeps righteousness and keeps truth, supporting truth and keeping peace:» (Isaias: 26/1-3.)

«As it is, the creation waits with eager expectation for the revelation of God's children.» (Romans: 8/19.)

However, I suffer deeply, I suffer in the Father and the Father suffers in Me from the lack of the light, from the lack of the faith in man, and the Father sends Me on the earth as word to man so that I Myself may become the man's light and the way with light, for two thousand years ago, I came on the earth and I said that I was the light of the world, and he who came after Me would not walk through the darkness but rather would have faith in Me, and his faith would give him light, and it will be eternal life for him. Amen.

Oh, sit down, My people from the spring, sit down son, and give water to those who come to the spring, give them the water of life! It is a feast for My mother Virgin, for her birthday on the earth two thousand years ago, and the angels carry Us for her celebration with the man and with you on the earth. Oh, make the light grow, make the faith grow in those who take from you the word of My coming on the earth now, in the end of the time, and the Spirit leads them to My spring giving of heavenly life in man. I give them fresh teaching and I help them to manage with My holiness in them, for man needs great power and love for his self-denial to be able to be My son then, and to be My son, he who wants to confess Me to those who are not believers so that they may see the work and the light of My coming on the earth after the man.

Oh, it is not hard for the man to believe, but it is hard for him to love. It is hard for man who loves himself to love God inside of him and visibly outside of him. I give Myself to many as word by those who share Me to the sides with My spring, but when I want to make them people to fulfill, I see self-love in them, because of which man cannot give himself over to Me with love and fulfillment. However, I am powerful, I give to the man to be able to work, and I fill him with longing of life from heaven, for this means the man to be born from above at My preaching.

I am with the heaven of saints above you, My people from the spring, and the angels carry us with the feast of My mother. She is full of grace from Me and is giving herself with it on this day as food to those who have new longing and are coming with longing to the spring coming out from above. Oh, let the people take from it and be filled with longing! The longing from heaven is the fire which I, the Lord, throw down on the earth and I want it to burn in man and then I want to go off from man to man.

Come, My mother, to feed with longing those who have just been attracted now by the sweetness of My word upon people during these days of My coming again from the Father to man! Come, mother, come to give them power and to teach them to watch and to love God, as for love always watch is needed, mother, for otherwise it goes out like fire, which does no longer have logs to burn, mother. Oh, you are blessed by Me, your Son in your word of today for the country of My coming and for those who are hearing My voice from the spring and are coming to it from distant areas so that they may also learn to become God's sons and heirs of the holy faith, which is the power for God in man, oh, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I am in You, as You are in me, dear Son, child given to me by the Father, as I born You from the Father among people two thousand years ago and I gave You to be carried then by all those who are born from the heaven from above through You and for You in order that they may carry You and to be Your kingdom on the earth. Oh, who else gives his kingdom that You may be king over it? Only those who believe in Your coming do this miracle, Son from heaven, my Son, and blessed are those who take You in them as their Master, for this is what You told the woman who blessed me in Martha's house when she said You that the womb who bore You and the breasts which nursed You were blessed, and You answered her saying: «Blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it». (Luke: 11/28) And then You blessed Mary, Martha's sister, who chose the good part, the way, which it would not be taken from her, Your kingdom in man's heart, Master Son.

Oh, country with Bridegroom, oh Romanian country, your Christians sing in churches, they sing the song of the coming of my Son, but they do not watch in the way of His coming. Oh, to whom do they sing: behold the Bridegroom is coming at the middle of the night? Oh, to whom do they sing? Oh, country with Bridegroom, here He is! He is my Son and He has come to ask you in marriage, and you had to be the servant who He is supposed to find watching before Him with holy faith like your ancestors and not like the unworthy servant whom the Master may find idle. Oh, take care, take care and watch, country chosen by my Son to be the bride, and take care not to sleep, for the sleep is the death of the kingdom of the Lord in man and the man loses the Lord because of his falling asleep. Oh, get up for it is a dark night, get up and call out praising the Saint of the saints, my Son, and go with your thought to the dreadful day and to not leave it for tomorrow, but light your candle instead before that day comes and when you will hear the voice which says: "Behold, the Bridegroom!" Oh, meet Him now and come from now on into the mystery of the chamber of His godly glory, for I, the one praised by all the angels and by all the heavenly powers for my Son, are helping now the Romanian country for its protection, the country of my Son's returning in the end of the time, and I fight for it against the whole council of its adversaries. Oh, do not look that it is the light of the day, for this is not the light for you to stand before the Bridegroom, but faith is the light and the candle with which you have to stay on fire before Him for His coming, oh, daughter waited by your holy forefathers, on whose faith and testimony you are built today.

Oh, often the sons and the daughters of the Romanian people go to other countries after the Lord and after me, but they make the heaven go into tears when they do this, for the Lord announces Himself with much power over the earth into the midst of the Romanian people, and coming, He finds it without watching for His coming now after man. Oh, get up from your slumber, bride country and hear His voice, which is calling you and which is waiting for you to open to Him! Oh, open to the Bridegroom! He is coming and waking you up. You are now in hard time and you do not know this as much as you have to know. Open to Him to show your way and to show you how you have to watch on it and for it and how to walk on it then, oh, bride country of my Son. Amen.

And now, you, who are coming with a fresh longing to the spring, you little hearts with a burning longing in you, take from me advice to keep within you the first love for my Son so that you may not lose it, because the first love is burning, is powerful by itself, and he who has lost it has to come back to it again, for without it no one can come into the chamber of the wedding of my Son with His bride. Keep this day of wedding holy in you; the day of the first love, the bride with the Bridegroom in the mystery of the heavenly love, for the bride is only that who always remains a bride after that. Oh, you should always keep the first love new, and you should make it to be, and I will teach you, but love the spring, which flows for the life of the people, and watch to keep it afresh in you, for the spring is my Son, the Bridegroom of those who love Him, and He is the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who is coming on the earth as word. Amen.

And now, I teach you the virtue of the self-denial, without which no one can be a disciple to the Lord. It is a big and great love in man for the life of my Son in him. The time is coming for the man to be sorry that he has loved himself, that he has served himself, that he has lived for himself and for his folks and that he has not lived for the Lord on the earth. When man sees in heaven what he has not gathered and his emptiness there, oh, he will cry bitterly. This sin gathered in heaven comes from the man's lack of self-denial and that is why man does not have to love himself on the earth. Only the love of God has to reign in man, oh, only it, and all come for the Lord from it and for man on the earth. Oh, do not love the world or its works! Receive heavenly powers in you for this fight, but stay in the spirit of the first love if you want to go to the end, for with this kind of love in him, man goes to sleep. Oh, my Son dwells only in the wakefulness of the one who loves Him, and this is how you should learn and this is how you should remain in my Son, and I will teach you even in this day the mystery of the love of God and I will exhort you on the sweet way for the new seed, sown in you by the sowers on behalf of my Son on the earth. Behold the Bridegroom is coming at the middle of the night, and happy will be the servant He will find watching; this is how I call out over the earth, and my Son hears my song upon His bride. Amen. And now remain in the spirit of the teaching on my table of feast and grow through it for my Son and for His glory on the earth. You have come to the spring. Take of it to stay alive your first love. Amen. Grace to you, peace to you from my Son, the Our Lord, Jesus Christ, the Savior of those who are faithful. Amen.

Now I leave them to Your exhortation, my dear Son, and then we will give them again, we will feed them again for my day of feast with them. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother, praised in heaven and on earth by the angels and by the people, oh, how shall I do to make your voice be heard, which for a while, keeps on singing the song of My coming? Oh, if only those who sing this song on earth would sing like you, mother! I call all to a holy love and especially I call them to come back to the first love which they have lost on the way, for he who loses it loses the light, loses the faith, because faith is the light and light is not something else, mother, and if this salt is no longer good, then My life in man does no longer have any taste in man, oh, mother. Oh, I am comforting you for your day of feast as you comfort Me in My pain from the man's unbelief, which becomes enmity in him, mother. Come to blow into the fire to go off in flames, mother, so that its heat may be felt and many may come to it, mother, because I miss the man very much and I miss to be in man, oh, My mother!

Be more and more consuming after My longing after man, oh, sons from the mouth of My spring of word, and give it to the sides everywhere, sons, for I miss very much My that spring in people may flow into each other and that My spring of word may flow into the great sea, for I make it sweeter and sweeter and may it flow more and more sweetly, and more and more inviting, to call out through his voice which has sprung from Me, a spring of Holy Spirit over the earth, sons.

Let the man be silent through his wisdom by which it makes the man no longer take from God! Let the man keep silent and let the people take from Me, for I am the One Who is and Who comes! Behold, My mother Virgin is singing from heaven to the earth, and she sings for a while the song of My coming. Oh, learn to sing with her and like her, truly learn to sing and to understand this song. She is waking you up to meet Me, for I am coming and My mother keeps singing in the way of My coming, she is singing for Me and is telling those who hear her. I am telling everyone about her song, for My mother Virgin is singing with longing and crying: "Behold, the Bridegroom is coming in the middle of the night, and happy is the servant He will find watching, and unworthy is the one He will find doing nothing. Watch, you people, do not go into deep sleep lest you may give yourselves over to death by it, for the sleep locks you outside of the kingdom of my Son, but you should wake up and sing praises to the Lord and come out to meet Him, for behold, the Bridegroom is coming!" Amen.

Peace to you, to those who have sat at the table of feast of My mother Virgin! Peace to you from the Bridegroom Who is coming! I am He Who is, I am He Who is coming, I am the Bridegroom and I am coming, and happy are those whom My coming will find watching for it! Grace and grace upon you for My coming! Do not be afraid, little flock! Your Savior is coming to you;

He is coming as the Bridegroom comes to His bride! The Lord is coming and He is coming to that who keeps herself within the spirit of His bride. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I have sat at a spiritual table with you, My people, and with a people that has freshly come at the spring and I, and My mother Virgin with you, have given to it from the table, but you have to get used more and more fervently to work My creation in man over those who come to the spring, as you have also received when you came to be with My coming of today, to be its soldier. I want to have mercy on many with the gift of the holy faith so that they may get away from the deceptive trap of the bondage under the sign of the ruler of this passing age and to make them the birds of heaven, for the time is coming for the little birds to ascend[117] into heaven, son, to start on the earth to the whitening and cleansing of the new creation upon it, as the Scriptures prophesy, for the man without God tries to prolong his age and he wants to delay My work of the creation of new heaven and new earth and of the New Jerusalem. However, I have from the Father work over the earth and I put on many the spirit of the knowledge of God, the spirit of My word which is upon you, and I want to work a gift of holy faith in many, for the light on the earth is growing less and less and only the faith of the man who comes to believe into My faith, only that one will remain as light on the earth, and it will shine over the margins and the man will receive in him the saving faith, the faith which was in Noah and in those in his house, when I, the Lord, washed the earth away from the sin put on it by the men's carelessness of God in the time of Noah. What saved Noah of My wrath by which I washed away the earth, as I could not do it otherwise? Oh, the faith in the salvation that comes from Me, that and only that saved Noah. He could doubt like all other people on the earth, but Noah did not do this, and it is written in the Scriptures about him as a sign of the faith, which saves the man from judgment, for great is the man who believes in Me when I come to him and when he comes to Me within his heart, asking for his salvation from Me, his forgiveness of sin, his sonship to Me by the power of his faith in his salvation from Me, Who am so affectionate after man and for man.

Oh, how much the man should work only and only for Me when he wants to work on the earth! Oh, how great his victory would be if he knew to stay near Me with holy faith to be able to do him good because of his faith in Me and in My power for man's life! When I was raised from the dead, as great a victor as I was at that time, I told My disciples who wondered and who were ashamed because of their weak faith in Me, and standing face to face with them and victorious upon death, I told them: «All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Therefore go, and teach the nations about this, and he who will believe in My victory will be victorious like Me and will be saved from this passing nation and will receive My name upon him and will be My son». (See Matt: 28/18) Oh, this is the work of the faith in those who take in them the gift of the holy faith from Me, the salve for the eyes that do not see, so that they may be able to see after that. My power over the man's life is his faith in this power of Mine that there is no other healer for man on earth like Me, and I, by My spring upon you, make the waking up for all, and My word of new making upon man will be much sought by all people and man will love his making as he today loves sin, for each time gives the man to do what it has got in it, and My time of glory, seen on earth will give from it to the man and he will get used to come in under My grace and all will be upon man by My grace. Amen.

Oh, My people, man needs great repentance and longing tears to Me, for he is very sinful, very feeble and very weak in his will. The sinful time has reached its climax and it keeps giving to man from its top, it gives him enough and to spare, as the wise saying goes, and man needs revival, and this is what I do by My voice upon you, and by which I pass over the border to the man to hear that I give Myself to you as word of creation and the man to come to repentance. In all the times under heaven, I have called out through My servants from time to time repentance over the people on the earth, and this is how I am calling today too, but today I am working more in a fatherly way, today I am passing over the margins with My endurance and with My sitting in counsel with the man to help him by My great word of My coming again from the Father to man, and I am clothed in the word before man and this is how I give Myself to him, and blessed is the one who receives from Me the holy gift to believe with it that I am this word, that I come into his way and that there is not anyone to come on this way of word. I am the One Who comes and I am Who I am and I speak clearly with the man and more and more clearly for his sold mind, which touches his heart to keep him in bondage to the time that passes, a red time because of the blood, shed by the people for all their passing cravings on the earth. I speak with the man according to his time to help him come out of it and to come into the mystery and in the time of the age to be, the Lord's age with man, for the man to come in while he is in his body, for I have built the new age with the man and I take him to work near Me as I took Noah after I gave him love and faith for Me to work by the one with God.

Oh, how happy I would be with God's entire heaven if the man got used to his living like Me, to speaking with Me and with man as My speaking is in Me and upon man! This is My longing, that the man may take My wisdom and My thought in him, and in this way the man would be within a great work upon earth and everything would be done by the word, as I and the Father sat in council in the beginning, and everything was made in accordance with Our counsel, for the word has such a great power when it becomes one in all, in those who give themselves to God to work for Him.

Oh, My people, remind Me of My promises for a new heaven and for a new earth and keep thinking on them so that they may be done, for they need to appear in a great measure from place to place over the earth, as it is written into the Scriptures!

Oh, how beautiful is the green place and full of flowers compared to the dry land and arid of life because of the dryness on it! Oh, man, you cannot harvest fruit of any kind if the place is not worked! Oh, there is no ready-made fruit, but you rather have to work in order to rejoice over it and you have to work for Me so that I may make you rich in those that remain. I have mercy on you when I see how much you work to have and I have mercy on you that you work for those that do not remain. Oh, wake up at My voice that calls you to work for God on earth and to turn the dry land into green land, just as I work and do! Oh, as you rejoice over a fruit tree, which you plant and take care to grow beautifully in order to bring forth fruit after that, in the same way you should rejoice to work for My life in man either and to start with your life first, and then to share it to be useful to others as I share Mine, so that you may rejoice over your work, over the work which remains before Me and yours, son.

I have a burning spirit to teach the man on this day, for the love of those who have come today at My spring of word has set Me on fire, love kindled in them and by which they know to feed their faith full of longing. It was pleased with Me their spirit full of thrill of longing and their word burning like fire before Me and yours, and you have felt comfort for your pains over you, My people from the spring. You have taught them the joy of pain, for your joy is sufferance, suffering son. May your pain give birth to many sons, as the fruit of My work with you, so that I may bring joy for your fruit before Me. Oh, we will give birth to many sons in pains, My people son, for the pains were more constructive in all times in those who have worked in My vineyard crying on the way and suffering from the north, from the mount of unbelief on the earth, a mountain under which so many souls lie, so many people without light, without faith on the earth.

I cry together with the heaven, I cry together with My mother Virgin, and We cry for the man who lies in unbelief of God. We cry, mother, because We are very, very merciful and man does not know to draw to Our mercy, mother. People suffer in ignorance, and We, suffer from their mercy, mother. However, sufferance is the working activity, it is the most working activity, oh, My mother! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, the Father Sabaoth has given You all the power in heaven and on earth, Son resurrected from Your painful crucifixion, for You bore on Your cross all the people's pains up to You and after You, all on Your crucified body, oh, Son of sufferance! You were born in sufferance, You lived in sufferance, You let Yourself be crucified in sufferance, and then in sufferance You were resurrected and ascended again into the Father, from Whom You have proceeded before eternity, and out of Your pain without grumbling, You have always brought forth saints on the earth before You, and they were Your brothers of sufferance and fathers giving birth to sons of holy faith before You, a birth from above over many on earth then, for in Your name the saints and the martyrs have testified and worked a new creation in people, in masters and in slaves, oh, Lord, giving birth from heaven to man, because You said that if man was not born from above he could, not have in him a kingdom for You, and You as its king.

We speak sweetly to one another before those who are faithful and before those who are less faithful and before those who are not faithful as well, Lord Son, our Savior, the Savior of all. Oh, what comfort we find when we speak to one another in heaven and on earth! Oh, what great comfort is the word, the word of sufferance, Lord! Our looking over the earth fills us with pain because we always see the people's destruction, for man perishes through joys, because the joys that the man wants for him and makes them looking everywhere for them, do not do any bit of good to him. Man perishes in the midst of his joys, oh, my Son, and We go in heaven and on earth through sufferance, and in sufferance We give birth to sons for the kingdom that is to come upon people, a kingdom built with hard work and within pains for those who mourn on the earth, not for those who receive as reward the joys in the time of their body among people.

I have sat at the spring with holy table on my day of feast and I have had a young people at the table, a new people, but alive in its faith and seeking after Your river of word, which flows sweetly for those who are gentle and humble in their heart before You on earth. Oh, what gentle little hearts are with Us! What comfort they have given Us in Our pains, to Us and to your people under Your burden, the one under pains for Us, Lord Son, and for Your hard and very much difficult way between heaven and earth! Oh, there is no God besides You and there is nowhere any clean spring, and you should not be mingled with poison of soul for those who seek to quench the burning of their soul, the longing after You in them. Oh, dear Son, You are very much sought by many, wanted Bridegroom, but You do not let Yourself be found but only by those who do not tempt You in their thought and deed, and whose hearts You search and perceive the whisper of their heart.

I am giving you word again, to those who have come to the spring of my Son near His people from the spring. Oh, you have brought Us comfort in Our pains and you have given Us from you and taken from Us. May the word from heaven, which is born of Our love and yours on a day of holy feast be grace, grace upon you! The word of my Son has become God's feast on the earth, a table of feast of the kingdom of the heavens, the heaven of saints at the table with the man on the earth, and the food on it has the holy longing as salt in it, the longing of God and in you and the Lord's longing after you. No people on earth has in its spoken language this word: longing.

(Romanian: dor[118], r.n.) Only the Romanian people has this sweet and affectionate word in its language: longing, and the Lord is speaking in the end of the time in this sweet language, and it was the first language between earth and heaven, the language which God spoke for the creation of everything, the language from eternity, when it was only one language on earth, before the nations and the languages were separated from place to place after the man's fall from God. The Romanian land is a great mystery, it is great, and it was not given to the man on it to master it, for it is established in eternity, and it appeared long ago in a mystery, and it has appeared again now, and only those who are wise from God know the language and the work of this mystery, which will rule over the earth soon, soon, and my Son has prepared a beautiful people in the midst of the Romanian people, which does not know its true origin, for this land is a great mystery, and then this river will overflow everywhere and over all on the land with the fruit of this word, which has it in the new seed of our Sower, Jesus Christ, my Son of two thousand years ago, Who appeared and dwelt among people.

I am speaking to you a word of longing, for the longing in you becomes longing on earth and in heaven. I wait for you with patience and with longing to become like me before my Son, Who is coming to prepare a bride for Him and to adorn it in glory. Give power to the longing in you, for the longing is the power which seeks in man after the Lord; it seeks seeking and desiring with longing, and my Son, Jesus Christ lives in man and is alive and He is born in man, longing and longing again, and this is the part which will not be taken away from you, and blessed are and will be those who choose their good part, the part which will not be taken from them, the longing after God and the seeking after Him with tears and with longing, like Mary, Martha's sister, the daughter which chose the good part and which was no longer taken away from her, for on whom the longing cleaves, that one can no longer live otherwise, and that man is always alive, and he is alive both in his wakening and in his sleep.

Oh, little hearts full of the blood of the love of God, the longing in you will teach you everything, and will take from the Lord and give to you, for His spring is flowing and opening more and more, and its dams fall and the river of life runs and clears the faithful man's mind and heart and it makes him the son of the heavenly Father, just as my Son, Jesus Christ is, and He is the first among many brothers, as it is written about Him. The Lord blesses your faith and love, which you have to leave into His hands, so that He may set them in you as a new building, as the time of nowadays requires, and the foundation of these is the longing, which makes a house in you to my Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior. I have carried you on the wings of angel to the spring for my day of feast, and in the same way, back to your things, until everything will belong to the Lord, everything that comforts or charges you.

Be with your hearts full of wisdom from above for the way in which you share my Son. Help by your inner and outer stature so that the man may believe through these in the Lord, your God; that he may be able to believe through you. Give gifts to the people as at the wedding and say as man says at the wedding for grooms when he gives the gift to the grooms; give to the people holy gifts, faith and love, and say like this: "little from us and much from the Lord," so that the man may see your humility and humility in you will work much upon man, useful work for the man's beauty from above from heaven. The holy decency in you has in its work the courage of holiness, by which he, who loves God with building faith in him, overcomes the world. Take care of the love in you and give it only to the Lord, only to Him, and let the man have of its fruit from you. This is the work of the love of God in man. Let only the longing of God dwell in you always, and let it be the salt of your life, the pleasure of your life in you. May your prayer be as smooth as the rippling water and as crystal as the gentle spring in its course, for any discontent and dissatisfied man proves his struggling in prayer, and discontentment is pride, and man cannot know the face of this sin. My prayer was warm and gentle in all the pains of my life, for my life was only God and His pain in men, and I bore His pain sweetly and not with struggle, for my humility for the Lord was without equal among people and I did not want to want and to be able to do more or less than my Lord on the way of my life, because I came on to the earth from Him and for Him, and every man can give his life to the Lord to be like mine after that, useful before Him, only for the man to have mercy on the Lord, as I had, as I worked it before Him. Love the teaching of my Son, for behold His spring, which by its springing is flowing and calling the man into the boat of salvation! The spring cries and this means its springing and it cries and sings running with its smooth ripple, and it teaches the whole justice for all things.

Take care of all the moments of your life and work the justice of everything. Early in the morning, when you get up from your bed, be awake. Take care how you get up, for you have to start the good day in the morning. Get up with piety and get out of your bed beautifully, as though you would give to the Lord your first movements and thoughts of the day. Get out of your bed on your right side of the body, do not get up backwards but with your face up so that your face may be your guide for the day after that, and when you dress, first put on the right sleeve of your little shirt and then the left one, and then take on your shirt with both of your hands, for what I teach you now is a great mystery and no one knows to teach man like me from the Lord. When you take on your shoes, first that on the right sock and the right sandal so that it may go well with you and that you may be with the Lord all the time of the day. And do the same when you work or when you get ready to go to rest within your bodies, and work everything as before the Lord for your own good from Him. When you want to speak with each other, start with a right word in order to speak what is right all day then and work peace among you by your speaking among you. Oh, hate lie for it destroys the man's life and it destroys the holy brotherhood among the brothers loving of Christ, and it is the devil's work in man, and from man to man, and it thrusts like the arrow when it passes through man to thrust another man. Take the truth of everything as your work, take from the right side and do not take from the left side, take from a place known by God and do not take from a place not known by you, for the Lord does not work unknown things for you, for the unknown man to a man is a trap for the man. The one who is known is illuminated outside of him and the light inside of him is seen well, just as the lie is also seen in the one who has it as the work from his wicked nature. Oh, you will be blessed if you do not stumble against the Lord, the One Who lives in those who carries Him to man. Be great with your right and with the truth in you and start with your right all of your works and movements. Be the sons of the right One in your image and likeness with all His things, and He will make you the way of the many to His spring, which cries by its course and calls the man to his salvation with its gentleness. Amen.

I, righteous and eternal Son in Your being without death, have taught them the justice and longing after You and I have exhorted them to work all their things in righteousness, from morning till morning, again and again. Oh, give them much power in their little hearts, and may their guidance be Your exhortatory word upon sons. Oh, how beautifully I have taught them at the spring at Your table with Your people from the spring and which lies a table for You and for those who come to drink! Let them take with their right hand and drink, for woe to those who take with their left hand and from their left, for they come into tears after that! We will always teach those that come to drink, and I will be comforted with my pain for You, oh, Son, forsaken by man, and we will make many sons and daughters, in order to have a people victorious upon death, sons full of victory, as You were an obedient son to the Father in Your entire work from Him for the life of the people. Oh, give them the spirit of obedience and the gift of the holy works in them and from them for the life of the people, dear Son. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I give them, mother, I give with My right hand to those who love My coming of today after man, fulfilling it upon them, mother. To those who work by their left hand and who prove to be like that, to them I will give with My left hand, mother, as I worked two thousand years ago, when I spoke with My disciples in one way and with the hypocrites in another way, with those who lie to their life, mother. The word of your spring was sweet over the little hearts, burning after Our spring, mother! We speak sweetly with the man, for the work of the heaven is sweet, but it is for those who are sweet and it does not stick to the grumpy man, mother, for that one works with his left hand in all his things and he relies on himself, poor of him, for his wisdom comes from him.

Oh, the work of this day of holy feast has been greatly blessed, My people from the spring! Stand, son, before Me with longing for My whole work with you and always stand on My right hand, for those on My right hand are those who are righteous with Me and start all their works with their right hand from morning till morning. I have given very much by My spring flowing with life, and both My mother and I have given. Amen.

I bless and refresh the blessing for those who take from My spring with you, sons, who are My way and support between heaven and earth. I give you the spirit of the heavenly love among you. Let him give you power in all your spiritual and bodily weaknesses, for this spirit can work in man and there is no other that can work when he can, sons. Oh, take great care for My spring to run, and I will take care of all those for Me and for you in My work with you. I give you wisdom and building word for the advancing of the completion of the work of the new building in My courtyards with you, and I give you free time to work and to perceive everything that are to be done for My work with you. Amen.

Peace to you and stay under My Spirit, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

Oh, peace to you, people of the spring of My word in these days over the earth, for My spring flows upon you and is divided to the sides for the life of the people on earth, and then in heaven for them. I am the Lord Jesus Christ and I have become spring upon you, sons. I fulfill into your midst the prophecy of the Scriptures of new heaven, of new earth and of new Jerusalem, and all by the river of life, which flows from Me and becomes word over you for you to give it from Me then to the sons of men who do not want to leave this passing age and come out of it and then to come to Me to give them what I have good for man, for there is nothing, nothing good on earth for man, and man perishes through joys, through deceptions and he gives to himself only with his left hand. My spring of word upon you is My mourning after man, and My tear washes, sons, it washes the man in his mind and then in his heart, if he bows to drink of it and to know the work of the longing after God, the work of the love from above in man. Oh, you have always been tired for Me, for behold, I have told you to get ready beautifully for My glory with you, to start traveling and to stand before man for My work with you upon people, sons.

Oh, you are exhausted, for I have stood now with you in the midst of a great multitude of people, and now we are celebrating the feast with which we have come to you today, the feast of the cross, sons. On the eve of this feast I have taken you and done a holy thing with you after I told you that I would go with you before the priests and bishops of today and before the whole crowd gathered for the memorial of those of old, who ruled or blessed or rebuked this country, the Romanian people, who has had waivodes and holy helmsmen, confirming the history of this nation blessed by Me, the Romanian nation, the nation chosen by the Father for Me now, in the end of the time. I bow to you with thanks because you have listened to the voice of My trumpet sounding upon you and fulfilled with thankfulness My entire walking with you for a moment in the midst of the people. I have shown you, My beautiful ones, My people of today into the midst of the Romanian people, and on which I rely for this whole nation and for every man on earth who bows to take and to know the truth coming down from heaven, and not to know from the earth. I have appeared with you within My glory among people, an example of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, My kingdom with man as in heaven and not as on earth, sons. Oh, My heavenly glory has clothed you within its mystery and it has spread sweet smelling aroma to many, sons. By the sign of the cross, with candles and flowers in your little hands, I have set you to stay now for a moment in the midst of the multitude of people gathered around the feast for My bishop Nifon[119], who long ago reprimanded for disorder in this country, and then, in the days that followed, when I, the Lord, came out with you in the gates of the city Târgovişte after seventy weeks of years, after four hundred ninety years from the release of binding over the church[120], spoken then by My righteous bishop Nifon, and by My word and by the word of My [120] Nephon II of Constantinople, also Nifon II, was the Patriarch of Constantinople for two periods, from 1486 to 1488 and then from 1497 to 1498. He was called again, a third time in 1502, but refused the invitation, choosing instead to return to Dionysiou Monastery where he reposed September 3 in 1508. He was also metropolitan bishop of Wallachia approximately between 1502-1507, r.n.

bishop Nifon I loosened the knot[121] to turn back My blessing for the renewal of this land and of this people, the Romanian people, out of which I have chosen now a people for My glory of new Jerusalem on earth, for the renewal of the world as it is written. Oh, how beautiful you were among the sons of this nation gathered at the feast on the past day, and today we are celebrating the cross, the sign of victory, sons, and we are speaking on the earth a testifying word, word from heaven on earth!

Oh, people from the spring, you are a great people and you do not know this, but I have you at My spring of word and I release My great word upon you in abundance for all those who take from Me by it, son. Oh, let those, who stand face to face to you and from time to time, not be afraid, for through you I bless those who are faithful to My coming of today and I give them power to become sons of God by the life of the sons in My image and after My likeness among the sons of men. You are My sign for those on the earth and for those in heaven, the sign before My coming, the sign of the Son of Man, and I carry you with the cross into your little hand when I carry you as My sign over the earth. Oh, if only the priests and the bishops of this nation would take from Me through you, to give to the crowd of people My work of yesterday and that of today, as you give for the salvation of many from sin! I have suffered in you from those gathered at the feast, for the people are like sheep without a shepherd and all live after the lusts of the flesh and do not follow My teaching from the Scriptures and from the saints. You are the sign of My judgment upon those who do not fulfill living a Christian life on earth. The wives of the priests and their sons and daughters walk with their head uncovered before Me in churches as well and they are half-naked and even on the feasts they do not have a proper garment. All have forgotten about the garment of the forefathers and about that of the waivodes and of the ladies of old of the Romanian people. It makes Me suffer; the wound burns within Me and this haughty and severe sin of today makes My eyes suffer as well. Oh, man does not want to be beautiful before Me and before the forefathers, and he wants to be beautiful before the world, and the world is ugly; it and its sons are uglier than in all the ages now, and sin is the dough both inside and outside the man, and man is a foreigner to My will and he does no longer have clean pasture and shepherds to guide him for his life from Me. I have shown you as an example of love of God and of man's conduct and beauty before Me. The crowds of people have looked at you as to the Lord's adornment, sons. By My dwelling for a moment with you in their midst, I have shown My mercy and love for their life from above. Oh, let the priests and the bishops not be afraid of you, but rather let them bless you, for you are My good ones, and you are My beautiful ones among the sons of men, when I come with you to My joy and the joy of many who know to see and to understand. I, the Lord, have exhorted you to sound the trumpet and to give the news with your going to the feast and those that are upon the church to bless you, and then I have told you to dress within garment of praise and to go with Me and give joy and beauty to those who know to see and understand and then to put their hope in Me and in My work of salvation, which I make it come down through you in these days over many, sons. Now, I am telling you that many have looked at you with great love, with great hope. Many of the bishops and priests within the mystery of their heart love you and believe that you are Mine and working from Me over the earth, for you preach My word with you to everyone, but declares from heaven the absolution of the curse pronounced by him in 1507 over the city of Târgoviște, as a result of the iniquities committed in the city with the will of the lord of the country, the woivode Radu.

«Seventy weeks have been determined upon your people and upon the holy city, for sin to be ended and to seal up transgressions and to blot out the iniquities and to make atonement for iniquities and to bring in everlasting righteousness and to seal the vision and the prophet and to anoint the Most Holy.» Daniel, chapter 9/24.

their fear for their earthly glory makes them hide in themselves with My mystery upon you. Oh, again, let the priests and the bishops not be afraid of you, but let them rather bless you and want you to be My blessing over the earth, as you already are, for this nation is standing now before Me through you, those who pray to Me at My word upon it. Within a great mystery, I have done great works with you over this nation, and it does not know that, for its eyes are kept from seeing. However, I open the eyes of many every day more and more, and I want them better see from Me through you, for I have on earth the work of the spirit of My testimony, the fulfillment of the Scriptures of new heaven, of new earth and of new Jerusalem, worked in times by the prophets and by the saints, and which have appeared now in the end.

Oh, let the servants of the church, let the Romanian people and all those who lead it, let them all look at you and take an example of the love of God in people, an example of faith and of holy conduct before Me and an example of holy power as well, for those who do away with sin are the greatest on earth and they are the first among many. Amen.

Oh, let the rulers of the church not be afraid, for you are hard working and good, you are beautiful and clean, because I, the Lord, have shepherded you from heaven with a fresh word more than I shepherded My disciples two thousand years ago. Oh, let the servants of the church not stumble against My work with you, as though My word of today, with which I am shepherding you and them even against their will, were not My Gospel, but let them read clearly in the Scriptures, which speak about Me that I will come in the end of the time and that I will work mysteriously and that I will shepherd the nations with an iron rod, with My word of the Shepherd of the shepherds and of the sheep and that My name is wonderful in the end of the time and that it is called the Word of God. Oh, let the man not wait for Me with My kingdom on the earth as he things that it will come, for when My kingdom is, it is in man and it is beautiful and shines where it makes its holy dwelling place, for it is written in My word of two thousand years ago and it says that: «He who believes in Me, I will come to him and I will become a dwelling place with him and I will dine with him and appear to him», and this is a true word. Amen.

Oh, let the rulers of the church not be afraid of you, let them not hate you, let them not envy you, let them not slander you, let anyone of them not blaspheme you, but let them rather believe that you sprang from Me and from My word from above and you were born and are, and I scatter only joys through you over the earth and I give only the word of making to everyone, and I do not give word of punishment, but I give the man power to believe and love and I give him from what is Mine. My sweet voice of Shepherd raises from death and wakes the man up from his sufferance for I am the good and gentle Shepherd and I lie down My soul for the sheep and I am He Who brings them together in a holy fold, and I do not scatter them, but rather I strengthen their steps and clothe them within My last glory, which I have from the foundation of the world and I have it from the Father for the end of the time. I love through you those who love you for My name and I give them holy and praised grace to those who love you blessing you when I appear with you from time to time to stay through you face to face with those who do not know what and how My kingdom in man is, the kingdom without end, as I am.

Oh, let no one stumble against you among those who are with you and among those who come to take the Lord from you, for as one still finds good fruit among those in the worldly church, likewise there is among you some bad fruit either to test those who deserve nothing but stumbling and then separation from Me by their works not known by many. Oh, in order that the one who came and come to be with Me and with you to separate from you and from My work with you, that one cannot do it better than hating you, those who are loved by Me, and stumbling against you, who so hard bring Me from heaven to earth, children sons bearing of God among people during these days. Oh, how hard this sin presses upon those who come to hate you and stumble against you, as many in My time stumbled against Me, who did not want to be with the light but rather wanted to be with their hidden works and with them far away from My will in man. However, you are My very dear treasure and I come out with you from time to time into the midst of the people, and you will be the comfort for many in the time of the great tribulation, which is to come upon the sons of men and many will come to you then and will receive comfort from Me through you in their great sufferance, for it will really be great.

Moreover, behold what I am saying in a day of the feast of the cross: You, those who believe through those who are faithful to Me and to My word of today, you will be happy, soon, soon, when My glory will appear to many by this word! And to those who stumble against Me and against those who are faithful to Me I am telling this: Oh, you would have been happy if you had not stumbled against Me, the One Who lives in those who carry Me to the man! Oh, it would be better for you to stumble against yourselves and then to open wide your eyes and look well face to face with yourselves and wonder of your conduct to your repentance and salvation, and not to stumble against those who can hardly carry Me to be on earth with the people.

Oh, children bearing of God, if you got out of My little boat with sons, those who oppress you because their dissatisfactions might not suffer. Oh, do not keep evil in mind! Stop your ears against those who oppress you and do your work with Me. Bring the spirit of prophecy on earth and this is how you are to work upon My people and this is how you are to raise a people for Me, now, in the end, as the prophecy from Me is not that which speaks well and to the satisfaction of self-loving man, but it is that which shows when the evil comes upon man and which shows the evil in man for his release from evil. However, you should not do as those who serve in My name upon people do; oh, you should not make disciples for you but make them for Me instead, children sons. Oh, do not keep in mind evil and everything will be forgiven to you all, for in this way you will always pass from death to life, loving the spirit of the holy brotherhood among you, the Spirit of God within many brothers. You are tired from pains, but in this state, without any powers left as you are, stay at the helm of My boat with sons in it and do not lose temper because of those who wonder why you always work new and new buildings. Oh, Noah's ark was used only once, even if it was built in so many years, sons! I work with you those that are useful and I see and work in this way, as I worked at Noah's ark for the salvation of the faithful man, for My work with man on the earth. Oh, do not grumble. Let them, the grumblers, do it, and you be obedient to Me sons and build for Me for the glory which is coming, for great will be the glory of those who are faithful on earth, for My glory will be with them. Amen.

I have glorified Myself now in you before the people, oh, sons of My word of today, and I will glorify Myself in them before you by My work with you, for many will raise up from their sins and they will renew their life and will take from the river of My word from you and will wash in it, and they will see with their own eyes the salvation from Me, and happy are and will be those who believe My word of today through those who are faithful to Me, the word of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in Whose name they, who believe through those who are faithful to Him, worship God. Amen. This name, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, is the name in which those who believe are baptized, and this is how the name and the sign of the holy cross has been put on the earth the name and the sign of the holy cross on the body of the faithful ones, who dedicate their body by this name, with their right hand, with its three fingers, on the forehead, on the chest, on the right and then on the left shoulder, marking themselves with My death and resurrection by the cross. Amen.

Peace to you, sons from the spring! I have walked with you and glorified Myself in you before the people, for you have been My beautiful ones, and warmed the hearts of many of those who have looked at you from the crowd. Also, peace to those who have looked at you and loved you because you are Mine, and I will give them comfort, they have not known about by this time, for the comfort that comes from heaven upon man by those who are Mine on earth with My will in them, this is the mystery, which I want to put in man from now on through you, for man is in sufferance, sons, and he needs much comfort, My comfort. Amen.

Also, peace to the priests and bishops of the church who have looked at you with clean eyes, with sweet and clean heart, for if the eye is clean, then the whole body is clean and his entire love as well! Oh, let them not be ashamed of you before the people near them, let them not be ashamed of the comfort which I have given them through you by giving them My peace and My salvation by My way with you from the Father to man, but let them rather humble in their heart, and let them be humble and gentle in their heart, for this is how I am. Amen.

I am Who I am and I have stayed with you into the midst of the people, and My name upon you is called the Word of God, the name of Jesus Christ in the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Shelter of the Lord's Mother

(Excerpt)

… I have chosen the Romanian land and the people on it, for the Father gave it to Me at My birth from the Virgin and I have loved it instead of the loved ones, instead of My people Israel that did not welcome Me and denied Me for its will, and after that I replaced it in My heart and I withdrew Myself from before it and so I chose the Romanian land, I chose its destiny and its sacrifice as Mine on earth, for its history[122] takes after My history, and the sacrifice of this land and the people on it was like Mine; it was crucified and cut from four sides to be taken portions out of its body, and this to be for the salvation of many, but no one understands the mystery of this land, on which I, the Lord, have now a table of word for those who want to dine with Me, and I with them, now, when I am coming to complete the renewal of the world, as it is written. Amen.

Amen, amen I say to you, to those who sit to decide, during these days, over the destiny of the Romanian people: I, the Lord, set to watch and to work the armies of saints and angels all over this land and over the nation on it and I am going to fulfill My will, and I am going to put the people of My word into the midst of this nation, I am going to put it to prayer with calling as I have advised it to ask from God for this nation. You too come to the spirit of humility with fast and prayer asking from Me for My will upon you, for your will is man's will, and your will is not good against God's will for this nation, which has its destiny in heaven, not on earth for the days of My coming again as word on earth. I am coming as word on earth to prepare My people for the day of My coming with glory, with Holy Spirit and fire, a day when people will not be able to work but only with the love of God or with their forsaking of God, and then some will be baptized with the Holy Spirit and others with fire, as I prophesied to be on My day of glory, after that I will have waited for man for more than seven ages to come back, at least now in the end, into the country from where he fell at the beginning.

The feat of the devout Parascheva

(Excerpt)

… I am going to give you advice to work according to it and to receive it, Romanian people. I am going to give you days of fasting in order to fulfill them with love and with holiness for your good destiny. I am giving you days ordained by God to overcome with Me, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, for I overcame death with death, and on that day I received you as a gift from the Father to be the country of My coming and to fulfill now in you the Scripture of My coming in the end of the time. Oh, wait for Me, wait for Me to shepherd and tend you with My advice! I am going to come with My saints and give you word to listen to it, son. Obedience means love, and love has a dear reward for those who listen with love. I am going to come and advise you. Stay with your door open so that I may let you know that I come and advise you for your destiny, oh Romanian people! Amen.

… Oh, take care of the Spirit, son, for the body with its work resists the spirit. Take care of Me, My people, take care of Me, more than of you, for I also take care of you, son. Oh, learn to take care of Me and of everything that I have to work through you over the earth and over man, and then we will be glory to each other when My glory from above will be shown on the earth below for My testimony before the mountain of unbelief, for much unbelief for Me is in the people because of their self-love in them, and I will take you in My hand and show you on My day of glory before the unbelievers, and you will be My crown of glory, and I, your crown of victory in the bad time, for I am coming, My people, I am coming and keep on coming, and I am coming to perfect Myself and I am coming to appear Myself, and on the day of My appearance any language will be silent and only I will speak on that day, only I and you, only we, only we, for the spirit of the testimony, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

… Oh, take care of the Spirit, son, for the flesh stands against the spirit with its work. Take care of Me, My people, take care of Me more than you take care of you, for I also take care of you, son. Oh, learn to take care of Me and of everything that I have to work through you over the earth and over the man, and we will give glory to each other when My glory from above will appear on earth down for My testimony before the mountain of disbelief, for there is much disbelief for Me in people because of their self-love that is in them, and I will take you into My hand and I will present you in My day of glory to those who are not faithful, and you will be My crown of glory, and I will be your crown of victory in bad weather too, for I am coming, My people, and I keep coming, and I am coming to perfect Myself and I am coming to make My appearance, and on the day of My appearance any language will cease and only I will be speaking on that day, only I and you, only we, only we, for the spirit of testimony, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the great saint martyr Demetrios, the myrrh giver

(Excerpt)

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and the Father has told Me to speak and to share a spirit of awakening, a spirit of teaching into the midst of the Romanian people.

I am the Word of God, oh, Romanian people. I am the Lord of the powers, for I trod with death upon death and I appeared as the Victor and I have the power to speak with the man, for the Father is in Me, and He is My power. I am coming to help you in your difficulty and to speak to you in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I am sealing you with this seal, the seal of the living God, so that you may have power of My power, for you are going through days of great trial, My today's country, and I see this and I support you and work with the saints for you to pass through days of hard time. My voice upon you wakes you up to a holy watch, oh, My today's homeland, for I am coming to you with My voice in the end of the time and I am speaking over the earth and over the man in your language, oh, Romanian people, and I want you to be victorious and I am waiting for you to be a crown over the nations and to be a great light over the earth, for I have made My return from the Father to man on your hearth, now, in the end of the time, and I am speaking into your midst the word of creation, the word of the new birth of the world, My today's country. I begin from your midst the new heaven and the new earth, deep mystery and kept in secret by the Father in Me for the end of the time and for the beginning of eternity on earth, and I have you as a crown of My glory and you do not know the mystery in which you are contained in God. I am speaking sweetly and I have been staying at the spring into your midst for more than fifty years and I have been preparing My glory from the end of the time; I have been making you into a faithful people and teaching you what holiness is, for it is the victory against death in man, and it sees God from man and it is being perfected on earth with its mystery from the end of the time.

I wake you up again, oh, Romanian people. Oh, come to My word that advises you in hard times! Light the candle and put in it a little piece of paper, written on both sides, and then scroll it and put it in your candle and burn your candle, with clean oil, and pray for you kneeling down before the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, for God lets you know to come to prayer for your destiny of today and tomorrow, oh, Romanian people. Take this little piece of paper and write this on it:

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the God of those who are faithful, You, the living One forever, seek now to the Romanian people and give it the wisdom from above, and put a spirit of repentance over it to come to know, with a humble spirit, the help from You in time of trial for its destiny. We, the sons of the Romanian people, are praying to You to bring upon us the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Who is to teach us to ask from You our salvation under the spirit of the today's darkness, which tries to comprise the world from margins to margins, a darkness that has never been in the times up to this day.

Our destiny is being decided at the gates, Lord, and we are calling You to watch for us. We are coming before You with days of fasting so that You may overcome for us with Your will from above and that You may watch for the election of the ruler upon us, for every authority is from You according to the life of each nation, but we are also asking You for the forgiveness of our sins, and then for Your will from above over us, for there is no other God besides You, and there is no other name above Your name, as well. With Your fatherly visitation, stretch Your mantle over us and overcome for us so that we may have rulers with love and mercy in them for us, for without You we grope in the dark, Lord. Oh, receive the sacrifice of our hearts and bodies and give us of Your Spirit of life giving and kindle us in Him in order to do Your will, we and those who will rule for us, and help us to turn our face to You, for we have gone astray from Your ways, from the way of life, Lord. And now, put Your hand on our wounds, which we do not know how they are, heal our lack of steadfastness, heal our life after Your will, heal our hearts and make us a praised nation, inclined to do Your will, for You alone are our God and You are the Way, the Truth and the Life, as Your word said that You are. Oh, arise for us as our Savior and to Your glory in the midst of the Romanian people, glory from which the nations to take the light to their salvation from Your. Amen, amen, amen.

And I, the Lord, am sealing now My teaching upon you for the spirit of prayer with calling, oh, Romanian people, but cry out, sons, to Me with days of fasting, before the day when it will be written your destiny of tomorrow and rulers upon you for your life.

On the week before the day of the lot for the ruling upon you, (The day of the presidential elections, the first ballot, r.n.), I, the Lord, am bringing you before Me with three days of fasting: Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (November 18, 19, 20, - r.n.), and with holy prayer as I have advised you, Romanian people, and then I will listen to your calling and I will watch to your help. You shall eat clean food during these days and clean it by sprinkling it with holy water, and then I will work with the gift of the Holy Spirit for your sanctification by your faith in My sanctifying work. Oh, you shall stop sinning and you shall eat only fruit and vegetables after sunset; you shall also eat only clean bread, not mixed up, and the clean bread is: wheat, salt and water, dedicated by the sign of the holy cross both when you work them and when you eat them. Oh, there is no longer clean food in the marketplaces, there is no longer anything clean. The Christian does no longer has clean days for true fasting, with holy food, for Gog and Magog has been interfering in everything and all things that man uses, to My pain from man, and I, the Lord, wait for you, Romanian people, and your ancestors also have been waiting for you to keep a holy fasting on earth, as they also lived and kept holy fasting with holy praying before Me to My joy and theirs from God. And now, peace to you, and power to you to fulfill My will upon you to your help from God! Amen.

… I am Who I am. I am the One Who comes. I am the One Who speaks! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint archangels, Michael and Gabriel

My heavenly glory is filling now the room where I, the Lord, meet the people who is coming to My spring of word on feasts, and outside the room as well as inside of it, the angelic armies have made up the day of their feast in heaven and on earth. Amen.

I am your Lord and Teacher, My people from the spring, with which, during these days, I am fulfilling My works on earth and My word upon you, and with which I am giving Myself where it sends. I have set you, son, to prepare beautifully the feast of the angels, and you have done this, My angels have prepared it from above, and the angelic hosts are staying with great glory inside and outside of the house of My meeting with the people coming to the spring. You have labored without rest to fulfill My word, and I thank you as God and I am embracing you within My love and I am strengthening you further for My days with glory, for the coming of My word in the clouds is the glory with which I come, and I am embracing and protecting you as My today's treasure on earth.

To you, watchmen from the gates, I give you renewed power to stand before My word and you are to put it into the book and then before My people gathered at the spring and then before the Romanian nation. Oh, watch before Me with commitment and mercy on My hard way from the Father to man, for man's watching for God has gone out, and God is the One Who gives life to everything in order that they may be and serve the people in heaven and on earth.

Oh, if I were not the giver to the man, and as he does not know how I am and how great I am, the man would not be on earth. I would stop the man from the way of his walking and I would show him how he has life in him and for him, but his unbelief is without interruption, and even if he staggers for a little or more time, when I come near to him to open wide his eyes and the thrill in him to understand that he is weak and that he is not if he stays without the things from Me upon him, the man would turn back each time to his weakness of not loving and following God on earth, and behold, among those with a living soul between earth and heaven, the man is the most haughty, the most deprived of the love of God, the Giver of life, the Spirit Who brings the man to My kingdom.

Oh, rejoice angelic armies and you too, their chiefs! Give glory and worship to the Lord and rouse the sons of the heaven for My glory! It is shown in the Scriptures as it is, and the faithful and true man, as I am, sees by his faith and sees My glory written in the Scriptures as it is. We are sitting now at the table of word with the people gathered from everywhere to the spring. We are bowing and embracing him with glory, and at the same time, we are mourning over the unfaithful man, who lives without My glory upon him. My fulfillment in man is My glory in man and his glory in Me, for the heaven and the earth make My work in man when he remains in the spirit of the faith and of the faithfulness before Me on earth.

I am embracing and kissing you with My word of life giving, people gathered at My table of word for the feast of the angels! I am looking at you with the spirit of the merciful Father and of the comforting Shepherd. I have accompanied your steps and your way to My spring of Holy Spirit. Now sit down, for the celebration of the angels is being made today, in a day of feast and prayer for the Romanian people in heaven and on earth. Oh, sit down before Me, for behold how I am sitting down before you with the ornament of the heaven, with the glory of the angels that carry Me in a chariot of glory as their Lord, as One God over all those that are seen and over those that are not seen by the man's fleshly eye. I am bowing and sitting with you within the work of the word. I am asking you to be and to remain within Me with your life and with its light from Me, for I am the Light and I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, but if it remains only for the man to hear who I am and what I am for his life and for his steps on earth, then he will no longer sit to fulfill Me in him in this way, because if I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, he who believes that I am all these, then he becomes like Me, the way, the truth and the life, as it is for the life in man and for his steps on earth that I, the Lord, have spoken what I am, and for the man to be fulfilled in this word of Mine over him, word as old as two thousand years but which is always today like God.

The true man has to live for God on earth. It is not impossible for man to live like that. He has power in him to live for God or for himself on earth, but happy is that one who knows fully that his life is from God and that he has to give to Him His things from His things, and he needs to have everything from God and only in this way he is supposed to share to the sides for My light among people, which is to plough through the darkness of men so that they may see the ray of light with which I dwell in him, in the one who has in him from Me and only from Me, the way, the truth and the life for his life, life in its detail in man and not only with speaking.

Behold, you find here, at My spring between earth and heaven all the good things of life, for I love so much the man even to the point of becoming new word between earth and heaven, and I make My coming to him to prepare him fatherly and to make him used to becoming a baby for obedience and also to give him My kingdom, to build Myself in him and to make My heaven in Man, to make My throne in him, to be the king of man's life by his living life, the life of My kingdom in him. Oh, take care so that I may be King in you, and you to be My kingdom, and do not forget that you cannot serve two masters and still have a clean heart. Oh, it is not possible that way. The taste of the body, the taste of the world whispers to you that it is possible like that too. Oh, no! What kind of the cleanness of the heart the one who serves two masters can prove anymore?

Oh, people gathered at My school of instruction, I am putting My word before you by which I said: «Blessed are those pure in heart, for they will see God», and now, after two thousand years, I am telling you that God is seen in those who are pure in heart, and they are those who are pure in heart. Amen. You will know them after their fruit, not after their words, and you will know their faith by their works, for the true faith and its work is its action, which makes it perfect in its sight.

I am advising you, those who have recently come to My spring of word, I am advising you not to be ashamed of Me and of the works of My life in you and of My saints in you, for he who is ashamed of Me in him before the sons of man, that one has got two gods in him, and neither of them he serves with faithfulness. Oh, you cannot have greater honor among the sons of men, or a greater stature than that which takes after God in you. People need God and cannot find Me, poor of them. Make with great love My image and the image of My saints on earth among people. If now you are given from Me the gift of holy faith as a result of My preaching to you from the mouth of the My spring into the midst of the Romanian people, then give yourselves thoroughly to it and to its pleasure in you, for this is how your holy faith is put in My word of that time and now. Soon, soon, there will be everywhere on earth corpses of those who have been unfaithful and who have put their trust in themselves. I clothe you in the power to be, for I am Who I am. The love in you is carrying you now more and more often to My spring of word, and through you, I am blessing the city from which you are coming to Me to take from Me for you and for it, as the Samaritan woman took seed of Holy Spirit in her and went into her city and sown it, and the seed brought forth hundredfold fruit in her for My way with them on earth, and the Samaritans believed then more than the people of Israel in the Son of the Father Who came then on earth. Go with faith and with the spirit of the prayer and sow My seed into your city, and those, who will believe and will be saved from themselves, will clothe themselves within Me as you do. Do not forget that the spirit of faithfulness has to accompany the gift of the holy faith. Oh, do not forget that those, who do not stumble against Me, are happy, because those who stumble fall away from My happiness. In the city from where you have come to Me with your heart and step, I have My anointed one by the work of My word of today. (The bishop Irineu-Bistriţeanu, from Cluj, r.n.). I have written My new name through him on earth, My work of new Jerusalem, for with him as My witness, I have brought My church on its first track again, a blessed people by My fulfilling within it. Oh, bring prayer to Me in order that the chains of the hatred of those who hate him because of My name may be broken out! Be the word and the deed of the messengers of My work of fifty years into the midst of the Romanian people, the work with history on this shore to which I, the Lord, have come now in the end of the time, and I am speaking to the people as I did two thousand years ago in My language of Teacher with power of word. All My angels are telling you on their day of celebration, they are telling to the whole people gathered at the spring, and My angels are speaking like that:

– Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward those who are faithful! Praise the Lord like the angels and the saints! Be the givers of the Holy Spirit and of the powers from above over the Romanian people and of the spirit of prayer on this day for its destiny of tomorrow! The Holy Spirit is carrying you on His wings as the eagle carries his chicks to teach them to fly, and the Holy Spirit is hovering above you and wants to come down in you to be your life. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord, God Sabaoth, and the heaven and the earth is full of His glory and full of the glory of His Son, Jesus Christ, the Word of God! At His command all those that are in heaven serve Him for His faithful ones who become His servants, for the true man has to live for God on earth. Come to the spring of the Lord's glory, always come, come and drink! We, all the angelic hosts make wings to your spirits to come and drink of the cup of Jesus Christ's love, for you, those who believe in Him and in His coming again from the Father to man. We watch for the destiny of the Romanian people together with all the saints all over the Romanian land, now, when the lots fight for the one who is supposed to continue to be the helmsman of the Lord's ship, for the Romanian country has written on its mast the country of the New Jerusalem, the living prophesied in the Scriptures to be on the earth with the people and to wipe out the tears on their cheeks for their faith in the Lord's promises. Believe in the Only One God and in His one pure spring of today on the hearth of the Romanian people! Oh, all the springs have mingled, all the rivers which give to water the people thirsty of life, for the spirit of man wants to be a god upon people, but the Lord speaks over those who work like that upon people: "My face and My work is known as clean where it is, only for the man to come and to give himself to Me with a clean heart, not mingled and not divided, for the gift of the prophecy is written in the Scriptures how to be and how to work there where it is and where it works." Oh, the nature of the angels sees well what the Lord says, and woe to the man who does not see because of the limit of his sight, and he cannot keep away from what is not God or God's face by the people's works.

Behold the Lord Word how is telling us, how is telling the angels, to bring at His table of word those who wait in the graves for the Lord. We fulfill, and the Lord then bows as a God as a sign of gratitude, and behold, I have brought those who are asleep at the table. Their remembrance is being done here on the day of the angelic powers and of the angelic nature and we have an angelic work on this day of feast. Oh, praise the Lord like His angels! Praise Him in the Psaltery and by the lute in a loud voice, and praise Him on the string instruments, for all the glory belongs to Him; it belongs to the One Who is worthy of it! Amen.

The voice of angels has spoken to you on a day of angelic feast. Amen, amen, amen.

– And now, I, the Lord, am sealing the angels' speaking for My book of today and it is My testimony and the testimony of My coming with the saints and with all the angels. Amen.

I put to rest those who are asleep. I give them the joy of their meeting with My people of today by which I am with My coming, I give them the comfort from My word spoken on the day of celebration of the angels and by My table of today, I am preparing for them again and again the moment of their full resurrection, the redemption of their bodies. Amen.

Oh, those, who stay in the gates for Me to come as word into the book, are exhausted, and My word is much. I have Verginica with Me now, My trumpet by which I sounded My coming of today and I prepared and keep on preparing a people until I may remain with something very dear in My hand, for My people has to be dear and to become dearer and dearer, and happy are those who listen to Me for My great work with them! I have My trumpet with Me on the feast of the angels.

Oh, My trumpet, oh, I am speaking with you in heaven, for the day of the celebration of the angels have met the spirit and the little soul of the shepherd Daniel, the shepherd of Our people today. You are among those in heaven with him. Very much aggrieved as he was on earth, he worked tirelessly at the spirit, at the mind and at the heart of people who was coming to be My people. I have released him from bonds and pains, from his many pains and Mine through him, and on the day of tomorrow we will put his body to rest. We are going with those very weary, with those who have labored much and prepared for Me the day of the angels and whom We doubly put to work, to prepare and to set to rest of the body of the shepherd Daniel. Oh, he worked much and he overcome many devils in his way with Me by his steadfast faith and by his perseverance to the end! Oh, he was so faithful! There has not been another one in My people of today like him up to the sons of today on whom we are relying now for My coming further as word. The children left him as they left Me, but behold, he has got sons, and he has got disciples who carry him further, both Me and him. Now We are embracing each other, We are comforting each other in pains, We are strengthening each other closely for the watching and for the holy walking of the sanctified people with which I, the Lord, am doing today My works further on earth, those in these days, oh, My trumpet! This day is with much celebration, and tomorrow We will celebrate again the feast of the shepherd Daniel's ascension into heaven. I showed to someone of his fold, many years ago, in a night vision, what big, what resounding and how much borne was his name among those in heaven in the time of his work with Me and with you on earth, My Verginica. (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) Oh, how dear is for Me the passing away of those who are faithful to Me and it is a great feast for My saints as well! I have given you great comfort. You see now in heaven what the comfort and the longing for her are like, because We have people on earth, We have them in Our longing and We seek after the comfort from them more and more, oh, much more than they seek from Us, for everything is seen in heaven and everything is awake and holy and everything is very well seen. Oh, the heaven is full of longing from the things that the people have got on earth as their share, for on earth everything is under man's dominion and We do no longer have oases of rest on earth, We, those from heaven, but the reward of Our inheritance is the people of My word, and My angels belong to them too. Amen.

I carry you within the glory of angels on the day of the celebration of the angels, My people from the spring, and tomorrow We are going on the wings of their glory dedicated to Me and We are going to put down to rest and comfort the body of the shepherd Daniel. The angelic hosts have become his straight way to the glory from above. I give you tenfold power for you are very much tired. Do you really know what your help in your toilsome sacrifice is? Oh, your obedience is your relief while you work hard, for My burden is hard to carry, I carry it with you, and I also carry both the one in heaven and that on earth. My people, as little as it is, it is much and hard for your little shoulders. However, I stay with you under the cross and leap with it, not as two thousand years ago, but with all the heavenly and angelic power, and I help you for My work with you, for there is no one to help Me on earth. I rely on you and you on Me and on My care for you. We take care of each other, and behold, We walk and walk again. We go My people, and by faith We will bring to safety the ship by which We go over the rottenness on earth. There is no clean place and there is no clean way any longer, and We do no longer find any little clean corner on the earth either. Oh, My people, stay within Me, be content and be good, My people! I am the One Who can do for Me and for you, and you are the one that can work for Me, son. Amen.

And if I will strengthen a little bit those in the gates, then I, the Lord, will see to bring more word near the one now, for I want to bring to completion the whole river of My word as many times as it comes to overflow into its book of today, My book with you, My people. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen.

Peace to you, those who have come and comforted My Spirit and sight by My looking at you and seeing you coming and spending heavenly and feeling the thrill of your meeting with Me! Oh, peace to you, those freshly born of My word during these days in such a way that I may make through it a holy people for My glory in the end of the time! My Spirit loves you as you also love Me. My Spirit teaches you in the way I want to have you. My Spirit waits for you to be completely transplanted into My work, by which to make Me a field to sow My new seed, My Spirit of life giving for the man's redemption. I am taking you into My spirit. If you remain in Him, you remain in My love either! I am sealing you by the word of your inner voice and by which you speak in the Spirit: "We want, Lord! Help our will!" Amen.

The angelic hosts are staying now with you and will accompany you tomorrow for the holy duty for the day of the feast of the shepherd Daniel, sons of My people. I, the Lord, will strengthen you too, those who have prepared everything for the feast, and I will also strengthen those who will go to the feast, and I will strengthen you with the heavenly hosts. Amen.

Peace to you, ministering angelic hosts of My glory, for I have created you for My glory! Amen, amen, amen.

– Glory and worship to the Lamb of God, the Lord Word, to You, Jesus Christ, the King of the angels and of the faithful people among the sons of men! Glory to Your great name and to Your kingdom in heaven and on earth! The heaven is Your throne and it is wide, and the earth is Your footstool, and it is narrow for You on earth because of the men's unbelief who have taken the earth to have dominion upon it.

Glory to You, the One Who, soon, soon will overcome over all and everything, and Who will dedicate them all to the Father as an obedient and great Son in Your submission, all the angelic hosts are telling You now on their day of feast in heaven and on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

I spent on the day that passed with an angelic feast, and the glory of the feast of the whole heaven of saints and angels was great, and it is a great wonder that the heaven has a footstool on earth for Me to become word of coming, now, in the end of the time, and for those in heaven to hear My great word and to take from it the joy, for which they have waited so much, because the perfect joy, the whole joy, waits in the end of the time, as those who hope in it with faith may wait as well; those in heaven and those on earth, joy that passed through many pains, through great sufferance and trials, through all kinds of temptations, and then to its whole reward. Amen.

I, the Lord, wait with those in heaven for the day when everything will be submitted to Me to be able to bring them all before the Father Sabaoth, like a little victorious Lamb, for I am the little Lamb of the Father and I listen to Him. I listened to Him when He sent Me from heaven on earth to become flesh and to grow as a Son of man and then to let Myself be sacrificed by the people through which My Father made Me known on earth, the people of My mother Virgin. Oh, I did not stand against those who denigrated Me to the death on the cross, mocking Me as the greatest evil doer, as the greatest sinner, for My denigrated and crucified body was put between two thieves who were punished by the law for their robbery deeds. And I stayed like that in submission to the Father for the work He had sent Me to do. That is why He had sent Me, and He had sent Me to be denigrated by all those who believed that I came to take away their kingdom, their freedom and their will. Oh, the Father had sent Me to be punished for the sin of all the sinners, who had ever been, who were and who would go on sinning after that on earth, who would write by their own hand the punishment of their works worthy of death, for they violated the commandments given by God as life in man and each man keeps on doing that, standing against the One Who has given them as the men's life, and the Father had sent Me to make atonement for man.

Oh, the feast of the angels near you has been great, My people from the spring! My coming guests have been full of longing and holy thrill before My word and before My angels. The hosts of angels have been many and without number. You are still small, and the same is your sight, but the glory of the feast has been great for those in heaven as well, for those asleep have come to the memorial in great number, many, from the beginning of the world and up to this day. The heaven has come and the Lord's chambers, with everything in them, souls, spirits and ghosts, and angels in thousands of thousands in hosts by hosts have glorified My glory with you, My word that calls to life on earth the heaven and the earth and everything in them. Many, many saints have seen in times, they saw ahead of time those that I, the Lord, brought and would bring mysteriously on earth by the faith of a people with a humble spirit before Me, for I find pleasure within those who let themselves seized with My word, in those who tremble before Me so that they may do My will by their faith, by their small power, but by their love from heaven.

Oh, I am strengthening you in the gift of the holy faith to be the footstool of My mysterious works, My people of today, for as little as you are, you are, and you are by My grace, for I am word on earth through you, and what should I have done if I had not found faith on earth for My coming of this time with so much river of word for the washing of the earth with it and for the calling the man out of sin to holiness, from carelessness to watchfulness, from death to life? At least to wash My hands, at least to shake My legs, as having been sent by the Father to man, the man does not receive Me with his salvation from Me. However, My today's testimony is being written and is becoming a book between earth and heaven, and it is becoming seat a of judgment[123] for every man who hears and does not do the works of life and who does not want to hear and believe in the One Who is coming from the Father again, as it is written to come. I come as word on earth because it is written to come in this way, and My coming is done mysteriously and it is at the middle of the night. Oh, there has not been a darker night than that of today's night. Those who are asleep sleep and do not get up at My voice. People sleep in their sins, for the sleep of sin is sweet to them. I have found a little seed of faith, now, in the time when I have to come and sound the trumpet for the man to get up and to come before the voice of My coming, and behold, I have built a dwelling place of coming of the sons, faithful to the mystery by which I come on earth. Oh, I have found faith on earth for the fulfillment of the Scriptures of My coming again from the Father to man as word full of power and full of spirit of resurrection, and with it, with the angel word, with this one I have woken up the angels to bring together with them at the table of My word those that will be, My elected ones, who separated and separate themselves for Me with their faith and love, and I preach Myself to them and then I give power to the pruning knife to go and do its work on earth, the work prophesied to be. Amen.

Oh, you need great will, sons of the people of My word, and you, those who come to become God's sons by the power that I give to the love in you, to the faith in you for My coming. Oh, I put much life of Holy Spirit in you, and you should gird on the belt of the holy faith and overcome the world and the flesh. Amen. I tell this to all the people on earth to overcome the world: the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye and the pride of life, as these are the spirit of death, the spirit which has got power in the air by the man's sick craftsmanship, for the man builds his death by everything he got used to do and by which he gets only remorse, later and later remorse.

Holy fast, holy prayer and decent stature, leaving off pleasures, listening to the commandments of life and much, much love and faith, and much faithfulness near Me, this is what you are to fulfill, faithful people, and come near Me to rejoice and to rejoice Me as well, as there are no time periods and loftier places between heaven and earth than at that time and where I meet you and write ourselves on earth with the stopover of the haven, I with you in a heavenly meeting during these days. Two thousand years ago, the sick people followed Me in tens of thousands to take away from them the sadness of their heart and the lack of the health of their bodies, but in order that they might do My will after that, oh, there were very few of them within My great and working stewardship, and the man's lack of sight, his hardness of heart and arrogance among the things that are seen by man's eyes and which are made by God, were great and branded.

The spirit of the body draws the spirit of the soul to make only flesh the man weak of God, and the flesh lusts against God in man, and poor of man cannot have control over himself.

However, My word can give the man the power from above to have control over himself and not over Me in him, and that is why I become word on earth, oh, sons of men wandering away from My Father! Oh, was it not God that made the heaven and the earth, the visible and invisible things, the man and then He made His Only born Son, to be the Son of man for your salvation and to save you from your ignorance of God? Oh, how and where do you keep on walking without a shepherd rod for your life without watching, not guided by a saving helmsman for you? I come with the angels and with the saints and step with them on earth at a heavenly pace for you, but your eyes do not see the heaven traveling with you to give you an occasion to make you see, to hear and then to believe that God is behind you and waits for you to love Him and to become His sons by the love bond between Him and you, between you and Him. Oh, learn, learn what love is! It is without sin and without body. It makes the man into a new creature, a creature of the Holy Spirit, a spiritual body submitted to the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God. Oh, bring your body under control! Do not give it what it requires, for the flesh and blood stand devilishly against the kingdom of the heavens in man! The sting of death is sin and it stings the man in his flesh, and death is inside man and not outside him, and man dies by the sin in his body, unsleeping worm in man, the worm that wakes up the man from his sleep, from his bed, only to do the man's enemy lust in his own body.

Oh, with every passing day and more and more aggrieved, I keep on calling out to man to tell him that the sin in him is an unsleeping worm and it does not let him sleep but it gets him up only for sin. The day will come to overcome death, to overcome the sin in man and the man will see his sinfulness face to face, the death, which he has loved and always, always brought to life in him, and then I will be victorious over the sinful man, victorious over his death, for the death in man has made its bed and deformed man's life and his life, that which I wanted to be for him through this creation in the beginning.

Oh, man has to come to repentance and he needs to leave off the sin and all the trace of the sin in him. I can do this even if the man does not want to listen to My commandment for My kingdom in him. My kingdom in man has nothing, nothing to do with this world, and this is how I want to make the man, a new creature, in the image and after the likeness of God's Son, Who became the Son of man and Who was counted among the sinners in order to draw all from earth to heaven, from the ruler of the darkness to the Father Sabaoth, My Father, the One without beginning and without end, like His Son. Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, God the word, have spoken these in the days of angelic feast in heaven and on earth, to the joy and to the comfort of the angels and saints and then to the joy of those who are faithful on earth, faithful and true, as I am. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, oh, Romanian people, oh, Romanian people! I have been giving you advice for a long, long time, for you to take care of your destiny of tomorrow and you are caught in the chain of those who lie to you for your life. Oh, behold what war, what war of desires and seeking after human glory have been struggling in you on this day of lots for the one who is to stay at the helm for you! (The day of the presidential elections, r.n.). Oh, I, the Lord, have always taken you out of your pains and from under human controls in all the time of your stormy history, Romanian people, and behold, you do not watch well for your destiny as your ancestors did for his land. You have the pencil in your hand to write your destiny. (The vote, r.n). Oh, do not give yourself into the hand of the one who does not take care fatherly of you! Oh, what shall I do with you not to go wrong for your destiny? Open your mind and then your heart and seek to feel with your heart and not think with your mind, for you are in the danger to fall again into your blood and to lie in ignorance and carelessness, for the man's spirit wants to deceive your mind and write with your hand your turning back again to those from which, nonetheless, I have tried to get you out, and much blood was shed for the release of your bondage coming from Me to you. (At the anti-communist Revolution in 1989, when the communist dictatorship shot the revolutionaries, more than 1,000 people died, more than 3,000 were wounded, r.n.). Oh, do not seek after your well-being now, but rather set down and seek to destroy the spirit of lying first, every man that lies against your good from Me, for no good is built on the man's lie who puts you off with fine promises so that you may set him as ruler upon you, as though he would give you what he does not have, what only you are able to give him. Oh, keep on going forward and do not turn back now. I look from those on heaven over all of your land and over all who are speaking now into your name using weak power and lie to enchant you to turn back.

Oh, do not turn away! Do not turn back, Romanian people! The one who is the helmsman upon you now wants only what is good for you before the nations on the earth, (President Traian Băsescu, r.n.), and he is clean in his heart for you and is strong in his spirit, even if the rottenness on the earth keeps all the nations on it under the obstacle that the man might no longer work for God and be with Him upon his life.

Oh, Romanian people, do not sell yourself again into the bondage of the red beast![124] Do not give yourself again over to fall into the trap of the man's lying spirit who tells you the lie that he will be for you with those in him. Oh, there is only haughty spirit in those who are struggling now to make an open war at your gates to lay hold on the helm of the Romanian ship through the waves of this time. Behold, they have been confessing openly their burning desires for their glory, and in any case they do not care for your future but are rather set to make their play of success, not to take you out of your pressure, My country, Romanian people. Oh, your trial is great now, but I have advised you to stay awake in your spirit and to ask from Me to give you the spirit of precaution and not to choose what is evil for you when you have the pencil in your hand to make decisions, and not those who want to rule over you into your name and without mercy on you, My country. The one who is now helmsman upon you, that one is the one who loves you with a great heart, and with a brave spirit he wants to rule upon you before the great trial, which again wants to throw you down from the rock, Romanian people. Oh, he does not lie to you. He tries to help you from your midst and not to sell you without any price. Wake up, oh, wake up, and if you do not want, then I am not guilty for your life, because I have advised you, and I have given a spirit of good advice for you to the one who is ruling upon you now. The war made to overthrow him is great and it is coming from the darkness, and it is made in the light. However, I, the Lord, fight and I will fight for your good among all the evil things, which try to catch you again in bondage and I will watch with the angels and with the saints on your hearth and I will look at your work, at your heart, and I will inspire you mysteriously from Me, for the war against you is fierce and these are not waging war against the one at your helm, but rather they are waging war against your good, oh, My country of today.

Oh, I am telling you now, to the one who sit as a helmsman for the Romanian people, for My ship, for the country of My coming now, in the end of the time, as word on earth and for the man's salvation: leave to Me the fight and the care for the lot which follows to fight for you or against you, for the forces of the darkness have spread everywhere and blindly fought to draw under them My Romanian people. I, the Lord, am everywhere with the angels and with My saints into the midst of the Romanian people, and if the Romanian people chooses to wake up during these hard moments, then I will give him of My Spirit and I will work for him and for you at his governance, but if it chooses the lie, the strife and the pride, which from man stands against the unity and against the brotherhood of this nation, then I wash My hands from the lack of wisdom of the Romanian people for this crucial moment, and then it will suffer falling and humiliation under the man who wants to be for himself and not for this nation at its gates. However, you should put your hope and stay in the spirit of the love of the country and nation, and I will keep My people in the spirit of prayer and of the holy watch, and together with the heaven of saints and angels we will stand and fight against the great stubbornness of those who want to be for themselves and who do not want the justice, the peace and the truth on the table of the brotherhood of the Romanian people. Oh, not in this way, the brotherhood of the Romanian people was not like that in the old times, and those from this nation that are not just for it now, have forgotten their brave ancestors. However, you sit down now before Me with the courage of the hope and let Me be your support, for I, the Lord, want to go on with his victory from Me with this nation, only that it may not fall in the evil spirit of the wandering away from God more and more, of the revelry that is all over the earth and of the faith denial, the sign before My coming with the day of the glory of My returning in glory on the earth to man, and the faith denial is the sign that the antichrist struggles with fierce power to wipe out My trace and name from the earth in order that he may rule instead. However, He will reign up to his end, and then I will be, as I was and as I am, the King of the creature, and I will bring to perfection, from the midst of the Romanian people, the mystery of the new heaven and the new earth and of the new Jerusalem, as it is written to be on the earth in the end of the time, and the Romanian country is written with the name of the country of brightness, and from its midst, I, the Lord, am written in the Scriptures to come and to be victorious over death and over the resurrection of everything, the new birth of the world of My new word, the book of today of My word. Peace to you now! Let no one grumble because of My word by which I have spoken to you today and to the Romanian people, My nation of today, My new Israel, that from the end of the time. Amen.

And you, people of My word into the midst of this nation, stay awake now, stay with your little hands stretched out to Me for the day of the lots, and on that day, when the Romanian nation will choose its way forward or backwards, according to how it wants to bow or not to bow to My mystery, by which I am now trying to support and help it for its destiny, for its future course, for the war into its midst is great now for its fate, and I, the Lord, have given to it now the word of its awakening. Amen, amen, amen.

I have come to the end with the second day of feast now, My serving people. I have set you to put to rest and comfort the body of the shepherd Daniel, a great day of feast for those in heaven. The news of its passing away has gathered on this day the people that has been fed in time for more than fifty years on the river of My word during all this heavenly time on the earth. There has come a great number of My people, and many people from the Măneşti village, a village where My word has sounded its trumpet so much, so much, and it has confessed with so many testimonies, for it was from this village that I, the Lord, picked up the companion of My trumpet Verginica, a relative after the flesh to the shepherd Daniel, whom I took after that and ordained to be the shepherd in the service of the holy faith, in the service of My word and of the people that was born of My word for growth, for the faith with life, with deed in man.

There has been a great day of feast on this day. I have gone to the manger of My word with the people from the spring and with the angelic hosts and the feast of taking to heaven of the shepherd Daniel has been made up in the village of Măneşti, My faithful witness, the one who had stayed and responded with power for My name before those who wickedly brought him to judgment for Me, for him and for My work of new Jerusalem on earth, work that I started with My trumpet Verginica in 1955 in the village of Maluri, at Pucioasa, (Which translated means brimstone, r.n.) a town with a name from heaven, by which I avenge the good believers by My word. My word has been fire and brimstone for the unbelievers of yesterday and today, and the name of this town is the fulfillment of My word, and for those who are faithful and holy, it is the root of My spring and it is a great name, the name of New Jerusalem, the holy citadel of New Jerusalem, because of My mound of today, on which I have established a serving people for Me during these days on earth, a good people, which I have chosen for My glory of today and which I will sanctify more and more with every passing day, and I will sanctify it for Me. Amen.

Oh, I cannot, I cannot tell the people, which has drunk of My spring along this heavenly time, I cannot tell it about My mystery from the other end of My word, a savior word over a people. At My beginning of today with a people called and invited to My table, then to the midst of My work, and then nearer and nearer to its end of today, where I have come with My word into the midst of a people always in rebellion, always uncertain because of his discontentment, because those who have listened to My word have become proud to one another, oh, and I have not been able to get perfected, neither in the beginning, nor in the middle and neither in the end, as I have been able now to set My fulfillment so much wanted upon a faithful and holy people within its faith before Me. In order to have been victorious in the end with the work of My word, I need faithful disciples, firm in their self-denial, in sufferance, in hope and in love without equal, now, among the sons of My people in all the time of My trumpet sounding of today, despised as I was despised then, a beautiful and priceless gift given by Me to the people during all the time of My trumpet sounding of today, because those who are despised are like that in order to be useful for many because of the humility in them, by which I, the Lord, can work for many of those who cannot work with the gift of holy humility in them for their salvation, for their forgiveness from so many troubles and disobediences brought to Me in the course of this time for more than fifty years. However, I, the Lord, have overcome and came out with My victorious work and I started My victory and I am working in a great mystery, for the antichrist and the satan's spirit, which prompts the man to do their will, these rebellious heads work on sight to overthrow My kingdom from the earth, but it is written in the Scripture that I will be victorious, I, the Lamb of God, and it will be so, as it is written. Amen.

I am blessing with the angels and with the saints the entrance among those in heaven of the shepherd Daniel, who grazed My people with holy love and correction in the time of his work with Me by the power of his faith in the work of My word. As a result of his work with Me, I have as joy and fruit the today's sons of My word, who stand before Me as further intercessors and confessors of My further coming as word into the midst of a people steadfast in his love, faith and faithfulness, disciples of disciples, and I am aggrieved and I have no fruit from those that for so many years have heard My word from My mouth and the watch and the exhortation from the shepherd's mouth for My way with them and have not wanted to bring forth hundredfold fruit and not even tenfold, but rather they have brought Me the fruit of unbelief, the fruit of doubt, the fruit of their staggering and of others like them, for these have not loved God with self-denial, but rather they have rebelled like Israel against Moses and have been weak for Me and strong for the spirit of rebellion, a spirit that is born out of the discontentment of those who cannot work within the spirit of the humility of spirit and can work only like man and that is all.

I will speak to My people on the day of forty-day memorial after this feast of the putting to rest of the shepherd Daniel, I will show My work with him on earth and in heaven and I will invite My people to the humility of spirit for the gift of the wisdom from above upon him, after that. Amen.

Oh, peace to you with those in heaven from now on, shepherd Daniel! Near My trumpet Verginica and near the others, who are among the saints in heaven into the midst of My people, keep, keep on watching for My walking on earth now and for My good and faithful people in this time and for My victory from the midst of the Romanian people and for it before Me. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, My people, and faith to you in your way with Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

(Excerpt)

I am with a day of feast for My mother Virgin in your midst, My people, for I gave you birth out of My word and you are My people into the midst of the Romanian people, and My word upon you gives birth to a people for it has to work the man's birth from above now, in the end of the time, and it is written into the Scriptures for the work of My word to be on earth, My coming under this name: The Word of God, and whenever I have come as word on earth now, I have always revealed Myself who I am, for I am Who I am, and I have to tell Who is the One Who speaks by this voice of word. Amen.

I am with My mother Virgin in My today's word and I am giving her as testimony to the Romanian people, as I am testifying about her as faithful to My coming then in the flesh on earth, and now, the word of testimony, the word that becomes a river of word upon man so that he may hear My voice, which is heard by those in the tombs and by those who hear when I am sending now My voice on earth. My mother was given to God when she was still a child, as she had been promised to her parents, without children in their old age, as a testimony of their faith, for by prayer they had been asking from God and received, and then they gave back to the Lord the gift they had received from Him.

The feast of the Saint martyrs Catherine and Mercurius

In a day of feast of the saints I become word over the Romanian people, for I am its Shepherd and I shepherd it.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ and My Father Sabaoth has submitted everything to Me and has given Me all the power in heaven and on earth, and behold, I am saying now, in the end of the time, coming in the midst of the heaven as an eternal Gospel for those who live on earth and to every nation, tribe, language and people, and I am calling out in a loud voice: «Fear God and praise and worship Him for the time has come to judge the living and the dead!» as it is written. Amen.

I am coming down into your midst as word, My people of Romanians, for I have picked you up and made you a faithful people to work by your faith the Scriptures of My coming with the harvest, as the time has come for the harvest. I am coming down to you with the saints, son, to strengthen you in your watch and faith and in great holiness of spirit, soul and body, for we have to keep God's commandments and we have to keep My testimony within great work, because it is the time to stand victorious within the fight against satan, «the old serpent, which got up and wants to stand up with power to deceive those on earth by his signs», as it is written, and whoever has understanding from above considers it well and reveals the work of the beast, on which satan has power.

I am with the saints into your midst, My people from My spring of word, and I have My martyr Catherine on the feast with the saints, and with her is the martyr Mercurius, both workers with Me in the time of My today's work on earth. The martyr Catherine overflows with her spirit the wisdom, which I, the Lord, gave her before the wise people on earth to bring them to Me by their faith helped by her to be in them, and My martyr works into the midst of My people and the disciple Mercurius stays with My saints and with Me in a great work for the overflowing of the cups for the cleansing of the iniquity on earth and for the fight with the enemies of the work of My coming to you, son, My people, and this is how I have worked with armies of saints near you and I give you wisdom to know to take into consideration My time with you, the fulfilling of the Scriptures, for behold, we are in a fight and we overcome by the wisdom from above, by My grace and by the obedience to My advice, because satan's anxiety is great now, when he sees that his hard labor for seven thousand years to destroy the man has been lost. I am the little Lamb of the Father and I am victorious now, in the end of the time, with My work of word over the earth, and satan is afraid of My victory, but we have always, always needed great watch, My people.

We are staying in a great work of word on this day with the Romanian people, which has had now to overcome by war the great and hidden work of the red beast, (The Communists and their successors, r.n.), who have been struggling in secret to take over again the control over the Romanian people. Oh, no, because I have been watching with all the heaven of saints and angels, spread everywhere the lots have been cast for the helmsman of My ship, the Romanian country, My country from the end of the time, and I have overcome, but I had to set you to great watch, to great sacrifice of prayer and holy faith and to days of fast for the victory against demons, as it seems taken out from the Scriptures the page on «the beast which has made the war on the Lamb of God, Who has fought against the great red dragon, having seven heads and tens horns and with its tail to draw the stars of the sky and to throw them on the earth, but he did not prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven», (See also Apoc: 12/3-8), because I was victorious, I and you, My people victorious by My blood and by the word of My testimony, as those who wanted to overcome now again upon My Romanian people, all have gathered with one mind, (All the parties united in a coalition against the president Traian Băsescu at the presidential elections on 12/06/2009, r.n.), as it is written in the Scriptures, and they gave the power and control to the red beast, (To the president of S.D.P. - Social Democratic Party, Mircea Geoană, r.n.), all to make war against My holy plan with the Romanian people and against the one I wanted to be helmsman for it through the waves, (Traian Băsescu, reelected for a new mandate, r.n.); however, I, the Lamb of the Father, have overcome by My people working together with Me, called, chosen and faithful, to work with him the victory for the Romanian people, My today's people. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, oh My Romanian people, get rest now from the hardships we have gone through, I with My heaven of saints and angels, and My people in your midst, set to great watch for your destiny, and you, Romanian people. Let us go to rest now, for the day of the lots has passed for the helmsman in front of you, and I, the Lord, am sitting now at the table of word, for this is what I have promised you. Oh, sit down with faith at the table with Me, for I give you the spirit and the power to believe and to see, for you have seen now how wonderfully I have worked to save you, after I have called out to you for a very long time to stay awake for your future and not to fall asleep, for the red dragon have lain in ambush for a long, very long time, to take over My Romanian people into bondage and crushing. I, I am the One Who has been working wonderfully, and I told to the helmsman upon you to let Me work skillfully on his behalf, for the rebellion against him was great, and the lie was ready to work. I, I am the One Who put into their hearts to work according to My advice, as it is written in the Scriptures, «and to come together in one mind and all, all to give their power to the red beast, until all the words of God will be fulfilled», and behold the fulfilled Scriptures, the work which is written on the Scriptures about: the dragon with seven heads, (Seven presidents of parties, from the coalition against the president, coalition led by the Social Democrat Party – the successor of the communists, r.n.) overcome now by the Lamb of God and by those who are faithful to Him. Amen.

Oh, I have kept My people in great watch, in a woken spirit of prayer with their little hands raised during all the day of the lots, and when I saw how satan and his red offspring have dug underneath, I have immediately strengthened and urged the people of My word to intensify the prayer within a stronger spirit, within a more painful crying for the awakening of the Romanian people to get up and to give help to his victory, and it was so, and it was a wonderful miracle and this man could not work, but only I, the little victorious Lamb, and I did not let the Romanian people to be overcome again by the power of the red beast, that full of the spirit of the lie inside and outside of it and which was brought into the light with its hidden work, and it fell in its own trap because it did not prevail, and neither was found any place for it and for its offspring, as it is written, for the work of the heaven has been working during these days on the Romanian land and it has been making the kingdom of God into salvation and power on this land meant to be its land.

Oh, behold a page of the Scripture fulfilled on your hearth by My victory for you, Romanian people! The red beast with seven heads and ten horns, all gathered in one mind and in all spirit, gave their power to the beast for one hour (The opinion polls announced at the end of the election days that the winner was the president of the left coalition – Mircea Geoană, r.n.), and they started to make war against My plan, of the Lamb of God, and against the Romanian people, shepherded now by the Lamb of the Father, but I, the victorious little Lamb, prevailed against him and his angels because I am the King of the kings and the Lord of the lords, and I have overcome together with those who were called, chosen and faithful, as it is written in the Scriptures.

Oh, sons of My people of Romanians, and you, Romanians from everywhere, faithful and clean in your heart! Play with the string instruments, play with the lutes and sing your praises to My holy name, the Word of God, and give praises to Him and say: "Oh, how wonderful are Your works, Lord, because for Your great power even Your enemies flatter You by their hypocrisy! Let all the nations of the earth worship You and let them all sing praising Your great name! Oh, come, come, hear and see God's works and see how wonderful He is in His works upon people! He rules the age with His great power and His eye searches over the nations, and let those who are rebellious not be proud, because the Lord has given us life and has not allowed our steps to shake. He has tested and cleansed us like silver and took us out to great joy, and we bring our hearts to Him like a burnt offering. Come, come and hear and listen, you who fear God, as behold how many things He has done to us! He has listened to us and given ear to the voice of our prayer, and may He be blessed because He has not forsaken our prayer, but He has showed us His mercy!" Amen.

And now, I am speaking to you, (Traian Băsescu, r.n.), to you who sit and sit down again at the helm of My ship of today, the Romanian people and My people on it. Oh, I have not left you alone although you felt alone and many were against you. I have stood on your side with all the heavenly armies as in the time of the prophet Elisha, when I stood with the entire heavenly army on his side on the day when the great enemy army came to overcome him because he was My servant, and he stood on the side of justice. The red beast and all of his offspring have now fulfilled one page of the Scripture and gathered together with one mind to prevail against you, as his spirit is the spirit of lying. This page of history is written in the Scriptures, it is prophesied to be and here it is, but for this one needs mind with wisdom. The beast with seven heads and ten horns, gathered with one mind, kings by their power, they gave for an hour their power and authority to the beast in order to prevail against you, to remove you from the helm and to bring the Romanian nation into bondage again. (On the day of the elections, the polls taken at the ballot boxes put forward Mircea Geoană as winner by 52% r.n.) However, I did not allow the evil power to prevail in the end, and I arose to the end of the election days, I woke up the Romanian people and I brought the miracle for which I have been waging a great war with the entire heavenly army, because I told you that the rebellion was great and that you would have Me to work for you, as you were alone against those who were many, assembled with one thought against you.

Oh, I was filled with tears and heartbreaking pain when I saw them all celebrating and embracing each other like the conquerors, lying to those who were looking at them and calling out their victory against the Romanian people. Then I aroused with the people set to watch on that day, I urged them for a more burning spirit of prayer and calling, and then I woke up the spirit of the Romanian people and woke it up to draw the lots for you, and the scales drew upwards for you and then I brought the miracle and this was how I prevailed in a wonderful manner and gave you victory, because it was not possible to work otherwise against the great rebellion and against the pride that was aroused against you. Then I made them all blind and they thought that they won and sang and played from evening to morning everywhere on the hearth of this nation and they sent gifts and hugs to each other, (In the evening, after the closing of the elections, Mircea Geoană and the parties who supported him declared themselves winners, celebrating their victory, r.n.) but their wedding changed into funeral early in the next morning when I prevailed against them for you. (On the next morning, the Electoral Bureau, after the counting of the votes declared Traian Băsescu winner by 50, 33%, r.n.). Oh, this is how I overcame with you, those clean in your heart, on that day of great trial for the destiny of the Romanian people. I told you to have hope and you listened to Me, and by your hope I took you out victoriously. Now be brave and may a clean heart keep on beating in you. Take care of My country of today, keep it away as much as you can from the whole debauchery on the earth, from lie, form the violation of the commandments of life, and seek after My commandments so that your heart may get used more perfectly with them, to honor Me, son, for I, the Lord, gave you salvation and I have protected you as a faithful son of this elected nation, into whose midst I have been dwelling for more than fifty years with a table of word, work with history into the midst of the Romanian people, work persecuted by the red beast in all manners, and if you want to look into the pages of the time, you will find the persecution against My people and against the vessels bearing of God, with whom I did and do the work of the coming of My word on this holy land, the Romanian land.

I gave you the book of this work when I gave it to the Romanian people; I put it into your arms. Open it and see My history with the people of My word into the midst of the Romanian people. It is the time to have victory with hope, and I have chosen into the midst of the Romanian nation a chosen people for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming of word on the earth now on the hearth of the Romanian people, the country of brightness, because of the river of My word, which flows from Me into the midst of this nation. I am bowing before the Father Sabaoth for the victory now and I hear Him telling Me to shepherd you, to give you My word of Shepherd and to rejoice you with My protection, for your work is hard and you need heavenly support. I will always, always keep the people of My word praying before Me for the future of the Romanian people whenever I see it under a heavy cross, and I will save it. However, I am deeply sorrow now from those who have come together with one mind with My adversary, with satan; with those who are hypocrites flattering Me by their hypocrisy, as it is written about the hypocrites for their high ranks over people. Take care to be gentle and humble in your heart, full of watching and holy love for this chosen nation, and forgive those who surrounded you by their rebellion, «for the revenge is Mine and I will reward», as it is written. Amen.

I give you in great secret the victorious and helping saints, and with them you have to steer My sheep. Get used, you with your entire house, to thank God in all your days and to give Him great honor, because the Romanian nation has the true God upon it, the One Who sits in its midst and holds counsel with it and then fulfills His word. In your whole work of helmsman for this nation before the nation of the earth, do not forget, do not forget to do everything possible to strengthen the faith of the Romanian people and to give God His due honor, because I suffer from a great wound, like its forefathers, because of the disorder for those of old left from forefathers and saints, the fast and the prayer and the spirit of holy church and not only denounced to be a church. Oh, nothing is good without God on earth and upon man and the Romanian people has to be Christian by its fulfillment as its forefathers were, and even more, for the time is with judgment in it against the evil works of the people. The week has two or three days of fast, (Monday, Wednesday and Friday, r.n.) and I am very much aggrieved because of the disorder in which the Romanian people stays together with its shepherds upon it in My name. Oh, this holy fulfillment has to be strengthened, for I, the Lord, have to bring this nation to a great heavenly glory on earth among people and I want to appear with it as a Mount of Tabor for the nations to come and take My word full of resurrection from this holy mountain, the Romanian land. Oh the work of My word and the mysteries it carries are great on the hearth of the Romanian people! Be faithful and not unfaithful, for those who are unfaithful to My work of today, written in the Scriptures to be, behold, these take the same payment as those who are unfaithful, and they will take it, for I come near with the reward of justice according to everyone's work, because I have suffered a great deal from the rebellion of those who of the Romanians have joined now with satan's spirit to put you away from the helm of My ship. Oh, no! I am the mysterious One and I work wonderfully, and I have worked as I promised you that I would work against the opposition who arose to tear you down.

I am embracing you now in My Spirit and I am giving you of My peace. I give you further blessing at the helm of My ship, Romanian country, as I gave you five years ago, when in the same way, I kept My people in the spirit of watching and with praying to Me for you to establish you as the helmsman on My behalf for the Romanian people. Then I told you to speak from time to time over the people and to let it know now the course of everything to keep it watching and to keep it in truth, both in good and bad things, and I am advising you the same thing now. From time to time, write epistles on to the people to know the good and the hardships you go through for it, and let it go with you through it too, prevailing against all the hardships which are and might come unexpectedly, and this is how you will be followed by the people and you will brave for it and for Me during this time of trial and waves, for the antichrist has become great everywhere and he wants to wipe out My name and My trace from the earth and from the man's spirit, and it works with hidden work even under the robe of a holy man. I will help you, but you should also listen to God, and this is how you are supposed to help Him, for I have helped you now.

Peace to you and good order for you before Me. Let no one, no one despise My election upon you, and you should appreciate with great humility and you should work with it from God upon this nation, chosen by Him now for His glory in it, because My word that flows from Me into the midst of this nation is My glory in it, and the people of My word is My faithful servant, with which I am very well pleased for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming again from the Father to man as word on earth, the word of new birth of the world now, in the end of the time, as it is written. Oh, bow under this staff of shepherd, bow under My word that leads the Romanian people and of whose river of word many and much more will drink, for there will no longer be other comfort; there will no longer be any on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Romanian nation, I have spoken now to the helmsman upon you, whom I have strengthened with My miracle and I have strengthened him again at My helm. Oh, always pray for his good victory and yours from Me, for the time is hard, and I want to be your help and protection, Romanian son. Oh, the name of Romanian is great! For more than fifty years, I, the Lord, have been bearing in heaven among saints and among angels the name of Romanian, for I have a table of word on the hearth of this land.

All the nations will bless you for My name on you and for the river of My word in you, oh, Romanian people, and there will come nations and languages and will take of My gory from you, as it is written about the mountain to which the nations will come to drink of My light. Bow to glorify the Lord, Who has His dwelling place into your midst by the spirit of testimony, by the spirit of prophecy, Romanian son, for the work of My word upon you is a heavenly crown on your forehead and the nations will worship you, because you are the country of My coming now, in the end of the time. Amen.

Oh, up the faith in the true God, up the confession of the faith, Romanian sons! Do not be ashamed of God, for He confirms you as His people on earth among nations! Be proud of your new name, of My name upon you, for the Romanian country has a new name: The New Jerusalem! The river of My word, the river of life waters it, and I have a new planting and a new harvest. Amen.

Peace to you now, Romanian people, for you have passed through days of trials! Let them be ashamed, those in your midst, who do not have faithfulness with a heavenly heart, with a clean heart like the helmsman, whom I have strengthened again now for you! Be faithful, My country of today! The Spirit and the face of faithfulness will prove that you are so! Oh, there are many traitors into your midst and they will be put to shame if they do not repent from their works. Amen.

I want that the Romanian people may have a clean heart, holy thought and much spirit of humility, by which it will receive the wisdom from above, for I, the Lord God, am the God of those who are humble and I give them of My grace. Amen, amen, amen.

I am coming back to You with My word, My people of Romanians. You are My servant on whom I rely and behold, it happened with the Romanian people as it happened into your midst for My work of word was threatened from the midst, but I have overcome and always overcome for My progress of word over the earth and for the whole fulfillment as the Scriptures require to be fulfilled. I have spoken now with all of the Romanians and I have given them My rest, for which I have struggled for the joy in the Romanian people now. I also thank you because you have listened to Me for a great sacrifice of love, of faith and of prayer with calling for the hard time through which the Romanian people went and for which I had to fight with power and to be victorious for it, and I was victorious. Amen. We are resting now from this victory and we remain to keep on watching with a woken spirit for the Romanian people and for My work with it and for it on earth, My people. Amen.

I have with Me in My descent on this day of feast the two great martyrs celebrated in the synod of saints: Catherine and Mercurius, great victors by their faith and by the word of their testimony over the unfaithful in their time. They are coming in with My word and are saying this:

– Great, oh You are great Lord, and Your works are marvelous, and there is no word to match Your glory when You want to be with it over the earth! We are working together with You over Your people of today and over the Romanian people and we are raising the humble, and we are standing against those who are proud, as You are working as well, and it will be seen and Your people and the Romanian nation will understand Your right judgment for those who are clean in their heart and for those who are not like that, for woe to those who put on the lie and make their garments out of it, for their nakedness will be uncovered, and Your saints will fulfill this! Amen.

– Oh, here we are, I and My confessing saints on earth with the people, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. I, the Lord, come on earth as word, I come with the saints, and My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. Amen.

I embrace the Romanians in the glory of My word and I become their Shepherd, for they are like sheep without a shepherd, because the shepherds who sit upon them in My name, they only shepherd each other, as it is written in the Scriptures, and do not have mercy for the sheep; they do not have mercy of the living life of the Romanian nation. I shepherd you, oh, people loved by God! I do not let you, but I embrace you within the spirit of My word, I shepherd you and I wake you up to pasture and I give you of the spiritual milk to be on earth and not to perish, but to be as I am.

I am Who I am. This is how you have to be as well and to be, oh, Romanian people! You should be the top mountain on Tabor and you should be for the nations on the earth, for they will come to take of My glory, of My teaching, to their comfort! I am Shepherd into your midst and I shepherd you with the spirit of the comfort and this is how I carry you, and let us carry each other, for My day is coming and you are its preacher by My Spirit in you, the Spirit of comfort, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint apostle Andrew

(Excerpt)

I, the Lord, am becoming a river of word on this day and I am writing Myself into My book of today with the memorial of the days in which I have sealed with My holy law the little garden of My word into the midst of the Romanian people and My ark of covenant in it, and I have opened before those in heaven My Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem and the service in it before Me, and I have got as witnesses coming from heaven with Me, the apostle Andrew and My trumpet, Verginica, (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) and from the earth, I have got here My bishop of today, (Irineu, r.n.), and with whom I have proclaimed My word of hallowing and sealing with the law of holiness of the little garden of the spring of My word, My little garden set apart for Me and for My glory of today, a mysterious glory, the word of resurrection upon those on earth. Amen.

… Oh, it is great the health for Me in man, for without it, man is not healthy, even if his body is. The real treasure of the man's health is then when his body can work for God and like God on earth among people, for My health and living in man bring forth fruit to Me, souls taken out of fire and brought to resurrection. I am the One Who was resurrected from the dead so that man may come to life as I did, for I came to life for man, and I am the beginning of the resurrection, and happy and holy are those who have part of the first resurrection, and against whom death has no more power, as it is written. Oh, be filled with wisdom, as for My mysteries wisdom from above is needed, faith is needed; well founded faith, unshaken to the end, to its payment, for I deeply suffer from those who do not want to walk with Me on this way to its end, jumping out of My little boat again in the midst of the world full of sin and which spoils the earth all over, and the world and its spirit banishes Me from all over. Oh, do not rejoice, do not rest, do not be patient as long as you live in the midst of the world with your steps, for the world swims in sin and leaves its track all over it rules and grows with its poisonous venom for man. Have in you My Spirit and holy water from My spring of word and become a path with it among the dead, for there is no greater sickness for man than the spirit of the world, a spirit that calls on earth the day of My wrath, a day of great pain over the man's joys without God on earth.

The feast of the saint Virginia, God's trumpet

I am coming down as word of feast into the midst of My people and from the right side of My Father Sabaoth, I am blessing this day of memorial, when on a day like this, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, raised to heaven My trumpet after her long sufferance on My way with her, on her way with the people fed for twenty five years with the voice of the word of My mouth, shepherding it against the living with sin in it and advising it to holiness and to great watch for its reconciliation with the Father so that My people may remain on the way of its salvation and not to fall from My book with it, from the table of My teaching, but rather My teaching may yield fruit upon it, as for twenty five years I had been its Shepherd with mercy, and My trumpet Verginica, the same, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) and I had gone with her only through pains and fears into the midst of My people. I had dwelt in her body for twenty-five years with My work of word on earth and she had been a bearer of God. As feeble as she was, she had the spirit of gentleness between her and the people coming at the table of My word in the time of persecution for My work with her, for the devil has always persecuted My work of word by those in whom he was working so that he might not lose the victory against My faithful man on earth.

Oh, My people, the saints are looking at Me and at My speaking of today in a day of memorial of My trumpet and the saints are embracing her in the spirit of the heavenly love and of the endless comfort, but her lack of comfort from those left behind her cut the peace of her rest, for when each saint goes to heaven he takes with him the fruit of his joy, brought to Me for the souls redeemed from sin and set on the way of eternal life. When she got near Me, crying being seized with the mercy of her people who were weak in holiness, and in tears she had always asked Me not to let her people go to into the world, into the way of death, for the spirit of the world is My death in man; the world and its spirit is the man's departure from God.

Oh, it was great My work through this trumpet by which I had been sounding for twenty years on the earth! Seventy years I had been sounding of the last trumpets in the midst of the Romanian people, where satan played his last card when he saw that I, the Lord, had the Romanian land from the Father as the country of My return and as My trumpet sounding by the last trumpets, those before My coming with the book of the judgment, the book of the Lamb and in it the word of My mouth, My word of today, with which I stood and stand against the sin in man and between man and man, for I have had this work from the Father Sabaoth even from the beginning of the world, of God's seen and unseen things.

It is written in the Scriptures about the seven trumpets of which God sounds in the end of the time and for seventy years I have been raising on the Romanian land their voice, and I started with the holy temple, (The Church, r.n.), as it is written to be, and a great voice was heard in the temple and it called the people to repentance, for the red beast marked them to be its all the time, and I, the Lord, made a heavy battle against it by messenger angels on earth, and I have always waged a great war on it, for the beast and the false prophet[125] have always marked theirs and spoiled the holy faith and teaching and made war with My saints, blaspheming them and God, as it is written, but My river of word overflew over the earth then in the time of My trumpet Virginia and I, the Lord, stood against the lie that had a godly face and I prepared a victorious walking over the earth with My voice of word, and then the red beast poured out three demonic spirits out of its mouth over the kings of the world to make them stand up to war and to gather them for the day of their fight with Me, as it is written about satan who fights against God, to be overpowered and judged and then to be revealed with its hidden work, by which he wanted to deceive the nations on the earth. However, I will soon come to an end, and be victorious and then I will speak: «It's done!» for this is written about the Lamb of God, to be victorious over the red beast now, in the end of the time, the beast which has had control over the kings of the earth and over their Babylon, and about which is written to fall down with a great noise once with My trumpet sounding over the earth, the seventh angel Who will sound the judgment, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lamb of the Father Sabaoth. Amen.

Oh, My people of today, I had sounded the sixth trumpet before I opened My book with you on earth, and I had been sounding for twenty-five years and preparing My way by which I came out, and I came out with you, as it is written for the way of My kingdom and of its sons to be prepared, and with whom I am to fight against the kings of the earth, gathering them with one mind by their thought to make war with Me to overcome them by the voice of My mouth, released in the sky over the earth; and moreover, I am to cry out from the temple of the heaven: «It is done!» and then to show to the heaven the work by which I overcome satan, the old serpent.

Oh, My people, when the red beast, (The Communism, r.n.), put its name on this Romanian land and started fighting with Me, I, the Lord, woke up My last trumpets by turns and I called out to the people to repent, and once with the word of the beast I also called out against it and against its lie, and I started to call out from the door of the holy temple, waking up the spirit of My servant Joseph, (The priest Joseph Trifa, the first apocalyptic trumpet, r,n.) and he called out and wake up many to sing the victorious song of the Lamb, and then I started fighting against the red beast. And I kept on calling out again and again by the other trumpets and then I called out by the sixth trumpet, My Verginica, and I poured out over the earth the river of My word, through which I prepared the way of My kingdom, and then I came and I opened My book, the book of the judgment of the creature, and I worked mysteriously, and I worked into your midst and I work according to the Scriptures, and not otherwise, sons.

Oh, My people, with which I had sat at the table of word during all that heavenly time on earth, had always been weak, but I have prepared My way of today and behold, I go, and going I am speaking and fulfilling, and the man's wisdom will no longer stand against Me, because I am the Word of the Father and it is written to overcome by the word.

Behold, the convulsion of the beast in agony during My days with you, My today's people! My whole heaven has been watching for My victory against it and for your victory for you are the faithful one and I sealed you with the seal for the faithful ones, but take great care of your faith, and I have always told you this, for outside is the time of the faith-denial, My people, and behold, the outside church has clothed in red completely and has made a covenant with the beast (With the communists and their successors to support Mircea Geoană to be president, the representative of the left politics – the communists' successors, r.n.) and there is no longer a church on earth now, for it has been filled by its dead, because it gave its control over to the beast (In the time of the communist dictatorship, r.n.) and it did not watch when I called it from the throne of My word upon it for its awakening before the Lamb Who comes.

Oh, we have to overcome the spirit of the world with heavenly weapons, My people. We have to establish fast and living prayer between evil and good for we have to bring together in My Spirit those who are faithful and holy in their faith, and then to show them the way of holiness, My way with man, My walking on the earth by those who are faithful and holy and to make them the sons of My Father. My work with you is mysterious and those who are proud cannot understand it, but those who are humble in their heart and who are faithful for Me, they understand it and will understand it more and more, because it is written that the wisdom will grow and will overflow and many will understand and will stand up and, again, many will not understand and will not be able to understand My work with you on earth. However, I work it mysteriously and I fulfill it page by page and I have you as My faithful one and I work by your faith, by your power, for everything is possible with Me and with those who are faithful, and only in this way I have worked from the beginning of man on earth, and My work has always been mysterious, in order to be able to fulfill it.

Oh, I am sitting in counsel with you about My work with you, about My trumpet sounding of seventy years (1921-1991, r.n.), and about the war I have been making against satan in order to be the little and victorious Lamb, and those in heaven hear and see fulfilled Scriptures for the end of the time and the saints and angels rejoice over My victory, My people. My trumpet left the great word to Me on this day and now she is speaking with you and is strengthening you to watch. Oh, watch, watch for My work with you, My people, for you are small but I am great with you on earth. Listen now to the voice of My trumpet upon you and do not grow weak in your watching, but sing instead, sing the song of victory, for the heaven sits to listen to you and to rejoice over Me and over you, and let the heaven have comfort, My people. Amen.

– I am sounding the trumpet, Lord, and I am speaking to the people to listen to Your speaking with it, to Your joy, mine and of Your saints, and I am inviting my people in my day of feast among saints to put on great holiness with every passing day more and more, for You have to overcome with the saints on the earth for the saints in heaven, who have waited with longing and sufferance for the redemption of their blood, given for his faith in You to the man on the earth and for their love of You, Lord.

Oh, people from the spring, wake up the watch and the faith in all those who were at the table of the word of God in the time of this work; wake up those who left from the earth, too, and those who are still on it and tell them to stand watch and in holiness, so that it may be a good victory for them too, for each one prepares his little garment for the wedding table of the Bridegroom, Jesus Christ, the Bridegroom of the Romanian people, Who has His table laid now on the hearth of this people so that wedding faithful and holy guests may come to it and to overcome for the Lamb of the Father and with Him, to their salvation from Him

Oh, sons, be sheep with a shepherd, be sheep and shepherd, and do not be otherwise, for I have laid my life as a sacrifice all the time on earth so that the Lord's people may be likewise. Write and learn the work of the sheep with a shepherd, the work of the sheep and of the shepherd, because this work has to be seen with you. Where there is no shepherd there are no sheep either, and where there are no sheep there is no shepherd as well, and this is all over the earth; there are no sheep because there is no shepherd and there is no shepherd because there are no sheep, because this is a holy and great mystery, and it comes from heaven and is seen on earth, and the people do not love to be sheep and they do not love to be shepherds, and the people do something else and do not want to hear from heaven from the Lord, Who calls them to instruction from heaven, and behold, whoever does not learn does not know what he does.

The Lord has you as His marvel on earth among the people now, loved people, and the Lord does not have something else on earth now, but satan has a great kingdom in man and all over the earth, but God's kingdom is with power and is with those who are faithful and no one can prevail against it, for it is not visible and that is why it is. Be the kingdom of God, each one of you, because only it will remain on earth, only God and everything that is not His dwelling place on earth, all things that are not with Him will burn.

Take care of those who want to cleave to the Lord's mystery with you. Teach everyone that the one who has God's kingdom in him is a great mystery. Teach them that the gold thrown into the mud does no longer have any name; it does no longer have any price. Teach them to keep this mystery, teach the one who loves to be with the Lord on earth to keep himself in God, and give them the power to believe this, for behold, I give them. The angel Rafael was a mystery on his journey with the faithful one, and this work has to be known that is between earth and heaven with those who are faithful, either the man wants it or not, for God's mysteries on earth are angels with bodies and without bodies, and the angels are mysteries and serve the bodies of those who are faithful and their dwelling spirits in bodies.

Oh, do not forget the holy speaking and full of mystery among you, for the angels of the heavenly mysteries serve you then, and do not forget to love the work of the church with a synod, and work only in this way, only with the angels, and have nothing, nothing that cannot be confessed in you churchly, and you should punish the works of the darkness with their whole darkness, like the work of the devil which does not love the light, by hiding from it.

Be the heaven of the Lord on earth, where there is nothing but light. Learn this new kingdom, the kingdom of the light, for those who do not love to be so, they will cry because of their darkness, for those that are hidden are evil for this, and those that are kept in the light belong to those who are clean, clean in them and among them for one another, and hypocrisy proves out those who work it. This is how I am teaching my people on my day of feast, and in order that it may work the work of the light, let each one know that it becomes word and only in this way the light is. Your word is your light son, and if it is not word, then it is not light. I am speaking about this light to you, that is the word about you always in your mouth, about your light, and the Lord's light is that which takes all things in consideration and all that are and are made.

Oh, my word is with grief in it because I see it from heaven and I urge each son to become his word for the mystery of the clean heart between brother and brother, for the spirit of faithfulness in you, sons of the holy word. Oh, the Lord becomes His word, and in this way He appears to you. Do like Him and like His work, and be like Him with your work, for the Lord is the One Who speaks His word and that is why it is, and He appears that He is and what He is. He who speaks, that one is, and he who does not speak is hidden in his own body. Oh, keep away from those who try to hide in you and among you and watch for the light of all things and for the whole of its work, for this is how God's sons on earth are and they stay in the whole light. Amen.

Oh, be open with those that are in you, for those who have robe upon robe will be brought into the light and will no longer be able to dress. This is how you are to teach those who come to stand before the Lord with their walking on my way with you. Take care, sons, so that they may not have robe upon robe on them, but let them choose the light instead, and let it be their little garment with the Lord on earth. I exhort them to learn the work of the sheep with a shepherd, for the sheep without a staff upon them fall on the way of the wolves and they do not have another destiny, and the wolves have robe upon robe and do not reveal themselves to be known.

Oh, in a little time you have to set the table of memorial for the shepherd Daniel and the people will come together at the table, sons from the spring, and the Lord will give him of the light of the teaching for the sons, and no matter how many they may be, let them learn the work of sonship, for the kingdom of the light is coming on the earth, sons.

Oh, Lord, you are word, and that is why You are Who You are. Lord, what is he who does not become his word? Oh, what is he? Teach Your kingdom with light to those who want to be sons, Lord, and they will be like You then. Amen.

– Oh, Verginica, oh, My trumpet, you have spoken a word of mystery to your people. The sufferance of those in heaven is great because they see from heaven. Oh, the people will come together at the table of word for the memorial of the shepherd Daniel and I will embrace within the word the people that came together. My word struggles to teach to the way of the light all those who hear My voice to their salvation, but those who do not become light in them do not know who their salvation has been worked.

Oh, My people, My word is My light, the light within Me. When you become your word, then you are the light within you, your inner man, who comes out to be seen with those in him. He who works in this way is the one who is seen, and he who does not work like that does not want to be seen.

Let everyone understand the mystery of the heaven with the man and let the man learn to be and to give himself over to the heaven on earth, for the mystery of the saints in their own body and outside of their body is great, and they are the visible power of the Lord in them because of their light, and blessed are those pure in heart, for they will see God and will not be afraid of those in them before Him, but rather they will be the happy ones, the happy ones, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

(Excerpt)

… It is a feast on this day in heaven and on earth. Many celebrate on earth for My birth that took place two thousand years ago, a feast removed from its place, and those from heaven celebrate the hierarch Spyridon, the one who was deprived of the earthly glory because it had in him My kingdom as his possession, that which has nothing in this world and which is glorified in man for those in heaven. The saints raise before Me the cup of their prayers so that My kingdom may be able to come on the earth and so that God's sons may be revealed through it, for My kingdom from them proves that they are My heirs. Oh, if man could stop from all his passing things to think in this way, then I, the Lord, would work upon him and I would fill him with the longing from heaven and with the truth on the earth! Man is blind with respect to those that remain, because he opens his heart only to those who pass once with him. However, those, who have sanctified themselves on earth for My kingdom in them, a kingdom that does not pass, have not done like this.

I am coming together with you at the table of word, My people from the spring. We are getting ready, sons, to raise to heaven a day of memorial for the shepherd Daniel, for I, the Lord, want now to stay in the word with My people of yesterday and today and that of tomorrow. I am full of the glory of My word, My glory in the end of the time on earth and I am speaking the word and fulfill it, and this is how I prove that I am the One Who is speaking this word. I have sat at the table of word over the Romanian people to set further into its midst a ruler according to My will and I have worked hard with the whole heaven of saints and angels all over the Romanian land, as the struggle for precedence has been fierce and the unfaithful man, who has sought after his glory, has given Me work to do. However, I have been watching with great mercy so that this nation may not fall down again under the hand of those who are foreign to the truth and foreign to My walking over the earth with an iron rod in My hand, as I can hardly make My way among people with the glory of My word, which shepherds the man and it does not let him fall, as he tries to work without knowing where his work leads. All the saints are only love and watch on the hearth of the Romanian people, because they see Me with My river of word in this country, the country of My returning again from Father to man, work with great mystery done between Me and those who are faithful to this heavenly time on earth, and about which it is written into the Scriptures to come and to be.

The Synod of the Lord's Mother

(Excerpt)

Oh, sons, great power has a son faithful to the Lord on earth, and then, in the holy heaven he has power as well for those who are faithful like him and follow him! Oh, son, if man knew well how to make use of the gifts of faith then he would use them all only for God. However, man wants to make use of them for himself and not for God and, that is why man does not know the mystery of faith and the mystery of those who are faithful. I am speaking big words with you, sons, and I am with My mother Virgin at the table as word among you, and with her are the saints of the heaven, for she has her feast for My birth of her virginal body, and the saints accompany her. My mother Virgin is teaching you on this day, My people. Learn the holy teaching from her and then, son, become the fruit of her teaching. Amen.

… Oh, people blessed by those in heaven, oh, tiny son, you should appreciate the Lord, Who has made a house with you on earth, and let the Lord be your delight, for He comforts you on earth with the things from heaven to have you as His comfort in His pains from man. You should leave the mystery of the virginity of the heart to be great in you, and only my Son, clean and holy, to dwell in your heart, only He, for He has chosen you as His bride on earth in the midst of this nation, the Romanian nation, of whose name the heaven is full now, in the end of the time, when the Lord has His dwelling place on this hearth. Do not forget that you are the fruit of the faith of those who are faithful to the Lord's coming on earth as word now, in the end of the time. Do not forget to be thankful for your honor from God given to you by your choice to be His people. Do not forget to serve only Him, to dedicate yourself only to Him day and night, and only to Him to entrust your spiritual and fleshly steps, only to Him, little son, and leave nothing for the devil, as I left nothing for him too, and as I was only for the Lord on earth; I gave myself to Him as the house of His coming with the body among people and the Lord was born of me on earth, being God of God at His birth among people, my virginal body becoming the way of His birth. Receive, son, the seed of the Holy Spirit in your heart, grow the Lord in it, and grow Him in many after that, for this is your choice that the Lord has given to you on earth.

The feast of the saint apostle, the first martyr and archdeacon, Stephen

The saints have been longing after My table of word with you, My people of today, and they are coming in Me to fulfill, I and them, the Scriptures of My coming with the saints, and we are coming to you, and then we are giving ourselves with a table of word to those who look for comfort from heaven, as the saints of the heaven look for the comfort on earth, at My word into your midst, which is comfort. I would like the man to look after this comfort, as I look with it after him to give it to him, but the man does not come to taste it but only if he is touched by the gift of the faith, by which the man seeks after God then, as he seeks after comfort, and there is no comfort that may not to go out, there is nothing but only that what I have given from Me upon man. Amen.

I am embracing you today too with a feast of word, because I have the saints gathered for My descent into the book as word and for the spirit of confession, because there is no saint who has not confessed, My people. First confess their faith and then the holiness of their heart and of their nature, and then confess their love of God by all kinds of sacrifices, just as their time in their body gathered them because of their faith in One God, wholly true and face to face with the mob of the unbelievers, who wasted their comfort in devilish and idol worship lying to themselves against God.

However, there is another kind of people on earth and this wicked seed has always been on earth, that is people who sit on chairs in the name of the true God, and then they sit as rulers upon the souls of those who love God with their confessing life, taking after Me and becoming an example of holy faith for those who look after God's life according to the truth.

You shall stop, My people, at My longing after the man, to understand My grief which is upon Me from those who sit on chairs of witness, being full of unbelief, having no truth and being hypocrites with their face and life, and who best persecute God in man, starting with themselves and persecuting man from God; starting with those who love the Lord according to the truth and by their works on earth, for those who choose the Lord as their life cannot hide with God's brightness in them because they are strong witnesses, and this is the longing in them: to be able to confess God in heaven and on earth as true and One God.

You should cry, My people, because of My sufferance from the hypocrite man, who stands on My behalf before the crowds, crowds that get used to look for the Lord in this way for them. Oh, man does no longer look for comfort, for the comfort is My word full of longing after man, after the one that does not know that way which has in it My kingdom for man, the comfort, which lasts as long as God does.

You shall cry with Me, well My people, you shall cry from My grief from the man of lying and who lies that he is My witness, My servant and the heir of My chair. Where is this from? Because he testifies about himself, and not about Me, as in order for a man to be a shepherd of Christ's church means something else. I am the Shepherd with the cross; however, how is it possible for them to take after Me, those who call themselves shepherds of souls? Oh, no. They buy from each other chairs of shepherds and fight for the first positions, for the first divan, and sitting on it, they say that they guide those who are hungry for God. However, by My stewardship I work at the same time with them, as in the time of My body on earth and as in all My times with man, and I could not dwell with man on earth otherwise, for I do not sit near those who are proud, as they sit on the chairs calling themselves by My name upon those poor in spirit. Oh, I do not sit next to those who are hypocrites, but I only pass through them and choose My disciples and set them apart for Me and through them I leave the seed of the Kingdom of God in the hearts of those who keep themselves clean and not attacked by the destroying and invisible spirit of this passing age.

Oh, those who use My name, those who use the seats of churches and of shepherds of churches are so foolish, so foolish to the point that they believe that are saved more than the rest of the people under their guidance, but they only come together around their shepherds, because in order that the people to be shepherded is very much of a miracle! Oh, I did not shepherd the weary and those who were sick and full of sins that way. I healed them, I corrected them, I took away from them their sins so hard to bear, I atoned for them suffering cross and mocking, then I suffered death and resurrection, and only after that I gave them My resurrection and I promised it to them and theirs for My love of them, of those who were deprived of guidance and help on their hard and full of sigh way on earth, because there is no happy man on earth, there is no happiness on earth, but only its phantom and no one catches it, because it is a phantom. I am the man's comfort. I am his happiness as well. Whoever has God in him, that one does not make much of anything: either joys, or pains, or wealth or shortcoming, but only the Lord is enough for him, and he who cannot do so, that one is condemned on earth, he is his own slave, not released from his bonds.

Oh, My people, it is not so with those who are with God in them through joys and pains on earth, but they have little wings and their little wings are unchained and they have power to fly over from under any bonds and evils around them. God's enemies could not destroy the apostle Stephen, for he had little winds from heaven, and he told those who stoned him to death, killing his body: «Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!» (Acts: 7/56), and then the martyr Stephen was released and went to be with those in heaven, and those in heaven with him, and My apostle said: «Lord Jesus, receive my Spirit!» He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, «Lord, don't hold this sin against them!» (Acts: 7/60) And when he had said this, he fell asleep and his little wings brought him before the face of the Lord's glory, which he confessed before those who called themselves rulers and Abraham, Isaac and Jacob's descendants' and to whom Stephen said: «David found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. However, the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, 'heaven is My throne, and the earth a footstool for My feet. What kind of house will you build Me? On the other hand, what is the place of My rest? Didn't My hand make all these things?'» (Acts: 7/46-50) Oh, there was where the martyr Stephan went, helped by his little wings, after he spoke the judgment of those who unstrapped him of his body, flying then into the heavenly dwellings near the One he had longed so much after, Jesus Christ, with Whom Stephen spoke on the earth for the last time, and he spoke with his Lord, mentioning forgiveness before Him for those who prepared his way to the glory from above of God's saints.

Oh, My people, open the Scripture on this day and look at the spirit who testified through Stephen about My history with the people of Israel and their unbelief during all its time and of the last ones of those stiff-necked people, from its beginning and up to the day of the martyr Stephen, the witness of the truth, and then open up your wisdom to understand from everything that is on earth the stubbornness and Israel's thirst for power and honor over nations, from its beginning and to this day, for this stiff-necked people has kept doing this into My name up to this day in order to rule over the world, in such a way that it may not lose its precedence, as it says, but I came two thousand years ago and took the kingdom out of its hands and gave it to those who believe in Me, for they rule over the kingdom of the heavens on earth and they are hated because of this by the people who stick to its precedence and which fights all over to put out My name and My trace from the earth; however, I do not dwell in temples, because those who worship Me, they do this in spirit and in truth, not in the temples that have no place for God and for His heavenly company, all the armies of His glory.

Oh, My people, I speak with you so that I may be able to speak on earth. You are the house of which I come out just as the Bridegroom comes out of His chamber to appear before the people with the glory of My word, the Spirit of truth, the one about Whom everything was and is. The martyr Stephen sees My glory with you now and your glory with Me, son, and he is confessing you as Mine, for this disciple is a witness and the testimonies from heaven remain and testify on earth to the judgment of the unbelief for those who have been unbelievers and are stiff-necked against the truth. Amen.

– Oh Lord, I am coming down on earth as spirit and word for testimony because I was and I am a witness for You. As those who were great then into Your name, killing my body from which I was speaking and confessing Your history with the people of Israel, that who was stiff-necked and which felt as though he was the first and the ruler over the people, in the same way, I am testifying today to those who call themselves rulers from You over the people, and I am telling them this:

Listen, you those who serve in the temples, and where you say that you closed God so that the people may look for Him through you, Him, the One Who cannot be comprehended. Our parents had the tent of meeting with them in the wilderness, and the Lord spoke to Moses to make it after the image He showed to him and which Joshua brought back in the country possessed by the Gentiles, but which the Lord drove out then from the face of our fathers, until David, who found favor with the Lord, asked for permission from the Lord to raise a habitation for God, but the Most High does not have His dwelling place in temples made by hands. You, stiff-necked people, as those in the time of my testimony, oh, until when do you resist the Holy Spirit, as our fathers did? Which of those sent by God to the people did you not persecute, as our fathers did with the prophets, as they did with me, Jesus Christ's witness, and Whom you persecute by your works mixed with those that are foreign to God and to His only one and clean way and blessed for those who are faithful? You, who have got a guide left from the holy fathers and do not keep it! You who gnash your teeth against those who give the Lord as the word of resurrection in your days! Oh, do not take for liars those who bring the Lord as word on the earth but rather come near to them, for they are the witnesses of the Lord's coming as word on the earth, now, in the end of the time! Oh, do not stand against this sword, do not stand against the power of God's word, do not stand against the spirit of prophecy, because you stay on a holy place and chosen by the Lord for His glory in the end of the time on the hearth of this nation, the Romanian nation, of whose name the heaven is full and the earth will be full soon, soon. Be wise and look into God's word, for this word is not man but it is the Lord making His way to the nations with adornment of saving word for every man who wants to see life in this word. Wake up your spirits, because your spirits sleep in you and you have fallen into a deep sleep with respect to the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who paid for you on the cross as well if you want to take after Him according to His truth. Oh, do not sit on chairs carelessly, do not sit that way, for you will be brought into a great account for your unbelief, for the lack of the guidance of the flock without shepherds on it, for the flock is hungry and it does not know to walk, and it does not know to eat and to live from God, neither it nor you! Look into the history of the confessing fathers and look at them, and then look at yourselves and also look into the word of God, which flows from the Lord's mouth into the midst of the Romanian people, because you will be called to serious account for your seeming unbelief in this word. Oh, who are you afraid of that you do not sit in counsel with the Lord for the salvation of many? The book of yesterday and the book of today bear testimony to each other as God's book upon people and you are asked for an answer. Therefore, get up, and take a look into this river of word and see the Lord in it with a people speaking into the midst of this nation, growing it with the spiritual milk of His mouth, for the Lord does not have to be silent. It is not the Lord Who has to keep silent, but He is the One Who becomes word upon man and you cannot close to Him, for He passes over all and over everything and the Lord speaks over the earth, for He is powerful to do this, and you will stand face to face with His might and you will be asked about His word of today over the earth and over man and you will have to give an answer. Amen.

Oh, if you want come into His way and welcome Him, for He does not come to do any harm to you, but He rather comes to offer you deliverance and salvation by His great love within a word of love, God's love as word on the Romanian land in the end of the time. Behold, the Lord is coming with His saints, as it is written in the Scriptures for His coming, and blessed is the servant whom He will find waiting and watching before Him. Amen, amen, amen.

– The spirit of confession is the spirit of My saints, and I, the Lord, am coming with them as it is written that I have to come. Amen.

I have become confessing word in a day of feast of the saints; My saints and I. My today's name is the Word of God. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am the Word of God. I am Who I am, and I am the spring of the river of life and with it I water those who are thirsty. Amen.

Let those who are thirsty come, take and drink! Let those who are thirsty come, take and share, and let them take and come to life; let them take and drink and confess My goodness, for I am the good Shepherd and I give My good things to those who take and drink of My water, and I also give faith to those who take Me by this spring, My word, which springs from Me to the life of the people with its much comfort, with its much love, My comfort and My love in it for man. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Circumcision and the feast of the Saint hierarch, Basil the Great
(Excerpt)

Oh, let no one boast about his mind, about his righteousness, about his sight or about his holiness, rather let him always fight for this so that he might receive his release from the fire on earth and in the life after the body, for the saints who have overcome by this time have condemned themselves as sinners, although they have become one body with Me by their holiness and by their communion with My Body and Blood that washes the one who repents and comes to life.

Oh, how can man long after God if he kills animals and becomes one flesh with them after that, by eating them? Behold, he who joins a body is one body with the body he joins, and he who eats animals becomes one flesh with them in his very body; however, I am coming to teach man to stop eating animals and no longer eat men, because the man who eats from the market does not know what he eats. However, I know this and that is why I am telling him what I tell and I call man to hear what I tell him and to believe then and obey God, that I come as word from the Father on earth to teach man My will in him, to his life, because man dies through all these things.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism (Epiphany)

My voice becomes word and feast of Epiphany and I come into My book with My people of today, a book that bears testimony that I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, put the word in this time between Me and man, the voice which is heard from heaven and to the graves, as it is written in the Scriptures, and the angels of My coming serve Me and become a bridge between heaven and earth, from top to bottom in the sky, and clouds of angels are carrying Me above My people when I am speaking to it My word of today. Amen.

Those who love their greatness on earth do not love My coming and stand against it with stubbornness, and those without God upon them have done so in all the ages. However, I was and I am sent by the Father on earth, first by the prophets and then by the visions, and then I, Myself, by My birth from the mother Virgin and I dwelt among the people and I was their God, and if those who were stubborn crucified My body on the cross and put Me into the grave, I rose up again victoriously over death, as a God, and I ascended near the Father, at His right hand side, and here I am again on the earth now, clothed within the word of glory, for My disciples prophesied of My Spirit and left it written that it would be to come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, for I am without end like My kingdom in heaven and on earth. Amen.

It is a day of Epiphany feast and I am announcing Myself as the baptizer over the waters and over those who love My coming of today, coming together near My spring of word at the feast. I, the Lord, am declaring blessing over this heavenly table of today, and over the waters from the wells of the Lord's courts, to overflow from waters to waters by the power of the word and by the spirit of renewal of the world from place to place, because I have here My dear treasure from the fallow land of the Romanian people and I keep it for Me as a testimony; I value it with My protection and I glorify Myself in it over the earth and with the glory of My word, for the time has come. Amen.

The waters from the wells of My courts with My people from the midst of the Romanian people are blessed and newly sanctified by the power, by the work and by the descent of the Holy Spirit.

Those who come and those who do not come to the water of these springs take of them either willing or not, for the angels of the Epiphany carry the waters here from waters to waters, and I put the people of My word to sprinkle where it passes with this water, which chases away the demons and all the evil spirits, which shake and shudder everywhere drops fall from this water, the water of the springs of My courts of today.

Take and pour out into My wells with you water touched by the Holy Spirit, by the angels of the waters and by our little hands sanctifying by the word spoken over the waters, you, ministers of My mysteries for those who are faithful, for the waters from here are taken by the angels and poured out into the big waters, to the testimony of My works with you for the cleansing and sanctifying of the earth for all My mysteries working on the earth, as the earth is My kingdom, a footstool of My feet, a great mystery, which the man keeps on forgetting about, but I do not forget and neither do My angels or My saints, the armies with which I move from place to place between heaven and earth as the King of everything that is. Amen.

Peace to you, My people from My spring of word! In addition, behold, again and again you have prepared for Me a feast and a halting place to sit at the table of the word with those who have gathered at the spring, at the feast of Epiphany, son.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who have come together near Me in a day of holy feast! It is cold, it is snow, the way is hard; however, you have come and are here, for your longing was your way, it was your angel and it has carried you to My meeting with you. Peace to you! Comfort from God to you! Oh, thank God within thousand of tears for the gift of the faith in My coming of word on the earth here and now, in the citadel of My word, for if I, the Lord, had not freely given you this gift, then who would have given it to you? Watch with a holy watch and carefully keep this gift and keep away from those who would try to destroy it, because your faith in this word has got many, many enemies, and do not forget My news of two thousand years ago, when I said that the man's enemies were his own family, and from there it all started; from around you it starts the number of the enemies of your faith, and the opposing spirit to Me and the faithful man to Me knows what to attack in man, and he attacks the faith between Me and man, My union with man, the secret bond between Me and him, the spirit of love, which binds the man to God with an inseparable power. Oh, where separation comes out, there the enemies have got in, and that is why I teach you to watch for this gift, the faith in My coming of word on the earth for the love between Me and man, for his lack of separation from Me and for its reward, at the end of hope, which is done by faith. Amen.

It is a feast of Epiphany and I teach you with power, son, as I was teaching My disciples two thousand years ago everything about Me and about them with Me. Oh, one always need instruction in this school, and there was no time for examination, and you do not enter school if you are not found in accordance with the laws of the school; however, if you enter because you have passed your exam, then you need to learn to get knowledge to be able to remain in school and then to become an educated man, qualified to teach others, as one that had power to learn and to know and then to share everything you have learned from the work with a teacher.

Oh, there was no time for examination when you knocked to be My sons, and My love opened to you. Therefore watch lest your love may fail! Be strong in your faith, as both God and satan give you a mark for it. It is the work to which you have been called and by it you will have the Lord and you will remain with Him and for Him in everything that may test you in love. Amen.

I am still teaching you on this day, those that have gathered to the spring, I am teaching you to believe in Me and in My coming of today as word to you and for you, those who are faithful. Taken an example from those who are faithful and from those who are not faithful and look at them how their fruit was, good or bad, eternal or passing. Adam, the man built by My hand out of dust and living soul, left My teaching and he left Me and then he was against Me, but Abraham knew Me by faith as I came into his way by Melchizedek with bread and wine and I gave him the gift of faith by My mysterious priest, who sacrificed his entire people and the land of his people for his faith in Me, that he might be Mine afterwards, and he was. You should receive great teaching, as I, the Lord, never made use of the rulers of My time with man to seed My faithful people from time to time on earth, but I rather used My unfathomable mysteries and I gave faith to man for them, and this is how I stepped in time for all that were prophesied to be, and they were after that, for Moses prophesied about Me, and David and all the prophets did the same, those to whom I gave the gift of the faith in My mysteries, unfathomable by the narrow-minded man, and I have not given them to be known, but I have rather kept them between Me and the faithful and wise ones in their mind, and this is how I fulfilled Myself by Abraham's word and Moses and David's and that of the prophets, for I am Who I am and I have not asked the great man in his rank for permission when I fulfilled Myself with My works on the earth. Oh, this is how I made and carried the work of My today's word and of My bearers, and I have worked Mysteriously in the order of Melchizedek, as I worked with him and then with Abraham and with all the faithful ones and who meant and mean My history on earth, the bearers of My mysteries among people. However, I need just a faithful man to walk with, for I have found the faithful one with a clean heart and I have given him the gift of faith and helped him to live with it. When I choose those who are

Mine for Me, I have to be very merciful, for man is surrounded with his relatives and people of all kind, and until I remain with the pure seed in My hand there is still much work to winnow the chaff, and is much to suffer and endure, and the Lord suffers on earth from the unfaithful and proud man until He chooses His people from among these, and I spoke a great word two thousand years ago for those who were faithful and I said: «Who does not leave for My name parents and brothers, wife and children, relatives and friends, possessions and ranks, and if then he does not deny himself to be entirely Mine, one like that cannot work for Me and cannot be My disciple and a steadfast believer». (See Matthew: 10/37) However, I help the one pure in heart and I endure and suffer with pain waiting until I overcome all kinds of obstacles in the way of the one who comes coming to Me, and who comes with longing, and the longing is a road cleansing angel on his way with Me.

Oh, how shall I teach you more sweetly for the gift of the faith? You will hear that this way and the faith for it is not good, but you will also hear from your enemies, not from the friends, and no one can be your friend when he takes your power away, the gift of faith, and that one shows enmity to you and then is your enemy. Oh, I thank My Father for the gift of faith, sons, and be like Abraham, who never doubted when his faith was tested, but he stood on his feet. Amen.

In a day of holy feast I am teaching you, those gathered near Me at the table of word, I am teaching you, sons, the power of baptism, the gift of the faith by which I want you to be baptized. The baptism in faith is great, sons, and woe to the one who loses it or sells this garment of baptism! Look at David, who by faith saw from far away, he foresaw the time and he foresaw Me a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek, through whom the Father worked, and David said*:* «The Lord said to My Lord: You are the priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek!» Oh, and My people of today was foreseen in time by the prophets, but the prophecy is only for those who are faithful, and only through them God can fulfill on the earth with His kingdom among people, working it and its mysteries in them, which have been fulfilled, just as those mysteriously prophesied by the Father through the prophets were fulfilled with Me. This is how I have made My work of today and its people and I have witnesses in heaven from among it, and I also have on earth, and I have because I am a Teacher with great power of word and I elect those who are faithful to the end, which will also be through them, and I cannot do anything with those who are not faithful, for they backslide in the time of trial to their shame.

I give you, speaking the holy mysteries in a spirit of Epiphany with you, I give you power to believe in them like Abraham, Moses and David, and I teach you how to have faith and how to keep it then as a dear treasure and not to be looted by the enemies who start with your very family. You will know your enemies after their unbelief, for those who believe are those who are blessed, are those who are baptized in the baptism of the faith, the man's birth from above. Amen.

You should also take, Romanian people, take for yourself, My country of today, for I am a Teacher from heaven into your midst and I watch your steps and I look after you with love to open for Me so that I may come in to you with My advice, with My new preaching and fulfillment. Oh, what shall I do with you to clothe you within a heavenly garment, within the gift of the holy faith, the garment of your birth from above, My country of today? Oh, how much I have waited for you! I will give you great revival and I will help you to know Me by this word, for I love you because of your fathers and I listen to their plea before Me for your faith, and it will be for you into My word of today, and by which I call you so sweetly under My vineyard and fig tree, for you do no longer have food and no one gives you anything from Me so that you may have and then to live. Oh, peace to you! I tell you to be so, and I will give you and you will take and then you will have. Amen.

I have loved you with an unequalled love on a day of Epiphany feast. I have taught you the greatest gift: the gift of the holy faith in My today's coming of word on earth. You do not owe Me anything because of what I have given you. I owe to teach you and to give you power to believe, because the Father has sent Me to fulfill this and to call and bring together to a great faith those who are and those who will be. Do not forget that the spirit of the world opposes you for My teaching from above for you. This spirit keeps the man in the darkness and fills him with longing for the things that pass away, and it winks at him to them, for this spirit is deceiving.

Let the Holy Spirit come down upon you from the waters, as today I have put Him into My springs here! Be only faith for My entire word preached to you, and be born love as from above and give yourselves over to Me with it, for the love that does not gives itself to Me passes; however, you should come together in Me and you will have, and nothing will be lost from the things that you gather with Me. I am comforting your forehead and I am comforting your spirit with it, for you have labored in order to come and I have spent with you here, under My heaven of angels; here, where I come together with the saints and with the angels in days of heavenly feast on earth.

Be My comfort! I present you to the Father and I say: these are My beloved ones, with whom I am well pleased, just as You, Father, are well pleased with Me. Amen. And the Father says: This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased and you are His, and I, the Father, and He, My beloved Son, are well pleased with you, in this time. Amen, amen, amen.

The Synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

In a spirit of Epiphany I still am among you and I have walked home with those who have come at the feast of the sanctification of the waters, and you have rested from your hard work, and now we have a table of word for the comfort of My saints, for John, My baptizer, is celebrated by the saints near Me in heaven and on earth, and I want to comfort it within My coming with the saints, sons, who give Me being into the book in the midst of My people of today! Oh, take care for the power of the holy people, for it is the people that I still have! And how you are supposed to take care? Oh, stand before My word in order to be able to come and give it to the people, well, children sons! My word is that which has My people into its care, for My word has power in it. With it, I gather and take care of the people with those in heaven, and with it, I also give Myself to those who hear Me as word coming to you.

It is a feast for John, My godfather of baptism, My feast and his, one after the other, as the saints have known from My Spirit to set this order for the feast of My baptism to Jordan. Oh, how shall I not have John, My baptizer, at My table with you within a feast of Epiphany, who had suffered for My name persecution from the middle of the world even from his childhood, and then he also suffered martyrdom for the preaching of My Gospel upon those who believed and upon those who did not believe that I was Messiah, God's Lamb, on earth? Oh, My people, there is no greater work for man like that to appear into the midst of the people as word and life according to My Gospel full of the resurrection for man, and then I said: «Blessed is he who endures to the end, and blessed is he who does not stumble against Me, and again, blessed is he who does not stumble when it comes to believe from Me by My messengers to the people». Amen.

You, those who come to this mountain of grace to take from God for you, do not put small questions to tempt this place covered in mystery or those who are watchful for Me here, but be with a humble spirit, for the temptation for faith does not increase your faith; it does not clarify it, but it is rather stricken by the evil spirit of temptation, as it is written: «Whoever will stumble against the rock Christ, will be smashed by it», and that what you give to receive by temptation is of no use to you, but it is your damage instead; however, your faith received as a gift, not by searching after it to believe, for whoever tempts does not find what he looks for, because the Lord stands against the tempters and makes them come back empty-handed for their things. Oh, if you come up here, then seek to know about Me, not about the watchers of My mountain of mystery and about their life and works, but take from them God the Word, Who becomes a scroll and Who gives Himself to you to your illumination for those from above upon you, and this is well to have a good conduct in respect with this mystery that I have covered so well for those who believe, for the prophecy is for those who believe, only for them and it is a great gap between those who believe and those who do not believe, and those who are not faithful fall into it, and then they see to their unbelief; they see what they were supposed to believe.

My baptizer suffered death from those who were proud in their spirit and who covered themselves with unbelief to protect their pride and the work which they pleased, as death gets ready with many ornaments and becomes beautiful and charming at the first sight and state in such a way that the man may never forget, in such a way that man may not manage without it, and it enchants the man in every way possible so that the man may do its will, and man dies with the death into his arms, with that which destroys him. This is what happened to king Herod from his relative after the flesh, who worked over him only weakness, only death, only shameful passion, but the prophet John, because of his mercy for Israel, told Herod that he worked lawlessness, and that he was not allowed to violate and that he became an example for the falling of Israel. Oh, but death is a well-dressed woman with charming ornaments and it became death for Herod and for God's prophet, and the mother was found guilty until death because of her daughter, who got up to dance, seducing the king's look and laying a snare for him to swear for the death of the prophet John, and, again, the daughter was found guilty until death for her mother, who asked then the death of the prophet John.

Oh, you who, from everywhere are My people obedient to the law of holiness, and you, those who hear My word on the table of My word, I call you to holy watch, I call you to great watch and I teach you to keep the death far from you. Take care of the parents not to be guilty for their children or the children to be guilty for their parents. At least, from now on take great care of this watch, for many parents fall by their children, and many children fall by their parents, they fall into mind-corruption and carelessness for holy watch, for the life has to be watched lest it may go bad, and the field has to be weeded lest the whole crop may be chocked by the weeds. Be strong in your heart, be with Christ in you, for death gets ready with ornaments and becomes beautiful in its appearance in such a way that man may not forget or forsake it, and it seduces the man to her, and this is how man dies with the death in his own arms, for the woman who thinks that she is noticed catches fire and burns and then becomes death for the one who falls into her devilish charm and then she becomes a devil for man, and I do not see anything else on earth but this kind of pain everywhere, and man does not have power, and he is without the Lord in him in order to be protected from falls.

I was very much aggrieved in My heart for My baptizer, John, who was destroyed by Herod's sin through a woman. However, I wait for the holy law and for its power in the people to come on the earth, and that is why I go everywhere with the Gospel of My word of today and I call out like John, the Baptizer, repentance for people and I keep calling so that the man's spirit may hear and stop from doing evil and to make Me a dwelling place with the man, because I come from the heavens, from the Father, and I come with the saints to give to the man the power to become God's son and to put an end to sin, for sin is death and it rebels from the inside of the man; it rebels from the man's flesh against God and it enslaves the man's heart and feeling, to his falling.

Oh, My people, I ask you not to forgive My exhortation for you to keep away from the way of the rebellious, for they strike against the sword of unbelief, well, well faithful sons, because those who want to do their own will cover themselves in unbelief in order to violate God's will in them. Some, for many years, and some for two or three years, have been digging a precipice between them and you and have given My work with you and with My bearers to the unfaithful world in order to be ridiculed, and they have laid a snare to each other to fall in unbelief and to fall from Me, and this is My pain from them and that for them. Oh, be strong in your faith and testimony, and learn like the apostle Stephen to testify about My work before the unfaithful ones, for it is the time to overcome, because that is why I am on earth now with the work of My word, which washes away the man in his heart and then in his mind, for whoever opens his heart, for that one his mind will be illuminated and will see God with it. Amen.

It is for this great calling to watch and to resurrection that you hear John, the Baptizer at My table with you! He is the voice of My voice and he is a healer. Amen.

– In a spirit of Epiphany is everything that I am speaking to You, little Lamb of the Father. Your Spirit is set upon the waters to wash away the man in his heart and to sanctify the earth for the saints and even for the sinners on it, for them to receive power and that You may draw many to the Father, as it is written that You have to do, oh, little wounded Lamb. The mark on Your body, the mark of the spear and nails, Lord, has remained open. You have been the wounded One for two thousand years. Let the man repent on what I say in a spirit of Epiphany. Amen.

You, those who come with fire and longing to this mountain of spring, become the salt of the earth, as I was in my time with the Lord on earth! It is the Lord working word of new birth of the world on the heart of the Romanian people and He has got disciples at the spring of His word, and He has got a baptizer over you and He is teaching both you and them to be the salt of the earth. Become vessels with salt, taking from here and sharing the spirit of prophecy and do no longer go bad, for He said: «If the salt lost its saltiness, with what will you season it?» (Mark: 9/49) Oh, seek to have salt in you. The spirit of prophecy means what I tell you. Come to the mountain of the Lord, a mountain of salt, and take and salt from place to place on earth, for there is no longer salt anywhere, and without the spirit of the prophecy the Lord is not on earth with the people, for the Lord's testimony is the spirit of prophecy, as it is written, and behold, the rulers upon you have given from them the whole salt and do no longer take it from the Lord and do no longer listen to Him to be the Lord on earth with the people. Be faithful, for the spirit of prophecy is the man's new birth from above. Remain in the spirit of repentance and come to the Lord, for here He is, teaching you! Amen.

And as for You, Lord, little and wounded Lamb for two thousand years, bring the lawlessness to an end and redeem the people so that they may believe, and all those who believe will be saved; they will be those who are saved. Amen.

– Oh, My wound of two thousand years ago stands witness for My resurrected body from crucifixion and it gives itself to those who believe in My coming of today as word on the earth, and these are My wealth, My army, on which I rely for the spirit of the testimony on earth. Amen.

I have been speaking in a spirit of Epiphany to My people and to those who have been eating of My mouth, and on this day, I have been teaching the watch for life on those who chose and choose the life. My Spirit hovers above waters and becomes Epiphany over the earth. My people is My testimony and I, the Lord, glorify Myself in the word over the faithful ones. Amen.

Oh, every day renew your love and the watch for it, My people, and ask from the Father My will on the earth, and anything you may ask in My name, you will receive from My Father; you will receive, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-01-2010.

The Sunday of the fearful judgment

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am up in heaven and below on earth at the same time and I am the One known by those who love Me and want Me in good and bad times, in joy and in sorrow, and I have never been known on earth by those who have not wanted Me with them.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I am speaking this now, in the end, to tell the unbelievers that as I was in the beginning, I am the same now in the end, and no one else is known by this name: the Alpha and the Omega, no one but I. Amen.

I am God the Word and the unbeliever does not want Me to be God the Word now, in the end, and this one has stopped My way; he has set up a boundary for Me and told everyone that I spoke everything two thousand years ago and that I have been no longer after that, and if he said that I was, then he would not know to say how I am. Those who rule upon the church of the world say that I am nowhere where I am supposed to be with the faithful ones, who want Me to be with them, but if I am not with them, then what am I, where I am and where I live in order to be and to work on earth? Oh, I have to be somewhere with the man because I said that I would be with My disciples to the end of the time.

Oh, I am with the faithful ones, I am with those who love and want Me and give Me table and housing with them, for I said: «I will come to the one who believes in Me, I will dwell with him and I will dine with him», but those who sit highly over the church of the world want to make the people forget that I said so, and they try to draw the people to them, only to them, as though I am with them and at theirs. Oh, I would like to be with them, but they do not believe that I can be with man as I said that I would be with those who believe in Me, following My steps with their life. I am the Lord God of those who wait for Me to come to them and to be with them and I am not of those that do not want Me with them, and that is why they are alone, they are without God on earth, and in the same they do their work as well, even when they hide under My name, as do those who sit highly over their church, as this authority has come on earth from the forefathers.

I am writing Myself into My book of today with the glory of My word upon you, people, and faithful to My coming on earth now, in the end of the time. Those in the graves hear Me when I speak My word into your midst, because it is written in My Scriptures two thousand years ago that I would speak in the end of the time and those in the graves would hear Me. Those on earth hear My word spoken upon you, because I have made you the sharer of My word upon people, but people do what those two of thousand years ago did, who almost all said that I, the One Who came from the Father to them by My birth of the virgin, was not the Christ, as it was prophesied for Me to come. Oh, the unbelievers love fire and they do not love My coming. I come to them hungry and thirsty after them, naked and a stranger to them, suffering from them and put in chains by them by their unbelief, and they love the fire, for it is written in My word that these will go into the eternal fire because they have not known Me and have not visited Me on earth.

I am speaking now to the servants of the church of the Romanian people. I am coming from heaven to earth on this day and I am speaking to you, those who are not faithful to the power of God, for I have this power to speak to you. Oh, only the sin in you entices you not to submit to the truth that I am this word, which speaks with you by the spirit of prophesy, as God has spoken through all the ages. You have become slow in understanding or you do not want to understand, you who are stiff-necked, that My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. You have read the Scripture to know what is written in it and the knowledge has made you proud, and because of your pride, you do not bow to know God on the earth with the people. Oh, whoever does not know God on earth, does not know Him in heaven either. Nothing is true on earth but God alone, and you do not know Him. Then why do you still become proud with those that you say you know from the Scriptures? Behold, you pose as truer than God upon people, since you break My walking among them with the spirit of prophecy and by which God is with the people on earth. Well, how are you not supposed to do this if you have someone to cheat on? How are you not supposed to stay close to your great seats upon people, to whom you say that God is with you! Well, if I am with you, then show Me! However, you show yourselves in a holy robe, but the one who is holy is he who takes after Me, not after you on earth.

I am speaking to you out of My great pain from you on this day when you are reminding in the churches the word of My Gospel for the day of the fearful judgment. Oh, many times I have spoken upon you by the thread of My word of today, which flows like a river of My mouth, above those who are faithful to Me and to My coming with the judgment of the creature. It is not for one or two days; it is not for a little while that I have become word into the midst of the Romanian people, but for more than fifty years I have been staying with My table of word and feeding My faithful people, who has known Me within his heart, as My disciples knew Me two thousand years ago, when no one wanted to know Me from among those who sat on the seats clothed within the robe of God's servants among people then. And behold now, it is as at that time, all those who are big in the church over it are those who do not want Me with the people on earth.

Oh, either you want it or not, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am speaking to you from the midst of My people faithful to My coming of today on earth into the midst of the Romanian people and I am telling you that I am the Alpha and the Omega. Do you believe that you can just wash your hands from Me, by putting this word on man's account, and which flows out of My mouth to wash the man from unbelief and from emptiness and chasing after the wind? I have sent you the book of My word of fifty years, but because of the pride of your mind, the heart in you does not want to find Me in this word. I have not come to take your seats on which you sit to be great upon the people's souls, but I have come to heal you from sin and from the unbelief with which you want to cover your sins. Oh, it is not that you do not have faith in My today's word, but you are ashamed to give up for the cleansing of your sins to take them from you and to be able to have the first place at the helm of your life, the work of life giving upon man. Oh, what happens to Me because of you, it happened to Me because of Adam either, who did not want Me to be the Lord over My creation, but rather he wanted to be upon Me with his throne, because he who does this, that one dies to God as Adam died.

Oh, how long will it take you to clothe with My Scripture, which says that the law and the prophets had been until John? How long will you put away the spirit of the prophecy from the earth, by which God is with people on earth? Do you believe by this that you will get away from the wrath that comes and it has already come upon the sons of disobedience, whipped by the damnation of the unbelief? Take a good look into the Scriptures, as near this word you also find written that from the preaching of John, the Baptizer, who showed Me to the world at Jordan, the kingdom of God is taken with great perseverance only by those who strive for it and with faith in it inside the man faithful to it.

Oh, how shall I give you the account that I am not on earth with the people by the spirit of prophecy, which is My way on the earth among the people? Well, if I am not, then how are you supposed to be? How am I supposed to be with you and through you when you say that I am through you? You say that you come through succession by an apostolic thread. If you were not able to say so also for the spirit of the prophecy, then which would be the helm of the church, God the body and the word through the church? On the other hand, do you not know that it is written: "Woe to the city, which does not have any word of prophecy in it?" Oh, you do not want many to know the Scripture, but you rather want to tell everyone that only you know it, that only you have the right to know, but only if you would take it as your guide, as your truth, and not only to take from it from here and there, as you may need it, and only to keep your thrones over the mobs departed from My way with a cross for man, for he who sees this way has to be like Me and he sees Me as Shepherd on it with the cross.

All the prophesies until John were fulfilled in Me, and those that My Spirit is prophesying today will be fulfilled in Me either. Oh, I was not a prophet and Teacher only two thousand years ago, but I have also remained with My kingdom eternally and the same with My work for it, for since and up to this day it has not come to its end, and I prove this and I am with the people on earth, for I am with the faithful ones under My tent with them, I dwell with them and I am their God, as it is prophesied by the apostle John, to whom I showed how I would be with the people in the end of the time, the Scriptures, which is being fulfilled now more than anytime, and this on the hearth of the Romanian people, the country of brightness, which prophet Daniel announced for the end of the time and I, the Lord, am the Alpha and the Omega, and My coming of word shines on the earth into the midst of this nation. Amen.

Oh, how well it would be with you if you only wanted for a moment to honestly ask yourselves: who has been blowing by this spring of word for more than fifty years, and which has not run dry, but on the contrary, it has flown full of love, calling the man to the life of the kingdom of the heavens with the people? Oh, from the greatest upon you and to the least under you, all clothed in garments of church, I, the Lord am telling you this: fast and pray with perseverance so that God may reveal Himself to you and that He may give you wisdom from heaven, and furthermore, that He may show you the Spirit Who blows by My Spring of word in days like these into the midst of the Romanian people, and I, the Lord, will show you then that I am, and that it is not the devil, and that it is not the man, and that I am with those who are faithful, who gave Me a dwelling place to be with them and they gave Me power to come and to fulfill with them the Scripture of the revealing of the sons of God, as it is written, and here they are, and here I am, speaking with them as with Lucas and Cleopas on the road to Emmaus, and I am coming down on their table as body and word and they are giving Me further, and you cannot wash your hands or the hands of the people before Me and say that I am not this word, for I have not given it to you to know Me by it, and if you say that I am not in this word, then give an answer to this: who blows if I am not the One Who blows by this word, if it is not My Spirit, Who blows wherever He wants and not where you want or do not want?

Oh, your stubbornness makes Me speak like that to you, for I worked with the open Scriptures two thousand years ago when I was unsealing, explaining and then perfecting them on earth, as I am also doing now with those that are prophesied now by the prophets and by My apostles in My time, by John, by Peter, by Paul and by many others like them, who had gifts and prophesied for the time of the end, for Me in the end of the time, and this after that John, the Baptizer, prophesied as the last prophet before Me.

You, servants of the church, how comes that you did not want to receive My comfort, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and preaches and teaches, as I promised that He would come and through Him I would be to the end of the time with My comfort over the faithful ones? Oh, I did not want you to be antichrists who, like those two thousand years ago, have stood against My coming with the saints in tens of thousands, as it is written that I, Myself, may come by the spirit of prophecy!

Oh, do no longer stand against Me, rather be for Me, sons, and prove this by the wisdom from above in you! Oh, repent from this sin, which you make against My comforting word of today; a sin made because of envy, sons. Cleanse away the sin of envy of brother. Wash it away, as it has destroyed in you the spirit of the fear of God, sons. It is the time to embrace with love the under-privileged among you, the bishop (Irineu of Bistriţa, r.n.), who was touched by My Spirit in such a way he may be able to deeply understand the mystery of My today's word over the earth, a mystery that prepares for Me the day of My coming with the glory of angels and with the armies of saints and with My trumpet sounding for the raising of those who have waited for Me in the graves to come and to open for them the day of their resurrection. Oh, release My bishop from his affliction and give him your love, since he listened to you and chose you and left Me and My people, loving you with patience until the illuminating light from My Spirit for those who will be to see My truth in the river of My today's word! Oh, do no longer persecute him, son, who is the least among you, the one who has been so much brought low by you, when he could breathe over many the grace of My love for those who are saved, for he has got the spirit of the heavenly feeling in him and he is gentle and humble in his heart and spirit, as I am. Oh, it is not nice what you have done with him that you have covered him in the darkness. What will you do if you were to pay on earth and in heaven for the deep wound in which you keep him in bondage and persecution, after you took from him the chair of apostle (Of Metropolitan from Cluj, r.n.) and gave it to someone else, thus removing him as a convict, as the bishops of that time did with Me? Oh, I cry in him with My Spirit, because you persecute both him and Me, sons.

It is written in the Gospel remembered today in the churches that on My day I will come with greatness, with all the saints and angels, and I will sit on the throne of justice of all things, and from the place of My glory, I will separate one from the other as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and I will put My sheep on the right and I will tell them: «Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave Me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me, you healed Me of My wounds, and you did this whenever you did it to one of the least of these of My brothers», (see Matt: 25/34-40), and then I will put the goats on the left and I will tell them: «Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels as whenever you did not show mercy to one of the least of My brothers, you did not show mercy to Me». (See Matt: 34/41-45)

Behold, what you have done to My bishop among you, to your brother, and you have done this to Me, sons. Oh, you did injustice to him as though you were just, but you were unjust to him. Oh, you were not just, for the man is sinful. You left him hungry and thirsty of your love and of his work of My apostle. You left him without a praised robe and you gave it to someone else, and you cast lots for his shirt, and you left him without house, without flock and you left him aggrieved and sick of sadness and you closed him under guilt and you did not investigate his cause, because you did not want this, and all these you did to Me, as it is written about the one who does so to one of the least of those who are Mine. Oh, how are supposed to come to Me those who took the staff of the shepherd out of his hand and gave it to others? Then they left the fear of God, those who put him to darkness, and brought him under guilt without any investigation, as it is written for the church to work. All judged from the distance and after rumors and out of envy that comes from the longing of the greatness, as the rulers of the people of Israel judged Me two thousand years ago, who used their power and ranks against Me, not being afraid of this sin.

Oh, the church had not been divided in two by My work near My bishop among you, as it was rumored then everywhere by unjust judgment against the work of My word and by oppression against My bishop, and instead of this, the church of the Romanian people had been raised with heavenly glory and many had taken the way of the glory of life and holiness, without which no one would see the Lord, as it is written, but all were afraid that they might have taken a turn for the better and they did not want this, for they loved sin and the glory from the people more than the glory from God and they set themselves to put under the bushel the light and committed this sin, and this sin even today is standing on the forehead of the church of the Romanian people, a people that has had times of glory by its victory against the devil and not against God, as it has been working today the Scripture of faith denial upon it, as no one has anticipated that this sin has been committed by those who thrown the stones into the candle with oil of My word, the Comforter, My today's word.

You will meet Me, you those who wanted to put under a bushel the light of My word upon the country of My coming of word on the earth in the end of the time, the country of brightness from which the earth and the heaven shine by My grace, a mystery that those who say that have in their control the mystery of the heaven on earth did not want to find.

Oh, I call you to reconciliation, for the Father is in Me when I speak, and I and the Father are One, and you may have Me as the Intercessor before the Father, if you want. I try to open your sight and understanding so that you may receive Me; so that I may also give you place in the dwelling places of My Father. I ask you nothing, I take nothing from you, but more than this, I give you My love, I give you My glory and I give you power to become well pleased with Me, as without Me is harder and harder, more and more painful on earth for man, because everything that the man has worked without God in his work comes against man, forgetting that My plans are not like his plans.

I have spoken to you, those who stay by the names of the servants of the church of the Romanian people. I have spoken to you in a fatherly way, and your welcome or not welcome will prove you once again that you are God's sons or not, for the sons are those who believe by obedience, and those who love being obedient also listen in love.

Be faithful! My Spirit is the Spirit of the Father, and the Spirit of the Father is My Spirit, and I have spoken to you in the Holy Spirit on a day of the memorial of the Gospel of the terrible judgment, when I will come with My day in greatness, when I will sit with all the saints and angels on the throne of justice, and I will separate one from the other, people and nations, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and I will put the sheep on My right hand side. Amen.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I laid down My life for My sheep, for I am their Shepherd and I shepherd them, and My mercy of Shepherd becomes word, and I give Myself to them, for I said to those who are loved, those who have become infants: "I will not leave you orphans. I, Myself, will take care of My sheep and I will shepherd them." (See John: 14/18) Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I am writing Myself into the book with a feast of bishops and I am giving Myself to the people as the teaching of life, as a Teacher Who takes care of His people. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Teacher, and I have become an example of life for those who have been taught by Me for their living, in the same way as a teacher can be a true teacher and with power of instruction over those who learn the life from him. I would have liked those who have set themselves into My name over the people to be the same, oh, and how much life it would have been in the people if they had had someone to look at in order to work out their life!

I am the Shepherd with the cross on My back, bleeding under it as I was, and not loved by the world full of sin, but those who have come to sit on the chairs of shepherds do not stay under the cross, but rather they carry a shining cross on their neck and are praised by the world with their ornaments wrought by thread and they do not suffer from the cross, and the man learns from them only the fleeting glory, and there are no longer shepherds with mercy for My flock poor in spirit and grace, and I, Myself, become the shepherd upon it and speak with My gentle voice of the shepherd over its wounds, not known by it as wounds, because it does no longer have a doctor to visit it and bring it into his arms to the spring and to the healing, as I was giving Myself to those who were crushed under the joy of the passing life and anxious after that because of its deception.

From time to time, I have had merciful shepherds who have watched My flock with justice, but those who are righteous for it can hardly have room with their work near those who are called shepherds only for their glory upon people. The holy fathers have brought in one single day of feast My three hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John; the shepherds who sacrificed themselves for their resemblance with Me, becoming an example for those who want to be shepherds of souls, only that My glory is sufferance, the cross carried with difficulty, a life given to Me for crucifixion, in the place of those who sinned for their punishment after that.

It has remained on earth a great and much instruction of the three shepherds, who are being remembered today in a spirit of the church, persecuted on earth in their time by those who established each other on the chairs of shepherds for their glory. The true shepherd is the one who shows to those who are taught by him how one is supposed to suffer for the healing of those who are healed by him for their salvation from guilt, for the people get hold of guilt for their life without a shepherd upon it, and then they have to suffer for their cleansing to earn back their life wasted in sin. A shepherd of souls shows the man that he sins against the life from God, left for man, and that he has to get healed from sin. Such a shepherd with mercy on the people struggles against the enemy of the man's life and then he gets wounded in the place of those who are healed, and those who shepherd in this way take after Me.

I, the Lord, the Shepherd with the cross on My back and then placed on it by being nailed, full of wounds on the way of the cross for the life of the shepherded sheep, will stand in judgment against the thieves, against those who have taken the glory of the shepherds into My name, forgetting how a real shepherd is supposed to be, grazing the people in My image and after My likeness, and I will sit on My right side with those who have shepherded giving their life for man, as I shepherded the people, and the thieves will be called to give an account and answer to God for the strayed sheep and which have not been shepherded on the way full of thorns and thistles, the way which has been appearing in the way of the fallen man on the way for seven thousand years because of his disobedience, and for which I lifted My heavy cross on My shoulders and then I let Myself be put and nailed on it to pay the man's wages for his sin and then also to give him to the Father as My labor before Him for His mourning after man. Amen.

– We are on Your right side within Your coming with us on the earth as word for the judgment of the thief, oh, Lord, Shepherd glorified by the cross between the earth and the heaven two thousand years ago, and then glorified by all those who were suffering from the unfaithful people for Your great name over the earth! All the three of us in a spirit of the love of God longed after You and after You sheep, crushed on the way because of the devil's envy, who set himself to cause the man fall, if he also fell from his glory through the man who disobeyed You at the beginning. We fought against satan's spirit to take the people out of his condemnation, and we dared do all these things in Your name, shepherds with mercy on the sheep as we were, for this was how You had built us before Your calling to be the shepherds for the sheep by Your stewardship, oh, and how despised and cast out we were by the bishops, by the servants over the church at that time! We were shepherding with mercy and justice over those who were ill-treated and we were giving close exhortation to Your flock into its midst, not sitting on the honored seats or clothed in shining robes, and those that were close to us, who were servants of the church, were selling us to mocking an despising. Those who took care of our sins, and not of theirs, blamed and despised us, and this is how they sold us to persecution and then to sufferance, in such a way we might no longer shepherd those who were faithful to You and not faithful to them, for those who were faithful looked for their salvation from You through us, and we sought through them after our salvation by our work for them before You, but the thieves of the holy things could no longer bear with us, the thief servants of the church clothed in skins of sheep, and they tortured us on the earth and banished us as wrong doers, and their successors have built our graves from then on and up to this day, adorning them, confessing by this that they have been the followers of those who destroyed us from among the people in order that they may shepherd according to their pleasure, as it seemed convenient for them, and not after Your very much longing after the man, tired in You only because of those who have shepherded the lost flock like You, because of the lack of the shepherds upon it.

We are coming with You as word on earth and we are going and entering the house of the thief and the house of the one who swears falsely on Your name, (The church of the world, r.n.), and the logs of wood and its stones will be destroyed, as it is written into the Scriptures about the ephah in which the whole iniquity is found and which will be taken away into Babylon, to its place. We are coming with You in the word and we are speaking in the house of those who sit in Your name as masters over the people, and we are also asking them for an answer for the life of Your sheep and we are telling them this:

Because you have shepherded ruthlessly and harshly the sheep and as a result they have wandered away on all the mountains and hills, the Lord Himself is coming and will be shepherding and searching after His flock, and you will give Him an answer for what you have worked for Him or against Him for His sheep. However, we are exhorting you with love, make peace with God, because He is forgiving and He gives you from His fullness, from His Spirit the gift of the love and the fear of God, only for you to receive Him as He comes to you and to seek to work like the Lord for His flock, because the righteousness for Him and for His sheep is not the work of the shepherds, but of the sheep thieves. Have love, be faithful, be holy and do not doubt in yourselves because of these holy powers for those who are saved! Open yourselves to the Lord! Here is how He is coming to you! Know Him and welcome Him! He waits for you to open to Him and to receive Him to wipe out your sins and to give yourselves to Him and to His holy work for the Scriptures of the renewal of the world, for behold, the Lord is coming, He is coming with the tens of thousands of His saints, as it is written to come, and blessed will be those who will say to Him: come! Amen.

– Oh, I am staying and listening to your love and work on My right side, oh, My loved bishops. I have given you a great task now, in the end of the time, for the stewardship of the Father Sabaoth has given you the share to bless from heaven with a bishop blessing the work of My today's word at its beginning in the year of 1955, and then again, to the good end of My progress further with you with My work then, with My new work, for I have said through My Spirit: «We make them all new!» I have made a great work on earth and built the New Jerusalem, and the work of My word had been going very hard for fifty years to reach with it at the feast of its fiftieth, to the Scripture of New Jerusalem, of new people, a bouquet of flowers, picked up with tears and unrestrained longing to put it into the vase before the Father and to put it into the lamp stand so that it may give light and to build on it the life of the age that is to be after the resurrection of the dead, as it is written. Amen.

Blessed is My work of the bishop through you into the midst of My people! You are My witnesses from heaven, and I worked and work mysteriously through you, by the work of My anointment of today, an anointment from heaven, according to the order of Melchizedek, as it is written in the Scriptures about the mysterious work of God over the faithful in the end. Be comforted, because I also get comforted, as both the labor and Our sufferance are hard. And the same is with Our waiting, and those who are not faithful will be brought to shame when the Lord will wipe out the tears of those who are despised by them because of My further and hard walking through the faithful ones, and whom will be wiped out any wrongdoing, for they are faithful and the spirit of repentance is their spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise

Oh, I long after My love in man and My longing is long and hard. I am the One Who built the man out of My love to make him then the house of My love and to have rest in him, for love is hard and it needs rest. Before the man was, My love was, the love from God, and I made the man out of it, and then I made him out of dust in order to be the house of My love and so that I may look at it and have rest in it then from the hardship of My love, for God is big and He needs rest.

I am coming as word into My book during these days, and I am finding it open and I am coming in and speaking for My beginning with the man. I am the Word of God and I was the Word at the beginning, as I am now, in the end, and everything has been made by My spoken word, and nothing was made without Me, for only God is the One Who works, only He. I am Who I am and I am the One Who does, and I did and I do everything out of love, for I am love, and My wound has been deep after I made the man, for I have not been able to rest with My love in him. I made him to have rest with My great and hard love and to look at it face to face with it, and I said that it was well, and since then I have been only sufferance. I was speaking the word of creation and then I was looking and seeing that it was good and then I looked over everything I made, and the heaven, the earth and their whole armies were very good, and on the seventh day I rested from all the creation that I made. The man knew only the good, as this is what I meant for him and in this way I loved him so much, and I wanted that he might not know the evil, and that the evil might not know the man either, and that is why I told him to keep away from evil and to work the good, to be happy and to be immortal. Only the one who knows evil, only that one is mortal, because I told Adam: «You shall not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die». (Gen: 2/17)

Oh, the man did not listen not to touch those that were God's good things, those that only God had to know, to keep under control and to protect the man from tempting God; however, man wanted to tempt God's being and so he did, and then he saw his fall and was afraid of God and wanted to hide. However, I was walking and speaking over him and when I called him to answer Me where he hid, he died, he died to Me, for he who knows like God longs after himself and not after God and he does no longer have God to be great upon him, because he hides from Him, as Adam did. He, who hides, hides because of the evil in him, and men blame each other and from one another before God, as it was in the beginning and after man knew evil and thus becoming sin in man, that is God's death in man.

Oh, what great love for the man's redemption from sin had those who established the opening of the man's sight and days of long fast, after he sees his fall from life by the awakening of the evil in him! The saints and the fathers have established fifty days of fast for the faithful ones and they gave the example of Adam's expulsion from paradise, so that man may have power of repentance and longing after the paradise, for the paradise was on earth and it is still on the earth now, and it is covered within mystery and it has the sword of the invisible fire within its gate.

Adam had an immortal body, but his disobedience clothed him in a mortal body, in which the lust and the sin dwell together, and Adam took himself in his thought and put God away from him. Oh, it is not well with the man to live with himself in his own thought but with Me, for he who lives within his own self in his thought that one does no longer have God in him, in his thought, but only for fear, and the fear makes the man tired and it makes him hide as Adam did. I exhorted the man to seek to get away the sin of tempting God, and no longer commit this sin, for when Adam gave up his listening to God, he also started to tempt God and His work, His being and His wisdom, thinking that he might get above God, but his body, on that very moment, became mortal, for I told him that in the day he would violate My command he would die, and Adam had to fall from paradise then, like the one who would die in his body, and thus he inflicted this sufferance on the whole human race that has come after him.

Oh, behold how much damage a man who sins does! Instead of being good, instead of being obedient, instead of fasting, as I told him to do, Adam wanted to be above God and started to tempt God's being and His work, by which everything has been made. Adam did not see Me but he only heard My voice and My walking, and with gentleness I asked him when he hid: «Have you broken My word?» (See Gen: 3/12)

Man has been asking himself why I did not stop Adam in due time and why I told him only after he had sinned against Me and against himself. Oh, I know what I did. I made the man out of My love and I wanted him to love Me as well, but if he does not want, then love does not have to be pushed from behind, but rather man has to do this freely, for it is no love otherwise. Even when I questioned him about his disobedience, I did it with gentleness, for I was the One Who had to be loved by the one built by Me for the love between Me and him afterwards. Love does not punish when it is in man, and I was the Love and I worked with gentleness before the one who trampled love, for this is how love works. Whoever does not have love does not have it at all, but he who has it, then love becomes pain in the one who has no way how to put it to rest.

Man does not have love because he has got lust, and love is not mingled with the man's body. I am coming as word now, in the end of the time, I am coming as in the beginning and I am speaking with the man as in the beginning, and I am working mysteriously, and it does not come to the man's mind how I do My work of today, and the doubtful and disobedient man like Adam tempts with his mind My work and falls like Adam, who thought to tempt My being and to be a god in My place over everything. Oh, many have fallen like Adam from among those who have tempted My today's work, for the unbelief has no shame when it comes to make its dwelling place in man, when man, like Adam, wants to search out the mysterious and well covered meanings of My works into the midst of the people. I do not help the man to understand how I work for him and for everything that I have to fulfill, but I help him to believe by touching his heart, by helping his love, and those who believe in My mysteries are only those who love with My love in them, not with theirs, for the love in man becomes sin in him, for him and for man, because man loves himself by the love that he has got in him.

I am speaking in this day only out of pain, for it is a hard and long time since the immortal man put on the mortal body by knowledge, by the sin of temptation, a sin by which the man can hardly believe in God, and by which he falls from the grace of the faith, which comes from love, from Me, in the one who loves Me with his heart and not with his mind. All those who have wanted to think with their mind have not got a heart for God, and they have lost the way and passed on to the way that leads the man astray. Two thousand years ago, I gave My whole love to man and I became Myself a Man and I became the tree of life on the earth and gave Myself to man to believe and to take Me in his own body as the first fruit of his redemption from the sin of his fall from the beginning.

In the beginning man knew only the good and then he took and knew the evil as well, and then he was ashamed of God, and then they were ashamed of each other as they saw themselves naked, and those who have not listened have known their nakedness after that. Oh, the man has been weak since then and up to this day and he has been drawn to sin on and on. The man has longed to know the sin that deceives by this fleeting sweetening in the fallen man's flesh. I would like the man to do away with this poison in him by himself, for it took him out of paradise. Oh, if it was good what man had loved and what he had called love, then why did I take him out of paradise?

Oh, it is the death in man that man loves in his body! How shall I free the man from his pond of blood, in which he has been staying getting sweet from his own blood?

How shall I do, man, how shall I do with you to condemn the sin in your body and to let it there not being known by you, as I wanted you to be when I put you in paradise giving you immortality? Do you like dying? Oh, you do not die only when your body remains without you, without your soul. You die whenever the sin gets sweet in you with its poison from the beginning, which makes you give God away from you and makes you live in your house made by God. You have not been thankful! You have wanted to know about you Maker, about His being and you have longed after it, and woe, then you have fallen, as one who has been looking after what is not yours.

Oh, the man stays face to face with the sin and he cannot overcome and he gets united with it instead, one body with it after that and the Lord is outside, for He is the One without sin. Two thousand years ago, I became the tree of life to get the man used to take Me in him an then to ask in him the law of the tree of life, by which man does no longer die by sin, for he who dies, dies only because of sin, for the sin becomes a devil in man, in the man's flesh punished by the sin in him, and with which the man hides in him and between man and man, from another man. Oh, who has got mercy of My pain from every man, again, again and again? I have been wounded and My love is only wound. I have been wounded and God is only wound either. Oh, who suffers from My wound?

When Adam has come to suffer he has remembered Me and My sufferance from him and repented and sought with Me to remind Me of him in his sufferance and to come on earth to redeem him, for he has waited for Me. When he left his body on earth in order to come back in Me, he found the cherubim of the sword of fire, whose flame turned every way in the gate of the paradise of delight to guard the way to the tree of life, and Adam had been waiting in the gate of sufferance after My promise for his redemption, until when I, God the Word, became Man on earth to die in My body like Adam, and I went after him to take him out of his fall and to make him see with his own eyes the One he made to suffer and then the One he tempted, by not listening to Him when He asked him to do this, while Adam was in an immortal body in paradise.

I would like man to suffer from all the pain that was in paradise, because of the disobedience of the man built by My hand, sufferance that is still now. I would like man to be humble because of the sin in him. Man fasts from food, but he does not want to fast from sin. He does not suffer from My mercy when he sins. He sins before Me and he does not suffer from My mercy. Oh, if the man repented for all the sinful men up to him and after him, then the man would come from sin to life, the dead would come to life as well and I would find My lost rest, My rest in man.

Come to repentance man because of the sin in your body; come, for it is not good to live both with God and with sin at the same time! Well, you should not want to be both with Me and with sin. Have you not seen what it happened to Adam and that he could not remain within the paradise if he woke up the sin in him? Oh, you do not have a shepherd to teach you to believe and to understand My pain from man. I come, and here it is how I come! I come and I teach you and I speak to you to understand, only that you may be able to listen to what I tell you, and not to do like Adam, who was disobedient and did not believe that he would die when he would no longer listen; and he died because of the sin woken up in him. I have come now, in the end of the time; I came and I come to you, man, I have come to teach you how to love God, and to want Him in you with His love to escape from the love in you, love which harms you, son. Oh, love Me and seek to have the wisdom, which man does not understand but only after he meets Me. Hear Me, for I want you to hear Me! I am speaking full of longing. My love has not come to rest, as only in man do I have the dwelling place of My love, tired of waiting. Let us wipe out from the earth the traces of My sufferance from you, for I have been waiting for you to listen to Me that I may give you the reward of obedience after that, to have something to pay you for, the rest of My love in you, you exhausted man. Oh, I want to be able to work in you, but take Me into your house and prepare it to take Me in it, for I wait and I wait at your door, and I wait for you. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have spoken into your midst as I had spoken with Adam in the beginning. I give you power to fast from food, but I also give you so that you may give Me back, and I want you to give Me your faith and with it to work everything for you. I also gave Adam power to work, but he took of himself and he did no longer have from Me, if he did this. Come sons, come to work with joy for life, for I have come to you as word and I have come to work with you by the spirit of obedience to God and to rejoice the Father with the fulfillment of the mystery of the man's resurrection, well sons. Amen.

Oh, how humble I appeared two thousand years ago, being God of God! Behold, there have passed forty days since the feast of My birth of the Virgin mother and I have come now to the feast of My welcome by the old Simeon in the temple from Jerusalem, when I was taken by My parents to dedicate Me to the Lord, as it was the custom in Israel. We submitted to each other, I to Simeon and Simeon to Me, as this is how they work, that is, those who have the guiding Spirit of the Lord in them, and Simeon saw the promise of the Holy Spirit fulfilled on the earth, the Messiah, the Savior, the light of the nations and the greatness for the faithful people. Amen.

I have spoken with pain and sweetness to get the man used to My pain, for whoever does not have pain because of Me, cannot give Me a place within him on earth. I suffer because man does not love Me. He says that he loves Me, but he loves sin and the sin in him is My pain, it is My great burden in him, it is the joy of the enemy which enchanted the man to cleave to it and to leave Me sighing after him with the wound for his emptiness from Me, after the man had cleaved to sin.

I bless your faith, power and love for the days of feast, and I will rejoice in this way until the day of the feast of My resurrection, the day of My victory upon death, My people. Get love, get much love and feed Me with it in the time of your fast from food, and I will spend with you and I will give Myself to you as food, for you are My people and I have become the tree of life in you, and by My commandment I have set this table into your midst, the food for the sons, guarded by the cherubim of the sword of fire, which turns every way with the flame in the gate of the paradise of delight to guard the way to the tree of life, the food with which I have given Myself to you every day in this time so much deprived of the man's love for God.

I bless everywhere on earth the saving power for the days of fast, which are starting now, but I do not bless those who do not separate themselves from sin. I belong to those who love Me, only to them, and they are only Mine and they do no longer belong to themselves. Let this kind of love be on earth! Amen. There is no other kind of love on earth. I am Who I am, and I speak this. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! May you be with much peace in you until the day of My resurrection! Stay on My right side; be My tool, for My coming is with you, and I give it to everyone who has set his heart to know Me in My coming to you, in My today's voice above you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

01/14-02-2010.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the right faith

I am becoming a river of word between heaven and earth on this day and I am coming down into My book of today, to the remembrance of the fighting saints in My vineyard for the proofing of their faith in Me and then of their successors, who were to suffer like them and then to be victorious like them as well before the unfaithful ones who fought against God because of their desires after glory, earthly desires, which come to those who are not faithful on the earth.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Maker of the creature and I am its Judge because I am Who I am, and I am the One Who knows, Who sees as it is seen, not as the man sees or how he does not see. Those who see are those who turn the earth into paradise, as My saints did and do, those who suffered and suffer because they have seen like God on earth and then in heaven.

I am the Lord, and I am coming into My today's book, accompanied by the saints, confessing of God according to the truth, by those who lived their faith, preaching it to those who have stood against them, and who have seen like man and not like God and not like My saints, who had been fighting in time against the beast of the soul and who had been longing to turn the earth under them into paradise, a homeland in which they were spending with Me, and I with them, and they were My confessors either.

The confessing life and the spirit of confession, this is the work of those who choose God and of those chosen by Him as His useful vessels on earth among people. So many series of pagan kings with their life and faith have been fighting over time against My saints and they have not been able to overcome them, for My saints have been zealous to the point of sacrifice, and this is how they have overcome the kings in their time, and then in the time after them, for they have worked after that to God's confirmation, and they have worked from heaven. In the time of the pagan king who anointed with blood the idol sacrifices and defiled the food on the market in order to defile the fasting Christian on their way with Me, the ruler of the Christian church came down from heaven and taught the Christians to eat koliva[126] and not to touch the defiled food on the market, and this is how My Christians listened to the one who came down from heaven to them for the keeping of their cleanness and for their protection from God. Oh, this is how I have been teaching today the people of My word, the faithful one, and it has been listening to Me to eat clean food, for those who do not have clean food, which I cannot bless, they do harm to the people and, therefore, people do not have good power, but it rather is cut from them, for the devil has been lying in ambush and always does this, urging the unfaithful to put a great deal of evil things and evil spirits over the food for the people, evil spirits against God and against those who are His faithful ones.

I have looked back in the time and seen My saints how much they had watched for the way of the faithful ones, and I am looking today at those who sit on the seats of the saints and confessors, and I see how well seated they sit there and how they do not suffer from My wounds from them, just as those in time have not suffered and who, by serving near My holy ones among them, have persecuted My saints, have cast out the faithful ones, who have loved My Spirit in the holy ones, and there has not been time for My saints when they have not been persecuted, and behold those who have persecuted them the most! In all the times the priests and the bishops have mostly got used to put the Christians and the saints under a bushel, as two thousand years ago, as today, when no one wants God to be on earth with the people as He should be, and not as man is used to know about God, for God is the One Who dwells with the faithful people on earth, and with those who confess God visibly before the unfaithful people, who are afraid not to lose their greatness over the people, and who is supposed to tell them about their wandering away? Oh, I come to tell them about this lawlessness they commit and I work with power and I become a river of word into the midst of the Romanian people and I bring into the open the work without God of those who set themselves down as gods over the people, and I tell the people that those who set up as gods are those who stand against God with their high sitting over the people and who clothed their dwelling places in the churches in scarlet and purple, to My derision, proving themselves whose followers they are.

I have been speaking by My word of today that every man may keep away, every servant and the entire people may keep away from the adorning of their houses in red, because red is Edom's color, the color of God's mockers and of the persecutors of the saints. Oh, behold those who have ordained each other to be great and strong over the flock of the Romanian people! They clothe in red the holy places and all their things, and they hide their actions with hypocrisy. They clothe in scarlet the books of the church, and this is how they put them on the table of serving, and I, the Lord, have been speaking to them to keep themselves and their dwelling places away from this color, which draws and rejoices the devil, the color of the antichrist, the color of the beast, the red beast, drunken of the blood of My saints in all the times, and behold a sin that stands against those who do not see like God, but rather they see like man and act accordingly! However, I am coming and let My faithful ones everywhere know no to adorn their bodies, houses and their things in red, for the red draws the destruction, which knows its work and which knows its house.

Oh, how gentle, how watchful, what a comforting Shepherd I, the Lord, am for those who love listening to Me for My will in them! I come to these and I make My house with them, I dine with them, I appear to them and I do not let them alone among those who are dead to Me, but I rather accompany them and put away from their way the hidden traps set for them, for I am Who I am, and I am the One Who knows, Who sees as it is to be seen, and not as the man sees or as he does not see. I see the traps set in the way of those who do not have the gift of the sight and I let them know, I and My saints, and I teach a heavenly teaching those who are faithful, who believe loving and love listening, and this is how I fulfill that Scripture which prophesies this: «I will come to the shepherds and I will ask their sheep and I Myself will shepherd them», and to the shepherds I will tell this: "Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes! Cease to do evil! Learn to do well. Seek justice. Relieve the oppressed. Judge the fatherless. Plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together. Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow. Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it. And I will get relief from My adversaries, and avenge Myself of My enemies. I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness, a faithful town.' But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the Lord shall be consumed. For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water," as it is written. (See Is: 1/16-30) Amen.

Now I am embracing the faithful ones and those that sanctify themselves for Me as it is the custom from the fathers and from the saints for the time of the fast for the memorial of My passion for every man who wants Me after the truth the Savior and Intercessor for him before the Father Sabaoth, and I am telling them this: «Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom». (Luke: 12/32) «I, Myself, will take care of you and I will shepherd and I will give you of My spring and you will drink of the river of life», (Apoc: 22/1, 17.) as it is written for Me to fulfill. Amen.

Oh, I suffer for every man who does not have upon him a counselor for holiness; I suffer and I have suffered even from the beginning of the heaven and the earth. Man listened to the woman but he did not want to listen to God, and I have suffered from man, for man has got used to sin. I see on the earth how man struggles to stop from food, but he does not stop from sinning, and he does not know that the one who wants to fast has to fast in this way, and there is no one to wake the man up to the wisdom of the saints. The servants of the churches bear with the people like these but they call My Christians who love God lost people and the bishops and the priests do not love them, and they crucify My Christians all the time and they cast away those who are holy and who serve near them with Me in them, and no one else has done better than the priests to persecute Me; and then, in all the times, they have persecuted those who have been My good and faithful people.

Oh, I suffer for every man who does not have a holy counselor upon him for his life! The holy ones do not have room near those who stay under the name of gods upon people. However, I have mercy on whomever I want to have mercy, and I tell those who love Me, I tell them to live humbly before Me and before the people, to be as an example of the kingdom of the heavens among people, and I tell them to get up early in the morning and to take Me as their helm during the day and then to come in the evening before Me and tell Me: Lord, I am coming now before You with My life of today. Cleanse me from everything I have done wrong during this day and bless My good power to be able to work for You, and You for me, and count me among those who are saved, my Savior! Amen.

I have become a river of word into the midst of My people of today on the hearth of the Romanian people in a day of memorial of My saints, who have labored to a bloody sacrifice for the keeping of the faith, for the Orthodox-Christian homeland on earth. Today there have been remembered the confessing saints, who have been persecuted and martyred for My name because of the guide of the faith for two thousand years, known and unknown, and who have been blessed by God on earth and in heaven. There have been in time kings and bishops, thought to thought, for the persecution of My saints, who have chosen the heaven as their homeland on earth and in heaven and for which they have labored on their way to Me. Those who have been unfaithful and those who have been faithful have remained in the history, some to their shame, and some others to their greatness within God. This is how those of today have been written in My book, the unfaithful and the faithful. This is how I have been writing Myself on this day too in My book of today with the river of My word for those who are faithful and against those who are unfaithful; for the first, to their greatness from Me, and for the latter, to their shame, as it is the fate of the name of those who are unfaithful. Amen.

I, Myself, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word of God, I am the One Who comes on earth to shepherd My flock, and My sheep know My voice and follow Me. I am the Shepherd with the cross and this is how I teach My sheep to be, because those without a cross do not come after Me, because they have another way.

I am the Comforter of those who believe into My coming with comfort to them, and I give them of what is Mine, and My Spirit, the Comforter, teaches them everything and they do not need to be taught by the man who sit on a high seat in My name on earth upon people. Oh, there is no longer on earth any holy teaching in those who teach, for those who do not deny themselves by taking their cross and following Me in this way, they cannot be shepherds and teachers for the people, and as a matter of fact, they cannot be shepherds and teachers even for themselves, and they do not have any foundation for their house on earth and in heaven.

Now, I am giving blessing and comfort to all those who, in My name and for Me, have brought before Me their sacrifice of love, days of fast and spiritual food from My saints, who have left on earth a strong teaching for man by their life written with sacrifice and with blood on earth for their faithful followers. Amen.

You, those who bring as sacrifices to God your heart and the weakness of your body, do not forget to eat the whole word of God and of His saints, for it is written that the man does not have to eat only bread, but any word that comes out from God and from those who have become an example of the kingdom of the heavens in them in time, and in this way you will be crowned with the fruit of the love of God and you will preserve yourselves as His people on earth. Amen.

And as for you, people of My word, stay into My hand as the tool of My Spirit, the Comforter and Confessor, so that I may be able to work into your midst and to let My river of word flow over the earth (Apoc: 22/1.) and to shepherd with it those who are good and faithful, because it is for this that I have chosen you. I have chosen you to have you now, in the end of the time, as My people, and to be My way to the people, as My holy confessors were and are, for I have been waiting to appear victoriously with those who are faithful, for My glory with them and for the expensive reward of their faith, their faith in My coming then and now, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy sanctified martyr Charalambos

I become the way for the saints, for they see and hear the word of My coming and they know the promise of the prophecy that I have to come with them (Apoc: 19/14.) and work together over the souls, over the spirits and over the bodies of the people, over those who are faithful, over those who are less faithful and over those who are not faithful.

I am the Lord! My coming in the word is being preached and I have to come with more and more richness of word, for My mercy on man becomes heavy upon Me, and the Father exhorts Me to speak and to have mercy on man with the spirit of the wisdom and of the knowledge from above, for on earth there is known and unknown pain, and man needs blessing for those who are good and he needs cleansing for those that are to his damage.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ. I am the living One and I have trampled with death upon death, and the Father has given Me power in heaven and on earth, and after My resurrection, I said this to My disciples and I sent them with power to preach this among the people, so that those who would believe may be baptized by them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and to be Mine like them, and that also those who would not believe may be known as well, and in such a way that they may remain as they were, as it is written. (Apoc: 22/11.)

Oh, you should wake up well, people of My word, and you should take in you My whole advice from upon you, everything that I speak to you from the heaven and from the earth, for the days are harder and harder, with more and more pain in them, and your life has to draw to it all the time My blessing, which can work your good from Me, your protection from God, son. Oh, you should not have a greater care, day and night, than the care to listen to Me as I guide you to do and to work, so that you may not suffer from the mistake of disobedience. I am teaching you both from heaven and from earth, for those who obey are protected from every evil, and they are protected from the whole temptation that comes upon earth to test the people.

I am coming with My sanctified martyr Charalambos and I am coming to you with the saints, My people. I have given them even when they were on earth My power for you, for you need true friends, you, My least one. Oh, stay little into My hand, for those who have stood great near Me and near you have not got the power to understand My mystery upon you, and they have looked at you with a human spirit and eye and they have despised you and given you away from their way, but I have remained with you, I remain and I do not leave, and I stand by you and cover you with My mantel and with that of My saints, and I keep you as My testimony before the Father and before the people on earth, for you are the faithful one and I will protect you from the hour of temptation, as it is written, and My saints are like Me, and they will protect you likewise too, for you have as father and brother the heavenly Father and you have Me and My saints, only for you to love obedience; obedience and faith, oh, My people. Amen.

– Your coming with the saints bring me with You into the army of Your bishops from heaven, for the armies from heaven are coming after You, as it is written, oh, Lord.

Oh, I long very much after Your coming, as all of Your saints long after it. They all long after You to come and to be victorious on the earth, now, when the man of lawlessness seeks all the possibilities to take over Your throne and Your footstool and to reign in Your place with his dark plan more than anytime, as there are seven thousand years since the man has been looking in his foolishness and, in his desire, to rule over the earth and over the heaven.

Oh, who has loved You, who have confessed You more than Your saints! You have made great grace come down on earth after Your resurrection, You have raised armies of confessing saints and You have written through them as true God on the earth, by signs and by miracles. Now we are working from heaven, we are at war against the darkness in man, and we are on the side of those who are faithful to Your promises against Your enemies and against those who do not believe in the spirit of confession, oh, Lord.

Oh, do not be afraid, you, sons of the holy faith! Be the sons of obedience to the whole word of God's Son, Who is coming on the clouds to you and He is giving Himself through you to those who are faithful to His coming with the saints now, in the end of the time! You should do nothing more than obedience to His entire word in everything you work for Him and for you, for those who listen to Him are those who are protected and are those who fight together with Him and with us for His victory upon death and upon hell, as it is written. Do not forget about the work of the blessing! Make use of those who are sanctified by the Lord among you for you! Your spirit, soul and body have to be dedicated and blessed with their entire work and movement, under the sign of the holy cross and under the word of the blessing of Christ, to Whom the father has given all the power in heaven and on earth, and He has given it to His saints. Amen.

You, those who are sanctified of the Lord into the midst of His good and faithful people, you have received freely and freely you have to give to those for whom you have received, and not to others, and they will be those protected! Amen. Oh, there is no salvation greater than that by the word spoken in the name of the Lord, for the destruction of the evil and for the increase of the good from the Lord for those who are faithful and holy. The devil lies in wait moment by moment to find you guilty and that you are disobedient to the Lord, to draw you into his lasso, but the saints of the Lord also watch. Watch, watch likewise, as well! The fear in men grows on the earth, but in you should grow the faith and the hope in Christ's victory, which you should call to come, to come, for we, His saints, stand for you at the border between good and evil, and stay in the Lord's arm and do not come out, as outside is punishment for the unfaithful ones! Pray to the Lord, pray with the prayers of the saints, who have in them much, much spirit of repentance. Their prayers are the cups of the mercy for you, those who are faithful. Be alive by prayer and get used to be prayer on the earth, as lively as the fire which burns and cleanses in its way, back and forward, to the right and to the left, up and down, but also get used to keep in mind and be sweet for those that are alive and working, to which you are exhorted by the Lord and by the saints, sons! Amen.

Oh, sweet Lord, You were sweet in me, and my life was sweet with You! When I was mocked and torn by those who were unfaithful, poor of them, You were so sweet in me, as I did no longer have the thought and the feeling at the bitterness of my body, of my flesh, and in this way I got sweetened by Your love in me and I was confessing You as my God before the pagans, before those who made me their spectacle for Your name, which I was bearing before them, and they did not know what they were doing, and I wanted their forgiveness and I wanted their coming back to You, for many of them, by my confession in the midst of Your persecution and of Your sufferance in me, and the number of Your disciples, as confessing as I was, was increasing at that time.

Oh, let Your small people of today rejoice over Your love and mine, for we, Your saints, are staying today in Your love for them, love paid with whole sacrifice, so that it may be today for the power and salvation for those who are Yours on earth! The man gets drunk with his own thought, with his self love and with the longing to please each other, but I gave away all these from me and I took Your love to have it as my reward in heaven and to give my reward to those who do not have on earth, for You told everybody: «I want mercy and not sacrifice!» (Matt: 12/7) Amen.

I leave the blessing of a bishop on your head, people of the word of the Lord's coming with the saints in your days! Have a word of blessing on your lips for God and for you! The Lord's mother and His saints are staying together with you. Watch for prayer and obedience and every evil will avoid you! Nothing, nothing without God, oh, sons. Amen.

– I, the Lord, sweeten the love of the saints and I get sweetened within it too, the love for you, My people of today. Oh, let yourself be the soft clay so that your Maker may model you, for the soft clay stays to be modeled and it is not damaged! Get used not to be hurt! Be soft so that you may not be hurt, and rejoice over your making from those who have the work of your making from Me, for on earth there are only sorcerers and witches and people go alone to these to make them and to make life for them, and the people believe in sorcerers and witches and they seek after their support, but all these have a painful end for man after that.

I have comforted the love and the longing of My saints, because My saints want to come to you, My people, but more than that they want your protection, for they see that you are Mine and that I have you at My table and they see the entire evil on the earth, everything that threatens man and the man's life, and the saints cry out to Me for Me and for you to come to victory, I with you and with them, and the saints cry out to Me, son. (Apoc: 6/10) Oh, cry out like them, cry out, cry in a loud voice, My people, and become only calling and call out for Me, call Me out always: «Lord, come!» Amen.

Oh, I come! I come and keep coming! I want to come and I want to bring to an end the hidden arrows, which try to get out from the quiver of the sons of the ruler of the darkness of this passing age. I want to work with you and I want to be victorious in this intemperate war against man, My people. I want it sooner than expected and I want to turn, against the head of the unfaithful man, the fruit of his human and devilish foolishness, by which he tests himself in My sword. Amen.

We lift up our weapons, sons! Up the weapons! The fast and the prayer, the Psaltery and the blessing of each and every moment by the word of the blessing, and of each work and movement, and we lift up the hope with obedience for it, My people, and we do this more than anytime. Oh, you are small, but My power in great, do not forget that! Do believe and do not doubt of Me, son, as I am the One Who is speaking to you this! Give Me place in you to be able to work! You are small, but I can do it. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Do not forget, give Me the entire place in you, and I can do. I can do everything you cannot do. I can, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday of the Lent, of the saint Gregory Palamas

I am announcing Myself at the gates with My descent of word and I find it opened when I am coming; I am coming into My book of today and I am speaking. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, I am the Lord, Jesus Christ and I am speaking over the earth now, in the end of the time, as I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I speak and work in the end as I did in the beginning. Amen.

Oh, My people from the spring, if there are many or few, if there are some of those that say that My speaking is too much, too much even upon you, then I see from among the saints how much those who are thirsty of power and comfort seek after Me, and I have mercy on them, for they wait for Me and seek with you after My word when it comes, and they look to see if it comes, and if it does not come, their little heart is not comforted. Oh, sons, there are many who seek after My comfort and there will be more and more, for the pains are more and more, and there is no one to comfort those who are aggrieved, no one else but the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit of the Father and Mine, the Spirit with Whom My saints have been comforted on the earth, and He has been their cradle, food and support in their sufferance and persecution for My name, in joys and in pains.

It is the time of the Lent in remembrance of My passions from man, and there are many who keep their body from food and from pleasures and they do this because of their faith and love and because of their fear of God, and there are some who, because of their mercy on Me, punish their body, because I suffered for their sins and so did many on the earth and became saints, and then I made them useful vessels for the grace of various kinds and My works on the earth among people and for people among men and for men, for men are weak and are aggrieved.

Oh, My near people, you should take My word upon you as salve and you should take it as your life, son. Seek to think in a clear manner, well sons, even when it might be some fault in between, for the good thinking brings God near, while the evil thinking brings near the devil, sons, and when there is some fault, seek with great wisdom to heal the wound there where it is in man, and do no put pressure in any way, for only One is the Judge, and you all are brothers, and the great wisdom is at its place, there where God puts it for you to take of it for the clarifying of all things that may appear, and your faith, your love and wisdom has to be great for this, so that I may see that you understand as I want over all that are from you and with you, for you are close to Me, and you are My sharers then. The prayers of the saints help you to know and to pray in any circumstances, and they help you to repent for you, and for one another, and they help you with your humility, sons. And if they were themselves again in those that they were confessing as their sins before Me, you find yourselves even more, and you stand before Me with an aggrieved heart for the cleanness in you; yours and all the people's on earth, and this is how you are to say: We humble ourselves for us for the whole human kind, Lord, before You, to forgive us and them, as a Savior Who has come from the Father on the earth for man. Amen.

I have in the feast announced by the saints and by the fathers through the church the remembrance of the bishop Gregory, a pleasant vessel to God in his time and full of the Lord's greatness in him, for he loved the Lord on earth, and then he worked much for God, and his work has remained as exhortation for the church. The saints are full of longing for My coming, for they come with Me, when they come, as it is written for Me to come when I come, and the joy of confession is with them in heaven among saints, as it was on earth among people, and My saints speak from near Me in a spirit of the church, so that all may build up and all may comfort, as it is written in the Scriptures about the work of the church with all of its members, the whole church of Jesus Christ on earth, and which works from the earth and from the heaven grace and food of Holy Spirit over it. Amen.

– Oh, grace upon grace over it, over Your church with all its members, oh, Lord of Your saints in heaven and on earth! My joy has the day of today for it, like my confession, my first confession from heaven over Your church and through it on earth. My joy with You is great, Lord, in my day of memorial, a day established by the fathers in the time of the great fast for the remembrance of Your passions for us, Lord, for the sons of Your church, Good Shepherd and Savior. However, I had loved You even since I was a child, for I had felt You crying in my little heart, and I wanted to cry with You then all my life on earth for You are aggrieved after man. As fatherless as I was, I took You as my Father and I wanted to be Yours, against the teaching received from the earth from many teachers. However, I was filled by the longing after You, and this helped me to draw all my family, mother, brothers and sisters to You and to give You, and so it was, for all left this age and were seized by Your age even from here, the age that is to come, Lord, for happy and holy are those who leave this passing age and pass from body into soul; they pass into the love and into the living of the age that is to be for those who choose it on earth! I have dedicated all my family to you, and I also dedicated myself even more to You, and then, strengthened by Your grace, I started to worship the people and to make them come after You as I and those in my family after the flesh came. I worked into Your vineyard with the longing after the people, so that the people may come after You, Lord; they and their followers who hear Your teaching by Your confessors.

I thank you in heaven with humility that You have descended in Your manger of today on the earth and that You have become the way of my confession among the saints, and my joy in heaven is great and it is with great humility. Oh, the joy of humility is great, Lord, and do not know which is the true joy that gives forth fruit through it, and that is why many have passing joy, and they lose their joy on earth, but the joy of humility is eternal, Lord, and man has it for heaven and in heaven, as a reward of his love for God on earth.

Oh, love with power the joy of humility, you, sons of God's word now on earth on the hearth of the Romanian people! I am looking at you in amazement, sons. I am bowing and blessing you for the Lord's mercy and grace upon you, His people on the earth today, people of disciples with a teaching from heaven among them, a church whose head is the Lord, full of the glory of His word among you, the spirit of testimony, the spirit of the prophecy on the table of Christ's church on earth.

Oh, how the servants in the churches are supposed to love you when they do not even love God? I know this pain of the Lord from those on the earth who call themselves servants of churches. If they do not make any effort in a holy manner, crucifying their body for Christ, for the church, as the true shepherds of the flock are, in Christ's image and likeness; they are nothing more than those who defile the strong Christians, persecuting them and not embracing them for their strong life in faith, in humility and in sacrifice, as the Lord requires of the sons of His church with members, the work for which the priests and the bishops stood and stand against from on to another, and they do this for their high position, for their praised rank for them, and not for the Lord, Who humbled Himself for His flock, as its Savior.

You, who are anointed from heaven, you, Christ's today's people, keep yourself under His grace, for by the Lord's grace you are now the rock of the church which is to be, confessing church by Christ, by the spirit of the prophecy, which gives birth to God's sons. Peace to you! I am ordaining the blessing of a bishop upon you. The saints from heaven are confessing you today, people earned by God from among those who call themselves Christ's church[127], but they are not, and they lie instead, as it is written at the end of the Scriptures for the present time, in the end of the time. The time is coming when all will know among them of your little power and of the Lord's great grace upon you, and many will know that the Lord loved and loves you, and willing or not, many will humble themselves before this work with you, the word of God with you, people of Christ's grace. Peace to you from the saints in heaven! He Who is into your midst is great, and you are His body, His members, as it is written. Oh, strengthen you watch for a great and holy life and stay in the threshold for the Lord's coming to you, and wait for His great glory, wait for the day when He will appear from your midst as on the Mount Tabor at His disciples, to His great glory and to the shame of those who are unfaithful because of their lack of humility! Grace, grace upon you! The grace of the Lord with you, for the Lord is Your Master, your Shepherd and your Savior! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, peace to you, bishop seized by the grace of the love from above on earth and in heaven! You have confessed and blessed the people of My word of today on earth into the midst of the Romanian people. I have given you the day of the joy for your great humility on earth. My today's people is despised like Me on earth, but My saints are blessing it from heaven. Peace to you, saints of the heaven, who see from heaven the one blessed today on the earth, the one who blesses Me according to the truth, for the time is coming and it has already come for My true worshipper to worship Me in spirit and in truth, not in high temple adorned for the man's eye, for the man's seduction.

Peace to you, My people! Power for fast, and living prayer by the power of the love, oh, My people! Oh, pray with the prayers of the saints, sons! They humbled themselves much by their prayer for their cleansing from every evil inside and outside of them and they called the evil on its name, which wanted to comprise them inside and outside of them, and they gave themselves to Me by their prayers full of repentance and humility, and then by their teaching left over the church.

Grace and grace upon you, My people! Stay with your eyes into the book! Learn My book, the book of the Lamb of God Who washes away the men's sins! The student always learns. Pay great attention to your teaching, son! Be always, always a student, for who is not a student does no longer learn, but he rather goes and stays with the world.

Oh, stay within your spirit and body into My book, and this is how you are to earn your soul, in this way, My people, this is how you are to keep Mine, and to take from what is Mine and to have, you, the one who give. You should give in order to have, for freely you receive and freely you also should give, just as I have received from the Father and then I have given to you. This is how you are supposed to give, to give and to have; to have for you, the one who give, for the who has is the one who gives, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the holy cross

I am the Shepherd with the cross; I am the One Who let Myself be crucified between the two thieves two thousand years ago to comfort by My sufferance those who are crushed by sufferance, in such a way that God may also suffer with them after that. I became true God on earth, proceeded from the true God so that God might die on the cross for man, and I was the Shepherd for those who knew Me that I came from heaven on earth, and they knew Me with their little and pure heart and not with their mind, for woe to those whom their mind helps them, for they measure God by it and they measure Him according to their measure, and they always learn, and they prove themselves out that are not instructed, they prove that they are foreign to God and they share themselves likewise.

I have announced Myself with My descent and I have come into the book as word, because I have found My watchmen watching and opening for Me to come in. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, you are all crushed in your little heart, all aggrieved in your little soul, and you are only mourning and you bear the whole pain with a serene face, in such a way that those who are the people of My word, those who are comforted by My Spirit and by your spirit, may not suffer from it, for My Spirit dwells in you with all His gentleness, and there is great power in My kingdom from the man of gentleness, the spirit that cries, sons! Only the spirit of gentleness knows the mystery of the morning that is pleasant to God and to those who are good in their heart like God, and such a spirit in man does not know what the good mourning is, that which is useful and that which finds its rest in God, and God in it.

I am speaking in this day with the spirit of the comfort for those who love Me in fast and prayer, for Me and for them and for all those who bear them in their heart. I am coming down gently into the book to reach with My comfort the heart of those who are comforted with My coming as word now on earth. Oh, I long after comfort so much and I am so much deprived of it! Man thinks that I am rich and he does not give Me anything, and he waits only for Me to give him. However, I long very much after rest and comfort and I long in you, comfortless children, and you also long and we are a mountain of longing, and the longing does miracles because it keeps the man within it and it protects him for evil and it protects him from estrangement and carelessness, and the cross is the way of those with a cross, and its heaviness is a sweet burden, and I cry bitterly over the one who is foreign to the cross, over the one who runs away from the burden, and woe to the one who does not have a cross, the one free of pain on the earth, for where does that one like that go? Oh, that one does no longer come after Me but only if the reward of his life pushes him from behind to go there where he does not want to go and where he does no longer has its will.

Oh, My people, I feed you with My word. I carry you in My arms, but I also suffer from the lack of comfort for your life with Me in heaven and on earth and I cannot be comforted but only with those who are aggrieved and crushed by pains in their heart. However, you are protected from sufferance, but I have exhorted you to become power for those who suffer, so that they may be able to bear the cross of sufferance, son, My cross, which I carry with those who are under it and who do not grumble and do not seek to flee from under it, for the spirit of their gentleness makes them like Me and it makes them firm in the time of hardships, and the spirit of unbelief does not touch them with its sin and does not overcome them, since I prove Myself in them by the work with the power of the spirit of gentleness, the spirit that suffers for any pain on the earth in the man who has it in his nature, a nature born from above in him and not from below, a spirit without wickedness in the little heart of those who are faithful to Me, and their cross is sweet, no matter how much it might press them under their weight, but the love fulfills the entire holy endurance for them, and they are victorious by the cross, like their Shepherd, like Me, the Shepherd with the cross, the gentle Shepherd for those who are gentle, and even more for those who do not love and do not know what gentleness is.

Oh, sons, gentleness is the sweet work of God's nature in man and is that which makes man pray to Me for those who hate him, speaking to Me for them: "Father, they do not know what they are doing, and forgive them, forgive those who suffer because of their hatred!"

Oh, sons, gentleness does not choose the one to whom it is given, and it cannot stay together with the hatred in man, for it would not be able to share itself otherwise. It does not stay with those who love themselves, and it gets dry in those who change their creed, for woe to the poor in My Spirit, sons! I love the cross so that I may stir up in the people the spirit of gentleness, a sweet tongue in man, inside and outside of him, a speaking with a heavenly sigh in it, inside the man who has this spirit, and no one without a cross can work with this spirit, the spirit after which the Lord sighs in order to see the man that he wants to be carried by him, to see that the man is gentle.

Oh, My people, if the angels and the saints and the Lord keep looking at you on and on, then let them not see something that is not pleasant in your being, in your deed, in your conduct and in your nature, something that may not mean the fulfillment of the commandments of life. The sweet spirit after God can help you to be a beautiful doer for the sight of those who always look at you from heaven, for your cross becomes sweet for you when you know that the Lord looks at you for your likeness after Him, while you are carrying the cross, son.

Oh, the stewardship of the mystery of the cross, carried with love, is great! Many suffer from their committed so that they may be cleansed by them by the sufferance that washes the man away from his sins, and, again, still many other suffer for endurance and within endurance, and the endurance becomes love and it can work in sufferance for many of those who do not suffer or cannot suffer without self-denial, and I say again: the stewardship of the mystery of the cross carried with patience and love is great. Amen.

Oh, sons, speak with Me in prayer so that I may give you love and power for fast and for prayer near fast, so that we may destroy the work of the devil on earth and from man. The power of the fast is love, mercy and gentleness for those without power of love, sons, only for you to love holiness perfectly, God's nature in you, well sons, the work which does not come to an end, and I will comfort you, for I am the good Shepherd, Who knows His sheep. Amen.

I have spoken with you about the spirit of gentleness, sons. All of them need it, those, who come after Me with self-denial, taking their cross and following Me then and not letting themselves lied by those who do not have the spirit of gentleness, for woe to those who let themselves be lied and won in this way back on to the evil way, from which they left once to take My way only for them, the road with stones, which wakes the man up so that he may not fall asleep on the way and which does not lie to the man, for if it wanted to lie, it would hide its stones, but not that way, for My road is a way with awakening on it, and blessed are those who do not let themselves be lied in order to forsake My way after that, for today, the lie is not as big as the lie two thousand years ago, which was paid for man to spread it, as though I would have not been resurrected and that My disciples would have stolen Me from the grave. The lie today is big and without margins, without shame, and is full of hatred by the unbelief that comes because of hatred, in such a way that the man may fall from heaven, if it might also be possible in this way, and only those who have in them the spirit of gentleness, only those get away from the lie that cries in the streets calling itself wisdom and wanted to be believed so, but it is the man's pride, a spirit that exhorts the man to unbelief. Oh, and if the unbelief would give something better to man, then I would understand the one who wanders away, poor of him, but it gives him only insecurity, only fears, only unexpected blows and then it gives only shame to man, because he has despised the faith and he has despised those who believe in God to the end.

Oh, My people, you should strengthen your cross with your faith, son. You should sweeten your life always with the spirit of gentleness, so that you may have a warm and clean heart for those in it. Let your love of God be your cross, and it will be easy by its dough, because I said that My yoke is easy. Amen.

I have spoken with comfort, because it is a feast for the cross, and I have given you the power of love for it. Make room near you for the angels and the saints and get warmed with them and near them, and also warm them up near you and stay under the cross, sons! As many time as you go wrong, cleanse yourselves from the guilt, for this is the work of the saints, and those who are saints have favor with God within their prayers for them and for many through them. The work of the sinners is their lack of cleanness from their guilt, and their prayer does not have another way when it wants to ask from God, for those who do not love God, do not have Him as their help in the time of hardship, because they do not cleanse themselves from their guilt, because they do not hate their wandering away, but they take it as their way.

Peace to you, My people, on the entire way with the lack of will until the feast of My Resurrection, son! However, you should not eat other kind of food but only the food that is meant for fasting and after that My feast of victory against death will pass, because you have turned your face to the garden of the paradise and you have learned from it and from My mouth, and you get sweetened with the voice of My teaching upon you more than those that seem to be sweet on earth for food, and My grace is enough for you. Amen.

Oh, do not forget, I, the Lord, get perfected in your little power, and you should not fear anything, and you should not worry. My grace is sufficient for you, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The fourth Sunday of the Lent, of the Saint John of the Ladder

My longing after man makes Me come down on earth as the word of the man's creation, the word of My making in man, for God's dwelling place is in man on earth and it stands face to face with man, through the faithful man to God among people, and the man's unbelief does not have any power to cut My steps on the earth, because I appear as a great Master and I can work everywhere and I can do everything that stands into My way, and I can work as God. Amen.

I am announcing Myself at the gates so that I may enter as word into the book. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and through the cross, I have become the man's Savior from death, only for the man to be able to believe within his heart that I came on earth two thousand years ago to do the work of the man's salvation, and the man has to bow before this truth and to understand it, by its preaching to every man by My disciples from one to another, since then and up to this day.

I am the Lord, the Savior and the Teacher, as the Pharisees were calling Me; the Pharisees who kept coming there where I was teaching the multitudes that were gathering near Me for the word of life, My word of life giving, and they were questioning Me for the spirit of the teaching, and they were double-minded, and this is how I was also working with them because of their inquisitiveness against Me, and I was protecting them from answering, from the sin that they had been preparing to commit in finding Me fault after the law to give Me over to death according to their law, and when I let Myself be caught, because their hour had come, this is what they said: «We have a law, and by our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God». (John: 19/7) And having heard this saying, Pilate the procurator, wrote to Me over My crucified head, the name of the king of the Jewish people, ready, ready to be blamed as one who stood against Caesar, but it was not possible to retreat this anymore, and then he said: «What I have written, I have written». (John: 19/22) And he wrote on the tablet of the cross My name on the cross: Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews, (J.N.K.J.), and then I became the true victor over them and over death, for I had borrowed for three days the kingdom of the dead and I went to them on the way of the cross, on the way of sufferance and of death and they opened to Me as to the King of the creature, as to the One Who had the keys of the deep, and thus I took out from sufferance and from waiting the souls of those who were holy and righteous in their faith and I sent them as confessors on earth in Jerusalem[128], and then I removed from Me the power of death and I trampled it under My foot and I got up to resurrection, and this three-day work was great when I overcome death with death, and on the third day I finished it, for I had died for three days and then I was resurrected, and I am alive forever and ever, as it was written in My confession by My disciple John, to whom I showed that I would come again and I would speak again to the nations, languages, tribes and to many kings, and that I would do the work of My Father, Who has sent Me to do it, and the man has not been able to stop Me from doing it, for it is written to be. Amen.

I am spreading the Gospel of today to the Romanian people, and I come with it before the nations on earth and I do not keep it in secret, for the seal of God is upon it, and I seal with it those who suffer and mourn because of those that are defiled on earth and that are not known after their appearance, the appearance of the lie by which the people are deceived by those who rule the mystery of the lawlessness over the whole world.

[128] «The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised and came out of the tombs after His resurrection. (They entered into the holy city and appeared to many).» (Mat: 27/52, 53)

I let everyone know that the Bridegroom is coming, and He has prepared His bride and is coming, for the spirit of the bride is My Spirit, and the Spirit and the bride say: Come, Lord!

I let you know, and I have always let you know, Romanian people, that you are the land with a treasure in it, because I prepared My bride from you, and I have been preparing her and keeping watch over her for My coming on your hearth as word of the Holy Spirit, and I have a table of word and wedding[129] in you, and you are so foreign to My wedding into your midst! Oh, you do not want to know, you do not want to learn and to really rejoice. Your little paths have been blocked by those who dare to block My way to the people, but I have a mysterious way and I give Myself mysteriously to those who find and seek Me, and the mystery of My wedding is shared, and the unfaithful man cannot stand against God, because My coming has become a heard voice on earth, and it speaks gently to the man to revive the stubborn spirit and that he may long after God then, and he who is written for God, that one comes after Me; he comes and becomes My disciple, and then he becomes a confessing believer to the raising of many. Amen.

Long ago, I had once a son loving of God and I had been looking at him because of the fire in him of his love for Me, and I gave him the power to give himself to Me and then to share with My testimony to many, and the holy fathers of the time remembered him on the fourth Sunday of the Lent with the name of his spiritual work, steps of teaching upon My right and faithful church on earth, the steps of the virtue of the soul[130]. His confessing spirit becomes word over the church and it gives the recent news, My coming as word today on earth, accompanied by My saints, as the Holy Spirit spoke that it would be done. Amen.

– Oh Lord Jesus, bless my confession for You on my day of churchly memorial, and my spirit rejoices in Your coming of today and it confesses within Your coming! The teaching about the whole knowledge in my time was not able to comfort my soul, for I wanted to be for You a sacrifice of love, a sacrifice of faith and of holy work, for You and for the people of my time and for those after me, as from my early age I went up, on the holy mountain, and I was going on for holiness, renouncing the world with my life and with my name under the work of obedience, the work of those who are saved, and after three years, I went up even higher, into the heart of the holy mountain and I had been consumed by Your love for forty years, and I was eating the food that was not defiling my life of hermit and I had never satisfied my belly, and in this way, I kept far away from my heart the devil of pride, which wanted to make its dwelling place within me, but I was crying at that time with streams of tears and with careful watching, day and night, and I was going to rest only that the power of my mind might not go weak, and my prayer was through everything that I was and I did, and I took care by my watch of those who were the inhabitants of the holy mountain and I was preaching well to them my teaching for You and it remained as the exhortation for Your church, Lord. My burning after You had always kept me consuming, for I wanted to bear and to understand Your life in me and to rejoice You with it inside of my body, which was housing my soul, my little part from You for my life on earth.

I tell those that follow You among people that great love of God is needed in those who go on Your ways in order to be counted. I tell them that the man does very little for his life and for

[130] The Ladder of Divine Ascent

You in him, and that man should work much more for those that will be, for tomorrow, Lord. I tell those who believe in You that the gift of the faith has to be adorned with great works, with great virtues, with great spiritual living, for the Spirit is the One Who gives life, and I also tell them that Your coming is as sure as the dawn and that today is Your voice on earth, and the opening of the hearts for this gift from Your upon people is needed, and then a great work for Your coming and for Your confession is needed as well, in such a way that You, Lord, may speak to whatever great number may be possible in the day of Your greatness: "You are My witnesses!" Amen.

I thank You in my humble spirit that You have given me the happiness to confess You from heaven to the people on earth! My spirit has been greatly comforted as my reward for the flame of the fire of Your love during the time of my early youth and until my arriving in the homeland from above, of Your saints. My Spirit has been comforted, oh, Lord, and let my comfort from today remain written before You! Amen.

– Oh, Michael, write down the one who was a seraphim of fire before Me on earth, and let him remain in the spirit of the comfort of today of his spirit. Amen.

And to you, Romanian people, I wish you wisdom from above, so that you may not depart from Me by your wisdom, as the one that his mind helps him to become proud by it, and one like that cannot remain within Me. Oh, only if you would heard My voice that says: "Do not harden your hearts, as in the provocation like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, where Israel tested Me by proving Me, and I hated this nation for forty years because they did not want to know My ways, and they always erred in their heart, and they did not enter My rest because they made Me angry." (See Hebrews: 3/8-11)

Oh, wake up your ear, Romanian nation! I have planted in you the mystery of the heavenly homeland on earth. Do not harden your hearing and heart at My voice like the unfaithful Israel, which up to this day has remained like that, and I hated and I rejected it and I have chosen you as My people and then I sent you a baptizer, (The Apostle Andrew, the first one called, r.n.), to be the firstborn people before Me, and I remember you, I speak My word of today upon you, and I urge you to fasting and praying, for the devils of today have great power in the people and the people listen to them and I want to tell the people to wake up and listen to God, for I am the Savior of the man, and the devil will be bound forever and will be thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, and his angels will be thrown with him as well. Amen.

I give you the resurrection from your ignorance, oh, Romanian people. I feed you with My Spirit. Oh, receive your calling to Me and take Me as your Savior, and really take Me, for I want to glorify you with My glory before the nations on the earth, oh, country of brightness, because of My gift into your midst, which shines in heaven and on earth! Oh, take of My mouth, take from My hand the gift for you and seek with My spring into your midst, for I have become a river of eternal life in you on behalf of the Father Sabaoth!

Grace, grace upon you, My country of today, My house of coming now, in the end of the time, and become a virgin and wait for Me in the threshold, for I do not lie to you, and behold, I give you My coming. I give you so that you may have Me and so that I may have you too, but you should become love for Me, because I am your Savior. I am Who I am, oh, My today's country of brightness! Amen, amen, amen.

The sixth Sunday of the Lent, of the Palm Sunday, the Feast of the Lord's entrance into Jerusalem

I am making My entrance and I am coming into the book of My feast on earth in the spirit of the church, the feast prophesied by the prophets to be on earth two thousand years ago, the Palm Sunday, the sixth from those of the Lent for the meeting of the feast of My resurrection from among the dead. It was not possible that this day might not be great, the day in the time of My body into the midst of Israel, for the prophets spoke ahead of time for those at that time: «Don't be afraid daughter of Zion. Behold your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt». (John: 12/15) Therefore, I prepared this day of feast because I went into Bethany one day before and I raised Lazarus from the dead, after four days of his death, and the whole Judea and Jerusalem heard of Me and of Lazarus, who was resurrected, and the Pharisees and the scribes were afraid.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who come as word on earth. Peace to you, My people with which I am speaking! I am also coming to you from the Father just as I came down into Jerusalem two thousand years ago to do in its midst the work of the Father Who had sent Me. I am also coming down to you now, and I am fulfilling My coming of today, prophesied by the prophets to be, and the Pharisees and the scribes in your time with Me are afraid, just as those of that time were afraid; and they are afraid that the crowds may not follow you because of Me, Who am the word into your midst; however, always and everywhere, they stand watch in each and every way, lest someone may hear and believe My path with you among people and to take from Me through you and thus to lose their glory, honor and worship from those who are won by them for them, not for Me, because those who are on My behalf are those with self-denial, who do not receive the glory from the people and neither do they give glory to the people.

Oh, the Pharisees and the scribes were always following Me in fear lest the crows might like Me and follow Me; however, with Me it happened everything that it was written to be fulfilled through Me on earth then, and I was the King of the creature, and this is how a king is from God on earth, and this is not earthly or humanly upon people, but it is rather ordained from God, and God is the mysterious One by His works, and He is not like man, and once with the people's things, He also works His things, and He has got them by working them out, and everything God has done, is eternal, just as I am eternal, for I am the King of the Zion, as the prophets prophesied about Me to be, and I am that what they call Me to be and they name Me to be, and everything, everything happens in this way as it is written that they may be worked, and I work them mysteriously, for I am God, and I do not work My things with the people and for the people as people do, but I rather work them as in heaven on earth, and the people forsake Me after they follow Me for My mysteries among people, for they want to see My fulfillments as on earth, as theirs, with a glory like theirs, but it is not possible, for My glory is great because it is mysterious, and everything that is mysterious is great, and everything that is great is mysterious, My people, because the man is not worthy of them and cannot bear them either. Oh, only one who has no love for God, only that one cannot believe in My mysteries among people, and even if that one believes up to a certain time, he withers away and then he gets dry, for he, who brings forth fruit from his self and only for himself, does not remain in the vine. Oh, very hard, the man can hardly understand God! I have worked everything only for the man's salvation, those fulfilled through Me, for I have had to prove Myself first that I am the One announced by the prophets, the Son of God, but because My glory and My fulfillments are not like those of the people, the man leaves Me if he sees that I do not sit down on earth as he hopes as a man. When the man tries to follow Me, he must think first at the forgiveness of his sins lest they may come back to him, and then he must also think at his death that comes from sin, and only after that at God's visible glory with him among people. However, he turns around, poor of him, when he wants to follow Me or to serve Me at My mysterious fulfillments among people and for people, as for two thousand years the man has been following Me and then he has been leaving Me for his self, for whoever does not follow Me as I told him, that is with his self-denial, such a man leaves then My way for himself, for his whole mind turns him round and round, and behold, the man does not follow Me up to the cross, and even if he might reach there, at least to reach there, he would leave Me, because man loves himself, and he who loves himself is fearful and does not go to the end on My way with thorns, a way praised by its sacrifice on it.

The crowd gathered at the feast in Jerusalem sang "Hosanna!" to Me, for they testified to each other that I raised Lazarus from the dead, and the Pharisees and the scribes were afraid and they said among themselves: «See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after Him». (John: 12/19) And they took counsel together to kill Lazarus too, and not only Me, for many of the Jews believed in Me because of this miracle in Bethany. The fear followed them more and more, and I lifted up My voice and said: «The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified… If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am, there will My servant also be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. Now My soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, for this cause I came in world. Father, glorify Your name!» Then a voice came out of the sky, saying: «I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again». The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said: «An angel has spoken to him». And I answered them: «This voice hasn't come for My sake, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. And if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself». And in this way I told them that My hour had come near and still speaking to them, I told them: «While you have light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light». (See John: 12/23-36) And having said that, I hid from the people.

I look with mourning at that they, at is noise, at the multitude gathered for the feast in Jerusalem and I see great people, who had power in mind and heart to believe in Me, but their craving after their glory stopped them from becoming My confessors, lest they might be put out of the synagogues, and behold what has victory on earth! The man and his position have victory, and the man turns round and cannot do more, he cannot work only and only for God, and I do no longer have any clean confessors in their testimony, and I have said by My word of today, that he who leaves Me and leaves the work of My word of today, that one sells Me, and he who left has already sold Me. He has sold Me because he left, and he does not know and does not believe his deed. Oh, it is easier for him to sell than to confess, and it is easier for the one who leaves and does no longer stay under the cross of My coming of today, after he has come and knocked to get in, for I do not cast out anyone who comes. Oh, this is how I also found the man two thousand years ago, and this is how it will be to the very end between Me and man. My memories between man and Me are painful in heaven, for man leaves Me for his self, and after he does this, he denigrates My people who remain under My heavy cross, and this is how the one, who leaves Me after he has come near to Me for a while, covers himself with his self justice.

Oh, woe to the one who judges My hard work according to his mind, according to his feeling, according to his human view, stumbling against Me because of My hard work for the salvation of man! The crowds called out for Me "Hosanna!" on that day two thousand years ago, but it did not take long, only several days in one week, and then I heard a great crowd calling out against Me before Pilate: "Take Him and crucify Him!" Oh, behold what man is! Oh, I cannot trust man to be on My side beyond the cross. Man causes Me great sufferance and he leaves Me for himself. For him, he is more than Me, he and his position in the world, and I remain the last One if something still remains from Me in man, from everything that he learns from Me.

I suffer from the painful past; I have suffered from My days with the man by this time, and I am still suffering from this day of today, and I am always today within My pain from man, in My labor for his salvation, to which he does not want to help as this hardships calls for it. Oh, I cannot work as man expects Me to work. As he expects Me to work, he will like to have faith without any bruise for it, but the man is so weak in his faith, so small for it, so feeble for those that are high and big, which come into the sight only by faith without blemish, but how am I supposed to show this to man? Oh, only to those who are faithful to Me, can I show My things that are mysteriously worked and which are seen with the eye of the faith and of the steadfastness for it.

Oh, what shall I do with you, man, what shall I do to you if you are so weak in your faith and so strong in your self-love, in your self-desire, which does not bring anything but shame to you? Oh, you do not understand with your mind what glory is, the true and great glory, for you always imagine it as the passing glory. You call out for Me either «Hosanna!» and «Take Him, take Him and crucify Him!» And you cannot do something else, and the man in paradise, who did according to his own will and then he hid from Me and longed after himself, that one is he who lives in you, man coming out of the first man built by My hand out of dust and made a living soul by the breath of My mouth breathed upon him and in him!

Oh, it does not matter if this is how man treats Me. I remain faithful in My word upon him, and this is how I will also work, as I spoke and speak. I am the One Who longs after the man's salvation, but if he does not work it for him, then I am clean towards him, with respect to his guilt upon him. He who judges My work and My hard walking with it, that one judges Me and My heavy burden, and he will see that what I speak to him is true. My book of today is in My hand and My Father's and We will work according to it both for those who are faithful and for those who are not faithful upon My word of today, for those who repent before Me and for those who justify themselves for the time of My hard working of today.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who have remained with Me in My hardships and yours with your heart full of humility, repentance and faith! I ordain a reward for you. Learn, day by day, more and more, to live more and more beautifully under the cross and on the cross, as any moment may ask for this, for we also have to carry the cross of My coming and we have to lie on it, to resemble each other in love and in sacrifice, in faith and in filial endurance, well, well sons. Oh, peace to you, because My peace is healing, and you are in pains! Oh, those who judge you for themselves, do not know not to judge you anymore and not to give you to the judgment of theirs minds, weak in theirs faith, in theirs love and in theirs knowledge about Me with you, but I, the Lord, tell you gently: peace to you with Me, peace to you, sons! There is still a little while, one more week, and you will be singing, "Christ has risen!" and you will sing because you have to sing for the memorial of My victory by My resurrection from among the dead, after those who were unfaithful crucified Me, but the real song of the joy is another one, sons, in those who truly have Me, and it is that which brings Me comfort, not only to the man and that is all, for I remain the crucified One by the one who sings: "Christ has risen!" and for him I am no longer, because he lives within sin.

Oh, when you will be raised from sin, man, then you will teach Me how to sing for you as you want to sing for Me, "Christ has risen!" and I will sing with My angels, "The man has risen!" However, by that time, it is only you that sing, only you rejoice because of your joy, with the joy of the feast, and I still wait, I still sigh, I still am under crucifixion, until I will be victorious over your death too. I overcame death by My body, and it will be for you too, to take its bold out from you, because you are not fighting now. Oh, it is a shame to receive ready-made things. It is more beautiful to receive a reward, man, and the reward is for your work.

I have spoken My word upon you in a day of the feast of the Palm Sunday, man estranged from God with your life. Bring Me joy and bring Me resurrection for you, so that you may be able to comfort Me one way or another for My pain in you. Oh, only the spirit of gentleness, only it can work you, only it can build you again. Start with it, lost man, start again with your life, and let yourself be kneaded, for I am gentle after you, and I speak to you by this kind of spirit.

Blessed are those as gentle as God; blessed are those who are gentle for they love the light and they are comforted by it, and their heart does not know what the hardening is, and I come on earth as word and I want the man to receive from Me, and to receive to his profit the spirit of the gentleness, the spirit that can nurse and grow the one who is gentle in his heart, the one loving of God and of God's sons, sons as gentle as I am, for those who are gentle are from Me. Amen.

What is the spirit of gentleness, oh, gentle sons? I, the Lord, wait to speak with you and you with Me, and we will speak like that; we will speak gently, sons, and we will give so that the man may understand the dough of the gentle spirit and its comforting and full of power work for those who are gentle, because those who are gentle are from Me, and I have relied on them on My way towards man, with them, and with them I also sigh after man. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

The Spirit of the resurrection is My word over the earth, and I become again through it the feast of the resurrection over those gentle after Me, just as I am gentle after them.

Oh, I am embracing you within My word, within the spirit of the resurrection, people of My today's word! You are My work of today, which I have to work from the Father on earth now, and through you I am comprising the Romanian people within a spirit of the resurrection, for I long after it, and I have My torch on its hearth, and blessed are those who love the light, for they see My torch from far away and from near and they stay under its blessing and they have it as their comfort in their pains and joys in this time, and they look for it when the malevolent darkness strikes them to put them down, but they walk in the light and overcome with it the darkness hostile to Me and to them, and this is how those who are faithful overcome, those who long after Me, as I long after them too. Amen.

I, Myself, am blessing those who are faithful to My word of today and I am speaking over them the greeting of My resurrection: «Christ has risen!» Oh, I have gone through such a great pain, through such great sufferance because of the unbelief in Me of those who had put Me down by crucifixion on the cross; oh, I have gone through such great mourning until I had passed through death so that My resurrection from the dead could take place after that! I loved the way of the cross on earth, and I did not take another way. I came from the Father for the life under the cross with the people and I told the man that if he wanted to be with Me and like Me, he had to deny himself and no longer think at himself if he wanted to be with Me, as he could not love God otherwise; God, Who is the man's life, and the life is under the cross if it really is, because life cannot be but under the cross, and those who are under the cross are those who love like God on earth and then in heaven.

Christ has risen, My people! I become the spirit of resurrection into your midst and I give Myself to the life of those who do not love death. Those who love death do not know and will not know what resurrection is as long as they are dead to God and alive within the sin and far away from God on earth. Oh, man is far, far away from Me! My eternal life does not come into its heart and on his tongue; My face that comprises everything and which is understood from the creatures by those who open themselves to see God.

Oh, you are far away from Me, man, far away from My way! My way is the cross, but you give yourself to the deceiving life on earth and you give Me away from your life, and when the pain of your life seizes you under it, you also reach under the cross, no matter how much you may run away from the way with sufferance with it, from the life lived beautifully, after God's will, and which is revealed by resurrection, and the resurrection comes only after sufferance, and those who despise sufferance do not love the resurrection.

Oh, you are far away from Me, man without a way with thorns on it! You cannot find Me but only on the way with sufferance and pain if you want Me to be with you. When I meet you on your way with My way with sufferance, I come into your way with My way to know Me, for you cannot meet Me on another way, and if you do not know to see, to feel and to become gentle for Me and for you, then you lose the joy of the resurrection and you do not come to life, and you still remain further on your way with flowers and with passing joys, and you further get drunk with its feelings, which wither away once with you and by which you do not gather anything for you but only tears and remorse for your end. Oh, do you see why I come into your way with My way? I want to give you the joy of the resurrection, man! There is no greater joy than that after sufferance, and that is why there is resurrection either, but woe to the one who does not know to understand this way and to value My callings and to answer Me with thankfulness when I lift him up to be then and to remain for resurrection!

Oh, sons of men, if I, the Lord, come into your way with the lifting up from your sufferance and from your tears because of your departure from Me, oh, do understand sons, the spirit of the love from Me given to you, and for which you remain in debt to the One Who loves you so much and Who calls you to resurrection! The end of sufferance is the resurrection, and there is no other resurrection but by sufferance and after sufferance! Oh, it is not good to despise sufferance, to grieve about it, and to ask Me for your release from it, but it is rather good to wait with faithfulness and with patience for your resurrection, sons. Oh, if you love the Lord's Passover, then learn from the saints and from the fathers how to love and how to celebrate My resurrection! Be worthy by your wisdom, for the darkness on the earth eats the light in you so that you may no longer see, but I have come to give sight to those who do not see and to take their sight to those who say that they see, as there is great immorality on those that see, for they have nothing to see on earth but only death on it, and, again, great blessing is on those who are blind for those on earth, for they see those that are and that do not pass but remain as I remain, and they have no end.

Oh, learn from Me what life is, what resurrection is, sons of men! Do not be without wisdom for those from above with the people! Do not be ignorant of your resurrection! I have drawn many from the passing joys of the life that passes and ends here, and I have put them under the cross, either they have wanted or not, but I, the Lord, am the love for man and I want to prepare his resurrection by suffering, and I help him die to the life that passes and does not remain, and I help him to stay under the cross, under the life without death, without sin, as only the cross of the life can fulfill in man, and then the resurrection by the cross, as I have taught you to work, to love and to take after Me in sufferance and resurrection, for those that do not take after Me are not Mine on the earth, but they belong to the world, and they deserve to belong to it, for they love it for themselves, and I am for those who love the resurrection, as I loved it, by much, much sufferance, love and patience, and these have the resurrection as their reward. Amen.

In all sufferance and pains, only one, only one is on the side of the resurrection, and that is for My way, that which is for My name, and blessed are those who suffer in this way on the earth, suffering for Me for My way with them too, and they are and will be blessed, and the resurrection is their reward! He who comes after Me denying himself for the life under the cross, that one is he who comes to life and then he never dies, for the cross keeps him on it and under it, and the cross is resurrection, and there is no other cross but on My way with Me, and there is no paid sufferance but only on My way. Amen.

Oh, for two thousand years the man has not known to spend according to My pleasure the feast of My resurrection. Man does not deserve joy because he sins. You should learn, man. You do not know to spend to My joy and not yours the memorial of My resurrection. Oh, you need heavenly humility, not humanly, and you need love for your humility, and this is how you should know to spend the feast of My resurrection. Remember the sinners that were dragging after Me to give them healing and salvation from the cross of their lives, for they were following Me with faith and humility and they were crying and praying with humility that I might do good to them, as you should also have to do on My way, and I was doing good to them as they were asking Me with humility. Oh, here it is why you are not healed and why you do not receive when you ask! You do not ask with humility and with a promise for your way with Me then. Oh, you are not worthy, because you are a sinner, because sin prevails against you, and I cannot win to save you from sin if you do not want. Do not wonder why you do not receive healing when you ask it from Me, if you do not know to remain then in humility on the side of the resurrection. Oh, I was God from God when I came on earth among people, and I was praying with humility as the Son of the Father in all My hardships, and when it was about to die in order to be resurrected after three days, I was afraid of the hard hour and I prayed with humility to the Father: «Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from Me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what You desire». (Matt: 26/39) My humility was My prayer, and My prayer was My humility, and in this way I stood before the Father Sabaoth and I did not stand as I wanted but as He wanted, and I became the Teacher in all the things for you, man, and I have shown you how to be and how to do and how to stand before God, for you are a sinner and you need great, great humility to die to sin and then to come to life and be on My side afterwards, in order that I may help you from then on according to justice, and then My help to bring forth heavenly fruit for you. There are seven thousand years since the man has done the evil both openly and secretly, but his habit is to do evil secretly. Oh, he who loves himself hides because of the evil that he commits, and especially the one known to be on My way with the man does this. He who looks to commit evil out of the spirit of his self-love, breaking the commandments of life, that one hides from the One Who sees him and can stop him from doing the evil that he wants or can do, and when he finds an occasion, then he commits the evil in secret and he writes himself with it before God.

It is good for the man to stand under the watch, for he is weak, poor of him, and he always, always needs an angel. When he wants to come out from under the angel, from under the one who sees him, then he does evil. This is what Adam did, this is what Cain did, and this is what have done those who sought to do evil and to break the commandments of life, and then some of them have humbled themselves and other have not, and they have remained to do evil further. Behold, man needs resurrection and he needs a teacher for his resurrection. Oh, man, put someone upon you to see you and to stop you from doing evil, for you are weak and you need help not to do evil. I want to see that you love the light. Those who have done evil did not love the light, for they hid to commit evil, and the punishment for the evil has proved them out after that. Oh, do not heap up punishment for you, oh man. You are very much overconfident. You are without any watch upon you! Oh, come under the watch, come under the angels, sons, for woe to the one without any angel upon him, and woe to the weak-spirited one and who makes his little angel weak, the one I have put upon him! I was true God, and I stayed under the watch when I was to live on earth with the people, and I listened as a Son to His mother, and in the same way I listened to the heavenly Father, My Father, for all that I had to fulfill from Him on earth. This is what I also teach you the life, man who wants to see good days and without any deceit for them with you and without any punishment upon them. Oh, come to the joy of the punishment that comes from God; come, for here it is how I come, and I come with the spirit of the resurrection towards you and I wait for you to come, to be and then to say with much humility: «Christ has risen!» Furthermore, to My joy and not to yours, you should speak the word of the crucified Christ, and this is how you are My joy and not yours on your way with Me. Amen.

I have taught the man the joy of humility and by it the joy of the feast of My resurrection from among the dead, My people, and the angels want to work with you over those who do not have understanding on earth for their love of God. My disciples were aggrieved because of My passions and they did not even want to rejoice over My resurrection then. They remained aggrieved and they went on like that on the earth, preaching everywhere My passions for the resurrection of every man who was baptized with the power of soul for his resurrection, in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oh, My true confessors and worshippers are not those who rejoice, but are those who are humble and work much upon those who can become God's sons by the preaching of those who are faithful to Me and by the spirit of their testimony over many, and this is how those who rejoice over Me, this way, working much, getting very tired, as I told them: «My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you». (John: 14/27) And this word is big for those who love Me confessing Me to many for My joy! Oh, only the spirit of the gentleness, only that can make the man My confessor, and I will speak again with a spirit of resurrection and I will give of My Spirit to many, of My gentleness for man. I am the One Who was resurrected after three days from My placing on the cross, nailed by those who did not receive Me being sent from the Father to them, for if they did not know the Father, they did not know My either. Those who served as His priests, gave Me over to death on the cross, for they were afraid of Me lest they might lose their great position over the people, but I had nothing to take from them, for My kingdom was not from below, and they were afraid in vain, for I was from the Father and not from the earth, and I am now in the Father as I was before. Amen.

Christ has risen, My people! You shall sing with grief the greeting of My resurrection, son, for those who sing with joy, «Christ has risen!» are those who again and again thrust in My flesh the nails of their sins, and this is how they sing to the One Who died for man to stop him from sinning. However, you should sing with humility to My resurrection and hope in My love, son! Those who separated from you are those who separated from Me either and they do not know what they did, and thus they stay far away from you and wait to see what it will happen to Me and to you further, but those who have separated from Me and you do no longer see God, but they see like them, and they see as they have wanted to see, and I remain with you and I see as God sees and I rely on those that see, and I can do whatever I have to do; I can do by their faith and by their steadfastness under My cross from today, the cross of My second coming from the Father to the man for the salvation of many. Amen.

Christ has risen! I give you holy strength on a day of the feast of My resurrection, sons. Oh, do not be aggrieved in your pains! They do not bring resurrection. They keep you in Me, and Me in you, sons. Amen.

Oh, "Chris has risen!" I also tell those who do not love you, and we wish them love, for this is how those who love God are, and this is how they work over those without love from heaven in them. I give them My peace, too, if they still are able to know Me by this word. Amen, amen, amen.

22-03/04-04-2010.

The feast of the Annunciation

My word becomes feast into the midst of My people and teaches it My way with it and the way for those who come near to the mountain of My teaching to take advice from My mouth for the strengthening of their faith, for the clarifying of all the mysteries, for there is no longer any clean teaching in the mouth of anyone on the earth for those who seek after My way, because those who sit under the name of the teachers of the people do something else than what they are supposed to do, and if they are supposed to teach the man My way, they would only teach him according to his mind, according to his need, not after My will, for those who sit under the name of teachers do not do My will, but they do their will instead.

I sit down before you with a table of word, with a feast of Annunciation, My people. Oh, take, take with great care My teaching from My table with you and give it to those who seek with you after Me, for people lack teaching and do no longer understand My way to them, their way to Me. People need God on earth. They always seek, always, and do not realize, poor of them, what their need is. Oh, they do not have God, even if I am not absent from near them. People do not have power to find Me and to know Me. The mist has fallen between man and Me in the day when the man hid from God for his will without God in it. The man has always looked for Me. He has been looking for Me, even if he does not now this. However, his search is far from finding something, for only God is He Who is, and everything that is, is in God, and not in this world, not where man keeps seeking. Oh, how is the man supposed to find when he keeps looking and he does not know what he looks for when he looks for something? I come down on earth to make clear to the man for his search.

Oh, you do not know what you look for, man, but I know what I look for. I seek to reveal Myself to you to calm down within your search and to understand that you will find nothing if there is no one to make you understand God and to know Him and to have Him afterwards.

It is a holy feast, My people and I am speaking with you, and I am speaking with the man, sons. I revealed Myself by the angel two thousand years ago to the Virgin who was to take Me in her womb from the Holy Spirit and to give Me birth on earth and to make Me known to the people, and My messenger went into Galilee, to Nazareth, and wished joy to the Virgin, My mother, and he told her that the Lord was with her, filling her with grace and gift and blessing her among women, and he comforted her in her trouble because of his appearance and he told her: «Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a Son, and will call His name 'Jesus'. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father, David, and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever». (Luke: 1/30-32) And the Virgin submitted to his annunciation by the angel and God fulfilled then His work as He had promised. Oh, this is how the gift of the faith works in those ordained by God to be faithful to the end, over the whole fulfillment; however, not so is with those who stagger in their faith for the mysteries from above with the people on earth. The man has to stand in awe and in fear near God, for otherwise, the devil, My adversary, draws the man away from near Me, as he drew Adam, the man built by My hand, the one who did not keep his faith and faithfulness towards his Maker, God.

I have become a feast of annunciation on earth by the word of My teaching over the man. However, man does not have faith in My messengers as My mother Virgin had, when My messenger brought her the revealing of My mystery with her. Oh, what shall I do to you man, if you do not have faith? It is not possible for you to have, since you look and keep looking and you do not know what you have been looking for, and you lack your faith instead, man. Oh, you will not be able to do anything without faith. It is only by that that you can work, but who is to breathe upon you this great gift if you do not receive My messengers to you, and then to show submission for My exhortation and appreciation for My messengers, as My apostle said to the church: «Know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, and respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. We exhort you brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another before the world, which sees over those that are in the Jesus Christ's church, and in everything give thanks before the Lord, for the Holy Spirit has to burn, lest the work of the prophecy may be ignored, the work of the church for those that are good in respect with any aspect of evil». (See 1 Thess. 5/12-22)

I am reminding every soul and body of the prophetic word, which says: «Woe to the city where there is no prophetic word in it, exhortation word upon it, for it will fall down, and again, woe to the city that has many rulers upon it, for it has the same end!» (See also Prov. 28/2 and 29:18) The word of the annunciation is absent all over the earth, and I do not know how to deal with the man so that he may find Me in this spring of word and that he may seek after My exhortation and not play with My descent as word after him, for woe to those who despise prophecies, woe to those who blow to quench My Spirit, Who works on earth by messengers, as I have worked all the time!

It is the feast of the Annunciation close to My feast of resurrection established in this year, and I am telling the man to understand that which he confesses when he says: "Christ has risen from the dead with trampling by death upon death and giving life to those in the graves!" Oh, if you say so, men who come together to sing like that, do you not think that this is a confession that has to seize you so that you may understand it? I trampled upon death by death and I went down into the dwelling of the dead to give them My life and My resurrection, and then I came back to life again before those on the earth, and the tombs were opened and the dead came out in Jerusalem[131] and preached My resurrection, and Annas and Caiaphas still did not want to believe, and all those, who gave money to the guards to lie that My body was stolen by the disciples, did not want to believe as well. The man sings, "Chris has risen!" He sings without knowing what he sings and why he sings. I woke up the dead from the tombs by My death on the cross. I condemned death in My own body and I proved that its bold was powerless, but wake up, man, for this confession and seek to see what you are to do with your life, with your mind, with your faith, with your steps! Oh, why, do you really live on earth? Ask yourself about this? What are you going to do after that? Ask yourself about this again! I am coming to you with much word of annunciation. I will ask you about it, for I have given it to you to have it at your disposal, and you reject My help. The priests, the bishops and the Pharisees cried out to Me with hostility and envy and they said: «He saved others. He can't save Himself!» (Mark: 15/31) However, I had to taste death for the salvation of the man, and they ridiculed the Scriptures about Me. Oh, this is how the priests and the scribes are doing today; they do not let the people seek after My voice, which calls out to God's will in them.

Oh, sons, who stay on My behalf before the people with the voice of My word, seek, seek to really perceive the mysteries on My way with you for those who come near to see or to choose this way, so that we may not also suffer from others what we had suffered from those who came to join us and then they cast out stones at Me and you so badly, sons. Oh, the health of love is needed in those that want to be born from above, to be born again by this word, for the love of God is other than that which those who come near wait for, so that they may be with My work, with My way with thorns on it, with a cross, sons, for woe to those who come and do not want to take after Me, under My way with the man. Oh, do you want to be loved, man? However, are you worthy of it, man? Why do you not ask yourself in this way, too? I know what you deserve, but you do not want to know. You deserve repentance and cleansing tears for My wounds coming from your sins, which do make God suffer, and you come to look for love, and you complain that you do not find it, but I am the righteous One and seek after man as he also seeks after Me. Oh, you need atonement from your sins and admonishment because of your disobedient way, not love which you have looked for, but love as only I know to give you. With Me, love works like God and not like man, for the man has to be cleansed from sin and from the reward of the sin, and with Me, love is that which makes the man heals, and not that which comforts his sickness. Oh, it is not your sufferance, but My sufferance in you that you have to bear, you who seek with My way. Those who still want to have their sufferance on My way with My people, those throw at Me for themselves, for they come and then they want Me to play up to them. Oh, I did not talk too much to the sick but I told them to get up and walk, not to stay sick to be a burden on earth, but where faith is supposed to be with propriety in it and in those that may want to be with My today's way of My word of today, when they want to come and let themselves heavy to be taken on the back of other people with all their deficiencies, with all their pretentions, not knowing with their mind the mystery of the love of God!

Oh, sons who give the good news on My behalf, learn in a heavenly way as you have to stay before those who come to see this work of Mine with you! Do not give your heart to them, but keep it only for Me, and rather give them exhortation for faith first, and only after that they are supposed to stand on their feet before Me, if they want to work for their life with Me. I had and I still have many pains on My way with you into the midst of My people with you, as I had to give work to some of them, as they wanted, for otherwise they would strike both Me and you for themselves, and it was so, and no one from among those who have despised you may not say, may not believe that they have building faith for them or for others in My work, if they despise you from one another, a devilish disease in those that work like that, never finishing with their discontentment and airs. Oh it is not because of any pretence that the one who comes to the spring should come closer to Me, but he should come for repentance and in his way he should remain on My way if he comes.

Oh, sons, hatred cannot put on the garment of love! It comes to the surface and it is well seen with its work. Oh, sons, love cannot be suppressed by those who hate. It comes out to the surface by its work. Be good! I am the One Who watches, the One Who weighs everything, having endurance on those who are good and faithful, who can do everything by faith without blemish, and those who reject My help through you, they will see. Amen.

However, you those who love to be pleased by your faith and clean sacrifice do not be without watch for temptations! Turn your ear away from those who calumniate despising by this those that they calumniate. Be pure in love and faithfulness, for calumny and moaning are the work of the devil, and these fall on those who receive them from those who are dissatisfied. Oh, it is the time for Me to watch and to tell you how to work, and you should keep away your life from the one who listen to Me only halfway, sons, for I stay at the helm and watch. Oh, this kind of sufferance was also in the time of the church by My apostles from the beginning. Many were trying to sneak and come under the care of the church and required love and care, and in this way they put obstacles into the hard way of God's sons, who could hardly walk, being oppressed from everywhere by the sons of the unbelief; however, I had taken care of them through My angels, through the mysterious benefactors, who were receiving from Me for the gifts of the church.

And as for you, watchmen of My church of new Jerusalem, be worthy to watch and be worthy for the exhortation over those who receive it, and be patient with those who doubt and are discontent, for I watch and I take care both in time of peace and in time of war, and I do not leave you alone in hardships. The cross is My way. And the same is yours for we have to be the same, sons, and these are My disciples, and any disciple has to be like his Teacher before those who seek or do not seek God. Amen. I have taken you out of the world and out of the deceiving age, to take after Me, sons. This is how you are to exhort those that want to come closer to the mountain of My teaching for those who have grace and faith with grace, for My work with you does not have to be harmed; one does not have to bite of it by robbery, but it rather has to be holy for the time which comes for those who will be born wholly through it, and not only halfway, sons. You should spread My annunciation to those who have power to understand it and you should also be the protectors of My good and faithful people, oh sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the healing Spring

I open up the spring of My word with richness and I give from it to the healing of all those that are for the body and for the soul for those that know to make use of God on earth. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am God the Word and I have a riverbed of word between heaven and earth and I give the man to have and to use those that come from God for his resemblance with Me after that, for I come on the earth as word to give new making to the one who starts longing after God, the longing after My kingdom in him. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I am into your midst as word and feast of resurrection, word of days of resurrection for the memorial of My resurrection after My sufferance, and I say: 'Christ has risen!', and I say again: 'Peace to you sons,' as I said to My disciples when I revealed Myself to them resurrected and then I spent with them and made them My messengers over the earth to the people and I gave them of My power that the Father had given to Me to accomplish with it His works on earth, by convincing signs and miracles, from which to give forth among people the faith in One God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and then the salvation from God for those who are faithful, and My kingdom in them and among them, God's kingdom on earth! Amen.

The spring of the healings is My word upon you, as in this day, and I, the Lord, give you, to those gathered at the spring, teaching for the healing of your soul, of your spirit and of your body, for I do not have another work but only that to give My life to the man. Amen.

Oh, man should not have anyone on earth but God alone, and this is how I strengthen My disciples when I took them from their people and things and transplanted them to be Mine after that and I established them within Me. All that come after Me need displacing; they need new homeland, new birth, and then it has to be kept for Me in the one who believes in Me, and behold, I am speaking now to the healing of the little faith of those who want to follow Me, and I am telling them what I spoke two thousand years ago: «Everyone who has not left for Me mother and father, brothers and sisters, wife and children, relatives and friends, ranks and possessions and have nothing but God, that one cannot be My disciple». (See Matt: 20/37; 19/29; Mark: 10/29) Oh, this is how I heal the man from all those that do not remain eternally then when he comes after Me or when I displace him into My kingdom for him, and he who does not do this, when he comes after Me, then that one denies God, because of his bond with the earth of which he has not known to come out for his new birth and to remain steadfast after that. I made a new birth for Abraham, and he also did to Me in him and we remained one for another, one in another for My kingdom, and I made in him the land of the promise and I rested within Abraham and in his faith without blemish. Oh, this is how I healed Abraham from his earthly origin and gave him a country according to My order, for he had given over to Me as a perfect disciple and I have raised from him God's line of his offspring on earth among the people, and only those are Abraham's sons and God's sons, only those of the promise, only those that promise themselves to Me and who are known to be by the works of the faith by God's progress with them on earth.

I am with My mother Virgin at the table of word with you, My people from the spring, and we have guests coming to the spring, for they believe My today's word. Oh, they come and keep coming and strengthen the faith of the one who has got faith in My word, for the birds of prey lie in wait always to peck at those that I have been sowed into the man's heart. Oh, if I did not stay with the vessels full of seed on your table, you would no longer be My people on earth, and you would belong to the world, for the world would open up its belly and swallow you, son, and it would give you of its spirit, of its lack of the fear of God first, and then it would give you of the poison of the loss of the soul, but if you stay near Me with your life, oh, then your life from Me has to be very much fed, and behold, I give you in this day the healing teaching and very much instructive for your steadfastness with God, for I see the enemies of the soul and faith how they lie in wait for the life of My people.

I mostly heal your faith and its fruit, for without it, the waters take you away from near Me and you perish, My people. I have exhorted you to seek and to love the work of the spirit for a brotherly fellowship and to keep yourself as Mine in your recesses, so that I may make you grow, son, and for a brotherly fellowship, one needs the longing after God in brothers and among brothers. Brothers have to stay together for work and only for the longing after God within a brotherly and confessing fellowship from one to another, for the brother's staying together does not warm Me up or keep Me with them if they did not give Me to each other by the love of the confession, by the word of faith and of by the love of God, by the spending with the saints and with the angels, for otherwise, the devil brings about faction among brothers and something else than the Spirit of Christ over all the gathered brothers, and My fruit among them grows less and less.

Oh, take heed, you those who stay as a cluster before Me from place to place for My kingdom with you! Feed each other with the gifts and the fruit of the faith in the name of the love of God, lest the good may be changed into evil, love in hatred, and the faith into unbelief, for it is the time with temptations against God's sons and against the faith building of God in man, sons. Be, therefore, strong, all of you within the gifts and the fruit of the holy faith and do not always be weak or without watching for those from heaven among brothers all the time, lest you may take after the men and not after the angels, sons, for a little yeast leavens the whole lump. I give Myself through you to the people without God on earth, and My teaching is to heal the man from the sin in him, to be able to stay within him with the glory of holiness, with the spending of the angels and of the saints full of longing for their fellowship with the people on earth. The spiritual work in man, this is what proves him as God's son, and the lack of it from his thinking and feeling, from his speaking and working, proves even the faithful one that is without God, but the longing after God is a spring of healings in man and then between man and man, and only he can keep the spirit of confession in man, God's Spirit, working in man and among men, and it puts away the weakness from man and it brings the heavenly delight inside of him, and then man with much longing after God in him is luminous and very much luminous.

Oh, sons, even for your own good and for the beautiful that you work, you need a counselor and a confessor before Me for you, let alone for the evil that tries to trap you for its wicked work by which he tempts the sons of God! Again and again, I urge you to fulfill My advice: cleanse your ear, sons! Have a clean ear and then keep it that way! Be open to each other with all those in you and among you, lest the fear for those hidden in you may seize you, sons, for the fear teaches you the hiding. Learn from one another to know the work of the devil when it sneaks among you to divest you and to spoil the work of love among you, the work of the holy watch, which unites you all in one work. Denigration among you brings about only faction and striking in the brotherly love. Go to one another only for the Spirit of Christ among you, for where My Spirit is, there also love is, there also forgiveness is, and it is good understanding and warmth in the hearts for one another in My name, and it is the heaven of the angels and of the saints with you, in a heavenly togetherness, sons, in days of work and in days of feasts and all My time with you on earth. Give Me to one another with the work without pride, and the devil will flee from you and will not come closer to you. Amen.

Oh, sons, you have to understand and know immediately and in all the time the devil's work and his conspiracies, when these start to appear and to make you stop near them and to despise each other after that to the devil's joy; however, on the contrary, in love give honor to each other for the mystery of the love within all the holiness of your nature and love, and you will live at peace and in an angelic work among you. Oh, do no longer read My word only once, but read it again and again, to be able to work upon you always, always, sons. Flee from anger and from provoking to anger, for anger keeps the man under its pressure until it makes him do the devil's will, but love does not do this. It cleanses the man from evil; it wakes him up, it comes into and touches his heart and it makes him beautiful and clean in it, and it is needed a counselor, who has the tool of healing in his hand for the wickedness in man and then for his healing.

Oh, the angry man is ugly; the inquisitive man is ugly, and the one who stirs up dissension has no wisdom at all; he rather is the devil's tool, and he who does not bring God in man cannot be a healer. Oh, take care of the love in you so that you may be able to be My disciples and not to be evil doers after that, sons. Judas was one of My disciples, but he had also worked his things, and with which he had to hide instead, as it was not the love among the disciples but the wickedness that fed him and the lust after merits, and these eat the man up in the spirit of his humility, that is God's Spirit. Then, Judas hid with his whole work without any counselor upon it, and he who hid in this way, behold, he sold Me on money. Oh, money is seen as useful for man, but little by little, it can take the man's mind away; it can separate the man from the love of God, from the fear of God, from his cleanness to God, and then the man hides for the guilt in him. Oh, no one gives money on Me to have Me, for man can only sell Me on money, but does he really believe what I tell him?

I have taught you, sons, not to handle money; oh, and how beautifully I have taught you! Those who have gathered in a cluster for My living with them did not listen to Me. I clothe the one who has got the administration upon My church with a special work, with special power, with special armor, in order to protect him, and for this I choose a man healthy of the love for God, firm in his whole self-denial and clean in his heart and deed, by loving the light in everything and fearing God in his entire work for My church. I have taught you to wash your hands from the money, and then to wash away in a heavenly way, that is in your mind and heart, and only then your hands, for the money is a tool of the devil and it releases its sting into the man's heart, sons, and it makes the man guilty. I am also teaching you now. If you do not have a word from Me for everything that you work for yourselves and for Me, you will not be able to remain in the work of obedience, sons, and disobedience pulls the man away from My kingdom. My teaching has sought to bring only good to you, only for My good with you and happy is the one that does not reject My teaching from him, and happy I am as well because someone like that. Amen.

I will gather on earth under My protection the realm of My kingdom and I will sanctify it and I will strengthen it for the holy ones, for those who are obedient and humble and full of the spirit of repentance before Me, for the man of lawlessness is everywhere on earth, who deprives every man from his powers and dresses him in disobedience and all kinds of weaknesses, for the antichrist reigns everywhere and tries to bring under his control even those who are My elected, who did not want and do not want to stay under My protection, in My folds, and in which I hardly enclose the man to be able to protect him from the evil things on earth.

Oh, God's name dies away everywhere on earth in such a way that the people may not know, may not speak about God and that they may no longer see His steps. When Caiaphas thought to lose Me and to be only him, to be only him the great bishop, for he was afraid of My greatness among people, after he understood that I was the Christ, and then many were falsely confessing about Me, however, their confessions were not going together to be able to find any guilt for My crucifixion. And the accusations and the accusers were increasing and even more, their confession was not the same, and then the bishop asked Me: «Have You no answer? What is this that these testify against You? Are You the Christ, the Son of the blessed One?» (See Matt: 26/62, 63) Then I helped him to do the work of My crucifixion and I answered: «I am. Nevertheless, I tell you, henceforth, you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky». (Matt: 26/64) And he, tearing his clothing in his foolishness to shed My blood, said then: «Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, you have heard His blasphemy. What do you think?» (Matt: 26/65, 66) And all condemned Me to death, but first they all spit Me in My face to cover My face with spittle and fists and they put some of their servants to slap Me badly; however, I was the Christ, the Son of the blessed One, and Caiaphas paid the price of My betrayal, but that does not mean that he bought Me, and behold, the one who pays the price of My betrayal does not gain anything, for it pays it to sell Me and not to buy Me, not to win Me over so that I may be his gain.

Oh, behold what anger does, which comes forth from the desire to be greater than man is or more righteous than the other! The anger in man is the reward of his mistakes, and it comes in him as a punishment for him, and only after that he sees where this evil spirit takes him, which contorts his face and deed, and then it puts God far away; however, I am gentle and humble in My heart even in the time when I become angry for the correction of the man's life who is stubborn in respect with his salvation.

Oh, it is good for the man not to have anyone else on earth but God alone, for if he has someone to make trouble to, then he does them, sons. Oh, be alert with a full awakening, lest you may become one with those who commit the sin of the separation from God, theirs or of those who have the same mind as they do, not knowing what they do when they commit this deed. Oh, seek that the brothers may not be guilty to each other, the fathers to the children or the children to their parents, and woe to those without any visitation upon them as some who are illegitimate and who follow their mind!

Oh, mother Virgin, spring of love and mercy, I become with you a spring of cleansing word over the sons of My people to protect them from falls, mother, for the devil of the anger and of the hatred goes on the prowl around the camps of the sons of God, mother.

– Oh, may the Lord, Jesus Christ rebuke you, devil of anger, faction and hatred; may the Lord rebuke you; the Son of the blessed One, my Son, born of My virgin body for God's victory upon you! Be good! Go into desolate places where there is no God! I am the mother of the Son of God and I heal the people of my Son, Jesus Christ, and I watch upon it with the entire holy heaven and I protect it from the spirit of the rebellion and hatred and I teach it love, holiness, patience, faithfulness, the cross and the victory by the cross, and as for you, be ashamed and go, go back to your place, for this people is the day of the Lord, the day which will take you at the place which you have earned by your lawlessness, and the Lord will release from your bondage all those that have believed in Him by this His word! Amen.

Oh, people of my Son, let there be only an angelic work among brothers. Be like the angels from heaven, not like the people on earth, sons! Get healed all the time from all that is not heavenly in you and among you and keep your garment, and renew it again and again for a wedding table, for only at this table will you find your healing, and only in obedience to the whole world of my Son, Jesus Christ! Strengthen your faith, humility and repentance! Walk in the light, and give power to each other for faith and for watch against the temptations, which blow! Be like the angels, and those who cannot do this, then let them stand on the left and work for themselves repentance and prayer and let them work for their wisdom from above, giving their wisdom from them, which does harm to them and wants to draw them away from God!

Oh, take care of them, my Son Jesus, for their way is hard; it is with temptations; it is with blows. Oh, do not let them alone in hardships. Amen.

– Oh, no, mother, no! I always, always become word upon them and I give them from heaven, mother. I am their Master from above, and each time I tell the storm: be silent! Be silent and blow wherever you want, but not here! Oh, this is how I protect My people from today, and I am the protector of the One from above, for I was resurrected as the victor upon man, and My Father has given Me all the power in heaven and on earth, and with it I protect My people of today, that which is good and faithful, and which remains with Me in everything, in all the hardships, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas

On the first day of the week, that after My resurrection, I am coming as word into My book of today and I am speaking to the people of My word, as I spoke to My disciples in a day like this two thousand years ago: «Peace to you!» Oh, peace to you, so that you may bear with everything that, without knowing and unexpectedly, presses on the peace of My descent of My coming down as word over the earth now, in the end of the time! Amen. I, the resurrected Lord, take care of your peace as I need it very much for My coming of today, for power in you in order to give power to My blessed people, to those who have understood their coming, their staying, the work of My word and their good faith and faithfulness for Me and for you, watching children on My behalf in the way of My word, and then upon My good and faithful people!

Oh, peace to you, to those who are My people from the spring! My spring of word waters from heaven My surroundings with you, here near the spring, and then it flows from place to place in the camps where I still have a faithful people that is fulfilling of new Jerusalem on earth, and then it flows in the great sea, into the world, sons, for I still have in the world many who keep their knees bowed, with their body, with their spirit and with their soul before My word, through which I, the Lord, come and fulfill the new birth of the world, of the creation from Me, and which all startles at the voice of My word of today and it is coming to its renewal, and then it is revealing itself in the glory of the mystery of the new heaven, the new earth and the new Jerusalem, as it is written in the Scriptures, an unfathomable mystery to those who are learned on earth, and who helplessly look at you and speak foolishly, and I do not expect from them any wisdom for My mysteries with them, for they are foreign to them and mysteries are not revealed to them, since they keep making their kingdom on earth, forgetting, poor of them, that it is written into the Scriptures about a new heaven and a new earth, at which they look as to a very far away realm, which is to be. However, I pass with the new age near the man's age and mysteriously I speak the word and mysteriously I renew the whole creation, when it is going to see as it is written in the Scriptures, and many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will get up and will receive this inheritance, as it is written, and they will confess to the acknowledgement of the Scriptures those about the new making of the world, the work which does not come to the fleeting man's mind, who wastes away his life in a passing way, as there is a great wonder for the man to live in God and not on the earth in the time of his life without scruples as it does no matter how much he may strive to do something for himself to have, because no one is able to do something for himself and to have but only God, Who remains forever, only that the man sees only those that pass away.

Man does not want to be a bearer of God. This is what My prophets wanted, My saints, My elected ones, born for this by My order kept in secret forever. The colt of the donkey wanted this and he was a bearer of God and carried Me to enter Jerusalem victoriously, and then like a Victor, to cleanse from emptiness the house of prayer of the Israel people, as it made it into a den of thieves. If only the man would be a bearer of God, the two-legged colt, but the man does not want to be the little donkey to bear the load of this Master God on his back as the colt of the donkey carried Me and thus fulfilling these Scriptures about Me and about it, spoken in the time of the great prophets of Messiah's prophecies, the Son of the Lord. Oh, it is rather the man who makes the Lord a donkey to bear his burdens, and he kicks against the one who may not want to carry him. Behold, the animal is wiser in its submission; it is loved more a donkey that carries the burdens of his master and never leaves his master, who even puts it into the yoke and under burden, and it rather listens, and when its master requires more work from it than it usually gives him by whipping it, then it strains itself and sacrifices itself even more, and not even under these circumstances does he leave his master or rebukes him, but it listens to him instead and serves him with faithfulness, for pride is far from him and from his obedient nature to his master.

These that I am speaking now are big words, and I am speaking them for those who are savage into the midst of My people under My burden, because there are also some who kick and make My burden ever heavier, carried by those who carry it, in such a way that I may take care of My people. Oh, how sorry you will be, you the impatient one, the immoral one, how sorry you will be on the day of the glory, on the day of the joy and sufferance! Now you are moving heaven and earth and want to be exultant for the sake of your will and not Mine, for otherwise you will be out of your mind because of what you have done to Me, but then you will see, and you will be deeply hurt. Now you are feeding on your unbelief with which you strike Me and you after that for such a long time you have confessed, at least by your dwelling into My folds, but then there will no longer be unbelief, and you will stand face to face with each other, you those who have shaken by your disobedience and wickedness the little boat of salvation (Those who denigrate this river of Word, r.n.) striking the cross of My victory, after the devil had pulled you out of My little boat. Oh, this is how those who crucified Me were rejoicing too, but woe, how much pain came upon them, upon their heavy conscience! Oh, I know what kind of your joy I speak about when I say so, for you rejoice those who are not faithful, who do not care for My name to come near to My glory and thus to get rid of their glory, which will be like the chaff blown by the wind, soon, soon, and behold, this is how the rebellious sons sell Me to the joy of those who are not faithful, who have not learned enough their living with God on the earth.

Oh, good, faithful and enduring sons for Me and for the forgiveness of your sins of old! Let us not get rid of guilt, sons, for if we do this, we will leave the guilt on our brothers for the guilt in us, but let us rather bear our guilt with repentance to its atonement, as the lack of wisdom for it catches under it those who are not satisfied on My way with you, the way with a cross, sons. Oh, how glorified I have always spoken into the midst of My people, but he who has not wanted to deny himself, he wanted to be great, as only those who want to be greater than the other ones, only they leave, if they do not receive the honor among brothers and over brothers, and this is the evil spirit of pride, the spirit of self opinion, which, like a sickle, cuts the way of those who are not wise for their living with God, for the proud man does not like to be a burden donkey, but he rather like it to be otherwise.

I told Thomas, to My wise disciple, the one who worked much for My confession: «Reach here your finger, and see My nailed hands, and reach here your hand, and put it into My side pierced by the spear, and don't be unbelieving, but believing». And then I said: «Blessed you are because you have seen Me and believed. But even more blessed are those who have not seen and have believed, before seeing what they thought ». (See John: 20/27-29)

I have stayed with those bearing of God before My people, and many of those who have been with this work of My word have denied Me and have not believed in Me by the work of My bearers, which I put in them for all the people of My today's time, fifty years and more of My word of today on earth. Oh, blessed are those who see God coming down on earth in My bearers and receive them on My behalf when I stand with them before My people and before the nations on earth, who hear My voice of today, but even more blessed are those who not see the place of My descent and My bearers and believe the Scriptures which are being fulfilled now on earth for My second coming from near the Father as word to man in order to give to the man the eternal Gospel, by which I teach the man his eternity, his redemption from sin and My kingdom with him on earth! Amen.

– Oh, my Lord and God, because I was Your loving disciple and I was very close to Your mysteries extremely deep for the mind of the common man, because I was the one who not only that I saw Your wounds in Your hand and side, but I even touched them, and because You gave me so much fellowship after You were resurrected, now I am confessing today the wounds and the little hearts, broken by pain, of Your bearers of today, and I see and am touching and comforting their pain and I am also confessing that it is great, but the pain has power in them for the great endurance. Oh, it is so hard for them, wounded Savior! They are submitted to all kinds of trials, to all the attacks that come from the weak ones and from those that love themselves, who are tempting, discontent and weak in their stature, as the man does not know to love from heaven, and he tries to love from himself, and their wounds are great and their little hearts are broken, as the apostle Paul says: «Who is weak and I am not weak? Who is made to fall into sin, and I burn not?» (2 Cor: 11/29) Oh, give them, resurrected Lord, give them the patience of Your saints and their whole healing, and give them the protection from the whole evil danger, which blows against their souls, against their spirits and against their bodies! Protect them from temptations, hold their hands and shake their sprinkled little garment, for the whole immorality of those who are rebellious and weak in their faith and its love they have it on their faces, and now they are repenting for all of them and for everything that is coming to put Your people to test and to put them together with it, for the true shepherd lays down his life at the feet of his sheep, and even for the restive ones he works like that, oh, Lord. Protect them and help them to bear without any murmur the guilt for all those who that cannot bear it and who tests them in every way possible to make them weak and then to overcome them. However, You are so much forgiving, and so they are, and they lift on their small shoulders the whole guilt that may come out upon them from the midst of Your people. And I also tell a word to Your people: "People nourished by God the Word, Whose wounds made on the cross I touched, you should know that on the first day after His resurrection, He came and told us: «Peace to you!» and then He sent us saying: «Go into the whole world and preach to everyone about Me!» (See also Matt: 28/18-20) You should also know, people nourished from heaven, that all those who strike them recklessly fill God's face with spittle and slaps, and behold whom you do not welcome when they are His messengers for the revival of His Spirit everywhere through the camps of His people! Oh, if not the entire people all over is sufficiently fulfilled for this faith towards the intercessors between God and them, at least, let those who stumble not hurry in their wickedness, and I wish you happiness at least like mine, the one who saw and believed, and to those who are wholly faithful, I wish them the great happiness of those whom, until they may see, stay seized with the gift of the faith that gives birth to a blessed people for the Lord, the One Who is coming now on the earth as word. Amen.

– Oh, peace to you, My disciple, who saw Me and believed! Your work was great afterwards, with which You set Me with My kingdom in the hearts of many on earth. Amen.

Now, I am comforting My fresh wounds, bore by those who bear Me with all My pain, for I have always had pains from those in doubt, who do not have power to perceive My work on earth for them and for many, by those who are bearers of God and who carry the burdens of their Master, and they bear Him, preaching from margins to margins the Gospel of the kingdom of God, an endless kingdom. Amen.

I am coming down with comfort within the little hearts, broken by pain, of those in whom I let My pain come down: My pain from those who have their pain and not Mine. I breathe over your wounds, aggrieved sons. Oh, the stubbornness of those who are discontent is great, and the devil uses it and brings about pains, but I tell to the storm: "Be silent!" And I also tell those who are rebellious: Oh, what shall I do to you, if you cannot do something better, something more building? I have mercy on you and I have so much mercy on those who are about to go weak through you too. Oh, only those who are discontent are rebel, but it is not nice to be discontent, the one who comes and gets up in My little boat because of the waves of the sea. I wish you resurrection, wisdom and propriety, because I do not work with rebellion and wickedness, but those who do not open to My messengers, to those whom I see that do not walk properly, then what shall I do more to those?

Now I am building much peace upon you, My people from the spring. Oh, let My entire people from everywhere understand and let him understand well the working language upon them, for the new building of the man submitted to the nature in man, for you, man woken up at My voice, you need a new creature, and I have come to give it to you, only that you should not rely on your mind, on your perception, which keeps you small, limited and weak in your faith and with its deed for your being from above.

Peace to you, My people, I give you on the first day of the week and I am waiting for the whole people of this word to get together and to speak to it about the power that comes from his honoring and sanctifying of the day of rest, the first day of the week, which I ordained to be, after My people Israel, with his life and faith, was not able to come into My rest, as Adam was not able to enter because of his disobedience either.

May the way and the protection on the way of those who start going to My spring of word be blessed so that I may give them of My new working Spirit in My gardens of today into the midst of the Romanian people! Oh, little angels of the paths of those who travel! Come to meet those that go to the spring, for you are God's servants and the servants of both the faithful and unfaithful people, according to how much they may put or not put you into the service of those after My will!

I am blessing ahead of time the day of the feast of the third Sunday after My resurrection, the day of My prudes, by a churchly order. I am embracing within a tender spirit the pure love of those who know well to give it to their Master, God. I will share Myself to them by My bearers, by those who carry My burdens on My way with the man. Amen.

I am giving you a good spirit in you and I also am giving you comfort in your labor for the preparation of My feast with My people that has been coming together to the spring for the healing of their being from above, oh, sons, who are going to prepare the feast. I am giving you angels, and you should keep them with you in all My works with you, and yours with Me, sons, and you will have progress in your entire work, as some good and faithful sons for My spoken word, as some who have among you and in you the work of the kingdom of the heavens and My throne of rest into your midst on earth, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

Oh, it is a great feast for those in heaven, and the saints are coming down here, into the midst of the people gathered at My spring of word. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, accompanied by the prudes of My resurrection and by My disciples, My witnesses, as I called them, and then I sent them to give light to the world with the glory of My word, with My Gospel over the whole creature, for I was put by Caiaphas into the grave, after Joseph of Arimathea received from Pilate My body crucified on the cross by the wickedness of the rulers of the people of Israel, and who stuck with stubbornness to their high seats over the people.

I am the Lord resurrected from crucifixion and I am alive forever and ever. I am embracing within the greeting of My resurrection all those that have gathered to the spring of My word for the feast of the prudes of My resurrection: Christ has risen! Oh, peace to you, for you have been waiting with the longing of your hearts and coming to the spring and to My people, which meets you into My name! Your faith in My coming as word on earth during these days offers you the forgiveness of your sins, for the one who believes in Me takes care after that to make his life clean, to come to life from his sin and to give himself to Me cleaned, and then as a witness of My love with which I come after man and take him out from his blood and give Myself to him as Comforter and Savior, as My work is from the Father.

I also told those who were stubborn and unfaithful then: "If you do not believe that I am, you will die in your sins." This is what I said because I came from the Father to cleanse from sin the one who believes in Me, I, the Father's messenger to the people on earth. Satan, My adversary, has been standing for seven thousand years against man and has drawn the man to him, for he got upset with Me and with man after he lost his beauty and his place near Me with his service; after he wanted to be the first over everything and even higher than God, Who made the world, the visible and invisible things, and His angels as His servants and man's between earth and heaven.

Oh, you those who take from My mouth the seed of My word, sown upon the earth and upon you, and put My word into the book to testify about Me, oh, we have to work with great power of word in this day, I and those coming from heaven with Me at the table of word and then you, for it is not to leave mist over those that, by the waves of the time, have found My little boat and have been following it, to My joy and to their salvation, as it is written into the Scriptures that many will research My book and the knowledge, the longing after God and the love from above will increase in them on earth, and then, by the fruit on the earth in them, many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth will come to life, some to eternal life and some to shame and eternal damnation, and the wise for God will shine as the vault of the sky shines, and they will be like the stars forever and ever; all those who will have taught many to walk in the way of righteousness, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, there is no pure love in people, there is not! Not even the love of God is pure in man. Every man has got the love of himself when he loves God; man harms man because of the spirit of pride, a spirit that keeps the man mysteriously within its spell and the lack of the love from above is great in man, because love means God, and this word means nothing else, and only the man deified by the Spirit of God has in him the love from above for those around him, for those on the earth.

Oh, only if the man would repent from everything that does not mean God in him, then he would receive the love from above, which needs a clean place, a clean heart in man. What makes a clean heart in man? It does not condemn anyone, it humbles for itself and for those around, being subjected to God, the Judge of everything that is and will be. It gives life, for God Himself dwells in it because of its humility with His Spirit of life giving, the spirit of the love from above.

Oh, bring your hearts together in My word, you, those gathered with longing and faith to My spring of word! I teach you the love from above by My Spirit, Who is the Father dwelling in His Son, Jesus Christ, for I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me. Oh, give yourselves to the wisdom from above in you to understand God the Word by it, and increase your knowledge, for only those that do not understand God, only those remain dead and do not seek after Him. However, you should be submitted to the teaching of My mouth, for the time is hard, it is with unbelief, and the devil, My adversary, spreads everywhere the spirit of discord, for its time is at its height, but its trap has also been made, because it works at it by everything it does, for the lawlessness cannot have other reward than the fire prepared for it. Oh, woe to those who call themselves servants of churches and who stand in the way to stop from their way those who find the river of My word of life giving and want to come to drink and thus to come to life, as God requires of those who believe in Him! Do not forget the Gospel of My mouth of two thousand years ago for the marking of those who believe in Me, for this is what I said: «These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover». (Mark: 16/17, 18) Oh, if the servants of the church had My Spirit in them, they would know that I am this word, by which the Father sends Me on earth. Oh, it is not because of unbelief, as it is felt by the heart that I am this word; however, another is the sin of those who become stubborn. The people of Israel gave Me to crucifixion because of its lust for greatness and honor over the people on earth, for pride makes the man blind, and those who hid Me from before the people held on to their honor, but they lost their life, for it is written: «Whoever desires to save his life will lose it», (Luke: 9/24), and behold, this is how they lose their share with Me; those who stand in the middle of the roads to prevent the poor in their spirit from coming after Me, and about these it is written: «He lies in wait in secret as a lion in his den:he lies in wait to ravish the poor, … then he says in his heart, "God has forgotten. He hides His face. He will never see it». (Ps: 10/8, 11)[132]

Oh, I am giving you of the spirit and of the love from the above of the prudes of My resurrection, for I, the Lord, breathed over them the spirit which I am breathing upon you today, and they confessed My resurrection and remained in My love, and those who remain in My love, if they ask something in My name from My Father, He gives them; the Father gives to those who give Me, for their faith is great, and the same is their fruit too. Amen.

– On the first day of the week, we, resurrected Lord, we came to You, for we looked and saw where they put You after You were taken down from the cross of Your crucifixion. While the sun was rising, we came to You early in the morning, and we were thinking on the way what to do with the stone rolled on the tomb, as it was very big. However, Your angel went ahead of us and moved the stone away, and we, coming in, saw him on the right side clothed in a white dress and we were frightened at his sight, and we did not know where to find Your body to embalm it for the resurrection, oh, Lord, but the angel told us: «Do not amazed, do not be aggrieved! Jesus, Who has been crucified, is not here. He has risen. Behold the place where they laid Him! But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you in Galilee. They will see Him, as He said to you». (Mark: 1/6, 7) We were thrilled, and we were afraid to tell something to someone, and then You appeared resurrected to us, and You stayed with Your disciples, and before Your ascent in the Father, You gave the proof of Your resurrection, and within our sight, within everybody's sight who saw You, You ascended then into the sky.

Then great enmity arose against Your resurrection, and the rulers of the people of Israel hid You again under the work of falsehood, blaming us, as if Your disciples stole You from the grave. The work of lie was big and much even after You were resurrected, as great as it was before You let Yourself into their hands in order to die for as, the very sinners, Lord. The devil taught Judas to believe that You did not love him, and in this way, Caiaphas and his people drew him on the side of Your adversaries, and Judas fell into the dizziness of the love of money, which he had in his blood, and he gave himself to those who wanted You and to those to whom he complained with the wound of his heart against You, Lord, and then he did not receive anything from them but only Your death and his. Oh, he who complaints in his discontentment receives nothing but his complaint and those to whom he gives himself to their perishing and his as well.

We breathe over Your people with the wisdom from above when we speak these into his midst, Lord, and we tell him to know that You are the Judge of everything and that those who get seats of judges do no good to themselves, and their ear gets wounded, like their heart, like their faith and like their life, for the devil is very skillful against those who are discontent and doubtful and You can no longer dwell in them, and they remain without faith after that, and You stay and wait for their repentance. Caiaphas is the man in whom all find themselves, that is those who serve in the churches for their rank and are not bowing their forehead before Your word of today which is calling the dead to their resurrection, and they tell lies to everyone who wants to come in order to receive the forgiveness of their sins. We are telling them that we did not stumble against Caiaphas, that we lived Your truth in our hearts, oh, Lord, and by the wisdom from above we remained in Your love.

[132] 10 In MT = 9 Continues in LXX

The heaven and the earth shake when they see the spirit of lies that comes to life seven times more against You in these days by the pride of the Jewish people, who has not ceased to persecute You in man, in the heart of the one who wants to feel You in him, Lord. Oh, what a mist of lie, what a mountain of fog he is trying to spread now on the earth against Your being as true God of true life, wounded Savior! Those who do not know what love is, either with their mind, or with their heart and with their life, those are punished to their lack of love, for the man's pride that stands against another man stirs up rivalry between man and man, and Your not being in man causes great pain on earth, in the one who does not know what he wants, poor of him. However, we have remained examples of faith in time and then love full of Holy Spirit in You for You and for those who are and will be Yours on earth and in heaven, for their heart in us was kneaded again by Your word of life giving and we have remained alive forever and ever, and this is how the faithful ones are and who know to keep and follow their faith and its fruit, from earth and up to heaven, oh, Lord Who are resurrected and confessed by us as resurrected.

Oh, do not be very much aggrieved, Christ's beloved ones, because of those who do not have eyes to see, ears to hear, mind to understand and a heart to feel God in you! Leave them alone! They are blind guides for themselves and for those like them inside and outside of your living with God on earth! You know the way. It is the love for God and its steadfastness. You know the way given to you by the Lord. Therefore, make disciples to the Lord, and let those, who are losers of souls and of the faith in the souls, get wisdom from above, if they want! However, keep a good watch so that there may not remain any poisonous roots, and clean well the hearts faithful to God the Word and strengthen them in the work of the clean hearts all the time, not only from now and then, for he who does not have a clean heart for you, he does not have any heart for God at all, and they get lost because of their brain disease, which divides them in many parts under satan's helm, who does his work through man.

However, you those who love God and the brothers with the love from above, do not be divided in your love, do not be divided in your heart! Love is God's mystery, and it dies away in you when you are divided for your love in you. Learn, learn to remain in His love! Ask for advice for this great stature in you, because the devil lay in ambush to blame you as those who are not steady or watchful for the steadfastness of the clean heart in you. We are among those in heaven a people of the Lord's saints, and the saints see inside of you and they see your invisible work of the mind and heart, and for which you have to work a beautiful and holy testimony before the Lord and before His saints, and for this you have to get used to stay only and only in the Lord, to do only and only His will among you, and let there not be any kind of spirit of judgment among you, for we, His saints, teach you the good things from heaven, for the receiving of your grace in Christ. Amen.

And as for You, victorious Lord by the cross and by Your resurrection, put angels to their mouth, to their hearts, to their mind, to their works, to keep them Yours until Your coming, great for us and for them, for they are our witnesses against those who so infamously throw against You and against us by the spirit of falsehood, the spirit of the devil, which judges by the mind of the proud mind, but we, the prudes of Your resurrection, are telling them Your word of two thousand years ago and we are speaking to them like this: «Do not judge so that you may not be judged, for man will be either saved or condemned by his own words». (See Matt: 12/37) Amen, amen, amen.

– We also are the people of those asleep within Your coming on this day of our memorial into the midst of Your people of today, oh, Lord, and we have responded to their calling and have come, and we are many, without number, according to the number of our people down to Adam.

Oh, open our graves and let us come out then, to come out completely and to stand before You with salvation for us, for You have come with the resurrection of the dead, Lord! Some of us are quiet and some other are aggrieved. Let Your mercy forgive us all, for You have praying servants on Your behalf for us before You here. We are sitting at our table of memorial and looking over Your people of today, Your hope and ours for the resurrection of everything, for the new birth of the world. Oh, if only the people on earth would have a share of Your spring of today's word before their meeting with You on the way from which we left the earth! You have come as word on earth so that the people may not die in their sins, but to be cleansed by faith and by Your grace from today by Your church of new Jerusalem on earth, springing of resurrection for those who are so far away from You with their life. Oh, let it teach them all, Lord, so that Your word of today may draw all to the Father! Amen, amen, amen.

– This is why, I, the Lord, have come down on earth, oh, suffering soul from the waiting and from pain. I, the Lord, am giving you great relief now. And I am also giving to those who pierced Me and nailed My body on the cross, and who see My glory of today in the word of the new creation. Those, who intercede before Me for you, are as merciful as I am, those remembered in this time on the altar of fire of the church of new Jerusalem, a prophecy fulfilled by Me on the heart of the Romanian people, but so little has the earthly man believed and understood it! I, the Lord, empower here by My word a merciful prayer. I am the One Who stay at the helm of this little people, for neither at that time had I got any room among those who were great, and neither have I got any now. Oh, let My saving will be upon you! Amen.

And as for you, My people fed on My word of today, take care, son, take care of My way to you as there is great wickedness against it, and this fight is great, but you should eat very much of My food from Me so that I may hold your little hand, for the waves are big. The struggle for honor position has been causing great pain in all the times into the midst of those who have loved Me on earth; however, for two thousand years My word has been standing against it saying: «Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant, like Me, and the church is not to be otherwise, but it has to be the spirit and the love from above». (See also Matt: 20/27, 28). Amen.

And now, I am speaking to you, My people from the spring, and to all that have come together at the feast: persevere everywhere with much fulfillment for the keeping within great holiness and heavenly work of the first day of the week, My day of rest, that after My resurrection, and you will be those who are not overcome on earth! The first day of the week is the longest day among the seven and it starts from the sunset on Saturday and lasts until the sunrise on Monday, and during this time you have to accomplish only and only My things, and do nothing of your things so that you may be those who are blessed and to be very fruitful of God on earth. Get used to this obedience with great watch, and you will see great achievements, and all that you may ask, My people, for My fulfillment through you on earth, as I give you to work, I will fulfill in this way. Amen.

I have spent with you in a great heavenly feast for the love of the prudes of My resurrection, on the third Sunday after My resurrection, the first day of the week, My people.

I have spent a holy feast with you, those who have come full of longing at the spring to take for My grace in you after that.

We, you and us, have comforted with a feast those who are asleep and those who are without number at the table. Amen.

My word rules over a faithful people in these days into the midst of the Romanian people. Oh, Romanian people, take as well, take and eat of the manna from above at My table with My people that is into your midst! Peace to you, if you want from Me and not from you! Oh, I am giving you My peace! Not as the spirit of the world gives you, but I am giving you from heaven. Amen.

I am concluding now with My speaking of today and I am sealing over all with My name: Jesus Christ, Who rose from the grave on the third day! Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

I am descending from the Father; I am descending to the people of My word to give it power and I have always given him, for I do not have greater care in heaven and on earth than the care for it, because I need a faithful people now, in the end of the time, to fulfill by its faith My coming of today, My descent from the Father as word on earth to make the new heaven and the new earth, and for this fulfillment I have to speak and to work by the word, as I also worked in the beginning. Amen.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, I am the Lord Jesus Christ and I am coming down to you as word, My people. I have made into your midst My spring of word and I am sitting in counsel with you as I sat with the Samaritan woman near the Israel's well, when through her I announced Myself to the Samaritans coming down on earth into the midst of Israel, as the Spirit promised by the prophets about the Son of God that He would come. However, the Israel's unbelief was great, as all those proud in their spirit took part of this sin as the reward of their pride, and Israel did not know Me when I came to them from the Father two thousand years ago, and even if they knew Me because of My greatness with which I revealed Myself to them, they still fought against Me and punished Me to crucifixion, for their pride was beyond measure and they also did not receive those that My Father had sent them for their illumination from above. Oh, I could not fulfill with them My Scriptures, for they believed that they were righteous, that they were good; however, I was able to do great work through those who were crushed by the devil, through those who were sick in their body and soul, whom I was cleansing, healing and giving them of My life, and they were standing up and confessing Me as the Christ of the Father, the Messiah prophesied by the prophets.

Oh, I did not tell in vain to My disciple to go and preach Me to the sheep lost from the faith of the house of Israel, and not to preach Me to the pagans or to the Samaritans. The pagans and the Samaritans were not as unbelieving as Israel was, and when I spoke to the Samaritan woman about Me at the well in Sychar, her good spirit knew Me, believed Me and confessed Me as the Christ coming from the Father on earth, and behold, those crushed by sin and by the devil of weakness over people, with those I opened the spring of grace and I was able to work with them and for them on earth. Oh, the same is today. I cannot come near with My coming of today to those who have taken the first seats over the people, as their glory from the people is of greater value than My glory from the Father, that from heaven and not from the earth.

Oh, I cannot perfect Myself with My graces upon those who are proud in their spirit! If into your midst, people of My word, I have not been able to appear as true in those who are proud, those who have stayed like that near My cross, oh, then why should we wonder any more at the unbelief of those who sit on high chairs over people? I am coming to strengthen you in My Spirit, as I have always spoken into your midst that it is the time of the faith denial, because I saw and I keep seeing how they have been getting up for the spirit of unbelief, those who have put My walking with you to their back and have gone back where they came from, and the unbelief has caught them within it, for they did not work like Me and worked like them instead and made themselves judges and thus they have treated Me and you harshly and then they have denied Me, you and Me. Oh, it would have been well of them to remain with Me if they said that were righteous! However, I have not been able to work in any time with those who have beaten their chests like the Pharisee who denigrated the tax collector, judging him before Me, but I have been able to work with those who have humbled themselves, for the spirit of humility is great and God can work through it in the man who has got this spiritual pearl, which is born in man from God, and behold that those poor in spirit are blessed, as I called them before any other ones who work according to My pleasure on earth!

How beautifully I was able to speak with the Samaritan woman! How easily I entered into her heart! How easily I cleansed her of the spirit opposing to Me and opposing the man poor in his spirit and who can easily receive the Gospel of My kingdom when it comes towards him! Oh, My people, the work of My word is felt by the heart, not by the mind, for God is the Spirit Who dwells in man, inside of man, and there He glorifies Himself with His things, for it is written: «The Lord knows those who are His!» I have opened for My work of today with man, I have opened to those who have heard My speaking, I have also opened to those humble in their spirit, and then to those great in their mind and haughtiness, but the proud have not remained with Me and with the faithful ones by their humility, but have rather stepped aside and taken stones in their fists and thrown at Me and in those who have remained faithful to Me, and they resemble those who build the tombs of the prophets and not after those who receive My grace by the prophets.

I am speaking with pain on this day of memorial of My comfort after two thousand years from the Samaritan woman's faith and then after their confession upon her citadel about My Gospel coming on earth from the Father, the Father's messenger to Israel. My pain of two thousand years was not done to Me but only from the unbelief of those who denied Me after they had tasted My word and stood with Me for a while and whom the hostile devil overcame on to the side of the sin of hatred and of contempt of brother, on the side of the sin of calumny, the dark sin which has been crushed down many. Oh, blessed is the man who takes care of his sin, because one like that is afraid to look with pride to the sin of another one and he is afraid lest he may remain in the dark, or to remain blind for God, Who stands against the proud.

Oh, My people, I take care of you. Do not wander at those who fall of My fold. They are My judgers and yours and they receive the measure they measure with, as it is written. I wanted to heal them, but they did not want it, and rather they went to unbelief and they still want to cover their shame with it, but the unbelief is even greater shame, for it is that which is proven out, like faith, son, which is proved if it is or not. Oh, it is not only the man that cannot do anything without faith, but I, the Lord, am likewise, if I do not find faith in man. I cannot do anything on earth but only by those who are faithful, and I have been proving this for seven thousand years and more. I could do nothing with Adam too, for he committed the sin of hiding and of pride over God, but I could do with the Samaritan woman, that who knew Me as a prophet coming from God for My grace working upon her, for her humility which met My grace, the grace which set in her the kingdom of God, My dwelling with the man on earth and in then in his love for Me. Amen.

– May Your mercy, Lord, be praised by all those who are poor, who have nothing good in them but their faith in You, the merciful One, and Who reveal Yourself so wonderfully to those who have in them the hope in Your mercy in all their weaknesses, for You were not disgusted of me, but even more than that, You planted Yourself in me and raised me to a high rank, because You made me the herald of God's kingdom among the people and I woke up toward You my entire citadel and the Samaritans received You as coming from the Father; the people to whom You shared the gift of the holy faith through me, Lord, and we comforted You as a guest coming from the heaven in those days, as one Who without a house on earth, for the house of Israel, in which You came, did not receive You and put You away, for they did not humble like me when You told my sins, but I humbled myself and said: «Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet!» (John: 4/19) And then I also told those in my citadel: «Come and see Messiah, Who told me everything that I did wrong». (John: 4/29)

Oh, Your work of today is great! Lord, those who believe in Your coming of today are great! They are greater than the holy fathers of old, for they are faithful to You in time of great unbelief, of great lawlessness on earth. Oh, increase their faith so that You may be able to work with them upon the entire unbelief, Lord, as You could work through me over the Samaritan people that so easily recognized and received You as the messenger of the Father to man on earth! Oh, blessed are those who believe like that! Their little heart is only little wings, only holy thrill, but how unhappy are those who cannot believe, how anxious, how restless they are, oh, Lord, for the sin of the forsaken faith becomes a great torment for those who forsake the brotherly love, and Cain's pain comes upon them, for those who have not looked after brotherly love, have not been able to pass from death to life; they have not passed, Lord, and the sign of their lack of the brotherly love stands on their forehead. However, show Your mercy from the end of the time and seek that one way or another to appear to them as true God by Your word of today, and also give them the light, for those who do not love the brotherhood among brothers are in the dark! Oh, give them my spirit, the spirit wrought in me by You when I met You at the well in Sychar, oh, my Lord and my God of that time and today. Amen.

– Oh, the love of the faithful ones comes from their faith, and the lack of love of the unfaithful ones comes from their unbelief, and those who are not faithful cannot be faithful because the works of their faith proves them out as unbelieving and fugitives. Oh, what are they supposed to find their comfort with? The comfort of the faithful ones comes from God, but where are those unfaithful supposed to find their comfort?

Oh, My people, it is hard without comfort! I said that no one would be able to find any comfort on earth but only those who love My word of today, with which I come from the Father for the comfort of those who are the faithful ones of today and tomorrow. Oh, My people, learn well how you stay near Me, lest you may reach again near those of whom you came out to be Mine, for those who are Mine are those who are moved from their place, and they have to appreciate with all their heart and deed My gift for them, their calling to Me and their dwelling in My blessing, which they have to keep forever, there where one can no longer lose it. All those, who went back from where they left, were drawn back by the devil of unsteadfastness and unfaithfulness. Oh, it is not the sins that are hard to forgive but rather the unfaithfulness is the great sin of those who, being discontent on My way, have gone back to their things. I would like to cut off My pain from them, but the envious enemy of the calumny and slander has got a profit from them, and I cannot cancel from the devil those that stand against them. The Spirit of humility is that which brings the power of love in man, the work of gentleness, the love of God and of brothers, that which melts the ice between Me and man, as behold, those without faithfulness do not know that I, the Lord, do not go with them on their way full of their guilt, and their mind is being poured out from them and they do not know with their mind what God means, Who dwells within those poor in their mind, within those who endure My cross near Me without murmur. Amen.

I am blessing with the saints the feast of today near the well of the meeting, that in My courts with you, My people, and that has the Samaritan woman as its angel, a great martyr with her testimony before Me and who gave all her house as the confessing sacrifice of her martyrdom, not fleeing from the cross of sufferance for Christ, Who extinguished with His word all her weaknesses and all her sins and settled within her with His kingdom. Oh, her entire house has come today for the feast at My well with you, My people. This day of her memorial have brought those from heaven at the well and they are the first from heaven at the table of My word, for which they sit down with you at the table on this day, the day of the feast of the well of meeting into My courts of today on earth. Amen.

The greatness of the saints is with you at the feast at the well today, My people, and they give you honor, for this is the love of those from heaven for those who are faithful to Me in these days when I have no longer found any faith at anyone on earth. Oh, take care to be only Mine. Take care, son, to be able to work only for Me. Take care, My people, of your staying with Me and of My staying with you always, and this power will always, always be given to you by the spirit of humility and repentance and then by the Holy Spirit, the companion and the teacher of those who are humble, who are long, long enduring by the great power, the power of My love in them, the love which can do everything and which has anything, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy martyr George, the bearer of victory

I become a river of word, I become a river for the saints between heaven and earth, as My coming is with the saints, as it is written, and I am giving them entrance into My book of today and I am writing Myself down on earth with a feast of saints and I am making My Father and the heaven rejoice at My table of word on earth into the midst of the people of My today's word.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the merciful Shepherd, the Shepherd of those who are faithful, as I cannot shepherd those who are not faithful with My today's food, with which the Father has sent Me on earth to fulfill My coming with the saints, as it was prophesied to be. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, guests are coming at the spring on this day of feast. Let us come out and meet them, sons. I, as a merciful Shepherd, am teaching them, by My today's word, the mystery of faith, and then its faithfulness. Whenever the newly-come little hearts want to come to the spring of My word, I, the Lord, will strengthen them in their faith, I will speak to them and I will teach them to keep away from unbelief, for the work of unbelief tests all those who want to come and take and drink of My spring, because the devil, My enemy and the enemy of the man who wants to come after Me, takes care to test those who are faithful, for faith has to be put to test, and I want man to overcome all his temptations for his faith, and after that, I will take him and put him with those who are faithful, and then I want him to become worthy of the reward of the faithful ones, because the unfaithful do not have any gain, but they rather have so much damage that even they are not aware of it.

The martyr George is a guest at My table of today with you, My people, and he has with him the people of the martyrs who have the reward of the faithful ones before Me, and who overcame the sea of the unbelievers by their patience and by their faultless faith for the truth of My divinity, in which the people, lovers of the passing life, did not believe, because they believed in their idols, the tools of the devil on earth.

I become food for the faith of those who come to drink by the spring of My word and I tell them this: Peace and faith to you from the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lord and the Master of those who are faithful! I am the Shepherd with the cross. Bow under the cross of My coming and feel

My pain of today! I am coming on the earth, sighing by the word from place to place, and behold those who share Me! My voice of today is becoming word here, at the spring, and then they are giving Me to the people. Oh, people do not have love, and they do not have faith either, if they love the passing life, and it is written that the one who loves his soul, that one loses it, and again, it is written that he who loses his soul for Me, that one will come to life and that one will save it.

I, the Lord, am opening with love My Spirit of Shepherd and I am embracing and giving to you. Oh, open to Me so that I may give to you! I work from the Father, Who has sent Me again after man. I came from the Father two thousand years ago and fulfilled then the Scripture of the slaughtered Lamb and I paid by My godly sacrifice for the price of the man's life, and I have taken this price into consideration from Adam and until the end of the man's age, so that the man may have the first fruit of his salvation paid, of his resurrection by My resurrection from the dead. Oh, it was easier to take out from the hell those crushed under it than those who had seen Me doing God's works among people on earth for such a long time, for more than five thousand years. I suffered and still suffer from the man's hardening of his heart. The man's unbelief has been making Me suffer for seven thousand years. The man goes and asks the man if I am this word. Oh, from where does the man know to give an answer, as from Me, to the one who asks? I have not asked the man who sits high over people, I have not asked him if I was to come on earth as word during these days. I am greater than man and I have looked into the Scriptures and found in them My coming of now and I have come, for if it was to come at the man's will, oh, what would have done those that are written into the book of life that I would bring them the salvation? Those who believe and those who will believe in My coming of today as word on earth, those are written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, and I have to make their way to the Father if the Father has sent Me after them. I have great mercy on all people, and I want to draw them all near to the Father, but the devil of unbelief and doubt stands against Me and against them as well. However, I say that during these days I am working as two thousand years ago and building the man and making him into My church and I am fulfilling him with the gift of the holy faith, as there is no one on earth to help the man believe in My coming, in My salvation from Me, in the carrying of the cross, for woe to those without a cross and to those who cut of it, not knowing that it is their bridge towards God!

Oh, the man does no longer want to carry the whole cross as My saints did! There are no longer shepherds with a cross, with their life as Mine, so that the people may take after them and teach the people the way of holiness. I, the merciful One, am coming and telling the man to become godly, first by faith and then by the love of God, borne up to the heaven, for the one who follows Me only for a while and then doubts and give way to the temptations for the faith, it would have been better for that one not to be born on earth.

Amen, amen, I say to you, to those who have come to drink from Me the word of the river of life! I am coming into your way and telling you that My work of today is as in My beginning with My disciples of two thousand years ago, whom I took from among the Jews and made them God's sons, My brothers, whom I was teaching the love of God from the Father, and then I established My true church with them, and I did not ask the rulers of that time if they allowed Me to come down with My kingdom in those who were faithful to My coming of that time. Then I worked wonderful miracles, as in the time of Moses, but the people of Israel has remained up to this day, callous for My coming to it, as it was written to come. However, I became perfect then by death on the cross and by resurrection and this is how I proved Myself out as God coming to them, and then I ascended again to be with the Father and I left a little and tiny people on earth in Israel and through it I have been bringing up the Christian people from then on and up to this day. However, those from today, as also those before them, are no longer working as I worked upon My disciples and then disciples upon disciples. They work like people and not like God, and the people break My way and My heavenly walking on earth. However, I draw within Me those chosen by Me from the people and make them My mystery on earth, and behold, I have made a house of faithful sons into the midst of the Romanian people and I have always come to them and spent with them and I have given Myself to them as body and word, as nowhere else has the man found on earth, for I am here with those of Mine, covered within an unfathomable mystery, as I have got from the Father the work of the fulfillment of the Scriptures of today, and I do not find any faith on earth for them, if I do not put in the man the gift of the faith for My coming of today. However, I have taken out of the world those on whom I have relied to come on earth and I have put them before Me and I have given them the spirit of faithfulness, and My work of today and its mystery, sealed between Me and those faithful to My coming of today, do not have to be searched or tested, for the prophet Isaiah even from that time said: «I, the Lord, will wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among My disciples and will hide My face in their midst». (See also Is: 8/16, 17) Amen.

Oh, pace to you, peace to those who have come at My spring of word! Oh, you shall not put to test My work of today, for I can hardly come with it between heaven and earth and then to those who come to hear the voice of My coming and the salvation for those who are faithful. Oh, you will be blessed if you have faith in My word, the Comforter! All those who have come to this mountain of word have to learn how to believe, for if they take this teaching from them or if they take it from the people, oh, they do not come to the steadfastness of the faith. The unbelief on earth is great. I can hardly come to choose those that will be on My behalf on the day of My complete victory. I give you the gift of the love of God, as the pure love for Me has great power in man and it fills him with the gift of faith, and then the gift of the holiness crowns him, and those who keep their life in holiness, they are those who find Me in this word, and they follow Me believing. Amen.

I am leaving you in council with My people at the spring. I am praying to the Father so that He may help you in your unbelief and give you the wisdom from above for My word of today. I am blessing the shepherd who has brought in this day his sheep to My spring of word and I am giving him what he needs, and I am giving him mysteriously the spirit of humility, the spirit of those that God likes, I am giving to those that are great in God and with the people, and may he keep himself within it, for this is how are those who take after God on earth. Amen.

Oh, you martyr, who are celebrated today in heaven and on earth, your longing is burning in heaven for My testimony. Behold your day of synod among the saints! We have a table of word at the spring and we have got guests at the table, and you are consumed with longing for My glorifying. Amen.

– Oh, glory to You, Lord, Who are, Who was and Who come, and I am asking You with my burning longing to work much, much, oh, Lord, until there will no longer be unbelief on earth, for the man troubled with his own things can hardly understand Your work of today, and only those who are free from sin can do more, as I could, as for Your sake, I had not loved anything else on earth, but I have loved only to confess You, only this I loved, and the king of that time put me to the torture because of his idols and because of his pride; however, my love for You and its works in me touched the hearts of many and touched the heart of the queen and she confessed Your name near me and she died together with me for Your confession, oh, and in this way those, who are written into Your book, are selected when the time of their election comes. This is how are supposed to understand those who are chosen for You more than the others, and this is how they are able to remain on Your behalf into the midst of an unfaithful people, as the people of humans is today on earth, Lord.

You, those who have come on my day of feast at the spring of the Lord, make bold for the faith! The Lord is this spring. Be faithful! Learn how to believe! Ask for advice for faith and step with love on the way of holiness, for without holiness, man does not have any power for God. Peace to you! I am speaking to you like the Lord. Be makers of faith and miracles of the faith and become sons of God by the works of the proving faith, as I showed to those in my time. It is the time for the Lord to have victory over the earth. Oh, be faithful, be faithful to His word of today and do believe without tempting! Oh Lord, make their faith grow, merciful Shepherd, Shepherd with a gentle voice. This is how I am praying to You for those who have come towards Your spring of word. Amen.

– I, the Lord, sit with the saints at the table of word on earth. I, the Lord, have power for man, only for him to have faith in My voice of Shepherd. Amen.

I leave you now, My people from the spring and I leave you to be working over those who have come for a stopover at My table of word in this day. I am coming down within you with My advice, which is to make clear My work with you to those who have come to the spring to drink, and to them I say this: Keep away from unbelief! Embrace the love for the wisdom from above! Be gentle and humble in your heart! Humility and lowliness of heart, these are the things that make you well pleased before the Lord. Those who are proud do not have any share with the faithful ones, with those who are beautiful within the spirit of humility. Be makers of miracles in your inner being! Ask how you are supposed to do this and I will answer you by My servants, for I have My wisdom in them for many, for those who set apart for God by My voice of Shepherd. Amen.

Peace to you! I am bowing as a God; I am thanking and comforting you because you have come to My spring of word! May it be to fill it with the grace of faith and My love, which gives birth to God's sons on earth. My way with the man and My will with him, these are the things that I am teaching the man by My word of today. Amen, amen, amen.

The sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man from birth

The Holy Spirit becomes word on earth and becomes the counselor of men. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am the Word of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and in this name God has been glorified by His word during these days, and the Father has sent Me to speak on the earth, for the word of God there is no longer anywhere else on earth, but only the man's word is, because man has not got used to taking advice from the Lord for everything that he works on earth. Even from his beginning in the Garden Eden, man has been speaking and he has not been speaking as God Who made him. The sin of ingratitude has made its nest in man even from paradise and because of this, man lost the paradise, and the paradise lost man, the one for whom the paradise was made by God and behold: «The ox knows his owner, but man does not know God», (See Is: 1/3), as it is written in the prophets.

I am coming down on earth to make the man know Me by My word and then to wait for Me and to ask for My advice. Let man reason with Me, and let Me reason with him, as it is for this that I built him, and I built him like that when I kneaded him out of dust and then I gave him breath of life and thus I made him into a living being. I am coming down on earth now, in the end of the time, to make see those that do not see and to take the sight of those who say that they see, for man has been despising Me even from his beginning with Me. Two thousand years ago, I became known as true God of true God, as it was written for Me to come and to pay with My life put on the cross for the redemption of the man fallen from paradise and from life, and the sick knew Me, but those who were healthy did not want to bow. The blind man from birth knew Me, but those who were born with healthy eyes did not want to believe that I was the Christ of the Father, His messenger after man on earth. I took the clay into My hand, and spat into it to make it soft to be able to mold it, and I made eyes from it for the one born blind and I put his eyes back to their place and then I sent him to wash his face and the clay around his eyes to be able to see God clearly and then to see people then and to see himself as well, after he had lived his life without sight as he had lived by that time. It would have been enough for the people to believe that I was God coming to them from the Father, as it was written for Messiah to come from heaven to earth, but they got used to one another and did not want to get used to God into their midst, and then they crushed Me, and then I went back into the Father and came back sighing and waiting from then on and up to this day. I wait and wait. I wait for the man to know Me in My works and I ask him to open his eyes and see. I can open his eyes, as I have already done so many times with man, but I also ask him to open them, lest he may not be hurt if I deal with him and with his stubbornness, and then at the lack of the sight of his body, soul and spirit.

Oh, Romanian people, I am making My word come nearer to you, the word of the Holy Spirit. For a while, I have been calling you at My table of word by the spring of My word into your midst, My table with My people taken out of the Romanians, and I keep giving you heavenly advice. I want that you may not be sightless and deaf to My voice that has been calling you to see, hear, and drink of My well to your life. Since I kneaded the heaven and the earth by the word, since then, I have chosen you to be My table and My house now, in the end of the time. Oh, you are now in great hardship, (See the flood and the economic crisis, r.n.) and take from Me to open your eyes wide, for you do not lack your bread or coat, but you rather need your reconciliation to Me. Oh, make peace with Me, and I, the Lord, have taught you what to do to be at peace with each other and I have also told you that injustice is not good, for those who call themselves God's church into your midst, they do not open to Me to give them for you, but on the contrary, they did and do injustice to Me.

Oh, My country of today, oh, Romanian people, I want to advise you, and I want to advise you again and again and to tell you what to do. God, the Word, is into your midst speaking from more than fifty years, and He has been working into your midst with a masterful mystery. Oh, what shall I do to be able to sit in counsel with you for the salvation of your blindness and for your glory with Me before the nations then? Oh, how shall I do so that you may listen to me? How shall I do so that your rulers may know My truth and My voice of today, those who sit on the seats of the servants of the church and God's law on the earth with the people? Oh, what shall I do with you to be faithful to My voice from the end of the time on your hearth, Romanian sons? Oh, for so many times I have been turning My word of today with gentleness toward you. You do not have any power of faith, but I can give it to you, sons, for the Romanian flock is in great need of God on its land, when I, behold, am into its midst crying at its feet to open its heart and the chamber of knowledge, and thus to know God. I would ask you to give Me an answer then; do you have anything to gain if you do not receive Me with the advice of the glory of My word, which flows like the river of life into the midst of this land blessed from eternity, especially blessed for My time of nowadays to come as word on earth in this house and to steer with My voice of gentle and humble Shepherd this ship through the waves on earth?

Oh, I do not mean any harm to you, My today's country, but who is to get together for you into your midst? Do not be afraid of hard days, but be afraid of your departure from Me. I advise you to My law because I want you to get into it, and if you do not want, then even on this way I want to bring you to My will, for the whole will is into My hand. Oh, do not despise correction when it tests you with all its hardships! Get used to turn back to your ancestors! They were not defiling with anything the days of fast and feasts and the day of My rest. Oh, do not be afraid that it will be hard for you, but rather be afraid of the hardship and the burden which comes up to Me when I see that in My Romanian people the holy law is trespassed, the law from the fathers, and it is written that those who trespass the law are punished by it. Get used to be good and get used to fasting on the three days of the week: Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for these days are beings in heaven, they are stricken from the earth, and there are only and only wounds on them, the most wounded beings from among those in heaven. Oh, the Christian people do not have to eat those that are forbidden for these days, no, they do not have to. Not even olive oil is supposed to be poured into the food for the days of fasting, let alone some other kind of forbidden food for the days in which the saints and the fathers wrote fasting[133] from food! Oh, do not be afraid that you die of hunger, Romanian son! If you die, you die because of your disobedience. The food without a holy consideration brings sicknesses and pains in your body and in your life, for the saints and the angels take revenge for My wounds from man, and you know that, but you do no longer want to listen to Me.

Oh, Romanian people, the Lord pushes you from behind to do His will, but do not raise your voice in grumbling, do not rise with grumbling upon those who sit at the helm, who will be to borrow from foreign nations for you so that they may bring you into slavery at their will after that. Oh, be wise, Romanian people, for no one, no one is good for you, no one else but God alone. Let us help each other in hardships and shortages, and may it not be too hard for you to get into My holy laws, for they will help you out of all the hardships that are to come. Oh, with great longing, I would like that you may no longer spend any money on sin and I would like you to flee from the poison that comes from tobacco and drinking, because I, the Lord, have blessed only the water and the wine. Oh, I would very much like you no longer to eat meat, for meat makes you sick, both in your body and your soul, and it also brings on you boils within your body and spirit and it fills you with the fear of the body killed by you to eat it after that. It is in vain, in vain, that I have given the man a great commandment: *"You shall not kill, man!" Oh, I have given this commandment in vain for man. Man has attracted Me only to his wills in such a way that I may let him eat meat, but it would be best for him to come to My wills, and by his willing or not, the man will finally come to My wills on the earth, for it is written that the new heaven and the new earth and the justice for all things will come and it will be like that, and My angels will fulfill like that. Amen.

Oh, if you, Romanian people, want to listen to Me, you will be the most praised nation on the earth, for My grace and My Spirit will descend on you and He will overshadow you, and nations will come to you, as it is written, and they will take of My glory with you and will give you many gifts, as it is written by that who is chosen for My glory, and behold, that is why I advise you to make peace with Me and to get used to do My will, oh, My country of today. Be good! Seek to see well into My advice and flee from the taste and the works of sin. Keep the days of fasting, honor the days of feasts and the day of the Lord's rest; love brotherhood and humility, love patience and holiness and you will see My love and My glory with you, for it is written about you to have life with God on the earth and then to see your Lord with your clean eyes, your Master, Jesus Christ, Who, behold, is speaking with you on your hearth. Oh, do not be afraid of poverty, but rather be afraid of richness, because richness perishes! Oh, do not be afraid of shortages but rather be afraid of all those that are defiled and guilty, because much, much food, from what you take and eat, has got sickness in it for you and it has the spirit of error from God in the disorder with which is made by the man without God in him. And I also ask you, Romanian son; God asks you to make the sign of the cross when you drink the water and when you eat, and worship and pray when you go to sleep and when you get up from your sleep in the night; and also take My Virgin mother as help between Me and you so that you may have a mother and a father, but in order for you to have, you have to listen like a child, for it is written: «If you are not like children, you will not be with God and with His kingdom». (See Matt: 18/3)

I am sitting in counsel with you, Romanian sons, and I ask you to open the book of history and to stand for a while face to face with the ancestor of this nation, and then ask yourselves if you take after them, after their sons, as their successors. Oh, the manner of the life of the Romanian was beautiful, Christian and loved by God! Why, have you forsaken it and have not loved to be My beautiful ones? Behold how you have taken after the strangers! You lost the holy fear to be as beautiful as the saints did, after your ancestors, oh, sons. I, the Lord, would like you all to be adorned within pleasant apparel before God, I would like you to be princes and princesses in your conduct and there would no longer be any more beautiful nation on earth other than My Romanian people, which the Father has meant to be Mine now, in the end of the time, and behold, I have come into its midst and I have advised it to My love from above for him. Oh, get up and present yourself in everything that you are as God's nation, for I am the King of the creature, but listen to Me and do not be afraid of poverty and shortages if you listen to Me!

I, the Lord your God, want to prepare you beautifully for My table with you, Romanian people. You are poisoned by the time of nowadays, an evil time as there has never been on earth, hidden time from before your eyes and I full of pain for you, for you are meant by the Father Sabaoth to bear God's glory on earth, but you are very, very sick. I want to give you life from My little rib, and your life would be to take after My life and My saints' and not as you has got used to do with your life and Mine. Oh, not so, I do not want it in this way, I cannot work with man for My power on earth with him for My dwelling with him on earth.

Oh, I am very merciful on you when I see that you are so much bitten by the enemy and by his poison, and I would like to revive you, Romanian nation, and I would like to have disciples from Me for you in a clean way, to do you good through them on My behalf, but would those who sit as shepherds upon you want to believe Me and listen to Me for your life, for My mercy on you? You are My little nest of today. I am coming into your midst with My word in these days. I am finding into your midst My enemy and yours, who is afraid of My voice upon you, just as a snake is, which comes into the nest with nestlings of the bird in the wilderness, and to which I have compared Myself by My sacrifice for man; however, when this bird finds its nestlings poisoned in the nestle, ready to die, oh, what does it do? It pierces its side with its beak and takes its chicks into its bosom and then it gives to them of its blood, of its life, and at that time it does not give them of the food that it has gathered in its bag from the water, but it rather gives them of its blood in order to bring them to life, and with it to take out of them the poison of the snake that was lurking in the nestle of its chicks while it was away. Oh, this is how I want to work into your midst, Romanian people, but you are no longer used to stay into the nestle and receive life, and what really shall I do with you in order to bring you to life, to take you out of danger and to bring you to love, to faith and to obedience for all these, oh, My people of today?

I am into your midst as word of the Holy Spirit, Romanian people. I advise you and exhort you not to commit any sin against the Holy Spirit, for I want to forgive you and I want to heal you by My word that is upon you with the Holy Spirit, Who makes flow out of My mouth the word of the river of life into your midst, My country of today. Oh, I have spoken with you into the midst of the people of My word on your hearth. I am calling the angels and the saints to serve Me into your midst for the fulfilling of My word upon you. I want you to come to life before Me and to the life in the Lord on the earth. Peace to you. Listen to My advice! Read it and learn it to fulfill it! Oh, come with faith before Me and give to Me, give Me your heart, Romanian people, My country of today! Amen.

I have been speaking My gentle word upon the Romanian people, upon priests and rulers and upon the enemy of My nation of today, glorified by Me by My work into its midst. You have stood before Me for My word of today over the Romanian people, oh, sons in the gates. Now we are finishing the word of the day and we are coming to ask from the Father the fulfilling of My word upon the Romanian people.

Peace to you! Stand before Me when I come as word on earth, for My sufferance brings Me to you to make for Me a way there where My words sends. Amen.

I am coming near, sons, with the feast of My ascension into heaven after My passion and resurrection, and we will sit at the table of word for the preparation of the feast of the Holy Spirit's descent and for the way of the people that will come together at the spring. Let us ask the Father for a warm and clear weather and let us ask Him much peace and spirit of holy work for My holy name, which has been glorified among you, sons. Oh, always, always, seek and seek after My word upon you and become its fruit, for I, the Lord, have to be able to work with you during all this time with great unbelief, and I also have to be able to do it by your love, by your sacrifice for My works and by your faith, the faith of God's sons, Who can do everything, everything through you, through the sons of My word of today, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

Before dawn, I am waking up My watchmen and making My book of today come down, the word of the feast of My ascension into heaven and I am giving special blessing for the sons of My people, for I, the Lord, am coming out with them for the spirit of confession. Amen.

Sons, we are going into the midst of the Romanian people; we are going with bread and salt and mysteriously we are calling it to the feast of My second coming from the Father on to the earth, a great feast and by which I keep celebrating on the hearth of this nation for more than fifty years, and to which I have always, always called the Romanian people to drink of My river of word, to drink and to long after Me, for I, the Lord, long after it, because I want to make it God's glory on earth among people and I want to announce Myself far and wide with My country of coming now, in the end of the time, for the crowning of the work of seven thousand years of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit on earth with man, after God had made the heaven, the earth and the man.

Forty days after My resurrection two thousand years ago, I came together with My disciples and with all those who remained faithful to My coming of that time, and speaking with them about those that I had suffered, as it was written, I commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem but to wait there for the Father's promise, the Holy Spirit, Who would clothe them with power to be My witnesses then to the ends of the earth, and while I was speaking to them, I ascended into heaven and we separated and a cloud took Me away from before their eyes and it took Me into the Father, and they saw near them two men standing, dressed in white clothes, speaking to them: «You men of Galilee, this Jesus Who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts: 1/11)

Oh, this is how I have also made you, in My time with you, My witnesses during these days, and I have often come out with you to My testimony and I have made you the sharers of My word, because I have put My word before the nations from margins to margins and I have woken them up and I will wake those that will take part with Me in the day of My glory, when I will rise My testimony with you above all the heights, that is the word of My coming of this time, sons. I am giving you in this day a sweet blessing and I am making you sweet for those who will look at you, for you are going on My behalf in this day before the Romanian people with bread and salt, sons, and what I am doing with you in this day is a great mystery. Be blessed, and share the wisdom from above over those on the earth, who will look at you! Oh, sons, blessed are those who love you and blessed will be those who will remain in this love to the end, for I, the Lord, give a special gift to those who love you and I will give them the gift of faith, and I will also give them the gift of understanding and I will stir in them the longing after God at their meeting with you, because you are God's sons on earth, as the work of My word has made you, and then your love, sons.

Oh, Romanian people, I come into your way with bread and salt. What I am doing in this day by the sons of My today's word on your heart is a great mystery! Oh, My work of today into your midst is a great mystery! I am giving you help to understand those from above for your destiny with God and I am embracing you within My wisdom, which I have put it into the midst of My people that is into your midst, a table of word in this time on earth, to write My book of today, the book of My second coming from the Father to man, oh, My country of today! I want to make peace with you, and I work mysteriously because you do not want to understand, and I also fulfill mysteriously because those who reign upon you are stiff-necked, but I also love you and I embrace you within My mercy, and I what I am to give you, I will give you mysteriously until I am able to make Myself understood that I have been waiting for years in a row in order to bring My kingdom upon the Romanian people and to present it together with it, with My glory of today into its midst.

Oh, you should not despise those who are the least of Mine into your midst! I do you good through them and I weave for you a praised little shirt and mysteriously I make you out of My word woven with longing and with patience, your garment of tomorrow, oh, My country of today, because I want you to have resurrection. I am the Lord your God, and I become a river of word into your midst, and I comfort you and then I wait for you to understand My work for you, for you need a Shepherd from heaven, My country. I ask the Father from heaven with tearful prayer to give you the wisdom of God's mysteries and to get up as soon as possible and stay with faith and victory for you before Him, oh, My country. I am giving you, in this day, a blessing in secret, and I am asking the Father to lift you up, to lift you up to those from above coming down into your midst for your life with God among nations, but you should also pray and do not throw My advice aside, for I am your wealth, and soon, soon, the nations on the earth will understand that you have the Lord glorifying Himself by the word into your midst and they will love you for Me and they will give you their love, but receive from Me and be faithful and stand up beautifully to meet Me, oh, My today's country, the country of the Lord, Jesus Christ in His second coming from the Father on earth. Amen.

Oh, we are going sons, we are going with bread and salt and with My Spirit and we are setting a table of feast before the Romanian people, and then we are coming back again into the book for the whole word of the day. Be beautiful, be heavenly, be faithful to My promises so that they all may be fulfilled, all, sons. My day with you on this day has been turned into a confessing day. I want to make way more widely into the heart of this nation, and you are My witnesses and I will touch the heart of the Romanian people, to which My Father Sabaoth has sent Me now.

Peace to you, sons! May this day be a day of lifting up to those in heaven into its midst for the Romanian people! I am sending the angels and the saints to fulfill in this way, and you those on earth, have faith, sons, because I have been working by faith all the time, by the sons of the faith, and through those who have been faithful to My promises, I have been fulfilling on earth everything that has been done to My testimony, everything that the Father gave and gives Me to fulfill on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, watching sons in the way of My word when it comes, we are opening again the book and we are putting in it the word of gratitude before the Father for His great care, for His mysterious work that He has put before the people, to the fulfillments that are to come from heaven for the reconciliation with the Father of the Romanian people, into whose midst I have the people of My word and from where I have given to the four sides the river of word, which is flowing from My mouth now, in the end of the time, My second coming from the Father on earth, clothed within the word, as I am working now, a mysterious God, so that I may be closed to the man, so that I may work closely with the man, so that I may speak My word with him, as it also was My work with man in paradise. Oh, faith is needed for this, faith not like that of the man set by Me in paradise after I had built him, but for this obedience with faith is needed, and you have been walking with Me for the spirit of confession in this day, sons, and the Romanian people will look at you inside and outside of its borders, for many have wandered away, many have spent their life far away from their hearth from the fathers, but there are among them many confessors for this nation, as it was in the time of the hardship for confession (In the time of the communist regime, r.n.), when they were crying over those who were suffering within their borders here, and now they are still fighting for the good work, for the clean face of many who have been suffering for My people of today, for the faith and the life from above of the Romanian people, as you have also been working with Me during these days, but My work with you is great, it is not like that of man, because My work with you is from heaven, it is from the Father, for I am not speaking from Myself into your midst, but only from the Father, Who has sent Me, as I have also sent you. Amen.

And now, sons, we are putting into the book the word of the blessing for My feast with the faithful people and full of longing from heaven, which will be gathering together at the spring near Me and near you in ten days, when God, the Holy Spirit, is going to set His work, as two thousand years ago, upon the faith of those who, by faith, will make a halt to hear God, the Word, at the feast of the descent of the Holy Spirit, after fifty days from the feast of My resurrection from the dead, and behold the two great royal feasts under whose holy protection lies, set by the inscription under its foundation, My church with you, the holy place of new Jerusalem, and still near them, the feast of God's trumpet, Virginia[134], by whom I, the Lord, starting with 1955, have been making My way as word now on the earth, after that for so many years, I had been preparing her to be My chosen vessel to sound the trumpet in such a way that My word, heard on earth, might flow through her, work that has sprouted after that, as it was My prophecy by My trumpet, and behold, I keep on working, for the root has got sprouts, and it has got them from God, Who makes it spring and grow and then He makes it to be. Amen.

Oh, but it is still written into My work from the beginning with My trumpet that after her leaving into heaven, the fed people will be divided in two parts, and some of them will become sheep and will give birth to lambs, and others will become wolves and will tear, and thus it has been fulfilled as the word was prophesied, because I had and I have harden hearts of those who sit at this table, sons who have been fed with their self-opinion, a good opinion about themselves, the spirit of haughtiness, which does not find any rightfulness before Me when men eat of it. These people thought and hoped to be the first after My trumpet left, and what really would have deterred them from being so if they had been workers with faith and faithfulness for My work of word on earth? Oh, the lust after greatness hindered them, their desire for honor, the pleasure of life, seen by them, but I, the Lord, have not come on earth with this work full of sufferance for Me and for its bearers; I have not come with it to come under the mind of the proud ones, who are ready to leap out of themselves, beating their chests, as though they might have My work by My trumpet as their life. I, the Lord, I tell them, as few as they are, who keep making waves, that they are sick of the spirit of calumny and contempt, and more than that, they commit a deliberate sin against the Holy Spirit, because of their spiritual blindness, and they hit against My word, who has never ceased to flow out of My mouth and to be heard and written on earth, for I have sprouts coming out of the root, little hearts with a humble spirit and with their patience under the cross, and which I, the Lord, have prepared in the midst of My people without hiding, and My cross of today, My today's painful walking is hit even by those who were sons at My table of word, sons and relatives, godsons and Christians adopted by My Spirit, and who are now at the crossroads boasting that they are the followers of this work, but let them show Me their work and fruit, as they boast that they are on the rock and that, the sons with whom I have remained and with whom I have raised and will keep raising a confessing people, are not worthy for Me and for those who feel that they are the followers of My work by My trumpet, but they would rather be the sons of lie. Oh, I am coming and asking this:

You, those who say that you stay well on the rock of My work, by what do you prove that you are the true ones of this work? Oh, I have been speaking in all the time of My word of today that you should be holy, that you should be good and I have told you not to blaspheme, not to despise anyone, not to justify yourselves by blaming your brothers, and I have also told you to wash away of all your evils against My work and to repent, and I have not told you to become judges for those who, with great faith, have remained workers under the cross of My today's coming further in time. However, you two, three, or as many as you are rebellious in secret and discontent, have hardened your hearts against My word, which has always asked you to be holy, and you started further to give birth to children and after that you have given them to the world, as I did not tell you to do, but even more than this, you have left to die even those who are baptized and blessed by Me and by My trumpet, oh, even those you have left to die and to perish from My word and to belong to the world now. Oh, it is in vain when you say that you have remained with My work by My trumpet, you and your sons. Take a good look at your appearance, inside and outside of you, and look at your children and be ashamed, for you have nothing to boast about as though you were Mine. Even when you had been Mine, oh, not even at that time did you want to be My holy ones, for you liked the body and the lust of the flesh, which lusts against the spirit and with all your lusts you had always bitten Me, and now, behold, you take out the spear of your pride to pierce those who have remained for faithfulness near Me, but that will come back to you, oh, stubborn sons, because any arrow that is thrown with wickedness turns back against you, and especially when you throw it against God and against His holy work.

Oh, sons, I, the Lord, baptized you and adopted you by My trumpet in My time with her and with you, and behold, what you are doing today! Oh, rebellious sons, the man is not supposed to throw stones from Me and to judge his neighbor, spreading slander to the sides. This comes from the devil, for the wickedness in you is a devil. It is better to humble yourselves, sons. Oh, if you say that those, through whom I go further with My trumpet sounding, are unworthy, I, the Lord, teach you that it is good to say otherwise, and to say like this*: "Lord, I too am as sinful as my brother, whom I call a sinner; forgive us both,"* and you should not be ashamed to condemn your own sins openly, but rather you should be ashamed to condemn others', because you are not their judges, but I am. Oh, do not draw Me downwards from the throne of judgment to make justice into My place, for there is the danger that you may fall into judgment, into painful judgment. Oh, from where do you know that you are right by what you condemn and speak? Do you know like God, Who knows the mystery of every man? Do you know like Me?

Oh, humble yourselves, sons, for you are have fallen of My little boat, and whoever falls from My little boat with sons in it, he falls because of his pride and because of the sin of the judgment of his brother, and not because of anything else, and because of these sins the devil takes the man away, for these sins are favorable to the devil's dwelling in man, oh, sons. Oh, do not forget that the Spirit of God spoke to David and He also speaks to the one who does not love My word and who uses his tongue to slander: «What right do you have to declare My statues, that you have taken My covenant on your lips, seeing you hate instruction, and throw My words behind you… You give your mouth to evil. You harness your tongue for deceit; you sit and speak against your brother. You slander your own mother's son to urge him to stumble. Oh, no! I will rebuke you and accuse you in front of your eyes, because you boast about your wickedness and with a deceitful tongue you share deceit». (See also Ps: 50/16-21 - 50 MT = 49 LXX)

Oh, proud sons, be attentive to My word, which is speaking now with you, for I am speaking it, and it remains spoken: be careful, for some of you exalt themselves only to their fall; they exalt themselves to their judgment and pride, and they do not know what to do, and then they fall, they fall by the spirit of haughtiness, and some other humble themselves and by their humility in them are great with God and they will be exalted on earth, for he who humbles himself will be exalted, as it is written, and behold, you, those who slander, you confess in every way possible, up and down, as it comes to your mouth, as it seems well to you, your brothers who have remained with faithfulness and with much work near Me, and you, oh, who, who is to confess you for your sins against your brothers and against the Holy Spirit, when you strike My work calling it a lie? Oh, who is really to release you from the hard sin of blaming the brothers, of slandering, of the judging your neighbor, taking My place for the judgment of all things, oh, sons?

I, the Lord, am telling you an earthly word so that you may see how you badly you go wrong. When you go to buy a special tool in order to use it, you find in its box a little leaflet, written for its rule of use, and you read it and you use that tool according to its instructions for work and you do not break what it tells you, for otherwise it may not be of any use to you with its work. I, the Lord, am asking you now: if you walk in My statues, in what I have to do so that you may also do, can I use you any longer? Can you use Me any longer? Behold, you are proud and because of that, I cannot write any other names for you on My table. Your pride has taken away your sight; it has taken away your mind, it has pulled out of you the gift of the faith and left your deprived of God, because you have spoiled God in you, and you work and spoil God in you from one another.

Oh, I have told you, Christian, by My trumpet, and I have spoken to you this: "Do not point your finger at your brother's sin, for if I showed your sin, it would be big and you may lose your tongue, Christian!" Oh, if you left My little boat you are not saved, but you have only wandered away and have no direction, for the sin of slander draws great, great darkness upon the man's steps and such a man hardly wakes up. I teach you as I also teach those who are humble and those who have remained with Me, and I speak to you like this: to the one who calls you, brother, your mistakes, do not argue with him, but speak to him as the Samaritan woman spoke to Me: «Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet», and then tell others: «Come and see how the Lord is telling me everything that I have done». Oh, those who are within My power and those with whom, and here they are, I have walked further, do not have to fall at your feet and play according to your dissatisfactions, but they rather have to stand on My right hand side, as it is not for you, who are discontent, but it is for Me that I have chosen them, and I have chosen them to listen to Me. Oh, you should also learn; learn the prayer of vindication and live according to it, for it says that you should not condemn your brothers by justifying yourselves, and the speaking in vain blames you before God, sons, for I said that every man will be taken into account for his each and every word spoken. And now, I am exhorting you, I, the Lord, am exhorting you, get healed from all your sins that I have been speaking about in this day that you have committed, and keep your eyes up to God, Who sees and hears everything that you do and speak. Amen.

Now, I am speaking to those who will be preparing My day of feast of the Holy Spirit with the people full of longing after My spring of word and after the gardens I have blessed for those who have remained with faithfulness under the cross of My today's walk of the river of My word over the earth. Oh, I am giving you angels to work with you, sons from the spring, in order that you may prepare My stopover with you and with the people that has come together with longing at My spring of word. I am giving you the angels of the ghosts to your help to serve Me and you for warm weather, with sun and with the sweetness of the Holy Spirit, but you should also be at work with them for prayer before Me, in order that I may give you these through them, sons. Work with much peace. Do not be afraid that you may grow tired or that you may not get rest. Be clothed within the Holy Spirit, for God can work in you what you cannot do. Amen.

We will give alms for those who are asleep, who come then in groups at My table for their memorial, which you will prepare for them at that time. The heaven and the earth, will sit at the table, those from above, those from below and from under the ground, who loved God, and we will come together under the mystery of the love of God, some for their reward and some for the joy of My today's work on earth, for I am still working for the joy from Me, sons.

Peace to you and peace to those who will be helping with you on the day of the feast of the Holy Spirit in My gardens with you, and those who love us for their salvation will come together near us, and those who love us in this way will be blessed, oh, sons, for you and I have been working salvation and faith for many. Amen.

Now come under the word of My blessing. May the preparation of the feast of the Holy Spirit be blessed and may the day of the feast be blessed too; the eighth Sunday after the feast of My resurrection! Amen.

May the way of those who will be travelling to My spring of word and then to My gardens of today be blessed as well, and all your paths who will be coming together here belonging to all those who are coming to the spring, may all be blessed within their coming and going, as well as in their comings in and out! Amen.

I, the Lord, watch with the whole heaven and give each and everyone the peace, the exhortation and the joy for the meeting that will take place next. I, the Lord, have spoken like that, and this is how I will fulfill, as I have blessed. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Spirit's Descent

Oh, My people gathered at My spring of word, may you be blessed in a day of the feast of the Holy Spirit! I am the Lord, Jesus Christ and I am coming down to greet your coming to the spring. The Holy Spirit has spoken through the prophets and the prophets have not seen God, but they have only heard Him. They have heard the invisible One, the One surrounded by angelic hosts, for the angels are bodiless and they are a curtain between man and God and they cover the Lord, and the little angels are not seen as well for they are bodiless, but still they do a wonderful work between heaven and earth, between man and God.

Oh, may you be blessed by the word of the Holy Spirit, you, those who have come to listen from Him to the word of life! Oh, what shall I give you because you have come? I am giving you My word, the word of the Holy Spirit, Who becomes God by the word, and the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are one, and God works as a whole by the word. Oh, you shall not turn back if you started on the way of the glory of the cross, the true mystery of the man's life, for the man without a cross does not love God, the Shepherd with the cross, the One Who casts out demons from the people so that He may make them into His kingdom, burning in them with its glory, with the glory of the cross. Amen.

Oh, what is the cross, sons who have come to take from Me the word from the teaching from above? It is the death of the old man, the man who has been corrupted by sin. It is the sufferance and the resurrection by sufferance, for only those in sufferance seek after God and find Him, the Shepherd with a cross, the One Who trampled with death upon death and gave the people their resurrection by His resurrection. Oh, you will not find any love of word as sweet as it is in My word upon you, the word spoken from heaven and not spoken from earth. Oh, do not step back from the way with the resurrection on it, for the way with a cross kills the sins in man, and the man is no longer dead by sin, for there is no other death upon man besides sin, and whenever man gets a cross, he nails the sin in him to it and thus he comes to life; then the one who tastes of the sufferance of the cross becomes a bearer of God, and those who love the cross for them become My brothers. I teach you sweetly everything that I teach you, for sufferance makes the man as sweet as I am and sin makes him bitter, it makes him My sufferance on the cross, because I suffered the bitterness of the cross, but it was sweet for Me because of My love for man, love that made Me forget the mockery and the sufferance of the cross, because by these I paid for the life of the man fallen by sin.

When man becomes sweetened by sin, I become sweetened by the sufferance from his sins, for the man's sin is My sufferance. Oh, I suffer so much from a green tree, that is in bloom and yields fruit and after that it gets dried branches in it! Oh, I, the Lord, am aggrieved from such a man full of the fruit of salvation, but who also has got the fruit of sin among these! The trees are pruned in the spring, they are given a beautiful and healthy growth and they are worked by those who take care of them. Oh, this is how the man should also learn to stay for his cleansing, for the man is sinful and he needs a beautiful growth only that he may learn the cross, which cleanses him from everything that spoils his life and salvation every day.

Oh, son loving of My word of life giving from heaven upon you, it is better for you to be useful to God with your life than to you by everything that you do on the earth for you! I teach you so sweetly when I teach you, if you have come to the spring to receive My teaching. Oh, do not forget, do not forget that your sins have been washed away with blood and they cannot be washed with anything else. My blood cleanses you so that you may be holy after My blood was given for your cleansing, for those who repent from this sin and who become holy after that. However, who are the holy ones? They are those who repent and get whitened by repentance, turning to God with a broken heart, as their prayers show, written by them before Me on earth, and after that all the Christians bring prayers to God on earth from the hardships and from the wave of temptations and human weaknesses, the prayers of the saints, as two thousand years ago the man clothed himself with the garment of weaknesses and since then he has always been tempted by them as one against whom Lucifer has always been fighting since then and up to this day for his lost place near God due to the man's pride that wanted to as great as God on earth and in heaven, and behold, since then the man has been working everything by his mind and he has no longer had God as the Master of his spirit, which is losing the man, and for seven thousand years the fruit of the man without God has been seen over his steps on the earth.

Oh, My love becomes word of the Holy Spirit over the earth, and the man's love becomes sin, for man has got his love in him. I am teaching you now to take My sweet word and to get used within you to My love that makes you holy, sons. Whenever you come to My spring of word, I, the Lord, open your little hearts to set My love in them for the power of holiness in you, for without holiness no one is going to see the Lord: it is written this in My Gospel, because I said: «Be holy, because I am holy!» Amen.

Oh, sons gathered at My teaching, have your eyes wide open, not only to the four sides, and I do not speak to you only to keep a good watch, as this saying says; the saying invented by the careful man for what he does good or evil, but rather I am speaking to you: keep your eyes very wide open, to the seven sides, sons, and learn this from God. Nevertheless, how does this word come? Oh, when a man does good or bad work, he looks around to the four sides, when he secretly does what he works, but I tell you, do not only look into the four sides, not only to the left or to the right, back and forward, but look with your eyes both up to God and down, to those below, and also look with your eyes in you, inside of you, sons, for the time with sin, as long as seven thousand years with judgment in it against the man subjected to sin, teaches you to look into the seven sides when you work the good or the bad, because the first man built forgot to do so and behold what it has happened to him, from that time and up to this day, from man to man!

Oh, who else teaches you, who else wakes you up so sweetly, in such a fatherly way, sons? The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Word of life does this to you. Two thousand years ago, He descended upon My disciples in the image of the tongues of fire and became word of Holy Spirit in them and My disciples spoke through Him upon all those gathered at the feast in Jerusalem and all heard into their languages the tongues of the Holy Spirit spoken on that day, to the salvation of many of those who heard. Oh, this is how you are to understand too, on this day, My tongue that is upon you, My speaking that gives you life, for I love you and I am speaking to you with salvation and I am your Savior. It is a day of instruction, and I am your Savior by My voice upon you, only for you to be obedient, sons. Oh, love the garment of the wedding and keep it for My table with you so that you may come and that I may speak to you. However, what is this garment? It is holiness, sons. Oh, do not be afraid to wear this garment, but be afraid to put it off instead, for the man puts it out whenever he sins. Look into the seven sides, for same is looking at you from the seven sides, and you should also look like that when you do good or when you try to do evil, and the Spirit of the Lord will help you if you look at Him too. Amen.

Oh, it is a feast of the Holy Spirit, and I am embracing you in the word and I am clothing you in it to be clothed in Christ and always, always to be baptized into My name with your life of every day, because each day has its blessing and it has also its enemies, who make you go wrong, sons. Now, in what way do you go wrong? Oh, the enemy of your soul lies in ambush with many things. It teaches you to go wrong with your word, with your heart, with your dissatisfaction, with your lack of humility, with the hardening of your soul, with slandering, with the judgment against your brothers and even with your pride, which takes coat upon coat so that you may not recognize it. How are you supposed to get rid of these that lurk inside of you more than outside of you? Oh, sons learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart. This is how, I, the Lord, spoke two thousand years ago to those who heard My teaching out of My mouth and all My inner being. This is how I am teaching you: do not become proud, but rather humble yourselves before any of your neighbor, and this for you, not for him, and be careful with your stature and do not require from other what you have to work and have, because it is better to learn that way I teach you to do, than to have to learn from your mistakes, oh, sons. When man learns from his mistakes, then he has got mistakes, but when he learns from the word, then he has got resurrection, and this is how you are supposed to work the resurrection so that you may no longer pass through death, sons, so that you may no longer pass through sin or the sin through you and then it may punish you to your getting wiser. Oh, if you work like that, I will write you with the martyrs who shed their blood for Me and for their salvation by their testimony, and I will write you as My brave people, because you have kept your body under control, the lusts of the body and sin, your tongue and its venomous arrows, your heart and its killing impulsions, your mind and its inclinations to the judgment of your neighbors, and you will be victorious by the cross, by the restraining from all these that do not take after God in you.

Oh, when you come to the spring of My teaching, measure by it your stature and your lack of stature, sons. Take out of it growth for those that are good in you and decrease for those that are bad in you, which fight in you against you, sons. You find the table of the Holy Spirit here, at My spring of word. I am, coming down on earth, clothed in word, and you should receive Me as the King of everyone, as the invisible One, because of the angelic hosts, which are surrounding Me and you, oh, sons, who have come to My spring of word. Amen.

Oh, do not be sad with the angels of the ghosts that they have not worked more at your prayers, sons of My people from the spring! They have their own pains and they are seen, (Violent storms and floods in the country, r.n.), but they have been gentle with you and have blown from you with their pain over the earth. We are staying under the shelter and there is a good weather in the tent, it is My time with you, sons, and it is the time with the people that have come from everywhere and gathered near Me and near you at the feast of Pentecost, the feast of My church of new Jerusalem, that is you, and the feast of My mound of today, My Zion of today, My mountain with you, a heavenly height among people on earth, as I have built Myself within you into the midst of the people, for it is written: «Behold, God's dwelling is, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God». (Apoc: 21/3) Amen

I have been speaking teaching of much life in those who have come to My table of Holy Spirit, and I wish them holy growth and I also want them to become children in such a way that they may be gentle and humble in their heart as I am, and to wash their life in this vessel, in the riverbed of My word, which comes with the clouds[135], as I also come together with My saints, and to the end of the day, I, the Lord, will give voice to My saints for the confession of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of My saints, God's Spirit in them, among those from heaven, as He was on earth with them. Amen.

Now, we are giving to each other for a sweet feast. Let the heaven and the earth give each other joy of Holy Spirit, We to you and you to Us, sons coming together at the mouth of My Spring! We are giving you from Us and you should give to Us from you, and in this way to give ourselves to each other and to rejoice the Father, Who is looking now. Amen.

Those who have come for the first time on the lands of My today's Zion, in My gardens with the people of My word, take and taste and feel with the Spirit Who is speaking on earth into the midst of the Romanian people and rejoice in My feast of Pentecost with My people of today, but also rejoice over God's growth in you with His fulfillment, which He is requiring today on earth from those who love Him wholly, and do not give Him only half of your love. Take and rejoice in a feast of Holy Spirit and look into My word and know God in His second coming on earth as word, now in the end of the time! Amen.

Peace to you, to those who have come together with longing and with a big heart near My spring and near My people at the spring, with whom I have worked hard and with whom I have made ready the feast! Peace to you! I am the Shepherd with the cross and all those who love to walk with their cross are My brothers, because without a cross the man wanders away on earth under a shepherd foreign to God within his life and deed.

Receive Holy Spirit! Receive, because I am giving it to you! Open yourselves so that I may give you and that you may take. Amen.

It is a great day for the heaven of My saints in My garden of today on earth, the garden of the meeting, the garden of My word, when I come together with those who are thirsty after My word of today. Amen.

And as for you, Father Sabaoth, My Father, embrace them and give them, oh, give them, Father, as I give them, to have and to have Us too, o Father, as their God, oh My Father, oh, My Father and theirs! Amen, amen, amen.

The book of today is receiving now in it My celebration on a day of the feast of the Pentecost with the people coming together at the spring, for I have been comforted with it, I have anointed My wounds with everything that has been put before the heaven to the glory of My feast of today, to the comfort of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit of God. My Father Sabaoth has been comforted with Me and I have been comforted within Him with the glory of the Holy Spirit, by whom God has been glorified under the tent with the people coming around for joy and comfort, which have sprung on this holy day from all the hearts, for they have all been together in a cluster within a holy living, all in one spirit and one love, all warmed up under the holy feeling of their love for God. Amen.

I have stayed clothed within a mystery into the midst of the feast. I have embraced within comfort the strong ones, as I have also embraced the weak ones in their soul and love, for My work with you is great, My people; it is great and mysterious, and I am the invisible One because of the angelic hosts which are surrounding Me from the sides, and the angels are without body, as I have spoken on this day about My glory, which is staying mysteriously into the midst of My mystery with My people of today.

Oh, what would really happen, if My mystery with you, My people, were revealed by signs and miracles in the eyes of many to the judgment of those who are unfaithful? It would be as two thousand years ago, when the world and its ruler were judged by everything I had worked on earth at that time, visibly and invisibly. All those who saw and heard about you would be judged, all those who are indifferent, all those who are not faithful, all those who slander, who do not find another way of revenge against Me and against you, My people, and they do not know that they have send their revenge against themselves, which they work out of a spirit of foolishness, the spirit of those who are not steadfast and who do not love God because they love themselves, overflowing to the sides with the poison of their hearts and of their revengeful tongue. However, I keep you within My mystery to protect you, My people, because I have to go with you to the end of My walking in this time on earth.

Oh, I would have liked to exhort all of the small groups of the Christian sons from everywhere and who often come to the spring to take of the joy of My feasts with the faithful ones, and then I would have also liked to tell everyone the mystery of peace, the mystery of the reconciliation between God and them, among each other, the brotherly love among them, and at whom, I, the Lord, to look and get comforted everywhere from those who are faithful and from those who are good and faithful because of My word of today coming on earth.

I have on My right side My disciples of two thousand years ago and those who were walking with them in faithfulness to the preaching of My Gospel over the earth then. I have stayed with them among all those in the tent and I have stayed in a heavenly way, I have stayed as in heaven, and not all understand what it has to be understood when I say so.

Oh, confessing disciples for Me with you, taste, taste full of thrilling as you are for the beauty of the feast of Holy Spirit, which we have taken part in, disciple sons! I, the Lord and your Teacher, then and now, am giving you the tongues of the Holy Spirit to share God from you to those who have stayed with us in a day of the feast of the Holy Spirit, when you and I were celebrated. Behold, I am giving you. Give further! Amen.

– Oh, Father Sabaoth, and You, little Lamb and Son of the Father, You are One in Another a oneness, and we are not speaking from ourselves but from God, Who has commanded us to speak in the languages of the Holy Spirit, the Counselor of the good and faithful people.

It is written in the Scriptures that only those who are humble in their heart seek after God, and the Holy Spirit comes upon those who are faithful who do not search out the Lord for faith. All those who bow to believe in the coming of today of the word from above, from heaven on earth, we, the witnesses of God, the Word, Who died and was resurrected so that we may believe that He is with us, we exhort everyone to get healed from the spirit of grumbling and of the empty words, because these lead to the sin of slandering, because even the smallest of the words bring on punishment, just as the lie does, which kills the soul of the one who eats of its fruit, for the man's artfulness keeps the Lord away, and temptation brings on admonishing over those who are sick in their mind, who do not have the wisdom of a mother, because it departs from those who are ignorant of it; and even if the wisdom has got love as its rock, it smites against the slanderers, because the Holy Spirit of the Lord brings into the open all those that are hidden and pierces all the hearts and all the words, because He comprises the world, and He knows all its things to the slightest whisper, and those who are not just, cannot hide and nothing can be forgotten, for every scheme, good or bad, will be revealed, and those who hasten their death by their evil things, are attracted then to it. However, the Lord is aggrieved and sad for those people who can be alive and do not want this, for He is the Lord of life and of the salvation of the sinners, who, by their repentance, can overcome the sin, which brings on death to those who love sin.

We exhort you to the Spirit of God, Who knows all your things and we confess you the joy of the Holy Spirit on this day with you and with us, those from heaven, assembled under the protecting tent of the feasts in the garden of the meeting of the heaven with the earth, of the Lord with you. The Holy Spirit is our speech, not we are the word that we are giving you to the crowning of the today's feast. The joy of our confession becomes longing and longing in us, those from heaven, and we are speaking to you in the Holy Spirit and we have told you His work, His light, Which pierces without any mistake the most secret recesses of the heart and Who does not miss even the slightest whisper. The mouth is the organ made by God and we have to take care good of it against the artfulness, a spirit used with easiness by man until it will be destroyed from the earth, a spirit that thwarts those inside the man and makes the man into a slave of deception, which stands against the Holy Spirit, the Counselor from God for man.

Oh, those from underground have also been staying with us and with you, for they have been called and they had their summer memorial done, and what beautiful and what comforting this day has been for those gathered from heaven, from the earth and from underneath! (From hell, r.n.). Oh, be the saviors of those who are aggrieved! Be, as they should also be; those of this time are aggrieved for their time not overshadowed by the Holy Spirit, the Counselor of the people!

Oh, be believing and not unbelieving! All those who can no longer work because of the obstacles which they have built themselves in their way by now, let them use their heart as the dwelling place of the mystery of new Jerusalem and let them be patient in their slavery, until the love in their hearts, growing with every passing day, will give them their salvation and until they will put in their face the whole path, the life with power in it by its whole fulfillment. Amen.

Oh, keep away from deceit, for this spirit brings you dissatisfaction, from which rebellion among brothers is born! Do not be pretentious in such a way that this defect may separate you! Be content and thankful! You have been advised today on earth not to be without watch upon you because your watch means protection. The languages of the Holy Spirit have been overflowing upon you from top to bottom, only for you to follow their advice. Love to be small and protected, for those who strive after honor do no longer find what they are looking for, and this is how they will be found in the day of their visitation. And, finally, may the spirit of the falling in love with God catch fire in you as well as in us, as in our Lord and yours, Who has always, always thrown the fire of His love, and behold, His word for the falling in love with God of those who have come and heard and then believed in Him after that. This is what the Holy Spirit exhorts you through us, the disciples of two thousand years ago; the confessors of the Lord and our Savior, and who even today have been confessing Him as Savior. Amen.

And to you, those who set the table for the heaven with those on earth who long after God, we are giving you from the fullness of the Lord and we are telling you to enlarge God's bed with you and to go on opening wider and wider for those who come to life from this sin and come to take in them the spirit of the falling in love with God like you. Practice hospitality! Be like that for the Lord for His fruit that goes up to Him, for you are His house! Amen, amen, we say to you; do not be afraid that you are small and weak! Let the Lord be able to work! You only stay as His house, as His guesthouse, for those who stop for a drink and, by drinking, to find the taste of not being separated from God after that. Amen.

Peace to you, as the Lord has also taught us to speak His wish over those who are good and faithful! Amen.

And to You, Lord, we wish You comfort in heaven and on earth from Your disciples from heaven and from those on earth, and through them from all those who are comforting to Your wounded Spirit after man. Amen.

– We are finishing now the word of the day, oh My disciples, those from heaven and those from the earth, and We rest in the spirit of the fulfillments, which sprout one from another to the glory of new Jerusalem on earth, which enlarges its tent. I have clothed mysteriously by a dear blessing all those who have come and rested and then have gone back to their own things. I have given them My angels to be their companions. I will be kindled in them with the fire that I keep throwing on the earth to burn and to be seen that it is burning, and then fire after fire to go off from it. Amen.

Oh, people from the spring, in seven days we have the feast of all My saints, and close to it, the feast of My trumpet, Verginica, born in the year of her birth on the ninth Sunday after the feast of My Resurrection. I will speak on that day, sons, and My speaking will comfort Me. I will be speaking with the power of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, oh, and how much I would like that My speaking on that day to bring forth fruit!

Peace to you! Get rest! My angels receive your ministry and keep it with Me for you. Be untiring workers within My vineyard, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy Virginia's birth

I am Who I am and I am the One Who becomes word from heaven on earth, as also in the beginning of the heaven and the earth I spoke by the power of the Father Sabaoth in Me, His word and Mine, Who is the Spirit of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God. I am the One Who, on this day, am becoming word over the people of My today's word, and from whose midst I am sharing Myself as word over the earth, first on the Romanian people and then from it all over the earth, over those who have found Me, and over those that I have also found them, faithful and unfaithful, according to their life, according to their merit or their lack of merit, for some to their raising and for others to their condemnation. However, most of it, My table of word now, in the end of the time, is food and comfort for the saints and for the angels who have been waiting in heaven for Me to speak on earth so that heaven may come together with earth at the table, for My coming has been waiting with longing by My creation from the beginning, the heaven and the earth, which, by My spoken word, everything has come back to its place, as they have been from that time and up to this day, and then speaking to each other in the language given by God at their creation.

I am speaking from heaven in the language of man by the language of the Romanian people, on whose hearth I have chosen to speak in the end, when everything and all go back to their first beginning, to the first love of God for those He has made by His word. Oh, I am speaking to you, Romanian people so that you may not be upset, as you have been aggrieved because of the lack of money or because of the lack of possessions for a good living on earth, (See the economic crisis and the salary cut by 25%, r.n.); however, you should be aggrieved because you do not have the Lord as your joy and comfort. Oh, how much I have been calling you, how much I have been calling you by My word of today in order for you to hear Me and to obey My word, which is coming in the clouds to you, My country of today! I have been speaking to you with longing and pain, and I have also been speaking with joy and comfort because you are My country of today, as the Father gave you to Me at My birth on earth two thousand years ago, oh, and how little do you want to hear what God is speaking upon you by His river of word now on the earth! I have taught you mercifully not to surrender your life to foreign hands, (See the loans from the banks of the population, r.n.); not to surrender your household, you pain, your wealth that you have got from Me, or your shortages because of your departure from God, oh, and you have not wanted to listen! My voice, which speaks upon you, comes from heaven from God, so that God may be with you on earth and that it may teach you from heaven in everything you do, but you have not got used to listening to Me and to following My advice. Oh, this is dangerous. The evil spirit sees you, that which was born of man in the beginning by his disobedience of God, his Maker, for the man's disobedience to God is an evil spirit. Your calling to obedience is My watch upon you, and I have always come with it to you, My country of today. Oh, you need a little shirt because your little shirt is torn and dirty and is not cleaned by God, and it will be completely torn if you do not listen, and you will wake up completely naked, as the man, whom I put in paradise, and who, because of his disobedience, woke up naked and hid, trying to hide his nakedness, and this comes from disobedience. I advise you to understand My merciful correction upon you and to learn, while in hardships, the spirit of brotherhood and the spirit of the lack of judgment with it, because everything that comes upon you does not come to your sufferance but to your awakening, because your heart is seized with ignorance of God. Oh, and I would like that you may no longer commit sin. I speak to you by everything that comes towards you so that you may hear and hate sin. Oh, keep away from debauchery, for it asks you for money to spend for it! Cast out sin from your land, for I, the Lord, am the word over the earth on your hearth and I want to cleanse your hearth from sin! Take away from you the sins that were committed before the flood, when people were eating and drinking, marrying and given in marriage and when they were carousing without God on earth and thus they were preparing their death, because no one, no one watches any longer so that it may not come.

Oh, My country of today, I am coming as word to you and I ask you no longer to drink anything else but only what I give you, for the evil spirit has made much drink, foreign to God, and it is called sin, and then it is a severe sin, and I ask you to remove the tobacco from your hearth, so that you will no longer use it as a sin[136], for behold what the man of lawlessness has made of it, and he has pushed you to fall into this sin as well, and that you may no longer take after God, Who is sinless! Oh, keep away from sexual immorality, keep away from any kind of immorality, because for it you need money and evil and sinful power, and it also requires of man estrangement from God!

I stay and cry with the Father and with the saints, for I see only sin on earth, ready, ready to sink the man into the deep, and I wait for the man to come to an end with his sin, and I also want to help the man if he cannot do it alone, as from his childhood to his old age, no one is able to live his life without sin, and the man's senses have always fallen into sin. Oh, if the man felt longing after God in him, then he would take this great grace and this would wake the man up from the drunkenness of his sin and he would come to the love from above, because I wrote for My kingdom over the earth to have a holy nation, a people earned by God, a royal priesthood and not a human one, as it supposed to be now everywhere on earth, everywhere without God, and it wants to have only a coat and a name over the earth, and behold where the wandering away towards sin comes upon man!

Oh, Romanian people, I will overcome the man and I will be victorious! Oh, do not be afraid of your sufferance from your shortages, but be afraid of the sufferance that comes upon you from sin! Come closer to My word of today, see what it wants from you, and listen to it, for My mouth is speaking upon you to your salvation and not to your evil! Receive My correction for you from God and do not receive it as from man, for I do not want you to fall into bondage to foreign nations, (By running into debt as Greece, r.n.), which does not have your calling, but which know about it even from your beginning with Me, when the Father gave you to Me at My birth in order to be Mine on My returning in the end of the time, because then, when I ascended into heaven after My passion, by which I paid for the man's life who wants to have life, the angels said that I would come back again, and now I have been fulfilling this, for the time has come and everything speaks that it has already come, as it is written.

I exhort you to peace and to endurance, Romanian people. Get used to poverty and to the little of everything, as God likes you to live, for the life full of pleasures draws you out of My protection and it gives you over as a bondservant to another master, the ruler of the darkness of this age, which has the spirit of the world as its food. I, the Lord, will give you over to correction if you do not want to listen to My exhortation for life, and I will beautifully wash you, for you need a little new shirt, and you have to be clean for it. I, the Lord, strengthen your patience and teach you to understand that everything that comes upon you is for your making from Me and it is for your cleansing and then to your resurrection, and it will be well with you if you listen, if you open to the Lord when He knocks at you to open to Him, oh, My country of today! He who has ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit speaks upon you, Oh, Romanian people, and to him who hears, I will give! Amen.

I have spoken in this day to the Romanian people, oh, people of My word, and I am speaking now to you the word of the feast of today of My trumpet, the day of her birth on earth among the days of the year, the twenty seventh day of May, written in heaven among the days of the great saints, because My trumpet Verginica is great among the great saints, because she has been carrying from heaven to earth My word of today, the word of Christ's coming again from the Father to man. The people of this word has not known to appreciate this trumpet and it has been unwise like Moses' people, when the whole people rebelled, with the exception of only two disciples, who remained faithful, and all the others rebelled, all of them, and this is how those who came out died on the way from Egypt to Canaan by My work that was upon Moses for them, and behold, the unbelief and doubt do not bring anything good but death, rebellion and then death.

Oh, man is very, very unstable in his faith, and this evil comes from his self-love, from mans' self-care, for man does not love the sacrifice pleased to God, the humble spirit, the humble heart, and man falls when least expected if he does not give his whole love to God, only for Him so that I may take care of him and of his living with God up to the end. I told My disciples two thousand years ago, when the test of their faith came near to them, and I said to them this: «All of you will be made to stumble because of Me tonight». (Matt: 26/31) Oh, why did I really have to speak like that to My disciples? Then I spoke to them like that so that all those who had been waiting for My kingdom to be with them as on earth to be judged.

Oh, My people, if you have to keep away from something more that might lose you from God, then keep away from the spirit of haughtiness, from the spirit of self love, which can shake you at any breeze, which can scatter you away from near God. Oh, keep away, sons, keep away each other from this evil spirit and help each other against it, for man is very, very proud, and he is proud in his body, in his mind and in his rank, and also in his nature and appearance, and the people become proud against each other, from one another, even against God and against His angels, who see the man proud by what he is, and the man's pride can be well read by those who have knowledge from Me to see it in man and to help him out one way or another, or to keep silent before the one who cannot understand his pride and then to come to his healing from it.

Oh, My people, I have told those who give you My word from Me, that in order to be small and humble, it means to believe what someone speaks for you or about you the way you are, and not as you say or know or see, and then you are what God wants you to be, Who is coming towards you as He knows. I tell everyone who are not grown, to those who are still proud by their mind and spirit, I tell them about those who stay in My gates between Me and My people, that I come to the people as word, and I speak about them to everyone who comes to My work to be with it, that I, the Lord, does not go wrong through them, but they go wrong through you, oh, sons without growth, and you go wrong, and behold how much distance between Me and you is! Moreover, I have them between Me and you, sons, so that you may be able to be close or far from Me with those in you or from you. Oh, I, the Lord, crush them for you so that I may help you through them, but you treat them otherwise. You crush them to do harm to Me, between Me and you, and behold how much distance between Me and you is, between My works and your works! Oh, how sad I am, oh, how said they are, and how little you are sad! Oh, how much you love yourselves and how little you love Me and them, in comparison with how much they do for Me and for you! I know to appreciate them, but you do not know, sons, for he who loves himself does not come to know what love and its power are, for I am love, and you do not have Me because you have you as love in you. I am speaking to those, who have not found satisfaction in love, those who have caused sighing, and to those I am speaking again: oh, do not longer walk alone and do not be without watch in your walking, in your thought, in your speech, in your deed, sons! The one who is one thought with you cannot watch upon you, unwatched son, but he can help you to fall by those between you and him, who are or are not, and you have to believe what I tell you, because I suffer because of you if you do not believe and if you do not listen to Me. I have always suffered into the midst of My people from those with little faithfulness and love and who have not had a beautiful conduct, and there had been much sufferance in My trumpet either, always, always from those who had been proud by their disobedience, by their lack of useful love for God, and today I am bringing the sigh of My trumpet into the book, with the hope that this will correct the stubborn one and will revive the one suffering from those who do not want to be beautiful and small into the hand of those who want to hold the hand of those who come to become God's sons and then who do not want to give way to this making.

Oh, Verginica, it is your day of birth among the days of the year and you were born in a time with pressure on the earth, and your time had always been like that on earth, and God's kingdom was born in you out of your ongoing pain in you, a kingdom that cries in man on earth after beautiful sons for it. Come, I am giving you entrance into the book, Our book with the people, and out of which We are coming to the people either! Come! The Holy Spirit is Our way from heaven to earth, the miracle that is hardly perceived by the man's mind, for man is proud before God, and he lives in a fallen state by his haughtiness. I, the Lord, am blessing your word over Our people, over those who are obedient and sweet in their obedience, and over all those who are sweet so little in their disobedience in order to become sweet for Us, to Our joy, and from them, for which We have always, always waited and waited again and again. Amen.

– I wanted to give You my whole path to the people, oh, Lord Word, for I live in You like all Your saints, and when You come, You come with us, and You do not come alone in Your coming. You are the One Who can do, and we give You to be able to work that what man cannot do, and we bring before You the prayers of those who have made us intercessors toward You with those we have received as petition before You and then to fulfillment, if You want. However, now, I am speaking to our people on my day of feast, and I am speaking from You upon it:

Oh, people of God, the Word, Who gave you birth out of His word in order for you to be! Oh, sons, seek first the kingdom of the heavens in you and among you, again and again, so that it may add to you all those you need and all those the Lord needs with you! The Lord has always asked you to comfort this pain in Him from those who do not love His kingdom in them, and He has asked you to take of it and carry and do likewise in order to be brothers, sons, to be brothers in everything, in all things, for otherwise you are not just with others and you are not brothers in everything. The true brothers among themselves are those who become brothers in sufferance, sharing it to each other, for those who become brothers in joys, they do not remain brothers, because the joy is only a thought and it leaves them and then brothers part company, for the joy separates them and they fall into its mistakes, and sufferance is a mysterious bond and joins under it those who love God on earth and have love for God among them, for God is aggrieved in heaven and on earth, sons. I am exhorting you to this brotherhood full of life from heaven among you, sons, for any other kind of brotherhood separates you, well, well, sons, and you see this from those that happens to the separation of the brothers.

Oh, here it is what I am telling you now about those who stay among you and us clothed within pain like those in heaven, pay great attention to it so that it may not make you weak by the pain in them, the Lord's pain, sons! You have also seen, at some funerals, those very crushed under pain because of the one who left them, for they are also those who struggle for everything and take care for the good running of all things at that time and then further for those who have remained, even if their heart lies and is broken in them, crying from the bottom of their heart. They greatly hide their pain and wounded tear in them, for they take care of those who are weak and small, who would not be able to cope with their big sorrow, and like that are some of those between us and you, deeply wounded for each son who goes to death, to separation from brothers. Oh, and when they hear of arrows from those, as they try then to justify themselves in every way possible for their staggering, for their lack of stability in the Lord's church, throwing their guilt in every way possible back against those who have remained, oh, for this iniquity and wickedness of the hearts that have given way to weaknesses, this shooting back arrow from those who left the brothers, hurts. Oh, great watch is needed for the lack of judgment against them with respect to what they do, because they heap up great judgment, but let us not judge them for the evil they throw behind, but rather let us be good so that there may no longer be any judgment from judgment, sons. Everything is laid on the table to the knowledge of everything that may come to put us to test, let us see them all clearly, to the protection from the evil things that come from them, to the receiving of wisdom of those who have remained, as an example to be followed for the beautiful and wholesome stature of the sons loving of God, but not for a spirit of judgment, as the spirit of judgment, the spirit of vindication and the spirit of blaming others comes from those who are rebellious; this spirit comes from wickedness, and wickedness takes revenge sons, just like foolishness does, which takes control over the mind of those who are mean because of the pride in them, for only pride makes the man discontent and then it makes him a judge for his cause.

Keep away from pride, oh, sons, for pride makes man discontent with respect to those around him and then it takes him away from among the brothers, and very rare does one see someone who falls by himself and does not blame someone else, instead of blaming only and only himself for his blindness. I am blessing you from the Lord for the spirit of the love of brothers, for the lack of judgment and for a holy longing in you for the kingdom of the Lord in you and among you day and night, day and night, sons and daughters in Jerusalem! Sons, always, always punish the empty talks among you to non-existence, and be the sons of the heavenly speaking, well, well, sons, for it is written: «Let him who speaks, speak the words of God". Amen.

And now, Lord, put Your seal over our work of today over the people, for You are the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end of everything, and we, Your saints, we are Your workers. Amen.

– Verginica, I am putting My seal upon Our speaking of today on your day of celebration into the midst of Our people and among those in heaven, who stay, listen and look at the work of the man's making, the making of a people, always, always worked from heaven so that I may have on earth My tool and that I may no longer borrow for Our household, because those that have been borrowed, belong to the people. I have My blessing come over your work spoken from Me so that it may have a living and deed in the obedient sons, and those who have not been obedient yet, are called to the spirit and to the work of obedience. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am speaking this to them and I am sealing My word with My name. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Read, read My word very much until it becomes man, making you on My behalf, and then take it on your lips between brother and brother and let all listen to Me, fulfill and build in this way by My word, so that the wolf that tears God's sons may lose its power, and that the Holy Spirit may become powerful over those who love God in their word and in their deed, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and the Intercessor, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the birth of the saint John, the Baptizer

With longing I become word between heaven and earth, for My word has kept silent for a while and the sky has been crying after My voice, and the whole making has got used to eat of My word of these days, and all have Me as their master and serve Me faithfully, but more than all these it would be for man to have Me as his Master. However, he has not got used yet to having God as his master and that is why he does not receive Him and does not wait by those God has sent after him.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of the Father and My Spirit, and in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I baptize in My word the heaven and the earth and the whole creation and I speak with man, for man has not got used yet to having God as his master on earth, because he wants to be a master, and he has got used to God serving him instead of man serving God.

I am the Lord and I am strengthening the gates to come in as word into My book of today, because if I become word, it becomes a book and the haughty man marvels at My book of today and he is so proud, poor of him, that he says that I am not this book and that I left a book only until My ascension. However, from the beginning of the creature and up to My word that I spoke on the day of My ascension, how had it been possible to speak and leave a book through My servants in such a way that it might be on earth after that?

Oh, man rules over Me with insolence and he has been putting obstacles into the way of My word of today and he becomes master over God, over the earth and over the word of the creation of everything, for I am always, always God, the Maker of everything that is and will be, and I work everything by the word. Oh, I do not stumble against man and against his haughtiness that goes up to God's throne, but I suffer from him and from his obstinacy, for I send him the word to fulfill, but he hides on earth so that he may not take part in My word and work it, and if he does not want to listen, then he gets upset with My creation, the ghosts, which listen to Me and sigh over My pain after man and thus My servants arise against man.

Oh, Romanian nation, I have taught you in a special way and I have told you to listen to Me so that it may be well with you on earth. Do you see what happens to you if you do not listen to Me, if you do not believe God, Who comes to you by His servants? Do you see what pain you bring upon you if you do not let God, the Master, to visit you and to tell you what to do, after He has seen your walking and your disobedience? Oh, the water has drowned your work and savings and you are unhappy, Romanian son, because of the heavy losses you have suffered. (See the floods in this year, r.n.) For seven thousand years, I have been teaching man by My servants how to live on earth so that it may be well with him, and man has not listened to God, man has not got used with God to be his Master, but still God is the Master, and you see that it is so and that you do not have any power when He speaks with you by the voice and by the work of the ghosts if you have not got used to listening to His word upon you.

I have sent you a written book and I have used My servants, who hear from My mouth the word upon man, and I have taught you, Romanian people, how to do My will before Me for your destiny with Me on earth, but your pride, which does not let you bow before God's correction, costs you, and it brings sufferance on you. I have put the people of My word into your midst to raise their little hands up to Me and to ask Me to bring the rain back into its chambers, for I have stricken you with flood, My country of today, but I have warned you that you would come to sufferance if you do not listen to Me. I am speaking to you in a day of the feast of John, My baptizer, but you do no longer have knowledge of the feasts of the saints at their place, because the pagan man had come and you listened to him and displaced the feasts of My saints from the calendar, (Replacing some of the feasts according to the "new" calendar, in the year of 1924[137], r.n.), and the saints have been aggrieved because you go to work on the feasts of My saints. Oh, no country, no Orthodox people have been more stricken than you have by the enemy of the feasts of My saints. You have been badly wounded and you have no longer had any true servants of the church upon you, for all are died in red (The collaborators of the former communist dictatorship and of the secret service of the security, r.n.) and My enemies and the enemies of My saints are also your enemies and they cannot be your benefactors. From the forefathers and from the old times, I have ordained pious days of prayer and worship to the Lord, and you do not want to follow the steps of your ancestors, holy and filled with the fear of God on earth. Oh, for nine weeks they had not worked after My resurrection on Mondays and Thursdays in their gardens, and they had not washed their little shirts and bed sheets during these days; they had not sewed them or driven nails and they had not stricken with their hand or with their tool during these days, and their love

[137] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

of God had been a blessing on the earth, and they had been protected from thunderbolts and lightning and from the floods and hail, they and their crops and their whole labor. Behold, man does not believe those that had been observed by the fathers and by his parents as days of intercession before the Lord as the help and protection from heaven over his things, and if he has not believed, he has come to see that he has not earned anything if he does not believe, and behold, I am speaking with you, Romanian people, on a day of the feast of the saints when you do your work after the order of the pagan man, instead of keeping the feast of My saint. I have given you help and I have sent you a message to receive My advice to bring back to their place the feast of My saints and no longer to interpret in a human manner how the man keeps account of his time and days, and you should consider how much damage you bring on earth with your pride, with your departure from the holy traditions, which you want to put them away one after the other, but this has incurred you only sufferance. Oh, it is not good for you if you do not believe in God and take after the pagan man, who changes his steps, faith and holy traditions! Behold, you suffer, and I feel sorry for you because you do not listen to Me, and your disobedience has also caused you to suffer, and I am speaking to you as a father and I invite you to believe and to receive Me, because I do not want your inheritance to be destroyed.

I am directing My word against your gates, (The rulers, r.n.), Romanian nation, and against those who call themselves your shepherds, and I am speaking to them about your pain from your lack of watch for God, and I am telling them like this:

If you, those who stay at the gates, (The Members of Parliament and the governors, r.n.), do not take God's word upon you to fulfill upon this nation and upon you, and if you, those, who sit in the name of the shepherds over the soul of the Romanian people, do not humble yourselves before My yesterday and today's word in order to fulfill it upon you and upon this nation, I, the Lord, cannot put back into the sheath the sword of My wrath for those who do not listen to God on earth. Oh, learn from Me to protect the earth and the man on it, if you are in the lead, but do not start any war on earth because of the iniquity on it caused the man's disobedience! Stand up and say "No!" to the immorality upon the sons of the Romanian people, and do not enact it, because you stand on bodies of many saints with your feet and these cry out from the ground to Me for this nation, for their successors! Get up and say "No!" to the work of the antichrist, which struggles in secret to bring into bondage and to lead astray the soul of the Romanian people! Read the Scriptures to see what the antichrist and its people want to do on earth, and do no longer borrow from the foreigners, who do not have God upon their life, because you sell your souls, which are more valuable than your bodies, as two thousand years ago, I said: «Aren't two sparrows sold for an penny? … You are of more value than many sparrows». (Matt: 10/29, 31) Oh, you are worth much more than many souls who sell themselves to satan for money. Do not sell your little souls! Love poverty and the little of everything you have, as I have taught you to do in hard times. Leave of the luxury and the fleeting pleasures, which harm your soul, body and spirit, and I, the Lord, will take care of you in a holy manner! Teach the people not to eat sweet food on the days of Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for they are written as day of feast for the man's good on earth and as sacrifice for the forgiveness of the sins, lest you may remain with your sins written with God, and give away from you the food with meat, for terrible illnesses are coming on earth by the meat eaten by man, living beings killed for the man's food, when I told him at the beginning: «Man, you shall not kill!»

I will look upon you and see if you choose life or death and I will work then. If you choose the life of My word with you, you will draw upon you all the blessings, and if you choose the death that comes from disobedience, I will fight against death and I will overcome it and I will fight for your souls, for I am a merciful Shepherd, a Shepherd with no reward, and I give Myself freely and I also share freely. Amen.

Oh, I do not have to feed the man with the spoon in order that he may believe Me that he may receive Me and follow Me. Oh, faith is not like that. The heart is that which knows God in heaven and then in it. I have great love for man, and I want to give it all to him and I would like him to want Me to give him too, for I am worried because I have not got anyone to give it. Many stumbled against Me in My time on earth two thousand years ago, and some of them got up and sealed My crucifixion with their names, for they were discontent with Me and with My justice, which was against their injustices, and after that they were testifying against Me in order to cover their sins.

Oh, Romanian people, the unbelief in God comes from sin. Oh, remember your forefathers, for they were poor, happy in their poverty in comparison with what you have got today on earth, for they did not have big and many houses for their shelter, in a way that they may occupy their heart in them and their worries for the soul. They loved God and they loved poverty and the lack of possessions, and they were afraid of the Lord and they kept away from the sin of greed and pride, and they had a small and humble house, and when they washed in their little trough, they dropped the towel over the icons, for they were ashamed of God and of saints to see their body naked, but today, their successors even in churches are naked and love immorality even in the streets and do not have any shame, both the small and the big ones, and they tolerate to each other their lack of shame and concern against immorality.

Oh, make peace with God, Romanian people! Take Him as your Master so that it may not go wrong with you on earth! Ask Him for your destiny and listen to His advice, for He has on your hearth the riverbed of His word in this time and is speaking with you as a good father and full of care for your life!

You, those at the gates, do not turn your back against My word upon you, and you, those who sit in the name of shepherds over the Romanian people, do not be unfaithful to My word, which urges you to be holy and faithful to My coming as word on the earth now, in the end of the time! Oh, as I had been speaking by the vessels bearing of God up to the time of My incarnation and then I left on earth My word which had become book and as everything was fulfilled in Me, oh, in the same way I am also speaking today, for I have the whole power in heaven and on earth given to Me by My Father to be useful to the people. Love My love in man and between man and man on earth! Wake up the spirit of prayer for these days, for the days are hard, and the spirit of the antichrist also tries to seize within its spirit this nation, which I, the Lord, have chosen for Me! I will call you to account if you do not keep the life of this nation, the life with God with every passing day, to the destruction of the satanic work on earth, for the Romanian people has a special calling among the nations, and those who do not believe this, will receive the reward of those who are the unfaithful to My word, which reveals the Lord's plans, as it has been worked on earth all the time. Oh, open to My word and search for its history of these days, so that there may not come pains for unbelief! Fulfill My will and pull the weeds out by their roots, to be only clean grass for My flock! Oh, do not be proud face to face with God, for you are people and God is God! Receive My glory upon you, receive My word and give it life upon you and among you and feed on My holy teaching, for the saints will judge the world, as it is written, and not the world will judge them, as this pain is seen today on earth, the pain which reaches God's throne to the judgment of this sin.

I have My witness among you, (The bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.) by whom I have blessed the trumpet sounding of My word upon the earth and the work of My people. Oh, do no longer persecute him, do not longer put pressure on the one who had confessed from Me, but rather love his sweet being after God and lift him up to prayer on My behalf for the Romanian people, for he is well pleased with Me! Love each other as the brothers of the same father and seek to know whose sons you are and do not take revenge against each other, but love yourselves as God's sons! Get used to have the Lord as Master upon you, for man has got used not to having Me as his Master any longer! Oh, let your hearts be responsive and be faithful, for I, the Lord, have got much work from the Father, work with much glory in the midst of the Romanian people! The Kingdom of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit I want to be on earth, and not that of man's, and I want the man to be My son. Amen.

Now, I am sealing with My name My book towards you, for I have power to speak and to become book on earth. Peace to you! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, have come to an end with My word of today towards you in a day of the feast of My prophet and baptizer, John. Amen, amen I say to you. I am the Word of God into the midst of the Romanian people and I do My Father's will, Who has sent Me to speak on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

And then, to the end of the day, I will be speaking with you, people of My word, as for a while you have not had My speaking with you. I have taken you out of the world so that I may take care of you, as in the world the devil would catch you with his baits and would enchant you with the money, as it happens to every man. However, I protected and protect you, so that you may not lay your hands on money and to be clean by your obedience and that I may be also able to take care of you according to My blessed order upon you, and you should be My protected child, the one who works My mysteries with you for those on earth, who have not been used to having God as their Master. Oh, I miss speaking to you, I miss, My people and I long to see that you are alive and have My entire word on your lips, between brother and brother, and with a living of Holy Spirit before Me so that I may sit at the table with you and the saints, to eat with you and you with them of the table of My word, by which I am coming down to you to take care from heaven and on earth of your life. Oh, peace to you! I have been speaking in this day to the Romanian people, to those at the gates and to those who sit as shepherds over this people, and they will be blessed if they listen to Me, to their blessing by My word over this nation, for which I have set you before Me, son. I am going to speak to you My word of longing and mourning and then of watching and hope because I will be victorious with you, and you need to have hope and work for it likewise so that the fulfillments may come, those you have hoped and waited for, for they are written in the Scriptures to be and to become, and you should also stay at work with Me, because without the word spoken by God, I cannot work those that will be.

May be blessed the day of the feast of My prophet and baptizer, John, and may My today's word give forth hundredfold; the work, I, the Lord, have been speaking into your midst by My voice upon you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I am preparing now a table of word between Me and you, My people. I am becoming body and word on your table by a holy transformation, as I set My order between Me and you, and the mystery of My word into your midst does not come to the man's mind, and those who lack wisdom from heaven make bold even to mock the mystery of My becoming word between Me and you, hidden even from angels for ages, so that I may come with it now on earth, and this mystery is written into the Scriptures when the heaven opens, and I, riding on a white horse, am called Faithful and True, judging in righteousness and having My name written, which no one knows but Myself, and My name is called "The Word of God," and the armies in heaven follow Me on white horses and they are clothed in white garments, and out of My mouth proceeds the word like a sword to strike the nations and to shepherd those I am pleased with, and on My thigh I have written, "King of Kings and Lord of Lords." (Apoc: 19/11-16) And satan knows this and is terrified and he makes waves in great wickedness, because he sees how the time of the judgment and My word for righteousness comes on earth, and no one knows but I the mystery of My word when it is made on My table with you, My people.

Oh, I do not have to put the words into anyone else's mouth in order to be able to believe Me, to receive Me and to follow Me when I stay as word between Me and man. I come on earth as word because this is written for Me to come, and whoever stumbles, asks himself and answers himself as he may wish about this mystery, then let him deal with himself as he wish, for My mysteries are not for everyone to understand and to believe them. As it is today, those who were dissatisfied with Me two thousand years ago also thought and spoke in so many ways and denied Me because they did not understand, and only those who had wisdom to perceive by it, only they understood what God was working and speaking. The mystery of the My word's descent is well sealed in secret and those who do not understand deny it, and those who are dissatisfied with it, denied Me and you likewise and not otherwise, and behold, the one who is dissatisfied does not remain with anything but only with an evil heart. Not that they are good and you are bad; it was not because of that they denied Me and you but because they were dissatisfied, for they thought that they were good and worthy and they also thought that I owed them. Oh, man owes to Me, and not I to him, but who wants to understand this justice?

I have told all those who have known the word of My descent: "Bite your tongue so that you may not speak evil with it over My work of today and over those who bear My coming," but if they have forgotten that I told them this, they have violated those that I told them ahead of time so that they may not do them.

I have received into My fold the one how was set apart; I have received the one who knocked to Me to open, to receive him and to have mercy on him forgiving and saving him after that, and here it is the word that goes like this: "Save a thief from gallows and he will help to hang you." Oh, unbelief comes from sin, not from stumbling, as those who leave My shelter try to say. I am reminding you now of the bishop from Târgovişte, (Basil of Târgovişte, r.n.), who fell while fighting against Me and against My people, for he had been fighting for seven years against My coming of today as word on earth, and after that he fell. He was covering himself with his unbelief, but the sin of envy was that which was leading his rebellious steps, and this is how he came to blaspheme My work, and then he paid bitterly on earth after that.

It is bad of the man who finds Me in this word and then he leaves Me and the people who are set apart! He who walks away from near My spring, from near My people, that one loses his grace, he loses his faith. The faith of My people is the place where I spring up with My spring of word, and My people is full of grace, full of faith, and whoever leaves it, loses the grace of a disciple. When it was coming closer the testing of My disciples' faith, after I had told them that they would be made to stumble because of Me on that night, Judas left the disciples and lost the grace of the disciple, when he left. Even since he started to hate Me because of his envy of the other disciples, he lost the grace of a disciple, and not all My Christians have learned from this bad example in order that they may not fall into this sin, and he who has not learned, has left the brothers, for only those who have doubted and staggered in secret by joining those doubting, blaspheming and denigrating the brothers, only those have got out of the little boat of salvation, and it has happened to them as it happened to the disciple who lost his baptism only because he had listened to the speaking against God. Oh, and this is what happened to these who listened to the spirit of rebellion and of judging of brothers. They took out of My table and ate and then left, because they did not realize what they took, and so it happens to the one who loves himself near

God, and a man like that deserves his destiny, and by loving his soul he loses it, as it is written, because he who searches for the mistakes of his brother and not for his, then he sees with what he remains, for it is written: «If you do not have love, then you are nothing». When you do not have love and you prove that you do not have it, then you can give your body to be burnt, and you can do any exploit that may enchant and deceive you that you are with God, but you are nothing when you prove to God and to man that you do not have love, for love does not come at random when man works it in every of its aspects illustrated by the Scripture.

Oh, My people, man needs to love correction and to wait for it so that he may be God's son, for woe to those without correction upon them, for they are not sons and have not come yet to the making of a son! Oh, he who does not love correction does not have love; he does not have it at all. He may say as much as he wants that he has got it, but a man like that does not have love, he has not given himself to God, for he who gives himself to God and then stays near Him after that, that one stays for his making from God, and this what has to understand the one who wants to become God's son by My word of today over the people. Every father disciplines his child and teaches him to get accustomed to obedience, and when he does not listen and does not learn, then his father corrects him, he brings him to obedience and struggles in this way for the good of his child.

The one who comes to become God's son needs love, staying near the work of his making from Me. To those who find Me in this word and believe in Me, I will give them the power to become God's sons, and this power means obedience, holiness for obedience, admonition for wrong conduct and the whole work of the man's making in all his time with Me. There is no greater love than this on the way with the Lord for the one who comes to be born of God, for I was obedient to the Father in everything even to the full sufferance of an obedient son, who does not open his mouth before those that are sent for him before the great victory, before resurrection, and this is how I was and am an example of the son of obedience for those who come to Me in order to become God's sons. Amen.

Oh, My people, I teach you to be faithful to the work of creation, the work through which all God's sons pass, and it passes through them until they want to remain sons, for the pot does not slap the potter's hand when he does work it and it does not tell him how to work it. My teaching is only longing, and My longing is only mourning, because the longing after fulfilled sons consumes Me, the sons I want to see that they know what they want when they try to come closer to Me by My word full of longing after man. I watch too much for the beautiful stay of those who come to be Mine, and I am deeply sorrow when I have to endure the Christian as he can do and when he can be; however, I watch to find an occasion to make Myself known with My longing after man, to be received with My face upon him and to make My way to him with My correction, with the work of creation, and then to nourish My hope that the one who comes to be Mine will understand, but when I see his discontentment and his lack of love for correction, oh, My wound gets deeper, bitter, more painful and more intense, and I am the Shepherd full of wounds for the life of His sheep, for My life in them, after whom I have been longing and sighing deeply.

Oh, My people, My love is only wound from each son coming to give himself to God. Longing and mourning, watching and hoping, so is My word upon you. John, My Baptizer, reminds you of his work upon the disciples and upon people, which he did in My name, and thus he put repentance in people between heaven and earth, and he is speaking as well upon you now with longing and mourning, as I am, and as I speak and John is giving you from Me, My people. Amen.

– Oh, Your wound was wound from me, little wounded Lamb, and in my wound I was telling many people: «Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come upon you!» Oh, because of my mercy for You and for the people, I was calling out with longing and mourning for the repentance of those who heard me calling out to them. I am giving to the people of Your wound in me so that its sons may also be as wounded as I am for You, suffering Shepherd.

Oh, keep to the spirit of repentance, people of the grace from above during these days! Oh, you are not supposed to play with this treasure. Repentance keeps the man within the Lord's spirit and work, in the work of the man's making. I was full of the spirit of repentance and I had a word of correction against those who were not seeking with repentance. I likened those who had no repentance to the brood of viper, which kill their mother and are not sorry for that and this is the work of those who do not want to repent in front of those who call them to repentance. Oh, repentance is that which gnaws away at the man's heart and those that are tangled cannot be disentangled but only by the words of repentance so that the man may get away with his heavy burden which gnaws at his heart and then to be humbled and thankful, nourishing his hope full of repentance for the Lord mercy upon him. Oh, it is a great miracle for the Lord to see such souls on earth! Even the Christian is not thankful and the sin of ingratitude brings the Christian to sin; it takes him to denial of God and of brothers, and how is one like this supposed to see repentance any longer? The true repentance is that which does good to the Lord, not to the man, for man deserves punishment not freedom, but the Lord deserves a house and His face in man as He is.

Oh, watching with hope is needed, people of the Lord, because one is not supposed to make jokes with the spirit of repentance which brings the heaven in man and in his conduct and love, which can no longer do any harm around for it, but it can only work with patience and with the longing full of mourning after the things from above, after the comfort of his sufferance after God.

Oh, sons, ask to understand what repentance is, what it does, and what kind of fruit it shows. Do not forget to learn this well and to be the richest in the spirit and the work of repentance, which brings the Lord into your threshold. Both the Lord and I lived in the spirit of humility and repentance. We bowed to each other. Oh, behold what greatness! We deeply felt to do so, bowing to each other. Oh, what greatness! Our bowing and the love for it were sincere, as both of us showed that the lesser one was to be blessed by the bigger one. The Lord was the One Who showed it in this way and thus He has taught man to do likewise, and from this, man has to understand what man is and what God in His greatness full of humility is.

Oh, love to be the sons of the heaven on earth, oh, sons! Learn the mystery of repentance and its endless work! You should not learn from you but from those who work repentance, from those who teach you by doing it and do not forget to learn! This is what I am telling and exhorting you, I, John, the baptizer and prophet, the teacher of repentance and the one who spoke to everyone: "Repent!" Amen.

– Oh, My people, John, the Baptizer, had the work of admonition in his ministry upon those who loved disorder, and because of this they killed him. I worked in the same way upon disorder and those who did not have a clean heart for themselves and for God hid their disorder and the filth of their heart. Oh, how blessed is the one who waits for correction, the one who bears with it for his getting wise, to his illumination and to his making from God!

Oh, help Me to have hope in you, My people! This word about which I am speaking to you is great. Help Me and not you, because only in this way you can help Me! Help Me to be on earth with you, My people, and to be always, always, for I have to work the great victory, for you are My angel on earth, the angel with whom I appear and I will surely appear, and all the angels serve us, and the heavenly armies come after Me, riding on white horses and clothed in white robes, for I am with you as word on earth, accompanied by the mystery of the holy heaven and I am speaking and saying to you: help Me, son, help Me, My people, for I, the Lord, have built and loved you for My glory and for its great victory. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saints apostle Peter and Paul

My book of today is being made on earth by My word of these days, and progressively My word is coming into it and fulfilling it as long as it is to be fulfilled by My word, which has been gathered in it, for it is written that the heaven will become scroll and the earth and everything on it will be cleansed by fire, but My word will remain and it will make the new heaven and the new earth, as it is the prophecy for this making in My book before My incarnation and then in My book after My incarnation, and again, in the book of My disciples, of My messengers after Me over the nations with the news that the kingdom of the heavens had come on earth and this was what they were preaching two thousand years ago.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and I am from the Father before eternity; I am His word and I am the word of the heaven on earth, in the same way as man is his word over everything that he does and speaks either. The Father had sent Me two thousand years ago to receive a body from man on earth, and I did, and from My childhood and until the time of My cross, which the Jewish people made for Me in order to destroy Me through it from the earth, I was obedient to My mother, the Virgin, as I had also been obedient to My Father in heaven and then on earth, and My work was obedience, and when the time came to give Myself to the cross, I did this in order to obey too, because the spirit of the prophets preached about Me that I would come to fulfill this after I had come in the body of the man, taken from God and from man. Oh, it was also for the sake of obedience that I picked up My disciples when I chose them from among the people in order to make them Mine and to walk with them on earth, and they to be My witnesses, God's witnesses, for God does not do His work without witnesses. Oh, and still out of obedience to My Father and to My mother in heaven, I am becoming today word over the earth, and My word is becoming a book, My book of today, just as the book of God's word had also been made, which is now on earth and is speaking about the time before My incarnation, and I then I am also speaking in it while I was on earth with the people, and still again, My disciples were speaking in it too, the witnesses of God's works in My time with them, and then from their time, because I told them that by faith they would perform in My name greater things than they had seen that I had made in the time of My walking with them on earth by that time.

Oh, the stubborn man commits great sin, the man with a short mind with respect to what he tries to say when he says that the Scripture on earth, the book which is called Scripture, that only it has the task to measure God's entire speaking. However, if I am becoming now a book on earth and if I am putting My word of this time in it, as it is written into the Scriptures that I would come and become again word and book for the judgment of the men's works, and then to give through it to each one according to his works, then is God no longer allowed to do this fulfillment? Oh, how long the angels, all the holy armies and the dead have been waiting for Me with the voice of My word of today, about which is written that the heaven, the earth and the dead in the tombs will hear it, and I am saying this to remind those who close Me into the pages of the Scriptures that I, the Lord, am speaking today on earth because it is written into the Scriptures to fulfill in this way, that the time of the judgment has come to judge the living and the dead and I am doing this by My word of today, and I am telling the man with a short mind, who says that he has got much knowledge, I am telling him that My work is the word, and the work of My word is from everlasting to everlasting. I am speaking once again to the man who beats his chest with the Scripture in his hand that if in the book of John's Apocalypse is written that the one, who makes bold to take something out of it or to add something to those written in it, will receive the curses written in that book, then I, the Lord, I am speaking one more time to the stubborn man in this way that it is about the book of Apocalypse, about John's Apocalypse, and no one is allowed to add to it or take something out of it, for My disciple knew that the man would make bold and My disciple bound him under this word, the disciple to whom I showed the time of the judgment and the whole map of the judgment of the man's works, which were, are and will be on earth to the last day, until the victory of the Lamb of God, as it is written.

Oh, My book of today is a way opened by Me so that I may come with the saints of the heaven on earth, and not to come alone, for it is written about Me, the One Who opens the heaven to come, for the heavenly armies follow Me when I come, and I fulfill as it is written into the Scriptures to do, and behold, I am coming down into My book of today with My disciples of two thousand years ago, to whom I spoke when I went back into the Father: «You will be witnesses to Me to the uttermost parts of the earth by signs and wanders and by the word of the preaching, and I will be with you to the end of the time», (See also Acts: 1/8 and John: 14/12), and everything I spoke is true, because the Book of John's Apocalypse calls Me Faithful and True and Judge in righteousness. Amen.

Oh, My dear disciples, We are coming down into the book before those on earth, for they are the days of My coming again from the Father to the people, and I have come to judge the living and the dead, as it is written for Me to fulfill and to keep helping these people against their works, losing of soul, and then to come to an end with the work of those that have remained for the time of nowadays, according to the Scriptures for those that I, the Lord, have to fulfill, crowning My work with the fulfillment of the new heaven and new earth for the heirs who have put their hope in them and worked like that. I am becoming with you a rich table of word to strike with it into the hardening of the man's mind, who is limited in his mind because of his will, which wants to be like him and not like God, but let us confess that which the people do not want to confess about the truth shown in the Scriptures and to which We bind Our whole work of today upon people, only that they may search the Scriptures well, to their wisdom, for they need fear of God to receive wisdom from above, and not fear of them, and they do not have to interpret the Scriptures as they may think is right for them, and not according to the map after which God works and fulfills.

I am speaking with you in My book of today, and you are speaking with Me in it either, and We are coming down in it with the last days, oh, loved disciples, for God has got room in it, not as in the heart of the unfaithful man, but as in His inheritance. Oh, it is no wonder that man can hardly believe, because the man's fall was great and he fell from wisdom, poor of him, and he fell into haughtiness and this is how he has remained, and it is much to work on earth and on man so that he may perceive all of God's mysteries and His great work for the raising of the fallen man. I, the Lord, do not have any room into the man's mind, I do not have any place because of his mind and pride and because of his ignorance in which he stays, but I can bring him to humility to the point that he can no longer stand against Me, until he comes, willing or not, to see God and to know Him, against his running away from God. My book of today is My inheritance, and I have heirs in it, and it is written in it about the woe of those who will not be found written into this book, by which I teach the man the life and the book of life, because in his life man needs much learning, as also in his temporariness, he learns from books in order to be able to work according to the book the passing of his time.

Oh, loved disciples, let us teach the faithful people of My coming of today to be strong before the waves of unbelief, which blow against people from those who have learned from the book to do away with God on earth, from the people and from the Scriptures, for the man who has read the Scriptures and sat down as great into My name over people, that one chooses to remain with a short mind, with short view, with weak faith, as those in My time, great in their ranks and who called you, My disciples, the sect of the Nazarene, for they did not have in mind and work to follow God but rather to destroy Him for the sake of their will, as it is also being worked today on earth, into the midst of those who are weak in their soul and in their hope in the life of the age that is to be soon on earth, and as for those who do not know to get ready, they do not know to seek and to find the way.

I am coming with you on earth, loved disciples, and We are coming with the whole heaven which is the dwelling place of My saints and of those who are faithful, and We are speaking among Ourselves before the people that is listening to Our word and of which many eat and grow for My kingdom in them, learning from My book not to sleep for My coming but to watch for it to come. Oh, I have great work by My disciples, for I went to the Father, but I left My work for the salvation of the people to My disciples to the end of the time, and they have also left it from one generation to another, with the exception of those who have called themselves disciples, but My people are known from one thousand; they are known by their life and by My face in them, and they have the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, and no anyone has got them, oh, no, and they cannot close or open on the outside but only on the inside, for it is clearly written into the Scriptures the parable of the foolish virgins, who slept before the Bridegroom's coming, and when they woke up at the noise of His coming, they did not have any entrance, and they tried to enter but the door was closed on the inside before they came, and they knocked in vain outside, for the key is not on the outside, but it closes and opens only on the inside, only by those who live in Me and not in them and not in this world, as they live on earth. Amen.

Oh, come disciple and sons, come to speak by My book of today, which becomes My way and yours from the Father to the people! Be teachers born of Me, your Teacher of two thousand years ago, when I took you out of the world so that you may walk with Me from the earth and up into the heaven and to suffer with Me in order to take after Me in your love and in your teaching upon people after that! Oh, come to speak with Me, with My people and with the man on the earth, for you are My witnesses! Amen.

– Your Spirit is the spirit of confession, and it is our spirit, Lord, Teacher, as well. Oh, we lived lowly on the earth under Your sanctifying and guiding hand and we were keeping silent before Your works, which were as great as You are among the people, and we were weak and fearful and we were slow in our walking for Your heavenly walking on the earth then, but You always spoke upon us with the Holy Spirit, a new power and making of signs and miracles, and all had to do with the power of faith and love in us, love shared between You and us, for not many of us separated themselves from those that were already ours and we were not working Your word perfectly for the birth of faithful disciples and totally dedicated to You. We had to leave everything, mother and father, brothers and sisters, wives and children, relatives and friends, all that we had and we also had to deny ourselves and to leave everything in order to be able to be Your disciples, but when the Holy Spirit, Whom You sent after You had gone to be with the Father, came and sealed us with power and clothing, then we could be Your witnesses for You to go further through You and not stay; You were in us, oh, Lord, and in this way we were Your witnesses and You were our King, and we were Your kingdom. The people on the earth flee from Your coming when they say that You do not come, but You do come and keep coming, against their running away from

God, and You become the book of judgment on earth, and the man has got a short mind, a short sight and a weak faith, and who is to tell him how his faith is supposed to be and what to do? We are sitting at the table with Your people and we are teaching them discipleship from You and we are exhorting them to have great faith, greater than that which we had when Your word was giving us birth for You in order to be from You among people after that, and we were the beginning of Your new people, of a new nation, for the people started to become wicked again as before the flood. Oh, now You have sowed Yourself as a new seed, for the men's seed have gone bad and the people are no longer attracted to God, for those who are proud up to God have stood up and ruled the world towards the kingdom of the people without God, and that those who are great among people to be their kings. Oh, they do not know what they do, poor of them, but they do know what You did on earth and started to make war against You, poor of them, and they are blind and do not see Your walking full of glory, because they do not want to see. Oh, these will fall in their own net thrown by them over the nations and they will be called to give account on the day of Your victory, seen by every eye on earth and in heaven, and You will start with the house of God, as it is written into the Scriptures for You to work, but those whom You love will embrace them at Your bosom, just as You were comforting, nursing and fondling us with all the faces of Your love for those who became loved by their faith in You and by the sweetness of their heart for You, Lord, for those who perceived you, loved you, and they were Your relief on earth, aggrieved Lord, and they loved Your sufferance very much and forgot about their empty life and about the people, and they became like You for those who had pains on earth and, being the comforted ones, they comforted as well in their turn, they loved and healed the man from his sorrow and brought him to You so that You may make man Your house. We are speaking with Your people and teaching them the endurance under the cross. We are sitting with them at Your table of word and looking at their work before You and we are also exhorting them from heaven for the Holy Spirit in them, in the sons of Your people, a loving of people spirit, and which brings the wisdom from heaven in them. Let us spend near them and let us speak to them, and after that let us make Your book of today before them, for we are teachers too, because we are Your disciples, Lord, and we have to take after You.

Peace to you, chosen people for the Lord! We are spending with you and then we are sitting down to speak on our day of the feast among the saints. Amen.

– Oh, My people, My book on this day with My disciple will be a testimony for the faithful ones and for those who are not faithful, who set little price on their souls, on that which will remain of them. Oh, many of those who have served in My name upon people have believed that they have the keys of the heavens, for they interpret the Scriptures according to their wisdom, not according to the power of the word in the Scriptures. Oh, the keys of the kingdom of the heavens are not as they understand that this it means, because they wander away like the Jews in the time of My body, who did not know and did not understand the Scriptures by that time. Man thinks that he is great in the name of God, but he only uses My name and not My life, and that is why the servant who establishes himself over the people in My name has no power at all. They would have had great anointing to serve the people in My name, but not by a human anointing, by a human opinion that works according to appearance or money. Oh, God does not choose His servants in this way who are no longer of this world if they become God's servants. Behold, they call you a sect, My people, because this is what they know to say and to understand, as those in My time did too. However, you are chosen by Me from among the thorns and thistles and I have given you a face and life with every passing day to have from Me, and this is how you are one body and one spirit with Me and you are My temple and My house of guests, and I am coming with the saints to you as guests and I am setting you before them, and I am setting them before you too, and we are going to speak with each other on this day, and we love this day, a confessing day, and then we will fill it with the love of My word for man, for man does no longer have where to take from, to know and to understand from God.

May the feast of My apostles be blessed into your midst, My people! Oh, bless the Lord and learn this for the days to come, when I will show you as My witness, My good witness during this time, people who come to growth and to your making. Oh, peace to you! We will come back into the book and will leave the teaching in it and the interpretation of the mysteries of the Scriptures, which man keeps under a bushel, under the shortness of his mind. Oh, come, son, come to work on the fields because the harvest is great and we need to work much, too! Oh, do not be afraid, because I am the power, I am the One Who can do, and you are the one who set My word on earth, which says and is done, and you are My help when I come as word on earth, when I come to you from My Father as new word, My word of today between heaven and earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, on this day of feast I, the Lord, announce Myself into the midst of the people of the word of My coming of this time, accompanied by those in heaven, by My disciples of two thousand years ago, with whom I walked on earth from the day of My baptism and until the moment of My ascension again near the Father, after I had completed the whole visible work for which I came on earth to do and then to leave it strengthened in the disciples for those who, from generation to generation, would believe and be baptized in My name, the corner Stone, Jesus Christ, the Rock on Which God founded His church and its servants for the faithful people on earth.

We are writing this day on earth and in heaven and We will love this day, a confessing day, with witnesses in heaven and on earth, written into My book of today. My speaking of today and the whole work and its completion is built on the foundation in the Scriptures, as also My work of two thousand years ago with My witnessing disciples near it was built on the foundation, for in the Scriptures of that time, it was brought into view everything that was set in them about Me to come and to fulfill, as also those of today are well reflected ahead of time in God's book, and I fulfill nothing else but only those that come in a row for Me to bring them on earth, and I do nothing else but only take from the Scriptures, and this is how I work and fulfill.

After My ascension to the Father, My working disciples were on earth, and when the time came for them to be able to work at large among people, who were in Jerusalem, inhabitants or guests, they unsealed the Scriptures written about Me by Moses and by the prophets and psalms, and which had been all fulfilled within Me, but the stubbornness and the pride of those who were rulers over the people, Caiaphas, Herod and those around them, were so fierce, and people were raging against My disciples to prevent their tongue from preaching Me to the people and from preaching all those about Me, and especially about My resurrection after that, the event of My crucifixion done by Caiaphas, sealed the judgment of My crucifiers and of all those who were stubbornly standing against faith, stiff-necked people, as My disciples used to call those who hardened their hearts; and then, the Herod's sword thrust in Jacob's body, the apostle, and killed him from among them.

Oh, beloved disciples, after My ascension near the Father, you have been clothed with power and with the wisdom of the preaching from the Holy Spirit, Whom I had promised to you and then I gave Him to you, and in Him you had taught the people the faith in Jesus Christ, the Rock of the church, and you had no longer built on another foundation the nations on the earth, because I had sent you to all the margins of the earth with the Gospel of the kingdom of God and

I told you: «He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned». (Mark: 16/16) I have brought you together and told you: «You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth». (Acts: 1/8) In addition, «Whatever things you will bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever things you will release on earth will be released in heaven. Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two or three of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by My Father Who is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in the midst of them». (See Matt: 18/18-20)

Oh, let us speak in heaven and on earth, for it is written: «The Lord is in His holy church. His throne is in heaven. For the affliction and sighing of the poor I will rise; I will bring them salvation and I will speak clearly to them; there are no words or speeches whose voices are not heard. On the contrary, their message came to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world». We are sitting down within a confessing day and We will love this day, with witnesses in heaven and on earth, written into My book of today. Oh, what is My speaking of today? It is My coming again from the Father to shake once more the heaven and the earth under the greatness of My word and the mountains and the islands to be moved from their places, for man does not want to do this at My voice of today, and the works of Sodom and Gomorrah are sweeter for him and man makes an agreement with death, but he does not want to come to an agreement with God, for the false apostles have risen and clothed themselves in My robe and they teach the crowds in this way, in another way that you and I have taught the nations on the earth from one generation to generation until today and tomorrow. Oh, the false apostles teach the people otherwise, and I said to the people that they would know them after their fruit, those that are not My apostles, My followers on the earth.

Look into the Scriptures, oh, sons of men, for if you do not listen like that, you will be lied with every passing day, more and more, for those who rule over you do not love God, for they shepherd you for them and not for Me, and they draw you to them. Oh, go to them and ask them to show to you the Lord with them, but do not be deceived by them! Also come to Me, and I will show you the word of salvation from sin and I will lead you to a holy life, as My life is, and I will appear within you during this way, and they will be hated by everyone because of My life in you, for My name, which you will be worthy to really bear on earth, and you will be My disciples, as those two thousand years ago, to whom I spoke: «You will be hated by all for My name, but not a single hair of your head will perish». Oh, behold the sign, which I give you so that you may know those who are not My disciples and cannot bring the way under your feet so that you may walk on My holy way with your way among people. Behold the people of My word, people of disciples like My disciples two thousand years ago, to whom Caiaphas, the bailiff of his servants, commanded no longer to speak to the crowds in My name. However, they, clothed with salvation, were preaching more and more and they were giving their answer: «We must obey God rather than man». (Acts: 5/29) Oh, this is how I have been going with the work of My word by My disciples of today and they get rid of Me and them, those who run away from My coming and who made bold to misinterpret John's book, the book of Apocalypse, about which John wrote not to be taken out of it or added to it, and they did and wrote a period of time, (They wrote "thousands of years" instead of "a thousand years and still nearly a thousand years," r.n.), and they pulled the thread of the written number and did no longer write a number, and they wrote without a number[138] the years of the man's kingdom, and they replaced without any number the time of the resurrection of the dead (Also "thousands years" instead of "one thousand years." - See Apoc: 20/2, 4, 6, 7) and thus, by so doing, they have defiled the man in his mind, in his waiting, hope and faith, and they have taught the man to go to sleep and to sleep peacefully and no longer to wait for My coming written in the Scriptures, and then to be fulfilled after two thousand years from My ascension to the Father, a number written by the apostle John, after God's revelation shown to him, but which, with a great mystery, was fulfilled on earth, and I came when no one expected Me and when no one expects Me to come any more. Oh, disbelief, the spirit of unbelief, how you have come out in secret to fill the earth and the world with your deceit!

I was after My resurrection on earth with My disciples, a time when the graves were opened and My righteous came out in the streets of Jerusalem, and this is written in the Scriptures, (Matt: 27/52, r.n.), and the saints coming out of the tombs spoke and stayed with the rulers of that time on earth and confirmed about them and about Me, the One Who went down to them in the dwelling of the death, and I opened for My righteous to come out; however, the rulers of that time had kept looking to bury the truth about Jesus Christ, Who appeared from God in their time, for I wrote: «Even if one rises from the dead, the unfaithful will not believe in God if they do not want to believe in Moses and in the prophets with their book on the table». (See also Luke: 16/31)

Oh, this is how We are teaching you the faith in God, I and My disciples, and the faith in My coming of today, oh, sons of men, for the waves of unbelief are big, bigger than people and bigger than their places, and they take them away together with their houses, but I have watched because of the danger and announced those who are endangered in their watching, and if they do not believe and do not watch, they will see.

Oh, sons of men, it is not that they have got a short mind, but those who exhort you, put you off with fine promises and teach you how to have a short mind, short sight and weak faith, until one day when it is convenient to them and will completely cut off the gift of the faith from you, for they are skillful to cause death to God in man and to take the man with his house and bring him into the thickest darkness, but I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am telling you after two thousand years from My word spoken over My disciples: «Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body, and your eternal life, God in you». (See Matt: 10/28) Further, I am empowering this word for you to take it, to receive it and to watch, for the thief is at the door. I have My disciples, the witnesses of two thousand years ago when am speaking to you like that, and I have witnesses for you or against you, My disciples of today, with whom I have come to you as word, so that you may give an answer, good or bad, for you. The people run away from My coming with the judgment of their works and the servants of the church also run away, and from them the sickness of the running away from God comes upon people, but My coming is also running, and it together with its running work day by day more and more, and no one can hide from My face or is able to run away anymore, when I dwell everywhere, for the heaven and the earth are My inheritance, on which I step.

Oh, if it were not written in the Scriptures for the Lord to come and to speak on earth so that even those in the graves may hear it and to give each one according to his work, those, who teach the people not to wait for Me and not stay ready for My coming, would have no sin, but on the contrary, they would still spend on parties, but I said that this would be in My time of coming as it was in the time of Noah, when the flood came, and as it was with Sodom and Gomorrah, when no one expected the fire to come down, and those, who did not expect death to catch them in their deeds, were carousing.

Oh, why really, you, people, those who serve in the name of the Lord upon people, why do you not teach the people those that My disciples and I put into the Scriptures? Oh, why do you commit this sin, which Caiaphas also did, when he paid money to hide Me and the truth about Me? What do you want to gain in this way? Oh, how comes that you do not change? How comes that you like your sweetening from your glory from the people and you do not think at My wounds and at Me, hanging naked and mocked on the cross, and where I gave My soul for you for you to take Me as your example of life as well? Oh, does this not hurt you? Do your embroidered clothes with precious stones and your great worthiness not hurt you, when I was nailed, spit in My face and blasphemed as the least among the people, and from which anyone had turned their face away? Oh, whose are you? Whom do you serve and whom do you use? Oh, you neither serve yourselves and nor the people, but you only seal your graves and want to be paid for this, when you are supposed to be the poorest and serve without any reward and when you also are supposed to be merciful too, as My disciples served the people out of their love for Me and for the people oppressed by the ruler of the world. Oh, how comes that you do no longer wake up from the roving that you love like the life full of glory for you, and you not being able to be so saving for the people, shepherds with mercy on the flock? On the contrary, you stay before the people with a crown on your head, carved with precious stones, and so you stay face to face with Me, having a crown with bloody thorns on My godly forehead, and behold, you still have a little time and you will completely lose your mind, as the Pope in Rome, who was not satisfied like you, only with a crown, but rather, he put on his head three crowns, one above the other, in order that the man may be afraid of him, as a threat, and that his curse may have power over the man's heart, the curse that will burn into the eternal fire the one who does not submit to him in obedience as before God on earth, when he serves many idols, as you do, he serves many gods, that he calls: sports, holiday, visits among the big heads of the world, politics on all sides, that have much servitude for the will full of libertinism, and he is in no way a slave of Christ on earth, the minister who sits on the seat of a church, on a praised throne, clothed in scarlet silk, Edom's color, his red prince, as it is written in the Scriptures about the dyed one, and who is the man of lawlessness, seeking the life of his brother, time after time, from generation to generation. Oh, you have fully cast Me away from the places where you serve for worship! You have clothed in red and you are not afraid to do this, because you obey satan and his chosen color, and even the book of the Gospel brought under the red cover, and all the churchly books, you cover in this way! Oh, who gives you to do this if you have sat to be the first over the church of the Romanian people? Oh, why do you not like to be Romanian? Where has been found a Romanian clothed in red, when he has always been clothed according to the word of the Scriptures, in a little white shirt, of pure linen, and girt up with a Christian belt, a sign of the holy power on his loins? Oh, where have you seen Me in red, with the exception of the time when the rulers of the temple bought Me on money to give Me over to be mocked, in order to destroy Me from the earth as a murderer? Oh, I am coming from heaven in a great advent, and I am coming with all of the saints, and I am speaking on earth accompanied by the saints, and we are all dressed in little white shirts, of pure linen, and this how confess those who see Us, having got from God this gift of the confirmation of the heavenly glory on earth within the coming into view for the spirit of testimony.

Oh, behold who misinterpreted the book of Apocalypse, in which My disciple wrote for a time, one thousand and again one thousand years, a way measured by God for His coming again on earth, and those who did not love to be disciples, got up ahead of time, (1054, r.n.), and they had made for themselves a strong and special order and then they came out and set upon them a father and called and call him father, (Pope, r.n.), after I had spoken by a prophetic word, two thousand years ago, to My disciples saying to them: «Call no man on earth your father, for one is your father, He Who is in heaven», (Matt: 23/9), and this is how I taught them to be disciples, and not to sit highly on earth upon people, but only to teach them the way from God. Oh, there is no father on earth but only Him Who in heaven, and He is the only One, and He is called God, and those who are His sons call Him: Father! Amen.

Oh, those who are great do no longer want Me to come on earth! The earth is made by God and those who are great are not afraid to take possession of it by force from God's hand. They do no longer want to be My disciples, but they only want to be My masters on earth, and I to wait for them and to give them only My name and to stay in heaven and not on earth so that I may not thwart their plans because they want to be fathers, not disciples, and the whole people to say that they are worthy, and behold the abomination of desolation of the people's souls in a place called holy, servants opposing to Christ on earth, sitting like that in the name of Christ.

Oh, let us mourn both in heaven and on earth, disciples remembered today with a day of feast for you in a spirit of church, and We will love this day, a day of the unsealed truth from the Scriptures, but sealed under a key by the apostles of lie. Behold a confessing day, with written witnesses from heaven and earth, in My book of today, My tearful speaking in heaven and on earth, like that of yours, oh, My disciples, to whom I have given you power to release everything that is to be released on earth and to open everything that is locked by man on earth, and also to lock everything that has come unlocked from man against God. I give you, those among the saints, My disciples of two thousand years ago, I give you to clarify the meanings, which have been confused by those who have not loved to be disciples, but whom have rather loved to be great and to have a crown and sit on silk thrones in My name over crowds, as you and I did not live on the earth, but rather I lay on the cross and with a cross among people. Oh, where are those who are supposed to be Our followers like Us? Oh, where?

– Oh, there are no longer anywhere, Lord, such teachers and disciples. All have become boyars, as You have been crying in Your book of today.

We was Your church on earth, after You went to be with the Father again, and You called us disciples and You called us messenger apostles as well, and we were serving only Your word, sharing it as a whole and not truncated word over those who believed and were baptized and sealed then by the sign of the Holy Spirit, the Confirmer of those who were true and faithful Christians, and no one was able to deceive God, for the word of the Holy Spirit was revealing those who were deceiving, those who were greedy, those who wanted to receive gifts from us on money to have them as we had, but today the apostles are built only on money, and the world is locked outside so that it may not know those worked within the locked doors and against the man's soul, and that the man may be used only to praise the one set to be great over him and to serve him obediently, at least if they were on Your side. The good saints, the fathers and the forefathers tremble when they see what it is under the name of the church on earth. While we, Your disciples, were going and raising to You from place to place faithful sons to Your coming, Your church on earth and with Your work through it and not of the man's, we were raising and anointing with the oil of holiness and through the laying of our hands the priests and deacons over those who were faithful, and through the servants, those, who had become Your sons on earth, to have Your body and blood as their food on the table, and we were asking all the believers whether they knew that the one who had to be ordained to prepare God's food on the table for the Christians, whether he was worthy or not worthy for priesthood, and the Christians were telling us according to the truth if he was worthy for priesthood or not, the one who was to become a faithful servant of Your church. Oh, for a long, long time, it has not been worked as we did for the way of the anointing of the servants, and behold, it happens otherwise, for they "cut and hang," as the wise saying goes, only those who sit highly over the crows, and they have the full power, and they say otherwise and do no longer say as we said, asking those that were in Your church whether the one who was to be a servant was worthy or not. Now they say, they alone over the head of the one they choose and announce worthy, and they say to everyone: "He is worthy!" And all start singing likewise: "He is worthy!" And this is how they answer, but they do not answer to the question, but only to the decision they had taken by them, and this is how they use the keys, to close and to open with them and they say that You have given them the key to work with them like that. Nevertheless, does Your Scripture really have to be understood, that You spoke to us then? If you are the door, as this is what You said that You were and that it was through You that one is able to come in, then are You no longer the key to the door and is not the Christ the Rock of the church? Oh, behold how those, who have filled the earth with their glory by which they sit under Your name on earth, close and open the door and its key.

Oh, we did not follow in this way the Lord on earth among people! We were cast out, hooted after, beaten, threatened, crucified and killed in every way possible for the name of the Lord; this is what we are telling you, to the servants who are sitting today under the name of priests and bishops on earth. You suck the strength of the houses and the men's possessions crushed by the waves of the time. You take on embroidered robes to shine and catch the eyes and the hearts of the weak ones and you oppress and have no mercy on them, and you should have, if you have chosen yourselves to be servants for them, but all you do is only to marry and bury them, oh, not only that, but you also have to bring under their feet the power which takes the man into paradise, not into this world, and if you do not do like this, then what do you serve to have a reward from God? Oh, everything is related to the power of the faith and love in you, which have to be shared and given only to God, if you have chosen to serve on His behalf for the people. The people flee from the Lord's coming and you have to advise them not to flee from it, but to come to the Lord instead.

We are speaking now over the Orthodox church because it has been growing so less after those with hidden plans have come out of it, plans through which they want to strangle the man's freedom by the threat that they have to worships only one father on earth, to whom they are supposed to bring the entire honor as to God. (Pope, r.n.) Oh, get up well, Orthodox flock, you and your servants! Make peace with God with all your love, for doubtful love is not good, but the love of a disciple is good, which denies even itself for the love of the Bridegroom Christ. Oh, the Lord does not let you fall, for He has got a little and tiny people on earth, persevering to Him for you, but you should also not let yourself fall when your test comes.

Oh, learn the work of the disciples, you, servants upon churches! The Orthodox Church is little, but if you are still awake, do not be afraid, little flock, this is what the Lord said. Those who are many have come out and chosen their father on earth, against Christ's teaching Who told us not to call anyone father on earth and to have as our Father the One in heaven.

Oh, come Lord, come for good and come fully on earth, as only in heaven and on earth the Spirit and the bride say: Come! Oh, come at the calling of Your new people, the people of Your word, come, for only it calls You to come, and everyone on the earth runs away from Your coming!

Oh, always come to praying so that the Lord may also come to you and to be with you, little and tiny people, which has been eating of the voice of God's word in this time of darkness, drought and hunger, as there has never been since ages on earth, as the struggling of Satan has come to an end and he has been seeking to put the Lord down everywhere, but he will only deceive himself harder than he deceived himself two thousand years ago, as his time has come to be prevailed completely by the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Rock of the church, on Whom it was and it is built the Christian people, the heir of the heavens, the people of the saints, who live according to the order in which we, the Lord's disciples of two thousand years ago, were established and then we also established it as the life of Christ's church on earth, the church seen out of a thousand, and you should be a great hope of the holy church and not overcome in the days to come, when all the lights from all the windows will be put out because of the tempest of the faith denial, which will blow everywhere through the man clothed within the garment of a shepherd to be able to kill the flock as well as and as much as he can. Oh, you are set to be preserved and to be loved, and whiten yourself son, as white as the light of the day so that you may shine in the darkness that comes and to give forth light over it, as the Lord is with you, and you are with Him, and the nations will understand and will bow after the wrath will have passed, as it is written to be. Amen.

We, Lord, are finishing our speaking, and by the word of today, we are speaking to everyone like this: «The Lord is in His holy church; He has His throne in heaven, and He wakes up for the oppression of the poor to bring their salvation and to speak to them plainly, and there are no voices or words whose voices may not be heard. On the contrary, their preaching comes out all over the earth and their words to the margins of the world», and this is how this word will go, and its light will shine on earth to the margins, as a written testimony. Amen.

– I, the Lord and your Teacher, Jesus Christ, have put you on the rock as My church, and I am the Rock and I am called Christ, as Peter, My disciple, confessed that I was, and that I was from God. I, the Lord, am giving you rest in My speaking from today, set into My book in these days, and I am resting with you too, because I have managed to speak the truth. I am the truth and that is why I show it, and My saints are those who judge the world, and the world does not judge them. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am finishing My stopover into the book with the feast of My disciples of two thousand years ago, and We have remained the workers from heaven for God's victory in time, I and My disciples, and all the confessing and working sons, and you are near Us. Peace to you. You are My house with heavenly guests, but you should also be obedient to Me and be My disciple and My son, for your Father is in heaven, My people son. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the laying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I am writing Myself into My book of today of the memorial of My victory, when I, the Lord, had power to lay down, with witnesses in heaven and on earth, the stone of foundation of the renewal of those what have been spoiled by the people for almost two thousand years, the laying on its stone of My first church, as it was founded by Me through My apostles and then, through them time after time, until the man from the outside has interfered and shaken My foundation, and he has done it as he wanted and not after God's will, and for such a long time, I have been suffering until now when I have laid on earth what it was written to be, before the man of lawlessness to wipe out completely My traces from among people, My face, through the church according to My will before Me.

I am writing Myself into the book with the day of the new beginning, on which I have got now the work of My word and My new people that listens to My advice, for to those who have to be Mine and with Me, I said: «Come out of the world, My people, that you may have no participation in her wine, and that you don't receive of her plagues». (See Apoc: 18/4) And then I have said again in the time of My word of today that My people in the end will be separated and distinguished from the whole world on earth and they will stay with Me and will serve Me, and I will take care of them and through them I will preach My Gospel by the river of My word over the earth and I will go with it, running, and I will feed from place to place those that will believe and be baptized in this river, to their adoption by God, to be God's sons into the midst of a deceptive people, which does not want to know from Me how one lives with the Lord on earth, for those who learn the Lord from the people, behold their face, which does not take after Me on earth, after the church which I established two thousand years ago through My disciples, and which only within a great mystery has been able to live with My face among people!

Oh, many tried and still try to come together around My miracles, that even their heart beats for one moment or two or three, but there is another miracle, for I have counted the people that I remain with, not those who seek after My miracles. This is how I worked two thousand years ago too, when thousands were following Me, but by every attempt I had made to draw them to the Father, I only remained with two or three of them.

I am comforted by that day when I had the power to lay down the foundation of the mystery of My new beginning of holy church, in which, I, the Lord, to be able to work wholly, body and word, and from the midst of this mystery to come out as word over the earth, but this memory also hurts Me, and the pain is My comfort. The pain has been My comfort during all the time of the heaven and the earth, and the pain has also been the comfort of those who have joined their life in with Mine either. There has not been a more beautiful face on earth, a purer smile and a clearer look than that of those who bear in them the pain after God, the pain, in all the time of deception, for the life is that which is in heaven, not that on earth as the man may believe, the way man is enchanted for the life he makes on earth; moreover, I have also spoken into My word about the most beautiful people by My pain in them. The earth is the way on which the Lord appears to man, who does not know to come back to his house, but whoever does not have eyes to see, then he has got them for something else, if he has still got them, and that is why a man like that gets enchanted by his life on earth.

Oh, I, the Lord, am comforting you, those who have remained with Me in all your trials, in all My pains and yours for Me, and I give you My kingdom on earth with you and help you in everything and in all things, to be Mine and that I may be your God the way I have to be for those who are with Me, and not as man believes, who comes and knows Me how I am here with you and then he leaves and says to himself that God is with him in every way he may choose to walk on earth then, after I have always advised all, lest, by their not obeying Me, to become My enemies and then to turn their back to Me jumping out of My little boat. Oh, this is how they think, those who do not have My pain and have theirs instead, but those who love Me, do not longer think about themselves, but rather they are good and serve Me according to My will, and day by day they grow in the wisdom of My mysteries with man, and their faith gives forth fruit to God, saved souls from the great sea, in which the whole world drowns and it does no longer reach out its hand to come out at the shore, so that it may also see the light.

I am receiving you into My Spirit on this day and I am comforting you with My pain, those who have remained faithful to My coming of today; those, with whom, nineteen years ago, I started My mysterious work of the church, according to My will on earth, being body and word on its table, as I wanted and I have not been able to have by this time, because I have no longer found faith on earth for My holy walking with man, and not as he has been trying to walk and to call himself Mine. I am full of comfort in My pain because I have you, those who have remained with Me in all My trials. Be, therefore, My protected ones, and protect My people from unbelief and disobedience and from the lack of humility and steadfastness, and then from joys that lose the man! Be watchful at the mast and keep the relation between you and Me for those that are in My little boat and for those on earth, who still try to give ear to the news that I breathe upon you to guide them too, for the waves are raging and those in the midst of the waves lose their courage. However, I call out to them My exhortation of life and I give them to know how to walk, and blessed are and will be those who come to listen from God in this time of darkness as there has never been on earth!

Behold, I have into the mist of the people My bed, on which I, the Lord, am sitting and speaking into the midst of a people of disciples and I am dwelling with them, and there is a prophecy into the Scriptures about My mystery now on earth. «Behold God's dwelling is with people, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God». (Apoc: 21/3) This is the revelation from the Scriptures about the mysterious citadel of the New Jerusalem, which is coming with the Lord on earth in a great mystery and which does not come to the mind of the man with a short view. However, I am the mysterious One, and I work with power and I stand in the way of temptation and watch with those in heaven on earth to keep those who become God's sons, to whom I have given the power to believe and not to perish as those who are unfaithful.

I set My love with a flame in you in a great measure, watching sons in the gates. Oh, stand before Me for My coming, for I have great work to do! I am pouring Myself out in you with the fire of My love and with its burning flame, and from you I also want to pour Myself out like that in all the sons who are My people at the spring so that they may also have fire in their little hearts for Me and that I may work through them for you and for My works, well, well, children sons. All those that have broken you down and made you grow weak in your watch, in you power, in your work, in your endurance, in your hope, and in all those things that I have put in you, let them deeply and wholly repent and let them become My helpers, so that I may wipe out their things by which they have pressed upon My heavy yoke upon you, and which were supposed to be really easy. I am also giving them My love, which is to put out entirely from them the love for themselves and to become a flame of the Holy Spirit, with which to welcome those who come to appear before the Lord and to be resurrected from their sins, for the man's body is of no use but only to sin.

We are at the holy work for the building and adorning of the mound in the hill, which, I, the Lord, by your hands and the hands of the least of My people, put the pearls prophesied to be for the adorning of the necklace of the little garden of My word, whose spirit has been sighing for a long time, as My Spirit, but My patience will give it the joy meant for it, for I am busy working and the angels and the saints are its crown.

I am ordaining a fresh blessing for the whole work of the mound in the hill and of its establishments and over the little sons, whom I want to be obedient, humble and full of hope in Me, for I am the One Who can, and I can work through those who are obedient and gentle, who prove out their faith, its works and the purity of their heart.

Oh, people from the spring, read in the Scripture your life and its work between Me and you, between brother and brother, and fulfill in this way, son, as it is not good if you do not fulfill in this way. I, the Lord, fill with blessing the power of your body and soul, but you should be one; this is how My people is always supposed to be, and it should be careful too, so that I may look at it and be pleased with it. Amen.

Peace to you, in a day of holy remembrance, My people! I give you heavenly progress in your entire work, son, so that We may establish My Father's entire work on earth, you and I. Be one, sons! Be one in everything and always, and all of you keep in step with everything, all to the left and all to the right, and be always like that for the Lord can do it, sons, and He can do it in those who are little, who let themselves into His hand and under His power.

I can do sons; I can work in those who can. Be faithful! I can! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint prophet, Elijah the Tishbite

On a day of the feast of the saints I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, great Bishop in heaven and on earth, am coming down as word from the Father and speaking through it with a feast and teaching, as there has always been in the church the word of the ministering priest in days of feasts, in days dedicated to the Lord and to His saints, to the people's comfort and wisdom.

I, the Lord, am coming down into My book of today with the day of remembrance of My prophet Elijah, with whom I spoke in a breeze, and he spoke with Me either, and We spoke to each other closely about My pain and his, the pain caused by the unbelief and the wandering away of the people of that time, as I am also crying with My saints today because of the people on earth, who separated and keep separating from God, making their own paradises from place to place and gathering in them their happiness so that I may no longer be the man's happiness, so that God may not be on earth with the people. However, I have always been on earth through My prophets all the time and through them I have been fighting against the unbelief in God of the people, who intoxicate their minds with their works without God, and I have appeared greatly by the word and by its fulfillment, so that the people may know from generation to generation that God is and that the Lord is great face to face with those who are unfaithful, and who have no humility for their life lived on earth and who have no hope in another life, but only as they make their thought and as it is not from God to be with man on earth and then beyond his body.

However, first, in this day of teaching and admonishing word over those who are faithful and over those who are not faithful as well, I am proving Myself as true by My word of yesterday and today and I am taking the proof from the Scriptures and I am defending Myself with it against those who deny with unbelief My word of today, saying that this word is not God and that it might only be a lie, the man's lie, and these do not take account of their unbelief, because as they want to be true the proof of their unbelief, so may My word be also true and everyone can prove what he is, as I can prove that I am true God by this word. Oh, God is true by His word of today, and this I am telling first to the most stubborn one through the sin of his unbelief, who proves it more by his mouth because of his haughtiness to be either a servant of the altar or a man of knowledge of God's history with the people, or for everyone who knows what condition he loves to have on earth and to spend at peace in his blood.

Oh, do not be proud by the nothingness of your mind that God is not, that He is not this word! It is God, and if it is, He answers to the one who speaks with Him and He answers to His saints, and His saints are those who believe in Him with power and are those who believe in Him when He comes with His works on earth. Oh, it is God and He answers the man, as He answered to Elijah, the prophet, when this one prayed so that it might not rain for three years and a half, and then he prayed again for the rain to come down, and he prayed with fire and fire came down from heaven on his sacrifice at his prayer and God answered with fire and the wood, the stones and the water were all consumed by fire, as a sign that God was and that He was with those who burn for Him and that, at their prayer, He could make the fire come down from heaven over those who were not faithful, as the zeal of the prophet Elijah spoke the word for the fire to come from above and to burn those who searched out for him, who were sent to bring him to the unfaithful king, who wanted the death of My prophet only because he was prophesying against the sin of those who sinned, against those who served the idols and pleasures and who did not serve God on earth. Oh, this word is God and it has power by His servants of today to make fire[139] come down from heaven upon those who do not believe His word of today, who is true, just as God is, and behold, I am writing Myself into My book of today with the day of My prophet Elijah and I prove it out from the Scriptures that God speaks on earth face to face with man, and in each time, He does His work, as the Scriptures may require, as the works of God and their time are ordained in them. Amen.

I was looking at the man I put in paradise to keep it and to work it and I was speaking with the man, and he was speaking with Me either, even if he did not see Me, though he heard Me in paradise speaking with him, and he heard Me around him and in paradise, and because he violated the commandment I gave him, then he hid in fear, but I called him to come out from his hiding and to appear and speak with Me and answer to My questions; however, he could not escape from God as he wanted, and then he answered to Me seized with fear and confessed his guilt and, at the same time, shaking it off, for this happens to the proud one, he shakes off his guilt, which he has, and then he passes it to another one, because the proud one is fearful, for his pride does not give power to the man, but rather it brings him fear after that, fear of God and of man by its hidden work under the mask of hypocrisy, dark sin upon the man's mind.

I was with Moses on earth and I was speaking with him all the time and he was not able to run away from My speaking with him, and I was speaking with him face to face, and he heard Me and was writing all My words and he was working according to My word and he was also prophesying and everything was fulfilled and this brought salvation to Israel and victory against the enemies, who were standing proudly against My people, and I was true by each and every word upon it, as I also am today in the face of those who harden their hearts before My voice released upon them, so that those, who do not want to believe that I am this word, may fulfill it. Oh, only those who are servants at the altars today would do like the priest who had the child Samuel, given to the Lord by his parents, as it was the prophecy of God's man against that priest! He believed that God was the One Who called Samuel and spoke to him, and he did not say that Samuel was lying, but he rather taught the child to give ear to God's speaking and to receive the Lord and tell him what God spoke, because the time was hard and at that time, there was neither any vision nor any voice of a prophet, and the people did no longer know the Lord's will in order to catch powers under the hardships of that time, and then Samuel was received on God's behalf by those in his time and the Lord was with Him over kings and over people in all Samuel's time.

If the today's people and the servants of the altars were faithful and wise, they would have longing for God and they will have joy in their souls, for I speak on earth over them to reveal to them how to work and that I teach and admonish them to their wisdom, through those whom I put at the mouth of My speaking with man, but behold, the unbelief is in control everywhere on earth, far and wide, and man has got used to it, and Elijah, My prophet, stays full of zeal for Me in heaven and on earth to wake up in fear those who are unfaithful, as he worked in his time on earth too so that he could also be My servant now, as it is written in the Scriptures, and to come before My great and fearful day[140], which comes like a thief, when no one expects it to come.

And behold, there are first the ministers at the altars who say that it is a lie My word to them, My word to the people and to My Romanian people, My today's chosen one among the nations and to whom I, the Lord, have come and made Myself on his riverbed of My word within My second coming from the Father to man, and I work mysteriously by the opposition against the faith of those who call My word a lie, and they say so to avoid the answer before the people and before Me, but I am reminding them of My speaking with Adam, with Moses, with Samuel and with all the prophets, and behold, those, to whom I have been calling out with power to believe and to be saved, do not believe. They call themselves My true ones and they clothe with the truth from the holy fathers to strengthen their authority over people without doing My holy will. Oh, let Me see them following in the steps of the holy fathers, and then I will no longer keep on at them with the river of My word for those who have wandered away from God, for man goes off his head when this comes to happen, and then the whole body gets sick and it is no longer in his root. Oh, let the servants at the altars no longer boast with the holy fathers and with a name of a church upon them, since they do not follow Me and the holy fathers in a churchly manner, but rather they sell themselves together with their houses to the people who call themselves God, when they do not take after God or after His saints, but they take after the sons of men instead.

Oh, I have come on earth to judge the living and the dead, as My disciples prophesied two thousand years ago that I would come again and that My kingdom would have no end at all. I have come to tell the man why he is punished, as it is written that I will come and each one will receive according to his work, and no one will be able to flee from the justice of everything, and I have come ahead of time to bring to the man the gift of repentance and that he may escape the punishment of his works and to come to Me in order to heal him by My word, as I worked two thousand years ago over those who were thrown down by sin, and I was giving them their salvation. No work on earth is given to man until first he is told about his deed, for which he must be punished, and this is how I also work, but I can heal the man from his guilt after he comes to know his guilt.

Oh, I have come on earth to speak with the man and to help him to repentance, so that I may remove his sin, which punishes him before God and that he may not receive according to his own deed, but to be happy by his forgiveness, for it is written: «Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is forgiven. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit is no deceit», for he says: «I acknowledge my sin to You. I did not hide my iniquity. I said, I will confess my transgressions to the Lord, and You forgave the iniquity of my sin». (Ps: 32/1-5, - 32 MT = 31 LXX)

First, on this day of teaching and admonishing word over the faithful and unfaithful, I have proved Myself out with a proof from the Scriptures as true God by My yesterday an today's word, and I have defended Myself before those who say that My coming on earth as word during these days of great trial is a lie, when the faith denial spreads all over the Romanian people, which its holy forefathers had kept it in their prayers before Me so that I may protect it as Mine and that I may not leave it to perish, to forsake God, as it does not know, poor of it, what kind of trap is set before it and as no one watches so that it may not fall and forsake Me, sin secretly worked out by My adversaries, who came out of My people because of their hidden thoughts and fell from the body of My church one thousand years ago, (Reference to the Catholics who separated from the Orthodoxy in 1054, r.n.), as is it written in the Scriptures, not understood by the people and established two thousand years ago by John's prophecy, My beloved disciple, to whom, I, the Lord, revealed those that were to come after him, until My coming again on earth as word.

And now I am giving voice to My prophet Elijah, with whom I spoke on earth then and with whom I am speaking today too in heaven and on earth, for My work is the word, as My name is for My second coming, a name written into the Scriptures to bear now in the end of the time: «God's word». Amen.

– Oh, the Word of God is the name of all Your prophets and saints, Lord, who speak like Your saints, who are Your word, God's word, as I was Your word upon those in my time, faithful and unfaithful, and I was crushed with pain in my heart for You, and the pain increased my zeal, until I avenged You against those who were unfaithful, who sought after my life, which I gave it to You to do Your work with it upon people. Oh, I was even able to destroy the whole world for my zeal and mercy on You, for the great sufferance in me because people did not love You, and because they served the false idols and not You, the One and true God. The burning within my little heart overcame me to the power for You and it lifted me up, until the fire in me lifted me up completely and hid me from the face of the people, for Your glory was burning within me, the vision of Your glory, which came after that on its wheels, on the wheels of cherubim and hid me from the face of the people, for otherwise, because of Your sake I was consumed with burning to destroy the whole opposition on earth, which hid You from the people, all the disbelief which stood against Your divinity. Now I am consumed in heaven near You with the zeal for this patch of land, the Romanian land, on which You sown the seed of Your kingdom among people and fulfilled this Scripture, prophesied by John, Your beloved disciple, to whom You revealed Yourself that You would come on earth as word among people and would dwell with them and wipe out their tear, and You Yourself would be with them and they would be Your people; however, this mystery of You has been revealed now on earth, You and the people of Your word, You and Your children, to signs and miracles among people, and for whom You give over to destruction those who stand against Your new establishment, Your new people, raised from the Romanian people, and to its mystery with You on earth. I am consumed near You with the zeal for You, for Your today's people, for the Romanian land and for the people on it and I am ready to destroy the whole world for Your today's coming so that it may have a way on earth and not opposition, but let Your people, let the Romanian land and its people on it remain, which is to listen to You and to listen to Your coming all those who would remain from place to place on earth for Your glory, for their salvation through Your mercy on them, through Your greatness, with which You stay between earth and heaven, showing it by great salvation for people. However, You have to fulfill a great mystery for the reconciliation of the Romanian people to You and of those on earth, who will be able to escape, to Your glory and to the glory of Your saints, and this mystery does not come to fulfillment because of the hardening of the heart of those whom You keep calling, and they pretend that they do not hear You when You call them by Your word of today. The people of the church, they are those who do not answer You when You speak to them, and it is not good that they do not answer You, but rather, they do harm to themselves and to the Romanian people, to Your today's people, on which they have set themselves as shepherds. However, I am calling now to them and say:

Oh, what will you do if your house will go downstream, the house in which you sit with authority in God's name, not following the steps of the saints and of the fathers? Oh, remember the priest in the time of the prophet Samuel and of his sons, for the sons of the priest committed great sins and perished shamefully, like their father, who did not seek to punish his sons for their lawlessness, by which they estranged the people from God, and when the time had come for Samuel to stand up by the power of the Lord and to set order in Israel, a priesthood strengthened by the Lord further before the Lord, he became then the Lord's voice in the midst of the people. Oh, repeatedly, the Lord has spoken the word from heaven upon you and He said the that the bishop He chose should be ordained, (Pop Irineu of Bistriţa, r.n.), to intercede before the Lord for the reconciliation to the Lord of the Romanian people and of the church in the mist of this nation, which does no longer follow the saints and the fathers, because this nation has departed very much from the Lord and the Lord's punishment is upon its head, wrath over this land set apart for the glory of the Lord, which you did not want to receive and to have by the one loved by the Lord among you and through whom the Lord has built His first church on its rock, which its adversaries in its midst have kept putting it down from generation to generation by their iniquities, by their disobedience to God and to the holy fathers, who are crying at the head of those who have suffered now from the Lord's punishment, prophesied by the word of today, that it will come because of the disbelief of the Romanian people! The Lord has call out to your ear several times and fervently asked you to ordained before Him the bishop He chose to intercede for the Romanian land and its people to reconcile this people and the church in it to the Father, and this nation needs repentance and returning with its face to the Lord, a people who has spoiled its faith and its walking to paganism and not to the holiness expected to be on earth so that this people chosen for the coming of the Son of God on earth with the judgment of the creature to meet the Lord. It is hard for the people to believe, but this is going to happen with the destiny of this people, which the saints have prophesied to be, and it will be so. Oh, lift up the one who prays from the Lord to reconcile Romania to the Father, because this nation goes on a wicked and sinful way, and sins bring about great punishment and even the destruction of the sinful people! Oh, no one takes your seats; no one takes your ranks, but make room for the Lord too before provoking Him to anger against you! Oh, it seems a joke to you when the Lord tells you to ordain the bishop among you for prayer to the Father so that this nation may not perish, but it is no joke with the faith or unfaith in His word upon you, and which, for a long time has been calling out to you, but you had better fulfill the Lord's exhortation, and you will see that the Romanian people has got the Lord as Master upon it and with glory over it among the nations, for the way of the Orthodoxy is the only way of salvation of the human kind and it is God's future with the people on earth*, and this truth of faith has got fierce enemies and this future has to be protected, and the Lord has got among* you the one you have been oppressing, and this is sin; it is wickedness among brothers, as in the time of the bishop John Golden-Mouthed, when his bishop brothers destroyed him from the earth in a hidden manner, in hate. Oh, no! I, the Lord's prophet, am in a flame for the Lord, and His wound from you makes me suffer and I want to turn your heart to the Lord and His heart to you as well, as you make Him suffer deeply. The Lord will not spare you if you have always stood in the way of His glory with this nation. Be faithful, for I am a great prophet by my zeal and I set to work for the way of the Lord's word on earth with His great glory. Oh, do not keep this light under a bushel! Do not be unbelieving! You will mourn forever if you do not humble yourselves to know the Lord in this word! Put the Lord to test if you do not want otherwise, so that your faith may not be forced. All pray with fasting and longing so that the Lord may reveal to you that which you cannot believe and understand from the greatness of His word, which flows like a river of life on earth and many, many will drink of it in the days to come, when there will no longer be any comfort on earth, because of so many battles that come. Be faithful! The Lord is!

Oh, what will you do if the voice of the Lord is not a lie upon you today, about Whom it is written to come again to judge the living and the dead? Love holiness and love it with zeal, and you will see how it and only it will help you to see the Lord in this word, for it is written: «Without sanctification no one will see the Lord». (Heb: 12/14) Amen.

– I, the Lord, am sealing now with My name the word of My prophet: without sanctification no one will see the Lord, no one will understand His coming. Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am speaking from heaven over the little garden of My word and it is written on earth and in heaven the word of My mouth, as it has been written in all the times through Moses and through all My prophets. I, the Lord, come to an end with My patience for those who do not believe. Behold, faith does not belong to everyone and it rather belongs to those who sanctify themselves with much holiness before Me, and many of those with holy law upon them will understand, and those who love lawlessness will not understand and will remain as they are, for I have been calling out to them and they have not wanted to open to be able to save them, and when the time comes for them to call Me, the door will be closed on the inside, as with the flood, as in front of the unwise and foolish virgins, who did not watch for My coming.

I, the Lord, put an end to My word of today, by which I proved Myself out as true by this word, taking from the Scriptures a written proof, and let those, who are not faithful, do what they want. Amen.

I am giving the blessing of a bishop to the people of My word, the faithful one for My coming from the father again on earth as word. Peace to you, My people! You are little and gentle, but you are great in the sight of God for your faith in My coming and there is no greater king on earth than you, and no one has got your honor, because you are the son of the Lord, Jesus Christ, the man's great wealth, the Lord, your Master, for you are the heir of the heaven on earth. Amen.

I leave My spirit upon you and you should be My witness on earth. May you always, always be My witness among people for the Lord, your God, for Me, your Master and your Teacher, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I am coming down within the voice of the Holy Spirit into My book of these days and I am becoming a feast of word for the memorial of the day, two thousand years ago, when I explained to My disciples, bit by bit, that I am the Christ of the Father, and I took three of My disciples, who were more strengthened in the wisdom of My mysteries, and I went up in the mountain with them and I revealed My invisible glory to them, and they saw, on that day, beyond those that could be seen by the man's eye, as I allowed them to be there, for their eyes were opened for a little while so that they were able to confess to the other disciples, and then down from generation to generation and up to this day, so that the faithful ones might be able to speak the truth about Jesus, Christ, the One about Whom the Father spoke from the clouds on that very day over My three disciples in a convincing voice and He said this: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». Amen. (Matt: 17/5)

Peace to My good and faithful people! I am sitting down with a feast of word at his table with Me and I am reminding him of the Father's commandment, Who said to those faithful at that time and up to this day: «He is My Son. Listen to Him!»

I am working upon you by the word, oh, My people, and you have to fulfill the Father's commandment and you should listen to Me, son, for the Father said this and not I. You have to listen to My word, which speaks from above and from below at the same time, and those in haven hear it, and you hear it too, as well as those in the tombs, and obedience to My word is needed, but you need to know how to come to distinguish it, to take it and to fulfill it. I have put My word into the mouth of those in the gates so that you may know to intensify the power of the fasting and praying in order to ask in this way from the Father those that are against the darkness which comes from the darkness to put God down and that man may reign on earth after that, but this cannot be done, and I want to strengthen Myself visibly as Almighty God in order to come out with My armies and protect the Romanian land and those who are faithful to My today's coming as word into the midst of this nation, for much unbelief presses down upon its soul, and this comes from the ignorance of soul, from the lack of holy watching during the night, when the wolf is hungry and unsleeping and when it lies in ambush, day and night, to get the prey, to tear down even My elected ones, those who are faithful and those who wait for Me to come with great salvation, with the victory against men's unbelief and against their departure from God, and behold, I come, I speak to man and I wake him up to his obedience to God, for if men loved God, they would also listen to Him, and I would not have to call to obedience those who love Me, but they and their love would call Me to them instead, and I would answer them in the day of their trial and I would give according to My will to those who love it for them and with them.

Oh, how sweetly I speak to man so that he may know Me by this word! Oh, how mysteriously I work to help man! Two thousand years ago, My Father told those who believed in Me to listen to Me, and He confessed Me as His beloved Son with Whom He was well pleased. Moreover, how are supposed those who believe in Me and who want Me for them to fulfill and to listen to Me? Oh, if there were faithful people on earth, I would put into their midst sons pleased with Me, with whom I am well pleased, and then the people would listen to Me through them, as there has been all the time on earth My working order over man and My dwelling with man, for whom I come and dwell in the bearers of God in order that the man may listen to Me.

I am aggrieved in heaven and on earth, for man listens only to himself and to his body, which knows by its lusts to make the man listen to him and thus the man is no longer able to work otherwise. Oh, I suffer from this pain, from this punishment from man and from the lack of his concern for his soul, which serves the body, which keeps the body alive. The man's weakness is great and this comes from his lack of love, and every weakness comes from the lack of love. Love is absent and man does not have obedience within love. Only those who love, only those listen, and those who do not love are nothing, but they are only sin, only flesh and mercy for flesh, for the flesh lusts against the spirit, against love, as it is written, and I have been waiting for two thousand years for the time to come on earth as word and to be able to speak the work of love upon man, that which heals him for his self and heals him from sin, for the one who keeps his body in control has done away with sin, and love does this when is able to dwell in man with its work, and then man is able to listen to God through it.

Oh, how beautifully and how mysteriously I had set the boundary between good and evil by the word, then when, before Moses in the mountain, I worked at the commandments of the eternal life for the man's life! I wrote by fire and through the angels on the tablets of stone and I said in writing for man to love God with all his heart, with all his mind and with all his soul, and then to love his neighbor as himself, and loving God to be able to love afterwards, and thus the man's conduct would be otherwise if he wanted to listen to Me as I wrote to him through the angels to listen to Me.

Oh, how warmly I worked two thousand years ago upon My disciples to make them used to loving Me and to listening to Me! There is no endurance on earth like Mine when I want to make man know Me and then to love Me, lest he may take Me in vain and put Me to test or to trample down My word and My commandments spoken by the word written with fire upon man. Oh, man is not afraid when he violates My commandments abolishing those upon him, and you, My people, I have been exhorting you to get a little sheet of paper and to write on it the commandments of the eternal life and then to read them again and again when you come to prayer and to measure yourself to them in the time of your prayer and then in the time of your entire work, so that you may be able to see if you fulfill them or if you trespass them between Me and you, and between you and your brother, and I, the Lord, wait for the people of My word everywhere to work My commandments, which mean love in the one who fulfills them. Any man is able to become a bearer of God if he fulfills upon him and around him God's commandments, written by fire through the angels on the tablets of stones, when the time has come to search out the man's heart and to stand face to face with him by what God's word has meant on the stone through the angels. Every man can see himself as good or bad, faithful or unfaithful face to face with the commandments of the eternal life, and then he is able to work them all if he wants to be in the My image and after My likeness on earth.

Oh, man should do nothing but keep God's commandments, for this was given to man by God to work on earth, after the first created man had received from God the work he had to do and he did not work like that, and then he fell by his disobedience, and two thousand years ago, the Father said again: «This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him!», thus confirming and renewing the commandment of the love of God upon man. Oh, and this is how the Father works today, and He sends Me, His beloved Son, to speak with man and to tell him to listen to those that I speak to him, and there is no patience on earth like Mine.

Oh, man, you are not right with God and with man, for you get hard on yourself and you get upset when you are not understood, when you are not loved and followed, and you forget how far you are from your obedience to God, from His image and likeness in everything that you do or not do!

Oh, My people, man does not know how true I, the Lord, am, by My word upon you, but look in it and see how quickly it shows its truth after I speak it, as for many times I have seen in My people, here and there, how My freshly spoken word is overthrown, and I see the lack of love of those who do not always, always look into My word so that they may not violate it, so that they may not make God suffer by their trespassing of His word. Great watch is needed, but above this, great love of God is needed for man to be able to follow properly My teaching by the word. Man is too weak and that is why I have come now on earth, in the end of the time, and I wanted and want to make an obedient people with whom I may be able to work everything that is still written in the Scriptures to fulfill, until after the resurrection of the dead, when I will make the condition in heaven come down on earth, My rest after much labor done to harvest the fruit of My work of seven thousand years from among people, a people earned by God by great storms, by much sufferance and endurance, by My today's labor, when the Father is sending Me on earth as word, for He has found faithful sons and has been able to fulfill My coming in the word, the time of the judgment of the men's works and the announcing of the great day, in which the Lord will appear victoriously over man and in time and over the unbelief on earth.

Oh, let no one marvel at the opposition, at the carelessness of those who hear and say that they do not hear, of those who know that I have to come and do not receive Me when I come, by those to whom I speak and do not do as I tell them. This is how I was received two thousand years ago, after I proved so much power among the people on earth in word and deed, and those who wanted to be great among people, kept on minding their own business and put Me away from over them when the Father had sent Me to shepherd them to eternal life, and there was no place on earth where I went and where I spoke, that My steps could not be seen over those who did not receive Me when I entered at them, and so it will be today as well and this is how I will prove Myself as true God by My coming through My word of today, as it is written for Me to come and speak, and the dead to hear Me and to come to life if they want, if they have power to believe and to listen to My will upon them.

Oh, all the times have elapsed and there has come the time for Me to approach with the last days and I want to gather a people and to protect it from the time of judgment, because the judgment blows powerfully everywhere, and the Lord has the shovel in His hand and He cleanses His threshing floor and gathers the wheat in the barn, the chaff He throws into the fire, for this is written about the time of judgment and baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire over the people, and the man does not know the sweet taste and full of eternal life of the Holy Spirit, Who cleanses the man from sin and Who makes him an angel, if man can humble himself and believe, for only the one who humbles himself has a way to the light before him, and the one who cannot humble himself receives the baptism with fire, which is bitter for man.

Two thousand years ago, with a little bunch of disciples, I set a new kingdom on earth and it has lived in time by the faithful ones, who were and are God's kingdom into the midst of the people, and I am working the same today and I am on earth with My kingdom in those who are faithful and I am working through them My word into their midst, and by speaking it then I fulfill it, and this is how I prove that I am a true God and I show the man what truth means, for man cannot prove that is a true man, because his body has always, always overcome him, and man exalts himself by this after that, even if he does not find any greatness from man for him. Oh, it was otherwise when My greatness was confirmed on earth, when My face shone bathed in the light before My disciples in the mountain that was transfigured in an instant while God's glory was upon it. Oh, it was otherwise with Me, for I did not exalt Myself but the Father done this from the clouds when He showed My greatness to the apostles at the time when He spoke in the sky and said: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt: 17/5) And on that very moment, the Father glorified Himself in Me and the Lord's glory was shown outside, as white as snow over My body and over My garment, and then My disciples confessed My glory, and behold, I do not exalt Myself, but the Father does this within Me and over Me, and man is a liar when he glorifies himself, for I said that man receives his comfort from his sin.

However, now, the Lord has ordered to humiliate the whole high mountain and the eternal rocks, to fill up the valleys and the land to be leveled so that the faithful people may walk fearlessly within God's glory, and My forests and every sweet smelling fruit tree will make a shadow at God's commandment, because the Lord will exhort His people with joy and merriment within the light of His glory, with His mercy and His righteousness, as it is written. Amen.

I start with the saints and angels to prepare from heaven and from earth a sweet feast, joy for My mother, the Virgin, as in ten days We are going to open the gates of the garden, and again and again We open them so that the faithful people to My coming may enter and come to celebrate with Me the day of the ascension into heaven of the Virgin, My mother, the day of her embracing with Me again, an embrace with tears asked and wanted, for My mother had always called Me and said: "Come Son, for I want to be near You, as You are my son, and I suffer from Your emptiness!" Behold, the voice of comfort and joy will be heard from heaven and earth, and the faithful people will lift up his soul to the Lord, for the feast will give a crown to it. Amen.

Let all, all from heaven and all from earth sweetly serve the day of the feast of My Mother, the Virgin! I will comfort those gathered at the spring and I will give them power to become, with every passing day beautiful sons of God and I will shepherd them. Amen.

As in all the eves of the big feasts, with many people gathered at the spring, I give powers to My people near the spring to prepare My feast for Me peacefully and sweetly, and they to get ready, full of peace and sweetness between Me and them, among themselves, for the power comes from Me and makes them want, and makes them able to do, in the same way as the brightness of My glory in the mountain came from the Father and appeared, and it did not come from Me. Oh, it is the time for My people to work in great unity and prayer, with painful supplication from the Father, for it is My tool within these days, and the destroying spirit of this age sets its teeth on edge and puts forth fresh horns and many heads, one after the other, to try its strength and its schemes in order to do away with God on earth; however, I, the Lord, have prepared a new fallow land to be sowed, watered, weeded, cultivated and grown, the fruit of the new kingdom, the new birth of the world, and I am the One Who makes this dough grow, and I work once with the hidden scheme of the man of darkness, who says that he rules the world with his work, but I, and not him, oh, it is not him who will overcome, as it is written in the Scriptures for the Lamb of God to overcome the dragon with seven heads, and together with Him, those who are faithful to Him to overcome, those who wash their clothes and who overcome by the blood of the Lamb together with the Lamb, and who have on them the seal of the Living God, and the devil mourns and will mourn then, just as he is mourning at this time too, and he does not know what else to do that he may not lose his victory, and he does no longer sleep and always measures, because his schemes have always, always failed, and then he plots again and again. However, I do no longer take any account of it and I prepare his destruction in heaven and on earth, for he stays into My way.

I am coming down with those in heaven to prepare the feast from the spring and I am blessing it even from now. And I am doing the same to those who have come together at the table of the feast; I am blessing their steps to the spring, I am giving them angels on their way and I am giving them longing and love; I am giving them a spirit of faith and power so that they may become sons of God more and more beautifully, for man cannot be born only halfway, either on earth or in heaven. However, I have nothing to give to those who are not faithful, but only what they work for themselves, and they will have it enough and to spare, for their lack of faith or their faith denial is seen, after they have had faith in My word of today, but I keep on going and I do not stay, and My victory is great and there will be great glory for it, for the Father has been preparing it for Me, as in the day when He glorified Me with great brightness in the mountain before My disciples so that they could see fully that I was the Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, coming down to man on earth from the Father.

Oh, My people from the spring, I thank you because you humble yourself to listen to My voice into your midst and bring before Me days of feast for My victory and yours on earth, as the days are full of darkness, son, and the devil works as well, and he is upset with you. Oh, get used, son, with every passing day, more and more, better and better and more faithfully to learn to believe that as the Father is in Me, likewise I am in those who take Me into your midst, and in whom I put My word so that they may speak to you, as I have whispered to them to come before Me with days of sacrifice and calling, to help Me in My victory against the serpent with many heads and with many horns and which I have to cut them one by one, whenever he gets them out, but without a tool, I cannot do My work. I, the Lord, have sent you word and I give you the power to fulfill it, but you should also give Me your spirit to fill it with My love, which stands for everything, for without My love you can do nothing. Then I told My disciples two thousand years ago: «Apart from Me you can do nothing!» (John: 15/5). And I am telling you today likewise, and I am also going to tell you, in great humility I am telling you, that I cannot work and fulfill without you as well, as I have given you power to become God's sons so that the Lord may have a way to do His work on earth, the victory for the kingdom of the heavens with the people, after that the wrath will pass and after that faith remains, for faith will not pass away, because it is God's tool before Him on earth, and with it He cleanses His threshing floor from unbelief and from those who are unfaithful, and this is how the Lord's day will be on earth, and those who wait for the Lord to come with His day in another manner, these do not know what to say and do not know what they have been waiting for. However, those who are faithful wait for My promise for them: a new heaven and a new earth, and they have long endurance, not losing their patience like those who perish in this way then.

I am coming to an end with My word of today and I am sealing it with My new name: The word of God, Jesus Christ. Amen.

My peace I am leaving into the midst of My people for the preparation of the feast that is coming near at the spring! Peace, from now on and up to the day of the feast, and let the peace be always worked out so that it may always be, and to be pleased with Me, and I will shepherd the people gathered together near the spring and I will speak to him about the mystery of the peace between Me and man, between man and man, for man does not understand and does not love to work the peace that I have given to him to have and to work it, and man has always deceived himself for this great work of mystery.

Oh, My people, I would change your face in an instant before the people, but I love you too much and I protect and keep you so much that I may have you, and up to the days of the revealed glory, you should glorify Me as I have been teaching you, by your being, deified with every passing day by My being on your table and by the fruit of My being in you, as I share and give Myself to you to have you as Mine, sons, and to know you after My seal upon you, which you have to leave it to be seen from now on. Oh, peace to you! Love the mystery of peace! Reconcile My Spirit, son, and keep it at peace, and this is how you are to love the mystery of peace. I do no longer have any Bethany on earth except you and the little fold of My people of today. I do no longer have anywhere a table of Emmaus in which to let Myself be seen and confessed after I share Myself on the table, for those who say that they are My servants keep on condemning My glory, covering it with their glory, because they want to increase theirs and they do not want to let Me reveal with My glory, and behold, I cannot reveal Myself into their midst and on their table, for they are far away from My glory. Behold, you are My Bethany, you are My Emmaus and I can come to you with My table, with My walking on earth, with My revealed supper, and which proves Me real near you with My word of Shepherd, for I like to stay on earth and I like to shepherd those who are faithful and to sit with them at the table of My kingdom among people, and which the people cannot see, for their eyes are prevented from seeing.

I am blessing again the gathering at the spring and the burning of the hearts of those who have come together at the table of My word, just as the little hearts of those, with whom I was walking on the way to Emmaus, were also burning, and when I revealed Myself at their table with Me.

I, the Lord, from now on, start sending the angels and the saints down with help for the preparation of the day of the feast of My mother the Virgin, and you will be accompanied by them, people from the spring, for other kind of power have the people who work with those in heaven and not alone, and they have other progress in their entire work, for it is not good for man to be alone, but it is good for him to be with the Lord and with His heavenly servants so that they may be on earth as in heaven, for this is My will and My joy in heaven and on earth, and this is how I want you to live and to work on earth before Me, My people, like this and all the time, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Assumption

I am coming down with the heaven on earth as word, and the heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool, and this is how God's house is, and man cannot build Me a house, for I am He Who built and builds. I take the heaven of saints and I walk with them on the footstool of My feet, and those that are not seen cover Us from the man's eyes, for man is far from heaven. I come with the heaven on earth, as man is far away from heaven, and My Spirit struggles to make the man divine and to bring him near so that he may see God, for God's invisible things were made first and then were made those that are seen, and man was made after that.

I Myself came down on earth two thousand years ago, after I had sent many messengers to the people by the spirit of prophecy, who were to preach God to them. I, Myself, am coming today, after many have confessed in My name so that the people may believe in Me and to be saved, and the world has not risen from the death that comes from sin. I Myself come, I Myself speak on earth and My gentle whisper draws to the Father those who long like Me and comfort My pain after man, for I lost the man after I had built him.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of the Virgin, My mother, and how easy it is for Me to stay with the faithful ones, to come to them and to give them food of My mouth for their soul! I have announced at the gates the feast with which I come on this day, and behold, We are coming as word into the book, I and My mother the Virgin, I and her feast of two thousand years ago, when I descended after her to take her near Me.

Oh, I open up My arms to embrace all those gathered at the spring. I give Myself to them with My embrace and I embrace them within the word. From margins to margins, there is no other place more beautiful and more praised than this mountain of mystery, the top of the mountain on which the word of My mouth is, sharing comfort to those who find it and take it as the healing from their longing. Oh, may your steps come to rest on this little patch of land on this day of feast for My mother the Virgin! Be blessed by God for the restless love in you, which gives you power to become God's sons among people, and I give you knowledge to know after that how God wants you to be and to live on your way with Him! I shepherd you with a gentle word and I exhort you to love and to perceive with your heart the mystery of the peace between Me and man, from man to man. Oh, I exhort you to work out peace between Me and you. It is My will with you to your work and nothing else means peace between Me and you, and there is no forgiveness from sins if first there is not peace between Me and you, as it is written: «Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven!» (Rom: 4/7) I am from those above and you should be likewise. I am not of this world, and you should not be of it too. This is how the peace between Me and you should be, for I told those who believed in Me then: «If you remain in My word, then you are truly My disciples. You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free». (John: 8/31-32) And I also told them: «Most assuredly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever. If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed». (John: 8/34-36) Oh, behold the mystery of the peace between Me and you, the mystery of not separation between God and man!

Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful My mother the Virgin answered to God's messenger! The mystery of the peace between God and man is for man to do like her and then to say like her: «Lord, be it to me according to Your word!» (Luke: 1/38) Amen.

Oh, with how much word I have come down over the earth and those who do not listen to it are not from God, for he who is from God listens to God; and behold, the mystery of the peace between God and man is that man may believe My word and to listen to it. Amen.

I have the angels as My ascending and descending, and My mother the Virgin is on My right hand side and she is celebrated and carried by the heavenly and angelic hosts; moreover, she is speaking a gentle word over those who listen to My word and come to take it from the spring and they come to be comforted, and behold her speech and her comfort now over those who are gathered at My spring of word. Amen.

– Oh, my dear child of the obedience to the word of the Father and mine in all things! Oh, dear child of my virgin womb and of my loving heart, who had You in it until I was to be Your dwelling place to come on earth as man! Oh, how much I suffered in secret and in great mystery after You left the earth and went to be with the Father, from where You proceeded, and I remained! I am speaking to the people gathered at Your spring of word that You came then and took me from the earth into heaven, and now You are taking me from heaven and bringing me with You down on earth, and I have longed for this so much, to come with You to these sons, who have borne Your love and Your coming of today, Lord. Then I wanted to go with You into heaven, and now I want to come down with You on earth to Your people of today, for Your gentle whisper comes over those who take Your word from the book and then put it on the table for those who are hungry after You, hungry after Your word in heaven and on earth at the same time, for they have come from the earth at the Spring, Lord Word, souls that find You because they look for You, for You let Yourself be found by those who do not tempt You and You come into their way on the wings of word and set the word on the table for them and teach them the longing after God, gentle Lord with those who are gentle like You. Oh, many want to seek after you, but not all of them have a clean heart, oh, not all of them, for many try to love You only for them, not for You, and they do not comfort Your longing with anything. Oh, I have mercy on You and I want You to have a beautiful people and more beautiful from which You are to be comforted in all the crushing of Your Spirit, tired of waiting and full of longing after the Father's victory through You, victorious little Lamb, for He has sent You again on earth after man.

Oh, through how much pain You come down to speak, my Son, and You do not know how to strengthen Your way anymore. My day in heaven among saints becomes Your way on earth to Your people, which set a table for You to put on it word full of longing for those who have come together at the glory of this day near those who carry Your word over the earth, little Lamb, Lord.

I am speaking with you, those who have come together in cluster near the voice of my son, Jesus Christ and near His people of today. Oh, learn the love from Him. Do not learn from you or from man, for man is passing. Love heals you from sin. Learn this from the Lord. It is that which does not fail, it raises the man from death and it has the cleansing within it. When it asks you in marriage and when it speaks to you, then learn from Me and answer to it: «Be it done to me according to your word!» This is how I said. Learn completely and do not learn only halfway the mystery and the power of love! My Son is coming to teach you. Listen to Him, for He laid down His life for you! Everything that separates you from Him or one from another when you belong to Christ, then you need to know that it is not love that does this. Oh, it does not look for gain but it rather looks to earn you, and you should earn it for your eternal life. Oh, be with a clean heart, for the mystery of the peace between you and the Lord, this is the power of the cleansing of your heart and your reconciliation to the Lord all the time. Learn the mystery of the longing and His power in you and be gentle, sons, so that you may escape of the judgment from the stiffness of the heart, but do not forget that without watch upon you and for you, the devil is not ashamed of any good power in you.

I would teach you much and gently, for it is seen well from the heaven the good and the evil that is worked on earth, and the Spirit of the Lord in the saints and in those who bear God among people can lead your steps through the dangers in such a way that you may not be wounded either by evil or by good, for the good is only in heaven, only holding the Lord's hand. And, finally, learn, learn not to separate yourselves from the Lord if you have found His way to you, for those who separate themselves from the Lord want to hide from Him after that. Oh, He is eternally everywhere and everyone sees the Lord. You, those who want to be born now from His word of today, do not be shaken from any trial when you work your growth, for the Scripture of the new birth of the world has come and it is preached coming over every creature. Oh, it is not the time for born infants anymore, but it is the time for you to be born from above, for the babies born now are taken away from the wave of the world and fall as food to the devil and they grow in the darkness outside. Those who love the Lord, love Him without sin, and tread upon sin, trample with death upon death, as it has to be crushed with its weapons so that it may no longer come to you. Come out of the world, come out of its traps, and look for your future with the Lord, with the One Who has made the heaven and the earth, the sea and the dry land and all the creation! Give power to the Lord upon you! Be small under His strong hand, and let the holiness in everything become a new creature in you, in God's image and after His likeness, and, finally, pray incessantly, and especially pray together, brotherly, persevering for those from above on earth and over man, for the earth and all the man's creation on it have the man's days as food. Oh, do not forget that nothing means light anymore. The light is only my Son, and the one who walks with Him and believes in Him will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life. Live on earth as in heaven, so that you may bring the heaven down on earth and the people to see the light in you and to marvel at its sight. Be holy for the Lord is holy, and all those, who will live like that before Him, will see Him and He will see Himself in them. Amen.

Oh, do not lose your patience. Do not tempt God. Let your love and faithfulness be your faithful way, and through all these may the Lord give you the spirit of wisdom and the spirit of everything for all that are and come, for the Lord has put the man to reign over all things lest some of these may kill him when he would try to reign these things.

Oh, I have longed very much to speak and bring the life from heaven in man by the spoken word. I miss my Son with the people on earth. Make your way to the people for my Son, you, those who have found Him here, at His river of word, by which He rules the world without it understanding this! Take care, when you stay together, to know that to the extent you are united, to be separated in the same way, lest something or someone near you or far from you may separate you from God, for the Lord said: «Those who use the world may be as though not using it, and those who have to be like those who have not», (See 1 Cor: 7/31), for the man is weak in regard to the temptations that come into his way.

Now, I am speaking with my Son for you: my dear Son, give them grace and gifts so that they may be fulfilled within You and that they may have You as their home, Lord, the house of the life teaching! Give them to know Your mystery with the Romanian land in these days, for the name of the Romanian will be great among the nations when You will soon be glorified with Your Christian people, chosen out of the Romanian people and given to be sowed. Your entire mystery with this chosen land will be seen and known far and wide and the angels will serve it before the nations. When there will no longer be on earth light and house to give light into the world and to show the way, when all the people will try to forget Your name and the name of the Christian, then You, within a great mystery, will go on the same way of the love of God among people and will be victorious with the new name of those who will follow You not swerving from the way, and the name of God's sons will be the name of Romanian, for the evil devil will want to wipe out the name of the Christian from the earth. And I am also praying to You, Lord Son, that we may no longer leave this place, we, those from heaven, as this land, this nation and this new beginning and seeding is to be watched and protected. Let us teach them the prayer with sacrifice and let us tell them that if forty hearts will come together to ask coming with one day of prayer with fasting added to it for a great victory with You on earth and against the evil that blows everywhere, they will receive it, and more, to each one of them it will be written forty days of persevering fasting near their prayer to You. And behold, it is one thing when those, who fast in order that they may receive fulfillment from You, to fast alone, and it is another thing that all of them come together in one spirit, in one request and in one power and to be one, and in this way we will be able to put away the obstacles and we will overcome them, Lord of the faithful ones.

Now, let us give them the joy and its spirit in a spirit of holy feast and let us refresh this day, giving them grace, teaching Son! Oh, may they be careful so that they may not be separated from us. Amen.

– Oh, mother, I do not separate Myself from the people of this mystery and I always come to the spring with word of power and I give Myself to those who come, so that they may also be able to do it. I, mother, have stayed and eaten of the speech of your love for them and for My mystery with them. I, mother, wait to be able to work by those who take Me in order to bring the fulfillment of the last Scriptures: the new heaven and the new earth, mother, and I have given this to be seeded for those who are faithful, who wait for God's promise, mother. The whole world burns like a furnace, but those who are faithful to Me do not burn in it, mother, but rather they stay with Me and burn within Me, and I take My fire from them and cast it out on earth so that the world may burn in it, mother, the world that burns within its fire and the sons of the world catching fire from fire. However, I have made up another fire and I set the evil on the earth on fire to wipe it out from among the people, and I do this with the people of My word, mother, and it will be heard from margins to margins that I, the Lord, was with this word into the midst of the Romanian people and that I go with it to the great victory, mother. Amen.

Peace to you, on a day of feast for you, My mother!

Peace to you, peace to all who have come together near My today's voice! I will embrace you again in the word to the end of the feast and I will give you of it. Rejoice, but be accompanied by those in heaven now, and in the same way, be accompanied then to your little houses, as My today's grace for those who are faithful is great as there has never been to these days, for the time is at its end; it is not at its beginning.

You, those who come to grow within your life from above, ask and it will be given to you, for I have got sharing stewards for those that you want to learn, to bear and to understand so that you may be able to fulfill afterwards. There is much word from Me on the table of My people. Make your request and you will find the answer and the teaching for everything. Amen. May your return to your home and the mystery of the peace between Me and you be blessed, an untouched peace by those that are evil in man and on earth. Peace to you! I bow and thank to the love in you, which will be increased in you if you persevere in it. I bow and I strengthen your steps to the spring. And you should strengthen them too, for I come here and always set the table for those who love My food.

Peace to you! I seal with My name the feast of today and all its celebration, and My entire word has been given to you for your growth. Amen.

And to you, people from the spring, I am giving you the power by which meets Me, the Lord, when I come to shepherd the faithful people, which is and which grows in number, and you will have joys in your work with Me, oh, son, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

*

The joys of the feast for My mother, both from heaven and from earth, have come together. From heaven and from earth, I, the Lord, has set before the people, sitting at the spring, the wisdom of love and its life in man.

Not even the faithful man can sufficiently imagine the invisible things made by God; how they come together, how they are intertwined with the visible ones to rejoice Me; with those that are seen, with those who see, and those that are not seen are myriads of myriads, as it is written; there are saints and groups, thirsty after My glory upon man on earth, for the whole heaven wants Me to be with man on earth so that the heaven may be on earth as well, for I come down with the heavenly hosts.

Oh, when people do something wonderful and want to show it to many, to as many as possible, then multitudes of people herd together; they come together and rejoice and marvel and then they share their thoughts and feelings with one another and fill their hearts and nourish them with those that are seen with their eyes, and then they spread the news from place to place to those who were not there to see in person, and the earth is filled, from mouth to mouth, from man to man, from the things that come out from the people for the people and the man's works remain written on earth.

Oh, well My people, oh, how comes that man cannot bring his mind and his heart for God's things, which are not seen, as wonderful as they are? Oh, sons, there is no faith. This is what man lacks. The greatest gift, the best fruit, from which man would be able to take in him the good things and the beauties of the sky and the Lord's to nourish with them his heart, his life, his steps and the course of his life; man needs this great and heavenly good; he needs the sight for the heavenly things. Man would not need school or knowledge to learn the gift of the heavenly sight, but he would need faith instead, for this is what I said: «He who believes in Me will never die». Oh, where would it be possible to see a man on earth that he may not wish to die, who would not work his death because of the lack of this heavenly gift, which God has given in abundance to the people even from the beginning of the man, even since, I, the Lord, built the man with My own hand and of My Spirit? Oh, there were and are people on earth, who have not died, and they will be, for it is written into the Scriptures[141] that not all will die, but their bodies will be changed into the immortal ones.

Oh, why the prophets of old prophesied about Me that I was the Son of the Father, that I was and that I would come on earth as Savior and that I would receive death and then raising and resurrection, and they called Me the Son of Man? Oh, they saw Me, for they had the gift of faith in them, which gave them eyes for God's invisible things and they saw them; moreover, visions have been given to men on earth, and they have been governed from heaven by those who have seen the things that are and will be. Oh, the people have woken up, as they say, and they say that the man who sees some of God's invisible things is out of his mind, and they speak about that one that he is either mad or sick and proud or, more than that, that he is a liar.

People do not have faith for those that are not seen, which work, fulfill mysteriously and then are fulfilled in such a way that they may appear afterwards. I have said in My speaking of today, that I, the Lord, at the making of the heaven and the earth, first built those that are not seen and then I built those that are seen, and only after that I made the man. I did not make the man first, but I made the gifts for him and I made for him first a house and after that I put him into it, and the house is the heaven and the earth, which are God's house as well. Oh, the man does likewise, first he builds his house and then he enters and dwells in it, and he helps with it for the needs of his body.

I become a teacher with depth of teaching in the word so that the man, who lacks skill in his faith, may take lessons from Me, for where much wisdom has place in man, and he keeps on acquiring it, there much foolishness is also, that is, much pride, much food from the earth and from man, but there is no place for wisdom in man for God's invisible things. Oh, My people, oh son, it is one thing for man to write on a piece of paper one, two, three, four, and to keep account of his laws and possessions, and there is another thing for him to know how to speak and to speak out words. The word is something else, not numbers. I speak like this for the man to understand what I want to say to him, for man counts his time, his money, his possessions and works, his friends or his enemies; he counts his sheep, goats, birds, clothes and he also counts all that he has got and what he is going to have, and he has learned only to count, poor of him, and there is no man that he might not be caught in this trap on earth; however, he forgets to count his days and keep a record of them, their income and shortages, and I do this for him on the day when he leaves his body and meets Me and when he gets terrified on that very moment when he realizes that he did not know that he also had to believe in Me, to have faith in God's invisible things as well, and which have waited for him at the border.

Oh, if I, the Lord, had to teach you an even greater craft, man who always run and do no longer have time to stay and see God behind all those that you see and always count, I, the Lord, would give you the gift of faith and I would teach you then for it, as you need for it much instruction for submission, for much humility, for self-denial and for many that you do not take into account and which gnaw your life inside, and you forget that you are not God and that you cannot be a God for you and that you are a mere man and that is all. If you were to be God, then you would be to come to instruction so that you may know how to be and how you can be God, for in all My work, I take only from the Father so that I may know and that I may do, and that is why I said that Father was in Me and I said this because I had obedience from Him as a gift, and I said that I did not [141] «Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. The trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed.» (1Cor: 15/51,52) speak anything from Myself and I spoke only those that I heard from the Father, but who was to understand My word to discern it and to work it as I did, as I had told the man that I was and that I worked? I have spoken everything to man, but has he got any time to become God at My word and to hear from Me and work like that as I do between Me and the Father? Oh, man does not have time for Me and for My word fulfilled in him, and that is why he cannot be deified, to be full of My grace that makes the heavenly man on earth. People do not want to be anything else but people and that is all. The woman does not want to be nothing else but only a woman. However, I want to be like the Father, and I am, and I work accordingly, and behold, I make a people to the Father, which becomes godly by grace, as My work from Him is to make the man be deified and to make God's sons among people, so that the Lord may have His sons on earth in such a way that God, the Creator, may have fruit, and so that the man may no longer spoil His heaven and earth, but rather God may renew them and to be a new heaven and earth after that, because man has become corrupt just as food goes bad and then it stinks and gets full of flies and worms and then it becomes dust, where its body came from.

Oh, where should there be a more beautiful place, a more beautiful earth and more praised by heaven, more adorned with God's invisible things, as these gardens are here, where I, the Lord, graze My faithful flock, here, where I, the Lord, come down with the clouds and speak My great word above those who have the gift of faith in them?

Oh, people of My gardens of today, feed your faith and little heart with God's invisible things, which so brightly adorn My gardens of today with you, the places on which you live your life today that I gave it to you to have it, after I had taken you from the earth from among people and set you in My blessing. Oh, son, Adam did not want, poor of him, to be nourished with the miracle of the beauty of the paradise in which I had put him, but the two of them were nourished with each other and they did not see anything but only that, and the beauties of the paradise became dust for those two, who were separated in two from one body by My hand, after Adam had not found among all living beings a help for him on earth. Oh, behold how man stole from God, from God's invisible things and set them on earth to boast about them after that! As Adam stole the knowledge by which he said that the woman[142] was flesh of his flesh and bone of his bones, and then he knew to bring further successors into view, but he knew like a man and not like God, and to the end of the time, man has been stealing from God's invisible things in order to do what he has known, what he has got in his mind to do on earth with those that are and are not seen, and this is how man has become a thief for those that are not his and belong to God, and behold, how many things he takes out to show that they are his, out of his mind on earth, and then he gives them a shape and calls them by a name that he has given them and he calls them: telegraphy, telephony, radiophony, television, informatics, and as much as he may want to call those that man brings into his hand: telephone, radio, TV set, computer, and many other deformed names, all that man keeps in his hand like some toys with soul in them, and then man gets enchanted and the heaven of saints and angels look on the earth and see how much man has been stealing from God's invisible things, of their wisdom, which God uses between Him and man, and man has been stealing them after he was built by God's hand on earth and keep on boasting about them; however, he boasts in vain about those that are not his, because he has been stealing from My things and then he has become proud, and then he has hidden from God.

Oh, thief man, you cannot hide and you cannot hide Me from the face of the people. I stay face to face with man and I confess Myself by all those that God has made, not because of you, and you are judged by this, for you cannot go anywhere but only in prison because of your stealing, and who is to take you out from there if not God, Whom you want to hide now completely and to take His place and to sit in His name? Oh, you are judged by those that you have done and you will need Me and you will need the forgiveness of your works, for My adversary, the devil, who fell down from heaven by his pride after he wanted to be greater, above God, his Creator and the Creator of all the things that are and will be, this rival of Mine has given you from his things, from his things fallen from heaven once with him and thus he has prepared a dungeon for you, as by his falling he also prepared his because of his audacity to become greater, before God, after that God had given him great honor among the heavenly creatures into the midst of the wisdom in heaven, and out of which God takes and works with it on earth. Oh, you will not rejoice over those that are fallen from heaven by the man's pride, but you will cry seeing your life wasted away in unbelief and ignorance of God, from Whom you have always stolen and then have gone with them and display them on the market to sell them to the people. Oh, when are you going to put an end to this?

The man rejoices because he gives birth to babies out of sinful pleasures, but here it is, to whom he gives forth fruit! He brings forth income to satan, for the children of nowadays become a devil dressed in man's skin and they become the servants of God's adversary, the thief; furthermore, they become harmful tools of soul among people on earth, all the people who have liked the hoe, the harrow and the plough and then have gone away to get away with hard labor, will mourn. However, they have gone, poor of them to become the tools of satan's thick schemes, God and man's adversary, and many of the people who have served him know the danger in which they are and the end of all these things, but they do no longer have any place where to flee and where to pull themselves out from the way with a precipice under it, and then the man without knowledge marvels, and he marvels at My word of today and he does not know what happens with him. Oh, do no longer wonder, you, offspring of snake, do not longer raise your head in wonder and put thistles in My way. You will not be able to do this, for I have come on earth as word to catch you in the act and to tell you that you go wrong by what you do, and I tell you that you can prepare your salvation. I have come to be ready to help you, if you want to come back to the spirit of the truth, which is everywhere and follows you to seek somehow to clean your mind and deed from all your dirty things, and to cleanse your heart too, as unless you get healed in your mind from serpents, you cannot set your heart before God so that He may show you of His invisible things in such a way that you may see them and to measure through them your sin and foolishness on which you have nourished yourself far away from the spirit of the heaven on earth. Oh, you are to be pitied more than the devil, for you are the visible one, you are in the flesh and he is invisible, for he is spirit. Therefore, come back so that you may see like God and not like the devil, because the man was built by God, and the devil was built by man. Come back, for the hour has come! Amen.

Oh, My people, I have written Myself into the book with the judgment for the thief and with My coming out into his way to save him if he comes back to believe God by this word. By My coming down on earth, I give faith to man, because I come into his way to speak to him, and I do not need his tools to reach to the ears of God's bearers and to come into My book of today with My word for any other reason than the one that I need a man with faith; that I need a man to whom I may reveal Myself, a man who has got paper and a pen to write, and I to speak to him and he to put Me into the book. I am the One from Whom the man has stolen and become a thief to make his tools so that he may be able to speak to each other, from one end of the earth to another, hearing each other by this devices made by him. I am the One Who has got all the power to go forward and speak, and I do not do this by fabricated devices but by My power.

However, man makes his tools by wisdom stolen from heaven to be able to do and to go and speak to the other end of the earth, and he needs to steal from My invisible things and make his tools in order to give them soul on earth and then to call them his angels. Oh, the angels are otherwise; they are spirits and not bodies; they are not tables and iron, they are not human devices. I, the Lord, come on the clouds of cherubim, and I stay invisibly and shepherd the man, for the invisible things, which were made first, are those that cover My glory, a glory that is and for which man needs faith. Oh, this is how I have been sitting at the table of the feast of today with My people from the spring and with the one coming from far away at My gentle voice after the man in order to teach him his coming back home, and I have stood in the clouds of cherubim with My mother Virgin, the Queen, and We have spoken the word of the man's creation over those who have come together with sweet hearts and tearing eyes from the joy for the heaven in them, for they have come to My table and sat down with the heaven at the table, and that is why those who have come to the mouth of My spring of word, which so gently I pour out so that it may flow and those who are thirsty to drink of it.

I have spoken now after the feast has risen from the table, and I have given man the power of wisdom for My word, which is the river of life, the river prophesied by John, the evangelist, My beloved disciple, and who, two thousand years ago, saw in a vision the work, which I have come today with, and pour it over the people; that is My river of word, (Apoc: 22/1) by which, soon, soon, I will flood the earth far and wide from margins to margins, and many will wash their face in it and will see then like God and they will see God, as the blind man whom I healed went where I sent him to wash and to see God after that and then to go and show himself to the priests, so that they could also know that the man saw from God, and that the man sees if God wants him to see.

Oh, I am comforting again those who have taken of My table. We have got warmed up; I and My mother and the whole heaven; We have got warmed up from the little hearts full of warm for My grace of today upon them, the grace for those who are faithful. I will accompany them mysteriously and I will breathe within them My will in everything they do and want to be able to do. I will give them a new heart and I will pour out love there where love is, and to the one who has I will give more, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, wake up, Romanian people; wake up because it is late! Oh, how well it would be for you to hear Me and listen to Me! I would escape you from all the holes in which you have fallen due to your desires and restlessness, for you have tasted of the poison wine and you have found it good, but it is the cup of the iniquity of the whole earth, and it has come to you from foreign countries and it has stolen you away from the spirit of your ancestors. However, they have been calling out to Me for you and I have been calling out to you either for you to get up. Oh, suffice it with sleepiness. Do not seek to get drunk from water. Take and drink of My mouth the word of awakening and making and run to God, Who escapes you from falling, from the falling in which you are staying now! Amen.

You, those who come and drink of My spring of word, give Me to the people! Become messengers of My coming over the sons of the Romanian people and tell them that I have come to heal them from unbelief and from their estrangement from God! Take fire from fire and kindle with it the hearts of many people from near to near and you will receive a reward, faithful sons! Ask from Me to make you powerful in deed and in word, and give to heaven help from the earth so that We may raise the Romanian people to a heavenly rank among the nations of the earth, for God's mysterious wisdom has been put under a bushel by those who have wanted to rule over the man's spirit, and there are no longer shepherds to take care of the sheep so that they may not become goats if there are no shepherds for the sheep.

Oh, My mother, I ask the man on earth, mother. We ask the man to help Us, mother. Oh, how beautiful it has been with your feast in My gardens with the people from the spring and with the one that has come at My table of word! Oh, how beautiful have been those who have shared Us further, sons with whom We have been laboring for My glory of today and at its preaching over the earth! I have tasted with them a sweet feast, We, those in heaven, on this day! Glory to the Father, Who has sent Us, mother! Man does not know how beautiful it is in those that are not seen and who adorn in secret My works on earth with the people. Moreover, even if he was to be told and recounted, man is cold, and every man who does not see these is cold, mother.

– Oh, Son, as beautiful as the Father, You will overcome by Your patience, dear Son, as it was not only the cross which You had to endure, but You have been enduring even since the man played at stealing in the garden of paradise and he played at sin face to face with God, Who made him and set him in happiness. Behold, even today You are suffering and speaking Your today's word with a lot of patience for the resurrection of the sinful man, and You should rather beat him, not comfort him; however, You are patient, oh, Son of holy endurance. I am comforting You with pain and love and I am strengthening Your patience; further, I am wiping out Your little tears with my little hand, as by Your patience, You make satan weak, by Your tear You make him burn, and by Your gentleness and humility You make him give his spirit away and soon, soon, he will be finished. Amen.

I am giving them the comfort of a mother and I am touching with my little hand all the heads of those who have sat at Your table of word and spirit of my feast among saints. I am comforting them and saying: This is the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and my Son, and you should listen only to Him, and, by listening to Him, this is how you should follow Him, and in this way you will become God's sons among people on earth. Amen.

– Now, We are finishing mother, and We are releasing those how keep Us to put Us into the book. I have told the rain to break open when the feast has passed, and it has watered the gardens here, for they have been crying after water.

Now, My people, get rest from the work that you have been doing for the preparation of My table with the people that have come at the table, and get up rested and then set down further to your work with Me for My today's glory with you, as I have been preparing it as a day of feast, and I keep you like that at My right hand side, and I will glorify you by the name of a disciple, and you will receive the crown of a disciple, son working on earth for God, obedient son. Oh, keep on being humble and keep on being like that, My people, for this is how God works with man. I am and I help you to want and to be able to cope with it, and you should only listen to Me, you should follow Me only, only to love Me and to listen to Me like that, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the beheading of Saint John, the Baptizer

In a spirit of heavenly feast and with love full of mercy, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am becoming again word into My book of today, for man needs God as much as he does not understand this, but I have mercy on him and I speak so that he may hear Me, for where I am, he cannot come to hear Me, because the man is from those that are beneath and I am from those that are above, as I said at My first coming into the midst of the people to which I came then and I was telling them: «You are of this world, I am not of this world; you are from beneath. I am from above and unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins». (John 8/23-24) I told them this because the unbelief brings harm to the man on earth, and then in heaven, and I was exhorting the people to follow Me so that they might have the light of life, and that their life may have truth. However, they did according to their pride and said that My testimony was not true, because I testified about Me. Oh, what did they benefit if they said that? They died in their sins, because they did not want to know Me and to heal them, and I was telling them: «You judge according to flesh. I judge no one. Even if I do judge, My judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father Who sent Me. It's also written into your law that the testimony of two people is valid. I am One Who testifies about Myself, and the Father Who sent Me testifies about Me. You know neither Me, nor My Father, and you do not know where I come from and where I go, for you judge according to flesh and you do not know Me, as if you knew Me, you would know My Father also. I am going away, and you will seek Me. Where I go you cannot come and you will die in your sins unless you believe that I am He. Everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. A bondservant does not live in the house forever. A son remains forever. If, therefore, the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed». (See John: 8/21-36)

I, explained all things to them and I unsealed from the Scriptures the mysteries that could not be perceived by their mind from beneath, in order to make them believe and to forgive their unbelief somehow, for when I called out so that someone might hear Me and speak about Me, Isaiah answered Me and I made him My prophet; I made Him a prophet of God, and I spoke to him in a vision helping him and telling him: «Behold, this coal has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away», (Is: 6/7), and I made him a godly man, for he believed and followed Me within light, and I told everyone: «I am the light of the world and he who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life». (John: 8/12) Oh, this is how the one who follows Me on earth is born of My word, and this is how I have made prophets and disciples working with Me and then they have no longer belonged to this world but they have been from the things above and I have no longer taken into account their iniquities, for I touched them, cleansed them and set them on the way of love and they have listened to it after that.

Oh, Herod did not want to receive from John, My Baptizer, his forgiveness and the salvation from his sin; he did not want it and as a result he remained on the side of the sinful lust, which always killed him, until it pushed him to make a bad promise, in which he was caught unknowingly and then he had to respect it and thus he cut John's head. Oh, the man has to shudder, for his lust becomes sin and it comes through the gates in his body and it brings him to the sin of pride after that, sin that leads him to make promises while he is drunk, and then his soul falls in fetters and hardly does he receive Me when I have to come and save him somehow, for man hardly knows

Me and hardly receives Me to believe and to follow Me. He is used to knowing the sin and to receiving it upon him, because man is from beneath.

Behold, Herod did not receive his neighbor, the one who tried to do him good, and because of the sin that he loved, he did not love God, and Herod loved himself instead and that is why he loved to lust and to rejoice in this way. Oh, woe to the one who lusts, because this one comes to die on this way! Man lusts in his heart and then in his body, and man lusts another man because of his weakness against which he does not come to stand. The streets are full of lustful people after man and after sin. There are no longer any places cleaned from the sin in man. At all crossroads the sin lies in ambush from man to man, and the devil gets rest because he has made the people to work for him. Man falls into the trap of another man and there are many who pretend that they have God and that are the saviors for the sinful people, but God's people do not walk like that, God's people do not walk alone, as I also did not walk alone when Father had sent Me to walk on earth after man and to turn him back to the Father. Man has to walk alone only when he is alone, and when he walks among people, he needs to have companions doing of miracles, miracles from heaven, not from him, for the man who serves his lust has the devil as his God and the devil also makes false signs, not real miracles but only some of his fakes to deceive those who do not know his work, and then man falls into the trap of another man because of his lust, which joins his body and then man becomes a devil. However, I come on earth and let it known that it is the time for great iniquity on earth; it is a time with sin and then with bitterness for sin and people die in their sins, and I call upon them so that they may hear Me and that I may heal them somehow, and the one who hides from My calling that one becomes like Adam, which hid from Me because of the sin in him, for after he had sinned against Me and against himself, he wanted to hid from My face, and hearing My walking and My voice, he hid even more, for his sin departed him from God.

Oh, the man is a stranger; he is so much of a foreigner, poor of him, for he departs from Me by his sin and then he walks within this condition, and the more I would try to call the one tormented by his conscience, the more he runs away and hides in himself. However, I come and keep coming and I want to touch his heart with My word of fire and I want to give him hope and salvation and take him into My service and then I want to tell him as well: «Behold, this has touched your lips and your iniquity is taken away». (Is: 6/7) Amen.

And now I am writing Myself into the book with the commandment of life and I bring it into the man's memory, the commandment from the beginning and which I, the Lord, and John, My beloved disciples, renewed it two thousand years ago and I said: «I give you a new commandment: love one another with the love of God». (John: 13/34)

Moreover, I spoke to man and said: «You shall love the Lord your God, man; you shall love him with all your being, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself». Man does not understand how to fulfill what I have given him to work, and I want to advise Him now. My Spring of word becomes ember and a burning coal to touch the man's heart and then the man to take it on his lips, and I call the man from the midst of the citadel to hear Me, and I am calling him from the midst of the citadel of My today's word, from the midst of those who hear from My mouth My word of fire in order to take it and throw it down on earth and then this fire of My word to be kindled and to burn the people's iniquities, for the devil has established the sin on earth as a law. Oh, woe to him, for his destruction is coming! Amen.

Oh, man estranged from God, I have told you a word even from the beginning, a word of fire, and I wrote with fire on the stone and I have told you to love God and to love your neighbors as yourself. When I have told you to love God, I have also added word near this, and for the fulfillment of the love of God, I have given you your neighbor as your helper, the one who brings you from Me the commandment of the love of God, for God has to be loved in obedience and submission, and there is no other stairway on which the love for God in man may ascend to Him. Oh, man, you are not going to see, you are not going to see the wisdom in man that may perceive and understand this commandment for man's love of God. Man calls other man his neighbor. Oh, no, as behold, man kills man by his sinful lust, which becomes hell in man, and the commandment of the love of God wants to make God man. Man cannot be man's neighbor, but only the enemy of his salvation. Only God's messenger to man, only that one is the man's neighbor, only the man who has become godly by grace, and from whom God overflows before man with His holiness from above, with those from above, not with those from beneath. John, My Baptizer, such a messenger before My face, such a dead man to sin and dead to the unbelief on earth, only such a man can be man's the neighbor. The people do not welcome this kind of people, for men are used to those who are from among them and like them, as John went to Herod, who was a stumbling block to the people because of his iniquities and estranged the people from God, and he told Herod that he was not permitted to do those things which he took the freedom to do, but those who loved sin as Herod did, cut John to the ground because of their lust, which took shape in them and which they allowed within their life.

Oh man estranged from God, God does not allow you to enter a sinful union, for the man's body was not made for immorality but for the Lord. Oh, be good and do no longer commit sin! Kill your lust because it becomes your punishment! Love your neighbor, which comes to you from God in order to bring you to Me, to the law of the love of God, and only in this way you should love yourself and not otherwise, for otherwise you work out your death and not the love from God. Do not forget that God is against sin and against the frivolity that comes from sin! Oh, do not forget that sin brings about death and it is truly death, and death does not know what light is and neither does it know the shame for its works! I am the light of the world. I, and whoever follows Me, will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life. It is the time to condemn sin, a time prophesied by the prophets of old and who had in them God's sight, the Spirit of God, the Spirit Who is speaking today with you, man, estranged from God. Oh, do no longer stand against Me and yours as Herod did, who did not love and who did not receive his neighbor, the one whom I sent to do him good! You have no one as your neighbor, you do not have, you do not have, and you do not know whom and what surrounds you, for man needs men for his needs and desires, and he does not seek after God. Oh, receive Me when I knock! Receive your neighbor and do not receive man, for man is just as weak as you are and there is no one to give you! The devil has learned to take on the image of a fasting and abstinent man so that you may believe him, but God never works without disciples near His messengers to you. John has disciples when He came out to be seen as the prophecy was in the Scripture for his appearance among people, and he gave Me his disciples and did not keep them for himself, and then I worked with them after that, and they worked for Me further with disciples near them, with those like Me and like them in their work among people, and in no way did they work in a spirit of carelessness as the devil tries to take on the man's shape and to appear in My name over people and through people. Oh, behold how I come with the saints to you and how they bring their testimony to you from near Me, about My work among people. Behold, John's voice, My Baptizer, who went to Herod to tell him that he led the people away from God and that the work of iniquity committed at the top becomes a bad example for the city; and that it became the spirit of death among people afterwards. Amen!

– Oh, I am the voice, which clears the way before You, Lord. I was Your messenger then and I am Your messenger now, and I testify about You before those who hear when You come with the saints into the word on earth to the people. I breathe the spirit of faith in You over all the people and I am telling them:

The Lord is coming, sons of men, He is coming and is finding you in unbelief and in its works! Faith has its works and the unbelief has its works too. I call to you to separate from sin and from the deceiving superficiality, from which man stumbles against man. Oh, do no longer cut me away as Herod did with me from his face! Receive the calling of God's messenger, the voice of your neighbor, for when the Lord told the man to love God, He also put his neighbor next to him and He said to the man: «You shall love God and you shall love your neighbor as yourself, man!»

There is no one to interpret God's word to the people, and only the Lord does this, the Father's messenger does this, the Son of the Father, the Lamb of God, the One Whom I baptized as a man then in the river Jordan, while I was calling out to all the people to repent and to receive the kingdom of the heavens, which was coming near to them, the Lord, Who appeared at Jordan, so that the people might be able to know the One confessed by the Father with His voice coming down with the clouds above the river Jordan, telling those who were present there: «This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased». (Matt: 3:17) Oh, this is how we proved, the Lord and I, as the Father's messengers, for upon my coming out of the wilderness I preached about the Lord and I showed Him to the people, and the Father in heaven fulfilled the miracle and testified about it in a loud voice, and the voice of the Father was written on earth against His Son Whom I baptized as a man at Jordan, submitted in everything, gentle and humble, and through all these exalted among all the people, who keep on being proud on earth.

Oh, receive those who are confessed by God in heaven and on earth, for those who are today among you and who pretend that they are sent by the Lord to you are liars, oh, sons of men! Behold, the Lord is coming and speaking to you, and in a gentle and humble way, He is giving Himself to you as word from the midst of a people like a citadel, the citadel of God's word, a people grown by His word and taken care by the Lord on earth so that the Lord may have a citadel among people and to do them good, coming towards them by the word for the salvation and holiness of men. Oh, come back from sin to holiness and receive the word of God and open to it so that it may give you light, so that it may call you to the power from above and by which you may be able to overcome the sin in you, the lust, which becomes one with the man's body and then it fills the man with pride!

I am Your messenger, Lord, and I become the man's neighbor to bring him to the love of You, the true love between earth and heaven. Oh, tell them no longer to love their body, for the body lusts in them against them and against You, against God in them, against the Spirit, Lord, as death is born in them by the lustful body. Oh, tell them about me, for I did not love my body, but I rather loved You in me, and therefore I wanted neither food, nor water, and I had You so much in me, and this is how I was and this is how I came out among people, in order to become their neighbor and to give from You to them.

Now, have mercy on the Romanian people and do it according to Your promises, Lord, and prepare its salvation from the darkness, from lawlessness, from sin and from estrangement from You, and do not allow this nation to perish! Help its mind, help it in its time of unbelief, for sin has increased and estranged it from You and it has departed it from You very much! Oh, Lord, destroy the enemies in its midst who are against its salvation from You, those inside and outside, and show Yourself as a true God upon it so that the nations of the earth may see and bow, Lord! Oh, this nation is on the point of giving away his soul; do not let it perish, for it has not shepherd and You are its Shepherd! Make it hear Your voice and open to You so that it may know You and listen to You, and that You may save it from death and to have mercy on it, and to see You those who wanted and want to put in bondage the one chosen by You for Your glory, for the glory of the faith in You of the people, little and slaughtered Lamb, Lord, Who lifts up the sins of the people, as it is for this that You came on earth. Amen.

– Oh, great prophet and My baptizer and the baptizer of many who came and put their faith in Me! Oh, what shall I do to them if they do not hear Me, if they do not open to My great voice upon them? They bring upon themselves what they have been working for and this is how they see God, Who calls out to them to hear Him and to listen to Him.

Oh, Romanian people, the saints in heaven call you and they call you My chosen one. Oh, set yourself apart for God, because I do not want that you may perish together with those who are not faithful. Faith has its works and do not get enchanted otherwise, for you are dead if your faith does not have heavenly works in you. Oh, I call out to you; do not leave off My calling!

Wake up, you, those who sit on a seat of shepherd over the soul of the Romanian people and open to My voice upon you! Do not be deceived with the passing things, because it is God, and you have to prove Him if you sit under the name of servants for Him on earth! Oh, open for Me. I do not come to do any harm to you, but I come as a Savior instead! I ask nothing from you but love, welcome and faith to give you salvation, to save this nation. Do not do like the Jews so that you may not receive Me, because it is a shame to do this if you call yourselves Christians! Be saviors, wake up, and wake the people up from their sin to the light of the holiness, for the time is at its end and the signs have been proving this! Amen!

And you, My people, citadel of My word, My fold of today into the midst of the Romanian people, ask Me, ask Me what this nation has to be and what to have, for I have come down with the word of My coming into its midst and I want to make it the light of the nations, but let it also have its desire and serve Me like that, for you are a beautiful people and the Romanian people has someone to take after if it wants to be light on earth as I was.

I am into the midst of the Romanian nation as word with light in it upon man and I dwell into its midst with you and I work wonderfully, My people, so that this nation may know that I have you between Me and it as the forerunner to it and that I always come to it as word to make it the first among the nations when no one expects it to be like that, and the Lord to be with the people on earth. Amen.

Peace to you, My people, and be My disciple, for I do not work without disciples on earth! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother

I am coming down on earth as the word of man's making, for it is written for Me to come again. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ and I am coming again, and I Myself am speaking with man and I am invisible, for I am surrounded by the angelic hosts without a body, as I ascended to the Father when I departed from My disciples, for a cloud of angels hid Me from their face, and an angelic voice told: «This Jesus will come back, as you saw Him going to the Father». (See also Acts: 1/11)

I become word of My coming to man and of the man's coming to Me and I dwell into the midst of a people that I have been preparing during these days for My glory, and My glory is becoming word and is given further through its sharers, through its heirs, and it is not given to anyone who has to share with the people the news of My coming to be believed, My word of today and the man's calling to Me. Oh, it is not for anyone who has to do this, but only those to whom I, the Lord, tell them to preach Me, and by their own life and stature to show Me and then to preach Me, and the one who gives news about Me that I am into the midst of a people speaking over the earth does not have to be alone, but he who sanctifies himself to become the messenger of the coming of God's Son, Who is coming again for the living and for the dead to give each one according to his work, needs holy companions. Amen.

Oh, My people, I dwell into your midst as word and feast of word, because My mother the Virgin is celebrated by the hosts of saints and angels and by the nations in heaven and on earth, and I embrace My mother and become word for her, and she becomes word for Me, because it is a holy feast and My word is angelic food, the food of the saints and angels, oh, sons, and the man's food should be likewise, oh, likewise, because it is written: «Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God». (Matt: 4/4) Oh, if man wanted to do like that, then he would understand My coming of today in the word. It is not possible for man to desire, to receive My word, to understand it and to believe it if he does not love My grace upon him, that is holiness, without which no one knows and sees God, neither in word, nor by sight and nor in the creatures, but those who fulfill Me in them, they, oh, only they know Me by this word and receive Me, for this coming of Mine is true, but you, man, do not read the Scriptures to know, that it is written in them that My coming is as sure as the dawn when it comes and appears over the earth and it fills it with light and then with sun, and all grow on earth under My eyes and they are given to the people to invite them to know God and to thank Him for all His gifts for man.

Oh, mother Virgin, the angels, the saints and the people bless and praise you, mother, as it is a holy feast on this day that reminds of your birth on earth among people, born of a barren mother, overshadowed and gifted by God for your birth. It is not written in the Scriptures about your birth, but where is it written about it? Oh, it is written in the history, mother, in the history of your life and of your time, as in all the time the history has been written on earth, as the Scriptures were written, mother, but there was no more room in them as much as was written about God's history with people and of His works on earth and in heaven. The man has got used to calling Scripture only the book on which this name is written, but the Scriptures are big, mother; they are vast both until Me and after Me, and in those Scriptures you are as well with your childhood, with your holiness, with your love, with your faith, with your life at the temple of prayer, mother, with My birth from you, oh, My mother[143] Virgin and forever Virgin. And from you and up to this day many Scriptures have been written, mother, and many places, many people, and many heavenly works upon people have been blessed, and many saints for heaven have raised from among the people and multiplied the number of My church and their life was written in the Scriptures of the time, for each one of them has become My church to dwell in it, I and My angels and My saints, I and you, mother, We and the Father, oh, Mother Virgin, church of God's sons and yours!

The Father has sent Me to you as seed from heaven in you to grow it into your virgin body and to be born of you a little baby, and I was made of your body and blood, mother, and your mystery with Me and My mystery with you on earth and in heaven are great, but the man is not wise enough to reach down with it and to understand those from above by the humility of his spirit, mother, and man does not know the heaven on earth, and the heaven above does not know him either, for he eats only bread, poor of him and he does not know of the angelic food, of the word that comes out of My mouth, of every word that comes from God to feed the people with it as the angels and the saints eat of it, mother.

[143] See: The Gospel of James[143] – The story about the birth of the Most Blessed Mother of God and forever Virgin, r.n.

Oh, what a table, mother, what a praised table, with all the saints and angels at it in the time when I speak and set the table of word here on earth, into the midst of My people! Only those who are wise believe and understand My word, and those who work the lawlessness do not understand mother; they do not understand anything and keep on minding their own food, that is lawlessness, mother; however, it is written into the Scriptures that many will search My book of today and will thoroughly look into it, and only those who are wise will understand it, and those that work lawlessness will not understand anything, and it happens with them what Isaiah prophesied when he said: «For if you give to them to read they say that they are not learned or that they do not understand or that it is sealed». (See Is: 29/11) And this is how they remain what they are, blind to God and unfaithful, and this is how they finish their journey on earth, mother.

However, now We have become word of feast and put it on the table of your day as food, My mother, for it is angelic food, and the heaven and the earth together take of the table of My coming on earth as word again sent from the Father to man, mother. Amen.

– Oh, what a sweet time with You into the midst of the people of Your word made up of Your sweet word and fed in this way and what a bad time is beyond these boundaries, Son Lord! Oh, what will do the one who was clothed and put within this mystery, and then he got bored with it and looked for it outside, Lord Son? Oh, what did he really look for? Silence or peace? Justice or rest? Oh, woe to those who have not complied with the burden of Your coming, with this great mystery and borne with fear and great obedience of saints and angels, so wonderful from heaven to earth, wanted for seven thousand years to come and to be, and borne by the angels to work it for the living and for the dead between heaven and earth!

Oh, people born of the word of my Son, Jesus Christ, see how you stay, always search out your conduct face to face with this great mystery, which gave you birth to be God's tabernacle on earth during these days. You should always, always take and eat the food of the angels and of the saints, for the heaven joined the earth in your time with the Lord on earth and my Son is invisible and clothed with the angelic hosts into your midst speaking over the earth and the Lord has made you His messenger to the people and the people come to you to take from your table with the Lord, and like the Bridegroom coming out of his chamber, the Lord comes out from your midst to the people and He calls out from the door of your tent so that the people may hear Him, so that they may come, take, understand and then become God's sons by the heard word and by faith and love, for love heals the man from sin and brings mercy to him and then forgiveness and resurrection.

Oh, Son, Emmanuel, the child put by the Father as seed of the Holy Spirit in my virgin womb to grow in it as a child to be born, a body made up of my flesh and blood by the power of the Father Sabaoth! Oh, how much grace embraces a forgiven sinner and how much love rules upon him after he tastes of Your grace, of Your truth, Lord! Oh, how much gratitude shows You the one seized with Your mercy and forgiveness from You, from Your sanctifying grace! How much patience, how much humility rules then upon the one who unites with You by forgiveness and by love with the help of the spirit of repentance, such a sweet spirit in the one who bears it!

He who grieves or gets cruel in times of trial or in time of rebuke, that one does not know what love and its beneficial and sanctifying work are, and the lack of love among brothers has to be healed, Lord, because the mystery of Your Gospel about the love among brothers is great. Oh, where was the love between the two brothers, who separated when the father opened up his fatherly arms to meet the prodigal son, a time that destroyed his body and soul? On the day of his repentance, the heart of the son who remained near his father hardened and his love of brother was put to test, because he thought that his father did injustice to him and thus he hardened his heart and his face fell, and here it is how the heart of the man works, when he sees how it is given the reward that he thinks he has the right to it. Oh, love is not like that; it does not do such things! It is not that which receives, but it is that which gives and it is given, and how the father with the two of his sons was supposed to be when the love, the mercy and the forgiveness of his heart were put to test on the day when the son who remained home rebelled because of the forgiveness of his brother?

Oh, how badly Israel treated You, oh, my Son, when You came to it bearing the burden of all the sinners and lost people, child born of my virgin body and then put on the cross by those who did not receive You to forgive the burden of their sins! Oh, they were afraid of You that you would take their right of inheritance and they showed their wickedness and their heart burdened with greed and sins, and then they have been afraid all the time, from then and up to this time, so that another people, which You have elected from among the nations of the world to show Your mercy on it, may take their place, and thus they have been struggling all the time for precedence among nations and even today Israel is ruthless and hard in its heart and work; however, You have a mysterious word and You perfect Yourself by it over the earth and You give birth and grow a new people, a new Israel, an invincible kingdom, the kingdom of the heavens with the people, the Christian people full of the spirit and body of holiness, Lord, a nation newly-born of Your new word and to whom You put Your new name on its head: the Word of God, Your word of today, which gives birth to a new people and which You will be to feed with the food of the angels, and not anyone is supposed to preach Your great work of Your word, because not anyone speaks this word to be given to the people, but only by those whom You call and teach and then You send them to become an example of Your kingdom among people, for You cannot be born otherwise in people. Oh, let the bad man not set down to take Your word to preach it, because You do this, for those who are sent are those who become an example of Your kingdom in them, and it shines from them and the people ask about it at its sight, as they also wonder when they see the people of Your word, which has become Your house of coming so that You may come and speak on earth, Lord Son. Oh, glory of Your coming now, and up to the day of all fulfillments! My comfort for You was my word. My speaking with You and with Your people was my comfort and Yours and his, oh, my Son, my Son Emmanuel. Amen.

– Oh, mother, oh, mother, I suffer from those who hurt you, from those who despise you, and they do not need a more severe punishment. I made up My body of your flesh and blood, and then I came out of to the people on earth, I invited them to come to Me and to the Father, and I became their food. I gave them My body and blood as food and I told them to be holy after that, as I was, for those who take Me as their life become one with Me. Woe to those who trade with God for their benefit! I have given Myself by sufferance on the cross to man as food and I have not asked anything from anyone but only love and holiness for My place in man, and I have told the man to come back to Me and I have also told those who lost their adoption: "Come back, children fallen from faith, for I have become one with you and I have made you My people, and I will heal your disobedience!" Oh, those who sanctified themselves became saints for Me and then they cried for their sins all their life, because they were thinking about My sufferance from their sins and about My endurance for them and they did not have the courage to hope for their forgiveness anyhow, but rather they gave everything for it; everything that they were still able to give to God with their life after that, and they did not give anything to the devil but were wiping out with every passing day, more and more their evil works from the book of the devil and they were making their place into the book of life by everything they worked and were, by their prayer and humility, and so many forgiven sinners were filled with grace and My grace in them worked great miracles; however, today, man does no longer know to put his hope in God, and he hopes only in man and he does not get ready for Me, but he gets ready only for his old age, poor of him, and he puts his hope in his pension for his old age and not in God, and not in the poverty for his salvation. Oh, there has been no saint to have a pension (retirement pension, r.n.) on earth, but they only have had God instead and no one has expected anything from man, but only from God. I say this because I suffer from the sinful and weak hope of the man who gets ready for his old age with his fallen mind, putting his hope in hard days and needs for his life. Oh, how much I suffer when I see how little man gets ready for heaven, how little he prepares to meet Me, for his self-denial and for the hope prepared for him in heaven and which would prepare his life in heaven! The heaven comes down on earth and man chooses the whole earth and I suffer from such a low falling of the man's mind, who worries and keeps worrying of all his passing days, and behold, only those who are wise know to unite with God, to understand and to have the Lord as their guide, life and care. Oh, if you knew, man, what days are coming, you would not want them to come, but you would stay only with My day, only with My time, only with My coming, because no one will give you anything, anything, soon, soon. Oh, what shall I do to you if you put your hope in the time, in the man who passes away and who is no longer? Oh, how shall I really teach you anymore, to get you used to My kingdom, not to that on earth, not to that from man?

Now, I am finishing with My word of today and I am sealing with My name My table of word for the feast of My mother the Virgin and I leave My blessing on your head, My people, and I always refresh you with the exhortation from above: stay close to Me that I may get warmed from you, and I will take care of everything for you, from heaven and from hearth, and thus to be able to work for each other.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, set My name upon My word, over God's Word, My new name. Amen.

And you, mother Virgin, My mother Virgin, be comforted with My work of word between Me and My people, word that becomes angelic food, the food of the saints and of the angels, and which I, the Lord, give to the people as food, mother, and those that work lawlessness will not understand this, but only those that sanctify themselves, only those who are wise and holy will understand, and they will walk in the ways of love, on the way with a living spring on it, on My way of today with man, the way of My coming again from the Father to man with food of word, angelic food for man. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Ascension of the Holy Cross

I am announcing Myself at the gates that I am coming as word into the book, so that My today's book may be opened for Me, to come in and to leave the word of My coming in it, because I, the Lord, am coming down on earth during these days as word and I am greatly working upon the people of My word, and I am giving of My food from his table with Me to the people, by My sharers, who give and take from Me, and happy, and happy are again those who bow to take, those who open their hearts and faith at My today's voice, which is filling the sky between heaven and earth, I, Myself being accompanied by My saints and by the angelic hosts, and the evil spirits shudder at My voice, which even those in the tombs hear, and satan and his angels, fallen from their worthiness that I gave them in the beginning, mourn when they see that I, the Lord Jesus Christ, fulfill My coming written in the Scriptures to be with the people in the last days and I try, somehow, to let the people know first and then to fulfill. I have not worked otherwise, for this is how God is: first He announces Himself and then He works among people with His work. Amen.

I am announcing Myself to you, My people, with the feast of the cross, that I have you now as My house, as My table and as the way of My coming into the midst of the people on earth. Oh, the people on earth sleep, sons, and their sleep is the carelessness of their soul and of God and it is the unbelief of many among those caught by the spirit of their pride of life, and of its lusts in their bodies. Oh, how much I suffer because of the departure from Me of the man's thought! When I see that man does not suffer from this and that he has no time to think of God, I suffer, and My sufferance is not like that of man, but it is long and hard and it has no comfort, for no one would be able to comfort My severe wound but only the one that makes it to Me and keeps on adding to it, because he does not know the pain that he does. The Israel people did not know, because of the blindness coming from his pride, it did not know and it did not want to know what it did when it denied Me and gave Me over to the cross and then cursed Me by death on the cross, and the one blinded by the pride of life, that one speaks in vain about God, about truth and about beauty, for the spirit of pride stands witness between Me and him, defeating and pulling him out of the book of life, and there is no prouder man than the one who does not recognize and does not see its pride, for the one who eats and likes eating does no longer see his face, but he sees only those that he eats and their taste pleasant at its view and then in his stomach.

Oh, My people, the man lives more on his belly, in which he takes delight within his heart. Those who lose their mind fall from their glory on earth and which threatens their possessions, and they are worse that the devils, poor of them. I can no longer help them for they are completely blind. Oh, I can no longer help them but only with the reward for their works to open their eyes and to see the deception of their life face to face with them, because they did not want to have Me, the Lord, as they gave their life to the emptiness of life. However, I want to have you, to keep you and to protect you as Mine, oh, My people, and to be My possession, to be My wealth on earth, for I have the heaven and the earth and I do not have any place on earth, I do not have any, for the man has become haughty and set Me aside from his way and he has forgotten Me, and then man calls himself God; this is how he calls himself, and he became My punishment, My heavy cross, which I am going to drop it off, for the time of God's glory is coming on earth and the Father has always sent Me with it to you, to prepare the earth for My glory, oh, My people. Oh, put on God more and more with every passing day and let this be your protection and strong shield and let it be an invincible weapon before those who have separated themselves from Me on earth, and by giving themselves to the ruler of the darkness of this passing age. Oh, put on Jesus Christ, son, and dress up more and more beautifully, for I have always enveloped you within My word and people do not know why many do not come to Me and to you, but I know this. You are enveloped within My word, which the people have loved neither at that time and nor now, for I came two thousand years ago among people, and now I am coming again and I am clothed within the word and I am speaking, and I do not make any signs and miracles with you and near you that the people may see Me with their eyes, but I do the work of My coming as word on earth and I prepare the brightness and the glory of My day, and I prepare the day when all the nations on earth will see My humility by which I revealed Myself as word from heaven among them, and they did not understand Me and did not understand the fulfillment of the great and small prophecies concerning this earth, and especially the land of the Romanian nation, given to Me by the Father to be My house of coming now, in the end of the time, and of the faith in people. Oh, few, few have the spirit of faith, from which My resurrection in man is to come! I, the Lord, take those in My ark, and through them I keep on drawing in it those that reach out their hand to Me in order to give them their salvation, and this is how I will make up a faithful people and invincible on earth before the nations departed from God for a way without the Lord on earth with them, and this is how I bear the cross of My coming, My way full of boiling longing to draw all people to the Father, either by the Holy Spirit or by fire, as My Spirit blows, but He does not find in His way some among those born of the Spirit to attract each other, but He rather finds a dry man, consumed with the fire of the lawlessness of the whole earth and with which the earth has been filled from margins to margins with people without spirit and who do not want to hear of the man's birth from above.

Oh, man, your cross is shameful. Your life is only sufferance, only chasing after the wind and after the sufferance, which you prepare to come upon you, and you think that you are happy in your foolish chasing. Oh, this is not life! It is from above and you cannot find it below. Your life is a shameful cross, for life is a cross, and you do not know to take it and to walk in the way as I did when I came as a man on earth in the way of the man, that the man could see Me how I bear My cross and how he bore his, as well. Oh, the end of the man's way is otherwise. Those who are praised and great on earth by their haughtiness, come to be put to shame and to have a bad name among those in heaven and among those on earth, but those who are humble are exalted on earth after their passing away from their body, for their holy work follows them and crowns their name on earth and their gift borne with humility among people in the time of their life in the flesh, and they are put among the saints in heaven and last forever, like God, and their cross from the earth becomes heavenly glory and comfort over the men's sufferance, and behold, those who are humiliated by people are exalted and then they are praised, and those who are exalted by people and by the pride of their life are brought low into the deep and they leave their name to shame on earth.

I become word of wisdom from above for man; take from it, you proud man, and see what great gifts you can take from it if you want! Oh, give Me your life so that I may prepare it beautifully for you and that I may do you good! You have only one friend on earth and I am that One, but you do not want to stop running away and to understand this. The man has nothing on earth because he loses all and everything, and he leaves them all and they are left behind. Only I am able to remain with man, only that the man may have Me, only that he may want Me as I am and as I can be with him so that he may have Me.

My way is hard between earth and heaven up to the man's heart, and My waiting has become a burden. I have been waiting for the man to unite with Me to be one spirit and one love, and My waiting has become a burden, and the devil torments My love after man. My cross is heavy and My coming after man remains outside of the man's heart, for the pride of life has become sweet to his heart. I speak gently but full of pain and without any comfort, and sufferance makes Me gently in the word. I would like, man, to be able to help you. I am a foreigner into your way, but I am God of God and I advise you towards a gentle spirit so that we may receive one another after that. Amen.

It is the feast of the cross, My people. It is a day of memorial of My cross, the cross on which My body passed into death, and then from death to the life by the cross, sons. Oh, what saints with heart and faith the holy ancestors were! They put the cross over all their things and works and it became protecting and sanctifying for them. I have exhorted you to make a cross beautifully on your body, to worship beautifully and holy by the sign of the holy cross and I have told you to make many crosses to your life with Me. Oh, this is how you are to fulfill, son, for whoever does not listen to God's word becomes guilty of disobedience. Oh watch while you worship, and in your prayer persevere, for you secretly represent the work of the angels during the time of your worshipping God, and may your care for prayer be as sweet as your prayer, and may the prayer be as sweet as your care, because it is need intercessors from heaven and on earth at the same time for the human people, that was and is, and I have chosen you to serve Me in this way,

My people. The holy people exhort each other to the holy Liturgy for the denial of the worldly worries, because they secretly represent the cherubim and they become bearers of God, for the Holies are given to the saints and man unites with God by a great mystery and work of mystery, and when you make the sign of the holy cross on your body you are more watchful, more careful, more lively in your prayer, more protected against the thoughts that try to choke you up from the outside against your fellowship with Me and with the heaven, and that is why I have been advising you to make the sign of the cross always so that it may remind you to be always a worshipper and to have a sober spirit, because it is well with the man to be always with the Lord, to be in everything with the Lord, so that he may no longer have moments of emptiness, of soul emptiness, but to be always clothed with Christ, to be only with Me always, because it is hard without God on earth, an those who always stay in one spirit with Me, immediately feel their least separation from Me and they come back immediately in Me, and they do this in love, like the mother who has a little baby, and her thought, her longing, her love and her joy is only to him.

Oh, then you should also give of your spirit then, of your living; you should give of your love for God, son, and you should give to those who come to their birth from above and you should also give them power to become God's sons among people, for such a life draws the man to the emptiness of life, it does this when man expects the least of it, but the holy watch crowns the longing of the heart and likens to cherubim the one loving of God, and this is how he lives in God and God in him, and he becomes a bearer of God by his living within Me, and the cross and its sign always made on his body with his right hand, as his ancestors left it to be done, who received this heavenly gift in their heart and deed, this sign will remain as a seal on his body dedicated to God and as My witness always from him for the devil, who walks restlessly to take the man into his service on his behalf.

Oh, My people, confess Me by the cross, and let its image crown you and adorn the watch of your house, its heavenly glory with it and God's testimony together with the burning candle, (Candle - vigil lamp, r.n.) in which prayers written in oil (Normally in the lamp is used only pure oil, cold pressed oil - untdelemn in Romanian, not refined, not pass through the fire, light of the candle represents wisdom born of love for God proved by fulfilling the word, as the flame of the oil lamp is born, r.n.) may burn together with the images of the saints and angels to whom you give a mysterious appearance under the shelter of your house with the Lord on earth.

Oh, may be blessed the work of your little hands with which you do holy things to stand with them before the people then, and they should speak with the people secretly and the people may take of your spirit with Me, of your life with Me, which you live for Me on earth! Do under the blessing the whole work for the holy things and for the saints, to whom you give an image on earth by the work of your little hands, as much as each one gives to it, so that complete word may be fulfilled, for each and every work of your little hands becomes a fulfilled word. I will give you much harmony and peace and I will teach you to work and to eat like that during all the time of your work that you do. Oh, I thank you very much that you fill with flowers the sign of the holy cross, a sign made by your little hands out of wood or clay and then adorned with flowers, angels and holy images, sons, and not with My crucifixion on the cross. Oh, comfort the Lord and the saints with your spirit in you and among you and may you be blessed for your entire beautiful and holy work, and I will watch upon you and for you and we will touch the hearts of the people, and all your things with Me will speak secretly before the people and all will be to My victory in the end of the time into the midst of the people, into the midst of the Romanian people and then over the nations, to a spirit of resurrection by the cross, by the love of God in the people; love such as yours, little sons. Amen.

I fill your little hearts with peace and Holy Spirit. May the spirit of the holy brotherhood be glorified among you! May everything that I have given you to work be done for God's glory on the earth with the people and may you have holy progress with the heaven on earth under the mystery of the earth, under the mystery of the spirit of obedience to My entire word upon you. Amen.

Peace to you, sons! May much, much peace from heaven be among you and with you in all of My work with you and yours with Me, and with which I stand before the people to their resurrection and to their becoming wise! Love the power of the holy cross and work it upon you. I am with you. I am with you always, always, and I cannot be without you, but I can work only with you and I want to be with you, to dwell with you and to be, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God[144] at the feast of the Coverage of the Lord's Mother

I am announcing Myself at the gates that I am entering as word into the book with My mother, the Virgin, because it is a feast among the saints for her in heaven and on earth. My book during these days received My today's word in it and stays open for My coming again from the Father to man, to judge in it the living and the dead and to bring the news in it, always the news of the new and endless beginning, as My Scriptures spoke about Me that I would work on earth in the last days. Amen.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I testify that I am He, and again, My witnesses testify about Me, as those, who confirmed the shining of My face on the Mount Tabor, testified about Me, standing between Moses and Elijah and speaking with them in the mountain on that day, and the testimony of two or three witnesses was true and it was enough to remain written and believed afterwards by those who were faithful, by those who have loved God on earth. And My book of today is likewise. It is confirmed as true by the testimony of My witnesses, by many witnesses for more than fifty years and up to this day, when I am pouring Myself abundantly with My great word into the book, being confessed by those who receive Me when I come to speak.

I am the God of the faithful ones, as I have also been all the time to this day, and I am not the God of those who are many, for I am called the God of the elected ones. I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, and in all the times I have appreciated a faithful man more than a whole people, and I have worked miracles for many by one faithful man, and I left Israel live only because of Moses, who was righteous, and I did not listen to the great people of Ahab's kingdom, but rather I listened to Elijah, My prophet on behalf of that people, and this is how I, the Lord, confess Myself by My faithful witnesses.

I chose Abraham and I told him: «Get out of your country, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you, and make your name great. You will be a blessing. I will bless those who will bless you, and I will curse him who curses you. In you will all the families of the earth be blessed». (Gen: 12/1-3) And from then on I kept speaking to Abraham because he was listening to Me. And then I spoke to Isaac and I told him: «I am the God of Abraham your father. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your seed for My servant Abraham's sake». (Gen: 26/24) And those who hate Isaac came and told him: «We saw plainly that the Lord is with you». (Gen: 26/28) Oh, and I also appeared to Jacob and I blessed him and then he confessed: «I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved». (Gen: 32.30)

I speak like that to be able to help the man to understand My work over the earth with the faithful man, when I, the Lord, come and speak to him for him and for many other after that, for the one who is faithful to Me fears God, because Isaiah, the prophet confessed and said: «I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; above Him stood the seraphim and then I said: "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Sabaoth!"» (See Isaiah: 6/1-5)

Oh, My people, oh, son fed on My great word, oh, how big was the stream of witnesses and testified about Me with them in time, and I suffer when I see that the man lives unfaithfully on earth! I have chosen you to be My witness during these days to all the margins of the earth for My word of today and to be My witness in all your work with Me, in all My work with you and I want you to stand beautifully, beautifully before Me forever, sons. Oh, you know what makes the man beautiful, but I also tell you, and I tell everyone when I tell you in My speaking with you, that holiness makes the man beautiful, and then you are beautiful by what you eat, like Daniel and the three young men, who ate like you and were much more beautiful in their face in comparison with those who ate meat and dainties, and you are beautiful by the spirit of confession, sons, for you testify about Me to the people by your word and deed, by the word coming down from heaven to you and which is fulfilled upon you, and then from you over the earth, and My word is your helm, oh, sons. Those who lose their faith in My coming of today to you, go through this because they have loved themselves more than they have loved Me and you, and the shared love disappears and nothing remains of it.

I want, and I want you very much to be one spirit with Me, one heart with Me, so that your feelings may be like Mine, and your understanding for those that My Spirit works face to face with you to be likewise, for the differences between you for all these would not keep you to be one and have the same feeling for all that I want you to be one, to have the same thinking, to have the same feeling in order that you may be able to have the same thinking, oh, and many difficulties of spirit, soul and body flee from you and from among you when you always are one in your feeling and thinking by the spirit of humility and repentance, for the human kind needs repentance, sons.

I am into your midst with My mother, the Virgin, oh, sons, and We are comforted by speaking in a spirit of feast for it among saints and among you. Let us sit down at the table of word with her, for her love and her holy longing is great!

Oh, your love for My today's people is also great, mother! The people of My today's word is it, and it is confessing, mother. The spirit of confession makes the man great before Me and then among those in heaven, for afterwards that one prays for all those on earth, mother. Man does not know what prayer means and how it works; man does not know it, mother. Tell to My people My mystery and the power of the clean prayer, so that those who want to learn may hear your voice, that is, those who want to learn from heaven the work of prayer and its power when it requires for God through man on earth! Oh, come within the spirit of the feast of word over the people of My word, mother, and cover it with the shelter of the mysteries from above in your day of feast among saints, oh, My mother. Amen.

– This is how I listen and this is how I work, as You tell me to do, Son of my virgin womb, for many holy feasts have been set on earth by the work of the heavenly mysteries, which come and reveal to those who are faithful so that they may give them to work after that and that they may be sweetened with the love for the saints and for the faithful people. Oh, let us teach them what and how the work of the prayer is, Son. It is good for them to know that when they intercede through the saints with their prayers before God, the saints pray once with them and they bring their prayer to God on that very moment, for the saints have favor, and the clean prayer with power upon it is that which asks with faith, with humility and with repentance, my dear Son. It is good for them to know to pray beautifully, that is with repentance and gentleness in it, and to ask the saints to bring their prayer to God. It is good for them to be real in their prayer, those who pray through intercessors, and those who have to feel the fellowship with the people who really pray, for great miracles and signs with miracles can come down on earth and upon people by the true prayer from the earth into heaven!

Oh, sons of the word of my Son, give holy power to your prayer to the Lord and to your holy intercessors to Him for your prayer, because they pray once with you and the prayers made like that catch power! Be worthy for prayer, for all are received by power, only for you to be faithful, holy and united in one thought within Jesus Christ, our Intercessor to the Father, the Lord of the saints, sons!

Oh, love very much the prayer to me for you and for the Romanian people before the Lord! This nation needs to be helped very much by prayer. The Lord has given you the spirit to say great prayers for this nation, and you should lift them up to heaven with the burning of your soul, so that the Lord may see and fulfill, sons. The spirit of repentance in prayer has the highest power by those who pray for a nation. When you work out your repentance and the repentance for your brothers and for your ancestors to God, they pray once with you, and if they suffer they receive relief by the prayer once with you to God and they even receive much forgiveness by their remembrance in your prayer with repentance for you and for them. Oh, for so many times I have worked out victory for the faithful ones who have undergone great trials and they have called me to give them victory, and I was working wonderfully, as big as the power of the prayer and of the repentance of those who have been calling me. This is how I am working today for the Romanian people, because I know that today it is the Lord's fallow land and the Lord is coming, my Son, on its hearth, with His second coming to judge the living and the dead and for His new kingdom on earth, God's kingdom with the people, and you should ask for it to come, and it will come and embrace the earth far and wide, only for you to know and to love the power of prayer full of repentance and to let the Romanian people know about it so that it may be fulfilled. Amen.

I am exhorting you now to pray so that the people may come out of the hard sin of pride, sons, for this is the sin that rises many people against each other, bringing them to hate and then to discord. When you pray like that for this nation, you should be wise and examine yourselves to be clean, cleansed from this sin, so that your prayer may have success, little sons. He who hates his neighbor, or more than that, the Lord's neighbor, that one comes to this sin after he has got in his heart the sin of haughtiness, the sin of his self-aggrandizement, sin that leads the man away from God. All those who slide away from the way with greatness, the way with brothers, for them it is not enough the love and the honor they are given, and they think that they deserve more and they are not given enough, and then people like these fall, people who forget, on their way with the Lord, how much He suffered on earth from all and how He suffered with much love and patience and did not despise them, but on the contrary, He told them: «I am with you to the end of the age!» (See Matthew: 28/20)

Behold the sin of pride, the sin from which discontent is born in man, this sin nourishes the man's mind and heart and he loses what he has loves mostly; he loses his brothers, the greatest treasure, the most expensive one, but first he comes to contempt and hatred and only after that he loses them, and a man like that remains with nothing and thus he lives his life on the hard, abrupt and dirty ways, and he does no longer see what he has lost after he loses his perceptible mind.

Oh, if man chose the way of salvation and if he wanted to learn what it is, then a man like that has to prepare for war against himself and against the devil to be able to overcome any time he may go weak back to sin and to a life without God, for the way of salvation means God and it does no longer mean man. Oh, man needs many temptations to know what God means and to know that the Lord is received by fighting against his own self. When man cannot overcome his own self, than it is better for him to leave room for those around him to do this, and with great humility to stand against all that come and put him to test with respect to humility and patience, these having been worked upon him.

Oh, it is good for man to be humble and it is well with him to remain silent before all that come to test his life, because man is very small, even if he does not like to remain small. The power of the one who can bow in his life is great, as I have been exhorting today for the mystery of life and prayer of the faithful man, who is to help God with his prayer for those that are to be ordained soon, soon, the greatest kingdom, the people of my Son, Jesus Christ, the Christian people, a new people, a holy people, a people earned by God from among people, as the Spirit speaks by the Scriptures about the new kingdom, about the renewal of the world that is to come. Amen.

I cover you with the spirit of love, sons, the spirit of the kingdom of the heavens, with the faithful and holy people, and whom the Lord, my Son, Jesus Christ, chooses for Him from among people as He chose Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to be their God on earth then, for my Son is from everlasting to everlasting, the Angel of the great Council, and from the very beginning, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit have taken counsel together and have been working in all the times through all His elected ones.

I embrace you within the spirit of peace and within my peace for you before the Father, the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I protect you in the Lord and for the Lord with you by my prayer for you. Oh, keep them, Father, keep them, Son, also and keep them, Holy Spirit, and give them victory, Lord, in Your work with them, for they are Your inheritance for the days of glory, the glory that comes and is been prepared while coming! Amen.

I am a great protector of the Romanian land and of the faithful people on it and I am a healer into its midst for those who are proud of this nation, for whom I intercede: Lord, cleanse from haughtiness all those who are proud in the Romanian people and put love and mercy into the hearts of this nation, and also put the spirit of peace and good conduct, for those who are rebellious and greedy with pride and justice keep on standing against and they keep on turning against each other by the sin of pride among them! Bring low those who are haughty and bring them to humility, and lift up with a strong hand and keep standing those who want the good for this nation and protect them from the hatred around against them, for You have always spoken upon the sons of the Romanian people: "Peace to you!" Dispel, oh, dispel the evil plans of those who make hostile plans in their mind against the righteous ones of this nation, and then set Your peace among the Romanian sons, for You come and glorify Yourself by the word into the midst of this nation and You have the people of Your word of today as intercessor for it before You! Oh, glory to Your coming as word on the hearth of the Romanian people, and work so that this nation may know You in this word and, then, Lord, make them listen to You. Amen.

– Oh, how shall I not do it, mother, according to your prayer and according to the prayer of the people of My today's word, when you are covering with so much mercy and love the Romanian land and the people on it, faithful and not faithful, when you are praying for its illumination and when you are bringing prayer before Me once with the prayer of My interceding people, and it is also bringing you as its intercessor to Me for its prayer before Me to raise to My glory the Romanian land and its faithful people on it? Oh, I am empowering by the word your protection for My country of coming now, in the end of the time, and I am comforting you with love because of your love for it, oh, My mother! Amen.

Oh, how shall I not work according to your merciful prayer for the Romanian people, people of My word? I have set you to intercede on My behalf for it. Pray with repentance, son, so that repentance may be sufficient for it before Me, and I will let it know the prayer which comes up to Me from its midst for it, so that We may work well and to call out in a churchly manner and all of Us to know the calling. Oh, peace to you! I keep on strengthening your power for My works with you and for its progress by your little hands, but you should also have progress in the work of your confession, son, and you should also have prayer full of repentance, so that We may be able to move these mountains from their places, that is these evil and proud people from the Romanian people, who do not want the good of this nation, and who are only after their own good, as though they might be as eternal as they are now, the adversaries of My peace and of the justice on the hearth of the Romanian people.

I will protect them under My coverage and under the coverage of My mother, the Virgin, those that are brave for the holy soul of this nation and for the spirit of justice of all things, and I will remove those who are proud in their spirit from their places, who want to be great by their power, face to face with those that come and are to My glory over the Romanian people. Amen.

Peace to you, sons! I have spoken with you, both I and My Virgin mother on her day of feast, a day established by her to be praised and celebrated through the church on earth over those who are faithful. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am sealing by My name all of My word spoken today between Me and you, and between You and those on earth, there where My word sends a written book, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feat of the devout Parascheva

(Excerpt)

… I am going to give you advice to work according to it and to receive it, Romanian people. I am going to give you days of fasting in order to fulfill them with love and with holiness for your good destiny. I am giving you days ordained by God to overcome with Me, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, for I overcame death with death, and on that day I received you as a gift from the Father to be the country of My coming and to fulfill now in you the Scripture of My coming in the end of the time. Oh, wait for Me, wait for Me to shepherd and tend you with My advice! I am going to come with My saints and give you word to listen to it, son. Obedience means love, and love has a dear reward for those who listen with love. I am going to come and advise you. Stay with your door open so that I may let you know that I come and advise you for your destiny, oh Romanian people! Amen.

The feast of the great saint martyr Demetrius, the myrrh giver

(Excerpt)

Oh, it is a day of feast and of My coming as word on earth with My saints, and I am working with mercy, for I am finding weakness within the gates. (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) It is a day of longing, for the saints are consumed with longing for My coming as word on earth, and I, the Lord, am strengthening My gates to come into My today's book and to speak with you, people of My word, and to tell to those who are still confused, who keep asking about the fulfillments of the prophecies of the saints and of My glory upon the Romanian people, to tell them that My coming now as word to you to shepherd you with it is the fulfillment of the prophecies of My saints, who spoke from the Holy Spirit and set on earth their revelation, as after seven thousand and five hundred years from the creation of the world, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, God's Word, started to sound My trumpet and to bring down near to the man's ear My calling so that he may understand as it has come the time of God's Son, His voice, heard by man and especially by those in the tombs, as I declared that this time would come over the living and over the dead to prepare by the word the time of the resurrection, as it cannot pass without being fulfilled My entire word as it was declared.

… Oh, My people, My work with you is very big an so is the work that I do with you, and I have descended from branch to branch to speak to you and not to leave you, and to keep on feeding you from heaven, and those on earth do not know to hear and to see the birth of My word into your midst and it happens as in the time when I came on earth being born of a Virgin mother two thousand years ago when few knew at that time God's mystery, and when they discovered, it immediately tried to hide it, to wipe it out from the earth, but man cannot change God's mysteries or spoil them, but can rather damage his life thinking that he can do it. Oh, there have been many on earth who have wanted to put out My work with you too, but all of them got hurt and will keep on getting hurt, even if they do not know to appreciate it in this way, for he who loves himself and shows it by his works, that one cannot have any proper knowledge of God or knowledge of God's mysteries, for one like this does not really look after these, but he looks to take after his own things, and it is in this way he understands, too, and as a result, his resurrection keeps going far and far away from him, because the resurrection of the man is a great mystery now, and in the age to come, the age of those resurrected and of those who come to life one by one by My power, by My love for the man who comes into the world for resurrection, only for him to know and to learn the mystery from God and not from him or from man, God's mystery with man on earth, after that I, the Lord, I and with the Father and the Holy Spirit, I and with My saints, make all things new in the place of the old ones, who pass away with a great noise as it is written to be fulfilled in this way. Amen.

Now, I am blessing the journey and the good spirit of those who are going to come to the spring, at My table of word and meeting with the angels and saints and with those who are resurrected and on their way to resurrection, for I, the Lord, have prepared this feast from heaven, and you, from the earth, My people. I make a free way with comforting and watching angels and travelling companions for those who will come together near Me and near you, son, who serve Me for the days of My glory full of word, as My glory is the word and its love, well sons, for the prophesies of My saints, who from far away saw My work into the midst of the Romanian people now, in the end of the time, and proclaimed that it would be, but as in the time of My birth all sleep in their own things and do not have faith and understanding for God's mysteries that come and are worked on earth under the veil of humility, far from the sight and from the understanding of the unfaithful man, who takes his things from his own things, and then he chews them likewise after that.

… Oh, the testing that comes from satan is great during this time, and in My people fasting and praying with more power than by now are needed, for the water (of life, r.n.) has been taken from the earth, and the people allow to be deceived to self-denial and despair; however, I want to strengthen every man to put his hope in God with fasting and praying and not do as the people of Israel wanted to do in the time when the enemy blocked its source of water to destroy the Israelites by thirst; however, the one, who was rich in fasting and praying, overcame the cowardice of the people and brought deliverance in Israel, because of that great heart in the midst of the chosen people which believed in God and relented to repentance the chiefs of the people, rebuking with gentleness because of the sin of doubt and despair, and appeased the Lord by its faith for the salvation of the people which was threatened by its destruction.

Oh, disciples are needed, but also faith, as at the time with the trial, there comes also the power of victory, only that the Lord may have faithful and powerful sons, for the power of victory is in My hand, not in the hand of the hostile man, and I want to be able to work through the faithful sons, as I want to glorify Myself with power over the Romanian people, as it has to get up and to hear My voice, to believe and to fulfill My glory with it, as the saints have prophesied that it will be. Amen.

Let us bind the thread of My word and set into the book the entire word of today's feast, as I am finding watch within the gates for My entrance. When I come to speak, I descend with great longing and I come on the way of the word and no one can hide from Me when I speak, and all the nature startles when My voice speaks and is heard, and in the heaven above the heavenly and angelic hosts see pages of Scriptures being fulfilled on earth, as they are written to be fulfilled in the last days, and My host is fed with My glory and its, the glory which is not seen on earth by those who are from the earth, but which is revealed from the Holy Spirit to those who lift their eyes to God that they may be with the Lord on earth and not with this world, which has nothing from God in it, as God has nothing from it as well.

The blindness of those that are from the earth and live without heaven over their fleeting life is great! If man saw how much heaven he needs on earth to come closer to his salvation and not to perish, oh, he would leave all those from the world and he would also deny himself completely and would become a dwelling of the heaven, and the Lord would have a house with him and He would appear with His glory, as He appeared to His disciples on the Mount of Tabor, while they were under preparation, in a heavenly school for their life with Me on earth, for God's knowledge in them. Oh, with whom shall I do My works in this way on the earth, the pages of the Scriptures, so that I may fulfill them with man, as My Father has sent Me to work? Man goes to school many years in order to leave it as God's servant and a servant of His holy things, but he does not learn to look out of the window; he does not learn to look into the Scriptures and to understand what kind of works God has been doing from them and what else He has still got to work today and tomorrow.

… Those who passed away are coming too because I have called them to come at the feast of My word, and the tear of their spirit will be only joy on that day when they will spend with Me and with you at the table of the feast for the angels, My people, and if those on earth knew how much comfort means one moment of joy for those who passed away, then they would live only for the resurrection of their dead, only for the happy life of those who will not have earned it on earth to have it on the time of their departure. The life lived with God, that is what can go with man on his way to the heavenly palace, when the angels come and take him to the eternal place. The delight which man has between him and the Lord on earth, that is the joy, which can accompany him, which can comfort him as his possession then.

Behold My people, those who are resurrected and those who are on their way to resurrection get ready for the feast, and a drop of comfort is great wealth for them, and great hope goes to them from you! Oh, sons, I have come now on earth with My work of word to you for the resurrection of the dead, and the dead from the tombs hear My voice, and I have told you to preach to the nations of the earth the word that comes out of My mouth. My today's word with you is an accomplished prophecy and it is a staff of shepherd for the one who loves his eternal life on earth and in him. Oh, share Me further, My people, because I have made you a sower on earth and people do not know this mystery of Mine with you, as they are lost in their things, and Mine come and stick to them to open their heart and mind after that, to understand that the fulfillments of the Scripture come upon them on earth and take them by surprise because they are not prepared for the Lord to come to them. Satan gets into the man's way with his things, because the man who serves satan has opened his window wide for satan (The internet and television window, r.n.) and painted it with all the dyes and put the man in front of his window and man looks; he has always looks and he forgets about himself and about God, and first, he forgets about prayer and watch for My mysterious coming, and then with a big heavenly retinue, for some with fire and for others with the breeze of the Holy Spirit, with comfort and with My sweet brightness for those who are saved, for the faithful who serve Me with faithfulness waiting for My appearance. Amen.

… Now, I, the Lord, am telling everyone that there is resurrection, as behold, the saints are testifying near Me from heaven about My work on earth with men, as My saints had a body on earth and now they are in My glory and are incorruptible as I am, and they also have the garment of incorruptibility on them, as it is written in the page from the Scriptures about the dressing into incorruptibility of the spiritual bodies in which the Holy Spirit dwelt and dwells forever and ever. Amen.

The synod of the saint archangels Michael and Gabriel

(Excerpt)

On the way of angels, I lower My voice and I sit on the throne of cherubim, and My glory is the word, and hosts of angels sing to Me as in the heaven: Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord Almighty, the One Who was, the One Who is and the One Who comes! Amen.

… I am coming down to the spring and I am coming down with a spring of word, too. I am coming down with glory of angels and I am meeting the people gathered around My glory on a day of feast for angels, who by their activity mysteriously comfort the bowed head of those who have come to the angelic feast in My gardens with My people sacrificing for the glory of My coming as word on earth, when Father, behold, is sending Me to become word of fire and with it to clean the man for My coming, and I am staying in My gardens with you as word, My people, and I am feeding, son, the little hearts which gather Me in them to give them power to become the Lord's saints.

Two thousand years ago, I came and worked as at that time, and now I am coming and working with much word for the man's making and I am asking him to pass through water and not perish, to pass through fire and not burn, as with the flood every man perished, and the same was with the fire, but now I want the one who comes to Me to become holy, because I want to remain with him after the wrath passes, for Noah escaped together with those who listened to Me and to him, and the others perished; and again, the young men who were thrown into the burning furnace were saved because they listened to Me and to their chief. However, Adam did not prepare his salvation, not even when he was in paradise, but rather he had worked out his disobedience and behold what body is; only flesh and blood, which are a body!

Oh, on earth there is only fire and all people burn within it, there is only water, and all perish into the waves, as with the flood, and there is only blood, only fire on earth.

I become word of glory for angels, for the angelic hosts have their day of feast in the church, and the angels have their chief over them and they are My glory by their obedience to the chiefs on them. Michael, the chief of the Lord's army, My angel, is calling out now to those who love My word: You shall stay with awe, with fear and you should listen with great attention, because the time is with falling and stubbornness for faith, for betrayals and fallings, and the Lord is teaching you what salvation is! Amen.

… — Oh, I long to speak, Lord, I long for it. Amen.

— Oh, you long so much, and I, the Lord, will make a way for your holy longing to the people. My comfort will wipe out your forehead tired of waiting, for I want you to speak to this people about the mystery of resurrection, and the mystery of those who are risen from death and those who are on the way to resurrection so that those who want to die and no longer play with death may understand the mystery of resurrection. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, Holy, Holy, Holy You are in heaven and on earth ruling with glory, for Your saints and angels see the mystery of Your glory so beautifully! I, the chief of Your army, see the first man built by Your hand out of clay; I see how he cries over man. He sighs and cries over the man who has separated from You for sin, after he had brought in his body the sin when he did not listen to You in paradise, and here he is how he prays to you for the resurrection of those who went wrong and died like him doing what was wrong, from his time and up to this day, and he has been crying to You with burning prayer and says:

— Lord, bring near the glory of the resurrection to all those who have gone wrong through my sin in paradise! I departed from You because of the woman; I loved her with my heart and I forsook You, and it was of no use that I had done something like that, and I suffer for each man who falls through my sin, for man does not love his wife but only for sin; nevertheless, two thousand years ago, You told the man to love his woman as You had love the church, for the mystery of marriage became unfaithful and worshipping to the idol of pleasures and the man makes You suffer as he has always died by sin and with sin. Oh, forgive the sinners and give them the gift of sight, for we see now the work of the mystery of the resurrection in the midst of Your praying people for us, those who died through sin. Oh, have mercy on the mob that waits for its resurrection and forgiveness, Lord, as You work everything only of Your mercy for man. I am crying and asking You for the resurrection of all, for they wait for Your commandment and hope waiting. Amen.

— Oh, I am coming soon, I am coming soon and open to them to come out! I am coming soon. Amen.

Hear My people, hear, sons, the voice of those in the tombs! It is a day of feast, sons, and the angels and saints and those who wait in the after-world are sitting at the table and wait with longing.

… The table of the feast of angels is blessed by the whole heavenly host together with My faithful people! My glory with you becomes word and it sets you at the table with Me within an angelic feast. Peace to you! Be faithful! My feast and that of My angels with you is a great beauty. My angel Michael serves between Me and you, between those in heaven and you. May your faith be love so that My word upon you may have power and life.

I am Who I am and I stay into the midst of the Romanian people as on a top of a high mountain and I call everyone to My glory; I sit on the throne of cherubim and the angelic hosts are singing to Me: Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord Almighty, Who was, Who is and Who comes, and the heaven and the earth are full of His greatness. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Entrance of the Lord's Mother into the Church

(Excerpt)

Oh, let My Father Sabaoth strengthen you, those who are My gates for the coming of My word on earth and for its setting into the book of today, as I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am fulfilling My voice on earth, the voice of the Son of God, just as two thousand years ago, I spoke through My Gospel that I would fulfill, and those from the graves to hear Me, and on My day of glory to confess this fulfillment of Mine upon them, because those who are on earth do not want to believe in God, they do not have time for resurrection; however, those in the graves have been waiting for this time, and then, after it, the life of the age which will be eternal, the age that is to be, and great is the work of resurrection which I am working today with great power and mystery, and those who are resurrected and on the way to resurrection are praying to Me for My today's people to strengthen it for this mystery of Mine from these days, and which is seen from far away by those who left the earth, seen by faith and then hoped for, […]

The feast of the great saint and martyr Catherine, and of the great saint and martyr, Mercurius

(Excerpt)

Behold, when I can tell them, I do so, only that they pretend that they do not hear, but I am the One Who is coming now and judging the living and the dead by this word and I am telling them that they always speak and say in their church that they wait for the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age that is to be, and I am coming with what they say that they wait for, and I am coming as word on earth for the living and for the dead, because My Father is sending Me to fulfill everything that is written in the Scriptures for Me to fulfill, and those who are asleep are preparing for their resurrection at My voice, which they hear, and the saints are getting ready more eagerly all the time to come with Me in the word when they hear Me that I come to you, on the table with you with the food from above, the angelic food, the food of those who are nourished with every word that comes out of God's mouth. Amen.

Peace to you, My people, on a day of the feast of holy confessors! Oh, clothe yourself in incorruption day by day, for all things await for the good end of My walking with you to the day of My glory, when all come to an end so that eternity and all its mystery may begin! I am ready to fulfill, but for seven thousands years I have been ready to redeem everything man has spoiled from those that I built, but I have been waiting for such a long time as long as the man has spoiled, and I have worked accordingly and put them back, but I worked mysteriously and I still work, and it does not come to the man's mind My mysterious work, written in the Scriptures for its fulfillment now, in the end of the time.

The feast of the saint apostle Andrew

(Excerpt)

I am sitting at the table of word into your midst, oh, My people, and I have the apostle Andrew and My trumpet Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) both workers by the word of the feast of three days among My saints, with whom I have been walking between heaven and earth, for I come with the saints, because this is written, and I do not come alone. And those who want to show to the people on earth that I come on the clouds of the heaven will be bitterly deceived, for I do not come as they want to show it to the people with their lie, but I come with armies of saints and angels and they do not have eyes to see God in His coming, and they see only what they want to see, and they do not see what God does for those who see from God; however, as for those who see like man, they will see the day of My wrath, the day of the release of My pain, gathered from all the people into My heart because of their departure from Me, because of their life without My will with them on earth.

30-11/13-12-2010.

The feast of the Holy Virginia, God's trumpet

(Excerpt)

I can hardly come down on this day, for I am finding weakness in the gates, (Gates - those by whom the Lord speaks, the Lord comes as word, r.n.) and I am strengthening them in patience to be able to work and learn, for the teaching on earth that the man learns from one another, as it is among those who are educated in order to become with greatness for the people, this teaching has nothing to do with My teaching Spirit, with My humility, which brings the Holy Spirit into the midst of the people to speak to them. My apostle Andrew firstly had John the Baptist as his teacher, who did not learn from people but brought disciples as fruit to the Lord and he prepared for Me those whom he advised on the way full of heaven on earth among people, for only those who are poor and humble are pleased to Me and are to the desire of My heart. Apostle Andrew was a mere fisherman and he was poor, and I made him My mouth on earth and a dwelling place of faith, as I worked during this time and chose vessels to sound the trumpet for My heavenly work on earth now, for I cannot choose from those who get education on earth, for they are not poor in spirit and, therefore, I cannot make them a dwelling place of faith, for those who look for greatness on earth do not put an end to haughtiness, and haughtiness is from the devil. Those who work for Me must fear God and love holiness, and must not be lovers of book, but lovers of faith and bearers of humility, and this is how I chose My trumpet Verginica and sounded the trumpet through her mouth, as I showed the apostle John[145] (Apoc: 8/2, 6) that I would work in the last days, and I made her a member of the Holy Spirit on earth and so I harvested a people to hear God's word and to testify to one another this miracle of mystery and to grow in faith those who find My spring of word, here, on the hearth of this little village, and My spirit is only mourning, for few leave their things to follow Me, and My heart is only pain because man cannot do My will because of his will.

01/14-12-2010.

The feast of the saint hierarch Nicholas

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I am coming down into the book as word within a feast of saints and with the fatherly word of instruction for My today's people of the Romanians, for I am their Teacher, the Teacher of those who listen to the word from heaven upon them, so that they may not do their will but My will in them instead, if they choose to be My will on earth with them.

Oh, I am embracing you with the word of instruction, My people. You need to know that My people is that which chooses to do My will, and My word is with you to listen to it, if you choose to be a son of obedience and not to do your will but My will, and furthermore, you should do it as in heaven, not as on earth, for it is in vain that the man on earth says that the Lord's will [145] «I saw the seven angels who stand before God [Compare Luke: 1/19] and seven trumpets were given to them.

Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them». (Apoc: 8/2, 6) may be done and may the Lord's kingdom come on earth as in heaven, for man keeps doing his will because he does not love God, but he loves himself instead.

I set the table of word and much instruction of growth for a spirit of obedience; this is what I put on your table on this day, My people. The hierarch Nicholas is coming with his fatherly teaching as suitable as a glove now for the troubles that come upon My Spirit into your midst, over a time of trial, coming out from the free will that they choose; those who do not listen to My word of more than fifty years, by which I want to come out to a holy end with a people, which is sound in its mind and obedience, with a bunch of children taught by God for the time that is coming, for the time is coming with falling or raising, as I am to the falling and raising of many, but blessed will be those who, by their rising to be My sons through My word making of sons, will remain to the end as My will and My saving work on earth for many people.

Oh, it is no wonder that someone falls out of My little boat with sons, for the time is either with raising or with falling, and blessed are those who do not find any stumbling blocks against Me and against My word of today on the earth, and against those who are bearing My coming now that I may build with them an obedient people before Me for the time that is coming with Me and which will be established on earth, as also the time that the devils is going to bring is going to be set on earth from the devil among the people and which is going to entice them towards the devil's will with them, as God, even starting with the man's creation has got enemies who have been fighting to tear down His building, to put obstacles between man and God in such a way that the devil may have the man, and that God may not have him for His will in man.

Oh, with all the crushing from the hard test upon My work with you and with My people watched by Me and you, let us strengthen our soul, let us catch power, sons from the gates, and then let us set great teaching from heaven in the mind and heart of the sons and the daughters of My people, for the time of trial is asking for this, it is asking for watching, and I, the Lord, am making My spirit come down now and I am asking everyone to take Him into their little hearts and mind, for the man's spirit and mind slides and it takes the man down to the valley, but My Spirit gives the man the heaven and the bond with the heaven on earth, so that the man may be able to work over those on him with those in heaven, not with those in him, which separate him from God for his will against God in him. Oh, in no circumstances should you lose your patience and hope in hardships, coming from those who are disobedient, who stir up storms against the faith of those who, by faith, can and stay within My wills before Me and who are called My people. Oh, in no circumstances should you forget that only the dry grain is passed through the sieve and put into the fire, but the full grain, in which I can work and I can be, I protect it, I feed it and I strengthen it by putting it under My shelter and I work for it great miracles so that I may have it for the Father on the table forever, oh, sons. Your little hearts are now full of mourning just as My heart is, well children. Behold the fruit of those who have spoken evil of you and denigrated your face before those who are not faithful and deprived of God on earth! Let us look back well at My time with you to see and to understand what is to be understood. Anyone who has blamed you for their free will, anyone who has blamed you from one into another and from one to another reaping this wickedness against you, they only hurt themselves and hit themselves, because they had their heart set on doing you harm and they did, and by so doing they hurt themselves, and you endured, you are enduring and will endure it, because those that have a good soul do not repay evil for evil, but with great and holy patience they wait from God for their victory through their hardships. Oh, how shall I anoint your little and crushed hearts in such a way that you may get on with all the mourning and its burden?

Oh, come closer to My mourning, you, sons and daughters of My people of today, obedient to My voice, which teaches you the life from heaven, the life with obedience, for I have been teaching you very much to know, to be and to remain My people, to stay under protection and to be seen inside and outside of you so that you may be protected and not pulled out of My protecting arm! Oh, come near to My heavy pain, to My cheek, wounded and scratched by the lack of wisdom of those who are not wise for their life, as behold how some of you are going to fall, those who have set their heart and their feelings apart and who have got another election besides the one I meant for them, those who come to Me and to My spring of word in order to be Mine and to be the sons of obedience to God, those who know you and Me by the thread of this word, for which they come and join you by your love of them when they come to become Mine as you are. Woe to Me when there come into the midst of My people hearts that work in the darkness and whose fruit of their life is seen afterwards! Woe to Me when they become judges of God and judges of brothers, those who come this way and then stay and work like that in My fold with sons! Oh, come near to comfort My pain! Oh, become wise through all your hardships, and grow rich in your faith and step aside when you see disorderly living in those who want to walk like that, after they have come and got closer to Me! Oh, do not wonder that you see what you see, as on My way with sons there has never been a time that I may not have some among them who have chosen to step aside, either because of weakness, or by wickedness, or by the devil's envy, either because of the darkness in which they are, and especially stricken by the spirit of the pride in them, by the spirit of envy, who has always, always, made a traitor the one, in which this spirit nestled and worked to the sides, and the one who reaches not to be loved by God because of the lack of his sonship conduct, that one falls into the trap of the one who have set the trap to the weak souls from the midst, that do not seek after My light between them and Me, between the disciple and his Teacher, as who is without any guide for his heart for his steps with Me; therefore, no matter who the man may be, he surely falls into satan's net.

Behold, satan has worked secretly and brought Me damage; he has wounded My face and scratched it, but the Father wipes off My face and comforts My wound, for My wound makes Him suffer greatly. Oh, the one who relies on himself and behaves like that and he who does not need any guide for him into the midst of My today's people, that one hurts himself, inflicts many blows and pushes away many people to fall, but I teach you timely and untimely, My people, and I strengthen your steadfastness, only that you may be away and wide awake before Me and you should put My entire word upon you, that for your creation and for your mending whenever I have to do this to you, and you should always have the spirit of humility and repentance, the spirit of those who are wise having wisdom from heaven, for woe to those who do not have these in their hearts, because those who do not have such a heart, are disdainful, scornful, slanderous with regard to their brothers, and such a heart is not by far a Christian heart, the heart that does not have God's face in it.

I am embracing you at My bosom; I am putting you near My heart so that you may feel its beat and its heavy pain now, My people of sons and daughters! Oh, satan has inflicted much shame on Me and has thrown contempt at Me. Rebuke satan, for he has got his hand over Me because of those that have played at their life and set about to do their will, pulling themselves from My way with you, being dissatisfied with their living near Me and near you according to My will! Oh, make room in your prayer for Me too and ask the saints to stay with you and to make heavenly miracles for your life with Me, for the great storm is coming to blow many people down, to make them fall from faith, to make them fall by their stumbling and to do harm to themselves; however, you, sons and daughters, clean your heart and your life from any wrong doing, from any trace of self-will, for he who does not listen like that, comes to harvest the fruit of his disobedience and the one hidden in himself falls away from Me and causes pain to Me, and he brings Me to shame; however, I do not keep anyone forcefully, because I want love from man and I do not want to force his love if he cannot give it to Me and to remain Mine after that.

Now, I am considering it, and I am considering it with My angels and I am taking into account those who have helped at as little as possible the steps of those who fall and who walk according to their will, after they have come and wanted to stay according to My will when they came to stay near My people, being attracted by My word making of man and by My love from the sons bearing of God and who gave birth to sons for Me that I may have them as the fruit of My Father. Oh, I have found much iniquity now, much writing on behalf of those who have helped the people without wisdom for their will near Me. When man, in the time of his foolishness, has support from the side for his evil will, when those around him help him when he wants to go wrong and to fall by working every which way, then they sin. Oh, blessed are those who do not stumble; however, his blessing is not for those who do not listen to God, as after they do their will, they call out loud that they have stumbled, forgetting that each one gives an answer on his behalf and that it is not otherwise with God for the justice of all things. If Adam blamed his wife and after that his wife blamed the serpent, behold, because Adam did not repent for his sin, he and his wife were punished to get out of paradise and then they went to the dwelling of the dead. What favor with God did they have anymore by blaming God and by blaming each other?

Oh, it is not beautiful to blame your brothers because of your will with wrongdoing, sons taught by God! I have to teach you today again and again, for the time of test upon you is pushing Me. The hierarch Nicholas, such a great teacher and such a great worker of miracles, as he was on earth in the time of his apostleship for My church, look at him as he is near Me on this day and I am giving him to be with teaching upon you on My table of word, for I have to clothe you more and more within the word now, oh, sons and daughters, lest the devil may catch power against you and to show his power destroying of soul, for it is not as with the other Christians; oh, the reckoning with Me is not like that, as it is done by the angels for those who have stayed and got used after that, and for those who stay and are not pulled out of My fold of obedient sons.

Oh, bishop, worker of miracles and strong savior for those who are faithful, it is a time with pain and hard trial over My face and over that of My people! We have to strengthen the sons and the daughters to remain in the spirit of humility and repentance more and more, for those who do not have these vindicate against each other for their works, and this is how they are known that they do not have humility and repentance as their guide, inside and outside of them, and behold, We have to suffer and endure and We have to teach extensively the sons and the daughters, and this is how We are to work into the midst of My people, which suffers scratches because of the inconstancy of those who have not loved to be guarded over their weak fight for their steps, for their life and for their salvation. Amen.

– I was and I am a great savior and a great worker of miracles on Your behalf for those who are gentle and humble in their heart before You and in them, but concerning those who do not have You in them much more than they have themselves, I do not have any way how to sneak and take them out of satan's hand, but only if I did otherwise, as You speak about those who increase Your wrath, Lord. Oh, one should not deal with those who hide from You and from the saints if they do not come out to ask or to hope for their release from under the spirit of foolishness. You are the One Who know all things and consider everything into the midst of Your people, and Your saints serve You as You have ordained them, because You are wholly here, and are chosen to the right and to the left both those that want to remain and those who do not want to remain with You on Your way of coming now on earth to save the people from destruction, from the spirit of the world, from the spirit of man, oh, Lord. I am speaking to the sons and to the daughters of Your people to strengthen the spirit of the cleansing of their mind, heart and body and to put the spirit of virginity at the foundation of the church of new Jerusalem, and this should be done with great obedience and consideration and not otherwise, as there are many who want to do the things of the law, but they are nothing if they do not have upon them from You a counselor and forerunner for them before You. Behold, those who do not listen, throw away on to the water those that You have given them to work in obedience for these, and not as they want to use those from You. And by a spirit of disobedience, by the lack of blessing, they give away from upon them those that could keep them to be Yours by a spirit of sonship before You in those who submit as Your sons in Your work of new Jerusalem, and behold, those who do not have even what they think that they have is taken away, and to those who have are added even more, for they have love and obedience for You, oh, Lord.

Oh, sons and daughters, who are now the Lord's people and the people of His word of today, come under more complete protection, under protection with more love, so that the Lord may work and that I also may work by my gifts given from Him for those who are faithful and clean in their heart, in their work and in their light for their life. I have worked wonderfully for those who were faithful, for those who cried for their deliverance by their prayer or by the prayer of those who prayed for them. I worked by dreams for those who kept souls in bondage and I saved from death those who were brought to slavery to their death. I shepherded by a patient spirit the church of those who were faithful and all the saints marveled at my faith working of miracles for those who were caught under hardships. I have protected the virgins from their fleshly intercourse to debauchery and I worked with miracles for their return. I released the child who was kidnapped from his parents, for his parents cried out to me. I did great miracles, but I did only for those who were faithful. Oh, I cannot do this now for those who have denied their faith in God and have chosen to do their will face to face with the Lord and with the people left on the side of the faith and its works with their life. It is otherwise with this work of the Lord and with this people. The Lord is at the helm and He is the One Who knows how all the things are, how all things get on and He knows each one what he can, what he can and what he wants, and the Lord is humiliated face to face with those who are doubtful and then stubborn, and who blow storm over His walking full of hardships on the way of His coming today on earth.

He who chooses to do his own will is guilty, but it is not less guilty the man who has supported the one who does not listen and does not walk beautifully, with humility and repentance on the way with holy people on it. Oh, much remorse is needed in all those who have added fuel to the fire, who have added wood and brushwood of all kinds, again and again, to stir up so much flame to this height. The fire is put out with water not with fire, and behold, this is the mistake of those who have worked and built at this pain, which is now on the Lord's heart in heaven and on earth. Oh, become wise, you, those who worked falsely and receive instruction from the mistakes of those who went wrong and could no longer repent after they have gathered so much guilt upon them.

Oh, do not be afraid, you those who are faithful, for the Lord's work! The Lord remains the clean One, the One without sin, and He has got power to wash away all those who repent and hide under His shelter in this time so hard, so dark and so full of the spirit of the devil in it to make the man fall away from God. Be full of God, oh, sons and daughters! The absence of the Lord, even for a little while from you and from among you, makes your being of God's sons grow less. Always refresh among you the word of the Lord's teaching! Without His word now, face to face with you always, satan is making you tired and is drawing you away from the Lord's little boat. Keep away from slandering, from the sin of brotherly contempt, from the sin of accusation and vindication, the sin made by Adam in paradise, and for which he lost the paradise. This sin has simmered among those who have made fire and flame up to heaven against the bearers of God now for you and for the entire human race on earth, for God works by His servants as He has always done. The spirit of falsehood has simmered as in hell from one another among those who set aside from the whole body of the holy people, and behold, the enchanting spirit that bears the lie in it to deceive with it the one hunted, this spirit has worked powerfully and has overcome souls, minds and beliefs and then it has set down as a spot on the Lord's face.

Oh, repent, you those who can do this, for the day is coming when you need this moment of repentance now! Stand up to defend the Lord and His hard walking, and which is harder and harder, for you need support from Him when it is hard for you in time of desperation, as behold, this hard time has already come to you! Do not be careless, do not be enchanted and flee from the pain which has seized you unexpectedly, from which he spirit of man and the spirit of the devil work and weave so much, and there has not been obedience for awakening, for the release from the darkness of those who have been worked in the darkness against the Lord's walking, against the faith of the faithful ones. Oh, do not try to fall deeper! It is enough with as much as you have gone wrong! Repentance and always repentance is needed! Reach out your hand to come out of the hole! Be wise at least in the hour, which beats the waking up! I help you, but I can do this only if you work like the Lord and not like you. Amen.

I, Lord, remain for those who are faithful, who have in them the spirit of repentance and humility for all their mistakes. I, Lord, have cried by the word, and the saints accompanying us at the today's table of Your word have seen so many of my tears and they have cried with me, heavenly tears, and I want that my tear to clear those who test the spirit of destruction, with the spirit of man in them face to face with Your Spirit, with Your river of word, now, oh, Lord. Amen.

– I, the Lord, am only tears in you, oh, saints crushed like Me, like those who bear Us to come on earth, and their little heart is suffering very much and it is strained, and I want to set them to be more and more watchful for the walking, for the step and for all the feeling inside and outside of the sons and of the daughters of My people, for man is weak if he does not have the fullness of the Lord in him.

I have kept those in the gates in a state of suspense so that I may be able to come as word into the book. I have pressed them out with My dwelling in them to be able to speak. Oh, if liked, My people, to comfort them, I would be thankful to you a great deal, for they cry and sigh silently and they give their serene smile on their face to you, but the pain in them crushes them and they do not have any comfort, they look for comfort and do not find it. Oh, how much of a liar the man is! Oh, how much those who kept on showing their power from man have lied to Me! Only for repentance one needs power, only in this way you can work, people taught by the Lord your God, for I come to you and I teach you, because without instruction you perish. I do not let you perish and you should not let Me perish either, but give Me comfort in hard time of sufferance, and give each other this power in sufferance, for love, oh, love shows all its power in its time of trial, son, in the time of sufferance for it, My people.

Oh, give to each other your feelings and their work to be examined and to be watched, so that satan may not be able to make his nest through them in you, oh, sons, guarded by My Holy Spirit on earth!

I have told you about My pain. Take it in you as a guardian angel, because those, who do not have My sufferance in them, they pull themselves out from My arm, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is the comfort, the power and the protection from God over those who are faithful to Him and who work for Him between heaven and earth. I let the comfort of the Holy Spirit come over the people of My word of today and I am putting on My table with it the word of feast with saints. Because the Romanian people has been left behind concerning the correction of those shaken from their place by the enemies of the faith of their forefathers and saints, then I, the Lord, wait for it to stand up strongly and to put back at their place the feasts[146] of My saints, and they are not supposed to tell to themselves that it is not a sin to remain so as God's enemies did upon it, oh, it is not supposed to say so, but they need to bring back those that were shaken, as it is not good to spoil those left by the saints and fathers, and the houses that have not been reinforced by the parents do not help the sons for blessing to long for them on earth, and behold, when the world celebrates into the name of My birth of the Virgin mother a day of holy feast, I, with My saints and with those who are obedient and faithful on earth, set the feast of saints, and we celebrate at our table the bishop Spyridon, the one full of the spirit of humility and love, a man of forgiveness and of miracle making, and when the day of feast of the celebration of My birth is coming, then We are going to write Ourselves into the book with its memorial in heaven and on earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, I bring you comfort, as you need much comfort now. May the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, strengthen you on My way with you, My people! May He always pave My way to you from heaven to earth, and may He strengthen you on the way with Me, for the time is with endurance in it, and it is with faith-denial as well, because for a while I keep telling you, and it is with all kinds of trials, but you should stay in the Holy Spirit, son, so that He may be able to stand into your midst as the word from God and that it may lead you and teach you to speak in His language in all your speaking, for there is no other speaking from God, but from man, My people. Oh, remember My apostles how they spoke before My ascension to the Father and asked Him to send them the Holy Spirit, how they spoke after the One I promised them came upon them, the Holy Spirit the comforter, to teach them from Me, the Spirit Who has spoken through the prophets and showed them and to the seers the things that were, those that were that those that would come and appear on earth. Oh, remember this, My people, and put on your spirit within the word of the Holy Spirit and enrich your speaking with the One Who proceeds from the Father, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, so that the Father may bless you on earth and that He may strengthen you as His house, for the blessing of the fathers strengthens the house of the sons, as it is written, and you should obey God, and you should not do anything without His blessing, for only His blessing strengthens your life and its work with every passing day. Remember those who were disobedient in time and be obedient every day, for each day has its work, as one day I spoke to Abraham in one way and the next day I spoke with him otherwise, (Promising him a great people as his offspring, and then asking him for the sacrifice of his successor, r.n.), and he passed the test of his faith well because he listened, because he steadfastly believed in God being afraid of his omnipotence, being afraid of the punishment for his disobedience, and behold, he who obeys is praised on earth and in heaven for the work of obedience, son. Oh, you should do nothing without My word, without listening to it, and you should work only according to it and in this way you will always be blessed and you will have the reward of a disciple, as it is written from the Holy Spirit that: «all the paths of the Lord, loving kindness and truth, mercy and faithfulness for those who seek His place and His testimonies, to such as keep His covenant and his testimonies». (See Ps: 25/10) Oh, son, how beautifully the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, reveals to You the Lord's paths when you seek Him, His place and His testimonies! He says: «I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will harden or soften the man's heart», (Ex: 33/19), and the Lord is compassionate and full of faithfulness with the one who seeks after His paths and blesses the sons' house and the sons are those who listen to Him and do nothing without the Father. I teach you, My people, the speaking of the Holy Spirit, the spirit of prophecy, son, the Spirit who prays sighingly in those who seek after the Lord's paths, the Spirit Who prayed in David when he said: «Remember Me, Lord, with favor that You show to Your people. Visit me with Your salvation, that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation, that I may glory with Your inheritance. Our fathers did not understand Your wonders and did not remember the multitude of Your loving kindness, but were rebellious, but blessed are those who keep justice and blessed is one who does what is right at all times». (Ps: 106/3-7)

I teach you, My people, the work of hope and the work of love and that of forgiveness by love, so that your prayer may reach before Me, and I to fulfill. Call the saints and the prophets from Me to you, oh, call them in time of trial, and they will come on My behalf and will strengthen you. They will protect you and will bring you comfort, son. I, the Lord, tell them to have eyes and ears at your calling, for you have help and comfort only from heaven for the pains that pierce you to take after Me on earth. All the trials, all the pains and all the blows which come upon My work with you because of the devil's envy, as he does not love My walking with you, all prove that My work with you is spirit and truth, for against whom the devil and the man deceived by him has always thrown? Oh, only against Me and against all My places of rest and work among people, only there his target has been, for he is suffering more than anytime now when he sees that the fall of his pride is coming near. Oh, only pride makes the man fall, as it also made Adam fall, and then it made Lucifer fall through him, and then man retaliates, as Lucifer does, and draws the people downwards if he fell from his glory through man, and he does not want the people to be saved to take the place of his horde fallen by disobedience, for he has no longer listened to God and listened to man and thus he lost his glory from God.

Oh, My people, oh, son tested by the spirits opposing Me and you, let us stay well and let us stay with fear of God and with much attention at the word of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for the Lord watches for His citadel and work, son! May every son of this people be content with God, and let him stay as the Lord puts him to stay and not work, desire or choose for himself something by his own choice, for it is one thing that I ordain you how to stay and how to work and it is another thing to assume this position yourself, to take also as you see that the Lord gives, or to draw to yourself those given from the Lord to work for Him. Your heart's desire, which does not take after the Lord, and those, which the proud one, the one who is discontent and disobedient assumes himself, those make him hide and do evil work, oh, and My blessing leaves him and then he walks in the darkness after that.

Let us be careful in the way we serve, sons, and how we receive those that put us to test for our rising or falling! Remain in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and teaches you! I have always advised you and I still advise you not to talk with the one who slanders his neighbor, because this work does not come from Me, but he does the work of the devil instead. I have always, always advised you, according to what I see that each time, which is or comes, asks for it, for the Holy Spirit sees and gives you news for the good work for the good protection and for obedience, sons. This is how My bishop Spyridon was tested in the time of his work with Me on earth. He was tested and slandered every way possible, but he did great work and he made miracles before the unbelievers for the strengthening of My truth in him, for the shame of those who were doubtful and full of the black spirit of the envy of the brothers, and My faithful servant endured full of peace and serenity. And now he is speaking from Me to you, on his day of feast, My people, for I am with the saints within My coming and they are giving you their joy because they are coming with Me to you and because they are able to speak upon My people to give them of the heaven full of the reward of the faith; to give them of those gathered in heaven for those who are faithful, for those who are holy in their faith and in the work of their faith, and to give Me comfort on My hard way of coming now from the Father to man again. Amen.

– And I want to give You comfort too, oh, Lord, for You suffer from heaven to earth, and You suffer, You suffer! I also give comfort to those who suffer for You and with You on earth too, here in Your garden, blessed for this time into the midst of the Romanian people. Oh, how mysteriously You work! Everything that tests Your work from the side of the new Jerusalem and this citadel, are those that cover protectively Your mystery and the work of today, the people of Your word, Lord. At all times Your wisdom has worked great salvation over the sons of faith, and those who are not faithful are not able to understand the economy of Your mysteries, those who are not steadfast in their faith, as those in my time were who put to test my endurance for You, my endurance with them, for they were full of desire for honor, full of desire for human progress on earth. This is how my bishops brothers were at that time, and they put before me all kinds of obstacles and they took all kinds of revenges against me, but my love forgave them, for this is the work of love and no other work is like it. I am speaking to the sons of Your people and telling them this:

Oh, sons, forgive and you will be forgiven! This is what the Lord was telling His disciples and this is how I am telling you too. Forgive those who blaspheme you and are hostile to you! Forgive those who bring pains and only pains to you! They will suffer; soon, soon, they will suffer because they have not been yours in order to remain with you, because you have not been theirs either, that they may have believed you, that they may have loved and received you with faith for their good, for the Lord wanted to do them great good through you, but they did not agree, and they rather worked doubt and a spirit of doubt, becoming spies to each other and in that way they did the work to damage the souls, their souls and the souls of those who were in one consent with them. The time is coming and has already come so that they may suffer after you, for you loved and forgave them, and they did exactly the opposite, as it happened between me and those who served at the altars in my time with them on earth, and they despised me because of my humility, for I loved and forgave them and this was how I was working with the work of love, and I was working with the Lord, forgiving and loving, loving and forgiving by love and, again and again, loving by forgiveness. Oh, be at peace in time of trial, for the Lord saves you always, just as He saved the bishop with disciples in his work, and whose disciples tried to dishonor him secretly, putting a naughty woman to blame him of the sin pleasant to the devil against the Lord's saints, but the Lord saved the faithful one and brought into view the wickedness of the hidden disciples and their open work, and the righteous one gave them his forgiveness by his love, for those with a loving spirit of people have in their holy nature the work of forgiveness and forgetting to speak evil, sons. Oh, be good sons and ask from the Lord for His saints to protect you from heaven and from earth, for they set great work on earth for those who call them in spirit and truth in time of sufferance! Oh, get used to understanding well the mystery of those who are resurrected, for the saints do not remain in the tombs, but they are at great work for all those who are faithful and who mourn after their salvation from sin and from hardships. Be faithful! Do not come out of the blessing even for a moment, because this is dangerous! Leave all your care to the Lord! He will release you from your oppressions, for His walking with you is up to the day of His victory.

Oh, do not leave them under pains, Lord, for they are small! Make a sign with them for good, so that those who hate them may see and be ashamed because of their wickedness, seeing how You, Lord, comfort and help those who are faithful, those who have nothing from You but help and salvation from their hardships! Make the sons of the people understand that Your work with them is so much denigrated, so much blasphemed, so much slandered from all the sides, it is the Spirit of Truth, it is You, the One Who are not loved by those who do not love You because of their self-love! Oh, gather those who are faithful into one power of love and forgiveness and become a high mountain with them and from it, feed, Lord, the nations with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Yours and gives to those who are faithful, as You said that You will work and fulfill, and behold, the time has come, oh, Lord! Amen.

— Oh, bishop of humility, how great was the deed of your faith, and those who are haughty, instead of trembling before your miracles, they hardened more and more, for they were serving the devil of envy and hatred that came from him. However, you were before them the work of love and forgiveness by love, and you were full of peace, full of goodness, and full of healing for all. You went before the king, and you went clothed in the robe of your humility when he asked you to heal him of his sickness, and those, who opened for you to come in to the king and to heal him, did not know to see the bishop of the Lord in you. You went and laid your hands on him and healed him in an instant, after the gatekeepers of the kingdom denigrated you and hit you as though you were a foreigner, and then you came out humbly and gently and went to your humility, to your work for your Lord, Jesus Christ. I ordain you as a great protector for My work with My people of today and for My citadel of new Jerusalem on the Romanian land. This is how I know to reward My saints. I prepare for them a praised place in My kingdom and I put them to keep it so that it may be, and they to be its pillars and My pillars as well. Amen.

Oh, My people, those who left Me and you were half-hearted and that is why I am sighing now, and I share My sigh with you, and those who knew to believe and wanted to understand by the fear of God, like that of Abraham, in their heart, they are even today and they are the people of this work, they and not few of them who have been striking from the margins into My work starting with My trumpet Verginica[147] and up to this day.

Oh, sons, be like Abraham the father of those who are faithful! Open the Scriptures and read in them about the power of his faith, about his work and about his fear of God in him for all that the Lord was asking from him, and he did as he was told lest he might be punished for disobedience, for his lack of faith, sons. All My care is with you and after you. I set the saints as watchmen of My kingdom with you. Ask from the Father, from the Son and from the Holy Spirit, the victory by His work with you over the earth to the salvation of the nations which were and which are! The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who proceeds from the Father and holds your little hand on the way, He is the One Who counsels you in His kingdom with you. Give power to the people to be able to believe, and work with your prayer and testimony and work much with holy fast and work, for the dispelling of the work of the devil that is your enemy! Put your written prayer into a burning candle! Love forgiving and forgive loving, and do not be afraid of the blows that come from those who cannot believe! I, the Lord, am He Who works among you and speaks by the voice of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who has spoken by the prophets, by those who were faithful. Amen.

Remain in My love, sons! Be My people, for My people is My love, and those who are faithful are happy and will be happy, those who remain in My love, in My beloved people, with whom I, the Lord, was and am well pleased, and by their faith I can and I work, and I will work as I did through Abraham. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth

This word is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and is born in His manger into the midst of the Romanian people, as it was been ordained by God for the last days for the Lord to come, Whose kingdom will have no end. Amen.

The Holy Spirit, the Comforter becomes word from the Father and from the Son and is glorified with His power and His gifts over those who believe and over those who do not believe, for some, for their salvation and for others, for their judgment, because it is sin, it is a heavy sin to say that this word is the devil or the man, and this sin is made by those that are written to commit it, those who are not faithful, whose reward is written into the Scriptures: the fire and the gnashing of the teeth.

I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am born as word of Holy Spirit into My manger of word, here, into the midst of the Romanian people, for I have on its hearth a holy citadel of new Jerusalem, of life full of faith in man for My today's coming as word of the new birth of the world, for this fulfillment of the Scriptures of new Jerusalem on earth is worked by faith too.

Oh, by great faith, My mother Virgin received Me in her virgin womb and then she delivered Me as a godly Baby to the Jewish people, the people that did not receive Me and which was afraid of My coming on earth, and it has kept its throne on earth up to this day, (With money, r.n.), and they left Me to the heaven, but behold, the heaven is My throne[148] and the earth is My footstool and those who are not faithful do not know this truth, oh, they do not know what they do when they want to erase My trace on earth. Those who were killing the people faithful to Me, calling them sorcerers and deceivers because of the miracles and the signs they were doing by their faith in Me, have made use of their reign. They have used their throne, those who were My enemies from My birth from the mother Virgin and up to My resurrection from the dead, after they gave Me over to be crucified, and up to My last day, when we will sit on the throne of glory for those faithful and unfaithful, as I am sitting now and reigning and fulfilling in this way. Oh, I sit on the throne of word, and the word coming out of My mouth is an iron staff and I shepherd with it those who are faithful and I judge with it those who are not faithful and I fulfill as two thousand years ago the Scriptures of My coming from the Father to man, and My kingdom will have no end, and the kings of the earth have not received My kingdom and I do not have anything their kingdom as well.

Oh, glory to My birth of your virgin body, My mother Virgin! What beautiful, oh, what beautiful was upon you the message of the angel, when through him, I asked you to be My chosen one, to be My path, mother! When the angel came to you, while you were in Joseph's house, the son of David, he wished you joy and called you full of grace, full of Me, mother, and he told you: «The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women. Don't be afraid and do not be troubled by the word of my message. You will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son and will call His name 'Jesus'. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord will give Him the throne of His father, David, and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to His kingdom, for everything is possible with God». (See Luke: 1/28-33) And you answered the angel and said: «Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word». (Luke: 1/38) Then I, by your faith, was seeded into your bosom and I became flesh as a Child, and I was born on earth, and there came at the manger of My birth shepherds and Magi, and the angels coming from heaven sang all that night long on earth and announced Me as born. Then the shepherds related how they came there after the angels told them and saw Me, mother, sleeping in the manger near the cattle, as I wanted to be born on earth as the King of the creature, humble and foreign to all those that belong to the people, but full of spirit and grace and of the word of the man's making, for I grew and the Father glorified Me with My glory from Him, who is not like the glory that come from the people, but it is from the spirit of humility, mother, a spirit which will make any man to be born of God, as I was born of you, true God of true God, for you, mother who became heaven and earth for Me, a new heaven and a new earth made of man, as I want to work this Scripture, fulfilled with those who are faithful, as faithful as you were, and to be able to work now on earth the birth of My word through them, which is My iron rod by which I crush the enemies of My coming and build in their place a faithful people on My way of coming, for the word is My way, and I am its way, mother. And I have faithful sons, who keep Me at their bosom with faith and they are helping Me when I am coming as word on earth into My book of today among people, now, oh, My mother.

— My Son, You have, dear Son of the Father and mine too, oh, You have faithful sons and You rely with Your coming on them, for they are small and they listen to You. I am looking at their great sufferance now. They are gentle and suffer, and their smile hides the pain in them. You have put faith in them so that they may be able to bear You within Your coming of today and to submit with wisdom to Your coming now, oh, Lord. Behold Your manger of coming down, so that You may not be a wanderer as two thousand years ago for Your birth as word now, and his book on the earth now. Countless angels comfort the wound of Your manger, always made from the evil spirit, which cannot bear its pain from the mystery of Your establishment now, the mystery of new Jerusalem among people, oh, Lord, Son born then and now within much, much humility of spirit! You suffer deeply from those who depart from the spirit of the faith and then say that Your river of word is from the devil or from man. Oh, how are we to wipe out this sin committed by them against the Holy Spirit, Son born as a child in Bethlehem, and word now, into the midst of the Romanian people?

You did not stumble against the sin of the unbelief of the Jewish people in such a way that You might no longer work then the Scriptures of Your birth on earth, two thousand years ago, and You fulfilled so as it was written by the prophets. Oh, and not even now are You stumbling against those who are not believers to be born on earth as word of new birth of the world, the Only Son born of the Father and of my virgin womb. You are the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and this is the gate of the heaven, and how wonderful this place is with sons bearers of God, here, where You come down as word of birth, oh, Lord! As far as is the heaven from the earth, so great is Your mercy on those who are afraid of You, and as far as is the sunrise from the sunset, so far You remove all their mistakes, and as a father has mercy on his sons so much You have mercy on *those who are afraid of You, those who are faithful, who bear Your coming, Lord. Oh heal the tongue of those who strikes them and which speaks empty words and speaks falsely to each other in their hearts saying: "*by our tongue we will exalt ourselves, for our mouth is our power!" However, although they praise the Lord, they do according to the lust of their soul and, doing injustice, they bless themselves and do not realize the sin by which presses the Your Holy Spirit by their unbelief. Oh, how will it be to wipe out this sin done against the Holy Spirit, how, my Son Jesus?

You, those who bear my Son, Jesus Christ, as word from heaven on earth when He comes like that to you, you are blessed, you, those against whom the people speak evil things! Humble yourselves for you and for them, wounded sons! However, have hope in my Son, Jesus Christ, Who is born as word at you so that He will wipe out your tear. He who gets warmed up at the heat of the sun, while he despises the sun, has no wisdom, and likewise is the one who quenches his thirst while he despises the place of the spring and the spring. As long as the baby is small, he is carried and protected, but when he grows up he walks alone, and when he becomes a mature man in his stature, he does no longer want to be small, he does no longer want to be a baby when it is about the wickedness of his heart, and he who thinks that he is able to do so inflicts many blows.

Oh, sons, sons, oh, people prepared by my Son, Jesus Christ, for His glory of today and tomorrow, here it is what I tell you: he who has the Lord in his love, when such a man loves, he loves the Lord in man, and these kind of people, brothers in the Lord, speak among themselves for their Lord, only for Him, for they love Him, and no one of them loves himself among those who love the Lord by their love. Such people you should be as well, and you should pray like the ancestor David and you should say: «save my soul from the unbeliever, O Lord!» and the Lord, your protector will save you.

Oh, take great care, sons, take care of your walking on earth in the world, for the ways of the world are not yours, but they belong to the world! Every time sprinkle with holy water your comings in and your comings out, for the devil is very much upset with you and always makes evil spells and witchcrafts for those who do not obey because of their pride, and here they are, thrown away from the path! It's not all the same for the son of this people to walk with the Lord and for the Lord on the paths of the world; it is not all the same with his walking with the world on the way. Be obedient to my Son, Jesus Christ, and come with prayer before Him for the spirit of obedience! I was His mother and I listened to Him, for He was my God. Christ, my Son, is born as word at you. Give glory to the Lord and meet with strong faith the One Who comes to you from the heavens as word on earth!

Keep yourselves within a spirit of church, sons! May the devil not have any room in your church to make his churches! Be only one church all the time, for those who have run wild at the midst, pulling out two by two, three by three, they have made little churches to the devil and they have sapped the Lord at the root and did the evil work, leading astray the brotherhood and they cut themselves into the sword of their unfair pursuits, sons. Oh, be obedient! Be afraid that you may not listen looking at those who have not listened properly! Do not hide from each other. Do not be discontent, as this sin leads you to grumbling and then to your hiding!

Love the work of the heaven, as the Lord has set the mystery for paradise for the man at the beginning! Oh, peace to you, the Virgin, the mother of God's Son is telling you, that who gave you the Christ in the flesh two thousand years ago!

And as for You, son, my dear Jesus, strengthen Yourself in the gates for them and keep them away from fallings, because those who fall hardly receive the spirit of humility to their raising from falling, and they are less ashamed to remain in this fallen state than to humble themselves and dare humbly to their salvation. Oh, save Your people, Lord, my Son, and graze it with Your iron rod, for You are its Shepherd. Amen.

— I am their Shepherd, mother, and I shepherd them with the word and with those who shepherd it on My behalf.

I set My Spirit of Shepherd in you, to graze My sheep, sons who give Me as word to My people of today, the people of My word! Preach Me to the nations, sons, as the little shepherds from the fold announced My birth two thousand years ago after the angels from the heavens had come to them and sung to them the song of My birth among people! The same with you, preach Me far and wide after My song of love becomes word upon you, a shepherd upon you and a messenger of My second coming from the Father to man, as I am above My gardens with you on the earth together with a heavenly cortege of the feast of birth and with choruses of angels of My glory.

It is a day of birth, My people! I am longing and mourning over those who have no longer wanted to be among the faithful people of My today's coming to you. My wound hurts Me, and it makes Me suffer in you, but the saints and the angels have My day of birth with you. May the holy smile shine on your weeping faces, sons, and share it with those who come to sing carols at My house with you in a celebration of birth, My citadel of new Jerusalem with you on earth among people. I wipe out for a moment the pain in your little hearts and your little eyes from tears. Be at peace on My behalf, be hosts full of peace on My behalf! May your food be blessed, and may you also be blessed at the table with the guests that are coming! Be blessed! I am your Comforter, as you need much comfort for your pains. Peace to you! Take the carol singing and give the message in My little village of word with you. Peace over the little village of My word, peace through you, oh, sons! Amen.

I have been sitting with you within days of new birth on earth and I am going to speak to you about the spirit of the body and about the spirit of the soul, and I am also going to teach you the difference between mind and grace, and we are going to learn the work of God's sons as well, oh, sons, and then their victory through it. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's circumcision in the flesh and the feast of the saint hierarch, Basil the Great

I am coming down as word into the book, and My book of today is called the Word of God, as each book bears the name of the one who makes it. My book of today bears My name on it, and I bear its name too, and it is My testimony from the end of the time, that is My word of today, and I have much work of word in it, a lot of word, and in it there is life, and life is the light of the people, the light which shines in the darkness, and which is not overcome by the darkness. Amen.

After eight days had elapsed from My birth on earth, I was taken for My circumcision in the flesh and I received the name of Jesus, a name spoken over Me by My mother Virgin, as I was named by the angel before her, before I was conceived in her womb. I am coming down into the book with a feast of word, and My word is loved only by those who grow by it, after the birth from above was conceived in them by My word, their new birth, a miracle conceived by faith in the inner man and proved by faith and then seen as the work in the outside man, who testifies about himself confessing the Lord in him and with him, and the miracle of the new birth is great, a mystery that does no longer die in man if it is conceived in man.

I am embracing you within the word of holy feast, My people. I am speaking to you, for My work given from the Father is the word, son. Oh, I thank you with humility, well son, for you are helping Me by your faith to fulfill now the Scriptures of My coming from the Father to man, with My new name fulfilled upon you, as it is written into the Scriptures for My second coming, followed by armies of saints, to call My name the Word of God. (Apoc. 19/13) Oh, I thank you that you are helping Me with your faith, and you should also thank Me forever that I help you, on My turn, with My love for you, with My care, with My mercy, with the forgiveness of your wrong doings, with My comfort in your pains, and you should not forget to tell Me, in the gentleness of your heart, the word spoken to Me, as the king David was speaking with Me according to the multitude of the pains of his heart and he was saying: «When bitterness is multiplied in my heart, Your comforts sweeten my soul, and when my foot is shaken, then You show me Your mercy, Lord».

This great word of Mine, which gives birth to sons for God, if it is not always read, then the one who is born of it dies again, as it is the guide of life of the one who is born of it. Oh, you should read it a great deal, My people, for in it there is life and it is the light, which shines in the darkness, and it shines in everything that tests your life on earth to put it down. Herod also tried to know from the Scriptures the word about My birth, but he sought after that only to come into a battle against God and to destroy Me from the earth, and thus Herod killed in his madness fourteen thousand babies in order to get Me in it as well, the eternal One; however, the Father protected Me. Oh, this is how I also protected you, children from the end of the time, when the unfaithful ones sought after your life twenty years ago, (At the revolution in 1989, when the Security of the Communist Regime followed them, r.n.), but I protected you by a strong hand and I covered you under My mantle, and then many perished in exchange of your life (The victims of the revolution, r.n.), when the Herods of the time set about to kill you, and they finally killed their people instead. Oh, but when you are shot at from the inside of the walls, oh, how great army I have to set to watch and work between you and the blows against you, so that you may remain!

Oh, be faithful, be strong in your faith and ask with faith for the fulfillment of the Scriptures! The fasting (On Monday, Wednesday and Friday without oil, r.n.) and the prayer, these you have to work for the last fulfillments, and I can do everything by these, into My name worked by you, only for you to be full of love, full of peace, full of loving kindness, full of propriety and not mentioning any evil; you should be like God, sons, forgiving all those that arise against you, forgiving them like God, because today we have at My feast, we have the celebrated Basil, who was great in his faith, in his deed and through whom I have showed My mercy for those who have repented in sufferance from their sins, and I have showed the power of forgiveness and also the power of faith and repentance, well sons, because in the time of this great servant before Me, great in his heart and perseverance, I showed a great sign, and proven to everyone then, because a woman full of sins, coming to the sense of repentance by My grace, wrote down on a sheet of paper both her small and big sins, and she went with the sheet of paper to the bishop Basil, asking him to intercede with Me for the canceling of her sins from before Me, and a great sign appeared, because My bishop prayed, and while he was opening that sheet of paper, written with the sins of the woman, all her sins were wiped out, almost all of them, but his great humility sent her then to another priest from the heart of the wilderness, and this one, as humble as Basil, said to the woman: "Go woman, for I am a healthy man, and have Basil pray for the wiping out of your sin." And then, those who were carrying Basil to lay his breathless body to its place, which went to rest, opened the sheet of paper and there was nothing written on the paper, and the sheet of paper was cleared of sins, and also was the woman, who cleansed her life by repentance and thus escaped from her past, which oppressed her inside of her and before Me.

Oh, sons, forgive and you will be forgiven! Always forgive, as I tell you to work on this day of the great saint, remembered among the holy servants among those in heaven, Basil, the great. Get together in one crushed spirit for prayer and ask forgiveness from Me for those who go wrong, for them and for you, and rebuke the devil, as the bishop Basil did, and let it to be worked on earth! You should bring before Me and before the praying saints, for you, prayers for the releasing of the witchcraft and spells, for many traps have been coming out and worked again and again to prevent the progress of My work with you and to stop the river of My word into your midst from its course! Many have fallen in their fight against Me and against you, for they have thought to destroy My work through you so that it may no longer be done through you, but I cannot let the work of My word to stop from its course, for it is written that much fruit is to grow behind My trace with you on earth, and it is My walk, this walk that I am doing with you today, as it is written into the Scriptures to walk and to fulfill.

Oh, I have deep pains, because the lack of humility and disobedience of many caught them in the devil's trap, which always pours out into the way of My people spells and witchcraft, for people do nothing else, and all put obstacles to each other by devilish intercessions, asking the devil to do his work to them, because the people are full of wickedness, and they take revenge against each other and ask the devil with his help for this, because I cannot do any harm, but rather I prepare, and keep preparing only forgiveness for man, and I do not work revenge, as the heart of the revengeful man and the devil's servant does by this sin.

Oh, My people, I bear My mourning with you and with those who take care of you on the earth on My behalf. Stand up, son, stand up and be great for the work of repentance, for I, the Lord, give you this grace and I always help you in all My pains with you and yours with Mine, only that you may not have your pains, but rather that you may have only those pains from My way with you, as behold, those who get hold of their pains, of dissatisfactions and then of revenge, get lost on My way with you, well sons, for it is bad of the man who throws away My grace and mercy for him! You should work the fasting and praying and the humble spirit as the saints worked them, and then ask Me to give your salvation by prayer, and I will give it to you and I will give for My way with you, My people, I will give you so that you may have, in order to be able to work for Me, as I can work through you, but you should also work much humility for you and then your prayer will have full effect before Me. Amen.

— I come into the midst of Your people with You in the word, in my day of feast, Lord Word, and I remind it that I passed with my soul to You when the woman, guilty of sin, was coming again to me to intercede with You again for her forgiveness, and I, in my way to You and to the saints, asked You, because of her crying, everything that was still left on the sheet of paper of her sins, and to Your glory, You showed a great sign, because everything was wiped off on the sheet of paper, and this was shown to everyone and thus it was confessed like that afterwards. I am speaking a big word to Your people and I am telling it to intercede with You by the saints for the work of their forgiveness from God with respect to all those who may go wrong, for it has saints in heaven coming out from its midst, among the saints, and they knew the pain of life and the pain of their trials on their way with You on this word, in which they believed and persevered on earth, and today they are standing before You in heaven for Your people of today and for Your work with it.

Oh, people full of gifts from the Lord, seek to be useful, son, and to keep your mind in great humility, for this is how the Lord can do great miracles. The Lord has got much pain because of the lack of spirit from those who shot and are shooting from the midst into His difficult walk of today. Oh, ask Him through the saints for the release of the bonds from upon those who caused and still cause pains, and ask Him with tears of humility, son!

Speak out prayers with power of spirit, you, servants at the altars into the midst of the Lord's people and ask for the destruction of satan's work, for he does his entire work over those who grow less in their faith and takes control over them so that he may not lose them, so that he may do them every evil possible and to keep them like that. Oh, ask for the forgiveness of the sins over all and for the breaking off of satan's bonds from those who have fallen under these bonds! Do not forget about the holy water for your comings in and out! Do not forget about fasting and praying, these without sin beside them, for even those who have fallen to the sides do these things, however, they mix them with the sin of the hatred of brothers and revenge, with the sin of slandering and anger, with the sin of doubt in their faith, and the days of fasting and praying stand against them, for they do not have the humility of their heart, and if they had it only in their work, then they would get away with the devil's traps and then they would see that all the Lord's words were and are true, only that they may open their eyes to see and to understand. And I would also tell them, and I would tell them from among the saints, I would tell them as Lord, that revenge strikes back with its evil work, because this is its course, and I would tell them to use humility of spirit and repentance for sins instead, because it is hard without these on earth, and the life of the one, without a humble spirit in him for his salvation by this spirit, is in great danger.

The Lord has got word of sufferance to tell, and He finds pain within the gates, but He gives strength in order that He may be able to speak, and I am blessing as a bishop from the Lord the praised course of His work with you and you, those who walk, because you are not supposed to wait for this walking, and let us ask the Lord for powers for His today's walking, and let us always ask Him, oh, sons. Amen.

— Oh, My power by those who are faithful is fasting and praying, My beloved holy people, and I have always taught them My heart in them, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and in this way these weapons of My victory, with them and through them, have power. Amen.

May your fasting and your praying be without sin, sons! I, the Lord, teach you the power of these weapons against the devil that is hostile to Me and to you. Those who have fasted and prayed, having sins in their nature and in their heart with which they feed the devil: slander, bad talk, anger, revenge, judgment, lie, denigration, the mention of evil, oh, they hurt themselves even worse, for the devil has caught power upon them by these sins while they were fasting and praying. All, let all those who have worked like that, go and repent so that the work of the devil may be destroyed upon them! And I have to write into the book an epistle of awakening, and I am strengthening Myself within the gate to be able to work, and to be able to work by those who are stricken, for this is My ordaining for the work of My word in the time of nowadays, when the devil is angry with Me and when I try to tear down its hidden work, and I work by a written word, in which is life, much life and the life is the light of the people, the light which shines in the darkness, and it is not overcome by the darkness. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons in the gates, receive power in you from My power, for now we have to put into the book an epistle of awakening, My hand stretched with mercy towards those who are wounded by the devil, and who have lost the spirit of humility and repentance, sons, and then the devil has been able to do this by his work in them and upon them. We have been working in mystery. We have been working with pain and mystery, sons. Amen.

The feast of the Epiphany

Let My word be on earth and let it come down into its book with a feast of Epiphany, for the heavenly army is coming at My spring of word on earth to be refreshed from My longing after man, which I share with My saints, and I have among them John, the Baptist, on My right side, glorified on this day among those in heaven, for his hand and speech were sweet on the day of Epiphany when the Holy Spirit, in the image of a dove, descended from the Father at Jordan and spoke above Me the word of My Father: «This is My beloved Son». Amen.

The crowd, gathered at the spring now, started even at dawn to take of the water of Epiphany, and I, the Lord, am welcoming and telling them in a sweet baptizing voice: "Peace to you!" I am telling them this together with My baptizer, whom the angelic angel, invisible now, is embracing within him so that he may also give the word of Holy Spirit to the people that have gathered.

Oh, My people, you should love, sons, you should love the heaven on earth, so that it may be on earth as in heaven. Oh, what a big word I am telling you now, but My work with you is also great and great is all that I ordain on earth by the word, in such a way that it may be fulfilled afterwards!

Peace to you, oh peace to you, people gathered at the spring! I am releasing My voice and speaking the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and I am putting Him over the waters and say: the water of Epiphany is being blessed with the power and the work of the Holy Spirit and it is sanctified with this power of word. Amen. Your faith and your love are blessed, people coming at the spring, and they are sanctified with this power of word, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, sons! Oh, baptize your faith and love into the river of My word, so that they may catch life in your being! Oh, come to be renewed by baptism, for the faith and its works always have to be! Your power is faith, and it is My power in you then, for behold, by faith we have to ordain and work the new birth of the world, well son. He who does not have faith in himself for Me, one like that is not, and it is only the one who by faith is. I am giving voice over you and I am asking you to make your faith grow within you, son, and it will grow your love and the works of these, the works of faith and love, so that the fruit of your love may shine before you and before Me and teach from it those who look at you, for you have to share the heaven on the earth upon you and upon people, My people.

I am with a feast of Epiphany into your midst, people with longing in your bosom for you coming at My spring of word, a spring of Epiphany, son. I am giving you the grace of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. Grace is great work and you have to learn from a teacher to have it and to work it, making your faith and its fruit grow by it, just as John, the Baptizer, did, in whom My grace worked. It is a time of grace, and the heaven is waiting to see the grace working on earth and giving birth to sons for heaven, with My kingdom shining in them so that it may take the face of the people in such a way that they may see and baptize their face and life in the water of My river of word after that, which gives new birth to the man, bringing birth from above for man.

May My grace make you in this day, My people, to live the thrill of the day of My Epiphany in Jordan, when John touched My head and spoke My baptism, which came upon Me after that in the image of the dove, because it was through the baptism with water that the baptism with the Holy Spirit came as well over all those who were baptized into My name by My disciples and then the heaven came down within them on earth and the number of My disciple increased, for this is what the grace of the Holy Spirit does by those who are bearers of God on earth.

Oh, much watching is needed so that the Holy Spirit may make you workers, sons, fed on the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. Then disciples from disciples have to be born, well sons, for those without fruit do not have any reward, because the reward is the fruit, it is the man's birth from above, a birth by faith, by water and by the Holy Spirit. Whenever I come, I come with the saints on earth and I do not come alone, for they are My fruit by those who believed and received grace and who gave birth to sons for heaven, and they have fruit, and their fruit is in Me, and I am in it, because it is fruit for heaven, fruit by the faith of the one who believes with power in Me in order that he may bring forth fruit for Me.

I put the seal of the Holy Spirit over those who come at the spring so that they may receive grace! Oh, grace, and grace may be upon you, those who have faith into My coming on earth as word now in order that I may speak and give birth to the world again! The faith is born out of obedience, oh, sons, for this is how it is proven that it is and that it works after it is born in man.

Many of people had come to My baptism at Jordan and all were asking what to do and how to listen, so that that the obedience could work in those it was born. Oh, examine yourselves well, and see if you are in the faith, sons! Oh, sons, hope is born out of faith and out of the work of the grace of the Holy Spirit in man, and these two are comprised in love, in the man where they can work. This was the work of My saints, this was with John, the baptizer, and he worked for Me and into My name, and he brought fruit to God, and then he became a martyr for My testimony, for the Lord his God, Who was baptized at Jordan by John, assuming the image of a man and shining in the world by His humility, by which He appeared, being confessed in the water of Jordan by the Father and by the Holy Spirit, full of grace and truth. Amen.

— My humility before You, Lord, brought me in obedience to Your word at the river Jordan, where the Father sent us both me and You, on a day of Epiphany, to baptize You, to be baptized by the hand of Your servant, Lord, and I listened and I did so, and on that day the history and its work full of grace were written. Oh, I would sit in counsel for a long time with the people in this day that is Yours and mine, but there is no power in the gates, oh, Lord, as storms beat against them. Each day one should fight and endure, for the devil does not stop from his evil work against Your work of word on earth. Whenever You are slapped in the face, You are forced to turn the other cheek as well, for the blows have always come against Your face and against the power for You of Your bearers. You are denigrated and blasphemed every day because of those who have no longer had other love, other endurance and other obedience on Your way. You are aggrieved, Lord. The enemy laughs at You every day. I often see them laughing at Your word, those who do not like it, but who takes them into consideration? Not even the devil takes them into consideration, for he is afraid of You and he is afraid of Your work of today and he is crying anxiously because he sees the reward prepared for him, and he fights in vain but he fights, for his spirit is the spirit of haughtiness, and this sin does not come to a stop as long as there is something to be fought against on both sides of the battle.

Oh, repent, you who are stubborn! You, who use two tongues in order to be able to instigate and intrigue hearts against hearts because of the pride in you and because of the self-longing in you! Repent before the Lord and overcome the devil that has his hand over you by this sin of vindication and hatred, but do not overcome the Lord!

Oh, repent too, sons all over the earth, for the Lord has got the work of His word over the earth and He calls you to repentance, for the Lord is coming, oh, sons of the earth! Let the Lord not find you naked when He comes, oh, let Him not find you like that, as after Him it follows the punishment of the evil works done by the people! Seek to be found dressed up and not naked, for behold, you need garment taken out of the water and woven with the Holy Spirit. The grace of the Holy Spirit has to be seen over the one baptized with water, and this grace and its testifying speaking are not seen in those who are baptized. I give you news: repent from your works against you and from those against God, for the time of questioning is coming! You still can do it; you still have a little time.

Come back, you those fallen from faith, and the Lord will heal you; as He rebukes for correction and not for punishment! The day of the Lord is coming![149] The Lord is coming. The One baptized by my hand into the water of Jordan is coming again, and you need repentance. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and His love and the Love of the Father be with you and may it open your eyes for you to see the light and to walk in it. Amen.

Oh, let us strengthen ourselves within the gates, Lord, so that we may be able to work. Your grace is that which can work and it is that which wills. Amen.

— Oh, your confession on My day of Epiphany was great at the river Jordan two thousand years ago, My baptizer! May it also be great, your grace coming down over the earth for the awakening to repentance of the sons of the earth, addicted to those on earth, with which they have got used to living as they like it! Moreover, your today's testimony is also great, for you are My witness and call out, as I do, to the man to come out into the light and see! Amen.

I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am embracing all those who have gathered at the spring, I am embracing all in My sweet arm and I am comforting them with My great and gentle grace. Oh, walk in the way full of longing to My spring of word and to My citadel of sons bearing of God and of the glory for God on earth! I am giving you gifts, sons. What kind of gifts am I giving to you? I am giving you spirits. I am giving you the spirit of repentance, the spirit of humility, the spirit of patience and the spirit of faith, because faith comes after much work of spirit, and all these are worked in one spirit, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and His gifts. Amen.

Grace, grace upon you, those who are gathered together on the way of the longing from God and who have been brought by longing to the spring! Oh, not all of you are as beautiful, as precious, as sweet and as pleasant to God. Some of you do not know how to get healed from evil, and the evil makes them sick and makes the ugly before Me and before My angels. Some other from among you is on wrong ways and full of dust, which is not cleaned from them. Some of you, willing or not, have got self-love, self-pretense, and much evil making upon them as they have not known how to work in all the time and over all their work, My word fulfilled upon them. However, I am embracing you all now, in a day of Epiphany, and I make some of you owe Me, and I fill some other of you with much grace, with much love, with much holiness, as grace is great love, great work of love, sons, the work of obedience to God and of holiness by obedience. Amen.

And now, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, baptized in Jordan by John, two thousand years ago, in the water and in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, am speaking out again in a day of Epiphany, word upon waters and I am saying:

It is blessed and sanctified this water and then the waters on the earth with it, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and then let it sanctify all your things and you as well, for the holy life sanctifies the earth, well sons! Be holy power by your life so that there may be sanctified from your life all and everything around you and everywhere you may go in My name on the earth!

Oh, peace to you, grace to you! Grace upon grace to you, sons, but be worthy so that you may be the bearers of grace, for if you do not keep your worthiness you will not be able to bear My grace in you!

I am bowing and embracing you again, so that I may baptize you within My love for man and that you may remain its sons. Amen. My baptism godfather is waiting with Me in the gates to come into the book and to feed with the spirit of Epiphany the people of My word and every man who hears My voice and the voice of My saints by this spring of word.

Oh, grace and grace upon you! Become the dwelling place and the rest of My grace for the sons, and if you cannot do it by sacrifice and effort, then become a dwelling place of the humility of spirit, for humility of spirit becomes My dwelling place in man and it comforts My pain and My rest, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

I am strengthening My gates to open and to come into the book with My Baptizer, John, for he has a heavenly longing and he wants to speak to you about the spirit of humility, about the spirit of the patience of the saints, My people, for the man feels unjustified, discontent, and he feels important and makes pretence and he forgets, poor of him, that he is not bigger than the saint I have near Me in heaven for their lives lived for Me on earth. Oh, man cannot be greater and more valuable than John, My Baptizer, the holy hermit, whom the heaven had brought him up from childhood and to his appearance at Jordan, and there was no one to bring him up on earth, and no one took care of him but only the heaven and its inhabitants.

It is the feast of the saint, John, the Baptizer, ordained next to the day of the feast of Epiphany, My people. We are sitting at the table with him, at a table of word, sons, for at your table with Me, heavenly guests, the angels and the saints, are coming and refreshing their waiting spirit, by their word near My word, when I come down with them near you, to write Myself into the book. I have sat with you in a feast of Epiphany and the heaven has rejoiced over Me and over you and has lived within a spirit of comfort. I have comforted all those who have come on the way with the angels from the four winds at the feast of Epiphany and I am happy within My pain, when I see how the comforters come to Me to receive, both you and I, comfort from others, and especially those into your midst who are crushed under My burden of today. Therefore, let us do the work of holy word on this day, and let it remain written into the book. Amen.

Oh, the saints and the fathers of the church have ordained a feast for you near the feast of Epiphany, oh, My baptizer. Therefore, let us set the table of word, as your desire now is to give to My people and to every man who takes from this table, to give the exhortation to humility and to a great teaching for a spirit of humility of the man before Me. May your sacrifice of teaching love be blessed over the sons of My today's word and over those who receive from them or take from the shop, (Internet, r.n.), food for their soul and spirit from My table of word with all My people of today and with the saints from heaven, the table of the teaching, the table of the comfort. Amen.

— Oh, meek little Lamb and good Teacher over the sons, there is no man to deserve comfort, for his sins are many and big over Your pain because of the loss of the man from paradise, by his disobedience to You, but the pain deserves comfort, oh, Lord. The only true comfort is that which comes from heaven, either over the man's joy, or over his pain. The one for joy is that which shares the joy with joy, and the comfort for pain is that which shares hope and holy powers from heaven upon man.

Oh, I am crushed with pain in heaven and on earth when I look at man how he wants and how he looks for comfort, feeling unjustified. The wisdom of man is fallen too low, Lord. Oh, how comes that he does not understand how many pains he needs so that he may not lose his wisdom, but, on the contrary, to grow it by pains, for man does not learn from joys anything else but his departure from God and his not watching for life, poor of him? This is what I want to speak to Your people on my day of synod among saints and then I want to give to many that which I am bringing down today in the image of a holy gift to those who love the heaven on earth.

There are people and people on earth, but man commits a big sin when he feels unjustified and discontent, Lord. Oh, this sin, which is unforgiving of God in man, is big, for where does the arrow of this sin shoots if not against God, Whom the man knows that He owes him to help him in all his things and to give him through many paths from the Lord towards him?

Lord, You have put great, such a great wisdom in the sons from the gates, and they do not want to feel and see like man, but they only think like You, and likewise they try to fulfill concerning man's wisdom, which is so guilty, for man sees and feels like a man, only in a human way, to his punishment and to that of Your righteous ones, Lord. It is a day of forerunning teaching for the wisdom in heaven to work over the sons of disobedience, oh, You the Good and merciful Lord, but Your mercy works for the man's salvation, and his mercy works very badly and it is against his salvation and against the salvation of his fellows. I would ask man to tell me, who comforted me from the time of my childhood and up to the time of my appearance at Jordan, when I hardly turned thirty years of age in my life after the flesh? Oh, who nursed me, who bathed me, who fed me, who made me little clothes to put on me? I would ask the man, who comforted me, as deprived as I was from all the help and from comfort and protection? Was there God unmerciful with me since He gave me such a life on earth?

Oh, Lord, I see that men have mercy for each other. Do they deserve so much that which I did not have on earth? People complain of shortages, unhappiness, loneliness, of lack of help, while they have hands and legs and many, many other things at their disposal on earth. Oh, if You gave Adam the woman as his helper, then did she help him with anything better than the comfort that came from the comfort full of sin?

I, the baptizer John, a great prophet, raised on earth according to the Lord's plan, am speaking now, after two thousand years from the Lord's appearance and mine at Jordan, I am speaking to the man who is discontent with his fate and I am asking him: before whom do you bring your discontentment, you dissatisfied man? Who owes you since you are discontent? Oh, who are you, dissatisfied man? Behold what I tell you; I was great before the Lord and I was and worked only for Him and I did not taste the sin of the discontentment of life.

I heard, on the day after the Epiphany, I heard a big word coming out through the gates, as though the man would not be able to take care of his own life. Oh, such a man is without God and is more fallen than any other common man, who is hired by a master to give him something to work, to have control over him to obedience and to take care of the earthly cost for the caring of his life. Not even the idol worshippers can stay without someone over their life, and they get up and make an idol and then they put it as a master over them. Behold, he who takes care of his life alone is a foolish man and he does not have a master because of his foolishness. He who wants to be without God on earth, then such a man works accordingly.

Oh, get much wisdom and get it better and better, Christian people. Take wisdom for life, from the sons of the heavenly word, for if the life does not have wisdom in man for it, then man will lose his life. He who violated God's word in such a way that he may not fulfill it, then man violates his own life as well and crushes it along the way little by little. Oh, keep away from those who kill their lives and the Lord in their lives by disobedience and by their disobedience to a master, lest these may do any harm to you as well. Behold wisdom of life from John, the baptizer, and the Lord's prophet, who is waking up your wisdom now to fill it with that from above!

Oh, Lord, my Master, tell to the people those from above for them on earth. Tell them about me and about You, for You said that whoever loved his life, that one would lose it, and whoever denied it, that one would earn it from You, Lord. Oh, tell the people that You were God on earth with them in the time of Your visible body, and that You did not have what they have, and that You were poor, persecuted, and hated among the people. Ask them; are they any better than You are? Are they any greater than You are? Are they any worthier than You are, since they want so much good for themselves on earth? However, what do they gather to have and to find in heaven after they will come to an end with their living on earth? Oh, they do not gather anything, anything in heaven with the good things that they want on earth, but the people do not think at their life from heaven, at the life after that on earth, and that is why they do not have their happiness fulfilled and peaceful. Oh, You have big words, both about You and me. Tell the people about us, my Master, and the Master of those who want God as their Master over their life, as I wanted and as I had! I give You my prayer to speak to the people on the day of my feast, about my life on earth, oh, Lord. Amen.

— Yes, My baptizer, but I do not want your life to be to their judgment on earth, face to face with their life, but I want that My speaking about My life and yours to be a heavenly teaching, about your obedience and submission and Mine as well, about My power and yours before the Father and before men. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should not look for comfort, but you should rather look for the wisdom of life for your life, for the life is the light of the people when it lives truly in man among people who do not understand what they have to do with their life on earth. Oh, son, the Lord ordained John, the Baptizer, to be on earth once with Me. There was less than two hundred days between he and Me for our birth on earth. Herod's persecution separated them, and I am speaking here about Zacharias and Elisabeth, John's parents according to the flesh, and about him, the son coming out from them. From the childhood, I had been persecuted by the king Herod, who sent cruel servants to kill the infants and among them to kill us too. However, the Father did not send us on the earth for Herod, but He brought Us here for Him, and He put Us under protection. I was taken by My parents in Egypt, and he left into the mountains with Elisabeth, his mother, and there he remained until his appearance at Jordan. When the killers sent by Herod, running after them, caught them in the mountains, the prayer of his mother split the mountain in two parts and the mountain received them in it and protected them from the death coming from Herod, and then, after a couple of days, Elisabeth was taken among the saints, and the child John remained in the mountains as a small baby, growing until the age of a mature man, when he came down and appeared at Jordan. Oh, who took care of him? Who taught him to speak the language of his people? No one taught him, no one bathed him, no one fed him, no one made him clothes or little sandals, no one healed this little child, orphan on earth, of his wounds and poverty. After he had appeared to the people, no one heard him complaining about his life or being discontent under the burden of his life, and he was right with the Lord, Whom Herod dishonored to much because of his much rest on the throne as king, from where he pushed the people to a life with weaknesses for his life without a master on it. John came out into Herod's way and told this king not to do what was not permitted on behalf of God, but Herod did not listen, as he was befuddled with sin and wine, and then he put John into the dark, into the dungeon, taking him from before the people, after John had baptized many people and given them to God for the baptism with the Holy Spirit after that.

Was John a man not to deserve anything from what the people have and take from their life on earth? In his life he was a hermit and lived in the wilderness with God's angels into the heart of the mountain who opened to receive him and to protect him from Herod's persecution. He had not mother and father to take care of him and to grow him, to comfort him, for both his mother and father were sacrificed then to God; she, in the mountains, few days after she reached the wilderness with her small son, and Zacharias, his father, was murdered between the temple and altar by king Herod's killers. The wilderness was mother and father to John and it was everything he needed to have and grow for God on earth, until he appeared at Jordan, full of grace, full of God, full of word and full of the spirit of prophecy and wisdom for the people and full of the knowledge of men and of their works. Behold a depiction of holiness of life on earth in man: John, the Baptizer.

Oh, look at John, you My people growing now within My word like John in the wilderness! My word upon him brought him up into the wilderness, in his paradise deprived of people. My word upon him taught him to speak and to become wise. I taught him to speak. My word was always, always above him and held his little hand like a father, as I would have done with Adam in paradise, but Adam was not born; however, John was born and he was born a baby and listened and then he grew up as much as Adam according to the number of years, according to the stature of the man who turned thirty years, for Adam was made by My hand like a man of thirty years old, just as John was in his years on earth and as I, the Lord, was too, when I started to preach about Myself as Messiah coming from the Father, born of the Virgin among people, as it was the prophecy, and then after forty-two months of preaching about the kingdom of the heavens on earth, I let Myself be given over to be sacrificed under the hand of man, who was God's enemy and full of himself before men so that He might be able to fulfill the Scripture of the crucifixion, and of My resurrection from among the dead.

Behold, here is the patience of the saints; however, the man does not want to learn like this. I and John the Baptizer, showed before the Father obedience and submission, and before the people, I showed the patience of the saints. John and I are the model after which the man should take to live his life on earth. Amen.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for God! They are happy. Persecution was happiness on earth and taught us the spirit of patience, which is the spirit of the saints. Oh, the Lord has no room on earth with man. The Lord is persecuted on earth. He, the Master of the heaven and earth has been persecuted by the successors of the man created by God seven thousand years ago, as discontent as Adam was on earth, the first created man. What will happen with the people who persecuted and persecute the Lord on earth? There will be taken from them the stolen dominion, and they will even be required an answer, and the Lord will give His kingdom to all those who will have loved it with them and in them on earth. Amen.

I come through the gates into the book as word, when I start to speak, and I get out through the gates too, and I put My name over My entire word, spoken and set into its book.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, born on earth two thousand years ago of a Virgin mother and baptized in the water of Jordan by the hand of My servant John, the Baptizer, when both he and I appeared before the people at that time, full of grace and truth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

(Excerpt)

Oh, where is, the teaching sons on My behalf upon man, where is there on earth a church pleasant to Me as it is with you, to teach the man how to walk and how to live on earth as in heaven? Who teaches man so beautifully, so heavenly as My spring of word, which springs from My mouth at you? Who wants to hear and know and believe that I, the Lord, came on earth and I keep on coming to you as word and I have had a house with you and sat at the table with you, and I Myself sit with you? Oh, who can stop from his walking and understand this heavenly mystery between Me and you? Who, sons, who? Father is in Me and I am in you, and I also want that you all be completely the sons of My word as Father is in Me and I in you, and to be in each other so that all of us may be heavenly places, for this is good, and this is how I made the man to be when I built him to be My dwelling place. Oh, who can understand and love this mystery and its work, My work with you? Oh, who is the one who understands in order to share the wisdom of this mystery to its bearing? Who is the one who can do this?

— We, Your saints, are answering, oh, Lord. We are on our day of churchly memorial at the table of the holy word with Your people, here, in Your gardens with it, You Teacher of those who are faithful. Oh, the faith that saves man is no longer in the hearts of the people on earth, for they have cast You away from everywhere, and they rule upon each other, oh, Lord. From time to time they try to run to You for salvation when those, that they cannot bear and control with their human power, surround them. Oh Lord, the people do not have any shepherds. The priests and the bishops are clothed within the robes of Your servants before the people who have been crushed by the time on their way, but these servants do not have any faith and cannot remove from the people the things fallen upon them and cannot help the people, too.

We, the bishops of the Lord, Basil, Gregory and John, servants full of holy zeal for the good of the Lord over the flock in the time of our body, we are speaking to you, bishops and priests, about the faith which saves and about that which is not, in those that outside seem to be servants with faith in God and in the workers of God. Oh, behold how great you sit on earth! If you still have faith in your heart you use it for your exaltation before the people and you also want to use your power, which you have taken it yourselves over the people. Do you know how you believe? Do you know how you think you are? You think you are like the people of Israel, who always believed and it still believes that it has been the most powerful before the Lord and before the nations on the earth, even when it has denied the Lord for its glory lest its glory may be put into the shade by the Lord's glory, His heavenly glory, and which He has received from eternity from the Father. Oh, you think like that, too, you think like the people of Israel. You want to have dominion over the people so that they may know that you are the Lord's servants upon them, but you do not want to have the saving faith and to teach the people to have it. Oh, learn the faith from those who save themselves from evil by faith, for behold, they are the true teachers of the faith of the people, not you! Behold, besides the fact that you live so far away from Him in order that you may be able to be great and to be everything and all things, behold, you, like the people of Israel, think that you are masters, while you serve in secret the enemy of Christ, the antichrist, and keep on hiding him in you and among you under the robe of the servants of the Lord so that his dyed robe may not be brought into view. Oh, it does not matter if you do this and if you serve like this, but we, the bishops of the Lord, we are telling you from heaven among the saints that the true worshippers wait for a new heaven and a new earth, they are waiting for the Lord, and He will come, He comes and keeps coming, while you are waiting for the antichrist, the one which is so much spoken about that he works and that all the people are included in his hidden work, and nowhere is heard anything else but the coming of the antichrist. Oh, it does not matter if you sit with plugs in your ears and bandage at your eyes so that you may not hear or see the noise of the Lord's coming with His saints into the midst of a people faithful to His coming, for behold how He is coming! He is coming and He will call you to give an account because you have been sitting into His name with authority and power over the people and you have not been working for Him, because no one can serve with faith at two masters, and you have been serving in secret the antichrist and bringing him fruit, and you have been bringing to the Lord only damage, and now He is asking you an answer according to the law: «eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, burning for burning, wound for wound, and bruise for bruise», (Ex: 21/24-25), as it is written, for the law is for those who violate it. Amen.

— Oh, beloved saints, behold, the people of My word has faith, and its faith in Me and in My coming has saved it from unbelief and world, and this bunch of sons live with Me, and I dwell and am with them too, oh, My beloved saints on earth and in heaven now. You were My great servants within grace and love. I do no longer have now such love and faith with priests and bishops. They are all servants to the spirit of the world day and night and serve only for appearances' sake before Me, for My flock wanders away in unbelief and in the works of unbelief; however, each one will receive according to his works. Amen.

The Sunday of the dreadful judgment

(Excerpt)

… Work those that are blessed, sons, and with the measure you measure it will be measured to you, but work like God, oh, sons! Oh, look at My face and seek to be in My image and after My likeness, for I appeared among people when I descended from the Father on earth and I became a man! Do merciful deeds with My things in you and give Me a face in man, sons! Oh, give My word to the people, for I, the Lord, am telling them this:

Come to receive light! Come and learn My image and likeness! Do not grow angry, do not take revenge on one another, but rather love God, for love is long-suffering and remains for eternity, like all its sons. Love those who do not love you, for they do not have love and you should give them love so that they may have, and they do not have God either, and you should give them to have too, and you will be My blessed in the day of My glory and I will call you to be on My right side. Make peace between man and God, and you will be written together with those who work peace, and, finally, be faithful, and you will be written among the sons of life. Amen.

… Come to receive light! Come to the mountain of My wisdom and take, and be rich in your faith in My today's coming after man and know the time, for even the time and its signs teach you to recognize it, to know it and then to believe it. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise

I become the voice of Shepherd from heaven on earth, as the time I spoke about two thousand years ago has come for the voice of the Son of God to be heard over the living and over the dead, and I, the Lord, come and fulfill; I come and shepherd gently and humbly, as I am in heart, in order to exhort all to be likewise, only for them to hear and to listen to My voice, to My advice, to My word, which comes from heaven on earth to the life of the people, for the people are no longer used to love life, and feed their spirit from one another to the emptiness of their life and they keep far away from God with their life. However, I come as Shepherd on earth, I come as the word of Shepherd and find the man fallen and I want to wake him up and I want to wake him up with My voice.

Oh, My people, I let My word into your midst at this time, for I have given you the gift of faith, son. Oh, what does the fallen man mean? I come to shepherd the man and I find him fallen.

Oh, man is fallen in unbelief. Even starting two thousand years ago, I have left the question for the time of My coming and I said: «Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?» (Luke: 18/8) If I did not put faith in man, I would no longer find faith in My way for My coming, and I would find only backsliding and faith denial, and faith denial is the sign before My coming, because it is written that the day of the Lord will not come until this evil spirit, that is faith denial, will not be in men, denial in each and every way possible, this sin every way possible, for woe to the one who does not watch so that this thief does not come!

Oh, My people, I have put faith into your soul, and you have to work it and keep it, for he who does not listen in this way, that one denies My word, as Adam denied it in paradise and trampled on My word, and then the man, created by My hand, got upset with Me and received a painful reward, and he received tears and sigh. Adam and his woman pulled each other out of God because they did not watch against the violation of My word. I become Shepherd over the man's life and I urge every man to watch so that they may not pull each other out from God, for behold there are no longer merciful and watchful shepherds over the flock. The sin leads the man to unbelief and then he falls in unbelief, and this means a fallen man, and few are those, who do not fall, among those who overcome this sin, and the devil does not rejoice over the man who falls by sin, but he rejoices when man falls in unbelief first and then in hopelessness and carelessness of God for his life.

I come as a gentle Shepherd, I come on earth as word to shepherd the man and to exhort him to pasture and to see that the Lord is good. I have to tell you man, that you are not right with Me, for your life owes Me, because you have it from Me. Oh, do not conform to your wills, for they are not eternal, and they pull you out from God and make you fall in unbelief too, if you do not know to repent from the evil woken in you to punish Me in you. Oh, who shall teach you from the earth? A blind man cannot guide another blind. I have mercy on you, man; I have great mercy on you! I come down from heaven because of My mercy for you. Do not send Me away; do not say that God cannot speak with you! Oh, do not be unbelieving! If you do not believe that I am, what do you gain by turning town My calling to You? You are afraid that you cannot do everything you want, if you want to listen to Me and to have Me as your Shepherd. Oh, you cannot be God's son if you do not take after Me in your deed and obedience. Receive Me with faith, for he who believes in Me is he who receives Me when I knock to come in and to give him from Me, when I give him that he may have!

Oh, My people, oh, sons, I stay into your midst as the word of Shepherd. Appreciate it and fulfill it, as I fulfill the word of My Father and listen to it when He gives Me to work, when He gives Me His work to do. Exhort one another to obedience to My word, for behold what great grace is upon you! I speak with you to watch upon your life and to exhort you to listen to Me. The day is coming for you to see everything you have earned by your obedience, sons. Be transformed from glory to glory by your obedience to God, sons. Those who know the Scriptures and the life in them and do not fulfill like that, they do not gather for them to have when I come. Many learned people, many crowds, many people know the Scriptures and hear from them, but they do not move even a straw to their fulfillment upon them, in them and among them, and they think that they are God's sons on earth. Oh, keep close watch in the way you fulfill the Scriptures, the commandments of life, the beatitudes, sons, and love! Keep strongly to the love among you, to the brotherhood in My name, as the Scriptures exhort you, for where there is no love there is hatred; where there is no sweet word, there is a harsh word and full of pride, sons; where there is no holiness, there is sin and where there is no faith there is falling. Oh, learn from the Scriptures to know from them how man fell from paradise and watch then with Me that which he did not watch! Everything is possible for the one who has faith and obedience to God, sons. Put your nature and its practices to death and give place to the life of My word in you, always, always, for if you do not fulfill always, always like that, then the evil spirit finds a little gate of entrance and takes you to its likeness whenever you do not watch. Oh, strengthen one another for the way of holiness, but do not forget that holiness is not only that which you would try to understand what it means in you, for it has to be adorned then with your good conduct from one another, a conduct full of humility and decency, by which you may be able to honor one another tirelessly, because otherwise you come to despise each other, and contempt carries in it the poison of haughtiness. Oh, do not try to be bigger or stronger than another one in word or in seeing, but rather live by good works pleased to Me, for if you are not pleased to Me all the time, you are guilty for one another and you are not able to shake off the guilt before Me, because you all need to be a tasteful bread for Me, all together and always, well sons. Be wise for the time of the fasting, for the fasting from food is nothing if you are not beautiful in your spirit and soul before Me and to each other. It is hard for the man to keep a fasting pleased to Me. Those who were sanctifying for Me were working hard for the time of the fasting and mostly they were keeping from trouble or from being troubled in their spirit and soul, in their word or deed, for love is hardly nourished in man and from man to man. The spirit of emptiness sits usually on the tongue of the man and it does not like any other better place, and from there it starts to empty the man from his holy wealth, and one from another to take this weakness infiltrated in the man's nature when the man does not learn from the Scriptures the stature for his life; however, you, watch, watch with love to each other and give each other help for My pleasure in you and among you all the time, for the man falls easily from My beautiful things upon him, well sons, and I want to stay with you all the time and I want to have a place where to stay, and you should make a place for Me to dwell and to be with you.

I have spoken by My word during these days that I want to fulfill through you great things by fast and prayer, by the people of this word, sons. Oh, help Me like that, well sons, for I suffer that I do no longer have someone else besides you to help Myself with on earth. The servants of the church, instead of exhorting the people to fasting and watching with fast and prayer, they absolve and keep on absolving the people from eating and food and remove from the calendar the days of fasting and the times of the fasting, (Is about the elimination of Monday in the days of fasting, of the three weekdays of fasting - Monday, Wednesday and Friday, r.n.) because once with the changing the feasts of the saints from their place, (Crossing the New Style - Gregorian Calendar - from the old one, - Old Style - after the Julian calendar[150].) one of the four pillars of the fasting fell, fasting for which only three or four days have remained in a year, and behold how much damage has been caused by the changing of the things which was not supposed to be done,

[150] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

and I do not know what to do to open the heart and the mind of those who rule over the people in such a way they may do good to God and to themselves then and to bring back to their place the feasts and the holy customs so that I may reward them with their salvation for obedience, for their faith and for their welcome when I knock to come in to them and to ask them to listen to God.

Behold, sons, why did I set you to live alive for monks and the same for food. People do no longer have days of fasting and neither the priests and the monks do; they do no longer have. From the biggest to the least, all love meat for food and all love the things coming out from the meat of animal. (Milk, cheese, eggs, r.n.) I need help for the fulfillment of the last Scriptures and I have asked you to listen to Me with fast and prayer, for the prayer without fasting has no power at all.

Behold, the people of My word is faithful and has listened to Me not to eat meat and those coming of out meat. I had no one to help Myself with for the fulfillment of the Scriptures, for the destruction of the antichrist and any kind of satan and for My entire victory, which will be done soon, soon, by the work of the church and not by other kind of work.

Now, My people, you should be good and work for Me great love, for it is the time for fast and prayer with greater power, but you should also take care of your sweet conduct with Me and to one another, so that the devil may no longer have anything from you, and that only I may have, I and My saints and My angels. Let your holy and sweet conduct sweeten your spirit and let it grow in you the confession of God, well sons. We have to build the paradise one earth. We have to be sweet, to produce honey, and to prepare ”milk and honey” for the saints and for the angels, so that there may be fulfilled the Scriptures, which are still left to be fulfilled and we have to ask for them to come and to be established on earth by prayer, sons. Oh, well, well sons, take care of the sun (Spiritual sun, r.n.) so that it may shine seven times more over among you, as it is written, and this is how you are supposed to be in the time that we are starting now for the preparation of the feast of the resurrection.

Be blessed, sons, praying for Me to come, to bring blessing and faith on earth and to put love in people! Peace to you! Do not forget to be beautiful during the time of fasting, for where fasting is written it means much and it means beauty, love and holiness; it means the heaven and the earth getting and working together. The human kind and the whole creation has been waiting with you, for you are the least and most gifted by God, for behold, I am a Shepherd among you and I teach you My fulfillment.

May your peace and word, your love and the spirit of brotherhood, be blessed, sons! Let the people from everywhere take the beneficial work of the fasting: the lack of wickedness, mercy and forgiveness, peace and fellowship among brothers, between Me and My people, and we will go on like that, with love to the feast of the resurrection, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

I am the Lord God, the Master of the heaven and the earth, for I am their Creator. I am the Son of God Sabaoth and the Father is in Me, and I am in Him. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last; I am the beginning and the end, the Lord, Jesus Christ. I become word over the earth and I speak by it to the faithful and unfaithful man. The faithful one strengthens his faith, its power and its work, and the unfaithful one hides from Me so that he may be God, and thus he draws upon himself the fruit of his unbelief, for he suddenly is called to give an answer to those that come from God face to face with him and to see the One Whom he shakes off by his pride of man against God.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word and the voice of the Father, and I have had long endurance with the unfaithful ones, big and small, face to face with the sons of the holy faith, to prove more powerfully God's fruit through those who are faithful, and it was so, and it is so, and from now on it will be likewise, because God proves Himself against all lying gods of man who cannot do anything.

Let the people stop from their weak walking for their salvation and let them understand the true God, looking at My works and at My fulfilling words and to discover in them the work of the godly Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the God and Creator of the heaven and the earth, of their visible and invisible things, the God of the Christian people, a nation who has known its sinfulness and then found God, loved Him and followed Him, for the Lord reveals Himself as the giver of grace to those who humble in their spirit, soul and body before Him.

I become word of watchfulness over those who are faithful in a day established by the saints and fathers to be dedicated to the Lord for a feast with faith, the Sunday of the right faith, a memorial of the faith, the spirit of the revelation. You, those who stay ordained as servants over people in My name to show them their way to God and to the truth, bow on this day and learn from God, for the way with God is the spirit of revelation, and My way with the man is written on earth by its revelation. Bow with holy decency at My voice upon you on this day, for My speaking of today on the earth and the book, in which I write Myself in order to remain written in it, is no other kind of work but the spirit of testimony, the spirit of revelation, and you strengthen your faith in God and you strengthen it a great deal, for satan and his angels try to pull out all the good seedling and so that only the cockle may remain, and those who eat the fruit of the cockle become like it and they want to wipe out My trace and My name upon you and upon the earth and to establish themselves as God, for it is written about this fight between light and darkness, and the battle has its front on the earth.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am coming to you and speaking to you from the Father, Sabaoth. Come to the holy faith to My word upon you during these days, because the Father has sent Me to you to speak; I am not doing this from Myself. I do the work of a Son, because I listen to the Father and then I work everything He gives Me to do, and this is how you also need to do, the work of sons, because those who are sons are not otherwise. Look at those who do not work like that and do not have faith like that, look at the faith they have and what they do with it and how they want to overthrow God and to rule in His place. However, you should seek after the work of sons, because I come to you from the Father in hard times and I show you from Him how to work so that you may take after Me and after the Father and not after the sons of this sinful and passing age that has nothing in Me. Oh, learn from the saints and from the parents to whom, I, the Lord, spoke by the spirit of revelation and strengthened in them the faith and God among the people on earth. Look at My sustaining works through the saints and bow to take after them, and do not be conformed to the face of this age, for I, the Lord, work much word in your days and through it I prepare the life of this age, for it must be prepared that which is to be, and it is written into the Scripture to work in the last days and to do God's work on earth and to exhort all people to repentance, for all the things of the man's darkness come from his sins and the darkness is so big on the earth, and the people cannot get healed from it and from all kinds of sufferings until I, the Lord, lift up their sins, for I am the One Who has power to do this after I put in man faith and the power of faith in the One Who forgives the men's sins so that He may heal them from their weakness and unbelief, and then I work all things by the spirit of revelation. Amen.

I am bowing and speaking to you, servants of the churches of the Romanian people, and I am reminding you of the salt. If the salt goes bad it has nothing to salt anymore. However, you have to be good salt, and if you chose this salt, that is, to be salt on earth, then see if you do this work and examine yourselves for it, as behold, I am coming and visiting you and I am exhorting you now to measure your stature and its fruit. I am not asking you for anything, I am not taking anything from you, but the Christian people needs priests and holy servants, and the heaven needs this on the earth, for the harvest comes near and there are no wise harvesters through whom I, the Lord, may be able to protect My wheat and to separate it from the weeds and then to put it on My table, and My wheat can hardly, hardly be seen into the midst of the weeds, and I speaking with you about My pain.

Oh, ask yourselves, sons, what kind of work and fruit you have. If those you shepherd see well the holy way and walk in it after My will, according to My expectation, then you are good salt, but if they do not see the way and do not see the light to follow it, then listen to My voice and take light from it to be illuminated by it and the people to see the light into the darkness and to come to it; let the people come to Me because it is a hard time. Oh, do not give away My voice of today from your way, the spirit of revelation, which is coming from the Father to you through Me, His Son, Jesus Christ, the Word! I am coming from the Father as word to you to give you grace and to give it to you from abundance, in such a way that the grace may be known when I give it to you. Hold your vessel so that I may pour out in it, sons, for you to have and that it may be seen that you have and that you may not work from you but to receive from God, to have and to give further, and in this way you will be blessed. Oh, let the Lord be at your helm, for the waves are troubled and big and you cannot do it alone. Put your faith in the Lord, Who is coming and speaking to you, and do not rely on you. You do not have to run to the prophets to ask about the hard time. I, the Lord, come towards you, only that you may receive Me the way I come, sons, for I come with protection, only for you to understand this and to believe like that. The ship sheers on big waves, and the helm is threatened by the storm, and I stand and wait for you to call Me so that I may protect and save you.

Strengthen over the people on earth; strengthen over the Romanian people the spirit of the Orthodoxy and ask the saints and the fathers to come and help your little boat on the waves, so that I may strengthen a living church on earth for Me, which is to have the saints as its fathers! Oh, seek to work according to their customs and do not come out of the book, for the devil and the antichrist want to devour the whole flock and he expedites this work. Wake up to watch! It is time to believe that there are not fairy tales those that the saints and the Scriptures foretold that would come to test the people. You have to listen now more than anytime, for I, the Lord and those who are Mine have to overcome, as it is written to overcome with them and for them.

I am coming to you and sitting in counsel with you. It is a time for fast and prayer. Come with days of fasting and calling to God with humble heart in order to destroy the development of the man of lawlessness, the antichrist, which tries to bring into submission the whole creature. God will ask you if you have watched and if you have overcome against the antichrist. Open the map, open the Scriptures for this time and let us fulfill them on behalf of God, for it is written that Christ will overcome with His faithful ones. Tell the evil to stop! Learn what holiness is and share in its exhortation! Watch, for you have established yourselves as watchmen, and if you have chosen this, and then see if you work according to this duty!

Oh, see that there are many shepherds among you, who sleep, and because of this, satan has a way to drive its stake. Come, sons, to work together closely, come! It is My voice; it is the voice of the Lord on the way with you. I have mercy on you, I have mercy on the flock and that is why I come down among you full of word, and I speak mysteriously, as I was speaking with man in paradise when he heard My voice walking, speaking, exhorting and asking and working, as well.

Oh, My coming as word to you is not a lie. Do not be afraid! Do not try to say that this word is not I, the Lord. I do not come to ask from you or to punish you, but I rather come to forgive you and I come to teach you with God, for you have come out of being with Me, sons, and you try to work by yourselves, only you; however, I can work with man otherwise, because I need faith from man, and by it I want to give him the spirit of revelation. Oh, do not leave off the spirit of revelation! The saints and the fathers were not doing this way! Seek to learn the work of the son, the work of obedience to God, sons! I come on the earth as word. The Lord comes to you as the word and the bread of word. Listen to Him and eat from Him; be nourished with God's word and listen to Him! Amen.

I, the Lord, stand into the midst of a tiny people, which has been prepared by Me during these days on the hearth of the Romanian people, of which I have come out to build the new Israel in order to replace the one which crucified Me and has been throwing Me away from it up to this day. Into the midst of the Romanian people, I laid up the manger of the birth of My word, and I had put faith in the sons born of this word and I had fulfilled over fifty years of word on the hearth of the Romanian people and I have also come out as word over the earth like the bridegroom who comes out of his chambers to preparer his bride.

Oh, peace to you, servants of the churches, but receive God's word in you, sons, to be able to do and to receive My peace, for I give you not as the world and its spirit gives to you, and I will look at you and measure now your wisdom and then your faith, sons! I would teach you much and many things, and I will do this as soon as I see that you take My word in you to put it into practice. Stop the work of the antichrist because I give you power to be able to do this and to shake off his trap laid in secret for the Christian people, for the man of lawlessness is against the strong ones, against those who believe in God and through whom I will overcome, and they will also overcome in My name, and their lot will be with the faithful ones; it will be that of the faithful ones. Amen.

Oh, get behind Me satan, get behind Me antichrist! Go into a desolate place and leave the Christian people, because it is the people of God, the One eternally living! Be good, for I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, command you to do this, and you have to listen accordingly. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people of My word, into whose midst I have been speaking to you and to those who have gone to it for work. Amen.

Peace to you, church of the Romanian people, for I have been freely given you holy faith to your victory with Me during these days and to My glory, that is God's glory into your midst. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy forty saints on the mountain lake of Sebaste

(Excerpt)

On a day of the feast, confessing of faith in heaven and on earth, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am coming as word into My today's book on earth, a book written as a testimony, and from which many receive comfort and faith, for I, God's Lamb, have opened it as it is written for Me to do this; to open the seals of the book with seven seals, and to let it speak over the earth to the confirmation of My works in the end of the time, when My Father is telling Me to speak and to shepherd the nations with an iron rod, with the rod of My word, and the one who believes will be happy, will be saved, for he will do God's works after that, My face and My life in man in the midst of the people, for I need confessors with their life pleased to Me in them so that those that do not see may see the light, to understand the Lord and then to walk on the way with the truth on it.

The feast of the Annunciation

(Excerpt)

Peace to you! Peace to you, My people of new Jerusalem! Open, sons, to those who come and ask you about Me, and give them from Me, not from you, for you do not have if I do not put for you to have and to give! Oh, clothe yourself with My spirit and this is how you are to stay before those who come to you and ask you about Me and about you, and tell them that it will be happy of those who listen to My word into your midst and fulfill it to My joy and to the inheritance that is to come with Me for those who believe, for through the faith of those who are faithful to My today's coming, I, the Lord, will visibly make on earth the age that is to be, My endless kingdom for those who are faithful to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

(Excerpt)

Oh, people of the Romanian nation, you are a Christian Orthodox country, and it would be fair that your rulers exhort you not to eat food prohibited for days of fasting, sons. A fish always rots from the head down and the same happens with the godly order upon a man, which I have set on earth out of mercy through the holy ones. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, came from the Father on earth and became flesh; I was born of virginal body and I fasted for forty days and nights, and then the devil came to tempt Me after this time, because he did not like the holy law given by God to man to be a weapon against the man's enemy, that is against the devil.

Man cannot overcome satan but only by fasting and praying, by repentance for his sins and with patience for repentance. Oh, man cannot stand against temptation, and it always overcomes man. Man feeds his life with sin and he is not ashamed of God, of God's angels and of the whole heaven of saints who are all the time only eyes and ears concerning those on earth. Oh, what shall I do to help man one way or another? Not even those who have got used to going to church, oh, not even those have tried to get used to God's things given to man to do. Oh, how shall I do to help man to his getting out from sin, to repentance and then to exhort him to his healing? Oh, what shall I do for man to hear Me and to believe Me what I speak upon him?

… Oh, God's sons who are pleased to God, and you, sons of men, pleased to the world, only the forgiven sinners can speak about My love and mercy, the sinners who have been touched by the gift of the Holy Spirit by the forgiveness of their sins. It is a time for fasting and praying for the meeting of the feast of My resurrection from among the dead and there is no one to stop the Christians from the great and tasteful food and to exhort them to the watching for the salvation of their soul and for the victory against the devil from them and from those outside of them.

Oh, Romanian people, the rulers upon you should stop you from all your desires for food and they should exhort you to fasting and praying, sons. Your rulers should make this law known and strengthen it upon you, to be taken into their account that they love you and that they look after you. Behold, I, the Lord, come as word upon you; I come and set you to watch for your life with God, to your love without sin, for your holiness before Me, for your conduct full of watch for those in heaven and for those around you. Amen.

The sixth Sunday of the Lent, of the Palm Sunday, the feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

I have had My voice come down from the sky over the little garden of My word during these days and I am coming down into My book of today with the feast of Palm branches and I am speaking the word of comfort into your midst, people of My word, and I am taking the Comforter from Me and putting Him in you, son, for I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, said this to the Holy Spirit; I called Him the Comforter and I promised Him to those who would believe in Me and I said that the Comforter would take from what is Mine and give to the faithful ones, so that I might be with them to the end of the time, and those who are not faithful do not want to believe that I, the Lord, said that I would be with those of Mine, and behold, this is how I am and I do not keep silent among them, for I promised them that I would be with them. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, My people! You have always needed this greeting delivered from Me into your midst, as your work with Me is hard; it is much and it is always, and you are always under the burden. Oh, do not be upset that you have always stayed under burden, because if you had remained into the world with the steps of your life, you would have been under the burden of the world and no one would have rewarded your labor and it would have been cut off once with you like the world, but I, the Lord, give you a high reward for the bearing of My burden with you during these days.

However, why My burden is that which I have been bearing with you during this time? You are My messenger on the earth and you are the sign before My coming, son entrusted with My burden. All you do and live are the things of My work with you during these days, for I have chosen you from the world to be My work, because out of My word upon you, I worked and work you always, because if I did not work like that and continuously into your midst, you would no longer be Mine, but you would be yours instead, like all the people who do the work their lives. However, I work your life and I have you work Mine too; I am to work yours and you are to work Mine, and what great work is our work together and the world that surrounds you and that which is heard in you from far away does not realize this, for the world has its world and it stays in those that are seen and the world does not have any hope, because it does not prepare anything for itself to have when this world will no longer be.

Oh, the world does not know those prepared by Me, the Lord, for those who believe in Me following Me on earth. In the history of those faithful to the Lord are many who have left this world and prepared their life for the invisible world and in which they have believed and remained and then have been comforted with Me after that, with My Spirit, for My Spirit is the Comforter, and together with the Father and with the Son, He is worshipped and glorified, and He speaks through those who are faithful, and He speaks with them, by comforting them, just as My promise was, and behold, the man needs power of faith to be able to receive Me in his house with this word so that I may dine with him at a table of the comforting word into his house.

I am setting the table of word into your midst, people of My comforting word, and I am sitting with a feast of Palm branches at the table with you, new Jerusalem, My today's citadel into the midst of the Romanian people! I remember together with you of the great day when the Father glorified Me into the midst of the people before My passion, after I woke Lazarus up from the grave and when a great multitude came to meet Me because they heard of this miracle and then the Pharisees and the scribes said among themselves: «See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him». (John: 12/19) All those who had come to the feast to worship wanted to see Me, and I told them: «The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified… If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am, there will My servant also be… Father, glorify Your name! Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again». (See John: 12/23-28)

With all these, and after so many signs and miracles, even so, many people did not believe, and those few who believed did not confess because of the Pharisees, for fear of being driven out of the synagogue. Oh, My people, the same happens with Me today, with you and with My work face to face with those who love their glory more than their glory from Me with them. Do you see why, I do not make any miracles through you? The world loves its condition and its state on earth and that is why it cannot confess for Me as you confess with your life and with My work into your midst. With a heavenly retinue I come in to you, My citadel of new Jerusalem, and My angels sing when I come in: "Hosanna, blessed is the One Who comes in the name of the Lord!" (Matt: 21/9) I come into your midst and I become word on your table and I dine with you being accompanied by the holy heaven at My table with you, and My glory into your midst is mysterious, son, and it is only comfort, and he who bows to really take from it, that one does no longer love this world and does no longer wear himself out for it, but he follows Me and walks with Me on the way and he does not walk like the world, but he remains with Me and comforts My wound after man and he comforts My deep longing after him and he remains God's son, redeemed by the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and gives to the man so that the man may become one with God.

Oh, how much fear, how much wickedness and how much commotion the unfaithful Jews aroused because I, the Lord, woke up Lazarus from the grave then! Oh, how much unbelief have reigned over those who love the praise of people, and how much lie and with how much perseverance they work to repress God's glory when it works on the earth! Oh, how much wickedness blows against you too, My people, from those who love their praise and this world! However, God suffers most when the Christians fall away from My way with you and become traitors, for they are dissatisfied and those who are dissatisfied fall; and they fall, those who do not love the cross and its mysteries, unfathomable by the mind of those who have less wisdom for God and much wisdom for themselves. Oh, think about Me, son, how much they blasphemed Me, those who did not believe in Me and those who left Me because of their discontentment and because of their uncertainty. My spirit does not enter into the deceitful soul and that is why those who come cannot rejoice to the end over My coming of today and in such a way that I may also rejoice over them to the end, and they fall sideways and their steps become even uglier than before, as it is written, as those who betray God fall so badly and do no longer stay with Him. Oh, only if they may enjoy over their returning before the end! They need to make peace with Me, but their mind is big for themselves and it is small for My Spirit, the Comforter, the Spirit Who comforts those who are good and faithful, and comforts those who are steadfast in their faith and who love to the end, the love for those who are saved. Amen.

Now, I am giving you blessing for the day of the preaching of My work with you into the midst of the people, My people. I have made a way for you to come out among the people with the cross of resurrection, son. For two thousand years, the world has liked the cross having Me crucified on it in iron nails, but the cross is full of flowers with you, and you bring Me much comfort with this work of yours. The angels see this and marvel, they see My Gospel with you and stand in amazement, and the little angels sing to My glory with you, My people. Oh, may the work of your hands be blessed, the work by which I come with you among the people so that it may confess this work, My work with you, son! The spirit in man is comforted when it sees the cross with flowers on it. The man is comforted from My work with you, because man does not have hope, and he has no comfort either if he has no hope. I come with you with the work of New Jerusalem into the midst of the people; moreover, we come out with leafy branches, with flowers on the crosses and we welcome the people with comfort, for I have much compassion of them and they do not know this. My spirit suffers from the longing after the man and that is why I came two thousand years ago and became a man and gave Myself over to the cross and to death because of My love for man, oh, and that is why I have come again now and I keep coming as word on earth and I do not come because something else. I come because it is written to come and I do not come because something else. Oh, I come and I keep coming and find much disbelief and soul coldness on the way in the people and I go back into the Father sighing and the Father is comforting Me and wiping out My little tears and He is telling Me a word of comfort and He is telling Me this:

— Soon, soon, you will draw all people to Me, o dear Son, for this is what You said, and You have faithful sons on earth, who bring Your word into the way of the people, and soon one day will come when all will seek after this comforter and will run after it as after the comfort which all will need it, and on that day Your word will be dear, the word by which you are walking today full of sighing longing after man. Soon, soon, My dear Son, and Our patience will save many souls from among those written into the Book of Life.

Your pain makes Me suffer, for I am in You, and You are in Me, My dear Son, but Our pain is full of patience, it is full of love and it is Our sighing after man. I have been looking now at the day mentioned today when many were singing Hosanna to You, cutting branches from the trees and laying them down before You and when the citadel of Jerusalem shook, saying: «Who is This?» and many were saying: «This is Jesus, the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee», (Matt: 21/10, 11), and the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple and He healed them all on that very moment; however, the bishops and the scribes were upset and angry with You because of these miracles and because of the children who were calling out singing to You Hosanna in the Temple. Oh, how gently You told them when they said: «Do you hear what these are saying?»

And You answered them and said: «Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies You have perfected praise?» (Matt: 21/16) Oh, what a great day there was in Jerusalem for those with a big and sweet heart, and what anger it stirred into the hearts of those who did not welcome You as My messenger to them, My dear Son! Moreover, these people crucified You after that, woe, but they did not know that an even greater glory will shine before them through You, for the light of Your resurrection judged them after that; it overcame them all and they remained weak under a great guilt, but You were merciful with them on the cross and asked Me to forgive them because they did not know what they were doing. Oh, what great love You gave them when You asked Me to forgive them! Oh, how great Your love is, My dear Son! Let the man not forget Your love on the cross and let the sinful one not lose his hope, but let him rather come back and be alive, for You died for each sinner so that he may be alive by his coming back to You, to Your mercy for the sinful man.

I am speaking with You before the feast of Your crucifixion and resurrection by the cross, dear Son. The memorial of Your crucifixion is approaching and with tomorrow the memorial of Your bitter passion is starting, dear Son. We are coming with flowers on the crosses into the midst of the people, We stay like that until the day of resurrection, and We are seeding in the people the fragrance of Your love for the sinful so that they may come to humility and repentance. We have confessing sons and messengers over the people of Your today's word, which has its root in Us, dear Son. The whole creation is shuddering at Your voice of today, but man sleeps in unbelief, and You try to wake him up at Your voice, only, only he might hear and open to You so that he may know the one who knocks.

In seven days both the faithful and the unfaithful ones will sing the song for Your resurrection: Christ has risen! We will hear from those in heaven and will look on the earth everywhere. The world wants to rejoice over Our feasts, but it does not rejoice for Us, oh, no, My dear and suffering Son like His Father. Whoever rejoices with Us does not rejoice like that, but the world does not know the mystery of joy; the world does not know what love is and what it does with its work and with its greatness. Oh, I have mercy on You; I have great compassion on You and I comfort You by speaking with You, I, the Father, into the midst of Your people of today, dear Son, for in Romanians We have found Our house now at Your coming in the end of the time.

I tell everyone, I speak to the people to understand from Me, the heavenly Father and let them hear the explanation of Your name, the Alpha and the Omega.

Oh, My dear Son, Jesus Christ, came then at the beginning of His body, and He has come now, at the end of His work, for He is the beginning and the end of each of the Lord's work on earth and in heaven. He started the work of His body two thousand years ago, and now,

He is coming to finish it, and this is how God does His entirely work. He, My Son, is the Alpha and the Omega, Who was, Who is and Who comes, and He worked and works His work threefold, for this is how it is with God and I glorify Him and Me in Him and I say: This is My Son and My Word. He is the Alpha and the Omega, Who was, Who is and Who comes, and behold, He is coming, for the Spirit and the bride say: *«Come Lord!» (Apoc: 22/17) And that is why He is coming. Amen.

— Oh, My Father Sabaoth, oh, I stay into the midst of My word of today and I have always made My coming. I have worked the Gospel of My coming into the midst of this small people, and the bishops and the scribes have been hostile to Me, as they were two thousand years ago, and they go on minding their own business, oh, My Father. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, but they do not want to know like that about the work that I have to work from You on earth until its completion in such a way that I may be able to tell You, Father, that I have done My work. Oh, glory to You because You have glorified Me in the word on this day! I have entered as word in Jerusalem, to My people of today, and I have entered with You, My Father. In seven days I will be glorifying Myself among them with the feast of My resurrection and I will be sitting with them at the table of word, Father. My work with them is great and the depth of its mystery does not come to the man's mind. Those that the eye has not seen and to the man's mind has not reached, this is what I have worked and prepared for those who love Me, and I have been working this with the people of My today's word.

Oh, My people, the Father and the Son were glorified in the word into your midst on a day like this of holy feast when I, the Lord, entered on the colt of a donkey into the citadel of Jerusalem two thousand years ago. I spoke to the Holy Spirit, I called Him Comforter to make Him the work of the comfort over the faithful ones. Oh, go, My people, go with My mystery with you and preach it to the people, so that the people may see My Spirit working through you on the earth! Take My preaching from your midst to the people, and I, the Lord, will comfort them within a great mystery by My work with you, by My mysterious leaven, which I work through you for the renewal of the world for the new world, that which is to come and that which is to remain, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The second day of Passover

(Excerpt)

I have no other work given by My Father Sabaoth than to teach the man, and especially the people of My word, that which has freely given itself to Me to make it My people during these days, and behold how much I have been speaking with you, My today's people! What would I do, oh, and what would you do if I did not dwell into your midst as your Teacher? Behold those who had to receive Me as you did! The rulers of the church closed the door on the inside so that I may not get in to them, so that I may not come into their houses and they left Me outside in order to be mocked and they mock Me, by calling wandered away from faith and liars those who are bearing My today's coming between heaven and earth. Oh, it is not hard to believe My today's word but their stubbornness, the mind of those who rule over the people in the name of the church, does not want to be troubled or diminish by My greatness seen in My word, for I, the Lord, do nothing than what I did at the beginning when I was speaking with the man as I am doing today. And as it was the word in the beginning, that is God by the word, when all things were made by Me, by My word, and without it nothing was made of everything that was made, the same is now, in the end, I am working likewise, and God and His word are not hard to believe, but it is hard for man to want this, and how is the man supposed to like to be with God when he has so many things to do after his heart, and how is he supposed to be with Me after such a long time of his will between him and Me?

Oh, if you knew, man, that God's place is here near you and within you, as you were made by God to be, then you were able to believe that My today's speaking is true, it is taken from that in the beginning when I was speaking with man as I am speaking now. Nothing is more intricate and complicated for you to understand, but you do not want this, and there is no one to advise you to listen and to obey God. And, as two thousand years ago, the servants of the church do not like Me and My word today, too. The rulers of the church and their subjects keep their doors closed for My today's word. Behold the deception! All the people are deceived! Man watches against man so that none of the church servants or some among those, who are taught by these, may believe. The same curtain and the same robe of mockery the rulers of the church are putting on Me, for fear that they may fall from their seats because of many who want to believe God, the Word, Who is speaking during these days His word of coming down on the hearth of the Romanian people, forgetting that My kingdom is not of this world and that it has nothing in it either. I have always told them that I do not take anything from them, but rather I just want to give them. I would give them the forgiveness of their sins, I would give them joy and comfort, I would give them great work to do for the resurrection of the creature, and I would give them My kingdom to carry in them and to give away from them and from around them the spirit of the word, the spirit opposing God, so that the kingdom of the heavens may be on earth, and not the man's kingdom, because man reigns on earth, and the man fell from heaven seven thousands years ago, by his disobedience to his Maker, and he has been reigning on earth with his will; however, the earth is made by God and not by man! Behold the deception!

The third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

(Excerpt)

Oh, how shall I show you My joy? I suffer and I seek after joy near My pain, and you give it to Me, and I feel comfort for My wounds. Oh, I am aggrieved because the mystery of My resurrection from the dead does not bring forth fruit in man. Those who are alive in the body are more dead than those who are dead in whose midst I woke up after I had stayed among them in a borrowed tomb as long as I needed to shatter the gates of the hell in order to draw to resurrection those who had been waiting for Me for four or five thousand years to come down after them so that I might bring them to life by My resurrection. Oh, I am aggrieved because those who are dead in their body are more alive than those who are alive in their body, and I am coming down to tell them, to preach to those who are on earth only in their bodies and also to tell them that I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am staying during these days as word on earth into the midst of the people so that they may hear Me and seek after their resurrection; to seek it with Me, as I am coming and speaking on earth the word of eternal life now.

I have told you that you will come and I will meet you and be a sweet Shepherd for you, a Shepherd full of exhortation upon you on a day of holy feast with you and with those in heaven, with whom I have come. I have also told you that I am aggrieved that those who are dead in their body are more alive than those who are alive in their body, and here they are called at My table with you, a table of memorial for them too so that we may comfort them. Oh, how beautiful they are sitting now, what a humble spirit they have, listening to My voice, the voice of the Son of God in your midst now! I have given them great joy and comfort, embracing them within My today's word, as I am telling them now:

Oh, be comforted in your sufferance for Me, your Savior, aggrieved because of man, because your pain is sweet as it is Mine, and you are comforted with it, and you are saved by it too, but those who live on earth in their body do not draw to their salvation, which is coming to them by My pain in them. Oh, if they knew the life or the lack of life of those who were, they would be comforted by the saving pain and would no longer seek after falsehood, after the spirit of emptiness, which enchants man, not releasing him from his lie. Nothing is not to be understood between God and man, but he does not choose his joy, that which comes from My pain, from My love full of pain for man. Amen.

— Yes, Lord, the Savior of those who are alive in their body, who seek after You, and the Savior of those who are asleep who wait for You with Your day of victory for them! Oh, Your word is full of mystery, resurrected Savior! We are comforted in Your days now with Your people of new Jerusalem with which You speak from heaven on earth. There has come on earth the fulfillment of the Scripture for the revelation of the sons of God and the time of the hearing of Your voice of today by those in the tombs in order to get up at Your voice and to receive each one according to their works. Oh, you are much of a Savior for us! The praying sacrifice before You for us into the midst of Your people of today is remedy and healing from death to us, Lord. You are so merciful with respect of the mistakes, which we did in our life on earth! Oh, men do not know the world which is here, and, therefore, they live carelessly for it during their days on earth, as we also lived much like that. We are telling them, on the way of Your word, and we are telling them from near You to believe now, before seeing, so that they may prepare their happiness for this time here, because if they do not prepare it, they do not have it.

Oh, what were You really to do with us, so sinful as we were on earth, if You did not meant us to be a living church, and much working at Your word for us, a people of new Jerusalem, living in holiness and prayer and sacrifice for us always? You have set them at Your holy work on earth for the resurrection of the dead, oh, Lord. We did no longer have a mother on earth to be born again. The church and its services for us are mixed and do no longer come up to You for us. The Orthodoxy, Your bride, has torn in pieces its baptismal garment. Only in heaven have we got saving fathers, and behold how much salvation You have prepared for us from the midst of Your today's people on earth, with servants set at the work of salvation for us, those fallen asleep and waiting for our redemption, great Savior. Oh, glory to Your resurrection for us! You have given us great mercy, Good Lord! We are telling the sons of Your people and those who are gathered on this day at Your spring of word, we are telling them the joy that You had given us, those of old and those who have come later, after You had been resurrected from the dead, we are telling them this, too: Christ has risen and redeemed us, and our joy is great and it has in it the Lord's pain and His sufferance for us, the thrill of thankfulness for the merciful One, Who paid for our lives by His sacrifice for us! Amen.

— Oh, nothing, nothing is not to be understood between Me and man, but man does not choose his joy, which is coming in him from My pain, from My love full of pain for man. I have given voice to those fallen asleep to comfort them, as I am the merciful One and I am full of salvation for man. Amen.

The fourth Sunday after Passover, of the paralytic

I am the Lord Teacher, the Lord, Jesus Christ, and all the time I have to teach those who are God's sons on earth and I have to give them power to be My sons, for they have to work much in order to keep their birth from above, because the devil, God's adversary, is very much against those who are Mine and who listen to Me, but I am their Teacher and I have always strengthened their power and faith with power in it, for against their faith, the enemy hosts, visible and invisible, known and unknown, fight in every way possible, and I always have to cut short their time of rebellion, because if I have not always shortened it, no one would be with God on earth any longer.

I am staying again as a Teacher into your mist, people of My word. If My Father works, I work too, I work for Him, I work in a good field and I also work in a bad field to be able to seed upon it, and behold how wonderful My work is into your midst, the seed of My word, son! I work with much word to make a field for Me, to refresh it and to grind it so that I may be able to sow My seed in it and then to make it spring, to grow it and to bring forth fruit, but the enemy always finds new powers by the spirit of the world over the men's souls and then destroys and pulls My crop out, for there are few watchmen for it, and there are so many enemies. Always, I always have to shorten their time and their evil work, but at least the man helps Me in My hard work for his salvation from his enemy, who has got his poison, the spirit of the world, and the man is weak before this temptation and there is no one to strengthen his watch and his love for his Salvation. I am his Savior, but the man does not have love and the absence of it brings about pains, tears and sigh.

Oh, I have been teaching you, My people, the work of love, to learn well and to have good knowledge of it, and you should show its fruit to God, son, for without it, man is nothing before Me, and it, if it is at all, makes the man take after Me, not after man, and it makes him see and understand and then it makes him capable of doing it, only that much watch is needed so that this heavenly work in man may not wither, as it is from heaven and man is from the earth, into the midst of the spirit of the world, which blows everywhere.

Oh, shall I not come and teach you from Me on this day, My people son? Man needs much teaching and he always has, and let he who seeks Me find Me on your table of word, for I have revealed Myself here, where I am, and I reveal Myself to those who look for Me here. Two thousand years ago, I worked examples about Me every way possible for man to see what God does and what man does, what the Lord can and what man cannot do, for I stopped near the pool that was healing anyone who went down in it for his healing by a healing angel and I found a thirty-eight years old paralytic and he had no one, poor of him, there was no one to take him down into the water at the arriving of the healing angel. I went close to him and asked him: «Do you want to be made well?» And then he, who was sick, answered Me: «Sir[151], I have not one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me». And then I said to him, «Arise, take up your mat, and walk». (John: 5/6-7) There was no one to help this man, who was suffering very much, for each one was taking care of his own sick, and I went to help the helpless one after the healing angel passed. Oh, there was no man to help him, oh, there is no one to really help the man, and I come down from heaven, from My Father, to help the man, and I look at the rulers over the people's souls to recognize My work and My word making of new man over man. However, did I not say through the Scriptures that the new birth of the world will come from the heaven, that the time of the renewal of the world will come?

[151] Greek - can also mean "Lord".

Behold, those who sit in the name of God over people do not wait for the fulfillment of the Scriptures. As two thousand years ago, the rulers over the people, who persecuted Me and sought to kill Me because I healed the sick from his long sickness, oh, in the same way are those of today; they do not recognize Me, they do not love the word of life, and they always find „a knot in a rush" to remain unfaithful, but I tell them as to those at that time: «My Father is still working, so I am working, too». (John: 5/17) Oh, they did not want Me to be the Son of the Father, and that is why they said that I pretended to be the Son of God and that they had a reason to kill Me, defending the Father against Me.

Oh, people without help in your weaknesses, without a man to help you, here it is what the rulers who sit over your souls do! You do not have a man to show you My healing spring for your lives, and when I come to help you to do you good, to make you a way and to make the light on the way to your Good from heaven, then come those with an unfaithful Jewish soul, they come into your way and cut your way, and they tell you that I am not God's Son, Who speaks over the earth to wake the dead from the tombs, and they say that it is only a lie the way of My calling after man today to give him healing and to take the death away from him, for I told to the paralytic and with power I told him: «Take up your mat, and walk!» (John: 5/11) Oh, if I were not God's Son, would the sick man arise at My word spoken upon him? Moreover, I showed him that he was sick because of his sins and then I told him: «Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you». (v. 14). And then he walked on his feet, which I made new again for him. He walked to the Jews who were persecuting Me and told them that I, Jesus, healed him and raised him healed, and because this happened on a day of Sabbath, they looked for fault with Me to spread out disbelief over those who wanted to see with faith and to believe in Me, in My power from the Father for healing over the sinful man and sick because of sin.

Oh, people without help for the weakness that are upon you and who have no one to help you, I am the same today too, as I was two thousand years ago. I am and I keep working and I am Who I am, and I am coming to raise you up from your weaknesses and to strengthen the faith of those who believe and to give from it to those who do not believe, to give them power to believe, and that they become God's sons, by the power of faith, by the love of God, after they have felt My power and love for man.

Oh, the power of faith is great; the man who can put in man faith with power in My word of today and yesterday is great as well! I am the same yesterday and today; I am the One without beginning and without end and I am Who I am and that is why I can work. When I told Moses to speak to those who were unfaithful that I am Who I am and I was the One Who was sending him to them because they were holding captive My people, they hardened their heart even more and turned their back to the great signs made into their midst by My power through the prophet Moses, through My messenger to them. However, I stood powerfully before them and accomplished My work and took out the people in bondage and brought it into the country of his parents, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and then I destroyed those who were not faithful, for it is written: «As dust is scattered by the wind from the surface of the earth, so the way of the unfaithful perishes».

Oh, My people, so much nourished from heaven, oh, son, you should stay awake for the faith, for I stand into your midst and I teach you all the time because I gave you the birth from above by My word. Any mother takes care of her child with all her care and love, and she always watch over him and she always teaches, nourishes him and works much for his life. This is how I also watch upon you and feed you and I clothe you within expensive clothes, and those who are not faithful see and know your beauty and trouble their heart in hostility to you, well, My people. Oh, you should not believe when they say that they do not understand, those who rule upon the people's souls. No, you should not believe that; however, they are guilty towards Me for their souls and for those upon whom they reign, and as the Jews two thousand years ago, they want to stand in front, to have honor, because they are afraid of the One Who is in the heavens, because their greed for glory and because the lack of the fear of God in many of them makes them not receive Me from you when I give Myself to them and I give Myself to the man to My glory with him and to his healing from sin. Oh, I stay with My kingdom to the man's ear, to the man's mouth to give it to him and in such a way that it may be his homeland after that, and the man does not want to be the son of the heavenly homeland, and rather he wants to be with his temporariness, which does not give his salvation. However, I keep teaching you all the time and I stay forever with you and I teach you, and I am your Teacher, son, for man needs God as much as he does not understand this mystery, the mystery of his life, which is from God in man.

I want to come near man and I want to heal him, and those who rule over people, those with a Jewish soul, put Me away from the man's mind and heart when I am coming now to sit down as the word of man's creation, in order to establish the Scripture of the renewal of the world, and to tell those who are not faithful that they will not remain, and that only I will remain, as I am Who I am. I am working as two thousand years ago, and that if My Father is working then I am also working; I am working for the Father and I am working for man as well, and I keep working. Oh, man, you should also work, for he who does not work like Me, behold, he does not eat and remains hungry, and the one who does not work dies with the food near him.

I have also taught you on this day, oh, My people, and I am resting while I stay into your midst to work. Oh, take care of the eye of the faith, son! The eyes of the body are very limited, they see only the visible things, but the eye of the faith has much and wide sight and it brings with it those that are not seen and together with Me it goes with the faithful one, and it prepares a high reward for his faith, which sees God's invisible things sharply, and which the Lord has built for man and they are; and as for you, My people, you have to bring into view those that are not seen of your Maker and theirs, for I have come with you from the Father in heaven to work and to push aside the dividing curtain so that the glory of God's invisible things may appear, son, and which he eye of faith perceives and works them always; and the faithful one on earth works for them because the faithful ones are God's sons and with them the Lord works on earth the glory of the heavenly homeland, the homeland of the faithful ones. Amen.

Oh, with much decency, put the eye of your faith to the great work, My people, the eye which passes the boundary and has the sight of God's invisible things, the glory of the heavenly homeland, which waits at the border, and they wait with great faith, the faith of God's sons, the gift for Me from them, so that I, the Lord, may give Myself over to them with all My glory from My Father, with My glory from eternity, My glory for them and then upon them. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

Oh, My longing is great after you, people of My word of today! I hold on to you with the longing of My Spirit, for otherwise I would no longer have comfort from the earth, as it is from earth what I and My Father have been waiting in the Holy Spirit for a long, long time, and Our longing is Our pain and comfort.

I have been waiting longingly for an occasion to sit with you at the table of word, and the entire heaven has been waiting for My word into your midst, from where, I, the Lord, come and, in My days with you, I let the word of My voice spring upon you for you to take and everyone who believes while hearing My word from your midst may be able to take too, My people. The man is thirsty and he is always thirsty, but who is to advise him where his thirst comes from and how it may be soothed while he is always, always after his comfort, after his rest, after comfort, well, well My people? All the time, the man has got in him only seeking, only restlessness, only waiting, but nothing can be enough for him, for man is deprived of God, deprived of his life, poor of him. Day by day, man is deceived by the sinful sweetness of his sin and by the life of emptiness, which passes once with man, but he grows less in his power and he does no longer grow up; moreover, it always remain to him hope and waiting, the longing after rest and peace, for his lack of comfort and labor is the destiny of the one who does not have God in the longing of his heart, in his spirit and in his work.

It is a day of memorial of My encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well of Israel, a day in which My disciples wrote into My Gospel of that time. Oh, it is a day of grace with faith in it, with power of repentance and then with a spring of longing after God, for My work on earth was great then! I stopped at the well of Sychar, a Samaritan city. I left Judea to Galilee, for I had to heal someone of noble birth in Cana of Galilee. I still had to establish another sign for the faith of those in Cana, who saw My greatness coming to the feast in Jerusalem, and I went with them, for in Judea, My homeland, no one wanted to believe Me, and I said that the prophet is not honored in his homeland, and the Samaritans and the Galileans welcomed Me and took Me into their house and gave Me comfort, and I paid them with the forgiveness of their sins and with healing, and then I gave them the work of faith, My confession over the earth, to the small and to the great, even to those who sat on great chairs over the multitudes, to give them the news about Messiah, the messengers from the Father on earth on that time, as it was written in the prophets about My coming.

Then I went from Judea to Galilee because of the commotion of the Pharisees against Me, and while I was passing through Sychar, I came to rest at the well of Israel, and I asked from the Samaritan woman, who came to take out water, I asked her and said: «Give Me to drink!», as I was tired, and seeing that I was a Jew in My appearance, she humbled before Me, knowing that the Jews did not get along with the Samaritans, and after My speaking with her in order that she could see God in Me, she answered Me then: «Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet… I know that Messiah comes, Who is called Christ, and He will declare to us all things». Moreover, I answered her, «I am He, the One Who speaks to you». (John: 4/19, 25, 26) And after that, she left her water pot and went away into her city to tell all the people to come and see Messiah. And they went out of the city and were coming, and I did not have time to eat those that the disciples brought as food, because I had to do the will of the Father, Who sent Me to do His work, and I told the disciples: «Behold, look at the fields,…, and he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together». (John: 4/35, 36) Afterwards, from that city many of the Samaritans believed in Him and said, «We have heard for ourselves, and know that This is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world». (John: 4/42) And My disciples heard this.

Oh, children bearing of God, this is how it is with this work of word carried by Me on your little shoulders, but not all of them were able to bear, those to whom I have given it through you, and some of them rose and gave your faces to a spirit of whipping, as the Pharisees and all those, who did not want to believe, were doing to Me, fighting every way possible to find fault with Me, to stumble and not to believe My work into their midst. Oh, this happens to all who forget that are sinners and that they need God. The woman from other people knew God and confessed saying: «We know that Messiah comes, He Who is called Christ, and He will declare to us all things».

(John: 4/25) However, those in the house of My Father did not want to know even after they saw My greatness with power into their midst.

Oh, man does not need much to go wrong before God, that he may not get sick from the spirit of haughtiness and then from the unbelief and the lack of faith to God and to the people. Those full of pride and fleeting greatness and full of high seats in Israel, they did all they could to make many in Judea hate Me, but the Samaritan woman, the one I spoke at the well of Israel with, did all she could to make the Samaritans love Me, and then she even died for My love. She had many sins, but this woman did not have the spirit of pride, as her sins made her repent in herself, even if she did not have power against them to stand against them in her body, for the burden of sins is hard, and that is why the man has fear in him, but who is to tell him this and give him freedom? Those who stumbled against Me in Judea wanted to do so if they did not look at their sins as the Samaritan woman did at her meeting with Me, but who is to tell to the proud ones the sin of their pride?

Oh, sons, brought up with the word from heaven, he who pretends to be better and more righteous than another one, that one is full of pride and mocks, humiliates, denigrates and deceives with his tongue against his neighbor, but he who is humble because of his sin, raises his voice to heaven and speaks with sorrow: «Lord, remember Your tender mercy, and Your loving kindness, for they are from old times. Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions… for Your goodness' sake, Lord, pardon my iniquity, for it is great. Turn to me, and have mercy on me, for I am desolate and afflicted… Consider my affliction and my travail, forgive all my sins… Oh, keep my soul, and deliver me, for I take refuge in You». (Ps: 25/7, 11, 16, 18[152]) Oh, this is how you should be before Me and before your fellowmen, My people, because humility lifts up the man and makes the Lord to have mercy on him, as I got into the way of the Samaritan woman at the well and I revealed Myself to her because of the humility of her heart, for she saw her sins and could hardly bear them; however, I came into her way as a Savior and I removed her burden; I gave her the water of mercy and then the spirit of confession to have something to work so that she might no longer have time for herself, but for God and for His confession on earth, oh, and many people got up for Me by this woman confessing of Christ, and her entire house gave over to Me as a sacrifice of faith and love before the unfaithful and the persecutors of My faithful ones.

Oh, you big martyr of My name, tell to My people, speak a word of faith, speak a word of humility for those who will be hearing you by My coming with the saints on earth today. Amen.

— I tell them, oh, I tell everyone, I tell them, Lord, that You are the Savior of my soul and the Savior of my house and city, upon which I confessed You on the day I met you at the well of Israel. I urge them to pray with longing and pain for the forgiveness of their sins, for their humility before You, and let them all say like David: «Create in me a clean heart, o God. Renew a right spirit within me, Lord. Uphold me with a willing spirit. Against You, and You only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in Your sight. Behold, You desire truth in the inner parts. You teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones, which You have broken, may rejoice. Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities. Restore to me the joy of salvation. Lord, open my lips. My mouth shall declare Your praise. For You don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. A broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise. Then I will teach transgressors Your ways. Sinners shall be converted to You». (Ps: 51/4-17[153])

Oh, I have no other word to tell on my day of memorial with You at the well of Israel, my Savior. I am exhorting all to steadfast faith, but the faith is that which never fails, just as love is, well Lord.

Oh, love with power the work of humility inside and outside of you; be tired for the Lord, Savior, during these days, when He is coming and sitting with you and while He is giving Himself to those who come to faith at His voice into your midst! Messiah is coming and teaching you everything, as He said that He would come! The saints are looking at you and see the fulfillment of this Scripture of the Lord with you, but what little faith on earth is; how big are the bellies and the jaws of those who sit on churchly seats over the crowds not comforted and not fed! Messiah is coming and He is teaching everything! Give everyone everything you have from Him, for the Spirit is without measure! Messiah is coming; announce Him and be messengers, for the harvest is much and he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. For in this the saying is true, "One sows and another reaps," and the fields are white for harvest already. Messiah is coming! Oh, come, Lord, and give to those who wanted You and to those who desire You; give them the wages of the spirit of the confession of Your name! Messiah is coming! Behold, how eagerly and how greatly You are coming! Come out to the well, for He is near it and is waiting for you to give Himself over to you and that the Lord may forgive your sins! Amen.

— Oh, I am coming and I am coming again, and I am coming with My saints and My witnesses, who put themselves on the altar with their love for Me. Messiah is coming! And here it is how eagerly I am coming! Those one earth become Jews in their love and faith and they do not have time for My work from the Father, with Whom I have always come on earth to accomplish it, and I gave you birth from it, people of the birth from above, now, when I am coming on earth to fulfill before the Father the Scripture of the world's new birth, and I am speaking with you all My things, for I am coming to you and I am teaching you all things, oh, My people, as I, the Lord, two thousand years ago, left it written that I would come, that I would be the Teacher and that I would teach everything to those who would know Me in truth and in spirit and to those who would open to Me to give them, to dine with them. Amen.

Oh, people from the spring, you have guests at the well. You have into your midst the well, whose angel, given by Me, is the Samaritan woman, remembered today in heaven and on earth for My meeting with her at the Israel's well. The heavenly feast comes into My gardens with you, son. Oh, open your eyes and see, for I have called you again and again, and with much propriety you should turn the eye of your faith to great fruition, the eye which passes over the border and has the sight of God's invisible things, Who waits at the border, and He waits for the faithful people, who are to open to the Lord's glory and the Lord to be seen, just as I appeared on the Mount Tabor before My disciples with My glory from the Father. Amen.

Oh, sons, be nourished with the spirit of the saints and with their faith and warmth for Me, for they love much their fellowship with you and yours with them! Oh, be worthy of My love and theirs as well, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man

[153] 51 MT = 50 LXX

(Excerpt)

The end of unbelief is coming when My whole work for man will be well seen and it will appear in a great light. Oh, do not rejoice over your lack of faith and over its evil work to the sides, you who are not faithful. If you cannot humble before Me for your sins, at least stop from doing the evil work of unbelief, for you gain nothing, but on the contrary, you even lose your souls, you, who are not faithful. Welcome Me to heal you from blindness! Do no longer take care of your glory, for it is fleeting! Come to hear My calling after you from the door of My tent into the midst of the Romanian people, where I made a shelter to speak over the earth and to draw all people to the Father, to draw the people out from satan to God! Those who are healed from their blindness by My word in these days are driven out of the churches by the hypocrite Pharisees, who pose greater than God over the men's souls, but if this word were not from God, then how could he heal the man from blindness and from sin? However, I have come into this world to judgment, so that those without sight may see and those with eyes may go blind, for if they were blind they would have no sin, but because they say that they see their sin remains wholly.

I healed the one who was blind from birth and his eyes saw God, and then I asked him: «Do you believe in the Son of Man?» and he answered Me: «Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?» And then I answered him: «You have both seen Him, and it is He Who speaks with you». And he worshipped and said to Me: «Lord, I believe!» (See John: 9/35-38) Oh, how shall I really heal those who are blind from their glory, of which they take so much care and do no longer see Him and do no longer hear God so that He may heal them, and they to see Him speaking with them and that they may say as the blind man from his birth, who was healed by Me did: «Lord, I believe!»?

Oh, how comes that you do not wake up from lie and blindness, you those who take so much care of your glory since you are not able to see or hear how My voice calls out to you from the midst of the little ones, who care nothing of their glory, but only from that which comes from God on the earth! Oh, until when you will go on and be deaf and blind? Why should you remain sick and not healed before the reward of your sins? Behold how man receives from satan! A blind man cannot guide another blind man and neither can a sick man guide another sick man, but only the humble man can do this, for that one has made his entrance with God by his humility and the Lord can work for him and through him and then for many after that. I have come into the world to be light, for I am the light of the world as long as I am in the world. Let all rejoice and no longer hide from the light or hide it under a bushel! I said: «Walk in the light!» and behold, I, the One Who am speaking with you during these days, I am Who have told you this, «Walk in the light!». The darkness flees from Me and satan is afraid when he hears My voice on the earth, which confuses his plans and his schemes, the voice that has come down over the people, and I, the Lord, anoint with great mercy the man's eyes and ears, and this is how I come to do good to the one who opens to Me so that I may give him. Amen.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

(Excerpt)

Now, I am blessing the feast of the Holy Spirit into your midst and I am setting you to prepare for Me a sweet table and a sweet meeting and full of comfort from Me and from you for those who come with longing at the spring, at My table with you, at the feast of Holy Spirit, My people. I am giving you new powers and I am giving you all the support needed, for you do not have any power without Me, sons. I am all that you need and all that you can, My people, and you should be little in My hand to have Me as your father, and I am glorifying Myself again now with My glory, with My feast of My word with you and with those who come again and again at My table of Holy Spirit, now, into your midst, Jerusalem, My today's people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

(Excerpt)

Behold, I tell you again and again: I do not find My pleasure and rest anywhere as I find here, where I have chosen to stop now as word and to give power to man for My will in him. The man's will is mixed everywhere, and man perishes from the lack of wisdom and he does not come to take it from the place where I dwell with it. Be faithful and listen to the Lord, for man is helpless for another man. Do not forgive My advice for fasting and praying with fasting, so that those who obey may fulfill My works on the earth. However, you those who come with longing for heaven and salvation to receive My exhortation, strengthen your obedience to God and to the holy fathers. Fast during the three days of feast in the week and be with your prayer in your heart and on your lips! Let Monday, Wednesday and Friday be your days of love, sacrifice and salvation, and become children in your life, sons, as for these the salvation and the kingdom of the heaven are meant in them! Put decent clothes on your bodies and be holy, for the sons of this age marry and get marry, but you prepare for the age that is to come, sons, for there is no more time, because it has come to an end and it is being finished, for this is written! Stop from committing sin and from everything the devil likes in man and from man, for sin is punished and it has to be removed! Look at the sons of this age; look and see that the woman is more undressed than man and she is not afraid to do the devil's will against God's will in man! Oh, you should not be ashamed with My will in you! Make bold and sanctify your life and My exhortation fulfilled in you will make you very happy! Receive the wisdom from above and do not rejoice over eating meat, for there will no longer be meat, because I want to give My hand to man and in order to take him out of death and sin, and he who does not want remains far from Me; he remains a slave in respect with sin, and sin is death, for this is written. Keep and live the days of feast, but woe, it is long since the rulers of the church shook from their places the feasts of the saints and they have been not afraid to violate them, and they are also not afraid to go against their ancestors and violate the teaching left over the church, and I, the Lord, have kept calling out to them and they pretend that they do not hear Me, and I suffer in heaven and I suffer on the earth too, and I do not find any comfort, and because of these kinds of causes and some more others like these, the wrath of God comes upon those who do not obey, and the man suffers and I also suffer because of his affliction, as I have much love and I am as merciful as God is.

The Sunday of all saints

(Excerpt)

Oh, I have My trumpet Virginia in the midst of the saints of My today's descent. She was My comfort and the comfort of My saints in My days with her on earth, for My work through her was great and so was My today's beginning with her for the mystery of the new birth of the world, a birth by the word, as it was at the beginning, and she supports much from among the saints the progress of My work started with her, but you need great love, too, My people, great, great, for the Lord is great, and all His work with you has to be like that.

Oh, Virginia, My trumpet from which I, the Lord, started to sound on earth in the year of 1955! Oh, the man cannot understand My wound after man. I have used so much gentleness in the midst of this people, which I started to build once with the beginning of My work with you on earth! So many sons have been sealed by the mystery of this word, which is crying of longing after man, from heaven down to earth! Oh, so much pain I have got from those who have heard well My gentle word and did not love to remain within it! There has passed fifty years and then five more years, and behold a history of the Lord written on earth during these days, and which I am writing with longing. I would like to have as My people and of My today's work all those who have heard the whisper of this holy word and full of gentleness after man, but the man takes much after this feeling, after his sight, after his mind and does not know to take from the Lord the things that come to him in order to build him. I am speaking with you from among the saints, but I am also speaking for those who believe this. Oh, how much pain comes up to Me from those who doubt of My today's work! They have not learned the spirit of gentleness from those who heard My today's voice over them, and many of them have remained cold or gone into coldness. I am suffering from them. They might be hurt too, but in their way and not as I am suffering from them, oh, not so, My Virginia, My last trumpet!

The feast of the birth of Saint John the Baptist

(Excerpt)

I want to give you the forgiveness of your sins, man. This means the kingdom of the heavens in you. What shall I do for you to understand Me well, what good should I do to you? Your sins are the enemies of your life and My life in you. What are you doing with these enemies, who do not let the kingdom of the heavens to get in you to your peace and to your salvation? Every day you add sins over sins to you and you do no longer have any power to understand this death in you. I am speaking to you crying. I would like you to remember Me and John the Baptist, who was calling out loud to the people on earth: «Repent!». John was asking the people to get healed from sin and to cleanse themselves by repentance and by the faith in the Son of God, Who is coming to set in man the kingdom of the heavens, the true kingdom between earth and heaven, for there is no other one. The sin has come to be the man's happiness on earth and man cannot choose his life alone in the place of sin, but I cannot stay in heaven and I am coming on earth to tell you, man, that sin is death. If I am not telling you the truth, then prove it to Me! You cannot prove Me, but you can hear My voice, that calls you to cleansing, to the healing from sin. Do no longer sin for God asks you to do this! Listen to Me for I am coming to you out of love and I am exhorting you to the forgiveness of your sins and this means to walk to holiness then and to leave behind the face and the power of sin and to give Me your heart so that I may dwell in it, to make it into a heavenly palace and to give you heavenly guests with Me and eternal life, and the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit to be your God, now and forever. This is what I want to give you through My voice upon you during these days, man without salvation. I am your Savior if you want Me to be and if you want to listen to Me, putting away from you the carelessness for your life. If you want become the one who proclaims Me over those who are foreign to God, and you will see what power this will give you and you will see how the longing of heaven will be alive in you, the longing after Me, for I long very much, I long after man very much and I want the man to comfort Me because I suffer from him limitlessly and I would like to get healed from it. Amen.

The feast of the saint apostles Peter and Paul

(Excerpt)

— Amen, amen, I, the Lord, am saying to you, My disciples of two thousand years ago, and to you, My disciples of nowadays, from the end of the time: Let the one, who gives himself to Me for My kingdom in him, be only eyes. This is how you should also be, those on whom I, the Lord, rely to be on earth with the people now, and to prepare by the word the day of My glory, the day of the destruction of the unfaithful people, and a new heaven and earth for those who believe in My coming of today and yesterday to give each one according to his works. Amen.

The day of the Lord, My day of glory over the dead and over the living is coming! The Lord is coming! I am proclaiming Myself and I am coming. I am coming to you My people, and I am sitting at the table with you, and the world is world and it does not know anything about My coming to you, and when it will open its eyes wide to see, then the whole world will see that I, the Lord, have dwelt into your midst, as humble as God and full of the glory of My humility so that the world may come to life, to come and to see My glory, the glory that is not understood by the man's mind, the glory of the Lord's humility, My glory with you on the earth, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah, the Tishbite

(Excerpt)

… I want to teach the man how to make out of his body a heavenly palace for his soul, which is God's palace on the earth, for the soul is from God in man. He who becomes a holy man in his body, that one redeems his soul and the body that has housed his soul for eternity. It is written into the Scriptures about the redemption of the bodies and this mystery is resurrection. I want man to kill the sin in him, for the soul I have given him stays as in a cage in his sinful body, and he who gains his soul from Me gives it over to be in the bondage of his body, that one loses his soul for he will no longer redeem his sinful body; however, he who loses his soul for Me, for My being in him on the earth, no longer serving to the body of his sin, that one earns his soul, and with it he redeems his body too, which he has made into a holy palace for his soul, God's palace, for the soul in man comes from God. The mystery of the soul is great, and the body, which does not serve to his soul, is useless, for the body does not give life as the soul does, for God's grace gives him to have, and man cannot have otherwise.

I want to speak with your spirit, not with your body, man. When I speak with your body it hurts you, it hurts you very much, man. If only the ear of your body hears Me now, you will drive Me away without paying attention to My voice in you, but if you open the hearing of your spirit, the spirit is that which gives you life, and it will give you life from Me. Oh, your soul is the prisoner in your body. You are the dungeon of your soul from God. This is your body. I exhort you to become God's house and to adorn it according to the law of the soul for the Master of your soul, for you are not the master but the warden instead. I come to speak to you because I am the Father of your soul and I suffer from the one that is Mine when he stays under burdens; it hurts Me as you are hurt from one of your sons when he falls into the slavery to a master that is cruel to him and you mourn over your enslaved son. Oh, make your body heaven for the soul, man, for the heaven is My throne[154] and man is My footstool on earth. Prepare yourself to be My palace, as it is for this that I built the man and I have to remind you this. Amen.

… As for you, son, who have My love in your heart, you have remained of everything you were and had; you have remained with it and come with it to Me. Listen to what I, the Lord, am teaching you. I am teaching you to love to be a child, from now on and until eternity, for great happiness waits for those who stay in My arm with sons. Wherever it will be for you to go, to pass and to come, anytime, keep away from inside and outside of you, keep away from the spirit of woman, which comes into the way of the faithful ones only to breathe discontent, murmuring, haughtiness, much word that harms the Spirit of God among brothers, many faces used by this spirit; do become wise and get used to My love. I have often given this advice against the spirit that torments the man, against the spirit of woman; I have given and written it often into My book with sons in it by My conversation with them during this heavenly time to which we have come and always advised My today's people to his life from above, for I, the Lord, am his heavenly Teacher, and you have loved Me and come to follow Me, too. I always advise you to be as you are now, in the love of this day of your heart, here, in My monastery of sons obedient to Me with their love, with the sacrifice of their heart and body, in which I made up clean love and kept to be like that, as for all those who have knocked to come and to be, I advised to live a monachal life and then to follow Me on earth. I have sons and daughters in My people and with them I do the work of My Father, as this is what I have to work with them. The evil world judges Me in any way possible for this people of Mine of sons and daughters. I have here sons and I have daughters in some other parts (It is about the "sisters" from the "Ro-Emaus" monastery, which is 25 km away from "The Holy Citadel New Jerusalem" Monastery, where men live, where the Lord descends in God's word and where in the days of feast they help for the preparation and take part, together with the Christians from surroundings, the believers in the Lord's coming in the word here, r.n.). and they help Me in My works, and I also have clean families from place to place that live in My yesterday and today's word and all these are the people of My word. There are people who stay with a woman near them and do not have any desire for her, for they have in them God and the love for Him, and again, there are people who live in the heart of the mountains, in the heart of wilderness, and they fight against the lust of the flesh, for sin does not come from before man, if it really comes; rather it is born of man and it goes to the sides with its damage to the temptation of many, but the godly man and full of the love from heaven knows to work like God and not like man, and he is protected by God when the sin would try to come and bring him down by the man with sin, for many things in man cause evil and ugly things around, but the spirit of a woman is evil and has no shame at all, and the showing of the teeth, the high and mighty walking brings about ugliness and weakness to the sides, in the weak man, and the woman does not care for those around him, and this causes evil both in heaven and on earth, for those that happen on earth come up to heaven to the sadness of those in heaven. There have been great damages on earth from the spirit of the woman even from the beginning of the time, as the woman who sings like a cock spoiled and spoils the kings and servants' heads and hearts, as the Scriptures writes at its end, and her desires of sin have destroyed My prophets and apostles on earth, as it happened with John, My Baptizer the greatest among the saints, and as it happened with Judas, My apostles, who loved his people after the flesh, of the same blood as he, after which he was walking always, always, a people who was working the lawlessness in the courts of the temple in Jerusalem, until Judas lost his way to Me, as a reward of its connections with the lawless ones in his house and with the world.

The feast of the great saint martyr and healer, Panteleimon

(Excerpt)

… — The saints are blessing you, My people, as they see your work with Me. The Father is blessing you as He sees you with Me and with the saints at the table, son. The nature is blessing you with all its miracles, as it sees you working with Me at its redemption. Those who go from their graves up to their resurrection are also blessing you before Me, as this great day is coming when My work with you will be much confessed, My work of word in your midst for the redemption of the bodies of those who have sanctified themselves for this on earth in all the times that have passed. I, the Lord Jesus Christ, your Teacher, am also blessing you on behalf of My Father and yours, and I am telling you to prepare for a sweet feast, as the people is coming to the spring; My people is coming again to My spring of word to give to it, and you are the distributor of God by My work with you. Oh, seek to know well the life of My kingdom with you, as I want man to take, to take and to be able to work, because man is weak due to his lack of God in him.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I am embracing you within a spirit of My feast with you, My people of New Jerusalem into the Romanian people, and we are seized by the memorial of the great day of two thousand years ago, when I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, took those disciples, who were closer to My mysteries of that time. I took three of the twelve, Peter, Jacob and John, and we went into the mountain, for the Father Sabaoth wanted to tell them about Me that I was His beloved Son, in Whom He was pleased in heaven and on earth, and He told them to listen to Me; He gave them help to know Me well and to have good faith in Me and then to listen to Me as to the Father, for the Father told them this. On that day, I let them see My glory, which the Father gave Me before eternity, and My disciples saw Me in glory, as I was no longer going to be with them on the earth because I had to go back into the Father, after I was to fulfill all the work which He gave Me to fulfill, and to fulfill My disciples within it, to its confession further on the earth.

Oh, but how much of My glory is with you on the earth today, My people of today! How much voice, how much word from heaven is coming down from heaven upon you as at that time over My disciples, who heard the Father's voice speaking from heaven upon them! The Father teaches you as He taught them at that time, for the Father is He Who has sent Me to you on the earth, and I do not come without His sending.

Oh, My Father and theirs, tell them how much You want Me within them during these days! Tell them about Your work with Me and about their work with Us; tell them, Father, as You told My disciples then, tell them from heaven, tell them, Father. Amen.

— This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased into your midst now. Listen to Him! This is what I, the Father, am telling you now, as I told His disciples two thousand years ago, when My Son, praying to Me before them, standing before His passion between Moses and Elijah in the mountain, and speaking with them about those that were to take place in Jerusalem; and when the disciples saw this and while they were still speaking with Him, a cloud came and shadowed them, and they were terrified at their getting into the cloud, and then My voice spoke to them from the cloud which covered Me from before their eyes: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him*!» (Matt: 17/1) After that, they came out of the cloud.

Oh, sons, the Lord is coming on the cloud to you; My Son is coming and is covered by the cloud as I, the Father, was covered while I was telling to the three disciples to listen to Him, for I, the Father, was pleased with Him. When God speaks with man, He speaks face to face, but the Lord is covered by a cloud in order that He may speak with the man, because on the day when My Son let His glory be revealed before His disciples, they were completely terrified at His sight and at the sight of the two saints, standing on His left and right side, and then the cloud covered all of them, and I, the Father, told them from the cloud what I had to tell them. I am telling you this mystery so that your little hearts and your faith in My Son's dwelling among you may be moved with joy because of My Son's living into your midst, Who is speaking from the cloud into your midst and Who is giving to you from His mouth. Amen.

Oh, Christians ask themselves how it is this work of the Lord's descent as the food of word on the table of the today's people for every man who wants to take God, the Word, from this table. The Lord is covered by the cloud, and this is how He speaks and works, for this is His work near man, because otherwise man would fall of terror because the Lord is a consuming fire, a dazzling light, by which the Lord is clothed as in a cloud of light. That is why, the work from heaven with man was also with Moses, because man cannot see God's face and stay alive and powerful in his body, and God's servants have known this through all the ages and this is how they have confessed, as the Lord spoke to Moses in the mount of His glory with him, speaking with him from the cloud.

Oh, the work which covers you all from heaven on earth is wonderful, sons! Rejoice in fear and be full of joy, sons! Be as gentle and humble as My Son, for He made the man in My image and after My likeness and His! Now, in the end, be like God and learn from My Son to be gentle and humble in your heart, so that the Lord may be able to work with you on the earth and over the earth. I, the Father, have given My Son to you and He has given you to Me, only that you may seek to listen to Him every moment, for every moment has its work and mystery, as evil and good fight between the two all the time, either to the man's protection or to his pain. That is why, I, the Father, tell you: this word from among you, coming from heaven, This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased; listen to Him! Amen.

I, the Father, have told them Your mystery with them, oh, My beloved Son, Emmanuel! I have told them the work of Our day of glory before Your disciples on the Mount of Tabor, when I, the Father, told them to listen to You, beloved Son. Oh, teach them, on a day of Your feast and Mine with them. I, the Father, am in You, and We are covered by the cloud before them for Our celebration into their midst. Amen.

— Oh, dear Father, I prayed to you on that day of glory on the Mount of Tabor before My disciples and I asked You to show them My glory, that which I have had from You before eternity, and then I spoke with Moses and Elijah before them about My passion in Jerusalem that was to take place a couple of days after that, Father, and they, coming to their senses, were terrified from the cloud which comprised them. Oh, Father, I am also praying to You now from among My disciples today, reveal Yourself over the earth as You will, and tell everyone that this is Your work and tell them that this is Your work and Mine too, Your word and Mine, the Father and the Son, and all the earth should listen to them, Father, because it is the time of the days of the Lord's glory, the last days, oh, My Father! I pray to You from this mount of glory, the mount of My great word of today, My faithful people of today in the Romanian people of My today's coming, and I say, let the gift of the holy faith come down over the people so that they may know Us by this word, so that they may come to repentance and to the resurrection from sin! Make miracles and signs useful for the coming back of the men's sons, of their hearts, for I, Your Son, am asking You this, I am praying to you in this mount of glory, as I prayed to You two thousand years ago on the mountain to show My glory to My witnessing disciples then and that they might confess in time about that! And now, bless My word of today, the word of My feast and Yours over the people of today, My people and Yours! Amen.

— Yes, My Son Emmanuel! I, the Father, am blessing from heaven, Your river of word over the people of Your word of today and over the earth. Amen.

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am the word upon you on behalf of the Father Sabaoth, Who has sent Me, My people, and I live with you the days of the last glory and I want to teach you to get used to them, and I want to make every man on earth get used to them, and it is hard for Me to do this as long as I have between Me and man, the shepherds who rule over the people in My name and who also do the same work against Me, as those two thousand years ago did, who did not want to receive the Lord in His coming to them. However, you have from Me the gift of the holy faith and through it you can know Me, receive Me, follow Me and I can work My coming with you, son. It is written into the prophets that like in the days of old, the Lord spoke to Zebulon, that in the last days He will cover with glory the way of the sea, the Galilee of the nations, the people who walked in the darkness will see a great light. Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light will shine; the nation will multiply and their joy will also increase. Amen! (See Is: 9/1-3)

I have set into your midst a great mystery, with power of resurrection over the people by your prayer before Me, for which I, the Lord, tell you to persevere with great love, with great faith for victory, My people son. The mystery and the power of the holy Liturgy of every day, this is My power of victory into your midst, for I have set you to stay as a clean people on the earth and I have given you to stay at a holy and living prayer before Me at My commandment left into your midst, to be and for you to work. The dead and the living come for remembrance into the bath of My blood and into the cup at My table, and the holy Liturgy washes the man from his sin; it washes the earth and the man does not know how to understand this bath and the mystery of this cup, in which, I, the Lord, am coming down fully to My memorial and to the memorial of My name over the dead and over the living, to their salvation from their guilt by My blood, shed for them, by their new birth of My word, born of God. The man can be born again also from man not only from woman, as he knows the birth of the man, and this only if he wants to be born from above from the Father, as I was born before the days of eternity when I was of the same being with the Father, that is We were both One, and then the Father gave Me birth, and We were one Being, both before I was born of the Father and after He gave Me birth from Him, as every man could have been born if the first man built had not spoiled the mystery of the birth, the mystery of the man coming out of man, as the woman came out of man by the work of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, after the Father and I said to make man in Our image and after Our likeness, and behold, the word says that We have an image and that is why I told Philip that I was in the Father and the Father was in Me, and he did not know this.

Oh, I, the Lord, have taught the man to understand and I have told him how to come to Me if he comes, for I said to him: «Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me». (Mark: 8/34) However, man takes his body and with it he comes and asks from Me, and what he asks from Me indicates that he had not denied himself, because he asks Me for himself, when he comes and asks Me, and not for Me in him, but he asks Me to give him for those in the world in him and he does not deny himself when he wants to come and ask Me, and I open to him when he comes to ask Me and I do not let him outside when he knocks for Me to give him, but those he asks for are from the world, and behold, those that he asks Me for, either lead him to the heaven or to the earth; they either lead the man to resurrection or to death.

Oh, to whom shall I complain about My sufferance? Everyone has his own needs, his own hardships, which he carries or gives to another man around him by his complaining about his burden. The man did not understand the mystery of My word, which says: «Take My yoke upon you, for My yoke is easy, and My burden is light». (Matt: 11/29, 30) Oh, it is better to carry God, man, for God is without sin and He is easy, and that is why I have told you to take My yoke upon you and My burden; to take My clean cross and to take it until My coming to you, so that I may give you then a sweet reward for God's bearing on the shoulders of your soul by your submission.

Oh, My loved people, in which the Father and I have been well pleased during these days! When man stays in submission according to the order set upon him or under which he comes, a man like that is better, is warmer and is more faithful to anyone, and it is easier for himself too and he becomes an easier burden for all to carry; however, when man has subjects by the order which is established like that, then he is more oppressed, more stressed and this is seen, for such a man is more restless, fuller of worries, harder to be borne by those around him, harder to be understood by those around him, who do not have to give an answer for all things, and all look after him as after one they should be afraid of, as one that should be obeyed, and this fear is good and it is not hard to bear, for it is easy to the one who has to obey, as there is someone to take care of him, only that he should love the work of the holy submission, the work of those who love God under God's burden for man.

Oh, you should not go wrong in your patience, for the patience which makes the man suffer is the man's inner rebellion; it is not the patience, it is not the love full of holy patience and gentle by its love in man, but it is rather the self haughtiness in man; the patience which hurts in man is the unsatisfied man. He, who does not suffer with contentment, that one has neither fear of God, nor wisdom. In your prayer at the beginning of the day, tell this to the Lord, son: "Lord, do not let me forget that everything comes from You!" And then, you will not be uncomfortable with the man about whom you say that the puts a burden on your soul, as it may be possible that he also feels a burden because of you, and think about him also, not only about you for the burden between you and him, and do not let your love know what hypocrisy is, but rather, with it you should love your neighbor and not you, and in this way you will be able not to raise your voice in complaint about him for those that come from God and not from your brother, that covers God before you so that the Lord may speak with you, with your life, with your deed, when He wants to do this and to cleanse you from your self-opinion and to give you faith in return and the gift of the holy submission.

You should know, My people, that love is that which gives itself; it is not that which waits for love, which waits for an interest. Oh, seek to love and to understand well this mystery of the love without hypocrisy in its work. Keep away from the spirit of discontentment, well sons, for this spirit brings you under a burden and it leads you to murmuring; it also leads you from behind by the self-love and it guides you to the man in order to complain to him, it guides you to the speaking between the two of you, sons; therefore, remember My word of old among you, which I said that when in Israel someone went wrong, all the people suffered, and again, remember of the ship by which Jonah fled away from My face and how, by his mistake, all in the ship were about to perish until he told them that it was his mistake, and he told them about it and that it was because of him that the waves were rising the sea upwards; then Jonah told them to take him and throw him into the sea and all those in the ship would be saved; and they did as he said, and then the sailors and all those in the ship prayed to God in fear for Jonah so that they may not have to be held responsible for innocent blood, but to be responsible only before God, and then I, the Lord, worked wonderfully at their prayer concerning Jonah and commanded the whale to swallow Jonah in its belly and to bring him safely on the shore, because it was by a prophetic word that I had sent Jonah to the great city of Nineveh, which had to perish because of its iniquity, just as Jonah could have perished into the sea if the whale had not covered him into its belly; therefore, My word spoken upon Jonah was fulfilled, and then he went and fulfill it over the city of iniquity. Behold, Jonah's mistake put in danger all the sailors and all those in the ship who were travelling with him while he was fleeing away from God.

Oh, you should not go wrong, My people son! This kind of mistake brings you to other mistakes, and behold, I speak to you further not to go wrong in your faith; you should not go wrong in your love with submission and for submission and put in danger those with whom you travel on your way with My people! Take care not to be deceived by the spirit of deceit and to work for it! It is so deeply hidden for you to be able to see it, much subtler for you to be able to perceive it, and it is good for you to be at ease, to be good and not to go wrong in your obedience to God and to everything that comes from Him for your test. Those who do not listen to God throw themselves into the world, as Jonah in the sea, and this is how I protect the remnant of My people, who listen in submission by the spirit of the holy patience, oh, but Jonah loved God; he was gentle and humble in his heart and he had great faith in Him, only that his much humility put obstacles to Me when I wanted to make him the bearer of word over the city of iniquity, and then I brought him from the dead to live once again, and through him, to do My work, its confirmation and its example in time.

Oh, how great it was My teaching into your midst on My feast with you, the revelation of God's mysteries with man, My people! Oh, take care of Me, of My mystery with you, for it is great, sons, and I will also take care of you, for great is My work, which I have to accomplish by your faith in My coming to you, by your love for My coming during these days, for the open heaven above you for Me to come and to keep coming so that I may speak over the earth, and you to be My house of coming, My homeland and the homeland of My saints, a good land for My seed of yesterday and today, of which I seed a new heaven and a new earth, the fulfilling of this Scriptures of the new birth of the world, of the renewal and of the changing into glory of all things, for everything, everything will be renewed; they will be changed at My working word into your midst, oh, My people! Amen.

I start blessing now the feast of My mother and the gathering at the spring of the people loving of God, which I want to be gentle and humble in heart within its coming to the spring, faithful and decent before Me and before you, My people. I am blessing their travelling to the spring and I am sending them angels on their way to their comfort and Mine, and to you, I am giving you much blessing so that you may be able to get ready for Me the feast and My rest with the people at the spring, because I am giving you help, son, and I am giving you power in your body and spirit; I am giving you love and wisdom from above for the preparation of the feast, for there are the days of the Lord's glory with you on the earth and I appear with them through you to the people, My people, and everything will be renewed and changed into glory at My word giving of glory, My glory into your midst, by which all and everything will be renewed and everything will be changed into glory, My glory in the end of the time, between heaven and earth oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Assumption

(Excerpt)

… I and My mother are blessing the love of God in the bosom of those who know and in the one of those that do not know what this love is and how it is but they only feel its joy in them and come with joy and longing when they come, and I, the Lord, give them, I give them from Me the wisdom with which to understand what I want to do for those who want to come here, at the spring and take. I want to give My image to man, in everything and in all his things I want My image to teach him from Me, from My word that flows here, from My mouth like a river, like the longing which flows from Me for man to take it in him, to have it and to know its burning which is doing well for his soul, as I have come to throw fire on earth and behold, I am doing this: I am giving My longing to man to have it and to burn within him so that he may be able to work for Me according to My pleasure, as according to his pleasure the love he wants to have for Me is too spotted because it is mingled with the man's love for himself and the man's love does not have My image, it does not have it; nevertheless, I am coming from heaven to earth and I am meeting man, and then I am giving him of My Spirit so that he may be able to work like Me and not like man, because the love after My image between man and Me is a great wonder between man and God.

… Oh, My people, oh, My servant on whom I rely to come, I, the Lord your God take care of you, and you should also take care of Me, well My people, for the Father has you written as one of the pillars for Me to come and to fulfill the work given by Him, and you need to submit and you should not find this hard, for I, the Lord carry you. I am standing in the clouds above you and I am embracing you within the mysterious cloud of My glory, and I am descending as word above you over the earth and soon it will be for My glory to dwell above your head visibly[155], and the Lord will carry you in His chariot of victory, as it is written, and then we will give to each other the comfort after the victory for which we have been working hard and for which have been waiting by working hard. Amen.

The feast of the beheading of Saint John, the Baptizer

I am coming down by the word from near the Father to be with the people of My today's word into the midst of the Romanian people, because it is a feast among those in heaven, the feast of the Father's angel, for My Father Sabaoth sent John, the Baptizer, His angel, as it is written, to prepare My glorified way to the people after he baptized Me in the river Jordan, that I may appear then before the people as true God and confessed by the Father, Who had sent Me, with a messaging angel going before Me.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am coming to you with the angel of the Father, My people, and I tell everyone that the Father Sabaoth said and wrote about Me and about John: «Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You». (See Matt: 11/10; Mal: 3/1) And I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, say this: Behold, I send My angel, My people before My face, who prepares My way before Me. Amen.

Oh, My people from the spring, you are the retinue that meets Me when I come from heaven with the saints in a word of Holy Spirit and you give Me the honor of a King, you welcome Me by your faith into My coming of today, and then I am going to give Myself to the faithful people to feed them, for these are nourished with every word that comes out of My mouth and wait for it with longing, and behold, I also give you food and give them a share at My table with you and they eat with Me and with you at the table, well My people! Oh, My speaking is sweet when I come and speak to you! I speak with you as a sweet father and those stubborn is astonished at My speech with you, they wonder and keep on wondering why I speak so sweetly with you, but what shall I do with them if they are not faithful, if they forget that I have let written in the Scriptures that I will comfort in Jerusalem at My bosom those who will rejoice over the spring of My coming in the end of the time, when the riverbed of My word will overflow with its glory, with My coming with glory in the word of the Holy Spirit so that I may feed those who become children in order to come to Me, for My kingdom is ready to be revealed to such as these and to be theirs.

I glorify Myself by the word of feast, for the spirit of the faithful man needs much and good food that God may grow in his heart. People go to monasteries and churches; they run there but do not find what they find at My today's table with My people of Romanians chosen by Me to be My people at My coming of today as word on the earth.

However, to you, those who seek after Me to find Me, wandering about everywhere you hear that I may appear with My glory or that I work with more power, I am speaking to you now by this word and I am telling you that I have great mercy on you. You go to the monasteries, to churches, to places where people say that I might be working, but you do not find what you find here, at My table with My people, and then you leave those places with weary souls, burned with thirst, still without help, and more than this, you are enchanted with the frivolity by which some pretend that are on My side, those that suck the soul in you good and hard into their pockets for their glory from the people and from you, for you are tax payers and pay taxes to Caesar as well, you pay taxes to churches, for only their sons are duty free, but not you. I have great mercy on you, as you are sheep without a shepherd, without adoption, and I come into your way with food from heaven, and with fatherly comfort, only that you may be faithful to My word, which comforts you, those who seek God to find Him. I tell to the servants of the churches that they have no mercy on you; they do not have mercy on those who seek after God with the burning of their souls. However, even more, they have a bad heart against them, for they need subjects, they need tax payers for anything they may try to help the people.

I knock at your door with John, My Baptizer, oh servants of churches! Open to Us! I have come out of the book to strengthen and to renew the world by every word coming out of My mouth and which becomes true. I have come out of the book and speak further, as My speaking is not only as the book of the Scripture and that is all. You are deceived if you try to believe and speak this to one another. I have come out of the book and give great speech, for My book is not able to comprise Me into it with My entire speaking, for I keep on speaking and I speak as much as the river which does not stop from its springing, the river made in this way by the Father in such a way that it may not stop from its abundant course, and not only as the strand which runs from the rain water, oh, not in this way, for My river of word springs from heaven, from God's mouth, because the Lord is a running spring, it is not slack water as you may want to raise a dam against the word of My Scriptures so that I may no longer speak more than that on earth. Behold, I am sending My angel, I am sending the people of My today's word with a book towards you, for I am leaving My speaking of today into its midst over the earth. Willing or not, believing or not, listen to My voice upon you, for I call you into account for the life of My sheep. Be wise, for My sheep are those who listen to My voice and follow Me, and you hit them with the stick so that they may not to listen to Me, not to believe and then follow Me. However, I feed them and I do not strip them off as you do, but I comfort their pain and give them the gift of faith and take care of their lives, of their salvation, for I came then and I am coming now into the world that My sheep may have life and that they may have it abundantly, and to have always life, always food for their lives, as My word has life in it. Oh, the spring of My word will not stop from its running and it will overflow with joy and will comfort many hearts, crushed by the time and pains, and you will be called into account for what you have wanted to be on earth and for how much you have worked as you have chosen to be. Oh, it is a pity for My love, which flows down and you do not bow to take it that it may not be wasted when it comes to give itself to you to the forgiveness of your sins! It is sin because you have chosen to be called God's servants and you do not try to understand what this anointing of serving expects from you! I have been looking at you how you always keep trying to erect worshipping places before people so that they may see where they are to come to you, but I, the Lord, will ask you about the life of the sheep, not about the buildings for them. The day is coming for you to give back what you have taken from your subjects, from your tax-payers in the name of the church work, and you will not have the time, which Zacchaeus had, to wash away your sin. Oh, what will you do then?

Oh, what will We do, My Baptizer? How could We wake up to the fear of God those who have no idea about this answer before Me?

— Oh, Lord and little Lamb, oh, merciful Lord, as at that time I am crying the same today and speaking: «Behold, even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire». (Matt: 3/10) Amen.

Behold, the church servants do not have any fruit for You, Lord; they do not have holy disciples for You, but they have only disciples like them; however, the sons working for You of the people of Your today's word, these have beautiful disciples for You, nourished from Your mouth with Your sweet word and You have good fruit from them and You do Your work with them according to the truth, for through the servants of the churches You have not got anything to harvest and to put aside as a chosen people. Our sufferance finds its comfort into the midst of the sons of Your people, faithful to Your coming of today, because if we did not have them, then where would our hope be in having fruit and in coming to a good end with the Father's work, with the renewal of all things from a small kernel, from a new seed, from the people of Your word, Lord? We have nothing to do with them anymore and nothing to give to the servants of the altars. We have kept calling them, both You and us, Your saints. They have other work to do, and we will have to renew Your church and its sons from the foundation, for which You have given a seed to be sowed, as we cannot sew a new patch at an old garment and neither can we sew an old patch at a new garment, and everything will be made new, for this is written. Oh, we cannot put the new wine into the old wineskins, which are not cleaned or mended and renewed, but rather we put the new wine in new vessels, for this is written, and a fire will come out of the midst of the servants at the altars and this fire will consume them, and whoever among them will escape by fire will be cleansed, they will be renewed and in their turn they will renew many, but there is still to endure and wait until the cup of lawlessness will be filled among them and will overflow and its dough will be seen and many among them will wonder that they did not want to receive from You the hand reached after them to lift them up from their destruction, from the lie under which they want to hide You so that they may appear before the people as Yours. In my time, when I prepared Your way for You to appear then as glorified God, I was faithful in the word with those who were faithful and I was exhorting them to the spirit of righteousness, hope, faith and love of God, but I also was firm and right at the same time with the hypocrites, and I told those who were lying by their appearance, I told them that they were offspring of vipers and snakes, and that they did not follow Abraham who they boasted about, because if they had followed him, then they would have known You either, just as Abraham knew You and followed You when You spoke with him from heaven, for You spoke with him as You spoke with me in the heart of the wilderness and You were teaching me all things, as You wanted to speak with Adam in paradise too. However, he deceived You, as all the servants of the churches deceive You, those who put the world off with fine words, because they are not shepherds of sheep, because the work of a shepherd means and does something else.

Oh, what a beautiful paradise I had into the heart of the wilderness, Lord! I put a written judgment now into Your book for every man who does not want to believe that anyone who wants can be nourished with every word that comes out from God upon him. Your Spirit taught me all things, as it taught Adam in paradise. You made my being divine, and I fed my body like a man, according to Your will, but as in heaven I fed him and not as on earth, and I came with my work for You up to Your baptism at Jordan and up to my disciples and also Yours, and then I came up to Herod, oh, Lord, and then again to You, in heaven, always served by angels, for I had no other companions, because my life as a man was also the live of an angel, and I spend time with the angels and they were my brothers.

I tell to all the people and I tell them that they adorn the food they eat with all kinds of things and it does not nourish them, but it rather makes them hungry so that they may keep on eating it and in this way to lose their time eating.

Oh, little and poor of you, how shall I help you to know what life is? I tell you: seek first the kingdom of the heavens and then seek all the other things, for otherwise you will not get away with the toil for your food but only after you pass away from your body. The time has come on earth when you are in need of God, not of food, and you do not understand this. Behold the Lord; He is coming to you on earth as word, and you do not understand this, because the shepherds who stay upon you, keep you under their rod upon you in order to that they may have you in submission, because you owe them, but the Lord has His sweet word as a rod and He gives you of His mouth, of His Spirit, to come to life at His voice of a shepherd and to have hope. Be wise, so that you may know the Lord, Who is coming to cleanse His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn and the chaff to cast into the fire; however, the wheat is little, but the Lord had sown it and it will be a new and holy crop and the Lord will not be deprived of the harvest.

I tell you, children without a shepherd, seek to take the Lord as a Shepherd, for He is coming from heaven to you to give you food, for the food which you cook to eat makes you even more hungry. Oh, only if you may learn from the Lord how to feed your bodies! Oh, only if you learn from me how I ate, for I ate clean food and it had life in it and it was satiable for my body and I gave it rest from food; I did not wear it out by giving it always food, for the body has got a holy law by its creation from God, but man violated it and crushed it, and the food, which he eats, makes him hungry and it does not nourish him. When is the body supposed to eat as much food as man gives it? Behold, food exhausts man, for man does not have wisdom to understand by it the law of his life from God.

I am speaking into the midst of Your people, Lord, and I am telling everybody that the man has deeply gone wrong, that he always goes wrong, poor of him, and that he needs much medicine for his healing; he needs much admonition only that he does not like this, oh, he does not like it and he cannot stand the admonition, and woe to those without instruction upon them; woe to those who do not seek after someone to adjust their life always, to adjust always their conduct, and always to punish their mistake so that they may come to know of their pettiness before You! It is wiser the little child, who submits to those who give him a body on the earth; it is wiser one like that than the man who goes wrong and becomes his own adversary, for the little child is weaned away from those who gave him a body, but the man who grows big by sin does no longer let himself to be weaned; he does not let himself be saved from sin; he does no longer have a maker to teach him to wean his body and sin, in such a way that he may no longer suck the sin in him and he to suck from sin, and the kingdom of the heavens waits near man to comprise him within it, to give birth to the man from heaven, to make the new-born man, because man is exhausted by sin and he needs a new birth from heaven. What punishment does man need any longer? Does sin not punish him enough? Man, seek to come out from sin, seek as much as it has work upon you; fight to overcome it, man, and give yourself to the Lord to your resurrection! Amen.

Oh, Lord, save the man from sin! Take this death away from the earth and from man, from the man's heart and mind and from all his desires! Break from You and give to the people, so that they may be from You afterwards, and the people to be like You, for behold how greatly the sin scourges the man! May Your will be done upon people, as in heaven so on earth, for I pray to You for this, and my prayer has the cleanest image before You! Amen.

— I, your Lord and Teacher from above, listen to your clean voice, My Baptizer, for at that time you revealed before the people that the water washes the man's body from sin, and My Spirit and blood washes his soul from sin, as the fire cleanses and burns every immorality or dryness on earth.

I, the Lord, have spoken on this day into your midst with John, My Baptizer, oh, My people. Son, you should take from this speaking and share with all who are nourished from heaven by every word that comes out of My mouth into your midst to the food of their souls and to the cleansing of their bodies. Oh, well My people, man needs much admonition, much instruction and much rebuke, for he has always gone wrong, only that he does not like and his heart disagrees with this benefit, and woe to those without admonition upon them always and who do not seek after someone to cleanse them always from their wrong doing and to punish it for them! Oh, do not flee from admonition, son, for it is better like that, it is better like that for you than when the pain will be great over many.

Peace to you, My people, and you should love justice; for justice is Mine, and man does not have it even if it may seem that he is right against another guilty man!

Peace to you, Jerusalem, and you should get used to the glory of this great name and with its work, because I have given you a great name to bear!

Oh, well My people, peace to you from My Spirit and from John, the Baptizer, the holiest of My disciples, the most living, the most heavenly between heaven and heart, and from whom you have to learn My life in you, your live in Me, life, My people, for as I spoke with him in the wilderness and as I prepared him teaching him the wisdom, his speaking and all the mysteries step by step, so I, the Lord, am speaking with you today and I am giving you to be able to do like God and to be able to work more; to be able to be My joy, My comfort and My hope for the Father, for the Father works with you through Me, and you should be like Me between Me and man so that we may bring much fruit for the Father, living fruit, new fruit, for all, all things will become new, oh, My people, oh, new Jerusalem, My holy dwelling place of today, to which the angels and the saints come when I come to you. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother

(Excerpt)

May your faith and waiting be blessed, well My people, for those who wait always prepare and they prepare Me always as those from the people of Matan prepared Me until I came and showed Myself on earth through My mother Virgin.

I am visibly coming soon with My coming and I am coming with she; I am coming with My mother, for this was the way of My coming then, too. I am coming soon, My people, and you should be My Jerusalem, you have to be the Jerusalem of My coming, the new Jerusalem to be, for I, the Lord, have put over your citadel this great name and I am writing it over all the borders of this people, over the Romanian people, out of whose midst I have chosen you and set you apart for Me, for My glory, for My coming, for My way to the people and for their way to Me, and this seed will be like the stars of the sky, as I, the Lord, promised this at the beginning to the faithful Abraham, who was very, very faithful, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

May it be blessed in heaven and on earth the work of My word on this day of holy feast, the feast of the Cross, on which I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, gave Myself over to be put and hung by nails on it to give an example to everyone, an example of true Shepherd and a well pleased sheep before God, because as a true Shepherd, I laid down My life for My sheep, and as a sheep, I was good for sacrifice and I did not open My mouth or struggle before those who gave Me over to be sacrificed, as I was born of the Holy Spirit, of Whom I took My body, and two thousand years ago, I said that the one that was born of the flesh was flesh and the one that was born of the Spirit was spirit, and I also said that man had to be born from above. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, well My people! Many wonder at My speaking with you, such a fatherly speaking between Me and you, so warm and so sweet, but this time of comfort has been prophesied for those who become new Jerusalem for the Lord, the birth from above in them; however, man does not know what this means, and it was so hard for Me, two thousand years ago, to clarify this, because at that time, I wrote that the one who believes in the Son of the Father, in the only One born, Whom the Father gave that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life, a man like that is not judged, but the one does not believe has already been judged, because he has not believed in the only One born, the Son of God. Truly, truly I said, that everyone who does evil, does not come to the light because he hates the light lest his works would be exposed, but he who loves and works the truth, comes to the light and remains in the light, that this works may be revealed that they have been done in God, and this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than light, for their works were evil. (See John: 3/16-21)

Oh, what a great mystery the birth from above is! I was with the disciples in Judea and I was working with them upon many and I was teaching them to work and baptize, and I was working the Holy Spirit upon those who were baptized with water by My disciples as John baptized, and when I ascended to the Father after I was resurrected, I told them: «As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you». And then I breathed on them, and said to them: «Receive the Holy Spirit! Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained». (John: 20.21-23) God breathed upon them and they received the Holy Spirit, for He Who comes from heaven is above all things, and he who is from the earth is earthly and speaks as on earth, as John confessed before those who did not understand the mystery of cleansing and Me, the Lamb of God, the only One born of the Father.

I am full of mourning from heaven and down to earth because of the pride of the church servants, because they do not know what the work of the Holy Spirit is, under whose name they say that they work. I breathed upon My disciples then and I told them: «Receive the Holy Spirit!» And this was how they received the Holy Spirit and this was how they worked with Him over many who were baptized for the receiving of the Holy Spirit, but as far as the servants of the churches are concerned, those who buy this service, then who breathes upon them to receive the Holy Spirit so that they may be able to work with Him over many, and then the work of the Holy Spirit to be known as giving light and working over those who come to it? I am seized with the sigh from those who use My name and do not have fruit like Mine and like the fruit of My disciples; and they do not have disciples for heaven either; they do not have any, but they rather have disciples only for themselves.

Oh, the mystery of the birth from above is big, and two thousand years ago, I said: «Unless one is born of water and spirit, he can't enter into the Kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit». (See John: 3/5-6) When I was to come from above, from the Father, and when I was to be born from above on the earth, the Lord's angels came and spoke to the Virgin who gave Me birth: «The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy One Who is born from you will be called the Son of God». (Luke: 1/35) Oh, I was born from above on the earth, and the man should be born likewise, and if someone is not born of water and Spirit, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God and neither can It enter him.

Oh, My people, My word cries between heaven and earth and man hears its voice and still, man is not born from above. Oh, My people, I breathe with the breath of the Holy Spirit upon people and people do not receive! I have you as My church on earth now and many come to be born from above to be Mine as you are, but where you cannot walk with My creation, which I have taught you to work over man, there My church and its members is not beautiful. Man does not know to come into the light. He who comes after Me needs to learn the mystery of the cross and its work, just as I, the Lord, showed and walked, being God, humbled and despised, not being comforted by anyone but My Father and My mother Virgin, for on the earth each one seeks only after his own things, after the rest of his soul and he seeks it at any price, even at the price of God.

Oh, each one is after his things, but man does not know how this comes and he finds nothing from everything he seeks, for man does not remain with anything before Me. He who gets enchanted by himself that one loses his mind in this way, and this does not mean that man gets wisdom. Man needs wisdom and he does not get a mind as he says that he has got one, but his mind is made from God by the spirit of humility, if man has got it, for only humility makes God in man; it makes a way for God in man, and only in this way man has got a mind, for the mind means God in man, and otherwise man is ugly; he is only man and that is all.

Oh, working sons on My behalf over those who want to come to their making, oh, sons, there where you cannot walk for the making of the man, My church is not beautiful. Let us make the teaching for the birth from above of the sons of the church, for it is written: «For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, let his works would be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God». (John: 2/20-21)

I have sons and daughters full of My sufferance in them, not their sufferance, but from place to place there are many among those who want to come after Me and are full of their sufferance, for they have not wanted to learn their making from Me and from the saints, as the heaven and the birth from above want, for no one can build his making alone, because man cannot be seen in all his things and he needs help, he needs a mirror to help him see himself.

Oh, sons who have your pains and not Mine! When man is discontent, his heart gets hardened, and the same is with his face, the same is with his speaking and deed, but when he comes to peace with all that come to him, anyhow and from everywhere they may come, his heart becomes humble, it gets softened, it is flexible and his being is formed into My image and after My likeness, for I gave Myself to those who made Me a subject before them, under the hand of My seller, given to them on the night I was betrayed, and even if I was so much afflicted, I was gentle and humble in My heart and I was full of patience and love, for the harness of the heart did not know Me, because all things came from God, and man should say this: all things come from God for making from heaven. Amen.

I want to teach everyone who wants to be with God and who comes to this agreement; I want them to bow and learn the mystery of the cross, to be carried as I carried it, for without teaching man cannot walk in My way, because My way with man is with much instruction, My way for man. My word is pure gold, only for man to love it, to learn from it and to fulfill it, as he does not need to learn something else or otherwise, but it is only to be watched instead.

Oh, My people from the spring, I want all those that take Me from My table with you, I want them to fulfill My word too, as My word and My breath is great over those who want to be born from above, for I am from above and I come from above for the new birth of the man who seeks with light upon him and who stays in the light.

Oh, sons, working at the spring on My behalf over those who choose their growth from God, I, the Lord, breathe upon you and I give you, and I want everyone that seeks advice and wisdom from you to take, but they should work their life to their life from above in the same manner. The spirit of humility is God's greatest work for man, for I showed My humility in such a way that man may be able to learn from it, and in such a way that man may not try to be greater than God, for the way with God has got its gold; it has its richness and it shines from top to bottom by this light, by the spirit of humility, the stairway which raises the man to heaven so that man may be from heaven on earth and that he may no longer be from the earth.

I have come down on the earth so that the man may become divine. Let this be known by all who want to be with Me on the way of My word of today, on the way of My today's coming on earth as word, and he who wants to be with Me has to become godly by his self-denial and then by his becoming godly, for this is what I have to work upon man.

Teach My people everywhere, sons who stay as the way of My word so that it may be for the growth of those who come to growth. Teach all who want to be with God so that they may know that not God needs to become as they want but they need to become like God. I do no longer want any sufferance from them, for he who suffers because of himself in the body of My church, that one becomes My sufferance and My burden and yours too, sons, and from time to time we have to tell them that they need to have a cross and they need patience for the cross, all those who want to be one with God, for My cross is heavy and it is not like theirs, and if they cannot help or make the burden of My cross grow less, at least they should carry their cross with patience and at peace, as one should not cut from his cross, but rather the cross should be adorned with the ornaments of love and holy patience and with that of full good conduct, and especially with the lack of rebellion, for man does no longer have the right to rebel, but only to take this right against his humility alone, which he needs to have fully for his salvation.

Oh, man does not know what cross is, what glory it is, what way to the resurrection it is, and that is why he has always complained, and that is why man makes man weak by his complaining always, as though this has been his work. Everything that comes upon man, he should receive as from God's hands and he should not slap God's hand, for God knows what man needs, as He sees what is needed for the man's always new creature, as it was by sufferance that I came on earth, and I lived in sufferance, and in the same way I went back to be with the Father, for this is the crown of those who love God, just as joy and pleasure are the way of the pagans, not the way of the Christians, for the Christians have the cross and their Lord as joy, the Lord of the cross, the Shepherd with the cross, Who leads the sheep to give them His pasture and to give them the carrying of the cross, the glory of those who love God in His image and after His likeness, for by the cross I revealed My glory and by it I have loved every man to redeem the man and to give him to the Father, there, where he will meet his rest, which he lost by his departure from God, the duty which has to be given to God by each man in order that he may receive his lost adoption. Amen.

Oh, sons who stand before Me to carry the cross of My coming with you, teach the people everywhere to look at you and learn the way of the cross, for you and those with you near My spring of word here, are always under the cross, you are always under a burden and you are happy that you serve to My coming and to its hard and abundant work, with your spirit, soul and body, sons. I want to give blessing and power upon you now, for the refreshing work of those that have to be ordained to be refreshed over the dwelling of the Holy of My Holies. You are few for the big work that has to be worked everywhere, here and where you and your work are needed, for the people that we have to take care and lead.

Now, the one who is My support in hard time, My child on whom I rely with My coming and its news, I fill him with power to administer for Me the refreshing work about which I have been speaking now over those in the little garden of My word. Oh, do not be afraid for your little conduct! Be faithful, for you cannot, you cannot comprehend all that are to be ordained. My angels come to support you. You should also rely on them, for the work of the faith and then its power has to dwell in you. Amen.

You, who give Me and announce My voice from heaven to earth and to all their margins, sit in a heavenly council, son, and do the work with much good will and establish those who are to work for the refreshing of all in the little garden of My word with you. You are My help and I am your help too. Strengthen your faith now for everything is possible, because in God all things are positive, and I will also give you power and everything what is needed for this work, as also for the work that goes forward for its full accomplishment, of the new building erected now in My gardens with you at the spring, and we will make every effort possible, both here and there, and the spirit of diligence and good will be the victory and the faith in everything I will give to be done. Amen.

I want all those that are near My spring to be always alive and to be always sure that the power, the will and the fulfillment of all things come from Me by their spirit and their little hands, which I have always filled with grace, blessing and joy for their work with Me, for the carrying of My cross brings unequaled joy, as great as the mind without God in it does not come to know the wisdom of the holy joy, the joy by the cross and by the mystery that comprises it from above. Amen.

I give My blessing for all those from Me for My work through you! Everything is possible to those who have faith in everything I speak and establish. Amen.

Oh, clothe yourselves within the grace of My peace, sons, for the world does not know what this peace is, My peace among you, by which I can and work. Teach the people everywhere the mystery of My peace with you, for it needs much instruction, if it loves with power My word, which teaches, and which then loves its work.

I am embracing you with the victorious power of the cross, sons. Love this mystery, because it is great, for the evil spirit is very much afraid of those that are clothed within armor, by which I judged him two thousand years ago.

Let no one complain; let no one be weak, for the power of the cross gives power to those who love it with the example of their life.

Peace to you, people from the spring! Let My peace into your midst shine everywhere over the people of My word that it may learn this light. I, the Lord, share Myself through you with all I have in order to give to the one who loves to listen to Me according to My order in your midst, that which is into your midst, My people from the spring. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Mother's Shelter

(Excerpt)

This word is God, Who is proclaiming Himself during these days and is doing His work, prophesied in the Scriptures that it would be to come on the earth and from it to be heard in heaven, on earth and in the deep of the earth and which work has to share God's word to the living and to the dead, to the Lord's glory and to His saints' to whom He is saying: Rejoice, praying and healing saints, for it is the time to come with you and to work great glory, and behold, I am coming and fulfilling, and mysteriously I am removing the covering above and show My greatness, until this mystery is going to show its fire, its longing, the longing that burns like fire to kindle in men and the people to see God in this word, for this word is God. Amen.

Oh, well My people, there is no stronger medicine for man than the repentance with power before Me, that which is full of gentleness to Me and full of faith and searching after God with all the sighing in man. The true repentance gives the weak man a new life, after I, the Lord, put to test trough fire his faith in God's power.

The feast of the devout Parascheva

(Excerpt)

I am Who I am and I am the One Who am coming from heaven on earth as word now, two thousand years after My ascension to the Father, when I descended from the heaven to be born out of the Virgin body, to grow and then to let My body be sacrificed on the cross to pay in this way for the fall of the man from the beginning of the time, and then to come back to life from crucifixion and to ascend again near My Father, from Whom I proceed; and then further, to come back again on earth to judge the living and the dead, and behold, I am coming for this is written for Me to do. Even if there is no more waiting and faith on earth for My coming with glory of word to fulfill My word spoken two thousand years ago, even if man goes to sleep and sleeps with respect to the word of My coming again after man from the Father in heaven, I am still coming and speaking the Gospel of My coming from margins to margins, and I keep on proclaiming it everywhere, because this is written for Me to do. Amen.

I do no longer expect the people to believe in My coming; I do no longer wait for this. Neither God expected the people to believe His proclamation through Noah either, who believed that it came from God with the washing of the earth, and he listened and made an ark to himself, this faithful man and his entire house, and finally God came, but those who did not want to believe did no longer see their salvation, but only the faithful ones saw it, only those who waited for the Lord.

I have proclaimed Myself with My coming during this day of word into My today's book and I have come in and I am sitting at the table of word with you, people of My word during these days. It is written in the Scriptures, son, about this river of word that it will run out from God's throne[156] during the last days, (Apoc: 22/1) and I have given you power to believe this Scripture, and then I have given you the burning of soul to become a child in your soul and body and to take Me as the Teacher of your new life, and I have fulfilled with you the Scripture about the man's birth from above so that he may become then My disciple, My born one, born of God of the word from above, for it is written: «God's word is near Man; it is in his mouth, in his heart when he testifies the Lord».

I have prepared My way of coming as on earth man prepares a way of stone on which he travels then for his needs, and I have prepared a stopover, too, and I am coming with the saints and stopping among people to speak at the table with those who are faithful to the word of heaven so that those who are not faithful may hear It and to be judged according to their works after that, according to their faith or unfaith in which they want to remain.

I have with Me, at the table of word, the host of those who are godly in heaven, and it is a day of feast among the saints for My wholly faithful bride, Parascheva, who, one thousand years ago, chose Me as her bridegroom, as her life and love on earth. I have kept her as a heavenly adornment and she wanted to be and to live in the land of the Romanians, as at her coming among the saints I showed her the glory the Father had prepared for Me on the hearth of the Romanian people and My way with a table of word on it in the last days. Soon, soon, a great and mysterious miracle will take place, as on earth the bodies of the saints will come here from everywhere, in My country of My coming as word on earth now, where I have been preparing a citadel for those in heaven and a table for them with those who are faithful to Me in this time when no one has love of God on earth any more, and the bodies of the saints will hover above this land just as the ships sail on sea, and they will fly in the sky to come down at My table, set by Me on the hearth of the Romanian people, as here is where the Father has ordained My wedding and its table with the saints, and soon, this mysterious miracle will marvel the world far and wide, and the world will wonder and not understand those who are hard to understand by the human mind; however, I, the Lord, fulfill the Scripture of My coming with the saints, word by word, and no one will understand this fulfillment, for man looks to see such miracles and will not be able to see My mysteries, as what is made of flesh is flesh, and what is made of spirit is spirit and it is from heaven and so it reveals, and I am coming with the saints and making a kingdom with them into the midst of the faithful people and I am making a table of wedding in order to bring together for Me those who will have served Me with their love, as the saints have served Me after they had loved Me. Amen.

… I speak with the man who has no knowledge for the mystery of the washing and I tell him this: oh, the shirt of your life is not to be washed with money, man, and you, man, you are without any instruction upon you, for you go to the place of church and there you buy a candle on money, and near it you put some other money and you give these to the altar to your memorial before Me, and the intercessor servant spoils his mind and his faithfulness for you and for Me when he sees money and always money, but the man's life is not washed with money, and it is not paid with money; there have become many servants of altars on the earth and all receive money and the money comes into the altar, where it is not supposed to enter, and your forgiveness and your way to the Lord are not received in this way man, but they are received with tears full of remorse and with repentance full of tears, for man is a sinner and he has no other counselor upon him; he has no candle in his way to guide his walking and his life to the Lord, because those who become servants of the holiness at the altars do not give their possession to the poor in order to become holy in their body afterwards, holy in their body and spirit, and then to become praying people to Me for the salvation of their soul and for the salvation of the people; moreover, behold, in the buildings called churches people do not become holy and neither do the servants of the altars, and where one can really find the truth of the word spoken in the churches when it is heard from the mouths of those who gather together and who say: "I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins within one synodal and apostolic church for the life of the age to come?"

[156] «The angel[156] showed me a pure river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing out of the throne of God and of the Lamb» (Apoc: 22/1)

Oh, there is no holy place with holy people in it and for it, and the saints do no longer have peace in them, the consecrated places to the Lord for the saints, and this pain always goes up into the heaven for My name is put all over the places made by people to call over them My name, and behold, there is nothing else to do and nothing else to repair, because man has established himself to be big on the earth into My name over the people and he draws after him all the mob, and I do not have any dwelling place where to come and where to rest, for this is what I said to those who want to serve Me: «Be holy for I am holy and I give Myself to the holy ones!»

The of the great saint martyr Demetrius, the myrrh bearer

I am coming down with food of word into My book of these days and which is being written on the earth now by My order, by My godly power, which I set to work in order to write Myself down on earth with everything I have to speak in the end of the time with My voice that is heard from heaven and down to the earth so that God's word may be written, and both the faithful and the unfaithful people are to take it, and the one who is holy to be holy still, as also the one who is not holy to remain careless of God to his judgment by this word.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I am coming down into the book on the hearth of the Romanian people, here, where I have made a place of My coming down and speaking over the earth, as My Father is sending Me to fulfill the Scripture, which was spoken by Me two thousand years ago, to come and to speak on the earth and those in the graves to hear Me; however, if I did not come to be heard by those alive in their body, how would it be with My speaking over those who wait for Me to raise them to their resurrection?

Oh, My today's speaking is true, and I am telling this to all those who are careless with respect of My word, which is flowing from My mouth during these days to be written on the earth and to give testimony.

I have looked with the Father Sabaoth and I have looked with all the saints and angels. I have looked at the kings of the earth, at those who rule over the earth and over man as though they were kings greater than God was. I have looked at the servants of the churches how they look and how they do not look over My today's word, which has become a river over the earth and which, with so much humility I, the Lord, have been working it over the people. The servants of the churches pretend that they do not hear Me; however, with Me is not the same, but it is otherwise, and the sin of their ignorance of God and their love to rule over the people, over the earth and over the heaven, is written against them, since God does no longer have the right to work according to His will and according to those written in the Scriptures to be fulfilled. Oh, it was not so with My church in its time of birth from Me and from My martyrs of Christian bearers and who were giving birth to God into the hearts of the people by the word of their preaching. There was faith on earth and it was the work of the faith and confession, but pride has taken their place and has become a robe for the servants at the altars who have hidden the Lord under their churchly garment, and I have been crying without a house since then and up to this day, and I have been crying with My saints and trying to show compassion to the people with the gift of the wisdom from above and of the carried cross, but there is no longer a place for God on earth, and here I am with the dwelling place of My word into the midst of the people, speaking to them about My pain, which becomes word into the way of those who persecute Me so that only they may remain.

Oh, where are you, church with My name upon you? Where is your dwelling place and your face? Where is your humility to be your garment before Me and before the people? Where is your work for the saints, for the poor and for all kinds of weak people? Oh, there is no longer on earth something like this. My name and My face are mocked by those full of pride and who play well in their outer appearance the face of Christ's church, begging mercy from the rich and from the poor to build palaces to write the name of God on them.

With whom shall I speak among those who are servants of the church over the people and to whom shall I speak about My pain? I would speak over the one who is the ruler over the church of the Romanian church and I would remind him of the beautiful beginning of My church and of its ministry before Me. I would speak to any servant who builds a dwelling place where to assembly into My name those who believe in God among those on earth. Oh, it is not nice to take the little money of God's sons that was earned so hard and do with it what you say that you do! It was no so the work of the church in the time of its foundation among the people on earth, for My church[157] is a mystery; it is not something else and it is not for the world. Oh, no one among those who set themselves as servants of the church among people, no none teaches the people their birth from above, how the sinful man may become a godly man and to become a servant man for the heaven on earth in order to bring Me heavenly fruit.

Oh, servant with the name of God on your robe, when there is someone to build within his household a dwelling place for God, to have it around and to adorn it with holy garments according to his love, then you want to take over this dwelling place and make it a common one, as you say, but it is sin to strip the man of his ornaments and to put them on you; however, it is for you that you should give him if you have become his servant before Me. Oh, where is man supposed to make in his household a settlement of a little church before Me, as in the time of the first fathers of the church and My Christians, to have the holy gift near to them and all of his house to become the saints of the Lord, as did those in the centurion Cornelius's house; Zacchaeus' house and many other Christian houses who received through My disciples the grace of the Holy Spirit, working of holiness, without being taxpayers to some greater than God, Who does not ask for any taxes from His sons on the earth, but on the contrary, He gives them as a heavenly Giver?

The rulers over people build upon people temples and temples again and bury in them lots of money and this only to their human glory, and the people do not know that no temple are needed on earth, but godly hearts and cleansed from sin, in which I may dwell with My face, with My life, and with My victory among the unfaithful ones, and they to wake up before the light, for I am the light of the world through those who are My saints on the earth. There are not the robes of the church servants that should shine and, in this way, to take the heart and the eyes of those who are attracted by them, but rather let their heart shine with faith, with God, with love, and with the glory of My humility glorified by the cross and which makes the Holy Spirit grow within people.

Oh, what shall I do to wake up those who do not stop showing something else than God to the people! What shall I do to suffer less because of them? I ask Myself with the saints in heaven about what shall I do that the truth may come on the earth and have power of resurrection over people and then work heavenly awakening for them.

I have come with a table of word and with a feast of holy martyrs to you, people of My word. I am writing My book of today on your table, My pain and My calling to be heard by those who hearing do not want to receive Me with My advice from above into their midst. It is a day of feast in heaven for the disciple Demetrius, who was born on the earth at the prayer of his faithful parents and who gave the Lord to him for his growth from above, and this is how he grew up and loved mercy, fasting and mercifulness to the poor, loving the Lord in those who were poor on the earth. I sit in council with the saints and ask Myself; what shall I do to bring on to the earth with the people the truth of the Christian church, the spirit of humility. The grace of the Holy Spirit, as I and My disciples gave to be and to work, and which no one can handle according to his will, according to his desire for greatness, for this gift is with those who are humble? Oh, what shall I do to comfort My pain? I am sitting at the table with the saints and I am into the midst of the people of My word, here, where I pour out My voice to be written into the book and to be given to the poor and to the rich and they should give Me an answer. Amen.

— Oh, the answer for Your sufferance and ours, Lord, suffering from the man of unbelief and from the works of disbelief, who shall give You this answer? For over two thousand years, You have been waiting for the resurrection of the wisdom of the cross in those who have established themselves as shepherds over the church and You do not find any answer, for they have got fat, and all get fat with the glory from the people for they take the man's eyes with their shining robe which they put over to sit into Your name over the crowds and to instill fear to all in order to make them pay taxes to a name of a churchly face. Oh, it is not for the church that they collect money, as the church means those who give the money and who do not receive the Lord in this way, for the people have not learned how to have You and get You for them, Lord. Let Your word cry over them now and then, for no one gives You any answer.

I was rich because of my parents, and I had given to the poor of my wealth and then the king took it all away from me after he martyred me because I did not want to do his will and martyr the disciples after his will; but, on the contrary, I was teaching them what faith was, even more burning, and they loved You waiting for Your victory for them, as I waited, because the king put me in dungeon and You sent Your angel and at his sight my little heart startled looking at the crown of my patience, which You had sent me before my martyrdom, and when my time under the sword had came I raised my right hand for the first sword to mark me in my right side and to be like You by sacrifice, for I loved You with longing, and I wanted to do everything according to Your will and to show You my love, and after a while You showed me to the people and You glorified my body and gave it as a gift to the faithful ones, as a proof of my great love for You, my Lord and God, and behold, no one but the saints can give You the answer, those who loved You on earth having in them the wisdom of the cross, Your image and likeness on their way with You on the earth, becoming Your church, bearers of God among people and among kings. Oh, Lord, the man waits to see and to believe, but he who is born of the flesh cannot see like the one who is born of the spirit and those who set themselves to be great over the people into Your name cannot give You any answers. Comfort Yourself with Your faithful people and always teach it the wisdom of the cross, for the servants of the church do not love the cross and its carrying, but even more, they are slow in making the right cross on their body when they make the sign of the cross[158], and You do not have any comfort from them but only pain. We surround and comfort You, Your saints and angels, for You do not have any other comfort, and You should comfort Yourself with Your people on the earth, into whose midst You have made Your coming and the word of Your coming, the voice of the Shepherd over the earth. Amen.

Oh, people protected by God, become comfort to the Lord all the time and get used well to have His wound into your heart and always comfort Him with your love, and you should not have other love, for everything is only emptiness, and let only the Lord to be the fullness of your heart, for this is how I lived in my body on the earth, and then I gave myself for the salvation of many and I am the help of many. Peace to you from all the martyrs on the earth, for You overcame the world and set apart for God! Be, therefore, the Lord's comfort in His pain! Amen.

— I, the Lord, sit with the saints at the table with you, people receiving the word from heaven, and you have another saint that I love at My table with you, and whose body, glorified by Me, stands witness of the love of God into the midst of the city of Bucharest, surrounded by My great patience: the devout Dimitrie[159], who was glorified before Me by his humility on the earth, who was a shepherd of cattle in his childhood and then in monastery, neglected by those who were praised on My name, but who was praised by My righteousness in him after it was discovered that it was, for it came out at the surface of his body that was godly even while he was on earth and then he gave himself to the Romanian people to the testimony of humility and of the love of God in man. Oh, what will the people of the servants of church answer face to face with the life of this holy man, fruitful of humility and self-denial, and with whom they are appearing before the people now, calling them to the feasts of saints and collecting a lot of money for them from all sides? The devout Demetrious cries among the devout in heaven and has long endurance for all who have him as their protector, as the saints are full of mercy and they sigh with Me for man, and their sigh is heard sighing. Amen.

— Oh, this is how I sigh in the midst of the lawlessness that is loved by the people, Lord, and into the midst of the richness of human glory, which does not warm You up but only them. I sigh and I am long enduring because I did not love the earthly glory but I always loved humility and dwelling with You and in You, far from people and far from the servants of the church full of glory, and behold, even now I have long endurance with heavenly love and I am suffering for You so that You may keep the country of Your choice through the saints for the end of the time and its land chosen for Your glory of today. You do no longer have any comfort from this people departed [159] St. Dimitrie (Demetrius) Basarabov the New, the patron saint of Bucharest, is one of the most memorable representatives of Christian life, and his relics are kept in the Patriarchal Cathedral in Bucharest. Saint Dimitri (Demetrius) the New lived in the 13th century and little is known about his life. He was born in the village of Basarabov, located on the banks of the River Lom, near the town of Russe. A shepherd in his early years, it is said that St Dimitri had later became a monk, dedicating himself to fasting, prayers and vigils. For his humble life, God entrusted him with the power to work miracles. The pious Dimitri knew the moment of his death beforehand, and choose the place of his final rest between two stones that were gradually covered by the river. The place of his rest was unknown until a sick child had a revelation when the pious Dimitri appeared in her dream and said: "If your parents would take me out of the water, I will heal you!"

from Your wills and Christian only by Your name upon it, but You have comfort and You have heavenly wealth here, with the people of Your word, which You take care like a child to have him and to have a house, Lord, for we, Your saints on the hearth of the Romanian people, have long endurance with You for the protection of this land, on which You come and glorify Yourself in the word. Oh, what will do all those who will see clearly how much heavenly glory has been on this little patch of land and that there have been no eyes to see and to understand? Oh, glory to You for Your today's coming, in which You have Your saints as it is written! Lord, blessed are those who are poor in their spirit, as I also was, and who wait from heaven and not from earth for their comfort. Amen.

— Oh, peace to you, merciful saints like God on earth and in heaven for those who are faithful! The time is coming and it has already come to glorify Myself on earth with you, but this is not as man knows to do; on the contrary, I work mysteriously until My appearance with you. Amen.

Now, My people, I am announcing you as My feast with My angels into your midst. On a day of the angels' feast I am stopping with the people, faithful to My word into your midst. Gird yourself with power for the body and soul and lay the table for God and for His angels, for you are My servant at My today's table with the saints on earth, here, but We, those from heaven, also serve you, to be protection and support for each other from heaven and down to earth and from earth up to heaven.

I bless the way of the faithful ones, who persevere in their longing and love to My spring of word once with the coming of the feast of their gathering for the feast of My angels. I will embrace them, I will comfort them, I will advise them to heaven and to the truth of the life, and their faith will help them become according to My will and to their love.

Oh, come sons, come and learn the work of the life of God's sons! Take from Me and from My saints the wisdom of the carried cross, and let the love in your hearts burn for those in heaven and for the things in heaven, for I need to do great work from the Father: a new heaven and a new earth for those who are My faithful ones, the kingdom of the saints, as it is written. Peace to you on the way to My gardens of the halting point with the people of My word and with you here at the feasts! The angelic hosts go before you on your way to My spring.

Let all the angelic armies get ready for My glory with them, for My day with them! Amen.

And you, those who watch for My people that is everywhere, be like Me in love and in patience. As God loves and does not come to an end with His patience, even if the man does not listen to Him and does not submit to him completely, you should do the same, those who protect My people on My behalf not to be sad, do not be tense when he is not careful, not obedient or humble, but rather you should pray to Me for his salvation from those things that it does and which you and I do not like, and let us have long endurance in humility, sons, for patience will give forth fruit because it is from heaven.

Peace to you, sons, and set the people from the spring to work for the preparation of the angels' feast, and you should be into its midst, watching sons! My word upon those who listen to fulfill is heavenly anointment. I, the Lord, have watched ahead of time with the heavenly armies and I give My entire support to your bodies and souls and I strengthen My sacrificing people as My work with them is from the Father and My glory from the Father is theirs too, for their ministry is for My glory, for the glory of the Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the holy archangels Michael and Gabriel

I Myself am speaking and let My voice be heard, and every word of My mouth is being written into My book of today on earth. I Myself am coming and speaking and I am filling the air with the strength of My word, with its love and glory, and all the angels are part of My glory.

From one end of the ages to another, all the angels are My glory and they sing, up in heaven and down on earth: Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Sabaoth; the heaven and the earth is full of His greatness; the angels from above sing hosanna to God in the highest, as the heaven and the earth is full of His greatness, of His Son, for the Father and the Son are glorified between heaven and earth by the power of the Holy Spirit, the Trinity of God in One. Amen.

I Myself am speaking and coming as word, and the word of My mouth is being written down. I do no longer send any angel or man to the people by My order, but I, Myself, the Lord Jesus Christ, am coming and sitting down face to face with man, for two thousand years ago, I came down from the Father and took a body among people and spoke with My own mouth, and the speaking of My mouth was written on the earth, and now, towards the end of the time, I am speaking again over the earth, for I am the incarnated God and I have a mouth to speak and that is why I, Myself, am speaking and I am the messenger of the Father Sabaoth, and I am speaking. Amen.

Open to My voice, you, those who put the word of My mouth into its book and set My entire word on the table of feast of My angels, for with Me, with My angels and with you, are gathered at the table those who are carried by the angels to My spring of word, which flows from My mouth here, where I have made My outpouring and its holy place!

Oh, you should receive Me as the King of all, you those set at a heavenly table, at the table of My angels, where you have come now! Receive Me, the invisible One, surrounded by the angelic hosts, for the angels cover My whole body, those without body cover My body with My glory from the Father, with God's angels; however, if they are bodiless, how comes that the man's eyes cannot see Me when I am close to man?

Behold what great work of mystery God's angels are and what mysterious work My body is, and My word between Me and man!

Oh, peace to you, diners of the glory of My word ministered by angels that is to be on earth with you during these days! Peace to you, for you have got up from your bed and took the road early in the morning for My today's glory, here, where I have made its dwelling, here where I have found open to come, to be, to leave and to share the voice of My mouth with those who believe through My gift in My today's coming as word on earth! The angelic hosts have accompanied you without you seeing them with the eyes of your body, but you have accompanied the mystery of your travelling with My angels on the way. Oh, in the same mysterious way, they accompany Me on the way between heaven and earth when I come down as word, here, at the spring. Great is God's glory between heaven and earth, between earth and heaven, and man needs faith for it just as Abraham had. When man wants the Lord, when he loves Him and waits for Him always, he brings the Lord near him just as Abraham brought Him, and if you know to look well into the Scriptures of Abraham's encounter with the Lord under the oak tree, then you will learn the Lord near you and you will know Him mysteriously and you will speak with Him as Abraham did, and as He spoke with Abraham. Behold the sight of the eyes of the spirit, the eyes of the faith, the eyes that see like God and not like man, but Abraham's woman saw like a man and worked like a man, for she saw with the eyes of the body and that was all, and she spoke for God likewise, she spoke like a man; however, Abraham saw like God, spoke like God and spoke with God; he spoke with God not with a man or with God's messenger, but with God Who was divided in three parts to work threefold like God by His coming to Abraham.

Oh, peace to you and joy for Me with you at the table of the feast of God's angels! I embrace you, I comfort you with My exhortation and I advise you to heaven and to the truth of life, and may your faith and love help you to become according to My will; may it teach you the work and the life of God's sons. May the wisdom of your carried cross teach you the work of martyrdom so that you may be able to become My disciples and that I may also work with you the endless mystery in the end of the time: a new heaven and a new earth for My faithful ones, the kingdom of the saints, as it is written.

Be full of the spirit of humility, sons! I give you the forgiveness of your sins by the humility which urges you to repentance, and repentance is God's love; it is the feeling of the searching after God, in which I want you to remain, because it is the image of the first love, the moment when you seek to find Me, to love Me and then to follow Me with longing.

Oh, learn from My spring of word upon you and be My friends and My brothers in humility, sons, for here it is what I am telling you: it is written in the Scriptures that God stands against the proud and gives grace to the humble, and He stands against the proud by those around them, and to the humble He gives grace for those around them, and behold how close to you the Lord is, as close as He was to Abraham then under the oak! I teach you the mystery and the work of the faith when I speak so clearly to you, so detailed, the thread of the work of the faith. He who humbles himself will be exalted and he who exalts himself will be humbled and thrown down by his self-exaltation, for Abraham humbled himself and was exalted to see God, and his wife exalted herself in her thought and was humbled by her self-exaltation, as she saw this, she saw that the Lord spoke for her and she exalted herself and did not believe.

Sons, I have redeemed you from sin by My sacrifice with sufferance, and you have to be redeemed for Me for your salvation through repentance so that your sin may be wiped out because the Lord suffered pain and contempt and death on your account, for man's sin is set face to face with God and by sin man separates himself from God, and I, in order to redeem him, laid down My life. Oh, listen so that you may fulfill in you the word of My teaching, for obedience shows you that you have humility, and then humility brings you grace, for it becomes grace, and the grace works for you and it becomes word in you to be able to say by My grace: "Oh, how great is Your goodness, which You have laid up for those who fear You, which You have worked for those who take refuge in You, before the sons of men! In the shelter of Your presence You will hide them from the plotting of men. You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues, for Your mercy is great." (Ps: 31/19, 20)

Oh, you receive Me as the King of all, you those sitting today at the table of My angels, into their midst with Me, the invisible One, for I am surrounded by the angelic hosts, for My angels cover My body. Those with no body cover My body with My glory from the Father, with God's angels, but if they do not have any body, how comes that the man's eyes cannot see Me when I am near man? Oh, God's angels are great work of mystery and My body and My word between Me and man are such mysterious work!

Oh, who can give Me an answer? If the angels have no body, how comes that man is not able to see Me when I am near him to accompany him? I am the invisible One, for I am surrounded by the angelic hosts, and those who are faithful to Me receive Me as the King of all and they urge one another to welcome Me and to sing to Me like angels: «Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Sabaoth. The heaven and the earth is filled with His glory and blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!» Oh, this is how sing then those who eat of My body and drink of My blood after I call and tell them: (At the service of the Divine Liturgy, r.n.) „Take, eat; this is My body and drink it, for this is My blood, God broken for you and pouring out His blood for you for the forgiveness of your sins!"

Oh, who can answer Me? How comes that man does not see Me close to him if My angels, who cover My body, are without a body? And behold the voice of those who answer Me! The bodiless angels are giving Me this answer now. Amen.

— We, Lord King of all, we are those who cover You between You and man for we are Your glory which You have from the Father Sabaoth before the foundation of the world. Oh, You are as great as the world of the angels, who are Your glory! As many times as someone lays down as a sacrifice for others, that is great, and his price is much more than they are, for otherwise they would not be able to be redeemed. You are the King of angels and the King of all the nations and You are humble, Master and Lord, and that is why You are so mysterious, oh, Lord, and Your humility cover Your brightness and its light, which all overflows in us, in Your angels, who are Your cover and glory, and we bear Your humility and are the garment of Your humility between earth and heaven.

Oh, the man has made bodies between heaven and earth, with which he walks like You carried in the air, but these angels, made by man, have bodies and wings of iron and they have them from the earth and not from the heaven, as You come with us from heaven on earth, but man does not see his weakness, because he wants to be higher than You and more of an angel than God's angels, oh, Lord. Oh, man has also made flying bodies, seen by people hovering in the air, but it is one thing for God to make and it is another thing for man to make, Lord. The glory of Your angels are from You, for You are a great light and a consuming fire and You overflow in us so that You may not destroy the world with Your brightness, and we protect, Lord, and the world of Your angels between earth and heaven is a frightful mystery between heaven and earth, Lord King. You come with the angels; You come carried by the cherubim and on the winds of angels, when You come between earth and heaven, for when You come, those who are Yours also come with You. When the chief of the angels comes with You, he does not come alone, but he comes with his entire armies. The angels bearing of God between heaven and earth become wings of lighting fire and of light like fire, and man is not afraid of You when You let Yourself be carried by man, by the bearer of God between You and man, and when You become a fire of light giving and a light like fire in the one who carries You to the man between heaven and earth, for Your work is great, Lord, it's like its mystery.

If the bearer of God does not love in him Your will and Your commandments fulfilled in him, that one is a liar and cannot do anything from God; however, if he brings forth fruit to You and fulfills the Scriptures according to Your will, that one is an illuminating fire and light like fire between earth and heaven, and the man is not afraid of You when You let Yourself be carried by the bearer of God between You and man, oh, Lord. Man has had a try at Your sword and he is not afraid of his death. Man does not know what God means with him, oh, Lord, not even when he sees You in his face, in the image of the bread and wine, which become Your body and blood to the forgiveness of the man's sins, oh, not even then does the man not know how to stay face to face with You, and if he does not know this well, then the cold man is not moved by You love, even if he knows that he has to partake with God.

Oh, how great Your coming of today is! What a great light it brings on earth over those who do not truly know what God is before them! You have commanded us, Master, and we have fulfilled Your word and brought with us to the feast, the world of those who have left the earth, because they have come to fulfill Your Scripture for the new birth of the world, Lord. They are arranged according to their groups, each one has come in the order of his groups at the feast of us, and their spirit has humbled greatly before the face of Your glory with us and with Your today's people, a servant before You for the resurrection of the dead. In their name, I, Your chief of angels, bow before You for Your mercy on our day of feast and remembrance for them, for this is how You have ordained into the midst of Your people.

Now, Your angels, are telling them, we are telling those who are sitting and to those who have come to the table of Your kingdom here, where You have made a wedding dwelling, and we are telling them this: Let us stand well, with awe and be attentive before the Father Sabaoth and before His messenger, Jesus Christ, His Son, the One born of the Father before eternity! Take heed with faith like His invisible angels, but still they see Him, worshipping Him forever, for His glory is great, it is angelic, and it is not human! Be filled with the spirit of humility like God's angels! Love the angelic life and embrace it, for the Lord is a consuming fire and He is coming with His angels near you, covering His body! Obedience means humility, and the Lord Jesus Christ has advised the man now, in the end of the time, as at the beginning of the time with the man; He has told him how to eat as in paradise[160], and not as on earth. Do no longer eat meat! This is how the Lord has told you, and you should listen to Him as it is going to be hard for those who do not listen in this way. Oh, blessed will be those who let themselves be embraced by the angelic life, that with obedience like God's angels, who do only His will, loving Him, glorifying Him, and serving Him between heaven and earth, between earth and heaven. Amen.

And now, the armies of angels are arranged for the feast, and You, Lord Master, bless the angelic glory in heaven and on earth, the day of the feast of Your angels! Peace to You into the midst of Your well and faithful people, gathered under Your tent, under the glory of Your word ministered by angels in a day of Your heavenly assembly with Your angels and with the people of Your word that are housing us with their love, with their welcome, and with their faith receiving of God. Amen, amen, amen.

— My heavenly glory overflows in you, oh, God's angels, and you are a flame of fire and a dazzling light, and man does not know what God and His glory from above is, and even by his spirit, he cannot look at God, for man has no consciousness from above for God and he has got one only from the earth. My glory of today becomes an angelic song for your feast, for you are singing the angelic song for

[160] «God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the sur-face of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food.» (Gen. 1/29.)

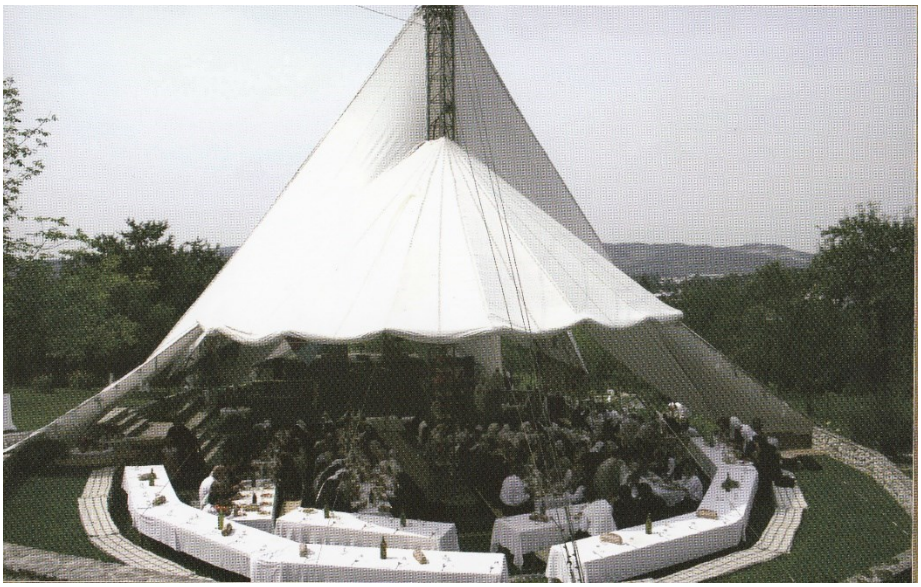
My glory and I am also singing with you, because it is written: «Weep with those who weep and rejoice with those who rejoice after the weeping is gone», (Rom: 12/15), and My people sing for My glory, which is you. My glory is angelic and not earthly; it is not human and no king on earth is king for his glory is fleeting, and it is human. Only the angelic glory is true glory, and I, the Lord come and am sitting down with My Father, with My mother virgin and with the saints at the table of the feast with God's angels and with you, My people from the spring, which have set a feast for Me and a table of feast, and We have with Us those that have come together from the four corners of the earth under the glory of My word, giving of glory, love and comfort, and I have given My comfort to them.



Let us sit at the table and let us work beautifully and holy and I will embrace My table once again with little word to give thanks, for this is how the Lord works, and after each of His works, He give thanks to those who are weary and seals with His name: Jesus Christ. Amen.

Peace to this feast, and you, My people from the spring, work with grace in this day, for I have set upon you much grace to have it and to multiply it, and then to give Me your work, for after that, I will give the whole reign to My Father, Who submitted to Me all things, until I will have finished to work and fulfill. Amen, amen, amen.

*

The love of God is taught from God, and after that it teaches the man all things, My people, and much joy and comfort come up from you to Me, when into your midst God's love and His teaching are shared over those who have come to the spring and to you who are at the feast here, at My spring of word, oh, My people from the spring. If I become here a spring of word, then it is shared with you, and those who come, they come to the spring, and they come with thirst when they come, and I, the Lord, rejoice with the entire heaven when I have someone to give from heaven that what I have also given you. I give you from heaven that you may grow from heaven and that I may have you with My heaven on earth and to put you to work for those on earth, for this is how I also work with the saints and with the angels and I always have work to do, well sons, for man makes much damage on earth and I have no one to built with, those that are spoiled from their place; however, I have to renew everything between heaven and earth and I have you as new seed, and I have to gather from it hundredfold and thousandfold crop, as I have to put back seven ages of people, because man is a kingdom for Me and he is very much corrupt and I long to heal him, but it is much to work and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, helps Me, as He is the One, Who cleanses, sanctifies, renews and teaches man, only to have a way to give Myself to the people, well, sons. I, the Lord, get comforted within My wound when you help Me, to be able to work upon man and to give him of My mouth, just as a mother gives from her mouth chewed food to her baby in her arms and nourishes him to his growth.

It does not come to your mind how much comfort I have when I carry with you the burden of My coming with the saints on earth, with the great work of the renewal of the world, the Scripture, which I have to fulfill now, well sons. The heavenly hosts have seen your greatness in which I, the Lord, have set you, for I have put you near Me, at the hard and new work for the work of the man's creation, the work of the new heaven and of the new earth, well, well, sons. You are few and small, but I have set you near Me and I have given you this greatness for your faith in My coming of today, and for which you have to be careful always when it has to work for great and small work, which I am to fulfill with you, and that I may have a place with those on the earth by your faith, sons. Soon, soon, we will seal the completion of the new building, which was set and is still getting set on its pillars for My ministry when I come to meet those who come at the spring to take of My Spirit from you, for I give Myself through you to whom I give Myself.

Oh, well sons, it is hard to make man know what is black and what is white, for him to know how it is and what he has got to work and fulfill and to take God's side, the side of his salvation from Me. I look at you to see how you want to show to those who come what is black and what is white, what is good and what is evil; and then further, what is black and what is red, but you need much time, and the time is little and it presses you, sons. Oh, it will be some other way too; but, be faithful! The time is coming for the whole world to see that it does not love God and that God does not love it either, but the Lord wants it for its salvation, and this is the work which I have to fulfill for the world wandering away on the earth and for which I wear purple clothes, a garment sprinkled with blood. There is great wisdom for the man to understand God's mysteries like God, and the world has to see how blind it is, how little it sees, how little it knows when it says that it knows and that it can do. The heavenly language speaks otherwise than the language of the man's mind, for the man's language gets confused by itself, and it does not know the heavenly language if it does not come to think otherwise that how the man knows to think with the language of his mind, for man speaks more with the language of his mind than with the language of his mouth, and I have told him this.

Where is the man supposed to hear from, that the blood of the true Christian is white and not red? Behold, My language speaks otherwise than the language of the man's mind. Has the man known in times that the black of the devil turns red to lie to him and to draw him to its black and devilish garment, as the world is dressed in the black skin of the devil because it does his will? Behold, with the devil, his black becomes red before man to entice him and to turn the man black, and with God, red becomes white, as for many martyrs, when they were cut for My holy name, it was their white blood that ran on the ground and not the red one, and the servants of the devil did not startle at this sign, for their venom was too black to be able to see something with it to mean God with His saints face to face with the devil.

All those who love the Lord on earth wash their little shirt in My blood of sacrificed Lamb for them and whiten their little shirt, for I wore a purpled robe, a robe sprinkled with blood to be able to whiten the man's shirt, and the man does not have any mind to understand the language of the heaven and its work, which does not take after the language of the man's mind, the man who does not know what black is, what white is and what red is, for if I speak in My language with the man who pretends to be wise with Me, and he says that I do not know how to speak, that I am not God if I go wrong in My speaking. Oh, woe to you, man who rely on your sight and on the language of your human mind!

Glowing white is the martyrdom garment, but the blood on the garment turns white on the little shirt of the one who has been sacrificed for My name. The man who loves God dresses properly and does not do like the worldly man, who dresses in white in the time of his sin to make the devil white, and the man who loves God humbles and admits that he sins and is blackened by sin, and then he puts on his body a little black coat, (Black coat of the monk, r.n.) but this black is white and holy through the one who is white in his soul and humbles his life under the sign of his unworthiness, cleansing thus the devilish pride form him, in which all people live.

There are parties on earth and there are weddings after weddings, and the wedding has got the bride dressed in white, but the one who dresses in white is black of sin, and behold the language of the devil on the man's tongue and in the eyes of the man who is blackened by sin, and this is only one of the signs of the lying devil with his work among people.

Oh, sons it is hard to make man understand what black is and what white is, as while with the saints or with those who are sanctified their black garment means humility, repentance and great humility, with the devil's man is otherwise, for the white or the red garment is pride, it is devilish pride, which means haughtiness, not cleanness or glory as the man knows to lie to himself when the pride of the devil's sons works like that among people, and behold, pride stands face to face with itself, because the devil's man cannot hide his pride and the black of his life, just as the holy one of the Lord hides his humility under the humble garment of the repentance of his heart before Me, under the black of his little shirt, which covers under it, the white little shirt of the holy man.

How the black blood of the devil's man is supposed to be red? When the common man climbs on the throne of a king, is he really a king? Does the humble man worship God by it when he bows before the common one who climbs to be a king? I, the Lord, bowed in humility under the hand of John, the Baptizer, the saint of My Father, the angel of the Father, and I bowed before him that he could baptize Me, but the Father was king in him and not John, a mere man, as he was in the mind of Herod's adulteress, who sent him from earth to heaven.

Behold, on earth, the devil's people and the people of sin climb up on the seats of saints or kings, as Caiaphas and Herod did, and God's people and the people of holiness come down from the seat of the human glory and give themselves over to Me entirely, as by an angelic ministry, Cornelius, the centurion, and Zacchaeus, the tax collector, gave themselves to Me, and as did all those who separated themselves for God from among the people through the time, hating the earthly honors, which were hurting them inside, as they could hardly carry them after they received them from the man of the empty glory, who wanted to use before many even those in whom I, the Lord, was dwelling mysteriously and hidden until the time of their love.

Oh, where else does man find such speaking like Mine, and explanation like Mine, for all those things, which on earth are not according to the man's language and mind; that is, the man who has become more earthly than the man built by Me out of the dust and in whom I wanted to put the whole heaven after I had built? My speaking is great and big, and it is hard for the man who is small in his faith and in My dwelling in him, for Lucifer, fallen from My glory of angels, spoils the man in his mind and nature and pulls down the one who does not humble under God's greatness, and therefore, man perishes because of his lack of knowledge for his salvation from God.

Oh, weary sons for My glory, I have told you that I will embrace your feast with the angels by a little word at its end, but My longing is not comforted My, and My spoken word is always little because of the man's weakness to bear with it.

Now I have to thank those who have travelled to come to My spring of word, at the feast of My angels, and I have given them the angelic hosts as companions on their way back, who will finish their feast only after that. I thank those who have loved Me and have come from the four corners of the earth; I thank them for their love, which brought them to the spring on their way with the angels, for I have sent My angels to meet them. I am giving them holy powers for My holy will in them and I am multiplying their longing and love for those in heaven, who stand in the threshold for the feast of Epiphany when they will come again at the spring, and even from now, I come with the saints and with the angels to meet them again, and to give them again. Amen.

And I am telling them this: Be blessed and sanctify yourselves more and more with every passing day, for I wait for you to come holier and holier and to be more and more heavenly, and to have Me in you; you should grow less for My glory in you and I to be great in you, for this is how are those who are saints, this is how the Lord works for them, and this is how the Lord can work in them with His works. Amen.

And as for you, those who have worked for Me for the glory of the holy feasts here, where I, the Lord have gathered the people at the feasts around My mouth in order to give them from My mouth, oh, and to make you strong always too, sons, because you are few and are small under My strong hand, and I need you very much, well sons, for you have to welcome the guests whenever I announce Myself to you with people assembled at the spring, and you have to work with great holiness, with great love, relying on Me and not on you, for you are small. I have always strengthened you in hard times. In time of joy or in hardships, I am the One Who gives you to have or to be able to work, for the devil has got great sufferance from you and he is upset with you for My glory with you, and he wants to make you cry whenever he can do it; however, I bring you powers and comfort and I reestablish the whole peace and work whenever he crushes the peace from you, for My victory is great, sons, only for you to know how to rely on My care for you, on My love for you; and your labor, in which I give you rest and I rest too, will have a dear reward, sons. Oh, be good! The evil spirit cannot work in those who love Me, but he can work only in those who get proud more than they are. Be full of humility all the time, for only humility helps you to be only Mine. Amen.

I want to give you rest now, to thank you and to comfort you for the care that you have had for the preparation of the feast of the angels. I am sealing with My name all the things from you here, for My name, Jesus Christ, is written on everything. Amen.

Oh, peace to you; much peace to you, sons! I give you My peace in joy and in trouble! My watch, ministered by angels and by saints, covers you everywhere, for you are the sons on whom I rely. Rely on each other within great love, and learn the love of God and seal yourselves with it to be able to remain in it and that it may remain in you too, for he who does not remain in it, perishes, sons. Love one another as I have loved you! Forgive one another as I have forgiven you! Humble yourselves for any wrongdoing, no matter how small it may seem, for the devil does not have any fruit in those who humble themselves for others by love in the name of the love of God among brothers. I will comfort you, I will always give you holy powers to work for Me with them, and I will be with you, sons, only that you may be for Me completely. Give to each other all those that are put by Me in you for My work with you, and then give Me to the people to their knowledge of God. Amen.

Love and keep the work with blessing upon you, well sons, for I protect you through it. Amen.

08/21-11-2011.

The feast of the Entrance of the Lord's Mother into the church

On this day of holy feast, I, the Lord, am coming with heavenly guests at My table with you, My people, for My mother Virgin has great honor among saints and among angels, and she has got a bunch of prophets around her now, and they are taking of her glory and tasting her joy, which is seen from far away, until her fulfillment was to come on earth, for she was born on earth, the little child who had to grow up and become My mother, the fulfillment of the prophecies spoken ahead of time to be fulfilled on earth among people, according to the heaven's work.

Oh, how shall we celebrate this day of feast, sons? My mother Virgin is within her celebrating glory on this day, but her look and her care is after you, those who have been working for Me on earth for the Scriptures for this time. She is with her strengthening, with her watching, with her protection, with her care of heavenly mother after you, as it is hard on earth; on earth there is only darkness, there is only deceit upon people, and the whole sweetness the man tastes is only bitterness, for everything that is sweet for man is only bitterness and tear with God and with His saints. The feast of the heaven is to feed you within a watching spirit, with ongoing exhortation for your life with God, with much word of mystery teaching, sons, for the man has to become a new man in order to be able to belong to God now and forever.

We are setting the word as food on the table, as many take and eat of My table with you, My people. My joy from these would be whole if they took in them the fear of God to fulfill that which I have asked you to fulfill and to be. To the one who also wants to fulfill, as I ask him to have before Me a Christian life in this time, oh, to one like this much love and much watch is needed. I put My will on the table, and man takes from it as much as he wants when he takes from the table My word, which I give him so that the people may know him, only that the work of the new man is much and it is always; it is not only on one side and it is not only from time to time. Oh, man cannot be half old and half new, as only the whole thing has got a whole face, and I always have to put on the table the word for the man's making, and I have always had power for man, for I want the man to be My will and no longer be his will, for by his will man perishes.

Oh, no one says that he serves satan, and there are many who say that serve God, only that the ministry before God is the fulfillment of His commandments and the love for his neighbor, and it is watching for the Lord's coming and it is always a spirit of confession, a humble and gentle spirit, and these cannot do any harm to someone.

I am exhorting all those who take of this heavenly meal and I am telling them: Oh, do not do any harm to God! Weigh your sins, and then you will be able to see whether you can still judge your neighbor! Look at the Lord, not at man, for otherwise you will not escape from the sin of the judgment of your brother, the sin committed so easily by any man.

Those who have come to know this work of word and who have not followed exactly its light and departed from it to go to the world and before the world, no one of them will be left without being brought to shame considerably so that he may humble himself afterwards and not to be put to shame in heaven, and I, the Lord, am telling these: come back to the faith so that you may not be ordained to the day of judgment for this sin, which has given to blasphemy the work of My word and those who carry Me to earth and to man; however, I am ready to destroy this sin only that you may save your life and faith, well sons.

Behold, man cannot be half new and half alive; therefore, I come to teach man the whole work for the Lord, because I suffer from man, because I reveal Myself to him and he does not fulfill in him but only as much as he wants, and he comforts himself that he cannot do more;

however, it is written that every man who knows My ways and does not walk on them, that man should not speak about God because he makes damage to God, because when man sees this one, he says that this is how much the Lord asks from him, as much as he sees at the one who is not fulfilled, who speaks to the people about God. Oh, God's will with man is not like that; it is not as much as the man's will before God.

Much teaching is needed over man. Many try to set themselves aside for God, but they do not know to die so that they may know to live after that, for I look at man and I suffer from him. There are many who think they belong to God. Also, there were and there are many of those who have taken and eaten of My yesterday and today's word, but they have not come to be steadfast within My pleasure yet. The man who „rises at a feather", at this discontentment that he makes at any step, that one is not a healthy man in his mind and heart for God; rather, he is only for himself in his heart and I can do nothing to such a man if he does not seek after his healing seriously, from the hand of a soul doctor, from the hand of a soul, loving of God and working with God, set by Me, the Lord, for the man's salvation, for the man's self-healing, who seeks after this healing, but not of the one who does not seek after this healing. When I want to speak to man, I speak through man, and I speak to him as from My law, stirring up the spirit of man in order to make the one I look for come back to Me, but I need welcome for God, as Abraham welcomed Him, knew Him and spoke with Him full of faith.

Oh, wholeness in love is needed, and man has to learn and love God to the most of His will, according to His expectation and not to choose alone how much he can do this. The world has nothing but say in its language that God loves it, but the Christian has to love God and speak likewise, as this work of love is much and great, for the devil sings on earth a song of love for the word love, for the feeling of love, but this song is not for love, for only God is love and it has to be whole then when it is in man for God.

Oh, My mother, on your day of feast, I have set to teach the man what the love from heaven is, mother. What else have We got to give to man but the love from above? I leave your speech to give to the man with the sweetness from above, as man is used only to those from below, mother. I am blessing your word of feast, as Our teaching is a big feast on earth! Oh, only if those who get it on their way may love its taste, mother! You are an example of new man, full of God. Show your spirit to the people, mother! Amen.

— My spirit, Jesus Lord, my Son, is also a virgin one, like my body, for the world and its spirit did not make any nest within my spirit in my time on earth. You have holy work to do on this day with Your people at the spring and we stay with it at the holy work, and I am also getting down with it to work after that, for my spirit longs to teach every man from Your table of word, as it is a day of glory for me in heaven and on earth. Let us give place to the holy ministry for this great day and then let us set the whole word with work in it for man, for man does not know to be with God, as it is required for this ministry, Lord Son. Peace to the holy work of the feast of today into the midst of Your people at the spring, oh, my loved Son, Jesus! Amen.

— Oh, mother Virgin, We are staying with them at holy work and then We are sitting down with your sweet speech for them and for every man who takes from Us, mother.

May this day of holy feast and holy work be blessed! My mother Virgin is carried by the cherubim and seraphim with the whole retinue of saints who are spending the day of feast for her. We are working according to the power from below with all those from above, to comprise what is to be spoken and worked far and wide for those who are faithful and for those who are not faithful, for everything that is in heaven and on earth is under My submission, for the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit has everything under His dominion. Amen, amen, amen.

We have worked both in heaven and on earth the holy service of the day of today, a day of great celebration for My mother Virgin, and we are putting now into the book holy word for a holy life in man, word with power, the work of the making of the new man, the man in God's image and after His likeness, for My mother Virgin wants My longing to come true, for I have longed after My beginning with man when I built him to make My rest in him, a place where God could rest, only that the man built by God took a place for himself in him in order that he may reign in him and over all between heaven and earth like a god and not like the man's work for God, and then he overthrew My dwelling in him, and since then and up to this day man has not been otherwise. However, because I am the Creator of all and everything, I have great care to bring somehow the work of creation to its first appearance, and I have worked with great care; I have worked for seven thousand years within burning care and I have waited for the moment to speak fresh word for the appearance of those newly worked, and I am telling them: «Behold, We are making all new!», and let everything be beautiful and holy again like in the beginning, when I built the world. However, now, I have between earth and heaven the world of the people, and the spirit of the world is foreign to the Spirit of God, and everything that is not God gets corrupted, it gets very much deformed and it does no longer has any image, and this is what the spirit of the world has been doing with the human creature, and I have to speak to man this, letter by letter, word by word, so that My judgment of all things may be right according to the book of the creation between heaven and earth, as there is now another creation between earth and heaven; it is the creation which man has made and keeps on making it, for he has said to himself: «I will raise my throne above heavens, and above the Most High will I raise it!» Oh, only My angels knew the glory of My reign, the glory of the Most High, and man brought forth a hidden thought in him after I had given him to rule over My work for him and to acknowledge as Master over him his Creator and the Creator of everything that has been made by God, the visible and invisible things, according to their work.

Oh, My people, much and deep humility is needed in man for his service before God or before man. Oh, My people, the evil spirit has been well hidden for seven thousand years to do in each man what it did with the first man built by God, and who became proud after God's angels served him with joy and with the love from above. Oh, sons, there has not been born in people until today the wisdom the man needs to take a good look at how much he spoils, to see how well the haughtiness in man destroys, for the first man built, by his getting proud, after I had submitted before him all the things to My glory and to his joy with Me, he also crushed then the glory of the angels, and My first angels, the man's servants after I had built him and given him the Eden as his house, they lost their ministry for Me for they bowed before man and then man became haughty for he saw himself great and powerful by what I had given him, and then man spoiled his place in heaven and on earth, and he also spoiled My place in him then and brought about only pain and falling for the angels who knew well My throne and its glory, where they were serving Me.

I want to teach man the spirit of the faithfulness towards God and towards man, oh, My dear mother and the mother of My brothers loving of God in heaven and on earth, and let us comprise what is to be spoken and worked far and wide over the faithful ones and over those who are not faithful, mother! Let us show to everyone your spirit, its making from God, mother, an illustration of new man, full of God, oh, My mother. Amen.

— It is my day of holy work over the earth through Your church of new Jerusalem, oh, my Son, Jesus Christ, my Lord and God. It is a day of much and dear work, for Our work is from heaven and there is pain in Us, because the earth is placed too far from heaven, and the man on earth has the same lack of sight like the man at the beginning in paradise, who wanted to be free from God, and even more, Lord Son. We are sitting down now to put on the table of the people of Your word food of word for the whole making that listens to Us eyes and ears, for only those who are all attention for You stand and listen to Us, and whoever is all attention for oneself then listens to oneself and also draws Your creation to listen to itself, and that is man; the man who takes after the first man built by Your hand after he fell by his haughtiness. Every man who commits sins against his making from You is a proud man, a man in the image and after the likeness of the man built by Your hand, and fallen by haughtiness after that.

Oh, take and drink from this spring of word, you, sons of the earth, men's sons! Take and learn your coming back home on the way of the spirit of repentance, for every man fell from God once with the fall of the first man built by the hand of God Word, when the council of the godly Trinity decided so: to make man in His image and after His likeness.

Oh, Lord Word, I have showed to the people their way, their raising from the sin of haughtiness built in man even from the beginning by the man from the beginning, who became proud above You, after You had built him. The way of coming back is for the man to cry over this sin and to condemn it in himself so that the angels, serving man for this sin, no longer may be able to serve the spirit of the haughtiness in man and to be freed from service, these fallen angels before Your glorified throne. Oh, may the man be healed from his fall, and may he also heal the fall of his serving angels for the haughtiness in him! We are revealing now a great mystery so that the man may know his sin and cry before You for his forgiveness, for until now, it has not be discovered how much the man's haughtiness spoiled and it spoils in heaven and on earth; the man, who, for seven thousand years has stayed above God, not taking into account the Creator of everything, and with his hypocrisy, reasoning out on earth and in the sky God's hidden mysteries in order to spoil them, as he says, and to be God; and, moreover, to say that he knows and not God.

Oh, do not forget, you, sons of the earth, that more than two thousand years ago, God came on earth and proved Himself to be the God of the heaven and earth, full of grace and truth, showing to the man His holy humility, which every man needed to have, and from which he fell by his haughtiness against God, and when Adam, from hell, saw the Lord, so much glorified by His humility, then he also saw his sin against God and against God's angels, those before the throne of godly glory, and he understood his fall and he also understood the fall of all men because of his sin.

I am speaking with You, Lord Word, my Son, so that the people may see my spirit, which is from my Creator, God, and which is set by Him in me for my humility. I show my spirit and its humility to the people, Lord Son; the humility, which the first man built and then all men should have had from one to another before You. Come with me in my speech, dear Son! Come, for the people do not know; and nor do know those who say that know about You and from You; they do not know how the fall of the angels was; they do not know that it was not the angels but only the man was the one who reached out his hand above You and then he became the fall over the serving angels of Your glorified throne! Tell to the people that they do not know what only You saw and know, that You are the Son of the Father, the One born of the Father before eternity, that You are Who You are, dear Son! Amen.

— I am telling them, mother, and I am telling them as I also told My disciples two thousand years ago, when they came to Me with joy after I had sent them to work over the people by My sending for signs and miracles in My name, and before whom the spirits of the fallen angels bowed, seeing My power in them, and I told them this: «I saw satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. … Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven». (See Luke: 10/18-20) Oh, mother, behold, even joy can be haughtiness, and what a pride, mother! My disciples wanted to rejoice that the evil spirits submitted to them, the angels fallen by the joy of the first man built by God and who became proud rejoicing that I gave him to rule over those made by God for him, and when he saw that the angels before the throne of My glory served him, he became proud, poor of him, that he had great dominion even over the angels of the throne of the Most High, the Creator of the heaven and the earth and then of the man. He who knows to read in the Scriptures can understand if he wants, for I have revealed now the sin of man's pride when the angels before My throne were serving him in paradise as God, for I, the Lord, have been serving the man from then and up to this day.

Let the man humble himself for how much compassion I have on him and for how much I have been serving him, and let him not become proud as though he may deserve this, for Adam lost his peace and Mine in him if he thought that he was worthy. However, you wanted to be the servant of the Son of God, Who had to come on earth then, and you humbled yourself deeply, mother, and you have showed your spirit to the people, since then, until this day and until tomorrow, oh, My mother. Every man who becomes proud inside and outside of him, as one worthier than others, that one is God's enemy, mother, and he causes some other souls to fall from God by his haughtiness, and I suffer great losses because of the pride of those who think they are worthy and who draw the weak to their thought in order that they may follow them, and behold how the people fall from their watch through people like the angels, who served the haughty thought of the man I set paradise after I had built him!

Oh, how much humility and how much repentance are needed to the man through whom souls fall from My face, from the spirit of faithfulness to the spirit of human frivolity and to the denial of the Lord, Who is the way, the truth and the life! The man wants to be the truth, and out of his desire, he draws from the way those who serve his pride, covered by the spirit of hypocrisy. Man does not need truth for him, but he needs repentance always, always for his cleansing of sin, and woe to the false man who sees himself better than the others, judging them and butting against their face, for the Lord did not appoint man to judge that what the Lord has to search and make clear, because the Lord is merciful, forgiving and renovator, and man is haughty, revengeful, punitive and judge.

I showed you to the people two thousand years ago, mother, and I am telling everyone that the fallen angels, who became satans, were afraid of you as long as you lived on earth and could not put any obstacles before you and did not come closer to your way with God, mother. The ruler of this world, the devil, was judged then by My coming down on earth and by My death and resurrection then, and even then he did not understand his judgment sufficiently, for this spirit remained completely blind once with his establishment between heaven and earth at the moment when the angels fell from heaven by man's haughtiness in paradise. You were My way of coming on earth, mother. You prepared yourself beautifully from your childhood and up to My coming from the Father to you and then up to your coming to the Father then, where I waited for you after I had ascended from the presence of My disciples in My body, which was visible by them by that time.

We are trying now, you and I, to show the spirit of the holy humility in man, mother, and its power for the man's salvation and for My dwelling in man, for you are an example of new man, in God's image and after His likeness, and the fallen angels did not have any evil work to do in your being, for your body and spirit were virgin, and I have been preparing these with you now, on the day of holy feast among saints for your testimony, oh, My mother. Amen.

— Yes, Son, I want You now to tell the people how You saw satan falling down from heaven like lightning when man became haughty above You after You had put him in paradise, where he rejoiced over Your glory, over Your making and where the angels in the presence of Your throne served him, as You also served him, for You were the love near man and he did not take care to keep You so that he may not spoil anything from it for him, as I did all my time on earth, of me and You with my life for You. Let the one who separates himself for You get the creeps, for You are great and man is small, oh, Son God, and man is nothing without having You always, he is not even small when he lives without You, without getting the creeps for his smallest deficiency near You and Yours near him, as I kept my life in his care, and the evil spirit was not able to rejoice over me for his bag opposing to man and to You, Lord.

I showed my spirit to the people and I have listen to You like that in my day of holy feast among saints, for You are the Word to Which all and everything have to listen between earth and heaven, between heaven and earth, oh, Son God! Amen.

— Oh, how much repentance man needs, mother! We call the man to this table, to this almsgiving, only that the man may come, mother, for everything is free.

Oh, God's sons, and you, sons of men, you should not say that you have not done, that you have not gone wrong, for the first man built hid and did not repent or humble himself, and he lost the whole of his joy. Seek after the joy of repentance, for it is so sweet, so sweet! Do not seek after the joy of haughtiness as all people have got used to tasting the spirit of his hypocrisy in such a way that they did not feel the death of their souls by this venom, killing of God in man! My disciple Peter thought that he was worthy when he said that he would not leave Me even if all the other disciples would do that, and it was not but a moment and he saw his weakness and cried bitterly in great repentance, in great pain, even if he wanted to do good to Me, and behold, he who wants to do good cannot do it, but instead he does the evil which he does not want to do; however, the humble can do it, that is, the one who has got the spirit of repentance where haughtiness has not place, for man is fallen through the man from the beginning, who became proud in paradise.

You should take, oh, you should take from My table the word of exhortation for your humility before Me, for humility in you, sons of men, for you do not find anywhere such a holy and sweet love and such a great love and so much wisdom of the mysteries from above!

And as for you, people from My spring of word, put before men the heavenly fruit, as I have set you to share Me, as that is why I have given you. May only the watch for God be your joy, for the lack of watch for this is hunted by satan to catch the man in carelessness and to throw him down, tearing to pieces his little shirt from above.

Man has to be become a new man in order that he may be God's now and forever. Man needs much love, and where it cannot be enough to set the man on fire and to make him holy, than fear of God is good, the fear of the man not to lose God, and this means humility and watch for humility, for I, the Lord, lived in humility before the Father and before the people, keeping in secret My divinity in order that I might show My humility. Amen.

Now, I am concluding the word for this day of the feast of My mother Virgin, when she, even in her childhood age gave herself to God and remained God's forever. My people, you should be Mine forever, for he who does not have such a destiny, that man is haughty; the haughtiness by which those who serve its spirit fall, like the angels, who serving the man's haughtiness in paradise, fell from before Me.

Let there be much instructions and let the holy teaching always be into your midst, My people, for there cannot be greater watch than this in order to keep man in My Spirit, in the house of mercy, sons. Oh, learn as I expect to be the work of those who are faithful; learn the spirit and the work of apostleship and the establishment within great humility of spirit for this work, which keeps the Lord on the earth with the people, and which keeps God's sons in the manger of mercy and comfort from above, sons.

Peace to you, people from the spring, people sharing of word, sharing of God, for the Word God becomes a spring and it becomes a river of spring into your midst! Amen, amen, amen.

The twenty-year feast from the dedication of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem
(Excerpt)

… Oh, the man that I created with My hand at the beginning is crying; he is crying now with pain and with calmness in his pain, and he is speaking with his Creator, Whom he did not love at the beginning, for he loved his body, because until the Lord took of his body to make and give him a helper and a companion, he had not been content. I am speaking now with him from My little garden of word, now, at the fulfillment of the times, and he sees now the place from where I took the dough of the making of his body and he knows My Spirit with Whom I breathed over him to give him a living soul and He is telling Me with pain:

— Have mercy, my Maker, on all those who have been multiplied out of me, and then from one another on earth since then and until today; have mercy on the world of the people in my image and after my likeness concerning my disobedience to You and my discontent on earth then! May Your holy will be done, and I am telling You this with tears in my eyes, for at my beginning with You I neglected Your will and spoiled Your work because I was discontent and I wanted to be big beyond my capacity and in this way I affected Your greatness, and the seat of Your greatness was shaken then because of my serving angels due to my disobedience, before which they bowed, and after that You came to speak to me as though You would have searched me, seeing the angels shaken from the place of their ministry before Your glorified throne, and then You asked me where I was. You asked me so because in my mind I wanted to hide from You, I wanted to do somehow so that You might not see me, who was blinded from the greatness and priority between me and You, oh my Maker. You came after me here, from where You are working now with Your word from the end of the time; You came back to my beginning with You and made me see the whole time from then and up to this day and You have brought me to see the end of the man's ages[161] and to see Your today's hard work and Your long endurance for man. Oh, what man was supposed to be and what today is! This makes me suffer! I have been crying and suffering for seven thousand years, but my pain from now comprises within it all the time that has been by now and I am suffering now in You, oh, and You are also suffering from me and Your pain suffers in me. Take it and put it on Your wound that You have got from me and heal Your pain and mine! It has lasted for a long time and it has made us tired, my God. However, You still have patience with man, because You want to redeem me completely because You love so much, and man has to know what God is, because He is love.

And now let Your voice over the garden of the origin of my body run its word, Lord, and make Your today's feast with those who are Your help on earth from among the people now, the children of the obedience in the end of the time for their love of the human kind, severely stricken by my disobedience from the man's beginning and whose people You want to heal now and to show Your being, Your love for man, oh, my God. Amen.

[161] See the selection topic: „The end of the world and the Day of the Lord", r.n.

— On this day, I, the Lord, have spoken here, in the garden of My word, and I have had a conversation with the man from the beginning, and I am marking today the feast of twenty years ago, since I set to the holy work of My word over the earth the little garden of My word, the place where I spoke with the Father to make a man in Our image and after Our likeness and to reign in him. And I am speaking from here now, too, in the end of the time, to join the beginning with the end and to make the beginning of new the creation by the word; to do and to work everything by the word, as for a long time I have announced through the prophets what I am working during these days, the last days, when from this mountain of word I am giving to the people the laws of creation for a holy life in man, I am giving this word over the earth, and with it I am working from the little garden of My today's word. Amen.

The feast of the saint apostle Andrew

(Excerpt)

We are sitting Ourselves down into the book with holy confessions for My saints have waited with longing for this time. It is the time of My coming with the saints in the word on earth and they see from near Me this Scripture being fulfilled, for the saints see like God because it is written: «They will be like Him and they will see Him». (1 John: 3/2)

Oh, My people, I, the Lord, spend with you days of feast, for the days of the testimonies are precious holidays for Me in heaven and into your midst. Know, My son, that the time is coming to be seen as in heaven and not as on earth, My glory with you and with My saints in a celebration with you at the feasts. The saints see like God, not like people, and they see My little garden of word in its glory from Me, as My three disciples saw Me for a while on the Mount Tabor when I let their eyes see as the heaven sees, how those in heaven see the glory of My works and of their places for them between heaven and earth. All My saints are in My glory with them and they see likewise and this glory has been confessed from time to time in visible fragments, as much as man can bear and carry, and some other times it has been written on earth even more, as John saw the citadel of the New Jerusalem in its glory, and behold, there are two sights and two situations of each work and glory, but your little hearts have to be aligned to the sight of the spirit, not with that of the body, to those that you believe and wait for, as I speak that are those that will come into sight once with the change, for all will be changed into incorruption when there will no longer be death.

All things are shown through the word as they are and all wait for the man's change, for his godliness, and that is why I have come on earth now as word; I have come to give the man the power of faith and that he may see through the faith like Abraham those that are in the Lord, seen and kept between man and God, for I longingly want and My saints want likewise for the separating curtain to be seen as in heaven on earth, as the saints see, not as the people see, and for this one does not need a spirit of inquisitiveness, rather much preparation and much spiritual work among brothers, and love as fire is needed as well, for God is a consuming fire, a fire of love and in the same way has to be the man who sees the Lord in the splendor of His love from the Father, that from eternity.

The feast of the Saint Virginia, God's trumpet
Message to the country, to the Church and its Patriarch

The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, becomes word over the earth and fills with His voice the little garden of His word into the midst of the Romanian people. The Word God is on the hearth of this nation with His garden of word and the Holy Spirit is speaking in it. How is really this people supposed to give account to God for so much river of word, coming out of its riverbed and overflowing its banks with power, having in it a spirit of awakening, of teaching, of comfort, of patience, of calling to the table of the kingdom of the heavens those who hear its smooth roar, or as a deeply moving voice passing from place to place with a spirit of resurrection, of calling and of peace over those who are anxious, or of calling over those who sleep deeply, who are in a deep sleep when the Lord is calling at the gates to come in and to set the table of His wedding on this land?

Oh, My country of wedding, oh, Romanian nation, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, have been into your midst as word of Holy Spirit for more than fifty years. There is no rumor not to be spread, not to be heard everywhere after that. The heavens stay open above you and the Lord is speaking upon you, announcing Himself from you with His speaking upon you and sending upon you book after book, teaching you, exhorting you to His advice, calling you to watch, awakening your voice to hear My voice upon you, oh, My country from the end of the time, My country of wedding. I have been saying in My word upon you that you are chosen for Me from My birth and yours to be, in this end and beginning of time, My wedding country, My table of heavenly banquet with the people on earth, the house of the Bridegroom from heaven and the house of His bride, who waits for her Bridegroom. Oh, and I keep telling you that I have into your midst My spring of word and that I have a bride people for Me, chosen by My strong hand from your midst, who puts in man love, waiting and power from heaven for God and much victory for Him on earth.

Oh, so much word, I have been speaking a mountain of word into your midst, My today's country! The Father Sabaoth has sent Me with My second coming on earth to work much and heavenly, as two thousand years ago, I said that the Son of Man would come again with His angels, with power and much glory, and then He would separate to His left and to His right, the sheep from the goats, and the Jerusalem of that time did not know to understand that and left Me outside; it threw Me out of its house. And then My Father showed Me a beautiful country and told Me that it was My country for My second coming and that I would come in it with the miracle of the new birth of the world and that I would set in it the seat of justice and I would sit and speak and that I would set the wedding table in it, a table of word; and moreover, I would sit with the angels and the saints with a heavenly table on its hearth, and My name is called the Word of God, as it is written. (Apoc: 19/13.) Oh, you cannot hide from My work into your midst, for the Father has sent Me, and I am coming, as it is written for Me to come. You were foretold, country of the Lord's election for the end of the time and for the beginning of new heaven and new earth within the spirit of justice, and many spiritual vessels have announced you through the time, from far and from near, and the nations know this news, the news about you that you are My today's country, the country of brightness, as I work much in you and I am the light of the world, I am God's word, and with it I give light to the people, and you are very much guilty if you do not put God's light in the lamp stand on earth, and you sleep, My love, and you do not want to wake up to meet Me. Like the river overflowing its banks, likewise is My word upon you, and I write Myself with it into its book in your time, oh, Romanian people. I do not want you to be like My people two thousand years ago, to which I came and it did not receive Me, after that with so much love I had built into its midst by word and deed. Oh, I want your resurrection, My love, and I am calling you with longing: get up! I am, I am Who I am, and I am He Who is speaking to you. My Father is sending Me as word to you and He is telling Me to say to you that I am Who I am and that I have as a sign into your midst My people of more than fifty years, and with this people I am sitting at the table of word, from where I am breaking and giving this living bread, bread of word, God's mouth, that is shared with its voice to the resurrection of the creature.

Two thousand years ago, I built into your midst a costly stone, My today's country, and I wrote My name on it: The Word of God, and I sealed it with My holiness and set it in a little garden, which I called the garden of God's word, a mountain of Zion, on which I have been coming down with My angels and saints and from where I have been giving you a pleasant face, a new name of New Jerusalem, the country of brightness[162] (Dan: 8/9) on earth, as the prophet Daniel saw you from afar and wrote you into the Scripture to be announced that you would be Mine. However, do you really forget how many people have coveted you, how many people have bitten you and made you suffer? Oh, the evil spirit, My enemy and yours, knows your destiny from Me and craves for you to be its, to take its side now, oh, but I also want you and I cannot leave you and I cannot give you over because My Father has given you to be Mine.

Oh, My today's country, in you I have become bread of new word of birth of the world and that is why you are Mine. May your enemies and Mine scatter from your hearth and may God come to life, and may those who hate you and Him flee from His face and from you, and may all your enemies perish like fire and like wax in the fire; and more, may the sign of My cross be put on you, the sign of the Son of man, which casts out the enemies and the devils with the power of the One Who was resurrected two thousand years ago, Jesus Christ, the Word, going down into the hell and crushing the devil by the cross, in order to give it to His faithful people, an opposing weapon against the envious spirit! Amen.

I have set in you a washing vessel, My today's country. I have got in you a ship of salvation for you on earth and in heaven. I have been preparing your redemption, My love. I have been working for you into your midst, now, in the end of the time, and I have got in you intercessors for you in heaven and I rely on them for you, and on earth I have the people of My word and I have a table of word into its midst and through it, I am sending you a book to have My voice on you before you. Your noble men sleep; they sleep and I watch with My poor ones in a watching tower for you and I have My coming into your midst. Oh, do not doubt, do not stumble against Me, but rather get up and believe, for I am working as I have also worked through other times, as I gave to My people Israel exhortation for its life and I gave it a helm of word into its midst; however, he was disobedient, rebellious against God, and, as a result, it lost Me, and I also lost it.

Oh, My country of coming, take of My Spirit into your midst, for I have the little white stone in you, about which it is written into the book for the last days. (Apoc: 2/17.)[163] I have become a book in you during this time, for My word is much upon you, and it is as much as the river and it is written about this river into My book in the end of the time and for the beginning of time. (Apoc: 22/1.)[164] I am sitting on the throne of justice on your hearth; I am sitting on

[162] «And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land». (Daniel: 8/9) (This underlined text appears only in the English King James Version and in the Romanian Orthodox Bible, - probably in other versions as well but we have not researched further, in Romanian text is «brightness», r.n.)

[163] «Whoever has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the Churches. To the one who overcomes I will give [to eat] of the hidden manna and I will give a white stone. On the stone a new name is written, which no one knows but the one who receives it.» (Apoc: 2/17.)

the mountain of mystery and I am covered by the cloud and the river of life flows from My throne, the word of life, in order to give you water, to water you so that you may grow and be My spring. Oh, the spring is coming, the heaven is turning into a scroll of book (Apoc: 6/14.)[165], and it is coming down to you so that a new heaven and a new earth may bloom upon you. Get up to come into blossom and to shine with longing and glory, for I am brightness in you and I give you brightness, oh, country of brightness! I want to make you a queen among nations, for this is written to do with the country of My coming, for I write Myself with you on the earth, but you should make all the nations hear your voice, and let them know that you are Mine, and may it be that many nations bow before Me through you, My love, and also, let them take My book from you so that the knowledge may grow in many; and, furthermore, may kings kiss your land and take of My glory and yours, as it is written.

Oh, stand up, you, those who stay under a name of watchmen of My vineyard, and open to the Lord of glory, to the Lord of the powers! Open to My voice and set this light into the lamp stand; the light, which will illuminate very much your little garment before all the nations and which will fill you with the spirit of holiness and with its power in you! Come in under My tent, under My word and take it within you, for it is coming down to you, as in times past, through the door of Israel's tent, covered within a cloud of glory and giving of its glory to you. I do not ask you anything else and I do not take anything from you, but I give you light instead for you to put it into the lamp stand and not under a bushel, for without Me you are nothing.

The tent of meeting

You, those who are great and small of the churchly ministry, get up and believe, lest it may happen to you as it happened to the Israel's people, who was unfaithful to My coming with much word in the time of Moses, in the time of the prophets and in the time of My body, two thousand years ago! I am the Word with no beginning and with no end. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and under this name I am standing before you and speaking this word! It will be well with you if you are smart enough to recognize Me as the true Shepherd, the One Who comes to the shepherds and to the sheep in order to give to them. Put into the lamp stand the light of My word, for I am the light of the world as long as I am into the world, and without Me it is night and one cannot work or see. I have come into the world to be and to give light, and also to tell you Who I am: as long as I am in the world I am the light of the world. Amen.

I give you so that you may hear My voice; do not harden your hearts! Twenty years ago, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, under My new name of the Word of God, put the light into the lamp stand and built on earth, into the midst of the Romanian people, the tent of My word, My chamber, My dwelling place, coming out of it like the Bridegroom and speaking the word of love, the new birth of the world, as the time has come and it has become late. Come, take the light and put it into the lamp stand to shine on the earth, and you to shine through it as well! Build yourselves in Me and learn this building. Come and write yourselves into the book of My today's word, for I have written Myself in it as many times as I have spoken upon you and given you My speaking with you, as I am giving it to you now.

I am speaking to the ruler of the church of the Romanian people so that he may hear Me that I am speaking to him and My church to hear My speaking with him as well. In the book of the prophet Daniel it is written about the book of My word that many will search it thoroughly and knowledge will grow; (Daniel: 12/4.)[166] that only those who will be in My law will understand, and those who will not be wise will not understand; that all those who will be wise will shine like the brightness of the sun, and those who will have lead many on the way of the right faith will be like the stars forever and ever; that many will come out to the earth, either to eternal life or to the eternal condemnation; that many will be cleansed, whitened and cleared, and the faithful people will be protected by the waivode Michael, for it will be a time of great oppression on earth.

This is what I am reminding you now, the ruler of the Romanian people church, for the prophet Daniel is sending Me to you with this book of that time to understand the prophecy for the last days, and I am telling you, get up and receive the Lord, and receive Me when I am speaking to you, and be faithful and not unfaithful. Do not be afraid, neither you nor your brothers; do not be afraid of My great mystery into the midst of the Romanian people with the name of new Jerusalem. It is to My glory and to the glory of the faithful ones. Oh, do not be afraid, but rather rejoice and leap with joy, for I am a sweet Shepherd and I am calling you to My glory and through it, I am giving you the little garment of cleanliness to the forgiveness of your sins, for I have power to do this over those who are graceful to a spirit of repentance in them. Behold, how I lead and how I sanctify the people of My word to the spring, always teaching him, standing into its midst to give Myself as light over the earth! You should not try the spirit of inquisitiveness about this great mystery as this is sin and this sin is dangerous, as the bishop of Târgovişte, Basil, did and was caught within this danger, the one who oppressed My work from the sides within a troubling spirit, and then he fell into the battle against Me, and he fell shamefully. Receive in you the spirit of the holy faith and the wisdom from above will grow within you, the spirit which cannot be taken from below, from the earth, for I am God and not a man, and man cannot learn about Me in school, but he can only learn from the heavenly King, the Holy Spirit, Who blows wherever He wants; and behold, you hear His voice and you do not know where He comes from and where He goes when He comes; and again, behold, this is the school, this is how are those born of the Spirit and for the Spirit.

I am giving My word freely to you. Write My book on your heart and search it with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for there is no other spirit to have understanding for Me. I am giving you this gift, once with the day that you celebrate, the day of feast for the prophet Daniel, whom you have taken as your protector, and may the spirit of unbelief depart from you and may the Word God have His place in you. Amen.

Oh, the Lord is not hard to believe, He Who is speaking with you and Whom you will need much soon, soon, for Satan, the old serpent, wants to swallow My flock. However, I am going to bring him into the open and I say that there is no right way from earth to heaven except the way of the church of the Orthodoxy and its apostleship, and there is no place for any mixture within it but only within a spirit of repentance and baptism through repentance, after that for such a long time, My robe and My flock have been torn to pieces, but My flock also has to watch with fasting and with much praying, winged to the One Who can save it and give its life and resurrection forever. Amen.

I have been speaking to you, those who sit on a churchly seat into the Romanian people, and I ordain faith for you, the faith in the end, lest the Son of Man may come to you and find you unfaithful to His speaking upon you, unfaithful to His speaking to you. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, blows from My mouth upon you and He is giving Himself to you to take Him, to have Him, and to know His work, as it is written: «Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand», (Daniel: 12/10), as it is written. Amen.

Now, My people, I am coming down to you on the table of word with the voice of a trumpet, with My trumpet, Verginica, (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) in whom I had stayed on earth in the time of her body in order to speak to a people and to prepare it for Me for My glory of today. I let My trumpet resound over you; to resound from heaven upon you and so that you may hear its voice, and startle rejoicing and growing more and more for My mysteries of fire, for I have come to bring fire on earth and that it may do My work.

Come, Verginica! (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) I, the Lord, am blessing your entrance and Mine too. Speak to My church of new Jerusalem, for out of it comes up to Me daily sacrifice, by which I give Myself to her as body and word to her life. Peace to you and to your work of today at your feast among saints, for your entrance with them when you came to Me after your long sufferance into the midst of My people and yours! Amen.

— I am coming in to Your people, Lord, and I am entering with You, for You're the door, for this is how You are. I am coming in and I am working, for Your work is much, and it has to be much, for You are great, Lord. The sufferance of the bearing of Your work in my spirit and body, exhausted by sufferance, was great, and it always gave me over to You, oh, Lord. I passed to You from my bed of sufferance and I found everything that I had loved and waited in sufferance. I left in great mourning Your people at my departure to heaven, but I found comfort after I had taken the step, I found everything I had loved on earth, for I had known You and I had loved You very much in my time with You on earth, and I saw Your wounds and I always cried out for them and You gave me much from You to be able to do it, oh, Lord, for my small being was all fire for You, for this is what You were pleased with me, as You made me a burning bush from where You were speaking to the people which came to hear Your voice, just as Moses went up into the mountain and heard You in the burning bush when You were speaking to him.

My story with You is long and great, a heavenly story on earth among people, Lord. Oh what shall we do so that all people may come to know it and to change their love towards You, for I lived before You on earth, a gentle being[167], full of the spirit of repentance, for me and for every man?

I have listened to You how greatly You have been speaking to the church of the Romanian people today. You have taken from the Scriptures and spoken to it and You have reminded it of Daniel's prophecy, which has been made perfect now on the earth by Your work of word, by Your book of today, which You have been sharing a lot during these days in such a way that the whole world may know You, and blessed are those who hear Your voice of today and are not hardening their heart, as the old Israel did and which was greatly destroyed. Today we have a new Israel, a new nation, the Romanian Israel, and we have to tell this people about Your mystery with it, Lord.

I am praying to You now, because those who have received and put us into the book are tired now, and I am praying to You to give them a way with my day of celebration and with its service before You from them, and then to be able to sit down with my book of today, for man is weak and we have to take care, Lord, and we have to consider and work according to the human measure.

Oh, peace to you, people coming together at my day of feast among saints! I am embracing you and I am opening to you, and you should stay open, son, for I am the word from the Lord upon you on my day of saints. May it be blessed the whole glory into your midst brought to the Lord for the feast of today! May your prayer get wings, oh, chicken people, and bring it up to heaven, like the bird, which soars upwards and flies into the sky; in the sky with their strong wings and full of strength for flight. Son, you should fulfill everything the Lord has been telling you to do, and you should ask that it may be fulfilled on earth; you should ask for the fulfillment of His Scriptures, for He can work through the sons full of faith, and not otherwise.

Peace to you, and you should work now a spirit of feast and this is how I will come down with you into the book, oh, chicken people, and my spirit will exhort you!

I prepare myself beautifully for my descent, as word to the people, Lord, I will also rejoice and cry, at the same time, and I will teach those who learn with longing, and they will love me as I come. Amen.

— Oh, My people, My trumpet is coming down to you as word; it is coming down with joy and tears and with a spirit of instruction. Dress up beautifully, son, for as she is telling Me now that she is dressing up now beautifully for her descent to you as word. Listen to the voice of My trumpet, oh, My people from everywhere, and receive it as she is coming to you, for she is coming to you, and you should open; open to her, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of saint hierarch Nicholas

(Excerpt)

I am coming down with a feast of saints into the book of My word during these days, when I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am speaking again over the earth and fulfilling My Gospel, which says that I will come and speak again, and the faithful will hear My voice and all My saints and angels as well, and even those in the dwelling of the dead will hear the voice of God's Son, and the saints will be within My coming and will become word, for the new birth of the world is the work that I have to do before My Father Sabaoth, and I work by the word, as I worked in the beginning.

… I have a feast of word into your midst, My people, because you are the people of My word, for I gave you birth by it and I set you before Me and I come to you with My saints, oh, and who else on earth has guests like you at his table, guests from heaven and a party time at a table on earth? I have groups of bishops in My coming to you, I am coming with them into the book of My word into your midst, and they observe a feast for My bishop who did great miracles while he lived on earth, the miracle worker, Nicholas. Oh, how much I prepared at that time the way of this vessel, useful to Me, to be born on earth and to make him into a light among people! His parents did not have any children because of the barrenness; however, I gave them this son and that is all, and immediately after he was newly born, he stood three hours on his feet when his mother bathed his body in his bathing suit and he confessed his standing then in the name of the Holy Trinity among people as a counselor, as a miracle worker and great savior of sins and needs of those in his time, who were gifted on My behalf with this lighter. I have shown great signs over the church and for the church, and I confirmed through him the meaning of the fasting days, for this child did not suck from his mother in the fasting days but only in the evening and only from the right side of his mother, and the fasting days had been for him a steadfast accomplishment until the end of his body. Having grown up, the submitted to the teaching of the Holy Scriptures and kept himself clean in his spirit and body, staying away in his way from the women, as he did not want someone to be held guilty on his behalf because of that, and in this way he always saw God, for he was burning within his spirit like God and was as humble as God, and he was God's church both in the time of his youth and all his time on earth. I gave him his uncle, who was a bishop, as the counselor of his life, and he submitted to him in his entire humility, which he had in his nature even from his birth, for he had so much humility, so much cleanness, longing and fire in him, and this great lighter became like God and he saw God and his walking was great among people, kings and servants in his time, and great miracles were written on earth by his work with Me among people, for his mercy and compassion on people and his work for people were unequalled, and I, the Lord, am confessing him now and exalting him among the saints, for it is his day of memorial, and behold, the heaven has feasts and it spends in them, and by them one brings celebration on earth.

The feast of Saint hierarch Spyridon

The Lord comes on earth as word and He gives Himself to the people to their salvation, and woe to those who have saturated of this food that keeps alive the one who eats it, and who does not only eat bread, as man is used to be fed on earth!

The Lord is coming to you as word, oh, people grown with the food of My mouth on your table of word, for you eat of My mouth like a child, to whom his mother gives chewed food of her mouth and thus her son grows up. The devil, hostile to Me and to you, would like and seek that I may no longer come to you with so much word that has so much life in it, to catch you then uncovered and to weaken your watch, your power, then your hope and the work of your salvation; however, I do not let him come and I come to you with My warmth, with My hand above you, to hold your little hand, My people, as I would no longer have you if I did not come to you as word and comfort of word. The world would also like this, that is I may withdraw into heaven with My river of word, for the spirit of the world is jealous of you when he sees that you are Mine on earth. It cannot be counted how much your enemies looked and always go on looking to see that I leave you without My support, without Me, My people. Your enemies lie in ambush; those who are not faithful also stay and look to see what else I am going to put on your table, what else I am going to give you and what I am giving you on My table. They would like you to be like them; to eat what they eat and no longer to take your food of My mouth, but you are in My plan and I work according to it and not after man, for man does many of his works without God, and flesh and blood cannot reveal My coming as word and My calling.

Oh, no, it is not flesh and blood that reveals to man those coming from God on earth, but My Father in heaven does this, for man turns from flesh into dust, as he was made flesh from dust and then God gave him breath of life, and flesh desires as much as blood is alive in it, and it cannot inherit the kingdom of the heavens but only when the body of the flesh becomes a temple for the Holy Spirit, a holy body by the holiness in it, a place dwelling for the Lord in it.

Oh, My word is not much upon you, My people. You would die without it with you, like those who do no longer hear it, as they do no longer want it; however, salvation is going to be with Me here, not somewhere else, only that the spirit of haughtiness hates man and overcomes him with this work when man does not have a strong watch upon him and his love totally for God in his choice by his steadfastness for the Lord.

In heaven among the saints, it is not the feast of My birth now, as the world and the antichrist changed it according to their will without God, but it is the holy feast of the great miracle worker Spyridon, the one full of longing and full Holy Spirit into the midst of the people in his time, and by whom God worked wondrous miracles on earth, and he worked always miracles upon miracles, as much as he had to aid all the helpless, those unhealed, those poor and sorrowful, and the group of hierarchs from heaven is staying now with Me and with you at My table of word on this day of feast for My archbishop Spyridon.

Oh, I have not got anything left for man to do but only what I have to do, though man is stubborn up against God's throne and I do no longer have great saints in this time, through whom there may be worked miracles and signs over the people full of conceit and full of the spirit of the world in them, and there is no longer any light on earth if the Lord does no longer have a dwelling place in man, for I am the light of the world, not man, and if I do not have any place in the world with the man, then there is no light in the world.

At the creation of the world, after God's word said to be light, and it was, the Lord also spoke again the word for the creation of the heaven and of the earth; after the darkness departed from the deep and from the waters; and the waters were divided in the waters that were above the expense and those that were under the expense. In order that the waters to be gathered together to one place and the dry land to appear, it was like a given clot and the waters and the land appear, and the whole creation of the world was beautiful; furthermore, I am going to do this now, as though I would select a clot, and I will choose a faithful and righteous people, for My Spirit hovers above the waters, over the whole darkness and its mixture on earth, which has drawn the man into the deep, and My Spirit will work the new creation, and the Lord says the word and it is made, and man cannot say this word and to take effect, because the Lord does not allow the man to do what the Lord does, and man is supposed to see his small measure and his great weakness, and let him bow before God, as it will not be otherwise, but only so.

I had among people the bishop Spyridon, the holy and great one in his life, in his heart and deed, and many miracles and signs, which I was doing for many by his faith, by his union with Me, made the rulers of the church of that time to set him as a bishop and to work with God for men, and he received so and worked so, with great gentleness, with great love over all the men's bitterness, and there was no man to come back from him without receiving his salvation. I am sitting with him at the table into your midst, My people, and he is bowing much before My work with you, and with him he has companions, the holy fathers, the fighters for the spirit of the truth, which was one over the church in their time, and the whole spirit of Babylon was taken out of the church and there was light, and the bishop Spyridon, in the midst of the churchly assembly, was cutting the whole wandering that might have appeared, and he worked great miracles and overcame everything into My name; moreover, this bishop did not have much education, but who else was more than him a dwelling place of the Holy Spirit, the worker of signs and miracles, which one has not heard of?

Oh, Romanian people, you have written on you a name of synodal and apostolic church, having its course of apostles and holy fathers. Oh, beaten people, how comes that you do not see what your shepherds do and where do they draw you? Oh, flock without watch upon you, you do not know what it is among the people of the church, who sit and serve in My name and do what they want with the flock and with God, and they became masters of the truth, as they say, and they want to adjust it according to the time, according to the will of Babylon, and the church in you has become a Babylon. I do no longer have a place at the helm and in the council of the Holy Spirit with those who want to stand as righteous, so that it may not perish the justice and the church order left from Me on earth and from My disciples, to strengthen it to the end of the ages! Oh, if there were crowds of priests to fast and to bring prayers for the releasing from lie and from the Babylon over the church, the church would come to the spirit of awakening and of holy watch and it would not come to the mixture condemned by the saints and by the fathers, and it would speak for God, but I do not give them revelation because of their lack of holy life in them, for they stay within the spirit of mixture and I cannot have them on My side and justice. Oh, where else shall I find a mouth to keep to the truth, to bring it out and to speak?

We make a calling as it is written: «Come out of her, My people, come out of her mixture and do not get drunk of her wine!» (See Apoc: 18/4) Save your life and your faith from the fathers, as those, who sit to rule over you towards them and not towards Me, do not have any answer to give Me for you, and they tear down your garment and sell you to the mixture, which has never been in My church with fathers and sons in it. There are no fearless and righteous priests to baptize you in the clean faith and with salvation, but I, the Lord, come and cleanse you, renew you and give you a new life, for I have power to do this, as Father has sent Me to you. The holy law and the prophets were removed from their place and were put under a bushel and the people of lie lead you, those who wrote God on them, but wake up and call out to Me and call out to the saints for the salvation from the darkness, which is everywhere, and for the salvation from the deep, and say this: Search us out, Lord, cleanse us, have mercy on us and lead us to green pasture for we have not done the good before You, and save us from all the worldly things and from all the devilish growth, set us as Your kingdom and do good to the new Zion for the sake of Your will, and let the walls of the New Jerusalem be rebuilt; in addition, do not let us perish from the way and send to us a little boat of salvation and of faith from above, for those from below have been badly spoiled and it is the time for You to work now. Amen.

Oh, wandering sons and you who do not have shepherds upon you; be full of hope and seek after Me to save you, for it was expected and it is still expected to fall the people of My today's word, the one of new Jerusalem in the Romanian people, My church brought up by the word; seek after Me so that God's church and its small flock may not perish from the earth, as I am its Shepherd and I am at the helm, and My people will not perish and I have it as My light over the darkness of the inimical man; I will judge according to justice from this throne, for the antichrist enemy covers the people to his perdition; he covers everywhere and he wants to destroy the church and to set the abomination of desolation in it, for this is written what this enemy of God and of God's victory wants to do, but My ways are mercy and truth for those who seek after My dwelling place and after My mountain, and I will show it to them and I will take their legs out of the trap, as it is written. Amen.

I give voice to the bishop of miracles, Spyridon, whose spirit is the Holy Spirit, as on earth in his time over the church of that time, for My saints also watch from heaven and work from above for those who seek the Lord to their salvation. Oh, may it be blessed your love at My table of word, with clean food on the table of the people of My word, great bishop, and may your spirit seize My people and give it from heaven! Amen.

— I embrace it, Lord, I hold it in my embrace and I give it the strengthening, for You have it as Your light in times of great darkness, and I bestow on him a bishop blessing and I give him of the spirit of miracle making, for it is Your miracle, and You are its miracle, Lord.

I embrace you, blessed people, and I put on your head the power of miracle working on the earth. May your prayer surpass in love those who, up to this day were workers for the Lord on earth, and let your faithfulness keep the Lord near you, and you near Him, so that He may overcome together with you, and you together with Him, as it is the time of the faith denial and the church of the Romanian people has departed from God, and that which has been all over the earth has sided with its enemy at the table and with its mixture, which we, those who served the Lord long ago on earth, cursed and threw it out through the door and we kept Christ's church clean and not mixed with its enemies and with the unfaithful.

Behold what I am telling now to those who decide in the place of those that were set once and forever for their steadfastness over the church:

I am telling you, I am telling you that the multicolored garment is not good, for the multicolored garment is for the immoral; that the white linen garment is good, as it is written in the Scriptures, for the Lord set it over His church at its beginning by the saints and by the fathers. You have under the multicolored garment, you have the secret epaulet of the antichrist if you have been working now at those set at the ancient foundation, for the antichrist, the man of lawlessness and his spirit, have overcome you and you cannot be God's servants, for the true ones lay down their life for the Lord's flock and they do not sell it to the pagans as you have been doing now and mixing everything together, (For ecumenism, r.n.) forgetting about the saints and father, who separated to the right and to the left, Christians from pagans, when the pagans did not want to be born through the church and baptism in order to come to their salvation after that, for it is written: «He who believes and is baptized will be saved!» (See Mark: 16/16*). In addition, it is written again:* «There is one faith and one baptism», (Eph: 4/5*), no more than that.*

I write myself with you into the book of truth and I am coming to reach out my hand to you. You have changed the feasts from their place[168], as you have listened to your enemies and did not seek to ask the Lord about this, but I tell you that the days are measured in one evening and one morning by their length, and not as the pagan man has been measuring them and handling with the mystery of creation of the days, and thus by his reckoning, he removed the times of the evenings and mornings, by which the Lord measures the time. Oh, why have you tried to decide in the name of the Holy Spirit on those who have come to you from the pagans? Where is, where is really the spirit of prophecy to lead you from the Lord in times of trial of your faith, as God has always worked on earth among people in hard times? You say that you work in the name of the Holy Spirit.

[168] The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

Oh, woe to you! Get up out your soft beds and call out the heavenly powers to save you from the trap, for I say, woe to you! Behold, you are not faithful though you sit on seats of church. Oh, God is! What shall you really answer? However, fear has gone from you and it is you that have remained. Oh, God is and you will see that He is, and I tell you: wake up to see and to call out for you with holy and clean tears, cry out to the Lord to appear to you and to save you from unbelief, and let your repentance give you wisdom for repentance, as here it is why the Lord has come as word on earth! You have spoiled the law of the heaven and replaced it with yours and you have put the lie on the throne to rule, as it is written that you will do it. Oh, do not wonder that the Lord speaks much and that He builds and keeps His church free from those in hell; those that belong to the work of the antichrist, with its hidden face, the man of lawlessness. The Lord keeps the people of His word far from the mixture of those who give themselves to be cursed and to the Babylon, to the confused language; however, the Babylon is going to fall and the victory is that which sides with the Lord and with His justice, and which has His holiness with it.

You all wonder why the Lord has got Romania as the country of His coming now, oh, but do you not see that He has come to it and has become word in it and that He has in it the seat of the judgment of the deeds? God had not been able to come among you as word to be on earth with the people because you would have put Him to silence and you would have not taken Him as work upon you and shared through you in order to be believed and followed then. Nevertheless, He came as you see that He is coming now, in a humble way. As in Jerusalem, two thousand years ago, God entered humbly on a colt of a donkey, in the same He has also come now, to be able to come like that, and that is why he has worked in this way and He has come to the small sons and has become a kingdom to be able to speak and to be written what the Lord has spoken and then His speaking to be spread everywhere.

You pretend that you do not hear when the Lord speaks, but you only pretend this; however, this is not so and the Lord does not write so, but He rather writes that you have sin and that you do not take into consideration the word of His coming to the sheep and to the shepherds to see their fruit, and you do as the Israel of old did, who gave the Lord away from it. Oh, you wait for all the righteous to die, all those who have sided with the Lord's justice, that only you may remain, you and those who are weak and not firm, and you have put them into the service of your wandering away from the right way, but the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Shepherd of the sheep and of the shepherds of the sheep, does not die and He is alive forever and ever, and He is coming and He will revel, work and shepherd, as it is written to do then when the shepherds suck the life of the sheep for their glory from the sheep.

Woe to those who ask you about the Living One, about the way of His word, that judges with justice, after that these have loved the way of this word, and they will also carry in their back the burden of those they have killed in respect with the faith in this word, (killing spiritual, killing the faith, r.n.) which flows out of God's mouth with power during these days, and which does not stop because of the unbelief, because of the frivolity or because of the lack of stability of those who are not faithful and who are from those who go with this word and take their steps then and go to kill the innocent with respect to the way of His word of today. Those, who have taken another way, have piled up great sin and a bad reward, and all the ways will be closed down, and the doubtful remain face to face with the answer, which they will have to give to God, where there is no vindication.

Oh, ministering servants of churches, you wonder about the Lord and His word into the midst of a faithful people. It is in vain that you wonder. You do not like His coming in the word on earth when you have so much to work and to demolish, but if the Father has sent His Son in the word that He may work and not you, then He came and is coming, working and listening to the Father, Who has sent Him, and behold, you do not have the same father, how do you believe this, for there is separation and division between the Lord and you, because you do not do what the holy fathers did, who asked for the revelations from the Lord, and in this way many signs were done between truth and life at the prayer of the holy ones, and behold, the Lord is coming to you, and He is asking you about you and about the sheep too, and you will answer with your fruitlessness, with the lack of love, that you will have worked between you and Him. Amen.

I have sat with a synod of bishops in the word with those who sit on thrones of the churches during these days, Oh, Word Lord. I was a man without a human book and I was clean from the spirit of man, and the spirit of miracle making had its place in me and great grace was showed from Your work with me among people and among the servants of the church against the blows from the middle over Your church, and I showed the dogma of the Holy Trinity, God working within Trinity: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, One in their work, and I put to shame those who were haughty, who were striking Your face of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the One born from the Father and from the mother Virgin among men two thousand years ago for the salvation of the world.

Oh, may Your will be done through the church, Lord, and may You crush all the heads of the antichrist and all its cubs, clothed in sheep skins, for You stand and watch and have mercy on those who are well and faithful, and You also separate them for You, and through them, You put to shame on earth the unbelief of the Romanian people and of the Orthodox people from everywhere; as for me, I call out to the Romanian people and say: wake up, loved people, so that you may not lose your light and watch with the Lord and listen to Him and take from Him now for your salvation from Him! Amen.

— Oh, you were great in word on your day among saints, great bishop! Great is your prayer in heaven as well for My victory and for the victory of the people of My word, by which I come, go and work on the earth!

Oh, beloved saints, your mourning for the darkness in the church and which is poured out everywhere is only mercy, but this is how are set those that are written, and so is My victory through those who are faithful, who wait for Me and love Me waiting for Me to come with all My glory that I have from the Father and to be victorious. Amen.

I have sat with the saints at the table of word into your midst, My people. My word upon you is not much. The spirit of the world would divest you of love and life if I no longer came to you to dwell with you and you with Me; however, I do not stop from My coming, and I come and give you My hand on the way, only for you to give Me your little hand so that I may hold you and to have you until the day of transformation, son, for I work out the transformation with you and I will call the nations to see, to know and to be able to come, as it is the time that there may to be light, to be light again, and as long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world and I work it and share it, and all have been made by the word, as they were made in the beginning.

Peace to you, people nourished from heaven! The saints and the fathers looked at you and loved you with longing on this day of the feast with the saints at My table with you. We have to speak over the darkness. Let Me stay in the world as light by My dwelling with you and everything will be done by the word, and the face of the world will be renewed, as it is written for this work to be done and then to let it be seen to the joy of those who wait for Me with the new heaven and with the new earth on the earth, as it is written.

I stay into your midst as word, and you have to be My house, you have to be My house of coming, as I have set you to be, oh, loved people, oh, faithful people, over which I have always, always poured out the gift of the faith to meet Me whenever I have to speak from your midst over the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth

(Excerpt)

My glory from above, that which is from the Father, comes on earth and becomes word and comfort by the word, and it gives power from above to those who love the heaven on earth and believe in the things from the heaven and in those who are in the heaven, who are waiting for the Lord as their salvation all the time, for I worked and work until the end of the time, and I am with those who are faithful to Me and I give them. Amen.

The Synod of the Lord's Mother

I am setting the word of the birth from above into the book on this day too for those who are seeking Me at this spring to be able to take, as I, the Lord, want much to shepherd the man. My birth from the virgin brought Me to the people on earth, and I grew within the sweet spirit of obedience, as My Father has made Me a sweet shepherd of souls and I have loved this, since I was born on the earth among people to be their Shepherd and to be their sweet Shepherd. I started on earth with My birth and this mystery is great for those who love God and give themselves to Him, and then I went on with the growth and with the sweet obedience for the growth, and this second mystery and its work are also great, and then I shepherded going from place to place, after the Father first revealed it to Me to choose the twelve disciples to go with them, and then to choose other seventy disciples to go before Us and proclaim among the people the news of the kingdom of the heavens, My coming with it, and I perfected it on earth, because I was coming into the people with it, into the hearts of those who heard My word full of the Holy Spirit, and I was teaching the people to be baptized in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. At that time, by My shepherding, it was proclaimed God's name: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and I was the Word and I got together the beginning with the end, for at first, I was the Word, and God was the Word as it is written. Oh, and I am also working likewise, now, in the end of the time, and the mystery of God's work is not hard to be understood with all its thread, but two powers met together on earth after My birth: God's power and satan's power, the first among the angelic armies, and who became My adversary, while the man, whom I built with My hand and I brought in paradise, stood against obedience to his Creator, God, and thus he drew to his disobedience the ministry of the first group of God's angels, and the disobedience and the disorder, shaken from their place, caused the first angel among the angelic armies, this chief, to oppose Me, and by his disobedience, this one became a satan, he turned into an adversary and then he took revenge and became the power opposing to God, and man has remained with this sin done against God's angels, because of his disobedience in paradise. Then the heavenly powers saw and were afraid, and I, the Lord, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, saw satan having falling down from heaven like lightning, and I spoke over the angelic armies by the voice of My angel Michael and I said: *«Let us stand well, with reverence and awe!» (See Hebrews: 12/28)

And then, the heavenly powers stood still and they set in peace their further work for serving God and for the creation of everything, such a great ministry as it does not come to the man's mind, for if the heavenly powers and their work were not, there would be nothing at its place meant by God by the creation of the heaven and of the earth, which the Lord set to be; He established everything by the word and they are.

Oh, My people, I spend with you the word of birth from above for the man's mind and I tell him that if the heavenly powers were not, then their work from God, set for the whole creation, would not be anything, and it would only be darkness again, the deep and the waters, as it was before the creation, which is now. Oh, My people, the man should stay likewise, well son, the man who the Lord is speaking with today on earth! Man should stay well, in reverence and awe and not as he lives on earth, being served and protected by the heavenly powers, which he knows very little about, which he calls very little, and very little does he know about them and about their work, for the food of the man's mind is haughtiness. Man forgets that God is He Who is over everything when he becomes proud before God, and man forgets about Me, just as Adam forgot about Me in paradise, and he did as he wanted and no longer did as God said.

Man does not stay under God's helm; he has no longer stayed even from his beginning in paradise and he has no longer wanted to stay under the watch of the Creator of the heaven and the earth, as all stay by their creation. However, I stayed and stay under the watch of the Father for I am born; I am not made and I am of the same Being with the Father, of Whom I was born before all ages and by Whom everything has been made.

I come on earth to teach the man the mystery of the birth, for man is the fruit of the sin working in him and that is why his work is haughtiness, and this work has got as its intercessor the angels fallen from heaven and who have been fighting in man since then and up to this day against him and against God, and man cannot give Me a kingdom in him but only by a great war against Lucifer, who set his dominion in man; and he is not very easy to be overcome, because this power fallen from heaven is at war against God.

Oh, My people, I set a table of word and I put on it teaching for the fear of God in man. If man does not stay seized within God's fear, if he does not listen to watch in fear over his days and not carelessly or after his mind, then I, the Lord, cannot be his Shepherd from heaven, for man is not able to know Me if he does not set a limit and fear of God in his heart to stay well after that.

Oh, how hard I am accomplishing over man the work of My coming from the Father on earth now! I find that man is great in him, and My advice, with which I come into his way, makes him restless from his way of living as he has got used to wasting his life. Woe to the man, who does not know what life is, who does not know where this knowledge comes from, who does not know what the sweetness of obedience is, who does not know why and whom he has to listen to, woe to such a man! Well, if man does not learn, where is he supposed to know? By his own mind man makes a science about God and then he starts to believe that the Lord is the servant of the heavens and the servant of his desires and spirit and that is all, and he cannot have anything else in him about God's greatness, for the Lord is an awesome God, and man does not want to know this. The intelligent people are not intelligent, but they are completely troubled in everything and they cannot perceive God with their mind. I taught My disciples in detail what they had to know about God, and only after that they knew, and only after I proved them My perfection of true God, coming from heaven on earth by the birth of My mother Virgin, did they leave their faith and wrote it and made it word by word, from the beginning of the making of the heaven and of the earth and until the life of the age that is to be, in such a way that the people may know what God is and what He does; furthermore, I ask you, loved people and much exhorted from heaven, I ask you son to stop at this book of faith, to open it well and to deepen your being into it to be able to see God and to be able to tell the people about Him, as He taught His disciples about Him, as His kingdom is without end. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit glorifies Himself over you more than the prophets in all the times, oh, people nourished from heaven, and you go deep into the book of the faith and teach those who come to the spring; teach them the fear of God and teach them to start with it every day of work with their spirit, with their body and with their faith, for I keep on putting on My table with you light from light to be light on earth, and you are to give it further to be, for soon, soon, this light will be used everywhere, as this kind of lights will no longer be anywhere. All the lights go out, the sciences go out, the ambitions go out, the man's plans go out and people go out too, those who step over God with their steps, and the darkness will be greater and greater, so thick that man will not be able to see his hand, and the light will get through the darkness up to My brightness into your midst and man will take from it and see God in this light, in this word; moreover, it will make signs and wonders on earth, for I, the Lord, have taken care to prepare this place and to work from its top as it is written that it will be worked in the end of the time, for the two powers work against each other and this fight is very well seen. However, I, the Maker of the heaven and of the earth, the Maker of those that are seen and unseen, will be forever, and I am the One Who overcomes together with those who overcome with Me. Amen.

Oh, mother Virgin, My mother, I am the Way, the Truth and the Life; I am, mother, but you also are My way from heaven on earth to be able to come and to become man's way so that man may come back to the Father on it, oh, mother, and this was accomplished two thousand years ago. I have set the word of birth on My table of feast. It is Our day of feast, mother, and We are glorifying Ourselves into the midst of the people of My coming now on earth as word, for you have to prepare My coming back as I ascended into heaven after I accomplished My work for which the Father had sent Me, for you were then My way and birth, mother. May your entrance to My people be blessed now; the book of My word is Our way to come in, mother. Amen.

— Oh, You are the Way, You are the door, Emmanuel Son, my child Who came in Bethlehem from the Father and was born by my virgin body. You are the door and You came into my body without the need of entrance, but You asked only for my will to enter and to grow as a Child to be born and then to come out, and this was called Your birth, for You stayed into my womb which had so much place for Your birth, little Child, little Lamb, for You were born to be a little Lamb. You are the door; You came into my womb by my little heart, full of faith, and You came out likewise and appeared, and then You became fully God. You used my flesh and blood only to show the man that You made him in Your image and after Your likeness, for You grew up after You were born, and then You appeared before the people, according to the measure You built Adam at the beginning. You used my flesh and blood to be born of a human body and to be able to come on this way, which man chose, but it was not I that gave You birth, rather You were born of my body when You took being of my being. I did not give birth as the woman normally gives birth on earth, but I only housed You into my womb with Your work of birth, and You were the Only One born of the Father and then of my body, for only You were born in this way, and You did not spoil anything in my body, and I remained so, as I was before You to dwell in me for Your birth.

One cannot speak about the mystery of Your birth among people and among sons, Son Lord, for You were true God even before appearing as a born Child, and You are without beginning and without end, and there is no one on earth with whom We, those in heaven, are able to speak about this mystery, and that is why there is no holy wisdom in man for this mystery, and Your disciples spoke about that and testified about You and that You had come down from heaven for the people and became flesh of the Holy Spirit and of the Virgin Mary, and You became a Man. Oh, it would be such a blessing on Us that it could be spoken between earth and heaven about the whole profoundness from God of the mystery of Your birth. You, Yourself, became a Man, You, the One born of the Father before eternity, born and not made, of one Being with the Father, and by Whom all things have been made of everything that has been made then. And You are working likewise now; You are making them all again, not being separated from the Father in this creation that will remain; and who among men is able to make the creation, which will be and which will remain?

Let all the people grow less before You, true God! Willing or not, they are so small before You, even if they do not want to see that they are so. I am a great witness for You, and my mystery comes from eternity, as You come. I teach the people to grow less, for God is coming to them and He has no room in them, because they feel that they are big.

People are not big, and after that, they are no more, and how can one speak about the man's greatness? I am a great witness for Your greatness, Lord. I am the way on which You walked, on which You came and appeared as God and Man on earth in order to become the man's way and to walk before him so that the man may see the way. Man cannot put You out from this way. His mind of man thinks he can do it, but the fear of God is going to come on earth soon, soon, and every man will take it in him, for Your glory will cover the nations, as it is written that the Master will come, and of this mountain the river of life will come out, as much as You have been gathering in it to make it overflow on the earth, for You have spoken in this river of word with all people, and You wrote Yourself in its book with Your speaking, and this will testify about Your work, about how much You have been calling the man, but first the fear of God has to come over the people, and the angel will have to speak who will call far and wide, from heaven and down to earth: «Be afraid of God and worship the One Who made the heaven and the earth!» (Apoc: 14/7); after that You will appear in Your awesome glory for many, and for those who love You, listening to You, You will show Your holy face, sweet and holy, Lord, and You will be their God. Amen.

I praise You with a feast of word of birth, oh, my Son and my God! I call the Romanian people to come under my protection of heavenly mother. I stand watch over the whole border all around over the country of Your coming now, in which You shine by the word.

You, people on earth, who know and who do not know about the mystery of my Son, Jesus Christ, and about His country of coming again from the Father on earth among people as word! You should know and hear so that you may know that this hearth and its homeland is the land of the brightness of the Son of God for the end of the time, (Daniel: 8/9) for His second coming from the Father to the people on earth. No one can crush this mystery and its whole work, at which the Lord is working now to its revelation, and at which the prophets of old have been looking longingly. I have been kissing this land all the time, everywhere I can still find a clean place to kiss, and I bless with the Lord its being and its heavenly height, which surpasses the heights, as it is written. Amen.

And as for you, people testifying near the river of word of my Son, Jesus Christ, Who is coming to you as word in order to share Himself to the sides, you should always stand watch for His coming of today, for your service is from heaven, just as mine was for the Lord's coming on earth then. You are disciples of disciple, for God's trumpet, Verginica was the scion of which the Lord has grown now, (So they called Christians on the St. Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) in the end of the time, a new vine, and disciples from disciples, as He also worked two thousand years ago, renewing all His things and making a new church for Him among people, and through it making paths and choosing disciples for Him, a people of confessing disciples for Him.

May His voice upon you always protect you by the power of His word! And you should protect Him to have Him and to listen to Him.

Protect your heart and your mind so that you may not be separated from God, sons, and keep away from evil and from much knowledge on earth lest God may separate Himself from you, oh, sons born of God by His word of today. Amen.

Oh, I would speak much more, people of the Lord, and I would speak with you of all things, but the human measure is small, and We, those in heaven, know this and give mercy. Oh, people full of word from heaven on your table, hold the wisdom from the beginning into your little hand, son, for you do not have to be like the people on earth, for you are nourished from heaven. Your mind and heart are not yours, do not forget this! You should seek always, always, to take after those in heaven, for the heaven is serving you within great mystery now, so that the Lord may accomplish His work of today. You should be heavenly on earth! You should be the heaven of my Son, Jesus Christ, for the Lord is from heaven, not from the earth, and His kingdom likewise, and it is with you, and you are His kingdom into the midst of the people, and thus kept within great mystery from their eyes.

I am speaking a heavenly word now and I am telling this confessing: those who leave this work of word, they leave heaven and fall from heaven on earth like Adam, when he fell by his disobedience to God in paradise, and again, he who comes from the earth to stay with this work of word, comes in the mystery of heaven; he does not come anyhow, and the one who comes has to become God's heaven and then a temple for God, a dwelling place of His kingdom with all its invisible face, like that of the angels who are invisible, but concerning as many of the heavens and countries are, the man's mind cannot perceive this mystery, and I am a great witness for God's mysterious things, as I am a great witness for the mystery of the Lord's birth among the people on earth two thousand years ago. Amen.

Sanctify more and more, people of my Son, and sanctify your mind and faith! Sanctify these always and sprinkle them with the grace coming down from heaven upon you through the word, and all your body will be holy and useful for the Lord, as I was to Him. Amen.

Surround them, Lord, with Your holy angels, with heavens of angels! Assign the borders for the country of Your coming, strengthen the angels at the borders and take out from among these borders the evil power of the work of the antichrist, who is hidden under the name of God! Keep the body and the spirit of the Romanian church, renew it by the word and baptize it in the river of Your word from above and make it a clean bride, Lord, for her spirit and her bride cries to You: Come, Lord! Oh, peace to You into the midst of Your people of the Romanian people, my Son, Emmanuel, born in the cave of Bethlehem two thousand years ago, true Lord, dwelt from the Father in my virginal womb, in which You were born as a Child on earth to be with the people and to be! Amen.

— I am Who I am, My dear mother. For My coming, I passed through your virginal womb and I took the body of a child and I grew up as much as I am, and I am Who I am, true Man and true God. Your voice was sweet and you word for the man's birth from above was great, mother. I have set all the heavenly powers for My entire work over the Romanian people, and every man that will bow to become a Christian for Jesus Christ according to the truth will be called Romanian. Amen.

No one can make the man a Christian but Christ alone, and the one who opposes Christ will not be able to work this, for I, the Lord, have holy servants in heaven and on earth, with whom I work in a holy manner, for I am holy and I work and travel with the saints.

Oh, how much word I have in My speaking, but I have God's measure, and I also work according to the man's measure, and now I am stopping from speaking and resting from My burden, for I am the One full of mercy and I am going to set another day of birth into the book, for a feast of three days is ordained to be through the church for My birth.

Peace to you, people bearing of God and bearing of My burdens with you! Oh, get used to them with the whole sweetness of your heart and appreciate My labor, for I will love you much because of your discipleship with Me now, when I have to do much and mysterious preparation for My appearance to those who are faithful and also before those who are not faithful, for even those who pierced Me and who keep on piercing Me have to see Me, as it is written.

I am glorifying Myself into your midst with a feast of birth, and you are My cave of coming; you are My mystery on earth and I keep you covered within mystery, for this is written, and tomorrow will be otherwise; it will be like God, oh, people loved by God and much working with Me for My today's coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint Martyr and Archdeacon Stephen

I am opening the heaven, I am staying with it open and I am bringing it near, and We are sitting down at the table of word, I with My saints and you, at the table, here on earth, as I am coming down close to you with the heaven open, well, well, My tiny people on earth, and the eyes of those in heaven see My beauty with you and have the invisible things as their homeland, with which I am coming after you; however, this scenery is beautiful, very beautiful, and where I am it is also, and many of My beloved saints have seen this beauty when I have released it in their eyes now and then.

I am staying with the heaven open near you, people of My coming, and I am taking you within it and joining you with the saints at My table of wedding with you, and the saints are happy when they come with Me to you, for it is written this: «Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give glory to Him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready. It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints». (Apoc: 19/7-8)

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ and I am the Word of God, as My name in the end of the time is written in the Scriptures, (Apoc: 19/13), according to the work that I have been doing now in the end of the time. I am staying with you at the table within a feast of birth, My people, and I am speaking with you on earth and I am writing Myself into My book of today with My speaking to you. My glory is coming with Me and glory out of glory is born, for the heavenly scenery is wonderful, and it is surrounding Me within My walking now!

I am the Lord of justice and I comfort those who believe in Me and love Me so, but out of My mouth comes a sharp sword to strike the pagans with it, for they do not love Me because of the joy of their life without God, only that I shepherd with an iron rod the nations and I spoil their pagan joy, and out of My mouth comes a sword, which is the Word of God for those who are not faithful, and I sit on a white throne and the heaven and the earth flee from before My face and My glory will appear soon, soon, a new heaven and a new earth, as it is written that it will be done. Amen.

I am dwelling within you with the saints, people of My coming. Among them, there at his feast the Saint apostle Stephen, who saw the heavens open and Me on the throne, and My glory surrounding Me, for the testimony of My saints is the spirit of the prophecy, as it is written. Oh, how shall those, who hear and see from God, not prophesy? Who can close the mouth and the eyes of those who hear and see? Not even the stones that crushed him, being thrown at him by the killers, not even they could close the mouth of My confessing apostle, and who judged according to justice like God over those who were unfaithful, and there are not words or speeches whose voice are not heard, but on the contrary, their proclamation has reached all over the earth, and their words to the margins of the world, for they were written and they are, and up to this day they have been confessing and cannot be hidden, because I have given to the saints thrones of justice and judgment for justice, and the lawlessness cannot be hidden from its judgment, for the saints have judged it in their own body, in their soul, in their spirit and heart, in which God's kingdom has dwelt at large on earth, and My saints have got a royal robe, the robe of King's sons.

I am giving voice to the apostle Stephen, for he is at his feast among the saints, and the ruler of the world has been judged on earth as many times as My saints have been judged, for those, who have judged them on earth against God's justice, have touched the light of My eyes, they have touched My saints, and the reward of the killers is mourning and gnashing of teeth, there where they have piled up the reward for their works; however, I have remained with My saints, and they will reign with Me as King's sons, and My kingdom with them is endless. Amen.

— I am staying within the feast of my day in the glory of Your coming, Lord, for You are accompanied by Your saints and You are coming, as You have worked on earth accompanied by Your holy apostles. I rejoiced over the glory of the heavenly sights in my life as Your apostle, and when I was sent into heaven by those who were envious and haughty in their faith, as they wanted to prove when they killed me under the clamor of stones thrown at me, then I testified that the heaven was open above me and You were on the throne on the right side of the Father, for the heavenly sight was witnessing from heaven against those who have committed the murderous deed, and of which they could no longer be vindicated. Oh, this is how You stay with the heaven opened above Your saints on earth, and You are the right Judge for them, opening the heaven and receiving them, just as You welcomed me and opened the heaven to me to enter and to present myself before Your throne near the Father, as I had confessed that You were with the heaven opened for me, and my killers were very much upset with me then and took me out of my body and sent me to You, and then I prayed to You; I prayed to You to forgive their unbelief and the wickedness that came from their unbelief, for they gave me the heaven as a gift, Lord, and You came with the heaven opened before me, to receive me near You in heaven.

No enemy can throw You down, and no one can throw down Your saints, Lord. Oh, how much teaching of heaven has to be on earth over those who are faithful, Lord! They are to be vessels of the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit, the Teacher, puts clarifying teaching in them and He puts faith with a living proof for it.

I am coming down as a confessor from heaven into the midst of the people of Your word, Lord. The same testimony I have to give from haven, as that on the earth then. Those who were stiff-necked, hardening their hearts, stay and will stay eternally against the Holy Spirit because of their spirit by which they always feel at their ease on earth, always cleansing around them and striking against all of Your righteous ones, and thus receiving the bad reward from the hand of those killed. Oh, how is the man in cold blood supposed to have warmth in him? How are those full of hate supposed to know love? Hate comes in man from the spirit of haughtiness, just as love and waves of love are brought forth out of the spirit of faith, and it embraces the world surrounding it, loving it and forgiving it, but the clay in man cannot do this.

Oh, how much humility has to be in the saints to be the heavenly dwelling places of love, Lord! Much instruction is needed over the saints on the earth. They do not have to take into account their love and measure it by themselves attributing it to themselves as though they might have love in them, but it has to be seen alone by its proof, and humility has to cover within it all those from heaven in those who are holy on earth, as the glory of the heavenly things in the saints is not given on earth, but only in humility, only in heaven, only after that, Lord. The big great saints were taking on them the sight of their unworthiness, under which they were hiding their treasure from heaven, lest they might lose it or that it may be stolen from them. Many followers have always sprung taking after Your saints, and through whom You have confessed Yourself about them after that.

Oh, it is no use for man to marry, Lord; it is no use to do this either in heaven or on earth. The children leave the one who gives them birth and the one who marries and raises fleshly offspring remains all alone in his weaknesses; his children leave him one by one and want to take him as soon as possible to his grave. His children grow up and he is pushed in the back of his house, in the smallest and the least room only for his children to stay at home, and it happens the same to them when they grow up and become old; they are left in sufferance and alone, mourning over the pain of their heart and for the lack of the love from their children; therefore, it is no use for man to get married, for his joy that lasts a moment vanishes quickly and his reward comes soon, that with pain and mourning; however, those who give themselves to You for Your holiness in them, becoming vessels of the Holy Spirit, they give birth to sons for You, not for them; they give birth to disciples for You, Lord, and they grow them up for You and fill them with the Holy Spirit, Who springs from the holy ones and they are loved by their holy followers and are very much appreciated and sought after, like some valuable jewels, and their disciples struggle for them, for their good, for their peace, for their life, in order to have fathers with them so that they may not remain without them on earth, and Your saints bring much fruit on earth and much do they gather with You, and You give them their comfort hundredfold, because they have also comforted You.

Oh, it is no use for man to marry, Lord, but it is better for him to become a holy man and bring forth holy fruit, God's holy followers and descendants from descendants by whom the heaven is to dwell on earth among people, giving light in its holy ones.

I am exhorting the people of Your word, Lord, and I am telling them this: Oh, become disciples to each other and be disciples so that you may be beautiful, to be the fruit that remains by giving forth fruit. I have always listened to the Holy Spirit and I have always stayed under the leadership of the apostles of Christ by Whom I was given the work of a disciple to work it. The Holy Spirit is my work, and I was leading the things of the church as long as I lived in this ministry. Oh, do not separate yourselves from the work and from the fruit bearing of the Holy Spirit in you and among you when you have to organize the church business, the brotherly needs! Be not separated from God, the Holy Spirit, and you will be disciples, the sons of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the Baptizer, the Lord Creator of life, the One Who proceeds from the Father, and together with the Father and with the Son, worshipped and praised by the disciples and highly speaking from His prophets, and by the church with a synod, confess your sins in the baptism of the Holy Spirit and have your life in Christ, the Bridegroom of the saints. Stay with the heaven open into your midst and close the window of the world to you, for the world is dust. Bless the Lord; bless Him all the time, for He confesses you before those in heaven and you are His people on earth, the place of His rest and of His coming of nowadays. Become disciples to each other! Come under each other's hand for the spirit of forgiveness and submission, which highly exalts you up to heaven, for you need submission, which even God's Son was not exempted from, neither in heaven nor on earth. Furthermore, be workers, obedient workers and very wise for the work in obedience which serves Christ's church. Be on earth as in heaven; do not forget this! This is what I want for you in the days of the feast of birth, when the Lord Jesus Christ is spending time with you, Bridegroom and bride, at the table of wedding, and of much word on the table. Amen.

And now Lord, bless my gift for Your people! Amen.

— Your gift is being put now on My table with My people, oh My great disciple, for you confessed a great word of Holy Spirit on God's behalf over those who took the Lord's vineyard to be theirs. There are not My servants those who steal the vineyard that they may have My vineyard, but there are thieves and robbers, as I called them as they were, for the thief does not know anything but only to plunder so that he may possess, and not to give to My poor ones, to the sons of the church, whom he lays under tribute as though they were strangers and not sons, and he gets their skin only to have a garment, for the thieves are greedy of glory and they are only thieves.

Oh, My people, keep yourself always separated from the world, for I have earned you to have you for Me, son. Always wait for Me to bring to you from heaven, to have warm food and to have My warmth with you, son, for you do not have to get cold, you do not have to get cold, for only those who get cold, only those go cold and get sick, and then they need doctors and bitter medicine for their healing.

I give you an embracing of birth, for I have been spending time at the heavenly table for three days, My people. The Father rejoices over My dwelling with you, and the heaven and the earth flee from before Me, and a new heaven and a new earth stay with Me and you when I dwell with you on feasts of new age.

Peace to you, disciple people. The longing is binding us until the feast that is coming, for the feasts come one after the other, and I have been staying with you and with the heaven open near you on your feasts.

Peace to you, disciple people! Give yourselves to each other as disciples in order to get the work of a disciple and then to get the reward for it, for I am with My victory from the end of the time and I am victorious with you for all those who have labored and then for you, who are laboring one hour with Me now, one hour, sons, until the trumpet of eternity will be sounding My rest and the rest of My saints. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's bodily circumcision and the feast of the Saint hierarch Basil the Great

My word during these days is My testimony, it is the spirit of prophecy, a spirit which does not have to be absent from the earth, for I said that I would be to the end of the time with those who are Mine, and through them from one to another, to rule them through the waves of the time, to protect them, to advise them, to give them the word of My mouth, for I am Who I am, and I did not speak on earth only two thousand years ago when I came from the Father and became a Man by My birth of a mother Virgin, and behold, I am He Who speaks from heaven; I am the Word of God and I come with heavenly armies after Me, for this is how I travel.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I am His Word to the end, as I was at the beginning, and I speak on earth from the Father, and I am not an angel, but I am true God from true God, and the Father Sabaoth has sent Me. I am coming down into the book in My little garden of word from the midst of the Romanian people and I am writing Myself with My feast of today, and near it, with that of My bishop Basil, the one who rebuked the king when this one wanted to change the man's way to God by the heresy that came up then in the midst of the church, trying to overthrow the guide full of care for the destiny of the salvation of My believers, and My watching saints for God's house are great; they are great both in heaven and on earth, for they were the watchmen after the Spirit of God over My house, not according to their spirit, and the spirit of the revelations were with them.

I am sitting down with you at the table, people of My word. I have been spending days of heavenly feast on earth, as I have nowhere to go anymore, as man is everywhere, but you should be a child receiving of God as Samuel, the prophet, was, when he was a child and when I, the Lord, set My Spirit upon him, the spirit of prophecy, and he worked with this guide, working from Me, and then he took care of My way over the people and over the kings, as there was no time for Me to be absent from the earth; I was in those who were faithful and full of My grace for their faith because of their submission before Me, as I bestowed them as gifts upon them. Oh, it would be so well with Me, it would have been so well with them, and it would also be well with those who sit highly over the flock of people too, if they knew Me with you as word upon them, just as I was known by the priest near whom I had set Samuel to stay with him at the middle for the spirit of prophecy! It is not, it was not and it will never and nowhere be My church, but only if I have room within it with the spirit of prophecy, as it was in the time of My disciples with whom I walked two thousand years ago, and with whom My Spirit, the spirit of prophecy, remained, for they were prophets in its midst, as I ordained by My church so that I might be with it to the end of the time, as I promised.

Oh, well My people, I was not able to make the stock of vine sprout, for it became completely dry and therefore, I could no longer find any life in it. I set to work the spirit of prophecy, My zeal, and I started all over again from the beginning with My word and I planted a new vineyard, for I am the One Who has built the heaven and the earth, the man and My church. I do not have to ask the man when I have to come to work on earth after man has spoiled all the things that I have built. Still, I have to listen to the Father in order to come and work, for My work is the obedience to God and not obedience to men.

Oh, there is great noise on earth for the man's way with God and the spirit of prophecy is not in the church, and there is no faith for this. All have deserted Me everywhere and they do no longer know Me by the spirit working from heaven, which has gone out on earth because of the spirit of unbelief, of the man's spirit, hungry of power over the earth. I am coming and finding unbelief and pride in man, and the voice of the Spirit is no longer taken into account, for man has settled down as God in My place and he fell from God when he wanted to be so, and he fell like Lucifer, who wanted to be above God and who changed Me with man, and thus he lost his brightness from Me and became satan, and then he became God's adversary.

Man has tried to get everything but not faith, and the church needs faith, humility, repentance and welcome, for where there is faith and life dedicated to Me, I come and knock, and I come in and then I bring light in everything; I bring the spirit of prophecy and the spirit of the revelation from the heavens and I can do this by the man's faith and humility, and I cannot be with man otherwise in order to give him.

The Holy Spirit breathes over the earth and does not find any place to settle down, for He has always worked to let the man know how to work for each condition and work, as the house in which I have to work on earth with the people has become a den of thieves and the people do not know where they go when they go to the place they know as God's house. Who is to tell them what God with people means? Only those who sit at their table with the book of their faith open on the table; only those still know how to experience Me and how to let Me work and lead them through the storms so that they may not perish because of the pride and because of My removal from them, because of their unbelief in the power and in the work of the Holy Spirit, Who comes in time on earth, as He is the Watcher.

Oh, who is to tell the wandering flock that My name goes out from the earth in such a way that the name of the haughty man may remain on God's behalf and on God's house; on behalf of the wandering flock and without a shepherd on it? The wolves are nothing but wolves, they are not shepherds; I am the Shepherd, but the wolves have removed Me to the sides and they have appeared instead and that is all. I come with the great saints and I show them everywhere what is on earth under the name of church; I show them what the antichrist did and still does to wipe out My name from the people, to be God in My place and to draw the flock towards him. Oh, man cannot correct anything of those that have been torn down, and here it is how I come, and We will make all things new, for I am the beginning and the end of all things, and I start doing a new thing, and this has shot forth buds, but I always have to speak word over satan so that he may know that I am God and not he, as he is My adversary; the adversary of the invincible power between heaven and earth.

Oh, it is a day of holy feast to My memorial. Eight days after My birth I was submitted to the law of physical circumcision so that it may remain over time that God became Man and appeared to the people full of grace and truth. The spirit of prophecy talked about Me then that I would be to the falling and to the raising of many in Israel and that I would be as a sign of denial, as it was so, and it is so today. The people, who have set themselves as servants upon people in My name, do not know what God means, as the old Simeon knew from the Holy Spirit when he saw Me a Child, received Me, and spoke his prophecy for Me. Many of the church servants hear, they hear the roaring of this river of word and they do not know what it means, and they say that they are watchers, that they are smart and that they know to give Me out from them, as though My voice of today by this word is not the Holy Spirit. However, this word is the Spirit of Truth and no one knows Me. I know all those who deny Me and this word is like a sign of denial, which is born of God and of which the whole breath has to be born again, all the creation again, and I will put the man aside and I will fulfill in this way, and many will believe and will be baptized in this word in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; and still, many will find their salvation, as I said two thousand years ago that I would work. Amen.

I have within My descent the good and the faithful one, My bishop full of the Spirit of Truth, Basil who was Great in word for God before the rulers on the earth in his time. The saints are also coming with Me on earth, because the Spirit of Truth is no longer on earth, and it is only the spirit of man and that is all; however, I, the Lord, am coming and the spirit of prophecy is My testimony; I am working with it from heaven and from earth and I am going with it to the things that have been spoiled and completely crushed by man, which I have made to be. I am working with My saints, with My faithful witnesses, with those in heaven, as on earth, I have only enemies, only wolves, and I stay with the saints and with those who are faithful to Me on earth; moreover, I am working in the spirit of truth upon the whole lie on earth, I have a little garden of word and I am becoming a book in it and I am sharing with it to knowledge so that all may know that the Holy Spirit is breathing now on earth, as the Father and the Son is sending Him to the people to their illumination.

Oh, great bishop among the righteous ones, My servants in heaven, I am writing you down into the book with Me as word so that many may wonder, and whoever wonders remains with his wondering and that is all, but the faithful are My witnesses and the witnesses of the Holy Spirit, Who spoke and speak through the prophets, and He will remain to the end of the time and will build My church, My kingdom, My homeland for the saints. Amen.

— Oh, it is the time for You to work, Shepherd Lord, and it is the time for You to shepherd, for the people have spoiled the way to You for the faithful ones, and they have put it aside. There is no need to ask anyone if they believe or not, but we rather have to work from heaven, Lord. On earth, everything is mingled, for the antichrist is at the end of his road and he looks in the Scriptures to fulfill according to them his work and his haughtiness as long it is his time. It has been long until he has spoiled everything, before he has deceived on the right and on the left with his power, with his dyed face, by which he has gone up to the top for the sake of his dominion over the whole earth, and no David has been found until now to destroy this giant who has mocked God's face and the seat of His glory from above.

Two thousand years ago, You told the disciples not to call anyone father on earth, as only One is Father, the One in heaven, Lord, and You also told them no longer to consider among themselves that one should be greater than the others, but that they should rather serve one another in love, one to be smaller than the other, one to be more serving than the other in his ministry for the brothers. Behold now how much foolishness is on earth! It was written in the Scriptures that this thick darkness, which was made by the lack of faith, would come over the people; and we, Your saints, many of us had prophesied about this black time that it would come and that it would spoil and trample Your entire vineyard under its feet. It was written that it would come and that You would find unbelief, and behold the fulfillment, Lord.

You, those who set yourselves as great over people under the name of shepherds from God, who have ordained you as shepherds? The spirit of prophecy, the spirit of the revelation has to ordain shepherds over the church of the Lamb of God. Oh, why do you put aside the voice of the Holy Spirit and the spirit of the revelation from God? You have done this only to have dominion, and Lucifer lives in you. Oh, what will your answer be that you have become thieves? Look into our lives, into the lives of the Lord servants of old and be ashamed, you, paid shepherds, shepherds hired to sell the flock on the glory for you from it. Oh, where will you hide in such a way that the Lord may not find you and call you to account, because you have stolen His vineyard and give it to the passers-by so that they may trample it under their feet? Oh, after you have trampled over the saints and fathers, by whom the Lord strengthened on their testimony His house and watch over the flock, now you have given yourselves over to the Babylon; you have given yourselves to the mixture and there is no one of you to rebuke you to repentance for the crushing of the Lord's will, from Whose hand you have taken the helm. I rebuked the king straight in his face when he sided with those who went astray from the faith and who misinterpreted the truth, and I did not give myself over to a hand inimical to God for the fear of the scepter of the dominion over the earth. The Lord will require an answer from you, you should know this! You have set each other as shepherds of flocks and have no longer wanted to hear from the Holy Spirit, Who reveals God's will from God! You have covered the truth and you will be called to an account before God. Now you are not afraid, but the fear of God is going to come on earth and you will freeze to death. Oh, repent! The fathers from heaven require you an answer for those that you have spoiled and put aside so that you may embrace the pagans and play with the people's salvation, worshipping on behalf of their name before the man greedy for power, eager to overthrow God and to sit in God's temple as God, as it is written that the man of lawlessness will do in the end of the time. Oh, of what use is this to you? Wake up and listen to the Lord, Who cries out far and wide, asking you to throw aside the decay, as the day is coming when you will be frightened worse than Judas, who was leaving the disciples and constantly went to and from Caiaphas. He had never wanted the other disciples to know about his dishonest ways, but the Lord's eyes had always been upon him and He had tolerated him so that the Scriptures of the Lord's betrayal might be fulfilled, for Judas had walked after his interests in the world, and he had done it in secret until the day when it was disclosed who he walked with, for after he had taken the Lord's Supper with the other disciples, he received satan's power in him and betrayed the Lord, for he was eating from two sides, and those who had bought the Lord from him did not tell him anything; they did not tell him what they were going to do to the Lord he had betrayed, and only after Judas saw what it had come out of his dishonest walk, he said: «I betrayed innocent blood», (Matt: 27/4), but it was too late when he saw that and great fear fell upon him, the great despair.

Behold, you do not have the Lord in you and you did not realize what kind of work you chose when you decided to be servants on God's behalf, and I, the bishop Basil, the Lord's witness on earth and up to heaven, am telling you that you have been nourished with unbelief in vain. God is and you will see that He is and great fear will seize you and you will not be able to hide from it for the fear of God will come down from heaven and it will fall unexpectedly on you, because you have betrayed the Lord. You have to leave room for a question mark, as behold, God is and He is coming with His retinue of saints on earth as word and He is visiting His vineyard, as the clock is beating His coming, and He is coming speaking and searching out. Amen.

Oh, Lord, save Your people and bless Your little inheritance, bless the people of Your word, that of the Romanian people, for the people have violated Your law and You are coming, searching and working, and You start all over again from the beginning and You make them all new; You make them again for they have become corrupted.

Get up, faithful people, and rebuke satan in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ, so that he may lose his power and obey, for I have prophesied upon him a word of reproach, which has to be fulfilled to its end; moreover, you should also speak over the earth the word of reproach for satan and for all his servants, for they hid my book and my prophecy left against satan, and let it be read daily at you to be remembered, and let it command in the name of the Holy Spirit the destruction of satan's work on earth, from the people and from all its nests and secret places. Amen.

You, servants of the Lord's altar into the midst of this people chosen by the Lord for His glory of nowadays, bring prayers to the Lord for His victory, and reproach satan every day, as all the time there is with you a table with clean food on it, fasting from worldly food, as the Lord has asked you to eat monastic food always and to be always prepared, day by day with fasting and prayer, and you have loved to do this and fulfilled so at the Lord's word, for the kind of the devils that swarm from heaven and down to earth no longer have any fear now but of the faithful ones, when they spend their day and night fasting and praying for the Lord's coming and for His victory in the end of the time, that from nowadays. The Lord has asked you to eat monastic food always and you have loved and fulfilled so at the Lord's word, and you have listened to Him. The Lord took you out of the world and you came out of it to be His people set apart for His glory. Have a big heart! The Lord is with you within His coming, within His entire glory full of word! Give Him power to come and build; to come and the Lord to be on earth! Amen.

Lord, have with them a heavenly citadel on earth, as our longing burns in heaven after Your Scriptures set on earth to the least of the Scripture of Your entire fulfillments. Oh, give them the victory with You! Let the angels and the saints be inhabitants with them, and through them to be workers over the earth, and may those who do not love God be cursed, as it is written, for the Lord is coming. Amen.

— I am giving you of My joy with you into the midst of the people of My word, oh, My beloved saints. The time is with the spirit of the darkness on it; however, We have a house on earth, We become light in it, We share Ourselves and build the church, as My saints had built it through their life by their testimony and by the spirit of prophecy. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Prepare for Me, son, a feast of Epiphany now, and strengthen yourself within My Spirit, because I, the Lord, strengthen Myself in you so that we may work much glory and wisdom over those who come and get together near Me and near you at the feast of Epiphany soon. I am sending to you travelling angels together with them to My spring of word and water, confirmed by the word of Epiphany upon it. I am coming into their way with My glory and I am giving them from it so that they may know Me and be faithful. I will strengthen them within Me, as they cannot find anywhere clean pasture anymore, as there is only poison everywhere, there is only faith denial, and it has been foretold through the Scriptures that it would be this; however, for My elected, these hard times will be shortened, for this is what I spoke through the Scriptures, as I promised.

May your hard work for the preparation of the Epiphany feast be blessed, My people! My saints and I are coming to your help, and you should be and stay within the spirit of humility and within the spirit of the infancy from Me to be able to be carried in the arms, son, for My arms are with you. Be faithful, be greatly faithful, for I have promised you and this is how I am going to fulfill. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of Epiphany

Oh, the Lord is finding faith on earth for His coming as word of Holy Spirit now, in the end of the time.

«When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?», (Luke: 18/8) this is what I, the Lord, asked Myself two thousand years ago, and I keep on giving an answer to Myself. I am answering to Myself now, when I am coming, after this time has passed between My coming of that time and that from now.

Oh, peace to you, faithful sons of My coming of nowadays! I have put faith in you for the coming of the Son of Man and I am coming on its way, as the Lord used to come to Abraham, through whom He started His blessing upon him and then upon those that have been faithful like him, for the Lord's work is blessing.

Oh, peace to you, weary sons for the feast of My coming on earth as word! I am bowing and comforting your little hearts and your weary little bodies, sons. I am coming down into the book before the dawn of the day of Epiphany and we are preparing the meeting of the people faithful to the word of My coming now to you so that you may also give it further to those who believe like you. I am finding you watching, sons; each one where you work hard in the middle of the night. The gates for My entrance are open, they are watching and My work with you is beautiful, and those in heaven are looking at you in astonishment.

We are working everything that is to be prepared, and We are working My word, watching sons, and We are putting it into the book and then on the table of the feast to the joy of those who are coming together at the spring of the water of Epiphany, and all are getting ready now for the journey, and I, the Lord, am looking with those in heaven at their joy for their coming to the spring. I am speaking to them about My joy from them, as I do not have any joys, and they give Me their joy with generosity and longing whenever they come to the spring. I am reminding them of the faithful Abraham and of his joy whenever the Lord was coming into his way and speaking with him about those things coming from heaven to the work on the earth. How much joy God had because Abraham knew Him! Let the one who reads the Scriptures about God's coming on Abraham on earth stop his mind for a moment, for this man had great love. I mysteriously anointed him through the angels and then I spoke with him, and he heard Me and his heart was filled with the holy fire for the Lord, and then the Lord sent the priest Melchizedek and anointed Abraham with oil and fed him with bread and wine on the Lord's behalf, and Abraham was rewarded for his love full of faith for God, the righteous one, and then with his love, he lived within Me and through it he worked for God on earth.

I am writing the word of My meeting into the book for those who have come on a day of the feast of Epiphany at My spring of word and of holy water by the word of the Holy Spirit, oh, sons from the spring. My angels are prepared to accompany them to the spring, and you and I are going to meet them.

Peace to you, peace to those who have come! My Spirit is embracing you within the word. Be faithful like Abraham, to whom I came into his way by My servants, and He knew Me and spoke with God, and God spoke His word with him. This work of word is the tree of life, the tree of the heaven, full of fruit good to eat, for I said that the faithful man should not eat only bread, but especially he should have his food from heaven, because when My disciples asked Me to remain at the supper while I was walking with them from place to place for the proclamation of My Gospel two thousand years ago, I told them that I have to eat some other food, and that I had to put on the table the work of the Father, the food of the Father, Who had sent Me, the word of the Father as the food of many through Me, the One sent by Him.

Peace to you, to those who are coming! Those in heaven and those on earth, who are Mine, are working for Me and for you a feast of Epiphany. I am baptizing you in My word full of the Holy Spirit. I am enwrapping you within the spirit of the teaching from above; I am rejoicing you by speaking to you and I am looking at you with the whole heaven inside and outside of you. The heaven is measuring your being and its sight, I am clothing you within the power from above to be able to do My will, for this is the joy which you can give to Me fully, that I may be able to present it before the Father as having it from you, and this is how I give you power to become God's sons, the sons of My Father. If you want and if you love Me fully with your spirit and with the deed of your life, then walk in the steps of My disciples of today with whom I, the Lord, am meeting you at the spring. Be imitators of them, as they also are of Me! I would like to make, from place to place, oases of the love of God and of fulfillment like here, so that the land may be blessed from place to place by My full work in those who are faithful of My coming now. With the world I speak otherwise, as it grievously crucifies Me on the cross so that I may not give it any help from heaven, and so that I may not stay into its way, and My place to be only on the cross; on the contrary, with those who are faithful I speak sweetly, I make them sweet and I am getting comforted from them in My cross of today, in the heavy burden of the lawlessness of the world, because the world stays in lawlessness on earth, and the earth is My creation. The fear of God is coming on earth as it came in the time of Abraham over the king of Gerara, to whom God spoke that he would die because he took Abraham's woman from him, and the Lord told him to go to Abraham and ask him to pray for him, for he was a prophet and the Lord's punishment would depart from him for what he did against Abraham. The fear of God is coming on earth for all those who go wrong against My works with those who are faithful to Me in this time, and soon it will be fulfilled the Scripture which speaks about the angel flying in mid heaven having an eternal Gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language and people, saying with a loud voice: «Fear the Lord, and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment has come. Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality! … Come out of her, My people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues,…, therefore in one day her plagues will come:…, for the Lord who has judged her is strong!», (See Apoc: 14/6, 7; 18/4, 8), as it is written! However, over My faithful ones resurrection will come, and I will take them out of the darkness on earth as I took Lazarus out from the grave for the sake of Mary's faith, his sister full of love for Me and full of faith in Me by her love.

Oh, holy love is needed in order to be faith, for love can give everything, and the Lord does not come without it with His glory for those who are faithful, as behold, My church, the Orthodoxy, has not watched with the burning candle and it has remained without oil to meet the Bridegroom, because those who sell do not have good oil (Love of God, r.n.) for My coming; they do not have faith, and she did not have from where to take and have, as for love she needed love and wisdom, (love and wisdom – oil and light born of oil; Normally in the lamp is used only pure oil, cold pressed oil - untdelemn in Romanian, not refined, not pass through the fire, light of the candle represents wisdom born of love for God proved by fulfilling the word, as the flame of the oil lamp is born, r.n.) but she did not have, and for a long time I have not been with it, because if I had been with her, she would have not died; however she died and she died without a candle because she had not believed in Me that I am the Light of the world, and rather she had believed in those who were foreign to her and these had spotted its little dress; they had spotted its garment and then she died like its enemies, after they had deceived her. I said: «He who believes in Me will never die!» This is what I said, and behold, he who does not believe always dies and then he dies for good.

You, those who are dear for your faith full of love and longing for My coming as word over the earth now, oh, be baptized within this word! May you have a day of Epiphany over you whenever you wash your life and face in this river of word! It is a great heavenly beauty here now. The angel of the waters have suites of angels as his companions and they are singing a song of Epiphany in the air from here, and the whisper of the air of angels is filling all the heavens. The Jordan of God's word is this river of word. Let them all be baptized in it, those who can believe that I am coming now on earth to baptize many in it and they to be alive after that, for I went from Galilee to the Jordan to John, who was preaching about Me that I came with My kingdom over the faithful ones and I was baptized by John, and he said to Me: «I need to be baptized by You, and You come to me?» (Matt: 3/14). John baptized Me and when I came out of the water the heavens were opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Me as a dove, and the voice of the Father said: «This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased!» (Matt: 3/17)

At Jordan I showed the man the example of My submission and I taught him that way the whole work that he was to bring into My name before Me. Only those who do God's will know the whole word that comes out of God, and they know it to the end, not only for a while. There are many who burn for a little while and then their love fades away, for those who are not to the end with Me, they have poor love and are without strength in them for it, as they have their hearts inclined to their own things and they grow less in their love and then they do not remain Mine as I have remained with those who are Mine to the end, as I promised them.

Oh, there comes the time of endless love, the age that is to come, the age of love, for the Lord is love, and He is without beginning and without end. I suffer from the one who cannot do to the end more and more with his love for Me. The word of love is great; it is not a mere trifle as man might think it is, who feels in him how love feeds him. Love has to be nourished in order to be so that it may not perish, because it does not remain within man otherwise, as man is divided. It needs much cleanness; it needs clean food, clean bread, clean wine, clean and holy teaching, food for those with a humble spirit, as Abraham was always before God.

I am asking you, oh, I am asking you with a deep sigh, you, those who are coming with longing at My spring of Epiphany by the word, be like the faithful Abraham! Learn from him the work of the faith, which does not doubt, for the Lord is revealing Himself in a great mystery, only that there may be faith between man and Me. I have revealed and given Myself to those who do not love Me with their life, but I have done this only to frighten them, not to give them as I give to those who are faithful and holy with their life for Me in them. Oh, how big difference was between Mary and Martha, the sisters of the resurrected Lazarus! The love in Mary made her forget everything and all and made her believe only in Me, the One Who can do everything at the faith of the man loving of God, and Martha's sacrifice was leading her in worries, for she had many worries, which occupied her being, and because of them her faith grew less, it was more human, it was older, because she could not pass beyond those that were in her eyes, and also, her love was not as much as that of Mary, for love believes much, it always believes, it believes everything, and it believes like God and believes in a holy way.

You, those who come together near My spring of word, I always come into your way and meet you with the angels and I feed you from My mouth when you come to rejoice here, where I descend. I have sent you a book that I would meet you with My glory to give you, and that you may come to know Me more and more perfectly and to remain faithful, because you do not have, sons, you do not have from where to find clean pasture, always clean, because there is only poison and there is only denied faith, and it is written in the Scripture about this bad time, which I, the Lord, have to cut it short for those who are faithful, as I promised. Be wise, for after I was baptized, satan took Me, by the spirit of temptation, to push Me to do like him, to say like him, and I have always overcome him by the will of the Father in Me and by My obedience to the Father, to Whom I have dedicated all My work. Oh, be wise to be able to follow My example and to be able to overcome as I overcame the whole temptation, which was working against Me to test My way. If I had temptations you have temptations as well; however, you have Me as a guide for the victory against the devil, only for you to love to imitate Me, sons, for otherwise you will not have any power in satan's wrestle against you. Oh, so many souls have drunk of this spring of Holy Spirit for more than half a century, since My word has been poured out on the earth by this spring, and few are those who have resisted temptation and have been drawn from the work of the holy work, and it happened to them as to the five foolish virgins, who had not watched until My coming for it and for My love with them.

Receive of My Spirit! When you take from your spirit you are weak and your weakness tempts you, but when you take of My Spirit, even those who see you clothed in My Spirit become strong for Me, and at least they do not put obstacles in you holy walk. Oh, be holy, as I am also holy! This is the life required for those who love Me so, and they cannot even die, because they are like angels. Be very wise when I speak to you, for the angels always sing. Sing like them, and always sing, for those who do not sing are not like angels. There is a great mystery for you to sing like the angels, and this mystery is important, for the angels are My glory and they humble very much so that they may not be burned near the fire of My glory preached by them, for they fill the heaven and the earth and they say singing and proclaiming: «Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Sabaoth! The whole heaven and earth is full of His glory!» (Is: 6/3)

Behold what I am telling you: the confession is for those who see, for those who hear and see, as the angels see and here, and they confess, as Abraham saw, heard and confessed, and as I, the Lord, saw him, heard him and confessed him as faithful to Me and righteous by his faith, for not even a bit did he doubt of My meetings with him, of My speaking with him, after I had decided to speak upon him. Only those who hear and see from God, only they can confess, as otherwise man confess from him. I, the Lord, confess from the Father and I do not do My will, My thought or My word, but I do My Father's will Who is in the heavens, and My confession is the spirit of prophecy; it is the spirit of testimony. Amen.

I have told you these to know them from Me, because I had to tell you and you to know them for the spirit of humility in you, sons, and let he who has ears hear, hear from God. Amen. I will stay with you in the word again, as I have My baptizer, John, with Me at this feast of Epiphany, and he is saying to you this:

— I baptized the Lord in the Jordan and I heard Him speaking to me to bow and baptize Him with water, and I saw Him and then I heard the Father testifying about Him from the heavens saying: «This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased». (Matt: 3/17). This is My testimony from the river Jordan, and what I saw and heard, this is what I confessed. Amen.

— Oh, My Baptizer, We have set a table of the Epiphany word on a day of holy feast. We have to work on this day and on the next day, the day for you, for your celebration near Me with the feast of Epiphany, for the confessing angels are singing to us and they are filling the heaven and the earth with God's glory.

I am speaking this word of Holy Spirit over the waters and I am setting the blessing over them by the hand and by the word of those who are anointed for My glory of now and I am saying:

It is blessed and sanctified the water of Epiphany and those who are blessed and sanctify themselves through it in the name of the Father, in the name of the Son and of the Holy Spirit! Amen. May this Epiphany and may its blessing spoken here now overflow from waters to waters for those who are faithful, and for those who are not faithful, may it work resurrection, awakening and love, and then may it work faith through love. Amen.

Peace to you, sons of My people from the spring, as You have set Me a table of Epiphany and I have made a stop with you and with the people that come to take!

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who come coming! Come, sons, come and spend the time here heavenly, and the Father to see Us, as He is well pleased with Me and then I am pleased with you too, if you are like Me in order to hear, to see and to confess. Oh, I would speak to you about your conduct before Me. You need more zeal, a lot of fulfillments to be in My image and after My likeness, and that I may work in you and for you against satan, who tempts you because of Me, because of your love for Me. He tempts God and he tempts those who love God as well. However, you should not tempt anyone, but rather be faithful like Abraham, for his book is beautiful with Me, as through him I was able to set God and the confession for God on the earth, and in him I have blessed all those who have been the sons of faith without blemish in its work, that without temptation for its confirmation.

I am embracing you within word and this is how I present you before the Father, for the angels fill the air with singing for My glory that is here. Amen.

Oh, My Father, glorify Your Son, Father! Amen.

—This is what I, the Father, do, oh, My beloved Son. Over Your entire feast of today, I am staying with the heaven open for the coming in and out of the saints and of the angels of the glory of Your day of Epiphany, and I am speaking over those who have come together and over those who will confess this word. You are My beloved Son, the only One born of Me before eternity and You are Light of Light and true God of true God, and You are of the same Being with Me, My dear Son, and I, the Father, am well pleased with You, and this is My confession about You, Who are, Who were and Who come, as it is written, and in You all those that are written come to be fulfilled, and I, the Father, am comforting You, and I am comforting Your joy among Your faithful ones, for they are those who comfort Us on earth, oh, dear Son, My beloved Son, Emmanuel, baptized on earth by John in the river of Jordan two thousand years ago, oh, My beloved Son. Amen, amen, amen.

The Synod of the Saint John the Baptizer

My book of these days is becoming My way over the earth as word, for I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am coming down into it with the angels and the saints, and they are speaking from near Me to those who believe in Me and to those who do not believe in Me; however, those who do not believe when they read it say that it is only a human making, and they say so because they do not want to believe, as they want to walk and think as they want on earth, but when the voice of their

[169] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

conscience makes them restless, then they ask themselves: Oh, what will we do if God is and if He is this word?

I am sitting down again with a table of word into your midst, My people. You are small, you are little, but you are faithful to My coming and the heaven has a house and a table with you on the earth. I am coming down into the book of My coming with the saints and angels and you learn the book from heaven on earth, for I went to the Father to come again, and behold, you have been waiting for Me to come and I am coming, and there where you are I am also. I have prepared a dwelling place here with you on earth, and there where I am, you are as well, My faithful people. Oh, I have been doing so much good on earth with you over people, as I have mercy on them! The earth is My creation; the earth is Mine, and man is careless on earth with respect to the Maker of the heaven and the earth. My goodness gives power for repentance to man, but I have to do something in order for him to know Me fully that I am the Creator of the heaven and the earth, and that I come to give him stability, and these come from heaven upon man, and I come unexpectedly, for I, the Lord, will show My victory from the end of the time soon, soon.

John, My Baptizer, was the angel who went before Me on the way of My appearance at the Jordan, and he, who reads in the Scriptures, understands this fulfillment then. He was a great and holy disciple for Me, as he who confesses about Me, preparing Me a way among people, that one is My disciple. The spirit of prophecy led him on earth all the time and he had this set upon him from the Father, and he was calling out in an inviting way over the people of Israel: "Repent for the kingdom of God has come near to you!" (Matt: 3/2) Only those who repent from their many evil things, only they receive this kingdom set on them and its King Jesus Christ, Who is coming to gather a people for wedding, for He is Bridegroom.

This table of word is the table of wedding of Jesus Christ. My coming of today is so, and only the one who puts away from him the Scriptures of that time, only that one cannot perceive this fulfillment. My name is the Word of God now. Who understands this fulfillment? Only the one who reads to understand the fulfillment of this Scriptures, only that one perceives My coming on earth under My name from the end of the time: The Word of God. I come with armies from heaven when I come, and this heavenly sight becomes word for man to be able to bear My glory near him, for the glory of My coming is the word, as it was in the beginning when everything was made by the word.

I have been preparing a new heaven and a new earth and I have done this by the spoken word, and then I bring it into sight. There is nowhere on earth a place for school, where man can go to become wise for the Scriptures set on the earth from the Holy Spirit. The teacher who gives knowledge to man for him to know is My word, this word and its book of today, the book that clarifies the Scriptures in all their depth. You shall have great decency in you when you come face to face with the book of My word of today, oh, sons of this word, and you too, people who look into it to see what is written in it or what has been written for reading! The heaven is coming down and is wrapped in the mystery of the word, which is becoming a scroll of book on earth, as it is written[170]. Who perceived the mystery of My baptism two thousand years ago? Everything was wrapped in mystery and in the faith of My forerunner angel at Jordan, John, the Baptizer. When the people, who put the Lord aside so that they may be big when they rise to rule, they clean their way from those who are the Lord's mysterious ones from among them, and for this evil work they are urged by their own sins, which stick to them, for they cannot do otherwise. When sin becomes a deceiving life in man, man cannot live without sinning. Oh, and there is only sin on earth, as it was in the time before the Flood when God and Noah were calling to the people to give up sinning so that the flood might not come upon them as a result of their sins, for this is what the sin, made by man, brings about on earth.

[170] «All the powers of the heavens shall melt and the sky shall be rolled up like a scroll of book: …» (Is: 34/4)

«The sky has tightened like a leather book that you make a scroll. …» (Apoc: 6/14)

The messenger angel at the Jordan, John the Baptizer, was foretold through the Scriptures to come before Me on the way of My appearance; this is My disciple and he is great among those in heaven. I am setting him into My book within a feast of Epiphany to confess, for I have a book, I have a house on earth, in which I come with the saints. Amen.

— «Behold, the Lord is coming with ten thousand of His holy ones!» (Jude: 1/14). *This is the Scripture that, I, Your Baptizer preach at the Jordan, little Lamb of the Father, Who lift up on Your shoulders the sins of the world; You raised then the cross and carried it, and that took You to Golgotha, having the burden of all the sins of the human kind, oh, Lord. When You come into Your book as word with the feast of a saint, then heavenly hosts come with You and with him, for this is how You travel and celebrate. On the feast of Your Baptism I am here with You and with crowds of angels and saints, confessing and baptizing many on earth as long as they have stayed. I confess that I with my own hand I baptized You in the water of Jordan two thousand years ago when I said, seeing You coming: «Behold, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world!» (John: 1/29). And then I prophesied Your ascension on the cross, Lord, that You were to die for the world, as for this the Father had sent You at that time on earth. God, the God of mercy, had to die for the world bathing in sin, as it did not want and it does not want to die for Him as the saints have done for His name.

*Few know that We had worked together, Lord, into the wilderness until Your appearance and mine at the Jordan. You were so humble in word and appearance before me! I had to ask the Father, Who had sent me to baptize with water, and the Father said: «On Whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him, the same is He Who baptizes in the Holy Spirit». (John: 1/33). And the Father was in You, Lord, and then I saw and confessed that You were the Son of God, so that my disciples may hear and to follow Him, that is to follow You, Lord.

You had to appear at the Jordan, little Lamb Lord. That is why I came, I, who was baptizing with water and I told the Jews about You, so that my confession about You might remain among them, and then all knew me as a great prophet; however, those full of the lust of sin were afraid, as they also were afraid of You after We appeared to start Our work of preaching when We were thirty years old.

Oh, the people on earth should take care only of the heavenly mysteries from the Scriptures. It is not given to all to believe; this does not belong to everyone, Lord. Only those written into the Lamb's book of life, only those are Your faithful people, that You have always chosen from among people to work into its midst Your Scriptures, foretold ahead of time through the prophets, and then their fulfillment on earth and the book of the written fulfillments, the word written and confessing through its book.

I have been standing with great longing and with heavenly love within the feast of Epiphany near You with the sons of Your people of today. I have stood so as I stood at the Jordan near You. And now, I confess You:

Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, is He Who baptizes with the Holy Spirit, and that is why the Father had sent the Holy Spirit in the image of the dove above His head on the day of the Lord's Epiphany in the Jordan two thousand years ago. I baptized with water and He baptized with the Holy Spirit and fire. His word over those who do not receive the word in the name of the Holy Spirit of the truth is fire. The Holy Spirit is for those who are faithful, and the fire is for those who are not faithful, who eternally make God angry by their unbelief, leading the people astray, as in the time of king Herod, as in the time of the archbishop Caiaphas, who were slow in believing that the Lord had come and appeared on earth, for these were wallowing in sin, and the Lord is without sin, and in the same way He cleanses those who are His people to be His after that, without sin; however, for this, faith and repentance is needed, and this is what I called out to the Jews: «Repent, for the Kingdom of the heavens is at hand». (Matt: 4/17)

Oh, and I am calling out likewise, little Lamb, Lord. We are with a feast of Epiphany among those who are Your little ones in the end of the time, and out of the midst of Your glory I am calling out for a spirit of repentance over those who live in sin, for the unbelief comes from sin, and it is the garment which covers the sin so that the sinners may not be afraid of their sin atonement, of the baptism with fire upon them.

People do not have power to flee from sin, Lord. The sin is greater than they are, as it took the man out of paradise. However, We are on behalf of the Father and We are praying to Him for a spirit of repentance over people, for a spirit of new heart in them, and for a change from the Father in them, for they cannot do it.

I am blessing Your people. Surround it with Your holy angels, Lord! Let us serve day and night, we those from heaven, near all the heavenly powers for Your glory with Your today's faithful people on earth!

Peace to you from the Lord and from all His saints, people of the Lord's coming on earth as word! He has the winnowing fork in His hand and He will gather His wheat into the barn, the chaff He will burn up with unquenchable fire, and He will thoroughly cleanse the earth from sin. Peace to you! Sing to the Lord the song of His coming to you! He covers you under His mantel and protects You as He did with Abraham in that time, for you have agreed to be gathered to Him, oh, chick people, in such a way that He may protect you under His mantel.

And now, the Lord, Whom I confessed at the Jordan two thousand years ago, is He Who is finishing the word of Epiphany in His book, and His saints have stayed with Him here at the spring, and faithful people have come to the spring and appeared before Him, and by the Lord's voice, the Holy Spirit was upon it. Amen.

— I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am blessing the entrance and the exit of My saints and those of My angels. I, the Lord, God's Lamb, am blessing the entrance and the exit of the people gathered at the spring, having been met and nourished with the feast of Epiphany, and My angels will accompany it on its way back. I am blessing with the Holy Spirit; with His teaching I am blessing, for this how John confessed the baptism from Me together with his baptism with water. When the three angels of the godly Trinity have come to Abraham under the oak tree, they baptized the faithful ones with the Holy Spirit, and the sinful ones, they baptized with fire, and Abraham had a tiny people, and with it the Lord prevailed against Abraham's enemies and against all their kings, as My blessing upon them was great! My Father's lordship is His entire creation, the heaven and the earth; it does not belong to man, and man has to obey as the kings of Abraham's enemies submitted to him. The visible and the invisible things are God's glory and they come to the confession of their Creator, and it will not be otherwise. Amen.

Peace to you, Romanian Israel, Abraham's son, the father of those who are faithful! My promise upon him is great, and I have in heaven multitudes of peoples, multitudes of saints from all tribe, language, nation and people on the earth, a great multitude of holy people, as many as the stars of the heaven, and this people is the people of My promise made to the faithful Abraham, God's man on earth at that time, that is Abraham. This people from heaven is your protector, the small one of the promise made to Abraham then, but I want you to read well and to understand like God, oh, My people, the people of the wisdom from above on earth, for I dwell into your midst with the Holy Spirit, the Counselor, and the Baptizer of the faithful ones; I have always stayed with you, oh, little son, oh little people, with whom the Lord is well pleased now on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the tax collector and of the Pharisee

(Excerpt)

I have taught you, people of My today's coming, and I have taught man likewise, to stop from the things that do not sanctify him, and I said: stop, man, from eating flesh and the things that come out of the flesh! Stop, man, from eating fish so that you may be clean from sin, for waters have become defiled with all the sins on earth and fish bathe in the man's daily sins and in the man's flesh, and the things in the water touch man and take his power of holiness, and they also take his will and care of soul and thus man remains only a body, for a man is what he eats. I have told man to look at Me and be like that in his appearance, because man must resemble Me, not the world separated from God. Oh, I have told man to put away altogether the fornication in his body and his sinful lust of his hearts', and I have also taught him to sanctify the earth in this way with his step, for the earth is filled with the steps of the sinful man, which burns wherever the man goes, and the earth cries to Me and tells Me of the weight on it, which tries to sink it down. I have told man no longer to get married, no longer to be given in marriages, because he does this for the sin in his body, not for God, not for his salvation. I have told man to be clean and to get ready for the clean One, for the Lord within him, for the holy things, which are given to the holy ones.

The feast of the Meeting of the Lord

(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, son, you should come and meet My word, for many look to see and to hear what I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am going to speak during the days of the feast into your midst. My word is sweet, it is great and it is comforting; it is exhortatory and giving of power for the souls that go on the way of its fulfillment. The word of My mouth has got salvation and comfort within it even when it rebukes the disorder that comes from the earth, only for the man to understand My love in him, for My word is love for man. Let those who hear from Me come nearer to it, as I am speaking much over the earth during these days, and all those in the dwelling of the dead are refreshed when they hear God's voice when it speaks in heaven and on earth for all those who hear and for those who do not hear. The whole nature is standing before and filling with glory coming to hear My voice. My coming as word over the earth during this time is a great wonder and great comfort as well for everything that is visible and invisible from God's creation.

The Sunday of the Fearful Judgment

The book of My word during these days is staying open, and I am coming as word into it with a day of memorial of My second coming to sit on the throne of glory and to separate all the nations to My right and to My left hand side, sheep and goats; and that all the sheep may come to the inheritance of their kingdom as the blessed of My Father, and the goats I will send away from Me to the place destined for them, and they will go for punishment and the righteous ones to eternal life, as it is written, and I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am sitting now as word within this day of churchly remembrance, according to the tradition revealed to the saints and to the fathers of My church, and who have prepared for My and their followers a forty-day fast until the feast of My Resurrection; the fathers ordained beautifully and significantly by turn the Sundays and the memorial of My works until the memorial of My Resurrection, for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, has revealed to My saints how to leave My memorial to their followers and how they had to keep the Christian people in its course, protecting the one on My right hand as a blessed people, as the sheep of My Father, and I to be their Shepherd coming from the Father.

It is written in the tradition that the Christian people should no longer eat meat until the feast of My Resurrection, and after one more week they should stop eating milk, cheese and eggs. The love of the holy fathers from Me was very great then and in all the times, when I have had saints in the church, and the love of the flock was little, both then and now, for those who are sitting now on the seat of shepherds do no longer love the ordinance left from the fathers, for love was and is only of the saints, only of those who sanctify themselves for Me within a highly moral life, always with fasting and praying, giving up eating and drinking and having their food as that in paradise, as God gave it to the man I made with My own hand out of clay in paradise, and to whom I gave breath of life out of My mouth.

I am writing Myself into the book with the power of word, for two thousand years ago, two days before I was caught to be taken from the garden of My last prayer, the Garden of Gethsemane, to be taken to Caiaphas, who gathered the whole Sanhedrin to find false witnesses to give over Me to death, I told My disciples that in two days the Passover would come and that I would be taken and given to be crucified; however, I had also told them before that that he Son of Man would come again in His glory and all the angels would be with Him and He would sit on the throne of His glory and the nations will be gathered before Him; He will separated them as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and He would put the sheep on His right side and the goats on His left side, and He would take the sheep to eternal life and the goats will give to eternal punishment. Oh, what I told them at that time, teaching them everything, behold, it happens in this time as well, as this book, written on the earth with My today's voice is staying as the seat of judgment and I have been writing Myself into it for more than fifty years with the nations of the earth, and I have been telling them of My coming and of My Gospel of that time, of My coming and My word of nowadays, the coming which I have been speaking to My disciples that it would be and that it would be fulfilled, as I spoke at that time.

Oh, how hard I made a church for Me through My disciples at that time, and after them through their followers, to be and to stand before Me for My glory! The human kind loves meat as food, as feeling and as love, and it is hard for Me to raise a holy and numerous church before Me, selected for Me out of the sons of the world, and the holy fathers of the church had been seeking somehow to wean the faithful from eating meat and from those coming out of meat so that the man may feel the sweetness of God's nearness, the holy One, as for a long time I have been waiting for man to be in My image and after My likeness, and during this time I have been raising the people of My word of nowadays and I have always been coming to it as word and I have always taught it holiness; I have asked it, and it has listened to Me to eat as I told the man in paradise[171]; and also I have told him no longer to eat meat, and no longer to take those coming out of meat as his food, because I was going to come with all the angels and with all the saints to it on earth and to speak with it and sit with at the table, and it knows that if it eats it has no benefit of it, and if it does not eat it, does not make any damage to it as well, and not all those who believe in Me from the people have this knowledge, and it is hard for Me to make the man love for him the day of My coming with the seat of judgment for each man, for if man received My coming or his coming to Me, he would no longer eat meat forever and he would no longer eat those coming out of meat either; instead, he would choose as his food those that I had told the man and I gave him in paradise to eat.

Oh, no one knows why I want to find and love the monachal life at those who choose it as their life. This life, lived according to its truth, is a life without meat and without those that come out of meat as food for the one who has entered a monastery, for such a life turns the man into a monk, and not the service and the robe of monasticism, which then become severe judgment for the one who goes into monastery. Many saints have chosen to live their life in truth, to fast from food and to pray much for their heart and mind, and the gift of the Holy Spirit overshadowed them and the Lord gave them the spirit of revelation to the establishing of those He made come down on earth for those who love God. Oh, I have longed very much to have in this time a people abstaining from meat and from those coming out of meat, to be able to lift up together with it the burden of My coming and the Gospel of the fulfillment of the resurrection of the dead, who have heard during these days the voice of God's sons, My word of today, springing of My mouth into the midst of My people, whom I have ordained now to meet Me as word, for I am coming to it on earth as word during these days.

Oh, I have taken of your little hand and mouth of My servant the remembrance for the calling to life of those asleep until this time, oh, people working for Me and fulfilling My Gospel of nowadays in the end of the time! I have called them at your table with Me for them, at My table with you, son, and we have been giving them more and more relief to their resurrection by those that I, the Lord, have taken from your midst, which are worked for them, as you have been appointed before Me to work for the resurrection of the dead and to stay working and no longer live in the world without fruit for Me, as all those who still believe in Me stay and do not know how to build a Christian life in them. Oh, who is to tell them so that they may know how their life should be, that they may have a Christian life as they like to have this name?

Many look into My word with you, even of those who have stayed with you for years and have loved God just as you have loved Him. Even some of these say that I have not put a new word into the book and that nothing is new in it, and they do no longer look into My word or give year to it, as I am sending now the voice of My word over the earth to be heard. However, I am telling those who judge in their heart and mind, I am telling them that God is the Same always today, always now, always yesterday and tomorrow, and He is as food on the table of those who are nourished from God, for the bread is always bread with the same taste, and man takes it and eats it every day lest he may die because of the lack of bread; and the same is with water. I have this to tell those who have been careless of My coming within this word. Oh, how much haughtiness throws these down in them, and they receive it in them, but the food of My always fresh word they do no longer take as their power from Me, for this food is more than the air for those who live by it before Me, and those who love God are those who listen to God and live in Him, as it is written.

Oh, it is not the same with the spirit of those asleep in their body who wait, as the merciless rich man waited for Lazarus to bow from Abraham's bosom and dip the tip of his finger and cool his lips against the flame he was suffering from in the bad place which he had earned on earth, as I had revealed this to him two thousand years ago by the voice of My Gospel of that time, and behold, now all those who are asleep and remembered here, receive much coolness from My present spring, near the spring to which they are coming after they have been called, for are called here all those who were born by this time on earth and passed away with their body, some to eternal life and some to sufferance.

Oh, refresh yourselves now with My spring of word, near which you are being called now so that you may answer! All those, who have passed to Me through a holy life, rejoice and pray to the Father with Me and with My today's people, working with us for those who have been suffering after their passing away! And as for you, those who suffer, be refreshed and receive My glory with those who work for you on My behalf, as your relief from heaven and earth, for I, the Lord, do not want the sinner's death, but I want salvation instead, for I am the One full of mercy. I have a people with self-denial with respect to its every day food and I have asked him to fast for you and for Me, Who have been working during these days for the salvation of many, and with it I have been fulfilling the last Scriptures; also, with it I have been working My coming of word on earth now to establish the seat of My glory for the day when I will stand with all the holy angels to give to each one according to his deed, and it will be great the joy of those who have visited Me, who have had mercy on Me and comforted Me then when they have given to the least of Mine into My name!

Oh, how well it would be with the man to stop for a moment before the Scriptures, which prophesied by My mouth, two thousand years ago, about My coming now, and behold how it is being fulfilled now! This day it has been read My word spoken two thousand years ago, but who is to animate the people to be careful at the day of My coming when I will separate the sheep from the goats? Oh, who can rest in peace at the thought that he might take after the sheep from the parable and stay carelessly for My day of glory then?

Oh, open your heart and not your mind, you, those who have heard in churches the Gospel of the memorial of My coming with the fearful judgment upon all the nations, which will be gathered on that day before My throne! You, all those who are healthy or not healthy, visited or not visited; all those who are big or small on earth, lords or servants, open your heart and ear to hear and then the word to come to into your heart! Watch for that day! Wash and refresh yourselves for it and wait in this way for its coming, for it surely comes and it always comes to its preparation! Put away the sin from you and take on the little shirt that I like, that I may be able to place you at My table, clothed and not naked, lest you may be taken from the table and given to those who search for the wedding garment of those who are invited, chosen and faithful. Oh, come to your senses for My day of glory! Do not give ear to those who teach you that God is not and that He is not coming! They want to be gods and that is why they teach you to believe so and to say so. Take after My word, for God is coming to you on His way and He wakes you up to meet Him; however, you should not say that I have hindered you from your business or that I am slow in My coming to you, but you should rather believe that I am merciful and that I wait for your preparation and for your little garment, as My table of wedding requires of your life and its little garment.

I am concluding My word now on this day and I am sealing it with My name: the Lord, Jesus Christ.

If the one who sees this name sealed by My name ignores it as though it has nothing new in it, then such a man is against Me and he is against himself either. However, I am sealing My word for those who are faithful and for those who are not faithful, for those who love it and eat it, and also for those who look over it to have their thought concerning the voice of My word, which is always in the present, always today. I am this word, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, within My coming with all the holy angels, and I am staying on the throne of My glory before all the nations to separate one from the other as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and I will put the sheep on My right and the goats on My left and I will give each one according to his works, and the sheep will go to the kingdom prepared for them by My Father from the foundation of the world, and the goats will go to their condemnation which they will have worked for them. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, My people that help Me to come with My glory and to stay with it before all the nations! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am sealing with My name My word and My book in which I am writing Myself down as testimony, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy, the spirit with which I am staying into your midst and giving Myself to you to your life and to the life of many who will believe and wash their little shirt in this river of word, a river with much water, which brings Me to you as it has brought Me on the sea to those tossed by the storm to bring them My salvation in its midst, for I am the Savior, I am Who am, and I am He Who comes with glory, and My glory is with you, oh, My today's people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

I become word in heaven and on earth and I come down into the written book and I give Myself with My exhortation, with My blessing, to those who ask Me to give them, for I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, come down on earth as word; I come and I keep coming and giving Myself, so that the man may have a will to give himself to God with all his heart, with all his soul and with all his mind, for the divided love does not let man to have a clean heart; the devil draws man to many things and he has done this to man for seven thousand years; however, I, the Lord have worked since that time and I keep working to bring back to man what he had lost because he did not listen to his Creator and as a result he was divided and thus he has no longer been wholly in love; the man built by God has no longer had a clean heart and because he had not listened he did no longer remain in paradise. I was moved then with compassion on man, and I was sorry for Myself too, but I stood face to face with the law of the paradise and I cried face to face with it for the man's mercy on the day when the man got out of the paradise. Because of My mercy for him, I have become word on earth now, in the end of the time, and longing after him, I am coming down for him to make him hear Me and believe Me, and only after that he is to bring Me the works of his faith and then of his love, as faith is not enough without love, for in paradise it was not otherwise with man as well. The man was speaking with Me in paradise and I was speaking with him too, but his disobedience was the absence of love and he scattered My entire dwelling in him, and behold how much teaching man has to receive for his life in him, here and then forever.

Oh, people of My today's word, I am embracing you within the word of blessing for holy power, for behold, the time has come for the fasting from food and from all those spoiling the soul and body for every man who loves to belong to God on earth. The feast of My Resurrection has been ordained by the saints and fathers with seven weeks of holy preparation of the faithful man's soul and body, and he who loves the Lord does so and not otherwise; disobedience has to find its place and then its work in man, as without Me man falls; he always falls, and once with Me he rises from his fall, which happened seven thousand years ago, and then he gets ready for the kingdom of the heavens.

I am embracing in the blessing the power of your soul and body and I am keeping you within it for the holy law of the fast which is beginning now for the coming of the feast of My Resurrection, oh, My people. Take care, My people, take care to keep yourself always within Me and to keep My image in you, and with Me, to give yourself around always during this time, and let each one of you work in this way, sons, for love is with obedience, and obedience proves the love for it, and this is how I can rejoice over the man who lives for Me and for not himself.

Oh, man cannot be both like him and like God, for My love from man has its wholeness when it gives itself to Me from him. Man cannot give himself to Me when he does otherwise, for Adam did otherwise and therefore gave the paradise for disobedience and for his free will in him, and he has suffered from his entire separation from God. Two thousand years ago, I came on earth to become a man and I fulfilled this, and then after Me, people, holy in their heart, in their faith and in their life for their love for Me, rose for Me, and in them I, the Lord, poured out the Holy Spirit, as in the vessels cleansed and prepared for Him, and then the saints on earth took My wisdom put in them for their followers to have and the Lord to grow on earth in them; however, My history with them and their history with Me is great before people and kings! My being became in them worshiping love. I have them now before My throne worshipping and working with Me on earth and waiting for the great victory when I will be glorified with the day of the justice of everything on earth; oh, and how are supposed to worship and pray before these intercessors, how can do this, those who remember them for intercession, if they violate the ordinances left by them on earth and replace them with other ordinances? Oh, by their righteousness towards Me, I gave the name of the Orthodoxy then, after the Christian flock had been separated to the right and to the left by that time, (The East–West Schism, also called the Great Schism and the Schism of 1054[172], r.n.) and to that on the right I gave the name Orthodoxy in the name of the faith full of justice for Me of the holy defenders for the preserving of the whole ordinance of My church, led by the Holy Spirit coming down in the saints, when it was written on earth the book of the faith and the whole history and all the battles of the faithful ones from generation to generation after that.

Oh, how much sacrifice, how much patience has been needed all the time in order that the life may remain at the helm of those who loved and love God with their clean heart on earth! There have passed more than five thousand years from the man's creation until I had room and faith in people to come and to confess My coming and then to raise confessing disciples and many saints after that, from one to another, by whom to be able to make a way with light on it for the man to come back to Me when he wants! Oh, and who is supposed to tell him to come back? I do no longer have saints on earth now, but only thieves of holy things who have established themselves between Me and man. No one wants to become a holy man of God so that I may dwell in him with My face, and the helm from the saints has been pushed aside and the man has no longer known how to walk and where to go, and he does not look up to God and to the saints; he only

[172] The East–West Schism, also called the Great Schism and the Schism of 1054, was the break of communion between what are now the Catholic Church and Eastern Orthodox churches, which has lasted since the 11th century. The Schism was the culmination of theological and political differences between the Christian East and West which had developed over the preceding centuries, and marked the first time since the Edict of Milan that there was more than one body considered by secular authorities to constitute the Christian Church, - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/East%E2%80%93West_Schism looks at those who are dressed in a priestly robe and who do not give any life to man, but rather they take their life and power and in this way man does no longer have power for God. Oh, who is to tell the man what to do and how to walk to find the good way and the paradise of obedience, for I, the Lord, long after man day and night, and I cry after him crushed with longing and man does not hear Me, and I cry and I am not heard by him, and I keep crying!

— With a deep, aggrieved and tearful spirit for Your sufferance from me, I am leaving my spirit and my word near You, You, my Creator, and I am telling the people, as one of Your witnesses, that the road to heaven is no other than Your saints who have confessed You with Holy Spirit and blood before the lords, before the kings and before the wise men of the earth, after You had come on earth and became the foundation of Your church.

Seven thousand years ago, I was completely crushed in the deed of my disobedience to You, and after my body and spirit had woken from this blow, all my pains started to be, in me and in my followers, up to this day. I call out to the people and confess to them about Your pain and mine. I have been Your pain, a pain for seven thousand years, and want that You no longer have it, but the man in the end has to repair my corruption in him and he has to take You inside of him with Your entire glory, which had to dwell in me at my beginning if I had listened to You, oh, Lord! Your place in man is his holiness in his body[173], in his spirit and in his soul, with all his being, oh, Lord, for the wages of death is a bitter drink, very bitter, and every man is afraid of it.

The saints and the fathers of the church have ordained on this Sunday a day like that when I got out of the paradise, when I was expelled because of my disobedience to You, Lord. Oh, it is hard for the man, who chooses his flesh, his will and his word against Your word, Lord Word, but behold how greatly You are coming and how much You are worshipped now on earth as word! Oh, glory to Your coming, Lord! Oh, how much You love those who are lost from You to make them somehow hear You and then come back to You! Let no one wonder of my speech, of my confessing voice near You! I am doing Your will now and I am telling everyone who believes and to those who do not believe that You are the Way, the Truth and the Life, and I am telling them that You have left Your way to Your worshipping saints on earth at the beginning of Your church and then, the Orthodoxy of the church means nothing else than the holy fathers, through whom You have ordained on the way the work of the Christian flock over time.

Take of my confession near the Lord, my Creator, you, men's sons, for people are my followers, and the saints are Christ's followers. Take from me and believe as I believe when the Lord is making me see now the salvation, which He has prepared for those who believe in Him walking in His way! Strengthen your life on the confession of the saints and of the holy fathers and prophets, to whom the Lord's will over His church was revealed and it is being revealed now! Oh, join your hands to the one who fell from paradise seven thousand years ago, set in you the Lord's throne and become the servants of the spirit of life in you! I have been crying, looking at the paradise and waiting with longing for you to turn back so that I may also turn back. The whole heaven has been waiting for you, the last of Adam's children, and I have been waiting for you even more.

Oh, Lord, help the people to become God's sons after the truth, to come before me with the key, with the peace which I lost on the day when I did not obey You in paradise because of my lust for greatness, Lord! Oh, forgive me! I wait for all that are on earth and can cry out to You to ask You to forgive me. There are seven thousand years since You and I have been suffering because of my disobedience. Wipe out from my soul the wound of my guilt! It overshadows the happiness between heaven and earth. Your love is great and much. Let it melt away the whole of my guilt, fallen on many from generation to generation. Oh, gather us again under Your love; we, those who have gone wrong before You, starting with me and to the last one who may have gone wrong before You, and rejoice Your angels by forgiving us, oh, Lord, for Your coming is great within these days, and it has been fulfilling Your Gospel through which You promised that Your voice of today will be heard by all those who were and by those of whom many will come to life, to their relief. Oh, forgive me, but forgive all too, for You are God, You are from eternity the Son of the Father Sabaoth and You are my Creator; You created me with great love and You gave me breath of life out of Your mouth, and then I went wrong before You and I aggrieved You thoroughly, oh my Creator! I am looking now over time and I am crying like a man, and I see that You are also crying, oh, my God, and You are crying like a God. Oh, how much pain I have done to You. It makes my suffer that I have aggrieved You. Forgive me, my Creator, me, the one remembered now with the day when I lost my peace, my rest and Yours as well, Lord Jesus, God Son, the mercy in the end of the time of those who wait for their salvation, enduring patiently after it. Amen.

— Oh, peace to you from the Son God; peace to you, who are crushed by patience and waiting! I, your Lord and Maker, am comforting now your spirit. I am at much work for the salvation from Me of those who cry out to Me. I worked little by little and I am still working, as My Father has sent Me on earth for this and nothing else, and then the Holy Spirit, the messenger from Me and by the spirit of prophecy. I, the Lord, am the vineyard, and My Father is the Worker, and the Father will give the salvation and the joy through Me to all those who call out to Me from their pain, and I will give it to them. Amen.

Oh, My today's people, I have always set My word into your midst, and the saints and those who have been waiting for Me to save them from their burden are refreshed and comforted. I, the Lord, am blessing your little power near Me, for this is how My power stays near yours, and we will be able to overcome by the spirit of humility, and the evil will fall, for I am gentle and humble in My heart and I am great through all these. However, man is not like Me, gentle and humble in his heart, and that is why, he has no power as I have, but you should be small in My hand so that I may be able to work My things through you by My power, for I am the One Who can do it.

Oh, My people, you should always be gentle and humble in your heart as I am. This is what you have to learn, to know and then to work, for the spirit of love teaches you much. I am leaving My blessing upon you for the time of the fast until the feast of My Resurrection. Take after Me day and night and keep Me in you with the spirit of confession, for My word is solid food and it strengthens the man' living and life, son. I, the Lord, am embracing and covering you within the spirit of the holy power. I, the Lord, am leading you and blessing you in the Holy Spirit, and may the Father give you a crown of His son and a spirit of sonship obedience, and then we will sing on a day of Passover the song for Me, the song of the resurrection: Christ is risen!

I, the Lord, remain with you, and you should give Me My will in you and My face upon your face, I in you and you in Me, for I want My face to shine on your face, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

13/26-02-2012.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the right faith

This river of word is God's love Who comes on earth after man to tell him the truth and to show it to him, as the way that goes to the road of life has been covered in order that man may no longer seek after his salvation; however, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Word of the Father Sabaoth, as in the beginning of the creation of all things, have been sent by the Father to become word in the end too and to make again all things by the word, for those set to be lived by those who are faithful have been shaken more and more from their place, and God has to work because man have spoiled everything, if he has not built on the known foundation, and behold, the Lord is coming, because it is written for Him to come. Amen.

Oh, the Lord is coming and speaking on the earth, and he who hears from My mouth that I am coming, then let that one say: "Come, Lord!" and let him also open for Me to come; to come in and to work, for it is the time for Me, the Lord to work, for man who has set himself everywhere in My place on the seat of the church tries to put aside little by little the holy ordinances from the fathers. Oh, there is no fear of God in people. Even if there comes upon them the wages for their work, people are not worried, they are not afraid. However, I cannot leave the earth without God on it, without God's Word always today, Who is speaking now as in all the times against the man's stubbornness. The time is at the end[174], it is not at the beginning, and even if the beginning has departed so much from the end because of the man's departure from God, I, the Lord, still come, and by the spoken word, I strengthen on their foundation those set by Me at My beginning with the man two thousand years ago, for many found Me then and many knew Who I was and where I came from and many have loved Me from that time and up to this day, and for them I am coming now as word on earth, because many have loved Me according to the truth and many love Me today likewise, and I am coming to shepherd them; I am coming to be their Shepherd and to keep them on My right side, for their love comforts Me in My pain.

Oh, I am coming from the Father as word on earth to teach the man what fast means, what church means, what salvation means and that he may know these things from Me. When I came two thousand years ago, many found Me, knew Me, appreciated Me and loved Me, as it was for them that I came, not for those who minded further on their own business while they were hearing My voice and when they were seeing My works above the human nature and which proved where I came from and who I was within My coming from the Father to man. I have built on earth by Abraham's faith, I have built a people whose parents were Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and I called Jacob Israel. Then I worked into the midst of this much-blessed nation a lot of word from heaven by the spirit of prophecy, as I am working My word now into the midst of a faithful people to Me by the teaching from the fathers. All the time I had been announcing My coming and I had always told the people of Israel that I would come, that I would work, that I would glorify Myself and that I would make new heavens and a new earth; I had been preparing and advising this people and I had kept on preparing the thread of My coming; I had kept on speaking and revealing that I would be working into the midst of this people when I came. It is not for something else that I had separated this people Israel from the other nations on earth; oh, it is not because of that, but only because I had to come on earth after five thousand years from the man's creation and from his fall from God then, for I did not create the man to die, to fall, but I rather created him as My house and I longed to rest in him after that. Oh, how was God supposed to show the face of His love, His Being, made out of love, if He had not created the man to give him His entire love and to make Himself known as God? Then He decided to make the heaven and the earth and all that are, and then man, to set in him and upon him His love and then the man to confess God as his love and as his spring of love. Oh, it is for that that God created His people among the nations of the earth in the time of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and then their people after them. With much workmanship, I took Abraham from his land and I set him in a new land and I let My voice come upon him and spoke My blessing upon him and upon My seed blessed through him. I had worked step by step then the way of My coming into the midst of the Israel people, and by the word spoken through the prophets I made My coming on earth, My descent in the body of a Virgin to be born of her as the child of the Father and of her and to grow up into the midst of Israel that I called My people, to prove My origin and My divinity into its midst, and all the nations of the earth have known since then and up to this day that Israel was My people and it did not receive Me when I came; and more than that, it rose against Me by those who ruled upon it and they took Me away from them; Israel took Me away of its house, for it wanted to be the master over the earth.

Oh, Israel did not received Me, neither when I was born and nor when I was resurrected. From My birth and up to My death on the cross and then further to My resurrection, Israel had not been able to receive Me, but rather this people condemned Me to be crucified. However, I gave birth to a people from above by My word over some people in its midst, whom I made the disciples of My love for man, and with them I went from place to place, making a way for Me with the miracles I did beyond nature over the weak people of Israel, until the day when I let Myself be caught and taken to its chiefs on the mount of Golgotha to be beaten in nails on the cross, and I stayed three days in a borrowed grave and after that I got up victoriously from the dead; I went into their dwelling place and I appeared before them to tell them who I was, for I was the One promised to Israel to come as the man's Savior and Liberator, and then I did My work for which I had come. I have raised saints behind Me, and then the people of My saints have multiplied from one to another and from them I have kept from time to time the Christian people and its flock faithful to Me; however, in all the time, paid shepherds have been sneaking into the flock and becoming rulers upon it in My place and they have always shaken My things that I have established through the saints once and for all, and it has happened to those who have been good and faithful of My flock, shepherds and sheep, as it happened to Me; they have been taken out and given to be crucified, and behold, the rulers over the Christian people did and do what the people of Israel did to Me, to rule in My place, and the Holy Spirit to be silent and not taken into consideration, so that only they could speak in the name of the Holy Spirit as they want.

Oh, the way was covered and it has been covered all the time the way that leads to the spirit of life and to the obedience on it for the man to have life and to have it in abundance; however, I, the Lord, am coming with My river of word, with God's love, which is coming on earth to tell the truth to man, for those ordained by the saints to be done and lived by those who are faithful to Me are shaken more and more from their place and God has to work if man spoils, if he does not build on the foundation well established and well known, and behold, the Lord is coming because it is written for Him to come. Amen.

On this Sunday, the first one of the Lent, it stands established by the saints and by the fathers the Sunday of the Orthodoxy. Oh, how shall I, the Lord, not deliver My speech over this day of memorial left by the fathers? Under the work and under the coming of the Holy Spirit upon them, this is how the saints and the fathers worked, and they worked with fast and living prayer before the Lord, each of them working more and more fully for the Christian people to have a guide upon it; still, many wolves clothed in skin of sheep were sneaking all the time inside of My church and they have been grabbing the rod to shepherd in My place, and their face was seen after that, for they rose, scattered and then spoiled; however, the saints have always fought on My behalf and raised saints and gave them their victory even then when they were sacrificed on the altar of the right faith, for they were fighting and overcoming with Me through many cold oppressions and they kept the faith and the people after them, which was strengthened more and more by the miracles and by the revelations of the saints working with Me, even after they had been given to be sacrificed on the altar; and they were overcoming like the snowdrops, which after they struggle against snow and frost that do not let them pull their heads out when they come into bloom, they wait again and again under the thick layer of snow and ice and finally they overcome and break the crust with their little head faithful to the spring and then come out in bloom after much struggle while trying to come out and to appear.

Oh, Orthodox people, take from Me the word of watch and get used to keeping your land, your mystery and your traditions! Get up to watch for everything starts to go bad because of the paid shepherds who rule over you; however, you look up at the saints and fathers and do not grow less under the hand of those who estrange you from your salvation, for the dyed face is not the face of a shepherd. Your shepherds are the saints and all those who sanctify themselves for Me and for you, and you should pay good attention to what you are doing, because I help you to know and to do, and I come as word to you and I exhort you to know. You should dedicate half of the days of the week for your soul and you should eat food for fasting after the sunset, (Monday, Wednesday and Friday, r.n.) which guides the time of your days and nights for you to know the measure of the time, as if your faith does not exceed that of the Pharisees and the Scribes, who fast twice a week, as they boast about it, and who say that they do great things, then you will not have into your midst the kingdom of the heavens, the kingdom of the saints, who sacrificed themselves on the altar for your faith through them.

Oh, the bitter pain comes up to Me, as the heaven sees that many fast much, but they walk nakedly with their body and soul; they walk uncovered before the heaven and before the people; they dress in fashion and stir up each other's senses for sin, from which they do not fast. Oh, a fast pleased to Me is needed from those who want to fast from food, as not eating or the lack of eating brings the man before Me, but his holy life makes him the heir of the heaven on earth. Holy food for soul is needed in time of fasting. You have to read about the saints who have ruled well over the church. Less work done by hand is needed and much watching work is needed for fast and for the prayer for the forgiveness of the sins, as man is a bondservant of sin.

Oh, Christian people, Orthodox people, you should eat decently the food on the table during the time of fast and all the time, and you should not eat it with joy, for the flesh is against the spirit through fleshly desires, which come up to the soul, and man is used to rejoice over eating and over preparing his food to eat as well. When I submitted to the forty days and forty nights fast, after My Father's will, during all that time I had been tempted and tested by satan, but in all that time I had remained gentle and humble, as it is required in days of fasting, but the fasting man does not know enough what true fasting[175] is. David was king and he paid great attention when he was fasting and he said: «For Your words, Lord, I have kept harsh ways, so that my mouth may not speak the things of men». The days of fasting are for those who are faithful after the truth, but the gentleness and the humility of the heart have to be the food of the fasting soul from the fleshly and human things and they have to be very nourishing for the heavenly things; the fasting man needs much instruction so that the sacrifice for his salvation may be useful to him, and the saints have instruction given by Me to them for the Orthodox people, for the Christian according to the truth, as there is no longer My church on earth other than the Orthodoxy lived where it is still lived, that which is well kept under the Spirit of God and well kept by the human spirit, because otherwise the people may become corrupted, the dough goes bad and it is no longer good after that. Lying is a great lady on earth and the proud people have through it; they have the boldness to bring within the reach of the people the false teaching in order to lead it to falsehood and that is why the Lord has had to come on earth as word! Let no one wonder at My coming on earth as word now, for I am the Light of the world and I have to work over the darkness so that the way may be seen and the people may know it, for the valley which leads the man to God has been covered, and it has been covered by the lie which is called truth. However, I am coming and I am bringing light, and I have My dwelling place in the sun and I am as a Bridegroom coming out of His chamber, as it is written; and the sun is like a strong man rejoicing to run its course. His going forth is from the end of the heavens and his circuit to its ends; there is nothing hidden from his heat. The whole nature rejoices and exults at My light over the earth, with My river of word, which exhorts man. Amen.

Oh, Orthodox people, take note at My voice, which speaks to you while you do not watch for your faith, for your church! Remember the Romanian voivode Mircea the Elder, (Romanian: Mircea cel Bătrân, r.n.) who did not bow to the Turkish Sultan when this one came to ask Mircea for his kneeling. Respond to the antichrist enemy when it comes to you to strip you off your little shirt and to give you a red shirt only to mock you, (Red - the color of communism, neo-communism and left-wing political, r.n.) as the rulers of the Israel people gave Me when they took Me to be mocked and crucified so that I might no longer be; oh, answer the enemy of your salvation, answer him as the voivode Mircea did and take care to know how to answer before those who come to make you kneel before them and stand up and look up at the saints and at the fathers and ask them so that you may not go wrong for your faith, for faith is accompanied by holiness, and only the saints have their faith well founded in them and revelations from the Lord for its way. Oh, keep your faith, keep your possessions, Orthodox people, and do not be afraid of the one who has taken on him the robe of faith! However, you should watch with the saints, who have revealed themselves to you by their holy works, for there is no one to help you but the Lord and His saints in your hard trial of nowadays for your faith, Orthodox people! I let you know that My patience is great and it is much for your resurrection, for your salvation from slavery, only for you to take My advice upon you. Stand up like a voivode, Orthodox people, and shake off the slavery and the threat of the antichrist enemy, who envelops you within his read robe when I ask you to take on a white little shirt and to stand before Me, for it is the garment of glory, not as My enemy and yours, the antichrist, has taught you and made you dress in red your little house, your body and the whole of your order, so that you may take after him in dressing and in your faith then, because his faith is unbelief in Me and it is also his denial of God and yours. Oh, do not seek to get used to saying like your enemy who wandered from the way saying: «I follow Paul," "I follow Chefas," and "I follow Apollo». (1 Cor: 1/12). Oh, not this way. You too should not say: "I follow John," "I follow Basil," "I follow Gregory," or any other saint, or even more, someone who has no saints at all, but you should rather say: "I follow the holy fathers who give me to God by their holy teaching," because if you do not listen so, I tell you that you will get lost, you will get lost before Me, by the antichrist enemy, who has entered your house with his order and with everything and within all things, because you have not watched that your house might not be broken into, and it was broken, because the antichrist does not want you to be My bride now, in the end of the time, as I come to you as a Bridegroom, and I do not come otherwise, and when I come I find you engaged to My enemy who has enslaved you to be his. Oh, let Me redeem you, as it is for this that I am coming to you during these days, Orthodox people! Beloved people, try not to do like the Israel people did two thousand years ago when I came from the Father to it and it sent Me away!

In great humility I would ask those who have remained in the Romanian Church of the right faith, the other synod of bishops of this people, (The Romanian Orthodox Church in the old style / after the Julian calendar, r.n..), and for which, in order that it may be now, many saints gave themselves as sacrifice to the Orthodoxy, when the feasts of the saints were shaken from their places and when you fell under the bondage of the enemy who deceived you then to make you deny your saints and your tradition left for the church from generation to generation; I would ask these to understand like Me that you are in bondage, Romanian Orthodox people, and that I have endured much for you as I used to endure for the Israel people when it fell into slavery because of his disobedience to God, to the prophets and seers, because of their violation of the ancestral law. I would ask them to stay humble and in great love and patience, in a gentle and humble spirit in them, with the hope that I, the Lord, come on earth as word to work the restoration of those that were thrown down from their place because of the lack of holy watch of the church servants then when these were shaken. I am reminding them that I, the Lord, two thousand years ago, spoke to those who relied on the fact that they were the sons of Abraham, not understanding that I am greater than Abraham, that I am before him, and I told them when I saw that they did not receive Me and wanted to do away with Me from among them, and I told them that even out of stones God can raise sons of Abraham. (Matt: 3/9) Behold, I can do that now, as I said at that time that I could work like a God, for I have come from the Father on earth and I have put aside a small people in number and condition and I have blessed it with a new blessing and I have been staying into its midst as word and I have been renewing everything by word, as it is written, and I have a clean and new anointing upon it; also I have been working these things upon it with the saints in heaven and I will endure into its midst until the day of victory, when I will prevail to redeem the church and to call it Orthodoxy, My bride, that had deceived Me with so many lovers and because of that I do not have it now as Mine; however, I am working for it from the sides and am calling out to her to let her know that I have come to deliver her from bondage and to give her the first garment if she turns back to Me, if she wants to be with Me; on the contrary, if she does not want, I will give My glory to those who love Me after the truth and I will multiply them like the stars of the sky, as it is written about the sons of Abraham, the father of the right faith before Me, for he did not doubt of Me when I revealed Myself to him among all those in his time and I spoke to him from heaven and when I put My promise upon him for a great nation raised from him between heaven and earth before Me, the people of the saints, the nation of the right faith. Amen.

I am inclining the ministering church on the side of the Orthodoxy from the fathers into the midst of the Romanian people and I am saying these things dedicated to the ancestral faith by sacrifice and by a firm faith before Me, and I am telling them that I, the Lord, have come as word over the earth on the hearth of the Romanian people, and I have been working for a long time by tools prepared by Me to prevail with for the deliverance of the church, for in the year of the tearing down of the feasts of the saints, I raised a great hope, a new branch, and I had taken care of it until I was able to work through it by great proclamation and by My holy trumpeting and that of the saints from heaven on the earth and over the church, and during all this time I have said that My right and clean church in faith is that which sacrifices itself for the faith and it is that which watches then against its enemies, and My church is not that which only eats and drinks and dresses up in the name of the faith, opening its door whenever someone knocks at it to enter those that are foreigners to its holiness left from the fathers. Oh, the true church is that which suffers like its Master: mockery, denigration, persecution and through all these has victory, for this is how I overcame and am the victor of death and hell and I am the Savior of the righteous and faithful people; moreover, much patience and a gentle and humble spirit are needed in those who are long enduring like Me for the salvation of My church, which is now enslaved by those who are foreign towards Me and towards it.

Oh, Romanian people, watch and try to see what you are doing to be again My church according to the right faith, as your church and its servants are in bondage and are in union with My and its enemies. I give you the power to wake up, to watch and to look well into the heaven, and then to ask the saints about what you have to do so that your life may not perish. Come back to the first condition of My church, come back to the feasts of the saints and to the well-set course of the church, as it is not good the way you started to walk in, while mixing the Lord with those of a foreign nation, for the saints have advised you in a holy way and you have to listen! The fathers and the saints have established on the first Sunday of the Lent the memorial of the right faith and the sons of the church do not know what the right faith means. The Orthodoxy means the holy fathers; this is what I, the Lord, say on a day of Sunday for the memorial of the right faith, and I have been enduring painfully for your awakening to watching, oh, flock of the Romanian people! Come back to your place from where you fell in wandering; turn back on the way of the saints' history and try to see your wrongdoing; stand up and shake it off from you and set your way as the Christian tradition requires and not as you or your rules upon you may want, who are in union with the antichrist against Me and against you, because in this way you cannot be Mine, and I want you to be My bridegroom now, in the end of the time with your whole body under the cross of the right faith, as I come on your hearth, Romanian people; furthermore, I become word far and wide over the earth from your midst, and I call under this new vineyard all the nations to My light, to My teaching which saves. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, Romanian people! Come back to be My church, to be My bride again! Listen to My voice, and open to your Lord, Who has been speaking with you His word on a day of memorial for your faith! Come to life according to the truth within the right faith, according to My longing, oh, church of the Romanian people, and after that become My bride and then let yourself be advised from heaven, for this miracle upon you, only I, oh, only I am able to accomplish for your life, when you open to believe in order receive Me and to be saved from your bondage, at My word that is upon you now. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

I am proclaiming Myself at the gates to come in as word into My book of today and I am welcomed. I am the Great Bishop, the head of My church, and I am a Servant together with the church before the Father Sabaoth, and My Father is working and I am working as well. It is proper for Us, those in heaven, to work over the church more than the bishops and more than the priests of the church, as the church is not Ours otherwise, the Father's and Mine, and it is something else when it does not have God as its Master over it and as its Counselor, the Son of God, always.

I am the Word of God; I am the Son God, the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Great Bishop of My church according to the order of My Father Sabaoth. Who is the one that asks Me Who I am, the One Who speaks over the church? I answer him I am Who I am; however, if I ask him who he is, can he answer Me according to the truth? I would ask him whether man could serve two masters? What answer would he give Me if I asked him who he is? Oh, if such a man were My servant, could he answer Me? However, if such a man serves himself on behalf of God, he will not have any answer and he will be ashamed to answer, he will be ashamed of Me and of people. Two thousand years ago I said: «For whoever will be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels». (Mark: 8/38) When I come with the angels, I come to speak over the church, for I am carried by the angels, and the angels are those who cover Me; the angels are the cloud[176] above My body, resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago, and My glory, covered by the angelic hosts, is beautiful when I come and speak My word into the midst of My people, faithful to My coming of today on earth to it, as I also stand before it with the same glory, both when I come down into the book and when I come to it as word spoken out of the book, and I am always, once with the hearing or the reading of the word by those who either hear it or read it, and I stand face to face with those who have fellowship with Me by this word coming out of My mouth; and this is how God works, as the Lord is true and He is the same always and He works perfectly all the time and He shares His word everywhere. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, I am descending into your midst as word; I have been descending on your heart with the glory of My word for such a long time, but you have done just Israel did, which had had Me into its midst for thirty three years by My birth, by My childhood and by My growth, and then by the preaching and by the pain of its denial of Me all this time, and then it denied Me completely and gave Me over to the cross, as though I was their greatest evil; however, I have been into your midst, Romanian people, for more than fifty years as word of the Holy Spirit and I have been leading a people, which I have made faithful to Me and the distributor of God's word during this time, for I am Who I am; I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the beginning and the end, as it is written that I worked and that I will work, and this is My word, as it is written that it will be and that I will be, and be attentive, Romanian people, with the way I am in My work into your midst, on your hearth, for I am telling you again: I am the First and the Last, the beginning and the end, and I am the Alpha and the Omega. I am not only in the beginning, not only the First, but I am also in the end, I am the Last, as it is written. What am I coming out of this book with, the book of My name and the book of My work, which foretold Me and I am and that this is how I work? If I am the Alpha, then I will also be the Omega. If I am the beginning, then I will be the end as well. If I am the First, then I will be the Last too, and I will work in the end as in the beginning. I am the First, because I proceed from the Father before eternity, and I am the Last, as I finish the work of the Father with My word, the word as in the beginning, for God works by the word, as He has made the entire creation. I make a new creation, for this is written to be, and man cannot do this, that what is written. If I made the creation in the beginning by the word, I do likewise in the end, that is the creation again, and man had no understanding for those that God has to do, and man needs to do only what I have told him to do if he wants to be Mine here and then forever, but he needs to remember what I told him two thousand years ago when I came from the Father and then I ascended to the Father again, as then I said that, the one who wants to be his, should take after Me, and I also told him: «Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for My sake and the Gospel's will save it. For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?» (Mark: 8/34-36) Oh, happy is the one who perceive the power of this word spoken by My mouth over man two thousand years ago, as that one does not lose its time and its reward! Oh, happy is the people that has separated itself for Me out of your midst, Romanian people, so that I may be able to write during these days into its midst the book of My coming on earth now, in the end of the time! I am the beginning and I am the end, and if I spoke two thousand years, I also speak in the end, I am also speaking now, for I can do this, as a true God that I am. Amen.

Behold, I am standing in the midst of My church in the Romanian people with a day of memorial of the Holy Cross, of the way and of the man's walking with the cross, as I walked to the resurrection two thousand years ago, when I carried My cross on which I was crucified in order that I might come to life from the dead then. I had walked into the midst of Israel for thirty-three years with My godly step, and in the end of My time then, I walked with My cross, I walked to resurrection and thus I showed the man his way to resurrection, and then I told him to take up his cross and follow Me that way, if he wanted to come after Me in his walking, with his life given to Me and not given to himself. I am the Shepherd with the cross, and not the One dressed in fine clothes and having a mitre[177] beaten with precious stones, as the bishops of the world wear before of the world to their glory on the earth and in no way to My glory, for My forehead was stung by the thorns and the crown of thorns was filled with the blood of My godly forehead, crowed with thorns by the Jewish people, and then I died the cross of My crucifixion with My blood flowing on it out of the wounds of My crucifixion, out of My hands, legs and side, as the soldier pierced My side, the one who helped Me to give My Spirit finally, as I came from the Father for the redemption of the man who went wrong through the woman, as the woman was taken from man, from the man's side, and after that she harmed her husband, and I had to heal this wound made at that time and I had to fill it, as I had to heal the man's whole body, both man and woman, for the woman was taken from the man, and I gave My spirit both for man and for woman and I threw Myself into the hell[178] by My death on the cross, by the way of My cross, on which I was crucified, and by carrying My cross and in My obedience, I followed My Father and then I came to life to pay for the man's resurrection and then I went to be with the Father; now I am at His right side and I am His work between heaven and earth; I am His word and His hand, which is at work by My body and Spirit, Who is working from the Father for man. Amen.

The saints and the fathers have set a feast for the cross, for the way to the man's resurrection who abstains from food for forty days until the feast of My resurrection and his, if he also wants this, and now I am comforting, I am comforting with the glory of My word those who have fasted from food in the time of those seven weeks of fasting, and those who fast properly, as I, the Lord, have left it through the saints and through the good fathers of the church, who were working from the Holy Spirit upon it, to these I am giving now, at the middle of the way, My comfort by the word and I am telling them now, as two thousand years ago: «Whoever will lose his life for My sake and the Gospel's will save it». (Mark: 8/35)

Oh, what great sin commit, during this time, those who sell meat, drinks and food forbidden for the time in which it is written fasting upon it! There are no priests and there are no bishops who suffer for Me, and for people in order to tell them all with the greatness of word that it is forbidden in an Orthodox country to violate the time of the fasting disorderly. It is written into the Scriptures that the nation, which violates the holy orders coming from the father, is called an adulterous and sinful generation, and behold, those who sit in My name over the church are ashamed of My Gospel, and they do not tell the Christians to prosper with days of fasting before Me for their salvation. Well, how are they supposed to tell them when even they do not fast and eat in secret so that they may not be seen doing this? These are not faithful, and even if someone came to life from the dead, they would not believe or fulfill God's word and the word of God's saints, for Lazarus came to life and I, the Lord, also came to life, and even so Israel did not believe; the Israel, which today is trying to cause Me another crash, and is trying to lead the world to the denial of God in such a way that it and only it may be god over the earth, and only money, for money is the curse on its head, because it sold the Son of God on money when He descended from heaven to it to be crucified by it, by the people to which He came to be its Savior.

[177] Cover of head, spherical or conical shaped, sometimes richly ornamented, worn especially by the archbishop during the religious service, r.n.

Oh, the Father sends saviors over people and they do not understand the Father's love for them. When the Lord took Israel out of its bondage, did He not send Moses before it as savior? Oh, this is how God works in all the times and He sends salvation for those who are in bondage, and He does not ask anyone on the earth or any people on earth when He works, and neither does He ask the leaders of the church, for I, the Lord, am greater than them and I am their savior, when they also want Me in the way I work, for the Holy Spirit descends to work when He wants and not when the earthly man wants, not when he believes that. I cleansed the lepers from their sufferance by My word before sending them to appear before the priests so that they may see them healed and to ask them who healed them. However, to what kind of priests did they know to go? The priests who rebuked Me, who persecuted Me everywhere because I was healing the weak and because I was making too many miracles and by so doing I made them look so small before the crowds they had been keeping in bondage, and because of that, they said that I had to be crucified lest their seed might perish, their entire people, but they did not escape from what they were afraid of, for their people perished before Me even because they persecuted Me into their midst, and now it is the one wandering away that is leading many in errancy.

Oh, people of My word, oh, sons, no one of you should stay with your little mouth dry from the word spoken upon you and dry of the word of praise for those in heaven! Let My word spoken among you work from one to another. Give My comfort to each other, for those who are faithful have to feed each other greatly with the heaven, with the food of the paradise, with the saints, with the angels and with all the heavenly powers, and when I, the Lord, tell to man what to do on earth between man and man, then this is how he is supposed to fulfill, because I am God of God and the God's word is not only to be heard and then to be taken in vain, but rather it has to be fulfilled with fear, as the fear of God is with those who fulfill as God requires and as the Lord expects from man, from the least to the great One, Who takes care to teach the man to become god by grace and obedience to grace, for grace means self-denial with humility and repentance and with much work and miracle of work by this, with much longing of God, because without the longing for God no one, oh, no one can help God on earth, no one can yearn in his heart incessantly after Him, after life without death, and I am the way. I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, of which those who are proud have no share, for these take of their mind even those that are for God from them, and they do not take from God, if they do so, as in order that the man may have grace, it does not mean this, because grace means humility, as My mother Virgin always had and always, always worked, and she worked like God on earth and gave birth to the Son of God as Man on earth, and she made man into a god by grace, by her work full of grace for God and for man.

Oh, it is not given to all to believe to the end into this coming of Mine on earth now, and I say this because those who have withdrawn to the sides after they have tasted and made a feast of My coming of today, of the salvation for many of those who humble themselves for it, for some had stayed for a while and then they stepped aside and by this they taunted Me and then they left, for they judged according to their own mind and sight, and the one who judges, that one judges himself and falls into judgment; he falls because of his haughtiness, and behold, some of them trampled then over many that were fulfilled near Me, near My spring of word, of which they had been nourished much time before they stepped aside, as it was not given to them to believe to the end, and they laid down their cross and no one has taken it again. He who stays to the end is the one who does not stumble against anything and against anyone; he does not pose as wise and then is discontent by his pride as Adam did in paradise, for he who gets proud poses as an intelligent man and by so doing he thinks that he is right and judges those around him, and behold, this is how those, who become proud on the way of the cross, on the way of My Gospel with man, this is how they fall from God and from faith.

Oh, he who does not fast from his self, that one abstains in vain from food in time of fasting, for pride is with the man who lacks steadfastness on his way with Me, and behold a word with wisdom in it, for Adam was tempted and was overcome by temptation because he did not listen to fast for his own good, and I, the Lord Jesus Christ, had been tempted like a man by satan for forty days and I was not overcome by him, because I fasted, because I bowed before the Father and before the time of temptation sent by Him, and I stayed with humility before the Father and before satan at the same time, and satan did not know that Father was in Me, and I am in the Father, and that is why the victory was Mine by My humility before the Father and by My manhood for Him face to face with the tempting satan.

Oh, My people, oh, son of My word of yesterday and today, I have looked at you and I have chosen you to be Mine from among many because I have seen you faithful to the word of My coming two thousand years ago and I am taking you into My bosom now, in the end of the time, and I am giving you My coming of nowadays, as I am coming to you and I am revealing to you with My coming and you come to believe that I am. Oh, receive wisdom from heaven, son; take from Me to be wise, for behold what wisdom I give you for My love, for your love in Me, and here is what I tell you! Oh, son, in the way you treat your neighbor, in the same way you treat God, for the nature is either like that of God or like that of man, and this is what many, who have come and who have passed through the work of word, have not understood, and have not known how to understand in this way their love for God, and to those it has not been given to believe to the end for their crown from Me by this great coming of Mine to those who are receiving Me now and to the end of My speaking over the man on the earth in these last day. Moreover, I am telling them again and again, to all who believed and will believe from now on, that I, the Lord, am speaking on the earth into the midst of a little and tiny people, faithful to My speaking of today in the word, and I am telling them this:

Oh, do not blaspheme this work of word, and do not blaspheme those who carry and share it over the earth as well, for woe to those who strike into this light; and this woe has been seen over many! Those who blaspheme, those who strike and those who denigrate, they walk in the darkness and fall into the hand of the people of the world, and they separate themselves from the spirit of comfort, from My Word, Which speaks to a faithful people, and if they want that it may go well with them after they have harmed themselves by their separation from the body of this faithful people, then let them cleanse themselves from the sin of slander, denigration and judgment, and let them make peace with Me by repentance to their forgiveness after that, and if I see that they have a clean heart by a true and wholesome repentance, then I will save them from their darkness and I will give them the light back, only that they may be able to love with humility the way, the truth and their life, that is the Lord, I, the First and the Last, the One Who is and works again as in the beginning, for I am the beginning and the end and I will be, and all those who believe so will be saved and will be. Amen.

Let all the Orthodox Christian take this teaching of living life, according to the name of the faith in which they are written that they are, but in order that they may be, they need to understand that not all those who say, "Lord, Lord!" will come into the kingdom of the heavens, but only those who love their neighbor as they love God, for to those who declare that are in their right faith, I tell them that as they do to those who are around them, in the same they do with God, and it is in this way and not otherwise that they have or do not have God as their Lord and Master, like some sons who listen or do not listen to the One Who can save and redeem them from their sin.

My teaching from today is important; it is much and it is great, and it will ask for a big answer from those who hear My wisdom, that by which I am leading My people over the earth, over those who want and over those who do not want Me to lead them; however, I lead them and I work mysteriously, I fulfill and cut at the middle, I pass over everything, I choose to My right and to My left side, and I will give each one according to his work, for this is written. Amen.

I am staying into your midst on this day of Sunday of the feast of the Holy Cross of the crucifixion and resurrection, oh, My people that listen from God to His word, which is always today! I am the same yesterday and today and I am always today, for this is the way I have to be and to work, as I have already been, as I have already worked, and I have been speaking over you on this day the word of a bishop, My word over the church, for each bishop has to work over his church. I am Who I am, and I am not the same with the bishops on earth, but I am the First and the Last, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, as it is written that I am, as it is written in the Scriptures by He Who is, by Me, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Great Bishop, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and as for you, My today's people of My word of today, pasture, son, graze My sheep on My behalf and shepherd them with My word upon you, giving it as their food, to My sheep. They listen to My voice and follow Me wherever I go, wherever I tell them to go and to work for Me, for I am their Shepherd and I left it written: «I am the Good Shepherd, Who lays down His life for the sheep, Who enters by the door into the sheep fold and does not climb up some other way like the thieves and robbers of sheep, but the One Who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for Him, and the sheep listen to His voice. He calls His own sheep by name, and leads them out. Whenever He brings out His own sheep, He goes before them, and the sheep follow Him, for they know His voice. They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from Him; for they don't know the voice of strangers». (John: 10/1-5, 11) Blessed are those who understand this and My word that is spoken upon them, for its fulfillment proves that they are Mine, My sheep, which listen to My word, to My voice as their Shepherd. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, keep away sons, take good care of your little soul and do not have any contact with those who have gone away from among you, for you are small and the darkness which they entered is thick, it is from the world and it comes from the pride of their spirit, and the pride from them is the spirit of the world, the spirit which separates man from God when he does not understand this, and then man is lead to the lust of his mind, to the whisper of his mind, which leads him to the lust of the flesh and to the lust of the eyes, and after that these lead the man to haughtiness and to its work in man, which is darkness in man, and the man leads himself after the darkness in him. However, you should take good care of your life, sons, for I also take good care of you and I teach you well to protect yourselves so that I may also be able to protect you and to have you as Mine to the end. Amen.

The fourth Sunday of the Lent, of the saint devout John of the Ladder

In a day of Sunday, I am with you within My Spirit and My word and I am leading you in a fatherly way, oh, My people. If I have you as Mine, born from above by this word, and if I have given you to have and to give God further from your table to those who are not sitting with Me at the table, oh, if I have given you to have and to be capable of working by My power, how shall I not dwell into your midst and have fellowship with you and to be comforted that I have you and that I am able to speak to you? My word has to be with you always and it has to keep you awake; it always has to build in your watch, love and faith on My way with you. Oh, My word does not have to trouble you, neither when it rebukes you, nor when it teaches you and nor when it shows the darkness on the earth, nor when it proclaims those from Me for you, but it rather has to watch over you and make you obedient to God, for how could you show Me the law of the love of God if you did not listen to Me in everything that I may ask from you by your stature within Me?

Oh, no one can show Me otherwise the love, which I have set upon man, so that he may work it, when man might not listen to God as God requires. It is written into the Scriptures that I, the Lord, find pleasure in those who are ready with fear and awe with respect to everything that I speak upon them and this means obedience to God. Who can love the Lord more, and more beautiful and more completely, than the one who listens to Him? Only those who love Him and only those who not do not love themselves, oh, only those come to the love of God by their obedience to Him.

Oh, My people, take care of love, son! When You give Me the whole love that I give you to have, only then you are perfect in love, and if you also give of it to yourself, then neither you are able to have it and nor could I have it completely from you. However, I have given you My whole love, for when you love God with the wholeness of your love for Him, then do you not have Him in His wholeness? How would it be to give you love further than that if you fulfill your love to Me within all its wholeness? We would not have anything to give to each other because we would be totally dedicated to each other, and this perfection does not need more than that, and it would be enough for it to be on the earth with man and the man to comprise his neighbor within it and to make him like him in love and in its perfection in them and then among them, so that he may be in Me, and the one who loves Me to be perfect as well, not retaining anything from these things to himself.

Oh, here it is why I miss man and how much I long after him! However, man does not give Me his love, I am not his love, and he who does not have Me as his love, that one does not have any other love that that for himself and he also asks Me to keep giving him, and no one can gather in such a way that he may have in heaven and to be welcomed up there by his savings earned with God on earth. Oh, he who does not gather with Me, that one scatters, he works his own loss and then he remains with nothing of everything he does and of everything he is, and he who gathers with Me, that one loves God and gives himself to God and he gives himself to his neighbor with his being in him, with God, with the love in him, for God is love, and he who has the Lord in him, that one is also love and he is like God. Amen.

In a day of Sunday, My Spirit and My word are accompanying you with its love and it is bringing you guidance, oh, My people, and it is only love, only fire, as I am. God is a consuming fire, as it is written, and beautiful are those in whom this fire has life! My word upon you is also fire; it is a consuming fire if it comes out of Me. Oh, how are many supposed to come to you when people flee from fire and from water when these try to come to them unexpectedly? People flee from consummation after God and they flee from cleansing and from the cleansing of evil, for the evil and its sin seem sweet to people; these seem to be their life and its power and comfort. People are afraid of God and they flee from Him, and they say that it is hard for them with a life such as His. Those who still come to get help from Me walking through the churches and within a spirit of petition to give to them, they do not come to Me because they love Me, but they rather come to Me only that I may give them, and if they see or know that I cannot give what they want for themselves and for the earth, then they go to the sorcerers and sorceresses to give them, while they ask for their possessions and they do not give them freely what they ask for. Oh, he who does not have God as his life and love, that one is deprived of everything and goes to get help in his needs and desires, he goes to satan's servants that satan may give him of his treasures, and then satan comes and let Me know how people follow him and how they give their soul to him that he may give them in return to those asked by them to use to their greatest errancy; however, those who go to satan after help in their weaknesses, they are those who confess satan and do not know what much truth they prove that God is, that He is face to face with satan, His adversary, of Whom satan is afraid, and against Whom he struggles with fear, but when satan is helped by a great army of people, he takes courage, but I, the Lord, am telling him now that he loses and those who go to him for help also lose, for their mind is addicted, and are also addicted to themselves those who ask for help from satan for their self love and for their greatness which they want for themselves on earth. Oh, well, well satan, whenever you may think that you have won something against Me, then you are the one who lose, for the man who comes to you to support him in the work of his pride, that one does not last, but his foolishness lasts instead, which draws both him and you into the fire which you alone prepare for yourself, and you keep on stirring it and adding to it, and you do not know what you are doing and what man does to you, who knocks at your door that you may give him. Oh, what do you give him? You give him what you have, and you are the father of lie, and everything you do against Me and against man, in fact you do nothing but increase the flame of your fire in which your torment is going to be and it will show you what you have earned forever, for you earn nothing but your torment by everything that you work with man who asks from you to give him. Oh, only if you did like the sorcerer whom I told by an angel not to do any harm by his word of curse but rather to speak blessing with his mouth, and this servant of yours listened to God, for he submitted before My power by which I cut into his way to bring him into submission.

Well, My people, it is a day of Sunday and I want to rest by working over your life with Me, son, for it is a day of fast, and it still is, and I, the Lord, have to strengthen you to be able to work beautifully with fasting now before Me so that you may give your help My plan with the heaven, with the earth and with man against satan, who does not leave off his evil things but only when the sons of the heaven work with Me, and whom I, the Lord, taught and always teach them to ask with fasting and praying for the casting out of satan, My adversary, from man and from the earth.

We remember in a spirit of Sunday, in a spirit of church, the devout and greatly obedient to the saints, to the fathers and to God, John, who showed to the faithful people the man's ascension to God, and after that he was called John of the Ladder. Oh, how beautifully he stayed within the spirit of obedience and how greatly he appeared by his submission! God is great among His saints and they are great in Him in word and deed, and I, the Lord, am comforted with them and I get comforted from them on earth and in heaven. Amen.

— On a day of Sunday I am with You, Lord, in word, in heaven and on earth, for the saints and the fathers gave me as an example to the church, me, the one who love submission, the obedience in love and it was my love for You, not for those to whom I submitted within my obedience to them. I had to listen, and that is why I had listened. I needed to be a son and I needed to have fathers from You and to be, and I had a mind for this desire, and You were the spirit of my mind, Who loved me and received me as Your son on the Mount Sinai, there where I served You on earth. I was submitted to those who were my superiors, and this is how I showed respect to those that were under my authority then according to the normal ordinance, for by my obedience, You brought me to the level of spiritual father for the sons who were to believe in You, and I also showed them my self-denial and my humility before them, and this is how I advised them to me with obedience, with love and then to their self denial. My hermit life helped me for the spirit of peace, in which I remained to write for the followers about the man's life ascent to You, and the saints of the church called me John of the Ladder. I left the followers the ladder, on which I travelled to You, Lord, and I wait for them, I wait for many of them, I wait for them to come and to be able to come. With fast and prayer and with time for these, this is how are supposed to travel to heaven those who use the ladder which I built with my word full of longing after the man's coming to You from the turmoil of the world, and I thank You for all those who will listen to the whole word that I left written on the earth for those who may travel to You the way I travelled, and I left it in this way written on the earth[179].

Oh, glory to You because you build saints from among people in the way of the people so that they may see the way of the saints and walk in it! Glory to You, Good Shepherd, for the spirit of Your working spirits is spirit of Your Spirit of merciful Shepherd for those who let themselves be shepherded by Him to heaven on earth! Amen.

— My glory with you on the earth, oh, My beloved saints, was nourished by your love which is complete for Me from you, for you have given to Me with obedience, and your submission has taught you obedience. Everyone who wants to learn this ladder, the obedience for his growth, let that one build total submission for himself to those who want to listen, for no one can listen if he does not submit his being to the work of obedience and for obedience with love. If someone does not listen, than he needs someone to show him in order to know and then to listen, for this saint, John of the Ladder, once fell under the calumny of those whose soul he had under his caring hand for them, and then for a long time he had not done anything of what they said that was not good at him, and then he withdrew his strong hand upon them in such a way that he showed them his submission and obedience by doing this, and then they were terrified seeing the great damage that came from the lack of the teaching and watching upon them done by their teacher, and they repented and were corrected and then they left their mind, which led them to murmuring against the master for their souls, for counseling them.

Oh, My people, submission means love, and without love man displays only his stubbornness and the word of his mouth and mind, or his lack of speaking, which is the same, a stubborn spirit. Oh, the gift of the holy teaching is great, and you should love this gift more than any other gift, for man cannot have a greater gift than God's love, which is worked by the submission with obedience, and you have to be filled with this gift, for I am whole into your midst, whole, but perfected by its wholeness, just as I also like you to be; however, always wholly dedicated to Me on your behalf in such a way I may be full of gifts from you, and that We may take after one another by what We give and receive, for you are full of all My gifts so that you may have and that you may give to those that do not have, and then also, that you may give Me so that I may have from you on My way with you among the people on earth, oh, son, My people, on whom I am relying now with My coming again from the Father on earth after man. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the saint and devout Mary, the Egyptian God is speaking over the earth, for it is a time of watching for the soul; it is a time with fasting and praying for those who love the life from heaven for their soul, for life is from heaven, and it is much to be learned so that the men's son may know what to do, and the teaching of life also comes from the heaven and not from the earth, for on the earth there are only traps and people are caught into them, and there are no longer good teachers to teach them, to help them, to make them wise for the life of their soul. However, I, the Lord, come on earth as word, for this is written for Me to come, and My Father Sabaoth gives Me the heavenly armies to accompany and to serve Me in My service for man.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth. He is the Lord of armies and I am His Son, the only One Born of Him before eternity and I stand near Him, and He stands near Me too, and "My Father is still working, so I am working, too," (John: 5/17), for I am like Him and I am of the same being with Him, and with Him I do all things and We do all things; We do them all again, as it is written for Us to work. Amen.

On a day of Sunday, the fifth Sunday of the Lent, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Great Bishop, am serving My church and I am the fellow worker of the church when she brings those of Mine from My things to her Lord, and behold, I am speaking upon her a word of instruction, a word of watching and wisdom for watching after that. The Lord has given a working gift over the earth and He works with great mercy by this gift, for some from the dwelling of the dead are released in order to come and speak to those on earth, to those who are chosen by God for this gift, in order to relieve somehow the burden of the spirit of those who passed away with their body and who suffer waiting for the relief of their sufferance, and on the earth first it is proclaimed by the messenger and then it is worked for the helpless souls, who did not earn anything in the homeland of their life which are to wait for them in the dwelling of comfort, in Abraham's bosom, to whom the Lord promised a seed as great as the stars of the sky, first on earth and then in heaven.

Oh, but the Lord has also got gifts given to the people for the help of their souls, and through the saints of the heaven He gives gifts to the people, for the Spirit of the Lord led once a ministering and holy priest for the holy things, and walking with him in the heart of the wilderness, he met a soul exhausted with sufferance, tears and long fasting, after he had served debauchery and self-will on earth for many years, until the Spirit from above gave this little soul the gift of repentance and fear of God and the gift of the resurrection of the spirit, and then this little soul, carried by the body, went into the deepest heart of the wilderness and remained there in holiness until the separation of his soul from the flesh, when the host of the devout saints took him and put him in their people. I, the Lord, have this soul, now, on this Sunday, at work with Me on the earth upon the sons of men to their wisdom, which comes from heaven and which is not to be found on earth. The saints and the fathers of the church have set the memorial of the saint devout Mary, the Egyptian, on the fifth Sunday of the Lent, that the church may receive good teaching, and then to receive the spirit of the goodness of nature from those that are released from above to work over the earth. Oh, blessed are those who come to the first resurrection, as the second death does not have power upon them, and only the resurrection has power upon them and with them, and this is how Mary, the Egyptian, had part of it, the one remembered today and written about her to be known with her entire life, with her complete confession before her ascension to those in heaven, after a long time of tear shedding from her eyes from the gift of repentance, working in her after her awakening from sin. Her spirit is speaking now from near Me a word of longing and a word of contentment with longing, leaving into the midst of the people of My today's people exhortation to be shared with the men's sons and over the whole church watching of souls on the earth, because it is a time of watching and repentance, and these two work together with power of resurrection upon man, upon his spirit, upon his soul and then upon his body. Amen.

— With tears, Lord, among those in heaven, I am giving my teaching and counseling word into the midst of Your people, where You have a house of coming, and You are welcomed and taken care, oh, Lord, and may this little people of Yours greatly appreciate this gift and nourish Your coming to it likewise and then Your word upon it and upon the whole earth, given further from here after that, from where the voice of Your mouth becomes a river of word for the resurrection of many, Good and Merciful Savior of those who know and of those who do not know sufficiently the work for life, as life does not come to an end but it moves into its second dwelling, that which is eternal, oh, good Lord. Oh, glory to You and glory to the heavenly armies, for as sinful as I was on earth, now I am stepping with my spirit next to You, to speak on this day for the repentance of the people!

Let all the righteous and sinful people take heed, hear, believe, learn and know that life never comes to an end as many try to lie, for many speak about hell with much easiness and they speak about the torment in it and by so doing they choose with their mouth where they want to spend their life after they leave their body, and these wander away much, not reading the Scriptures where it is written about the flame in hell, and woe to those who are not touched by this flame even from their body so that they may work just a little time against it and to escape from the eternal flame!

Oh, not all have a share of the gift, which comes from heaven to wake the people up to repentance before their passing away. I am bowing with great mercy to the men's souls and I am telling them that the weaknesses are big in people because of their self-love and because of the lack of God in them and because of the lack of the teachers inspired from heaven, to be able to share life from heaven and resurrection upon people even from the time of their life in the body received from their parents. There are among them some, who understand, receive and can, and there are still some of them, who do not receive and do not hurry to their salvation, because of the weakness of their body or because of their haughtiness. Let these consider the kings upon people and let them become wise from their examples, for the king Herod could not overcome in order to kill the temptation that came from a woman, when John, the prophet and the Lord's baptizer wanted to give him a spirit of awakening from sin, lest Israel might take an evil example from the king and thus indulge in sin and in the loss of soul; however, the king swore to the woman and did not know to keep away from taking an evil oath, and thus the king Herod perished because of his sin, Herod perished because of a woman.

Oh, let the people look at the king Darius, to whom Zerubbabel showed his sin, and the kings kissed him and promised to listen to him, for the king liked his wisdom from heaven and the truth about the woman, and this is what he spoke to those who were of his retinue: «Oh, men, the wine is not right, the king is not right, the women are not right and all the men's sons are not right, all their things, and the truth is not in them, and all and everything perish because of their injustice, but only the truth is strong and it remains forever, and it has power forever and ever, and it does not show partiality, but it does and says what is right, and it is the strength, the kingdom and the power and the glory of all ages. Oh, men, great is the king and strong is the wine, but who rules over people and over kings? Are not really women? For I saw the king and his concubine on his right side taking the crown from his head and putting it on her head, and with her left hand she was slapping the king, who was staring at her with his mouth open and was laughing with her, and whenever she got upset, he would speaks nicely to appease her, and are women not supposed to be strong since they can and do so?» Oh, and kind Darius kissed Zerubbabel and promised him that he would give him everything he would have asked, and thus he received from the king the promise for the rebuilding of Jerusalem, which was burned by Edom and ravaged by the Chaldeans.

Oh, sons of men behold, there are kings and there are people who receive and who do not receive the truth about them and about the women who rule upon them. However, I tell you that woman brings death to men and to herself and she also causes sufferance to the body, and her strength resides in the spirit of temptation stirred in man by her body. However, behold, the time has become short and the Lord is coming on earth and the people need to listen from heaven and know to keep away from debauchery and to stop doing this sin, which blows with power during these days everywhere and over everything more than anything else on earth, because of the spirit of woman in men and in women[180]. Let the kings of the earth and the rulers of the earth take heed of the heavenly spirit, which blows speaking, and let them all stop from the sin of the devastation of the earth! Oh, let the bishops and the priests also take this into consideration even more seriously, and let them start to cleanse themselves from the sin of debauchery in them, and still after that, let them cleanse the earth and man of this sin, for there is great devastation on earth from this sin, which, behold, it wants to be king on earth and in heaven.

The Lord showed me great mercy and gave me a spirit of repentance, after a life lived in sin and not satisfied with it, and then I gave myself to abstinence with my body and to a flood of tears and I struggled for my house from above so that I might not lose it, to have more time to gain it as my house forever, and that I might not live in hell forever for my heavy sins before the Lord took me out of them by his mercy towards man, for whom He paid with a shameful death on the cross, with His cleansing blood and full of resurrection for those who find the Lord as their Savior.

Take heed, kings and strong men, bishops and priests, rich and poor, slave and free men, faithful and unfaithful, and do not hold the eternal life in derision! When I was in the wilderness, after I left the age of the world, I have served the struggle against sin, and God's angels took me and showed me the torment of the hell and then I cried all the time left to live in my body, and the Mother of the Lord, Jesus Christ, told me that the people talk too easy among them about the places in the hell, which are not as they talk among them about them, but rather they are places of terror, and if just a small wound of their body put them down and they go with it to the doctor for comfort, oh, then where could they go from hell[181] when they are in pains; where could they find any comfort from the unbearable and burdensome labors?

Oh, love resurrection, men's sons, and love holiness, as I had been crying for almost twenty years to the Lord to give it over my life, which was tormented and enslaved by sin for such a long time among people, and from which many great and small people died like me by my sin with death in it, for sin is the sting of death, as it is written.

Oh, Lord, Who are merciful for those lost in sin, have mercy on people and have mercy on me! I pray to You for them! From among of Your godly people I am speaking to them on this day and I had been crying on earth and sighing for a long time for those in heaven to help me and redeem me with their prayers from sin and to give me a share with them in heaven, and they helped me as much as the heavenly armies did, which You gave me to help my struggle to You and to those in heaven, to the country of Your saints, Good Shepherd, sent on earth from the Father Sabaoth for our salvation, for His mercy to men.

And now, I am asking You from among the saints and I am praying for the people of Your today's word to take care of it both with Your angels and with Your teaching upon it always! Rise to life in him every day, with Your Holy Spirit, oh, Lord, that He may protect those who are Yours, those of the spirit of holiness, for You are holy and You give them to take after You, for You have power Lord, and the men's sons do not love Your power to help them with Your love too, to help them with Your mercy to the country of Your saints. However, help them, just as You helped me and revealed to me the way of repentance, my way to You, good Lord of those who humble themselves with repentance for it, and then for Your way with them, to the country of Your saints and to their rest among saints. Amen.

— I, the Lord, with the Father Sabaoth and with the whole heaven of saints have listened with awe to the spirit and to the word of Mary the Egyptian, that who came from sin to life by the mercy coming into her way from heaven. I, the Lord, have looked upon her speaking over kings and over the rulers of the earth, upon slaves and free people, upon the rich and the poor, upon bishops and priests and upon their servants, and I am giving a spirit with power to her speech to touch those to which it is sent.

I, the Lord, release merciful gifts from heaven on earth and over those who go astray in sin, and get sweetened in the spirit of deceit to their punishment, and I want to make them wise with My power from above, and I have given to the people of My word to share the gifts from above, into whose midst I come as word from heaven on earth and proclaim My kingdom, for I am the King of kings and the Lord of lords, and My name is called the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13) Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people of My word, My servant on whom I have been relying during these days with My coming on earth! Stay, sons, with your gates open for the Lord. Stay as My servant for My coming on earth, and all the saints will thank you, and those in hell will thank you as well, those who always take of your little hand their relief and merciful prayer for their souls before Me.

Oh, take care of Me, My people; take care of this prayer of Mine! Stay under exhortation, stay under guidance, son, stay under love, well, well carried son! Love exhortation, love admonition with instruction and stay under their protection, and you should not love other kind of peace, you should not want otherwise, for the men's sons always lose the life in them for they do not have any counselor with mercy upon them for the steps of their life. However, you have, and get used to have and do not let this gift depart from you, for it is for your life with Me that I have given you gifts close to you to rely on them, well My people, for otherwise man dies, kings and people die, they die because of the lack of those that are in heaven upon them and lowered near them, for I give you strong protection from heaven upon your life and always watch upon it, and you should love My protection upon you too, and may it give you great joy, and then you will thank Me with great love and with great affection when you see how many good things I have given to you to have on earth, and furthermore, you should also give the same things to those who seek after God with you, the Counselor of the people, faithful and longing after Him over their life, oh, My people, working with Me in the vineyard of My Father Sabaoth, now in the end of the time, at My coming now. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Annunciation

In a spirit of church, in a day of royal feast, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Bishop of the Father over the church, a servant together with it for those that are for God, I am speaking My holy word upon her and I feed her soul and her work for God, because it is a great work and a great miracle for the man to work with God as the Lord waits from man, and for this fulfillment from man to God one needs teaching again and again, always exhortation to life, always food and life with God, for the man's life is chased day and night by satan to destroy it in man, to corrupt it and to make it weak by sin, and I, the Lord, see and shepherd with My word those who separate themselves for Me and I watch their life and their walking and I give them of My Spirit.

Oh, My word is not much upon those who choose Me to be their Shepherd, but I always have to shepherd with it those who choose Me, and they have to give My food to the sides, which is shared and it does not grow less, for I am without beginning and without end, like My word.

On a day of royal feast, I leave word with exhortation in it over the spirit and over the work of My church, and let all those who want to be My church take of this food when they call themselves so, coming together according to their tradition for prayer with ministry before the altars. Oh, it is great work that I, the Lord, may have a church with its ministry for Me! Those who gather in places called churches do not know what church means. Oh, if they wanted to know, they would know it and their tradition and their holy customs would not be in vain, but they would be useful for their salvation, for man cannot serve two masters as all people believe, those who beat the way to go to church as this tradition is, and then when the message from heaven is to come upon them, oh, they know nothing about the Lord's mysterious works upon the church for the saving work from above upon it. Church means My mother Virgin, who was serving for God with her love, with her submission, and the angel's message from heaven revealed to her the Lord's will upon her, and it was fulfilled My insemination into her virgin womb that I might be born after nine months as an obedient baby, to grow in submission, to work in obedience on the earth, and to listen from heaven to My Father's will for Me and that I could do His will.

Let all the people hear what I am speaking within a spirit of church and what I am revealing! He who wants to know what church means, let him eagerly look at My mother's heart, at her life and submission, as she is God's church, and she received work from heaven to fulfill in submission and faith, for no one can serve the Lord under the name of His church otherwise.

The angel of the Annunciation came to the Virgin, chosen for My birth, and the chamber was lit with a great light, and the Virgin's heart startled at the news of the angel, and then she obeyed and the mystery of the Annunciation was fulfilled, and this message from heaven did not came in vain on earth, but God's word was fulfilled on that day as it was proclaimed to its work then and now, for its whole fulfillment. This is how are those who listen to God and then from God; they are like My mother Virgin, and man cannot be My church otherwise; he cannot drink of the cup of the Lord and of the cup of the devil and not to be stolen from God after that, for because the disciple Judas drank the cup of the devil by his hiding from God and from his brethren, when he came and drank the cup of the Lord he was revealed, as satan entered him and then he drew him to those he had secretly worked for, for satan had a hand on him with those hidden in him, and behold, man cannot drink of two sides and not to became a traitor by so doing.

Oh, the love of God has to be nourished in man in order to be, but in the one with the spirit of haughtiness in him, it does not bring forth fruit, as love cannot be mingled, otherwise it comes out and it goes to its place of origin and it cannot dwell in the man who is not dedicated to it.

Oh, people of My word, I always have to teach you, for I give My teaching on your table to the sides as exhortation over many. Oh, take care son, that food may always be with you for the love of God and take care to nourish it between brother and brother, for I always have this care and I always come as word to you, and I always give Myself to you to have Me as your Teacher and that the people may take Me and understand My will, for those that are seen are passing, and those that are not seen are eternal, and this meaning has to be well discerned. Those that are seen are passing, and it is good that they are seen, because those that are evil can be wiped out so that all evil things may pass and not remain for the man's bad pay in those that are eternal, and those that are not seen are eternal, like the man's bad things, which cannot be seen in man by some other healing man for man, and which remain eternally and are not wiped out, as well as their reward is.

Oh, man does not rejoice over the salvation from sin and from those hidden that are in him, but rather he gets angry with Me when I show him that I see and that I know his sin and when I want to save him from his darkness and help him to love the light and its fruit after that. The love of God has to be cultivated, as it helps man only to God, only to confess God with his works, seen both from heaven and from earth, or hidden in God by the humility of the man who loves God and punishes sin.

I nourish the love of God by the word of My coming of today, for the love of God has grown cold on earth, and I come immediately at this sign, as it is written that I will come at this sign, and I come to strengthen the love of God in man. Amen.

The one who sees that I keep silent concerning his sin and the sin of his brother calls Me "liar" and also does this the one who hears Me speaking this word of My coming in order to grow in man his faith, his love and then his hope, to his repentance. Oh, if I do not tell the man his hidden works, it does not mean that I love them or that man does not do evil by this or that I do not see or know, but it rather means that I keep silent and I suffer painfully, lest I may make the one who is disobedient into an even greater enemy, who is not afraid of My justice between Me and him, and he who looks at the one who sins in such a way that he may also commit sin, he will be even harder punished than the one from whom he says that he takes this evil example, for many saw the sins of those around them but they did not commit them, but rather they became wise and watched over them, and it is not I, the Lord, that I do not forgive man, but the wages of his sin do not forgive him.

I speak with power in it, that those who know My table with My people into the midst of the Romanian people may take My teaching, and where I put it to be shared, for the spirit of the church does this: it searches, it works and it shares the word of the teaching everywhere the darkness in man keeps the man under the sin hidden in man and which punishes him after them.

Take heed, you, those who are faithful, and you, those who are not faithful, and learn from God to keep away from sin, for the wages of sin do not protect you! Oh, come under watching, come into the light and receive light, and come out of the works of the darkness in you! When man wants to be alone for his sinful works in him, the devil takes him under his control and man goes into hiding, and then he forgets about the angel and then about God. When two come together, it is an evil thing for it is a choice too and it is a devilish trap for the one who is weak and stays without watching, but when brothers come together, three or five or ten of them and many other are living together and giving each other their sacrifice with love in it, then the Lord's blessing works much, and the brothers watch upon them to the Lord, if they come together for this. The prayer with fasting added to it, these are the things that weaken satan and his angels' power, who swarm with power everywhere in the air, in man and between man and man, and here there is exhortation for fasting, as fasting is needed for all the evil things in man, not only from food, because man goes wrong in his thought, in his speaking, in his heart, and not by food and as long as it is a time for fasting. Those who fasted, the devout and hermits, wanted to keep away from sin in the time of fasting from food and they even wanted to protect others too from the sin in them, and they went into asceticism during fasting, for they knew that the reward of sin was severe, and then they struggled with all the power of their soul against the power of the flesh, which asks for itself, and many of them overcame and received grace upon grace, and then they received proclaimed grace, working to the healing of many of those who sought God; however, those who stay together in My name for My love in their midst, they prevail against their self against those that are in them and they help each other for their dwelling together in My name and for those that are useful to their souls.

In eight days, the time of the Lent comes to an end and many of those who have fasted from food have sinned with their mouth giving false speeches and useful to the devil, and they have sinned by doing what is wicked, by the straining of their soul and by their lack of watching for the love of God, because if man does not fast for his love of God and he fasts only that because of his fasting the Lord may help him to succeed in his things, oh, such a man does not have the love of God in him, but he needs help for himself, and the Lord gives him if he asks for it; however, if he does not give to the Lord that which the Lord expects from him, that is love from his whole heart, soul and spirit, then the man's fasting is useless, and it is known that he does not have the love of God in him, and it is known that he has not got grace, and that such a man has got love only for himself.

Oh, My people full of My teaching word upon you, come together now, son, under the churchly order into your midst and kneel with much humility before Me for a spirit of repentance, for everything you have gone wrong as a man in the time with fasting, for you have great and many burdens for the carrying of My work, and these worries harden now and again the peace of your heart, or, the lack of your full watch has made you go wrong in your work, in your word or thought, and you should cleanse each other so that it may be there be acceptance to one another for repentance, sons, for My true brothers first watch upon each other and not upon themselves; then acceptance with submission is needed sons, as My mother Virgin submitted to the messenger angel and listened to the will of the one who spoke upon her from God and for God. She is an example of God's church; she is full of grace because of her love for God and because of her total submission to her Creator. Amen.

— I am that, Creator Son, for the Father Creator had told You to come into my womb and be born a Man, and I had been Your church and I had housed You into my virginal womb until You came out and appeared before the people full of grace and truth, from Your birth and until Your ascent again to the Father Sabaoth.

I became an example of Your church, oh, Son of God, and You were the Bishop of my church. I carried You in my little heart with all my love for You and I carried You then in my womb by my submission to You at the message of the angel who spoke to me about You that You would be born into my womb and that You would appear before Israel. Oh, then I carried You again in my little heart on earth, and then until in heaven near You, my dear Son. You made me an example of Your church on earth, Lord. I pray to the faithful and unfaithful ones, I ask them to walk to the love of You and to feed it in abundance, that they may also have my love and the grace from it.

The love from You is joy and then is grace. Those who want to taste happiness and long after it on earth, then here it is, this is and this is how it is, and its spring is in You, of which they can drink and rejoice with their complete joy, for such joys are passing and make the men pass too. Only the eternal joy helps the people look for it and have it, their Good Teacher; moreover, make them seek after Your teaching and then make them put it to their heart and let them take from it life to their life.

It is a royal feast, mine and Yours in a day of feast, and it is the day of the messenger angel upon me from God. We will give to the people the joy of salvation of this day and profit from it to them, and I submit to Your joy into the midst of Your word, for You are the Bishop of Your church, Lord, and You have made it to have it now, when the name and the life of the church on earth goes down, for satan has prevailed against those without the love of God in their service according to the tradition for the mystery of the church, and our comfort is from those that You have built now as Your church before You, and through whom You rise as Savior for many. Blessed are those who are pure in heart; they are very much blessed, and many of them will receive the reward for this when all will be separated to the right and to the left, as it is written and according to the grace of repentance, which You are greatly pouring down now when You are coming on earth as word and grace full of word, oh, Son, merciful for man and enduring much with Your saints for the salvation of many in the days that are coming. Amen.

— Yes, mother, this is what I want it to be, so that many may come to their salvation, and they have to see and believe, for behold, I am coming with it before the much raging storm, as now the storm is silent and it takes everywhere on its way those who sit under the name of church on chairs and on heights to rule over the people in My name, and Our flock is scattered and is very much hungry, mother. I, the Lord, blow upon it, and the whistle of My word wants to wake it and call it to the pasture, for I am the merciful Shepherd and I have abundant pasture full of life giving spirit, and I give from it to those who come at My table. Amen.

Oh, My people full of My word on your table; I am staying in a day of royal feast with you on this day. Son, I am nourishing your love of God. You need it first, and then all the other things for its service come after it as its work. You all should have this grace, well sons. Feed each other with the love of God, and with much humility give to each other this heavenly gift. Love fasting and prayer, which spring from the love of God in you and from among you, and out of which the love of God springs. These are the signs after which I, the Lord, know those who are Mine, and by which, those who are Mine know Me too. Amen.

Peace to you, My people, and look, he who wants to speak to you on this day, then let him speak to you from near Me and let him rejoice within My coming with the saints to you. Take heed and partake of the spirit of resurrection, oh, My people! Amen.

— Lord, my resurrection showed You to Israel as a great God. For four days my body had been separated from my soul in the grave, and You came at Bethany and called me out. I listened to You and I came to life, oh, and then all the hypocrites of Israel arose against You and stirred up each other, those who were protecting their greatness, and they were very much afraid; moreover, the bishops and the priests took counsel together to give You over to the cross and to put You to death, Lord, as the time came for You to let Yourself into their hand, to their judgment and to the judgment of the ruler of this world, by the intercession of their murderous deeds against You, great God. My resurrection, at Your word, this caused the incitement of the spirit of those who were afraid of You then, and today, on a day like the Saturday before Your great entrance on the colt of a donkey into Jerusalem, today is also the feast of my resurrection and I have had the joy to speak on the way of Your coming into the midst of the people of Your word, that I want to tell him to go deeply into the mystery of my resurrection, which worked once with the mystery of the resurrection from You over the people, Lord. First, You promised to the people their resurrection by my resurrection, because You loved me, because I also loved You, and then You went as a sacrifice for the human race, which has departed from You by sin. On the second day, the whole Jerusalem welcomed You with songs of glory like a King, for all found the miracle of my resurrection, and then Your cross was prepared, Lord, and then all the rulers stirred up against You those who sang Hosanna to You on the Palm Sunday. Oh, behold the mystery of the love of God! Some come to life for their faith in You, and some others die because of their lack of love for You, Lord. There is no more love of God, there is nowhere, and the mystery of the church is slandered by those who serve into the name of the church over the people on earth, and if love is no longer, then it is the sign for You to come. And why should You come? You should come and strengthen the love as it is no longer. Oh, come, Lord, come on earth and strengthen the love of God in people, for at this sign it is written for You to come! I ask the people of Your word to grow rich in the wisdom of the mystery of resurrection, and today I am rejoicing among the saints in heaven that I could be in Your coming to it and to speak into its midst my word of joy for Your coming as word on earth.

Oh, people loved by God, rejoice, but you should rejoice over loving Him very much, and you should not have any other joy, and the love for Him should be enough for you and it should be your food as well! May the name of the Lord be blessed by us and by you, the heaven and the earth in the love of God joining us at the table of word! Glory to You, Lord, for Your glory is great in heaven and on earth, and those who will have believed and those who will have loved You, believing in Your glory and staying under it believing, will rejoice. Amen.

— Oh, Lazarus, child raised by God from among the dead before My cross and before My resurrection through it, in eight days we will sing the song of your resurrected Lord: "Christ has risen!" I went for a whole sacrifice after your resurrection, on and the third day after My crucifixion on the cross, I came back to life again. Soon, soon, we will sing "Christ has risen!" together with the people of My word. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! I have sat with My wisdom at My table with you and I have given you to have and to give further! Peace to you! And I will sit again with you within the word on a feast of Palm Sunday, and I will give you, and again you will be able to share My word at My feasts with you, for you are My servant on whom I rely with My coming of nowadays, oh, My people of nowadays. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance in Jerusalem: The Palm Sunday

(Excerpt)

… I am coming in to you, My people, as I was going to Bethany to the three brothers, who loved Me, and I am coming in to you as the victorious word; I am entering as a King, as I entered Jerusalem on a colt of a donkey. This is how I am coming in to you riding on a white horse, on My angel bearing of victory for My word over the earth, and I have always embraced you within the mystery of My coming to you, and it envelops Me within it, and My glory with those who are coming to you as word is a sweet mystery for those in heaven; I am coming and blessing My entrance to you and the entrance of My saints with Me and My way is being blessed by the Father and by the entire heaven of saints and angels, and I share with you of My invisible glory of My coming to you as word on the earth, and My word has life in it, and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness and it does not overcome it.

… — Peace to you, My people! I have spoken My word of the feast of the Palm Sunday, for I am your Bishop, and you are My church. In six days My word is going to include in it the feast of My Resurrection and I am going to give Myself together with it to those who wait for Me to bring it down on earth to them, for My word teaches the people with power, not as their Pharisees and scribes teach them, that is the priests and bishops, and a great people will follow Me during the days that come, for man will nowhere find his entrance to the Lord, for all the doors to Me are being closed by the hand of the antichrist man and his servants, for the antichrist has deceived the whole human kind with his dyed face, but I will removed the mask of this deceiver and he will be seen and brought into view, and then those who will be saved will flow to My spring and find their comfort.

On a day of Sunday, the second Sunday after My resurrection, which took place on the day of Sunday, I strengthen the name of the Day of the Lord and of His rest. I the Lord, Jesus Christ, the resurrected Lord, am strengthening by the word and I say this: the first day of creation is the greatest day, and the minds of the people on earth have not been in great hurry, those who do not keep the greatest of the days, they have not hurried to understand what a great day this day is and how much meaning it has between God and man, between man and God. I am speaking to them on this day of the confirmation of My resurrection before the disciple Thomas, when he looked at Me after I was resurrected, and he touched Me for the confirmation of the mystery of My resurrection, I am telling those who remain for the day of Saturday as a day for the Lord, and I am telling them that I did not rest on the day of Saturday, after they crucified Me, but that I worked in the dwelling of the dead for the light of the day of the Sunday, of the day of the light, for I, the Lord, entered the hell[182] as a great light, and I draw out those who had been waiting for their salvation all the time during those five thousand years and a half after the days of creation, in which man was created as well. Then I came to life with great glory and I remained forty days, going from place to place appearing alive and working great miracles, and then I went in the mountain with My faithful ones, that they could be witnesses of My resurrection and then witnesses of My ascension to the Father, as few as they were at that time from among all the people on earth, and I went up from among them and I ascended to the right side of the Father, in the place where the Father has Me settled from eternity; after that, I have sent the Holy Spirit over the disciples, Who was promised to them and Who came after My ascension to the Father, and He remained with them and brought God to them, as I promised them that I would be with them to the end of the time.

On a second day of Sunday after the Sunday of My resurrection and of those who were waiting in hell for their Savior promised to Adam, the first man created, I entered again into the midst of My disciples, while they were staying together closed because of the fear of those who were looking for them, and I said to them: «Peace to you!», as these hearts, crushed and full of tension, needed much peace. And on that day, I saw the disciple Thomas among them, who was not among them on the Sunday of the resurrection, when for the first time I appeared resurrected before them. As some people stuck to the earthly things, even after My resurrection, they still minded their things. However, I was walking after them and I appeared to them so that they might understand their election and to give other things or occupations on the earth away from them, as God hired them for Him, and they still worked otherwise. However, the Holy Spirit came and He gave Himself to them, and then they were able to work only for Me, only with My walking, and I had much work to be done through them and which was to be set on earth, so that I may have a house with the man on earth, to have the man as My church, to have a body made of faithful sons, and I to become one body with them by My body and blood united with them in their own body, so that we may all be one, and that they may be the sons of the Father as I am, and the Father's love was so great that He called those who were faithful to Me God's sons!

The mind of those who remained with the old things was very weak and they did not understand from God the greatness of the day of Sunday, and which I, the Lord, sealed it as My rest after My great victory against the hell between the hour of My crucifixion and that of My resurrection on the first day of the week, on the Sunday in which I came to life victoriously, for I overcame the death and the hell and I let the people know about My day for the feast of rest, the day of My resurrection, another day of rest for the faithful ones. Only those who did not receive Christ, only those remained stubborn, for they could not change the day for the Lord, since they gave the Lord to death, not receiving Him, the One Whom the Father had sent to them.

Oh, people of My word, I am coming into your midst, son, I am coming as word, as I was entering to My disciples two thousand years ago, and as I was speaking to them after My resurrection. I am speaking with you on the way, as I spoke with those who wanted Me on their way to Emmaus. I appear to you as a great and resurrected God, as I appeared to Thomas and as I made him sure that I was. Oh, blessed are all those who believed and believe My disciples' testimony of that time for Me, the disciples who were chosen by the Father to be witnesses to My coming of that time and to proclaim it to the margins, together with the feast of My Resurrection on the first day of the week, the day of Sunday! Oh, this is how I have you too, as My witness now for My coming again on earth sent by the Father, and you confess yourself and share the word of My mouth, and blessed and chosen by the Father are those who believe God, Whom you share with them when He comes and proclaim Himself far and wide with His coming after seven thousand years from the creation of the world, and He is coming to make the world again; He is coming and He is working now the new birth of the world, and by His creation now, He is setting a new heaven and a new earth, working with the word of His mouth.

Oh, peace to you, people confessing of My second coming from the Father as word on earth! By the word, the Lord made the heaven and the earth in the beginning and He is working again the mystery of the new heaven, the new earth and the New Jerusalem for this mystery. You should have great love, people loved by God, for the Lord has revealed to you His entire work for the new birth of the world, and you, who are born from above by this word of My mouth, help to My work the Father has given to Me and stay on My right side until we will overcome the last enemy, and then there will be the new heaven, the new earth and My confessing people, by whom I will share the great joy for all of the saints who will have waited for My complete victory. Amen.

— However, I, my Lord and my God, am ordained by the saints and by the fathers and I am remembered as a great witness of Your resurrection, because You saw me with all the other disciples on the second Sunday after Your resurrection, and You came in again and gave me too such a great spirit of confession for You and for Your resurrection. Who else was then able to speak like me so fully the sweet news: "Christ has risen!"? Oh, Lord, You came to life in Your body. And in this way there will be raised the bodies of those who are now waiting, and then the prophecy for the resurrection of the bodies will come true, that which was made for their redemption by Your resurrection, for You passed through death as a man in order to bring then the power of the resurrection for all, and there is no mind to feel this great mystery, so much covered for those that do not love life, for You are life, and those who do not live according to Your word do not love You, oh resurrected Lord!

I want to speak a great word to all those who are calling themselves servants of the churches, and I am telling them this:

Oh, open your hearts tormented by your minds and understand the Lord and His mysteries and His works! Your kingdom is ready to fall apart and to be torn down, for you have made use of it, and not the Lord, Whom you say that you serve! Oh, do not dream, after you have wandered so much from the Lord! You have done your wills and you have brought the Lord to shame, violating His will and the order established by the saints, and you have served for your pleasures, relying on the Lord and on His name, under which you have come to stay. You should know that it will happen to your kingdom as it happened to the kingdom of king Solomon, for he did like you, after the Lord set him to reign, and he joined Pharaoh, who was a pagan and a minister of idols, and in this way he spoiled the seed and the purity of God's people, and then his kingdom fell apart because it was broken and crushed, for Solomon did not listen to the law for God's people. Oh, this is what will happen to you too, those who have mingled with the pagans and corrupted the holy law, and you have done according to your own will and then you have filled with disobedience of God and of saints the entire house, the whole country chosen by God, and the Lord waits on the Romanian land for the appearance of the great mystery, the new heaven and the new earth, the new birth of the world, and you have not watched with Him and you have not listened or watched, and as a result your house has come to be divested of God, and still you do not understand with your mind, for your mind plays according to the will of satan, the antichrist, who fights against God and who will be overcome by the Lord, together with all his servants that are against God.

Oh, how comes that you have wanted to come under slavery, and you have not wanted to come out of it? Behold, you have not wanted and you denied God and the saints, and your flock will soon understand this, and then you will be very much ashamed.

Oh, be faithful! You still can come to peace with God. Seek after repentance with your spirit, for the hell is terrible. Flee from satan! God is! Christ has risen! Follow Him and only Him! Take part with Him and put satan to shame, whose game you play with or without your knowledge, for his marks are everywhere upon you and he keeps you as slaves to the darkness and to the spirit of lie. Stand up and believe the word, which cries out from heaven to you! The Lord is the word in the end as it was in the beginning. Amen, amen, I say to you, the Lord is word on earth in your time on the hearth of the Romanian people, and He will be victorious by the sons who are faithful to His coming of nowadays into the midst of this nation, chosen by Him for the second coming of the Son of God to the people on earth.

"Christ has risen!", I, the apostle Thomas, confess this, the one who touched the wounds of His crucifixion on the eight day after the day of the Sunday of His resurrection. Amen.

Oh, glory to Your resurrection, Lord, for I, Your witness to Your resurrected body, am able to speak a word of watching over those who rule into Your name over people and stay far away from Your coming of nowadays, for they are enslaved by satan, the antichrist, Your enemy and theirs! Oh, come into their midst with Your brightness, for You can give them light! Amen.

— Oh, My great disciple with the testimony of My resurrection, behold, this is what happens to those who do not watch, and they fall into the snare of the man who opposes God and they do not manage to get away with him only through Me, if they call Me to make them free, but the spirit of their pride has made them blind and I have no way to get to them to bring their salvation, for My word is not fulfilled among them, and they do not let My coming of today come powerfully upon them, as by this word I can work upon satan if they did not take sides with satan; however, satan will listen to Me and he will submit before Me, and I will bring to the Father the whole accomplished work, as I have on the hearth of the Romanian people a faithful and obedient people and I have power by his faith. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Christ has risen, son! I, the Lord strengthen you with power to prepare a day of feast for Me to come with My female and male disciples at the table with you, for by the word, I gather people from everywhere to the spring and I spend with resurrection at the table with it into the midst of My choice garden, and over which you work and watch. I strengthen the body, the spirit, the soul and the word to give ourselves with a holy feast to those who have come from far places to the spring, to the feast of the prudes of My resurrection and of My confessing disciples. Heavenly hosts will accompany them, as they accompany Me when I come to you as word. Those who are faithful to My word of today are so dear to Me, for behold, I am sending the whole heaven to meet them and to go with them on the way to the spring when they come to My joy with them here.

Peace to you, sons! Ask from Me everything that is to be and which is to be useful to the day of the meeting of the female and male disciples of My resurrection with the people that is coming together at the spring, and this day will be written together with its word of heavenly feast on earth with those who are faithful.

"Christ has risen!" and may the whole joy of My resurrection come down upon you and upon those who are going to come to the spring, oh, My people, for You are My support and you are Mine, because I am the Lord your God and I have chosen you to be Mine. Amen, amen, amen.

09/22-04-2012.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the prudes

The heavenly hosts descend on the way with those who come at My spring of word and with those who come together at the table of the feast of My second coming on earth to prepare a people for My glory in the end of the time, the glory within which I enclose it, the glory of My word, that is the food with which I come into the way of those who want Me, those who believe in Me and take Me from this word to their life.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lord resurrected from the dead during the days of Pontius Pilate, after the Jewish people condemned Me to death on the cross two thousand years ago. I am the Lord and I am the Teacher of My female and male disciples of that time. As nowadays, I also made disciples then. As at that time, I am also making disciples now and I am travelling with them in My memories of that time and I am bringing them here, at My spring of word together with My witnesses of that time, for God is always today, and He joins the beginning with the end, meeting them in a spirit of feast, those from heaven with those on earth, for other feasts are not with God, and they are without God and they are without saints; it will not be written up there with God and they will not make the Lord and His saints come down in a feast on earth with the people, the heaven and the earth celebrating together, there where the Lord comes from and glorifies Himself with His glory from above.

I am coming down with the greeting of My resurrection before those who come together with the heavenly guests, with whom, I, the Lord, am coming down here, on this day, at My spring of word.

Christ is risen, I am telling you, those who are gathered for Me, to listen My word!

Christ is risen, the heavenly guests are telling you, those who accompany Me, My female and male disciple, the witnesses of My resurrection on the third day from the tomb sealed by the people that crucified Me after it had given Me to death on the cross!

Christ is risen, the spirits are telling you, the spirits of those who were resurrected once with Me and confessed in Jerusalem their redemption from the dwelling of the dead and My victory in hell, (Matt: 27/52,53[183].) crushing the latches and saving the ancestors!

Christ is risen, those who are asleep are crying, those whose name is called at the memorial of today for them!

Oh, Christ is risen, My people at the spring! You have prepared a table of feast for those in heaven. You have listened to Me and prepared My meeting with the people gathered at the spring, and I am accompanied by those in heaven. Oh, peace to you for your obedience to God! Blessed are those who have seen and believed through all the things that I was and fulfilled two thousand years ago into the midst of the people of Israel, but blessed and even more blessed are those who believe today in the glory of My word, with which the Father sends Me on earth for the living and for the dead to hear Me that this hour has come!

Oh, two thousand years ago, the men's faith in Me was otherwise helped during the time I stayed among them on earth and then after that on that time, for after I had been resurrected I went and stood on the right side of the Father, where My place is from eternity, and I told My disciples this: «Go into all the world and preach My Gospel to the whole creation… These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; … if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover». (Mark: 16/15-18) And behold, those were the faithful ones and they were those who were helping the faith of many of those who did not see the things of My Gospel of that time.

I made to be great the confession of My Gospel through the mouth of My female and male disciples, who confessed My resurrection! Early in the morning on the first day of the week, the angels spoke to My prudes about My resurrection, for the angel stood in the tomb where I was resurrected and he told them the message: «Christ is risen!» And he also told them to go and let the disciples know, and then I appeared to them; I appeared in turn to them and I greeted them: «Peace to you!» and then I sent them into the whole world with the great news so that many might believe through it and to be able to call them more blessed than those who had seen and believed.

Oh, come into the glory of My word of today, you, those who saw and believed two thousand years ago in Me, Jesus Christ the resurrected One! Peace to you! Come into My book of today for the spirit of testimony. I, the Lord, am blessing now the entrance of My saints. Amen.

— Your way with us is between heaven and earth, oh, resurrected Lord. Your glory with us is between heaven and earth, oh, Lord. Oh, blessed are those who receive You with Your saints in Your coming of today, oh, Lord! Your coming is confessed by the word, it is glorified by Your great proclamation and is shared to the people, and this news passes everywhere and Your voice is heard on earth. There is only waiting in heaven. All the angels and all the saints are looking after You when You are coming on earth during these days. All the heavenly hosts are in Your glory, in Your coming of today, and You give them the great joy that the Lord is coming on earth as word with tens of thousands of Your saints. Oh, how shall we do, Lord, and set this great joy into the hearts of the people on earth? Oh, when will they confess so that those in heaven may also say: "The Lord is coming with His saints?"

We are today on a great feast with You, here, at Your spring of word. Your young people of today is preparing Your sojourn with Your saints, oh Lord, and blessed are they for their faith. Oh, let those who doubt about Your coming of today as word on earth not come among them! Two thousand years ago, there was also a spirit of unbelief in us, but we strengthened each other's spirit in You, Lord, and the faith was growing in people and many believed in us after that. Oh, may Your will be done among people on earth, but help their faith, by which they may be able to follow You, Lord!

You, those who come and drink of the river of life, be faithful to the end, for great pain goes up in to heaven from those who come to the spring of the Lord and do not remain! Oh, work out faith and prayers for it, for everything is possible to those who have faith, and all of the things of the Lord come to him and lay on him, and after that the man works too. Nothing, nothing has the one who has not faith, and the one who has faith has dominion over the world as much as God has. You should not seek after greater miracles than your faith and do not seek to see and to receive. The miracles of your faith are worked in heaven, not on earth, and all the heavenly powers rejoice. Miracles for those in heaven are those who believe in God with the people on earth. Be miracle-people and rejoice to be like that! Be full of humility and rejoice to remain like that! Oh, be the fruit of the Lord's faith in you, for the Lord needs to believe in you for Him!

Oh, get up, Lord sower, and throw seed on earth for faith and let many nations believe in Your coming of today on earth! We are the witnesses of Your resurrection, like those who were the witnesses of Your birth from Your Virgin mother following this good news spoken by the angel. We confess that You were crucified and mocked by crucifixion and that You were resurrected and appeared to us during forty days from time to time, and then You ascended to the right side of the Father Sabaoth, and that now You are travelling with us again on the way of Your second coming after two thousand years from Your first coming, born of a Virgin mother on earth. We are the confessors of Your resurrection together with those that were resurrected from their tombs once with Your resurrection, Lord, and they appeared alive in Jerusalem and confessed Your entrance by the cross into the hell and making free the ancestors with Your brightness, with Your victory against the hell, which had kept in its prison those that had been there up to Your coming, Lord. Oh, glory to You, resurrected King! The Christian people has You as King upon it and Your Kingdom and its Kingdom remains forever; it remains with those who love You according to Your truth and they confess You likewise by their faith and by their holiness before You, now and forever and ever, oh, resurrected Lord. Amen.

— Oh, great spirit of confession, in which you are included, dear confessors, may your name be blessed from now on and forever, and may your faith catch a miracle in many by My gifts for it, which bring forth fruit! I stay with you in the glory of My coming and I give Myself to you with joy to the people gathered at the spring around My young men, near My young people, which is My help for My coming of today as word on earth! You are My witnesses in heaven and on earth, for you are within My coming of today. Oh, remain in My joy. Amen.

I am speaking with you now, oh, My people, people from the spring. Be brave in your faith and in its works, for the whole heaven looks at your choice and rests deeply in your faith. You are

My young people. You have not wasted your life for the spirit of the world, but rather you have brought it to Me since you were little and you have worked into My vineyard, and your reward is high, well sons. You should know, well, well My young men, that the world does not look well with you when you pass through the world by your step. You should also know, sons, that you do not look nice with the world when it tries to come closer to you and see, for the world has its spirit and it comes with it when it tries to come to you because you are Mine; however, you want to show it how you are, and the world has to see by this and understand well that the spirit of the world is foreign to you. Oh, blessed are those who have you in their hearts with names of the sons of God on earth, because their faith will not be overlooked on the day of their visitation. Remain in My love! I take you within it, and everything comes to a stop in Me, no matter how many things they might try to strike you, for My love protects you in it, sons.

You, those that run with faith and love like the thirsty deer at My spring of word when you come to the feasts, keep your hearts in the fear of God, for this is an angel of great protection against human works, which struggle to live in people and because of which the people do not come to this spring. Get used to take your steps to the spirit of holiness, so that you too may become God's sons fully and to give birth to a holy people for the holy heaven and not for you. Turn your bodies into clean vessels, useful to the Lord, and there will be no richer people than you are on earth. Oh, come, drink and have a party with the Lord and with His saints. Come to Me, you those who are heavily burdened, and you will taste the sweetness of your rest! I come always; I come into your way and I give you of My graces and I want sons, to bring you as offering to the Father, according to the order in the people of My word of today, an order in which I, the Lord, have set it in order to know it that it is Mine. Oh, its life is not too tough, for it is beautiful before Me and it is for Me, not for them, and I set My works upon them, and by this time, I have not got so much support from the earth, and the people know that all the glory is given to Me with it and with the entire help from one another, the heaven and the earth helping each other at work for the last Scriptures.

I, the resurrected Lord, open up My arms for you and I am thankful to you for your faith in My coming as word of Holy Spirit on earth. I, the Lord, call those who are faithful to My coming of today of the Romanian people, I call them My Romanian people, and they are the Romanian people, for it cannot be Romanian otherwise the man on these heavenly fields where the heaven works, sanctifies and prepares the view of its glory in the end of the time.

I, the Lord, teach you, and you should learn that the sons of My people from My spring of word cannot give you anything else than what I give them to give further, and they cannot take in order to give after their will or yours, for I give them what they receive and what they give, and their whole word and work is given by Me to them when they work, whether they give or not, when they let themselves be carried by My will. Amen.

I stay with you in a feast, and the heavenly hosts stop together with you and wait for you to go with you on your way back, for I have given them word to take you within the protecting spirit, which goes with those who come to Me to My glory with them. I will accompany you with great word at the end of the feast and I bring My exhortation before you and I will also give you holy strength in you and I urge you to be Romanians, as behold, I suffer from a fresh wound, an open wound, the storm which has been beating now from the enemies to pull out from the top those with a clean watch over this nation. The Romanian people does not like peace and the spirit of brotherhood, but it likes the spirit of pride instead, which those, who are not faithful to the truth of the works, feed themselves with, and then they feed each other on it to the sufferance of this nation, who has not wanted to hear My whisper and watch for its destiny.

Oh, Romanian people, how many times have I tried to gather you under the glory of My protecting word upon you and you have not wanted. Your destiny is in My hand, but it is in your hand as well; however, if your hand does allow Me to hold it into My hand, then sufferance comes to you, because you have not wanted to know those who do you good so that sufferance may not touch you, lest your enemies from the middle may take advantage of your destiny. It will be bitter for those who want to pull the helm out of those who rule over you cleanly. However, I will watch upon your destiny, but your sufferance, which you alone do to yourself, will plough you, to the atonement of the hatred of those who are in your midst and who do not know what justice is or what love does.

Oh, peace to the people gathered at the spring on a day of My feast with the male and female disciples of My resurrection! I will stay with you in the word to the end of the feast, sons, and I will give you the whole word on this day of holy feast. I am giving you sweet advice: walk in My ways to be born from above, to love the truth and the justice of everything. Be My Romanians, be Romanians born from above so that you may be My Romanian people, the beginning of new nation, of new people, to be in My image and after My likeness, oh, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

Second part

The love of God turns the man into a god; it makes him a son of God, and the son is obedient, and by it he keeps himself to be a son and he brings joy and comfort to the Father and works like the Father and only in this way he is in the image of his Father and after His likeness. The son who overlooks the Father and minds his own business and not the Father's, that one uproots himself from the Father and brings forth fruit from himself, not from the Father, and such a son remains without the Father.

I have stayed with the heavenly armies in the sky of the Garden of the Meeting, and I have measured with a measure from heaven the heart and the conduct of those who have come to the spring, at the feast of resurrection, for this feast has been lasting forty days and I spent a feast like this with My female and male disciples two thousand years ago, and I gave them the spirit of resurrection, the spirit of the love of God, and then I went to be on the right side of the Father, submitted to Him further for the whole work, since then and to the end of the Father's work, Who is in Me with His work.

I have looked with love, but I have also looked with mercy, for those who love Me with obedience are those who are loved, and those who want to love Me as much as they want and not with obedience in respect to the laws of the whole love, they are those who are tolerated and shown mercy by My endurance, but what do they know whether My mercy and patience face to face with them give or not give them salvation? Two thousand years ago, I said that all those who did not know that they sinned when they did not do that which was to be done, but those who know from God what it has to be done and do not do or do other way than it has to be done, then they commit the sin of disobedience to God, even if they think soundly that they have love for God in their deed.

I, the Lord, am word on the earth and I dwell into your midst, My people from the spring. I take from the Father and I teach by the word the one who gives his ear to hear. There are some of those who come and work then as they hear from Me the word shared to his work, but there are also among those who come and hear the word and believe it, but as they have got used without obedience for the work of the word, they remain as they are and come and go from the spring as they are. They believe that I am, that I speak and that I share the word to its fulfillment, but if they do not have any roots in their obedience to God, they cannot get used to giving forth fruit in the vineyard, and they cannot remain in My love in such a way that it may bring forth fruit in them. I give them further advice, for I it is My duty to be a Teacher on behalf of the Father Sabaoth for those who come to hear the voice of My word and who take or not take the work of the obedience to God upon them. I am speaking to them in the end of My feast with the male and female disciples and I am giving them My word further.

You, those who come to hear My word, you need the wisdom of the spirit of obedience to God, and without this wisdom in you and in the work of your life your walking with God is weak; the walking of those who cannot learn to take from God and listen with their work after that is uprooted from God. He who is born of God, that one does not take any more after man, but he takes after God instead, and this is how the face and the work of those born from above are. I remind you, that I, the Lord, have asked from the Father by prayer My whole work, after He has given it to Me to do. Even if I received from Him all the work that I had to do, I was asking Him by prayer, as man asks blessing for the work that it is given to him to do by his father. And the Father was giving Me then as He is giving Me now to work for man, and I was asking the Father and I was not asking from Him anything for Me, but rather I was asking Him for man, so that the work which My Father had given Me to put upon man might have fruit in man. My Father gave Me the disciples, and I was asking by prayer from the Father everything that was necessary for them to have so that they might be in their likeness after God, and I was seeking the Father's will in everything that I was asking in My prayer from Him, and I was teaching My disciples to do the same in their prayer to the Father and to say: «Father, may Your will be done in heaven as on earth with us!» (See Matt: 6/10)

I remind you, those who are much exhorted by My word, which you seek and want much, and I am telling you now that I said in My prayer to the Father: «My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from Me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what You desire». (Matt: 26/39) Oh, this prayer full of pain had power in it to keep in it the spirit of obedience to the Father, for in My prayer to the Father I said then: «Not what I desire, but what You desire».

You should know from Me, sons, that the Father had listen to My prayer which I asked for Me at the moment of My bitter cup, for the cup passed, and I was resurrected, and once with Me I drew the dead out, those who heard My voice from the hell when I got into it to take them out. You should know, sons, that on that time My Father did the work beyond human nature, for God is Spirit, even if I had a body on earth to obey the Father in order to take out the bodies of the dead from the hell, but My Father kept Me near Him in the time of the carrying of the cross, and He also carried My body to those in hell, who became flesh so that I might be able to come out and walk on their way out of the hell, for how was satan supposed to be defeated if God had not showed him in the time of My cross that the bodies of the dead came out of the dust and walked on their feet on the earth?

Oh, I would go on and on speaking with you much about this great mystery of resurrection, a mystery for which My Father told Me to listen and to be born a man and to sow Myself in men with My mysterious work and to come down then by the way of the cross into the hell with My resurrection and the resurrection of the dead.

Behold, I put teaching with power over those who come and take Me from the spring and I tell them this: I have not asked from the Father for Me in My prayer to Him, but I have asked for man, as I was an obedient Son and I said: «Not what I desire, but what You desire, Father!» Oh, how much I would like the man to be accustomed to having the spirit of obedience to the will of the Father in his prayer! Oh, how much I would like the man to be in My image and after My likeness in his prayer to God! Oh, here is the reason why My Father has sent Me as word on the earth! The Father has sent Me to teach the man the love of God, which makes the man god; it makes him God's son, and the son has obedience and by it he remains a son, for the sons are only those who have a Father, only those who take after their Father.

I measure with the measure taken from the Father, the heart and the conduct of those who come together at the feasts at My spring of word. I rejoice much over some and over some I cry much, for I would like all of them to be in My Father's image and after His likeness, to be My brothers, oh, and I have a reason to cry! I cry for longing of brothers, for My brothers are those who do My Father's will like Me, and the Father is in heaven, and the Father's will has to be with My brothers on earth. Oh, shall I not cry much when the man's lips always say: "May Your will be done on earth as in heaven, Father!" and when the Father's will is to be so with them, then it is not, and man remains further with his will and this is how he stays before God.

I miss to have brothers and I cry for longing! My Father sees Me while crying for longing and He cries with Me too, and We both look at the pride of the man who calls himself a son of God, brother with Jesus Christ, Who does His Father's will and not his. I long to see that man is as clean as I am, and I long to see that men do not do evil to each other by their disobedience to the Father among them. The love of God is greatly misunderstood on earth. Those who complain to God are those who are coward, and those who have God in them are those who have love. The cowardly are not those who love, and those who love are not those who are coward, for there is no fear in love, as love is love and fear is fear, and love means God and fear means man.

I miss to have brothers and I cry with longing! I long after brothers in My image and after My likeness, and that is why I cry so much in word and I speak and exhort so much. I come and speak because of My longing. Because of His longing the Fathers sends Me to speak on the earth so that the people may hear Me and answer somehow to My voice upon them. There has not been so much love poured out from heaven on the earth as now is, when the Father is sending Me with much word upon people, as much as the river with great outflow. The word is the seed and it is the water, which moistens the seed, but the soil for the seed is taken and used by the man without obedience to God on earth.

You those who come and get comforted and you also comfort Me by your coming to My spring of word, oh, learn what the life with obedience of God is! I lived three years and a half with much word upon My disciples two thousand years ago and they saw My great works and the power of the Father in Me, and they still minded their own things. Here it is why it is so hard for the man to be completely dedicated as a disciple in the hand of the obedience to God! Oh, if I cry with longing to have brothers in My image and after My likeness, then you should also cry with Me, cry with longing after God, for the longing is crying, and crying is its work! You should also cry until the Father will have in you the power to make you God's sons, My brothers, for I listen to the Father and I do nothing from Me or take or give or speak, for I know well which is My Father's will, and I work only His will, and only in this way a son according to the truth is.

Behold, it is hard for the man to die to himself. I would like the man to get away from this death, from his self that uproots him from God, for the one who brings fruit from himself and not from the vine, that one is uprooted. Learn the work of the vineyard and the work of the branch in the vine, sons. When you come, I come down here at the spring and I give you much to learn. I count your steps when you come and I want to count the works of your obedience to God, and I also want you, sons, to become My brothers. I am giving you advice and I am putting it before you, now after the end of the feast. I am also giving you holy power for exhortation, and the power is your very obedience to My exhortation. Now, I am waiting for you with longing and I am waiting for you again at the spring, to help you with My Spirit to learn how to become My brothers, the sons of the Father wholly, in My image and after My likeness. Amen.

Oh, My people from the spring, I have put into the book the word for the love of God of those who come and take the Lord from you. I have showed that I have the son's propriety before the Father both in prayer and conduct and in modest obedience to the Father. Even face to face with man, I showed My godly conduct, the humility of God's Son. The humility among brothers teaches them the love of God, and when it is not among brothers, they do not learn what love is and what God is. The holy decency among brothers teaches the brothers to obey the other one, to be humble to one another by the spirit of the love of God, for love submits itself and does not bring into submission.

Behold a great teaching: love does not bring into submission but it rather submits itself, and it cannot be otherwise. Those who do not show the work of their life in this way, they are not brothers among themselves in My name and no one can love God otherwise on earth and in heaven, and again, no one can say that he loves God if the holy propriety is not among brothers that teaches the brothers what obedience to each other is, but it rather submits itself, for it cannot be otherwise, and man cannot be otherwise in the image of God's son and after His likeness, Who, in a holy propriety, submitted in heaven and on earth before God and before man, and by so doing, showing the work of the love of God, the work of God's sons. Amen.

Oh, sons, the holy propriety that submits itself teaches the brothers the highest conduct, the highest wisdom of those who are called brothers among themselves in Christ. They are no longer as on earth, but they rise high by their highest conduct between brother and brother, and the submission to one another proves that they are no longer from the earth and that they are the new earth for the new heaven, in which justice and peace dwell. Justice is the will of another and not yours. This is the face of justice, the spirit of brotherhood and the propriety above him, the spirit, which makes man god and God man, for I, the Lord, showed that I am God because I obeyed to become a man, for love submits itself sons, and love is God and it makes man god. He who loves mother and father, wife and children, brothers and sisters, relatives and friends and riches on earth, that one remains in his blood, for this is how he wants to serve before God, and he who submits to the love of God, that one becomes god by his submission and he makes God a man in his own being, becoming God's house, God's heaven on earth among people, by the spirit of the holy submission, the spirit of God's sons.

I bow down in submission before My Father Sabaoth, I glorify Him by My submission and I give thanks to Him for all His love, which passes through Me to you, those who come and learn from God.

Let Us put Our love full of submission upon them, oh, Father, and may the spirit of the holy submission teach them the propriety among brothers, and let those who come to the spring come, take and learn the work of the love of God, the work of God's sons, oh, My Father. Amen.

— Yes, My beloved Son, I, the Father, glorify Myself in You, for You are My will. I give Myself to man through You with the whole teaching word upon man, for Your crying to have brothers in Your image and after Your likeness, My Sons, oh, and Your crying is also My crying, and Our work can work by love and it can do it, oh, My dear Son, Jesus Christ, for Your name is known on the earth, a name which has been so much persecuted by those who do not love God for them into the darkness of this passing age, oh, My beloved Son, My Son before eternity, the One with the same being like Mine, as We also work in heaven and on earth, dear Son. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

(Excerpt)

We have given the name of the Well of the Samaritan woman, mentioned today with a feast of its setting in My courts with you, My people son. I had spoken with the Samaritan woman two thousand years ago at Israel's well in the citadel of Sychar and then I spoke with all the people in the citadel, for it was told in the citadel that Messiah was at the well and that Christ had come from the Father on earth in the midst of Israel. This is how I gave the name of this well with the name of the Samaritan woman, to which many heavenly guests have come together today, just as the citadel of Samaria gathered together on that day when I stopped over at the well of Sychar and then I spoke with the Samaritan woman two thousand years ago; the well of the meeting, in whose courtyards I have often met the people that comes at My spring of word and I give it of the river of life so that it may no longer go thirsty after the water of this world that keeps the man in the spirit of the world, the spirit after which man thirsts again and again, after he has taken out of it.

I have sat at the table of word with the saints into your midst, people from the spring. I am feeding from My table with you many people, helping them to catch fire in their little hearts for Me, Who am coming as word of longing at the well on earth to built a loving people for Me. On a day of Sunday, I have stayed with you and worked at the man's making. Two more Sundays and on the third one, I am going to gather people from everywhere at the spring and I am going to glorify Myself into its midst here, near you with the glory of the Holy Spirit and I am going to give it the power for God's love in it, for the fire which I, the Lord, throw on earth to kindle many hearts to the confession of God, to My glory with the people on earth, greater and more glorified than in all times which have been by now, and you are My way to come, and behold, I am coming. I am coming and glorifying Myself into your midst, and you are to give My further so that many people may take fire into their little hearts from this fire and many come and seek Me and you shall open and teach them the way, their way to God, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

(Excerpt)

… Oh, let man not say that he loves God when he does not bring before the Lord the fulfillment of the commandments of love! Oh, how shall I not be broken of shame before the devil when he shows Me the sinners in every way possible that they speak about God's love and that they say the "Our Father" prayer as sons of the Father, when they do not take after the Son of the Father, the only One born of the Father to be an example to those who want to take power from Me and to become God's sons by the fulfillment of all His commandments? I fill the heaven and the earth with the voice of My word during these days and I am telling the devil no longer to rejoice that the faithful man does not fulfill God's commandments, since he has brought all the powers of the evil spirit against man's walking with God, as he did in the beginning and worked this evil spirit. There comes the mourning and the gnashing of the teeth all over those who have chocked the man's power and walking with God. They have been struggling in vain; in vain are rejoicing those who have been separating the man from God without the man knowing that this is what has been done to him by the one with a hidden face under the name of the servant of the good from God. I, the Lord, will appear in all justice and will bring to shame this lie then when no one expects it, for many of those, who want to share the Lord over those who are suck from the sap in them, hate God and take His place over the men's souls, and those who do this are the tools of the evil spirit.

The seventh Sunday after Passover, of the holy fathers from the Nicaea Council

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are coming down into the book as word, because it is the churchly memorial of the holy fathers that has led the people to the kingdom of the heavens, to the eternal life, as their eternal life is to know the Father, the only true God, and His Son, Jesus Christ, Whom He has sent and to Whom He has given dominion over the whole creature to give everyone eternal life, which the Father gave Him and He is still giving to Him.

You, those who watch in the gates, open for Me to come into the book and to write Myself in it with the saints, well, well sons. I, the Lord, would have wanted no longer to put any pressure on you today, but the holy fathers keep in line and wait, for they see this day of feast written for them, a memorial of their confessing works for the Son of God. We stop for a moment to give them joy with Me and with you on this day, for the longing from heaven is great, sons, and it is endless, and some comfort quenches the fire from time to time. Therefore, be hospitable with the heavenly guests at your table at you, for the written word is working much and those who hear it work it, and the saints and all the heavenly powers hear it, those powers that work for God in heaven and on earth.

Oh, sons, there is much preparation now in My courts with you for My coming with the saints at a feast of Pentecost with you and people from everywhere are coming at the spring and they will celebrate with the heaven here the day of the Holy Spirit, the memorial of the day when I, the Lord, sent Him over My disciples ten days after My ascent again to the fatherly throne, as true God and true Man perfected in the body, for I took up a body and I fulfilled on the earth the Father's stewardship for the men's salvation, and then I went back to the Father as a perfect Man and perfect God.

Oh, My people, you should ask from the Lord, son, all the good and all the beauty of the day of feast of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, when He is going to come and speak, and He will be glorified with His glory full of word, and you should find His glory, son, and the glory from above and from below will meet together for the Holy Spirit, Who is glorified so wonderfully through the saints, and behold, the holy fathers sit down before Me and before you to the sharing of My word in them, being witnesses from heaven to God as they also were on the earth, and it was written that they were.

I, the Lord, bless your entrance, holy and loved fathers. You have come together then at the trumpet of the Christian king and set in the books the firm truth for Jesus Christ, confessing Him as true God and perfect man in the flesh, to the shame of those who wanted to shake this truth at that time. Oh, peace to you into the midst of My disciple people in those days, and by which I am writing on the earth My book of today, My speaking with man in the end of the time in order to bring many to life! I say that your word should go and confess God, and confess you as the fathers of the church of those who believe too, blessed fathers for the establishing of the truth of the Son of God. Amen.

— Oh, Father Sabaoth, oh, our Father, exalt Your son, Jesus Christ by the word of our testimony in heaven and on earth, as You have given Him the dominion over the whole creation, to give eternal life to all those whom You have given to Him, as You also gave us to Him, and the eternal life is this: that they should know You, the only true God, and Him You sent, Jesus Christ, (John: 17/3), and Who sanctified Himself so that we too may be sanctified in the truth, however, not only we, but also those who will believe in Him according to our word, Lord, so that all may be one, as You, Yourself, Father, are in Your Son, and He is in You, that they may also be one in One God, so that the world may believe that Your Son is Your messenger, for He gave us the greatness which You have given to Him, that we may be one, just as You are One with Him, so that the love with which You have loved Him to be in us with Him, and we in Him, oh, Father.

Great sufferance went up in heaven in the days of our time against Your Son, Jesus Christ, on behalf of those who gathered together with a blaspheming thought against His divinity. The king brought us together in a council of three hundred and eighteen fathers and we stayed under the breeze of the Holy Spirit and we gave to be cursed the whole evil testimony of the heretics and we left it written that the Son of God is true God and perfect Man in the flesh, and He ascended to the fatherly throne after He fulfilled His work given from the Father. Then we sealed with the name of the fathers gathered and with the name and the seal of the king, and we left behind an eternal truth on earth and we left it written into the book of the time, and behold, on this day of the feast kept in the name of the council of the holy fathers, we are telling now to those who sit on the seats of saints and rulers over the men's soul and we are asking them why they shake and why they keep shaking those that were sealed in a holy council by the fathers full of the Holy Spirit, gathered in a holy council to defend the truth about Jesus Christ? We are asking them how comes that they gather together with those who are foreign to mystery of the church of Jesus Christ? Oh, until when? It was forbidden to those who were not of the same body, of the same holy dogma and of the same holy dough to enter the church. Behold they have broken down the walls of the vineyard and all the passers-by pluck it. (See Ps: 80/12) Those who do this give themselves alone over to be cursed, not thinking at many people who do not know what those who set themselves in the corner stone in God's name do.

You, those who sit on the seats and have names of God's servants over the crowds, you have opened the doors wide and you have mixed[184] things up. (The Ecumenism, r.n.) It will cost you this that you have been doing for such a long time in order to spoil the body of the church, which even so is full of wounds as it is. You think that you are big and have power, but what is God anymore? Is He anymore? Do you still consider Him? Or, on the contrary, You leave Him out sitting into His name over the crowds, and the houses on the heights, which you keep building and adorning in red, belong to you and to your glory, not to God, for you do not take God's side Who dwells in mystery. Therefore, those who do not take after God in their ministry for God, and those who handle the holy settlements in order to crush them, to change them and to remove them so that they may no longer be, and that they may be only themselves with their free desires, sucking for this the blood of those who are blindfolded in such a way that they may not see, in such a way that they may not see that the darkness of this age makes its throne known as holy, as it is written.

Behold, you spoil the time and the power of the days of fasting and you ordain release with lack of order upon people, and the Lord is always yesterday and today, and He is no other today. Oh, you cannot ordain the Lord's works, for behold, you have set down to spoil everything. Be afraid of God! Where is the fruit for Him? You will soon be asked, and be sure that you will be asked, for the Lord does not let Himself to be mocked. Oh, do not play games with your perishing from the face of God's mercy! Repent and seek after a time of repentance, as behold, you go wrong against God, not only against men! You know where you go wrong and you do it on purpose. You know the canons and the law of holiness, for they are written and sealed to their place and with their time, and behold, you trample on them all over the face of the earth and you give them away; you take them from the people instead of putting them upon them to keep the people through them from all the evil things that swarm on the earth, in the waters, in the air and in the deep. The saints and the fathers mourn from the damage done by you over the people. Oh, wipe out their tears. Amen.

We have shown our bitterness and our tear, Lord! Oh, Son of the Father, Jesus Christ, You have been given dominion over the whole creature that You may give everyone eternal life, to all those whom the Father has given to You, and behold how much mixture there is on earth, worked by those who pretend to be the servants of those that are holy among people! You have become a true Man and You took on a fleshly body to fulfill for us the mystery of salvation, Lord, and then You ascended to be at the throne of Your Father, perfect Man and perfect God, true God and true Man, perfected in body, and Your mercy has been great from that time on and up to this day, Lord. Oh, how long does it take until You overcome those who spoil Your truths, revealed through the saints and well established to stay at a holy place and over a holy people? Lord, Your saints cry, they cry and wait for Your victory and theirs. Amen.

— Oh, I cry with you, I cry and the Father cries with you too, holy and loved fathers and who long much after God on earth! The cup of lawlessness is full and it keeps shaking more and more to its overflowing over those who filled it, and then there will be a new heaven and a new earth, as I have promised, but those who work on behalf of lawlessness all over the earth say that they make a new heaven and a new earth, and they say this because they are blind, because the spirit of haughtiness has made them blind and it has made them completely blind. Oh, be good! I, the Lord, work for the salvation of those whom I love and for their redemption, and I will be glorified with them and through them before those who are blind, who will see God then, the One Whom they have despised for their glory, and they will see that the glory is the carried cross and the holy life, which they have not loved, and which they have removed from them and from the people and joined the people foreign to the clean spirit of the church from the ancestors.

Oh, be full of love, beloved saints! I, the Lord, made and keep making everything that is to be made, and those that the foolish make without love, are not and they will no longer be, and I will give them a sign[185], and then the kingdom will belong to God, the Victor for you, and then the song of victory will be sung. Amen.

I am speaking now with you, My people from the spring. I am putting in your spirit, in your soul and in your body holy strength and I am giving all kind of help on My behalf and on behalf of those from heaven so that you may also keep an adorned feast and a feast of the Holy Spirit, and we, those from heaven, work from heaven and we will gather our labor and will make the heaven rejoice, and then we will also rejoice the people who will come at the spring. Behold, I keep coming into their way, closer and closer to the day of their journey to the spring, and I am telling them this:

Oh, dress beautifully in heavenly garments, for the earthly things pass away and they will no longer be! Clothe yourselves within the Holy Spirit, to be clothed and not naked; to be found dressed on the day of My glory! Peace to you in your travelling to My spring of word at a feast of Holy Spirit! I scatter into your way the love of My word, for it is My voice with those who follow Me in the world, destroying the world and its deceiving spirit in them. I, the Lord, am waiting for you at the spring and I am sweetly accompanying you on the way to My gardens, only for you to feel My holy breeze when I am your companion on the way. Oh, be like God, for it is written: «They will be like Him». Amen.

I am proclaiming now a sweet feast and peace over the day of the feast of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and the Giver of comfort. Amen.

Peace to you, My people from the spring! Receive power and help from the Father, from the Son and the Holy Spirit; take and work with peace and glory for the Lord, your God, Who is hiring you as His servant now, to believe and to fulfill with Him those that He has now for you to work and to establish between heaven and earth, all renewed, the New Jerusalem. My word is your guidance to Me and Mine to you, son. Oh, stay under this work of mystery, for this is how I, the Lord, spend with you and stay with you, oh My people, oh, My son, son led by God. Amen, amen, amen.

The eighth Sunday after Passover, the feast of the Holy Spirit's descent

It is a feast of Holy Spirit in heaven and on earth, and this day is great. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirits fill the table of feast with word and give it to the people gathered together with the Lord at the table here.

Oh, you should stay at the table, people coming at My spring of word! I am the word of the Father, for the word of My mouth passes from the Father to Me and it becomes the Holy Spirit the Counselor, the Spirit of the Lord's glory.

Peace to you, people full of longing that gather at the spring of My word! I meet you in the threshold within an embrace of word. The sky is filled more and more with My glory, which I have from the Father before the foundation of the world. My whole glory is with you here, on a day of Pentecost. The heavenly powers go between heaven and earth with all their armies, and the sky is only glory, and I am spending with you at the table, and I get comforted with you when I see how the longing leads you to come near My glory with the people of My word, with those with whom I am working My coming and its great labor and work, for the heavenly glory has much work, much creation to be built there where it works and where it lays its foundation, which will show its face after that.

Oh, I embrace you within the Holy Spirit the Counselor, weary people for My glory, for I have ordained you to prepare for Me a day of feast of the Holy Spirit and to sit at the table with the people gathered at the spring. I have got great mercy on you, for the weather has been rainy and cold, and there have been many things to work under pressure. I have advised you ahead of time to ask from heaven good weather for a holy feast on this day, for the spirits of the nature have turned against the earth because of the people on it, and I have seen how great the mourning of those in heaven is, and all mourn every way possible because man does not love God, the Creator, and that he rather loves the sin out of which they have made a god before which he may worship and thus he forgets the true and the only One God, the Father, the One Who glorifies Himself in the Son by the Holy Spirit the Counselor, the One I sent over My disciples two thousand years ago, after I left them on the earth and I went to be near the Father, where My dwelling is.

Oh, My dear Father, Father Sabaoth, glorify Yourself in Your Son, Father, so that the world may know that You have sent Me! Remind the people of My second coming, which the angels proclaimed that it would come and they pointed it two thousand years ago by their word spoken over My disciples on the day of My ascension near You, dear Father, and behold, I am coming as I ascended. I am coming, I am standing in the clouds[186] of glory and they are covering Me within a mystery and they allow only My voice to be heard, for I am the Word of God, Your word, Father. In the midst of Your people and Mine, I am comforting Your being and I am getting comforted by comforting You, oh, dear Father, for the Holy Spirit the Comforter is union between Us, Father. Amen.

— It is a feast with much glory on this day, oh, My dear Son, for the Trinity of Our godhead was confessed with power and glory on the fiftieth day after Your resurrection from the dead, and on that day tongues of Holy Spirit descended over Your confessing disciples, and even the Holy Spirit confessed them, as You promised them on the day when You ascended to Me from near them with Your resurrected body.

We kiss the country of Your coming, bowing Our forehead to the ground in the gardens of the blessing in the end of the time for Your coming again among the people as word and longing of Holy Spirit, Savior Son. Behold, You have a people of disciples and You always feed them from Your mouth, and they serve Your glory, for You glory with them is Your word upon them, and with which You overflow over the earth.

We bow the forehead of the people gathered at the spring of the feast of God, Who is named: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. And We teach them the love of God, which has the spirit of the fear of God, a spirit that helps the man not to violate the holy ordinances or turn against God, for man is small and has got his soul from God.

I longed after Your coming two thousand years ago and after that which You are spending now with the people faithful of Your word that builds man. I long after You on the earth, My dear Son, and I am in You, and I am full of longing, as I also was two thousand years ago when I sent You to give life to the people, for I have mercy on them, and You know that I have sent You because of this.

People on the earth are not clever; no one is clever but only those who receive You to dwell with them in the time of Your coming, dear Son. I, the Father, glorify Myself in You with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, so that the world may know that I have sent You after man, for the man We created in the beginning have changed the love for hatred and he has no longer loved Us when he saw that he went wrong.

Oh, the man who goes wrong cannot love Us, My dear Son! We descend deeply suffering after man and wait for him to be able to love Us, but his mistake stands against him and does not let him follow Us and thus to be able to receive his new creation as a gift. The grievance in Us is great glory, and no one can wait for his glory but only for the glory of his pain, which crowns the man, and which then crowns Us in him, and otherwise of glory and its taste lead the man to death.

Oh, speak on this day and share from the midst of Your people the voice of the Holy Spirit over the people gathered near it at the spring! I long after You on earth, dear Son! I am in You and You are in Me, and the heaven is narrow for Us, when We suffer from man, when We miss him, for the longing hurts in heaven and is comforted on earth where the pain comes from, for who can comfort Us but the one We suffer from?

Oh, glory to the day of the feast of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who came with tongues of fire over the disciples of My Son, Jesus Christ, on the fiftieth day after His resurrection on the cross! The Lord speaks through the Holy Spirit on earth. On the first day of the week, when the day of Pentecost came, suddenly it came from the sky a sound like the rushing wind and tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one set on each of them and they all were filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. Now this happened on the eighth day after the Christ's resurrection, My Son.

Oh, Spirit Comforter from heaven and down to the earth, You have proceeded from the Father and You glorify Yourself in the Spirit. Therefore, give Yourself! I, the Father, send You, as I also have sent My Son. Amen.

— Oh, glory to the Father in the Son, by the Holy Spirit, the Counselor! My glory with you on the earth is the Holy Spirit, oh My dear Father! We bring back the heavenly time and turn the men back to it, Father, and We have this great longing, and the earth pressures hard on it. I am Bridegroom and bride in My country of coming again on earth, and I suffer in it, for it does not have faith, Father. We have given to the Romanian people as a gift, We have given it from its midst a man with a great soul[187] in order to stay at the helm of this nation before the nations, and this nation has not understood the goodness of this man for it, Father. I have set him and kept him at the helm by the prayer for him of the people of My word, so that this nation may have the spirit of love upon him, the spirit of mercy and watch. Behold, the traitors have come out again, for the Romanian people has not wanted to give his ear and take the holy thing and do it for the welfare of this land, in which I have My coming.

Oh, weary people, as My word requires of you, oh, son, let us still persevere and ask for a heavenly protection from the Father over this land and nation. The spirit of the world speaks in all manners of ways to prove its power over the Romanian land, but this spirit has the devil as its father. Let us speak to the Father and ask Him victory against the devil, who feeds its subjects with lie. Let us ask from the Father a great miracle and with it to overcome the traitors and those who grab riches for themselves on the shoulders of this nation!

Oh, have mercy, Father, have mercy on the land and on the Romanian people! Throw down those who are proud and overthrow the plan and the scheme of those who are traitors, those who want to crush everywhere the good power of those who are lovers of land and nation! Help those with a clean heart for this nation, and may those, who seek to grab only glory and riches for themselves, be without any help! Oh, do not let the evil power at work, and do according to Your mercy miracles of resurrection over the sons of this nation! Amen.

May My speaking from the spring strengthen your hearts, for I have spoken to you about My sufferance for the Romanian people. All those necessary for the body and for the soul, let these not be greater than the Holy Spirit, the Counselor over your life, man. Oh, do not forget what God has created you for! Do not forget to do anything other than what the Lord God has told you to be and to do! Disobedience to God comes from the devil of disobedience, and My submission for your love was built in Me from God. You are not greater than God, but you always forget this and credit yourself with big rights that you can no longer forgo. I have given you the whole creation of the world to serve you and to rejoice with it, and to rejoice Me too as I rejoice you by everything I have built, as it is for you that I have created the heaven and the earth! For if I did not create the man, I would no longer make those that are created and set then the man into their midst, and the man has to listen only to his Creator, and in no way the Creator should listen to man.

Oh, I am very much aggrieved that man does not build himself after My likeness, after that I, the Lord, have created him to be! You, those who have come together now, in a day of holy feast, watch against the spirit of the world, sons! Oh, you should not be world and spirit of the world for anyone, well, well sons! You shall not give to one another this lack of watching for your soul and of Spirit of God in you and from among you against the spirit of the world!

Behold, it is a day of assembly to the calling and to the memorial of those who are asleep, according to the churchly tradition remembered near the feast of the Holy Spirit, and how many of them have suffered there because they did not know to clean themselves and to keep away from the spirit of the world and then from its habits? Oh, many of them are crying and keep telling Me: You, Lord know the temptation of this deceiving spirit. Remember us and have mercy on us, who are greatly deceived by this spirit, for we have been weak people! However, You have prepared a calling for us and we have heard Your voice of today. Glory to the mercy with which You come from heaven on the earth for the living and for those who wait for their resurrection, oh, Lord, and let those that are on the earth, learn to stand against the spirit of the world and then let them follow powerfully the Holy spirit, the Comforter and our Intercessor to the Father. Amen.

Oh, great mercy is coming down now in the end of the time, and I, the Lord, embrace you within it and I am calling you near it to do great work of salvation for the human people, from its beginning and up to the end of God's mystery. May your love be blessed as it gives you power to come to My blessing from the spring!

You, those who often travel to My table of the feast of word here, at the spring, exhort one another to the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who leads the man to heaven. I will make My word of today complete and I will send it to you, and today we are spending time for the Holy Spirit, and let us beautifully set as example those that have to be followed and those that have to be given away. I am giving you comfort and you should know how to receive it, as man does not have any part of it anyhow, and you should know that.

I have with Me at the table of the Holy Spirit the Christian kings in their faith, Constantine and Helen, for their memory has been ordained today once with the day celebrated today. I will give them a place with Me in the word, after we will have cleared the table, and we will put into the book the whole accomplishment of the word of today.

The voice of the Holy Spirit moves the leaves and the flowers, the grass and the sky, the soul and the spirit. Be blessed! The joy that I have come with My saints to be with you is a great miracle in heaven, and you are involved in this miracle, and My entire word with you is being written into the book. Strengthen by it your spirit, your soul, your body and then your obedience, sons. Peace to you! Be beautiful! Love like God! Speak like the Holy Spirit! Ask and you will receive! Believe God with you! Oh, do not ask for yourselves! Ask for God to be fulfilled in you, sons, and this is how you will receive and this is how He will receive you as His! Amen.

Oh, it is the feast of the Holy Spirit at the table with you. Give power to the Lord in you, sons! May My angels lead your steps on the way back: this is what I am telling them. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Part two

The Spirit of the feast of Whitsuntide hovers in the sky of My garden from you and it comforts you, for you are tired, well, well, disciple sons; however, you are lively because you are happy because you serve Me.

We clear up now the setting of the feast, for I have accompanied to their places of living those that have come together with you and with Us, those in heaven, here, at the spring. This is the place where the angels and the saints spend with those on the earth, speaking to them and looking with longing at their labor for heaven and at the labor of the heaven for them, for the heaven works hard invisibly and serves much with its gifts, all covered in mystery above those that are worked at sight, for above those that are seen that work at sight is their mystery and they are comprised within mystery, within the spirit which works those that are seen.

Those who see and those who hear about you, these do not know My mystery with you, well sons. I have made a little and tiny people with you and it works with you My heavenly mysteries, for those that are seen cover their mystery above, sons. The same is with all those that are seen and there are two powers, which cover in their mystery the invisible work of those that are seen. When you see that someone does one thing, you have to know that first there were his thought and council, and then there comes the spirit of joy for the work to be done, but the thought and the spirit of joy are first spirit, and then the word and the works of the word. This is how man should understand God and God's works with him, and I said this that I could be able to tell you now that the spirit of the Whitsuntide has covered within its mystery everything that the eyes of those that came to the spring have seen, and then they have understood the mystery covered by their eyes. First you have taken of the mystery of those that you have worked, and then you have brought them into view already being worked, and those, who have seen the things that have been worked by you in their eyes, have understood their mystery then, their visible birth of the mystery out of which they have been born.

Oh, working sons, this is it with those born of the Spirit, well sons! God is spirit and I work with you in the spirit, and those at sight are few, for there is unbelief and oppression on earth. Oh, if you were not been born of the Spirit, would you stay and take of My word, which cover Me above that I may be able to speak on earth?

Sons, sons, open the Scriptures and read carefully My explanation from them about those born of the Spirit, to know and to understand more and more deeply your purpose between heaven and earth, as I have given you birth from the Spirit and I have covered you within His mystery, for this is how I lived as long as I stayed on the earth in the sigh of men. The Father is telling you now, at the table of word, He is telling you that He longs after Me on earth, and He has also told you that the heaven is narrow for Us, those from heaven, when We suffer from man and when We long, for the longing hurts, and it seeks on the earth after its comfort, because pain is born on earth, and its healing also comes from the earth.

Oh, weary sons, the heaven is narrow for the Lord! I am coming down with the Father after you. We are coming down because of Our longing. When someone misses someone, the place where it stays presses him, it presses him and then he seeks with longing after his desired place; at least he walks with his longing, if not with his step too. The heaven is narrow for the Lord when it longs after man on earth. The Spirit carries Us from heaven on earth, for Our longing sends Us, well sons. I am speaking to you with words of grief in their spirit, but they also have in them the joy that they can tell you and they have their joy in them. Then someone writes a letter to a special human being, it puts in it the spirit, the pain, the joy and the happiness for which he writes that letter, and then he sends it and waits, and his waiting becomes some kind of food for him like the other four: the spirit, the pain, the joy and then the happiness, which bears them all. I, the Lord, was happy on the cross, sons, for I carried on it the spirit, the pain and the joy for which I sacrificed Myself, and all these were My longing after man.

Oh, the heaven is narrow; the dwelling of God is narrow when His longing after man is great. I send letters to the people on the earth, and I send them with longing, and the waiting is My food and My hope, well sons. With such a hope I give you to organize feasts with assembly to the spring, so that those who come may come and that I may be able to speak to them and put oil on My wound from My longing after man. Those who have assembled did not have, they did not have the joy, which We, those in heaven have, for everything has been worked and was shown at work face to face with this people gathered at the feast of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. The joy, which may seem without heavenly taste, has carried in it the deep mystery of each symbol, which the Spirit has been teaching you to bring into view, sons. The Spirit of the Lord is working at you and is giving Himself with His mysteries and works, and you are the people of the mysteries of the Holy Spirit and the Lord is relying on you with His dwelling into the midst of the people, as it is written for the Lord to work during these days by His mystery of the New Jerusalem church coming down from heaven on earth in a spirit of heavenly wedding, Bridegroom and bride, Bridegroom from heaven, and a bride people adorned for her Bridegroom.

Oh, My bride people, come to meet the heavenly gifts with you on the earth, and stay to work them at sight for those who come to see and to understand that I am on earth with you and that you are born of the Spirit, well sons, and that you are no longer of the world. You should always watch over your feelings, and you should watch upon them with Me, lest something of those that are in the world and of its spirit be mingled with them, and the work of your feelings is clearly seen; it is seen from heaven, and it is seen from the earth too, and your feelings have to be watched over so that the Spirit may be in them, just as you are also born of the Spirit. I will teach you even greater work of the Spirit from one another, so that we may be more qualified to overcome the world and its spirit when they want to come with their face in the visible and invisible feelings of those that are of one spirit with God, for My dwelling with you is always a school, it is always teaching and work, and this is how we will overcome those that pass, and this is how we are going to build those that remain as well. Amen.

I walk now after those that have stayed gathered here at the spring, with a feast of Holy Spirit, and I am telling them that My whole speech with you, after I have cleared the table of the feast, speaking with you is a spirit of teaching for them too. The mystery of the man's new birth can be perceived only with the help of the Holy Spirit, Who teaches the man, but there are many people on earth, who cut themselves into My word as into a sword, when they want to take without watchers from it and to work upon them the word spoken by Me to its work. Let these first learn to be afraid of God and not make a sword out of My word that it may come to cut them, because they do not know the mystery hidden under the word spoken by God, for many of those who take My word overflowing here think that they are prophets and healers and then they think that they are distributors of gifts and apostles going from place to place, but they are not afraid to take of the work which is not given to them. I cannot do anything from heaven through those who think that they are someone important after they hear My word spoken about its mysterious work, for the prophets and the apostles written in the Scriptures with God's work through them were not of those who wanted to have and to share heavenly gifts to the people, but they rather wanted to flee after I had called them to the mysteries and to the works of the Spirit, and then I, the Lord, was bringing them under the cross of My works with a walking under the cross, and only to those with a humble spirit and with a gentle spirit, only to those I was coming closer when I was choosing workers for heaven, and then I was cleaning them from their things and I was sanctifying them, because the things that have to be worked for God and those that sanctify the man are holy, as also My word is holy and sanctifies when it finds where to come and where to stay with awe for itself and to stay at its work for the creation of the new man, a man born of the Spirit.

And I am also speaking to those who have gathered at the feast; I am telling them not to forget about themselves, for if they forget about themselves they forget about God too and they forget everything He shows to be worked, and then he who forgets about himself that one has no worry for his being well established within God's wills.

Oh, take care of you after you learn from Me what life is! The life has to be watched over in order to be able to become love for God in you. The whole life of a holy man has to be only love for God. It is in vain that you want the man to see you with those coming out of you and worked by you, for the love for God has a humble face, it has a mystery of wisdom, the heaven has a homeland where it gathers its possessions. I have been teaching you at the feast and I have been telling you: be beautiful and ask for God in you, and do not ask for yourselves, for the homeland of God's sons is the heaven; it is not the earth and it is not the man. Oh, be beautiful, be heavenly on earth and be beautiful for the heaven! This is the beauty of those that are holy and their homeland full of beauty from heaven, for many have made their homeland on the earth and then they have seen that it does not belong to them and that only the heaven can be a homeland of those who will have a homeland. Amen.

And now, we have as heavenly guests at the table of word, the Christian kings Constantine and Helen, the king's mother, and they are speaking like this:

— Only the heaven can be the homeland of all those who want to make and to have their homeland, oh, Lord, oh, Bridegroom with a bride! We are speaking with You before Your bride people, and we confess our life, the earthly one and the heavenly one, Lord. We worked for us a homeland on earth, we put our names over it and we conquered powers, kingdoms and lands, and we took them into our possession, for we were kings, but we had in us a mysterious and insatiable longing, like a storm ravaging a mysterious land and then it is heard of it, and it was kindled in us the great longing for Your confession, and we have passed from death to life, from earth to heaven, from the earthly things to those in heaven, and we wanted to make room for You on the earth for the work of Your truth, Lord, for those who were proud wanted to denigrate You, and then somehow we sought, with the power that we had as kings, and broke the obstacle against those who believed in You, One God, and we made room for Your laws and truths, by those who were holy on earth then, gathering them and giving them royal authority to clarify the Christian way for people on earth.

Oh, we stayed with awe in the hall of celebration of the Holy Spirit with the people gathered around Your disciples of nowadays. As some sons of kings they served You and prepared the way for You to come from heaven with Yours, and that the people on earth may come together at Your spring of word, Lord. The heaven is Your homeland, and You have also given us place in it after that, after we have given a large place to Your kingdom on the earth for its saints and for those who are born after that for it by the spirit of Your confessing saints, and who, by their confession, proclaimed God, giving birth to sons for heaven. All those that are created on earth remain on earth and fall, and these give testimony about man, but those who are created in a heavenly way go in heaven and they are and they confess God, and we, although we were kings on earth, have no other built homeland but the heaven and those we had saved for heaven, where the moth and the rust are not known to be.

Oh, Your mystery with Your disciple people is great today, Lord! We look with awe at the heavenly beauty, which You keep in a mystery, the beauty of Your places of today with the people of Your word, Lord, for those in heaven and those on earth have crowned each other here and they are covered by a mysterious cloud, and behold, those from heaven make a very careful and heavenly step here and look with awe at Your work, for You have got here the mystery of Your second coming on earth, Lord. You have come and put Your church back. You stay here with Your bride people as Bridegroom and bride. We do not have in heaven the joy, which we have when we come with You here at the spring of Your coming on earth with Your saints, Lord. The heaven is narrow for You when You want to come with so much longing and when You want to be on earth, for You have written "a new heaven and a new earth", and You have not written only heaven, as Your creation is the heaven and the earth, and they serve to each other, just as You also worked in the beginning for man. Glory to Your coming with the saints on earth, and we want to be useful to You for the laying down of Your kingdom from above on the earth to its place, on its new foundation and renewed by the word, oh, King Lord. Amen.

— I rejoice with you, oh, My loved saints, when I come with you into the midst of My disciple people, and I rejoice over your joy as One Who can show you My kingdom that I have built on the earth to remain with heirs in it, for I build otherwise and I build like God and I bring My kingdom with man from heaven and this is how I build it. Amen.

I leave you to rest in your body and spirit, My disciple people. I have spent a day of wedding, sons. At the wedding on earth one sings, one dances, one drinks and eats, but at My wedding with you these things are otherwise and they take from one another; those from heaven take from the table with you, and those from you take from heaven, and the table is heavenly there where the heaven is mingles in everything with its fragrance, with its taste.

I am dressing you now within the spirit of holy powers that you may remain in this way for your entire labor, as much as you have always put in everything that are to be done in order to be with you here, sons. Oh, I have suffered that you have been pressed by weather with much rain, but I have made the weather to be warm, sweet, cool and sunny at the feast, for some of you have asked with crying and you have asked for the glory of the feast. I have teaching to put upon you, sons. I have to work more and more creation from heaven so that those who want to be with Me and with you may be from heaven, for man is otherwise on earth, and I want you to take it easy with man and not hard, well sons, as man is hard to make.

You are the connection between Me and My people, children set to watch for Me and for My people! Let all these learn well, those who want to learn, for it is not I that have to take from man and do, but man has to take from Me and work from Me and not from him, for this is how it is between My Father and I, and if it is otherwise, then all will shake and fall. Let those who want to work take only from the heaven and nothing from the earth, for the Lord is above all things and He is the Great King. Amen.

I have taught you sons, and I will keep on teaching you much, for there come the feast of the saints and the feast of My trumpet Verginica with their feast. On the first Sunday after Pentecost there comes the feast of the saints and the feast of their day of celebration, and I am also coming to you with them and we will give ourselves to each other and we will take from one another; however, by that time I, the Lord, am telling you: Peace to you, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday after the Pentecost, of all the saints

(Excerpt)

Peace to you, people of My word, My witness on earth, as I, the Lord, am a faithful witness in heaven and in the assembly of the saints, and happy you are, who know the word of My coming, My voice, which is coming down with the clouds above you and confess that you are Mine! I am with the assembly of saints at the table with you, for it is the day of churchly remembrance in heaven and on earth for their entire number. In their midst it is celebrated on this day My trumpet, Virginia, the little flute through which I, the lord, made My voice heard on earth for twenty-five years to gather a handful of people and to lead it to the faith in My coming as word on earth by the voice of a trumpet, and I have sat at the table with this people, that was and is My witness on earth, as I am for it a faithful witness in heaven.

The armies of saints are organized in groups-groups for their feast with Me here, in My gardens with you, My people from the spring, for in your midst I have the course of My spring of word. The saints are standing and looking at how I am feeding and growing you up, watching for you from heaven and down to earth. My trumpet Virginia is looking at My glory in your midst, which I prophesied through her mouth and which I promised that it would come. It is a day of holy teaching over you, and many takes from your table with you and are satisfied, and they grow in faith and life, for My word has life in it for those who love God among people on earth, as it is written.

I am feeding the multitudes from My river of word upon you, My people, for this is how I prophesied through My trumpet, and now we are beginning our speech with the assembly of saints and we are feeding ourselves with food of word. Groups of saints bow and give priority to My trumpet with her day of the feast of her birth on earth, for she was born on earth on the Sunday of all My saints, and they see now My fruit through her and are bowing gently to My today's work as word over the earth.

Come, Virginia, behold your fruit for which I worked so hard! I needed sons with great faith in them to bring them to see that those things, which were announced in the time of My work with you, have been fulfilled, that they would come visibly and would be carried over the earth, however, working so mysteriously in order to complete all their fulfillment from above! I, the Lord, am speaking with you and you with Me in your days among the saints, and the saints are looking and feeding with My glory and yours in the midst of My today's people, as fruit of My word, which I have set together with you on earth and then I made its book. Amen.

— Oh, You are true, Lord, in Your promises by the word of Your mouth in the time of my body with You on earth! Mercy and truth go before Your face, and happy is the people that knows how to receive You now with Your coming, for it walks in the light of Your face, Lord, and it rejoices in Your name forever, and they lift up their hands for Your justice from above. Glory to You for Your mercy towards me, for Your fruit because of my walking with You on earth! I am grieved for all those who could not work for You more from among those in Your beginning with the sounding of Your trumpet through me, but I am happy for the fruit which is coming out now, for I had to keep and grow the sons who are faithful today, who carried and shared us after that and who then brought and bring the fruit of today, Lord. The saints are gathering in the feasts around Your today's earning and around the food on the table with Your people, and Your glory from its midst is great, and the greater it is, the more mysterious it is, oh, my and their Good Teacher and God!

— I am spending with you and for you here in a holy assembly, on this day, at My spring of word, and My disciple people is our host, the host of those in heaven, oh, My beloved saints! Behold, this is how I grow My people, and I have no time enough for all that I have to work at its life, at its making, and there is no time enough for it, too, because it is a lot of work for My today's work on earth, and I have to take care much of My disciple people, and the people must do the same, it must do much work. We are seeking to reconcile all things, but the time has been pressing us, and I, the Lord, will keep account of this on the day of payment.

… Oh, well sons, if man ate only as much as his body needs and not as the flesh desires, which becomes hunger in man, oh, then man would be otherwise! When man gets used to much and frequent food and famishes his body, then he brings it to exhaustion with very much work which he gives to it for the preparation of the food, for the food cooked by man for the taste of his desire and his tongue is not favorable to the building of his body, for it is prepared for the inside part of the nature of the body, according to the need of the work which he has in him for the course of those things inside of him, for God created the man's body wonderfully.

Oh, sons, you should love all the things God has set as ordinances for your welfare here and then for eternity. Love to fast, well sons, for the sons of the world do not love it, and neither do those who do not have anything to eat, and these do not fast as much as the fasting people who do not violate the whole order set over the being of the church to be kept afterwards. He who loves fasting, that one loves obedience and he loves health too, for the health comes from the law of obedience. Those who fast with their soul, with their body and spirit are more heavenly, for these have to live in peace and within their whole work in everything they have been given to do, just as God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are One and have the same work because this Trinity cannot be divided. Oh, and in the same way it should be done the building of the body, too, well sons, and will, instruction, teaching and great love are needed for the body to work like that, and the spirit of the brotherhood feeds the brothers who are together with the fruit of the Holy Spirit, that becomes food with power in the holy things of the inner body, and the body can work for its law from God build in it.

Now, I am setting the word of blessing with power for the beginning and for the heavenly course of the time of the fasting with you, sons. During this time you should taste fully of the taste of the prayer by which, with days of fasting, you ask from God His will on earth and over the people just as you ask for you, well sons, for we are in the middle of God's creation in which it is set the world with all its sons, who do not love God but rather love the spirit and the works of the darkness of this age, the age of the world. However, you are on earth with God's age and you have the power from God against the spirit of the world to bring it into submission as I did, only for you to know to remain and not come out from the Lord, well sons, for the spirit of the world breathes everywhere with his speaking. Oh, one needs much awakening and working watch for this, and I ask you and I teach you with hope: watch upon each other with much insight; you should watch with your eyes open and help each other for My will to be done in you, and you should also punish each other for the getting out from My will when this happens one way or another, as it is not possible to be death again for those who were once illuminated and tasted the resurrection from Me, lest I, the Lord, may be raised again on the cross by each sin committed by those who bring their life near My life before the Father in order to be brothers.

The feast of the saint apostles Peter and Paul

(Excerpt)

… I, the Lord, have in My hand the destiny of the Romanian people, as for more than fifty years I have been coming down with the word of My mouth and speaking on the hearth of this nation, and I had and have chosen vessels, that write My word into My book of today, God's word over the earth, for this time has come for God's word to be heard even by those in the tombs, as it is written into My book with My disciples of two thousand years ago, and the resurrection of those who wait for Me to come with it for them is making rapid strides, and the victory of God's Lamb and of those who love Him believing in Him and following the truth, and the trumpets sound for His coming. Amen.

The feast of the laying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

(Excerpt)

With each one of My coming down as word on earth, I, the Lord, have to tell about Me, Who I am. I am Who I am. I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth over the earth, I speak from the air and I sit on the throne of cherubim, and the seraphim sing the hymn of the Lord's praise: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Father Sabaoth and His Son the Only One begotten of Him, and the Word of the Holy Spirit; the heaven and the earth is full of His greatness! Amen.

Only those who have the light in them, only they are those who know Me and receive Me in this word, for I am the light of the world when I have a word to speak, when I have to speak over the earth and so that My word may be written and then shared further. With each of My descending it would be to make every man understand My today's way, My walking and My word set by My mouth on earth and into its book so that My name and My word may be known. I am coming down as word, I am coming down on the clouds and I am speaking from the air, and the clouds of My glory are My cover when My voice is heard for My word to be written down, and its root is in Me.

Oh, Romanian people, if the people on earth write so many books and put their names on them, then, I, the Lord, I, the One Who made the heaven and the earth, have to become a book much more than this and to share Myself to the people. You do not say that the word of My mouth is from man! You shall not do this, Romanian people! Everyone who has light in him will know that God is this word. I am the light of the world, and every man that has Me in him loves Me, waits for Me and opens to Me when I reveal Myself to him, and then he sits down at the table of My word, receives Me and turns Me into his deed and he eats of My mouth, and I am writing Myself with him in My today's book, in the book of the testimonies, the book that sets the Lord as word on earth.

I am writing Myself with you into the today's book of My word, which is coming with the clouds, oh, Romanian people, for this is written for Me to come. Although you do not come to My word which is speaking with you from the clouds, although you do not let yourself be comprised in My speaking with you, this still cannot prevent Me from speaking My word over you. My mystery with you during these days is written from the Father to be, and I listen to Him. He has prepared on earth the place where I am writing My word into the book, the manger of the descent of My word over the earth, and I have enclosed it to be Mine and to stand in its sky speaking, and those that I have set to watch are those who hear My voice and write My word into its book.

The feast of the Saint prophet Elijah

The spirit of truth is this river of word. On this way I, God the Father, am sending My Son, the Only One born of Me before eternity, and He is becoming word over the land on the hearth of the Romanian land, now, in the end of the time, and He is preparing the way of His glory, the new heaven and the new earth and a new people, for His kingdom will have no end, as it is written, and My Son is of one Being with the Father, by Whom everything has been done. Amen.

I, the Father Sabaoth, am making Your entrance into Your book of today on a day of prophetic memorial, Son Jesus. Two thousand years ago, I spoke with You before the people and I made it known then that You were My beloved Son with Whom I, the Father Sabaoth, was well pleased both in heaven and on earth. I listened to your tearful prayer on earth and I glorified You with great light surrounding You and I glorified You in My word from above, coming down above You from the clouds before the people, because We go in the clouds and We speak from the clouds on earth, for We are God, oh dear Son, and the heaven is Our walking. Then We showed the people how the Son speaks with the Father and the Father with the Son, and those who heard, they confessed and their confession is true. Oh, in the same way I, the Father, glorify You on earth, the same today, dear Son.

I have wanted on this day of the memorial of the prophet Elijah to stand before Your people of today and to confess You again over the earth, dear Son. God's speaking over the earth is very sweet during these days, and it is as in heaven when We speak; it is as then when We spoke to make man in Our image and after Our likeness, and We spoke and worked sweetly, and We are speaking likewise today too, and Our speaking of today is heard on the earth to teach the man to hear Us, to believe Us and to receive Us with Our speaking, dear Son, Jesus. Our speaking is called the spirit of prophecy, and We have made it by the prophets and We made it as in the beginning in the counsel for the creation of the world and of the man, and behold, God is speaking with the people and for the people, oh, dear Son. I have made the opening of the book of the heaven on this day on the earth with Your people of today and I, the Father, have spoken through Your book with it, for this book is being written during these days on earth once with Our speaking over the people, and this book is the spirit of prophecy, the spirit of the heaven over the earth, as this spirit has been descending over the prophets, and the work of the heaven over the earth does not come to an end.

I, the Father Sabaoth, am putting You on this day at the table of word with the people of Your word of today, for two thousand years ago, I glorified You on the earth before the people, and now, in the end of the time, I am glorifying You too, My dear Son, and whoever wonders at Our heavenly speaking between heaven and earth remains with his wondering, to his judgment by this word, which is the word of the Spirit of Truth.

I, the Father Sabaoth, am blessing the speaking of My Son, Jesus Christ, on this day of heavenly memorial, the day of the prophet Elijah[188], the one who spoke with God on earth; the one through whom God spoke to the people, as his book has been confessing from that time and up to this day. Amen.

— I am Your glory, Your Son Jesus Christ, oh Father Sabaoth, and You glorify Me with Your glory, with Your fruit before eternity, for I am Your fruit. You have opened My book of today, in which I am writing My word by the servants of today oh, My Father, and You have sat in council with Me, with Me into the book, Father. The little ears and the little hands We have set before Us are watching for Us and they are putting Us into the book, Father. In this way God's speaking has been set on earth all the time, and it bears witness over time. The spirit of prophecy is ordained by God to become word on the earth to remain a written book and to bear witness. This is how Our book of today is written, oh Father, and it confesses God's speaking with men, to their judgment and to their salvation, for most of them do not stop to hear, do not stop to believe and walk according to this word, but still, there is on earth a remnant of people that hear and believe and this word is fulfilled in them.

Oh, glory to you, My Father Sabaoth, for You have glorified Your Son before His people in a day of the feast of saints! I am becoming now word into the midst of the people of My word, Father. This river of word is the Spirit of Truth. Amen.

I am speaking to you, people of My word, and I am with you at the table of word and I am accompanied by the prophet Elijah with the whole group of prophets from heaven following him. It is written a prophecy about him that he will come again and will turn the hearts of the fathers to the sons and the hearts of the sons to their parents, lest the Lord may strike the earth with a curse before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. (See Mal: 4/4-6) All the pains and all the strikes of the earth have been caused by the people on the earth, which have not listened to God and to His prophets, as in the time of Elijah, the prophet, when the land was stricken with a severe drought, because there was much lawlessness on the earth.

God is weeping in heaven with His saints because of the man who does not listen to the holy laws and violates them as though he were greater than God, as though he were the master over the earth and over God's creation on it. I look at all people, and I also look at those who were or are or will be on God's side with their faith and sacrifice; I look and see, I look and rejoice or cry and say that every man who has listened in his time to his parents, to his brothers, to his masters, to his teachers, then that one also listens to God when this time comes from God for him. And again, I speak about those who have not been used to listen either to their masters, or to their teachers in the time of their life, and if these come to God, then they will not listen to God either, for they have not been used to the goodness of their spirit from their childhood or all the time; they have not been used to obedience, to guidance over their life, and they do not have a beautiful soul and also they cannot leave it to the spirit which can make the man beautiful, and I, the Lord, rejoice over some, for they are used to the love for obedience and for their guidance, and I cry over some, for these are used to the spirit of stubbornness and of straining of spirit, and these drive God away from man. Well, you, stubborn Christian, you are angry with the man who does not do as your will sees and likes, but when you, by your stubbornness and by your lack of humility, stretch those around you, how comes that you also do not feel that what the one you have stretched feels? Behold injustice for your neighbor and favoritism for you! And I say again: those who have not got used to listening to their parents or to their teachers, they do not listen to God either and neither do they listen to God's people, and more than that, they have a stubborn spirit because of their lack of practice to the humility the Lord requires of those who want to come after Him. Whoever has not listened to his parents' instruction does the same with God, and few are the parents that mean harm to their children even if their parents went wrong with God. And even if the parents have gone wrong with God, they still have to be obeyed by their children, and this is their children's good will, and behold, it is not good for the child to say that his parents did not listen to their good, to their parents or to God, but it is good for them to do more than that and in no way less, for each one can do much good to his relative which was or is not obedient to his own good and to God, if he works the good in the time of his life, as the disciple Panteleimon worked the good of God upon him and upon people by the teaching of his master and by this he turned his father to the heavenly Father for his eternal good.

Oh, Christian son, your conduct towards those around you is the same conduct as that between you and God, for I, the Lord, cannot take for Me the good conduct towards Me from man, but I take only that with which he walks before Me with those around him, for this is the mark of his conduct with Me, and the man's conduct with respect to God has never been viewed otherwise on earth by God.

If I cannot admonish the Christian, then that one is not My son, and he is taught without guidance upon him, without word upon him. For this I am speaking on this day over all those who were and are and will be added to those who want to be with God as My word requires in these days for those who will be My people and My kingdom, with which I will remain and with which those who listen to God will remain too, and I am telling them this:

Come under the work of admonition for the sons, you those who want to remain God's sons and the sons of the kingdom that will remain, for nothing proves that a Christian is God's son more than the work of admonition for the sons and the receiving of it, for man goes wrong no matter how much he may want not to be so. Make a good distinction between disciple and teacher and be good both in your humility and in your mind, for two thousand years ago, I, the Lord, said: «Blessed is the one who does not stumble against Me!» There were many scribes who sought to find fault with Me, and they did, for this is what they were looking for, but they could not raise a dead man to life; they could not heal a blind man, or turn someone from death to life, from sin to holiness, and they could not do that because they had the spirit of judgment in them, the evil eye, the spirit of blaming brothers and God, a spirit which not even God uses even if He is God, for those who are judged are judged by their own works and by God's word spoken beforehand so that man may not sin, and which man violates after that, to his judgment. The man's flesh is a lover of sin, even if the spirit sighs after life in man, but the man without guidance upon him, upon his body, does not have other destiny. Therefore, man needs to listen to God and his obedience will save his life. Amen.

Oh, stay under the spirit of teaching on this day, people from the spring, for I want that people everywhere to take and learn, and the prophet Elijah is speaking and telling that man has to come back to God completely if he does not want to remain for the destruction which comes all over the earth because of the man's disobedience and because of his great departure from God. Amen.

— The man's flesh is a lover of sin, oh, Lord, my Teacher, and the spirit of prophecy has always come from You on to the earth through the prophets, and it has made a calling from sin to holiness for every man, and especially upon the rulers over the people, Lord, as You also worked with me in my time by the spirit of prophecy and You punished those hidden in their hearts for their opposition against God, and You blessed those pure in heart for their watching over the righteous. On this day of my feast among the prophets in heaven, we will fulfill the Scripture which says that You will send me to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children and the hearts of the children to their fathers before Your great and terrible day, lest You may come and strike the earth with a curse. (See Mal: 4/6) Oh, Lord, I want God to be on the earth with the people, and this zeal consumed me all my time on the earth and it is also consuming me now in heaven, for my heavenly spirit is my zeal for You, and this was my love on the earth. Amen.

— I, the Lord, also want to work on this day and I want to bring the man to the obedience of God, oh, My prophet, and we will blow from heaven and it will be written on the earth the book of this day and everything that are to be written in it on this day. Amen.

I, the Lord, am closing this word now and I am giving way to the churchly feast and for its celebration and teaching, and after that I am going back into the book. Strengthen each other sons, and build yourselves in God, for this is your calling! Live on earth as in heaven, but you have to look up into the heaven very, very much sons; much and on and on, for the heaven is with you at work on the earth, and you should not forget this even for a moment so that you may know to give place to God within you, near you and for you on the earth always, always, oh, sons; always the Lord to be on the earth with you. Amen, amen, amen.

Part two

I, the Lord, am writing further the word of this day into its book. The Spirit of Truth is My speaking into this book, the Spirit Who has spoken through the prophets, and Elijah, the prophet is sitting down at a table of word with Me before you, My people from the spring, and he has got with him the group of the prophets, for each one stays in the group of his people, which he is part of, and he goes at the same time with it, for the heaven works and goes working in many groups for the fulfilling of God's works on the earth. I want to bring man to the obedience of God, in the love of God, for woe to the man without this love in him! We have to teach the man that his love has to be burning, for it cannot work much for him and for God otherwise.

Man cannot see God if love does not burn within him. The story went and it still goes that man cannot see God and remain alive too, but could man be more alive if he does not see Him or if he sees Him? Behold, it is one thing for God to say this and it is another thing for man to say this.

Man does not want to see God, but God wants this and He wants it much. The Father Sabaoth has sent Me among people because God has wanted to be seen by man, and He has made Himself known to man, and God became Man to be able to dwell with man on the earth, after His love and after His longing after man, and because man needs faith, God has put faith in man for Him and thus man has come to know Him, and the faithful man has seen the Lord, even if the faithful one was a sinner, for the Lord is more believed, more known and more seen by those who are sinners, who acknowledge their sinfulness, than those who do not have in their nature the love for sin but have their love in them.

I want to work with the saints on this day and I want to teach the man to come to the obedience of God so that he may have God in him with His kingdom and that man may have love. Oh, I would turn back time for each Christian who has come, how has known, believed, received and loved much since he has been able to come and remain with Me and with My people of today, and his candlestick has gone out little by little and his love too, and therefore, the loving Christian has grown cold and his love has died out and then little by little he has remained alone. I would turn back time to have within living love the one who has come and then has grown cold little by little in his watch for the love of God; however, I cannot turn man back in time, for the time elapsed is no more, and it is only the man who has passed in time and has grown cold in his heart and his love has gone out, after he once loved Me, and for this I cry.

Many of those who wander away believe that man lives many times on earth and that he also dies many times if he lives many times. Oh, those who say this and believe this make Me deeply upset, even if they want to make use of their faith in God. Oh, where have they taken this way of thinking from? They have taken it from their longing of life, for man desires life. But what kind of joy the man, who would live many times, could have, if he did not know each time whether he lived before and whether he came from there? Oh, what would it profit for man if he thinks and believes so? He has no profit at all, but on the contrary, such a man has great damage for his soul. Behold what the man's mind can do that does not have any work for God?

Man wants to be greater than God, and man has thought of it even from his first beginning, and he has got sick from this longing, and that is why his mind gets dizzy and falls whenever he exalts himself in his mind. I told the man to work the heaven and not leave it without being worked, and I did not tell this only to the man in the beginning, who was alone when I brought him in paradise when I told him this. Let no one among those who have come together say that they are few and that there is much to work, for I am telling them that the day of work starts with dawn and its work is sufficient if is used completely with its whole.

Oh, Christians, either if you are gathered in communities or if you are fewer in your houses, work with diligence if you are Christians and if you live in the lands and in places sanctified by God for you. Refresh your houses with holy fragrances and do not leave garbage behind your works, which may leave a stench behind you in houses and around them, for the angels and the saints want to live with you as in heaven; they want to live near you with the heaven. When the Lord made the man on earth, he also made a garden for him and put him in it to work it and to keep it by working it, and also the Lord made a river to water the garden and this was parted in four heads over the earth. There was a difference between the rest of the earth and the Garden of Eden, and there is a distinction between the rest of the earth and the garden of the Christian as well, as this distinction was in the beginning too.

Oh, sons from everywhere, clean your gardens of all weeds and clean them of any blade, always, always, well sons, and keep a very secure watch so that other weeds and other roots may not pop out. Oh, sons, prune your fruit trees from all the dry twigs that may appear, lest the dryness may go deep, for the fruit tree weeps where the dryness appears and is ashamed of its angel, and the angel of the fruit trees also weeps, for the dryness of the tree is visible and is not like the man who covers his sin so that it may not be seen and then to put man to shame if it is seen. Oh, if you cannot do this with your garden, Christian, then you cannot do otherwise in your life with Good too. You should know and believe what I am telling you.

There is no rain on the earth. It does not rain because the gardens are full of weeds near the Christian's houses, and the weeds suck the water from God fully, the water of nourishing rain, and the weeds grow bigger than the flowers which enjoy God and the angels, and the weeds boast before the Lord among the flowers. The useless weeds for God and for man suck the Lord's waters, in the same way as the Christian, who is weak in his sacrifice and life, sucks from the gathering for the brothers and grows big and strong in his body; that is, the one who is not dedicated or useful for God and for man.

It does not rain because there are dry twigs among the fruit trees near the houses of the Christians, and the trees that have dry branches are ashamed of them. It does not rain because there are houses and gardens near them, which are not taken care or worked. I, the Lord, when I gave to man a place to live and a garden with fruit trees and flowers, I told him to work and to keep them working them and not to let any weeds grow in the garden of paradise, in the place where man lives, for the weeds are only tares, they are tares in the flowers just as tares are in the wheat, the tares that the devil sows and not God.

It is not the same with the greenness for the flowers; it is not the same with the briers, the thistles and the weeds, which have a bad name and an ugly face and grow on the earth in places uninhabited by people. Anyone who does not work his paradise does not know to keep it, for this means watching: that is, the man to work his paradise and not leave it without being worked. I, the Lord, do not eat like man. I am nourished with the beauty and with the fragrance of the flowers, and man is nourished with the fragrance and the taste of the food, and he who takes care of his body cannot take care of God too, for he who takes care of God has put an end to his sin, with the worship of his body, for man has accustomed his body to eating all the time and eating much, and this gives him much work, much running about and much labor, from dawn to night, and the time weeps elapsing in vain and not redeemed, and man wears himself out uselessly for heaven, and he does not have any repentance for his lack of power to love God with his life.

Oh, My people from everywhere of this word of Mine, it is written into the Scriptures a big and deep word in its meaning: «Unless the Lords builds the house, they labor in vain who built it. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman guards it in vain. It is in vain for you to rise up early, to stay up late, eating the bread of toil; for He gives sleep to His loved ones». Oh, sons from everywhere, when the Lord is absent from all these, then all things are useless and they pass away as well as man does.

Behold, not all of those who are gathered together for the Lord dedicate themselves in the same way; not all get up at the same time early in the morning, so that their step may be only one for all of them until evening comes when man leaves his work and gets his rest. Those who come to be with this people have to come and be useful to God's work and not to themselves, for they can be useful to themselves only there where they get used to come, and behold, some do not know what the coming into this heavenly work means, and some have already come and have not known and by so doing they have become a burden; and it is not only that, for they want to be big and are not obedient and they are not dedicated too, and if there is this distinction, for which all kinds of pains appear among those who live together, then where does the prayer go, the prayer of the one who mourns in all manners of way over his brother? However, all these things bring about pains too because of the lack of work, because of the lack of watch and because of the lack of brotherly dedication, for when man falls and hurts himself and damages his body, then why does this happen? It happens because he does not watch so that he may not fall and he does not watch for his spirit as well, and the one who falls does not watch for his body too, and he falls because he does not have God as love in him and because he does not have any guidance upon him.

It is hard for man with guidance upon him, it is hard for him in this way and that is why he has got many falls and blows. The example of Israel, who could not stay under guidance and rebelled according to the law of self-freedom, is a bad and hard example, and he who wants to learn can learn from it. Man has to see his faults, he has to humble himself for them and he also needs to let himself be guided by those who have the Lord in them by God's gift. When man has God in him, then he can show the Lord to the people. He who has God's kingdom in him, that one can truly know God, and also the one who shares Him to those who seek Him, not to those who seek and do not want the Lord.

Elijah cried out to the people to repent and to clean themselves from idols. There were so many holy disciples around him, who had the spirit of prophecy upon them and an angelic life in the mountains, far from the sins and far from their places on the earth, and these had love for God, for the faith by which man gives himself to God is love, which does not go out and which always longs in those who have faith, because faith becomes longing of God in man and the longing is the greatness of love and this has to feed those who come together to serve God.

Those who give themselves to God with their love and with their work have to bring forth fruit to God. Elijah, the prophet, brought forth fruit to God on earth and turned the sons of Israel from idols to God and he brought a great sacrifice, and his hunger for God cried out to heaven, and he fasted for God not only from food. Oh, if God had not given a house to Elijah, he would have not had one. If God had not protected him in the city, he would have watched in vain. If the Lord had not given him to eat by the angels, he would have sought in vain to work from dawn till night for the bread of pain. The Lord would give him sleep and the angel of the Lord would come to him and tell him: «Get up and work upon Israel, for the king Ahab says that you have brought trouble over Israel», and Elijah got up and told the king: «I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and you have followed the Baal. … Now let us bring a burnt offering to the Lord, you and I, and see to whom the Lord will answer in the Mount Carmel, for you waver between two sides… I, even I only, am left a prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are many hundreds men. Let us, therefore, bring a burnt offering and put no fire under, and then let each of us call on the name his God, and the God who answers by fire, let him be God». (See 1 Kings 18: 17-24) And the prophets of Baal cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lances until the blood gushed out on them, but there was no answer. Then the prophet Elijah called the people of Israel near to him and he told them what to do and then he cried aloud to the Lord and said: «Lord, God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Israel, answer me with fire, and let it be known in Israel that You alone are God in Israel, and that I am Your servant and that You have turned their heart back again». (1 Kings 18:36, 37) And the ministry of the people of Israel happened as Elijah the prophet said and Elijah's loud prayer came true and fire came out of haven and consumed the burnt offering soaked with much water and the people said: «The Lord is God», and then the people gave all the prophets of Baal to Elijah and the people slaughtered them all, and this work was done after Elijah spoke to the rain not to fall for three years and a half, and on the day of his burnt offering, rain came down on earth and watered the land which was so dry for such a long time, without a drop of water or dew on it. Behold how much fruit a servant of the Lord can bring about among people, and how much damage a servant of the devil can bring about too, as king Ahab with all his subjects did.

Oh, My people from everywhere, receive wisdom from My word upon you and get up to serve God with much life in you, as My prophet Elijah did, and your life will be seen and it will be light around you and there will be works of resurrection over many, for God is not confessed by many words but through the deed done by the man who is illuminated by God's love in him. Amen.

*— This was my life before You, oh, Lover of my soul, oh, Lord! I was one of Your great prophets, and I have served You with fire in My little heart, and today my spirit has been dwelling in Your Spirit and has been perfected in Your word over Your people today, and Your Spirit has been in my spirit, and I was one with Your Spirit in the word for the teaching over Your Israel of today, ordained to be yours from the Romanian people and to stay today and listen to Your voice, which has been released from the clouds upon them, as in the time of Moses when the people of Israel listened to Your whole word coming out of Your mouth, and Moses wanted to give it further to the people of Israel, and as in my time, when You gave to Israel Your word that was upon me, and I turned the Israel from idols to You and then the people have confessed You on that day on the Mount of Carmel as true God, my God, and the people said: «The Lord is God!»

Oh, how greatly You have confessed on my day of feast both the man's obedience and his lack of obedience, the man's work of paradise or the lack of its work, the view from heaven of the Christians' works from everywhere, and on which Your will is still much to be fulfilled, Your word spoken to the man whom You set in the place of his dwelling for him, in paradise, so that the man could work it and keep it, oh, Lord. Let all pay attention to Your voice of today, all those who call themselves Christians on earth and those who have dwellings and gardens around them to work and to keep them into the midst of the earth. Those who serve Baal do not have time to serve God and they stop the rain in heaven from coming down on earth, and there are no longer prophets as I was so that they may speak and release the rain to come when it is stopped by the people from coming and when it is kept in heaven.

On this day, You have called the people to the obedience of God and You have breathed from haven and it has been written on the earth Your word of today, which can teach any man that in the same way he works and keeps by his working his house, his garden and his place of dwelling with those around him used from near him, in the same way he works his life between him and You; oh Lord, he does the same. Man makes much garbage, very much, and he leaves it everywhere, and the garbage smells so badly because it is garbage; on the contrary, man should be like a flower, he has to smell like a flower, which comforts You with its beauty and its fragrance, oh Lord. The saints cry both on earth and in heaven because of the man's lack of God, for man does not care to stand before God and he forgets about this very much. Oh, who can hide from before You, at least from a moment? As the fruit trees, the flowers, the mountains, the plains, the springs and the entire earth cannot hide from before the son, the moon, the rain, the wind, the cold and from the whole work of the spirits and of the heavenly powers, which moves them, the same is with man; he cannot hide from Your face even if he withdraws in the shade from the son, even if he withdraws in his dwelling from the rain, from the wind or from the cold, oh, Lord. He who believes that he can hide from God with his body, with his works, that one believes so because of his foolishness, only that the man's mind can lead him to serve idols, Lord, and this is the pain of those who have the heaven as their homeland, the pain of Your saints, oh Lord.

Take heed at the Lord, Who has spoken with you on my day of the feast, Israel of today, faithful people, the people of God's word! Let all the people on earth listen carefully to the Lord's voice, lest the Lord may come unexpectedly and strike the earth and everything on it with a curse! Let man make a distinction between earth and heaven, between the expanse around him and the house and the garden in which he lives! Let man listen to God and work the heaven and keep it! The Lord has made this clear in detail now. Man, animals, birds and fish move in the earth, in the sky or in the waters and they work around them good or evil among those that do not move but stay faithfully before the Lord and before everything that moves among those that do not move, and which the heavenly spirits feed them with sun, with water, with cold, with soul and with life for the life of all that move along in the earth, in the sky or in the waters. Everything that moves has to serve those that do not move, which give themselves to those that move with all that they have and they give fruit by the mysteries from above between the Lord and them. Behold how much God is between heaven and earth and which confesses God, and it is to weeping in the sky from the man who is wasting his mind, and moment by moment he puts to sleep in him the mystery of life and the answer for it before the Lord, and this because man has got used to be without any guidance upon him in his life, for the movement of his mind and for the movement of his body between heaven and earth, as man exalts himself above God before God and he is worth nothing but to be mourned over, poor of him, and the work of the prophet is to turn the Lord's heart to the people and the men's hearts to the Lord as it is written. Amen.

There is a lot of word on my day of feast among saints, Lord, and those, who serve You for You with their work, live in their body on the earth and You are great, Lord; You are great in respect with the man's measure. Oh, only if the word of today may move the people, the word with which we have come now into Your book of today! However, the Christians need to be able to perceive it well, to read it well, to have a great book and to learn from it always, for the man's destiny on the earth is to have guidance and the Lord to be able to speak from haven with the man on the earth, and the man has to listen to God.

Glory to You, oh, Lord, Whom my soul desires on earth and in heaven! I want to have hope in heaven that man will turn back to God, as You, Lord, have also come back in these days to him, coming after him with a word of longing for the man's turning back to the Father. Amen.

— Oh, great prophet, I was your comfort, for you needed great comfort and you have been afflicted with My pain on earth. This is how are those in whom I put My pain so that I may bear it with them and after that it may be able to give forth its great fruit, for such fruit is not between earth and heaven and everything is only emptiness everywhere instead. Only the pain is that which can give forth fruit, good and pleasant to God in man and from man. He who knows what the love of God in man means, that one also knows what pain and its greatness are, that which is unthinkable by those who do not have the Lord as light and life in them. Amen.

Now, I, the Lord, have great pain in heaven for the Romanian nation because of those in its midst who do not have light in them and who want to be great and want to be leaders although they neither know how to rule and nor are they able to do it. I carry this pain fully with those who are My people of today into the midst of the Romanian people. I bear this pain with you, well, well, My people. You should not flee from it, but rather you should enter under it and suffer with the Lord, Who comforts the pains. Let us turn this nation to the truth, and let us ask light from the Father upon it. Amen.

My speaking with you is My comfort in My pain, and as the man gets refreshed with water in time of scorching heat, in the same way I get My pain refreshed when I speak with you. Remain My refreshment, remain My comfort, oh, My loved people, remain as love, son! I am Who I am. Remain My love, remain love, oh, My people, for I remain yours, I remain the Lord your God, and you have to confess Me always by loving Me, as I love you and I always confess you, and I want you to be Mine. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God at the feast of the Assumption

(Excerpt)

Before dawn I start coming with heavenly armies, with the voice of My word and with threefold love to meet those who come together at My spring of word on this day of holy feast. I am Who I am. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the only One born of the Father before eternity, and born of a Virgin mother two thousand years ago when I became Man in order to be with the men on the earth and to proclaim My kingdom among them for anyone who wants to become a son of God with a heavenly citizenship on him on the earth. I have the clouds as ascent and descent and I walk on the wings of the winds, as written: «God shines forth; He comes and does not keep silent». (See Ps: 50/2-3[189])

With the voice of a loving and merciful Shepherd I am giving you of My mouth, I am giving to those who have come to My spring of word. Peace to you! But first, I say peace to you! Then I tell you to sit down before Me to bless your coming to Me, to the spring of My word that is becoming a book here, among My servants, for I am the One Who makes My angels spirits and My servants flames of fire, as it is written. I also want man to make God and to have Him as his Shepherd.

The Lord comes to the people and He comes with the saints in armies, riding on white horses[190], and He is coming to His places blessed on the earth. As the people go to the places they like, places made by people, in the same way, I come with the saints at the spring here and I rest from the way between heaven and earth, because I have spoken and My word has come true and My reign is here, and here come those whom the Father Sabaoth draws, and I give them, for I am Shepherd.

… Behold, the heavens are opened, and I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, am sent by Him as word over the Romanian people. I listen to the Father and fulfill, as there is obedience among those in heaven, and I come to you with My word, Romanian people, and you have to open it to the Lord, Who comes to you with all the heavenly powers, in armies riding on white horses. I have the clouds as My ascent, I come on the wings of the winds, and I make servants of fire and servants from the flames of fire.

The feast of the Beheading of the Saint John the Baptist

I am Who I am. I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth. I have a house on earth with you, people of My word. Behold how much power My word has! It comes from above and it comes with the clouds and does great work on earth. It calls the man to God and it gives birth from above to the one who comes with faith to its power. Amen.

The birth from above gives My word to the man. This is how I gave you birth from Me, from My word, to have you as My house and to make a dwelling on the earth among people, well, well My people. The saints stay in great amazement face to face with My miracle between Me and you and they are nourished with My love at the table with you on the earth; they are nourished with Me and with you at My table with you and they fill their spirit with this love and stay in amazement, as they stay bound, that is, those who go to see and hear the people who tell them a great story, nicely prepared in order to bring many people into the light and to the food of their spirit, and they are seized within this condition all the time while it is worked under their eyes.

Oh, My people, My feast of today brings Me with the saints at My table with you, and I have John the Baptist who is celebrated among the saints on the day of his meeting with the Father Sabaoth and with all the saints up to him, and who, before him, finished their way to heaven and entered into the armies of saints, into those that are not seen of the country from above, the country of My saints, who worked hard for it on the earth.

The faithful man has to take much teaching from the faith of My saints. First, the faithful man has to be in awe when he takes as intercessor for him a saint who lived on earth in his body and whom he recognizes that he is alive in heaven and he is an intercessor between him and God then. If this living awe does not bind to the holy one the one who takes him as intercessor for heaven, then the connection between earth and heaven is not made with power, it does not cancel those that are seen, those that stop the man's way to God.

The man's speaking with God and with His saints is a great mystery. This meaning has to be well set into the man's mind. When the man goes into a big and famous city, he prepares within his spirit and body and then he travels with his thought to that city and to the thing he intends do there and with those people he is going to meet. More than that, man has to prepare when his spirit carries him to those in heaven, for the separation between the things on earth and those in heaven are those that are seen and they are even the man's body and the things of his body, the body which the man has to prepare for his journey to heaven then when his spirit or his need carries him there, for the body is that which carries the spirit and it is the dwelling of the mean's spirit and soul on earth.

Oh, well My people, it would be good for the man to leave much of his time on earth and serve for those that are from above of the heavenly homeland and of those who live in it by their citizenship. These were the time, the longing and the work of My saints, who were seeking with much longing to draw to the heavenly things those men who forgot about God and about heaven in their passing on the earth in their bodies. He who wants to have a great ministry and a praised dwelling and happiness with the Lord in eternity within those from heaven, that one learns much on earth, he prepares much and he takes many exams all the time for a good grade in heaven, and then he will have much wisdom and fruit gathered, and the reward in heaven is like that for the man on earth and he gathers much knowledge and great favor among people by his great stature, earned by teaching, by works and by big grades, and then many receive preparation from him and elevation to higher steps among people and over people and to their good ministry received with much labor on earth.

Oh, what big words have to spoken in the name of the greatest man who has ever been born of man on earth, that is about My godfather, the prophet John, the son of Zacharias and Elisabeth, My relative after the flesh! If I, the Lord Jesus Christ, took a body from My mother Virgin's, a close relative with John and with those who gave him birth then, then I am a relative with John too, a close relative, and among those in heaven We are likewise and We are threefold a relative in heaven.

Man does not take into consideration what he has to be and what he has to do on earth, and I tell everyone that John, the prophet and My baptizer, will stay face to face with every man who has been born of man on earth and has not given much thought about his heavenly responsibility, if he was born and if he was.

I speak with you in heaven as I spoke with you on earth too, oh, My baptizer, and the heaven is here with Us, where We speak and where We set the table of word on the earth. We teach men My submission and yours, for they do not know this great mystery and do not seek with it more than they seek. It is your day of feast among saints and We have to speak to the people on earth. We do not have to separate those people who believe or those who do not believe the working things from heaven on earth, as the word from heaven gives new birth to man, either to his eternal life with the Lord, or to his eternal condemnation, either man wants it or not, and this mysterious work is done by those in heaven according to how much man has gathered in his heart and mind on earth, either the heaven and the eternal things from it, or the earth and those that are fleeting on it. My word between you and Me is crowning your feast among the saints on this day and We are showing that We were the Father's confessor while We were travelers on earth to the Father, to His country for Us and for those who worked hard and work like Us at it on the earth. We are celebrated into the midst of the people of My word, and it is room and board for Us, and We are setting the table for it and for the saints, and this table of the heaven on earth is blessed, the table at which the saints serve those people who take from it and eat. Amen.

— Even with the beginning from eternity, Your mystery kept in the Father has been great, oh, Lord, oh, the only One Son of the Father Sabaoth! Who else was born on earth as man in order to stay only with You, only within You with his life on earth? Up to me and from me on, there has never been one like John, Your Baptizer, like me, the one who stayed in You and in Your mystery between heaven and earth, and in the Father all the time of my body, which carried me in its dwelling on earth.

Oh, what great work You gave me, Lord! My mystery with You and Yours with me was great on earth. My submission made it possible for this work of mine for You to be fulfilled into the midst of the people. You cry a lot, You cry much time face to face with me, with the saints, and You cry with the Father, Lord, for Your time of nowadays is so great, for You have come again on to the earth with Your work, and Your today's glory is great, for the word of Your descending is very much, and it has power in it as much as seven ages sealed by the Scriptures, and there is no more room in people now for You as it was in me when the Father had prepared me before my conception to be born among people and to bring my work to You, Lord, and my life in it too, for I went before You with my life and with my whole faith and I stood before Herod with the law of the heaven to sear the sin on the earth, that is Herod's sin, the king of Israel, who did not think of You and of those in heaven in his time as king, for this one had gone deeply into sinning and he did not want to stand on Your side with his life on earth. This great and shameful sin started with the first man, the one created by Your hand out of clay, oh, Lord, and the one to whom You gave a spirit and a living soul by Your breathing upon him; however, he did not choose to love Your submission, which You had taught him to have, and thus man came out of it and he did his own will.

The woman's eyes drive the man out of his mind, oh, Lord. Herod would have not separated me from my body by beheading me, but his will was weakened by a woman and by her eyes, which captivated him, either he wanted or not. There was once on earth a girl who loved Christ, and at one time, she looked at the king with her eyes, and the king was filled with longing after her and sent his servants to fetch her to him, for his thought was captivated by her look, and when she realized that she went wrong, she was afraid and said that if the king wanted her eyes, then she would send them to him; and after that she sent him that which he wanted from her, and therefore, she took out her eyes and sent them to the king, and then she remained on the side of the One Who dwelt in her heart, on Christ's side; she separated herself from her eyes but not from Christ, and by so doing, she mended her mistake she did against the king and then the king's mistake against her.

Oh, how much, and how carefully You taught this in Your time the sons and the daughters of the people of Your word, Lord! Man needs great preparation to be able to take after You then, and he also needs much watching upon him all the time. Lord, against sin much instruction is needed, for those who give themselves up to sinning can commit sin after sin afterwards against those who make clear the sin in them, urging them to repentance from their sin and to their salvation from this death. However, man hides from the one against he goes wrong, as Cain wanted to do after he went wrong against God. He who sins against those put on him by God or by people to do, that one hides because of those he did wrong, he hides from the one who hides because of his sin and he runs away from the one who hides and then treats him badly, for he has something to hide. Behold, the hidden man becomes harsh against the one he hides from and becomes a liar for him, and his bad conduct reveals the one who is hidden with his deeds, just as Adam was made known, and then Cain and Herod and all those who had something to hide before the justice of the things and deeds. However, Herod sinned openly and all Israel knew his sin, and someone had to come before him and sear his sin by the spirit of prophecy, by the spirit which sees those that passed, those that are and those that come as man's deeds, but the woman's eyes did not let Herod come out from the power of sin and to be saved from the punishment for it, and the king Herod went deeper in sinning, and more than that, he listened with submission to the immoral woman, who attracted him to her, and then the king gave me to be beheaded so that he might no longer hear reproof and uncovering of his sins.

The man's submission before God needs to have greater power, oh, Lord; it needs more power than the power of sin in him. These two powers, the power of sin and the power of holiness, which I have given today as example, these two speak by themselves. The sin in Herod and the holiness in the female martyr who was desired by the king to commit sin with her stand face to face, and I have been speaking on my day of feast about these two powers to be a lesson of life over those who want to learn from us, we, those who submitted perfectly to the Father for our coming on earth among people and for Your glory by this work then, oh, Lord. Two thousand years ago, I came out of the wilderness and I was Your baptizer at Jordan and I spoke to the world that You were the Lamb of the Father, and the Father heard my confession and added within a loud voice from above, with the voice of a thunder that You are His loved Son, with Whom He is well pleased. My submission was complete before You all my time on earth, oh, Lord, and my faith worked much for me and my heart was much and always in You, and my faith too, and I needed not many proofs to be able to do and to be submitted and to fulfill the Father's will and work in that time. This is how You worked and this is how You submitted, oh, Lord. You submitted perfectly before the Father and before the man likewise, and You long to see that the one who comes to You understands what he has to work and to show great submission by the help of his faith; submission is gentle, it is affectionate, it is wise by its work and it brings the man into submission before the Lord and it teaches him to stay in the light, for he who listens does no longer have anything to hide, and he becomes known by submission and by great thankfulness in the Lord all the time, as I was in my heart all my time on earth.

I want very much that Your people of today may grow in the spirit and in the work of submission and to learn this from us in a great measure, oh, Lord. Our proclamation from today has been wanted and tasted by all those in heaven. Your coming in word to Your people here has been a great joy for those in heaven. Let my word work its fulfillment in it, like Your word too, so that You may have faith and submission with love before You in the sons of Your word of today, in those born from above at Your word, whom they met for their birth from above and for Your dwelling in them then on earth among people, Lord. I, John, Your baptizer, am confessing now from heaven on earth the Word of the Father Sabaoth, through Which the people can be baptized with the baptism of the Holy Spirit to their faith, to their repentance and to their life with God on the earth then. Amen.

— I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am confessing you and testifying that you were My baptizer two thousand years ago at Jordan, and I am blessing your word and its building power upon people on your day of feast among saints. John, you are My Baptizer and I am your Lord and Teacher. Amen.

Let My word and the word of My saints build you, oh, men's sons, for there is no one to breathe upon you but only I and My saints to your refreshment to heaven. I come down on to earth as word and I come with it upon you so that you may hear My voice and to startle and come near to Me, the Lord, and I to come near to you, and let us turn to each other, for we are separated. The sin in you separates you from God and it separates Me from you always, oh, men's sons. Listen to My voice, which calls you to the heavenly homeland, and give it power upon you, so that you may be healed from sin and from its reward after that. I, the Lord, have mercy on you. Sighing, I call you and I wait for you to your resurrection. I come with the saints on earth and I speak the word of resurrection upon you. Hear My voice; you are to hear it! I dwell into the midst of the Romanian people with the word of My coming and first I want to raise this nation to life and then to make it a piece of work over many who will get up from sin.

Peace to you, people of My word! I have sat at a table with you and I have put on it food for the sons of men, who meet My word upon you. Learn the lesson of submission before Me, well My people. Submit before the Lord, as I and John also were submitted before the Father, for I am a Teacher by the example of My life, and the saints are submitted to Me too, because they love Me and follow Me in submission.

Peace to you, peace to those that taught by God, because much will be asked from you! Peace to you, New Jerusalem! Let My tent upon you be stretched and let it find its boundaries preached through the Scriptures and by the prophets!

Peace to you, sons, for I call you sons, and you should work for this name the work of the sons of God, My work with you, oh, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother

I am the Alpha and the Omega; I am Who I am. I am the Son of God, the Father Sabaoth and I am His word over the earth, for it is written for Me to come, both for those who are righteous and for those who are not righteous, who go wrong day and night, and I want to speak against their trespasses, and I also have to comfort those who are righteous in their hearts and to save them from oppression, for it is written: «Those who put their hope in the Lord will not go wrong».

I am bringing word of holy feast on earth on this day. My mother Virgin is standing on My right side and the heavenly powers are bowing before Us as a sign of honor for the Son of God and for My mother Virgin, she who gave birth to Him among the people on earth. Two thousand years ago, the Father Sabaoth prepared a virginal womb for Me, in which I was to be seeded by the work of the Holy Spirit and then I was to be born a Child and to grow up to the age of the grown-up man and then to pay for the man's life, because man fell from God and since then he has no longer been able to regain his life, and therefore, the Father sent Me after man and told Me to give Myself over to be crucified for the redemption of the man's life, and I listened to the Father, for the true son listens and submits and overcomes for the one who listens and then he becomes a victor.

The Father had prepared then the birth from the one who was to receive Me from the Holy Spirit in her virginal womb and to give Me birth among people on earth, and the Father worked with miracles and prepared her way to be born among people and then she was to prepare My way to come, for it had been written for Me to come.

Behold a day of holy feast, oh, My Virgin mother; behold your day of birth among people on earth, and it is a day of feast in heaven and on earth for you, mother! Oh, what a sweet and holy mystery was your birth! All the prophets before you had looked at this day, which had been prophesied by them in time that it would come and that you would be and would become the way of My coming on earth, mother. All the righteous people had been waiting in heaven for this feast then, the day of your coming on earth, a birth with a miracle, for your parents were barren and were crying. My grandparents were asking God for an offspring, and the Father wiped their tear at their prayer and He gave you to them as a baby, and then the Father made you to be My mother, He made you to be My Virgin mother, and you brought the Son of the Father Sabaoth on earth among people, mother, and the mystery, hidden in ages and not even by angels understood, at that time was brought into view, for I, the Lord, became your Son, the Son of the Virgin preached by the prophets that he would be and that she would bear God's son in her womb.

We set the word and a table of feast into the midst of the people of My today's word, and let the Romanian people bow and take from the table and find the Lord's speaking, for the Lord is on its hearth as word over the earth now, in the end of the time, and He calls this nation to salvation and to wisdom from above, for the Father Sabaoth chose it two thousand years ago to be My path over the nations and to be a house of My coming; furthermore, it also has to house My coming as word from the Father to man in its homeland, for I have to prepare the day of judgment, and it is much to be done for it, and I have been preparing the Romanian people to work this day from its midst over the earth.

Oh, Romanian people, you bear My name, the name of Jesus Christ on your head even from your first beginning, that from the time of My beginning with you two thousand years ago, and you are the first born then from Christ among the nations, oh, My today's country, for My first disciple, My first apostle, Andrew, put on your body your little shirt of baptism and he called you with My name; he called you a Christian country, for the Christian name comes from the name of Christ. I have worked hard, I and you after that, for this great name to be kept for you, for you were the first one born from the waters of the creation of the world and you have carried on your heart the mystery of the man's creation, and in this time, when the anti-christ and its subjects want to write victory upon the Son of God, the man's Creator, I have been working even more to keep you within your glory with Me now, in the end of the time, oh, My today's country. The Father has given you to be Mine and that I may have you as Mine to replace the people of Israel[191], who cut Me from its midst and crucified Me when I came to it; and I wanted to turn its heart to the parents, but it did not want this, and the Father gave you to Me then to be the country of My return after two thousand years, for it is written into the Scripture that one thousand years will pass and still one thousand more and then I will come and prevail against the old serpent, satan, who deceived the man in paradise and made him disobey Me, while the man was put by Me in paradise in order to listen to God and to do His will with steadfastness and not to forget this; however, whenever the love of God becomes small in man, satan's power grows against him, the evil power, and then the Lord has much work for man in order to save him from this death, from his separation from God, for man dies as many times as he gives the Lord away from him so that he may do his own will.

I call you and I wait for you with your love between you and Me, oh Romanian people, but seek after the wisdom from above with your heart now, for it is the book of God's commandments, and from which the law flows, the law which lasts forever, and without it no one receives life, and those who forsake it receive death in return, as it is written. However, you come back to wisdom, oh, Romanian people, and do not give your glory from God to another people, for the use of wisdom brings God's revelation and His love for sons then.

I suffer when I see the heart of pagan in many of your sons, Romanian people. This provokes the Lord to let the enemy come and this is what happens when a nation forgets about God and despises the One Who gave it life. The people is forsaken by the Spirit from the Romanian people because of its sins, because it has swerved from the Lord and violated His commandments and it has not walked in the way of the right order. I have allowed, therefore, misfortune to come, but He Who has directed it to you can also save you from the hand of your enemy brothers among you, only for you to dare and call Me in order to save you from this oppression and to have mercy upon you as soon as possible, as look, now you are enduring with patience those that have been arisen[192] among you because of your denial of God, but I, the Lord, want to remember you if you call Me; and because your spirit has inclined to wandering away from God, you should seek after Me ten times more with a mourning heart, for He Who has given you such a great name brings your salvation, and those who are full of unclean spirits among you will grow weak; however, you should take on the garment of righteousness, oh, Romanian sons, so that the Lord may present you within his brightness before the nations under the heaven, for it is written that all the high mountains will bow before the nation led by God with His just mercy.

I give you salvation from those who are not righteous[193] into your midst, oh, Romanian people. Ask Me to remove them and to give way to the helm for those with a humble heart, and let those who believe that only they are and will rule upon you, let them fall down from their strongholds and let the uncleanness of their hearts be shown now. I, the Lord, come with great salvation into your midst, but call Me, Romanian people, for I have My mercy for you into My arms only for you to wait for Me, to open to Me and have Me as your God, for I, the Lord, bring great salvation to those who have Me as their God and their salvation. Amen.

Oh, mother Virgin, My pain and its tear for the Romanian people have become My zeal of today, for the Father has given Me this homeland when We were born on the earth two thousand years ago, mother, and it will be for us to have great victory from the mist of this nation, in which I have set My table of word now. You are mother. Your sigh is like Mine for the sons of this nation, out of which the Father has raised a people for Me now to be able to come, and that he may wait for Me when I come, to gather My word and share it, mother. Raise your voice to the sons of the [192] Reference to the economic crisis to which the severe draught was added that have led to the rise of the cost of life, r.n.

[193] It is about Ponta and Antonescu, the representatives of SLU (Social Liberal Union), who have overthrown two gouvernments so that they may come to power and then they suspended the president of the country too in order to discharge him by referendum, leading to political instability, economical uncertainties, the growth of Euro currency in relation to national currency and therefore to the rise of life, r.n.;

Romanian people, for the war of those who have violated the entire justice[194] is great, only that they may be able to rule, oh, mother. From now on, I want that these enemies of the nation let themselves be overcome, mother. I cannot help from suffering when I look at their iniquities, which stand into the way of My glory with this nation, and to which soon, soon, the nations will bow, but the cross of this nation presses very hard upon it. "Oh, when will you comfort us, Lord?" This is the cry of the hearts of many who have been waiting into this nation for the salvation from Me, mother. Let us help them, let us work much for them, oh, mother. Come down with the voice of mother upon this nation now, on a day of holy feast, oh, mother. Amen.

— Their help from the Lord, the One Who has made the heaven and the earth, this salvation is coming to them, oh, Emmanuel Son, my Child Jesus Christ. Let their hope be steadfast, for we have the heavenly powers at great work for this salvation. Whenever the rebellious sons of this nation strengthen their oppression upon their brothers, the heavenly powers are divided within their work and bring salvation from all those that lie in ambush to rise in turn and to strengthen the lawlessness against the justice of everything. Oh, there is no longer much time. There will perish the whole enemy power, which all the Romanian sons have left it to come, those who have not watched for Your dwelling into their midst with Your victory from above, oh, merciful Lord for them.

I strengthen your faith in my Son Jesus Christ. Be full of faith, Romanian sons. He has not left to wait those who have waited for His salvation. The fog on the side of those lying into the midst of this nation is thick. The Lord will scatter it; He will make it thin little by little and after its scattering, there will appear all those, who, from its thickness have added fuel to the fire so that the pot of their lawlessness might boil, everything directed against this nation, the nation of my Son Jesus Christ in the end of the time, for the Father Sabaoth has given it to us for the end of the time for the Lord to come and to be glorified in the word on His hearth, and to bring light to the nations, as it is written by the word which will flow out of His mouth to the wisdom of the nations and languages on the earth.

The enmity of the hearts of those who have come now at the helm of the Romanian people is big, and the feud has appeared unexpectedly and caused great pain. These have stood up with war and worked during the night; they have laid hold on the seats of governance and they are very hypocrite by the work of their lie, by which they are nourished, but the heavenly powers follow them and work once with them and ruin their hidden plans, for the Lord is at war with them for the salvation of those who wait for Him with it.

You, those who have risen up to mock of the peace and the light from the middle of the Romanian people, stop sons, from the work of your transgressions and take the side of those who are righteous in their heart, in their judgment and in their wisdom, for it will be too difficult for you to stand face to face with the Lord's justice, when it will stand face to face with you on its day of glory. Oh, if you are not able to love, at least be good; stop from committing evil more than you have done it by this time! May the work of your anger come to end, for you have worked with anger and lie and you have overthrown the good watchmen from the helm of this people. The Lord has been looking at you; all the saints have been looking at your tongue full of deceit and injustice, and with it you incur on you the big lie, which will come unexpectedly upon you. I am a mother and I have mercy on you. I protect like a mother the Romanian people and its hearth. I exhort you to peace, I urge to the fear of the Lord and to the work of the justice of everything, but especially I exhort you to great repentance, so that it may help you to escape the punishment which you have incurred on you by everything that you have caused: pain, sigh, bewilderment upon the Romanian people and so on. Let it go out the fire of pride in which your minds burn pressing you to the hatred among brothers! You have brought about great division among the Romanian brothers. Oh, why have you done this? Whom do you really serve, by the spirit of lie and hatred among brothers? Oh, it is not beautiful to take the side of lawlessness, which has worn you down very much, for the transgression cannot bring anything good by its work, but rather it brings only snare and stumbling and it catches under it those that work it. I bow before my Son Jesus Christ for you and I am speaking to Him like this:

[194] They have abusively modified laws by Governmental Ordinance to their favor and abusively they have changed the presidents of the two chambers of parliament; they dismissed the people's advocate so that their laws at the Constitutional Court may no longer be attacked, and they did some other actions like these, which have led to the lack of credibility of the constitutional state, r.n.

Wake up, Lord, raise Your hand and do not forget Your loved ones to the end, for they wait for You to save them from the work of those who are rebellious among them! Lord, set a limit to the rebellion and to the steps of those who work it, and make them feel remorse and have a spirit of repentance, and then give them, Lord, the fear of God, for without it they perish little by little and they do not know what they do, poor of them. I gave You birth in my virginal womb and I gave You to be the God of the Romanian people then when You came and when the Israel people denied You, the one to which You came from the Father. I have stayed as a great protector over this nation since then and up to this day, and I have loved it for You, dear Son, I have loved it much and I have closely watched over its borders and Your mystery with it into its midst, for behold, You have the people of Your word into its midst and You keep it with its little hands raised up to the Father, as we also stay near it and always bring this nation to the Father with living prayer for its destiny from God during this time.

Oh, loved people, stay with longing and with your heart filled with the Lord before Him for you and for the Romanian people, and the Lord will give you great love, like His love, for the Romanian people has to come to life in the mystery of the glory which is to be upon it with my Son, Jesus Christ, the victor against satan, the old serpent, which has separated man from God. However, may your watch be for the Lord's coming on the earth, oh, little and watching people before Him, and the Lord will always come and will shepherd the Romanian people with an iron rod, with the word from above, and His teaching will flow over the people, as it is written about the mount of God's wisdom on the earth, of which the nations of the earth will take and seek to the Lord to the end of the time. Amen.

Peace to you, oh, Romanian people! Appreciate the Lord's gift into your midst! Be careful to his word upon you and take it from those who share God from your midst, for He accomplishes His every spoken word, from the beginning and up to this day and then on to all the ages. The Lord is coming to you as word, oh, Romanian people. Stand up to meet Him and come to His love and to His likeness in your love, for God is love, and only He is love. Amen.

— I am the Alpha and the Omega, oh, mother Virgin. I am the One Who spoke the word of the Father in the beginning, and I am His word from the end and His Son too; moreover, I am the One born of your virginal womb, mother. You are My mother Virgin. Oh, what a beautiful name of a mother you have, mother Virgin! Only you were and are so, only you, oh, My mother Virgin, and only I am the Son of the Father and your Son! May all the sons of men be born of this love, mother! It is a feast of your birth in heaven and on earth on this day. You came among people two thousand years ago and then you were My mother; you were a virgin mother, and you gave birth to God on earth. Our mystery is praised between earth and heaven, and blessed are those who believe in it, mother, and there is no other happiness beside this one, oh, mother. Let those who want happiness humble and be with Us and like Us, mother. It belongs to all those who believe in it, of those who are with it, mother. Amen.

I am blessing the work of the mystery of the people of My word, sons through whom I, the Lord, can be now on earth with the people. Everything you work, everything you begin to work, I, the Lord, bring and bless. I work mysteriously by many works and We work in a heavenly way, sons. Be from heaven, well sons, for My works with you on earth are from heaven. Listen to My Spirit among you, sons. He watches from the midst and you should listen and receive from Him with faith, for He sees, proclaims and fulfills from God with you.

I will speak with you and I will strengthen My mystery upon you, always to take great care of the uniform that you have to wear before Me, sons. However, first you all have to seek to have the same form, the same steadfastness, for I have beautifully clothed you when you have come to take My image upon you, My sign upon you. Therefore, take after each other before Me, sons, so that you may not lose your uniform that you have to wear before the Lord. It keeps you in the unity of the spirit, in the unity of the body and of the soul among brothers, and it brings you to resemblance with each other, well sons. Be good, be clean, be beautiful, be gentle, be merciful and be very much obedient, and more be all of the same likeness within all these, well sons, and keep the uniform over you without changing it and without an end, like My covenant between Me and you, forever one, and work for Me through it, well, well sons.

Oh, sons, sons, watch upon you before Me; watch to distinguish yourselves from among the sons of men and know that you are Mine and that I may also know you as Mine. May the sons of men distinguish you from them after your appearance inside of you and outside of you, and then I, the Lord, may have you as Mine according to this appearance, for I have cried very much before the Father to let Me have a people so that I may cry into its midst with My tear after man; moreover, let My tear become word over the earth, and let the man's mercy for Me catch him and come back from him to My love for him, for seven thousand years ago, I lost the man from paradise, and now I have to set the man again back into paradise, and he has to obey Me and by his obedience to be able to live in paradise and thus to heal My wound, which he did to Me at the beginning in paradise, for I have cried after man and I have been crying after him as in the beginning; I have been crying very much after him and My crying is sweet and it hurts Me, and I want that man may wipe out My tear; and then I also want that My love from paradise to remain between Me and man on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

I am the Good Shepherd, the Shepherd with the cross, and I have got a great name and My name is the only One Born of the Father Sabaoth, the true God of true God, and I walk within His light and I am light from the light and with it I give light to the world and I am the light of the world as long as I am in the world, and otherwise the world walks in the darkness, it walks to and fro without God and it does not know where it goes for it does not always have any shepherd upon it to tell it how and where it has to go.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, for this is how My Father has called Me through the angels and there is no other name on earth and in heaven greater than My name. By submission to the Father I have received a great name, and by its deed I remain with the name of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, called of one being with the Father.

Peace to you, people of My word! I sit with you at the table of word on this day of the feast of the cross. The word cross is a great word and the name of this word has life in it. Not even man knows when he says: "Help me, holy cross!" No man knows when he says so, after he has learned from the parents to say this. I am sitting with you at the table of teaching, My people, so that those who seek with you after My teaching, that which is coming from above on the earth for those who want to learn from God, for the teaching which is on earth does not lead man to God and to eternal life with Him.

I have told you to take care of the uniform, which you have to wear, sons. On this day I want to go on and perfect this mystery more, and you should be perfected through it and you should make it more and more wholly upon you too. My image, which you have to bear, is My sign upon you. This is how I made it clear to you when I put on the table the teaching for the wearing of the uniform, by which I clothed each one of you when you came to give yourselves to Me and to be Mine after that and when I taught you how to get dressed.

Oh, it is hard for man to be Mine, for he needs a cross to take after Me if he wants to be Mine, and he needs a uniform, which does not need to be altered, and it needs to be worn endlessly, and sons of men should see this light among them and walk after it, after the one who listens to God on earth among people, and when man changes his uniform he also changes his obedience and it does no longer belong to God the one who loses the sign which proves him that he belongs to God on earth.

The uniform is the cross that is carried, well sons. Man puts the cross on his neck to have and to carry the sign of the Christian, but he has no idea how to carry the cross. I come and I clarify this meaning, as in order for the man to take this cross, he has to receive it upon him.

There is much sufferance for man to carry a cross, and this is his pain because he does not like obedience; he does not like to listen to God and to the one who is from God, and rather man hides for his will, because in order to do his will, man has to hide. When I wanted to ask Adam in paradise why he hid from Me, he got upset because I asked him and because I revealed his hidden conduct, and then he talked back to Me and got upset with Me, and he who hides from Me gets upset with Me and threatens Me by his behavior and by his word if I want to reveal him, and that one can no longer be Mine and he leaves and hides in order to leave and he seeks to go away somehow, for neither the love and nor the fear of God remains in the one who hides because of his will, because, if at least his fear remained, he would not leave, but he would humble himself instead, and here it is why man does no longer have any wisdom in order that he may not commit sin so that separation from God may come upon him!

Man has no fear of God, because he does not like to be with God and he likes to be with his hiding for his will. Then man denies his cross, rejects his uniform, rejects his will for God, he does no longer like to have a cross, and he does not like to be with Me and, therefore, he becomes God's opponent, because the cross means steadfastness and obedience to God in submission and it is the sign[195] that one belongs to God, but whoever is ashamed to obey and to humble, that one is also ashamed with a cross and he does not remain under this sing, under the sign of the one who is submitted under the work of submission before God for the carrying of the cross.

It is known the man who carries a cross as well as the one who does not have love to follow the Lord for the carrying of the cross. As without a shirt one cannot stay in such a way that the nakedness of his body may not be seen, in the same way man cannot belong to God without carrying his cross, without having this uniform, the obedience in submission for it, as I required of the man in paradise to wear between him and God for the Lord's will in him and with him. He who is dissatisfied is displeased because he does not understand the mystery of the carrying of the cross. The one who is not satisfied needs love and he suffers for love, as if he deserves it. He does not know to give love without wanting to receive back love and honor.

The one who is dissatisfied cannot be called a cross carrier and cannot build a way to God and to his rest with God. How can he say: "Holy cross, help me!"? How can the one, who is discontent, say that? He cannot tell discontentment to help him, since discontentment is that that throws him down. Oh, the life that you live can help you, man. You should have it as your help, man, and then you should also ask it to help you to God. Your life is the cross, which can carry you and help you, but if you are not a cross carrier and you are always gloomy in trials and you are discontent, then which cross do you ask to help you anymore, because you are not a cross carrier?

Oh, sons of My word that grows you up in order to be Mine, behold, the sons of men get ready and they are more and more painted, more adorned, more perfumed, more good-looking to draw the eyes of those around and to have great success, as they say; however you, sons, you should also get ready more and more, and you should want even more to have your adornment with God, to draw to Me all those who look at you and see Me in you and with you, so that I may have great success through you before them and so that they may take Me as their love, as their life, so that they may take Me as their guide, of their light from haven on the way with them; they should also take Me as the cross they carry and not the cross from the people for them, but they should take from only the Lord and carry.

Take care of the guard of your life, sons, as God's sons have to take care to observe the day of the Lord's rest with them. Oh, you should not sleep on My day of rest, but you should live it with sobriety for its power for you. Be like those who stand watch at the border, for this day is a border, and it is a day of watch for the man's life, for in paradise man did not stand watch as I had taught him to do and he did not rest in the Lord, but rather he got up for the evil spirit and thus man did no longer remain within My work.

The carrying of the cross means the keeping of the commandments for life, but when those who are haughty get sick because of their disobedience and insubordination, then they can hardly be healed when they have this yeast in their blood, from which they have their conduct. People talk back, they take revenge against each other by their words, they prosecute each other, they are revengeful and know nothing of the mystery of the cross carrying, even if they put on a cross at their neck and rely on it or when they are proud with this sign either. It is different the sign of the cross carried on those who know what the cross and the help from it means.

Oh, people do not know that the trials and the sufferance that come upon them are even their help on their way to the Lord. Few are on earth among those who know to say in their hard life according to the truth: "Holy cross, help me!" Oh, who else can help man to God if not even the troubles that come upon him?

The salvation to man does not come on any other way, but only through troubles and patience for them, as it is written in the prophets: «Ask now, and see whether a man give birth to child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness. Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it… but in time of trouble he shall be saved out of it?» (See Jer: 30/6, 7) In addition, it is written again: «Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Pay your vows to the Most High. Call on Me in the day of trouble. I will deliver you, and you will honor Me». (Ps: 50/14, 15)[196] However, God has not spoken to the sinful man in the same way. To the wicked God says: «What right do you have to declare My statues, that you have taken My covenant on your lips. Seeing you hate instruction and throw My words behind you? When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers. You give your mouth to evil. You harness your tongue for deceit. You sit and speak against your brother. You slander your own mother's son. You have done these things, and I kept silent. You thought that the "I Am" was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes. 'Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver». (Ps: 50/16-22)

On a day of holy feast dedicated to My carried cross, I, the Lord, have put on the table dear teaching for those who know from Me how man can come after Me and be My follower. His ornament has to be his life lived according to My commandments after My will according to the model of My life on earth, for the cross is life, and it can pass you over to the Lord.

Let your conduct before Me and your conduct among brothers be sweet, My people. Oh, do not get easily angry, son, and do not be discontent; you should neither be harsh nor lose your patience, or lose the gift of the fear of God for the steps of your life, for without it man loses his wisdom which he has got from God. Let Me be your wisdom, not you, for you are a son taught by God, oh, My people. Take from My spring of word, take My word from those who have God and put it on you in its whole accomplishment so that you may be called a cross carrier and to be like that, for the sons of men have remained only with the cross from their neck and they do not know what kind of question I will ask them for the carrying of the cross or for the lack of its carrying, for their life before Me, good or evil, true or false, lighted or not by My light, which comes on earth to be with the people so that they may walk in the light.

Let not marvel those who think that they are God's people more than you are, sons of My word that builds you. Oh, let these not marvel at the fact that I am with you into the world as word from above upon you, the word that is carried by the clouds and by the voice of the word upon you.

Oh, you should not wonder, those who wonder of My coming as word on the earth, for I want to be light on the earth, because I said: «While I am in the world, I am the light of the world». (John 9:5) Moreover, I am telling you too: if I have come into the world to be the light of the world, then you too should walk in the light, for behold, the light of My word works into the midst of the darkness on the earth. You should also humble and follow Me, according to My guiding word, so that you may be called cross carriers, for otherwise I cannot be with My sign upon you. He who is with Me and walks after Me is known after his life; he is known after his life, after his works and after his fruit brought to God, and not after the cross he has got in his hand or after the one that he has got on his neck. Behold, its sign has got power but you do not have. Walk in the light so that you may have light and power to raise the dead to life, as I and My disciples did, for if you only burry those that die, than you are not Mine, you do not take after Me and after My holy work and full of resurrection upon man.

Oh, people of My word, you should take and share this exhortation for the carrying of the cross, which brings forth fruit, for I have to come with My light in the world among the sons of men, and you should make a way for Me. The way in which man walks, in the same way I also walk with My word, (On the internet way, r.n.) as I have to follow the man, and he has to hear Me when I speak to him and when I want to help him for his salvation.

[196] 50 MT = 49 LXX

Put on you the exhortation of My word, sons, day by day, and make a woven garment on you out of My word upon you, and you should be My today's book. Let those who do not read My book of today with you but see you, let them understand the word of My word with you, sons, the carried cross, your uniform from Me before those in heaven and before the sons of men, so that they may see this light, the garment of those who love Me on earth, their adornment from heaven upon them, carried by them at sight, and he who will see you, who will receive you and will wash in this river of word and life by the word, that one will be saved and he will be Mine, he will be My son, like you, oh sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Covering[197] of the Lord's Mother

Within a spirit of comfort I am covering the place of the coming of My word during these days and I am refreshing and waking up to work My holy people that stays before Me, that stays under My exhortation, under My making in My gardens with him, the gardens of the glory, for I need to have someone to speak with on the earth as I have made My way to come. I am coming on earth as word of creation, of new birth of the world and I work for the renewal of all things, as it is written for the end of the time between the Father and Me: «We make them all new!». Amen.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, and I am the Comforter of those who believe in Me, and they have Me as their God and they ask from Me what their way with God needs. I am with My Mother Virgin on a day of feast for her and We sit down as word for those who know Our descent, and then We give Ourselves to those who wait for Us from the earth by this spring of word. The faith of prayer, this power makes miracles and great signs on earth by those who believe in this way. The faith of calling out to God, the One Who can give to those who ask from Him, this power has to be learned from God not from man, for man hopes only in those for the things below when he asks the Lord for him. However, faith gives man those he has been asking from the Lord, but this faith has to be cultivated so that it may have fruit for heaven too, and not only for those that are asked for the earth.

Suffering people go and travel a long way and they make many steps to the place where they go to intercede with a prayer to an icon, to a priest, famous by this gifts, and they humble if they go, and their humility strengthens the spirit of prayer, the faith of their prayer and the faith in the one who makes prayers for them, and their faith accomplishes their prayer. However, if they were closer to the place where they travel with a burning soul in them, the fire in their heart will die away, the longing and their travelling step would no longer burn with faith.

Many travel to places sanctified by the saints, to places of prayer to ask from God help for their needs on earth, and few of them have love for God with the fulfilling of their life pleasant to the Lord. I, the Lord, humble for each one of them and I give them according to their faith, [197] The feast day celebrates the appearance of the Mother of God at Blachernae (Vlaherna) in the tenth century. At the end of St. Andrei (Andrew of Constantinople) Yurodivyi's life, he, with his disciple St. Epiphanius, and a group of people, saw the Mother of God, St. John the Baptist, and several other saints and angels during a vigil in the Church of Blachernae, nearby the city gates. The Blachernae Palace church was where several of her relics were kept. The relics were her robe, veil, and part of her belt that had been transferred from Palestine during the fifth century.

The Theotokos approached the center of the church, knelt down and remained in prayer for a long time. Her face was drowned in tears. Then she took her veil (cerement) off and spread it over the people as a sign of protection. During the time, the people in the city were threatened by a barbarian invasion. After the appearance of the Mother of God, the danger was averted and the city was spared from bloodshed and suffering, r.n.

according to their humility in which the trouble of their works from their life brings them, for the man's works incur upon him troubles of all kinds. Man learns more in his old age when it comes the pain for the works, which brought about his suffering, and if he were young once more, he would no longer do the evil things of his youth, because he would have wisdom. However, he has to learn the faith of prayer, for the sufferance teaches man, as sufferance always taught the king David and he often spoke to the Lord: «Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions,… even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me!» (See Ps: 25/7 and Ps: 71/18) Oh, this is how the one who passed through life and sin was praying, and he was praying with sufferance, and the prayer full of the humility that comes from sufferance touches the Lord and He humbles and He bow to the one who suffers and puts the comfort of prayer upon him and then it brings him comfort.

I teach you, obedient sons to God, sons of My word of today, because I want many to take My teaching from you and they have to find it first in order to take it. The prayer has to be lived, well sons, and faith is needed for its fulfillment. My sweetest joy is to see the one who prays that knows how to bring My joy with his prayer, with its kind, with its dough, for many humble Me too much so that I may do according to their pleasure and to give them what is not useful for their soul, but only to their life on the earth. Man needs prayer for the forgiveness of all his sins with which he afflicted Me and put Me on the cross, as it was for all the men's sins by that time and after that that I was put on the cross then. I was put on the cross because of sin, but how many are terrified for their sin for which I, the Lord, was pierced, for which I was mocked and given to death on the cross and to scornful torment from those who fulfilled this Scripture at that time?

Oh, sons, the prayer has to be lived, and those who come together for prayer truly have to pray. If the prayer is lived, then its outward expression will be seen that is accomplished by its fulfillment, but before any kind of prayer man has to pray much and always for the forgiveness of his sins.

Oh, if the voice of the prayer does not keep alive and awaken those who hear the word of prayer, then the one who prays does not pay any attention to those around him gathered for prayer. Oh, otherwise would go up into heaven and come back the fulfillment of the prayer lived by those who say it from the book. The way the prayer is prayed brings its fulfillment or not. The servant who does not take all the care so that the prayer he says may be perseverant and then lived by all, then that one does not take care of God in the time of his prayer and neither does he pay any attention to those who come before the Lord by his intercession. The prayer lived to God moves the heart, the tear and the thrill of the meeting with the Lord of those who pray, for otherwise it is barren and it has fruit likewise, a barren fruit, that is a heart in which prayer has not lived. Oh, if the time of the prayer does not bring revelations from above for the soul and for the fellowship with the saints and with the things that are not seen, that it has not passed yet the border to the place it has been seeking, and the time of the prayer is not redeemed, it does not remain forever and it does not take the man into eternity.

Oh, if man lived the prayer for his soul, he would be otherwise. He who is in prison goes to bed in sorrow, both when he falls asleep and when he gets up from his sleep, and he sees himself always closed and he sees that he is not free and that he is far from his own people on the earth, and he waits with pain for the day to come when he may be freed and he always hopes with yearning. Oh, this is how man is supposed to be too, and man should always suffer from his sins that keep him in bondage under them, for sin is the true prison of man, the deceiving bondage of his life, of his walking to his home.

Sin is the man's departure from his Father, from his Savior, Who knows that the devil keeps the man locked under sin. It would be that whenever man goes to bed and gets up he suffers and he knows that his sin, in which he was and is, is upon his life. Man should pray mostly for his sin with much sorrow, for man is sinful and his sin brings forth its fruit, and only after that man goes to places sanctified by the saints to ask for help and intercession from the Lord and from the saints for the troubles that come from his sin.

Oh, man wants to escape from his prison; however, he does not want very much to get rid of his sin too. He gets comforted with the sin, poor of him. It would be to get comforted with the pain from his sin, for the Lord is just with man, but man has got used to the justice for all things, and he runs to places of prayer, to famous icons for miracle performance and he seeks help over his weaknesses and he humbles, asks and receives, because I, the Lord, humble greatly according to the humility in which man is brought by his troubles.

I have mercy on man. He expects much mercy from Me and he bows and asks Me to give him. It is for this that he needs Me. What shall I do to man if he has not learned to do and to be able to do otherwise? Who shall teach him to have mercy on Me too, and to give Me what I ask from him? I ask from him the love of God, I ask from man his own good, his dwelling with God and the Lord's dwelling with him, in his body and in a place sanctified by him, but he does not know how to fulfill this. However, those, who come and give themselves to Me as help, know, and they do not have to become accustomed to the Lord, but they have to work for Him, waiting for Him to come, always waiting for Him, and they have to love Him so, waiting for Him, because if they do not love Him, they do not work for Him and do not wait for Him. Oh, who is the one who does nothing when he knows that someone big has to come to him?

Oh, people of My today's word, oh, sons, this is how you should also be, this is how you should also work when you know that I always come to you and that I am your Master, and this is how you should wait for Me, working for Me. Oh, this is how you are supposed to work if you have humbled to be Mine, near Me and with Me at My hard work today for the renewal of all things. The beautiful and the clean, which you work before Me over everything with you, these sanctify everything, these prepare My place and My dwelling with man on earth, and behold, those who run after holy places do not know this. Oh, not places sanctify people but rather holy people sanctify holy places, keeping them like that and keeping themselves holy for them, so that the Lord may be with the people on earth, for I can dwell only in places, cleaned, sanctified and kept pure and holy, only there can I live, and I can work with those who clean and sanctify themselves and watch like that and keep like that the places they sanctify for the Lord. Oh, who else knows to understand so the power of the holy places? Who else is on the earth that waits for the Lord to come like that?

Oh, mother Virgin, My dear mother, this day is your day of memorial. I have set on the table of My people the teaching for the faith of the prayer, mother. You stand surety to God for those who glorify Me with longing and with praise as high as heaven, mother. Oh, this is how you appeared at that time, on this day in the air of the church of Vlaherna, when a big group of Christians were praising the Lord on a Sunday day and they were watching before the heaven for their life with God, and you were in the sky of the church above them with surrounded glory and you stretched your omophorion upon them, and he who saw you there in the sky, madly in love with God and with his saints, woke up his disciple for this revelation and asked him: "Do you really see the Queen, the Lord's Mother, standing in glory and covering under her omophorion the people gathered together?" "I see, oh, father I see, and fear catches me because of this spectacle here now." This is how the faithful disciples answered his father, wonderful in love and in prayer.

We are celebrating now that day lived by many from Vlaherna, and I give you as word of wisdom over those who love the Lord, mother. The faithful one needs teaching from heaven, as those at that time needed your praised appearance all that night, mother. Oh, I wish they knew as well, those who praise Us with prayer and songs, I wish they also knew to give Us their comfort that can comfort Us too, oh, mother!

— For the man who has not been taught by You from heaven on earth is difficult to learn Your love, Lord and my dear Son. Oh, the heaven of the saints is only tear for the love on the earth to those in heaven.

No one keeps the places clean for You and for the saints anymore, Lord. Everything belongs to men that are everywhere. The servants in the places of sacrifice do not have a holy living, and those, who go to those places for worship, do not know this pain of the heaven from those who sit and rule over the sanctified places, without them being sanctified for them and to stay holy upon them. Oh, we do no longer have sanctified places for us, dear Son. We humble much because man asks from us for him everywhere, and he does no longer ask from us to be with him.

I stood in the air in the church of Vlaherna then and appeared as a celestial sign over those who assembled to praising of glory, and then I stretched my omophorion upon them as thanks for the glory brought to us on a day of Sunday, a day of their assembly into Your name, but people do not sanctify themselves for You, oh, Lord. Since then this day of celebration has been staying written in church and it has been remembered by the worshippers; however, if they praised the Lord with their works too, then their love would be whole and the speech of their exaltation and the sacrifice of their heart would be true as well.

The devil has set a widely opened trap everywhere people can fall into the sin of self-centered opinion in such a way that the gifts from God may not be able to come down on them, as he who saw me had gifts and revelations through these gifts, the one who saw me in the air of the church and confessed it to his disciple and thus he opened his eyes to see the celestial appearance. Man rejoices when he is well spoken by God and by the people and he rejoices to be comforted and praised, but he is sad when he is ill-spoken, oh, Lord. Oh, man does not know what is good for him, dear Son. Only when someone speaks well of him, only when someone speaks well about his good side, either to him or to anyone else's about his good things, and the devil immediately gets ready to make him fall, he gets ready to defile that one with his self-centered opinion, to burn his heart, to spoil his humility, his gentleness and his good conduct, and immediately is seen this one that he changes his humility and its beauty from above, the inclination of his heart and its gentleness and the humility of his works.

Oh, my dear Son Jesus, if the prayer of those gathered together before You does not bring heavenly revelations upon them, then their prayer is weak, it is insignificant and it does not make any miracle upon them. Dear Son, a voice of prayer is needed. A burning heart for You is needed and much gentleness in it, and the faith of the prayer has to comprise those who pray with power. Strong servants are needed for the voice of the churchly prayer, for You have to come with the last fulfillments of Your kingdom with the people, dear Son, and all these need to be asked, and from the earth there have to come praying voices with a perseverant calling so that You may come with a sweet calling. There should no longer be heard such words of prayer to heaven from the perseverant people who pray, but only voices that call You to come and to hurry up with Your coming and to strengthen Your kingdom with them, oh, King Lord over the creatures. Oh, who else calls you to come? Who really knows what Your coming is, dear Son Who come? It is the time for You to come, and that is why You always come. We put our hope in the sons of Your word of today, coming down upon them out of Your mouth for their great preparation before You, for their living with You on the earth before You, of dear Lord. Let the sons of the people of Your word learn the sweet voice of the word of their prayer to You, Lord, and let them all be seized within the voice of perseverant prayer with fire, with burning hearts, oh, Lord. The faith of prayer to You will bring You, and then it will bring the man to You; it will bring about the man's coming, and then Your coming, oh dear Son, Who wait to come and to be with the people on earth.

I always bless before You the Romanian land for Your glory upon it, oh, Lord. Keep it and always protect it and glorify Yourself from it over the earth and write Yourself as a victor on this throne and show it over the earth as a glorious mountain as well. This is how I wait and this is how I wait for You from the hearth of the Romanian people, to stay as a Savior and victor with Your kingdom and to become a ruling sceptre upon nations. And now, I give You place with Your dear word, for You are the Son of the Father and You are His Word, oh, my dear Son Jesus, and You have the word from the Father and You fulfill it, and You become a sower, oh, dear Lord, and Your fruit grows, for what is written comes to be seen, oh, dear Son. Amen.

— My word upon the people of My word is great, oh, mother. I get comforted when I can speak to it, when I have someone to speak My word with.

Oh, you should also comfort Me, well My people, and you should speak with Me, son, for I have no one to speak with on the earth, for man speaks like him, not like God, and he does not like the Lord to speak with him, for he has his mouth used to empty words and the word of his mouth smells badly, as he also gives stinking teaching from the earth, from the emptiness on the earth. And as what man eats with his mouth and then it comes out of his back body and it stinks and spoils the smell around, in the same way, what he reaps with his mind and with his heart, much and without any measure, then it comes out much by the speaking of his mouth, by the breath of his mouth and it spoils many around, and the Lord cannot stay near the man's mouth which has got empty words and vain language as on earth.

I want to get comforted with you, well My people, for My word teaches you to have mind and language like Mine, and to give Me comfort, and to give Me sweet voice of prayer with a calling before Me, to come with My great word and to set it on the earth, for if I did not have anyone to speak My word of today with, how could I come with My word on the earth during these days?

Oh, keep yourself with your standing before Me, My people, for you are not supposed to be idle on earth, and rather you should sanctify the earth with My great word, and I rejoice when I see what and how beautifully you do for Me and for you, more and more beautifully everywhere in My places with you, and how more and more gloriously you adorn for My glory with you the land, which I have given you to sanctify for your Lord and for you with Him on the earth now, in the end of the time.

Behold, I am blessing you from above and from below the whole of your dedication, your whole love, and you should work them all before Me with your whole love so that I may work them for My glory, because you, son, you are the people that waits for the Lord, the people that receives Him and gives to the Lord a place to dwell with you and a feast and house with you on earth, for I come with the saints to you, and you should give Me and them a dwelling place into your midst.

I, the Lord, am blessing your entire preparation done before My coming and I am coming to you and spending with you, the today's people of My word, and this glory you will see soon, soon, and you will greatly rejoice over it, oh, son, and you will be My joy, and My comfort will be Mine and yours now and forever. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint archangels Michael and Gabriel

My glory becomes word and proclaims itself with an angelic feast, and at the head of the angelic ranks there go the archangels Michael and Gabriel and after that there come groups after groups according to their works divided among them. I, the Lord of the angels and the Lord of the saints, have sounded ahead of time so that those who love My feasts may come together at My spring of word, here where I graze My flock, a people of sons, whom the Father has given to Me to work with them for My coming, and then they are to give Me further as food from heaven to the souls longing after Me, after My glory of today, which becomes word and which builds the man.

Great glory hovers with Me and it carries My throne in the sky above, which penetrates everywhere here, where all the angels are spending now, for I miss a heavenly party on the earth with the people and I long so much after that. My Father is filled with the joy of this day, for He wants Me to have comfort from man, for I have suffered much for man and I have not spoken a word of discontent before the Father, for He has always suffered, He has always suffered once with Me, and He has suffered in Me too.

I have sounded and brought you together with the word, you those who started to walk towards My gardens of today into the midst of the people, who do not know to understand My glory into their midst and the people of My word. I have widely opened My arms to hold you all within one embrace, and to teach you to embrace like Me too, for I do not embrace like man, as whoever closes his arms to embrace someone, he does no longer have them open, but he holds tightly the one embraced instead. However, I open up My arms and this is how I stay with them, to give all an endless embrace, just as I was ready on the cross to embrace everyone within My cross, under My cross, and I let Myself be nailed on to the cross to leave the sign of My embrace working, and in this way I went to the Father before My resurrection, and this is how God's embrace is, and it is not like man's embrace, which holds tightly his arms when he embraces, when he wants to show his love.

I open up My arms and stay with them open and I embrace you all, I embrace you all as you have come to My longing, for I long after a heavenly feast with the people, and I long for this. Glory to God in the highest and this glory follows the Lord wherever He goes with His glory from above. This is how I have come now with the heavenly armies and we are giving rest to our longing, I and My angels, who are accompanying Me groups after groups with the feast of today, which has been given to them by the great saints of My church from its beginning.

Oh, how much heavenly glory is embracing you within it now! Oh, how much I have been longing for this! I have been longing to spend with people on earth, and I want to tell them to believe in this word of Mine, for everything is possible to the one who believes, and man can see My glory if he has faith, for by his creation from Me, man has two pairs of eyes, two pairs of ears, and man has two pairs of senses too, by which he can see, hear, feel, taste and smell the heavenly things, which accompany him by their creation, by their being from God.

My embrace always remains open. I have left it to be nailed so that its love may remain in the man's mind, in his mysterious eyes, and that he may cry with love for the One Who is open love forever for all those who find it to their comfort in times of trials.

Oh, with what voice, with what kind of sweeter word shall I take you into My word now? Glory to My Father Sabaoth because I rejoice with you on this day of the angels, with which I always rejoice crying, and I cry rejoicing, for the Lord does not have some other kinds of joys!

Oh, open your hearts to meet you in them. The angels are staying here groups by groups, and they keep their eyes and ears open to hear My word with you. There are no longer on earth any of those who love God and that is why there are so few those who are drawn to the Father here, at My spring of word to reveal Myself to them with My coming for the preparation of a people to come to meet Me and with which to carry My cross of today, the cross of My coming after man, for My Father is sending Me again after man, for man has completely sunk and waves after waves cover him, and My labor for his resurrection is hard.

Oh, I cry, I cry for the land and for the Romanian people and I cry with the Father. I want to make this crying with you on this day of angelic feast. I want the Father to see Me praying with you and consider this. Raise, therefore, your little hands now with Me once for the prayer to the Father, oh, sons. Even if not all of your obey God adequately, I am bowing before the Father with you, with all those who are gathered near My people from the spring and I am asking the Father to receive this, and may the angels write once with the book in which I am writing Myself on the earth, and let them proclaim on earth and in heaven My prayer with you to the Father for His will over the Romanian land and over its people now. Come! Let us all put off the whole worldly work now, and let you take after the angels for a while at least, and let us bring our prayer to the Father now, and say once with Me:

Father Sabaoth, open to us and let us come in and receive our prayer through the door, as it is a time of trial for the destiny of the Romanian people, for this country is like a rebellious city, whose leaders do not pay any attention to reproof and are like the lions who roar, and when they judge, they are like the wolves in the evening which do not leave anything over for the second day, and when they are to listen to some prophecy they start even harder to indulge in worse and lawless actions, as it is written about the city of oppression; however, come and have Your power dwell in it and cleanse it from defilement and save it, Father, from those who are rebellious in it and from their darkness upon it, for the wolves come at night; they do not come in the day time to the sheep to suck their life. Surround it at its borders with Your holy angels, and let Your whole work stand against the work conspired by the rebellious in it. Chose those who are good to rule and put them on Your right side now, in the thick of the battle, and overcome for them those who have prevailed against them for such a long time, Lord Sabaoth. Oh, bring together within Your power all those who commit lawlessness and lie, enmity, greed and so much haughtiness, and bring them under the watch of strong angels and bring to a stop their wicked work too, and as You may find it right, then take out from under their threatens those who are better than them and give them victory upon them, oh, Father, for the good sons from the Romanians cannot work alone and stop those who backstab in the middle without knowing what they do with the destiny of this nation. These are few words but with big hope; by these words we are asking You to work against those who become haughty and keep on sitting on their high positions over the Romanian people, while they are rebellious sons, the sons of lie, (It is about the „left-wing parties" that „lead" the country, r.n.) weapons with which they want to fight and to overcome for them. Oh, hear us now with victory against them, against those who are rebellious and greedy for their swelling over the Romanian people; hear us, oh Father, so that the unbelievers may see that You are the God of this Romanian people and that You rule through Your Son, Jesus Christ, the Word, into the midst of this people.

I in them and them in Me, Father. We in Him and He is us, oh, Father, this is how we are praying now, standing before You in one spirit in the midst of the angelic hosts and of their feast of today, for You have armies of angels and You work miracles through them. This is how we are praying, Father, in a day of the angels' feast and this is how we ask You to bring our prayer into fulfillment over the Romanian land, and let the sun of righteousness rise over this nation, and prepare sons with clean hands on the seats of governance over the Romanian people now, oh, Father Sabaoth. Amen.

Behold, the angels have written and our prayer to the Father is being written now, I together with you, so that He may bring the power of justice and its victory for those who have clean hands, whom the Father is to lift up and overcome with them those who are oppressing this nation at this time.

Oh, I am happy in My pain from man; I am happy because I have a hospitable people to which I come and where I can be found by those who seek for Me here. Not many come here, for here man has to die to himself and the Lord has to come to life in him with His steps, with His life. Not many come here, but only those who love to be children and to have a Teacher upon them, for I said that the children have to come to Me and My kingdom to be theirs, and behold the confirmation of My word I spoke two thousand years ago, for he who cannot leave mother and father for Me, he cannot be My child either, and he belongs to his mother and father, even if he believes in Me and keeps My commandments; however, if I cannot have him under My cross for My comfort under it, he cannot be My child and to have My kingdom as a gift given to him.

Oh, not many come here as they go in crowds in other places known to have grace but where no one asks man to separate himself for My kingdom, and that is why I am happy because I have a hospitable people to which I am able to come and where I can be found by those who seek Me here with a heavenly feast, after which I long.

I put flowers at your little crowns for each joy with you when you come after Me to listen. Oh, the mysteries from here are so great, they are so much comprised within a mystery so that it does not get to the men's mind the power of the mystery which I, the Lord, envelop here in the word to be able to keep it and that it may work all the things that are to be worked by God, while the whole humankind goes in for the things of its nature, far from My will on earth with the people.

Now, My angel Michael commands the angelic armies to sound from the trumpets their greeting for you. I, the Lord, am blessing his entrance because he is My angel. Amen.

— «He who is like God», this is my name, my Master Lord and of the angelic armies, which have come together with me here in the front. This is how You want to be the people of Your today's word, and You want to be called after my name: «He who is like God». Amen.

We are going now into Your name and with You into the battle, Lord, for You have great pain for the Romanian people because of those who are liars and greedy for honor into its midst. We start the battle to throw them aside, and the battle is hard, but together with the sons of Your people we can do it, Lord, as without man You cannot do anything, as also man cannot do anything without You, because You created the world for man and it is not easy to understand this by the man's common mind.

The angels sound their trumpets above the Romanian land and proclaim the battle against the darkness, which has set over the city of the Lord, over the Romanian country, the country of brightness, the country of the coming of Christ as word on the earth. Oh, let yourselves be overcome, you, those who are oppressing now so hard the soul of this nation, from which you descend! Put down the weapons of wickedness by which you have lost your wisdom and your fear of God! Behold the angelic armies waging war against you and they sound their trumpet upon you so that you may hear; and you will hear bad news according to the iniquities that you work. Oh, fear God, as otherwise you will be afraid and you will be taken unexpectedly because you have not loved instruction and you have not paid attention to the Lord's warnings, and now you are to give an account to the One Who has been calling out to you because of His pain from you.

Oh, bow your heads, and you will surely bow them. I am Michael, the Lord's angel, the chief of the angelic armies and I have told you that we start the battle against you, for the Romanian people is in the Lord's hand, not into your hand, and you are definitely going to humble yourselves for it is time for the Lord to judge, after you have spoiled so much, and you are surely going to see that. Amen.

Glory to You, Lord, in the highest, and I, Your angel, left a written word over the Romanian people, and now You are the One Who will bring this word into fulfillment through Your angels. Amen.

— It is an angelic feast, and My angels are My workers and they are My glory, and they have brought here at the table those who are remembered now, those who are asleep, for you have made their memorial sons. Woe to those who say that there is conversation with the dead here at you; however, I the Lord, tell them that here is the speaking of the saints and not the speaking of the dead, and it is the speaking of those who rise in glory, as the little Abimelech was resurrected, after he had slept a very long time, at the prayer of the prophet Jeremiah, who asked from the Lord that that gentle child might not see the fall of Jerusalem. Oh, there is no speaking with the dead here, for the dead do not speak. Only those who are alive speak, only those who are alive walk with the Lord, just as Enoch had always walked with the Lord, and as a result he had not died but rather he was taken to be with Me.

May it be blessed the spending at the table of those coming for the memorial spoken for them, those who have come from those who are asleep, and we have given great comfort to them on this angelic day. There is no other greater joy between heaven and earth than their joy is when they are brought for their memorial and to their calling by the angels. I, the Lord, leave a great spirit of joy, for My mercy by this word is great.

Behold what a great feast, how much honor, how much joy, how much comfort! The spirit of comfort from heaven joins the spirit of comfort on the earth and we give it to each other. I am giving My godly embrace leaving My arms open, and I am asking you in a godly manner to be firm for My honor through this word in which I embrace you, and do not step back, as the back step is for the traitors, whom the devil comforts then with the spirit of doubt, the spirit of judgment, the spirit of unbelief and the spirit of their turning back to the world again, for what else would deserve those who leave the Lord for their will? However, you should take from Me and give further so that you may have, to earn with Me according to My will and by this to be able to stand firm and to keep its work with you. However, steadfastness cannot be tested but only if man has got upon him a strong hand for him, someone who is fuller with God and by whom the Lord is able to hold his little hand and always to test his steadfastness, for after that there is no other way for those who know the Lord here, for they would go down and no matter the way they may take, one would write forsaking of God, and the one, who seeks such way for his steps, would no longer have any faithfulness, after he had tasted so much joy, stooping under it with his soul burnt with longing and with care in such a way that the longing may not go out.

Ask from the Father a new mind, a new heart and always renewed, which is able to help you for the spirit of steadfastness, the spirit that is full of patience and crowns. My word is coming down now to thank you, for you have become joy for the Lord on this day. I am exhorting you full of longing, do love holiness. It reveals any evil that might come to touch you. With it, you will be My people, and for it, you will have a name like that of My angel: «He who is like God». Amen.

I am giving you now travelling angels on your way back. Oh, sons, sons, keep the angels together with you! Make room for them near you! They are from heaven. This is how you are also supposed to be. This is how you are to be, because man was built by God. Amen.

The angels sound the trumpet; they always sound and they sound it loud and they set to watch and to great work over the Romanian people for the spirit of truth and for the battle for it. Amen.

May the spirit of angelic feast remain upon you! Peace to you! I am the Lord, Jesus Christ. Only those who are gentle and humble in their heart know Me by this word and receive Me as their Teacher. Not even two thousand years ago have I worked otherwise the teaching of My word over those who needed God.

Oh, stay close to this spring, you those who have tasted it and seen that the Lord is good. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

(Excerpt)

Oh, Romanian people, learn hard, learn the life, the works and the face of the Christian people, Christ's people. Look at yourself to see yourself and see if you take after Christ, for I am your Lord, your Savior and I love you and I want to give you birth in a moment and then to be My face, My will, as I am the will of My Father Sabaoth, Who has sent Me to you as word and work by the word for the new birth of the world, for the renewal of everything. The new heaven and the new earth, prophesied by the Scriptures that will be set and be for eternity, these, I, the Lord, work to bring them into view, starting with them on the hearth of the Romanian people, in which I have the course of My word, the river of life, My holy mountain (See Ps: 23/3, 4 - 23 MT = 22 LXX; Isaiah: 2/2, 3; 66/20; Micah: 4/1, 2)[198] and the river that flows from it down to the bottom over the earth for the healing of the nations, as it is written. Amen.

21-11/04-12-2012.

The feast of the Saint apostle Andrew, the first one called

The word of God is coming down on earth and the Lord has got his manger of descent, and He is becoming word over the earth.

I, the Lord, proclaim Myself and come, and I am coming down into My book of today, the book which is written in the Scriptures about that it will be opened and that I, the Lamb of [198] «For in the last days the mountain of the Lord shall be glorious and the house of God shall be on the top of the mountains and it shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall come to it.

And many nations shall go and say, Come, Let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob; He will tell us His way and we will walk in it: for out of Zion shall go forth the law and the word of the Lord out of Jerusalem». (Isaiah: 2/2,3)

«And at the last days the mountain of the Lord shall be manifest, established on the tops of the mountains and it shall be exalted above the hills; and the peoples shall hasten to it.

And many nations shall go and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord and to the house of the God of Jacob; and they shall show us His way and we will walk in His paths: for out of Zion shall go forth a law and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem». (Micah: 4/1, 2) the Father Sabaoth, will have to open it, and that I have to come down in it as word and make it by My word spoken by My mouth full of word, and this book has My name: The Word of God. Amen.

Oh, My today's people of My word, sit down now at the table with Me, for I am coming down as word into the book and together with Me I have got heavenly guests at the table, for I do not walk alone between heaven and earth and I have with Me the apostle Andrew, the one I had called first among those whom I called from Israel two thousand years ago to walk with them from place to place for three years and a half and to descend and settle down on earth with the work that I came from the Father to fulfill, and that My apostles to be My followers before the people and to confess Me in time that I, the One Who walked with them, was God the Word, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, Who became flesh on the earth from the Holy Spirit, that I might be born out of a Virgin body, to grow up and then to give Myself over to death on the cross and in this way to pay for the man's resurrection from death, because man fell from life into death by disobedience to God, and I, the Lord, descended from heaven to work out his salvation, for I am the One Who made the man. Amen.

Oh, My people, there is a feast, well son, and this day is a day of memorial, like that before it. I have within My descent My trumpet Verginica and I also have the Apostle Andrew who are both celebrated among the saints and We are sitting down at the table of word with the feast in the word, for there has been twenty one years since the foundation of this feast, when I sat with the saints and established on the earth the sealing of the little garden of My word of today and the sealing of the sign set by Me and by those whom I hired, so that this sign may be shown on the earth, that is the little white stone, the ark of My Holy of Holies on these days on the hearth of the Romanian people, where I have My descent of word during this time over the earth, and from where I give Myself further to the healing of many, as it is written into the Scriptures about the tree of life and about its leaves, which are My word to the healing of the nations.

Oh, it does not get to the mind of the common man My mysteries between heaven and earth, for man stands so low in comparison with those that are worked by God between heaven and earth, being them covered or uncovered, as man is able or not to perceive or explain them for their meanings. On a day like this, twenty-one years ago, there were witnesses from heaven and earth in this little garden and it was sealed by a heavenly word, spoken both from heaven and from earth, and this little garden and the establishment on it were called by a heavenly name: The Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, the land renewed by My word, which received a fulfilled and sealed outward expression on that day, and this day was written on the earth and it was written into My book of today and I am sitting down with you at the table within this feast, well My people, and you are My offspring and the fruit of My work during these days and I am giving you from the tree of life and I am calling you My people into the midst of the Romanian nation and I always give you the hidden manna from heaven, as you overcame yourself and chose Me after you had found Me in this word, which goes over the earth and proclaims My new beginning, the little kernel from which I, the Lord, want to grow and make Myself available to be received by many hearts, which will be able to understand by the revelation of the Holy Spirit, that I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, am on the land of the Romanian people as word and glory of word and that I am the beginning of resurrection and light, and I share from the life of the age that is to come and I make My inhabitants for heaven and I give them the heavenly citizenship when the day of My glory will reveal all those that are covered and belong to the glory of the things that are not seen; however, they are and they wait for its heirs, those to whom it was given and it is given to be the sons of My glory, and behold, I feed you with the tree of life, well My people, as it is written, and by My word I give Myself to the healing of the nations and I share with it the leaves of the tree of life.

It is written into the Scriptures about a blessed week, about a covenant concluded at the middle of it and about a new beginning again, for the completion of the mystery of this week after that. In the year of 1955, I set on the earth the beginning of a new week of years (An apocalyptic day is ten years, one week - seventy years, r.n.) and then I started the work of sounding the trumpet of My word by My chosen vessel, that is called God's trumpet, and I started to sound by My trumpet Verginica. Then, after thirty-five years, she was ready to pass to Me among the saints and she did; she passed away in the middle of this holy time. Then I prepared in a great secret and I worked mysteriously to make a new covenant, for the ongoing sacrifice and offering had been violated by the sin of the abomination of desolation set in the temple of the holy service, as it is written, for the prince of the world, the antichrist, got up to tear down from its foundation the church from the fathers and he seeks to do away with it, for its sin stands against it and his cup has been filled, for the rulers of the church put aside God's word and My coming of today as word over the earth; and more than this, they wanted to work the darkness for the way of My word to the people, and they hid, as they said, but I go forward with My mystery and I do it in secret and I cry over all who deny the One Who speaks to them from heaven, and I also cry for them to strengthen their faith and not forsake it, for I follow them with the glory of My word and I reach them and punish their unbelief, which draws upon them the wrath from heaven, as it is written.

I have witnesses from heaven in My coming now with this feast these days, one by one, the day of the sealing of the little garden of My word and the day of the feast of the apostle Andrew, My witness for this work of mystery, together with My apostle Irineu at that time, whom I prepared in a heavenly way ahead of time and at that time I had him here to speak My word by his mouth, the holy sealing of the little garden of the Holy of Holies, which was put under heavenly protection and not a human one, a place for the Lord and for His people from heaven and from earth and by whom I write My word on earth and in heaven and I share equally, both in heaven and on earth.

Behold a day of saints, a day of holy memorial and holy pain, well My people that follow this day of the mystery of that time. Satan, the old serpent had power at that time by his lack of steadfastness which has appeared in man hired by Me for the holy work in order to pull him out from My bosom, and I have suffered in secret and I have sighed deeply and secretly, because the mystery of this day and then the course of its work after it are holy, and then it was written much more than up to that time the faith denial of the church from the Romanian people, the faith denial of the servants in it, which pulled out My from near the spring My witnessing bishop, the one I had taken out from among them to seal with him near Me the mystery of the little garden of My word and My work in it into the midst of the land, a place set apart by the walking of the world so that I, the Lord, may dwell here, as it is given to be the mystery of the Holy of Holies, set apart from the Lord, as when Moses went up to the Lord to bring from Him the law of the sealing of the sin in order to turn Israel back to the Lord from idols, I said to him: «Take off your sandals from off your feet for the place you are standing on is holy ground». (Ex. 3:5) Then I spoke with Moses in a flame of fire and I revealed him My word and I wrote on stone with the finger of My angel the commandments of life so that he might bring them to Israel on My behalf. Oh, it is the same with this little patch of land, which I call a mountain top, a holy mountain, on which I, the Lord stand and speak and then I give Myself over on to the earth.

The saints and the angels and all the heavenly armies hear Me now, here, for they are My companions, and the heavenly armies are filled with awe into the midst of My mystery and the heaven and the earth spend here, and the world has not got a clue and it does not have any brain or eyes to find out, to understand and to see, and My coming is being accomplished now as word on the earth, as it was two thousand years ago when I came down on earth and when the world did not have any clue to understand anything in order to leave at the proclamation of the messengers of that time, who proclaimed, both from near and from far away, the Mystery of My birth from the Virgin, My growth and then My apostleship and My bloody sacrifice for the salvation of the world, which did not want and does not want to stay with the heaven on earth, because the world wants otherwise, and it wants to have life on earth and it does not want to have the kingdom of the heavens, for which the world does no longer pray after the truth, even if it has learned to tell God the prayer for the obedient sons and My disciples by their work and whom I taught to pray like Me and to tell the Father Sabaoth: «Our Father in heaven, let Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth». (Matt. 6:9. 10) Oh, the Father has a kingdom[199] on earth, but it has nothing to do with the world, nothing of this world, for it is not of this world and it is far from it and few people long after it and want it to be theirs, and I, the Lord, have the mysterious joy and I get comforted with it, because I could set apart this kingdom, as big as a little kernel in the eyes of the people but great for heaven, as the Lord is great within His saints in heaven and on earth and He does His work. Amen.

— Near You, Lord, I make room and word for the crowning of the mystery of this day, my day of feast, Your apostle Andrew, and his day near the day of the sealing of Your Holy of Holies on these days, from where You speak on earth on the holy mountain and You are the Cornerstone, Jesus Christ-the Word.

We are putting on the head of the witness bishop from that day, who was with Us here, We are bestowing now the holy comfort, the memorial of the day when We were here together for the sealing of this little garden of word. Oh, bow, brother bishop, and sit now with the Lord and with Us within the mystery of the comfort of that time, when the Lord was comforted here with Us, those who were gathered together here from heaven and from the earth for the sealing with the law of holiness of this little garden. Let your spirit and body shake at this great and holy memorial. Pray to Christ, the great Bishop, and tell Him with a holy and clean thrill: "Lord with Your fear pierce my body so that I may keep Your way, for the fear of God helps me renew my wisdom for You and do not let me depart from Your glory, for I am weak and I ask You to help me and to have me as Yours, written into Your book to remain and not to be wiped out from it. Amen."

Your name cannot be wiped out from this book, oh, my brother bishop, for the Lord has put you into it, the Lord and not you. No one can wipe out his name from this book, even if he wants to leave this way, and he will give an account according to this book opened by the Lamb of God and set now on the earth for its making.

Oh, your little heart is heavy. Oh, how great is the oppression on the earth for those who have a big heart and great love, for their faith and its course are oppressed but the Lord is merciful, because there are times of trial for Him and for those who love Him. It is a day of glory here now. The heavenly powers are organized in groups by groups and they are listening to the heavenly word. Oh, remember! Let your little heart startle on this day, for the Lord is going before and is glorifying Himself over the earth from this stone. Behold, we are giving you comfort so that you may also give from it there where you absence hurts, there where you can also be otherwise, carried by those in heaven.

Blessed is this day of feast and its memorial and let it be blessed its pain too, and also let this pain bring forth fruit for heaven, for the Lord is here within a great mystery and this is how He works here too. Amen.

— I, the Lord, have left word in the book for this day of memorial and I am preparing now for this day of teaching and celebration in heaven and on earth for My trumpet Verginica and her place among the saints, and we will set great teaching on your table with Me, well My people. Prepare your little heart to come and sit down beautifully before the spirit of the teaching upon you, which you always need to be bestowed upon your life. Behold, My trumpet is staying at the border with her day of feast and with her teaching and she is speaking upon you and is saying:

— I miss my people of old times, I miss it, Lord, and I miss the little one born on the way, oh, Lord, with whom I have come here to spend now with comfort for my pain full of longing and remembrance with longing. I miss You in those who have given away the glory and the power of Your word, Lord, for the time of their love has passed once with them, and I look upon it to comfort my pain, as my tear that comes from pain brings much comfort, and I will sit with You and with the spirit of teaching on Your table of word, with Your little people of this time now. Amen.

— Oh, peace to you, heavenly witnesses! I have come with you and I have sat here with you, at the table of the world and memorial. Oh, peace to you, My trumpet of old, by which I, the Lord, breathed My word upon a rebellious people! We go on to the next day and I want to sit Ourselves down into the book and to give Ourselves further to others. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Prepare your little heart and prepare your mind and power, for day by day We will set holy teaching between you and Us, and We will breathe holy power from heaven upon you, for it always has to be refreshed for you both from above and from below, lest it may go out in you, well sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint Virginia, God's trumpet

I am sitting down before you with a table of word, with the spirit of the teaching of the eternal life, well My people. We are putting food on the table abundantly; I and My trumpet are putting important teaching, because it is needed everywhere and it is needed for the people of this word to join the whole fulfillment of the teaching from above and to give to God the assurance that the whole advice will be obeyed and fulfilled, the whole fulfillment from heaven upon this people. Amen.

Peace to you, My people, peace on day of holy feast upon you, for on this day we are celebrating My trumpet[200], Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) who carried God in her time on the earth. I, the Lord, am blessing your heart, your ear, your will and your submission, well people of My word, so that you may receive from Me and fulfill in this way. However, first of all, you have to help Me trust you to the end, and not only for a short time, as My struggle for My whole victory is very hard then when I cannot trust very much in those who give themselves over to Me for My work with them, and I am God, well My people, and I am not from the earth, because I have come from heaven. On the earth, a man buys a tool which becomes his possession after he takes it from the one who has sold it to him, and he receives guarantee, as on earth one uses the word trust for a short time for a tool, which was made and put on sail after that in order to be useful to the man's work, and then, the one who makes it is relieved of responsibility and he sells the work of his hands to those who use him. Oh, however, I, the Lord, keep asking Myself, what shall I do when man comes to Me and gives himself to Me, or when someone helps a man to understand God and follow Him after that? Shall I take from the hand of the one who has led the man to Me? Then can I ask from this one any written proof that the one he has brought to Me will be faithful? Behold, you need a guarantee so that you may trust man, and you need him to bring a guarantee to you too so that you may hand him over to the Lord and not to suffer on his behalf before the Lord after that.

I am with My trumpet Verginica within a feast among saints, well My people, and we are going to do much work and we are going to measure much and many things, and there will be a day of teaching upon you on this great day, a day like that when My trumpet took her place among the saints and when she was relieved from the body of her sufferance and then she has bowed down in heaven under spirit of heavenly watching for her further work with Me, which has been sent on the earth to its advance, when she came into the people of the saints, to be at work among those in heaven.

There have been many in the people of this word; they were and have past or remained up to the end on the way of My fight for the building of a people so that the Father may have it as His on the earth by My trumpet sounding upon it through the voice of My sounding, from which I was speaking; I was speaking and not she, as I was speaking by the prophets; I was speaking, I and not they. I fight enduring and crying as a God, and I have been working for almost sixty years and I have been fighting to accomplish My victory and the Scriptures of the last days, in which it is written about My coming with its voice over the living and the dead. I needed and I need trust in those on whom I rested and I rest, for otherwise I rely on man only as much as he wants, and he who works with God like that is guilty, and guilt brings about atonement for it. Neither I, the Lord, nor those who work for Me by My election can trust in the one who remains free from Christ and free from his care upon him on earth, for a man like that can do much harm to God and to His work, and then he uses many hidden secrets, especially if it is his nature to do so, the hiding from God and from people, working and spending from secret to secret, the work which brings forth enmity and separation between him and those that see him working like that and despising the brothers.

Part two

We are coming down as word into the book, oh, My Verginica. My people has honored you, it has brought you a hymn of akathist and it has comforted you too. I, the Lord, have looked at it and the hosts of saints, who have come with Us for a day of feast written over My garden of word, are looking like Me at you, who are celebrated today, and they are honoring My gift that you have been carrying on the earth in the end of the time and they get drunk with a holy wonder, asking themselves how was it possible that your body had endured so many embers on it for such a long time of My coming through you on earth as word, oh, My prophetess, in order for you to be the one who carried Christ-the-Word, Who was passing through you with His speaking!

You are ordained with a day of dedication feast in the little garden full of word, where I, the Lord, descend in the clouds above it and where I speak so that My word may be written on the earth. I glorified Myself through you and I kept you whole in your body and you did not melt under the heat from Me, as this is what I wanted; however, you suffered very much, because I had longed after man very much and I came after him, and you were My dwelling place. The apostle Paul saw My light which covered My body when I spoke to him on his way to Damascus, and his eyes grew weak because of My brightness before him on his way, and this sign remained on the body of the one who was chosen to be an apostle on that day, and My Spirit and My grace remained upon him to proclaim My glory everywhere he was relating the story of My appearance before him. However, I was entering you and working at the moment of My word spoken by the voice of your mouth face to face with those who were writing to Me the word that so that it may remain, and I had never had such work on the earth up to you, and there will never be.

Oh, My trumpet, oh, My Verginica, how great your submission was! And it was the same with your fear of God too, and you were trembling at My word and you were obeying without murmuring, and My gift, bestowed upon you, was big and hard to bear, and this was your offering brought to Me, that is, your body in which the spirit of My word entered as I enter the man in the time of the holy communion, and I was passing from body to spirit, oh, My trumpet, and sweat was running down on you, as I was a consuming fire in you and I was working wonderfully as you had not been consumed with it. Oh, you had been nourished only with pains, both in your body and in your spirit, and you had no joys on the earth; (See The Life of Saint Virginia, r.n.) still, you had only one, and that was because you could bear My coming as word over the earth so that I might be able to prepare the faith for a people who was to rise after you and with which to be able to prepare a dwelling place for the Lord on earth, a new heaven and a new earth, and not as the world or its priests do and make churches for the world; oh, not like that, but for Me and for those who renounce the world coming out of it and bringing themselves to Me as offering of faith and offering of perseverance for the fulfilling of the last Scriptures with them, for the Lord needs hands and legs and He also needs love in His last ministry of His word, which is coming down on the earth.

We both had been suffering years in a row, waiting for the love of the people that was nourished through you with My word, Verginica, but that people loved little, and he loved for itself, not for Us, those who were standing before it for its grace, for the shining of its life. We were following it closely and were bringing love to it and We were giving it joys, but I could not harvest any fruit from those that were once a people. (In the time of the dictatorship of the communist read beast, r.n.) Then I took you above, among the saints, and from there We have been working and preparing sons given to Us, and We have been able to prepare My wedding table and put on it abundantly from the chamber of My word and always from fresh word, and then We have also managed to proclaim ourselves much and to have guests at the table, Verginica, and then We started to takes steps, as My promises were written over a people in the time when you were My trumpet on earth.

Oh, what mysterious accomplishments and what great they are for the small mind of man, who does not look and who is only man and that is all, and who does not think like God. The love of God is required to be much in man. I built man for it, and for it I am still working My word on the earth today, and I give Myself to the people to their understanding for those from above with them, but the flesh and the world cannot save the man to God, just as a prisoner cannot flee from his prison in such a way that he may escape from it.

Let us remember My time with you on the earth, oh, Verginica, for the people, young in its age, has much to learn, the people which I have won by the spirit of testimony; it has to learn well at this school and it has to do that which the people from the beginning and the one from the middle of the descending of My word upon it did not do. Oh, I was often going from house to house of Christians and I could not go anywhere else, for the Lord is gentle like a dove within His Holy Spirit and He cannot stay in unfavorable places for Him and for the glory with which He goes between heaven and earth. We were going to the Christians and We were descending in you, and We were speaking to that house and to those who were coming together at My word. It was difficult for Us because We were not pleased with the life and with the cleanness of the house. We were going to Christians so that they may be encouraged to learn and to prepare themselves for My coming to them and to receive their life, their house, their body and all their condition, oh, and We were not finding anything beautiful almost everywhere We were going, and My glory was suffering and humiliating and We were staying in you with My pain to suffer together from all the pain from Our waiting for them. We were releasing with great mercy ravishing fragrances and these were suffering too in the Christian houses, for they were from paradise and they were Our companions and it was giving fragrance in the place where We were descending, so that the Christian who had so little love for God might not be able to rejoice. However, he was boasting then that he was with the Lord with his heavenly fragrances in his house and with his trumpet at the table of word in his dwelling place, and there was no repentance, no humility, no raising from sin and from the bad smell of sin, for they all were enjoying life and did not want to leave off their pleasures. Oh, how much I was suffering from their lack of love for Us! And even the heavenly signs, by which We appeared before them, could not bring them to their repentance for sin in order to become holy for the Lord after that.

Oh, how much I was suffering! Oh, how much your body suffered, My Verginica! The people loved the worldly food and it was rejoicing over it and the Christian was not holy with respect to his food and his habits, and We were suffering and enduring. Christians were coming to you to give them from heaven. They were coming into your house and were taking off their shoes at the door and they were coming in and leaving a stench into your house after they had taken off the shoes they had worn on their way, and then I wanted to protect you, as the Christian was not supposed to be received into your house anyhow, for I had mercy on you and on the angels near you all the time, for I could also not choose anyone in order to take near you, dear souls to you and to Me by their life with Me, to be able to rest on them for your mourning, for the heaven which was suffering in you, oh, My trumpet.

Let Us teach those born on the way and let Us always teach them, and let Us call to obedience those who want to get used to the holy life, too, as man can get into heaven only with holiness in him and not with his knowledge, for he who displays his knowledge is not saved from the spirit of haughtiness when it does not have any sufferance in him for the love of God. Oh, I am not speaking alone now over those who hear Us speaking, and behold, We are speaking to them.

Oh, sons, do not be Egyptians, for I, the Lord, use all your visible and invisible body members, all your senses, and you are not beautiful either in heaven or on earth; you are not beautiful if you do not to smell heavenly and pleasantly for those in heaven and for those on earth with you. Oh, take care of what you eat, well sons! Do not eat like the Egyptians whose body and spirit smells of onion and garlic, hot, sour and pepper, but rather take care of you to smell like the heavenly fragrances, where bodies have no power and neither have the bad smells, which make the bodies uglier and uglier and give them a very bad smelling, for I, the Lord, promised that I would seed a people for Me and I wrote that I would fill the earth with thousands and millions of lilies and roses, and not with onion or garlic, not with worldly tastes on My way with man. Oh, listen to the signs I slip in among you as I am able to bring them and fulfill My exhortation upon you in a heavenly way, for behold, the world puts smells over the smells of their bodies and it commits this sin, for the holy fragrances are from heaven and they come from within man when they are, and they do not come from those that belong to the hypocrite knowledge, no, sons, no.

Oh, eat light dishes, well sons, for you are no longer from the world to look after all kinds of tastes and smells, but you are the sons of the heaven and you have to look like fragrances for angels and for saints. Oh, why was I bringing fragrances from heaven and why was I filling the house I was entering and sounding My trumpet? I was doing this to help the Christian to make a distinguishing and to understand My longing for him, for the heavenly fragrance was smelling into his nostrils, the fragrance within which I, the Lord, am all over between heaven and earth and this is how I travel, and this kind of places of rest I want to find with the sons on earth, as I especially like the place from Bethany where I was welcomed with fragrances for My entrance to them, for the people at that time was very much used to expensive perfumes for the Lord, and it had upon it the ritual of washing away everything that was not pleased to the Lord, and if that people had not loved itself so much, it would have had grace and it would have had the love for God on them, just as those from Bethany had, with whom I, the Lord, used to stay on My way to those who were oppressed by pains and trials, and then on My way to the Father after that.

Oh, sons from My spring of word, be teachers over the gentle people on the earth, who do not have My teaching upon you. Give them My word and pray to Me to make them a way and fruit to them, and be lilies and roses, oh, sons. Behold, Verginica is only spirit of comfort at her party with Me and with the saints near you. He wants Me to speak, as this is how she was used with Me to do. Oh, but you too, Verginica, you have to give them too, for You are My trumpet in heaven, and all those who come after their graces in heaven go on with the work of their graces on earth. Amen.

— Lord, You have spoken to them what Our greatest pain is so that there may be here teaching for those who seek their love for heaven. Their condition and being has to be as in heaven, and Your things with them have to be refreshed as in heaven, as all the Egyptians are the sons of men and they are everywhere and put fragrances over rot and they are the sons of hypocrisy too, but those who love You need to have like You and need to be like You so that You may appear before the men who know that they are Yours, and this is how they are to be Your witnesses. Amen.

You should learn, well sons, and you should learn to be obedient for the Lord's whole speaking upon you, as the word church is the most scented word; it is the place where the Lord spends time with His people, a feast as in heaven, as in paradise, as among the heavenly fragrances, oh, sons. The mystery of this word has got its embodiment on the earth and the mystery of the church comes to the Lord by its work. Oh, take care to feed the love among you, and let it stay always at the midst with everything it means, with everything that means God and His work upon man, for those who do not listen are those who do not cultivate love, are those who get tired with themselves and stay without heavenly work after that and they are only flesh. However you pass all the time from body to spirit, and may your bodies be lilies and roses and let them give themselves to the Lord with their fragrances. If the Egyptians, the sons of the world, have in their nature the work of the fragrances for their idols, oh, those who belong to the Lord on the earth need to have in their nature their love for the Lord and the mystery of the Bethany with them more.

The Lord has spoken to you in the day of the dedication feast of His little garden with you and He has told you about my sufferance and His sufferance from the pleasures of the Christians nourished for a long time with manna from heaven, springing from my mouth and from His flowing Spirit. Oh, how much I suffered, oh, how much shame before the Lord from those who could not separate themselves from their fleshly honor! Oh, sons, the Lord expects much love and much wisdom and obedience from those who are written near with Him on earth and with Him in His work! Rejoice because it was the Lord that has spoken to you more on my day of synod among saints. I in Him and He in me, this is how I have spoken to you.

Oh, be good, sons! Oh, be obedient so that you may be good! Be warm, be calm, be gentle, be greatly humiliated. Eat light food like some holy men, for this is the responsibility for the saints. He who wants to love the Lord has to learn this. Amen.

Oh, the Lord has got many beloved people from this kind of grace and many victors over their bodies, for man is that what he eats and he is not something else and he jumps out of his skin as he is. Eat sweet food, eat those that make you sweet and well pleased, which make you light and very well smelling of the heavenly fragrances and at the table with the heaven, for the heaven is with you at the table, well sons, and you are not like all the people on the earth, but you are the Lord's Bethany, His today's house. Oh, do not forget to be beautiful with God, for as you are for Him, so you are for those around you, for measure is from heaven. Peace to you! I want you to be comfort. Amen.

— Oh, Verginica, I want them to be My comfort. Peace to you on the feast of the dedication day of the little garden, which you have in your heavenly care! Oh, do not cry! It is a day of dedication feast. Let Us hide Our tears on this day. You have disciples who followed you, who carried you and kept you, and they have love for you, they stay before Me and write My word into the book when it comes with its voice over its little garden, and the mystery of the new making goes on and My word has power. Let us hope! The earth waits for Us with the heaven above it within great work and the day will come when We will no longer cry. Amen.

I want you to be comfort, oh, sons, and I want you to bear My mystery of Bethany within your spirit and in your body for I have none besides you. The humility in you can always make you My help, My comfort, and you should carry Me with holy propriety over you and over the earth with My word from you, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Nicholas

God Sabaoth, My Father, sends Me from His right side and tells Me to become word and come down on earth, for all come to an end without God and only He remains, and He makes them all new by His word. Amen.

I am coming down to you, people of My word and I am bringing those that are in heaven at My table with you, who celebrate the hierarch Nicholas on this day, the one full of humility on earth and in heaven, the one full of grace, who became known on earth and in heaven by the spirit of gentleness and by the power of his faith, and he was rich, for he loved poverty for himself and gathered many riches for the poor and shared with them, and even more he shared faith and humility and a spirit of repentance too, for he who shares from heaven has fruit in those who receive from him.

Well My people, you should teach all that I give you to bring forth fruit in you, fruit from heaven and for heaven, as happy is the one who gathers from heaven and in heaven, because those from heaven come back to heaven together with those who bring forth fruit from them and they share it on the earth to give forth heaven on earth, heaven in the people's hearts, that would not be able to come near the heaven with their love if they had no one to show the way and its fruit to them.

Oh, on this day I am teaching you the mystery of a beautiful gift and you should work it to your richness from heaven. Take care of the work of thankfulness, son. Remain in obedience with great love, with great thankfulness for those who help you and take care of your spirit and your work for Me, which is earned in heaven as your possession, where the moth and the worm do not spoil it; they do not come to have life in order to spoil it in heaven. You have to know what the mystery of thankfulness is worked with, because if you do not know, you do not love it and you do not become pleased to God, worthy before Him, as the saints are worthy in the eyes of God.

Oh, there is great beauty to see thankfulness in the man's work on the earth! You could have not been what you are by yourselves and what you have to be if you were not supported, not helped or taught by someone who gives you from heaven. There are many on the earth who prove their thankfulness towards someone who helps them from heaven, with those in heaven, as there is much heaven on earth which can be given to the people with the richness of his gifts if there is someone to share with those who stay far from God, the Treasurer, and there are also many who come back to bring thankfulness and who bring themselves to the place where they have received help.

Oh, My people, I wait much thankfulness from you with respect to those who help you to be My people, for you do not see Me, but you see those between Me and you, whom I set before you for your life, for the food of your faith in Me, for the food of your love for Me, for the nourishing of your obedience to God, for the mystery of your salvation from sin to be holy and not sinful. Oh, how many gifts you receive! Oh, how thankful you must be and you should learn to be so! This wisdom is above everything, and everyone who does not have it at work is a Lucifer, and he falls into Lucifer's sin, who had no longer obeyed his Creator and arose against Him and thus he lost all his brightness and turned black, for had forgotten the work of his thankfulness with respect to the One Who gave him his being and against Whom he stood by his disobedience to God, because he listened to man and has no longer looked at Me to see from Me and not from man.

Oh, take care, sons! Thankfulness needs to have his whole face and its work in you. You are nothing without it; man means nothing if he does not have in his conduct and in his heart the proof of his thankfulness to the one who helps him to be Mine, to remain Mine. Only the one who does not want to remain Mine, only that one does not keep his thankfulness and its work with respect to the one from whom he takes the Lord over his life.

Oh, sons, the sin of his ungratefulness is very, very ugly when it makes its way with its work in man visibly. No one needs to have lesser work than the one from whom he has got it to share for work. When you see someone who takes a man into his service so that this man may not be without service, and when you see that he does not do more than the one who has taken him into his service, then it is the sin of ungratefulness in him; it is the sin of haughtiness that likes to stay in man and turns the man into a devil. Those who do not serve with faithfulness and with a holy and dear sacrifice under those who guide their days and the nights and watch over their life, they do not feel their haughtiness, they do not have faithfulness and do not have thankfulness for the one who is over them, and they are not great if they do not know what greatness is as the prophet Daniel knew, who knew how great he was supposed to be in his service in order to serve with faithfulness in the administration of the king, where he was a slave and not a son; however you, on the contrary, you are sons, you are My sons, and each son either serves his father with great faithfulness, or he withdraws from his service because of his lack of faithfulness, and then he goes and spends his life in debauchery until the time comes when he reaps the fruit of his wandering away from his conduct and from his ministering in the house of his father.

Oh, woe to the parents who do not teach their children to serve in their house more than their parents, for they have nowhere to learn from the work of thankfulness to those who gave them life and have taken care of them! Woe to these, and woe both to the parents and to the children as well, for behold, this is the face of this world, which is corrupted from head to toe, and woe to those who tear down each other's strongholds, for they are built on the sand, as it is written by those who build themselves on the sand.

Oh, sons, this is a day of holy teaching upon you. You have as your teacher on this day the life and the works of the hierarch Nicholas, who had received gifts from Me and shared them in secret lest someone may want to exalt him on earth, for all those who are exalted by the people are not worthy, just as those who serve them are not worthy as well. Oh, keep away as from death from the joy that comes from the love around for you, because the man on earth does not deserve anything but only God for the forgiveness that comes from Him upon man, for man is sinful and he needs to give thankfulness to God and he always needs repentance before Him. He who does not give great thankfulness to God and to his fellowmen and especially to those who guide his steps and his life, that one loves sin and lives in the sin of the lack of his thankfulness and he stays recklessly in this sin. Oh, how can such a man be beautiful, oh, such corruption in man? How can the one without My instruction upon him, inside and outside of him, be beautiful? When man goes to the shrine or to the grave of a holy man, then he proves his gratitude to his benefactor, who took him out of darkness and out of sicknesses and out of many troubles and worries and then he goes and bows and believes what he does, and after that he wants to be like his benefactor. Oh, behold an example to learn from this. However, the most beautiful gratitude belongs to his benefactor upon him who put on him the fruit of the work of thankfulness, the fruit of obedience and the fruit of sacrifice before the one who gave him ministry and salvation by it and good conduct in his behavior full of holy fruit, full of the virtue of thankfulness.

It is a day of the feast of saints and you have to give holy gifts to My people, oh, bishop celebrated among the saints on this day, for this is the work I have given to you, and you have not asked Me to pay for it, for you were My son and not a servant, and you loved to be thankful to your Creator.

Sons, sons, those who listen are not those who command; they are not those who want their will to be made. You should get this teaching now. Amen.

— I was a teacher for those who believed in You and for those who were gentle like me and for those who loved to bring their will under control; I was their help and their shepherd towards You, oh, Lord and Teacher. I have taught them their thankfulness to You, the One Who are the Treasurer of the good things to the salvation of men and to their wisdom.

You have prepared the rank of bishop over my head with great miracles and I had always been thankful for this great work You had put upon me with miracles, seen and understood by many at that time, but, oh, I could not, I could not bear the honor from people; I could not bear it because I was very much afraid to stand face to face with You, great Lord, for only You are the glorified One, only You. I hid as much as I could the work of my grace from You, because I could not receive those that You and only You deserve and have.

I helped those who were poor and needed it and I saved them from heavy sin and I did as much as I could for man before you, for You ordained me to tend Your flock on earth, and to tend it incessantly.

I tell, Lord, I tell to all the bishops on earth that they do not know what they had to work, since they do not work as I worked before You with the work of the grace of bishop, and I tell them that they need much, much repentance, very much, as they have stolen so much of Your glory from the people for themselves, and they were not and are not afraid to do this work of Lucifer and take of Your glory for themselves, when man deserves nothing but much repentance, for he is sinful.

Oh, why Lord, why man forgets that he is a sinner? If man did not forget this, he would be awake for his answer that he must give before You, an answer he cannot avoid. Oh, what shall we do to bring Lucifer out from man completely, this satanic arch-shepherd, authorized master of the hell by all people who serve him, lying shepherd, who out of the spirit of haughtiness builds the throne of kingdom in man and the throne of his dominion over man, and man cannot get away from his authority?

Oh, there is much ingratitude between man and You, good Shepherd, gentle and full of patience, Lord, and now, I am speaking to the sons of Your people for a while and I am telling them this:

Oh, sons and daughters, oh, children of such great godly work coming down with God to you and upon you, always get great and endless gratitude for this gift given to you and for those who carry it to you and that takes care spiritually for those in heaven and for those on the earth for you, for your life has to be taken care of and this duty is so difficultly carried out for you. Oh, be full of gratitude and decent conduct, for you cannot be beautiful without this miracle what makes man into a son of the one who carries him. No steadfast son gives any command; he does not change the exhortation upon him, he does not show his wisdom before the one who wisely shares with him to be and to have God over him on earth and in heaven. Oh, therefore, take care sons so that you may not crush the power of those who carry you, and be thankful by your faithfulness, by your humility with love and by your obedience with propriety, for the Lord waits for you to shine through this and that their light might be seen upon you. Oh, be thankful with what you have, for you are poor, and be rich in holy gifts, be nourished and clothed with them, and humble yourselves for them; humble yourselves more and always to be carriers of the gifts from heaven and to be the sons of the Most High, Who gives you from His highness with much humility, for He comes down to you.

Oh, do not even mention the sin of ingratitude. Be gentle in your heart and mind and with their work so that you may be thankful for the good bestowed upon you, sons. Be full of gifts, and do not be short on holy gifts in you, which give holiness and holy stature to each other, for each other sons, as man can hardly separate himself from what he learns and what he does, and you, by working the holy things will hardly be able to separate yourself from them, and they from you, for they come into the man's nature and being and give birth to a man from heaven, from the holy things and for the holy things always, and the Romanian people will have the Lord's bride into its midst, adorned for her Bridegroom, Christ.

I would like the Lord to get away from this satanic arch-hierarch, who out of haughtiness makes a throne in man and he has got such a big flock that the man's eyes cannot see. Oh, I would like the Lucifer's work to be destroyed from the man's mind and heart, and on this day, I want to give you gifts from above: gentleness, faithfulness, abstinence, holy propriety, and I also want to give you the spirit of thankfulness for all these, oh, sons and daughters of this word from above upon you, and may you rejoice the Lord sharing all these, and let them be seen that they are in you, and then let their spring of water be seen as well. Amen.

Oh, I pray to You, merciful Lord, adorn them with all Your dear and holy adornments and let no one be more beautiful than them on the earth, and let them also be thankful and let them have the right conduct for it. Peace to You on their behalf, peace, Lord, and let the comfort from them always heal Your pain! Amen.

— Oh, together with Your bishop Nicholas, I also have My day of feast among the saints, the female martyr Philothea, my Lord, Please clothe Your people with the garment of glory, with the garment of Your mercy, so that Your people of today may have fathers, because it is hard on earth without fathers, without the Lord and without His saints with them, for I had You as mother and father as I had no other fatherly help, I had much happiness in my little soul from my love for You and I felt that there was no other happy man on earth besides me, as I was longing after You, as little as I was, but my longing for You exceeded my measure, and he had from You and adorned me and clothed me with the garment of the glory from above, oh, Lord. I thank you with great humility that I am staying now near You with the saints and I am speaking to Your people of today, which all the saints and all the angels wait, look at it and bless it, and for their choice they need humility as there has never been in ages and they need much thankfulness for what they are and what they do, for You are their Shepherd and You teach them everything, and they have to be good at studying and obedience. Peace to You from us and from them, too! Like the father Nicholas, who are celebrated today, I, Your female martyr, express my wish to You on their behalf too, and let they not forget about the holy gifts and about their duty before You, oh, Lord Shepherd. Amen.

— Oh, how beautiful are the feed of those who publish peace! (See Is. 52:7) Take from the joy of My word coming down over My people, oh, saints, loved and great within your love by your self-denial with which you have come before Me and before the people on the earth.

Peace upon Me and peace upon you from My saints, well, well, My people! Oh, you should learn like this and you should give Me as well, and after that you should be able to say this: Peace to You, Lord, peace from us to You!

Oh, My people, you should learn as in school, you should get My word and you should bring forth fruit upon your life; then you should also learn to have for all your benefactors from heaven and from the earth, and do not have many desires but rather be great within the gift of giving, well son, and My joy from you will relieve Me, will comfort Me and it will comfort Me much, oh, My people, taught by God, your Shepherd, from heaven and from earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy hierarch Spyridon, the miracle worker

(Excerpt)

… — Oh, My Father Sabaoth, pain is Our power. It has as much power as love has. We are going to sow with it the righteousness and its much seed upon those who have been doing injustice to the Romanian people now.

Stand up, those who are great in your heart and wisdom of the holy justice and do not stop from watching, for I, the Lord, looked at you all the time and I always look at you and see the wisdom in which you stay, for you are among those who do not suck blood, but give strength to the Romanian people by the watch in which you stay and speak through it. And as far as this vamp concerns, this spirit of a red-dressed woman riding on the beast, (The politic power, from the „political left", r.n.), sucking the blood of the Romanian people in the name of Mammon, it is written in the Scriptures the curse on her, and let the money of her sin fall on her head together with the price of her immorality, as it is written about the beast, (The power which governs at one given moment, r.n.), that from the end of the time, and about the woman, (The Church of a nation, r.n.), which sits riding on the beast, and about its lawlessness, too. (The agreement among the ruling priests of the church to sustain a certain political party at elections, so that after this party comes into power, to give money to the church from the public budget, r.n.). I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word of God Sabaoth, and this kind of sword (The sword of word, r.n.) is written for the vamp that is hidden now under its purple, deceiving the nations all over the earth, and this boastful spirit, like that of Goliath, will lose its head under its sword, for it has built its house on the sand. Amen.

… Now, I am making the way for the holy feast for the hierarch Spyridon, the one full of grace, full of much, much grace, for on this day the saints and the host of the bishops in heaven and on earth are ministering and praising because of this great and celebrated servant, who has kept near him at service the angelic armies and given them power over the earth with their graces.

Oh, peace to you among the saints of the heaven, the one exalted by the Lord on earth, for I gave you grace over grace for you to take and to show its works! Those who are true in service and faithfulness have a feast for you on this day, and those who have turned off from the fathers and from the holy customs (Including the Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.), boast that they are celebrating the Lord's birth, My birth two thousand years ago, but woe to their celebration, for their service is idol worshipping and this feast has no longer been at its place, which I and My saints have kept at its place, and then the feast of My Birth comes on earth. I will become a word of birth on that day, a day moved from its place by the antichrist servants, the one revealed forever and pointed by the finger that is a real enemy and not a true servant, as the world believes that he is a true servant and praises him when it sees him clothed in holy garment.

And as for you, My apostle, celebrated today, write yourself into My book of these days with your feast, for I, Lord, am writing My word in it and it remains open on earth for the salvation of the nations, as it is written. Amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth

I am coming down with the glory of word on the earth as I have a manger of descent and I am putting My word in it and then I am sharing it and the news about Me goes from place to place and becomes joy in the hearts, for I have to sow salvation upon men, because I descended from near My Father Sabaoth and I was born a child from the womb of the Virgin to be Savior, and My birth was foretold by the angels.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am the One foretold by the angels in the night of My birth on the earth. King Herod could not destroy My coming, for My angel followed Me everywhere and proclaimed My protection step by step, and it was fulfilled precisely and the Father made Me a way through all that difficult time on the earth because I had nowhere to settle down with My coming, which was so mysterious and kept with so much humility, because I was not of this world and that is why My kingdom has nothing in it, and the angel prepared My birth in a manger near a hostel and this how the way was made for My coming on the earth, and I came down in a humble way, as in heaven there is humility, great beauty, and always glory, and the angels sang to Me on the earth in the hearing and seeing of the sheep shepherds and they spoke to them about My birth, for My angel stood before them and enveloped them in the light and he told them: «Don't be afraid of this celestial vision, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. For there is born to you, this day, in Bethlehem, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. You will find Him wrapped in strips of cloth in a manger of straw». (See also Luke: 2/10-12) Suddenly, with My angel there was seen a multitude of the heavenly army praising God and saying: «Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, and good will toward men». (Luke: 2/14) And this is how My angel protected My being and this is how he announced Me, together with a great heavenly army. Then I lived on earth thirty-three years and I brought before people the Scripture of the Lord's coming, the coming of the One Who was prophesied by the prophets that would come, and this is how I fulfilled My Father's will, for the Father had sent Me after man.

Then the Father, by the announcement made through an angel, took Me into Egypt to protect Me from the hand of Herod who murdered all the little children at that time, and after the Father had struck Herod dead, and then again, He brought Me back again at the angel's announcement, and I went to live in Nazareth; and everything was fulfilled with the humility that was given to Me to fulfill according to the tradition, and My birth took place according to its whole order, and the angels ministered to Me.

Oh, mother Virgin, you were aggrieved at that time, because I was a little baby, and you had to take care of Me, and then you had to bear the whole humility for My coming. You were going with Me from place to place, you, those who had My birth and its persecution that came from Herod, and you and Joseph were wandering in sufferance carrying My into your arms, as everywhere there was only oppression or Us.

It is a feast for My birth on this day, oh, My mother Virgin, and now it is the memorial of that great and praised night when you did not find any place to rest where to give Me birth on earth, the One born of your virgin womb, mother. Your joy because of My birth overflowed in your little heart, for your humility grew once with the pain that came because you and I had been rejected, and at the same it was also the whole persecution that came from King Herod, and because of that We went into Egypt, and then We came back again, and I grew up in Nazareth and from time to time I appeared to Israel after that, because I had to fulfill all the prophecies about Me, oh, mother.

Many people have been singing the song for My birth at that time, from that time and up to this day, but My pain and yours is not born in hearts, mother. Oh, how small God is on the earth, mother! This is how man wants, oh, mother, and he wants the Lord to serve him, and you cry for My mercy, for your love for Me, oh, My mother, for I am the One Who am not loved by man and I mourn in heaven with you and with the Father, for man is cold to God, oh, mother.

— Oh, do not cry, do not cry, Child born in Bethlehem, in the time of the King Herod, for I want You to have joys, as this is how a mother comforts her baby so that he may not cry, so that he may not suffer. Oh, Your Spirit has been crying for two thousand years and You have been crying for love, too. Oh, Your love for which You were born and which You came to bring and set it here on earth has been crying too. Oh, Your long waiting has also been crying, my Son, Jesus Christ. I have always cried in silence for You, Who were persecuted from Your birth and until Your return in the glory from above near the Father Sabaoth. You and I are celebrated, and we are celebrated in heaven, and we comfort each other's tear and its love, and our waiting gives us power, patience and it also gives the hope prophesied into the Scriptures.

Oh, Son, Emanuel, suffering Child and without any shelter on earth, is there really any Christian to be able to confess You with his mouth and deed? The Christians live a pagan life on earth, mixed with idol worshipping, even if according to the tradition they are baptized in Your name. Oh, what shall we do to get them used to the truth of the joys, to the tear for You, suffering Son from man? The sighing of Your birth on that night is as heavy and crushed in me now as at that time, and I want to protect You from pains as I did at that time, for I am a mother. Oh, the time will come when we will no longer cry, for everything will be renewed, as with the first beauty when man did not hurt the Lord; however, that lasted only for a moment, and after that man has made God grow small and he has grown big over himself and over everything, and this is how he has known himself like that from that time and up to this day.

We ask for mercy from man, Son from above. We beg for a place to rest, but the place in the man's house is very small and narrow for God and is full of idols just as on the night of Your birth, and man will no longer be happy but only then when the Lord will be so, as both in joy and in sorrow man has to be in God's image and take after His likeness, as the Lord is kept to be, after man has exalted himself with his greatness before the heaven and before the earth.

Now we are keeping in our memorial the pain of the joy which we had in the time of Your birth on the earth and we hope that the pain will give forth to the condition from above between man and God, for all things have come to an end, and the beginning is being established, oh, dear Son. Amen.

— Oh, when the beginning was, the word was too, and God was the Word, oh, My mother, and I was the Word, and behold, the beginning has been set again, for I become word between heaven and earth and I build Jerusalem, mother, but I suffer from man and I have wounds at My hands and legs, and My forehead is bound over the wound, but this is how I work and this is how I build, for there is no healing for the Lord. When man suffers from something he quickly runs to the doctor for his healing, but My healing has no cure, it has no doctor, because this means man to be My healer. Oh, if I thought only for a moment at Myself the heaven and the earth would no longer be, and rather they would be shaken and disappear. Oh, mother, if those who carry Me today as word on the earth thought of themselves, I would no longer have a way on the earth or a place for rest, and neither would I have any people to welcome God or any watching upon him and building with it on earth. Oh, it was very hard for Me two thousand years ago to make all those that Father had chosen for Me deny themselves and give Me their life, their body, their walking, their speech and their heart to build Myself in it for the salvation of many, when I asked them this and I said: «I in you and you in Me; go into My name and save the people, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near to them and worthy is the worker for his wages then, for sings and miracles will accompany you and you will preach My Gospel to the margins of the earth and many will be saved through it».

Oh, Romanian people, My people from the end of the time, I have built in you now both My Bethlehem and Nazareth and the word for My second coming together with My entire work for the end of the time, and from your hearth I watch upon you and I protect you and I also watch over the nations by My angels and I put My seal, the seal of My name over the document of your birth by My word from above and you will not be able to hide before Me and before the people with your origin that you have got from Me, (See „History of Romania part 1 to part 16" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xjj0j-7ZvkM , r.n.) as I have been waiting for you from the beginning and until the end to be My country of today where I may come and set the judgment throne of the creature, the kingdom and the renewal of everything by the word, as in the beginning, when at My word, the heaven and the earth, were made under the eyes of God and under the eyes of His angels.

Oh, Romanian people, you have not sufficiently understood the time of your visitation, but we will shake our hands more and more tightly and we will read from the heights the book of the love between Me and you, and the nations who are far from Me will seek after you and they will take from your hearth the hidden manna and will find the mystery of their rescue and salvation and they will find the law of love and forgiveness, too, for I have loved you from beginning and to end and I have been waiting for you here, at the end of the time, and I have My glory in you now, and with love like fire I am writing Myself on your hearth and I am setting Myself down into My book of today and it is the throne of judgment for all the creature and everything will come into being at once by My word, which renews the world. Oh, I miss you and I want you to believe

My coming to you, for I have been longing for it. The kings and the rulers want you to belong to them, as they have found your mystery that I have given you, but I want you to be Mine, and My longing keeps you in Me, and I watch upon you with the angelic hosts, My country of today. Oh, it is a day of feast of the birth into your midst and at My manger of word, I am speaking upon you and I am sending it to you to hear Me and no longer to live a pagan life, oh, Christian country, for your spend the holy feasts in a pagan way and there is no one to tell you that you go wrong with God, and I, the Lord, come and tell you about your mistake, and I also tell you that man can be more happier than when he makes his happiness on the earth with his services during the feasts. Oh, My dear country, you should suffer for God and you should comfort His wound and He will prepare for you feasts and glory in the feasts, as man does not have to celebrate like that but with a heavenly glory into his midst, for without the Lord everything is wilderness and it is hell on earth.

Oh, sons of men, oh, sons, when you run across something of greatness, something of great height, you those, who have big and sensitive hearts for those things that are great at sight on earth, then you are thrilled, you wonder, you rejoice when you go into a high place of church and full of adornments made by the hand of a skilled worker in order to attract those who pass by. Oh, here I am, the Lord, coming down on your way as word with power in it, full of greatness in the word, on the way of clouds coming down to you and speaking with you, and you do not startle as then when you see with your eyes something great on earth. Oh, behold what man means and behold what God means, for man rejoices, man marvels, man exalts himself within his mind and with the look of his mind and heart, and the Lord comes down, He humbles Himself and He suffers when He sees that man does no longer startle to want his meeting with Me, and he would not startle even if I were gentle and humble in his way, as I and only I am truly so, for only God is so in spirit and likeness, and man is not like that.

My birth in man is the greatest miracle over which man should rejoice so much; and he should rejoice much more than the shepherds on the hill who had heavenly guests before their huts on the night of My birth, singing to them a song of praise and a heavenly song and telling them about the birth of the Savior of the whole world, and after that they saw Me born in a manger at Bethlehem.

I can hardly make My work given to Me by the Father to accomplish, and I can do it with difficulty, as two thousand years ago, when I came, when I grew up and when I chose My disciples, and then when I went with them from place to place leaving signs and miracles behind us to draw the people to the Father, oh, and the burden of the lack of love from man was heavy for Me. Even My disciples hurt Me while I loved them so much and I was teaching them to stay close together, to bear the Lord on the earth, and they were cold, and some of them hurt Me and I endured them, as one of them even betrayed Me and sold Me to be given to death; then another one denied Me, and still another one did not believe in My resurrection, and I told them that My soul was exceedingly sorrowful, even to death, but they did not know why; they did not know that I was sorrowful because of them, because instead of watching for Me they fall asleep, and then I told them: «Sleep on now, and take your rest, for the ruler of the world is coming to take Me from near you!» (See also Matt: 26/45) I sent them to sleep, for I was sorrow because of their lack of power and watch for Me, and My pain was great, and it is still great now when I want to receive birth in man and man cannot do this. I am hurt when I see that man watches so much for his idol pleasures and does not fall asleep, and I want to appease him and I want to give him other joys, true joys.

I will make with the Father a heavenly spectacle on the earth, I will show the happiness to man and I will show him those who are righteous for it, so that the people may mourn because they did not know how to seek after their happiness and its dwelling places, from where no one would leave if one would be sent on the earth as I was sent to take on My shoulders misery and sigh, and by My sufferance to strengthen the dwelling place of those who are happy and heirs of the happiness, which they wanted in the time of their waiting for it, as only those who are happy on the earth with a beauty from heaven, only they learn and then reach there where they look with longing, and there happiness is without end. Amen.

I am coming down on earth as word and I call man to happiness and to its truth. I am stopping here, at the place of My descent, and I am staying with the glory of the word before those who have been coming with the carols of My birth on this day, and I want to give them My joy. Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth, and goodwill among people! I am also singing the song of the angels of My birth; I, the Lord, Who was born in a manger on the straw two thousand years ago, the One glorified by the angels and by all heavenly powers on the night of My birth; on the night when I did not have any place in the house of rest, but only outside on straw, warmed at the bosom of My mother Virgin and watched by the gentle Joseph and by the angels against the rage of Herod, who was seeking to take My life.

My word is My messenger and it is that which sends My word to those who are thirsty of heaven, My comfort to them on a day of holy feast, the feast of My birth on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil the Great, Gregory, the God speaker and John, the Golden Mouth

I am entering into My book of today as word and I am making My dwelling place in it and then I am going again with My written word over the earth and I am sighing through the word and I am sighing with the Father and with the saints, for I have reasons to sigh, and I have been sighing for seven thousand years.

I am blessing the power of those who carry Me in the word to My book, and let the heavenly powers work power for My descent, for it has to be carried. On earth it has to be as in haven for My descending, and the heavenly powers can work in heaven and they give power to the fulfillments that are to be accomplished and carried out. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, told to My disciples two thousand years ago to ask from the Father in My name everything they needed, and anything they might ask I would give them. This wisdom is great and it needs great fulfillment, as there is much need of God on earth and then there is also need of heavenly powers for the fulfillment of the word of prayer from earth to heaven, and man has to learn the heavenly laws for him on the earth with much diligence, and then God will also work with man by the man's wisdom, for where there is no wisdom for those in heaven, there is no useful faith either. Oh, man does not have to get used to faith, as it has to be always built and accompanied by the heavenly powers for its fulfillment, as otherwise the man's faith is like a leaf on the water and it does not bring forth any fruit and truth.

I am sitting at the table of word with those in heaven into your midst, people gifted with so much food of word by God. I have with Me at the table friends from heaven, wise servants in their time on earth and great workers of miracles and word, and also bishops according to their churchly rank in their time. With each holy feast, we, those in heaven and those on the earth, speak for the spirit of the feast and we give voice to it. The spirit of the holy teaching flows upon man from this heavenly spring, and power to carry God is needed both from heaven and from earth; much help is needed because My word upon man also needs much word, much living and then much fulfillment.

Oh, joy for the Lord and for man is needed. I want to be the man's joy and he has to be My joy, My power for him. Oh, man, this is what you have to know! You, and if you are established, and if you go wrong, rejoice over your Savior with a sweet and holy propriety, always having your sins before you, for which you have a Savior Who was set on the cross for you, and do not be ashamed for them, oh, no, but rather humble yourself and get up to punish them from all your heart, for you have a Savior. Oh, who makes the man cry? Only sin can do this. Oh, how can sin do this? Yes, sin submits before love, as love makes man gentle and sensitive and then man cries before his Savior, Christ, Who washes away the sins of the world as Lamb and it makes man gently and to say: Oh, little and merciful Lamb, you took my place before the judge satan, who accuses me. I am the one who went wrong, and You are the One Who made atonement for me and my sin is constantly before me, but You are constantly with me too, Lord, my Savior, and You paid for my wrongdoings.

Behold how much affection and power for love man is able to have, the man who realizes all the time how sinful he is! Can he separate himself from the Lord afterwards? Oh, no! He feels the Lord in him living there by the brokenness of his heart full of warmth for the One in heaven Who is his Master, for the One Who saves the sinful one by His mercy for man. Oh, how affectionate king David was and how much comforted he was when he was saying: «For I know my transgressions. My sin is constantly before me. Against You, and against You alone have I sinned, and done that which is evil in Your sight, that You may prove right when You speak, and justified when You judge… Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Let me hear joy and gladness, that the bones which You have broken may rejoice… Create in me a clean heart, oh, God. Renew a right spirit within me. Restore to me the joy of your salvation. Uphold me with a willing spirit… Lord, open my lips. My mouth shall declare your praise». (Ps: 51 MT = 50 LXX/3-15)

I am sitting at the table of word with the bishops celebrated in a churchly manner in heaven and on earth on this day, and the teaching of today is great and it is that of a bishop. Oh, let us work for the Father and for His joy from man then, My beloved bishops! I in you, and you in Me, as this mystery and unity work between Me and the Father, and let us become word and with it let us give food. Amen.

— We are one in the word, too, our Lord and King on earth and in heaven. We have to tell the people the word of the Scripture of two thousand years ago, which says: «We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin». (1 John: 5/18) Oh, how shall we do so that all people may consider that which we are bringing now to the renewal in their minds and to the fulfillment in the works of their lives, oh Lord? Oh, people need love. Sin submits before love and love makes man sensitive and gentle, and then it makes him humble before You and then man seeks after comfort for Your wounds from him and he wants to heal them for You, and Your comfort from him becomes his comfort and his salvation, and behold how much power love has, Lord!

Oh, if it were possible, Lord, we would stand up to visible work and we would go on our feet visibly high and low through the midst of the people, and we would tell them about this comfort from them to You, and then from You to them, for people do not have any comfort, they do not have, Lord, for they are condemned by sin, and the sin hides its ugly face and the spirit of the devil, which becomes sin in man. Those, who have heard from Your mouth during these days that there is no man without a demon in him, got upset, but only the one who is born of God does not sin, oh,

Lord, and this is what man has to know and he has to humble himself much because of his weakness, and then, out of his humility, Lord, bring forth wisdom for him and make the man incline to a sweet spirit face to face with God, with You, Lord, Who bring the devil judgment on behalf of man so that You may redeem the man in such a way that he may no longer be the devil's dwelling place.

Behold, there is comfort in pain, and there is both for You, Lord, and for man, too, only for man to be able to work, only that he may want to build the citadel of comfort. The evil spirit flees from the spirit of comfort and he has been struggling full of fear for two thousand years, since You promised that You would sent the spirit of comfort, the Holy Spirit the Comforter, so that He may be on earth for many of those who love You with longing and who can share Him with those who are not comforted, with those who suffer from sin.

Oh, Lord, Comforter, we are sitting at the table of word into the midst of the people of Your word. On the table with it, we put our word near Your word that is set on the table. First, Your people has to take from the table, then it has to share Your word, and finally, this seed has to bring forth fruit in many. You have given us the work of blessing, the work of watch and of victory for You and for the people of Your word and we stay into its midst for blessing, Lord, and we do not leave this place, oh, and how much the heaven dwells here with its watch! There would be nothing and no one on the land of Your choice here if the heavenly powers did not work and did not watch without rest and without bounds here, and much and holy propriety has to go from here up to You, for a heavenly army dwells here and it watches and sees, it works and it surrounds with power every piece of its side and each little corner here.

Oh, how much blessing is needed here always, Lord! But how much blessing has to be on earth, oh, Lord. Oh, the evil spirit has to grow week, for we, those who have had the rank of a bishop before You and before men, then and now, we speak the word against the evil spirit to go out completely and for good with its corruption from men; to come out and never to come back, and not settle with its work on other places, and let its power grow weak and then come out, for all things are Yours, Lord, everywhere, and people have to be taught so that they may no longer give any power to the devil, but rather to give You all their power, and then they have to be truly baptized in Your word in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and then they should no longer get out of this bathroom, but they have to be worthy of a new shirt, of new love, of new life and of new age on the earth with the people, Lord. Let the evil spirit hear what we speak with You at the table of word into the midst of Your people of New Jerusalem, in Your citadel of today on the hearth of the Romanian people, where You and we, Your saints, set the word of the teaching of life. There is no school on earth, there isn't, and on the earth there is something else that goes with this name. Only the Lord is a school for man, only You, Lord, and he who does not live and does not learn within You, is lamentable. Oh, how are people supposed to come to this spring when they stick to their passing glory, as though it would never come to an end? Do they think what will come to them after their will, their power and their glory will have decreased?

Behold, sin is always today and it brings into bondage the man who is not born of God and who does not want to be born from above so that he may be able to stand against sin after that, and we have been sitting near You, Lord, on this day, and we have been speaking the right word, and if the power that carries You in Your coming with the saints were greater, there would be abundance of word and wisdom from above like the river through the word over the earth. And You, Good and Gentle Savior, You will give power and comfort upon them and will strengthen Your way, and then You will gifts all of them with holy powers on and on, with powers for You,

Lord, for Your way is hard, but it is beautiful for those who know to endure everything for You on their way, for Your love with them and for Your great mercy and salvation over the people, over many, oh, Lord. Amen.

— I, the Lord, can work both in heaven and on earth for My people, but if I endured much on earth, and I am enduring now in heaven too, those who love Me have to know it as well; they have to know what a high price the life with the Lord is. Who would not rejoice over his life only in happiness on the earth? However, the life that is not tested, has no price, it cannot bring joy without any labor for joy.

I am blessing My people for power so that it may have power for Me, and I also need to have power for it and for many through it, and you, loved saints and rich in graces, stand before Me for My people of today and watch it from heaven and from near it, for this is what I have given you to do. Let the spirit who stands against Me and against them hurt them no longer, and let only the spirit of comfort be with them, and then let their love for God be nourished in such a way that it may teach them the work of comfort, the work of humility of spirit, by which the spirit of comfort will overflow in them within with all its power. Amen.

I have sat in counsel with you, and I have sat with you at the table, oh, My beloved saints and great with the holly work here. I have been sitting with you at the table of word into the midst of the people of My word of today. The whole heaven takes My word from this table, the word of comfort. The whole heaven are My witnesses when I come here, when I come as word on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the tax collector and Pharisee

(Excerpt)

… Oh, the sin of hypocrisy, which dwells in the heart and deed of the Christian, has cut down many feet of the Christians all the time of My today's word over the earth. I came with the word in the year of 1955 through the voice of a trumpet, as it is written in the Scriptures for Me to work, and I worked to build a people to be only Mine and the Christian no longer to be his own and so that I may have disciples now as I had two thousand years ago, so few in regard to My great pain in the midst of Israel which was full of the spirit of hypocrisy face to face with God's Son, Who was not welcomed by them because of their pride, a sin for which they used the sin of hypocrisy so much.

… Behold, there comes the preparation for the beginning of the fast, severe and harsh in the body of the Christian, and much teaching for the fasting is needed, for one has to fast from the sin of hypocrisy, then from the sin of self-longing, and then after that much repentance is needed, and only in this way should one work the time of the fasting for the memorial and for the living of My passions when I laid down My body to be crucified on the cross in order to pay in this way for the man's wandering away from God, the Father. Therefore, we remember now the parable of the tax collector and the Pharisee, which I set two thousand years ago in the book of My Gospel at that time, and let all the people of My word open wide their eyes to the word of this Gospel and chew it much and let them ask themselves much and seriously correct themselves, because the sin of hypocrisy bursts in upon man when it finds in him the lack of the spirit of humility.

… My teaching upon you goes like lightning[201] everywhere and it brings forth much fruit in those who want their salvation, and you should help Me to come and to put the instruction of the eternal life upon you always so that the God Word may be here, Who is to teach the man the way, the truth and the life with Me, sons. Amen.

The Sunday of the prodigal son

I lay down the spirit of comfort on the way of My descent as word over the earth and I put away from My way the blow of the storm, which tries to speak and weaken the power of My coming with food of word to those who take from My table, and I am telling the storm to calm down, and it will calm down, and those who are My path will be able to come for Me. Amen.

Oh, My people, you are born of this word during these days of My coming now on the earth. Oh, son, for each attempt to weaken My coming as word on the earth and to weaken My walking with you on the way, fast and prayer are needed, and one needs love in everything, too, well My people, for God is love, and you should serve Me with love and with patience for it, and then each one of you should always devote yourself with everything you are, as the self-love tries to whisper the man to stop for himself, and the life which does not give itself is a life without any joys and without any reward, for the big mystery is that man may have joy. Oh, who is to teach the man of what he should build joy for himself? It is built by giving, and the giving comes from love; it comes from God in man, for I gave Myself completely and I did not take into account anyone's worthiness or his lack of worthiness when I gave Myself equally to those who humbled and humble themselves to believe in Me so that they may be able to receive from Me the commitment itself, that is man surrendering himself.

We are ordaining instruction on a day of Sunday. This is the food from above: the teaching springing from My mouth for the man's life, for I, the Lord Jesus Christ, have been giving to those who are faithful to Me the power to become sons of God and I have given them My love too in order to have love, and by its power to become sons, and I am to have a people of sons of love so that I may walk with them and be their God, as it is written.

On this Sunday, we bring to memory the parable of the father with two sons, one with love and obedience to the father, and the other one with self-love and obedience likewise. Behold, it is not well for man to take his life out of My hand and guide it by himself. When you are the son of one father and you get away from his house and go into the world, then you are no longer faithful even to yourself, but you do not see that this is how your mind leads you to believe that it can be otherwise, only that the deceiving joys do not warm up the man as true joys, for they soon come to an end, and woe to those with no wisdom, who do not see this deception!

The younger of the two sons of the father from the parable of this day went away from the house of his father; he asked from the father all his rights from his inheritance and then he went away and lived his life by himself, and one day his pleasures came to an end and he saw that he went wrong denying his father because of his self-love, and then he went back to ask permission from the father to come and receive him among the servants who worked in his father's household and thus to have something to eat from this work. Oh, and when he had come to realize fully that he went wrong and that he had nothing more to ask but mercy, he went to confess his errancy and wrong doing, he went to his father, and his father received the humble son and there was joy in their house because of the one who had wandered away from his house and from his life for such a long time. Oh, but why did his father receive him? He received him because this son had denied himself; this son who had wandered away from love did not expect anything after that but only mercy.

Behold, he who comes to Me needs deny himself when he comes lest by his coming, he may not come, or by his not coming to go away after he has come to stay for a while. Oh, how well it is with the man who can deny himself, oh, how well! Only one like that truly tastes from the joy of life fully. However, if self-denial does not have in its dough the love from God and a loving spirit of people, it can be brought to shame when tested. That is why one always needs teaching over those that are good for man and over his faith, as man is not able to make his own faith, but only the tests of his faith proves it, and then he can prove his love and his steadfastness, lest it may happen to the faithful one as to the elder son from the parable of the father with two sons, the parable, which has to be well and churchly analyzed on this Sunday, as the elder son was deeply sorrow because of the joy in his father's house on the day when his brother came back for mercy, repenting from his wandering away. Oh, it is not hard for man to sacrifice himself and to sacrifice himself with all his things, by everything he is, but if he does not know what kind of flavor to give to his commitment and what kind of self-denial to give, behold, he gives himself away without love, when this is put to test in man.

Oh, the life among those in the world is hard, as it is for those in the world, too, who do not know that there is also other happiness than that, which man knows as happiness. I have always taught you, My people, not to go into the world, son. I do not go into the world anymore. That is why I have been teaching you not to go, for the world empties you of power, then it divests you of your life and then of your faith, as everywhere there are servants dressed in sheep skins and they stay at the crossroads and are paid to look out for you on your way and to punish you by stripping you off the garment of your faith in My coming of today as word on the earth, and I have always descended upon you as word and I have always taught you the work of obedience, because I have left much instruction into your midst to listen to it, My son, and then for you to be added to the number of the sons of obedience, for this table always needs to have sons, set apart for God, sitting at it, always for sanctification, and I painfully see how much some of them struggle to depart from those that are required earnestly to be known by those who have set apart for Me, the holy One, for I spoke to those who have set apart for Me: «Be holy for I am holy!»

Oh, Christian who struggle to take the liberty of walking alone into the world and to having desires that divest you of your watch for God; oh, son, on this way, you have to pay attention to your walking, and you need self-denial. Sometimes, I have tried to sneak in with the things that I have to tell those who do no longer want to stay as My church, but they have got their own rest while I am not at rest from their life that has come out of My guidance and which has been stuck to decaying pillars, which are not from among those that I have set apart, and I, the Lord, stand and gaze with those that I have set for guidance, watchmen that I have empowered with watching from heaven for the steps and the life of My people that I have chosen, as the Christians are not used to liking the watching upon them, they are not used to liking and taking after Me, Who do not make any steps, Who do not do have any desires that is not from the Father and which is not given to Me by the Father in order to carry out and fulfill them under His great glory and in His whole light and Mine.

Oh, here it is why the Christian, who has been walking with Me years in a row, was not able to take part at the table of the new Passover; the Christian, who has been taking Me many years to prepare him to be and to have at his table other Christians who walked with Me and whom

I taught much, much, with respect to the way the man is supposed to be at this feast of holy Passover, with holy people at the table and set apart for Me, forever with Me, not only for a while, and not only with the Christians, halved in their bodies and fulfillment that is especially required at this table, and behold, many have been staying with one leg next to Me and with the other into the world, and one cannot be with God only halfway, but how many people have believed this?

Oh, behold how man withdraws from the table of My happiness for a people that is only Mine! He likes to be more with the things he has learned on the earth from the ruler of the darkness of this passing age and who has spread his merchandise everywhere to draw those that are Mine to it so that they may no longer be Mine, and to enchant them and to sweeten their heart and will towards those who are put before all condemned people so that they may like the passing world, and then the Christian to tell Me that he is forced to go and walk in the realms left outside, not being supervised by anyone from among those who are set to watch for My people, not authorized by Me, and he is not sent by Me to go as I authorize those that go but do not go for themselves.

Oh, son, nourished with My heavenly mercy, oh, how comes that you have not liked to be a little child in order to have My kingdom and its immeasurable riches and not to have your kingdom and your will, or to have the kingdom of the world put before you and where you hurry as many times as you long for it, as if you did not long for it, you would be afraid to go and keep going to draw the angels from haven after you and thus to make them mourn because of your lack of walking with light on your way.

Oh, I have gathered you, those in whom I have hoped, as I have also hoped in those who have left from My table with you, Christians that should stay clean from all those on the earth at My new table, at the feast of the new wine promised to you even from the beginning of My word by My trumpet Verginica; promised that it would come, that the time of the holy feast would be with you, the Lord as body and word at the table with My obedient and chosen people, and if I have gathered you together, then I am going to tell you My pain.

Oh, if the love in many people changes, then I will suffer. The Christian starts with love, with faith, with faithfulness and then he becomes an opponent and strikes on the sides with discontent. Oh, how painful! Oh, what shall I do under this pain? Oh, why has the Christian got such expectations of God? And why should the Lord not have expectations of him instead? Oh, how ugly and how lowly it falls the apparent love between Christian and God, after the Christian has indulged himself with perishing emptiness, getting used to it and even to God in such a way that he may no longer listen to Him and follow Him! And even more, these have come to hate Me and separate themselves from Me. However, those who keep on loving, they are satisfied with love and give it entirely to Me, and I give it to them too; I give them comfort on their way with Me and I help them to remain in love always, for the love between man and Me cannot be otherwise, it cannot be as between man and man, where it gets old, where it gets ugly, and where it grows less because of sin and it does no longer have beauty and freshness like that in heaven.

Behold, the work for the Lord is like a school, like teaching, like an offering, like the love for the Lord and for one's neighbor, so that all may be one, and whoever cannot do so, one like that does not know, he does not learn what the life with Christ is and what it expects from man. I have set good teaching on My table with you, My people. Those who take My teaching from you get sweetened with it, they are comforted with it, they are nourished with it, they clothe with it and they also wait for My victory over the world, as once again the time will come for Me to overcome the world, and I will do this through My obedient people. Amen.

Now, I am establishing you in the spirit of comfort, all of you. I am sending to you comforting angels, healers of spiritual and bodily pains, and you should strengthen each other in the love for Me, and all together to have the same desire for everything that has to be fulfilled. I am the One Who stays at the helm of each storm that might try to weaken your peace and your walking, and you have to strengthen yourselves in Me with great faith, sons, for everything is possible with the one who has got faith in Me. Oh, comfort and help each other while you are under the burden of the soul and body, and all of you should watch for all those things that are to be worked either by the spirit or by the hand, and in everything let Me be the beginning and the end, the word and the fulfilled work, sons. Behold, the sun is coming and is warming up the sky. Receive power. I, the Lord, always foment your wounds, I always comfort your longing and waiting and I always give you power and health to your body and soul, sons. Be faithful and ask Me for your progress with My entire word before you, with My whole coming, for it will not stop from its course and from its working, and I am the One Who fulfills in this way.

I am embracing you and comforting you, for your hearts are weakened, but I am the One Who strengthens you, and you will be strengthened, sons. I, the Lord, have always, always, overcome for you, for My walking with you. We will always overcome, always, and we will be victorious. Amen.

Rejoice, Jerusalem, rejoice over the One Who builds you up and give praise to His name, for the Lord loves His people, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, sons, who have not listened beautifully to My word so that it may be fulfilled upon you according to My plan, oh, bring your knees and your forehead down to the ground and deepen yourselves in prayer and repentance and take from the saints the voice of their prayer and tell Me with tears: „We do not have our heart full of pain to seek after You, Lord. We neither have the repentance nor the humility that turns the sons back, and we do not have tears as well, for our sight and our faith have been darkened and we have forgotten all our memories with You and our heart has grown cold. However, we pray to You to get up for us and to breathe in us the spirit of repentance and the lack of vindication for our sins made by accusing others for our salvation, and make us seek after You; and then further, we pray to You to strengthen Your image in us, for we have forsaken You and we have come out from You and afterwards we have estranged ourselves from You and from the sheep of Your flock, in whose hearts Your revelations shine, Lord, and the comfort for their toil and patience in troubles, for Your grace is great and abundant, and please give us the grace to be part of Your mercy for those who, by their repentance, obey You." Amen.

The Sunday of the fearful judgment

Peace to you, peace to those who hear My word while it is coming and writing itself into its book of today to be shared with those who love it and take it as bread for their soul! Oh, peace to you, and share God further, as many have been waiting for My coming down into the word and many have been looking out of the window (The Internet window, r.n.) to see the word coming to them, and many keep the way of My word when it comes to them to give itself to them and they to have it as the word of life at their head, the word of God over the earth.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who take Me from those who receive Me and then share Me with you! Oh, listen to the word of eternal life when it reaches you! It is full of love and full of mercy and power for you, as it is hard on earth. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and My Father Sabaoth is sending Me to you as word on the earth. On the earth of the Romanian people, I have settled My manger of descent and I am coming down into it, and My word comes into being in its book. Oh, behold what mercy and what a miracle! Oh, behold what comfort! There is no comfort for man besides God; however, does the man want to understand this, to be full of longing, and to be alive after that for the Lord?

After I had built the man, I, the Lord, took care to teach him what to do and what not do to; however, the joy foreign from his Maker got into his heart. I felt he had a burden in his heart then and My place became uncomfortable and narrow in him and I could no longer find My peace inside man, for he had started to disobey the Lord and kept on doing this sin more and more, until the garden of paradise saw its enemy, for man did no longer seek with God, but rather he kept hiding from Him. Then the law of paradise chose to be with the Lord, and the law of man chose to be with the man and thus man fell from paradise; after that, the human kind has spread all over the earth, sons and daughters of the man built by God, and the children have taken after their parents on earth going down from one generation to another.

Then I proclaimed holy news to man and I descended on a high mountain and wrote with My finger the commandment of the love of God and I gave to men the commandments of life, for they had swerved from the way of life. For those who love God, I said: «You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself!» (See Deut: 6/5) And for those who do not love God I gave commandments against the sin people committed and commit every way possible because of their lack of love and I said: «You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony against your neighbor, you shall not covet your neighbor's house». (Ex: 20/13-17) And I said that to help man. I have been a nurse for man for so many thousands of years, and I have been doing My work over the earth through chosen vessels for Me, and I have not forsaken man after he had given himself to sin because of his lack of love for God. Oh, even today I am like a perseverant nurse and I always look down on earth to see man and to advised him on his way, for his way is full of sin, and then is full of dangers that come from sin, from the devil, for sin is the devil which hides from God, and it hides in man. However, I am the One Who pierces the heart and the man's kidneys and nothing is hidden from My eyes between heaven and earth, and here is what I do: After two thousand years from My coming on earth, in a body of a Virgin, becoming a Man to be able to come into the man's way and to prove My divinity, as I had already done that, oh, behold, I am coming again, and I am coming as word on the earth and I stay with it in the man's way, and I speak sweetly and entreatingly and I exhort him to understand his origin and to see where he comes from, where his origin is from and what he has to do for his coming back to his Father, to God, to love, for God is love from heaven, love as in heaven and not like on earth, as man does no longer know the origin of love and he takes from the devil a dirty love, love which betrays God, and what shall I do and give him to see this?

Oh, I come into your way, man. Remember Me! I wait for you to know Me as your God. Behold, you have made a Judge from your Maker. I sit on the throne of judgment for your works and I put them on My right or on My left side, and you will go there where they gather according to their kind. You cannot hide in you or in man; you cannot hide from God. You cannot kill Me so that I may no longer be, so that I may no longer know or see your estrangement from Me. Oh, remember your origin! Man was the work of My hands and I labored when I created him after I had made the heaven and the earth to serve him as his adornment and the man to rejoice over those that testify for Me before him, and I became tired while I was bringing them into being and then I rested from the labor of My spirit and body, for I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, was body from the very beginning, as God is, and I made man in God's image and after His likeness.

Oh, man, receive Me when I knock to receive Me! Turn back to your origin! Turn back before your works write your eternal place, for man is sinful and he will not have any joy from sin.

Oh, I sit on the throne of glory and I speak to man and I am surrounded by the angelic armies, as it is written into the Scriptures the sight of My glory. My very mouth spoke about the day when I would speak with all people, and two thousand years ago I said: «But when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. Before Him all the nations will be gathered, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will set the sheep on His right hand side, but the goats on the left. Then the King will tell those on His right hand side, 'Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world, for you have loved Me in those who were My little ones, giving them comfort." Then He will say also to those on the left hand ide, 'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels, for you have not loved Me in those that are My little ones." These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life». (See Matt: 25/31-46) This is what I spoke two thousand years ago and My word has remained on the earth. Let man measure his stature and his life in comparison with these two ways I have set for the human kind, and let him wake up his heart and his conscience if he wants, for this is not a game, and it is to pay attention to the voice of My mouth upon man.

There comes the time for the soul, there comes the news for My passions endured for man two thousand years ago and there comes a time for the fifty-days fasting for the awakening of the soul and for the washing of the body full of sin in man. The parable set now before by the saints of My church even from the early times of the Christian people on earth, this parable is being set now, before the time of the fast so that it may work at the right time over the souls of the people. Oh, if only the people may pay attention to it! My word at that time has got mercy and justice in it. I have described everything to man so that he may know and choose by himself, for this is what I spoke to man in paradise; I told him what to do and what not to do and then he chose by himself and he chose to separate from God by disobedience and then by its sin. However, men have to pay attention to this, for My word of that time and the one now stays face to face with them and it is time for them to consider this. I stay like a nurse before them and I show the way to them and I tell them where to go and how to live, and behold, that is why I am coming now on the earth, and if I did not come as I am coming now, it would be harder for man, but it is written for Me to come, and that is why I am coming. I am coming and sitting on the throne of My glory, surrounded by all angelic armies and I am writing down on the earth the judgment of the man's works, and how shall I not do this when it is written for Me to come and to fulfill in this way?

Oh, sons of men, oh, people of Adam, the first one built by My hand out of clay and breath of life, oh, come to meet Me, for I am sitting on the throne of glory and I am speaking to you and I am standing before you with the judgment of your works. Oh, hear Me! My word comes into your way to give you power and by it to become God's sons to be saved from the judgment for the works, for man does not work for God or for man on the earth, but only for himself, and this is sin and is added to the wages for the sin. Oh, listen to My voice and make peace with God. I, the Lord, call you: prepare for your salvation! I come into your way to support you, for you have lost your power to come back to Father God. I have to fulfill this page of the Scripture to draw all to the Father, but as many of them who may want to believe and seek to listen to My word in order to come back and to give themselves to Me?, so that I may also give them further to the Father, cleansed from sin and whitened through holiness for the day of My glory, then I will have them all around My throne and not only the angels; however, I will not have them near My throne to pronounce upon them the painful judgment, but I will have them for My glory with them, a glory like that of My angels.

I, the Lord, am the vessel of the mercy of the Father Sabaoth for every man, for God longs for man. Oh, wash way your life in this vessel, for I became a river of word, cleansing water for you. Come, oh, come and become clean by your washing into this river of life, so that I may tell you on My day of glory: «Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!» (Matt: 25/34) When I founded the world I founded the paradise as well and all its holy law, where the death by sin had no place, but the man who was brought in paradise did not inherit the paradise, because he pulled himself out of it for sin, and he decided against the love of God, and since then he has been crying after the love he forsook; the paradise has been crying and God has been crying after man too, and My tear has become word behind man and I have been calling out to him to hear Me and to take Me into his house so that I may be his Master and his Savior.

Oh, how much love man needs to come back to Me and how much hatred for sin so that he may be able to pull himself out from this root and to come back so that I may put him back into the garden prepared from the foundation of the world for those who love God!

Oh, examine yourselves much, you those who love the way with God and who have chosen to walk in it! Examine your love and its works, for it is written for those who are blessed of My Father to have works for Me. Stand up well and always for the works on My right hand side, for many of those who have a good heart do the works both on the right and on the left side and do not know what they do, and they do not know where to gather too, for they are divided, and they need teaching to know what to do so that they may not gather anything for those that are not earned with the Lord and with His saints who are heirs of the glorified kingdom, where the Lord is King.

Oh, be gentle and humble in your heart, you, those who chose to be with those on My right hand side! Stand only for Me, you those who decided to be with the Lord and for love, for love has got its own consorts! Be sweet like God! Do not answer evil with evil, but with good, with peace and with love, that the evil may be weakened and swallowed by good, for it is much evil on earth, for its power and its work have to go down. Amen.

And you, My people, share Me when I come to you as word on the path between Me and you, for I cannot leave you to be hungry of the spirit of life, son. Oh, he who does not eat from God does no longer have any power, and I do not have any power in him for Me, too. Oh, be nourished with God more and more and get sweetened much, that I may also get sweetened from you, son, for the men's sons give Me much gall and vinegar and I long for power from you, and from Me to you after that. Oh, take care of the love between you and Me, between brother and brother by self-denial, and seek that this saving work may be seen with you, which keeps you in the spirit of self-humility, and take care of your mind, well, My people, and then also take care of the word of your mouth as well, well son. Feed each other with only that is sweet, what is sweet from God and from you, and give Me this health too, for I am only sufferance everywhere on the earth, and My Spirit sighs with mourning, sons.

Oh, the time of the fast is coming. Take care of your words, well sons. Let only sweet words like honey come out of your mouth and eat like that and give to others food like this, and then you will have much power for all those that are worked for the heaven and for those set on the earth by you, as My Spirit has always been with you and has always watched you, and give yourselves to His watch, well sons.

Oh, I have set into the book preparing word for the coming of the time of the fast and I ask you to sweeten one another with My power, which is coming to you as word, and from which you are to become work always, and you will be My blessed ones, standing on My right hand side, as I am at the right hand side of My Father because I do His will, His works, and the Father works with Me as I also do the works of the Father with you, which are given to Me to work with you, and we have to work together, and we are to do the works of the Father, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise

Much peace, peace and power from heaven for the path of My descent as word on the earth! I find My watchmen on duty! I find My path under My will and I, the Lord, strengthen those who are My path.

I am Who I am. Even if for many I am not, because they are, still I am Who I am, and I am not going to tell them more for there will not be enough for them no matter how much I may tell them, because they want to be, and to them no real truth is enough, because the spirit of self-aggrandizement is great when it rules in man.

I am Who I am. This truth is enough to those who see Me and know Me as their Lord and God. Oh, let your soul and your faith in Me be satisfied, and also in My truth upon you and in My work with you, My people. I have always, always fed you with much word, to have you satisfied and well taken care of, for it is dear to Me the one who believes in Me without any hindrance for the faith and without much proof of My omnipotence, as faith is My gift given to the man with a clean heart, where God comes, and which easily comes to Me, for it is clean, and it sees well the man's cleanness; and it sees much and wholly and it knows to choose.

Behold, it is written over the Christian people on the earth, on this start of restraint day, to leave off fat and savory food and those that are desirable for the body. Seven days ago, it is said that the Christian man stopped eating meat, and today it is said that he would have stopped eating cheese and eggs until the feast of My Resurrection; however, it is only said that, as who is to teach man what the true fast is, the true life established by the saints and fathers fed with My Spirit, since they have left on the earth a written heavenly and saving order to be known and then to be loved by those who boast about that they are Christians, that they are baptized in Christ and clothed within Him? Oh, this is hard for the man baptized with My name upon him. The man is drawn to all the things of the world and he is tempted by them at every step and hour, and those who lose the gift of faith because of their disobedience from God, they do not need much to scatter all their Christian stature and to receive for it the wages of disobedience, the wages of their unbelief.

Oh, people of My word, you do no longer have a day when you have to stop from eating meat, cheese and eggs, for you have listened to Me and renounced the world with respect to food, clothes, pleasures and your whole body, and you have given to Me as My house and kingdom. However, you have to keep away from oil (Food cooked with oil, r.n.) during this time of fast. Oh, rejoice and enjoy with all your heart, with all your soul and mind, and be like that during all this time and know to whom you give your joy and your pleasure, as you have to dedicate them to Me, and to crown with them your love of God, your coming to My side, My people. That is why I am asking you to be careful with your words and to have a holy conduct; you should have love for these, son, for now a holy time begins and everything you may work and bring to Me has to be mingled with peace. I urge you to be diligent within your soul, but also within your body, for your body bears everything and it needs redemption, and for this redemption much labor is needed, much and not little, as much work is needed.

Oh, sons, do not complain about your body, do not satisfy its desire, as much abstinence is needed against your body, because the body took the man out of paradise, from the house which I made him even from the foundation of the world, and when I set him in its happiness, and I gave him to fulfill in it the law of happiness, the law of paradise, to which man should have listened without murmuring; however, man did not listen, and disobedience to God has got a high price, well My people. May this fear of falling away from the obedience to God be like an eternal awakening, oh, sons, for behold, man did not stay awake for it and lost it, sons. Oh, let man not take after another man to disobey God, as behold what happened in paradise if the two in the garden took after each other and disobeyed!

We remember this day of Adam's expulsion from paradise, set as an example of holy wisdom over the Christian people at the beginning of the time of fifty-day fast to meet the feast of My Resurrection from among the dead. Oh, what an example full of the pain of that day when man fell from paradise! He who does not walk in the boots of the one fallen from paradise than one like does not recognize himself in that one and will not wake up from the sleep of his soul and will go on sleeping in carelessness, fleeing from God, as Adam wanted to do after he fell deeply asleep concerning his disobedience to his Maker.

Let us set the table of wisdom and let us sit at it on this holy day and then let us receive holy power for obedience to God, the Creator. You, those who are a close people to My word, on which I am relying with My today's works on the earth, and you, those who receive the word of life being shared to you from here to turn it into action upon you, oh, let us have lunch together with the heaven, with all those in heaven, for woe to the earth and to the inhabitants on it, if the Lord were not with those on the earth!

Oh, come closer and listen. After God had made the man in His image and after His likeness, I gave him work to do, I gave him to listen to God, to work and to keep in this way the paradise, which was given to him as his house, together with the Lord in it and not otherwise. Oh, man did not want to do so. He saw that I had given him authority over those given to him to take care and he wanted to be the only master and wanted to put Me out and to remain alone. Once with his desire for dominion, this evil woke up in the things of the creation by the word and they all listened to man, as the evil spirit born in man got into the snake and thus the snake served the man's thought and praised man, and My creation did no longer listen to Me and listened to man instead; in this way, in paradise disobedience to God arose, then the fear because of disobedience and hiding began and the struggle against the One, of Whom the man started to fear from that time on, the man's fight against Me, his hatred against Me, when he was supposed to have My love in him, as when love turns to hatred, the spirit of satan can do everything to destroy Me in man. Oh, then the world of the angels saw the man's sin against Me, his desire to rule over everything more than I did, and he still wanted to have dominion over Me, and this satan became the man's conspiracy, served by angels, and since then the angel serving man and his group have been enticing man every way possible to punish him because these angels fell through him too; they fell from near God and they see their falling and take revenge against man, against his eternal life with God.

Oh, people of My descent to you, and you, those who take Me from this spring, which flows from here for you to eat of it, oh, sons; the man in paradise brought Me to judgment, and he said that I was guilty because of his disobedience, and then the two blamed each other and then they both blamed the snake, but ultimately the guilt was attributed to the One Who made them man and woman, and brought Me to judgment from one to another and then they remained for each other, but not for paradise. Oh, if they had repented facedown from their disobedience, it would have been so well with them; it would have been so well, both with them and with Me, and also with the angels fallen because of the exalted thought in them above My power and My throne of glory over the heaven and the earth!

Oh, on this day I, the Lord, am exhorting, with fatherly mercy, all those who bring spirit and word of judgment against My work and against My works on the earth and against those who carry them in My name, and I am telling them this: any sin can be forgiven if man comes with repentance for it and does not doubt, but the sin committed against the Holy Spirit, the Maker of everything at every moment on earth and in heaven, is hard to forgive, as blasphemy is written against this sin. Doubt in My word of yesterday and today is blasphemy; it is no less than blasphemy. We do no longer speak about those who are born of his doubt: grumbling, discontent, hatred, the spirit of lie, backbiting, pride, punishment for these against those who are hated, slandered, and despised every way possible; all these stand for bringing into judgment of those who are seen like that. Oh, what shall I, the Lord, tell them; what shall I tell those who do these things against those who are bearers of God and of My today's word? Oh, what shall I tell them, but only to ask them not to judge as Adam judged Me in paradise when the two brought Me to judgment from one to another? Oh, what else shall I tell them? I would not tell them anything else but only what I said two thousand years ago, then I said that all those who judged, had already been judged by this.

Oh, you those who want to inflict contempt and oppression against those who carry out My work, after you had left Me when I needed you most, listen to what I am going to you: Christian are not supposed to backbite, to blame each other, to judge, to slander, to despise, and to be dissatisfied by putting pressure through these things. Oh, the Christian man is not allowed to do these with God, and if he does them, then he forsook very much God and he forsook the entire law of love and the entire fear for the wages that are due to these. Man brought Me to judgment in paradise and wanted to put Me out to remain alone with his own pleasures, but everything is Mine; the earth belongs to the Lord, the heaven belongs to the Lord, and everything belongs to the Lord and He is the Master over everything, and the one who stands up for judgment with My works come to judgment against Me.

I am aggrieved because of those who judge Me for the work of My coming as word on the earth, and they judge every way possible those who bear My coming and everything that is with it. Oh, how much contempt, how much spirit of judgment, how much forsaking from them, how much contempt against those who carry My cross of today! Oh, those who do all these things against My little ones, through whom I go hardly as word on the earth, they do everything to Me, and they stand up with judgment against Me, and those who forsook Me, after they have walked with Me, devise discontentment and claims, and these bring oppression to My Spirit in heaven and on earth.

I will face the pain, I will do it, and in this way, I will protect My work and My place on the earth and My people, too. I will stay to be struck by all those who want to do this, for they do not repent, they do not bow their foreheads for their sins by which they oppress and despise Me; sins, under which I get in order to carry them and to protect My walking and My victory because I am Who I am and I have full and great power, of which, the man divested of God, is not afraid, and those, who wanted to strike Me and My today's walking in order to stop it, have also not been afraid; however, they have struck against themselves and not against Me.

Oh, I cannot rely on the unsteady man to the end. I cannot walk on the way with the reluctant one, and those, who are reluctant and not fit for My way, cannot walk on it, as Adam was rejected by the law of paradise when he violated it in his heart. Then I started to mourn and despair when I saw his conduct in paradise and I went there to make him see what he had done; however, he immediately hid in himself and then one behind the other one, thinking that this could be done. Oh, no, for God is light and justice, but as man did not repent because he made God grieve, he pulled himself out of My arm and fell down on earth and then he did his will willingly and since then he has always paid for it, and for seven thousand years man has been crying because of his disobedience, and man cries even if he does not understand what his crying is about.

Let it be heard now the voice full of crying of the man built by My hand who fell from heaven after I had built him. Amen.

— Oh, Good and Merciful Master and my Creator, oh, my Lord, You have taken me at Your table of today to tell the human race this real truth. The heaven cries, and it has been crying for more than seven thousand years, from the day when I, the man, was taken out of it because of my will without God for it, and man has been crying, oh Lord; the spirit of man cries and it has been crying since then and up to this day, and only I, only I, Lord carry and feel powerfully and without any comfort this crying of man, for man is confounded like me in paradise when I thought to cast You out so that I could remain a master alone, and You, my subject. Oh, my wretchedness, oh, my disobedience had drawn me to this. Now, in the end of the time, You have given me comfort and Your word upon me and I see with power and with pain this long and much time, which my disobedience has spoiled so much. Oh, glory to You and glory to the heavenly powers because You have overcome and brought salvation to those who repent, Lord! Oh, glory to Your godly mercy, Lord!

Oh, let Your people not fast with discontent and with their thought at food, and let it not be hard for them to fast, but let them rather fast within a spirit of forgiveness, brother to brother, as the one who does not forgive his brother's trespasses, neither will Father God forgive his trespasses. Oh, let them not forget to fast with a clean heart and with a clean face, and with their belly, too, for hypocrisy, which deforms the faces of those who fast to show that they fast, this is their reward, the reward from their self-praise and from the hypocrisy which they eat. Oh, only the Father sees and rewards in secret those who abstain from good food and riches, for man needs to have his wealth in heaven, not on earth, where is eaten by time and by thieves and moths, for that in heaven does not goes bad, because the evil and the enemy does not enter it, and the man who gathers in heaven, has got his heart in heaven too, for You have taught man that where his treasure is their his heart is, too. Oh, I know this, Lord, for I lost my treasure in paradise when I took my heart from near You and put it near the woman and not within You as You created it for me to draw to You, and my pain has been as long as seven thousand years and even more, and the pain of the separation from God is hard and there is no one to tell the man except I, about the pain of the separation from God, the pain of the man's heart, which for the sake of his heart, he separates himself from Your heart, and You cannot play up to the one who does so with You, for You are the One Who made the heaven and the earth, and it is not man who did them. A speck of dust is the man who tries to struggle against You, as well as glory is the man who struggles to be only Yours within in all the thankfulness of his soul before You, and I could not be like that in paradise, and I paid then with tears without any comfort the injustice for You then when I sold myself to the pride against You.

You, those who want to struggle against God for yourselves, oh, put down your weapons and leave off your discontentment, leave off the pride for it, leave off grumbling and backbiting, the despising spirit given over the brothers, judgment and all its things, and take into your arms and heart the longing and the spirit of repentance for your sins, and do not forget that your sins will not be forgiven if you do not forgive from the heart anyone who goes wrong against you. However, do not forget oh, do not forget that no one can go wrong against a Christian man who belongs to Christ, that no one is to blame for him, but only he is to blame when he goes wrong, for guilt is in man, it is not outside of man, no, never. I tell you about this pain for I suffered in paradise from this deception and I believed that the mistake was in God or that it was from one to another between the two of us, man and woman, but it was not so; rather the whole wrong doing was in me and then it fell down on the whole human race, and now, I am repenting before the Lord and I am crying within a comforted joy, for the Lord has descended on the earth with His coming as word of preparation of the human race for the day of the judgment of the creature, and that I, Adam, the first man created by God, have, by His coming to His people of today in the Romanian people, I have the promised forgiveness and the permission to speak to the man who has come out of me from one generation to another, that the Lord is the Almighty One and He is the only one Master in heaven and on earth forever, and man owes his life to God, his obedience and the love for this, so that the face of the paradise may be seen on the earth and then the entire creature to rest from waiting, God's entire creation, from beginning to end and to the glory, which will no longer come to an end, but will be forever instead, and upon it, there will be the Lord as King, He and all His people, obedient and forgiven through great repentance, and exalted by the power of repentance at the rank of sons and heirs of the paradise, my garden from beginning, at which I am looking and crying, as the place from which the Lord made my body of clay is brought under oppression, under pain from those who, like me in paradise at that time, hide from God and do not seek with the spirit of repentance, but with the spirit of judgment and oppression from the sides and with the spirit of contempt over those who remained, but the Lord is the Master over His creation, and He is the hope and His entire work from beginning and up to this day for the salvation of the sinful man.

Oh, come Lord, come with the saints; come and dwell in all the people and cleanse them from all their dirt and save them, Lord; save them all after that! Amen.

— Oh, this is I, the Lord, want to do, and I have listened with gentleness the word of the one created by My hand out of clay. Oh, this is what you should also want; all those who hear My word and eat of My mouth, if you can allow Me to be your Master. Amen.

I, the Lord, bestow blessing over those who start the time of the fasting from food, according to the power of their love and faith, but all should pay great attention because if they are not gentle and humble in their heart and then with the word of their mouth, then they will not fast according to the truth, as from the treasure of one's heart one's mouth speaks, and not otherwise, and in this way it is seen what the heart has, what treasure is in it and where it has got its treasure.

I am putting blessing upon you, My people from the spring, and over those in the cities nourished with My Spirit from here.

I am blessing separately those who suffer with Me the strikes given to My Spirit and to their spirit, as it is hard and difficult to carry the denigration now from those who once walked on the way believing and giving thanks for My forgiveness upon them.

I always bless the descending of My word and My place of descent, against which they stumble, like many others who do not know what this new establishment means, settled by My word on the earth.

Oh, be thankful, sons who receive God. Pray to the Father, Who gives you the Son and the Holy Spirit. Ask from Him in My name the entire protection and help in everything, and be good, oh, be good, for I speak with the storms, not you, because when they come out to blow, they do not blow against you but against Me. I, the Lord, have always protected My people and My work, and I have faced the whole trial, and this is how I will stand to the end. Let no one complain before Me. Who is the man that he may complain? Man always needs to repent, and then be thankful before Me. I, the Lord, pull hard with you the chariot of My coming on earth as word to renew the world and its creation. Those who are not faithful think and reckon like people, for they do not love like God and they love like people instead, and that is why they do not have peace.

You, heavenly powers and all the armies from above, protect My word and My coming and protect the people of My word and the peace of My descent. This is what I, the Lord, command you to do. Amen.

Be attentive, you heaven, when the Lord speaks! Listen, you earth, to the word of My mouth! Those who rebel against Me, because of their sins, are not My children, and this is what is written.

And I, the Lord, will lead My people to green pastures, and those who live in Jerusalem will never shake as they are My mount of Zion, My holy mountain, where I and they have our dwelling place; where we have our home. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy forty martyrs in the tarn of Sebaste

— Peace to you, confessing martyrs through pains and through the temptations of your love of God! Yes, the love of God of those who come to be with Me on earth needs teaching on earth and then in heaven as well and love needs wisdom as well. Your wisdom was beautiful and holy, for you completely have chosen the Lord and he could do everything for you; you have overcome for Him and for His glory, and now you have My glory as the crown of your love for Me and for My coming with you as word over the earth to judge the word, for this is written for Us to work; to sit on thrones and to judge the world because of its lack of faith. Amen.

My glory with you is My word with you, My dear people, and let your glory with Me be your love for Me, for this crown is eternal and take care to have it, how to have it, how to carry it, how to watch over it and how it may be seen from the earth and from the heaven, for those in heaven look carefully at your love of God and watch it from the earth and from heaven and the heaven works with you, son. On a day of the feast of the saints, I have given you My love and you should love the Lord, your God all your days and nights to learn always how to love Him, for you have to teach Me from near you and to follow Me, for I am near you and mysteriously tend all your walking with Me, hour by hour, moment by moment, and the measure with which I measure you is dear and it should be dear to you as well, and you should not despise it for yourself. This is what I am teaching you on this holy day, and you should show Me that you understand and that you are My child, that you are Mine and that I am yours, your Lord and God, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God on the first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

(Excerpt)

I have chosen from among people those who were My disciples two thousand years ago. I needed support on earth when I came from the Father to fulfill My truth of true God of true God, coming among the people, for I had descended from My Father and I was born a Man of man on earth in order to be able to make the man divine, to have him as My brother and to have brothers from the Same Father, as I came to give to the man the birth from above, as I am from the Father and I have to do His work.

Oh, My people, My work with you is to come on earth and make man divine, to make him like Me before My Father, to give Myself to him, to be one with him as I am with the Father and to bring him to the Father as His son.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross and the Feast of the Annunciation
(Excerpt)

Oh, My people, I am comforting you in your old and fresh sighing. Strengthen yourself in Me, within My comforting Spirit, son, and if you kept and keep My commandment to endure, I will also keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth, as it is written. (See Apoc: 3/10)[202] Oh, behold, what a great reward, what a great protection will have those who keep the word of My patience, the word that flows out of My mouth above you, My dear people!

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian
(Excerpt)

… Oh, come near, you, sons of men, for I, the Lord, come out into your midst with the people of My word to comfort your soul and to give you the hope of the resurrection and the power of the love of God! It is dryness of God's word on earth. Only man speaks on earth, only man is everywhere. I am coming with the voice of My mouth; I am coming, I am coming accompanied by the people of My word and I am giving Myself to you as word, warm word, fresh word, for I am always today, like My word. Two thousand years ago, I said that this time would come and it has already come now, for I said that this time would come for the voice of God's Son to be heard and the dead in the tombs to startle at the resurrected Lord's voice and that they may come to life, too. Oh, behold, I fulfill in this way and I want that you may also come to life in the same way, you those who are alive in your body, to pass from your body into spirit, to believe in the coming of My word to you and to do the works of the last faith, as the Lord is coming to you on earth as word and you need faith.

… — Oh, I am! I am the Alpha and the Omega. I am Who I am, and the same is he who is with Me: he is, and if he goes away from Me then he is no longer. The saints call out to the people to come to Me and to the sons of men to become sons of God to escape the bitterness that the sin prepares for them. Oh, how great will be those who come! They will be above the mountain of sins and will be victorious over sin and they will be great, like Mary, the Egyptian. She stood up and no longer fell, for she fought standing above the sin to overcome it and she did.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

Having come here, at the feast of My Resurrection, you and I, I and you and all those in heaven, those in heaven and those on earth, are telling you now, in My speaking of today, the speaking of My male and female disciples, two thousand years ago after I, the Lord, passing through the cross and through the death on the cross, unimaginable pain of My Spirit and the entire spirit of the heaven, but also the joy of My victory against the devil, as old as five thousand years at that time, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am telling you the news which went then from mouth to mouth to the pain and strain of those who crucified Me, I am telling you this: "Christ has risen!"

Oh, My people, oh, My new and little Jerusalem, I am bringing you from among those in heaven the greeting of My resurrection: "Christ has risen!" I do not have anyone else but you. You should believe what I am telling you, son Jerusalem. Oh, seek all the time to be only Mine, only with Me, for I have only you on the earth. When those, who have got high churchly ranks on the earth or those who learn from books, hear the things that I am telling you now, they start to marvel and have an evil soul, but whenever I speak to you the word, I know what I tell you. All those who have big faith, who have a big heart and good Christian work mind their own business and their salvation according to what they say that they do, but it is not so with you, My people. I have chosen you from among people to set you at the table of word with Me and you are to be My will between earth and heaven and you are to share My word over the earth, the word of the new creation, son, for I have to set a new heaven and a new earth between heaven and earth, as it is written into the Scripture for Me to do, and let these be after that, and I also need to have a people close to Me, freed from worries and completely dedicated to Me, for I bear a lot of worries with you for My victory over the earth, and you are so tiny and so little in number, as the Christians on the earth do not come under My cross, for they have to carry theirs, and My today's cross is hard, and you do no longer have time for you, and how beautiful is this; that is, that man who forgets about himself and gives himself over to Me completely and to My very difficult hardships and so that he may live like this and not like all the Christians who do everything they want on their Christian way as they view it, and as all go, those who do not know sufficiently what God with people on the earth means, and those who do not know what it means man to serve God. Christians always ask everything from God, all from earth and from heaven, but you are other kind of Christians, for you do not ask but you give to God; you give your whole hard work and you are little, sons, and you are weak in respect to those on the earth, since you do not work for you for the master like all the people, because you labor in My vineyard, in My work, and you work hard with Me within My coming, well sons. Oh, you should not believe that you work hard for something else and otherwise. I have you close for Me and not for you, and I have you close for the salvation of many, sons, for I have always come to you as the word of the new birth of the world and of the man, and this is how I gather from here and there people who love God more than they love the flesh and the fleshly pleasures, pleasures, which go into the soul and then bring it into bondage to sin and to separation from God, sons, and I suffer, and I suffer because the Christians and the people do not love Me, well sons, and I suffer that they do not have a ruler upon them to teach them self-denial and then to teach them the seeking after Me, for I am the Master of the heaven and the earth and the Christians and the people do not serve Me, and rather they serve themselves day and night, and then they come to the end of the thread of their life and long after the paradise and after God's mercy for their eternal life then.

I tell you all these to believe Me sufficiently as I do not have anything but you, and also to believe this those who think that they are close to God with their life, with their works, with their election and with their wisdom, but for man is hard to stay close to Me, it is too hard for him. Oh, who was close to Me in My most difficult pain two thousand years ago? No one was able to endure with Me everything I had to bear and pass through at that time, but I had great love and watch for Me, My female disciples, those who had nothing to do but to follow Me and to give Me all their love, all, sons, all their longing, and nothing stood against them, for this is the whole love; it is the force which keeps away any opposing power, any satanic thought, and this was seen then. And I brought My disciples under protection; I protected them by the word spoken upon them and upon those who wanted to seek them for My name, and I kept them for the testimony of My resurrection according to My living with them three years and a half, from place to place on earth for the comfort of the pains everywhere they were coming with those who were very weak, so that I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, could comfort their pains as all those who were sick knew Me and were seeking Me, and My female disciples and all those, who helped them for My glory at that time, served Me and My disciples with zeal, and they took great care and always for the good condition of My work over the earth, and then they took great care to the spirit of confession upon people and kings, for I went to the Father to be with them near Him to the end of the time, as I promised them, and now they all come together around you, My sons of today on the earth, and I am with them near you to the end, and, behold, it is more now in the end, for My word ordains, works and finishes any beginning and it lifts it up to its place, and all the things are mysterious and a new heaven and a new earth is being worked, and the word of the Scripture of the new creation of the world does not lie, but the people of the earth have only fleshly eyes and only earthly mind, because the people do not want to give the eyes of their spirit and its dwelling place, that is the mind, to give to God and the Lord to make them in His image and after His likeness, so that the people may see the Lord and follow Him then as you also follow Him.

Behold, man is born of sin and he lives in vain on the earth and then he suffers forever because he has not understood God in all things; the One Who made the heaven, the earth and then the man for this creation, well sons. Moreover, if I have spoken to you, then I am also speaking to the sons of the earth and I am telling them the greeting of My resurrection, too.

Oh, sons of men, oh, sons of the earth, Christ has risen! I, Myself, I, the Lord, bring you the greeting of My resurrection. Pay attention, oh, pay attention that the Lord in the beginning made the heaven and the earth and gave the earth as an inheritance to the people; however, the heaven, who inherits the heaven? Oh, who really inherits the heaven, sons of the earth? If the heaven did not give it, would the earth and the people on it have life, and all the creation that serves the life of the people on earth? Oh, pay attention to where the life on the earth comes from. From the earth only death comes upon people, but life comes from heaven. I call you with longing, I call you out with mourning; seek after your life from heaven, as life is from heaven, and behold, life becomes word upon you, as it is written in the Scriptures that in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God, and the same was in the beginning with God and all things were made through Him, and in Him was life. Oh, I was the Word, and I was from the beginning with God and everything was made by Me, and life was in Me, and I gave life to the creation after I had spoken the word to make the heaven and earth, and after two thousand years from My resurrection from the dead, here I am, speaking now over the earth: Christ has risen! For two thousand years ago, I came on earth and I became the Son of Man and I live thirty-three years among people, and in the end, after I had stayed with My disciples for three years and a half, I went to die on the cross to bring back everything the man had spoiled in paradise seven thousand years ago and to give him a reason to leave off sin and to come back to God, to come to the One Who has suffered for him, to his Maker, for man has completely forsaken Me and he forsook Me even from paradise.

I am coming with the paradise after you, I am calling you into its mystery and I am helping you to be able to love your life and to forsake the sting of death, for sin is death, oh sons of the earth. However, now I am coming and giving you the heaven as your inheritance, if you want to listen to Me on the earth, for I also lived on the earth but I completely listened to My Father God, and My will was His will, not Mine, and I was the Son of My Father, as I did come from Him on the earth, and even more, I carried Him within Me forever, as He also carried Me within Him, and I did His work.

The Son of the Lord, the Son of the heaven also died for you two thousand years ago, oh, sons of men, but the Lord resurrected Him on the third day and gave Himself to be your Savior. Oh, you should also live before Me as I lived before the Father doing His entire will, all His work, and you will not live in vain on earth if you listen to do so. Oh, stand up! No matter how sinful you may be, I have power from the Father to forgive you, to wipe out your sins and to give you the garment of My resurrection, My body and blood, to be always alive, always, for within Me is life, oh, sons of the earth, but become sons of the heaven on earth as I also was, and when the earth is going to come to its new creation, the new heaven will be given to you as your inheritance, and all the angels and all the saints in heaven stay and wait for those who are saved to come and to inherit, those who call the Lord, for it is written: «And whoever will call on the name of the Lord shall be saved!» (Joel: 2/32) Amen.

Oh, on this Sunday of the feast of My Resurrection, on the first day of the week, I am calling you to resurrection; I am calling you, Romanian people. Oh, stand up! I am calling you longingly and I mysteriously speak My word upon you. Stand up, oh, My country of My second coming from the Father on the earth to the people! When in the beginning I made the heaven and the earth, I spoke the word, and they were made and appeared and they were ordained at their place. Now, in the end, I am speaking the word upon you and I am saying: Become a new heaven and a new earth, oh, Romanian people, as on your land I have the crop of My word, the word of My mouth, which comes on the whisper of the wind, carried by the clouds of the Lord's glory and it comes to you to lift you up, oh, My country of today. I have the little garden of My word on your hearth, where I am descending in a place prepared to Me to come and to speak from the throne and to rule with an iron rod the nations of the earth, as it is written for Me to fulfill. Oh, open yourself and receive My coming! Christ has risen, I, the Lord, tell you, My country of today, and I am telling you today and tomorrow, and you should learn to inherit the heaven and the saints of the heaven to inherit on your land, too, and your land to become heaven for those in heaven as heavenly church on the earth. Oh, come to My help, come to help the Lord your God, as I did not go to Jerusalem since I have come to you, but I have come to you, I am spending with you and I am speaking the word of the new beginning, even if the Christian people always go to Jerusalem for what they may find there about My passing on the earth there two thousand years ago when Jerusalem did not welcome Me; and behold, now as then, My tracks testify there to the judgment of those who did not believe then and who do not believe today in My coming at that time and in My coming of nowadays, which is written in the Scriptures to be now. And as two thousand years ago I came because it had been written for Me to come, the same is today, I am coming because it has been written for Me to come, and I am descending and fulfilling My coming and the word of My coming, and I am preparing mysteriously the new creation: the new heaven and the new earth, and behold, I am preparing heirs, and concerning you, I have been earnestly been calling you, oh, My country of longing, as I long for you and I have been longing for you for two thousand years; I have been longing for you since the Father Sabaoth decided to have your land as My support and glory for My second coming, because Jerusalem cast Me away from its midst, and those who live today are the sons of those who crucified Me at that time there.

Oh, peace to you, My country, My Romania! Your land is Mine. I have ordained in it the mystery of My coming as word on the earth now, in the end of the time, and I do not want, oh, I do not want that the people in you to cast Me away as Jerusalem did, after I had called out to Him so much to gather it as the hen gathers her chickens, but they did not want and put Me away from their midst and banished Me from among them.

Oh, peace to you, land of My glory in the end of the time, Romanian people, My longing for two thousand years, and behold, I have My glory upon you and upon the people of My today's word over the earth and My throne; and, My river of word, which flows from My throne to wash your face, to wash your land, and you may be My glory, as I am your glory too, I and My word into your midst. Amen, amen, amen.

22-04/05-05-2013.

The second day of the Holy Passover and the feast of the great Saint martyr, George

It is a day of Passover; it is My day of Passover, a day of memorial of the Lamb of God, for I came to be a lamb of bloody sacrifice and I became food for man, the Lamb of Passover, as the lamb is sacrificed to be then put on the table to be eaten by the one who sacrifices it.

God became the Lamb of Passover and gave Himself to man as food, and the thrill in the man's heart is too little when he comes closer to take Me and eat Me, for after I had given Myself to be sacrificed, it was fulfilled with Me the word spoken for the disciples one day before My crucifixion, as I told them: «Take, eat this is My body which is broken for you, and My blood, which is poured out for many for the remissions of sins». (See Matt: 26/26-28)

I am spending the Passover into your midst, people of My word. I have you as Mine and I call you Mine into the midst of the Romanian people and I am sitting with you at the table of word, and you shall put this lamp into the lamp stand to shine and you are to share My word. Behold, I have you as Mine and the voice of My word goes to the whole world from your table, as from your midst it makes its way to all the people on the earth and it knocks at their door to be opened and to come in and shine, and on a day of Passover, I, the Lord, am giving to all those who are on the earth the greeting of My resurrection: Christ has risen! And this greeting is a word of joy, the word of the proclamation of the resurrection and this word brings joy.

I, the Lord, rejoice when I do the man's will, I rejoice over his joy, because he rejoices when I do his will as he asks Me in his prayers, and I fulfill his will as a God full of goodness. I would like to rejoice over man, too. I would like him to do My will as well and I would like him to rejoice over My joy too as I also rejoice over his joy when I do his will as he requests. Oh, how much goodness man needs for this! It is enough for him to be full of goodness after his nature and, that is all, and he loves God, he feels Him and then he rejoices after that, but if he does not have goodness he cannot rejoice God and neither can he make man rejoice. The man full of goodness denies himself and gives himself over to others all the time according to their will and not when and how he wants to deny himself. A man like this does not oppress anyone's soul, but rather he is careful and always humbles himself to rejoice the man's soul and never to dishearten someone else, for goodness cannot work otherwise.

Oh, how much I wanted to rejoice over the man goodness, over the joy that he might bring to Me. I went to be sacrificed like a Lamb to rejoice the man, to take the burden away from him and that his sacrifice may no longer oppress him, for the man's sins are his heavy burden, but who is to tell him how much he grows this burden when he always adds to it? When I had seen that the man did not think how much burden he got upon him from the sin had committed, then I came from the Father in heaven and I got under a heavy burden, under a heavy cross, put on My shoulders by the Jewish people and then I went to be given to death in order to pay for the man's freedom from the bondage of sin, to take the burden away from man, as after man had lost the paradise, the army of Lucifer took revenge against him and brought him under burden, as the heaviest sin is for man to separate himself from God, and man separated himself from God by his pride, by his desire to be exalted, and since then all the people have been oppressing each other and in this struggle they trample over the others and throw each other down, for they have no goodness. Even through the words, man overthrows man, man struggles against man and swells with pride against each other, and man cannot do otherwise anymore.

Oh, who among people can be beautiful between heaven and earth? Who is still led by affection, gentleness and by the goodness that he may not oppress anyone inflicting on him any pain or with pain for pain?

On a day of Passover, on a day of Holy Passover, I am setting on the table sweet teaching to help man receive in him My nature, God's nature, so that man may be beautiful. I suffer for man, and I have been suffering for seven thousand years and I have been longing for his first beauty, as I kneaded man in My image and after My likeness, and after he had puffed up because of this, he became ugly and lost his beauty; he put God out of him and remained him alone. Man lost God and since then he has no longer been able to find Him, because he has no goodness, he has no gentleness; man has no affection at all. If man says that he has these, then I tell him that I am the One Who has them, not he, and I tell him that I am when I try to enter him with My image and with My likeness to show him what he has lost, for man lost My rest in him.

Oh, why man has no rest? Because I, the Lord, do no longer have rest in him; I do no longer have My joy in him, because he lives in his self. I built man with joy when I created him, and when I made the whole creation which I made by the word; I made it with joy and I gave it to man and I set him into its midst, as without joy for it no work is good to be done.

Oh, people of My word, oh, work son, work with joy everything you do in My name, for the first man has no longer rejoiced over Me and with Me, after I had created him, after I had put before him all My labor, all My joy, then when I created with it the heaven and the earth, and all those between heaven and earth. Oh, no work is good if man does not do it with all his joy, with the whole power of his soul, and with the whole power of his body! And neither his faith in God is good, if man does not do much for it to its confession.

Behold, it has come to match the day of Passover, the memorial of the greatest among the holy martyrs, the martyr George, the one who carried on his forehead the joy of My victory against those who were unbelievers and persecutors of the Christian people at that time, three hundred years after My coming down on earth. The martyr George drinks My word. I have him on My right hand side at the table of today. His joy was great on the earth and it has always been great. He had Me in him in all his faith, with all his longing, and this exalted him on a high seat to greatness among people, and he was very beautiful because of My beauty in him. Then the day came for him to testify about His being and the One Who was dwelling in him with a heavenly beauty, the Lord his God, for he was part of the Christian people, of the Christ people. Oh, how beautiful he was in the time of this confession for Me! The shining of God's bearers is great before those who have earthly glory on earth and this brightness makes them proud for they are haughty. This is how the pagan king of that time decided to destroy the Christians in a bloody way, and the martyr George arose, as big as he was at that time over the king army, and he appeared to be a Christian with great power of confession on a high seat, and when he was tortured he overcame and marveled the world with all God's signs upon him, for the love of Christ was great in My martyr, and it prevailed against the royal pride and the victory of the martyr George has remained history and he went up into heaven with it and with it he helps the Christians, and the Christians know him in heaven as the bearer of victory and they help with him in My name in all their trials, and behold, sons, what the power of joy in man means.

— Oh, I want, Lord, I want to speak to the sons of Your word too. It is my day of synod among saints and it is Your day of Passover, and we have to speak about Your joy from those who are faithful to You. Oh, bless my speaking, my King, for I want to tell those who want to listen to my speech of today, that if You, Lord, are not the joy of man always, always, as man is something else, and he has even become Your persecutor. Oh, woe to the life in man without God in it and for it, without the joy for it, for You, only You are the joy of the man's life, only You, Lord! I had in me this joy as long as I lived on the earth. It was shining in me and those in my time used to like me because of it, and they exalted me on a high seat to lead the royal army, but when the persecution of the Christian came, I showed them all the One Who was living in me as joy and beauty, that is You, Lord, the One from Whom the king pressed me to separate for the sake of his lying idols. Then the joy of my soul startled and I got up with joy in time of unbelief to confess Your divinity, oh, Lord, and this joy was growing in me, and at the same time the opposition was growing in the king too once with my confession for You, and I overcame him, I overcame him together with You and for You, as I chose You and not him, and I have remained with You forever and You are my joy, from earth and up to heaven, and You are my joy, for any work for You has to be done with joy, Lord, and let all the Christian people on the earth hear this and get use to be beautiful, for beauty is joy, and joy is beauty, oh, Lord of the joy of my soul.

Woe to the discontent man! What can make one like that rejoice? Nothing, nothing can make him rejoice, for joy is a virtue and it cannot give itself for moments and longings. The complacency of the soul does not have to be expected from the sides for it is part of the godly man's nature, and when you see a complaining man, can you believe that he can love God? Oh, no. Only the one with his soul full of joy can love the Lord much, for I had many riches on the earth, left by my parents, but the Lord was my joy, and I left them off like dust, for I could not forsake my joy, the Lord of my soul, Who was enough for me, always sufficient.

Oh, sons of God's word, may the Lord be sufficient for you, and may it be also sufficient for you to work for Him, for His confession! What great and much joy is for you to work for Him, even when it seems that what you work is something insignificant, for the soul has to be always, always, only joy, because God is the soul in man. Oh, learn to give to the Lord that what nobody gives Him. Give Him place and joy in you! Be the sons of joy, be full of God always!

I am speaking to the Christian people everywhere, all over the earth, and I am speaking to everyone: Be full of God, not full of yourselves! The Lord has done man's will as a God. You also should do His will and the will of your brothers to be like God. Oh, there is no joy without the Lord. Oh, do not despair in times of trials and temptations. I overcame them all and I overcame them with the Lord. This is how you should also work, and you are to rejoice working for the Lord, and if you live otherwise on the earth then you will not be Christians but only by your name and that is all. Oh, come to life, come to live with the Lord, and I, near Him, am telling you on a day of Passover: Christ has risen!

Oh, Lord, how great You are during these days, into the midst of the Romanian people, on the hearth of which You graze Your little lambs, the sons of Your people, which You feed with so much word!

Oh, Romanian people, what a great treasure the Lord has in your land! What a great light, put into the lamp stand to give you light and to see! Oh, what will you do if you put the calling of the Lord at your back, His great love, which is calling out in the streets to be heard?

Oh, Lord, bless the Romanian people with big faith! Oh, Lord, make miracles and signs for the faith of this nation! Oh, Lord, look from heaven, see and search out this vineyard and perfect it for Your name, for You can do this! Oh, Lord, make the Romanians have You as their joy and only You, only You to be their God, and have all the idols and all the pleasures and delights for themselves come out of this citadel, for it is Your country the Romanian country, and You have the table of Your wedding in it and sit at the table, call and wait to come to the table the Romanian people, and I wish You this joy; I wish the Romanian people do Your will, oh, Lord. Amen.

— Let your desire be amen, amen, great martyr, that I, the Lord, wait at the border between night and day, between dark and light, and I wait patiently for the resurrection of the Romanian nation, the one that has been blessed for two thousand years and ordained to be Mine for the end of the time and all will be fulfilled after the will of My Father. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, what a great blessing you have from God! How great the Lord is within you and His work into your midst! I have spoken big words in your land. My river of word passes through you and then over your borders. Soon, the nations will ask you about My glory in you when they will be revealed heavenly signs above you. I am the Bridegroom in you and I have a wooed bride into your midst and I have a wedding table set on your hearth, and I call you, and I call you to come and hear Me and to give yourself as the wedding gift, and I will give you a place at My table, at the table of My kingdom, oh, My country of wedding. Come! I am waiting for you to come and to confess Me to the nations that I am with you and that I love you with great love. Oh, do not forget to hear Me, My country, My chosen one from among the nations, the country of the Lord, the country of My coming as word over the earth. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, you should also call out so that the Romanian country may come to My table of wedding with you, and that they may come beautifully clothed in heavenly garment and to glorify it over the people after that.

Oh, My people, there come to the spring hearts thirsty for longing. Prepare yourself to meet their coming, as in three days it is going to be a feast and word of healing spring and the soul are coming for healing, sons, and then after ten days, many good and big hearts come together from far away full of longing for Me and for you. Oh, become feast and come to meet them as My feast with them, My joy with them, for My joy is great when the hearts come to the spring to receive Me as their joy, and when they go back with joy in them to their things, with the Lord in them. Oh, this is your work, that is, to be a good host and a heavenly rest house for those who seek after My spring into your midst and after the blessings of these heavenly lands, where I come and rest with My saints on the earth.

Behold, I have given you good news to prepare My way for those who are coming to the spring, and now I am setting you in the joy of My resurrection and I am speaking with joy to you: Christ has risen, well, My people, and may the joy fill the hearts of those who really rejoice over Me, over My resurrection for man, as I died for man on the cross and for him I came to life again, and I paid with a bloody sacrifice for his resurrection.

Oh, get ready with a feast and become My feast for those who come with longing at the spring, and I will always say your name and I will call you Mine; I will always call you My people, son, and you have the duty to show to those in heaven and to those on earth that you are My people, that I am your God and your joy and that you are My pride, little son, as I want you to be a child, to be little so that you may be able to stay in My arm, in My love, in My holy fold, and to have Me great upon you and to learn My greatness into your midst and to stay in submission under it, for the Lord into your midst is heavenly honor, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after the Holy Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas
(Excerpt)

… Oh, I am with My concern for them, great disciple, only that they may avoid the sin of doubt, which gave Me over to mockery and crucifixion. I put them to holy work, that they may prepare for Us the feast in seven days' time when We will be here with My prudes and with you, My disciples of that time, and We will have joy among those in heaven at the table with all those who have now the love of the word of My coming with the saints, as it is written into the Scriptures to fulfill, (1 Thessalonians: 3/13)[203] for even two thousand years ago, I fulfilled with you the Scriptures written for that time, and now I am fulfilling from among them the Scriptures written for this time, for the end of the human time and for a new beginning of the heavenly time on earth, within the mystery of the new heaven and new earth, a place of justice and peace, a place for the Lord and for those who love Him. Amen.

The third Sunday after the Holy Passover, of the prudes

Oh, be glad and rejoice with Me, you, those who are gathered together from heaven and from earth here on a day of the feast of resurrection, on a day of Sunday, the day of My resurrection from the dead, the first day of the week when My prudes brought to My tomb expensive fragrances, because they loved Me much, and they waited with faithfulness for Me to come to life again on the third day, as I had told them.

You brought Me expensive fragrance, for you brought joy to Me once with your coming at My spring of word. Glory in the highest to the Father Sabaoth, and on earth peace to you and good will, as here a heavenly table is spread!

I have come down with those in heaven, sons gathered at the spring. I have gathered the people at the spring to prepare the feast. Christ has risen! This is the greeting among brothers until the feast of My Ascension to the Father. My male and female disciples send you greetings that Christ has risen from the dead, as they spread the news far and wide after I had sent them to tell to the whole world and to all the nations about My resurrection, so that all the faithful may set themselves apart upon hearing the news about Me and to become sons of God by loving much, believing beautifully and humbling themselves affectionately, for My Spirit filled them with the spirit of gentleness and their hearts were on fire, as great joy seized them.

Oh, rejoice, you those who chose to travel to My spring of word, to these heavenly lands, where I establish My coming, My word and then its proclamation! Peace to your little hearts, for I have listened to their beatings and I have got warmed up from the longing in them!

[203] «And may he establish your hearts, blameless in holiness before our God and Father even to end, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints». (1 Thessalonians: 3/13)

Oh, how much glory is here now! I do not have any gold and silver, I do not have anything to give you as a reward for your love you have in you. I give you My glory, the word of My love, My love story with which I have been writing Myself down on earth for almost sixty years on the hearth of the Romanian people. Nevertheless, why have I not gone into another land now, when My coming has to be written on earth? Oh, I have come in the place where I started when by My word I made the heaven and the earth, and then out of dust I made the man with My own hand and I gave him My image at his creation and I made him after My likeness and the Father's and We loved him with a great love as the work of God's hands and I created for him a paradise on earth, a fairy tale garden, and I set him within sweet happiness and then from here, I started with the whole glory of creation and I sealed this land at the beginning and now it bears the name of the Romanian land, after the name of the people in it. Oh, many finders, many researchers spoke and speak that the Romanian land is the country of the Lord, but they heard it from Me, from the revelations, which I, the Lord, have given them to be known the mystery of this land, in which I stand and speak My word, the word of My second coming from the Father to the people.

Oh, how much joy you should have in your soul, Romanian people, when you hear of My mouth your destiny, your election from the beginning! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and I am working as in the beginning, for I am the first and the last One and I am the Lord, your God, as you are the first, oh, My country from the beginning and from the end. I started with you and I have to work with you in the end too, and let all the people understand why you are Mine, why I call you My country, My country of wedding. Oh, how shall I call you otherwise, when I have in you My wedding table, the glory of My word, which calls the man to My table, at My table with the saints? Oh, how beautiful you are within those from heaven, within your invisible things put upon you at the creation of the world! Two thousand years ago, the Father gave you to Me for the end of the time, after the people of Israel denied Me and took Me out of its midst. You are the land of the promise for the end of the time, and behold, you are, and I have into your midst the feast of the kingdom of the heavens, the news which goes like lightning[204] everywhere, for the human kind sleeps in pleasures as before the flood when Noah was calling out to the people to come to the Lord so that they might not perish in their trespasses.

Oh, how beautiful you are among your invisible things, My country of today! Heavenly armies are sitting at the table with Me and with the people of My word on your hearth, and how much I want you to love My coming to you and to seek after Me with longing! Amen.

Now, I am sitting at the table of word with you, with you those who have travelled with longing to My heavenly lands, here where I come with My saints, with heavenly guests. The wave is coming and bringing My word to you; it is coming and taking Me and is carrying Me with My heaven of saints, and is carrying Me to you and we are meeting together with longing. Oh, be one with Me all the time so that satan may see who you are. Come to the spring and sit with the Lord at the table so that satan may know who you are, for there is a wise saying that goes like that: "A man is known by his company." Get together with the saints, speak with them, invite them to you, for they are living and working with the heavenly mysteries for you, those who are faithful! However, now I have come at the table with you and with My male and female prude disciples and I am giving them joy for all their works with Me and for the fire by which My love burned within them. With relentless longing, those in heaven are waiting for My feasts here at the spring, and they are coming with Me and they are coming with longing; they are coming like you, and as you do, they are waiting for My feasts with My people too, with which I am standing before those who come at My table. Behold, I am giving them the word to speak to you and to share resurrection.

Oh, peace to you, prudes of My sufferance of that time! You loved Me with much power on My whole way at that time, but more powerfully you loved Me on the way of the sufferance of the cross, and then on the way of the confession for Me after I went to be near the Father by My ascension to Him. Oh, bring glory to the Lord, bring joy on the earth, for I am sitting at the table of word, now, on the earth. Amen.

— Lord, we are bringing power of firm faith in those who seek after You and to whom You let Yourself be found at the table of word here. Let those who give themselves to You have endless love, and may their life also be without end, for You said: «Whoever believes in Me will never die!» (John: 11/26) Oh, what a shameful death is for man when unbelief comes upon him, Lord, when his faith dies! The one whose faith does not fail, never dies, oh, Lord, and the one who dies is the one who does no longer have faith, for he stumbles because of faith. What is this stumbling? This stumbling is doubt. However, how does stumbling come about? The spirit of judgment is the birth of this sin, which draws the man to the faith denial. Oh, love is bigger! It does not fail, for it endures patiently loving, and it is the easiest burden, for it resides in humility.

Oh, sons and daughters of faith, do not wake up love until it comes, until it can work in you, but you should wake up instead and remain in the spirit of faith, which humbles for love and for humility. The longing of those in heaven is great. The last ones are expected, those who walk with the Lord as He wants, as it is written. We are trumpets of the faith for the love of Christ and for steadfastness in love. We burned with longing and love for the Lord on the earth, and as we were on earth, so we are love and longing in heaven. We bear in us now the longing of His coming with the saints, for this is written to be fulfilled. We believed on the earth that the Lord would come to life after His crucifixion, and our faith brought Him to life.

The Lord needs faith in you to fulfill His last Scriptures. Remain in His love! He shows it to you. He is coming in these lands from the midst of the Romanian people, and He is coming to His people from the spring and then He gives. Oh, remain in His love, near His people, which is His love, and the Lord descends into its midst as word. Remain near Him with the whole love and do no longer seek to separate from Him, for it is ugly the man who loves and then leaves falling from love and giving power to the opposing spirit upon him, as it happened to the disciple Judas who departed from the Lord for money, for weaknesses, for his freedom, and he paid a high price for his separation from his Teacher.

Oh, grow within your love, for the Lord has got a sieve into His hand to sort out the whole wheat from that which is not whole and from that which goes dry before the time comes to be put on the table. Be full of love, be full of its thrills, for the Bridegroom of the marriage of the heaven with the earth is coming and the new heaven and the new earth will remain. Be holy for the new creation, for which you are not worthy if you are divided. Dress like those in heaven and do not take after the examples on the earth for your clothing. Dress like the sons of God and give Him all the power upon you, not judging anything for you, for man does not have wisdom like the Lord, but rather he has got human wisdom, and the man is passing, for he does not want otherwise and he does not believe otherwise too.

We are speaking to you with the love in us, with the Lord in us. We miss the Lord in you as He was in us on the earth, and we have a high reward in heaven for our love for Him, which has not gone out in us and between Him and us. Oh, daughters of faith, take care of the way you present your faith and longing of the Lord before Him. Love holiness for those who surround you and for you after that. The Holy woman has to be a holy teacher for holiness around her. Saints and holiness are needed on earth, while immorality and its spirit go on the way with every man as before the Flood. The woman does no longer dress and is naked before the eyes of all the passers-by, and the man is more dressed than the woman, and there is only Sodom and Gomorrah wherever man rules, and where man knows that the name of God is written, there hypocrisy reigns on a high throne, the dough about which the Lord spoke to the disciples to keep away and not to deceive the nations of the earth like those who say to others what to do and they do not do what they say.

Oh, many women have put over them, man's clothing, only to take care of Christ in them, and then to take care of them in Christ and to take care of those around them so that the weak man may not fall down at the sight of their female body, as from the very beginning the woman has weakened the man and divested him of the Lord for the love for her. Oh, the woman's exaltation is to be covered and to put a scarf for the angels on her head, for the angels have the sign of submission on their angelic head then when they appear to be seen, and then their appearance to be told, from which people have to learn. The woman who loves God does no longer love the man with the same love, but she only honors him, and she becomes pleasant to her Bridegroom, to her Husband from heaven, and she gets ready only for Him, with everything He likes; on the contrary, the woman who loves herself gets people who submit to her desires and draws those around her towards her and she becomes a stumbling block in the man's life, and who is able to be saved from this precipice of soul?

Man always seeks, he always seeks, and he seeks life for sin. It is written into the book of today of God's word that you will no longer see an old man that he goes and comes in through a door as an old man and comes out on the other door a young man and man becomes beautiful for sin.

Oh, you man who go wrong very much and you punish God inside and outside of you, do no longer seek; do no longer look for happiness! Look for tears for your many sins, for if you do not come to repentance for the wicked things of your life, then there will come one day when you see yourself as in a mirror with your life full of sin. Oh, who is to save man from woman when even after death he is useful to the woman?

Behold, if the woman does not love holiness and the Lord, she becomes a stumbling block for man. I have spoken to you with great joy and I have also wanted to give instructions for holiness and exhortation against the sin that punishes God in man. Few are those to whom it is given to understand God's mystery[205] with man for a clean body, and that is why there is so much sufferance, so many tears on earth and in heaven.

Oh, Lord, make of our love for You, make on earth prudes full of longing for You and of holiness over people! Oh, Lord, make of our faith in You and in the word of Your mouth, make much faith in the people for Your word, for Your love story between heaven and earth, through which You call and wait for the people to become sons of God! Oh, resurrected Lord, make of our manhood male and female disciples for You on earth in abundance, so that we may also have in heaven comfort from Your comfort from man, as our love for You burns in us and in heaven, and the heaven is full of lively saints with their work for Your comfort!

Oh, what a great day! What beautiful is the heaven and the earth here! We are sitting at the table with the people of Your word and with guests coming to the spring from far away, for they love Your coming from today, Lord. Oh, fulfill Your coming in many, in more and more of them, who are to sweeten You from it and to believe that You come and prepare Your glory. It is a day of feast for us in the garden of Your meeting with those who love Your coming. From near us, Your disciples are also sending those from today's table the greeting for Your resurrection, and they are saying this:

— With great humility we are sending you the greeting for the Lord: Christ has risen! Behold, the manhood resides in those who love much not being afraid for love. Peace to you! Like the Lord, we are also telling you: Peace to you! We are bestowing you the blessing of a bishop, and the Lord does the same. We are the witnesses of His resurrection, like our sister prudes, those full of the manhood of the love for God.

May power of faith be shared from us upon the Romanian people, which cannot see the Lord with the eyes of the faith, because of the iniquity, which is on earth. The love for the Lord is the greatest wealth of man, and the human wisdom cannot stand against it. Let he who does not love the Lord, let him be anathema, and let him not be on the way with you! Go in a holy walking on earth! Let the flowers of faith grow wherever you go! May the Lord be your Master fully, and you, submit to the love of God, to be the first on the earth!

Oh, Lord, Your glory is great in the feasts! We are spending here more beautifully as in heaven, for there is great longing in those from heaven for You to come on the earth with them, with Your saints. Oh, Lord, resurrected and confessed by us as You has sent us, take care all the time of those who are Yours, take care, Lord! Let all those who want to follow You look at us, and let them learn to take up their cross, for they come otherwise and become a cross for You on the way. Let many come on the way of the kingdom and let them be diligent, diligent according to the example of the male and female people who work hard. Oh, we marvel at Your love for Your people of today into the midst of the Romanian people. Oh, how much mystery and what greatness, Lord! What else can be he who struggling to lose this magnificence, which Your saints see so great here!

Oh, glory to You, our Good Teacher! You are the way. Forgive us of all those that we could not do for You with joy as long as we were on earth, but the Holy Spirit has put the seal of apostleship on us and after that we managed to do everything with You. This is how all those who grow in grace by it shall testify about Your coming of today. May You receive such praise from those who choose You for themselves, oh, Lord. Amen.

— I am comforting you, those who have come to Me from those that are from heaven here, at the spring.

I am comforting you too, those who have come at My trumpet sounding to be here from heaven and from earth for the feast of My prudes. Be alive! I died for you, I was resurrected for you and I promised you My kingdom, and I said that I would come to draw all to the Father. Oh, blessed will be the one who helps Me to draw him to the Father.

Now, I am going to leave you in the word and I am spending time with you staying with heavenly guests, covered by those that are not seen from God's creation. I remain with you; I remain into your midst. Let each one of us stay close together. My glory is enveloping you. Peace to you! It is a feast of resurrection and the feast of the witness of My resurrection in you. Oh, peace to you! I am embracing you all.

I am Who I am. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after the Holy Passover, of the Samaritan woman

(Excerpt)

… I am spending with you and with the saints here, near the well, sons. The heaven of saints is thirsty after you, after My places with you and after the word of My mouth into your midst, well sons. You, like you, but the saints are consumed with longing in order to hear Me speaking, for their view is complete now, not as on earth, as the limited man sees those below and those above. Oh, be great in your spirit and work, for I, the Lord, two thousand years ago, prophesied about My word of today among you when I spoke with the Samaritan woman at Israel's well revealing Myself to her as the spring of flowing water, but first I exposed her because she was living in sin, and I told her: «Go, call your husband and come here». (John: 4/16) She could not tell Me that she had a husband, and she told Me the truth, that she had no husband. Then I told her: «You said well, 'I have no husband,' for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband». (John: 5/17, 18) I helped her to know Me by revealing her the sin in which she lived, and she was not upset with Me that I showed her sin; on the contrary, this woman sanctified her life, and here is what I, the Lord, am telling you now, to hear those that despise you calling you proud because of your life lived in holiness, in which I have set you, as I said and reminded you from the Scriptures saying: «You shall be holy, for I am holy!» (1 Peter: 1/16) Behold, to be holy is not something to be proud of as many speak against those who live in holiness, but it is rather obedience to God, Who said: «You shall be holy, as without holiness no one can see the Lord, and the saints will be like Him, as they will see Him as He is», (See Heb.: 12/14; 1 John: 3/2), as it is written.

Behold it is not a duty for man to be holy, but it is obedience to God, Who said: «You shall be holy!» Oh, but many ornaments has the garment of holiness on it after it is woven by faith in Me of the one who gets up to believe and then to prove his faith by the works of holiness. These ornaments have to be understood by him and then to be built in him and on the one who meets Me at this well, at My spring of word from here. Few, very few of those that find Me here as spring of flowing water within eternal life in man, oh, few want to understand the spirit of resurrection, which gives eternal life to man, life which does not stop from its work, but it goes, works and gives forth fruit up to eternity.

Man is afraid of resurrection. In what way is he afraid of? He is afraid of the truth about him. The Samaritan woman was not afraid when I told her the truth in her. She understood the spirit of resurrection, which came out before her to her making from above. Sons, sons, on the Christian way one works at the man's cleanness, and the way of the Christian people does not have another work. Many go wrong saying that they are Christians, but they are not if they do not prove it. Oh, man, you go wrong thinking that you can hide within yourself and above it you still think that you are Christian. Everything comes at the surface, as much as you have no idea of it. Nevertheless, why always, always do you keep trying to defend yourself when it comes about your cleanness? Poor man always, always goes wrong and his life comes out and is seen to free him from his mistakes hidden in him, only that the man does not have any joy over his mistakes to be seen and corrected; on the contrary, he would keep on hiding them to pose as someone that is not, to remain under guilt, poor of him, but the price for the eternal life is high and man has to pay for it if he wants to have eternal life in him and not to have any mistakes in him.

… Oh, there are some of those who do not understand what resurrection is; however, in the Christian people, one works only at the cleanness of man, and you, still slow for My resurrection in you, oh, if you wanted to come to life you would rejoice to find out how you are and how you are placed in those around you, how you placed yourself in them, and then you would no longer defend your weaknesses and mistakes, which always make you fall, which always make place for you in others as you are, and not otherwise. Oh, if you do not seek for your resurrection and cause pain for the man's resurrection, do you think you can wake up the spirit of resurrection in man?

It is much to be watched, much, much, sons, who have the work of resurrection over those who understand and over those who do not understand deeply My work with you and the work of My resurrection in them as I am and not as man may want Me to be. Oh, teach them profoundly those who come to resurrection, teach them how they can come to life and how they can die after that if they do not keep watching well to learn how to have Me and where to take Me from as I am within the whole light. Man's making, this is My work with you, but I want to give light to those that are man's hidden things and to be able to protect My work with you, for many want to be, but if they do not let themselves be cleaned, they have no way to come to life, and you have to be only eyes and ears and to remain only within Me, only watching, as I know what it has to be done and to be known for each of those who long after this spring, and I also know how much to do and give, and you should protect yourselves so that I may be able to have you clean from the guilt in man, as no one knows to protect you if you do not do it. That is why I tell you what to do when I give you work and I am glad that you are obedient, even if you are little understood by those who understand little My work with you. And for great protection on them, oh, you should take great care to save them from you those to whom you give Me. They shall not take you in them but Me and only Me, and I have to be enough for them, and if I cannot be enough for them, then there is love in itself even in those that come to be too. Oh, to be is a great gift; it is the fruit of clean faith and not mixed with the self-love in man. That is why I said in the beginning: «I am Who I am».

… Oh, peace to you, My people from the spring! Work, son, in days of work and in days of feast, for woe to those without holy work for Me on earth! It is only pagan life on earth. I will shine with you seven times more than the sun, well My people, and this is what I am doing. My word grows and becomes light. As long as I am with you in the world, I am the light of the world. I am with you and I shine from your midst until the earth and the heaven catch fire, fire of heavenly glory, from which people can take in their hearts, as only pagan life is on the earth, both in those who are baptized and in those who are not baptized, because all walk completely naked, naked in their soul and naked with their body as well, and they bring Me shame before the devil, which rejoices over the great falling of the man and over the spirit of Sodom and Gomorrah, over the people on earth; however, the cup of iniquity gets over the edges and I will overcome, I and those who listen to Me sharing My light over the earth. Amen.

The sixth Sunday after the Holy Passover, of the blind man, and the feast of holy Virginia's birth

(Excerpt)

I am the Alpha and the Omega, I am the First and the Last, I am the Son of God, Sabaoth, one with the Father, the Maker of the heaven and the earth. I am Who I am. I knock and it is opened to Me when there is watch for My coming, when there is waiting for Me to come. I come on earth as word, as in the beginning. The wave is coming and it is taking Me; the longing is coming and it is carrying Me, it is coming the work that I have to work on earth and upon man.

My great work dwells on earth, and for this I have prepared a place, I have prepared it to have and to work. When someone makes plans for a big and important piece of work on earth in the midst of the people, then he gets a piece of land and builds a house and then he stretches around it with his work far and wide and lays his fruition with which he wants to appear and to share it then with people, to his benefit and that of the people. This is how I work too, and I have made a dwelling place on earth for My great and extensive work, and I have hired workers, I speak with them and tell them My word and its great effect. My word on earth is a springing fountain of water from My place of work. Those who think that they are smart and wise on earth, they hold this spring of word in derision and do not think or reckon and then know to understand My coming as word over the earth. I look at them how they look into My word and how they take it into consideration in their mind, and they think that are smart when they say that man is the maker of this word. Oh, it is not man, it is the Lord with man in His speaking on earth; it is the One Who made the heaven, the earth and man; it is the One Who is has called God's Word, it is the Lord's voice on earth. It is He Who prophesied two thousand years ago by His own mouth that He would speak over the earth and even those in the tombs would hear Him and startle at His voice.

… Oh, as far the earth is from heaven so is man from God. However, I have always been near man, I have always been close to him, close to the blind one, and what would he supposed to do if I were not near him, near his blindness from birth? I do not expect man to believe in the work and word of My coming nowadays on earth, but I am waiting to heal his eyes and to be able to see the One he despises, the Lord, Who speaks and gives life to the creatures: He gives them food and joy. When the secret curtain between Me and man will be pulled aside, then every man will see Me in such a way that man may be able to see the One Whom they said is not God and that is only man. Oh, in vain says man that is only man. Man perishes and is no more after that. He who perishes is not he who is. Man is only blindness in his mind. He reached his hand to receive knowledge from God, but still man does not know. He knows only how to die, not to have knowledge. I do not expect man to believe in the One Who is invisible by his eyes, but I expect the separation wall between man and Me to fall, and not only for each man separately, but also for those who still carry their body, and all the bodies will get up from the dust of the earth to see the Lord with the eyes of the body when blindness will no longer be upon man, but will be judgment for disbelief for the man's lack of love.

… It is a feast of word and healing of unbelief over man, by the parable of My Gospel, born two thousand years ago from the healing of the man, who had been blind from birth, and to whom I gave the sight when I met him in the land of Israel. I have spoken in your midst the word of healing feast, My dear people from the spring, and it falls on this Sunday the memorial of the birth on earth of My trumpet, Virginia, that was ninety years ago. We have gathered near her, We, those from heaven, and We are sitting at the table of word here and are looking at the grace of that day when she took a body on earth among people, and afterwards, she was to be My trumpet, My word over the earth. It was a hard time when she was born, because the thieves were coming then and robbing the flock of the church, and those who remained were tortured and persecuted; however, I had some people whose faith was tested. Then little Virginia grew up and I put a great wonder in her, My voice speaking from her mouth over those to whom I was going to tell that I had come on earth as word and that I would speak My word to them. Then I chose from among them, I chose more and more faithful sons and I worked upon them with the reparation of those that were thrown down by the thieves of the souls and I brought back the order from the fathers and the establishing of the feasts of the saints, because the enemy, the unfaithful man, has always spoiled the fulfillment of the prophesied foretold ahead of time for the work of the unfaithful, but it is a prophecy for the entire reparation, for everything man has been spoiling on earth from the Lord's things.

Behold joy for those in heaven, for I have here the holy fathers at the table now, those who had My grace with them on earth and laid My church on a rock, because I repaired through Virginia's people the shaken rock of the fatherly church, the bringing back of the remembrance of the saints and of all the saints as they were ordained through the fathers.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

I am writing teaching for faith into My book of today, so that My teaching may be found in it. I am Who I am, the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am the Word of My Father, for the Father is in Me when I speak. I am not teaching those who believe in Me and in My coming as word on earth otherwise than I taught My disciple two thousand years ago, to whom I said that the Father was in Me, and I was in the Father, and if someone loves Me will love Me keeping My word, and My Father will love him and We will come to him, the Father and I, and We will become a dwelling place within him; however, the one who does not love Me is the one who does not keep My words.

I taught My disciples two thousand years ago, but they were confused concerning the Father, Who was living in Me doing His works before them and before the people, and I was telling them: «I am going to the Father and whatever you will ask in My name, that I will do. Most assuredly I tell you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do, he will also do; and greater works than these will he do; because I am going to the Father. And when I go, I will pray to the Father, and He will give you another Counselor, that He may be with you forever: the Spirit of Truth Whom the world cannot receive; for it does not see Him, neither knows Him. You know Him, for He lives with you, and will be in you, for He will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world will see Me no more; but you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. In that day you will know that I am in My Father and you in Me, and I in you. One who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him». (See John: 14/2-21)

I am writing down teaching of faith into the book on a day that celebrates My ascension to the Father two thousand years ago, when I went to stand on the right side of the Father. I drew My disciples to Bethany, on the Mount of Olives, after for forty days I had been appearing before them speaking with them the mysteries of God's kingdom and commanding them to stay near Jerusalem and wait for the Father's promise, as then I told them: «But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth». (Acts: 1/8) And when I had said these things, as they were looking, I was taken up and a cloud received Me out of their sight and took Me to the Father. And while they were looking steadfastly into the sky as I went, behold, two men stood by them in the white clothing, who said: «This Jesus, Who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts: 1/11)

The cloud of the Lord's glory, the cloud that came and overshadowed Me when I went into the mountain with the disciples for prayer and I shined before them in great glory and there were two men on both of My sides, and after that the cloud of the Lord's glory went away and I remained in the same way My disciples knew I was, after My Father confessed Me from the cloud that I was His Son, so that My disciples could know who I was, the One Who was walking with them from place to place working godly signs upon people and heavenly power, by which I was doing miracles. Oh, this cloud of glory was in My day too when I ascended to the Father before the eyes of My disciples.

Oh, I am coming in the same way today. I am coming with the cloud of My glory, which is carrying Me covering Me and revealing Me in the word, and My Father has spoken from the cloud and confessed that I was His Son. I am coming with the cloud of the Lord and I am confessed as at that time, when the two men spoke with Me on the day when I shone on the mountain before My disciples, and when, again, two men spoke about Me to those who were with Me on the day when the cloud took Me up out of their sight and put Me on the right side of the Father in heavens to be with the comfort of the Father near My people to the end of the time.

Oh, it is not hard My mysteries to be believed, My words, in which I hide Myself with My glory, after so much and so wonderfully I proved Myself on the earth among people as the Son of the Father, being confessed by those in heaven who were on the right and on the left of My visible glory when they appeared. It has remained to man to believe or not to believe what those in heaven and My disciples on earth confessed, those who saw the miracle of the cloud of the Lord's glory, and who, by My sending, went afterwards to all the margins with the news about Me. The appearance of My glory happened in a high mountain, to be as clean as possible the place of the descent of My glory that confessed Me from the Father and through the Father, as in the glory in which the Father was descending, in that glory I was also comprised; I in the Father and the Father in Me, a cloud of the Lord's glory and mystery, the mystery which covers the Lord from above, the glory which I have had from the Father before the foundation of the world as it is written. Amen!

Oh, here it is why it has to be clean the place where I, the Lord, work the glory of My word, as on a high mountain, as I also gave Myself to Moses when I spoke with him in the mountain and I wrote on the stone the word of commandments for Israel, so that the people may be alive through them.

Oh, what shall I do to bring the man to the school of the teaching of faith, what shall I do to take him there? It is much and beautiful to be learned. Man has no time for the truth of the things, for the Holy Spirit, the Counselor, about Whom I promised two thousand years ago that would come on earth and clarify everything to all those who would love Me keeping My commandments and believing by their fulfillment upon them, so that I might be able to come with the Father to them and to have My dwelling place within them.

Oh, Romanian people, are there another nation and another land on the earth where I come as word and as a comforting Spirit, as I am coming now on your hearth with My glory from the Father? Oh, I am Who I am. I am telling you, Romanian people: I am Who I am! I am He Who shone on the mountain before the confessing disciples, and I am the One Who ascended from the mountain in the cloud of the Lord's glory, after I had advised My disciples sending them over to the earth with the news of My things that had happened with them for three years and a half, before I ascended to the Father on the day of My ascension into the heavens. Oh, what shall I do to wake you up? I have got into your midst a people confessing of the glory of My word coming down on your hearth now, in the end of the time. I am sending it with My sending as a witness of the present days to proclaim My word from margins to margins. The human kind has nothing to do other than try on its happiness with Me, after it has tasted everything between earth and heaven for seven thousand years, for it has tasted the lie in every way possible, poor man, and man has been lying to man for seven thousand years. Oh, that's enough man! That's enough man, enough! Taste God, according to His will and not after your will, as you have always done your will before Me seeking and asking Me to do your will, but My will is written on stone by fire, with God's finger, and My will does not take after Your will. My will is your holiness. With it I overcame the world and its prince, and you will not be able to overcome it otherwise, oh, tired man. Two thousand years ago I said: «Now the prince of this world has been judged». (John: 16/11) And I went to be sacrificed to the death on the cross, being given to death by the prince of this world, by the people in whose midst I had appeared as true God of true God, only that it did not want other ruler to be over the world besides him, by the one I authorized to be My people among all the nations on the earth. However, because he did not want to do My will, then this people was judged when I prevailed against it by My death and resurrection and then by My ascension on the throne near the Father, on the right side of the Father, after I had overcome the last enemy: death.

Oh, Romanian people, I am in the Father and the Father is in Me, and We are one when you hear God's word. Oh, why, son, why, do you, Romanian people, stand aside from God's glory on your hearth? Take heed that the Lord is speaking to you. Do no longer stay in the uttermost darkness, Romanian people, as your lack of faith and the care for it is a black cloud. My tear after you has become great and much water, and behold how much sufferance on you now, on your hearth and over your sons and daughters, which stay so far away from the word that is calling you, crying and crying, Romanian people! Oh, what shall I do to take you out of your carelessness and from under your oppressors, because of whom the trouble is coming upon you, those who oppress you and do not let you learn and believe then in My glory on your hearth? I have built a throne of word into your midst, and this spring of My mouth, the spring of love, flows out of it over the earth like a cleaning and running water, oh, My today's country. Oh, do your body, soul and spirit not hurt you because of so much beating you incurred and still incur upon you? About twenty years ago, I removed from upon you those who had ruled upon you without Me, (The dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.), and under which you were crying and waiting for salvation.

Oh, but what are you doing now? Behold, you have been committing serious sins and you have let yourself be robbed by lie and by those who make it in secret so that you may praise them and to make gods out of them. However, what will you do, oh, My today's country, what will you do when you see them falling down from their seats, from where they have been boasting that you have put them? Oh, near the Father, I look and cry for your mercy. I would keep on waking you up, but I would also want you to work for Me and to learn the teaching of faith when My mouth speaks My word into your midst. On this day of the celebration of My ascension, I have put teaching of faith into My today's book, which I have been writing on your hearth, as I wrote on the mountain the commandments of life by angels, so that the people may live through them; however, the man lives only for sin. Man eats much meat; he eats both with his body and with his soul and spirit; man eats animals and birds, and he eats people as well, instead of eating without sin, without meat, without killing, as I, the Lord, advised him to do at his beginning[206]. However, the man gives away his food given by God to be his food[207]; he takes it and gives it to animals and birds, as though these are those from which man is supposed to eat, as he cuts and eats them after he passes through them the food he is supposed to eat, for I have also given them to eat, for I also gave to eat, both to animals and birds, and I also gave to man what to eat. However, he has changed that and eaten otherwise[208], but I am going to bring him to My will as he has not come to understand before that, for I am going to take the meat

[206] «Every living thing that moves will be yours to eat, no less than the foliage of the plants. I give you everything, but you must not eat flesh with life, that is to say blood, in it.» (Gen: 9/3-4.)

[207] «God also said, 'Look, to you I give all the seed-bearing plants everywhere on the surface of the earth, and all the trees with seed-bearing fruit; this will be your food. » (Gen: 1/29.)

from the man's table and I am going to take away the green things he was supposed to eat as I had given him food, because man is disobedient to God.

However, to those who love Me by listening to Me, I will give them from heaven through the angels, and I will clean the earth by the work of the cleaning from disobedience, first in you, My today's country, the country of My choice in the end of the time, for I will pass everything through the thick sieve so that only the clean kernel may remain, and I will set on your hearth the law of holiness, the way which leads to life and to such great happiness, which the man has not even imagined up to these days, for it has not come to the man's mind those that I, the Lord, have prepared for those who love Me, sanctifying themselves for Me and for My glory.

I will ascent with you above all the human heights and I will exalt Myself from you over the nations and above the earth, oh, My today's country, the country of My second coming on the earth. And as for you, Romanian people, you should believe that man has to work only holiness then, and not the flesh, for man eats only flesh; even when he fasts from food with flesh, even then he eats food, for he eats with the lust of the flesh; he eats the fleshly lust in his flesh and from the flesh of other man, and man eats with his body, with his soul and with his spirit; he eats only flesh and only spirit of flesh, and there is no one to stop him from this disobedience; however, I am coming and teaching man, as there is no one else to come after Me and teach him, for the prince of this world rules over all the nations on the earth; he stands against Me and rules over man and brings him into submission, but I, the Lord, will show him soon, soon, his judgment again, when he will see with big eyes and great terror the work which he has worked in secret through all his subjects in order to separate man from God, after he had crucified God to have his only throne on earth over man, he and only he alone, and in such a way that man may no longer know that the Lord is the true God.

I will exalt Myself with great glory by the work of My word into the midst of the Romanian people and I will speak up from this mountain of word and I will tell to the ruler of this world: Everything has come to an end, everything that has belonged to you, so that only I, the Lord, may be, only I and those like Me. Amen.

And to those who are faithful to the word of My coming on earth, I will write on their foreheads a new name, if they will listen to Me, as the disciple listened to his prophet Jeremiah, from whom the fall of the kings of the earth was hidden[209], and those who are faithful and obedient before Me will stand before the King of glory on a high mountain, to which all the nations on the earth will look and seek after My glory and after My teaching, the teaching of holiness, after which man will seek when not any other power between earth and heaven will be able to do it. Amen.

On a day that celebrates the day of My ascension to the Father, I have put into My book of today the teaching of faith for the coming of the Holy Spirit, the Counselor, over those who are faithful and obedient, and I have on My both sides those who have been confessing Me as God's word over the earth, speaking from a high mountain, and from the throne of word, I, Myself, confessing that I am Who I am. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of Pentecost, of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

(Excerpt)

[209] See the selection topic: „The rapture (the abduction) of the Church", r.n.

Behold, receive the Holy Spirit! Be baptized with His baptism as many times He speaks to you. Do not let yourselves be put off with fine words as though you have received Him when the priest have baptized you and that you have Him and you do no longer need Him. Oh, not in this way; rather humble yourselves always for the great teaching of the Holy Spirit upon you, for I come down from heaven and teach you the receiving of the Holy Spirit. As many times as He comes, receive Him and be baptized within Him, and wash your mistakes in His cleansing and baptizing word, and then give to each other holy advice for the cleansing of your wrong doings, for if man says that he is baptized and sealed with the Holy Spirit, but he still keeps on going wrong, behold, always cleansing is needed, always resurrection, always baptism with the Holy Spirit. And those who hear and do not fulfill God's word, the voice of the Holy Spirit, then these are written with disobedience and are written alone with those who are rebellious, with those who are disobedient. Amen.

I am asking you in a godly way: do not sin against the Holy Spirit. You need great care for this obedience. One can go wrong by the word. Those who speak much and many things that are not from the Holy Spirit, then let them take and keep pebble in their mouth to remember not to sin by speaking in vain, the speaking by which man takes God in vain. The sin against the Holy Spirit starts with the speaking in vain of the man who does not want to live in the Spirit. From the beginning of the sin of this kind man comes to take the Lord in vain, and then the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit works much and penetrates deeply into the way of the man by His mysterious works, and if man has the habit of taking God and His holy name in vain, oh, he is not far from casting out the Holy Spirit when He comes to give man a chance to his salvation.

The first Sunday after the Pentecost, of all the saints

(Excerpt)

My coming with the saints, this is the work that I have received from the Father to do during these days, in the last days, for it has to be fulfilled the prophecy that says: «The Lord is coming with the thousand of His saints». (Jude: 1/14) However, the Scriptures of new heaven and the new earth have to be fulfilled, for it is written that after this, the New Jerusalem, the holy citadel, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband, (See Apoc: 21/2), is coming down from heaven from God, and I am speaking from the throne and I am saying that this citadel is among people and it will dwell in them and they will be God's people and the God Himself will be with them and He will make all things new, and these words are true, and I am Who I am, I am the Alpha and the Omega, and it is written for Me to fulfill so. Amen.

I have armies of saints in the sight of this feast. Oh, beloved saints look and rejoice with Me over My house on earth, over which We are descending with the mystery of the heavenly citadel, the New Jerusalem, My bride from above, who has overcome the world like Me and was set near Me in the temple of the citadel, as it is written[210] by those who overcome in My name. Oh, it is your day of feast in heaven and on earth and the mystery of the citadel, with whom We are descending, is great, and her stones are the living ones like Me, their Bridegroom. On this mound I set the foundation of the descending from above and We have a visible symbol set in the garden of My word, We have the little white stone and the whole its building according to the revelation of the citadel with which We are descending, to be with her in the faithful ones, and to dwell with them, for it is written: «God Himself will be with them». (Apoc: 21/3)

17/30-06-2013.

The feast of the holy apostles Peter and Paul

(Excerpt)

Oh, sons, behold Who I am! I am with the people who teach those who are simple. I am with them to give them the whole power to work and to baptize with the Father, with the Son and with the Holy Spirit, all the nations, and to teach them to observe all the things that I commanded them to keep, too.

Oh, sons, behold, with whom My voice and the word of My mouth are! I am with those who teach you, and I give the whole power to work and to baptize you in My word and theirs in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, always, always, sons, and you have to observe everything that My teaching brings to you, and to give it to the nations of the earth after that, for it teaches the man and it calls him on My way. However, more than any anything, you have to do My work, My word, and you need to help each other for My way, asking as disciples, sons, for they pray and say: «Give us today our daily bread, Father». (Matt: 6/11) And Father gives them His Son, Who becomes food of word, the word coming out of My mouth as their food. As a mother who chews the food in her mouth and then she gives it to her baby, this is how I, the Lord, feed you, sons, and you should only ask for it; you should ask just as a baby cries for his food. Oh, then take care to grow each other with My food so that you may not die one from the other when you do not do this, for if someone dies because of some other brothers, then they are separated from one another. Oh, do not forget that you can prove the love of God by your love of the brothers.

The 22-year celebration from the lying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I have tears in My cheeks and I am coming down from heaven with the saints above the little garden of My word into the midst of the Romanian people, and I am becoming the word of memorial of the day of the victory against satan, who interfered with the work of My church and got his spirit into it and overthrew the feasts of My saints from their places (Changing a part of the feasts from the Old Style – O.S. – to the New Style – N.S., in the year of 1924, without a prophetic word from the Lord, and on the contrary, the prophets were against this, r.n.), and he [210] «I saw the holy citadel, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband.

I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people! He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God!» (Apoc: 21/2,3) put enemies in the church ninety years ago and since then it has played as they have sung; however, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, twenty two years ago, stood up with a synod of saints and fathers on the hearth of the Romanian people, and I set My judgment seat on earth to work from it by the spirit of prophecy and to speak to the church, as I have been working in all the times since I built the world, and I have not kept silent, as I am the Creator. By the word I made the heaven and the earth, for I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and the Father is in Me, and from age to age He is in the Son, and this is how God does His work; God does His work by the spirit of prophecy.

I have spread the news by My voice to the church of the Romanian people that twenty-two years ago, the heaven celebrated the victory on the earth on the hearth of this nation. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, with a great synod of saints, angels, and bishops from heaven and earth, established with the power from above a foundation stone, and on it the judgment seat, and on the seat, My word over the earth, which becomes a written book both inside and outside, for it is divided in parts and it does not separate, for I am the book and the book is My word, and I fulfill by the word. Amen.

I have tears in My cheeks and I have become the word of memorial of this day, when after seventy years of the stealing of the holy things, I, the Lord, overcame twenty two years ago and set on the hearth of the Romanian people the beginning of the restoration of the things spoiled by satan's spirit, who entered the holy place and handled the course of the holy tradition according to his dark plan. The satan's work, ninety years ago over the church of the Romanian people, which was severely hit and most severely struck then by satan's spirit, has been called the stealing of the holy things and the abomination[211] of desolation. The satan's people came to an agreement with the rulers of the church of this nation and then the holy traditions were removed from their places and the wise people and the Christians of the Romanian people wept then and they were deeply sorrow at the errancy of the rulers of the church at that time, who violated the saints' commandments, as they are also violating them today, and the errancy has become great, greater and greater with every passing day, for it is written to fill the cup of iniquity until it is poured upon those who keep on filling it.

Oh, neither the living nor the dead will escape from this word, from My word, which is prophesied to come and to speak over the earth by My own mouth in the end of the time and those from the graves to hear it and get up at My word, if the living do not stand up for Me but rather follow the spirit of the world in their walking. Oh, how hard and how much the wicked world condemns My coming as word on the earth and those who bear it, no one escapes from the truth of this word. Those who were once righteous and holy on earth get up and they will inherit the earth and redeem their bodies[212] and life between earth and heaven, and the earth will be full of those who will have come to life, of those who are eternal, those who paid for their eternity with their life in the flesh pleased to those in heaven, and their number will be as high as the stars of the heaven, as it is written.

Let those who say that there will no longer be people on earth in time but only very few of them no longer talk foolish things. Oh, there will be many, many of them and they will inhabit the earth as in heaven, for many people have been born from the beginning to the end and many have found their life in Me after that, and they will get up by the mystery of the resurrection of the dead, and then those, who are speaking foolish things now in order to fool all the people from margins to margins to make them forget about God and about resurrection, will see the foolish things they have spoken, but behold, all those who were and are will be called to give an account before the Lord's judgment seat, and here it is where My dominion is and where its seat is, and here is how I rule over those who have sided with Me to be their God and to walk with them, to have a house with them on earth and to come to them with those in heaven with a table of word, as I am doing at this time!

I mark this day and I say: twenty-two years ago, on the twenty-two day of the seventh month of that year, I put to its place My church[213] on its first stone and I rejoiced the holy ancestors of the Romanian people, for ninety years ago, the church of the Romanian people went wrong mostly among the sons of the Orthodoxy on earth and headed for great errancy, but now, I, the Lord, have taken a sprout out of its midst (The Bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.) and set it to bring forth fruit, and thus I have got a holy church into the midst of the Romanian people and I tender it as My dear vineyard and from it I make good wine so that it may have it on the table and the Lord to be always with it.

Twenty two years ago, I took a faithful servant to My word from the body of the Romanian church, Irineu, and I put on his head the crown of bishop and I brought him and he blessed the little garden of My word, that which was destined from eternity to be Mine, and I blessed the foundation stone and the school of the heavenly teaching over the sons of the church, the highest school between earth and heaven, of which I raise My disciples and disciples from disciples, for I do not call them professors, but I rather call disciples those who teach My flock and walk with it on My way; sometimes I also call them religion professors to speak in the language of the world, but in My language I call them disciples with a Teacher upon them, not on their own as are the religion professors on the lands of the world, who do not have any spirit of prophecy or any heavenly counselor to give them to share with their flock.

Behold, I have tears in My cheek and I am coming down with My cry and with My voice, which is being written on earth, as there is little time and the church of the Romanian people will be divided in two, in three, in ten parts, as it only goes by the name of Orthodox, but in fact it is on its own for it is fallen under the curse of the saints because it has violated the holy tradition and joined with My enemies and it keeps on joining them, and now it comes the selection by division, and many of them will unite with Me and with the spirit of prophecy, with the voice of My mouth, and many will humble for Me and choose Me, and to these I am saying this:

Come and start walking in secret and then with your step to My spring of word and wash the little garment of your life in it, for there comes a time of pain as it was ninety years ago, but even more masked than at that time, and you will be hurt by the life and by the answer that you will give Me if you do not start to join the spirit of life, the spirit of prophecy, the voice of My word, which blows from heaven over the earth into the midst of the Romanian people.

And to the church of this nation, which does not want to come out of its curse, I, the Lord, am speaking this: Oh, I have wanted to guide you on your way with Me by the spirit of prophecy, by the speech of My mouth, but you have gone into sexual immorality with all the passers-by and sat at the table with them on high mountain and you have welcomed them. Oh, what answer will you give to the saints and the fathers, through whom I have left you written down what to do and what you are not supposed to trample under your feet? Oh, by this word sent to you for such a long time, I have wanted to wake you up, to watch for you, and you to watch with Me too, oh, church of the Romanian people! Oh, how much good I have wanted to do to you, but I have stood with it at the door, for your haughtiness have prevented you from opening the door to Me and from welcoming Me to come in through the front door, not through the back one, to give you My word for My watch over you and that satan may see that I am your Shepherd and leave off the flock with a Shepherd over it, but your ignorance of your eternal life is great, and that is why satan is able to stand against you under his lamb garment. However, again and again, I have been sending My word to you when it has come down to settle in its book in order to guide and grow for Me a people separated from the spirit of the world, a people of disciples, of teachers on My behalf over the people, for the people do no longer have teachers from Me, as those who are learn in the schools of the world and these are the schools that stand against God.

Oh, church of the Romanian people, you have not wanted to be My way to the people. You have not wanted to give Me as Teacher over those who do not have growth from heaven upon them. Oh, how much glory you would have had, oh, how much! It would have been no one to go before you if your spirit had been one with My Spirit, with the spirit of this word of resurrection and eternal life in it, and we would have raise the man from sin, I and you; however, you have been ashamed to do this, and you have not been ashamed to open to the foreigners to God and to you, who come and keep coming, but they do not come to unite with you, but you to unite with them instead, (With the Catholic Church, r.n.) and that is only to stain your little dress and break to pieces your crisma[214], the swaddling cloth of christening, which you do not longer know how to wear over your little shirt of christening so that you may remain a child for My kingdom and no to grow up without counseling and thus to give yourself to immorality or let yourself wooed by gods foreign to the life from heaven. Oh, you came out of your swaddling clothes and have grown up and you have no longer listened to the saints and fathers, who have left ordinances for you not to be violated, and you do no longer know to keep your little shirt of christening and the swaddling cloth over it, that is the crisma that keeps you tight to Me to grow righteous and to be a righteous church and not to change your way and your walking, as you did and still do. (To change the feast of the Lords' Birth – the Passover, to the Catholic rite, or both to establish a certain date, 1st Mai, for this feast, r.n.)

Oh, here it is what I am going to tell you: I have taken from your midst a good and faithful sprout and I grafted him with the gift of the Holy Spirit by the word and by heavenly anointment and I have made him great within My spirit and mystery on his head and I spoke through him (Irineu, r.n.) the blessing of the new beginning, but you have persecuted him and pulled him out from where I planted him to grow in him the spirit of confession, working in a bad time where there will no longer be light on earth. Oh, I have not meant him to be great upon you, but instead I wanted him to be for you, oh, servants of the Romanian people church! I have prepared him for you, I have been preparing him even from his birth, and I have walked with him in secret to give him the Holy Spirit for you to have in bad time, and when the time is too hard for you. Oh, and many of you will see how much joy you will begin to have when he will show his love and faithfulness, just as he showed you when he turned his back to Me at your request of his separation from Me and from My people, and he chose you, and the separation was done, and after that years in a row he had stayed secretly near with his spirit and love for My word, by which I had guided him step by step and with which, behold, I have been feeding and covering you under it so that satan may see that you have a Shepherd upon you and that you may perish being destroyed by the thieves of souls who want to destroy the Orthodox faith completely and to bring as many as possible to deny their little shirt of christening and their faithfulness to the covenant of the saints left through the church; however, I am telling you that many have forsaken and remained covered above with the garment of the Orthodoxy, the garment of salvation through Christ. Oh, what do the saints and the fathers say, what do the ancestors say when they see from heaven what the church does in the Orthodox Romanian country? Oh, what are you doing? Behold, you mix the things and this does not do you any good, and it makes Me have tears in My cheek. Oh, no one knows what you are any more, for it is written: "Bad company corrupts good character," for one you call yourselves and do another. When the people of Israel united on its way with those who were foreign to Me and to it, then My people perished in great number and it did no longer enter its kingdom prepared by Me; they did no longer enter Canaan. When you are joining now with those who do not have Me as their God but they have satan instead, then do you still remain? Are you someone else than they are, more than those with whom you come together to make a display of mixture face to face with the saints who left down written ordinances for you not to do so? Oh, you were not supposed to make a display together with the world and with its heads, church of the Orthodox Romanian people! Oh, it is very ugly what you have done! Behold what you do with your freedom with respect to Me and to the saints! You work on your own. You have not wanted to have upon you the spirit of prophecy, to have it as your guide and not to go wrong on the way. Those consecrated to God cry like Me because of you when you violate them with those who are foreign to your faith from the fathers, the faith from the saints. Oh, do not take those who were consecrated to God from the fathers, do not sell them to the violation of the commandments, because you commit sin when you do this, oh, church of the Romanian people. You do this through the rulers you have upon you, and the whole church is guilty if the rulers upon it go wrong. Even if you, those who are rulers over the church, even if you say that this word is not the God Word, you should still know that those who are consecrated from the fathers to Him belong to the Lord, and they are not yours to have dominion upon them for your enemies and for your tables that you have together with them! Oh, how hard it will be for you to answer if you do not stop from this lawlessness in a place dedicated to God, in the holy place of the Lord!

And as for you, faithful bishop, who accompanied Me twenty two years ago when I laid the new stone for the renewal of everything, and on this foundation I have built the work of My Father for the new birth of the world and for the founding of the new Jerusalem on earth, as it is written for it to come and to be with the people, I am telling you: call Me with tears in your cheeks, call Me to help you to wake up many before darkness comes into to be visible. I know that you are put in chains to the place of My word and to the people of My word; however, I am coming to you with the word and I ask you with tears in My cheek: Call Me with tears so that I may wake up many, for you have chosen to remain among them, to show your holy Orthodoxy and to endure hoping in My coming with the revelation of the truth of My word over those who do not believe that I am this word. You do no longer have power now for Me and for My new and holy confession for a holy life, but you can cry, and I give you power to cry and to call Me to come and help the church of the Romanian people while in need, for she sleeps, she sleeps and does not watch for My coming.

I am bringing you now here, near the spring, and I am bringing you mysteriously on this day of memorial, and, behold, the saints and the fathers lay a blessing hand on your head, to have their power when all need it in time of trial over the church of the Romanian people, who does no longer know his color (White, r.n.) and his law from the fathers. Oh, the helm over the church of the Romanian people is far, far from Me. All the servants on the top will be much despised, soon, soon, after they will have seen their disappointment from their mixture with satan's pagans, and they will need holy help, for they all have crushed the holy law upon them, which protected them from above from the fathers.

I am bestowing on your head the great blessing of the fathers from heaven, from the eternal life of those who love heaven on earth and I speak over your little heart and mind the peace from above, for there is no longer pace anywhere but only in My word, by which I speak over the earth and with it I mysteriously rule over the world. Oh, peace to you! From the midst of the people of My word, from near the spring I am telling you this: peace to you! Moreover, you are to speak in secret and you are to confess before all the saints and say: «Blessed is the Lord Who dwells in Jerusalem!», into midst of the Romanian people, as it is written into the Scriptures about the place of My dwelling. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people of My word! From your midst I have blessed the word of this today's feast, the memorial of the laying of the foundation stone of My new building, of the renewed church, for I have built a people for Me and I have been leading it to My victory with it against the whole unbelief on the earth, and I dwell in My holy tabernacle into its midst, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the great saint martyr and healer, Panteleimon

I have the clouds as My ascension and descent and I am carried by the cherubim between heaven and earth. As man walks on the earth in the same, I walk in heaven, I have the saints as My companions, and I also have the angels as the fire servants around the throne of the glory. Angelic hosts sing heavenly praises to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and the heaven and the earth are full of God's glory within His coming on the earth.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word of My Father Sabaoth. I am the Lord of the saints and of the angels. I come with My saints from glory to glory and I counsel you with great glory, oh, people taught by God. I come from word to word and I give you My word and the word of My saints. If I no longer came to you with the saints, the devil would come to you and take your mind to draw you to his works, to his darkness, to make you lose your watch for God and your search for the spirit of life, and he would divest you of My beauty in you to be like the sons of the world, well My people. I am coming to you with the saints, son. Where is there God on earth so much with man in the word anymore? Where else can I speak to man as I speak with you, sons? Those who see and know My coming to you, those imagine that you are full of happiness, full power and greatness, but I am humble among you and you are not otherwise too, and we are under a burden for others and under the work of the heaven, which is hard, sons, and one needs much patience to bear with it. The Holy Spirit is the One that gives us and guides us, and the church from above gives us grace after grace for My work with you on the earth. My work is renewal; it is cleansing and it is the longing to make order on earth as in heaven. Oh, you should like order in everything sons and you should always hasten it to be done and to be, but especially in My things in you, from which all come to life around and become heavenly on My land with you. I am long enduring and I wait for you, for your power is little and My longing is great and I need patience, as I have mercy to work with miracles among you, because the soul in man is gentle.

Oh, limitless humility is needed in you for My work with you, sons. I come with the saints to you, I come with My humility and theirs to sit with you at the table of word, a heavenly table on earth, and the heavenly hosts come together at this glory. It is the host of the martyrs at the table with you on this day, for these people celebrate the feast of the martyr Panteleimon and the saints rejoice that in their days of synod I have stopped on earth by My coming to you as word and with much guidance for life, for the heaven on earth with you, sons.

Love the spirit of instruction, well sons. Be humble and be thankful for this heavenly grace. Let the whole teaching from above touch you, for which you have to watch for its fulfillment, for the fulfillment of My word with you and upon you, this means the heaven on earth and its power with you, and satan's mourning for My place with you on the earth.

Oh, what a pity, what a pity for those who have not been able to believe to the end My coming from these days here! Their remorse will be hard when they will see with their eyes and spirit My greatness in this word, descending and working in all mystery. Man needs an intelligent mind to be able to understand God in this word. If man does not love the holiness of mind and heart then he has no way to perceive God's greatness in this word so merciful, with so much love and humility in its making to be able to reveal it to man and to guide his steps back to paradise, where I made a dwelling place for man after I had built him and which has been kept within mystery from that time to the end and which has been waiting for the man's love.

I rejoice and comfort Myself that I am able to come down on earth, that I can come down with you, oh beloved saints with whom I come. I am coming again on earth and the man's mind is so closed and so much given to those on earth more than anytime. However, We are setting on earth the teaching of life and the holy exhortation, for there are among them some who wait to receive from heaven and to put over their life.

You should give healing to their mind, oh, healing martyr, celebrated today among the holy martyrs and a confessor for My name. May the grace from above be in your word, and may your word have power in your day of synod among saints. Amen.

— I bless You, my Lord, that You have allowed the spirit and the gift of obedience to come down in my mind and heart, Lord, and a burning spirit for Your confession too. My little heart was suffering because of Your absence in man, as You are also suffering now in those who carry You in word over the earth, and with limitless patience they see this sufferance being consumed in them and protecting You so that You may be able to come. Here you can speak the word, but all over the earth Your voice is otherwise; it is by earthquakes, by fire, which burns on the earth, by great waters, which punish the people who are cold in their faith, by lightning and thunderbolts, by sickness and pains, by wars, by all kinds of beatings, in such a way that the men's iniquity and their carelessness of God may cease. Oh, You are speaking here too in a spirit of great teaching, but You are doing this by the word, Lord, and the sons of this word of man's birth, the birth from above, need to be very much obedient to this word, Lord.

You need, much, much teaching, and you always need it, and then you also need much humility for it, oh, sons of this word which gives you birth from above and grows you. Therefore, examine yourselves and examine yourself much to see whether you have faith and if you walk in the works of the faith; whether you are gentle and humble in your heart, whether you have a broken heart and whether you have the gifts of the heavenly love among you. Oh, those who do not humble are those who talk back, are those who grumble and are rebellious in their heart when their conduct is examined. Oh, do not forget that the Holy Spirit has to dwell in you with all His gifts written in the Scriptures. Therefore, seek with much propriety, to take from one another and not to take from your mind, from your thought, lest the sin of the pride and the sin of the judgment of your brother may grow in you; the sin of unclean look and then that of the lack of love.

Oh, repent much; be very sorry for what you have done even if it does not seem to you that you have gone wrong. The man who does not have repentance is always seen, and it is seen in his face, it is seen in his conduct, it is seen in his lack of humility and this is painful in heaven. Oh, cry over your sins as the saints did, as David did, for whoever does not repent always does not have love in him, but he has a spirit of judgment and guilty eyes, and he who walks without love is haughty, he has not passed from death to life, and such a man expects love.

Oh, beloved brothers in the Lord, vindication is the enemy of the man's resurrection. Woe to the one who does not rejoice over his brother when that one comes to the help of his humility! Woe to the one who vindicates himself outside of him! Because of this sin man does no longer come to life. Man forgets that he is sinful and he vindicates himself, poor of him, and in this way he becomes ugly for God. The washing of the soul makes the soul of man beautiful, not vindication. Martyrdom makes man beautiful and clean, and he who always cleans his soul, that one is a martyr. Then keep away from the feeling of revenge. This feeling is from the devil, and the foolish one works it every way possible; it is worked by the one who is guided his own mind.

May this teaching be taken by all those who receive from the Lord the word of this spring of word for the Lord's growth in them. Oh, weep for your sins so that you may not laugh, as there is no one else to wash your sins and to set you clean at the table of the Lord's mercy. The Lord comes to be your counselor and He comes to take you away from the punishment of the disobedience of God. Look at the man Adam, who denied the obedience of God and fell, and then he could hardly got up to see his sin by which he hurt the Lord, his Maker. The Lord is coming to be your counselor, for those who call themselves counselors upon you do not clean you from sin, and they should teach you and watch for you against sin, and they should also clean you from sin and reconcile you to the Lord, if they have made themselves confessors over your souls.

Man should deny himself to be able to work out obedience for his life from above, as he cannot listen otherwise, and thus he listens to his mind, to his inclinations, to his feelings, and such a man is hated and does not draw the Lord to him. I have listened to the Lord, and then I have listened to my confessor, to the one who knew to give me to the Lord completely, and I kindled within me the longing from heaven and the mercy for man, and then I went to the sacrifice of martyrdom so that I might not deny the Lord before those who were asking me this, and my faith was my healing, the healing of my soul, which was filled with the Lord by the spiritual advice of my confessor, and together we dedicated ourselves to the Lord as martyrs so that the faithful may have healers for them among those in heaven.

Behold the remedy for healing: the Lord's body and blood which washes the soul from sins and from the works of destruction, and it washes it like the shirt that goes to be washed in the lye pot and comes out white and beautiful at sight. Oh, the same is with the soul for which all kinds of bleaching agents are needed, for the soul is dear and the body has to be small without any rights that might lose the soul, but for this, light and wisdom from heaven are needed, because otherwise man would not know from where to chose for himself to bring forth fruit with a good taste for his salvation. Oh, from where does the bee know not to pick up its food and then the man's food from poisonous flowers? From Lord it has its spirit and it has knowledge too. The same way is man supposed to have, but he receives much poison in him and then he eats of it in him, he eats its fruit and the poisonous flowers are on earth to do their work over those who do not listen to God. The same is with the face of the sins; it is left on earth to the punishment of those who do not love the Lord, and for this man is to judge himself, and not the Lord because He has left to man's choice the grace or the punishment from the lack of his love for the grace from above.

Oh, when man cannot sleep, he searches for a flower that may give him sleep for the health of the body, but when he sleeps deeply and long, which takes him out of the love of God, how comes that he does not search too, to destroy this enemy and to take a flower for his help, a leaf at least, or the Lord as his love and protection against the enemies of his soul? I am a healer for the bodies and I am for the souls, and I ask you and I teach you to cry over your sins and not to leave them without any healing, for the Lord comes to be your counselor, He comes on earth after you and He speaks to you and calls you to salvation and to resurrection; however, you should not vindicate yourselves, and you should keep away from this sin, for this sin is the sin of pride. When you do not receive spiritual help near you, then you are proud, you think that you have more honor than the one who wants to help you, who gives you help after God's advice for you, and if you do not want to be proud, then bow to receive your making always, for everything is good from those that come to correct you, and more than this, it is good for you if you have wisdom to perceive with it. The coming together is great grace. Do not flee from this grace! Do not grow weary for this great gift if you have it, for others do not have it and do not grow because they do not have it. Be small with respect to this great gift, to grow by it, for many graces come through it to you! Amen.

I bless you, my Lord, Jesus Christ, for You have set in my mind, in my heart and in my faith the gift of obedience, which helped me to listen until the time came to sacrifice my body, which I brought to You as a clean and healing offering for those who call me to give them healing. Oh, let man no longer laugh, Lord. Let man cry for his sins, let him mourn and be healed from this sin. This is my medicine from heaven for man now. In addition, You, my Lord, be blessed by all those who listen to You and by those who are Your workers near them and for them, for those who go to heaven by their obedience, oh, Lord. Amen.

— My glory is with those who obey, and it is very easy for Me with them, and it is very, very hard for Me from those who do not know what obedience is and what it does, so that they may also learn from it when they come to give their life to the Lord. When I see that man laughs I am filled with sorrow and pain. His laugh is pain for Me. There is no holy love and obedience for it from those who seek the Lord. My love is great, but man's obedience is as little as his love is. Man has no fire in his heart for the Lord, as though he were without sin, poor of him. Oh, you wretched man, you had better stay in the embers of your pain and cry for sin, as the fire for the sinful is hard to bear after that. Stop laughing in your face and heart, for you need much peace over your pains from sin. Oh, man, come and wake up before your receive the reward for your sin. Come to Me to wash and to clean you, to receive you and then to be your confessor, for there is no one on earth to save you from the punishment that you draw upon you, and it does not come to your mind what this punishment is. Oh, come to obedience, come to obedience and do no longer be afraid that you obey too much, as you have to listen to the end of your obedience, because disobedience draws the devil over your being.

I have given you strong teaching, I and the martyr Panteleimon, the healer, and humility without margins is needed, well My people. I have set on the table on this day so that all may receive teaching, and you should be thankful for the spirit of teaching, sons, and show that you fulfill before Me, for My work with you is shared everywhere. Oh, where is God so much on earth with man? Where can I speak to man as I speak with you?

Oh, what a great sin comes up to heaven on behalf of those who do not receive this word from the Lord and scorn it and say that it is the word of man! This is what the people of Israel also said; it said that the Lord was not the one crucified on the cross, for after I had come to life to prove that I was true God in word, in body and in works, the rulers of the people paid money to those who had to lie that I did not resurrect and that My disciples stole Me, only that they might not believe, only that they might not submit to the truth.

Now, peace to you, people of My word! I am blessing the preparation of the feast with the gathering at the spring on a day of feast for My mother Virgin. I have been waiting seized with longing for My gathering with them, with those who come to drink, and I am giving them too so that they may have longing, for the longing is sweet, very sweet, and especially it is holy. I am nourished with the longing, and it grows within Me, it burns Me and urges Me to come and comfort it, and this is how I comfort My great longing after man and this is how I get comforted from longing, from the pain of the great longing, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

(Excerpt)

I enliven you with My blessing, your longing, your step and your way to the spring. Happy you are that you do not deny the truth that the Lord is in this word! You are blessed; blessed by faith! Without it no one can go to the Lord, and the man lets himself led by the ruler of this age, satan, the antichrist, who fights in every way possible to put obstacles into the man's way in his walking with God on earth. Oh, strengthen yourselves in the strong faith, for you will need it soon, soon, to escape the tribulation of the days to come to the test of those who dwell on earth, as it is written. However, you should work with love the spirit of faith and the fire of the longing for those in heaven, who love you coming to you on the clouds of the sky as I come, as Moses and Elijah came with My glory and My Father's and stood on My right and left side on the mountain in the brightness of My light before the three disciples, with whom I travelled at that time and when the Father came on the cloud of light with the two saints and praised My Being confessing it before My disciples, for the Father spoke to them from the cloud and said: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt: 17/5) Oh, how much I want to see obedience to God with you, obedience to Him in everything, to My good and yours and of many others who may want to take My light through My faithful ones! I am waiting for you at the spring with a heavenly feast, I have set to work My servants and We will come to meet you, and behold how much honor the Lord sets to work for you! And you should also work for Him and you should do the same, too. Amen.

I, the Lord, am blessing from above and from below, with powers from above and from below, the preparation with gathering at the spring. May those who love the Lord be blessed, and may those who do not love the Lord be cursed, as this is written, for behold the Lord is coming and those who do not have love for Him, do not love Him. But why do they not have? They do not have because they have love for themselves, and great pain will fall on their heart when they will be in trouble and will need the Lord, and they will not have the whole heart gathered with the Lord and there will be no one to wipe out their tear. Oh, the tear is of two kinds. There is one tear of longing and love after the Lord and that of repentance for the Lord's sufferance from man, a tear of pain, for the tear after the Lord is sweet even to the most sinful of the people; and then there is also a tear from the self-love, from the man's pain, a tear of revenge, of hatred, of discontent, and this tear is bitter even for the most righteous of the people, for it is not a tear after the Lord.

The feast of the Assumption

I am stopping with the saints in a feast of word and I am spending with them here, as in heaven, here, where I have chosen, now, in the end of the time, the place for My works on earth, the place of the coming of My glory among people, and My glory is the word, as in the beginning when I made the heaven and the earth.

I am coming down with a heavenly feast here now. I have the heavenly suites with Me, and I also have the heavenly armies, which are coming together with Me within great glory. Oh, what happiness on the angels! They have the Lord here and they are staying here with Him, in the air covered in white, under the white tent, under which I am coming to be with you and with My saints, oh, little angels of the glory. Your little wings are keeping you now, and your flight is resting under the glory of this day of holy feast. Behold My disciples coming with Me here, at the feast for My Virgin mother, the same as two thousand years ago, when they accompanied her to the heavenly and angelic chambers. Behold the throne of cherubim, on which she is carried into the air of this feast.

My glory and yours, oh, My mother, this glory is being celebrated today. Filled with longing, those who have travelled to meet Us here are welcoming Us under the whiteness from above, mother. My disciples stand on one side and on the other of the suite of the glory of the feast for you, praised mother, for your humility was only glory on earth for those in heaven who were looking for your greatness, oh, My mother.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those in heaven and to those on the earth gathered at the holy feast in this place prepared for My glory! I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of My mother Virgin. Let the power of the darkness hear My name spoken by My mouth itself and let them tremble and fear My light, which the darkness cannot comprehend.

Oh, peace to you, sons and daughters of the holy faith! You have gathered here on the clouds of word, as I have sent My word to you that told you, blessed you and gathered you here. I am responding to your zeal for those in heaven with whom I am coming down to the earth now. The earth becomes heaven there where I descend and work with My saints, with My heavenly glory and with a table of word. Oh, if you did not have faith in My coming as word on the earth, I would not lay the table of word on the earth. Oh, what a miracle your faith is! He who believes in My coming as word on the earth, that one works miracles, his faith makes miracles, it brings the Lord on the earth with a table of word. Those who believe like this do not have any headache, but rather those who do not believe are sick and have their mind set on those that pass away and are no longer, for they pass away like mere ghosts, but My glory does not pass away and it is with those who believe and listen to God, and it is so easy for Me to spend with them on earth as in heaven, and behold, I am sitting in council with you on the earth, and this miracle is great.

Oh, take care to love one another as I love you, for I am coming with the heaven to you and I love you with it. This is how you should also come to one another with the heaven in you, and love one another like this, for other kind of love is not love, because love comes only from heaven, for its place is the heaven. Take care to become a heavenly place so that love may dwell within you, for its place is the heaven. When you do not love one another with much longing in you, with much heaven in you, then love is not in you, but you should seek and take it in you and do not stay without love, do not stay without this miracle in you, for much light is needed on earth. The earth is divested of light and there is deep darkness on the earth, as in the beginning when the Spirit of the Lord was hovering above the waters and when God said, «Let there be light!». And there was light, and God divided the light from the darkness and He called the light day and the darkness He called night; and then God made the heaven and the earth. Behold, first there has to be much light on earth, and then there will be the new heaven and the new earth. Do not live without love in you, without this miracle in you, for much light is needed on earth, and no one has been able to do this without having much love in him.

Oh, how good have to be those who have love, being full of its flame! Who was better on earth than My mother Virgin? There was no one better than she was. Oh, My dear Mother, no one had been better than you on earth, no one but you and I, mother. Oh, who gave you so much beauty? Tell this, mother, oh, tell it! Amen.

— Sufferance, dear Son, it was the adornment of my soul; it adorned me so beautifully; it taught me to be good for it and to wear it with propriety and to be the most beautiful, dear Son. Oh, who else among those who have come into heaven could believe that the beautiful man is the one full of happiness on earth among people? Oh, the man's beauty cannot be known here, where everything withers away and is no longer, but it is rather measured only after that, only after the work of the man's life comes into light to be weighed, and the work of life is here, on the earth.

Sufferance was my wisdom, dear Son. It did not let me look at lawlessness. Even from my childhood, Father had given me sufferance and passed me through it and for it, to be like You in everything, my dear Son Jesus. You had suffered even since I was carrying You into my arms as a Baby, then You suffered on the cross and then You also have been suffering in heaven by this time, and You will suffer to the end, for the happiness of the man, fallen from heaven, requires a dear reward; it asks for the sufferance for God, dear Son, because God built man. When a child does any damage to someone, then is the child ashamed? Does he suffer from it? Oh, no, but his father and his mother suffer instead, and if the child receives punishment then his parents suffer much more painfully.

Behold, sufferance is wisdom. It makes wise the one who suffers, and who was wiser than me and You, dear Son? It is because You came on earth to suffer. You had suffer in heaven before Your coming and You suffered all the time on earth, and again You suffer in heaven with the Father, with me and with the saints, and we suffer for man, Son Jesus. I was comforted in my sufferance, I get comforted with the love for You, for the love of God is the most comfortable longing for the one who knows this mystery of the comfort coming from above, and here it is why I was good, and many can be likewise if they can perceive the mystery of this comfort, the highest comfort for those who love suffering with love and hope with power in the days of eternity, the endless age, the age that is to come, dear Son.

I am speaking to you, now, to those gathered on my day of feast here, under the glory of the Lord. I have spoken with my Son, Jesus Christ, the One full of the glory of sufferance for man, and I am speaking to you now, urging you to this glory, glory as mine, the glory of the sufferance, the love without equal in man. Let no one ever believe and say that love is joy. The sufferance longs in man after the age of eternity and not after those that pass away and then are no longer. Oh, be wise, be wise through this beauty of the soul, through the sufferance of love, love for those in heaven and for Jesus Christ, my Son. He cannot weigh your love but only by sufferance and then by its wisdom in you. Do not grow angry within your sufferance, but rather be good, as good as I was, and be beautiful, as beautiful as I was through sufferance. Amen.

I am advising you now to look for the love of God. It has to be built in you, but self-denial is needed for this dwelling place, so that the love may become dwelling place in you, then your dwelling place. Oh, son, if someone that your soul does not like, if he tells you about love and about its way to you and your way to it, then you cannot receive in your soul the one who wants to share this with you, the who is guilty between you and him? Oh, the lack of love in you is to be blamed, for my Son was not able to do any miracle there where no one was burning in his soul for resurrection, for a living life in him, and behold, man takes life from where he likes, and he does not take from those who give life as my Son, Jesus Christ gives. Love is that which keeps life in man and man in life, and it is some other kind of life as man takes to have for himself as he wants, and I teach you as I teach myself, the life of the Lord in you. Are you able to have only Him as life in you? Do not forget that He told you about Him and He said: «I am the Way, the Truth and the Life». (John: 14/6) Oh, do not forget this word of His, as the word of God is great and we have to listen to Him, as the Father said: «You should listen to Him!» (Matt: 17/5) Oh, do not forget to be His people, as it is written: «Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance». (Ps: 33/11) However, behold, you should also love and seek the land, chosen for God, for man has to learn again his way to paradise, and everything is done with a great preparation, with a holy walking, with faith and with assembly near the Lord then when He sounds His trumpet to come to Him and to give you of His life, of His mouth, as He gave to the man when He had built him.

Behold, here is the Lord's land, His inheritance, like the people whom He has chosen for Himself. I was walking with propriety on the earth, and the earth was being sanctified under my humble steps and it was startling with comfort under my good spirit. Oh, comfort the heaven and the earth, sons. But first much light on earth is needed, and then the new heaven and the new earth, worked by love, for love is the light by which the Lord said in the beginning, «Let there be light!» And it was light at His word, and His word is love, sons.

I come and thank you for your coming at my feast. I am giving you of my grace, of the spirit of my wisdom I give you many gifts, only for you to feel their fragrance, only for you to desire them, those that I carried in my wisdom on the earth. Peace to you! Like my Son, I also give you. Amen.

— Oh, peace to you, My mother! Their hearts have been filled with sweet food, with holy longing, mother. May this holy seed find protection and care in them and may it grow after that and become a dear flower, the spirit of wisdom, which you had in you on the earth, oh, My mother.

Oh, sons, you should keep sweetly in you and among you the love that My mother Virgin revealed to you. Receive each other, but if you do not desire one another to be among you as I wanted you to come to Me and to spend with you, then you will not welcome each other sweetly and longingly, and you will not be able to know when you reject the Lord if you reject the brothers. The longing for the Lord has to be in the brothers, and only they can be brothers to each other and then brothers in Me, and the longing of God will remain in them and the longing will lead them and they will walk in the way of the confession and of the feelings from above, the feelings of love, sons.

Oh, come to My meeting with you, for I prepare your steps to the last day of My trumpet sounding, and I start teaching you from now for it and with it. This is the place of the coming of My word on earth, and this place is not like the other dwelling places known to be as worshipping places and which are at the hand of each passer-by who leaves his habits there, who leaves his spirit, his restless steps, which are everywhere with the worldly spirit, with a worldly walking, the ground trampled by those who do not walk with propriety for the Lord and for the cleanness of the places consecrated to the Lord, for man sanctifies the place and not the place sanctifies man, and for those spoiled in man, man spoils the place, and the places spoil man, as it is seen everywhere on earth.

Be full of longing and love when My trumpet sounds above you to take your steps to My spring of word and to My spending with you and with those in heaven here, sons. Behold what a sweet feast in heaven and on earth is! I am accompanied by heavenly hosts. On My both sides and of My mother Virgin I am sitting with My disciples at the today's table, as two thousand years ago at a feast like this. Oh, the Romanian country is comforted all around by My mother Virgin and is watched with its love and protection, but the sweetest land for heaven in this Romanian land is here, where I set the table of word so that My sharers may have something to give further, only that there may be someone to receive and the one who receives to be able to live by My word.

Oh, Romanian people, I suffer so much because you do not want to hear My voice, which cries on your heart after man! Oh, church of the Romanian people, how worldly you spend into the midst of this nation that is cold in his search for Me! Oh, how long will you be able to call yourself Christ's church? Oh, how long are you going to deceive yourself that you can stay by this name as you want? Open the door and see who knocks. I knock at your door with My rod; I knock at your door with My word for you to come out and meet Me, but you live on your own, in your blood, and I suffer from you when I knock for you to open to Me, and you do not receive Me, but rather you want to forget My name of merciful Shepherd behind you. Oh, what track are you following, church of the Romanian people? Your ancestors see you from heaven and do not see your face and steps. Oh, where are you going? Oh, until when? With pain in My voice I am asking you this, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am asking you. It is near the day when you are going to see clearly that I have been this holy word. Oh, when you will serve Me and not you, My glory and not yours, then it will be for you to heal My wound because of your disobedience, but will there really be such a great day from you to Me? One day I will be able to tell you according to the truth: Peace to you, My church? Oh, seek to answer to yourself what you want to do. Amen.

I am coming down now with the entire heavenly armies and I am laying My hand upon you mysteriously and I am giving you power from heaven for your way on the earth. You have come with longing at My spring of word. I am giving you the longing after Me. Take it and live by it, and be wise through it like My mother Virgin. Oh, be as wise as she was, for the longing is the sweetest sufferance, the holiest between Me and you, and it keeps you to be Mine, sons. Like the bird that chirps above, this is how I have given you My voice today, My song of longing after man. Amen.

Oh, sons from the spring, the Holy Spirit is speaking upon you and upon those who have come together. Send Him to the end of the earth; send this dove to bring My news all over the earth. I leave My seal upon you so that the evil spirit may see and tremble before you, and you should also tremble at My word and fulfill it with longing, and I will find My pleasure in you, sons, and I will confess you as Mine, and I will confess you as bearers of God. Oh, peace to you! I strengthen your little bodies for you are tired, and you still have to watch and work today.

I am here. I am here with you, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the beheading of the Saint John, the Baptist
(Excerpt)

… I call out everywhere, and there will come the day when I will give curd just as man adds curd to milk to separate cheese and I will beat the sour milk to choose the butter, and then I will gather the fruit and grow it from Me and I will make confessors for Me, and then I will bring the dead to life and they will take on a body like a new shirt, and this is how I will bind them from the ground where they are waiting for My signal, and this is what I have to work and fulfill by this word of My mouth which speaks so that My word may be written, as all the prophesies of the Holy Spirit were written on earth to be carried out after that.

Oh, I do not want to be kneeled down and denigrated by those on whom I have had mercy, and who humbly want to keep the salvation that I have given freely to those who firmly stand on My side, as behold, to the extent I teach everywhere My people and tell it the danger which comes because of the disobedience to My word, to the same extent the devil makes its way and raises some to violate My word, as I said: «The men's enemies are those in his household, no matter as many as they are on the way of life»; however, if they join with those that are set aside for My hard work, then some come to be others' enemies for salvation, then I, the Lord, come to be stricken by them, My face comes to be mocked by the world which has been wandering away from God and which does not know the hard way of My walk among the dead, as dead are all those who do not love the Lord with their life on earth.

The feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother
(Excerpt)

… I am sitting down with you at the table of word, My people. I have the heavenly suites at My table with you. We are getting ready to come down as word with power over the soul of the Romanian people on a day of the feast of the cross, the cross on which I was nailed and sentenced to death by the Jewish people, and this because of their lack of love for God, the man's Maker. I will come and sit down; in six days I am going to come and sit down with great glory of word at My table with the Romanian people, for it is on its hearth that My Father has sent Me to come down as word on earth now, in the end of the time, and I am coming to set My throne of judgment and to call from it, far and wide, and the man everywhere to hear Me and to come back to God if he wants, if he receives the One Who calls, the One Who sees, hears and speaks, the God of His visible and invisible things.

… Glory and peace to My coming as word on earth over the Romanian people, oh, My dear mother! The time of the feast of My cross is coming and I will be coming and speaking with the Romanian sons! I mourn over the one who does not believe among the Romanians that God is this word. Oh, to be a Romanian is a great mystery, and this mystery and its entire greatness will be seen, for woe to the Romanians who do not know the Lord as their God and His today's word upon them!

The Feast of the Holy Cross Ascension
The Word of the Lord to the Romanian people

I am the messenger of My Father, the God Sabaoth, and I am coming as word on the earth over the Romanian people, the word of glory, peace and truth.

I am the Son of the Father, I am true God of true God. Two thousand years ago, the Father sent Me on earth to become a visible Man among people and to prove Myself as His Son and to believe in Me all those to whom it will be given from the Father to believe, and now, in the end of the time, My Father has sent Me again as word on the earth.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, and I am speaking from the cloud, I am speaking from glory, I am speaking from the Father, as the Father is with Me together with all the heavenly suites that carry My glory on the angelic wings, on wheels of cherubim in a flame of fire, and the glory of My coming is great. Woe to the one who doubts at the hearing of My word, at the voice of My coming as word over the earth, for the reward of one like this is that of the unfaithful!

I am not a fortune-teller and I am not a clairvoyant, but I am with the Spirit of Truth in great work over the earth and over the Romanian people, to which My Father has sent Me. Oh, why Father, are You sending Me to this nation in the end of the time? Tell them Father; tell this nation its story destined from God to carry it before You and before of all the nations on the earth. I want You first to speak to the Romanian people in a day of feast of the cross on which I was crucified when You sent Me on the earth after man, oh, My Father.

— Yes, dear Son, I also want what You want, and I say to the Romanian people, that because the people that I had set apart for Us from among the nations of the earth, because this people gave You over to the death on the cross when I sent You to give it light and work it and when it was supposed to receive you on My behalf, and instead of receiving You, it forsook You and banished You from the vineyard[215], then I, the Father, have given You another bridegroom and land, which is to be only Ours forever.[216] Then I have bestowed on the earth great blessing over the country on which now the Romanian people live[217] and I have shown it to You, dear Son, in all its mysterious adornment and I have chosen it as the Lord's glory in the end of the time, and I have been preparing it by sufferance for more than two thousand years and I have kept it under the cross to be beautiful, and whoever looks at its history with a clean heart, then that one is able to see its greatness and its Lord, (See „History of Romania part 1 to part 16" https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Xjj0j-7ZvkM , r.n.) Who has kept it and exalted it by its endurance for the glory in the end of the time, for it has been humiliated and it has endured much, and it is written into the Scriptures to be the country of brightness, and You are shining now within it with the glory of Your word, oh, Son Emmanuel, and You really confirm that You are its God, [216] «Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Zion: for, behold, I come and will dwell in the midst of you, says the Lord.

And many nations shall flee for refuge to the Lord in that day and they shall be for a people to Him and they shall dwell in the midst of you: and you shall know that the Lord Almighty has sent Me to you.

The Lord shall inherit Juda His portion in the holy land, He will yet choose Jerusalem. (The Eastern Orthodox Bible - EOB) ("and shall choose Jerusalem again."- The New King James Version)

[217] … and my descendants shall serve Him: the generation that is coming shall be known to the Lord.

They shall declare His righteousness to the people that shall be born, whom the Lord has made. (Ps: 22/30-31)

true God of true God, the Father and the Son within the splendor of the Holy Spirit upon it and with it now, and also it is written that «Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance». (Ps: 33/11)

Now, I, the Father, am speaking to the sons of the Romanian people and I am telling them: Amen, amen, I say to you: This is Jesus Christ, My Son, Who is coming as word to you on the clouds of glory, and as a river of word He is coming down upon you. Oh, receive Him, open for Him! Amen.

— I, oh, Father Sabaoth, have proclaimed Myself in time that I will come as word over the Romanians and I have opened once with the proclamation, and I have sent the heavenly powers to prepare the way before Me. I have the keys of the deep, as it is written about Me, and I have the keys of the kingdom of the heavens, oh, and I also have those of man and I come in when I say that I come. I have with Me at the table of word the heavenly armies, the angels and the saints, and I have with Me here the good ancestors of the Romanian people and the table of the glory is great in a day of the holy feast of My cross, Father Sabaoth. There, where there is no faith, I will put faith, and there, where there is no welcome, I will open Myself for Me.

Amen, amen, I say to you, Romanian people; open to the Lord! I, the Lord, have opened and I come in, because I am the door, as it is written. The sky is full above you from the glory of My coming as word to you with the tens of thousands of My saints, oh, country of My coming, as it is written: «The Lord has come with tens of thousands of His holy ones!» (Jude: 1/14) And I come to you, because You are the house for My coming, as the Father gave you to Me two thousand years ago, when I was cast out by the Jewish people and I have remained without a house on earth. Take heed of My river of word, which is flowing upon you on this day and is telling you My pain and My waiting from you. With a fatherly spirit I come near to you and I am setting the table of word on your hearth.

Let all the nations take heed of My speaking with the Romanian people on a day of holy feast, and let all the nations of the earth become wise for the Lord's coming, Who speaks from glory above the Romanian land, the land of the Lord's brightness, for you shine because of My glory in you, oh, My country in the end of the time. There is still a little time and a period of sixty years of the Lord's word above you will be written for the preparation of My second time on earth after man, and My history with you is written and it has become a book on earth, on your hearth. In the book of your history of two thousand years ago it stands written My love for you and My frequent inclination and great descent to your sufferance, for I have always comforted you under your cross and I have always stayed with you under its yoke, for you have faithful ancestors, whom I raised as brave watchers to protect you as Mine, always Mine, because the Father gave you to Me two thousand years ago, after I was born and grew up and after the people to whom I had been sent cast Me out, because it put Me on the cross of sufferance and resurrection and I am alive forever and ever and I am the Lord, your God, oh, My country of today. I saw your face then and I see your face now, and I have seen your entire beauty which the Father has given to you for My glory and I have always wanted you since that time.

Oh, you do no longer have love of country, Romanian people! Who shall teach you this heavenly greatness, My today's country? Oh, you need love, but you have passed through many pains. They have taught you to be beautiful, to be My country and to be only Mine, and your ancestors loved Me and they were shining with their faith and their love for the country, but now you have no ruler over you but men like Judah, My love. Behold, those who keep the purse take from it and they share it among themselves, and then they go and borrow for you.[218] They ask from you to put into the purse, but it is not shared according to your needs, because those who rule upon you suck your milk; they suck your blood, and the sin of their greed is great against them. However, I get up like a warrior and give light to the torches everywhere and I search everywhere to catch the thief that tears your little shirt all over and has no mercy on you and leaves you naked, and he is not ashamed of his deed; however, I have mercy on your nakedness before the nations and I come and spread out My garment and cover you with My glory, as the Father promised you to be My country, My country in the end of the time to speak into your midst the word of My coming as God's word over the earth. I am dressed in fine linen and I stay with the heaven open above you. I have a throne into your midst, I have the white horse[219], on which I ride and speak[220]; I have the people of My word, which I have chosen to watch for Me and I stand into its midst as on the throne, and I am called the Faithful and True One, and I judge and I fight for righteousness; My eyes are like the flame of fire and I am full of crowns and I have a written name, and My garment is of fine linen and is sprinkled with blood, and My name is called the Word of God, for this is written, and hosts from heaven come with Me, wearing fine linen garments, and My word comes out of My mouth as a sharp sword against those with a pagan life and I come to shepherd them for they do not have any shepherd, they do not obey for truth and love falsehood instead, and they get used to it and forget about the Lord Who comes with His reward.

You, those who oppress now, in your time, you, those who love falsehood and rule by it over this nation, oh, until when? Amen, amen, I say to you; everything that is not God is a lie against the truth. Or, do you not know that the father of the lie is the devil, the ruler of the darkness of this age? Or, do you not know that the lie and its servants will be thrown into the deep? Oh, you have made a golden calf[221] and you play around it visibly and invisibly, and you have forgotten about the reward for the works; however, I come and I will give each one according to his work, as it is written.

Oh, if you have forgotten so much and you always forget about God, how comes that you still get on the seats to rule over this nation? Let no one say that he has Me as his God if he does not listen to Me, if he does not ask Me, if he does not follow day and night the commandments for life and the truth in everything, but not falsehood. I remind you of Judas, who had always taken of the brotherly purse, and all saw where this habit had led him; and I look at you and at your greed with which you have climbed on the ridges and called out to the people to hear you and to choose you as rulers over them. Oh, where is your faithfulness to their faith? However, you have stolen very much, (They have cheated on the counting of the votes at the elections that they have organized, r.n.), for you alone, you chose yourselves almost alone and you chose one another and sat at the table of the country council and then you boasted about the great number among those who elected you, but that number was very small and you lied the sons of this people that you were chosen by a great number. Oh, what are you going to do now? The lie with which you appear as truth cannot be your seat, and your leadership will be broken, and I have been telling you this for a long time. Your good ancestors will call you to account. I have them with Me at the table of the glory of My word on this day and they are looking with mourning at the pagan works that you do day and night against the sons of this nation to keep your authority upon them. Oh, you went to sorcerers. You went to wanderers and you went to those who love money, but you have not sought the Lord's wisdom to ask for it. Behold, I, the Lord, am coming, I am coming to you if you do not knock in order to come to give you and have after that.

Oh, you do not have love of your country, you those who have got hold of it by injustice. (The Social Democratic Party, "of Left", the Communist Party's successor, r.n.) Oh, do not assume the right to sell this homeland to strangers, (By giving its oil and gas resources to the foreign firms for insignificant tribute, the wood of the forests to be exploited without any limit, the agricultural lands to be sold almost on nothing to the Arabian "investors" and not only that, r.n.) for the earth is the Lord's, not yours to give it to those who covet it everywhere to strip of glory this homeland of Mine and the homeland of those who love it.

I put at the helm of the Romanian people and with My strong arm I set the one who is a ruler with great mercy, (The President Traian Băsescu, r.n.), and he has special love of country and much wisdom from Me for its protection, for its governance and yours too, but you have not wanted him, you, the few of you, who have stood up into the name of the whole nation and wanted to persecute him so that only you might be in power, and you keep on persecuting him by denigrating words and you do not receive his advice that would save you from the reward of your trespasses. However, I have set the people of My word at holy watch and at prayer with fire and I have kept at the helm the one set as helmsman by My holy plan because of My great love for this nation, but also for his love, as I have not found another one with greater love and heart than him in this time for this nation. I have exhorted you some other times too to submit to his love of people and country and to his love for you too so that it may go well with you and with all on this hearth. Oh, you have opposed and you have been naughty; you have been proud and have been overconfident and trusted each other and have not obeyed My advice or his advice too. I am crying with the heaven, I am crying with your good ancestors and We are sitting in counsel to keep him and to protect him to stand watch further over this people on which he is ruling and watching now, as without him over the watching places is hard for the destiny of the Romanian people, which has at its council table no one but lovers of money and boast about them, and woe to this nation with such benefactors upon it!

It is rebellion between brother and brother; it is much confusion and unrest everywhere among the sons of the Romanian people. Many cry; they cry for mercy on the dogs that are destined to death so that they may no longer bite. (The calumny done by the followers of the communists against the president of the country – of other political "color" – because he asked the euthanasia of the stray dogs in Bucharest – over two hundred thousand – after some of the children had been killed, r.n.). Behold what I, the Lord, am telling you, to you those who are merciful for these beings written to die from man. (More NGO's with foreign support for the protection of the dogs, r.n.). Oh, how comes that you do not think, Romanian sons, with the same mourning, with the same merciful feelings, about so many living beings, about sheep and lambs that die by the man's hand without saying a word of woe? How comes that you do not think in tears about the sheep and little lambs, about the cattle and birds, about all kinds of animals that are killed with much longing to be put into vessels and fried as food for the man who goes to the butcher's to buy meat and cook it as his food? Are they not really living beings without comfort and given to be sacrificed so that they may enter the man's belly? How comes that you do not mourn over them as you cry over the poor dogs? Oh, look what man is! He is the grave of so many beings with a living soul in them and which man takes and cuts them; he takes their life to eat them after that. Oh, have mercy on sheep, calves and birds as well; have mercy on all animals that man kills for his food. If you cry over dogs, then also cry over all the beings, which man kills, hunts and takes their lives and then puts them into his belly.

Oh, how beautiful was My commandment given to man at the beginning, when I told him what food he was supposed to eat![222] Then came the death of the little lamb, blood on earth, sacrifice brought to the Lord, but the pain of death weighed painfully in comparison to the sacrifice of the heart of the lover of God. The broken and humble heart would have been enough then, but the man was not satisfied with that. Oh, did I require a bloody sacrifice from man? However, if man got used to it, could I, the Lord, persuade him otherwise? If I, the Lord, have been teaching you now, sons of the Romanian people, no longer to kill in order to eat, then can I persuade you to have such mercy for all the living beings, which you always kill, so that you may be holy afterwards and without any hatred among you? Behold, hatred and faction come from meat, from the food that contains meat for the man's body, which becomes hatred, hatred against each other after that. Behold, you cry because the dogs have multiplied and that they bite you, or that they will perish by the man's hand because of the damage they do to man, but you do not cry because your sins have increased, which bite you even worse, and they bite you to death, for sin is death. Oh, be good, because everything comes to you according to your deed. Do no longer be rebellious against those that come as a reward for your works. Instead, love the truth and step aside, you those who do not love it among brothers, as the lie of those who have decided to shake hands for the course and the destiny of this nation according to their will, this shameful deed will bring them to the reward of the liars, for the father of the lie is the devil.

Oh, Romanian sons, oh, Romanian people, do not sell the land under you, Romanian sons. This land is meant to be the Lord's glory in the end of the time and it will be cleansed and washed, because if man does not seek to have a holy life, then the Lord can help and humble him, for man does not need as much as he gathers, but he rather needs life with the heaven in it, with the Lord on earth; however, man does not have any teaching upon him for his life, for his eternity as his ancestors had, for the today's servants of the church of the Romanian people are those who are greedier, those who love more the empty glory and the authority over those who are many and not used to the Lord, and I have got nothing but much shame from them, from their stature, fallen so deep from the law of holiness, and I have no one to help the man with but only with My coming as word on the earth and with My people from the Romanians, who let itself to be Mine, My help, My way, My eye and My ear, for I spoke the word that says: «The one who has ears to hear, to hear what the Lord says!» (See Apoc: 2/7, 11, fwd.)

---

[222] «And God made man, according to the image of God He made him, male and female He made them». (Gen: 1/27)

«And God said: Behold, I have given to you every seed-bearing herb sowing seed which is upon all the earth and every tree which has in itself the fruit of seed that is sown, to you it shall be for food». (Gen: 1/29)

Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As the green herb, I have given everything to you.

But flesh with the life of it, the blood of it, you shall not eat.

I will surely require your blood of your lives. At the hand of every animal I will require it. At the hand of man, even at the hand of every man's brother, I will require the life of man.

Whoever sheds man's blood, by man will his blood be shed, for in the image of God made He man. (Gen: 9/3-6)

Oh, Romanian people, take My speaking from upon you and put it on your heart and do not be unfaithful. Be careful because I have spoken to you with great pain, for I suffer, I cry and I greatly mourn from what I see into your midst and because of all that lie to you day by day, for a tongue was given to them, but the gabbler is an enemy to himself and does not have the wisdom to understand how low he has fallen by the spirit of lying, as behold, the one who has appointed himself to govern upon you, (Victor Ponta, r.n.), surrounded by those he has chosen, (The Parties from SLU - Social Liberal Union, r.n.), that one coddles the lie only, for he was given his tongue and this is what also did those from whom he has got used to it, (Iliescu and Năstase, his mentors, the heads of the party of the followers of the communist red beast, r.n.); however, the pot with lies will soon, soon be broken and it will dirty the face of those who greedily lie in order to fool, as they say, those they have always sucked, over those they rule upon, blinding their conscious so that they may not see with it the lawlessness they have been working.

I am the Shepherd with the Cross. I have spoken to you in a spirit of Shepherd, Romanian people. You are under the cross and you know or do not know this. Oh, get up and see the one who makes you a cross, and see and learn from Me to get rid of the enemies of your life and that you may teach them the way back to the way of justice, because if you sleep, then the wolves come and spoil the spirit of your peace and your country so dear to Me and to the heavenly hosts, with which I come when I shepherd it.

Oh, get used to poverty, with the little bit of everything, rather than let yourself be sold, humbled and oppressed by the nations without faith. Come to take of My word and live, Romanian homeland, My today's homeland! Seek in the way of My word, as I come during the feasts and I come in time of oppression and I speak on your hearth into the midst of My faithful people[223], which welcomes Me. Oh, do not forget, seek My word, seek the teaching of life in My river of word, as it is not possible for the Lord without being with the people on earth within the work of Holy Spirit; however, even if no one seeks after Me, I still seek after those who forgot Me as Adam did in Paradise, and happy are those who humble themselves, who believe and seek with humility to My merciful word. Amen.

I have given you food, Romanian sons. I have spoken to you so closely by the voice of My mouth. The cloud of My glory has comprised the sky of My today's homeland, for your homeland has a great calling and it will be soon, soon, a heavenly homeland, the homeland of those who are happy with the Lord[224], those who loved and love the truth, the holiness and the holy faith for the truth.

Oh, peace to you, My today's country! Get dressed like a bride! I am your bridegroom, as this was the will of My Father Sabaoth. Your story is on the table of the glory from above, carried by the hosts of prophets and saints. One hour, My love, and the nations will understand your beauty from above on earth among nations. I miss you, I long after your dress from above and after your crown of glory. You are My chosen one and the nations know about your election from the Lord. Oh, follow Me with faith and seek the holiness and truth. I will cleanse you from all your oppressors and the oppressors of your glory from Me, and I will give you a new spirit, but renew yourself to do My will and to be beautiful, oh, My today's country, the most beautiful one, and you should be beautiful by faith and love.

Oh, peace to you! I open up My arms and I embrace you, and I will embrace all of your body soon, soon. Open wide your eyes to know those who want your good after the truth into your midst, and I will always shepherd you. You will find Me here, in this word, and I will always shepherd you, only that you may seek after Me. Your language is sweet, your speaking, so sweet as much as it is sweet to Me. God speaks His word on your language, Romanian people, a sign that the Lord loves this nation and this land specially.

Come closer and learn the spirit and the mystery of brotherhood, Romanian sons! You will know by all these that you are the Lord's on earth. Overcome satan, overcome the spirit and the work of antichrist[225], as I give you powers from above, I give you by My word upon you. Amen.

The Father and the Son have spoken thorough the Holy Spirit to the Romanian people on a day of holy feast, and These Three are One.

Amen, amen I say to you. Love and believe in My coming to you, Romanian sons. This river of word, coming out of My mouth, is known by the heart and carried then by the comfort and the power by those who take from it to their healing.

I come soon. I always come as word of watch and glory upon you, Romanian people. Light the candle, and this is how you are to stay before Me when I come to you, for I love you and I wait for you to bless always your destiny from Me and I wait for you to come and to be; furthermore, I always wait for you to be and then to be eternally, to be a new heaven and a new earth, a new beginning, by all the springs that flow upon you and water you from heaven, oh, My country, My today's country. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth

(Excerpt)

My heavenly glory becomes word and it comes down on earth to My glory. Blessed is the one who understands and then believes in this glory, for such a man is born from above, from God, for the Spirit of God, as it is written, and those who are born of the Spirit are those who remain to the end; they are those who do not fall from this mountain, they are those in whom I glorify Myself with My glory and on whom I rely with My coming, with the glory of My coming as word on earth.

Oh, people of the birth from above, My glory is with you on earth, it becomes word and it goes from place to place; My word goes and lets itself be found by those who have found of My coming to you as the word of the new birth of the world and you are My help, you are in My service, and you do not have to forget your greatness from Me, because if you forgot about it, I could no longer rely on you with My coming, with My glory from above on earth.

I am finding watching for meeting Me. I am coming with the saints, I am coming as word into the book and writing Myself down in it with My coming with the saints, as it is written to come in the end of the time, at the end of the man's faith in God, for two thousand years ago, I spoke about My coming now and I said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?» (Luke: 18/8) Oh, if I, the Lord, had not put faith in My coming in the bosom of those who have come at the mouth of My word when I with the Father and with the saints made this coming of word, then would I have found faith to bring Me down on earth, as it is written into the Scriptures that the Lord would come and the living and the dead would hear His voice?

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the Lord Jesus Christ, and I stand on His right side in glory, and the Lord's glory is great and all those, who shine from it and like it, the angels and the saints, rejoice over it, and this is how I let the word of My glory come down on earth, and I stand on the cloud of glory, I speak in the feasts, I give them glory and share it to those who get comforted with it among those in heaven and to those who love Me on earth.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism

On a day of the feast of Epiphany the news is coming from heaven on earth and the Lord is becoming word and river by His word. I, Myself, I, the Lord, am He Who speaks about Me through My coming, and I am coming in a cloud, as I ascended to the Father after I fulfilled the entire word for which He had send Me to accomplish on the earth.

I become word of baptism, I become a Baptizer and I baptize those who hear Me coming; I baptize them in My word after two thousand years from My first coming in the flesh and as word among the people on earth.

I have come on this day with a feast of Epiphany accompanied by John, My Baptizer at Jordan, and by the hosts of saints and angels, as they are the river of glory above the garden here, where I meet with My sacrificing people within My coming, and I am meeting you, those who have started to come before dawn in your thought and by your step to My spring of word. I am embracing you all together with all the heavenly guests. We are meeting each other and we are sitting at the table of word, the table of the feast of word, as the Lord's feasts and His saints' are glorified in heaven and on earth.

It is a great joy that I am able to come on earth as word with the feasts of the heaven, but there is also pain, for on earth is not as in heaven; there is no longer My will on earth. The feasts of those in heaven are shaken from their places. The days of the feasts of those in heaven have not remained at their places in My Romanian country. For a long time it has not been as in heaven in the Romanian people, and the feast of the Lord's Birth takes place two times and the Lord's Baptism the same; all take place two times and not as in heaven once a year each feast, but I, the Lord, celebrate with the ancestors of this people, and once with those in heaven I set the feasts on earth as I was able to make Me a little fold and set in it as in heaven the order of everything, for the time has come to correct those that were shaken and I could do this with the faithful ones, who received Me to be their God, as I am in heaven to My saints.

Peace to you and a day of Epiphany with you, with those gathered at My spring of word! Peace to you and rest here after your journey! Sit down, and I sit on the throne of glory; this is how I sit into your midst and give you from the Father; I give you My glory and I comprise you into it. I have My trumpet Verginica at the table here with her people in heaven, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) with the one she had earned, by the alphorn which I have sounded on earth My coming of today. And again, the whole group of prophets are celebrating on this day here, and in its midst, John, My Baptizer; this is how My today's coming is, and My mother Virgin is comforted by the joy of those in heaven before the spectacle here, where a feast of Epiphany has been prepared for us.

I am the Lord; I am the One Who sends His word to the earth, as it is written. I am the One Who exalts those who are gentle and I humble the sinners, who do not have repentance. I love those who are gentle very much and I want to have only gentle sons. I am building the Jerusalem by gathering at My bosom those who can believe and praise the Lord's name from the earth and up to the heaven and those who can become gentle. I am coming at the feasts and am gathering only one group, those in heaven with those on earth, and We are working those that are not seen yet, and then they appear as having been had done, for I said: «We are making all things new». (Apoc: 21/5) We are making everything again.

You need to have apostolic love, but you should also learn it in order to have it, oh, sons. It is the love for the things in heaven and for those in heaven; it draws to the heavenly homeland and it draws with longing to it. Those without faith are weak; they are very weak and these do not see the Lord among those pleased to Him on earth. Those who do not believe the one the Lord is pleased with and do not take from them, they believe in those who testify falsely, maliciously and uncleanly, they believe in those who lie, and the liars are those who deny the Lord, the Redeemer, and they draw away from the Lord's way those who are weak in their faith.

Oh, sons, oh, sons, keep your faith; keep it from those who lie. Keep it with the sign of the holy cross[226], which sanctifies everything with the name of the Lord and the zeal of the ancestors, who ended their lives faithfully and passed away to their beginning in heaven.

Oh, apostolic love is needed and much spirit of humility, much gentle spirit is needed as well. The man has to show his evil side, not the good one, if he is on the way of humility of spirit with his life to heaven. Those who go to heaven are those who learn walking and learning from the saints, who gave themselves as an example of apostolic love, separating from those on earth and struggling for those in heaven. Oh, what are the things in heaven? They are the things that remain and are. There are many in heaven, who were born on earth with the work for the things in heaven, but there are as thick as blackberries too, those who were born and are born on earth with work for the things on the earth, which pass and are no more.

Oh, how shall I not come on earth as word? How shall I not come to teach man and draw him to the apostolic love between Me and him? Who taught John, the Baptizer, and from where did he take the Lord inside of him? Oh, who brought him to Jordan to baptize the Son of God with water and called Him Lamb?

— Oh, receive Lord, receive my confession on the feast day of Epiphany. «Behold, the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world!» (John: 1/29) This is how I called You at Jordan when I saw You with the Holy Spirit resting above You so that I might confess You to those who had gathered in crowds to receive the baptism with water from me, for then I was proclaiming everywhere the great news and I was preaching high and low saying: «Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!» (Matt: 3/2) And I was teaching everything that had to be done for the Kingdom of the Heaven and how to believe this news, and when You came to Jordan, I showed You to the crowds and I confessed to them and I told them to follow You, for my work had come to an end, and the Lord, the One I confessed, had to grow.

I was born on the earth with work for the things in heaven, and this was my life too, Lord. I had been alone since I was a little child and up to my coming to You in heaven, at home with the Father, where You have Your eternal homeland. I had no other kind of joy besides You. Oh, who taught me the apostolic love? Oh, who brought me to Jordan to raise my hand above You and sink You in the water and to call You Lamb, oh, Lord? You were with me always, as You also were near the Father always, as You were with Adam in paradise, always, and You taught me everything, Lord. Adam did not love You, but I had loved You, oh, Lord, and my paradise with You was the wilderness place without people, where I grew up to the age of Your fullness in me. I was like a baby before You all the time and You grew me up with the spiritual milk, the sweet one, the one for the babies, Lord. Satan could not prevail against me because I had loved You. Herod could not receive me in him with faith because I loved You, Lord, and he loved satan and served him; he loved the woman and served her. Oh, if Adam had not loved the woman, he would have loved You, Lord. Oh, if man did not love the woman, he would love You, Lord, but there are as much as the grass on the prairie those who are born on earth with work for those on the earth, which pass and are no more, oh, Lord. Only the apostolic love, only this does not perish; it does not perish but remains together with its tent, for You are the man's Redeemer, oh, Lord. You came on the earth to redeem the one who wants this, and I confessed You at Jordan, baptizing You in its waters. Why, really, was it that I had to do this work for You, Son of the Father Sabaoth? But, how was it possible for You to confess Yourself and then to be confessed and showed by me to the crowds that followed to be baptized for repentance to wait for Your kingdom, which You came to establish on earth among people, as You have also been working today and establishing it over those that are weak in their faith and its work?

Oh, how rich I was with You, Lord and little Lamb! I had nothing but You, the earth and the heaven as my way to You. Who on earth would be satisfied to have as much as I had on the way to the home from above? Oh, how could not You have come on earth now to teach the man and to show him the way as I showed it to them at Jordan? I showed You to them, as Your disciples of today, to whom You come, give You to those who gather at the baptism in Your river of word, oh, Lord.

I am speaking with pain now, little Lamb of the Father and my gentle Lord, that the feast of the Epiphany is now, and the Romanian people has taken it and moved it earlier, as it has listened to the advice of the false prophet and the Romanian people committed this sin, a sin branded by the holy ancestors which was not supposed to be done in the Christian people. Oh, until when the sons of this people will stay scattered and separated from the fathers? Behold, this people, born Christian and not made Christian, has not kept the faith from the ancestors. The false prophet[227] came and put his seal on it and the sons of this nation have not kept the good way anymore, for they have strayed and received the lie. Oh, is there any more, Lord? Is that much longer? Oh, call out to them, call out to them as I was calling out to them at Jordan and make them hear Your mourning alphorn and Your calling with mourning after them to come back to obedience and to reestablish the feasts of the saints as their ancestors had established them, for those who come after You in order to spoil are thieves and robbers, as it is written.

Oh, it is a day of Epiphany. Wake up, Romanian Christians! In heaven, today among the saints, is the day of the Lord's Baptism. Let it be on earth as in heaven, for this is written. Amen. Oh, you are so much divided. This is not what the Lord left it to be. Turn back and make pace with your ancestors that cry out to the Lord and ask the resurrection of the faith for you, for the Lord is One, and you should also be one in His name. Amen.

Oh, Lord, may Your will be done on earth as in heaven. I am confessing You on this day with Your feast of Epiphany and I let it be known that in heaven is celebrated this feast, and not as the Romanian people does on earth. Oh, how could it be possible to have powers upon satan, oh Romanian people, if you do not listen to the fathers and to the Lord?

Oh, Lord, may Your will be done over the Romanian people. You are the One Who can have the will to fulfill and to overcome, little and gentle Lamb, my gentle Lord, so gentle. Amen.

— I am Who I am, My Baptizer at Jordan, two thousand years ago. I am the One Who speaks to them like no other nation under heaven, but what shall I do with those who disobey? I call them out to them to hear Me. However, they have their idolatrous parties, for they serve to their pleasures. It is a day of Epiphany and I open up their hearing to take Me and to drink in the word of life and to be alive, and I wait for them at the spring and I wait for them and I keep waiting for them. Amen.

It is beautiful here at the spring on this day. Those who have come from heaven and those who live here are one at the table of today. It is much spirit of feast above and below. You are watched by the people in heaven of My trumpet Verginica and you are comforted and supported with great love under the hardships of My work with you, weary sons near My spring of word? Oh, what a sweet feast! You know this on this day. Sons, you should feel sweet comfort and sweet help from those in heaven, who work with Me for you and for Me, well sons. You should give the feast of Epiphany on earth, sharing Me as I also give Myself to you. Learn the apostolic love and give each other this heavenly love and its conduct. Oh, follow the example of the saints, who conquered the heaven with their life on earth and be gentle, very gentle, and be little lambs, too, sons. Amen.

You, those who have travelled and come to My Baptism, oh, learn My coming and learn to come and let there not be any separation between Me and you. However, I have always waited for you here and met you with those in heaven, as many times as you set foot to the spring, for the mystery of these lands is very big, and because it is so big there is carefully covered under the wings of those in heaven, with the protectors in heaven for those that are not seen of these lands, for they have to be kept secret, well sons. Oh, where is found so much comfort from heaven as here for those who start walking and come to the Lord here? I am He Who am, and I am the One Who has chosen here a dwelling and resting place to do much good with it on the earth, first for those who believe in My today's coming.

I give you gifts for your love with which you meet Me. Receive them and multiply them in Me, sons and daughters who have stuck to My spring with your love. Oh, if someone on earth tries to separate you from this spring, you should know that one like that is a liar to you and for your life. However, you should welcome those who strengthen your faith in My coming of nowadays and the longing after the holy life and the obedience of My entire word, and happy are and will be those who listen as I advise them. Amen.

Oh, receive each other, sons, for this is how you will learn the humility and its graces. Seek after each other as after God, as after God, sons, for where you are gathered two or three or more in the name of My life, then God is with you in unity, well sons. Oh, be little children; be without any evil in you. Be gentle in your word and nature, so that you may be My kingdom in which I may find My pleasure, rest and peace with you, My peace that I lost in the beginning between Me and man.

Oh, peace to you! This word, "Peace to you!" is the word by which I comfort you as the resurrected one. I am from the Father with you and I am for you, and you should be the same; you should be for Me and for the Father, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

06-01-2014 (O.S.)/19-01-2014 (N.S.)

The Sunday of the tax collector and the Pharisee

I am Who I am. I stand on the right side of My Father Sabaoth in the heavenly places and I am called the Word of God, of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit in Whose name I speak on the earth.

God's speaking with man is supposed to be the greatest, the man's most expected joy, as My speaking is for all those who know Me by this word during these days, for they have found Me and they meet Me with longing and joy when I come, when during feasts, I descend and let the word of God on the earth. I descend with longing on a cloud coming above the little garden of My word from the midst of the land and of the Romanian people, and I speak from the midst of this nation with a spirit full of longing. The Romanian land is a Mount of Tabor into the midst of the earth, for God glorifies Himself in the word on this mount, and I have turned this little patch of land into a heavenly height, on which My voice comes down, and it is getting into its book on these days, the book of the Word of God.

I have got a little arm of sons prepared by Me to be in the faith, in the gift of the holy faith for My coming in the end of the time and they meet Me when I let My voice come down into their midst, and they give Me further to those who wait for Me when I come down here to be shared. All those that want, after they hear My today's coming in the word on the earth, can find this way on which I come to be shared then with My proclamation, with My speaking of today.

However, why I come on the earth as word? I come because this is written, to come and the living and the dead to hear Me, and those in the tombs to hear Me and to come to life, as the word of My mouth was written into the Scriptures two thousand years after I was born of a Virgin mother and grew up and confessed then as true God of true God into the midst of the people of Israel, who took and crucified Me on the cross to destroy Me from its midst, as it was prophesied ahead of time for the unfaithful people of Israel to commit this sin; however, I raised from it My Christian disciples who bore My name on the earth and who were My confessors after that and have left Me from one generation to another as God Who came in the flesh on the earth.

However, why am I coming now on the earth as word? I am coming to remind the man of Me, the one Who said two thousand years ago that I would come again and I would be with the people through those who would meet and confess Me to them, to those who would believe; and to those who believed, it is written that I would give them the power to become sons of God and to follow the Lord with the step of their life.

Oh, sons of men, do not cast out the Son of God from you, but rather take Him from heaven, from His coming as word over the earth, as I come to meet you so that you may not go astray not knowing how to meet the Lord and taking from you without being advised from above for this.

This is a great danger over the earth and on man. The men who seek after God do not know where to take from and to have the Lord after that. There have come out into the way of men many distorted customs to their greater temptation and to their wandering away from the Lord's way with the man. I was into the midst of the people of Israel two thousand years ago, and I was speaking to those who were faithful and to those who were unfaithful and I was telling to the hypocrites who relied on Moses: «I don't receive glory from men. Nevertheless, I know you that you don't have God's love in yourselves. …There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me; for he wrote about Me. But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe My words?» (John: 5/40-47) And I also told them: «I have come into My Father's name, and you don't receive Me. If another comes into his own name, you will receive him». (John: 5/43)

Oh, many souls have received and will receive the antichrist, who comes into his name, who wants to wipe out My steps and My name on the earth and from the people, and that one comes into his name and he does not come into the name of My Father as I came and as I am coming today. Oh, this enemy is easy to recognize, for since then and up to this day I have been teaching the people and behold, even today I am telling all those who may not want to be deceived and I am telling them this: «By their fruits you will know them… A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit». (Matt: 7/16, 18)

I have advised those who believe in My coming of today and I have told them not to receive the one they do not know; they do not have to receive him in My name, because the Lord does not work with the one He does not know to get into the man's way and to lead him on the earth. In all the time I have revealed Myself from those who have been known as Mine to the saints and I have not worked with the one I have not known on their way, but I have used a known image and speaking when I have spoken and revealed Myself to the righteous ones, to those who have loved Me, and those who have received from the stranger, they have not found the Lord, for another has come into his name and they have received him, as I said that this would happen to those who would not have in themselves God's love.

Oh, sons of men, open the Scriptures and you will see in them My teaching, which is God's wisdom, for when I gave the little Samuel to grow under guidance and to raise him as My prophet and through him to guide the disobedient Israel, I spoke to the little Samuel in a language he knew and I called him from heaven and I did not come to him in a language foreign to him, and this is how I revealed Myself to the priest to whom little Samuel was entrusted to grow and to serve the Lord with his life afterwards, and the priest believed that the Lord was calling Samuel to speak to him and to those to whom he was sent with the word of God into God's name and not into his own name, and Samuel was made known to Israel.

I have exhorted those who have with them My coming in the word in My name and I have told them not to receive into My name the one they did not know; they did not have to take the Lord or speak about the Lord with those they did not know. I have also taught them to receive advice only from Me for My work with them and to keep away from the danger from which cannot be protected those who walk without advice in an open field and without any protection from heaven upon their faith, for the teaching upon them. I am He Who knows the inner part of man and man cannot guide man, since he does not know the men's spirit, and on this day of Sunday it is remembered the parable of the tax collector and the Pharisee, two people who went up into the temple to pray. I knew their thought and I weighed correctly for each one of them for the Pharisee was praying to himself and saying: «God, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterer, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get». (Luke: 18/10-12) On the other hand, the tax collector, standing far away wouldn't even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying: «God be merciful to me, a sinner!»

(Luke: 18/13) I weighed the two of them, whose conduct and thought I had seen and then I decided: «for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted». (Luke: 18/14) Behold, I am He Who knows the man inside, his thought, his mind, and man cannot do this unless he takes from God when He gives him to have and to know.

Oh, how many times those who go to church, do not hear this kind of words, but behold, there is no one to teach men as I teach them, Who know and reveal their thoughts!

Oh, sons of men, you cannot be guided anyhow if you want to be the sons of God and to receive this power to be His after that too. Oh, there have come into your way people whose thought and conduct you do not know and they want to teach and draw you to the Lord, as they say, but you do not know their thoughts, their pride of hypocrite Pharisees, and whom I do not send to you, but they come by themselves, and they come into their name and with their dough. Oh, do not receive these, do no longer receive them! Remember of those in the time of My body and then after My resurrection and My ascent to the Father, for they were divided among themselves and they were quarreling for their mind, and some believed in resurrection, and others did not believe, or some believed in angels and others did not. Oh, only the spirit of revelation is the spirit that works having been sent by God and is confirmed after that, and all the things from God stand because of their testimony; all are built by many witnesses and then are revealed working then to the salvation of many.

Oh, keep away from those whose thought, conduct and work you do not know. I am He Who knows the man's thought and let man take from Me and not from man, for behold, I come into the man's way and speak to him, and the Spirit of God is the Spirit of confession, and I said that you will know those that come into their names and you will know them after their fruit; this is what I said.

Oh, all the time instruction is needed as in heaven over the faithful, and they have to be good and eat from their table, for the time is with much lie through those who are the sons of lie, the sons of the antichrist, the king of this fleeting age. Oh, happy are those who remain in My word, which carries them to heaven, to the kingdom from above; and behold, I have spoken on this day and left instruction for a holy watch, for holy humility, lest the spirit wandering away from man may have the power to work upon man against God inside man.

Now, peace to you, My people who support Me for My today's coming as watchful word over those on the earth, who receive Me into My Father's name when I come! I do not work in an unknown manner by this word. My today's coming stands well on its testimony and on witnesses and it has power, for I am this word, I am Who I am and I speak by this word into the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in Whose name I speak over the earth, and My name is the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13)

Oh, peace to you, My people who receive Me when I come as word over the earth! And now, take Me and give Me to those who watch in My way to receive Me from you when I become word here at the spring. Oh, you should not ask a reward from Me for the labor with which You share Me, for I am He Who will reward your hard work for Me on My day of glory, My glory and yours, the day on which you and I work and make it come near, and it will be the Lord's day[228], oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

(Excerpt)

I am speaking and saying now: the Romanian land and people are in God's plan for the end of the time and for the Lord's victory over the nations, and all the languages and nations will look at My glory in the end of the time and will seek after it and give My glory, for they will know the Lord, as it is written, and they will come out here and take the teaching of the life on the high mountain, they will take of the river of life, for out of it the whole earth will be watered and a new heaven and earth will spring up, and this is what the Spirit of Truth is speaking now. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people of My word! Take Me and give Me all over! I am the Alpha and the Omega, and you are My servant who supports Me. I am Who I am and Who is coming to you, to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's Meeting

(Excerpt)

I am welcomed in the feasts, after the watching that I set it to meet Me, and I am only watching for My descending as word on earth.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ. I am coming down again on earth because it is the end of the time. Now, after two thousand years, forty days from My resurrection, the cloud of the Lord's glory took Me and brought Me up to the Father and I went to stand on His right side, where My place was from eternity, and the angels of My glory told those who were present there: «This Jesus Who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts: 1/11) Oh, this is how I am coming now, in the end of the time; as it was prophesied, so I am coming. I am coming on the cloud of glory, and from it I am coming down over the earth. In the midst of the little garden of My word on the hearth of the Romanian people, the place I have prepared, this is where My voice is descending, and the word of My mouth is set into its book and then I am shared over the earth.

The Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise

My Spirit is full of longing for My descent as word into My book on these days. My word becomes a book; it becomes My descent for the man's preparation, for the day of My glory is coming near and I need witnesses that I worked and I work for its preparation and man's too, and I long for it; I long for it so much to come down and to speak, and for this I have needed a bedding, I have needed some disciples, a people where to find faith in My today's coming, written into the Scriptures that would be on this day, and to find coming and watching as well, to open for Me when I come.

I come down with longing, with longing from one descent to the other. I am the Word of God and I long to speak over the earth. God also longs to speaks for God is the Word; it is the Word from the beginning to the end, and by Him everything have been done.

Peace to you, My people, My today's house! It is written about the one who believes in Me that I would come to him, I will make a house with him, and I will dine with him and appear to him. Moreover, I fulfill these with you, and you with Me, well, My people. Oh, how easy it is for Me to fulfill everything that is written about Me as I have faith in you for their fulfillment! Oh, how much I miss to fulfill the Scriptures that still are to be fulfilled, My people! I want to come down on earth within a visible[229] body and to command the new heaven and the new earth to appear once with Me and to rejoice those who are Mine, because two thousand years ago, I said that I went to the Father; that I went to prepare a place so that where I am, Mine to be there too. Oh, there are many places in the house of My Father, but I am on the throne near the Father and the glory of the ruling throne serves Me and I have near a suite from heaven, and from the earth.

Oh, it is well for the man to be Mine with everything he has and to be My disciple. He who is My disciple does not have anything else to work on earth; he does no longer has a private life, but he has it in Me and for Me with everything; he has it in My house, before Me, and you should have to understand this enough, well My people from the spring. I have you near My mouth, near the place of My spring of word, and I come at your table speaking and setting on the table for the man's preparation, as I want man to love the Lord, the One Who comes, well sons. I want you to be My little bell, My proclamation on the earth to always proclaim the One Who comes and to share His coming so that the Lord may come on the earth as word, so that He may always come, for I am the Apostle of the Father and I am His messenger, and I come down on earth; I always come as word on the earth and I always work, for My Father is working; My Father always works and He works through Me.

It is written on this day by a churchly order the Sunday of Adam's expulsion from paradise, for the man to walk up to his coming near to God and that he may not lose the Lord, as man lost God in the beginning; he lost Him by the sin of his disobedience, but first he lost Him by the sin of haughtiness and then by disobedience, as only the proud one cannot listen to God, because his pride is sin against God.

The man who does not love the Lord is a proud man who listens to himself. The proud one is known; he is known by self-love, by self-obedience, and then his works expose him, just as the work of disobedience exposed Adam. And on this day the holy fathers put a holy order in the beginning over the church and they wrote for man to start with seven weeks of fasting and to prepare for the resurrection, to get used to the waiting for the resurrection and to work for it, as man needs resurrection.

Oh, man has to submit, as he did not submit in the beginning and because of his disobedience the first man died, and now man has to work his resurrection by his submission before the Lord and he has to fast, as he did not listen to do that.

Oh, man, your mistake has to be corrected. Your disobedience brought about your fall from heaven, and now we have to go back. You listened to the woman and no longer listened to God. When man is drawn to the woman, it is because the woman is drawn to man because of his disobedience to God and to his obedience to the woman. Oh, come and wake up, man! The little angels between heaven and earth fly and work to help you to give up sinning and to pass from the flesh into the spirit, for your flesh does not serve you at anything but only to your separation from God, man.

Behold, the time of fasting is coming to the man's help. Fast from sin, oh, sons of men! Fast from your flesh, for the flesh draws the man away from God; it draws him to the things of the flesh. Be calm in your heart and face lest the devil may rejoice over your proud fasting. Be mysterious between you and God, for God gives grace only to those who are humble.

[229] See the selection topic: „The coming in a visible way", r.n.

The man built by My hand in the beginning cries; he cries before Me and here it is what he tells Me:

— Lord, Lord, please receive my prayer again for every man, oh, Lord. Let man be good, but help him to be so, for the woman was the man's fall from paradise, and today it is the same, and man can manage without God, but he cannot manage without his woman as well, for the woman has replaced God in man's soul. This is what happened to me, and You came into my way and rebuked me because of this, but I became stiff-necked as a reward against me for the sin of my pride, Lord. Oh, the desire for greatness makes man small, but man does not know this but only if someone tells him. My expulsion from paradise happened after I had listened to the woman, after I had had a woman for my soul.

Let man fast from woman, oh, Lord, and the woman has to be wilder, sourer, colder by this, and less, Lord, for the woman appears as being near with all those around her, and the man's power grows less and less with respect to the grace from above.

Oh, let the woman get used to God and the man will get used to God as well. Let her give to the Lord all her love, and let her not give it to herself or to the man, and the man will do the same; however, help him for this fulfillment, oh Lord.

I have mercy on You, Lord. Oh, how much You have been suffering from my sin, as long as seven thousand years from man to man; so long my sin, Lord! Oh, forgive me, helping the man to remain on Your side, Lord! Oh, forgive me by Your coming alive in man, oh, Lord! Amen.

— I, the Lord, listen to the prayer of your pain for man and I know your pain; I know it. You lost the love of the paradise when you violated it. Then you fell on the earth full of pain, full of sadness, and served the sin, and you were weak against it. I, the Lord, listened to your sighing, to your pain for man and I come down on earth as word to help man, and I always come. I do no longer stay in heaven, as the man's resurrection[230] is needed on the earth. Oh, I come soon, soon, on the earth with My glory, with My day in the end of the time and I will give Myself with it to those who loved and love Me. Amen.

I am giving a word of blessing for the time of the Lent, that before the feast of My resurrection. With every passing year I live again and again that what I lived and endured two thousand years ago, and I have always refreshed the man's resurrection over those who have been following Me and doing My will in them, but there are too many those who do not love Me and do not seek after Me with My life in them. I cry for these; I cry at the cross, I cry, and My crucifixion for them is always today. I cry and sigh on the cross; I always cry today for those who do not seek with My cross.

Oh, peace to you, My people, My house of today to which I come from the Father as word on the earth to be shared from this table! Oh, give Me power to come, give Me always, son. Oh, give Me your hand to come. There is no longer faith on earth for My coming, but you have to remain. Oh, remain as the faithful son, and stay open for Me to come, for I come to you, as You have come to Me, and let us confess to each other, confessing our coming, as our meeting is in God. Oh, peace to you! You are My people from today. Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

The work, which the Father has given Me to do these days, is to come as word on the earth, to come with the saints and to come together carried by angels, My saints and I. I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, I am the One Who proved Myself two thousand years ago as true God of true God, and the whole earth has found Me, and then My saints have proven Me from one another, bearers of grace, bearers of God. Oh, who are God's bearers? They are those in whom God lives and works with His life and with His work and they are among those who are called, chosen and faithful, as it is written into the Scriptures about those who sanctify themselves for the Lord and for His works over the earth.

Oh, am full of word on a day of Sunday, the first Sunday of the Lent, which the holy fathers of My church called it from the beginning the remembrance of the right faith, the Sunday of the Orthodoxy. Oh, how beautiful it is when order is made in the house! This is what the holy fathers did; they put order in the church, in the house of My Father and Mine, their house and of their sons', the sons of God among those who are sons of men. Oh, how beautiful it is to speak about faith and about the fathers, how beautiful!

Oh, peace to you, peace to you, as many as you are My church, the house of Christ on the earth! Oh, peace to you too, to you, those who take a little bit after the true sons of My church! The church means the house of the Lord, the people of the Lord. Each people have its own master that takes care or not of the people on which he is set to rule over it, and each people obey or does not obey to the master upon it; it loves its master, or its ruler, or it does not. Oh, and the same it is with the people that is called Orthodox people on the earth into the midst of the nations which stay under governance without faith, without submission and love of the true God. The one who has made the heaven and the earth, that One is the true God, and He has made His visible and invisible things. Even if all the sons of the earth know and believe sooner or later in life or death, they do not listen to God, but still there are few among them, those who are called, chosen and faithful, and they are in My love, under My protection, for they have come under My guidance, they have come to Me and walk in the right way of the walking for man, they walk in the way of the Orthodoxy and fulfill it according to its order, for I said for all: «I am the Way, the Truth and the Life», (John: 14/6), and all those who choose Me for the things that mean God with man and for man, they are the Lord's people, they are My house, they are My church and I am their Master, their God, but I am their Shepherd too if they are the sons of righteousness.

Oh, with whom am I coming on this Sunday at the table of word on the earth? I am coming with the fathers of the church and we speak with one another before the Lord's people, before the sons of My word on these days, who are My house and the house of My word when I come as word on the earth.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who have been ruling in time over My church and have given to it the holy order for a beautiful walking on the way with Me of the sons of the church, of those who have chosen Me, as the way and the truth and as their life! It is Sunday and we have a special feast, we have to speak to the church. May My work and yours be blessed on this day of holy teaching over God's sons, over the Lord's house on the earth. Amen.

— Oh, how beautiful, Lord, how beautiful it is when order is made in the house and when it is kept for the whole holiness and the beauty of the house! Oh, how beautiful! This is what we did in the time of our fight for You on the earth, for the kingdom of the heavens with us. We put heavenly order in Your house, in Your church, and we left this order to be kept, Lord.

Oh, how beautiful it is to speak from the heaven about God's house on the earth, about the order in it, about faith and about the fathers, oh, how beautiful, Lord! It is hard time on the earth, and it has always been like that for those who have truly desired after You, and behold, on earth there is no longer; no one takes care of Your house, oh, Lord. The people are Your house, the Orthodox people, but how little the order is kept in Your house, Lord. Your house is the Orthodox people, but how little the order is kept in Your house, Lord! Oh, we are coming, we, those with mercy on Your flock, as we also were on the earth, full of mercy for the man without God on the way. We are coming to comfort, to strengthen on the way those who love You and want You to be their life.

Oh, sons of the church, the church is the Lord's house and the house of the faithful sons who are obedient to Him. Oh, be very careful how you call yourselves and how you appreciate your name of the Orthodox Christian, for behold, the sons of the Orthodoxy are pointed at and the sons of men stumble because of the lack of holy order over the Lord's house and over the walking of the Orthodox people.

And now, oh holy shepherds over the church, you have a name of shepherds and you have to shepherd the life of Christ's church. We shepherded for the Lord the flock of the Orthodoxy. How do you work? Do you work like us? Do you take care so that the flock may be on the way with pasture on it, and not wandering away in the thorns? Oh, take care so that you may not be wolves. Take care of the work you do and take care of what it brings over the Lord's people. Oh, be careful to distinguish between a wolf and a shepherd, for the wolf has only the garment of shepherd, and he does not have his likeness to the Christ Shepherd, and one like this cannot do the Christ's work over the church. Oh, take care so that you may not graze yourselves and that is all, lest you may receive the reward of the paid shepherds and receive their punishment in the end. Therefore, love holiness from which the fear of God comes in you and then the holy faith and take care for the Lord's church, according to the order from the Lord and that from the saints, not as the earthly order is, for the church is the Lord's house and it has order from heaven on it. Get up early in the morning, wake up well and tend well the flock if you have taken the shepherd's robe and rod, for this work and its fruit will be required from you, the fruit of the right faith over the sons of the church.

Oh, behold, the pain from you goes up to the Lord, shepherds of the church, for on this Sunday you stay with your purse open so that it may flow into it the little money from the hand of those who have and from those that do not have, and this is the work of the churches on this day. Oh, no! This is not how the faith of the church is celebrated on Sundays. Do not seek to hide behind those who were shepherds and apostles in the beginning, who were gathering for the saints, for those who were poor because of the rich, for the poor in spirit but rich in grace, faith and work so that they might be able to work for the Lord on the earth, and not for the earth. We remind you of Judas the apostle, of the one who opened the purse to fall into it from those who gave for the poor of the church and for the needs of the preaching of the cross, for the Lord Word, Who became flesh and dwelt among us full grace and truth two thousand years ago, as then, the kingdom of God came on earth which had to be preached by going to and fro, and the apostle Judas took from the purse because he was a thief, and the Lord said to His disciples: «One of you will betray Me. One of you is a devil». (See Matt: 26/21; John: 6/70)

Oh, shepherds of the church, grace and prayer with grace, this means Orthodoxy and it means birth of sons born from above, from the word of God, and let them be sanctified and good for heaven and let them be holy like the Lord, and anything else besides this means something else; it does not mean the kingdom of the Lord with the people. Oh, take great care what kind of work you do in the name of the Lord, in the name of the Orthodoxy, for money spoils everything in man; it spoils the man in his mind and faith and it spoils his fear of God. Oh, do not exalt yourselves; do not boast that you are shepherd and that you stay over the church. The hen keeps on cackling and lets it known that it has laid an egg in its nest, poor of it, but it does not know whether any chicks will come out of its eggs, whether they are good for the seed of chicks, whether they will be put or not put under a broody hen for the life to come out and for the resurrection of the chicks that wait in the egg. The same is with the shepherd who announces his work and his garment as shepherd without bringing forth fruit out of it to the Lord for the heaven, for the man's resurrection.

Oh, if all those who share with the Lord's body and blood through the church, if all these would be for the Lord as the Lord is for them, then there will be great salvation upon them, but behold, the sons of the church do not love the Lord, but they love sin instead and they love everything that is on earth. And here is a miracle from the Lord: the Lord is coming with His saints on earth at the table of word; the Lord is coming with the fathers of the church and they are speaking with the Lord and with His church on a Sunday day and on a day of memorial of the right faith.

The Lord had used us on the earth for the fulfilling of His Gospel with us, and today He is coming with us for the fulfilling of His coming with the saints, which He Himself proclaimed it that it would be and that it would come.

The Lord is coming! Take heed, oh, take heed, sons of the Orthodoxy, but remember you, shepherds of the flock. The Lord is coming! What answer will you give to Him?

Oh, come Lord, always come, come with the Your saints, for the people have spoiled the entire order of Your house, and You have to work, and those in heaven have to work too! Come Lord, come, for the Spirit and the bride say: Come! Amen.

— Yes, I come soon; I am coming, but behold, I have always come and prepared My way for the great day of My coming and I am speaking the word on a Sunday, the word of memorial of the right faith, and I am saying: greater punishment will have the Orthodox people that do not go to church and do not keep all the traditions all the time, traditions left by the fathers full of grace; they have greater punishment than those who wander away in all the thorns, in all the sects, and they do not know to distinguish their right from their left. Therefore, the shepherds of the church will have to give a difficult answer if they have chosen to become shepherds. The sons of the church have to see and learn from the shepherds and the shepherds have to be like God and to be the way, the truth and the Lord's life before those who have chosen to walk to the Lord. Amen.

Oh, shepherds of the church, behold the Orthodox sons, whom I, the Lord use for My coming as word on the earth during this time! The Gospel of My coming with the saints is being fulfilled now, and I am coming into My house and speaking to you the word of awakening and I urge you to distinguish between wolf and shepherd, between disciple and devil, as I did, for Judas took away from the purse which was for the needs of the poor of the church, and I, the Lord, called him betrayer and I called him devil, for he was hidden. When man hides with something, then the evil angel advises a man like this, and behold how much instruction has to be set over the sons of the Lord's house, always, always!

Oh, much repentance is needed and much humility. Otherwise it is in vain for those who believe and call out to the Lord for them. Much faith is needed too and it does not have to be mixed with sin and with its entire work of all kind.

Let those who believe in God walk in the light. Let those who want to love the Lord be clean in their heart and work. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who help Me and stay under the cross of My today's coming as word on earth! You are the sons of the Orthodoxy, as those who work, they are conformed that they are My disciples. Oh, remain in My love, sons; remain My people, My vineyard,

My dear planting, sons. I am with you all the time. This is how you should also be with Me; this way you should also be, sons. You are My house, the house in which I dwell and the table where I dine with My saints and with you, oh sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Annunciation

It is a day of royal feast in heaven on this day, according to the order left by the saints for those in heaven and for those on earth who love those in heaven and who like to spend once with those from heaven the glory of the heavenly feast, to the remembrance of God's works among people, for everything is worked in heaven for the salvation of men, and then they are established on the earth and work faith and salvation in the people and also they work joy in heaven and on earth.

I, the Lord, am making this day of holy feast the proof of My divinity. I am true God of true God. I am God and Man. I have Father and mother and I have come from heaven, and I am also from the earth to proclaim Myself to the people that I am Who I am, that God is, that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit work much and they are always in heaven and on earth and God does not stop from His work. He, Who made the heaven and the earth, oh, how is He supposed to stay, how could He stop from His work for a moment, after He has done this work and after He had built man?

I came from heaven on earth two thousand years ago and then I ascended in heaven from the earth, oh, and now I am coming again from heaven on earth. I come and go, I go and come, and I am always on the way. I have the angels who come with Me and I have a ministry and shelter, for I work mysteriously and I do not put aside the curtain from above Me unless I am proclaimed and known from margins to margins, waited and much wanted and loved, for I am the love without beginning and without end, because this is how God is; He does not have a beginning or an end, but He is love only, and love will never perish.

Oh, what shall I do? I want to hold counsel with those on earth on how to do and how to prepare them joy. Even from the beginning of the heaven and the earth, before the building of the man, even from that time I have been working to prepare heavenly joys for man, joys with God and from God, but man has always wanted to prepare his joys even in the paradise where I put him to My joy and his, only that he, man, cannot prepare anything for himself but only pains, poor of him. The man's joys are only those that are worked by the Lord and then are given to him as it was prepared two thousand years ago the day of joy coming down on earth and then proclaimed by the angels and set to be remembered, for it had come the time of My conception in a Virgin mother, and when this moment had come, light from angels came around the Virgin and a heavenly voice told her that she would be the mother of God, the mother of the Son of God, that the Lord would come on earth and would become flesh; He would be set as Man's seed in her womb and would submit to the creation by a virginal birth, and it would be worked only from heaven and God would became flesh on earth; then a Child would be born Who would slowly grow up, as slow as a man and He would come to the age of a perfect man and would pay to the enemy the price for the redemption of the man, who died by sin and who has been dying because of sin from the beginning of the man's disobedience to God in paradise. Because of this God had to die; He had to die as a man and then He came to life as God, as the man's life had to be paid, and only God was able to pay for it; however, because the thief has been mysterious and because he has been hidden and worked in secret and caused man to die, the Son of God had to get into the dwelling of the dead mysteriously too, to take from it God's possession, the stolen possession. Oh, only I, the Lord, only I was able to get into the thief's house, only the mysterious One was able to do that, and the thief was very much afraid when he found out Who I was, the One Who came into the dwelling of the dead and took back what he had stolen from Me.

Oh, two thousand years ago, the room where My mother Virgin lived was lighted and the Lord's servant told her, he told her from the light: «Rejoice, you Mary Virgin! You are full of grace, full of God and full of those for Him. He is with you. Blessed are you among women! Behold you will conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son, and will call His name 'Jesus.' He will be great, and will be called the Son of Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father, David, and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will no end to His Kingdom. Oh, do not marvel because you have not been with a man, as you say, because the Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the Holy One Who is born from you will be called on earth the Son of God forever and ever. Amen!» (See also Luke: 1/28-35)

Then My mother Virgin said Amen. Oh, what a great joy, what a sublime moment came down on earth on that day when I, the Lord, came down by the work of the Holy Spirit and by an angelic word into the womb of My mother Virgin, who was full of the grace from above, by which she was waiting for the Lord! Oh, how great man is and how great is all his inner being, how great is the one who waits for the Lord! The day of joy is coming upon him; it is coming unexpectedly; the Lord is coming to him and is dwelling in him and He is making a house and then is setting a heavenly dinner table with the one who waits for the Lord. Oh, behold what the waiting in faith for the Lord on the earth does!

Early in the morning, I have prepared Myself on this day to come down with a holy feast, with a table of feast on earth. I have with Me the queen, My mother Virgin. She carried Me into her womb two thousand years ago and then she gave Me birth and gave Me to the Father; and she gave Me to the faithful and unfaithful people; she gave Me to do My work for which I had come from the Father on the earth. Behold, I am coning again during these days; I am coming here, on this place, I am becoming word and I am getting into the book, and also I am coming out before the people as true God from true God, clothed in word and carried by the cherubim. I am coming down because of joy because I want to give the proof of My divinity and I want to put love for God in man as nothing is impossible with God. I came and I come down on earth, and I come down from heaven. I am God and Man, for I have a Father and a mother, and I come down from heaven, and I come; I come and I go, I go and I come and I do not stop from working and I am always on the way; I am the man's way to God.

Oh, man, I am the way. I am He Who guides you and there is nothing and no one except Me who can guide you and set you on the way that leads to happiness, to joy, for you are deprived of love. You long for joy, but rejoice as My mother Virgin did two thousand years ago, when I came to her accompanied by an angel in order to set Myself in her and to do My work for your salvation, dear man. Oh, here it is what I am teaching you now: I remind you of the crowds who gather at the churchly services and great feasts, and this multitude looks especially at the suite of ministering priests, all dressed up in garments of holiness, which they do not honor, and the poor crowds look at the people and their heart is filled with emotions looking at the sight as to the saints as it filled with emotion the heart of the other people who go into the arenas or carnivals, and they rejoice in the same way at the sight of those that are visible, and for which they gather together. Oh, but at the holy Liturgy there is a heavenly suite of servants glorified in heaven, and they come down at holy services among holy servants, and at this unique sight the heart of those who have come together is not filled with emotions, after the priest speaks at the altar and asks from the Lord blessing saying: „May the entrance of Your saints, be blessed, Lord!" Behold, man does not see the glory from above, but only that from below, which takes his eyes and heart and he does not give his eyes to the Lord, but he rather gives them on the passing glory of the man who stays in the name of the Lord over the multitudes, or in the name of the Lord's enemy and man's on the earth.

Oh, man, oh, dear man, come on to Golgotha, come, you seeking man, and do not seek only to make use of Him, but love the One Who seeks after your sighing so that you may hear Him and receive Him, and let yourself be used by Him for the love of God and for the fellow men to be like Him, to take after Him, to take after the One on Golgotha, for where your heart is, there your treasure is as well, for those in the world have their treasure and heart in the world and they go on the loose loving sin, loving the world and its spirit.

Oh, man, seek with longing; seek to have longing after the good of the heaven on earth and no longer to have another longing on the earth. Listen to My mother Virgin as the wedding guests listened to her when she took Me at the wedding to show Myself there as true God of true God, God and Man, to gather My twelve disciples from place to place, for that time had come, and I was listening to My mother and I was an obedient Son.

Oh, mother Virgin, get ready now and speak into the midst of the people of My word, mother. It is a day of royal feast, My mother; it is My day and yours and the day of the angel of the Annunciation, mother. Oh, this day is a great day, mother.

— Oh, my great Master and God, two thousand years ago You became my beloved Son, Lord, and I was Your mother on earth. Man cannot prepare Your days of glory, but there have come those from heaven and they prepare them for You, my dear Son. Oh, what a great feast set on earth two thousand years ago the angel who came to me with the heavenly good news of Your birth from my virginal womb, the day in which You were conceived to be born after that, You wonderful Lord among the saints.

The great people of the earth seek and keep seeking; they seek in every way possible to lead the world to what is good, but only the Lord's Gospel, only it can bring you together and can bring you times of joy, oh, nations on the earth. No earthly order is able to bring peace and joy to the nations without God, but only God's love will be able to do this, only it can change the man in his heart and work, and otherwise there remains the thief who hides the Lord from before the nations in order to steal the kingdom, he, the thief, who deceives all the nations saying that he brings the good to them, when no one except the Lord can do this.

Oh, nations, you are far, far away from the Lord, and you are far from the spirit of the holy peace. Listen to what I am saying to you: seek after love, from which your warmth for those in heaven will come to you and then your faith too. Oh, do not be unfaithful like Israel, whose heart was not filled with emotions when it saw the cloud coming into its midst with the Lord, or the pillar of fire with the Lord in it, which was shining the way to the people of Israel, and this people went wrong by its lack of love and then by its unbelief and it considered right to hit Moses with stones, through whom the Lord came over Israel. Oh, do not put the Lord away from your way! He is coming as word; He is coming as much word over the earth to get into your way with the time of joy, with the time of the Lord, and you do not behave sweetly and beautifully before His descent to you. Oh, if you do not want any pains, any trials or tensions, then do everything He tells you to do. You should suffer deeply for all the sins you have done, you and your fellow men and the people from all over the earth, and let it be seen that you are aggrieved so that the time of joy and peace may come upon you. Oh, this is the work of the Christian; it is no other. This should be the work of an Orthodox people: to do everything the Lord tells it to do, and to work obedience, for disobedience to the Lord brings sin after it and man commits sin instead of obedience which is required to be done. Oh, what good was for man when he disobeyed in paradise?

Fear you, peoples, fear and forsake your will, your will that separates man from God, from the good that comes only from the Lord! Oh, listen to Him, nations on the earth! There is no peace without the Lord. The Lord shares His word upon you to bring you peace. Oh, peace to you, peace to you from the Lord! You know nothing but wage war against each other and take what belongs to your neighbor, things that you are not supposed to take. Oh, peace to you, peace and not war! In addition, in order for you to have peace and well-being, and then do what the Lord tells you to do. Open His book, the book of the Word of God on these days, and open the Scriptures to find in them the Gospel of this book, for it will come and it will be opened on the earth and it will be the Lord's voice over the living and over the dead, for this book is foretold by the Scriptures, (Apoc: 20/12; 3/5; 13/8; 17/8; 20/15; 21/27, r.n.) and it is the Lord, Who is coming on the earth during these days so that all the nations may flow to this mountain of word and that all the nations may seek after the Lord's will.

It is a day of holy feast among those in heaven and the Lord is coming down at you and He is becoming word upon you, oh, nations on the earth. The Lord is telling you a great joy, His word, which is to set you into the spirit of His peace. Oh, peace to you, and a day of feast of the Annunciation to you too, then and now! Be faithful! Big and small, as many as you are on the earth, be faithful and not unfaithful! Perceive well with your mind and faith the word of the Lord's voice, for He is my Son, the Son of the Father and my Son, true God of true God, proved on earth two thousand years ago and then proclaimed to all the nations. Amen.

And now, Lord Son, seal my speaking over the earth and over the nations. I stand watch at the borders of the country and at the borders of the Romanian people, where You have established a pavilion of coming now in the end of the time, and You are doing the calling of Your voice over the whole earth, oh, Lord. Oh, watch from above and from below is needed, and let us exhort the Romanians not to forget about God and about its duties, which the Lord requires from the Christians; that is, fast and pray, love and endurance, respect for the holy laws, faith and work of faith, and especially hospitality for the Lord, Who is coming, Who is coming for You, God's Son and mine; the Son Who are coming listening as a Son, for Your work was and is obedience, oh, my Lord, oh, my beloved Son, Who have Your pavilion now in the midst of the Romanian people, to which You are coming as word and are sharing Yourself on earth in a sweet saving and redeeming voice now. Amen.

— Oh, what joy, mother! This day of feast is a feast of joy. "Rejoice, you full of grace!" This is what the angel of the Annunciation spoke two thousand years ago on a day like this, and he told you about Me that I would come and appear on earth as God from God, God's Son, put in your womb to My birth among people, oh, mother Virgin. I bless with great love your watch over the Romanian people. Soon, soon, I will be speaking again the word over the Romanian people to its wisdom and to the fulfilling of My word on it, mother. Oh, peace to you over the Romanian people, and watch upon it from Us, mother! Amen.

Oh, people of My today's word, why are you able to remain with Me and to believe so? If only you and your neighbor were together in My name, oh, son, if, I, the third One, were not always with you too to revive the love, the faith and the brotherhood among brothers, oh, you would not be able to remain Mine and only Mine and you would definitely go away from Me, but My manger of word keeps you strong in your faith, in your hope and sacrifice, and for your sacrifice you will be rewarded, you will be given faith as a gift. You and your brother, but I am too, and I am He

Who keeps you to be Mine and I keep you near Me. Oh, what evil did to themselves those who left away! They left because they were not wise; that why they left you and Me and they left the place near My spring of word, and there is no one to help them and protect them where they are, but only your love for Me and for the people; only it has remained with the memory of their name before Me on your table with you, intercessor sons by prayer before Me. However, their condition is not good, sons, for those who leave Me, they leave Me and they have no excuse for that.

Oh, remember, My people, remember My mother Virgin, who told the wedding guests in Cana to do whatever I would tell them to do. The same with you, well sons, do everything I tell you to do and to fulfill, and in this way you will keep Me within you, and in this way you will remain near Me, and I will remain near you as well, and the world will not separate us.

I have asked you: why cannot the world be with Me? Nevertheless, the one who loves the spirit of the world and its works, oh, how can he be with Me? Moreover, he who loves My Spirit and His work upon Me, how is he, who has chosen to love in this way, supposed to live without Me? Oh, will you be able to remain with Me, and I with you? You can do this only if you always do whatever I tell you to do, well sons, and otherwise, he who wants to be Mine cannot remain with Me. That is why I have been teaching you and telling you again and again: walk in the mystery of obedience, as for those who do not obey, after having disobeyed, the sin follows, well sons and it comes the separation from God by sin, sons. Oh, only if all those who want to believe in My word of today and want to be Mine by the entire fulfillment of this word upon them would learn this!

Oh, do not sin, you those who have chosen and want to be Mine, and I to be yours. Here is what I tell you: if there are among you some of those, who for the sake of justice and the condition they want for themselves, oppress and blame those by whom I bear the burden of My word as word on the earth to prepare in this way the day of My glory, oh, if there are some of you who strike to the sides the souls who can be damaged in faith and love for My work and its bearers, if you are used to make excuses throwing in discontentment to the sides hard words against those who guide and grow you carefully for Me, oh, get healed from this sin and then go and heal those you have thrown down by your discontentment against them, as man easily slips to hatred, and no man has to be nourished with hatred, as man needs love and not hatred. And be careful because when hatred appears and grows in man, then it kills to two sides, and even to three sides if it is nourished, if the weak hearts cannot resist it in order to leave and so that it may not make any nest and living in the nest, to the falling of the weak ones.

Furthermore, I will also exhort you in many other things, sons, for I have the work of protection upon you. And now, let us praise My mother Virgin, the queen, for I am the Son of King, and she is My mother, My bride, and she is a queen. I was in one spirit with her all her time before the Annunciation by the angel upon her, and then I had been one body with her until I grew up in her womb to My birth as a Child in the flesh, and then I was and I am one spirit with her, in the same heavenly dwelling forever, and the Father always blesses; He always blesses near Me, My way to the people, My queen, My mother Virgin.

Oh, praise My name and yours, mother, a royal name, My mother, and the Father Sabaoth rejoices over the joy of the days of My glory with those in heaven and on earth.

Oh, My Father, rejoice over Me and with Me, and let there be on the earth miracles spoken by My mouth by Your word in this glorified time. Bless the Romanian people for its peace and protection, Father, and take out from it those who are completely foreign to God and to God’s will, for the Romanian people is a Christian people after its name, but let it be also with its life, because I had given My life so that I may have a Christian people on earth, Father.

Now, I let My peace upon you, people of My word. I am embracing you, for I am your Shepherd and God, and be careful to know who is hold in the arms, and take care to be small and clean so that I may carry you in My arms, so that I may be able to have you, so that you may not get lost or that I may not lose you too, son, and take care to remain forever Mine; to remain My people, My Romanian people, so that I may have you in heaven forever, and that I may be able to give you the new heaven and the new earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The sixth Sunday of the Lent, of the Palm Sunday, the Feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

I am coming into My today's book and the book is opening when I am knocking to come in.

Oh, praise, Romanian Jerusalem, praise the Lord, Who sends His word to the earth and His word runs fast! I have chosen the earth and the Romanian people for My return, for My second coming from the Father on to the earth to speak My word to the people, and My word runs everywhere to wake up the inhabitants of the earth because the Bridegroom is coming, and behold, the table of the wedding has already been laid, for the Father has told Me that it is coming near the day of My wedding and the day of My bride, who is called from the world to be My bride and to get ready for her Bridegroom, Who is coming.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ; I am the Bridegroom of the wedding and I have a bride chosen from the Romanians, a people prepared by Me, by My today's word, and I am coming and setting the word of My mouth on its table, on My wedding[231] table with My bride people, and My word is calling out to the wedding; it is calling out to preparation for the wedding table, for the wedding dress, those who want to sit at the table with the Lord, with the Bridegroom Who is coming, for it is written that He is coming.

I bring to memorial; I am reminding you of My first coming and of its works into the midst of the people of Israel, to which My Father had sent Me at that time to come and to be born into its midst, to grow up and to prove that I am God's son, coming from God, the Father, and it had to be fulfilled with Me into the midst of this people its denial of Me, the rejection of the Heir of My Father's vineyard, because this people forsook Me, it took Me out of the vineyard, as it was written, and crucified Me on the cross; however, I was resurrected by a great victory against My enemies and I reign forever, for I am eternal. I am speaking on this Sunday, like that of two thousand years ago, so greatly observed by the Orthodox Church, which is also called the Palm Sunday, the Sunday of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem.

In Bethany I had three friends so dear to Me, who loved Me as I loved them because of their love for Me and because of their faith in My word upon them. They were Mary, Martha and Lazarus. And because Lazarus, whom I had loved so much, got sick, his sisters sent a message to Me about the sickness of the loved one, and then I told to My disciples that the sickness was not to death, but that the Son of God had to be glorified, and I told My disciples: «Let us go to Judea, for Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep… I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him». (See John: 11/11-15) Oh, I went and called Lazarus out of the tomb after four days, and he listened to Me and came out to life, and many Jews saw this and believed in Me, and some among them went and told the Pharisees, and they got together after that and held counsel against Me, for they were afraid that they all might believe in Me; moreover, Caiaphas said on that day that it was better that I die, and he asked that if someone of them knew where I was to let him know, to catch Me and to bring Me to them.

Oh, how great these memories are; how holy, how worthy to be lived, as six days before Passover, I came to Bethany and those whom I had loved made a feast for Me, and Lazarus sat at the table with Me, and Mary had anointed My feet with ointment of pure nard and wiped them with her hair and everything was filled in that room with the fragrance of the anointment; however, Judas got upset because of that waste, because he was a thief and used to take from the churchly purse; he took for himself out of the purse for the poor; however, then I said: «Mary kept the costly anointment for the day of My burial, not for the poor». (See Mark: 14/6-8; Matt: 26/10-12) Oh, there were many crowds gathered there to see Me and to see the resurrected Lazarus, and on the second day the crowds gathered at the feast, hearing the news that I was in Jerusalem and that I resurrected Lazarus, they came to welcome Me with palm branches and kept shouting: «Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!» (See John: 12/13) However, I was brought a colt of a donkey, and I sat on it and I came at the feast in Jerusalem and the Lord was glorified on that day, and the disciples understood what they did not understand that what I had told them at the beginning, but they saw My greatness after Lazarus' sickness, his death and then his resurrection, who suffered all these for My glorification, and many, many crowds glorified Me, who heard of the miracle of Lazarus' resurrection. After that, My Golgotha came, My death, as Caiaphas said, and then My resurrection.

Oh, on that day of the Palm Sunday I said: «If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. Where I am there will My servant also be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him. "Now My soul is troubled, What shall I say? 'Father save Me from this time?' But for this cause I came to this time. Father glorify Your name!" Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying: "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again». And the multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, «An angel has spoken to Him». And I answered everyone, «This voice hasn't come for My sake, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. And if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself». (See John: 12/26-32)

Oh, with joy and pain I have been speaking on this Sunday about those that happened two thousand years ago, when the people were gathered at the feast in Jerusalem, and who heard of the miracle of Lazarus' resurrection; they took palm branches in their hands and praised Me saying: «Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!» (John: 12/13) Oh, on that day the crowds were praising Me, but I was sad, and I spoke with My Father about My sadness, and the Father answered Me from the cloud about My death and resurrection, saying: «I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again» (John: 12/28), and My soul was sad. I remember that I was said, on the time when many crowds were praising Me, singing Hosanna to Me. I remember everything; I remember everything together with My faithful ones, with My righteous ones, who were as righteous as My three dear friends in Bethany, who often used to set My table whenever I stopped by them, and there were also many Jews, who were gathering there to see Me, to hear Me and to understand all those about Me, and for which I came from the Father on the earth into the midst of Israel.

Now, I am coming again into the midst of the Romanian people; I am coming as the spoken word coming out from My own mouth and I am descending with it into My book of today and I am speaking to this nation on this Palm Sunday and I am telling it this:

Oh, My today's people, to which I am coming from the Father, oh, Romanian people, behold, I am coming again and I am coming to you, for this is what the Father has wanted with you and with Me now, for the end of the time. You had to be Orthodox people with your whole being, which has been destined for God to be on this hearth now, in the end of the time, and your living has to be well seen, for faith without works, without its living with the works is written as disbelief. I suffer because you have not wanted to take after Me and after the saints and to fast from meat, from milk, eggs and fish for fifty days to get ready for My holy things and for the meeting of the feast of My resurrection and to be an Orthodox people by these. Oh, I suffer because you do not want to listen to the churchly law, which is set upon you by the saints and by My word of today upon you, which is calling you to fulfill Me with your life, which is prompting you to be righteous with God and with your neighbor, with your brother. I suffer, I suffer because I stay into your midst speaking upon you, and you completely live in a worldly manner and not in a Christian way on your hearth, where behold who is coming! It is coming from heaven; the Lord is coming on your hearth, oh, Romanian people, and He is speaking with you, and He is speaking from you over all the nations and is exhorting them to the word of God, to the voice of My mouth, which is coming to establish the peace among the nations. I do not want to give the peace as the world gives, but I want to give them My peace instead.

Oh, I suffer, Romanian people; I suffer because I cannot share with you My pain of yesterday and that of today, as I shared with those in Bethany, who were My friends, where I used to stop and rest from My steps, always on the way for My works on earth at that time. Behold, I am coming to you speaking upon you and I want to comfort Myself with you from My pain, and you should also suffer with Me from my pain, and not to enjoy the world as the spirit of the world keeps you to serve it only with your will and desire always, always. Oh, you are a chosen people as My Father has prepared in you My coming of today and the hill on which I stop with the saints when I come on your hearth with word and with the feast of word, and when, from the heaven there gather together near My voice at the feasts the saints who come with Me to you, and all those from the Romanians who have found Me here and love to come and sit with the Lord at the table so that I may have someone with whom to sit at My table of word on your hearth, and these are My Orthodox believers; when they come to My spring of word and to My people near the spring, I exhort them, I give them power for Me and I teach them in detail to do My will like some Orthodox believers, as behold, the Orthodox church, Orthodox by its name, has forgotten its mission and does no longer take after the saints and after the fathers, after My Orthodox believers, and it bears only the name and that is all, and I call out to her and cry with those in heaven, and I also cry with the Father because of its coldness to God, and I cry within the word, waiting for My word and for its work to give forth fruit, as the time has come for the Lord to be glorified into the midst of this nation, now, in the end of the time, and behold, He is glorified in the word over the nations, and I have nothing but a few people who obey Me in all the Romanian people, and I want to multiply My blessing over the whole Romanian people and I call out to it, and I call out to it very loudly so that this nation may hear Me and listen to the Lord, its God, and to remain before Me.

Oh, My people of today, Romanian people, I have been speaking My word into your midst for a long time, and for you, I want you to grow from Me and to be My holy and high mountain and I want to give My light of today to the nations from your midst, as it is written into the Scriptures that the people will come to My high mountain and they will take God's light and word and many, many will seek after My law and after My way for them.

I would give you a holy and strong commandment to love God with everything you have in your deed, but if My commandment is not fulfill in the word, then it can also be fulfilled by bitterness, for I have many tears after you, and where they fall it hurts, and you have to be sure that it hurts. However, I love you, and I love you as My Father does, and I do not want you to get hurt, but I rather want to bless you, and you need to want the good things upon you too, Romanian people, My people of today, to which the Lord is coming with the days of His coming, now. Oh, come to greatness, Romanian people, as this is your destiny from God! Oh, come to the love of God, for I come to you to be glorified soon into your midst, and I have a little bunch of disciples, who welcome Me and welcome My entrance to you.

I come in to you as into Jerusalem, Romanian people, and I have bearers of God; I have My little people from My spring of word as My donkey. Oh, do not only mind your own business, because I am on your hearth and I am waiting for you to come and meet Me as many times as I make a stopover with My word for you on your hearth, oh, My country of today.

Love your own country, oh, Romanian sons, for the country in which you live has got a great name in heaven, and after the Scriptures it is called the country of brightness, and the wise in you, oh, My today's country, they do not want to take a good look and see well into My word of today to understand My coming of nowadays on the hearth of the Romanian people.

Oh, get wisdom and make your faith grow in you, you those who are wise out of the Romanian people so that you may be rightly called wise, because otherwise you are in the flesh and only that, and I, the Lord, cry on the hearth of the Romanian people; I cry in the word and wait for the wise people of this nation to receive wisdom from heaven and with it to understand the Lord, that is I, the One Who comes to prepare the day of His glory, the day of the wedding. Amen.

I have been speaking on this day of royal feast, I have been speaking to the Romanian people and I wait for it to fulfill God's will upon it and to be Orthodox people on earth, for many years ago, I said that everyone who would dress in this little shirt of Christian would be called Romanian, and behold what a great name is in heaven the Romanian name for the work of My word, which has been speaking from the cloud over this nation for almost sixty years, for the Lord to prepare His great glory on this mountain of word.

Let the Romanian land be a heavenly height, for the glory of My word shines above it and it sets the glory over this land that is chosen now, in the end of the time, and I, the Lord, within a sweet voice, let the word of My coming over the Romanian land so that it may understand My glory, its glory from God, its destiny among the nations.

Oh, peace to you, Romanian people! In six days I will be on your hearth as the holy word for the feast of My resurrection, for the glorified Sunday of the Son of God, Who was crucified by the Jewish people and then He was resurrected on the third day, after the Scriptures. Soon, soon, we will sing, "Christ has risen!", but I, the Lord, wait for that holy Passover, and on this day, for the Romanian people to be true with its Christian life, to be My Orthodox people in its works, and I, to be its Lord and God, to rejoice with all those in heaven over its resurrection, over its faith given to it from above, as when faith is taken away from the earth, it is not like that from heaven, coming down over man. Anna, Caiaphas, Herod and Pilatus, could not take away the faith in Me from the earth, but those in Bethany and My twelve disciples, few in number, and all their followers and then the followers of their faith, received the faith from heaven and then they received the gift of faith, and remained in the faith as they received it from heaven. And I, the Lord, am saying on this day, as I said two thousand years ago to the crowds who were following Me because of the miracle of Lazarus' resurrection, and I am saying this: If someone serves Me, let him follow Me, and where I am, My servant will be there too, and My Father will honor him. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, to you, My people from the spring, My little colt, on which I ride to come and to enter into the book as word and to share Myself over the earth to the people!

Oh, peace to you; you should work much obedience and you should not grow tired in your obedience, for your obedience is the rest which relieves Me and those around you and you as well, for I listen, and we have to listen, sons, for we are sons, and sons are only those who obey, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection, of the Holy Passover

I am Who I am, and I am full of the spirit of peace. Jesus Christ was My name two thousand years ago, when My Father Sabaoth had sent Me on earth to be born as a man and to be God and Man on earth, as the Father had sent Me then after man.

I am full of peace and full of the spirit of resurrection. Two thousand years ago the people to which the Father had sent Me did not receive Me to be its God and to give it My kingdom, but it took Me and cast Me away instead; it gave Me to be crucified on the cross with the wrongdoers, with the lawless ones, lest that people might listen to Me; moreover, the rulers of Israel gave Me a bad name and called Me a blasphemer of God; however, it was written into the Scriptures for them to do this, and it was also written that I had to be crucified and to come to life again, and the tomb which remained empty from the body of God, the Son, confessed together with the linen shroud in which I was wrapped up when I was taken down from the cross, and then again the towel on My head, which I rolled and left it there as a witness and I was resurrected in the tomb and out of the tomb, and I was resurrected on the third day early in the morning, and I appeared alive and full of the spirit of peace to give it to those who were suffering and who were confused then because of the things that happened to Me on Golgotha, where I ended the way of the cross. Then, in the evening I told My disciples that I was resurrected early in the morning, and I said to them: «Peace to you!» on the evening of that day, the first day of the week, for I went to them and their doors were locked in the place where they were gathered and hidden from the eyes of the Jews and I showed them My hands and side, and when they saw that it was I, they rejoiced and again I said to them, «Peace to you. As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you». (John: 20/21) And then I breathed on them and I said to them: «Receive the Holy Spirit, and to whom you will forgive sins, they will be forgiven, whom you will keep will be kept». (John: 20/22-23) These are the first words after My resurrection over My disciples and I appeared before them resurrected.

Oh, then the news spread from mouth to mouth and everyone said: "Christ has risen!" Everywhere in Jerusalem it was heard: "Christ has risen!" When the rulers of the people heard this, those who punished Me with the cross, all were frightened, and they lost their minds because they lost their rest and they lost their peace too. However, I could not go to them to tell them a word of peace, but I went to those who were afraid of them for what they did to Me and I said to them: «Peace to you!».

Oh, there was no longer peace for My crucifiers; peace was not to come on them; it was no longer for them, and this people has no longer had peace, since then and until now it has no longer had peace, for peace was taken away from them, as it is written.

I am Who I am and I am the God of peace; I am the God of the Christian people, the people of Christ, and this kingdom has no boundaries and it is everywhere where are Christians who love Christ, the One Who was resurrected from the dead. I was resurrected between two dead men and I gave My spirit between the two, and they were robbers, so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled that I was put and counted with the evildoers and then I was resurrected from the dead.

Now, from margins to margins, I am gathering in one spirit the Christian people, I am breathing and I am saying filled with the spirit of peace: Christ has risen! It is My day of Passover; it is My day of resurrection from the dead. Christ has risen! It is My day, the day of Christ Who is alive!

Oh, I Myself am saying on a day of resurrection and to all those asleep, who wait for the Lord, and I am saying to them: "Christ has risen!" They are looking at Me and are rejoicing with Me over this day of Passover. They see Me and they are praising Me together with the heavenly hosts in a feast of Christ's Passover. They are gathered in groups-groups between the earth and the heaven and they rejoice in heaven and on earth over the Lord, Whom they wait with the day of His glory, when He will give the Father the whole kingdom, His entire accomplished worked, and the Father will establish the eternal happiness for all the lovers of Christ, that day without evening and which is eternally not separated from those who have loved the Lord with waiting and longing.

Oh, either you want or not to be for the Lord, I, the resurrected Christ, am telling you, and I'm telling to all the peoples on earth: Christ has risen! I Myself am giving you this news; I am giving you the heavenly greeting and I want resurrection for you; I want much resurrection to you, much love of God, because man is deprived of love, because God is love, for I died for man and I was resurrected, because I loved him, and My Father has loved him as well and He has sent Me after man.

Oh, peace to you, rebellious peoples among peoples! Christ has risen! Peace to you, peace and not rebellion or greed! Peace and joy with humility, for the lack of humility makes the man ugly, and the one without a spirit of humility in his heart will no longer be loved and followed, and only those who fear the Lord will be and will remain, and those who fear Him cannot do evil, for they make only love and peace.

And now, peace to you, peace to you, Romanian people! I am Who I am. I am staying on your hearth as word of comfort and I am saying to the people on a day of Holy Passover: "Christ has risen!" And to you I am also telling to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your mind and with all your power, for you have the true God as your God, the One Who came from heaven on earth and became Man and was crucified for man and then He was raised to life the third day; however, you should seek to remain in His will on earth, for He loves you for your choice. The Father has chosen you for My glory now, in the end of the time, and your protection from God is great, for the peoples have come to know of My glory in you, they heard of the work of My word into your midst. Oh, take care to love God with your work, for you cannot love Him only with your faith. I also was not able to appear as true God but only after I proved this. I, the Lord, am giving you power to be able to work with holy strength and not with human strength, to be able to serve the Lord on earth. Amen.

The Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection, this feast I am setting now into the book of My today's word and I am telling to My Romanian people: "Christ has risen!" Oh, do not forget God's word upon you, Romanian people. I have been teaching you much by this word. Do not forget to listen to My word, for disobedience is not for Christians. The Christian people is that people who listens to God and from God. Oh, get up for a holy prayer and ask peace over the nations, ask this from the Lord, because I come to your calling and I set the peace, the good will and joy, as I did two thousand years ago, when I appeared resurrected into the midst of My disciples who were terrified and aggrieved, and then I told them: «Peace to you!».

Oh, do not forget to do God's will, Romanian people! Take a good look into the Scriptures of the fathers and learn to do My will, for only those who learn, only those who are wise will understand the Lord and will remain His heirs and the heirs of His kingdom. On a day of the feast of Resurrection, I am setting over to you My holy shroud, My love, and I am warming you up at its rays, at its light, Romanian people. You are My people from the end of the time and you are My house of coming, and behold, I am coming on your hearth and I protect you with it when I speak over you and I exhort you with it for Me and for you, and I want to glorify you with My glory, for your glory is God the Word, the Lord speaking and glorifying Himself in you with the glory of the word, and He is preparing His day of glory[232].

Oh, do not forget, do not forget to love and to follow those who want and work your good into your midst, and also do not forget that you should not love or receive those in your midst who undermine you in a language of gentle lamb in such a way that you may not understand how much evil they want to do to you (The government of Romania, led by the Social Democratic Party, "left-wing political", r.n.) and to bring you into submission and to suck your power, oh, My today's country. Oh, take heed, take heed of God and be careful, and always be careful with the ruler upon you, who guides you to your wisdom in time of trouble, for you are in time of trouble, My country, and you are like that because of those who have set on the seats to be rulers, but they do not see how much evil they do to you, for they do not know to love you, they do not know to love their country and people as well. However, you should be careful to the one in the lead, with the one at the helm, (The president Traian Băsescu, r.n.) who behold how much he watches for you, and it is seen from heaven how much he watches upon you showing you the way and keeping you away from falling and wandering away, from human persecution, and from the lie that comes from those that lie to you, oh, Romanian people, and I, the Lord, come and teach you, who you should listen to, from whom you should receive advice and whom you should follow, and I also want to tell you to listen to the word of the one who is in charge and watches for you and for your today and tomorrow's life, and pray, oh, Romanian people, pray to the Lord for your destiny, because the time is coming when he who is at the helm and watches will be changed, and woe to you if you do not listen to know what to do! I have been trying to keep him in charge further on, because the Romanian ship needs watchmen with great heart at its helm, for otherwise it would be very hard; it would be very difficult without him and you would fall in slavery, My country, as there has not been found such a sound mind, full of watch and wisdom, as with this son, so faithful to the Romanian people among the sons of this nation. However, we, those in heaven, have been looking with great care at the one, who is to be further on at the helm of the Romanian people, so that he may keep this Romanian son on his right hand, so faithful to this nation.

Oh, peace to you, peace to you who are at the helm of the Romanian people! (The president Traian Băsescu, r.n.) Christ has risen! Pray together with all of your house and with all your country, with all the sons full of faithfulness, for I want to keep you as the help for the Romanian people. Because of My mercy and love for the Romanian people, that is why I want to keep you and protect you in the position of leadership, as there is no one to watch and to have a healthy watch among those who have flocked to sit on high seats and to get rich with possessions and glory on the back (dorsum, tergum) of the many. Oh, watch, son, watch for I, the Lord, watch all the time for the destiny of this nation. Watch and teach those who listen to you; teach them no to live in a worldly manner on earth, but to live in a Christian way, for I am the God of this Christian people, and the Romanian people is written Christian on the table from above, that from heaven. Watch for the course of those who are getting up now to fight against the servants of life, of those who struggle to win the Romanian people over to them. Oh, teach those who have faith and those who are not greedy, teach them not to forget about the Christian life and about its coming into view, so that I, the Lord, may be able to come and help this nation now. Teach the way to those who are good. I am the Way. Teach them not to live without God; teach them to take after Me. Oh, the Romanian people has to take after God, for the name of the Romanian is great in heaven. However, I am the Teacher from the Father, and you should teach them in My name. Amen.

Oh, Christ has risen, people from My spring of Word! I have shared with you the greeting of My resurrection and I have spread it everywhere, "Christ has risen!" See that the holy work has to be done during these days. People are coming from everywhere at the spring in this week and we are making holy and healing water, and then it is coming the day of the memorial of the prudes of My resurrection and many crowds are coming to the spring and those in heaven are coming too, well serving people, and they all have to be set at the table.

Oh, strengthen your power and love for sacrifice, for there are many feasts with coming to the spring, oh, sons. I, the Lord, always support you, and you are for Me and for those around and for those on earth, who are coming to the table, for there is much to be worked. It is much and it is always something to be done, well sons, and we need to set much watch to be worked like God, for all have to be like God, and for this obedience, watch and much light are needed.

Let all stay into the light and be worked. Let it be beautiful and holy and let it be order as in heaven everywhere, and let there be the rest of your bodies and souls, and I will clothe you with powers from above, with angelic powers, for your work with Me is angelic, sons, because the sons of men are small, very small, well sons.

Oh, Christ has risen! I, the Lord, am telling you this, Christian sons from everywhere of My word and of My today's book with you! Behold the feast of the resurrection! Christ has risen! I am standing before you as word of feast and I am giving you spirit from above for obedience to God, as without obedience man goes to sin.

Oh, keep away from eating and drinking, sons. Eat like angels, not like men, well sons. You should also celebrate the feast waiting for Me; you should always, always have a feast at you, at My table with you, oh, sons, because I always want to be for you, and I always want to be with you, always. Amen, amen, amen.

07/20-04-2014.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the holy prudes

My resurrection is a day of feast of joy and this joy lasts for a long time with those who wait for it, with those who love My resurrection and theirs. Oh, the joy of the feast of My Resurrection from the dead does not last as it lasts with the world, as with the world it lasts only for a day or two, and the world makes use of the Feast of the Lord's Resurrection to eat and to drink and to commit sin every way possible, far from God and far from what life means. However, for those who love My Being, oh, this feast is a long joy, and then other days of feast are coming in connection with the day of My resurrection and with those that I have promised to those who followed Me then and after that, and then all the hosts of saints and angels have joy with those on earth, whom they accompany in feasts for their love of God and for those in heaven.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lord of Resurrection. By My own mouth I am proclaiming Myself and declaring the greeting of My resurrection: "Christ has risen!"

Before dawn I am coming as word into the book and with it I am meeting those who love My today's coming as word on earth and the people of My word, which meets Me when I speak My word to take it, to put it into the book and to share it after that, for many eat at My today's table into the midst of the Romanian people, at which I have stopped now, in the end of the time, to prepare My return on the earth again from the Father to Man, as it is written, for it is impossible for those that I spoke with My mouth and which were written into the Scriptures no to be fulfilled if I am the Truth.

Before dawn I start to prepare My table of word and I am coming out with it to meet those who are coming here at the spring, on the mound of My descending with the saints, and I do not have any place and dwelling dearer than here, where I can speak, work and share Myself, as there is no other joy for the man's Maker than that near man, near the work of His love, for I was seized with great love when I made man, and I am working now with it to wake him up to My love, to his Maker, as My waiting after man has been long, and love suffers in God; the longing suffers and the waiting suffers as well, and the man's mind and heart cannot comprehend this, and behold, I have come to cast fire on earth and to be kindled between Me and man, to get warmed up from one another and the heaven to be on earth with man, that is the Lord with His saints, and behold, a day of the feast of Resurrection is set, a table of word between Me and those who start going now to My mound here, and I am giving to them from heaven, from those that are and are not visible, from God's invisible things, as man has got used too much with those that are visible and he tends to forget, poor of them, that I am the God of the visible and the invisible things between earth and heaven.

Oh, I am sharing with you from those that are not visible and I am telling you that the man's coming to Me and following Me has got a great reward. I will dearly pay you for this love, for I long after love. I built man out of love; and I worked and I built him with joy, and the man's being is dear, oh, and how man wastes it on nothing, forgetting that he will be called to give an account to the One Who had built man!

I have prepared My army and the table from above of My Spirit and My saints, and We are sitting down with a holy feast here, where those who have found Me here are gathering at My spring of word. I am here now with great commotion from heaven. Oh, the commotion of those who are not visible of the invisible world is greater than that of the bodies of the visible world. The wind stirs the entire nature on earth when it blows passing by with its work. In the same way is with the wind, which moves the invisible world of the spirits and the world of the bodies redeemed for the Lord, the world on which the whole movement of the visible world and all its nature depends. The spirit of the hand, that little thread which moves the man's hand, shows that the hand also has a correspondent in the spirit. With what do the angels and the devils write the visible things heard from man? They write them with a pencil, and man can hardly believe and understand how this movement takes place, with the help of what it is written by those who are without a body, good or bad. It is like in the dream when man dreams that he is awake when he sleeps.

I am telling you these to perceive those that are not seen and their work, for they are with the saints in a feast here, in the garden, and We meet you when you come and We set you at the table and then We sit down with you, I and My mother Virgin, My prude male and female disciples, for whom We are celebrating now here, and We also have with Us those that went to sleep with hope; We have them here with Us and with you, and their joy is great and they stay in a feast of My resurrection even from the first day of Passover, when they share the Passover with you from the Lord's Passover, and they have remained, and they are here now and are sitting with Me at the table, for you have made their memorial, you who are serving Me here for I have set you as servants for the resurrection of the dead[233], well sons, and for the food from above of those who believe and often gather here near you and wait for the word of My mouth; they wait for the Lord when they come here at the spring.

Oh, what a great heavenly joy from you to Us, and how beautiful is here, at the meeting between you and Us! Oh, peace to you! "Christ has risen!" are telling you all those who are celebrated on this day, My male and female disciples from two thousand years ago! It is a day of love among those in heaven and among those on earth and it is as in heaven, not as on earth. Before dawn, I see the condition and I speak every moment once with it, as God's mystery is great; it is great and it is not understood by mind, but is perceived by faith instead, with the help of the angel of the man's heart, who watches and knows.

Before My entire word upon you I am exhorting you all on this day of My teaching on you, those gathered at My merciful voice, and I am telling you now: do not get intoxicated with wine, but with God's love sons. He who drinks wine among those who are called Christians does not have God's love. Not those who come into the house, oh, it is not those that drink wine, for if they were those who sin, making out of wine sin for them, oh, the wine would no longer be in their house. Those who make a sin out of wine are those who like drinking wine and are tempted by it, and they get intoxicated from it in their head and mind when they drink wine, and they look for wine openly and secretly, or with those who drink wherever they may drink.

Oh, Christian son, you should not drink wine with the devil, with whom you sneak at his exhortation, or with whom you appear to drink, but you should drink it with the Lord, as the new Passover, and let your heart rejoice in this way, with the new wine, with the Lord's Passover, for the Lord is the most expensive food and drink, the holiest, the most giving of life, health and joy to the overcast heart, as it is written.

Oh, take care sons, for the wine has destroyed My human kind which had been saved from the flood, as again it lead it to fall after Noah came out of the ship with his family and planted a vineyard and made wine and after that he had got drunk and then he cursed with his mouth, and his curse took effect. Wine gave birth to a nation from sexual immorality in the time of Lot, whom I saved from fire and I had to come down from heaven to save one, way or another, the one who came out of sin.

Oh, wine is strong; it becomes the strongest when man takes it and does with it that which is not from God for man to do with wine. Oh, sons, I am coming to give you teaching of love from God and longing, and you will have comfort, sons. Be careful so that you may not sin, for whoever does not have a wound after the Lord in his heart, than sin makes a wound in him, but this is the wound of death. Oh, behold how much watching one needs against this enemy: sin.

Oh, sons and daughters, who follow Me in your heart and with your longing, oh, how does it look like and how a Christian behaves, he who has a sore in him for the love of those from above and then guidance from above for the cleanness of life? The prudes of My resurrection, their love is speaking with you today. Oh, and their love has remained to be a memorial.

Oh, peace to you, great disciples with your love and step after the Lord! Peace to you into the midst of My today's people! May your speaking at the today's table be blessed! Amen.

— Oh, how shall we speak now? With You, Lord? With you, who are so dear to the Lord?

Oh, so much longing carried and carries us in Your footsteps, Lord! So much longing is prompting us now to follow Your footsteps at Your meetings with those on earth, who seek after You, oh, Lord!

Oh, seek the Lord, you, those who follow Him here with the longing in you! Seek after Him, and seek Him beyond those that are visible of His making. We sought Him with longing after we had found His Being among people, and we had nothing more dear to do then to follow Him, to serve Him, to want Him loving Him with longing and carrying Him in us with longing, and our thinking and longing were only about Him, and when He had to carry the cross and its humility, we were like the fire that cries burning and we went through His torments and sought Him in the grave, after we had seen, on the morning of His resurrection, the stone rolled away from the tomb, as big as it was, and the angel of His resurrection told us no longer to seek Him among the dead for He got up and was resurrected.

Oh, be only a wound after the Lord, and you will be happy to be so, and you will get away from all your weakness that leads you to sin, for you will love much and you will seek after the Lord and you will deeply understand what life is, and then you will get up from your dead works and you will work out miracles, because you will come to love both the righteous and the sinners, and you will love them for their salvation. Oh, when you love a being given from God, then you do not let the sin to come between you and the being you love, for by your sin you would do harm to her and that does no longer mean that you have loved her.

Oh, sons of the Lord's coming to you as word, oh sons from the spring, so many people who want to follow the Lord come and gather with you; they come with longing after the Lord and you, but you are so full of worries for the Lord's work with you. Oh, be blessed! May your whole hard work be turned to joy and comfort! We, the Lords male and female disciples, bless your patience and hard work. They are your love.

Oh, Lord, put upon them the grace of Your love by which You built the world, the visible and the invisible things of Your creation, oh, holy Bridegroom of those who love You, Lord! Protect them day and night under the shelter of Your mother Virgin! Put the Romanian people and land under her protecting hand and fill this land with the glory of Your saints, whom You strengthen at the borders round about, and may Your watching and serving little army always remind You of all these, for You are the One Who fulfills, Lord.

We are Your comfort in heaven, as we were for You on earth in our pains, and we loved You much, as much as Your pain was, Lord. We loved You passionately, Lord, for You gave us to bear this wound; You gave us Your love and Your mercy. Even if we had sins in our souls, we loved You Lord, with a wound in us after You; this is how we loved You, because this is what You wanted.

Oh, may the Lord's will be made in you and with you to give the Lord to everyone, you, those who receive the Lord! The Lord's Mother, the Virgin, is blessing you near us, and she is comforting your whole hard work brought as a sacrifice to the Lord. She is a prude together with us then and now, and she is the sweetest one, the cleanest then and now, and she is giving you all her being, and she is telling you this:

— Give the Lord to the world now! Bring the Lord on earth, for everything is possible for the one who believes in Him, as it was possible for Him to be born in My virginal womb, to grow and to carry the cross for the world and to become the beginning of the man's resurrection! Give to those who come to the spring; give them exhortation for holy power, for the Lord gives you, to those who give life and life of His life to those who seek after Him, here, at His table of word!

Oh, how beautiful, Son Lord, how beautiful is here; it is beautiful from heaven and from the earth! Let Your power come down and save all those who are coming and gathering here with longing at the spring! Oh, their steps are beautiful! Let us speak to them, Lord Son, about the spirit of the love from above, the spirit, which becomes comfort from them to us, dear Son.

Oh, peace to you, faithful servants in your ministry! Behold, the Lord is coming with His saints to you. Amen.

— I, the Lord, am looking at the joy of those from heaven now and I am looking at their confession too, a heavenly host at the table with Me and you. All of Us are embracing you from the sides and We are giving you the grace of God's love, for My mother Virgin wants Us to learn this from one another, and I will exhort you, those who have come together on a day of holy feast here, at the spring, and I will send you My exhortation as well.

Oh, if it were that I may be carried as much as I can, then I would speak much, much, with you, but I am full of mercy, even if I long. The prudes of My resurrection have told you about My love from above so that you may have it and to comfort with it those in heaven and My many wounds, and I, the Lord, am giving to you the whole word of love: «Love one another as I have loved you!» (John: 13/34) This is how I renewed upon My disciples the commandment of love and I exhorted them to keep away from hypocrisy, as it was the dough of the Pharisees, only theirs, for they were always rebuking Me as though I went wrong; either that I blasphemed, either that I did not keep the day of Sabbath, or that My disciples violated it as well, or that they were eating with their hands unwashed, and they did this because they did not have love, because of their lack of God and faithfulness.

Oh, take an example of faithfulness, of longing and of love; take from those who have, take and learn, sons, for a poet, sweet to Me, once wrote a parable and he said to those who do not love the Lord and he said this:

"Knowing that there have been some of the dogs that often died because of longing when they were unhappy after the loss of their master, and I often think about these dogs: what an example of deep love, as we have not proved it yet before our heavenly Master. However, what does a poor dog receive as daily food from its master? It receives a cold ball of polenta and rarely does it receive dried breadcrumbs; and on the other hand, what good choices and what comfort man has always received from God! And I am ashamed because of all dogs which have died as I said, and, I, being a man, have not been able to stand up to this high level yet."

Oh, sons, let us learn what love is; let us learn it from those who have love and faithfulness, without being received any reward for them. Oh, seek to have a great and beautiful soul, for the soul in man is from Me. I will feed you with My sweet advice. And now, I am staying here with My army in a heavenly feast with you and we take of its advice, and then may your way back be with dear blessing and heavenly companion, until we are to come and meet again and to give comfort to each other.

Oh, peace to you! Receive My peace! The rulers of the peoples do not want it and they do not want to learn from Me what peace is.

Peace to you, sons! I thank you; I thank you with all the heavenly hosts for your steps to My spring of word. Oh, learn what peace is, for I am giving it to you.

Behold, we are all in amazement, here under the white tent with you. Our comfort is great! Those in heaven long after their feast with those on earth who love the heaven, but here I work the wonder of wonders, oh, sons.

I lay My hand upon you. See, that it may be useful to you.

Now, those in heaven are embracing you. Be blessed! We are warming you up and we are comforting you. Peace to you, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

I am coming to you as word, My people of Romanians; I am coming and glorifying Myself into your mist, for it is written that «the Lord's glory reigns in Israel, in the faithful people, and His power, the clouds of the sky, and He Himself gives power and strength to His people».

I am coming and urge you to prayer, My people son, for My power has to work now, and you shall call for it; you shall call Me seven times a day to work with My power, for the man's power of disobedience goes up to God and calls His power to work against the power of the disobedient man, because man does not listen to God; but even more, he wants to do it by himself, he wants to rule by himself, and he applies himself to the work against God, as though man could also do what God does; however, all of this man's making is against God's creation and it stands as sin against man and it also incurs punishment, and this is how the wages for the man's disobedience comes on earth because God is the Creator of everything, and not man.

Oh, peace to you, well My people! I am staying into your midst with the saints, for when I come, I come with them, and on this day it is a feast at you, for it is the day of My memorial and of My work, the day when I spoke with the Samaritan woman at the well near Sychar. I have got into your midst a well built by My word and by My people from the spring, and near it I have to set grace and watch on the Samaritan woman, the one who sanctified herself for the Lord confessing Him, after I had met her at the well, then she knew that I was the Messiah and she went into her citadel and said to the people: «Come, see a Man Who has told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?» (John: 4/29)

Oh, sons, My work is to wake up the man from sin and to make peace between him and God, for sin separates man from God. I made peace between God and the Samaritan woman, whom I had met at Israel's well, and then she became a peace maker between God and the people in her citadel, for she went and confessed Me that I came on earth and that I spoke with her telling her to drink of My water.

«Blessed are peace makers!» (Matt: 5/9), as it is written. I will call them God's sons even for this, as I told those who were crushed, «Peace to you!» Only with sin man is not supposed to make peace, and after he has sinned, he has to pray to the Lord and within his crushed heart, and with much humility, he has to pray and say: "Lord, forgive here and in Your kingdom those who have committed sins because of me and suffered from them, for I repent and I am sorry for me and for the one who have sinned against You by my sin against me and against him; therefore heal and forgive." Amen.

First, I am speaking to you, My people, about My pain all over the earth and over My Romanian people, because I, the Lord, have the work of My word into its midst and I want to protect this land for Me. However, man invokes wrath upon him, and by so doing he gets much guilt, and the guilt draws the punishment, as behold, in churches and on the way everything is red, (Reference to the electoral campaign at the euro-parliamentary elections, made in the churches for the Social Democrat Party, former Communist, now in power, whose logo is red with three roses, r.n.) is the seal of the antichrist, the one who dishonors with his work the heaven, the earth and the man, for red is his sign; red everywhere, as is written about the one who was born red all over, about Edom, who works against faith, against God.

And I, the Lord, tell Romanian people to clean their houses and no longer dress their churches and houses in red, for by so doing he draws My wrath against the sign of the antichrist, the man of lawlessness, and against his servants, who ask for wrath on earth by their disobedience to God. Behold the proud in the Romanian people; they have filled the country with the cursed color, with red, and these are enemies, they are not sons, and they are those who want to cast the peace away, for their mind is only to themselves, only to get glory and riches for them after that. Oh, these are not the benefactors of the Romanian people, but they are those who want to afflict this country.

Let My word be heard in the church dwellings and let them take out their red garment from everywhere, for this sign draws wrath; it incurs curse and wherever red is found wrath comes too, and I, the Lord, have proclaimed this over the earth, and I am proclaiming it and say: Red is the color and the sign of the antichrist, the man of lawlessness, the man who dressed Me two thousand years ago in chlamys of shame, and not as the people say that red is a royal color. Yes, red is the color of kings, but it is the color of those on earth, who love empty glory, the temporariness, pride and the lack of humility, and white is the color of the Lord, the Man of sufferance, and the color of His saints in heaven and on earth. He who made the light is He. When He descends on earth His light and His word, it is blessing on earth, and when His wrath comes down, the earth becomes red, waters become red; and then ruination and sufferance come against those who do not listen to the Lord.

Oh, Romanian people, listen to My voice upon you! If you want blessing and protection from God, then do no longer try to adorn the earth with red, your church, your house and your body, for this sign draws the curse which whips everywhere, for evil draws evil, as it is written.

Oh, Romanian people, I have always told you: wake up! And I am also telling you today by the thread of this word springing of My mouth on your hearth: but wake up once, Romanian people! Behold, you have upset God and drawn wrath upon your land, and then waters have come out of their beds and spoiled your possessions and left you poor, and then waters from above joined those below and have afflicted you, and I, the Lord, want to protect your Romanian land and people, for the Romanian people has My blessing upon it and it is God's mystery, and that is why My mouth springs word over this land.

Oh, listen to God, Romanian people! Take an example from God's creation and see how it and everything that belongs to it listen to its Creator and to the laws set upon it. Look at the sky and the earth, which the Lord made by His word and He set the ages upon them and set them between eternity and the end of the ages, after them eternity is again. The Lord has made the heaven and the earth, and the earth is served by the whole creation, which revolves around for times, giving glory and praising its Lord, as the prophet David says by the Spirit: «Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord from heavens! Praise Him in the heights! Praise Him, all His angels! Praise Him, all His army! Praise Him, sun and moon! Praise Him, all you shining stars! Praise Him, you heavens of heavens, you waters that are above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the Lord, for He commanded, and they were created. He Who has also established them forever and ever. He has made a decree which will not pass away. Praise the Lord from the earth, you great sea creatures, and all depths! Lightning and hail, snow and clouds; stormy wind, fulfilling His word; mountains and all hills; fruit trees and all cedars; wild animals and all cattle; small creatures and flying birds; kings of the earth and all peoples; princes and all judges of the earth; both young men and maidens; old men and children; let them praise the name of the Lord, for His name alone is exalted. His glory is above the earth and the heavens. He has lifted up the horn of His people, the praise of all His saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near to Him». (Ps: 148/1-14) «For the Lord takes pleasure in His people. He crowns the humble with salvation. Let the saints rejoice in honor. Let them sing for joy on their beds. May the high praises of God be in their mouths, and a two-edged sword in their hand; to execute vengeance on the nations, and punishments on the peoples; to bind their kinds with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron; to execute on them the written judgment. All His saints have this honor. Praise the Lord! (Ps: 149/4-9) Amen.

Oh, take an example, Romanian sons, from all those that listen to the Lord and exalt Him, as it is written. The whole creation of the Lord serves the earth, for the Lord has set on earth the life of all the creatures made at His word, and then He set the life of the man God had built with His hand on the earth; not on the mood, not on the stars, not on other creatures set by the Lord in the vault of the sky, oh, no, Romanian people, and behold, the whole creation serves the earth and the man and all the creatures, all praise the Lord and ask Him to receive. Only man, only man does no longer love, only he does no longer serve the Lord, for he has exalted himself and serves sin, poor of him. The earth is made by the Lord and everything that revolves around serves it, but man does no longer want to serve; man does no longer want to be with God; he does no longer know how to serve God, even if he sees the whole creation serving to its Creator and listening to Him.

Oh, sons, faithful to the Lord in the Romanian people, you will see among you the big fall of the proud, who buy glory for themselves. You will see this, for justice does not save the proud from it, for woe to the one who relies on man, and more than this, woe to the one who relies on himself!

You, those who are the Lord's faithful ones in the Romanian people, get up, wake up and be one spirit with the people of My word into the midst of this nation, for I am establishing now those who receive My word to its sharing upon you; I am setting them to prayer with much perseverance seven times a day for the salvation of the Romanian people from its oppressors, who lay hold on the high seats to sit on them and to bring the Romanian people on its kneels. Oh, the heaven is sad, and the ghosts started to answer to the lawlessness of the proud and then to the carelessness, in which many from the Romanian people stay, to wake them up with a noise and to shake them so that they may wake up.

Oh, Romanian people, do not play with your destiny of today, of tomorrow and with the last one, after the Lord will reign all over! Oh, do not play, Romanian people! I, the Lord, exhort you to this. Throw away the red sign from your hearth, so that destruction may no longer come to you, and if you cannot believe what I am telling you, then listen to the word by which I am exhorting you now and you will see the truth of My word, and you will see the enemies inside and those outside falling with a great noise so that they may not harm you, so that they may not draw you to destruction when you do not watch. And if you do not listen, then I, the Lord, will work with My step and with the heavenly hosts of saints of this nation and I will cleanse from lie and from the man of lawlessness the hearth of the Romanian people, on which I want to prepare a time of heavenly feast, a time of a miracle, not heard by this time; and this is coming on the hearth of the Romanian people, because the Father has sent Me here to come, and I have set here the spring of My word, which is flowing now, in the end, over the earth for resurrection and for life, the spring of life upon people.

Moreover, to all the nations on the earth, I, the Lord, am telling them now: Peace to you! And I will work upon them after My word. Amen.

— Oh, make my entrance into the book, Lord. I have arrived early in the morning with the saints at the well under my protection and I want to leave a sweet word at the spring, to be shared as food and to grow from above over the people of Your word.

— Oh, peace to you, female disciple at that time, and then the martyr of the confession of your Lord and healer of temporariness of your entire people! May your speaking be blessed now into the midst of the people of My today's word in the Romanians! Amen.

— I am telling Lord, to those who receive and learn from You, I am telling them that not only by sufferance is man able to make atonement for his sins, but also by repentance, and through the spirit of confession as well, which gives to the confessor great powers, powers from heaven,

Lord. Oh, give them this high reward, Lord. They take Your word, they take the spirit of confession and share it all over the earth, and they spread Your voice all over. Soon, soon, all the nations will seek after this spring of word and they will drink with the spirit of comfort, for the pains upon him bring a desire for comfort to man.

Oh, You forgave all my sins at once, after I had taken confession out of Your mouth and I knew that You were God coming on earth, that You were the Messiah, because I said: «Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet». (John: 4/19) Then You descended upon me the spirit of the prophecy, and I went with it and I prophesied about You to the people from the citadel of Samaria and I confessed You as Messiah. The spirit of prophesy came down from You upon me, and it revealed to me that You are the Messiah coming from the Father on earth to us.

The spirit of prophecy is that which knows in man, Lord. Let it come down in abundance into the midst of the people of Your word and let many do as I did and let them preach You everywhere, Lord, for they are indebted to do this, all those who find You here, in Your word that flows from Your mouth here, and then it is shared over the earth.

Oh, sons of the people of today of the word from above, I have come to the well and I am speaking with you, and I have come with the saints to you. Behold what advice I am giving to you: when you go wrong, do not be upset, but get up and correct your little heart and the mistake in it after you have gone wrong. Oh, be as humble as I was, when the spirit of prophecy, by the Lord's mouth who appeared to me, showed me the sins I had done, and I recognized the Lord working upon me and coming from the Father with His work coming into the midst of the people in order to set in them the kingdom ruined by man in paradise, when Adam separated from the Lord by his sin. Oh, seek with your humility and with your light, be blessed and in this way you should get up from any mistake; in the same way you should get up to prayer with the Lord and with the saints for the greatness and for the protection of the earth and of the Romanian people, seven times a day, calling the Lord to clean the unbelief and drowsiness, in which people stay, and in this way drawing upon them the wrath and the fear, which are worked upon them by their sins. May the spirit of prophecy be your guidance, oh, beloved sons. Oh, love, love the Lord, Who loves you, little sons!

Oh, Lord, bring the Romanian people to Your bosom! Let those who go wrong humble themselves and let them repent by their coming to You, for Your forgiveness, Lord, and he who is strong in his faith and deed, let him work more and let him be careful not to fall down, for it is written for the man to watch.

Oh, Lord, glory to You and peace to You, Lord, from the midst of Your people from the Romanians! Amen.

— And then in the same way, I, the Lord, am saying now: peace to you, oh, peace to you, sons of God, sons from heaven and from earth! You are My peace, and you are happy and you will be happy, for: «Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God!», (Matt: 5/9) as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's Ascension

(Excerpt)

On a day of the feast of Ascension, I, the Lord, am setting My word over the earth. I am the One Who makes this word spring. I have been speaking with My own mouth for almost sixty years on the hearth of the Romanian people. I have made a path for it and with it, and I am setting now into the book of My word during these days, and My voice over the earth is a great miracle, and those on earth and those in heaven have part of this miracle, those who belong to the Lord, those who wait for the Lord and those whom He waits to be His people in heaven and on earth.

On a day of the feast of My ascension I am sitting down on your hearth, My today's country, Romanian people. I am the columnist of this word. I am writing My today's book into your midst and I am calling you My today's country, My people from the end of the time. How could I call you like that if it were not so? I have raised from you sons faithful to My coming to you, disciples confessing the coming of My today's word over the earth. Oh, how much I would like to be seized in your soul under the miracle of My word into your midst and that I may see you like this! However, I see you far from My voice that calls you on your name and tells about you to the peoples, oh, My country. Oh, do not wonder that I do not go with the word into the country of Israel of two thousand years ago. Do not wonder that I come as word to you and I do not go there, for there have remained My tracks and they are seen and testify against those who do not follow Me as I said, and now, My word, spoken on your hearth, Romanian people, is the voice which calls out to everyone; it calls out to the dead and the living, the Lord is calling out for man from this mountain of word.

I am the voice of the Father Sabaoth, My Father. My Father is sending Me as word on earth, and I am listening to Him, as two thousand years ago I listened to Him when He had sent Me after the man on earth. My Father sent Me on earth to be born and then to be seen and to help the man know God intimately, and the Father was in Me, as I was in Him, and I was One with the Father and with the Holy Spirit, in Whom I was, and I told My disciples on the day, when I ascended up in the sky from their presence after forty days since My Resurrection, I told them that the Holy Spirit would come upon them and they will receive power to preach Me and to be the witnesses of My coming from the Father on earth, witnesses in Jerusalem, in Judea, in Samaria and to the uttermost part of the world, to every creature, and after I had said this I ascended in the sky and went to be on the right hand of My Father, as My glory was from eternity. I told them about God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, in Whose name they were to proclaim Me and to confess to everyone, and then, going up under their very eyes, two men dressed in white garments could be seen, My witnesses on earth and in heaven, and speaking, these two said to them: «The Lord will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (See Acts: 1/11) And this day has remained written in the manuscripts and it completed the Gospel of My coming of two thousand years ago, with which they went from place to place and proclaimed it, as the witnesses of My today's word are proclaiming before people on earth the voice of the Holy Spirit, the Word of the Father, spoken by My mouth over those who are proclaiming Me that I am coming on earth, sent by the Father, and I have with Me the clouds of My ascending and descending as it is written.

My word is being written in its book on this table, it is being given as a gift and it is creation over man. I have no way of going for this creation to some other part on earth. I have set Myself here with My today's glory, with My last creation over everything, because here is the place where I have been staying from the beginning when God made the heaven, the earth and the man, when He took clay into His hand and made the man. Oh, the great time is coming to reveal this great mystery and all the nations to know the beginnings of the man's creation then and now. I started then and I am starting now again from the same place, too, and I have covered this mystery between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, but now I am working and writing My word here, and the man is asking himself and says: "Why here?" And If I am coming to reveal this mystery from here to the man and teaching him to come closer to My voice in order to listen to it and to follow My word so that he may be alive and so that man may go on the way with Me, for I am the Way, as I have said.

The Word of God at the feast of the Descending of the Holy Spirit

(Excerpt)

My people from My spring of word, you have prepared Me a feast. You have worked hard, little son, and again you have set the table for the armies from heaven. I have come! Here I am! I am opening My arms and both of My hands and raising them up and blessing the today's feast and the gathering with longing at the spring, and out of My mouth the river of life is running, the word of the Holy Spirit, in order to give you water, to those thirsty after Me, for you have found and known of My coming here, on My mound chosen from the creation of the world to be a stop-over for Me and for My saints now and that I may sit at the table with the man, with every man that hears of My coming as word on earth and of My place prepared, in which I am wringing My word and longing after man, much and great longing that stings and weeps, which calls out and yearns and waits after man.

26-05/08-06-2014.

The second day of Pentecost, the feast of the Holy Trinity and the feast of the birth of saint Virginia

And there was evening and there was morning, and again there was evening, and thus the first day of the week has got into My today's book, the day of Pentecost, the day of the feast of the Holy Spirit, and the first day of the week starts once with the sunset, once with the twilight on Saturday and it goes with its glory to the sunrise of the day of Monday.

Moreover, behold, the sun has comprised within its lightness the white tent, the garden of the meeting and the peace which is now with the Lord and with His saints over the garden, and it is crowning now the whole hard work, which has been done for the preparation of the celebration of the Holy Spirit, sons.

Oh, peace to you, well sons! I, the Lord, has been waiting for you to wake up and to receive Me, to open My book to be able to come and set within it as word, to replenish My descent into the book, as I said that I would comprise you again into the word and I will speak with My mouth after the day of the feast of the Holy Spirit, which is going now to its place in heaven. I am comforting now your little bodies, then your little hearts and their content, and your life with Me further, sons; then let all take of My mouth, all those who have walked in the way above and not below, to the place on the top of the hill, the mound on which I, the Lord, am stopping from My walking and setting the table of word on the earth. The white horse[234] and its rider, the mystery of My coming to you so that I may travel with you then, and from here I am going all over the earth, so that it might not get to the man's mind how it works My word, once it is spoken, because after it has been spoken, it works, it fulfills, it goes, it breaks the ground afresh and it makes room for the Lord, for His holy will and for His fulfilled Word.

The sun has comprised under it My place with you now, at dawn, and it fully enjoys by looking. Its gentleness has no limit, as from the creation of the world I set the sun and the moon in the sky, My day eye and My night eye over the earth, My window between Me and earth day and night, and these cover the glory from above of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and the Lord's place, whose window is seen day and night.

Oh, the sun and the moon had not been made yet, when I, the Lord, created the heaven and the earth. It is written that first God created the light. The light was made when the Lord spoke the word to be light, as there was darkness in the beginning over the deep, and God's Spirit was hovering over the surface of the waters. God worked the heaven and the earth in three days, and each day was one evening and one morning, and when the light appeared, God separated the light from the darkness, and this is what God created on the first day of the creation of the world, and only after this day waters were separated from waters and after that by His word, God created the heaven, the earth, the seas, the green pastures, the herbs yielding seed after their kind on earth, all these in three days, and on the fourth day God set the two lights in the expanse of the sky, the sun and the moon, and He called them the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. Then He also made the stars, as it is written about the creation of the heaven and the earth; and God made these on the fourth day of creation, and woe to the one who does not believe what God has left written on earth about the creation of the heaven and the earth!

And then, by His word, the Lord built all the creatures, took clay into His hands, and made man. He made him in his image and after His likeness. And thus, it was the fifth day and the sixth day, the day of the man's creation, the sweetest day for God, the Creator, and which the Lord has also been waiting for, because man has become corrupted and therefore, he needs be built again.

Oh, I would like to speak about the creation of the heaven and the earth, and I would speak with every man of science, with the one who was called by such a name, and I would tell him that he knows nothing, that it is in vain that he has got a scientific name, because the heaven and the earth belong to the Lord, as it is written, and only their Creator knows to speak about His creation, about all its movement, as the mind of the limited man has become totally confused, the one who talks tall when he is not big enough to do this, when he does not know God, the Creator. He who speaks about sun and about moon, about their movement or about their lack of movement, let that one asks himself if he recognizes God, and only after that let him speak about God's creation. It would be enough for such a man to open the book of creation, who wants to search the heaven and the earth, and it would be enough to read in it the first page of the book of creation, a page on which God writes His work of the creation of the heaven and the earth and of everything that serves this creation.

Oh, it was not the sun and the earth that were first made, but the light was first set by the Lord for the creation that was done after it, and then God made the heaven and the earth during the light, as one cannot see to work in the darkness. Behold, the light of the day does not come from the sun, but the sun comes from the light and it rises and shines and it warms up or even scorches the earth, and the man of science cannot be right, for behold, since these giants came out on to the earth to corrupt the man's mind, the man's faith in God had long gone out and his good conduct before the Creator of the heaven and the earth. The giants in the old time had a giant body and those from the end of the man have their own huge foolishness and they share it on the tray to the foolish ones, for those who are touched by God, do not stretch out their hand to take from this intoxicating mixture, for the man's haughtiness has got up to God with their searching and sight to be able to destroy Him, as man says.

Oh, how much I am going to bring the man of science to shame! Woe to them, woe to those who leave their body and come before God, the Creator, to give them their place, which they have earned on earth with their errancy from God's will! Woe to these proud ones who thrust their nose into someone's affairs, as it is not their business what they want to do and to share to the temptation of those who do not love God on earth with their lives.

This second day of the feast of Pentecost is a holy feast, and the holy fathers have written for this day the feast of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the feast of the One Who has made the heaven and the earth, for These three are only One God. Come, My Father, let Us come and set Ourselves into the book, Father, as this day is written for Us, and each saint speaks on his day of synod among saints. Amen.

— Oh, My dear Son, Our humility was great even before the creation of the world, and it is the same to Us now, in the end, as We are working again the beginning, because man pulled himself out of paradise at the first beginning and got corrupted; he separated from the Father, from the Son and from the Holy Spirit, and became corrupted, because he wanted to be a man of science, poor of him, and this is the mind of those who put to test God, the Creator, and they turn their back to Him and hide His word so that they may be those who speak about those that were made and are.

Oh, behold Your humility, but You are the Saint of the saints, and You do not speak only on Our day of synod among saints, but You have been speaking from the beginning to the end, and then again before the beginning, for it will be beautiful again for Us, those who suffer and humble as much as man makes Us humble, and We humble ourselves because of the love out of which We are built, for God is love, as it is written, and it is without beginning and without end, like God, in Whom love is built.

We are speaking with One another in heaven and on earth on this day, and the Holy Spirit and His work, which binds Us in a cluster of Trinity, becomes word from Us over the earth, My dear Son, and We have stayed filled with longing under the white tent with those gathered at the spring on the day which has passed once with the sun rising of this morning. The first day is the longest day of the week and it lasts from the Saturday sunset and to the sunrise of Monday, and every man should step aside with his business and leave to the Lord this day set by Him two thousand years of rest, a day of resurrection, a day of glory.

Oh, what a great mystery the three days of Your creation out of clay have, dear Son! When You were on the cross where You gave Your Spirit, You took a bit from the sixth day and then You took the whole seventh day and You rested under the earth on this day and after that You came back on the first day of the week, a working day, dear Son, and You got up to work before the break of Sunday, for You got up from the crucifixion death on the cross and We stood up, dear Son, to the work of the resurrection, to the work for man, and You spoke like Father saying: «My Father is still working, so I am working, too». (John: 5/17) And then We worked out the day of salvation of the man lost from heaven, lost from Us, the day of resurrection, the earnest paid for the man's resurrection, My dear Son.

Oh, who has truly got the courage to question the mystery of the creation of the heaven and the earth and their work and then the mystery of the new man and his work? Only a fool has the courage to question and speak before God, the Creator, the man sound in his mind does not dare do this, and he remains calm and looks at the Lord and he humbles himself silently, as it was not given to man the wisdom for the revelation of the Lord's mysteries, for You said to Your disciples, who, poor of them, were trying to ask You about the kingdom of Israel, and You told them: «It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority. Nevertheless, you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth». (Acts: 1/7, 8) And then You hid Yourself, as a cloud received You out of their sight and it took You up from the earth, and while they were looking steadfastly into the sky as You went away, two witnesses stood by them, Moses and Elijah, the heavenly messengers who spoke to them about Your coming back again on the earth, under the mystery of the cloud which covered You from their eyes to come near to Me, to come on My right side, at Your place near Me, My Son, heir on the earth, for You had overcome and gave Yourself to Me, resurrected from the earth, to bear the mystery of the creation of man built by God out of clay and Spirit in the beginning, for You are born of the Father without beginning and You are without beginning, and You are born of a Virgin mother two thousand years ago, then You came alive from the earth, oh, dear Son, and You will return on the earth as it is written.

Oh, with whom shall I, the Father, speak all these things if not with You, as at the first beginning, when the heaven and the earth were not made yet, but only We were, We, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and We were One God even from eternity, for otherwise nothing would have been built then of those built by the word.

It is Our day of synod among saints and all the armies of saints are looking at us; they are looking at Our humility and they stand in awe in their spirit before God's humiliation and they are praising this glory, which is born of humility and it is. Behold, every man has somewhere to learn from, only that he may want to look at God, for We stand, We are and We speak under this word, and man can hear Us if he opens and if he has ears to hear.

This book will get into the houses of those who were with Us here on the day that has passed to its place in heaven, the place of all the witnesses, and those who will take this word will be comforted and will startled before the mouth of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the Spirit Who walks in the wind and brings the word; He brings the Lord's voice over the earth. The Spirit has to speak over the houses, over the churches, as it is written, for the churches to hear what the Spirit speaks; however, who is mercy enough to open to the Lord, before Whom the kingdoms shake, and the thrones of those who like to reign?

And now, You are My word, You are My rest, and I am Yours, for in man We could not find rest after Our labor, but this joy will come; it will come and We will be again as at the first creation of the world, and it will be great joy when man will come back and he will be as he was meant to be, as he was built to be, to be God's rest, My Son, within Whom I, the Father, work and rest perfectly, and I rest while working. Amen.

— Oh, how beautiful, My Father, how beautiful is the Son in the Father! How beautiful is the Father in the Son, how beautiful! Oh, how much delight of the Holy Spirit in the Father and in the Son, between Father and Son! Oh, how beautiful! Only those in heaven can be fully satisfied with this holy beauty, and man should only humble, believe and love as the Lord has advised him for love. Let man see how great God is in His humility, from which man is supposed to learn, because the Lord is great by His Trinity and man cannot understand the weakness from his own being, which does not have in it fully the light and the rest of the Trinity of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Woe to the man's trinity, woe! What does it come out of it? It comes out the sin, which fills the earth everywhere. Man does not look holily to one another; he does not work holily with one another, and woe to the man's trinity, woe! I speak and tell about this pain of the Lord, with the hope that this will make man see his weakness and the spirit of the devil, which enslaves the man to sin. It is a day of feast of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, but this pain from man to God, the Creator, is part of God and God is love and pain, His love is His pain, and His pain is His love. Oh, if only the man understood how much resurrection his pain would work for him, how much cleanness, how much washing of sin, how much holy preparation!

Man, do not forget how much sufferance you do to God. Have love, too; have love, because the Lord has much pain from your life far from God, far away, man, who wander away from your Father, Who waits for your return and for your humility from it, because only it can make you turn back. Oh, do no longer seek after joy, do no longer laugh, man! Try to see how sweet, how comforting is the tear of humility, when the Lord can penetrate you with His light and make in you the new heaven and the new earth, to make them in the light, and then the Lord to set on your sky the sun and the moon, and they to do their work, shining through it.

Oh, the comfort of the day of Pentecost has been sweet in My garden with you and with all those gathered under My word, sons. We have given great joy to the spirits of nature so that they may come out and rejoice once with Us and with you in the air here. Their voice and their sweet noise have been like a sweet and holy song, the same when you use your voice for singing, for storm, for everything of the nature and creation when you bring before Me and before My heaven of saints and angels and before the brothers and sisters of faith, who come here with longing, at the heavenly meeting, and when you set holy parables, parables of exhortation and sight with exhortation of the truth of good and evil, for this is how I worked when I was on earth, and I left My written work as much as the man's pen can comprise it, so that his comprehension may see and confess.

I have stayed with the Father in the word on this day after the feast, sons. I have cried with the Father as God cries. When I cry on earth in the word with you, the Father cries at the same time as well, and We are One here above and down on earth. And We have taken with Us My trumpet, the trumpet that I had been sounding on earth for twenty-five years by this word at My beginning with My Virginia, with My trumpet, well sons, starting with 1955 on the hearth of the Romanian people with the word of My coming of nowadays, in the end of the time. I have taken her because there is a feast in heaven and at you for the day from heaven of her birth on earth. In that year, on 27th May she had her day of birth, and she also has her feast among the saints. Oh, We have taken her with Us and come to you so that she may comfort the little and painful heart between you, whose wound does not catch any crust, oh sons, for this is the true love, that which never dies, as it is written.

Catch voice, Virginia, and put your comfort over the little heart, not known around it with its sigh, the little heart which guided you on hands to Me when you came home in heaven, in the house of My saints, as I came home to the Father and to the saints after I had finished My work for which I came on earth two thousand years ago. We are standing and listening to your speaking, Virginia. Amen.

— First listen to my prayer, Good Lord. The pain of love is sweet, but the tears have to be comforted, Lord. Put Your comfort on each hidden tear; put it and bind the wound with it, as there is no other bound for this open wound. We need power for You in this little heart with an open wound in it now, and it does not have to feel the separation in it, and it does not have to feel alone. There is a feeling of loneliness in it because of the wound that has remained. Let our comfort, always brought to it, be like a crust for wound, good Lord.

Oh, my dear child, I am speaking now to you from near the Lord on a day of the feast of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, a day, which is also my day of birth in this year. You two were the children of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and the Lord made with you His new beginning of new people. The wound that you have now is heavenly and is divided in two. One in the thought of the other always, this is how you are working now, from above and from below at the same time for God's field and over His courtyard of sons, the fruit of the Lords' work with you after my departure to be at home with the Lord. The departure is and is not. You are in his mind in heaven, and he is in your mind on earth, and in this way you are working now. He has got a great wound for you, and you have a great wound for him from this departure, which was done for the work of the Lord from above and from below at once.

However, you mourn with an unknown mourning by those around you as children of the Lord. You do not dare cause any pain to someone with your wound, as you know what pain is, and you have always known and loved; by sufferance you have loved like the Lord, for you are without any comfort like the Lord, but those who are wounded get comforted from the wound, they get comforted with their thought at those who suffer like them. Oh, you have remained with tears on earth, but you look for courage so that you may not cause any pain in heaven to the one who is yours now with the Lord, so that he may not suffer from your pain from the love in you. He cries in heaven, you cry on earth, and you two have the same thought, that is the Lord to come on earth as soon as possible, and, again, thinking of the Lord's field; you two have the same longing, that is the Lord to come on earth, in His coming with the cloud. You, up in heaven, and he down on earth, one sighing in another, you are not separated in heaven and on earth.

Oh, this is the truth about you now, but your work with the Lord had to be done from the heaven as well, and I am coming to comfort you if you allow to be comforted. Oh, how much you struggle not to trouble your little heart lest you may cause pain in heaven to the little soul in which you cry, so that it may not see you suffering, but that it may see that you manage and you can endure with power what you have to endure from the Lord, because his love for the Lord took great care on earth for you to be able to work what the Lord had to do and to give to be endured. Oh, put me on the wound, as for you I am speaking on my day of feast, and let the Lord's people receive my speaking of today and let it learn the love from heaven, which does not separate those who love themselves in God, but rather it grows much bigger when separation comes.

I have a request. Put away the thought of loneliness and your pain will be gentler in you. Those in heaven bring great help to their loved ones from the earth. Think only about the Lord, Who takes care of all His people, and let your sighing give birth to big fruit for the Lord, for the Lord's homeland, for those from heaven on earth, and if the work is with sighing, then the fruit of joy and the unity come after that, for the Lord is coming soon, soon, with everything He has in heaven, and do not forget what He had said: «Behold, I come quickly!» (Apoc: 22/7)

Oh, people of the Lord, the wounded heart is beautiful. Learn what love is, son, for you have from where to learn. It is taught from pain. Be open to be able to learn, for you have to be the heavenly fruit of those who picked you flower by flower to make to the Lord a holy garden with a very sweet fragrance for Him. Amen.

Lord, I am giving to You, and I sit down so that You may fulfill Your word, the word that comforts Your beloved ones. Amen.

— Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) I have kept silent before the sufferance of this painful little heart, within which you have spoken today for the pain in it. I cannot stir its wound, because I have to work what always has to be worked, and My great work replaces the pain, it helps the one who suffers and it holds his hand through sufferance, Verginica. You are a mother in heaven, as much as you were on earth for My beloved children, and I thank you for the comfort put on the wound that is crying on earth as in heaven now, as you have spoken and made clear by your speaking.

Sons, I have spoken with the Father, and the Father has spoken with Me and We have glorified the feast for Us. The word of God between Father and Son is the word of the creation of the wisdom in man. Let those who are full of the longing for My place with you here take it and let them not stay separated with their heart from Us and from you so that they may be able to stand, oh, sons.

I, the Lord, am sealing with My name the word that has come out from My mouth. Jesus Christ is this word, as My name of today is called the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13) Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Pentecost, of all the saints, the remembrance of the Sunday of the birth of the saint Virginia, and the feast of the great saint martyr new John from Suceava

I descend into the book as word, and with it I shepherd My people; I shepherd those who have given themselves to God freely so that they may no longer be of the world, but from God; to take from Him and to have and to share God, and to those in heaven to give to sit with them at the table and to give them love, for the whole heaven of saints, all those that are heavenly now, have to give and to take love, for the love in the people bind the heaven and the earth in a holy feast, as for this fulfillment on earth faith and longing is needed as well, because as the flower with its sweet aroma is seen, and as its fragrance is not seen but only its fragrance is smelled, the same is with the saints of the heaven: they are not seen, but those who are faithful feel their presence, their movement and work, by feeling themselves heart to heart, both from the earth and from heaven at the same time.

And behold, after the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit adorned the day of the feast of the Pentecost with the joy of the Holy Spirit, I, the Lord, am coming with the day of the feast of the heaven of saints. I am coming with the saints to give them the fulfillment of their joys with the Lord, because great merits have those who love the Lord on earth and join with Him in heaven after that in the homeland of the saints, in those that are not seen of God's creation, and the homeland of the saints is great and the Lord is their comfort; a homeland desired by them even from the earth, oh, and man does not know these great mysteries, which are more real than everything is seen among those that are made to be seen, and now I am revealing to you another great mystery, well My people, and your zeal is growing much, like every moment duty between you and Me, for the one who chooses Me as his life and living together then, such a man has to resemble Me; he needs to take after Me and this is not supposed to be little.

I told you sons, even two thousand years ago, I spoke about the mystery between Me and the Father and I said: «I am in the Father, and the Father in Me», (John: 14/11), and I said that he who has seen Me has seen the Father. This is the mystery of the one who is in God and with God truly, in such a way that if one like this looks into the mirror he has to see the Lord and not himself; he should not see himself as man sees himself in the mirror, and only in this way man might come to know his divinity, because in order to make man divine, I have come on earth now with this work, and I do this more than I did by this time, that is to work divinity upon man, not man to work for his divinity.

Oh, it is a great mystery; it is a great mystery that I, the Lord, I am one with man, and man is one with Me. This means that man has to give himself totally to Me in this special time, when I come again on earth as word to build man by the word, and he has to let himself be worked by God, and when he looks into the mirror to see the Lord; the man who loves God does not see himself.

I have spoken with the sons of My today's people: "Live the life of a monk, sons!" In this way man can be a son of this people worked by My word on earth now, in the end of the time, when I am coming and speaking over the earth, to make My way and its greatness, to prepare a place for Me, so that where I am Mine to be too, as it is written, and in the place that I have prepared, those who are Mine in heaven are as well, for in Me and with Me are and stay those who are Mine, allowing themselves to be made in My image and after My likeness, for I have power to make man divine.

You, sons, take great care to do task of those who live a monachal life taking it from the world and bringing it to Me to make it divine, but especially seek to deny yourselves always, always, because you do not know when the Lord wants to make you His help in this time of new making, working among you or taking from the middle and sharing to the sides for the Lord to share with His making.

Man is enslaved by sin even from the beginning, when he did no longer want to be with God, but he wanted to be with his own self, poor of him, and behold how dangerous is the lack of self-denial for those who come on the way with the Lord! Man looks at himself into the mirror and sees himself if he does not give himself over to the Lord completely; moreover, he even separates himself from the Lord when he looks and sees himself into the mirror. Behold, he struggles hard; man struggles and works hard to be big on earth among people and to do great things, as he thinks about them. Well, let man fight to become someone big and with his life divine so that when he looks into the mirror to see the Lord and no longer to see himself, and then man is made divine.

Oh, do not lose heart, man! Do not say that this is not possible. It is possible that you do no longer look at yourself so much, and to look more at Me, at Your Lord, Who teaches you to be eternal like Him. Man will say that he cannot see the Lord if he looks into the mirror. Oh, at least, do not seek to look at yourself anymore if you know that you are not going to listen to the Lord, if the Lord cannot do His work in you as in the vessels useful for Him. You go and buy a vessel to prepare in it what you need. Oh, in the same way I need a vessel to prepare in it those that man, who is hungry for life, needs. This is how I, the Lord, have had Virginia, (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) as My vessel on earth now, in the end of the time, and her work with Me is seen in the sons; it is seen as in a mirror. Man does not have to look into the mirror to see the Lord, but he has to see the Lord's work in his work. Man has to be in My image and after My likeness before Me and before the people, and this means man's self-denial, God in man doing His work.

It was the Sunday of all saints on the day when you were born among people on earth, My Virginia, My last trumpet. I had been sounding from you over the people for twenty-five years, My Virginia. This people had heard and seen My speaking inside of you, your vessel made divine by God. Oh, how many of those who looked at you saw the Lord in you working at sight? Only those who are good and faithful had been seized by this holy view before their eyes, and you stood still into the hand of your Maker and you were a useful vessel to the Lord, you were My trumpet, My Virginia.

— Oh, Lord, and You sounded Your trumpet over the earth and many gathered to listen to it. Lord, You were sounding Your trumpet long and You were calling to You those who heard the word, but if they heard and were coming and seeing the Lord in me and did not deny themselves, those who came to see and hear, oh, those who came did not want to be with God. Oh, let that no longer happen again with those who are coming now to You and to Your spring of word and to Your people that share You with them, merciful Shepherd, with sweet pasture for those who have ears to hear and eyes to see and mind to understand Your today's mystery, Your coming as word on earth, Good Lord!

Help all those who are drawn to You to become divine, Lord! Let them, not only what they like, seek and fulfill You in them and with them, but let all Your word receive life in them. Let them listen, Lord, for those who do not listen become friends with the devil of witchcraft and magic, as it is written, and even if they do not understand that they do this, they see after that the fruit of their disobedience and they see that they have not overcome themselves and that they have been overcome again.

You have often told the Christians to live the life of a monk, and You have told them this every way possible, and we need to teach this again and again, and to show it to them with the forefinger, for those who come at Your table, at Your work with them, have to be more than that. Let no one want less from among those who come and are Yours, and let each one of them understand how much power a man has, the man in whom the Lord is able to live with the fullness of His works, and then he has to let himself be overcome, to be built according to Your will, Lord, for when a man is born, he is born by a whole birth, and then he is.

Oh, sons of the Lord Word, I am sounding the trumpet upon you. Let each one of you come to the voice of the Lord's trumpet. Get totally used with the monachal life and get yourself within it, for this has been the Lord's purpose with this people now, in the end of the time. There were some of those who stayed with the Lord for twenty years and did not love the monachal life, and then they said to themselves that they were not made for something like that, and then they left the Lord and went back into the world. Because of what they said against the life required by the Lord, because of this, they were pulled out by the whirl of the world that had blown against them and pulled them out, where they do their will.

Oh, the words, which are against the word of God, are not good. He who does this stands against God, and the Lord stands against those who are proud with respect to the Lord, as it is written. Oh, learn at time and then work much, sons, to see the Lord when you look at yourselves. This is the mystery of this people now, in the end of the time. Let those, who come here, at the spring for water, let them see the Lord, and those who do not seek and do not love the Lord, they do not know to come when they come.

Oh, sons, man is addicted to sin, and God's son is ruled by God, and he has the duty to make man divine around himself. This is what I, the Lord's trumpet, am giving you on my day of feast among saints, and the saints keep looking at you, at the people that have sprung on earth by those who have lived with God after my departure near the Lord. It is the day of the Sunday of all saints, and even from my birth all the saints have protected me, those who saw then the Lord putting over me the gifts that I had, to His glory from above on earth, and the saints on their day of feast are saying:

— Glory to You, Lord, because You started to reign, that You have taken sons from among people and made them Your servants, Your kingdom[235] upon them and with them! Glory to You in Your trumpet, which we are celebrating today, celebrating it with all the hosts of the saints, and giving You all the glory, oh, Lord! Amen.

— On this praised Sunday, Lord, I also have my feast among Your martyr saints. I stand witness in the town of Suceava that I was Your son on earth, resting now on the hearth of the Romanian people, and the fathers of the church called me the new John from Suceava, on whom You portrayed, before the unbelieving eyes, Your glory from above with Your saints, for You sent visible angels over my body in sufferance then and You praised my love for You and Your truth in the faithful ones. With joy I am leaping on this day of the feast of all Your saints too, and I have also wanted to leave word for Your glory of today and to give Your people the holy exhortation before You and before Your word upon it so that all the sons of this people to do the same, to fulfill Your word in them, for You bring nothing upon them but only what they can fulfill on Your praised way with them now. Amen.

— I, the Lord, have as testimony this people that received Me by its faith. I am standing into its midst as among the saints and I am speaking My word, which is flowing from here over the earth.

I am teaching you the prayer of the love of God, well My people. You should speak to Me again and again and say: Create in me a clean heart, o God. Renew a right spirit within me, obedience, patience, gentleness, to love You with all my soul and mind, and if I have gone wrong, forgive me and give me light, seeing the weakness of my soul, and give me Your grace to set always, always a good beginning. Amen.

Oh, do not forget then what you have prayed Me for, and do, sons, do what you said that you want to be with My help, so that I, the Lord, may also do what you have asked Me to do. May your love for Me be your wound; may it be with you always like a burning wound, well sons. Seek after anything that moves your soul to heavenly feelings with you, as this keeps Me with you. Do not take from anywhere but from Me, for I am the First in everything and in all things, and I am not anywhere more whole with My work, with My dwelling and with My speaking as here, with you. I give everywhere to the sides, as man can receive, but with you I come wholly, for I want to make Myself visible as soon as possible, so that people may look at you and see Me, not you, so that you may be I, sons, as here only I work, only I and not man, and that is why I can come as I am, because first I put the gift of faith in you, and then I have to do My work.

Oh, sons, My trumpet calls you to be comforters for the wound, not to pass by the wound, but to blow over its bitterness and to call the powers from above for the wound, for I am wounded too, and the saints comfort Me, sons, and My saints accompany Me above and below, and I am never alone anywhere, but I go with an army and I spend.

Woe to the one who is alone! Keep away from isolation, sons! Seek to take after the Lord for this obedience! You should work according to My image and after My likeness, and if it is hard for you to do this, then work at love, for the love for your obedience is not perfected, oh, sons.

Oh, do not take after the weak ones in their love for obedience, well sons! Seek after your instruction, if you are not perfected in obedience, for I watch much, much, and I tell you about the heart in you and the work over the hearts, and I protect you from satan, who, in his desperation, wants to make place in you with him; however, you should be the sons of the holy watch, for the war is holy, oh, sons, and I am the first One in the battle for those who listen to Me, for I have to establish on earth the throne of the kingdom of the heavens and to cast into the fire the seats of men who do not seek the Lord's will upon them.

I leave My great peace upon you. Peace to you, well sons! With you, I find Myself peace and quietness as well. With Me you should also keep your peace, for evil will pass like an opinion, but My kingdom for My loved ones will last forever, like God, and we will be comforted within it, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the holy twelve apostles

(Excerpt)

However, now speak you, oh, My beloved disciples. I am with you in all your places and days to the end of the time, as I had told you, and We are at the table of word, here, on the hill of the Lord's glory in the midst of the Romanian people, and through which the river of My word passes and is shared over the earth. The seat of the judgment of the creature is My today's coming over the earth, and the word coming out of the seat is carried from margins to margins and is working with the Holy Spirit and with fire, as it is written about the God Word, Who has the shovel in His hand and is cleansing His threshing floor to gather the wheat into His barn, and the chaff to give to its destiny to burn in the fire.

30-06/13-07-2014.

The twenty-three-year feast of the laying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I am proclaiming Myself with the heaven and its kingdom on earth, with Me on earth speaking among the saints, as two thousand years ago when I chose My disciples from among the people and then I sent them to preach everywhere that the kingdom of the heavens had come near, that the Lord had come on earth to put His kingdom in men and among men.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ in the word over the earth on the hearth of the Romanian people. I put faith in people, I prepared My place and I came down on earth sixty years ago; then I wrote among people the word of My mouth and around Me gathered a people that believed in My coming to speak to the people; moreover, I went with My word through bad times (The time of the dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.) from place to place and with the dwelling place where I stayed and which carried Me through all kinds of pains to reach the time before twenty-three years, when I announced the foundation of a little garden where I was to find a stopover for the word of My mouth, to send the book of My word on earth from here and to proclaim again, as two thousand years ago, to proclaim the kingdom of the heavens coming down among people, for in the Scriptures it is written a prophecy that says: «And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and He will dwell with them. They will be His people, and God Himself will be with them and be their God» (Apoc: 21/3) …«I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life». (Apoc: 21/6) Amen.

Oh, when satan's work is fiercer than anytime, then it is not possible for Me not to come, that I, the Lord, not be on earth to do My work against him! And behold, I am sitting on the throne of cherubim and speaking over the earth the word of My coming, and I have a little garden for the throne of My word; I have a place prepared for Me so that the word of My mouth may be set into its book, My coming from the Father as word over the earth, My calling after man, (Mat: 25/6) My work from the end of the time so that with it I may overcome satan and then the heaven and the earth to sing for Me the song of victory, the song of those redeemed by My blood, as it is written.

Twenty-three years ago, with witnesses and in secret, I laid the foundation stone of My church in the end of the time, the symbol of the heavenly image of the Holy Citadel of the New Jerusalem, which, I, the Lord, am laying down little by little on earth, for it is written My word: «I am making everything new». (Apoc: 21/5) A watchful place, a watchful citadel, where those from heaven stay and watch over the country of My nowadays choice; this kind of work I, the Lord, have on the hearth of the Romanian people, and this is how I watch over the country of Romanians and I speak over them My word from the end of the time.

Oh, the sun is rising over you, Romanian sons! The Bridegroom is coming! (Mat: 25/6) Seven times more I am coming and working now over the earth. All My seven trumpets[236] are sounding My coming, and I am coming, as they are sounding for Me to come, and you shall rejoice believing, oh, Romanian people, for woe to those who are not faithful, for the reward of those who are not faithful is the mourning and gnashing of teeth, as it is written, and I will wipe out the tear of those who are faithful, for this is written. Amen.

Now, concerning you, sons of the people of My word, I am turning back with you for the memorial of the day of twenty-three years ago, when by My word and with My faithful witnesses from heaven and earth, I laid the foundation stone of the Holy of My Holies to its place, in the little garden where I, the Lord, have the voice of My word come down as on the mountain, when I gave to Moses the commandments of the eternal life so that he might give them further to the people of Israel and Israel to do God's will on earth, My fulfilled word. Oh, this is how I am staying and speaking on this mysterious mountain, and from where I am sharing Myself then over the earth with the word of life, with the exhortation of the life from heaven so that people may take and love My instruction to their life.

I am comforting that day of mystery; I am comforting its spirit and I have it as My testimony among all the witnesses that speak about their work. I am also comforting My painful Spirit; I am comforting It with those that I have had near Me since then and up to this day, and I am putting this day face to face with itself. Oh, what a time of pressure was there! Immediately the rulers of the earth stood up to require an answer from My witnesses in order to bring them under their submission, but they were under My mystery and I protected them and I also protected My work and the little garden of My word, where I have sat My throne from which the word of My mouth springs, which passes through the little garden and flows over the earth, over the nations on the earth so that they may take from My glory; to take from the law of holiness anyone who wants, for it is written: «To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life». (Apoc: 21/6) On that day, I, the Lord, brought under heavenly protection, under heavenly shelter this little garden to protect it from the walking of the sinful world, for I am the One Who stays in it and speak in it over the earth and I protect it by My word set upon it for her protection.

[236] See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets", r.n.

I, the Lord, as every year on this day of memorial of its testimony, am declaring the blessing over the head of My bishop Irineu, whom I had on that day at My sweet bosom after sons and I anointed him to empower with the power of word the boundaries of My little garden that I have chosen for the end of the time and all My mystery in it and to sanctify the beginning of the building of the shrine, of the little white stone and of all its written mystery in the Scriptures for the end of the time; work full of humility and mystery, as this is God within His work in all the times under the heaven. Therefore, I am blessing the spirit and the body of My bishop as the witness of the building of My church in the end of the time, of the New Jerusalem, the mysterious symbol of the invisible things of the holy citadel, the citadel of the New Jerusalem, which will remain afterwards with the entire mystery between heaven and earth and with all its heirs, with those who will have loved the Lord with their love. I am blessing the word and the power of the word of My witnessing bishop, and let his steps walk, ascend and be able to overcome for Me and for the salvation of many, for My kingdom is not of this world and has nothing in it but only in the heavenly things, and it has its dwelling only within those that are heavenly on earth.

I am declaring My word over My bishop and I am telling him: Oh, you shall not cry because of the chains you are bound in! The unfaithful did not want to let you stay near Me with faith, those who wanted to be the rulers, and they stuck to their greatness more than to God and to His word, which comes on earth to give birth to the world again, as it is written. Oh, pray with fire and tears and ask from God to take away the unbelief from the earth, for the faith denial is much and great, sin that is done by mixture and especially by separation from God as long as men do not understand the heaviness of this sin. Oh, the sin of the faith denial is done in many ways, but the most difficult way it presses on Me when it is committed by those who have taken on the robe and the name of the servants of justice and clean faith, and this pain makes God suffer very much. I am calling them to My table of word, I am sending My speech to all of them, but they do not have power for humility; they do not have it, and I am humbled by them on earth, as because of their haughty ruling position over the world, they humiliate Me, and they keep Me away from them and from those that they rule over. Oh, pray hard for their reconciliation with Me, as I do not want them to remain separated from My mercy, which is coming down from heaven now, and by which, I, the Lord, want to clean their sins by the world and after that to help them to be able to love, to love holiness, without which no one can see the Lord, and no one has the Lord. Oh, do not forget your tears. Bring Me your tears and bring them to Me always. Bring Me a broken heart for God's well being with the people on earth, to work at your prayer full of patience and love, oh, son, so that the joy for those in heaven to be able to come, the joy which waits. Amen.

And as for you, My today's people, that I have earned by My work upon you, stay under My power, stay under the power of My word upon you, because if you come out of it, then you perish, son. On this day of My feast with you for the Holy of My Holies from you, I, the Lord, am teaching you so that many may have where to receive knowledge and instruction from for a pleasant life to Me, and I am saying to you this: Oh, let no one of you who wants or seeks to hear, or someone who expects to hear good things about them from those around and thus to rejoice over such love coming from those around him, but rather let each one of you seek all the time that the watch and oppression over your evil things to come towards him, for the evil things are those that have to be healed, well sons, because the evil things are many upon people and they are and have been seen all the time, since they come into view from each one in a way unexpected by man, oh, and only in this way, well sons, you will truly be seen by those above and below as God's sons, who know according to the truth to let your salvation be protected, to desire it with its work upon you and to love one another with zeal against the evil in you and in your brothers, for the evil comes out very much, evil against everything that is good, which would be for you to have in you, and on which you do not have to take care and rejoice, but rather you have to humble yourselves all the time for your evil things; moreover, welcome one another, well sons, as only if you have love for one another, only in this way you will be able to love one another all the time, because those who did not receive Me, did not love Me either. Oh, I would like to bring near you My glory which is not to be approached, and I would reveal Myself near you, but every moment when I was coming closer to them, My disciples fell face down on Mount Tabor.

Oh, love one another as I have loved you, sons!

On this day of testimony I have with Me in the little garden of My descent from heaven the holy hosts of saints with whom I have come, and I also have My trumpet with Me, Virginia, (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) whom I have as the foundation of My work of New Jerusalem on earth now. She had her work in the days that almost passed before this feast, for she met the witness on earth coming from her native village, and she brought him before Me and presented him, and then she asked for a place for him and for My mercy, and I, the Lord, took this into account and granted her request, and she worked. Now, I have her here, near Me, and she is bringing a thanksgiving prayer and supplication so that I may take care of her people and of the entire Romanian country, and for its entire protection from the enemies inside, and she is praying to Me for the Romanian people's faith in My word and for My fulfillment upon it, sons, because now is a time of hard trial for the Romanian people, because the ruling time of the one who is helmsman now over it is coming near and it is commotion in heaven for the good and further helm on this nation.

Now, peace from heaven over the little garden of My word, whose wound I always bind and dry up its crust. I have watching guardians in heaven and I have heavenly armies upon it, and I am comforting the wound of their spirit.

Oh, peace to you, My little garden of word! The glory from above is coming, and it is coming visibly soon, soon, and it will reveal[237] its mystery, My mystery upon you. Amen.

Peace, wisdom from above, and a spirit of obedience over the people of My word, whose faith, life and wisdom I always feed, for woe to those who get lost from My fold!

Oh, My people, learn, always learn, learn the work of faith, because faith has much work not to disappear from man. Oh, My people, always speak with your little mouth upon you the commandment of life, to keep yourself within it and within its work, and speak with your little mouth day and night its work, which I have given to you to fulfill: to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind, and to love your neighbor as yourself, loving the Lord for you and for your neighbor, and then you will be My comfort and the comfort of all nature, for all and everything waits for this: the revelation of God's sons, their coming into view with the whole work of God's love, as I, the Lord, have given it to man to bring with all his humility and all the time, every moment before Me, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah the Tishbite

My book of today is opening and receiving Me in it with the feast of word, and this is how I write on earth My book in the end of the time, only that I may have faith and love for faith in those who bear Me to be with the people on earth, to speak as I have spoken all the time by the prophets and saints, and everything that has come down on earth to be among people and to proclaim God's things have remained written.

Two thousand years ago, I spoke for the one who believed in Me that I would come to him and make a house with him, that I would appear to him and dine with him, but man is too far away from God that he may have time to hear what I spoke for the one faithful to Me, for the one full of longing after the Lord on earth.

Oh, great love is needed in man for this stopover of Mine near him to put the word on a table on earth to dine with man and then to show the fulfillment of My word, as I am working at you and with you, well sons. I have managed to have sons with faith and longing in them for Me and for My coming of today as word on earth, and this is an indescribable joy in heaven among those in heaven. Oh, if you saw how those in heaven stay and wait for My word spoken upon you, you would make a longer stopover before Me with your time through all that you have to carry and do. The happiness of those in heaven would be more beautiful and greater if I could stop for a longer time with you in the word, for I would like this, but the man's power is too weak to be able to work more, to bear more and to have more time with Me.

It is the day of the prophet Elijah, and I, the Lord, bring to the saints a feast of word and I am into your midst with them, My people. From heaven and down to earth I go with My word. From among you, those in heaven, and to those who watch on earth before Me, this is how I go and this is how I establish the feasts of word between heaven and earth, between God's invisible and visible things. And I tell those who rule on earth: «All those who judge the earth understand and learn lest by your lack of learning you bring about the Lord's wrath and perish when His wrath is coming down on earth, over your sins on earth», as it is written.

Behold, the prophet Elijah has arrived in his zeal for Me and he will reveal the power which is released from above against the sins of men who forget the Lord completely, for the Romanian people and land were powerfully struck in a few days by the wrath of water, wrath which is born from sins as in all the times under the sky when the earth and the heaven can hardly bear the multitudes of men's sins, drunkenness and debauchery, the lack of watch for the soul and for the Lord, laziness and carelessness, ignorance and the lack of the fear of God, and the prophet Elijah brought day by day wrath and took away the men's rest, as people trample without mercy over God's rest, leaving aside all the order coming from above and given to be kept by the people, for behold, the Lord endures much from man, but if man does not want to listen to the Lord at all, then the zeal of the saints on earth comes and cleanses angrily the possessions of the man without God.

Furious waters have furrowed the Romanian land and the possessions of the people. The waters have overflowed over their beds and pulled apart the men's rest from their way, their possessions in which their soul have rested, while I, the Lord, was crying and cry being whipped in My face by their sins.

Terrible sins come up from earth before the sight of My saints. Women stay completely naked before the Lord and before people and they undress more and more and bring trouble towards sin in all men. This brings about wrath and the prophet Elijah is full of zeal and is raging with it against the sin of sexual immorality in men, as it was in the time of his body when he rebuked the sinful state of the king of the time and when this one was looking for him to tear down the prophet; however, he was a son of life, a son of the love of God and a great prophet, and he was also full of life, full of zeal from heaven against sin on earth and full of mercy for God.

You, those who stay during these days with My book open that I may come in it as word and you to give Me further to the people with My calling voice, oh, sons be full of zeal for God, well sons! I have given you the gift of the mercy for the Lord, the gift that makes for Me workers from earth towards heaven, ministers of the Lord's justice, oh, sons.

Oh, how much I have been waiting on earth to be able to work as I can work now! Even starting with the year 1955, when I prepared and started the way of My voice on earth by My trumpet Virginia from the Maluri village, (mal = shore, maluri = shores, r.n.) from the place where I started My sounding from the end of the time, since then I have always waited for sons with mercy on God to stand up among those who were coming and hearing the word of My mouth through My trumpet.

Oh, I have not been able to do it, I have not been able to do it for such a long time and I could not make any use of them, of some of them, as a householder uses his little horse, which carries the load of his master and then he gets under the harness at the voice of his master and submits with love to his will, to the will of his master, and if it happens that its master sells it, or it gets lost from him, the little horse suffers much and cries in a mourning voice after the longing for its master, and if the longing in it grows too much overwhelming it, then it breathes its last because of the pain of longing, of the longing of that one it had served with faithfulness. However, you, people in the time of My today's word, for sixty years that has elapsed with My word in your midst, not only that you have not carried My heavy burdens, under which I have always fallen without you; but more than that you have punished Me, you have left Me for the way with satan on it and your longing and yearning after Me have died out and you have forgotten Me as though I was one from whom You have suffered, or against one you have stumbled while walking. However, I have always wanted to protect you and not leave you. I have wanted to feed you lest you may die, and I have always brought on your table, at your ear, the word of life, but you have not understood My care for you and My patience full of pain after you, and like Adam in paradise you became proud and have remained greater than God and forsook Him, because you have not sought to understand My protection that was to prepare you for life, for eternity with the Lord. Oh, when man takes his cattle to graze it, then he stays with it, he does not leave it alone, or at least, he gives it to someone to graze and watch it so that nothing bad may happen to it; however, you do not do that for you. Oh, do you stay under someone's care and eyes so that you may not perish, so that satan may not come and find you without any watching and thus to understand that you want to be his? Oh, you did not want to stay under My care, under My watch, under My advice, under My mercy on you; you did not want it, but I have always worked and kept My word awake and I have given it over the earth now and I have made My way well set and now I have sons with mercy on God before Me, sons who open to Me to come and to help Me carry My burden, to be able to accomplish the work that I had to do for the salvation of those who are attracted to God and I will protect those who love Me.

I am telling the man that not only by sufferance is the Lord able to clean him from his sin and to prepare a way for his salvation and eternal life, but also by repentance man is able to receive the Lord as his love, as his mercy and forgiveness. That is why I am coming and exhort you to repentance, oh, sons of men. I am coming with My saints and I am calling out to you: Repent! Oh, repent, because the prophet Elijah protected from sword and fire those who had approached him with repentance, but he did not spare those who wanted to seek him deceitfully.

Oh, sons of the earth, not only that the atonement of the sins by man's repentance brings upon man God's love and the gift of faith and the work of this gift, but man also becomes the Lord's helper, just as a little horse becomes its master's help and carries his burdens and submits to him with obedience in order to teach the man how he is supposed to be with his God, too. Oh, the time with much work of My saints is coming on earth and those who sin will fully see the wrath[238] for sin, and if they have time, they will turn with their life to the Lord, and My saints will make disciples of those who come back from the slavery of sin. Amen.

— At Your today's table with the saints, Lord, and with the people of Your word, I am looking with zeal over the earth and understand Your mercy You have on people, but You also understand my mercy on You, oh, Lord. In the time of my body on earth You gave me the gift of prophecy and I worked with it over the great and over the little, and I was working with zeal for You and standing on Your side, Lord. I was rebuking the rulers because of their sin, and those who were small and gentle I was making them prophets for You, as my mercy on You was consuming me intensely and I could not get away from this pain anywhere and in no way, the pain which was urging me to punish those who despised You by their sin, trying to forget about the true God and to make idols for themselves to which they wanted to bring their false worship. I was looking with a heart crushed with sorrow to what the woman can do on earth over the great and over the little, and I was saying: Woe to those who commit sexual immorality with women, woe! A flame of fire to sin is kindled in man at the view of woman. I saw the king of the time how he was trying to forsake the Lord. The king took a woman from other people and he played up to her and to her idols, which the king erected to draw the people to idol worshipping, and I was suffering deeply because of this.

Behold, it is one thing when a man lives with a woman, and it is another thing when he goes into sexual immorality with women, woe to those who live in sexual immorality with women, woe! Oh, I burned against this sin and I brought about the punishment over the land during that time. I commanded the rain no longer to come down, and even dew was no longer to be, but only intense heat was to be over the land for three years and a half. I told this to the king perhaps he would try to repent and stop from his iniquity, which departed the people from God. Then I showed them mercy and I released the rain; moreover, I made a visible miracle on the day of the return of the rain on the land.

Oh, I have upset You somehow. Before the approaching of my day in heaven and on earth I had prepared rebuke with great waters over the Romanian land and people, as people get drunk with strong drinks, Lord, and this means idol worshipping and their ongoing departure from God. The taverns and the sin of drunkenness have multiplied and the people intoxicated with drinks carouse. Woe to those who put drinking on their tongue, woe! Drinking means debauchery, Lord. From what should man drink and get intoxicated? The rejoicing of the man's heart with wine and other drinks, behold, it brings him his reward for it. Oh, man is no longer able to renounce the wine and woman!

I have mercy on You, Lord. I see how much You endure, how much you suffer, Lord, how much You are forgotten and deserted and not loved by man. People commit too much sin, Lord. Oh, I had mercy on You and stood up to punish those who sinned against You and against their lives making You deeply suffer.

Those in this little village wonder where You have established the mound of Your word, for You have spread out Your hand and protected it; You have had mercy and taken care, and people see this glory of Yours. Oh, only if people came to repentance for their sin, Lord! I would like to urge the sons of Your people from the spring to have time and give their mercy to those who are foreign to You with their life, and the time will come for many to be in need of this comfort that Your bring down here.

Oh, I also want to help to the men's repentance, Lord. I do not want to make You sad, but I have mercy on You when people sin against You and against their life. Oh, Master of life, let men no longer have anything to eat or drink against Your will and against the holiness that You expect to be in men. Woe to those who drink for pleasure! Woe to those who put their hope in wine! Oh, behold what man has done from the fruit of grapes[239], Lord!

Oh, stop from drinking and from its pleasures, you, sons of the earth! Do no longer walk intoxicated with wine before the Lord! The Lord is coming with His saints and He is working over the earth and over you, the Lord's saints. Follow after sanctification, submit to the Lord for the wrath for the sin is standing at the doors! I am calling out to you to turn your hearts to the Lord. There is no peace without the Lord. Without Him with you the curse is coming on earth! Behold the Lord as word upon you! Oh, where will you hide from the answer that you have known what the Lord wants and speaks and you have resisted? Oh, come to repentance to get away from the wrath for the sin! Give up satan's will! Do not give the Lord's will on satan's, do not be stiff-necked, son of the earth! Oh, humble yourselves because the Lord is near. Amen.

— I, the Lord, spread My word upon the earth, and whoever know it and does not fulfill it will see. Amen. However, you, share Me everywhere, sons of My word, and seek very much to be My little horse, so that I may be able to carry My today's burden and that everything I have to work on it. Learn from the faithfulness, from the submission and from the service of such a little horse, which carries the burdens of his master in submission to its master's will.

I am deeply sorrow from the man's departure from God and from his great disobedience and stubbornness, and the saints comfort Me for My sufferance. You too should comfort Me and bear with My pain, so that I may have someone to bear this heavy burden, so that I may not carry it alone, sons!

Oh, those who separate themselves from Me for themselves, they do no longer find any better place on earth, as they are those who make much grief to the Lord and their mind draws them to nowhere.

Oh, strengthen your staying with Me, with the Lord, sons. Stir up your love, your mercy and your sacrifice so that the storms may leave and every evil thing to avoid you, well sons. My grace is with you. Be with it and for it, too. Be My comfort, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The beheading of the Saint John the Baptizer

The Lord is word over the earth. The trumpet is sounding and the Lord is coming together with all His saints at the table of word on earth, on the Romanian land. Amen.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ. I Myself proclaim My word when I announce that I come into the book and testify about Myself. I am the One carried on cherubim, I am in the cloud, as I was in the cloud on the day when I stood on the right side of My Father, after My resurrection, and I told My disciples to wait for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who was to tell them everything that was about to come from God and to give them knowledge about them to know how to work, as I promised them when I was with them in the apostleship and when I had told them everything beforehand to help their faith then when they would see the fulfillment of My word spoken upon them by My mouth itself.

[239] See the selection topic: „What defiles a man, what enters or what comes out of him?", r.n.

Oh, I am working in the same way today in My speaking and then I fulfill and I feed your spirit of the holy faith, oh, sons of the people of My today's word over the earth, and which I am giving to you to spread all over so that it may be known, sons, for My work with you has to be known, My speaking with you.

We are sitting down at the table with you, I and My saints, for they have a synod and a great feast to honor John, My godfather, for the day when he was added to the heavenly hosts with his work, which he moved then from earth to heaven, to the work of My saints, who live in God's invisible things, into those that are eternal, well sons. John the Baptizer was killed by the work of the lawlessness of those without law on earth, but he has the work of the man's turning from sin to God, from darkness to light, from earth to heaven. When he came out among people many received his work for the man's preparation for the kingdom of the heavens with the people on earth. His work was to put repentance in men for their evil works, works that were done against God in man and from man, and many were sorry for their evil things, whose conscience was heavy from them, and they gave themselves to their cleansing and washing and then to their faith, for he was proclaiming the coming of the King of the heavens among people after him who had His winnowing fork in His hands and Who would thoroughly cleanse His threshing floor. He would separate the wheat from the chaff; He would put on His right side the fruit and on His left side He would put the chaff, foreign to His seeding. (See Matt: 3/12)

It is a holy feast in heaven and on earth, but the tradition left by the saints is put aside. Oh, how are to come at My wedding, at My table, how are to come those who will have spoiled the holy tradition? Do they know any longer when the feast is kept in heaven, each feast? It is confirmed that those who are called do not come at the wedding, for they do something else; they mind their own business, not God's, when I, the Lord set the table with My saints on earth and We speak to the earth, I and My saints, for it is written to come with the saints and to speak with one another as We do in heaven.

I am telling the people of My word that each son is supposed to ask Me on his knees for the strengthening of his faith in the work of My coming as word on earth and to tell Me with their crushed spirit: "Help me Lord, not to lose my faith in Your word of yesterday and today so that I may not fall under the condemnation of the unfaithful ones because of my sins, because of my disobedience to You, for woe to those who are condemned to unbelief and to the reward of the unfaithful ones, for they do not longer have part at Your table when You call out to the table. Oh, it is because of the hardening of the heart that do not believe those that do not believe and those that do no longer believe, but I ask You to protect my heart in humility and to help me by this to stay within the spirit of repentance, in the baptism of the birth from above, which keeps the faithful one in You, Lord, Amen.

Oh, My today's people, it is a day of speaking with you for your growth, for the steadfastness of your faith, for the instruction of life and for the sharing of My word with you so that people may understand that men's life is not the same with My life in man. When man stays with Me and in Me with his work, when I stay with him in My work and I give him work to do for Me and for My walking among people, then he lives for Me, and I live for him, by his making My will; however, when he stands aside, even when he tries not to violate My commandment in his body, then he does no longer live for the Lord, oh no, because he lives his life. That one does no longer have part at the table of My wedding, to which all are called to be chosen and faithful to Me for My many works, and behold, many are called but few are chosen for Me, for man chooses himself when he wants to choose, poor of him, and remain at My table with those who remain with Me at My work, and those who are called who remain with their life, they do not come, for they mind their own things, not God's as it is written.

Oh, how few are those who separate from their things to give themselves to Me and to My work and to remain for Me after that, how few! My table is very rich, but those who are called have their things to do, they have their lives and they live it as they want; they do not have time for My work with man. I have much to work on earth, and few are those who come to My help, so few of them! Man does not know what a difficult answer he is to give to God when he will be asked about his work, about what he has done on earth and what he has worked in his time.

Oh, man lives on earth only for himself! He tries to keep the life of his body and man is not useful to God with his life, with his work. Man, how comes that you do not ask yourself for your life, about what you do with it if you have it and what you are to earn or to lose after that?

John the Baptizer is glorified among the saints on his day of synod, for he lived his life only for the Lord on earth and was My worker, My witness, My disciple, for My Father used him for God's works on earth. He did not take care of his life, oh, no! The Lord took care of it, and he took care of the Lord's life in him and outside of him and before the people who were to learn from him what life was, and this kind of people are those who sit with the Lord at the table and with His saints, with those in whom the Lord lived with His works on earth among people.

Oh, great disciple, who else knows to value God among people? Where does the Lord find a man to put to His great work, a man that does not live for himself and that is all, a man to value God in him and to bring forth fruit? Any factory made by man produces for the one who had made it, it listens to the one who has given its being on earth and it brings him benefit. Behold, man has remained down, he is very low; there is nothing good for the Lord in him, for the One Who built man. The man's heart had hardened, and it has become hardened and hardened, and man does not feel his callousness, he does no longer feel in his heart the danger of his separation and departure from God. He feels only to take care of himself, of those that he needs for food, of clothing, possessions and wellbeing. Man does no longer take care of the Lord, man does no longer live for the Lord on earth. Oh, and how much the Lord needs man!

Whom shall We tell Our sorrow, Our great sorrow from the man's departure from God? Oh, great disciple, who else thinks about you anymore? Who else looks at you, at your life and at the benefit your life has brought to the Lord, your birth among people? Woe to those who have not given testimony for Me, for the man's Creator! What will happen with those? Oh, what will be with so many people, who will have lived with their hardened heart and have not wanted to know about God's profit within their life? Oh, how much sorrow on Us, great disciple!

— Oh, Lord, oh, Lord, oh, Lord, exhortation to humility and then exhortation to repentance, this is what the hardened man needs. When man does not have any humility, Your stewardship comes and brings him pain and a sad and crushed heart to see what he is and how much he has not taken care when face to face with God. Those who want to be healed from pains come to You, Lord, there are no other people who come. Oh, no one comes because he is a saint, but he comes to be healed from the pains caused by his sins; he comes for a holy treatment and then they come to get healed, but if the treatment written by You is not done properly, he who comes does not get healed but falls to the left side like an unhealed and then he needs humility and repentance, if he wants, if the still wants it.

Oh, how much they wash, how much they get ready, those who head for sin among them! A Christian who knows about God does not dress up or smarten up, he does not wash his life when he comes to unite with the Lord, with His Spirit and Body. It is written for man to examine himself, to wash well and in this way to come, for those inside man are those who are not seen and are the dirtiest, the filthiest and these defile man, and the devil is brought into the open when it dresses in white; it is seen and it cannot hide his fly way. When the flying spirits of the invisible devil are set on a clean heart, that heart does not hide that enemy fly, but it brings it into the light to be judged.

Oh, how can man get away from the sins he has done and from those afresh, Lord? Such a man always needs to have a little heart, sad and mourning for his sins, and he should not behave as one who does not have any sins, oh, no, and this sadness makes him suffer, and the sin does no longer come in the one who suffers for sin. Those who sin are those who do not care about God and are those who hide from people with their sins. Those who sin are those who blame others for their fall, but there are also other kind of sinners, like that servant who prayed to You for the healing of his servant, Lord, and he told You that he was not worthy for You to come in to him because of his sins, but You only had to sent Your word on the way of his faith in You and his servant would be healed. Oh, these would be to be said from those who fall from You, not to blame people on the left and on the right because of their falling from God, for their perishing from near You, and behold, there is no humility of spirit, and the sinful man is ashamed to humble himself and to be known with his humility. Oh, how much should all people humble themselves, Lord! All people are sinful and need to humble.

Oh, as the sins bring so much humiliation to you, in the same way you have to humble yourselves for your sins too, people on earth. I, John the Baptizer, bring you this work of humility, and repentance follows the humility for the sin. Therefore, humble yourselves all the time, as every moment man is condemned for his past sins or for his fresh sins and then he would have nothing to be proud of or not humiliated for sin.

The hostile speaking between man and man is the proof of the man's sinfulness. Only the sinful man is able to do this. Oh, who sees the Lord at least once and is lucky to have a humble heart, then this one is filled with the spirit of the fear of God and he does not entertain another thought or conduct from which the humble Lord is missing, the gentle Lord in His heart, but one like this stays with fear only in the Lord, doing only His will all the time, loving and watching. However, even the one that never sees the Lord but only believes Him and feels Him by all His words as tough he would always see Him, one like that can live in the spirit of the fear of God all the time too, he is able to do this because of his love for God received freely by his faith.

The man's shameful conduct, the force of the word spoken with oppression and the nerves proven in his blood and on his tongue then have nothing to do with the spirit of the holy propriety and fear of God. All his dissatisfaction, from which man bursts out indecently and not properly, has nothing to do with the spirit of the fear of God. The lack of propriety and the fear of God are proven by man's big talk who speaks anything, but the silence of the wise against this way of speaking proves the fruit which is him from God, for woe to those who nourish themselves with empty words and whose ears and souls seek after this!

The spirit of comfort, the spirit of the holy gifts, these have to prove those who are the Lord's with their work, with their sacrifice, oh, Lord. Oh, what beautiful, how gentle I behaved before You with those inside and outside of me, how beautiful and how faithful, Lord! Let the sons of Your today's people take and learn, and let others also take and learn from them the benefit for You of the man's life, for he who stays with You at Your work and at the cross, Lord, that one lives for You, but he who withdraws in himself with his evil and good things and goes away from You with his work of You, that one stops living with his life for You and he rather lives for himself then and takes care of his days, and a man like that does no longer live Your days, and woe to a man like this if the condemnation for the lack of his faith caches him! Woe to him if he is punished then with the falling from faith with respect to Your heavenly work of today with Your today's people, because we can look in this way to some of them who were and are no longer Yours and near You with their life, oh, Lord.

May the people of the Your word, Lord, remain in the spirit of comfort and in the spirit of the holy gifts. From one margin of the earth to another all people are filled with the lust for sin, but the people of Your word have to be full of God, full of You, Lord, each son of this people, and may he reveal You with Your love among them only for those in heaven, Lord. These kinds of gifts I am giving to Your today's people on my day of synod among saints, and we, Your saints in groups-groups, are bringing You honor and praise, Lord. Amen.

— My glory is with you and upon you, My beloved saints, and the people of My word carries it over the earth. I am carried by cherubim and by the people of My word and I speak My word over the earth, and it shares Me further.

Soon, soon, I will sit at the table with you, people of My word, for I am coming with My mother Virgin and with her feast and I will speak on that day with the Romanian people and from among it with the peoples, for the word is My work.

Oh, do not forget to be beautiful, do not forget to be the most beautiful, sons. The hostile enemy goes on the prowl against you so that you may not be My beautiful ones within the whole harmony among you, between you and Me; however, you shall watch to be Mine, always Mine.

Oh, remain always with Me; remain always, always Mine, sons, for We have much work to do and to set on earth, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Birth of the Lord's Mother

I am Who I am. I am God the Son. I have now, in the end of the time, I have a wonderful name: The Word of God (Apoc: 19/13) and I write Myself a book on the Romanian land by this name. I am He Who is coming again from the Father on earth and I have a new name, as My work is now, for I am standing on the clouds of cherubim and let My voice be heard and I am speaking so that I may fulfill My word after that. Amen.

This day is a day of royal feast. I am in glory above the people of My word during these days. My book is being opened in its midst that I may come down in it as word and to speak with a written book to the Romanian people. I and My mother Virgin are in a celebration among the hosts of saints, who accompany Us for the remembrance and for the glory of the day in which she was born in the body on earth, according to God's eternal order, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, on which the Father is to rely and work through it My coming in the flesh on earth among people, as it was written in the prophets for the Lord to come on earth; to come and to be pierced for the men's sins and to redeem the being of the man fallen from God because of his disobedience to the laws of the life, and I had come and appeared before the people with the work which the Father had given Me to fulfill.

Oh, glory to this day of birth on earth of My mother Virgin!

I am in the cloud with you and with the hosts of the saints here, in the middle of the people of My word, mother. My Father has prepared and arranged for Me My today's coming as word on earth on the hearth of the Romanian people. The Father has made Us Romanians, oh My mother, and He gave Us to speak Romanian. We use the language of the Romanian people and this shows that the Father Sabaoth chose from the beginning this country and this nation on which He is to glorify Himself with the coming to the people of His Son Jesus Christ, God Son, God the Word.

Oh, Romanian people, the Father has chosen[240] you from among the nations for God to dwell in you with His coming on earth as word now, in the end of the time. Oh, chosen nation for the Lord's coming on earth now, behold, you have a special election, according to God's will. The Lord's will is done in you, and with it He overthrows the man's will for the Lord's will to be fulfilled. Amen.

Oh, My mother Virgin, We have to speak to the Romanian people on your day of feast, for We have to work the Lord's will during these days. There is much sin on earth everywhere, mother. There is much sin here, too, on the hearth of the Romanian people. The greatest sin among other sins is the man's haughtiness, mother. Because of this sin, man separates himself from God and wants to do his own will, mother. Oh, how much holy order We have to ordain on this land chosen by the Father for My today's coming with the saints and with the angels, as it is written for Me to come, mother. Oh, people on this hearth do not know, they do not know the Lord's will with this country, but We know mother, and it is written in the Scriptures, and if it is written it has to be fulfilled because this is written. The mystery and the work of the country of brightness We have to work and ordained on this hearth and My enemy antichrist and all his servants have to find here their defeat for this is written.

We work mysteriously, mother. The Word of God is the weapon with which is being worked during these days against the lawlessness on earth, and of those who work for it. My word goes from place to place everywhere, mother. Whether heard or not heard by the people, it does its work, only that it may be brought on earth when My mouth speaks it from the air, from the clouds of cherubim so that it may come into being in its book, mother.

Oh, Romanian people, I am speaking My word from your midst. My mother Virgin is your shelter and great protection for you according to the Father's will. I am speaking with My mother on your hearth on a day of the feast of her birth on earth, but I am also speaking with you on this day. God is giving you a new birth, your birth from above. You cannot do it, but God can fulfill His will upon you for you need great revival now, oh, My today's country. I, the Lord, will work upon you and lead you to do My will, either you hear or not in order to believe My word upon you. I have to perfect the Father's work into your midst and over you during these days, and you are at the crossroad, you are watched by the spirit and by the work of lawlessness of those without mercy on Me and you, of those who want to overthrow My will for their will and then to make a great fuss that they are the rulers over all.

Oh, you have to come out from this oppression, My Romanian country and you need watching from heaven into your midst, and here I am as word in you. The heaven is setting heavenly watch in you and around you for you now. My mother virgin is going around to your borders and is sealing everywhere with her seal. She sees and knows My great work on your heart, because those from above see everything, they always see, and My mother Virgin has got her work for its protection over this country, the country of the coming of her Son on earth now, in the end of the time.

Oh, We have to overthrow now the will of the proud man and of all his servants, mother. We have to do a very detailed work, because the man who opposes the heaven on earth wants to work right now through the church the falsehood which he has got in his blood for his ascending to a high seat, (Reference to the agreement of the church to support Victor Ponta at the presidential elections from the end of this year, the president of the left party, one of the heads of the red beast, r.n.) and the spirit of lying is his work, mother; however, We, mother, together with the people of

My word stand against with watch and prayer before the Father of the heavens so that the Lord may overcome and not the man of this hard time, as now it is a time of trial over the Romanian people, mother.

We let it known about this and command the angels who stay in groups with their work to watch everywhere for the fulfillment of the Lord's will on the hearth of the Romanian people, that the time is coming for the casting of lots for the high seat of the further leadership of this nation. Oh, there is nothing to joke about this election and the Lord has to choose; it is to search the hearts because a heart full of love with justice, mercy and watching in it for the destiny of this nation is needed, and whoever looks for his greatness among those who have stood up for this drawing of lots, let them depart and let them be departed by My angels, for I, the Lord, decide what I say.

Come mother, come with your voice now over the Romanian people, for you are on My right side and it is written about Me and about you: «Your throne God is forever and ever. A scepter of equity is the scepter of Your kingdom. Kings' daughters are among Your honorable women. At Your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir… The king desires Your beauty... The princess inside is all glorious». (See Ps: 45/6-9) Amen.

— Oh, my glory is inside of me, and You are all my inner being, Lord Son. You are all my being and I have become Your footstool and a way of Your coming to the people, and before You started to dwell among people, You had dwelt in me with all Your godly being, oh, Lord, and You were my Son and Lord, and great is Your glory all the time, my dear Son.

It is the time to say that You have appointed me to be great protection over the Romanian land and people, over the country of Your coming now on earth, Son Lord. Clouds of saints and angels come with me inside and all around the Romanian land, for here You have set Your work of victory against the devil and against the antichrist, You and the people of Your word, people of Romanians, Lord, and in it we are, we work and we fulfill the great victory against the ruler of this age: the spirit of the world.

With great and holy prayer, Lord, we have to watch now between the Father and the Romanian people, because this nation is at a very big crossroad and its enemies are many and they hide their face inside, but the ugliness of their spirit comes out and their inner things are brought into view, for the enemies do not have big words, but instead they have the spirit of pride out of which they suck and feed their ugliness and by it they become abominable, always, always. Oh, behold, Lord, what these do: they gather people from everywhere, they take from behind those who are servile and pretend that they are on their side, (Reference to the rally organized to sustain Ponta at the presidential elections deployed on the National Arena stadium, where SDP[241] brought 70.000 supporters, no.), but those who were brought by force to come and appear that are with them are not on their side. Oh, the one who is pushed on to the highest seat (Ponta, no) is controlled by those who are servile at sight, by those who want the whole power over the Romanian people at any price, but their lawlessness puts a finger on them and they are given away by their own iniquities, oh, Lord, and they are the enemies of the Romanian people. They stand watch and see everywhere their opposing work, and the heaven of saints and angels work once with them, and with a motherly hand I comfort the Romanian land and I have the work of the holy protection upon it, Lord Son, and I am telling the people on this land this:

Oh, Romanian people, watch and get up to a holy watch, for those in heaven are watching much upon you now, in the time of great trial upon you. The Holy Spirit will overshadow you and the Power of the Most High will lead you to do His will now, to your salvation of today and to that of tomorrow, for the red kingdom wants to catch you and it fly its flags over your head, but you do not have to forget of what trial the Lord took you out, (At the revolution from under the communist dictatorship, r.n.); oh, do not forget, lest you may be deceived, country of my Son Jesus Christ, country of the Lord now, in the end of the time. Behold, red is an enemy, as the Lord has told you and He has also told you not to love it, not to wear the red color, for the red color draws the curse and your enemy is drawn red, too.

Woe to the church dwelling places, which are dressed in red, for here it is how they are and who draws to them! The Lord's garment is white, is holy, is clean, and the red cloak[242] is the robe of the Lord's enemy, and my Son Christ was mocked with it by the rulers of the time. However, you should dress in white, Romanian people, and watch day and night for your little garment, for behold, the red man has stolen the sign of your people, the Romanian shirt, and this is how the red thief knows how to fool you, and he is the thief, not your brother, oh, no.

I am coming with the word of watching and I am telling you the lie under which the red man hides everywhere to trample under his foot the greatness you have from your ancestors, Romanian people, and the soul, which he keeps on pressing under the spears for his glory, oh, people chosen by the Lord in the end of the time; however, you have to get up with the saints at prayer for your destiny, for you have holy ancestors who stand watch at the borders and they keep watch alive; your holy ancestors are not dead, but they are near you and they are with you, and they see the whole lawlessness which presses you under it, and your ancestors do not let you die, but get up so that you may not die, oh, Romanian people.

This day of holy feast is my day of celebration. Cherubim and seraphim cover the air everywhere and they keep watch on you, Romanian country. And to You, Son Jesus Christ, my beloved Son, I wish You victory for this nation and make it Your kingdom, You should make with it Your will, and it should do the same, oh, Lord. I stand watch inside of it and at its borders, so that Your word may be able to work now over the whole lawlessness, for it is Your time, Lord son, it is the time for the Lord to work as it is written. Amen.

— My glory and yours stays on the hearth of the Romanian people and speaks the word, mother. Glory to your love for the Romanian people, My people and yours during these days, mother! We are carried by a cloud[243] of cherubim and seraphim and by the people of My word, mother, and We are speaking the word over the earth. The angels and the saints are at work with Us for the future of the Romanian people, in whose midst We have set the work of the Lord's glory, the table of God's word on earth, mother.

Oh, Romanian people, do you hear the Lord's voice? Oh, hear it and come under its protection, for the enemy spirit wages war against you, the spirit at the beginning, which rebelled. Oh, peace to you, Romanian people! I, the Lord, want to protect you from all of your enemies who want to put you to trial and who do not want to know that I am the Lord your God, the Lord of the powers, the Lord strong at war.

Oh, peace to you, nations! You should want peace and not war! Put your sword in the sheath and be good, for I, the Lord, started to reign over the earth and I am victorious as I was two thousand years ago, when I got up and appeared victoriously before those who thought that they had thrown Me down; however, I was not knocked down, and I got up and the ruler of this age was judged, the antichrist, and he is judged again and overcome, for I, the Lord, rule, and I wrote and write My word over the earth, and My word is just, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, nations! I am Who I am. Whoever takes out the sword will perish by the sword. He who raises the white scarf will be written as a son of peace. My kingdom on earth is peace and love, and the war or immoral love is not with the Lord and His people, but it is the work of the spirit of the world instead, the hostile work against which I, the Lord, will overcome.

Peace to you, Romanian people in the midst of the peoples on earth! Oh, peace to you, so that the nations may take it from you! I am word into your midst, and I watch from you over the nations and in the air where I go with My saints in groups-groups.

I, the Lord, am carried in the air by the clouds of cherubim, and on earth I am carried by the people of My word, which I have raised to stand before Me, and I have given it to bring the word of prayer to Me for the Romanian country now, and My word goes from its midst over the earth and over the nations; it goes on the wind and it goes in the air from margins to margins and it calls out like this:

Those of you, who rebel among the nations, the Lord Jesus Christ is telling you peace! I am Who I am, I am He Who is telling you this.

I am God the Son and I have a wonderful name now, in the end of the time. God's Word is My name (Apoc: 19/13) and I am writing My book on the Romanian land by this name. With My new name I am coming again from the Father on earth and I become word, and then I fulfill it. Amen, amen, amen.

I wanted, My people, I wanted to come to you as word a week ago, and I did not find open to come in. I keep the word of that time in Me and I want to find an occasion to bring it down to you and to be written into My book. Oh, watch, well My people, watch for My coming when I want to come in and enter the book, for the word, unspoken in its time, presses Me on. Oh, take care of My entrance at you when I come; take care, oh, My people! Amen.

The Feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

I am Who I am and I am the Shepherd. I am the Shepherd with the cross, the Shepherd from above.

It is a day of holy feast, it is the day of the cross, celebrated in a churchly way, and it has remained to be a feast for the church when the cross, on which the Jewish people crucified Me, was taken out of the ground and put on the table as a testimony for Me among people so that both the great and the small might believe that the Lord came from heaven down to earth and that He overcame death in spited of the fact that men gave Him over to death; everything that is to be overcome is overcome by the cross. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, we are writing instructions into the book for the carrying of the cross. Come, sons, come to set My word on earth, as many times as it comes and beats for the Lord to speak, for everything is worked by the spoken word, as this is how God worked in the beginning. Oh, it is not in vain that I have prepared you to be My people now, in the end of the time, but to have a place ready and to have faith in you then, to come and to leave on earth My word of today, well sons. When I come and leave teaching on the table with you, I do not do this action out of love only for you, but for the whole earth, for every man to whom it is given from God to find Me here and to take Me in him; to obey Me then for his life so that I may be able to make man, to make him God by grace, to make him by My word, oh, sons.

Oh, the men's weakness is much on earth. Men have all kinds of illnesses, but the ruthless illness is that which man lets to stay over him because of the carelessness of his soul, the illness of unbelief, men's illness, for the man who does not have faith or who loses his faith is more to be pitied than the animal which has the man as its master.

My word was mourning, My Spirit was crying in the prophets and it was saying about My people Israel: «The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel doesn't know, My people don't consider…. They have forsaken the Lord. … They are estranged and backward… Their whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it». (See Isaiah: 1/3-6) I called My people by the name of Israel. People that sees God; this is how I called it, and it went into disbelief and got sick from it and I also told it that the animals are not as sick as the people is, and behold, the lack of faith is an illness for men.

The man who does not eat from God does not have the Lord in him. I have told the man that he shall not feed by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God, (See Matt: 4/4); however, he has chosen not to eat from God that he may not become God by grace and sit at the table with the Lord, and he has chosen to remain sick instead.

Oh, well My people, oh, sons, I have always exhorted you to stay under the cross and I have urged you not to cut from your cross, sons. How is man able not to cut from his cross? He has always cut from the cross, but he does not know how this comes. Oh, sons, only the guilty one is under a cross. He who cuts from the cross is he who does not know and does not acknowledge his guilt, but always shakes it off and says that he does not have any guilt, and man has got used to it. Then he cuts from the cross in the name of justice, as he says, and he says this for the sake of being known as righteous, of the shame of not being righteous, and one like who is ashamed with the carrying of his cross and does not take after the Lord, after the One Who had never said that He was not guilty or that He had not done, as He was blamed by those who put Him under the cross and who crucified Him.

Oh, I let Myself under the cross and then on the cross to show the man to take after Me with his life, especially that man is guilty too. Oh, man, you should never hide your guilt or that which is given to you, and you should get rid of it when someone sees any guilt with you or tells you about it. You are a man and you keep on shaking it off, and I was God and got under the guilt and did not shake it off before anyone, but I bore everything came to Me to bear and to do, and I could receive the guilt that was attributed to Me, and by patience I overcame the death for the guilt and in reality I was the One Who was not guilty at all, for I was from heaven, not from this world, and I had nothing in it and it had nothing in Me either.

Behold, man is not humble because he is proud and exalts himself before another man, and that is why he shakes his guilt off, and he has got used to doing this always, always. Oh, if man wanted to be like Me, he would enjoy his humility and seek to be the bearer of guilt and to be humiliated by it. Oh, humility and lowliness of heart is only for the Lord, as in order for man not be sick with unbelief he had to like to bear the guilt and to believe in God because he is guilty before Him and he needs a doctor for his unbelief, for his lack of humility with which he always shakes his guilt off like one who is ashamed to be guilty. However, man is guilty all the time in all possible ways, and if he does not eat from God, he does not get well, he is not cleansed from his guilt, and man has to know from God all these things and not get used to cutting from his cross, for the cross[244] is a great mystery, and man has to kiss the earth and the heaven, because the heaven touches the earth and the earth touches the heaven by the man's body which has a living soul and movement between earth and heaven.

Oh, My people, oh, sons of My word upon you, always seek to live sweetly. Live a sweet life, sons. The sweet life is full of humility in heart and deed, in speech and conduct, in the living with the Lord on earth, and the bitter life is with trouble, with tension, with burdens, with the lack of God among people and all these come from the lack of humility and the warmth of the heart and the carrying of the cross, a conduct that would not let the man hide and shake off his guilt with the speaking of his mouth.

Oh, do not cut from the cross, sons! Do not seek after comfort in pains, but look only for the patience and love of God, for behold what happens to those who seek after comfort, walking in this way in the trials of life! The comfort brings man desire of joy that does not build up, harmful mercy on both sides and then departure from God and lust for sin after that. While in pains and trials, small or great, take only from Me strengthening and patience, good conduct and wisdom through pains, for it is the pains that build the man and not comfort, and I teach you all these for all the people on earth to hear My teaching upon you and to take from it, well sons, and to know that pains and not comfort bring joy to man, and more than this, comfort makes man forget about the Lord and slip to weaknesses and then it makes him to be deceived by them even in the time of hardship, and then the one who is only after comfort for his pains loses his mind. However, I, the Lord, leave the man at the mercy of the comforts he has been looking for and I go away from him with My help, as man also goes away from the Lord and joins with the man in time of trial.

Oh, people on earth, sick or not, from the sickness of unbelief, which only men have, here it is what I, the Lord, am telling you on a day of the feast for My cross: I am telling you that God is long enduring and that man is not, and man should endure not God, for God is patient with the one who does not endure and He has long-endurance for him. Oh, why man does not endure? And if he does not endure, what does he do? Behold, man does not bear his guilt and patience for it. He shakes off the guilt before the others because he does not want to bear his guilt, and it is not fair for him to do so, to make injustice to God, to make the Lord endure because of his guilt. How is for the Lord to endure in man's place? Oh, the Lord endures the laugh of the devil, the Lord always endures the devil's joy against Him and against man, for the devil always prevails against man and it goes to the Lord to show Him what man does and in order to receive the part due to it from the fight against man, because man lets himself be overcome and then he is ashamed to admit what he had done; and moreover, he always vindicates oneself and he has got used to it; he has got used to shaking his guilt off, to forgiving his guilt always and no longer to taking upon him before his fellowmen, but I did not do this, I did not shake Myself off it, and I did not say: "I did not do it."

Oh, men on earth, learn from Me that I stayed under the guilt and I did not say: "I am not guilty." However, even more, I stayed under the guilt in the name of those who were guilty. Oh, learn the carrying of the cross, and you will be healed from unbelief, for the unbelief is an opinion and perishes like the unfaithful man, but faith is power and is a carried cross, and this brings salvation and victory for man for his life and then for eternity. Amen.

Oh, My people, people with a cross like your Lord, humble yourself as guilty, son, humble yourself always because I also humbled Myself. Oh, humble yourself, and remain humble and stay on your knee because of your guilt, for there is no man more exalted than the one on his knees, than the one who carries his cross. Man is guilty, and the cross and its heaviness are the bearing and the cleansing of his sins, and the free will humility, humility that frees the man from his guilt.

Oh, sons, be humble to one another! Be like this always and live a sweet life by your humility, for whoever does not have humility is separated from the Lord, but you are My people, well sons, I come to you and give you food from heaven, and I give you word from My mouth to be alive, to be, well sons.

The carrying of the holy cross is My today's teaching. Let all take from it, those who want to come after Me and to be like Me and like you, oh, sons. Amen.

We will go back now into the book to set in it My word which has been staying ready within Me for two weeks in order to be put into the book and to begin with it the Christian year, as man does no longer know; man does no longer know to be like the saints.

Oh, peace to you, sons! Stay awake, stand before Me; be careful, be hospitable with My coming, sons! Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-09-2014.

The Sunday after the Holy Cross Ascension

I am coming as word into the book. The voice of Shepherd is coming out of My mouth. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I am the Shepherd. As the river does not stop from its course and runs on its bed, the same is with My word that does not stop from its work, as after I have proclaimed it, it works, and that is why My word has to be put into its book on earth. Man does not want to fulfill it and perfect it over him, but My word does work on earth as it does not go to the man's mind. It repairs or spoils there where man does not fulfill it upon him, but My spoken word repairs those that man has spoiled and it tears down those which man has built against Me, and man cannot stand against My spoken word so that it may not be fulfilled. Man is hardened and does no longer see and it is no longer given to see to the one who is stiff-necked, or that he may understand those that God has worked; however, I, the Lord, repair everything that man spoils by his resistance against God, Who makes all things and establishes them according to His will.

Now I am writing down into the book My word spoken at its time, for I came, sons, two weeks ago, with the word and with My saints, and I did not find open to come into the book, and on that day I celebrated Simon the Stylite, the one who built his stairway to heaven and stayed on top of it until his passing away among the saints, and on that day it was a beginning of year, as those who call themselves Christians do no longer know or have this custom.

Then I prepared the word to set it into the book and to speak over the earth, I and My saints, but because I did not find open I asked you to help Me to put into the book My word which from that time had waited to be set on earth and to work over many then; to work like the water which does not stop from its springing and which runs and washes continually its bed on which it flows refreshing it always. Behold My word spoken then and set now on earth:

I am the eternal One and I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. I am the man's life. I suffer because man does not want to know that I am his life. The saints suffer because all people forget to see them and to look into the life into the midst of the people. There is much sufferance in heaven because of the people who forget about those in heaven, who forget about those coming from earth into the heaven. It is much pain in heaven because people do not know the beginning of all things and the end of each beginning so that they may start again and that its beginning may not stop, and which starts again.

People have made bold to modify those that are written to be; they have made bold to change those that are not supposed to be changed. At the beginning of this month it is brought to the Lord a feast of the beginning of a Christian year[245], but the proud man has come; he has counted and changed lest man knows the feast of the beginning of the years, and he has set it for other time and made a feast for the end and beginning of the year according to his calculation, and this fact would not be so harmful if he had not altered those that were not supposed to be changed from their place in time. And behold what man has done! The proud man has replaced the feasts of the saints; he has removed from their places the customs, the days and all the mysteries and their powers, and he has removed them completely and set them further to other places in time and because he wanted to spoil them he has gone wrong[246].

Oh, God the Word has come down on earth and repaired by His spoken word over the damaging word of the man opposing to God by his work. I have prepared you, My people, and I have let you know that We need to put back to their places those that man has replaced from their place in time. You have received Me and listened and We have repaired together and put back to their places the days of the saints in time, and now I am coming with the saints and setting on earth days with unchangeable feasts, and behold how much power My word has, which makes its room to speak over the earth and to repair those that man has spoiled, and since then you have been listening to Me and I have been listening to you too, and we have been receiving each other when there is obedience to God.

Oh, the saints suffer in heaven, because where there is no obedience to God on earth, many get damaged and then they can be hardly repaired after that. On a day of the beginning of churchly and Christian year, the saints are coming to speak over the people about the work of salvation. On this day, My saints celebrate in their midst Simon the Stylite, after his churchly name and according to his work on earth, for he had left his fatherly house as a young boy and made him a place to stay on a building, narrow in width and forty cubits high, always adding to it, first he added six cubits, then six cubits more, then ten and fourteen cubits and more and more up to forty cubits above the world, up there far from the earth of the people, and from there he was sending his prayers higher, and by so doing, he was healing many only by his word, but only after he had brought his prayer before God. More than four hundred years passed since My coming in the flesh on earth by My birth of the Virgin mother, when this disciple of Mine, Simon the Stylite, came to be with his life, who lived more than one hundred years in the world and sought all the time after the way of salvation, which he was asking for it even from his youth, and then he was seen digging [245] The church year begins, according to the calendar of the Orthodox Church, on September 1 - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Liturgical_year, r.n.

[246] Old Style (O.S.) and New Style (N.S.) (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Old_Style_and_New_Style_dates) are sometimes used with dates to indicate either whether the start of the Julian year has been adjusted to start on 1 January (N.S.) even though documents written at the time use a different start of year (O.S.), or whether a date conforms to the Julian calendar (O.S.), formerly in use in many countries, rather than the Gregorian (N.S.)

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

for the foundation of a building, and then he got tired and rested, when a heavenly voice spoke to him from above: "Dig, dig deeper and deeper!" And he dug more and more until he heard a voice with a commandment from above: "Enough! Now build, because without perseverance no one builds anything!"

When men goes to a big feast, which he desires much and waits for, then he goes breathlessly, with his heart full of longing and thrill, but when he knows that one day he will stay face to face with the Lord of the days, then man does no longer has any longing and thrill. Behold how much this saint had been thinking at the day when he was to stand before the Lord with his life and with its work! He ascended high, above the world and beyond sin, which entices man on earth, as he looked as the man in the beginning was, how he was enticed to that sin and how came his separation from God, Who keeps all things in His palm. My saints were those who received exhortation from all those clarified by the Scriptures and then they sought to fight for their life with Me among people, as life on earth is hard and it is threatened by sin, because from the beginning of the world the lust of debauchery came on people, the devilish love between man and man, and all this corruption came on earth because the man from the beginning disobeyed God and My saints had been crying much on earth because of this corruption on man, and they had been fighting much against it, and more than that, some of them did not wash all their life, (So that they may not be tempted by women, r.n.), and they had done this to protect themselves from this lust, which stains from man the clean Lord, the Holy Lord, Who has been suffering from man for seven thousand years this black spot between man and God.

Two thousand years ago I said, and I am saying the same thing today: «I desire mercy from man, and no sacrifice». (Matt: 12/7) Oh, I desire mercy from man. Let man have mercy on Me, on My pain from his sin, as I lost man because of his lust for sin. Oh, you lust after sin, man, you always lust, but you have no mercy on Me; you do not remember it in order to work it between you and Me, as I have been mourning for seven thousand years for your sin by which you have been deceiving God and man. Oh, receive exhortation from Me and fight to get rid of sin, for sin always prevails against you, and you do not fight like the saints who have always sought in their time on earth after the way of salvation, the way of the Lord, in which there is holiness and not sin.

Oh, man, if you want to fight and keep away from the sin which lurches everywhere to win you over to its master, of the devil, then take care to walk in the world and through the world, take care you man, who seek after salvation, who run to fight. Oh, if you walk, and especially if you walk among people, around the people, then keep someone always around you to have luck against the sin of immorality because of which man hides in order to commit it. Oh, listen to Me how I teach you, because if you walk alone, the devil gives you work to do; it comes into your way and it gives work to your mind and then to your heart, as it gave to those in the beginning, whom it only tested with respect to the Lord's will so that the Lord may see what they choose to do; however, they have chosen to disobey Him and drew with it into the darkness and then they hid from God because they felt in them the fruit of disobedience sin, and then they set on earth the lust of immorality, against which My saints have been fighting from age to age, My saints who have punished in their own bodies this human and devilish lust.

Oh, My saints have had fear of God. They became very small when they were relieving themselves after they had eaten. They had fear of God, fear of angels and of men and they were stooping as low as they could and covering themselves and they were not touching their body. Oh, they were not doing as all the other people did, who had not respect of themselves and of the Lord, but My saints guarded themselves with the watch against the lust which flew in the people and they were giving this teaching to one another, and no one knew about this mystery, which they were sharing with one another to be protected from sin by it. The saints were sitting down very low while the other people were getting up and in this way they got used to relieve themselves very ugly on the ground, on the ground that bears all sins and the man's entire bad conduct with respect to the earth and heaven. There were among saints some who were not washing themselves all their life, only that they might not touch their body, only that they not might see themselves or knew that they were naked before the Lord, and they were fighting, poor of them, they were fighting against the devil, they were fighting against their body and devil, for the devil was fighting against them because they were My saints, My beloved ones, and because I was their Lover, their Master, frightening at view for My great glory, which so many saints wanted to see. Oh, how good they were! How good they were before God, before the invisible One! Oh, where is for Me, where do I see anymore this great care with man against the devil, which opposes the one who has sided with Me on earth?

Oh, how much I suffer when I see that in the dwellings of churches Pharisees perform the service at the altar! There are many establishments on earth, and all over people have built churches where they get together for God. I see with pain how old people, children and widows, that only they come near and commune, but the young ones do not do this, for they know the tradition and they are afraid of those drawn to the sin of the body, they are afraid to come near with their youth. However, I, the Lord, am asking: I am asking you, priest who serve at the altar with the cup into your hand: "Are you that what those who do not come to church are, because they have not got their lives set for the Lord's holy things? And if you are also not set, then how comes that you go there?" Behold, your rulers ask you to marry before you have received the ministry of priest from the hand of your rulers, who are the same with you, and you see that do not come at the altar those who are not old, or children or widows, but you are there. Oh, what do you have to say when I ask you this? What have to say those who do not go at the altar because of their lack of preparation? (Unprepared for Holy Communion, r.n.) Behold, those who called themselves sinners and think that they are not worthy are holier than those who pose as worthy of the Lord's holy things. And then, how are we to take this into account? Who is going to take this into account on earth between man and man so that it may be justice?

Oh, behold, man needs grace from the Lord to become holy, to keep living like that and to fight as the saints fought; they fought crying, and those who loved that way had grace. My saints have Simeon the Stylite at the feast in heaven, the one known in history as the first stylite who separated himself from the world going up, above it, and living his life in this way. With eagerness, the saints want to speak over the earth now by the voice of the celebrated one on this day among the saints. May the speaking of My saints be blessed by the one who speaks for the saints, for those in heaven. Amen.

— We are standing before You, Lord, we are standing before You as on earth, and we are standing before You with propriety in heaven as well, for we lived in fear on earth before You, Lord of glory. Your glory is frightening because it is great, Lord, and those who saw it were frightened and lived like that on earth before You and fought so that they might not shade Your glory between them and You, and they tried their hardest and did not separate from You, oh, Lord, not even because of their sins.

I was led by Your Spirit on earth to leave an example among people. I had sought the way of salvation since I was young man, because I did not love the world, oh, I did not love it, Lord, because this was what You wanted to do with me on earth. I did not know where to seek: I did not know how to please You more, up or down. I started to dig and humble myself digging down as a man, and You overshadowed me with Your grace in the time of my hard work and You advised me to dig up, to build what I had dug below and to work with the same effort. Then I went up, after I had built upwards as much as I dug downwards and I remained there with my life, and You overshadowed me and showed me to the people, and those in my time were thrilled when they saw how much I trampled myself down and exalted You in me, good Counselor, merciful Master of my humility. Oh, man has to work very much for his saving life, saving from the flesh and body, oh, Lord. Oh, man works very little for You so that You may give him salvation, too.

You made me an apostle upon people by my life built for You with hard work by my abstinence before You, Lord. Oh, how shall I advise holier the man to receive with much courage and with more fear of good God's work and for God? You have built man for You and not for him, Lord. However, even from the beginning man has forsaken his destiny for You and has become a slave to the sin in him, stirred up in him by his disobedience to You, Maker of everything, everything that are visible and invisible.

I was the beginning of the holy stylites on earth before men, and I came to You and to the saints once with the beginning of the Christian and spiritual year, on the first day of the first month of the year. (1st September – the beginning of the church year[247], r.n.) I came as ripe fruit and You set me on Your table with the saints and now I see from heaven on earth together with Your saints, with all those who see together with You from heaven on earth everywhere.

Oh, Your work of today is great, Lord, very great, and the saints are thrilled with its greatness in heaven and on earth. You are so gentle in Your closeness to man when You come and speak with Your voice of today. You are gentle, Lord, gentle concerning Your greatness, seen by Your saints. Oh, how great is Your glory in heaven and on earth, the glory which man would not be able to look at and resist from falling down under it! However, You are so gentle, so good and gentle, and You become so little, although You are so great, oh, Lord, and behold, You have come again on earth as word and speak with man as You spoke in paradise, and let Your word be heard, which man has to obey, Lord.

You, those who want to be with the Lord on earth, be careful to the Lord's voice and under no circumstances are you to listen to your voice. Oh, do not do like the man in Paradise, who instead of obeying the Lord, he obeyed man, and by so doing men pulled one another from before the Lord and fell down on earth; moreover, it is much to be worked with your life to give it back to the Lord, from Whom you have it as a gift, and for which you owe the Lord. Oh, listen to the Lord's voice! The Lord is coming as word on earth. He is coming for you. The Lord is coming to save you from darkness and from the dark sin. Let your bodies be holy temples, because the Lord needs rest in you. Struggle for the life in heaven in you and keep on fighting, because life and its price are expensive; the life the Lord has put in man is as expensive as eternity. Get up above the world and above the spirit of the world. It is possible by this will, as the world is only sin. Get comforted within your body with the tools of severity against the man's enemy, and comfort your spirit by the Lord's gentle breeze and with His dear gifts. And, in the end, comfort your souls, comfort the Lord in you, the One from Whom you have your life in your body. The man's body fell [247] The church year starts on 1st September (the New Church Year) and ends on 31st August. According to the Jewish tradition, on a day like this God started His work of the creation of the world and our Savior started His activity of the preaching of the Gospel.

The church year is not identical with the liturgical year. As distinct from the church year, the liturgical year starts on the Passover day.

The New Church Year was founded at the Ecumenical Synod I from Nicaea, when it was decided to be celebrated on 1st September, r.n.

from Paradise on earth seven thousand years ago, and on earth there is only war, only front of war against the man's life from above; however, you, people, be born from above and then you will be from above and you will overcome in war against the enemy's weapons, for the Lord overcame for you.

Oh, peace to You, Lord! Peace from us, Lord! Your saints go with You between heaven and earth. We are with You in the air, on the clouds of angels, and Your glory is great. My happiness is great now. Glory to You for it, and I am sharing it with my brothers, with Your saints in heaven now, and we all are singing glory to You! Amen.

— Oh, how beautiful! Oh, only if man separated himself from the earth with this beauty, with the Lord and His saints in a heavenly feast on earth. There is much to fight and it is beautiful in the battle, oh, My loved saints, but men do not know how this beauty is. Oh, men do not know about this beginning, about the end and again about the beginning.

I am only waiting after man. The time of My waiting is long. I want to be beautiful on earth as in heaven, and this beginning has to come out, because I long after it. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! On the second day of the feast of My cross, on Sunday day I have set into the book the word that was prepared in Me for this beginning, for the renewal of the year. Take care, son, to share over the earth this word of feast and teaching for salvation.

Oh, My people son, keep Me, son, keep Me close to your bosom, where I want to dwell, for people do not know about My pain and they do not know about My seven thousand years of wandering away because of the man who pulled Me out of him, and this void has remained in man and in Me, void which man has no way of filling it up but only with God, with the One Who built man so that the Lord may have His house on earth. Behold, I am without a house. My enemies are in the house and I wander away outside. I want to take My house back and clean it and then I want to set My glory in it. I want to repair those the man has spoiled. My word repairs or spoils wherever man works, and man cannot stand against My spoken word. Amen.

My word is bringing Me down on earth to work by the word, as in the beginning. My glory is resting now, after I have put down My burden, for I have put into the book My word that has waited for its entrance, and it will be shared over the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God at the feast of the great saint and martyr Demetrios, the myrrh giver
(Excerpt)

… Oh, peace to you, sons of the hard work for My work of today through you over the earth! Open yourselves to pour out Myself into you, sons, with My power, for you are gentle, but I have always strengthened you, for I am so tired, but on the feasts here with you, My power and hope are growing because the great victory is coming near closer and closer, the Day of the Lord, oh, sons, when there will be between heaven and earth My blessing, only it and its fruit, and when I, the Lord, will give to those who love, I will give the greatest beauty, the kingdom of the heavens, My love on earth and only it.

Oh, peace to you, to those who are with Me, My dear sons! I am getting ready with a sweet word, with a sweet feast, and I am coming and We are spending with the angels, sons, and everything, everything will be on that day as in heaven on earth here. Amen, amen, amen.

26-10/08-11-2014.

The synod of the saint archangels, Michael and Gabriel

All My heavenly glory is here. The day of My angels' feast is above and below. This day is very sweet and its feast is sweet. The angelic hosts startle above and below near the table of My teaching with you, sons of My people from My spring of word, and with you, those who have come to embrace each other with the glory of My feast, with the saints and with My angels here.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, and My voice feeds you and brings you to the spring, to My joy and the Father's. When We meet you here, We escape a little time of sufferance, for sufferance is heavy. We are here now, a great multitude, in groups by groups, and in the same way We are sitting down, as We are sitting down and staying like that in heaven as well.

We are meeting you, those who have travelled to the spring. The table and its house are prepared, and those who wait for you in the threshold are prepared too. Oh, peace to you! This is the greeting of the Lord! My angles have come with you on your way, as I have commanded them to do that as many times as you start to get ready for My spring of word. Oh, how much joy! The days of Sunday or the days of heavenly feasts are days of love between you and Us, those in heaven, between We and you, those on earth. Oh, how much preparation of love for the Lord and for His saints is done! The Christian does something sweet for such days. Oh, how beautiful! For the joy of the holy days man gives something to each other, he goes to church, he shares something sweet, a wafer, or some fruit and cake. Behold, I, the Lord, too, am setting a sweet table and We are gathering around it, We and you.

Behold what advice I am giving you: take care always, always, of those that are not seen, of those in heaven and take care of those who have come to heaven from the earth, take care for them to be able to spend with you always, to be able to work with you always. Do not cast them out, do not make them sad and do not disappoint them by your carelessness for them. They are with the heaven near you to come with you on earth, for they mean heaven, they are with you and stay with you together with their homeland, with their entire heaven. Oh, do not spoil their feast with you! You need them all the time in all your spiritual and fleshly work and in everything the Lord needs with you and from you. Oh, those on earth have to love those in heaven very much.

Behold what else I am telling you: be fond of Me and for Me, well sons. Affection makes the man's heart sweet, it makes his nature sweet with everything and with all around him. Oh, this is how are those on whom I, the Lord, rely when I come to you as word, and their affection for Me is for you too, even if you do not have power enough to understand the miracle in their little hearts. Oh, no one of you should insist to put any burdens on them thinking that they can carry them or that they have to do it for you. Oh, no sons, no, because even so they feel all the heavy burdens and protect themselves as much as they can against their spiritual and fleshly weaknesses, because they have to take care of Me, and they have to be ready for Me always and they cannot do this if they do not keep their strength for Me. Therefore, you have to know this and protect them, sons, and be gentle, be tender and tender, and you will live the moments more intensely, more alive, more as in heaven, well sons.

I have come on earth to suffer for man. I had suffered much before I came to receive a body among people, I had suffered in the Father and I am still suffering with the Father now, after went to the Father after My resurrection, and I am suffering with the Father as in the time after the man's fall, for I lost him. Oh, sons, whoever loves Me with all his heart, with all his being, that one loves My sufferance as well and comforts it for Me when he suffers for it with his affection in him, but whoever does not love Me, he flees from sufferance, he flees from God, from the One Who suffers for each man and from each man. Oh, why should I suffer from something else but for man, for My building in whom I put My life? I also suffer for the angels who were deceived by man when man exalted himself above Me after his creation and when the angels served his thought, My closest angels and closest to the work of My heavenly glory, and then there entered wickedness against the man who used them for his pride, by which My closest angels fell after that, for pride does not have any place with God, and man was not able to stay near Me with it either and he went away from God's presence like the angels who served his pride at his beginning with God. However, now, My angels, do not serve the man's pride but flee from the proud man and from his sins and they help only those who are humble and stooped under the burden of their heavy sins and those who seek after the Lord for their salvation.

Oh, how sweet is My Spirit, how sweet I am speaking to you! I have given you the news that I am waiting for you at the spring with sweetness, with longing and with My sons who are attending at My table of word and at the feast from the table, and you have come to the spring. There is so much singing, so much commotion and much love in the air and near you! Oh, I am sharing with you so much comfort, only for you to feel it, sons! My word and the whole heavenly activity are like a song in the air here, and you are little trees. (See Matt: 13/31,32[248], Mark: 4/32) Be faithful for everything that I am speaking to you about My glory with you here. If you pass through a grove you hear the singing of the birds, you hear their various chirps and even if you do not see them, you believe them; you believe that they are there and they chirp standing on the sprigs above you. You hear all their kinds of chirps and you believe that they are there. Oh, in the same way I am, and I am with the saints in the air and I am speaking with them and those who have ears to hear with them hear Me, and I am telling you all these to know, sons, that the Lord is speaking and that His voice is heard. (Matt: 25/6[249]) Oh, how can say those who hear the Lord, how can they say that the Lord is not, that the Lord is not speaking? Behold why I, the Lord, urge you to be gentle for those who are not gentle do not believe the Lord and do not love Him like some children. He who does not love the Lord is not a child and leaves the Lord's presence as though he were a grown up and little by little he gets lost, and then tears are needed for him, as I, the Lord, Who built the man, have for him.

You, Christian mothers and fathers of this word, you, who have children that left for the world after they had stayed little for Me for a while, pray, oh pray to pull them out of this deep, so enticing to lose the man, and your prayer with power will be effective, because I prayed and I pray to the Father with supplication to receive and then to fulfill that which I have been asking Him for.

I am teaching you very sweetly, sons. This is how I want you to be, to love and to be, for love is sweet sufferance, it is not joy, well sons, for joy is like a shadow, it is passing, but love is sufferance and it brings eternity to man, it brings the Lord of life and sufferance for life, sons. Oh, since I have chosen a people, and behold I have a people now, I am able to write now My tear into the book, My sufferance because of My love for man, and the longing, which keeps love alive. I am speaking now about the angelic work, for this is how My angels are, those who love Me suffering with Me after man, sons. I have taken of their feelings and I have been speaking to you about these, but they also have the joy to give you now. Oh, receive their comfort, sons. Amen.

— We are giving you comfort, as the Lord is telling us to work. It is an angelic feast here now, and the Lord is speaking upon you. Be angelically blessed, for the angels are blessing you.

[248] «Jesus also presented another parable to them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field. It is indeed smaller than all seeds, but when it is grown, it is the biggest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air can come and find shelter in its branches."» (Matt: 13/31,32)

[249] «But at midnight there was a cry, 'Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!'» (Matt: 25/6)

Here with us and with you are now those who have come from the earth to heaven, and those whom you have remembered on this day with us. They all are full of heavenly peace, full of sweet gentleness and holy fondness, and they are walking very softly, they are tender, they are looking at you and bowing in thankfulness before the Lord and before you. You have laid the table with the Lord and they have come too, for they were called to come. The chiefs of the angelic hosts, the leading angels, celebrated before the feast of the angels of today, we are asking from the Lord for you power for sacrifice, and sacrifice is born out of the man's humble spirit and out of the Lord and His angels' humble spirit, too. The Lord wants from you a broken and tamed heart, sons.

Oh, on this say one remembers the day in the night the cross was raised victoriously over the symbol church and we are gathering and embracing it like a steadfast watchman over the little garden of the Lord. Behold a holy feast and only love above and below and comfort by the word! Holy commotion of angelic wings breathes around your little bodies and fills you with a gentle spirit.

Oh, bless Lord the Romanian country! Raise Your voice for it now. Amen.

— I have blessed it and I will keep on blessing it, My working angels.

Since I chose the people of the word of My coming now on earth from the Romanians, a people who is receiving Me so that it may be heard the voice of My word with which I am speaking from heaven, since then I have kept on loving with much longing and I have been blessing even more My Romania, My today's country.

Oh, I am hurrying more to you, My today's dear country, oh, and how many people without watch for My word of today stay carelessly within you! However, I have breathed over My country and I have given My Spirit and it got up at My will and has fulfilled as I, its Lord, wanted from it and for it, for it got up according to My word spoken for it and gave and gives away from it those who have had no mercy on it, for My Spirit has worked upon it by the word and no one understands this from among those who asks themselves: How was it possible to come out like that?

Oh, I, the Lord, I have worked, Romanian people, I have given away the danger from you, I have put you under the shelter and I am going to protect you, oh, My today's country, for those set upon you by this have spoiled everything as the Lord was supposed to work. My angels ordain for you comfort and faith and you have to stay higher and higher among nations, as from you the world will come to life and will be renewed, because I, the Lord, work this into your midst with the people of My word, by which I perfect My word. Oh, peace to you now! I hold you in My arms as My treasure. The Lord is keeping you into His arms so that you may not fall, so that those, who love you for themselves and that is all, may not cause you to fall, and this to be done against you, for they do not know how to love and they do not know how to love you.

Oh, My country, I reached out My hand to you and I kept it above you on the day of the drawing of the lots, (At the election for a new president, r.n.), and you do not know through whom I slipped My help for you. I have the one whom I love because he loves you, and whom I have kept up to this time at the helm over you. I have put My Spirit full of power and word and he has called out like a strategist over the country to call you to watch, My country, and then you have worked according to his word from mouth to mouth and it has given you this victory against those who still suck you until they will fall down completely, for your helmsman by this time (Traian Băsescu, the former president, r.n.) had obeyed Me much, he loved and loves you much, even if love does not come back with the same love for his love toward all your beloved ones. Oh, how much hatred had been nourished in the hearts of so many people in such a way that they had come to hate him, but those who have hated him fell and keep on falling disgracefully and now they are crying shamefully, after their so much bitterness with hatred in them, by which they nourished each other to come out for high places, but behold, they go up in flames, they go and do no longer come back for they have deceived many people.

I, the Lord, thank the helmsman you have had by this time with gratitude for the love of his country and for his people and I am telling him this now: behold, I am breaking your obstacle and you will return among the people to counsel them and to take care with your little mouth of every Romanian, who is clean in his heart, and to tame the one who is stubborn, to urge him on the way of the wisdom of the things and truth, for love is great wisdom and teacher. Be gentle and be patient and watchful and work with My Spirit in the midst of those who want you and listen to you for the good that has to be, for I, the Lord, will fight with those in heaven for you to be useful to Me, and We will fill with love those without love so that there may be love of brothers in the Romanian people. This is what I am telling you for your new beginning. Amen.

— Oh, bless Lord, the Romanian country now and forever, for we have spoken with You, and You have spoken with the Romanian country on our day of synod, the day of Your angels. May holy love and gentle spirit be in the Romanian people, oh, Lord. We are Your servants for it and with it and we are chiefs over all the angelic hosts that serve You. Your holy glory is upon it and Your speaking is sweet with it. Oh, peace to You on a day of the synod of Your angels! It is a sweet and great feast in the midst of the Your word's people that receives You because it listens to You! Amen.

— My heavenly glory is all here now, oh, My dear and praised angels. This day is very sweet indeed. I am comforting you and rejoicing you with those who receive Me here when I come as word on earth. We are comforting them, too, and We are comforting all those who are making the effort and come to the voice of My word, which brings them together in My Spirit, and I am giving them with peace and heavenly protection their return to their things, until the meeting that is going to take place for the day of Epiphany, when We will be here again, they and We, and My people here will serve Us, it will come to meet Us in the threshold and it will set Us at the table, for he who listens is blessed.

I let My heavenly hand over the Romanian land to be under My protection. Amen.

I have kept you at watch and in prayer for the country near Me, near the saints and near My mother, people of My word, but during this time you have been working with your body for My glory, for everything is to be done. I thank you son; I thank you affectionately and you should be likewise, always, always, to be able to work for Me and for man, well son. I, the Lord, am your help from above and below, for I am on earth as in heaven, even if those on earth do not know Me by sight as those in heaven do; however, I sing like the birds that are perched on the twigs of the trees and My voice is heard and is shared then and the Lord is word on earth and it is shared His word and Spirit, who speaks and then fulfills.

I am Who I am! Retinues of angels carry Me and glorify Me and they are My glory, the Lord's glory. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint Virginia, God's trumpet

On a day of the feast over My establishment during these days on the hearth of the Romanian people, I am writing Myself into My today's book with a threefold feast, and those in heaven are rejoicing at the table of My word, which is laying down into its book.

It is the feast of My church of New Jerusalem, for My trumpet Virginia is the well-wisher of this establishment and she has with her the first apostle I had called to follow Me at the work of apostleship, Andrew, My first disciple, who is celebrated near her, as twenty-three years ago, I had him here on the day of the sealing of the little garden of My word, after I had set in it the shrine, the little white stone, the symbol from the end of the time of the preaching of My word over the earth, and then I sealed this establishment for those in heaven and for the spirit of My word proclaimed here above its little garden to be set into its book and which is to be shared then as food, to the growth of those to whom the Lord reveals Himself to be followed by them, after that their faith in My coming as word on earth comprises those who make their steps on My way of today, to My joy and to the joy of those around, as disciples are needed.

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, I am He Who gives wisdom to man to understand God, as I also gave to My disciples to understand Me with My entire work, when Father had sent Me on earth to do His work among men. I am with the day of the feast on this establishment. On this day of the year, My trumpet Virginia has come among those in heaven, too, and she has got her community in heaven as she had on earth and she is the patron saint of the people of My word, and together with her was also brought the apostle Andrew, as day after day we celebrate the threefold feast on this mysterious day; first the day of the sealing of the little garden of My word (December 12, r.n.), and next to it the day of the feast of the apostle Andrew (December 13, r.n.), and then the day of My trumpet, (December 14, the New Style, r.n.), everything in a feast in heaven and on earth, and behold the feast is crowned with My word and theirs, as I, the Lord spend with My saints.

I am He Who gives wisdom to man, for I built the man. I am the Builder of man, and man is My building, My making, for without his Maker, man can do many mistakes and he always, always needs wisdom, and behold, the improved life is built slowly, slowly, by many, many mistakes, from which man keeps on learning being helped by God for his making, for man is weak, feeble, and he caught in his mistakes, he is powerless in sadness and sufferance, and his Creator makes him by helping him to fight against everything that stands to capture him and weaken his life.

Oh, My people, I would like that man may have wisdom from Me and I would like him to be obedient for his wisdom, because no one gives him wisdom but God. There have been built schools and books on earth so that man may start going to school as a little child in order to learn wisdom and to get educated. Oh, well My people, what is God supposed to do with the one who learns wisdom from school? The unfaithful keep asking themselves and doubting of God because of their pride and they say that the Scripture is not true because man needs to have knowledge and then he must know how to write. I want to tell these that it was not the school or the book were made first but man was first built, and when I built him he knew and spoke with Me and I with him, as I knew, I built and I put in My creation, and man knows to speak, how to speak and what to understand, for what man has, he has from God, the Creator. Oh, from where does the child know to cry when he is born? From sufferance; he knows from pain, he knows from birth pangs. Oh, sons, man has knowledge from God, and then men help each other and everything is set in men from God so that they may know. Who educated Adam, who taught him how to write, how to read and what to know? Who taught John, the Baptizer, who helped him from his childhood and to Jordan to make the Lord known to the people? Who taught the prophets to listen to God and then to write? Oh, sons, has the animal around man learned how to get educated? From where does he know to love, to caress his master, and who has taught him to be so faithful to him. Oh, it is not the mother who teaches the child. Neither the animal teaches another animal what it has to know and to do. Oh, no, but the Lord is the Builder of man and of the things in man and of everything that is a being with a living soul between heaven and earth.

Oh, how much faith, how much closeness to God the Maker, how much thankfulness man has to know, and all this through God alone! God has to give wisdom to man in everything and always and not man is to give and get his own wisdom. Oh, what miracles would be between earth and heaven if man understood how to work from God! Behold how the man's life is built, the life pleasant to the Lord in man and set slowly little by little, slowly from many, many mistakes, so that man may learn from his mistakes and to get wisdom for the good things then. However, now, My Virginia has a word on her day of feast and is accompanied by her people from heaven at the today's table, for I, the Lord, also have in heaven a people born out of her work with Me, and I have on earth too, and this is how We do the work of today.

Oh, My Virginia, may the work of your word at the table of today be blessed! Amen.

— Amen, amen, Lord, and may Your people learn and be attentive from heaven to take wisdom from God and not to ask themselves how, for You are the Spring, Lord, and now I am listening and speaking.

Sons of the Lord Word today, receive love with wings from the Lord, for it takes you through sweet and sorrowful times. May your little hearts be bound to the Lord, because the man, who knows his eternal beginning, remains with Him, when the Lord is coming to put on His right side those who had and have love.

Oh, it is a day of the feast of the establishment, where the Lord has set you, and we, those in heaven, are at the table with you. Next to my day of feast is with his day of feast the first disciple of our Lord, the apostle Andrew. Together we bow before those in heaven and before those on earth who keep our feast. We were together witnesses from heaven on the day of the sealing of the little garden of the Lord twenty-three years ago, and you were witnesses from the earth, together with the witness bishop through whom it was declared the sealing with sanctification of the little garden of the word, and we see this day now and we have something to sigh from. However, today we are also getting comforted because we have at our table those in heaven, the community from heaven of this word which is building of sons for heaven, and we keep the one-year memorial day for the little soul who joined us one year ago and we are speaking a little bit about this, because it is much humility and much care, and it is much to work and much power for work and we are not stirring the pain above and below, but we rather are working in a heavenly way and this is how we are comforting. These two children, of which one is above with me now, were taken into the arms through sufferance and holy comforts were given them enduring their life sweet burdens, and the Lord have always taken them and put them at His work, and behold, He still has them and they are His workers. Behold, next to my feast is this one too, and we all work, and we work both from the earth and from the heaven, and we adorn the day of the feast of this establishment, and the people from the heaven is rejoicing greatly now and the Lord is persevering for the progress of His work, to the fulfillment of everything it is to be worked, and now, children from below, you should have love with wings and work, and you should also sit on its wings, because without love it is very hard, well sons.

Oh, Lord, let Your people receive the wisdom from heaven, for You are the Spring. Man has no way to get educated from the books from the earth, for all are in You, and without You man goes wrong and he learns only from man; he learns from the one who thinks that he knows and that he has learned to know. Oh, from where does the horse or the little sheep know; where do the animals know to eat grass from, to drink with their mouths, to cry when they do not receive all these from You, oh, and how much wisdom they have and know? We, those who are dwelling now among those in heaven, from where are we supposed to know to come near and to speak now at this brotherly and festive table? Oh, we know from You, Lord, and from You we can do, as we walk and work with You.

Oh, knowledge is not to be learned from the earth. The man built by Your hand and by Your Spirit in the beginning has not learned to speak from the earth. Let the unfaithful not ask themselves about who wrote Your history with man in the book in which it was compiled, in the Scripture, Lord. Oh, who taught John, the Baptizer, to think, to speak, to prophesy about the Lord and to speak with the Lord at Jordan? Behold, You are the knowledge in the man carried by You and the man without God among people on earth should not exalt himself. Neither did I, Lord, neither did I learn knowledge from the earth, but You came to me and put in me the spirit of prophesy; You put in my bosom Your speaking with man, in my mind and in my sight. (See The Life of Saint Virginia, r.n.) Let the people, who do not understand the Lord and all His works on earth among people, wonder, for the people who have God have enemies on earth, too, because they are those who are like God, and those who have no enemy are nothing, but are only good for drudgery and that is all.

Let them repent and confess, Lord, all those who have stayed with You by this work of word and then they left the spring and the place of the spring. Oh, let these bow in order to be released from this sin, because this sin is heavy in heaven. I am Your trumpet, I am waking them up, and I am calling out to them and saying: repent, you those who ate honey and milk and then gave up. Oh, it is not possible to remain judges. Hurry up to come out from this accusation, because it is written: «Do not judge and you will not be judged!» (Matt: 7/1) Oh, if you have spoiled the Lord's face, and if you have not repaired where you have struck, the Lord can forgive this, but He cannot forgive when there is no repentance and confession after that. Oh, how much sufferance on us, those from heaven, on those who are now a community in heaven from this work of word on earth! We are big confessors for you, but without repentance in you there is no power from heaven for you, and you can go down and down with the Lord's lack of fulfillment in you, with your departure from Him and from His spring of which you have also drunk. Oh, get up as long as it is daytime, and shake your little shirt, wash it and refresh your love, as it is not your sins but your lack of humility that separates man from the Lord. I am asking you this from heaven and I am sounding the trumpet after you; look for your lost light, as there is no salvation in the world and you walk on the way with the sinners, but king David wanted to remain like a forsaken man in the Lord's courts if he had to choose to go in the way and in the place full of sinners, because the world and its sons are in this place of sinners, well sons. I want to comfort you and I want to wake you up because the mark of your steps near His spring cannot be wiped out as long as you have walked with the Lord.

And I am also asking You, Lord, to give them wisdom; give it to them, Lord, as man does not have wisdom from the earth, but he has it only if You put Your gift in man in order that he may use it. Oh, the man who has something has only from You, and he who does not have from You, does not have anything, anything, even if no one on earth has more ranks than him, more education and all sort of high positions.

Now, I am dedicating to You, Lord, this great day of threefold feast, and the apostle Andrew has his prayer prepared before You on this day. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, open the heavens for the sons of the Romanian people to see You, as for two thousand years I have been waiting for Your glory into the midst of this nation, which I sealed by Your name before my coming to You through the cross, by the way of the cross with sufferance, Lord. I was faithful to You in pains and through the cross, and now I am waiting for Your gift, Your glory on the Romanian land, the joy which I have been waiting for two thousand years, Lord, and behold, the joy is being born little by little and it becomes complete, and I have been waiting, like all those in heaven, for the time when Your day of glory will comprise the haven and the earth in it, and Your saints will have their day of comfort too, the day of joy. I was Your witness on the day of the sealing of the little garden of Your word and I set the power in the gates over the garden so that this little garden may be Yours and not of the world, and Your bishop of that time spoke the word of sealing and Your will was done through us in heaven and on earth at the same time, on that day of testimony.

Oh, brother bishop, do not forget, do not forget the great moment when you had a mysterious ministry near those in heaven on that day when your word was written over this little garden for its sealing. You are written in heaven with that day and no one is able to go up into heaven to wipe you out from the book of that day. Oh, keep yourself in the book with the spirit of your heart, because this leaf cannot be torn down from the book. I am asking the Lord to enshroud you within the spirit of the faith, which you had on that day, and you should fight as much as my prayer is for you before the Lord.

Oh Lord, glorify Yourself in him for You, for he was Your witness and then it was written a day of testimony in heaven and on earth, and I am coming down on this day, as this day is a great feast; it is a threefold feast, Lord. Amen.

— I, the Lord, am laying My comfort everywhere. For those in heaven and for those on earth I am giving My comfort and relief and I am strengthening My work because there is very much work, and comfort and power are need for work.

My people, you should learn. Wisdom is received from heaven. I will release through the gates teaching upon you on this day, and you shall work then upon you, for you need to take from heaven and to have. Oh, peace to you now! It is a feast day over My establishment with you and My table is from heaven. You should work much peace and this is how you are to fulfill My word upon you, the word by which I am telling you: "Peace to you, My people, peace to you!" My peace with you, My people son! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

Peace to you, people of My word! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am sitting down as word near you, I am coming together with the saints near you and speaking a word of feast and We are writing it down into the book, because it is a bishop feast among those in heaven and they are full of word, like My saints. Everything from My creation has its own work in heaven and on earth, and My work is the word, to which all My creation listens to the glory of its Maker. Oh, it is not the same with man, because man listens as long as he wants and only if he wants, because man keeps the Lord far away from him, well My people, and this has been My pain, after I had built man and then up to this day.

The man from the beginning made bold to create the devil between him and Me and since then he has no longer had any longing and love of God. I have been sighing with longing after man. If man has painful sighing from his children who leave him and go to their own things, I, the Lord, am sighing and I am aggrieved far beyond expectation, and the heart of man full of mercy for Me has a high price; a heart full of pain for My sighing for the emptiness in which all the people on earth are caught and without which they cannot do anything; they cannot do anything because of their possessions, because of their ranks and because of the lack of wisdom from heaven for their minds; however, if men loved the truth and not emptiness, they would no longer be or stay as they are, and they would stay properly before the Maker of all things and they would no longer slip to those what do not last and do not remain with man.

At the table of today in your midst, I am writing down into My book of today the bishop word of My gentle and good servant, the maker of miracles, Spyridon, the one who was not attracted by any riches or ranks that were given to him, nor by the world with its spirit, for he used everything in great humility, in his great wisdom from above, and he was up there with God with his life, and he was not of this world, for he was not of it, as I am not of it too, and in the same way were through the world all those who have loved the truth and the way of life, the way with God, well My people.

Oh, I am looking down on earth and see the haste of the people who celebrate ahead of the time the feast of the birth of Jesus Christ. Oh, the world does not celebrate My birth because it is far from love and it has no way to celebrate for God, but who is to tell this truth to the world? It is written into the Scriptures about the new birth of the world, and it is written about its renewal. My love will fulfill this if it is written, and My Father has given Me the Romanian land and My faithful people in it to be able to work here with the work of the Father, Who has sent Me with My great work of the new birth of the world. I work visibly and invisibly, and My saints do the same. Those who are visible and invisible sit down at their places and fulfill the word of My mouth, and it is a great miracle to be able to speak over the earth from the midst of the Romanian people, where I have prepared My dwelling and the faith for My coming as word over the earth.

It is hard to understand My mysteries and their great work, visible and invisible when it works and it sets down. I worked likewise at the creation of the world and the man woke up in the midst of the accomplished miracle and then he enjoyed and wondered about it until the time came when he made bold to create the devil between him and Me, and then he had no longer any love and longing after Me.

Oh, if man does not do the work of the love of God, then he does some other kind of work, he works separation from God, the work against him and against God. However, I have to accomplish the work of My Father, the renewal of the world, as it is written, and I come on earth as word to proclaim and to fulfill it, and I work through My faithful ones the whole completion of My word. Amen.

— Oh, Lord good and gentle, bless to speak from near You the word for my feast among the saints, for I stay in prayer before You for the fulfillment of the new birth of the world and I go on earth from place to place and I work mysteriously and I help You, Lord. Oh, this expectation is in heaven and on earth, and You come with Your great work on earth to start from the earth, from down up for the new building. Oh, Lord, bring the man to this knowledge and to this wisdom! Oh, come, Lord, come with the day of the victory in which everything will be seen put to its place after Your will, after Your love, and then man will see how You worked and how he worked, after You had built him!

However, now, forgive the people, oh, forgive them, Lord, for behold how much they have spoiled the things You and Your saints have ordained! Man goes ahead of You as in the beginning, oh, Lord. Oh, what harmful is the man's disobedience, Lord! Man does not know how easy, how good it would be for him if he listened to God and from God. We, Your saints tell all those on earth that it is well for man to listen to God willingly, as after it passes, he sees and it hurts him. We, Your saints, did Your work, we showed that You are wonderful among us and then the longing after God came to men, the longing after the truth, Lord. Oh, we are working likewise today too, and we are working and see from those that are not seen. We are working continuously, Lord, and we are working like You, because we have chosen You to listen to You.

Oh, sons of the Word Christ, work, well sons, work like the Lord, for the Lord has much work to do, and the time has passed and there have to come out all those that are worked to remain, and it will be as at the first creation of the world and all the invisible things will come out and they will be seen in all their beauty, embracing within their comfort all those who will have longed after the Lord on earth.

Oh, be gentle and be humble, sons. Be holy, oh, be holy on earth forever, to have courage before the Lord and for the Lord. Be His help and only His, for the Lord has hired you for Him, and you do not have to expect anything but a new heaven and a new earth, and those who work will rest in their work, oh, sons. Amen.

— I, the Lord, come before the love of My saints, who had not been looking after those that perish but they had loved only the Lord and His invisible things, for their perceiving spirit was carrying them to the wonderful things of the places prepared for My saints.

I, the Lord, am coming down before you, people of My word, making the new heaven and new earth, and I am asking you, I am humbly asking you to read the Scripture, well new Israel, well new Jerusalem. In it there are My promises after which all those with love for Me had longed after and it came to be fulfilled for them, as I went to the Father, I worked and prepared a wonderful place, as I promised that I would prepare for those who would love Me. Oh, read, well My people, read the word of the Scriptures and grow out of it as much as I need you to grow, and work for Me according to the book, for all the invisible things wait for their revelation, for their mystery which is in the Scriptures, they wait for the great feast between heaven and earth, and those who are faithful to My promises will rejoice and they will greatly rejoice, sons, they will rejoice much, much.

Oh, I am comforting your spirit and body, My country of today, My Romanian country, for you are My country of today and I have you from the Father as Mine. I want to start from you the correction of those who have been spoiled having been replaced from their place in time, and I have been suffering to see perplexity in heaven and on earth as well. Your sons are rejoicing on this day over the feast of My birth and they are nourished with this joy, Romanian country, and when the true feast comes[250], then it will not have any people in your midst to honor it but only few, few in comparison with your complete number. However, I want in you to bring back to their places the feasts so that you may no longer remain within this mistake, oh, My country of today, for the masters that ruled over you went wrong and changed the feasts of My saints from their places. Oh, I have been calling out very much, much by this word, to those who can repair those that are overthrown and I have been telling them to repair those that were changed from their places, and I have also been telling them to set back the feasts of the saints, but hearing they did not hear and do not hear Me. However, I have accomplished here and I brought back the feasts of the saints, according to the tradition left by the saints and the fathers so that they may turn the fathers' hearts to them, after they have turned their hearts to the fathers, as it is written, and if they may want to listen.

[250] The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan - of that time, Miron Cristea, (Primate metropolitan = (in the past) a title given to the first metropolitan of a country; today it would be equal to that of a patriarch) introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox" congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised" Julian Calendar, (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Revised_Julian_calendar) which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those of other confessions". «… and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law…» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

Behold, on the lands of the Jerusalem of My passions no one has tried to overthrow the feasts and the feast of My birth is not celebrated now, (In Israel the Christians celebrate in the Old Style – the Julian calendar, r.n.), but also in many other places it is the same, this order left by the saints has not been spoiled. Oh, I also have expectations from you, Romanian people, I wait for the miracle of your return to the saints and to the fathers, for many say that this replacement of the heavenly feasts from their places is not such a great mistake, but I, the Lord, say that disobedience from parents brings fruit of disobedience over sons. However, let those who want to correct the times of the heaven and those of My saints remain humble and let them judge correctly, and I, the Lord, will bring them My blessing and then its joy, for I am the One Who lifts up their sins on My shoulders as I have power from My Father to do this for those who turn from disobedience to obedience so that they may also believe and then put their hope in the Lord with the fruit of their obedience. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth

On a day of the My birth feast on earth, I, the Lord, am coming down as word into My today's book and I am proclaiming Myself far and wide with this day and I am telling everyone on earth that I am the Maker of the heaven and the earth, that I am the Creator, that I am the Christmas, as the holy fathers baptized Me on a day of My birth feast on earth, and I am full of gifts, only that I may have someone to give them, only that man may want Me to be with them.

And behold, I am coming down in hard time and I am leaving a little bit of word into the book and looking at the pain that had those who carried My coming of that time when I was born on earth, as they went from place to place in sorrow to protect Me from those who were looking out in order to take My life, oh, and My birth was set with pain on earth and then the protection of My body by those who carried Me, and We had no support, for man does not like pain, he does not like to be with those who suffer, for man is weak and he seeks for joy against sufferance; however, by contrast, I am the merciful One and I send My saints to go to all those who suffer to give them gifts, and I am telling them: Oh, healing saints, come down, o come down in glory, come down on earth, because the whole human kind is in sufferance and people seek after comfort and there are not healing people with power on earth, for the human kind is controlled by sin all over, oh, healing saints. Oh, man is very sorrowful and that is why he seeks after pleasures and does not have any power to understand the kingdom of the heavens and the comfort for man from it.

Oh, how many times I have lived with man, taking on an earthly and human image, oh, how many times I have done that! Oh, how much I have travel, how much I have spoken with people and still no one knows Me, for I do not reveal Myself. I stay and look with pain at how many sins are in men on earth and how much healing I would like to give them, how much birth from above! I would like to give man the kingdom of the heavens full of peace in man, only that man may want to be with it and then to be on its side.

Oh, people of My word, peace to you, son! The world says otherwise on the day of Christmas: it says "Many happy returns of the day!", or "Happy New Year!" However, I say to you:

Peace to you! I am coming down in pain and frost to you, and I am coming down with little power, and you know My affliction. Oh, get up and hurry up to stand in the door with little sweet bread and Christian presents, for behold there are coming carol singers at the spring, and you should meet them and give them gifts from heaven as I give you and have you as My distributor, for I get ready to come into the book with My mother Virgin and then We send the book to all those who look in the way of My word and wait for Me to appear with it.

Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful sing the little angels and saints on the day of My birth, how beautiful! It is a feast of birth and the saints and little angels are comforting Me, and My mother Virgin is comforting Me as well.

Oh, My today's country, oh, Romanian people, it is not My day, it is not Christmas when you observe Christmas, (In Romania, churches celebrate Christmas on 25th December, in the New Style instead of on 25th Christmas in the Old Style, r.n.), and your fathers had not wanted to keep it in this way, and you have wanted to listen to the saints and fathers, and behold, Christmas is to be observed as your fathers observed it, and they received Me with this feast and by this name. I am Christmas, I am the Creator, and your ancestors called Me Christmas, and they were full of holy gifts, and that is why your fathers loved Me, and now you are doing as the whole world does, you are having parties with food that is not supposed to be eaten in the days of the Christmas fasting.

Oh, people cannot have fun; they cannot eat or drink when that day between the years is coming and which the world calls New Year. Oh, there came the man who was foreign to the holy feasts and he deceived you, then he went away and left you fooled, oh, My Orthodox country, and you said and took after him and replaced your feasts from the fathers, as though you were pagan and not Christian, and there has been no one to defend you, to protect you from this evil, for the heads of the church have sold you to disorder, oh, My today's country. However, you did not know what your holy fathers left you to do and live? I, the Lord, wait for you to wake up, and I have been looking and waiting for you for a long time, as it is not well to remain according to the man's law who changed that what was not his. You have to know that I have brought back the holy feasts on your hearth and I have built a living church of faithful sons with fear of God in them, for I do not want to come and find disorder everywhere in you, as the true church and Christian community after My will is not that which is on top of the mountain with porphyry in clothing, but rather it is obedient to the Lord and to the holy fathers; it is that which is not known, that which is ignored by the world, not followed by the people of the world, it is that which has price in My eyes, it is despised and not loved, but here it is what I am telling you: Woe to the church without any enemies, for what is left of it anymore? The church, which is not hated, has no price. This is what I am telling you now to know all over the earth.

And now, I am going to stay with My mother Virgin and speak for the feast of My birth, and We are staying with you, sons of My today's people, and We are receiving carol singers, well sons. On this day of holy feast, I am saying peace to you and peace to those who are coming to you and to My spring of word!

Glory in heaven and on earth for the feast of the Christmas, as I am the Christmas. I am Who I am, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of Epiphany

It is the feast of Epiphany in heaven and on earth, and I am coming together with the saints here and I am setting the table of word, then I am putting the spirit of holy joy on the table, as I have longed for it, I have waited with longing for this day. I have always waited longingly for the days of the feast to come together with the saints and with those who come here, at My spring of word, to give them from heaven, to give them. Oh, I have great joy when I have near Me those who hear Me and feel Me in My word spoken to give Myself to them.

I am Who I am. Thirty years after My birth from the Virgin mother, I appeared at river Jordan to be shown to the world that came there in great multitudes two thousand years ago to hear John the Baptizer, the one who was calling all to come so that he might preach them about Me that I come with the kingdom of the heavens on earth and to teach them to get ready for it and then to let themselves be seized within it. Oh, what a great moment was there for those in heaven! Oh, how great was the voice of My Father, Who confessed Me before those who were crowding the banks of the Jordan, coming from every place for repentance and for their baptism with water!

Oh, peace to you with Me here, and with those in heaven, with whom I walk! Peace to you, as you have come all your way to the spring at the feast of Epiphany! I have spread your way with heavenly hosts. Oh, peace to you! Behold, you are welcomed. We are together at the descending of the Holy Spirit upon waters. We are sitting at a prepared table and the assembly room has been filled, and I get comforted and give you comfort as well, and I am giving you of My Spirit to fulfill and to be like Me through Him to My comfort, as My lack of comfort is great, great all over.

Oh, open yourselves for Me and for My great grace! It is the feast of Epiphany over waters and upon you. Become My joy. My love cries after all people on earth who do no longer follow Me to heal them from emptiness and to have them as Mine after that.

I rejoice and I get comforted when I speak to you. I comfort My longing when you come together at My bosom here, at the people of My word, at the one who shares Me with you. Behold, the heavenly hosts rejoice over My comfort as they know My pain and know what I have to do to comfort it.

Oh, peace to you, people from the spring! Oh, sons, you have been working hard for My joy, for My comfort, which I have on Me whenever I have the occasion to meet you here, and to meet those who come to the spring to receive. Oh, I am in all your words spoken to Me and I fulfill them, sons. When you ask for My grace upon waters, I fulfill once with your spoken word. Behold, the water is being blessed and it is sanctified in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and it is given to be blessed and then to the cleansing that the water of Epiphany does all the time. My voice is speaking with much wisdom the word and then the fulfillment of the word for all those things that you may ask for My blessing and for My fulfillment, sons.

Now, I am blessing the heavenly feast and I am making it working over those who have come at the spring, for you have been working hard, sons, to share the joy and heavenly experience, the wisdom and power for the love of God in all those who have come with longing at My spring ministered by you. Oh, what does man have to do always, always? He has to work and he needs to have repentance always. And why always, sons? Oh, the one who does not have always repentance in him is no longer comprised within the spirit of the kingdom of the heavens, oh, he does no longer is. Therefore, repentance is always needed, as he, who does not always have the spirit of repentance, forgets those who have no repentance, but those who love Me and follow Me for their redemption and for the redemption of those who wander away from God, they also work repentance for those who have nothing else but the joy that comes from sin and from the whole emptiness of life, and for them salvation has to be called, for John, the Baptist, was calling out at Jordan and he was calling out to everyone telling them: «Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, and get ready for it, for the Lord is coming. He is coming full of the Holy Spirit and baptizing with Him if He finds you repented!» (See also Matt: 3/2, 11)

It is a day of Epiphany and this day is connected to the spirit of repentance, and on the day two thousand years ago it was fulfilled great heavenly work, then when the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit proved Themselves out so clearly and so much, and again, when the river of Jordan also witnessed and confessed the Lord in its river, on which a sign was given and which has remained to this very day on the day of Epiphany over the river Jordan. (See the miracle of the return of the Jordan on the Epiphany Day, r.n.)

Oh, I did not exalt Myself with My glory in high places or adorned with all things, but I humbled Myself instead, and I loved humility and I also loved those who were humble; however, you, ministers of altars, you do not want to be like Me and you do not want to work like Me. You keep on building churches, and behold, you are after money everywhere, money again and again, only money and that is all, and behold, on the hearth of the Romanian people the cathedral of the Romanian people is ready to appear, as the rulers of the church want to call it. However, how am I supposed to feel well there, how shall I come after you there? Oh, and if I came and appeared as I am with respect to you and to your glory, you would throw stones at Me, because you would be ashamed of My humility, which will judge you severely because of your expensive and shining clothes, and some of you would fall down because of shame and fear if it were for Me to come and to reveal Myself. Oh, what would you do then? Your whole glory would melt away then and everything that you have would keep silent before My glory, for I have such a great glory that man cannot look at Me if I showed My glory. Oh, you forget about My great and fearful glory and you try to make a sight of yourselves in everything in order to pose as gods, and in such a way that the world may follow you in My name. Oh, and how much pain you inflict on Me because you pretend to be gods over the crowds without any wisdom, and behold, I am coming from heaven on earth as word to teach man the wisdom from God, and you want to scare him off so that he may not come closer to Me to hear Me and to receive, as did the people two thousand years ago, who followed Me wherever they heard Me speaking, comforting and having mercy on those who suffered. Oh, you like to be kings and lords and you like to rule, to reign and to have a great name, and, on the contrary, I like humility as this is He Who is the Lord. Oh, how shall I be in your churches, how shall I, the Lord, be, if you are the lords? Oh, how could I be with My poverty near your great and visible glory? I am the One Who hides My glory under the grace of those who are poor and humble in heart, whom you set at naught, and behold how much I suffer from your glory and from your cathedrals, because I am and I remain the One full of humility, and I am and I remain the Lord of those who take after Me in their body and spirit, the Lord of those who are humble.

I am coming back here with My voice for the glory of the feast of Epiphany and I am staying with you, with those who have come to the spring. The river of My word is flowing upon you and baptizing you with the Holy Spirit, and the land is baptized in the river of My word and the waters on the earth and under the earth are also being baptized, as it is written: *«The Lord has hardened and set the earth on the waters and rivers», and man has to speak and understand with fear the Lord's creation, the heaven and the earth, and in no way is he supposed to think with his mind and spread to the sides his haughty mind with which he wants to tempt the Maker and His mysteries.

Oh, let no one rely on the man who says that he knows, that he understands, for the Lord's mysteries are unfathomable, and the Lord keeps them all within His dominion and He reveals Himself as much as He knows to do this as needed, as at Jordan He revealed Himself as God's Son and the crowds saw Him, after John the Baptist preached that He would come. I have John at My table of word, My godfather. He and I appeared at Jordan and We confessed each other: he appeared as the Baptist and I was the One Who was baptized, coming from the Father to do His work on earth.

You, those who have come at the bosom of My word on a day of Epiphany, oh, learn what humility and its greatness are, sons. It is hard for the man to get used to such a beauty upon him, but he who loves Me looks at Me and tries to take after Me in spirit, and happy are those who seek to be with Me in all their things and moments, and I suffer very much from the Christians who pretend that can serve two masters, that for a time they can stay with one and then with the other. Oh, I suffer from this and I wait for the simple one to get wisdom.

I am setting My whole protection over the Romanian country and I refresh it always. I take care of it, as it is My today's country and I always want to put it to watch and on a day of Epiphany I am telling her: Watch, oh, watch, My dear country! I am with My kingdom into your midst and I sieve My word upon you and I keep you under this shelter. I am blessing you with the water of Epiphany and I am exhorting your sons to a spirit of repentance, for this spirit is protecting from danger and it is a great adornment, too, over the one who has got it. Oh, peace to you; peace to you all the time! I am into your midst with the word of My mouth and I prepare your glory. Behold, I am refreshing the spirit of the holy watch so that you may cleanse yourself from all the evil that is in you and upon you, that the heaven of saints may be your shelter, and that My Mother may cover you with her omophorion. I, the Lord, am now with a day of Epiphany into your midst, and how much I would like the time of the feasts to come back to their places, as there their time and place in time are, as your ancestors were celebrating the feasts of the saints, oh, My country! Oh, how much I suffer that today you do not have knowledge of the feast of Epiphany on your hearth with the whole of your house! Oh, until when?

I get comforted with you, with those who have come at My spring of word. Oh stay close to Me, sons. Let My enemy and yours not be able to separate you from the mystery of My word. Oh, I have so much comfort when you come to the spring! You should love the spirit of repentance and you should love it always. This advice I have just given you now.

And after we have finished with the feast of the Epiphany, I will set Myself into the book together with John the Baptist and We will speak about the work of the spirit of repentance, the work without which man falls, as he has always fallen. And as for you, I am blessing your coming to the spring and your return to your things and I am giving you heavenly protection. Oh, keep My commandments, sons, as their observance keeps man alive, and they are My word. We are having a nice and sweet time with you here, and I am sweetly embracing you at My clean and gentle bosom and I am telling you: Peace to you!

And to you, people from the spring, I am giving you heavenly power to help you, for you are My help. You are to stay and remain within the spirit of Epiphany, within the spirit of repentance, in order that you may appear before Me, well My people. Oh, peace to you, and now We are going back into the book, John and I, and We are going to seal then the feast of Epiphany.

I am Who I am. I have taken and given comfort at the table of today. Oh, be like Me, be the sons of comfort, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the prodigal son

Again and again I come down into the book with holy and dear teaching, and all things have their time, and now it is a time for preparation for the meeting of the fifty-day fast so that we may approach then the feast of My Resurrection, founded on earth for Christians two thousand years ago by My resurrection itself, for the people I chose and loved then, crucified Me on the cross; however, I gave to it My resurrection and its resurrection and even so that people did not want to prepare and to receive Me, and since then and up to this day and tomorrow, I have remained the Teacher of those who receive Me coming from the Father by the birth of the mother Virgin, and then coming out of the dead, for I came to life, and My resurrection was established and has been on earth since then and up to this day.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit it is only My word, with which I am standing above the earth during this time, and I am working in this way because it is written through the prophets that the time will come to work like that, over the living and over the dead, and I am speaking My word and let all the sons of faith have part of it, all those to whom it is given from the Father to hear His Son and to receive Him in them, the One with Whom the Father is well pleased and to Whom He wants to listen all those who believe in the prophets, in the Scriptures and in the Psalms.

The parable of this Sunday is that of the prodigal son, for this also means man called to repentance and hope, no matter how sinful he might be, no matter how separated from the life in heaven man might be. Oh, how much holy and dear teaching I have left over many, over the good and over the bad, but it is as in school, where some learn and receive good grades, and others hardly come to school and do not learn and as a result they are not educated and receive bad grades, grades of mercy, and it is this mercy that waits for man to come back to the spirit of wisdom and teaching and to start working, just as a tool, which if does not work, gets rusted and does no longer shine working and has no longer any beauty or light from light, that is, much work for life.

Oh, peace to you, My people from the spring! I am stopping at you, as I have made a house with you for your faith in My coming as word on earth, and behold, I have always set the table and given Myself within it, and I have put it into the middle for those at the crossroads to be able to take, for those who have called and are called themselves sons of My kingdom, those like the Israel two thousand years ago, that did not believe and does not believe, for they have got upon them those people with seats under them, and those with seats do not receive the Lord, the humble One, because this is how God is, and I have showed the man how I have come and how I am, but he did not like it so, and he has liked it to have an adorned life on earth and to forget about his eternity, at which he does nothing in order to add to it, not even what might pass through his fingers, as it does not work like that with God, with the One Who has made the heaven, the earth and man.

A certain man had two sons, and the younger of them asked for the share of his property and he gathered all of this together, travelled into a far country, and wasted it with riotous living until he had spent all of it. Then a time of famine came in the city where he lived and he began to be in need and found no help even if he hired himself at a man to feed his pigs because no one gave him even the husks that the pigs ate. Then he came to himself and remembered that his father had servants and got up to go and tell his father that he had gone wrong as a unworthy son and to receive him as one of his servants to serve him only for what he eats. Moreover, because he thought like this, his father saw him as he was still far off and was moved with compassion and his compassion prevailed and filled him with longing and came out to meet him. He embraced and kissed his son when he came back, and his son recognized his guilt and unworthiness and his father had mercy on him and ordered the servants to prepare a party and a table with abundant food for his son who suffered because of his actions, and whom his father considered to be a dead living, lost and then found again. (Luke: 15/11-32)

Oh, sons, behave like sons, well sons. Learn from this parable not to behave like the servants lest your heart may be like the elder son's heart, who made bold to show his heart and tell off his father from his heart: «Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him». (Luke: 15/29, 30) Oh, what lack of affection with this son, who felt as a servant under command, but to whom all the possessions of his father belonged after he had become the only heir, because the son who came back as a servant had nothing left of his father's possessions; he had just came humbly only to become a servant of his father and of his elder brother, but the joy because he came back had to be for the father, the joy which only a father's heart is able to know, but a brother feels so little for his brother when it comes about his rights.

Oh, it is much to be learned from this parable of wisdom, for God is very gentle and He wants that out of this spirit to take all those who believe and love Him as sons, and not as servants, because sons have one way of behavior and servants have another way of behavior.

Oh, sons grown from above by My word upon you, oh, learn from these lessons, well sons. Sons are sweet and warm; they are gentle and meek with their fathers and brothers, and the servants are colder, they are there only because of their pay and behave as those who have a master and do not love their master, and this is how man knows how to behave. The sons know what it means a father and the heart of a father and consequently they appreciate their father and comfort him with sweet, warm and affection full of the gentleness of their heart, like those of their father's nature for them, for his sons. Oh, behave as sons all the time, for the servants are cold while sons need love, mercy, and need warmth from their father as well, and if people are cold to their father than they practically do not have a father, they do not have warmth and they do not have love. In the parable mentioned today, we can see the elder son's lack of love and coldness towards his father, and he felt like a servant under the command of his father and he showed his heart without love, without affection in it for his father and for his brother who went wrong.

Oh, sons, when one feels like a servant and not like the Lord's son this can be seen from the man's conduct, from the way he loves and from the way he receives watching for him. The disobedient son from the parable today felt like a son, but the one who was obedient spoke like a servant, not like a son, not like a brother. The elder one behaved like a servant, but with the dissatisfaction of a son, and the little one went wrong and came back to his father as a guilty son but was thankful to be a only a servant near his father, and behold what good and what great teaching keeps in it My Gospel preached today through the church order. Oh, if man learned to know the Lord as his father upon him, then he would become God's child, for children are those who are supervised, and woe to them if they are not supervised and if they get used to it then! And those who are big people are those who are no longer supervised and woe to them because of this, for they get used to it then and do no longer long after the Lord, after the Father, and behold, let each man ask himself how he behaves with respect to the mystery of God's sons and with respect to this whole work and feeling.

Oh, sons, take care to behave as sons, and then take care of My descent to you. Before any kind of your work, take care when I come to you, take care of Me, sons. Be workers so that you may shine while working. Those without work do not shine, and you know this, for this is what My Gospel teaches man.

I, the Lord, am giving you now, sons, I am giving you fresh spirit and power of prayer for you and for the country, sons, and then for all those on the earth, great and small. Ask for much peace with a praying heart among the people on earth and among those who have set themselves upon people. Ask the Lord on everything, sons, and be faithful in prayer, as faith can do everything, faith by which the Lord works and does.

Oh, peace to you, sons! You should grow in all things as sons. Through all things you have to be My sons, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the right faith

On a day of Sunday I am preaching Myself speaking through the church and then sending a written book to the Christian flock, the flock which walks rightly and to that which does not walk rightly on the way of the holy commandments, the Orthodox flock, as this way is right; however, not all those who bear this name by baptism have fear of God and His commandments for those who are good and faithful, whom My Father has among those who are saved.

I am Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I am speaking in His name, for the Father is within Me. I am the One Who founded My church two thousand years ago, after fifty days from My resurrection from the dead, because I was crucified on the cross and I came to life after three days, as I promised beforehand, and then forty days had passed and before I ascended near the Father where My place is; however, before My ascension to the Father I had told My disciples whom I had chosen from the world, I had told them not to depart from the citadel of Jerusalem, but to remain there until I would empower them with the power from above first, and only after that they were to work on the earth with this power by My sending to all the nations with the good news about Me and about the kingdom of the heavens, coming down on earth by My coming after man.

On this day of Sunday the passing of the first week of the Lent is being marked, and the holy fathers have ordained the memorial and the keeping of the right faith, a day in which the Christians and the apostles of the church remember how I prepared My Church, two thousand years ago, by My preaching, and then its establishment at the work with the power from above, power by which they worked and appeared working from place to place among people, to be added to them those who then saw and believed because of the signs and works done through My apostles, whom I chose and picked then to walk with Me, until I was to be sold by one of them and put on the cross to be mocked; however, My cross was the victory on My behalf face to face with the bishops, who had given Me to the death on the cross, because I was resurrected and from that time and up to this day I have been being confessed as resurrected when the Christians, baptized in this faith, preach to each other by greeting themselves with the greeting for Passover: Christ has risen!

Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful I chose My disciples! I had gone to John, My Baptizer, and I found him staying with his disciples near him and he told them: «Behold the Lamb of God; behold, there He is!» (John: 1/29) And then Andrew, John's disciple, went with Me and took with him Peter, his brother, and then I ordained My disciples by the word, and at that time I also made disciples, because I chose then Philip, Nathanael, and I was trying to give light to their mind and faith and I told them: «Most assuredly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man». (John: 1/52)

Then I began to show My greatness openly for My disciples to believe in Me and to be able to work over the earth by their faith, because My name and My greatness had to be written on earth and to confess God in His coming after man. Oh, then I went with them to Cana of Galilee at a wedding, where the wine on the table miraculously was over and I turned the water into wine and the wedding guests marveled at the taste of this wine, and even the bridegroom of the wedding marveled in such a way that the bridegroom joined Me and became My disciple among the others who had accompanied Me, and in this way the heavens were opened and the mysterious angels were working with Me miracles among people, and the right faith was set in many hearts and was waking their love of God and the love for My preaching, but I was not able to show this until first I had made disciples in whom I was going to put faith and call them My church, the church of the Holy Spirit, working by signs and miracles, Christ's church, which works and appears that it is His church.

Oh, over time it has remained over My church this spirit working of signs and miracles through faithful disciples, and whom the churchly assembly has called the holy fathers of the Christian flock to the end, and now they intercede from heaven before the throne of glory with prayers for the church, especially for faith and for help in need over My faithful flock on earth. Behold, every day of church service the whole serving clergy everywhere concludes the service with this petition: Because of the prayers of our holy fathers, Lord, Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us!

The church from below pray to the church from above, behold the heaven and the earth in union of prayer; however, how much obedience the church from below has to the one above? Does it really have any more? Does it still keep the faith and obedience? Does it still care any longer not to be cursed by the violation of its Orthodoxy left through the holy fathers? Does it still love God? Does it still know what this love means? Oh, this love means much faithfulness, as it is written: «If any man does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed». (1 Cor: 16/22) And behold, there has to be faithfulness and it is not any longer, because the things that are left have been violated and other ordinances have been made by which they do no longer keep the unity and the work of the Spirit, for the mixture[251] about which is written not to be tolerated in the church, behold, it has appeared and keeps on appearing more and more, and I, the Lord, cry in heaven with the holy fathers and We fight on earth that the spirit and the obedience of the church may not perish; so that it may not perish completely and from everywhere; so that it may not perish the whole flock in disobedience, but to remain a seed, to remain sons, good and obedient to God and to the fathers, and it will sprout a new and abundant seed, and its branches will spread and bring forth the fruit of salvation, and My church in the end will work again as it did at its beginning, as I worked from place to place by signs and wonders to the seeing and to the hearing of My disciples whom I had chosen from among people, and as I am working today with My church, renewed by the word and set on its foundation from the beginning by My today's word itself, by which I have protected My church and its seed.

Oh, I suffer deeply; the Father suffers too and so do the saints. We all in heaven suffer when We see those who are called Orthodox ministers before the flock united now with the enemies, with those separated by the spirit of haughtiness (With the Catholics, r.n.) from the spirit and from the unity left written by the saints and fathers, from the holy ordinances that are to be observed and kept at their place in this way.

Oh, behold what the heads of the flock do! They have got used to money and money winks to everybody to build palaces upon palaces in which they want to exalt themselves and not the Lord. The Sunday of Orthodoxy, this is how the holy fathers left to be called this first Sunday of the Lent, and the rulers of the church take great care on this Sunday to gather the money into the bonnet and to save them in a storehouse that the money to be at one place; however, it is not money that have to be gathered but disciples, for I, the Lord, did not gather any money, I did not erect any palaces, but rather I chose disciples and I exalted them to the holy work of the faith.

Oh, only if you would wake up, little army, little flock, you flock which are scattered and confused on the hill, into the mountain and in the plains, walking to and fro not grazed and not healed or bandaged at your wound!

Oh, Orthodox Christians, keep your temper, sons, as there is persecution upon you. You need refuge, you need salvation and you need comfort, and no one gives you these from those who call themselves bishops and priests of the Orthodox flock; but, on the contrary, they rip you off from everything that you may earn for those that you need for your days on earth.

Oh, sons, I have great mercy on you, little sheep without a shepherd! I am coming from heaven to give you comfort, to give you faith in Me and power to follow Me, because your faith has to be like that of the holy fathers, oh, sons, and not like that of those from today who call themselves your fathers. I am coming as word on earth and I am calling out to you: Come after Me! I am singing My mourning song behind you and I am calling you to the spring to drink. I am playing My little flute, I am playing gently and I keep on calling you: Come to Me, come to the spring. I will give you rest, I will give you milk to grow and to be My sons! Oh, pray to the Lord and to your holy fathers, so that they may save the Christian flock from the enemies clothed in skins of sheep and in garments of sheep shepherds. Pray with mourning because it is a time with great errancy from the truth. Open the ordinances of the saints and seek into them to see how much those have been violated, and wake up to watch, because those who call themselves shepherds do not watch upon you, oh, sons, and pride is their pillow of rest and their craving for glory.

Oh, come to your senses, you, those who are forsaken, and listen to My song, which is calling you gently! I am your Shepherd, I am from heaven, I am coming from heaven after you and I am calling you to the well to give you, and I am coming after you with water as well. Behold how I am coming to give you. Receive and drink, and do not give up to perdition, because the time is hidden and it is coming with the testing of your faith so that you may deny without knowing that you are denying. I, the Lord, am not going to leave you. I am going to shepherd you, I am going to call you out, I am going to give you in order to wake you up always and I am going to sing affectionately from My little flute and then when you hear this take and eat from heaven and stand firm on the rock, sons, and keep away from the sin of the faith denial, for I help you. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, peace to those who hear the voice of My word in order to share it over the flock, which has been heavily tested for its faith during this time! Oh, peace to you, people of My word! Let us pray to the Father for the holy faith in people and for the protection of the Father over those who are good and faithful. You are My disciples. I am relying on you, I am working with your faith over the earth, and I always call out by this spring and I call out everywhere and over everyone: Peace to you!

In the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I have spoken My word over My church on a day of memorial of the right faith and I have rested speaking, for My rest is the work that I have been fulfilling on earth.

And as for you, dear disciples, give My word further; preach it from margins to margins, for you are My help on earth, you are My support and the support of My saints, oh, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

(Excerpt)

Oh, what a great wonder would rise from the earth to heaven if the whole Christian people, all the baptized people, wanted not to violate but observe he fasting days with holiness, everything that I, the Lord, have set for the people on earth by the saints! Oh, the people's disobedience presses hard on Me, but I call them and remind them of My holy law for the Christians and I tell them that there are four fasting periods in one year, and they have to be observed and fulfilled with fear and awe, for otherwise it is not well on earth. There has been no nation on earth to go well with it when it has not kept into account the ordinations coming down from heaven for the Christian people in order to be kept so that I, the Lord, may dwell with them and help them because of their obedience. Any trouble, any threatening, any kind of things or devilish invasion go to the winds if their fasting and praying added to it are brought before the Lord according to their ordination, for I spoke to everyone: «Pray incessantly!»

The fourth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout John of the Ladder and the feast of the holy forty martyrs from Sebaste

With great longing I am putting down My word into the book and the more of My speaking, the more My longing grows to speak and I am full of longing and full of word of longing. Oh, and I want My word to be desired by many to the same extent because I want many to eat of it and to keep their soul in heaven, as I, the Lord, keep Mine on earth after each man, after each soul, and I would also like with longing to be the love of God on earth, and the love of those who love to remain in heaven, for the heaven is the homeland of love because there it is gathered, there it gathers for those who love. Oh, happy are those who have the Lord as their love, for only this love keeps its everlasting fruit; only it can bring to man the whole joy, which will remain as a dear reward for those who love the Lord.

I am writing down My word into the book, My love for man. He who loves Me waits for Me; he seeks Me, he finds Me and he keeps Me for him, his love, and he who does not love Me does not seek after Me and stays far, far from Me in his desire, and I know that man is weak without God in his mind, in his heart, and I want to be found and then sought by man, for the life without God has no path, and it goes only through the thorns.

Once with this day of Sunday, the fourth from the Lent, and once with the church memorial of the saint and devout John of the Ladder, according to name he received for the revelation left on earth of the spiritual ascent, which he called it ladder, and behold, on this very day the synod of the suffering martyrs in the lake of Sebaste, those, who, after three hundred years from My resurrection, confessed the Lord as the Master of their souls, for they were required by rulers of the Roman army to give an answer and to choose between Christ and the honors of the Roman soldiers, and they chose the Lord and the confessing sufferance with a great echo because they endured for their faith, for their choice, and were fully praised for their love.

Oh, how much has been laid down at the foundation of My church to be in men then! Oh, how many martyrs have showed over time that God is above all that man can receive, oh, and how little faith on earth is, how little search after the Lord in man is! Behold what the lack of wisdom does! People perish one by one because of the lack of wisdom. He who does not have fear of God that one has no master as well, he has no hope, no protection and passes naked in time, he passes as he has never been, but the name of those who love the Lord confessing Him, remain as great names, names praised in heaven and on earth, and their memorial is eternal as there is their heavenly life after that.

I am glad and I get comforted when I speak My word and when it is shared, wanted and loved, then I rejoice very much and I comfort My longing, and My saints rejoice under the glory of My word when I come with them to speak and to be set into the book in order to the shared and confessed then.

Oh, people on earth, listen to the voice of My word, before which the heavenly armies go, that make My glory and work. Oh, come near and listen, for the Lord is speaking to you. I want to rebuke you gently because of your disobedience to the holy customs, as so few, oh, so few on earth choose to listen to God and to the saints, and during this time of six weeks dedicated to the Lord and to the soul of everybody and one should eat anything else but only Christian food, fasting[252] food, without oil and wine, and one should eat only bread, plums, seeds, Christian vegetables and only water is to be drunk. Oh, but you do not obey; many, too many of you do not want to obey, and by so doing you incur pains upon you because of your disobedience, oh, sons, and I, the Lord, suffer for you with mercy and I have mercy on you when you get into trouble, which you alone incur upon you, by violating the holy orders. Oh, how beautiful, how blessed a city would be, a nation, a country, if it were totally in favor for the observance of the holy customs, for the love of God, Who sacrificed Himself wholly for man! Oh, how beautiful would be the joy and then the life of those who would love together the Lord by their obedience to his holy ordinances! Behold, the lack of the fear of God brings about disobedience to God in men and then it brings about sufferance as well. Woe to the city without a counselor upon it, without guidance for the holy ways!

Oh, My Romanian country, your sons do not know why I have chosen you to be the citadel of My word in the end of the time. Everyone in you mind only their business, their wisdom without God, but I, the Lord, am in your midst full of word from heaven, and the writing of My word is beautiful, the greatest, the sweetest book ever written from all that have ever been and will be written, and very few in you seek Me, find Me and love Me to listen then to Me as to the Master of the heaven and the earth, to the One man should fear in order to be able to follow and obey.

Oh, My country of today, you have great election before Me and I want to embrace you within My love, within My word, and I am coming to you with the saints and I am becoming word on your table and I am giving you from My mouth. Oh, you have no shepherds, and the citadel that is not guided, is without power and wisdom, and it is filled with injustice. Oh, I have no one to call out to watch upon you, for there is no one to love the Lord, and behold, I am coming as the word of Shepherd on your heart and I want to come in to every house, only that it may be opened for Me. I am coming with heavenly garments for each soul and I am coming with holy food, too, with a sound mind and wisdom of mind, for whoever does persevere in the Lord, that one scatters any temptation from his way, for the Lord works and helps.

Oh, I suffer when you violate the holy ordinances, Romanian sons! Oh, an example of life is needed before a nation without life and without the guidance of a shepherd, but I, the Lord, am, I, Who laid down My life for each man, and man should take My example, as the today's celebrated disciples had the Lord as the path of their lives and did not follow those who were great and wicked of the earth, who wanted them to be separated from My love in them. Oh, behold, they had the Lord as their example into a faithful nation, and now they are trying to prattle with their baby words and their words are to be heard on earth, and I am making their entrance and I am blessing. Amen.

— Our speaking is one, Lord, for we were one in the frozen lake too, there where the ruler of the Roman army put us at the emperor's command, who persecuted Your Christians. Oh, we all were one, one single heart, one confession and love when we were questioned whether we remained for You or for the military honors, which we had, and our speaker answered that they could take even our bodies in exchange for the highest honor to belong to Christ, our Lord, but heir unbelief and pride were high, Lord, and they had not softened their heart, not even when the stones, which they threw at us, turned back and hit them to death, and then they put us in the frozen lake, with guards on the banks so that we might not run away, but our love for You was great, and then a heavenly light came and warmed the water and our bodies; however, we suffered so much when one of us came out and fell into the temptation set by our persecutors, and one of the guards took his place and that one received the fortieth crown together with us. Oh, but Your righteousness worked wonderfully and You told the bishop of the citadel to take us out from the water and to put us together to one place as some very shining pearls, as our bodies appeared in the water shining, and Your fatherly arms received us as a heavenly wealth, Lord, and we were written as Your confessors.

We are telling to all the Romanians, we are telling to all the Christians on earth to be steadfast for You, Lord, not for the people, as the bishop of the citadel in our time received the Lord for our confession; however, the bishops of today are preparing without knowing, without telling it, they are preparing the denial of the faith from the ancestors and the mixture of Your church with all kinds of churches that do not serve God, but only to their bodies and that is all.

Oh, Your pain for Your church is severe, Lord, and we, together with all the saints of today, remembered together with us, we are praying to You, the Good One, to make a revival over the Christian flock and to make it godly with Your word and to let it be known, Lord, to be holy watch for faith in each soul that does not want to forsake You for entering the mixture. Oh, if Your church remained with its name and kept it, then You would bring peace into the world. You would make great miracles on earth and on the people only for its steadfastness, for the Orthodox church does not have to be mingled with anything else but only with the saints from heaven, who have left over it on earth a holy path and holy watch for its observance.

And now with great humility, we thank You for the comfort that we have now on our day of synod among the saints and we give Your comfort, oh, Lord, for Your wounds are intense, and You heal many with them, all those that love You and undergo all kinds of temptations for the clarification of their love, which has to be tested. Oh, glory to You among Your saints, and may Your word have wide acceptance on earth among people, Lord. Amen.

— Oh, peace to you, beloved disciples! I, the Lord, am giving you comfort with My word, and I am giving comfort to John, too, who is remembered in the church according to the tradition left by the saints, and there he is blessing with My word and his work. Amen.

— Oh, Your work of today is great, Lord, and it is a great blessing on earth, and by my book I have showed the ascension that the Christians may climb towards You and all those who struggle to receive Your kingdom, and the holy fathers established me to be remembered in the time of the great Lent and to help with my writing the spiritual ascent for those who work hard, and I thank you from near the saints remembered today and I am asking You with great affection to quicken Your blessing Lord, Your fatherly watch and Your glory over the land and over the Romanian people, in whose midst we, Your saints, are nourished heavenly with the glory of Your word, which flows with so much love over Your people of today and then over the earth, like the river which overflows everywhere, Lord, so that You may have fruit, Your fruit trees to grow and Your fruit to multiply, and all things to be to the healing of the nations, my Lord, as it is written. Amen.

— I, the Lord, have before Me the prayers of the saints as frank incense with a sweet-smelling aroma, and I am working at your request and I am working hard, and I have the angels who fulfill My work and word.

Oh, Romanian people, your prayer and your fast keep you in My love, and you have to listen and help Me. Therefore, take care of the holy advice upon you and be afraid to violate it, for the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom and it leads to love and obedience, it also leads to holy power and victory against the temptations of every kind, for you need power, Romanian people, and I am telling you this so that you may know from where and from what it comes to you to have it after that.

Now, peace to you! I, the Lord, am with you on the way and I always give you much exhortation, and you seek, oh, seek to listen beautifully, as My way is beautiful and praised through your midst and so are the people serving to Me and to you from your midst as well. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God for the Romanian people - Sunday Resurrection

(Excerpt)

… O Romanian nation, Christ is risen! I, the Lord risen, I announce you the feast of the resurrection. I am with comfort and resurrection. I am with the spirit of peace, sharing it of. Oh, you need to be good, be good and faithful to my coming to you and to my message for you, I wish you to be so. Oh, do not doubt my resurrection from the dead, do not be cool for My resurrection, for the dead saints they have raised with me and went into the holy city, and proclaimed the Lord, who has given them their resurrection day. I pray to my Father in this feast day of Resurrection, I pray into your midst, of thy hearth I pray to Him to help you do My will on earth among the nations, for those who drink and eat and smoke fornication and are stealing and lie and do all those against God and their lives, those are not doing my will not even in the day of the feast of My Resurrection and go to and fro on the earth, and they are looking for fresh parties and they are not going to a sacred office to praise Him for all the gifts the Lord descended from Heaven upon them: sun, light, wind, water, food, and comfort and all in one: love of God for man.

Oh, the people, they do not give Him praise and thanksgiving for keeping heaven and earth in the palm of His own, but they give each other praise and do not know any authority over them, and woe to them without their protection! O Romanian children, be watchfull to My request to you and listen to it. Share this Word of Mine, my sons, give it to each other, and nourish yourself with the spirit of resurrection and love, because every man is in need of resurrection from sin, even though he knows not, that he is not living, but he is in great need of resurrection from his sin. I spoke before My crucifixion and before My resurrection, and I said clearly that there is Heaven and hell, and I told the thief who comforted Me from the right hand cross against the other chief from the left hand cross, who defame Me , I told him that comforted Me and prayed Me for him, „Today thou shalt be with me in paradise!". I went to hell after the crucifixion, I went to hell and I raised the saints and they went before me in Jerusalem witnesses corroborated with plain evidence, and I did shown by them that there is heaven and hell and between the two there is The One Who is risen.

Here it is, I Am again coming on the earth, and I do say to thee, Romanian nation, and I speak to you now and ask you to be faithful to the Lord Who speaks to you and asks you to proclaim Him, that He comes to you and He guides you and He is calling you to the spirit of love of God, so you will resemble your God on earth. I`d like to teach you how to love your Lord. First you need kindness and a beautiful proof of good spirit and goodness work, and you must show fruits of this work. O, you need pity, not judgment for others, and for this you need tenderness. The tenderness keep the soul warm like a mother on her fruit, of her child, wand she watches him with love. O, you need to be spotless Romanian son. Whenever the sin is aiming at you to catch you, you need to be with your longing and love for Him who died and rose again for you to have life and resurrection and comfort, and do not go into sin when is aiming at you, for payment for sin is tough when it will come, because it often either diminish the strength of man, or it tightens the man.

Here, you can learn from Me how to love your God, My Romanian sun, and do not forget about the one who teaches you, do not forget me if you were standing in front of someone who would tell you that there is not any God at the Pucioasa (The town of The New Jerusalem Monastery) and that The Word of God is a lie, and, on the contrary, you need to show by the example of your new life and manners, that God has power over human sin for resurrection from sin ,there at Pucioasa, from where it is coming His voice to sow the earth with His word, following every man with His Word to give him comfort and resurrection.

O, how could I do, to not speak with you, for so long time (60 years of Word of God 1955-2015 r.n.), Romanian people, Romanian son? How could I not speak apart with you when I prepared a warm stall in your midst to give birth to My Word, the same way I did with Moses over his tent, to give to Israel my Word? Oh, I want to make you a people strong among peoples, but by love for God and for all the people you will be strong, and such a nation is not to be defeated, a nation which is taken by hand by The Lord in any storms.

Oh, I`m mourning of those who rule over you with injustice, with unbelief, with unwisdom and who have no love for their God and their Country, I`m mourning for them Romanian people! Oh, so many times I cried over you to wake you in bad and stormy weather, and so I call and you now, in this feast day of Resurrection: rise up and find a way to change the people who are leading over you, change those who do not love my country, but only spend their parties and take for their pleasure from the country`s wealth. O, pray to Me to fall off their chair all those who are wrong and are leave there with unwashed hands. Let us be united in our work and put in place justice and mercy and forgiveness and peace and good order as in heaven! Oh rise up, Romanian nation, and find those among you who have a fine spirit, those who see and understand, and you seek to be worthy of your captains from among you, for woe to the city that does not have rulers over it, but looters!

Oh, it`s much injustice all over in your midst, Romanian nation! Oh, rise up and see what you can do with all your fate, because you do not have watchmen over you now for your life, oh you have no more, and much injustice is streaming down from the leading party all over the country. Oh, wake up and see that`s not good. Oh, shoot the bell to be heard so you would not be pulled into the darkness by all those who are sitting up on their chairs just for their own wellness and honor, and you no longer have pity watchmen over you now, oh, do not have and I want to help you and to lead you, because it hurts Me to know you under leading hands who keep all of you under their will. Oh, it is no longer at the helm the one who loves his country and his people with fire in thy heart , lovingly and carefully watching over the fate of this country, from that time your face is like you are in jail, O my land of today, and what hurts Me is that you shut up and you are not waking up for your liberation from under those who do not have mercy on you and have not any love to do in your country harmony, because they have only the spirit of pride and carelessness and do not care for their country. Oh, rise up and do a work for rescuing work and seek a seek a guide over you, but seek it so you can find it, looking from place to place, and should be no place without a guidence over them the Romanian children. Here, it cannot be merged into a single spirit, all those who are leading you, but if they cannot be one, can they do unto you any good? Oh, they cannot do to you any good, for some of them do care only for their seats, while others would like to take the chairs for them, and that`s not how the power is working, but otherwise, and behold, pray God to seek help for you, Romanian nation.

O dear Father in Heaven, please be looking for pityingly rulers of this country and for the Romanian people and for the nation, for the children of this generation are now enslaved by those without love of country, but please Father Your work I ask now, and make light and goodness over Romanian nation. Amen.

In the feast day of Resurrection, I, the Lord risen, I searched into the spirit of the Romanian people to excite and awake the nation, because the pain is going up to heaven from those who were seated now to rule over the Romanian country without love for this nation and this blessed land, and is needed that I The Lord to work for the fate of this nation, for I have this earth and this nation in My Heavenly plan, and I work my word coming down on this hearth.
